Ararat, Menni, and Aſcanez, agaynſt her, ſet the prince agaynſt her, bryng as great a ſort of terrible horſes agaynſt her, as if they were graſhoppers.

E 28 Prepare agaynſt them the people of the Medes, with their kynges, princes, and al their chiefe rulers: yea and the whole lande that is vnder hym.

29 The lande alſo ſhal ſhake, and be afrayde when the deuice of the Lorde ſhal comme foorth agaynſt Babylon, to make the lande of Babylon ſo waſte, that no man ſhal dwel any more therein.

30 The woorthies of Babylon ſhal leaue the batayle, & keepe them ſelues in ſtrong holdes, their ſtrength hath fayled them, they ſhalbe lyke women, their dwellyng places ſhalbe burnt vp, their barres ſhalbe broken.

31 One purſeuant ſhal meete another, yea one poſte ſhal comme by another, to bryng the kyng of Babylon tydynges that his citie is taken on euery ſyde, 32 The foordes occupied, the fennes burnt vp, and the ſouldiers ſore afrayde.

33 For thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, (e) The daughter of Babylon hath benne in her tyme lyke as a threſhyng floore, but ſhortly ſhal her harueſt comme.

(e) The complaynt of gods people.

34 Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon hath deuoured & deſtroyed me, he hath made me an emptie veſſel, he ſwalowed me vp like a dragon, and fylled his belly with my delicates, he hath caſt me out.

F 35 My ſubſtance wherof he hath ſpoyled me, and the thyng that was left me, whiche he hath caried away, crie out againſt Babylon, ſayth the daughter that dwelleth in Sion, yea and my blood alſo againſt the Chaldees, ſayth Hieruſalem.

36 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde I wyl defende thy cauſe, and auenge thee, I wyl drinke vp her ſea, and drye vp her water ſpringes.

Eſai.12.c. 37 *Babylon ſhal become an heape of ſtones, a dwellyng place for dragons, a fearefulneſſe and woonderyng, and no man ſhal dwelle there.

38 They ſhal roare togeather lyke lions, and as the young lions when they be angry, ſo ſhal they bende them ſelues.

39 In their heate I ſhal geue them a dinner, and they ſhalbe drunken for ioy: * then ſhal they ſleepe an euerlaſtyng ſleepe, and neuer wake, ſayth the Lorde.

Iere.ij.b

40 I ſhal carie them downe to be ſlayne like ſheepe, lyke weathers and goates:

41 O howe was Seſach wonne? O howe was the glorie of the whole land taken? how happeneth it that Babylon is ſo woondred at among the Heathen?

42 The ſea is riſen ouer Babylon, and hath couered her with her great waues.

43 Her cities are layde waſte, the lande lyeth vnbuilded and voyde, it is a lande where no man dwelleth, & where no man trauayleth through.

44 Moreouer, I wil viſite Bel at Babylon, & the thyng that he hath ſwalowed vp, that ſame ſhal I plucke out of his mouth: the Gentiles alſo ſhal runne no more vnto hym, yea and the walles of Babylon ſhal falle.

Iere.i.a
Eſai.46.a
Dan.14.d.

45 O my people, * comme out of Babylon, that euery man may ſaue his lyfe from the fearful wrath of the Lorde.

Eſai.52.b
2.Cor.6.c.

46 Be not faynt harted, and feare not at euery rumoure that ſhalbe hearde in the lande: for euery yeere bryngeth newe tydynges, and in the yeere followyng newe tydynges, and robbyng in the lande, and lorde vpon lorde. G

47 And loe the tyme commeth that I wyl viſite the images of Babylon, and the whole lande ſhalbe confounded, yea and her ſlayne ſhal lye in the middeſt of her.

48 Heauen & earth, with al that is therin, ſhal reioyce ouer Babylon, when the deſtroyers ſhal comme vpon her from the North, ſayth the Lorde.

49 *Lyke as Babylon hath beaten downe, and ſlayne many out of Iſrael, ſo ſhal there fal many, and be ſlayne in al her kyngdome. Iere.l.c

50 Ye that haue eſcaped the ſwoord, haſt you, ſtand not ſtil, remember the Lorde a farre of, and thinke vpon Hieruſalem.

51 For we are aſhamed to heare the blaſphemies, our faces were couered with ſhame, becauſe the ſtrange aliantes came into the ſanctuarie of the Lorde.

52 Wherefore, beholde ſayth the Lorde, The tyme commeth that I wyl viſite the images of Babylon, & through the whole lande they ſhal mourne and falle.

53 * Though Babylon clymed vp into heauen, and kept her power on hygh, yet ſhal I ſende her deſtroyers, ſayth the Lorde. Iere.49.d.

54 A piteous crie [ſhalbe hearde] from Babylon, and a great miſerie from the lande of the Chaldees:

55 When the Lord deſtroyeth Babylon, and when he driueth out the hygh ſtomacke and proude boaſtyng, wherwith they haue benne as furious as the waues of the great water fluddes, and made great crakes with their woordes:

56 For the deſtroyers ſhal comme vpon her, euen vpon Babylon, whiche ſhal take their woorthies, and breake their bowes: for the God of recompence, euen the Lorde ſhal ſufficiently recompence them.

57 Yea [ſayth the Lorde] I wyl make their princes, their wyſe menne, their chiefe rulers, their nobles, and their woorthies, drunken, ſo that they ſhal ſleepe an euerlaſting ſleepe, and neuer wake: thus ſayth the kyng, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes.

58 Moreouer, thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes, The thicke wal of Babylon ſhalbe broken, and her hygh gates ſhalbe burnt vp, and the thyng that the Gentiles and the people haue wrought with great trauayle and labour, ſhal comme to nought, and be conſumed in the fyre.

59 This is the charge that Ieremie the prophete gaue vnto Saraiah the ſonne of Neriah, the ſonne of Maaſiah, when he went toward Babylon with Zedekiah the kyng of Iuda, in the fourth yeere of his raigne: nowe this Saraiah was a peaceable prince.

60 Ieremie wrote in a booke al the miſerie that ſhould comme vpon Babylon, yea and al theſe ſermons that be wrytten agaynſt Babylon,

61 And gaue Saraiah this charge: When thou commeſt vnto Babylon, ſee that thou reade theſe woordes, 62 And ſay, O Lorde, thou art determined to roote out this place, ſo that neither people nor cattel ſhal dwelle there any more, but to lye waſte for euer.

63 And when thou haſt read out the booke, bynde a ſtone to it, and caſt it in the middeſt of Euphrates,

64 And ſay, Euen thus ſhal Babylon ſincke, and be thruſt downe with the burthen of trouble that I wyl bryng vpon her: ſo that ſhe ſhal neuer comme vp againe. Thus farre are the preachynges of Ieremie.

The.lij.Chapter.

1 He repeateth the taking of Zedekiah. 4 Hieruſalem is taken of the Chaldees. 10 Zedekiahs ſonnes are kylled before his face, and his eyes put out. 13 The citie is burned. 14 The temple is ſpoyled and robbed. 25 They that were leaſt in Hieruſalem are caryed to Babylon. 31 King Iehoakim is brought foorth of priſon, and fed lyke a kyng.

A 1 4.Re.24.d 2.Par.36.b ZEdekiah was * one and twentie yeeres olde when he was made kyng, and raigned eleuen yeeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name was Hamutal, Ieremies daughter of Libna.

2 He lyued wickedly before the Lord, euen as Iehoakim dyd:

3 For the Lorde was angry at Hieruſalem & Iuda, ſo long tyl he had caſt them out of his preſence: and Zedekiah felle from the kyng of Babylon.

Iere.39.a 4.Re.25.a 4 *But in the nienth yeere of his raigne, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of yͤ moneth, it happened that Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, with al his hoſt, came before Hieruſalem, and beſieged it, and made bulwarkes rounde about it.

5 And this beſiegyng of the citie, endured vnto the eleuenth yeere of kyng Zedekiah.

4.Re.25.a Iere.27.b and.39.a 6 * And in the fourth moneth, the nienth day of the moneth, there was a great hunger in the citie, that there were no more victuals for the people of the lande.

B 7 So al the ſouldiers brake away, and fledde out of the citie by nyght through the way of the port, betwene the two walles by the kinges garden: (Nowe the Chaldees had compaſſed the citie rounde about) yet went theſe menne their way through the wyldernesse.

8 And ſo the Chaldees folowed vpon them, and tooke Zedekiah the kyng in the feelde of Iericho, when his hoſt was runne from hym.

9 So they caryed the kyng away priſoner to Reblath, vnto the kyng of Babylon, in the land of Hemath, *where he gaue iudgement vpon hym. Iere.39.b

10 The kyng of Babylon alſo cauſed Zedekiahs ſonnes to be ſlayne before his face, yea and put al the princes of Iuda to death at Reblath.

11 Moreouer, he put out yͤ eyes of Zedekiah, & cauſed him to be bound with two chaines, to be caryed vnto Babylon, and let hym lye in priſon tyl he dyed.

12 Nowe the tenth day of the fyfth moneth, in the ninetienth yeere of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne, and the king Babylons ſeruantes, came vnto Hieruſalem, 13 And burnt vp the houſe of the Lorde: he burnt vp alſo the kynges palace, al the houſes, and al the gorgeous buildinges in Hieruſalem.

14 And the whole hoſt of the Chaldees that were with the chiefe captayne, brake downe al the walles of Hieruſalem rounde about. C

15 As for the poore people, and ſuche folke as was yet left in the citie, which alſo were fallē to the kyng of Babylon, yea & what people as yet remayned, Nabuzaradan, the chiefe captayne, caried them away priſoners.

16 But the poore people of the countrey dyd Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine leaue in the lande, to occupie the vineyardes and fieldes.

17 The Chaldees alſo brake the braſen pillers that were in the houſe of the Lorde, yea the ſeate and the braſen lauer that was in the houſe of the Lorde, and caried al the mettal of them vnto Babylon.

18 They tooke away alſo the Chaldeans, ſhouels, fleaſhhookes, ſprinklers, ſpoones, and al the braſen veſſels that was occupyed in the ſeruice,

19 With the baſons, cole pannes, ſprinklers, pottes, candleſtickes, ſpoones, and cuppes, wherof ſomme were of golde, and ſomme of ſiluer:

20 The chiefe captayne tooke alſo the two pillers, the lauer, the twelue braſen bullockes that ſtoode vnder the ſeate* which king Solomon made in the houſe of the Lorde: and al the veſſels conteyned ſo muche mettal that it myght not be wayed. 3.Reg.7.d.

D 21 For euery pyller was eyghteene cubites hygh, and the rope that went about it was twelue cubites, and foure fingers thicke, and rounde.

22 Now vpon the rope were braſen knoppes, and euery knoppe was fiue cubites hygh, and vpon the knoppes were hoopes, & poumgranates rounde about, of cleane braſſe.

23 After this manner were both the pyllers faſhioned with the poumgranates, whereof there were an hundred ninetie and ſixe, which hanged vpon the hoopes rounde about.

24 The chiefe captayne alſo tooke Saraiah the hye prieſt, & Sophoniah that was chiefe next him, and the three keepers of the doore:

25 He tooke out of the citie a chamberlayne whiche was captayne of the ſouldiers, and ſeuen menne that were the kinges ſeruantes, which were founde in the citie: and Sopher a captayne that vſed to muſter the menne of warre, with threeſcore menne of the countrey that were taken in the citie:

26 These Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne tooke, and caryed them to the king of Babylon vnto Reblath:

27 And the king of Babylon cauſed them to be put to death at Reblath, in the lande of Hemath: And thus Iuda was ledde away captiue out of his owne lande.

28 This is the ſumme of the people whom Nabuchodonoſor led away captiue: in the ſeuenth yeere of his raigne he caryed away of the Iewes three thouſand twentie and three, E

29 In the eyghteenth yeere Nabuchodonoſor caried away from Hieruſalem eight hundred thirtie and two perſons,

30 In the three and twentie yeere of Nabuchodonoſor, Nabuzaradan ye chiefe captayne tooke away ſeuen hundred fourtie and fyue Iewes, priſoners. The whole ſumme of the priſoners is foure thouſande, & ſixe hundred.

31 In the thirtie & ſeuenth yeere after that Iehoakim the king of Iuda was caried away, in the fiue & twentieth day of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach kyng of Babylon (the ſame yeere that he raigned) gaue Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda his pardon, and let hym out of priſon, 32 And ſpake louyngly to hym, and ſet his throne aboue the thrones of the other kinges that were with hym in Babylon.

33 He changed alſo the clothes of his priſon, yea and dyd eate with hym al his lyfe long.

34 And he had a continual liuing geuen him of the kyng of Babylon, euery day a certaine thyng alowed hym, al the dayes of his lyfe, vntyl he dyed.

The firſt Chapter.

1 It happened after Iſrael was brought into captiuitie, and Hieruſalem deſtroyed, that Ieremie the prophete ſate weepyng, and ſorowfully bewayled Hieruſalem, and ſyghyng and howlyng with an heauie and woful hart, ſayde,

A 1 ALas howe ſitteth the citie ſo deſolate, that ſometyme was ful of people: howe is ſhe become lyke a wydowe* whiche was great among nations: howe is ſhe brought vnder tribute that ruled landes: 2.Reg.4.d 4.Re.15.2.

2 Shee weepeth ſore in the nyght, ſo that the teares runne downe her cheekes: for among al her louers, there is none that geueth her any comfort, *yea her next friendes trãſgreſſe agaynſt her, and are become her enimies. Iob.vi.b.

3 Iuda went away by reaſon of the affliction and great bondage: ſhe dwelleth among the Heathen, ſhe fyndeth no reſt, al they that perſecuted her, tooke her in ſtrayte places [where ſhe coulde not eſcape.]

4 The ſtreates of Sion mourne, becauſe no man commeth no more to the ſolempne feaſtes: al her gates are deſolate, her prieſtes make lamentation, her maydens are careful, and ſhe her ſelfe is in great heauineſſe.

Iere.lij.e

6 Al the beautie of the daughter of Sion is away, her princes are become lyke hartes that finde no paſture, they are driuen away before their enimie, ſo yͭ they haue no more power.

B 7 Nowe Hieruſalem remembred in the time of her miſerie and bare eſtate, al her ioy & pleaſure that ſhe hath had in times paſt, ſeing her people is brought downe vnder the power of their enimies, and there is no man for to helpe her: her enimies ſtande looking at her, and laugh her Sabboth dayes to ſcorne.

8 Hieruſalem hath ſinned greuouſly, therfore is ſhe comme in decay: al they that had her in honour, deſpiſe her, for they haue ſeene her fylthineſſe, yea ſhe ſigheth and ″ is aſhamed of her ſelfe.

9 Her ſkirtes are defyled, ſhe remembred not her laſt ende, therefore is her falle ſo woonderful, and there is no man to comfort her: O Lorde, conſyder my trouble, for myne enimie hath the vpper hande.

10 The enimie hath put his hande to al the pretious thinges that ſhe had, yea euen before her eyes came the Heathen in and out of the ſanctuarie, *whom thou [neuertheleſſe] haſt forbidden to come within thy congregation.

Deut.23.c

11 *Al her people ſeeke their bread with heauineſſe, and looke what pretious thyng euery man hath, that geueth he for meate to ſaue his life: Conſyder, O Lorde, and ſee how vile I am become.

Treno.2.c

12 Haue ye no regarde al ye that goe foreby, beholde and ſee if there be any ſorowe like vnto myne, wherewith the Lorde hath troubled me in the day of his fearful wrath.

13 From aboue hath he ſent downe a fire into my bones, & it burneth them cruelly: he hath layde a net for my feete, & throwen me wyde open, he hath made me deſolate, ſo that I muſt euer be mournyng.

14 The (a) yoke of my tranſgreſſions is bound faſt to his hand, thei are wrapped [or writhen] and comme vp about my necke: he hath cauſed my ſtrength to fayle, the Lorde hath deliuered me into thoſe handes whereout I cannot quite mee ſelfe. C

(a) The bondage through ſinne is moſt greeuous, which therefore is called the yoke of ſinnes, faſtened in or to Gods hande, becauſe by no meanes it can be ſhaken of or remitted, but onely of Gods ſpecial grace and mercie.

15 The Lorde hath deſtroyed al the myghtie menne that were in me, he hath proclaymed an appoynted tyme to ſlaughter al my beſt men: the lord hath troden downe the daughter of Iuda, lyke as it were in a winepreſſe.

16 *Therefore doo I weepe, and myne eyes guſhe out of water: for the cõfort that ſhould quicken me, is farre fro me, my chyldren are driuen away: for why? the enimie hath gotten the vpper hande.

Iere.iiij.c.
Treno.ii.c

17 Sion caſteth out her handes, and there is no man to comfort her, the Lorde hath layde the enimies rounde about Iacob, & Hieruſalẽ is become abominatiõ in the middeſt of thẽ.

18 *The Lorde is ryghteous, for I haue prouoked his countenance vnto anger, O take heede al ye people, and conſyder my heauines, my maydens and my young menne are led away into captiuitie.

Dan,ix.a

19 I called for my louers, but they beguyled me, for my prieſtes and counſaylers, but they periſhed, euen whyle they ſought for meate to ſaue their lyues.

20 *Conſyder (O Lord) how I am troubled, my wombe is diſquieted, my hart turneth about in me, & I am ful of heauyneſſe, becauſe I rebelled ſtubbernly: the ſwoord hurteth me without, and within I am lyke vnto death.

Treno,ij,c

21 They heare my mournyng, but there is none that wyl comfort me: Al mine enimies haue hearde of my trouble, and are glad therof, becauſe thou haſt donne it: and thou haſt brought foorth the time which thou calledſt, when they alſo ſhalbe like vnto me. D

22 Let al their wickedneſſe comme before thee, & doo thou to them as thou haſt donne vnto me for al my treſpaſſes: for my ſorowe is very great, and my hart is heauy.

The.ii.Chapter,

A 1 ALas] *how hath the lorde darkened the daughter of Sion in his wrath? As for the honour of Iſrael, he hath caſt it downe frõ heauen vnto the earth, & he remembred not his owne (a) footeſtoole when he was angrie?

Treno.3.b

(a) By the footeſtoole is meant the temple of Hieruſalem.

2 The Lorde hath caſt out al the habitations of Iacob without any fauour, al the ſtrong places of the daughter of Iuda hath he brokẽ in his wrath, and throwen them downe to the grounde, her kyngdome and her princes hath he prophaned.

3 In the wrath of his indignation he hath broken al the[b] horne of Iſrael, he hath withdrawen his right hande from the enimie, yea a flambe of fire is kindled in Iacob, and hath conſumed vp al rounde about.

(b) The horne, that is, the power or ſtrength.

4 He hath bent his bowe like an enimie, he hath faſtened his ryght hande as an aduerſarie, and euery thyng that was pleaſaunt to ſee, he hath ſlayne: he hath powred out his wrath like a fire, into the tabernacle of the daughter of Sion.

5 The Lorde is become like as it were an enimie, he hath deuoured Iſrael, and al his palaces, yea al his ſtrong holdes hath he deſtroyed, & fylled the daughter of Iuda with much ſorowe and heauineſſe.

Iere.7.b. 6 *His tabernacle as a garden hath he deſtroyed, his ſolempne meetinges hath he put downe: the Lord hath brought it ſo to paſſe, that the hye ſolempne feaſtes and Sabbothes in Sion are cleane forgotten: in his heauy diſpleaſure hath he diſpiſed the kyng and prieſtes.

B 7 The Lorde hath forſaken his owne aulter, and hath abhorred his owne ſanctuarie, and hath geuen the walles of their towres into the handes of the enimie: their enimies made a noyſe in the houſe of the Lorde, as it had ben in a ſolempne feaſt day.

8 The Lorde thought to breake downe the walles of the daughter of Sion, he ſpread out his line, and drewe not in his hande tyl he had deſtroyed them: therfore mourne the turrettes, and the broken walles fal downe together.

9 Her gates are ſuncke downe to the ground, her barres are broken and ſmitten in ſunder, Iere.52.b. *the kyng & princes are caryed away to the gentiles: they haue neither lawe nor prophetes, nor yet any viſion from the Lorde.

10 The ſenatours of the daughter Sion ſit vpon the ground in ſcilence, thei haue ſtrawed aſhes vpon their heads, and gyrded them ſelues with ſackcloth: the maydens of Hieruſalem hang downe their heades to the grounde.

11 Mine eyes begin to fayle me through weeping, Treno.1.a *my body is diſquieted, my liuer is powred vpon the earth, for the great hurt of the daughter of my people, ſeing the chyldren and babes dyd ſwowne in the ſtreetes of the citie.

12 Euen when they ſpake to their mothers, where is meate and drinke? for whyle they ſo ſayde, they fel downe in the ſtreetes of the citie, like as they had ben wounded, and ſome dyed in their mothers boſome.

13 What ſhal I ſay vnto thee, O thou daughter Hieruſalem? to whom ſhal I liken thee? To whom ſhal I compare thee, O thou daughter Sion, to comfort thee withal? thy harte is lyke a mayne ſea, who may heale thee?

14 *Thy[a] prophetes haue looked out vayne and fooliſh thinges for thee, they haue not ſhewed thee of thy wickedneſſe, to kepe thee from captiuitie: but they haue ſeene out for thee burthens of vanitie and baniſhment. C

Iere.5.d. 14.b.24.c. 27.b.and 29.b.

(a) The falſe prophetes tooke vpon them the name of ſeers, whiche was proper to the true prophetes: but their vayne burthens, that is, their falſe prophecies brought the people vnder the greeuous burthen of affliction and baniſhment.

15 Al they that go by thee, clappe their handes at thee, hiſſing and wagging their heades vpon the daughter Hieruſalem [and ſay] Is this the citie that mē cal ſo faire, wherein the whole lande reioyceth?

16 Al thyne enimies gape vpon thee, whiſpering and grinding their teeth, ſaying, Let vs deuour, for the tyme that we looked for is comme, we haue founde and ſeene it.

17 The Lorde hath fulfilled the thing that he was purpoſed to do, and performed that he had deuiſed long ago: he hath deſtroyed and not ſpared, he hath cauſed thyne aduerſarie to triumph ouer thee, and ſet vp the horne of thyne enimie.

18 *Their heart cryed vnto the Lorde, O Deut.4.c. thou citie of the daughter Sion: let thy teares runne downe lyke a riuer day and night, reſt not, and let not the apple of thyne eye leaue of.

19 Stand vp, and make thy prayer in the firſt watche of the night, powre out thyne hart like water before the Lord: lift vp thyne handes for the liues of thy young chyldren that dye of hunger in the ſtreetes.

20 Beholde, O Lorde, and conſyder to whom thou haſt done thus: Shal the women then eate their owne fruit, euen chyldrē of a ſpanne long? ſhal the prieſtes & prophetes be ſlayne in the ſanctuarie of the Lorde?

21 Young and olde lye thorowe the ſtreetes D vpon the grounde, my maydens and young men are ſlayne with the ſworde, whom thou in the day of thy wrathful indignation haſt put to death, yea euen thou haſt put them to death, and not ſpared them.

22 My neighbours that are round about me, haſt thou called as it were to a feaſt day, ſo that in the day of the lordes wrath none eſcaped, neither was any left behinde: thoſe that I haue brought vp & nouriſhed, hath myne enimie deſtroyed.

The

The.iii.Chapter.

A 1 I Am the man that thorowe the rodde of his wrath haue experience of miſerie.

2 He droue me foorth and led me, yea into darknes, but not into lyght.

3 Agaynſt me is he turned, he turneth his hande dayly agaynſt me.

4 My fleaſhe and my ſkinne hath he made olde, and my bones hath he bruiſed.

5 He hath buylded rounde about me, and cloſed me in with gal and trauayle.

6 He hath ſet me in darkneſſe, as they that be dead for euer.

B 7 He hath ſo hedged me in, that I can not geat out, and hath layde heauie linkes vpon me.

8 Though I crye and cal pitiouſly, yet heareth he not my prayer.

9 He hath ſtopped vp my wayes with foure ſquared ſtones, and made my pathes crooked.

10 He layeth wayte for me lyke a beare, and as a lion in a hole.

11 He hath marred my wayes, and broken me in peeces, he hath layde me waſte altogeather.

12 He hath bent his bowe, and made me as it were a marke to ſhoote at.

13 The arrowes of his quiuer hath he ſhot, euen vnto my reynes.

Iere. xx.b. 14 *I am laughed to ſcorne of al my people, they make ſonges vpon me al the day long.

C 15 He hath filled me with bitterneſſe, and geuen me woormewood to drynke.

16 He hath ſmitten my teeth in peeces with ſtones, and roulled me in the duſt.

17 He hath put my ſoule out of reaſt, I forgeat al good thynges.

18 I thought in mee ſelfe, I am vndonne, there is no hope for me in the Lorde.

19 O remember yet my miſerie and my trouble, the woormewood, and the galle.

20 Yea thou ſhalt remember them, for my ſoule melteth away in me.

21 While I cōſyder theſe thinges in my hart, I geat a hope agayne.

D 22 [Namely] it is of the Lordes mercies that we are not vtterly conſumed, for truely his pitiful compaſſion hath not ceaſſed.

23 Newe mercies ſhal the Lorde ſhew vpon thee early in the day ſpryngyng (O Lorde) great is thy faythfulneſſe.

Pſal.xvj.a. 24 *The Lord is my portion, ſaith my ſoule, therefore wyl I hope in hym.

25 O how good is the Lorde vnto them that put their truſt in hym, and to the ſoule that ſeeketh after hym.

26 The goodman with ſtilneſſe and pacience, tarieth for the health of the Lorde.

27 O howe good is it for a man to take the yoke vpon hym from his youth vp?

28 He ſitteth alone, he holdeth hym ſtyl, becauſe he hath taken [the Lordes yoke] vpon hym.

29 He layeth his face vpon the earth, if there happen to be any hope.

30 He offreth his cheeke to the ſmiter, he wyl be content with reprooffes: E

31 For the Lorde wyl not forſake for euer.

32 *But though he pouniſhe, yet accordyng to the multitude of his mercies he receiueth to grace agayne. i.Reg.iij.b

33 For he dooth not plague willingly, and afflict the chyldren of menne,

34 To treade al the priſoners of the earth vnder his feete,

35 To moue the iudgement of man before the moſt hygheſt,

36 To condemne a man in his cauſe: the lorde hath not pleaſure in ſuche thynges.

37 What is he then that ſaith, There ſhoulde ſomme thyng be donne without the Lordes commaundement?

38 Out of the mouth of the moſt higheſt goeth not euyl and good?

39 Wherfore thē murmureth the liuing man? let hym murmure at his owne ſinne.

50 O Lorde, when wylt thou looke downe from heauen, and conſyder?

51 Myne eyes breaketh myne harte, becauſe of al the daughters of my citie.

52 Myne enimies hunted me out ſharply lyke a byrde, yea and that without a cauſe.

53 They haue put downe my lyfe into a pyt, and they haue caſt ſtones vpon me.

54 They haue powred water vpon my head: then thought I, nowe am I vndonne.

55 I called vpon thy name, O Lorde, out of the deepe pit.

56 Thou haſt heard my voyce, and haſt not turned away thyne eares from my ſighing and cryeing.

57 Thou haſt inclined thee ſelfe vnto me whē I called vpon thee: and haſt ſayde, Feare not.

58 Thou (O Lorde) haſt maynteyned the cauſe of my ſoule, and haſt redeemed my lyfe.

59 O Lorde, thou haſt ſeene my wrong, take thou my cauſe vpon thee.

60 Thou haſt wel conſydered howe they goe about to doo me harme, & that al their counſels are againſt me.

61 Thou haſt hearde their deſpiteful woordes, O Lorde, yea and al the imaginations againſt me:

62 The lippes of mine enimies, & their deuiſes that they take againſt me al the day long.

63 Thou ſeeſt alſo their ſitting downe, and their riſing vp, they make their ſonges of nothing but of me.

64 Rewarde them, O Lorde, according to the woorkes of their handes.

65 Geue them an obſtinate hart, euen thy curſe.

66 Perſecute them, O Lorde, with thyne indignation, and roote them out from vnder the heauen.

The.iiii. Chapter.

A 1 O howe is the gold become ſo dimme? howe is the moſt fyne golde ſo ſoare changed? and the ſtones of the ſanctuarie thus ſcattered in the corner of euery ſtreete?

2 The chyldren of Sion that were alway in honour, and clothed with the moſt precious golde: howe are they nowe become lyke the earthen veſſels, whiche be made with the potters hande?

3 The dragons geue their young ones ſucke with bare breaſtes: but the daughter of my people is cruel, like the Eſtriches in the wilderneſſe.

4 The tongues of the ſucking chyldrē cleaue to the roofe of their mouthes for very thyrſt: the young chyldren aſke bread, but there is no man that geueth it them.

5 They that were woont to fare delicatelye, periſhe in the ſtreetes: they that afore were brought vp in purple, make nowe muche of doung.

6 The ſinne of the daughter of my people, is become greater thē the (a) wickedneſſe of Sodome, that ſuddenly was deſtroyed, and not taken with handes.

(a) The greeuouſnes of the puniſhment ſheweth their ſinnes to exceede the ſinnes of the Sodomites. The Sodomites were ſodainly conſumed with fire, but yͤ Iewes were miſerably tormented with hunger, peſtilence, and the ſworde, in a long and cruel ſiege.

15 But they cried vnto them, Flee ye polluted, away, geat you hence, touche not: for they are vncleane, and be remoued, yea they haue ſaid among the heathen, They ſhal no more dwel in this citie.

16 The countenance of the Lorde hath baniſhed them, and ſhal neuer looke more vpon them: for they them ſelues neyther regarded the prieſtes, nor pitied theyr elders.

17 Wherefore, yet our eyes fayled vs, whyles we looked for our vayne helpe, ſeeyng we euer wayted vpon a people that coulde doo vs no good.

18 They lay ſo ſharpe wayte for vs, that we can not goe ſafe vpon the ſtreetes, for our ende is comme, our dayes are fulfylled, our ende is here.

The prayer of Ieremie.

A 1 Call to remembrance (O Lorde) that we haue ſuffered, conſyder and ſee our confuſion.

The booke of the prophete Ezechiel.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The tyme wherein Ezechiel prophecied, and in what place. 3 His kinred. 5 The viſion of the foure beaſtes. 16 The faſhion and woorke of the wheeles. 26 The viſion of the throne.

A 1 IT came to paſſe in the (a) thirtieth yeere, in the fourth [moneth] in the fyfth day of the moneth, that (I beyng in the middes of the captiuitie, by the riuer Chebar) the heauens were opened, and I ſawe viſions of God:

2 In the fifth [day] of the moneth, which was the fifth yeere of king Ioakins captiuitie,

3 The woorde of the Lorde came to Ezechiel the prieſt, the ſonne of Buzi, in the lande of the Chaldeans by the riuer Chebar, *where the (b) hande of the Lorde was vpon hym.

4 And I looked, and beholde a (c) ſtormie winde came out of the north, a great cloude, and a fyre foldyng it ſelfe [in the cloude] and a bryghtneſſe rounde about it, and foorth of the middes therof as the colour of amber out of the middes of the fyre.

5 And out of the middes thereof, the lykeneſſe of foure (d) beaſtes [appeared] and this was theyr fourme, they had the lykeneſſe of a man.

6 And euery one had foure faces, and euery one of them had foure wynges.

B 7 Their feete were ſtraight feete, and the ſole of theyr feete lyke the ſole of calues feete, and they gliſtered as the appearance of braſſe burniſhed.

8 From vnder theyr wynges vpon al the foure corners they had mennes handes: and they foure had theyr faces and theyr winges.

9 Theyr winges were ioyned one to another: when they went they looked not backe, but eche one went ſtraight forwarde.

10 But [touching] the ſimilitude of theyr faces, they foure had the (e) face of a man, and the face of a Lion on the ryght ſide, and they foure had the face of an oxe on the leaft ſyde, the foure alſo had the face of an Eagle.

11 Thus were their faces, and theyr wynges were ſpread out aboue, ſo that two wynges of euery one were ioyned one to another, and two wynges couered euery one of theyr bodies.

12 Euery one went ſtraight forward: (f) whither as the ſpirite ledde them, thyther they went, and returned not in theyr goeyng.

13 And the faſhion of the beaſtes, their appearance was like coales of fyre, burning lyke the appearance of creſſettes, it ranne among the beaſtes, and the fyre gaue a gliſter, and out of the fyre there went lyghtnyng.

14 And the beaſtes ranne, and returned lyke lyghtnyng. C

15 And when I had conſydered the beaſtes, beholde a wheele vpon the earth nygh to the beaſtes, to euery of the foure before his face.

16 The faſhion and woorke of the wheeles was lyke the colour of (g) Tharſis, and they foure had one faſhion, and theyr faſhion and theyr woorke [was] as though it were a wheele in the middle of a wheele.

17 When they went, they went vpon theyr foure ſydes: they returned not backe when they went.

13 They had (h) rynges, and heigth, and were fearefull to beholde: and theyr rynges were ful of eyes rounde about them foure.

19 When the beaſtes went, the wheeles went alſo by them: & when the beaſtes were lift vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyft vp.

20 Whyther ſo euer the ſpirite [was] to goe, they went, and thyther [was] the ſpirite to goe, & the wheeles were lift vp before them: for the ſpirite of the beaſtes were in the wheeles.

21 When the beaſtes went, they went, and when they ſtoode, they ſtoode, & when they were lyfted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyfted vp before them, for the ſpirite of the beaſtes was in the wheeles. D

22 And the ſimilitude of the firmament vpon the heades of the beaſtes was like the colour of chriſtal, woonderful, ſpread ouer theyr heades aboue.

23 And vnder the firmament theyr wynges were ſtretcht foorth one towardes another, euery one had two couering them, and (i) euery one had two couerying them, [euen] theyr bodyes.

24 And when they went, I hearde the noyſe of theyr wynges, lyke the noyſe of great waters, as it had ben the voyce of the almightie, the voyce of ſpeache, as the noyſe of an hoſt:

When

(a) After the Iubilee, in whiche yeere the booke of the lawe was found, whiche was the .xviii. yeere of Ioſiah, ſo that .xv. yeeres after this boke was found, Iechoniah was led away captiue with Ezechiel (and many of the people) who the fift yere after ſaw theſe viſions.

Eze.3.d. and.37.a.

(b) That is, the ſpirite of prophesie.

(c) By this diuerſitie of woordes, he ſignifieth the fearefull iudgements of god, and the great afflictions that ſhoulde comme vpon Hieruſalem.

(d) Whiche were the foure Cherubims that repreſented the glory of God, as Eze.3.d.

(e) Euery Cherub had foure faces, the face of a man and of a Lion on the ryght ſyde, and the face of a bullocke and of an Eagle on the leaft ſyde.

(f) Whyther theyr wyl or mynde was to goe.

(g) That is, a pretious ſtone of a goodly colour, thought to be the Thurkis.

(h) The vtter cōpaſſe of the wheeles, whiche ſomme cal ſtrakes.

(i) He noteth two manner of couerynges, the one with winges, ſtretched vpward to couer theyr faces, and the other with the neather winges to couer theyr bodies.

whē they ſtoode, they let downe their wings.

25 And there was a noyſe from aboue the firmament that was ouer theyr heades: When they ſtoode, they let downe theyr wynges.

26 And aboue the firmament that was ouer their heades, there was yͤ faſhion of a throne like a Saphir ſtone, and vpon the ſimilitude of the throne by appearance, as the ſimilitude of a man aboue vpon it.

27 And I ſawe as the appearance of amber [and] as the ſimilitude of fyre rounde about within, from the appearance of his loynes vpwarde: and from the appearance of his loynes downewarde, I ſawe as the likeneſſe of fyre, and bryghtneſſe rounde about it.

28 As the likeneſſe of a bowe that is in a cloud in a raynie day, ſo was the appearance of the bryghtneſſe rounde about: this was the appearance of the ſimilitude of the glory of God, and when I ſawe it, I (k) fel vpon my face, and hearkened vnto the voyce of one (l) that ſpake.

(k) Conſydering the maieſtie of God, & the weakeneſſe of the fleaſhe.
(l) That is, the Lorde.

The.ii.Chapter.

The prophete is ſent to cal the people from theyr errour.

A 1 AND then ſayde he vnto me, Stande vp vpon thy feete (O thou ſonne of man) and I wyl talke with thee.

2 And the ſpirite entred into me when he had ſpoken vnto me, and ſet me vpon my feete, ſo that I hearde hym that ſpake vnto me.

3 And he ſayd vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, I ſende thee to the chyldren of Iſrael, to a rebellious people, whiche haue rebelled agaynſt me, both they and theyr forefathers haue wickedly behaued them ſelues againſt me, euen vnto this very day.

4 For they are children of a " harde face, and ſtiffe hart, I doo ſende thee vnto them, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God.

" Or, impudent.

5 And whether they wyl heare or refuſe (for they are a rebellious houſe) yet they may knowe that there hath benne a prophete among them.

6 And thou ſonne of man feare them not, neither be afraide of theyr woordes, for " bryers and thornes are with thee, and thou dooeſt dwel among ſcorpions: feare not their woordes, nor be abaſhed at theyr lookes, for they are a rebellious houſe.

" Or, rebels.

7 And thou ſhalt ſpeake my woordes vnto them, whether they wyl heare or refuſe, for they are rebellious. B

8 Therefore, thou ſonne of man, obey thou al thinges that I ſay vnto thee, and be not thou rebellious lyke the rebellious houſe: open thy mouth, and (a) eate that I geue thee.

(a) That is, print in thy memorie, or receiue in thine hart al my woordes, as Eze. 3.b

9 And when I looked, beholde a hande was ſent vnto me, and loe, in it was a roule of a booke,

10 And he opened it before me, & it was written within and without, and there was written therein, (b) lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

(b) That is, Gods iudgementes againſt the wicked.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 The prophete beyng fed with the woorde of God, and with the conſtant boldneſſe of the ſpirite, is ſent vnto the people that were in captiuitie. 17 The office of true preachers.

A 1 AFter this ſaid he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, eate whatſoeuer thou fyndeſt, eate this roule, and goe thy way, and ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he fed me with this roule.

3 And he ſayd vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thy belly ſhal eate, and thy bowels ſhalt thou fil with this roule that I geue thee: Then did I eate, and it was in my mouth *ſweeter then honie.

Pſal. 19.b. and. 119.

4 And he ſaid vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, goe, geat thee vnto the houſe of Iſrael, and declare my woordes vnto them.

5 For not to a people of " profounde lippes, and harde language art thou ſent, but vnto the houſe of Iſrael:

" Strange ſpeache.

6 Not to many nations whiche haue profounde lippes, and harde languages, whoſe woordes thou vnderſtandeſt not: otherwiſe yf I had ſent thee vnto them, they woulde haue hearkened vnto thee.

7 But the houſe of Iſrael wyl not hearken vnto thee, for they wyl not hearken vnto me: for al the houſe of Iſrael haue ſtiffe foreheades, and ſtubburne hartes. B

8 Beholde, therefore I haue made thy face ſtrong agaynſt theyr faces, and thy forehead ſtrong agaynſt theyr foreheades.

9 As an Adamant, harder then the flint ſtone haue I made thy forehead: thou ſhalt not feare them, nor be abaſhed at theyr lookes: for they are a rebellious houſe.

10 He ſayde moreouer vnto me, Thou ſonne

of man, al my woordes that I ſhal ſpeake vnto thee, receiue in thine hart, and hearken with thyne eares.

11 And goe, get thee to ẏ captiuitie, to the children of thy people, and thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto them, & ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, whether they wyl heare, or leaue.

12 With that the ſpirite tooke me vp, and I heard behinde me a voice of a great ruſhing, [to wit,] Bleſſed be the glory of Iehouah from his place, 13 [I hearde] alſo the noyſe of the wynges of the beaſtes ioynyng one with another, and the ratlyng of the wheeles that were before them, euen a noyſe of great ruſhyng.

E 14 Nowe when the ſpirite lift me vp, & tooke me away, I went in bitterneſſe and furie of my ſpirite: but the hande of the Lorde vpon me was ſtrong.

15 Then I came to the captiues in Thelabib, that dwelt by the riuer Chebar, and I ſate where they ſate, and I remayned there ſeuen dayes, aſtoniſhed among them.

16 And when the ſeuen dayes were expired, the Lorde ſayde vnto me,

Eze. 33. b 17 Thou ſonne of man, I haue made thee a *watchman vnto the houſe of Iſrael: therefore thou ſhalt heare the word at my mouth, and geue them warning from me.

18 When I ſhal ſay vnto the wicked, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye, and thou geueſt not him warning, nor ſpeakeſt to admoniſhe the wicked of his euyl way, and ſo to liue: then ſhal the ſame vngodly man dye in his owne vnryghteouſneſſe, but his blood wyl I require of thyne hande.

19 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou geue warnyng vnto the wicked, and he yet turne not from his vngodlyneſſe, and from his wicked way: he ſhal dye in his owne wickedneſſe, but thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

20 Nowe yf a righteous man goe from his righteouſneſſe, and doo the thing that is euil, I wyl lay a ſtumblyng blocke before hym: and he ſhal dye, becauſe thou haſt not geuen him warning, dye ſhal he in his owne ſinne, ſo that his ryghteouſneſſe which he hath donne, ſhal not be thought vpon: but his blood wyl I require at thyne hande.

21 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou exhorteſt that ryghteous that he ſinne not, and ſo the ryghteous doo not ſinne, then ſhal he lyue, becauſe he hath receiued thy warning, and thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule. D

22 And there came the hande of the Lord vpon me, and he ſayd vnto me, Stand vp, and goe into the feelde, that I may there talke with thee.

23 So when I had riſen vp, and gonne foorth into the feelde, behold, the (a) glory of the Lord ſtoode there, lyke the glorie which I ſawe by the riuer Chebar: then fel I downe vpon my face.

24 And the ſpirite came into me, whiche ſet me vp vpon my feete, & ſpake vnto me, and ſayde vnto me, Goe thy way, and ſhut thee ſelfe in thyne houſe.

25 Beholde, O thou ſonne of man, they haue prepared bandes agaynſt thee, and they wyl bynde thee with them, and thou ſhalt not goe out among them.

26 And I wyl make thy tongue (b) cleaue to the roofe of thy mouth, that thou ſhalt be dumbe, and not be as a reproouer vnto them: for they are a rebellious houſe.

27 But when I ſpeake vnto thee, I wyl open my mouth, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lord God, who ſo heareth, let hym heare, who ſo leaueth of, let hym leaue: for they are a rebellious houſe.

(a) Meaning the viſion of the Cherubims and the wheeles.

(b) It is a great plague of God toward the people, when he cauſeth the miniſters to ceaſſe preaching & rebuking of ſinne.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 The ſiege of the citie of Hieruſalem is ſignified. 9 The long continuance of the captiuitie of Iſrael. 16 A hunger is prophecied to comme in the captiuitie.

A 1 Thou ſonne of man, take thee a tyle ſtone, and lay it before thee, and purtray vpon it the citie Hieruſalem,

2 And lay ſiege agaynſt it, & builde a forte agaynſt it, and caſt a mount agaynſt it, ſet the campe alſo agaynſt it, and lay engins of warre agaynſt it rounde about.

3 Moreouer, take an iron panne, and ſet it betwixt thee and the citie, in ſteede of an iron wal, then ſet thy face towarde it, to beſiege it, and make an aſſault agaynſt it: this ſhalbe a token vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

4 But thou ſhalt ſleepe vpon thy leaſt ſyde, and lay the ſinne (a) of the houſe of Iſrael vpon it, [accordyng] to the number of the dayes that thou ſhalt ſleepe vpon it, thou ſhalt beare theyr iniquitie.

5 For I haue layde vpon thee the yeeres of theyr iniquitie, accordyng to the number of the dayes [euen] three hundred and ninetie "dayes, ſo ſhalt thou beare the iniquitie of the houſe of Iſrael.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The ſigne of the heares, by whiche is ſignified the deſtruction of the people. 6 The cauſes of the anger of God towarde the people.

A 1 O Thou ſonne of man, take thee then a ſharpe knyfe [namely] a barbers raſour, take that to thee, and cauſe it to (a) paſſe vpon thy head and vpon thy beard: then take thee weyght ſcales, and diuide [the heare.]

(a) To ſhaue thy head and bearde.

2 Thou ſhalt burne with fyre the thirde part in the middeſt of the (b) citie when the dayes of the ſiege are fulfylled, and thou ſhalt take the other thirde part, and ſmite about it with a knyfe, and the laſt thirde part thou ſhalt ſcatter in the wynde, and J wyl drawe out a ſwoorde after them.

(b) To wyt, of that citie whiche he had purtrayed vpon the bricke, Chap. 4. By the fyre, he meaneth famine & peſtilence, wherewith one part periſhed during the ſiege of Nabuchodonoſor: by the ſwoorde, thoſe that were ſlayne when Zedekiah fled, thoſe that were caryed away captiue: & by the ſcattering into the wind, thoſe that fled into Egypt, and into other partes after the citie was taken.

3 Thou ſhalt alſo take thereof a few in number, and bynde them in thy lappe.

4 Of them yet ſhalt thou take, and caſt them into the middeſt of the fyre, and burne them in the fyre: thereof ſhal a fyre comme foorth into al the houſe of Jſrael.

5 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lord God, This ſame is Hieruſalem, which J ſet in the middeſt of nations and countreys rounde about her.

6 But ſhe hath changed my iudgementes into wickedneſſe more then the nations, and my ſtatutes more then the countreys that are rounde about her: for they haue refuſed my iudgementes and my ſtatutes, and not walked in them.

7 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, For your (c) multiplyeng more then the gentiles that dwel rounde about you, and becauſe ye haue not walked in my lawes, neyther haue ye kept my ordinances, no ye haue not donne according to the iudgementes of the nations that are rounde about you: B

(c) Becauſe ye haue encreaſed the number of your idols & ſuperſtitions more then the gentiles.
Eſai. 65.b

8 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, J wil alſo comme againſt thee, J mee ſelfe J ſay, for in the middeſt of thee wil J execute iudgement in the ſyght of the heathen.

9 And J wyl handle thee of ſuche a faſhion as J neuer dyd before, and as J wyl neuer doo from that tyme foorth, and that becauſe of al thyne abominations.

10 For in thee the fathers ſhalbe fayne to eate theyr owne ſonnes, & the ſonnes their owne fathers, J wyl execute iudgement in thee, and the whole remnant of thee wyl J ſcatter into al the wyndes.

Baruc.2.a.

11 Wherefore, as truely as J lyue, ſayth the Lorde God, ſeeyng thou haſt defiled my ſanctuarie with al manner of abominations, and with al ſhameful offences:

12 For this cauſe wil J alſo deſtroy thee, mine eye ſhal not ſpare thee, neyther wyl I haue any pitie.

Iere.xv.b. 13 *One thirde part within thee ſhal dye of the peſtilence, & be conſumed of hunger, another thirde part ſhalbe ſlayne downe round about thee with the ſwoorde, the other thirde part that remayneth, wil I ſcatter abrode toward al the windes, and drawe out a ſwoorde after them.

C 14 Thus wyl I perfourme mine indignation, and make my wrath to ſetle vpon them, and I wyl be (d) comforted: ſo that when I haue fulfilled mine anger againſt them, they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde, whiche with a feruent gelouſie haue ſpoken it.

(d) That is, I wyl not be pacified tyl I be reuenged. Eſai.i.c.

15 Moreouer, I wyl make thee waſte, and reuiled among al the Heathen that dwel about thee, in the ſyght of al them that goe by thee.

16 So thou ſhalt be a reproche and ſhame, a chaſtiſement and a wonderyng vnto the nations that are round about thee, when I ſhal execute iudgementes in thee, in anger and in wrath, and in ſharpe rebukes, I the Lorde haue ſpoken it:

17 When I ſhoote among them the perilous (e) dartes of hunger, whiche ſhalbe for their deſtruction, yea therefore ſhal I ſhoote them, becauſe I wyl deſtroy you, I wyl encreaſe hunger vpon you, & *wyl breake your ſtaffe of bread.

(e) whiche be the graſhoppers, mildew, and whatſoeuer were occaſions of famine.

Ezec.4.c

18 Plagues wyl I ſende vpon you, yea and wicked beaſtes alſo to ſpoyle thee, peſtilence and bloodſheddyng ſhal comme vpon thee, and the ſwoord wyl I bryng ouer thee: I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 He ſheweth that the people ſhalbe plagued for the ſinne of idolatrie. 8 He prophecieth the repentance of the remnant of the people, and their deliuerance. 11 The deſtruction of the frowarde is prophecied.

A 1 AND the woord of the lord came vnto me, ſayeing,

Ezec.30.a 2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face to yͤ *mountaines of Iſrael, that thou maieſt prophecie agaynſt them,

3 And ſay, Heare the woord of the Lorde God: O ye mountaynes of Iſrael, Thus hath the Lord God ſpoken to the (a) mountaynes, hylles, riuers, and dales, Beholde I [euen I] wyl bryng a ſwoorde vpon you, and deſtroy your hygh places.

(a) He ſpeaketh to al the places where the Iſraelites accuſtomed to commit their idolatries, threatnyng them deſtruction.

4.Re,23.b. 4 Your aulters ſhalbe deſtroyed, and your images of the * ſunne broken downe, your ſlayne menne wyl I caſt downe before your idolles.

5 And the dead carkaſes of the chyldren of Iſrael wil I caſt before their idolles, your bones wyl I ſcatter rounde about *your aulters.

4.Reg.23.c

6 In al your dwelling places, your cities ſhalbe deſolate, and the hygh places layde waſte, ſo that your aulters ſhalbe made waſte and deſolate, your idolles ſhalbe broken and aboliſhed, and your images of the ſunne ſhalbe cut downe, and your workes quite taken away.

B 7 Your ſlayne menne ſhal falle among you: And ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

8 Yet wyl I leaue a remnant, that you may haue [ſomme] that ſhal eſcape the ſwoorde among the nations, when as ye ſhalbe ſcattered through the countreys.

9 And they that eſcape of you, ſhal thynke vpõ me among the Heathen where they ſhalbe in captiuitie, becauſe I haue benne brokẽ with their whooriſhe hart, whiche hath departed from me, & with their eyes that haue gonne a whooryng after their idolles: and they ſhalbe abhorred before their owne eyes: for the euyls whiche they haue committed in al their abominations.

10 And they ſhal know that I am the Lord, and that I haue not ſayde in vayne, that I woulde doo this euyl vnto them.

11 Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, (b) Smite thyne handes togeather, & ſtampe with thy feete, and ſay, Wo woorth al the abominations and wickedneſſes of the houſe of Iſrael: for they ſhal fal with the ſwoorde, with hunger, and with peſtilence.

(b) He wylleth yͤ prophet not only with woordes, but alſo with geſtures of hand and foote, to ſignifie the deſtruction to comme.

12 Who ſo is farre of ſhal die of the peſtilence, he that is nygh at hand ſhal periſhe with the ſwoorde, and the other that are beſieged ſhal dye of hũger: Thus wil I ſatiſfie my wrathful diſpleaſure vpon them.

13 And ſo ſhal ye know that I am the Lord, when their ſlaine menne ſhalbe among their idolles rounde about their aulters, vpon euery hygh hyl, and toppes of mountaynes, and vnder euery greene tree, & vnder euery thicke oke, [euen] in the places where they did offer ſweete ſauour to al their idolles.

14 I wyl ſtretche myne hande out vpon thẽ, and wyl make the lande waſte and deſolate, (c) from the wylderneſſe vnto Deblathah, through al their habitations: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

(c) Somme read, more deſolate then the wyldерneſſe of Deblathah, which was in Syria, and bordered vpon Iſrael: but it may ſtande wel from the wyldernеſſe, whiche was ſouth vnto Deblathah, whiche was north, meanyng yͤ whole countrey.

The .vii. Chapter.

2 The ende of al the land of Iſrael ſhal ſuddainly comme. 20 The cauſe of the deſtruction therof.
23 The prophete is commaunded to ſhewe the ſumme of the euyls that are at hande.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 And thou ſonne of man, thus ſayth the lorde God, An ende is comme vnto the lande of Iſrael: yea verely the ende commeth vpon the foure corners of the lande.

3 Nowe ſhal the ende comme vpon thee: for I wyl ſende my wrath vpon thee, and wyl puniſhe thee accordyng to thy wayes, and rewarde thee after al thyne abominations.

4 Myne eye ſhal not ſpare thee, neyther wyl I haue pitie, but rewarde thee accordyng to thy wayes, and declare thine abominations: then ſhal ye knowe that I am the Lorde.

5 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, one euyl ſhal comme after another:

6 The ende is here, the ende [I ſay] is comme, it watched for thee: behold, it is come alredy.

B 7 The (a) morning is comme vnto thee that dwelleſt in the lande, the time is at hande, the day of trouble is hard by, and not the (b) ſoundyng agayne of the mountaynes.

8 Nowe I wyl ſhortly poure out my ſoare diſpleaſure ouer thee, & fulfil my wrath vpon thee: I wyl iudge thee after thy wayes, and recompence thee al thyne abominations.

9 Mine eye ſhal not ſpare, neither wil I haue pitie, but rewarde thee after thy wayes, and thyne abominations ſhalbe in the middeſt of thee: and ye ſhal know that I am the Lorde that ſmiteth.

10 Beholde the day, beholde, it is comme, the mornyng is gonne forth, the rod (c) flouriſheth, pride hath budded.

11 Crueltie is waxen to a rod of wickedneſſe, none of them ſhal remayne, none of their riches, "not one of their ſeede, and no lamentation ſhalbe made for them.

12 The time commeth, the day draweth nigh: who ſo byeth, let hym not reioyce, he that ſelleth, let hym not be ſoarie: for why? wrath is vpon al the multitude thereof.

13 So that the ſeller ſhal not comme agayne to the thyng that he ſolde, although their lyfe be (d) yet with the lyuing: for whē the prophecie was preached vnto al the people, none returned, no man ſhal (e) ſtrengthen hym ſelfe in the iniquitie of this lyfe.

14 (f) They haue blowen the trumpette, and made al redy, but none goeth to the battayle: for my wrath is vpon the whole multitude.

15 The ſwoorde ſhalbe without, peſtilence & hunger within: ſo that who ſo is in the fielde, ſhalbe ſlayne with the ſwoorde, and he that is in the citie, ſhalbe deuoured with hunger and peſtilence.

16 But they that flee away from them, ſhal eſcape, and ſhalbe in the mountaynes lyke the doues of the valleys, al they ſhal mourne, euery one for his iniquitie.

17 *Al handes ſhalbe let downe, and al knees ſhalbe weake as the water. Eſai. 13.b. Iere.vi.c.

18 They * ſhal girde them ſelues with ſackcloth, feare ſhal couer them, ſhame ſhalbe vpon al faces, & baldneſſe vpon their heades. Eſai.xv.a. Iere.48.d.

19 Theyr ſyluer ſhal they caſte foorth in the ſtreates, and their golde ſhalbe deſpiſed: yea* their ſiluer and golde ſhal not be able to delyuer them in the day of the wrath of the lorde, they ſhal not ſatiſfie their ſoules, neyther fylle their bellyes therewith, becauſe (g) it was a ſtumblyng blocke of their iniquitie. Pron.xi.a. Eccle.v.b.

20 He had alſo ſet the beautie of his (h) ornament in maieſtie: but they made images of their abominations and fylthineſſe in it, therfore haue I ſet it farre from them.

21 Moreouer, I wyl geue it into the handes of ſtrangers to be ſpoyled, and to the wicked of the earth for to be robbed, and thei ſhal pollute it. D

22 My face wyl I turne from them, my ſecrete place ſhalbe defyled: for burglers ſhal goe into it, and pollute it.

23 Make a chayne: for the lande is ful of the (i) iudgement of blood, and the citie is ful of extortion.

24 Wherefore, I wyl bring the moſt wicked of the Heathen to take their houſes in poſſeſſion, I wyl make the pompe of the myghtie to ceaſſe, and their (k) ſanctuaries ſhalbe defyled.

25 When deſtructiō is comme, they ſhal ſeeke peace, but they ſhal haue none.

26 One miſchiefe ſhal folowe another, and one rumour ſhal comme after another: then ſhal they ſeeke a viſion in vayne at their prophete, the lawe ſhal periſh from the prieſt, and counſayle from the ancientes.

27 The kyng ſhal mourne, the prince ſhalbe clothed with deſolation, and the hands of the people in the land ſhalbe troubled: I wyl doo vnto them after their owne wayes, accordyng to their owne iudgemētes wyl I iudge them: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

(a) That is, the begynning of thy puniſhment.

(b) That is, no vayne or counterfayte crye, as is the ecco in ŷ hilles

(c) Meanyng Nabuchodonoſor, whom God had appoynted to be a rodde to ſcourge them.

"Or, none of their pleaſures.

(d) That is, in the yeere of Iubile, when euery man returned to ſuch poſſeſſions as he ſold before. Leuit.25.b

(e) Iniquitie ſhal make no man ſtrong agaynſt God.

(f) The Iſraelites made a bragge, but their hartes fayled them.

(g) Their golde & ſiluer brought them to this ruine or deſtruction.

(h) Meanyng the ſanctuarie

(i) That is, of ſinnes that deſerue death.

(k) That is, their temple whiche was diuided into three partes. Iere.61.f.

The.viij.Chapter.

2 An appearance of the ſimilitude of God. 3 Ezechiel is brought to Hieruſalem in the ſpirite.
6 The Lorde ſheweth the idolatries of the houſe of Iſrael, and chiefly of the prieſtes.

A 1 AND it was in the (a) ſixt yeere, in the ſixt [moneth] in the fyft [day] of the moneth, I ſate in my houſe, & the elders of Iuda ſate before me, and the hande of the Lord God fel there vpon me.

(a) Of the captiuitie of Iecontah, ſo that there was fourteene monethes betwixt the firſt viſion & this.

2 Then I behelde, and loe, there was a lykeneſſe as the appearance of fyre: from the appearance of his loynes downeward, fire: and from his loynes vpwarde, as the appearance of brightneſſe, lyke the colour of amber.

3 And he ſtretched out the likenes of an hand, and tooke me by an heary locke of my head, and the ſpirite lyft me vp betwixt earth and heauen, and (b) brought me in a diuine viſion to Hieruſalem, into the entrie of the inner (c) gate that lyeth towarde the North, where remayned the image of (d) emulation [and] of gayne.

(b) This was in the ſpirite, & not in body.
(c) The porch or court where the people aſſembled.
(d) Of emulation, becauſe it diſpleaſed god: of gayne, becauſe it was ſet vp and worſhypped for gayne and increaſe of their offerings for yͤ prieſtes, and of their cattel and ſubſtance for the people.

4 And beholde, the glorie of the Lorde God of Iſrael was in the ſame place, [euen] as I had ſeene it afore in the fielde.

5 And he ſayd vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, lyft vp thyne eyes nowe towarde the North: then lyft I vp mine eyes toward the North, and beholde, northwarde, at the gate of the (e) aulter, this image of emulation [was] in the entrie.

(e) That was in the court where the people had made an aulter to Baal.

6 And he ſayde furthermore vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, ſeeſt thou what theſe doo? ſeeſt thou the great abominations that the houſe of Iſrael commit in this place, to dryue me from my ſanctuarie? but turne thee about, & thou ſhalt ſee yet greater abominations.

B 7 And with that brought he me to the court gate, and when I looked, beholde, there was a hole in the wal.

8 Then ſaid he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, digge nowe in the wal: and when I dygged in the wal, beholde, there was a doore.

9 And he ſayd vnto me, Goe thy way in, and looke what wicked abominations they doo here.

10 So I went in, and ſawe, and behold, there were al manner of creepyng beaſtes, and (f) abominable beaſtes, and al the idolles of the houſe of Iſrael, paynted vpon the wal round about.

(f) whiche were forbidden in the lawe. Leuit.xi.

11 There ſtoode alſo before the images, threeſcore and tenne menne of the ancientes of the houſe of Iſrael, and in the myddeſt of them ſtoode Iaazaniah yͤ ſonne of Shaphan, with euery man his cenſor in his hande, and the ſmoke of the incenſe aſcended as a cloude.

12 Then ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, haſt thou ſeene what the ancientes of the houſe of Iſrael doo ſecretly, euery one in the (g) chamber of his imagerie? for they ſay, The Lorde ſeeth vs not, the Lorde hath forſaken the earth.

(g) For beſides their common idolatrie, they had their particuler ſeruice in their ſecrete places or pewes.

13 And he ſayde vnto me, Turne thee yet agayne, and thou ſhalt ſee greater abominations that they doo.

14 And with that he brought me to the doore C of the gate of the Lordes houſe, towarde the North, and beholde, there ſate women mournyng for (h) Thammuz.

(h) The Iewes ſay this was a prophet of the idolles, who after his death was once a yere mourned for in yͤ night, only of womẽ. S. Hierome taketh it for Adonis Venus louer. Other thinke it was Oſyris an idol of the Egyptians.

15 Then ſayde he vnto me, Haſt thou ſeene this thou ſonne of man? turne thee yet about, and thou ſhalt ſee greater abominations then theſe are.

16 And ſo he brought me into the inwarde court of the Lordes houſe, and beholde, at the doore of the Lordes houſe, betwixt the porche and the aulter, there were about twentie and fiue menne, that turned their backes vpõ the temple of the Lord, & their faces towarde the eaſt, & theſe worſhipped the ſunne eaſtward.

17 And he ſayd vnto me, Haſt thou ſeene this thou ſonne of man? Thynketh the houſe of Iuda, that it is but a trifle to doo theſe abominations, whiche they doo here? for they haue fylled the lande ful of wickedneſſe, and haue returned to prouoke me to anger, and loe, (i) they are puttyng the branches to their noſes.

(i) They ſmelled to their brãches, flowers, or poſes, in dooing their ſacrifice to the ſunne, whiche yet before God was vyle, & ſtincking, howe ſweete ſoeuer they ſeemed to them ſelues.

18 Therfore wyl I alſo doo ſomething in my wrathful diſpleaſure, ſo that myne eye ſhal not ſpare them, neither wyl I haue pitie: *yea and though they crye in myne eares with a loude voyce, yet wyl I not heare them.

Prou.i.d

The.ix.Chapter,

1 The deſtruction of the citie. 4 They that ſhalbe ſaued are marked. 8 A complaynt of the prophete for the deſtruction of the people.

A 1 HE cryed alſo with a loude voyce in myne eares, ſayeing, Drawe neare ye (a) viſitations of the citie, euery man with a deſtroyeing weapon in his hande.

(a) The perſons appoynted to viſite the citie, as Nabuchodonoſor and his captaynes.

2 And beholde, then came there (b) ſixe menne, out of the ſtreate of the vpper gate towarde the North, & euery man a ſlaughter weapon in his hande: There was one amongſt them

(b) whiche were ſixe angels in lykeneſſe of menne that had on hym linnen rayment, and a Writers [(c)] inckhorne by his ſyde: theſe went in, and ſtoode beſyde the braſen aulter.

(c) To marke them yͭ ſhould be ſaued from deſtruction.

3 And the glorie of the Lorde of Iſrael was gonne from the Cherub wherevpon it was, to the doore of the houſe: and he called to the man that had the linnen rayment vpon him, and the writers inckhorne by his ſyde,

4 And the Lord ſaid vnto him, Goe through the citie, euen through Hieruſalem, and ſet a marke vpon the foreheades of them that mourne, & are ſoary for al the abominations that be donne therein.

5 And to the other he ſaid, that I might heare, Goe ye after hym through the citie, & ſmyte, let your eye ſpare none, neyther haue ye any pitie:

6 Kyl and deſtroy both olde menne & young, maydens, chyldren, and women: but as for al thoſe that haue the marke vpon them, ſee that ye touche them not, and begynne at my ſanctuarie. Then they began at the ancient menne whiche were before the houſe.

7 And he ſayd vnto them, Defile ye the temple, fyl the courtes with the ſlayne, then goe your way foorth. So they went out, and ſlue downe through the citie. B

8 Now when they had donne the ſlaughter, & I yet eſcaped, I felle downe vpon my face, and cryed, ſayeing, Ah Lorde God, wilt thou then deſtroy al the reſidue of Iſrael, in powryng out thy wrath vpon Hieruſalem?

9 Then ſayde he vnto me, The wickedneſſe of the houſe of Iſrael and Iuda is exceedyng great: ſo that the land is ful of *blood, and the citie ful of reuoltyng [from God] for they ſay, The Lorde hath forſaken the earth, and the Lorde ſeeth it not.

Eſai.i.c.

10 As touchyng me alſo, myne eye ſhal not ſpare them, neither wil I haue pitie: but wil recompence theyr wayes vpon their heades.

11 And beholde, the man that had the lynnen rayment vpon hym, and the writers inckhorne by his ſyde, reported the matter, and ſayd, As thou haſt commaunded me, ſo haue I donne.

The .x. Chapter.

2 Of the manne that tooke hotte burnyng coales out of the middle of the wheeles of the Cherubims. 8 A rehearſal of the viſion of the wheeles, of the beaſtes, and of the Cherubims.

A 1 ANd as I loked, beholde, in the *firmament that was aboue the head of the [(a)] Cherubims, as it were a Saphir ſtone [made] lyke the ſimilitude of a throne, was ouer them.

Ezech.i.d

(a) Whiche in yͤ firſt chapter and fift vearſe he called the foure beaſtes.

2 Then ſpake he to hym that had the lynnen rayment vpon hym, and ſayde, Creepe in betweene the wheeles that are vnder the Cherub, and take thyne hande ful of hotte coales out from betweene the Cherubims, & ſcatter them ouer the citie. And he creapt in, that I myght ſee.

3 (Nowe the Cherubims ſtoode vpon the ryght ſyde of the houſe, when the man went in, and the cloude fylled the inner court.

4 And the glory of the Lorde remoued from the Cherubims, and came vpon the doore of the houſe: ſo that the tẽple was ful of cloudes, & the court was ful of the ſhine of the Lordes glorie.

5 Yea & the ſound of the Cherubims winges was hearde into the fore court, lyke as it had benne the voyce of the almighty God when he ſpeaketh.)

6 Nowe when he had bydden the man that was clothed in linnen, ſayeing, Take fyre from the myddeſt of the wheeles which were vnder the Cherubims: he went, and ſtoode beſyde the wheeles.

7 Then one Cherub reached foorth his hand from betweene the Cherubims, vnto the fire that was betweene the Cherubims, & tooke therof, & gaue it into the handes of hym that had on the lynnen rayment: whiche tooke it, and went out. B

8 And vnder the wynges of the Cherubims, there appeared the lykeneſſe of a mans hand.

9 I looked alſo, and behold, foure wheeles beſyde the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, and another by another Cherub, and the wheeles were to looke vpon after the faſhion of the pretious ſtone *Tharſis.

Ezech.i.c.

10 As touchyng their appearance (they were al foure of one faſhion) as if one wheele had benne in another.

11 When they went foorth, they went vpon their foure ſydes, not turnyng backe in theyr goeyng: for whiche way the [head of the] fyrſt looked, after it they went, ſo that they turned not backe in their goeyng.

12 And their whole bodyes, their backes, their handes, and wynges, yea and the wheeles alſo, were ful of eyes rounde about the foure wheeles.

13 And to the wheeles, he cryed to them in my hearyng, O wheele.

14 Euery one of them had foure faces, ſo that the face of the firſt was the face of a Cherub, and the face of the ſeconde the face of a man, and of the thirde the face of a lion, and of the fourth C fourth the face of an egle.

Ezech.i.a. 15 And the Cherubims were lifted vp: *This is the beaſt that I ſawe at the water of Chebar.

16 Nowe when the Cherubims went, the wheeles went by them: and when the Cherubims lyft vp their wynges to mount vp from the earth, the ſame wheeles alſo turned not from beſydes them.

17 Shortly when they ſtoode, theſe ſtoode alſo, & when they were lyfted vp, the wheeles lyft vp them ſelues alſo with them: for the[b] ſpirite of the beaſt was in the wheeles.

(b) There was one conſent betweene the Cherubims and the wheeles.

18 Then the glorie of the Lord departed from aboue the doore of the temple, and remayned vpon the Cherubims.

19 And the Cherubims flackered with their wynges, and lyft them ſelues vp from the earth, ſo that I ſawe when they went, & the wheeles beſydes them, and they ſtoode at the doore of the Eaſt gate of the houſe of the lord, ſo the glorie of the God of Iſrael was vpon them on hygh.

20 This is the[c] beaſt that I ſawe vnder the God of Iſrael, by the riuer of Chebar, and I perceiued that it was the Cherubims.

(c) That is, the whole body of the foure beaſtes or Cherubims.

D

21 Euery one had foure faces, and euery one foure wynges, and vnder their wynges, the lykeneſſe of mennes handes.

22 Touchyng the ſimilitude of their countenances, they were the very ſame countenances, whiche I ſawe at the riuer Chebar, and the ſelfe ſame appearaunces: euery one in his goeyng went ſtrayght forwarde.

The.xi, Chapter.

1 Who they were that ſeduced the people of Iſrael. 5 Agaynſt theſe he prophecieth, ſhewyng them howe they ſhalbe diſpearſed abroade. 19 The renewyng of the hart commeth of God. 21 He threatneth them that leane vnto their owne counſayles.

A 1 MOreouer, the ſpirite lyft me vp, and brought me vnto the eaſt gate of yͤ Lordes houſe, which lyeth eaſtwarde: and behold, at the entry of the gate were fyue and twentie menne, among whom I ſawe Iaazaniah the ſonne of Azur, and Pheltiah the ſonne of Banaiahu, the rulers of the people.

2 Thē ſaid he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, theſe menne imagine miſchiefe, and a wicked counſayle take they in this citie,

2.Pet.iij.a. 3 Sayeing, *It is not neare, let vs build houſes: this [Hieruſalem] is the[a] cauldron, and we be the fleaſhe.

(a) we ſhal not be pulled out of Hieruſalem, tyl the houre of our death comme, as the fleaſhe is not taken out of yͤ cauldron tyl it be ſodde.

4 Therfore ſhalt thou prophecie agaynſt thē: yea prophecie, O ſonne of man.

5 And with that felle the ſpirite of the Lorde vpon me, and ſayde vnto me, Speake, thus ſayth the Lorde: On this manner haue ye ſpoken (O ye houſe of Iſrael) and I knowe the imaginations of your hartes.

6 Many one haue ye murthered in this citie, and fylled the ſtreates ful of the ſlayne:

B 7 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, The ſlayne menne that ye haue layde on the grounde in the citie, are the[b] fleaſh, and this citie is the cauldron: but I wyl bryng you out of it.

(b) Contrarie to their vayne confidence he ſheweth in what ſenſe this citie was the cauldron, that is, becauſe of the dead bodyes that haue ben murthered therin, and ſo lye as fleaſhe in the cauldrō.

8 Ye feared the ſwoorde, and I wyl bryng a ſwoorde ouer you, ſayth the Lorde God.

9 And I wyl bryng you out of the myddeſt thereof, and deliuer you into the handes of ſtrangers, and wyl execute iudgementes among you.

10 Ye ſhal falle by the ſwoorde, in the borders of[c] Iſrael wil I iudge you, & ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

(c) That is, in Riblath. 4.Reg.24.a.

11 This citie ſhal not be your cauldron, neyther ſhal ye be the fleaſhe therein: but in the borders of Iſrael wyl I puniſhe you,

12 That ye may know that I am the Lord, in whoſe commaundementes ye haue not walked, nor kept my lawes: but haue donne after the cuſtomes of the Heathen that lye rounde about you.

13 Now when I prophecied,[d] Pheltiah the ſonne of Banaiahu dyed: then felle I downe vpon my face, and cryed with a loude voyce, ſayeing, Ah Lorde God, wylt thou then vtterly deſtroy al the remnant in Iſrael?

(d) It ſeemed this noble man dyed of ſome terrible death, & therefore the prophete feared ſome ſtrange iudgement of God towarde the reſt of the people.

14 And ſo the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me on this manner.

15 Thou ſonne of man, thy brethren [euen] thy brethren, the menne of thy kynred, and al the houſe of Iſrael, wholly [are they] vnto whom the inhabitantes of Hieruſalem haue ſayde,[e] Withdrawe ye farre from the Lord, for the lande is geuen vs in poſſeſſion.

(e) They that remayned ſtyl at Hieruſalē, thus reproched them that were gonne into captiuitie, as though thei were caſt of, & forſakē of god.

16 Therefore tel them, thus ſayth the GOD, Although I ſende them farre of among the Gentiles, & ſcatter them among the nations, yet wyl I be to them as a litle[f] ſanctuarie, in the landes where they ſhal comme.

(f) They ſhalbe yet a litle Church, whō he wyl preſerue, though they be diſpearſed, & for a tyme afflicted.

17 Tel them alſo, thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wyl geather you againe out of the natiōs, and bryng you from the countreys where ye be ſcattered, and I wyl geue you the lande of Iſrael agayne.

18 And they ſhal comme thyther, and they ſhal take away al their idolles, and al their abominations from thence.

Ezec.36.d.

19 And I wyl geue them one hart, and I wil put a newe ſpirite within their bowels: that ſtony hart wyl I take out of their body, and geue them a fleaſhly hart,

20 That they may walke in my commaundementes, and keepe myne ordinances, and doo them, that they may be my people, and I their God.

21 But to the hart of their idolles, and their abominations, their hart goeth, their wayes wyl I bryng vpon their owne heades, ſayth the Lorde God.

22 After this dyd the Cherubims lift vp their wynges, and the wheeles beſydes them, and the glorie of the GOD of Iſrael was vpon them on hygh.

Ezech. x.a

23 *So the glorie of the Lord went vp from the myddeſt of the citie, and ſtoode vpon the mount of the citie towarde the Eaſt.

24 And the ſpirite tooke me vp, and brought me agayne to Chaldea to the captiuitie, in a viſion by the ſpirite of God: then the viſion that I had ſeene went vp from me.

25 So I ſpake vnto the (g) captiues all the woordes of the Lorde which he had ſhewed me.

(g) Thoſe that were led away captiues with Iechoniah.

The.xii.Chapter.

4 The parable of the captiuitie. 10 The expoſition of the parable, by which the taking of king Zedekiah is ſignified. 18 An other parable whereby the diſtreſſe of hunger and thurſt is ſignified.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, thou dwelleſt in the midſt of a rebellious houſe, whiche haue eyes to ſee, & yet ſee not, eares haue they to heare, and yet heare they not: for they are a rebellious houſe.

''or, make thee veſſels to goe into captiuitie,

3 Therefore (O thou ſonne of man(“prepare thee inſtrumentes to flit with, and remoue on the day time that they may ſee, yea [euen] in their ſight ſhalt thou goe from thy place to another place, if peraduenture they wyl conſyder that they be a rebellious houſe.

4 Thou ſhalt bryng forth thine inſtrumētes, as ſtuffe to flit with by the day tyme in their ſight, and thou thee ſelfe ſhalt goe foorth alſo at euenyng before their eyes, as they that goe foorth to flit.

5 Digge through the wal in their ſyght, and carrie out thereby.

6 In their ſyght ſhalt thou beare vpon thy ſhoulders, and carrie it foorth in the darke: hyde thy face, that thou ſee not the earth, for I haue made thee a (a) ſhewe token vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

(a) That as thou doeſt, ſo ſhal they doo, and therfore in thee they ſhal ſee their owne plague & pouniſhmēt.

B 7 And I dyd ſo as I was commaunded, I brought foorth my ſtuffe by day, as the ſtuffe of one that goeth into captiuitie: and in the euenyng I digged through the wal with my handes, and brought it foorth in the darke, and bare it vpon my ſhoulder in their ſyght.

8 And in the mornyng came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, ſayeing, 9 Thou ſonne of man, hath not the houſe of Iſrael, the rebellious houſe ſayde vnto thee, (b) What doeſt thou?

10 Then tel them, thus ſaith the Lorde God, This “burden toucheth the prince at Hieruſalem, and al the houſe of Iſrael that dwelle among them.

(b) Doo not they deryde and mocke thy doynges.

11 Telle them, I am your ſhewe token, lyke as I haue donne, ſo ſhal it be donne vnto thē, they ſhal goe into bondage and captiuitie.

12 The prince that is among them ſhal loade his ſhoulders in the darke, and geat hym away, they ſhal breake downe the wal to cary through by it: he ſhal couer his face, that he ſee not the grounde with his eyes.

13 My net wyl I (c) ſpreade out vpon hym, and he ſhalbe caught in my “net, and I wyl bryng him to Babylon in the lande of the Chaldees, whiche he ſhal not ſee, and yet ſhal he dye there.

(c) when the kyng ſhal thinke to eſcape by fleing, I wyl take him in my net, as Ezech.27.c and.32.a.
''or, tooles.

14 As for al his helpers, & al his bandes that be about him, I wil ſcatter them towarde al the windes, & draw out a ſwoord after them. C

15 So when I haue ſcattered them among the Heathen, and ſtrowed them in the landes, they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

16 But I wyl leaue a litle *number of them from the ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence, to telle al their abominations among the Heathē where they comme, that they may know howe that I am the Lorde.

Ezec.xi.a.

17 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

18 Thou ſonne of man, with a feareful tremblyng ſhalt thou eate thy bread, with vnquietneſſe and ſorowe, ſhalt thou drynke thy water.

19 And vnto the people of the lande ſpeake thou: Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD to them that dwel in Hieruſalem, and to the lande of Iſrael, They ſhal eate their bread with ſorow, and drinke their water with deſolation: yea the lande with the fulneſſe thereof ſhalbe layde waſte, for the wickedneſſe of al them that dwelle therein.

20 And the cities that now be wel inhabited, ſhalbe voyde, and the lande deſolate, that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

D 21 Yet came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me agayne, ſayeing,

22 Thou ſonne of man, what manner of prouerbe is that whiche ye vſe in the lande of Iſrael, ſayeing, (b) The dayes are ſlacke in cõmyng, and al viſions fayle:

(b) Becauſe they dyd not ſee the prophecies accompliſhed, they contemned them as though they neuer ſhoulde be fulfylled.

23 Tel them therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wil make that prouerbe to ceaſſe, and they ſhal no more vſe it as a prouerbe in Iſrael: but ſay vnto them, The dayes are at hande, and the effect of euery viſion.

24 There ſhal no viſiõ be any more in vaine, neyther any flattering diuination within the houſe of Iſrael:

25 For I the Lorde ſpeake it, and whatſoeuer I ſhal ſpeake, it ſhalbe perfourmed, and not be ſlacke in commyng any more, yea euen in your dayes, O rebellious houſe, wyl I ſpeake the thing, and bring it to paſſe, ſayth the lorde GOD.

26 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

27 Beholde thou ſonne of man, the houſe of Iſrael ſayth [on this manner] The viſion that he ſeeth, it wyl be many a day or it comme to paſſe: * it is farre of yet, the tyme that he prophecieth of.

Ezech.11.a
ii.Pet,iij.a

28 Therefore, ſay thus vnto them, thus ſaith the Lorde GOD, All my woordes ſhal no more be delayed, looke what I ſpeake, that ſame ſhal comme to paſſe, ſayth the Lorde God.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 The woorde of the Lorde agaynſt falſe prophetes, whiche teache the people the counſels of their owne hartes.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, prophecie agaynſt thoſe prophets of Iſrael which prophecie, and ſay vnto them that prophecie out of their owne * hartes, Heare the woord of the Lorde, Iere.23.c.

3 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Wo be vnto thoſe fooliſhe prophetes that folowe their owne ſpirite, and haue ſeene nothyng.

4 O Iſrael, thy prophetes are lyke the foxes in (a) deſart places.

(a) watchyng to deſtroy the vineyardes, reade Can.2.c

5 For ye haue not ſtand vp in the gappes, nor made a hedge for the houſe of Iſrael, to ſtand in the batayle in the day of the Lorde.

6 They haue ſeene vanitie and lieing diuination, ſayeing, The Lorde ſayth it, & the Lord hath not ſent them, and they haue made me hope that they woulde confirme the woorde.

B 7 Haue ye not ſeene vayne viſions, and ſpoken falſe prophecies, when ye ſay, The Lord hath ſpoken it, whereas I neuer ſayde it.

8 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Becauſe ye haue ſpoken vanitie, and haue ſeene lyes: therfore behold, I am againſt you, ſayth the Lorde God:

9 Myne handes ſhal comme vpon the prophetes that ſee vanities, and deuine lyes: they ſhal not be in the counſel of my people, nor written in the booke of yͤ houſe of Iſrael, neyther ſhal they comme in the lande of Iſrael, that ye may knowe how that I am the lord GOD:

10 And that for becauſe they haue deceiued my people, * and tolde them of peace, where no peace was: one ſetteth vp a (b) wal, and they daube it with vntempered clay.

Iere,vi.c.

(b) what one falſe prophete dyd ſay (which is here called the buyldyng vp of a wal) another falſe prophet would affirme the ſame, though he had neither occaſion nor good grounde to beare hym.

11 Therefore telle them whiche daube with vntempered morter, that it ſhal fal: for there ſhal comme a great ſhowre of rayne, I wyl ſend hayleſtones to cauſe it to fal, and a great ſtorme of winde ſhal breake it.

12 And lo, when the wal is fallen, ſhal it not then be ſayde vnto you, Where is nowe your morter that ye daubed it withal:

13 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, I wyl cauſe a ſtormie wynde to breake out in my wrathful diſpleaſure, ſo that in mine anger there ſhal comme a myghtie ſhowre of raine, & haileſtones in my wrath to deſtroy it.

14 As for the wal that ye haue daubed with C vntempered morter, I wyl breake it downe, and make it euen with the grounde, ſo that the fundation thereof ſhalbe diſcouered, and it ſhal fal: yea and ye your ſelues ſhal periſhe in the middes thereof, and ye ſhal know that I am the Lorde.

15 Thus wyl I perfourme my wrath vpon this wal, and vpon them that haue daubed it with (c) vntempered morter, and then wyl I ſay vnto you, The wal is gonne, and the daubers of it,

(c) That is, whatſoeuer man of hym ſelfe ſetteth foorth vnder the auctoritie of gods word, and God alloweth it not.

16 [To wit] the prophetes of Iſrael, whiche prophecie vnto Hieruſalem, and looke out viſions of peace for it, whereas no peace is, ſayth the Lorde God.

17 Wherefore, O thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face agaynſt the daughters of thy people, whiche prophecie out of their owne hartes, and prophecie agaynſt them:

18 And ſay, thus ſayth the Lord God, Wo be vnto them that ſowe (d) pyllowes vnder al

(d) Theſe ſuperſtitious women for lucre would propheſie and tel euery man his fortune, geuing them pillowes to leane on, & kerchifes to couer theyr heades, that they myght yͤ more allure them and bewitche them.

arme holes, ⁊ put kirchiefes vpon the heades of euery(e) ſtature to hunt ſoules. Wil ye hunt the ſoules of my people; and(f) geue lyfe to the ſoules that [comme] vnto you?

19 And wyl ye pollute me to my people for handfuls of barly, and for peeces of bread, to kyl the ſoules of them that dye not, and promiſe(g) lyfe to them that lyue not, in lyeing to my people that heareth your lyes?

20 Wherefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Beholde, I wyl vpon your pillowes wherewith ye hunt the ſoules, to(h) make them flee, and I wyl teare them from your armes, and wyl let the ſoules goe, [euen] the ſoules that ye hunt to make them to flee.

21 Your kirchiefes alſo wil I teare in peeces, D and deliuer my people out of your handes, ſo that they ſhal comme no more in your hands to be hunted: and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

22 Seeyng that with your lyes you diſcomfort the hart of the ryghteous, whom I haue not diſcomforted: Agayne, forſomuche as ye encourage the hande of the wicked, ſo that he may not turne from his wicked way in promiſing hym lyfe:

23 Therefore ſhal ye ſee no more vanitie, neither ſhal ye deuine diuinations, for I wyl deliuer my people out of your hande, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

(e) Upon euery man and woman, young and olde, great and ſmal.
(f) Thynke you the lyues of my people to be in your handes, to make them long or ſhort.
(g) Theſe ſorcerers made the people beleue that they could preſerue lyfe or deſtroy it, and that it ſhould comme to euery one accordyng as they propheſied.
(h) Makyng them flocke vnto you with deceiuable doctrine, as the fowlers doo the birdes with their ſtales ⁊ calles

The.xiiij.Chapter.

2 The Lorde denyeth his woorde to the people for their ſinnes ſake. 9 The deſpiſers of the woorde dooth the Lorde ſometyme deceiue by falſe prophetes. 22 A comfort of them that fled vnto Babylon.

A 1 There reſorted vnto me certayne of the elders of Iſrael, and ſate downe by me.

2 Then came the woord of the Lord vnto me, ſayeyng,

3 Thou ſonne of man, theſe menne haue ſet vp their idolles in their hartes, and put the ſtumblyng blocke of iniquitie before their face: ſhoulde I then anſweare them at their requeſt?

4 Therefore, ſpeake vnto them, and ſay vnto them, thus ſayth the Lord God, Euery man of the houſe of Iſrael that ſetteth vp his idols in his hart, ⁊ putteth the ſtumblyng blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to the prophete: vnto that man wyl I the Lord my ſelfe geue anſweare when he commeth, accordyng to the (a) multitude of his idolles:

5 That the houſe of Iſrael may be ſnared in their (b) owne hartes, becauſe they be cleane gonne from me al of them thorowe theyr idolles.

6 Wherfore, tel the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Returne, and(c) cauſe to returne from your idolles, and turne your faces from al your abominations.

B 7 For euery man, whether he be of the houſe of Iſrael, or a ſtranger that ſoiourneth in Iſrael, whiche departeth from me, and ſetteth vp his idolles in his hart, ⁊ putteth the ſtumblyng blocke of his wickedneſſe before his face, and commeth to a prophete for to aſke counſel at me through hym: vnto that man wyl I the Lorde geue anſweare by myne owne ſelfe.

(a) As his abomination hath deſerued, that is, he ſhal be ledde with lies, according as he delyted therein.
2.Theſſ.2.b
(b) That is, conuince them by their owne conſciences.
(c) Al ſuch as by your example haue declined from god.

8 I wyl ſet my face agaynſt that man, and wil make him to be an example for other, yea and a common byword, and wil roote him out of my people, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

9 And if that prophete be deceiued when he telleth a thyng, then * I the Lorde my ſelfe haue deceiued that prophete, and wil ſtretche out my hand vpon hym, to deſtroy hym out of my people of Iſrael: 3.Reg.22.c

10 And they ſhalbe pouniſhed for their wickedneſſe, accordyng to the ſinne of hym that aſketh, ſhal the ſinne of the prophete be:

11 That the houſe of Iſrael be ledde no more from me through errour, and be no more defyled in al their tranſgreſſions: but that they may be my people, and I their GOD, ſayth the Lorde God.

12 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

13 Thou ſonne of man, when the land ſinneth agaynſt me by committing a trepaſſe, I wyl ſtretche out my hande vpon it, and breake their * ſtaffe of bread, and ſende dearth vpon them, to deſtroy man and beaſt foorth of it. Ezec.iiij.b and.v.b.

14 And though * Noe, Daniel, and Iob, theſe C three menne were among them: yet ſhal they in their righteouſneſſe deliuer but their owne ſoules, ſayth the Lorde God. Iere.xv.a

15 If I bring noyſome beaſtes into the lande, and they ſpoyle it, and it be ſo deſolate that no man may paſſe through it for beaſtes,

16 If theſe three menne were alſo in the land: as truely as I liue ſaith the Lorde God, they ſhal ſaue neyther ſonnes nor daughters, but be only deliuered them ſelues, and as for the lande, it ſhalbe waſte.

17 Or if I bryng a ſwoorde vpon this lande, and ſay, Swoord, goe through the lande, ſo that I ſlay downe man and beaſt in it, 18 And if theſe three menne were therein: as truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lorde God, they ſhal deliuer neither ſonnes nor daughters, but onely be ſaued them ſelues.

19 If I ſende a peſtilence into this lande, and powre out my ſoare indignation vpon it in blood, ſo that I roote out of it both man and beaſt,

20 And if Noe, Daniel, and Job were therein, as truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lorde God, they ſhal delyuer neyther ſonne nor daughter, but ſaue their owne ſoules in their righteouſneſſe.

D 21 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lord God, How muche more when I ſende my * foure troublous plagues vpon Hieruſalẽ, the ſwoorde, hunger, perillous beaſtes, and peſtilence, to deſtroy man and beaſt out of it:

Ezech. 5, c

22 Beholde, there ſhalbe a remnaunt ſaued therin, whiche ſhal bryng foorth their ſonnes and daughters, beholde, they ſhal comme foorth vnto you, & ye ſhal ſee theyr waye and theyr enterpriſe, and ye ſhalbe comforted concerning the euyl that I haue brought vpon Hieruſalem [euen] concerning al that I haue brought vpon it.

23 They ſhal comfort you when ye ſhal ſee their way and woorkes: and ye ſhal knowe howe that it is not without a cauſe that I haue donne al againſt Hieruſalem as I dyd, ſayth the Lorde God.

The.xv. Chapter.

As the vnprofitable wood of the vine tree is caſt into the fire, ſo ſayth he that Hieruſalem ſhalbe brent.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, what commeth of yͤ vine tree, more then of euery other tree, and of the wylde vine ſtocke among other trees of the foreſt:

3 Doo menne take wood of it to make any woorke withal: or wyl menne take a pin of it to hang any veſſel theron:

4 Beholde, it is caſt in the fire to be brent, the fire conſumeth both the endes of it, the middes of it is brent: is it meete then for any woorke:

5 Seeyng then that it was meete for no woorke beyng whole, muche leſſe may there anye thing be made of it when the fire hath conſumed and brent it.

6 And therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, As the vine tree [that is] among the trees of the foreſt, whiche I haue geuen to the fire to be conſumed: ſo wil I geue the inhabitantes of Hieruſalem. B

7 And I wyl ſet my face agaynſt them, they ſhal goe out from the fire, and yet the (e) fire ſhal conſume them: then ſhal ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I ſet my face againſt them, (e) Though they eſcape one danger, yet another ſhal take them.

8 And when I make the land waſte, becauſe they haue ſo ſoore offended, ſayth the Lorde God.

The.xvi. Chapter.

2 The prophete declareth the benefites of God towarde Hieruſalem. 15 Hieruſalem is reproued of vnkindneſſe for her fornication with idols. 45 He iuſtifieth the wickedneſſe of other people, in compariſon of the ſinnes of Hieruſalem. 49 The cauſe of the abominatiõs into whiche the Sodomites fel. 60 Mercy is promiſed to the repentant.

A 1 AGayne, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſhewe Hieruſalem their abominations,

3 And ſaye, Thus ſayth the Lorde God vnto Hieruſalem, Thy habitation & kinred is of the lande of (a) Chanaan, thy father was an Amorite, thy mother an Hittite.

4 In the day of thy byrth (b) when thou waſt borne, the ſtryng of thy nauel was not cut of, thou waſt not bathed in water to make thee cleane, thou waſt not ſalted with ſalt, nor ſwadled in cloutes.

5 No eye pytied thee to doo anye of theſe thinges for thee, for to haue compaſſion vpon thee: but thou waſt vtterly caſt out vpon the fielde in contempt of thy perſon in the day of thy byrth.

(a) Thou boaſteſt to be of the ſeede of Abraham, but thou art degenerate, and foloweſt the abominations of the wicked Chanaanites, as chyldrẽ doo the mãners of their fathers. Eſa. 1. a. 57. a.

(b) When I firſt brought thee foorth of the lande of Egypt, and planted thee in this land to be my Churche.

6 Then came I by thee, and ſawe thee defyled in thyne owne blood, & I ſayde vnto thee when thou waſt in thy blood, Lyue: [euen] when thou waſt in thy blood, I ſayde vnto thee, Lyue.

7 I cauſed thee to multiplie as the bud of the fielde, thou art growen vp, and waxen great, thou haſt gottẽ a marueylous pleaſant beautie, thy breaſtes are faſhioned, thy heare is goodly growen, whereas thou waſt naked and bare. B

8 Nowe when I went by thee, and looked vpon thee, behold, thy tyme was comme, yea

[euen] the time to woo thee: thē ſpread I my clothes ouer thee, to couer thy (c) diſhoneſtie, yea I made an othe vnto thee, and contracted mee ſelfe with thee (ſayth the Lorde God) and ſo thou becameſt myne owne.

9 Then waſhed I thee with water, and purged thy blood from thee, and I annoynted thee with oyle.

10 I clothed thee with broydred woorke, and ſhod thee with badgers ſkin, and I gyrded thee about with fine linnen, and couered thee with ſilke.

11 I decked thee with coſtly apparel, I put braſelets vpon thy handes, a chayne about thy necke:

12 And I put a frontlet vpon thy face, & eare ringes vpon thyne eares, and a beautyful crowne vpon thyne head.

13 Thus waſt thou deckt with golde and ſiluer, and thy rayment was of fine linnen, & of ſilke, and of broydred woorke: thou didſt eate fine floure, honie and oyle, marueylous beautiful waſt thou, and thou dydſt luckyly proſper into a kingdome.

C 14 And thy name was ſpread among the Heathen for thy beautie: for it was perfite through thy beautie which I put vpon thee, ſayth the Lorde God.

15 But thou haſt put thy confidence in thyne owne beautie, and played the harlot becauſe of thy renowne, and haſt (d) powred out thy fornications, with euery one that went by, thou waſt his.

16 Thou didſt take thy garmentes, and deckt thy hygh places with (e) diuers colours, and played the harlot ther vpon, (f) they comme not, and it ſhal not be.

17 The goodly iewels whiche I gaue thee of myne owne golde and ſiluer, haſt thou taken and made thee mennes images therof, and committed whordome with them.

18 Thy broydred garmentes haſt thou takē, & deckt them therewith: myne oyle and incenſe haſt thou ſet before them.

19 My meate whiche I gaue thee, as fyne floure, oyle and hony to feede thee withal, that haſt thou ſet before them for a ſweete ſauour: and thus it was, ſayth the Lorde God.

20 Thou haſt taken thyne owne ſonnes and daughters whom thou haſt begotten vnto me, and theſe haſt thou offred vp vnto them to be (g) deuoured: is this but a ſmal whordome of thyne?

D 21 And thou haſt ſlayne my chyldren, and deliuered them, to cauſe them to paſſe [through the fire] for them.

(c) Theſe wordes, blood, pollution, nakedneſſe, and filthyneſſe. &c. are oft tymes repeated, to beate downe their pryde, and to cauſe them to conſyder what they were before God receyued them to mercie, fauoured them, and couered their ſhame.

(d) There was none idolatry ſo vyle, wherwith thou didſt not pollute thee ſelfe.

(e) This declareth howe the idolaters put their chief delite in thoſe thinges which pleaſe the eyes and outwarde ſenſes.

(f) In ſuche ſort as the like hath not ben nor ſhalbe, ſo that they paſſed al nations in idolatrie.

(g) Meaning by fire, reade Leuit. 18. b. 4. Reg. 23. b.

22 And yet in al thyne abominations & whordomes, thou haſt not remembred the dayes of thy youth, howe naked & bare thou waſt at that tyme, and waſt defiled in thyne owne blood. B

23 After al theſe thy wickedneſſes, (wo, wo vnto thee, ſaith the Lorde God.)

24 Thou haſt buylt vnto thee an hygh place, and haſt made thee an hygh place in euery ſtreete.

25 Thou haſt buylt thyne high place at euery " head of the way, thou haſt made thy beautie to be abhorred, thou haſt opened thy feete to euery one that came by, and multiplied thy whoredome.

26 Thou haſt cōmitted fornication with the (h) Egyptians, thy neyghbours whiche were great in fleaſhe, and thus haſt thou increaſed thyne whordome to anger me.

27 Beholde, I did ſtretche out my hand ouer thee, and dyd miniſhe thy ſtoare of foode, and deliuered thee ouer into the wylles of them that hate thee, [euen] the daughters of the Philiſtines, whiche are aſhamed of thine abominable wayes.

E 28 Thou haſt played the whore alſo with the Aſſyrians, becauſe thou waſt inſatiable: yea thou haſt [I ſay] with them played the harlot, and yet hadſt thou not yenough.

29 Thus haſt thou furthermore multiplyed thy fornication from the lande of Chanaan vnto the Chaldees, and yet thou waſt not ſatiſfied herewith.

30 Howe weake is thyne hart, ſaith the Lord God, ſeeing thou doeſt al theſe woorkes of a preſumptuous whoriſhe woman?

31 Buylding thy hygh places at the head of euery way, & makeſt thy high places in euery ſtreete: thou haſt not benne as another whore that holdeth ſcorne of a rewarde:

32 But as a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, & taketh other in ſteede of her huſbande.

33 Giftes are geuen to al other whoores: but thou geueſt rewardes vnto al thy louers, and rewardeſt them to comme vnto thee on euery ſyde for thy fornication.

34 It is comme to paſſe with thee in thy whooredomes, contrary to the vſe of other women, yea there hath no ſuche fornication benne committed after thee: ſeeing that thou geueſt gyftes vnto other, and no rewarde is geuen thee, therfore thou art contrary.

35 Therefore heare the woorde of the Lorde, O thou harlot. F

36 Thus ſaith the Lorde God, Becauſe thou haſt (i) powred out thy braſſe, and diſcouered thy

" Corner of the ſtreete.

(h) He noteth the great impietie of this people, who firſt falling from God to ſeeke helpe at ſtrange nations, did alſo at length embraſe their idolatrie, thinking therby to make their amitie more ſure.

(i) That is, laviſhed out thy money vpon images to thy ſhame.

thy filthyneſſe thorowe thy fornicatiõs with thy louers, & with al the idols of thyne abominations, and in the blood of thy chyldren, whom thou haſt geuen them:

37 Beholde therfore, I wyl geather togeather al thy [k] louers, with whom thou haſt taken pleaſure, yea and al them whom thou haſt loued, and euery one that thou hateſt: I wyl [I ſay] geather them togeather rounde about agaynſt thee, and wyl diſcouer thy ſhame before them, that they may ſee al thy filthyneſſe.

38 Moreouer, (l) I wyl iudge thee as a breaker of wedlocke and a murtherer, and recompence thee thyne owne blood in wrath and gelouſie.

39 I wyl geue thee ouer into their handes, & they ſhal deſtroy thy hygh place, and breake downe thy hygh places, they ſhal ſtrip thee alſo out of thy clothes: thy fayre iewels ſhal they take from thee, and ſo leaue thee naked and bare.

40 Yea they ſhal bring a company vpon thee, which ſhal ſtone thee with ſtones, and thruſt thee through with their ſwoordes.

4.Re.25.b 41 They ſhal * burne vp thy houſes with fire, and pouniſhe thee in the ſight of many women: thus wyl I make thee ceaſſe from playeing the harlot, ſo that thou ſhalt geue out no more rewardes.

F 42 So wil I make my wrath towarde thee to reaſt, & my ielouſie ſhal depart from thee, & I wil ceaſſe, and be angry no more.

43 Seing thou remembreſt not the dayes of thy youth, but haſt fretted me in al theſe thinges: beholde therefore, I wyl bryng thyne owne wayes vpon thy head, ſayth the Lorde God, ſo that (m) thou ſhalt not commit [any more] miſchiefe vpon al thyne abominations.

44 Beholde, al they that vſe common prouerbes, ſhal vſe this prouerbe alſo agaynſt thee, ſaying, Suche a (n) mother, ſuche a daughter.

45 Thou art euen thy mothers owne daughter, that hath caſt of her huſbande & her chyldren: yea thou art the ſiſter of thy (o) ſiſters, whiche forſoke their huſbandes & their chyldren: your mother is an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 Thyne eldeſt ſiſter is Samaria, ſhe and her (p) daughters that dwel vpon thy left hande: but thy younger ſiſter that dwelleth on thy right hand, is Sodoma & her daughters.

47 Yet haſt thou not walked after their wayes, nor donne after their abominations, as a litle and a litle: but in al thy wayes thou haſt benne more corrupt then they.

48 As truely as I lyue, ſaith the Lorde God, Sodoma thy ſiſter with her daughters, haue not donne as thou haſt donne & thy daughters.

49 Beholde, the ſinnes of thy ſiſter Sodoma were theſe: (q) Pryde, fulneſſe of meate, and abundance of idleneſſe, theſe thynges had ſhe and her daughters: beſydes that, they ſtrengthed not the hande of the poore and needie.

50 But they were hautie, and committed abomination before me, therfore I tooke them away as I ſawe good.

51 Neyther hath (r) Samaria donne halfe of thy ſinnes, yea thou haſt exceeded them in thyne abominations, and haſt (s) iuſtified thy ſiſters in al thyne abominatiõs, whiche thou haſt donne.

52 Therfore thou whiche didſt condemne thy ſiſter, beare thyne owne ſhame: for thyne owne offences that thou haſt committed more abominable then they dyd, whiche in deede are more righteous then thou art, be thou [I ſay] aſhamed, and beare the ſhameful rebuke, ſeeing that thou haſt iuſtified thy ſiſters.

53 Therfore I wyl bryng agayne their captiuitie, the captiuitie of Sodom & her daughters, and the captiuitie of Samaria and her daughters, and the captiuitie of thy captiuities among (t) them, G

54 That thou mayeſt take thyne owne confuſion vpon thee, and be aſhamed of al that thou haſt donne, in that thou haſt (u) comforted them.

55 And thy ſiſter Sodom and her daughters, ſhal returne to their former ſtate, Samaria alſo and her daughters ſhal returne to their former ſtate, when thou and thy daughters ſhal returne to your former ſtate.

56 For thy ſiſter Sodom was not (x) hearde of by thy report in the day of thy pryde, 57 Before thy wickedneſſe was (y) diſcouered, according to the tyme of the reproche of the daughters of Aram, and of al the daughters of the Philiſtines rounde about her, whiche deſpiſe thee on al ſides.

58 Thou haſt borne thy wickedneſſe & thyne abomination, ſaith the Lorde.

59 For thus ſaith the Lord God, I might by right deale with thee as thou haſt donne, whiche haſt deſpyſed the (3) othe in breaking the couenant:

60 Neuertheleſſe, I wyl remember my couenant with thee in the daies of thy youth, and

I wyl

(k) Egyptians Aſſyrians, & Chaldeans, whom thou tookeſt to be thy louers, ſhal come and deſtroy thee. Ezech.33.b.

(l) I wyl iudge thee to death, as the adulterers & murtherers.

(m) Of al the heynous offences this ſhalbe the laſt, or god wyl pouniſhe thee ſo, that thou ſhalt neuer ſinne more

(n) As were the Chanaanites, and the Hittites, and other your predeceſſours, ſo are you their ſucceſſours.

(o) That is, of Samaria and Sodom.

(p) That is, her cities.

(q) He allegeth theſe foure vices, pryde, exceſſe, idleneſſe, and cõtempt of the poore, as foure principal cauſes of ſuch abomination, wherfore they were ſo horribly pouniſhed. Gene. 19. d.

(r) Which worſhipped the calues in Bethel and Dan. 3.Reg.12.d.

(s) Thou art ſo wicked, that in reſpect of thee, Sodom and Samaria were iuſt.

(t) That is, as if he had ſayde, neuer.

(u) In that thou haſt ſhewed thee ſelfe woorſe then they, and yet thoughteſt to eſcape pouniſhment.

(x) Thou wouldeſt not cal her pouniſhment to minde when thou waſt aloft, to learne by her example to feare my iudgementes.

(y) That is, tyl thou waſt brought vnder by the Syrians and the Philiſtines. 2.Chro.28.c.

(3) Reade the eyght vearſe.

I wyl eſtabliſhe vnto thee an euerlaſting couenant.

61 Then ſhalt thou remember thy wayes, & be aſhamed when thou ſhalt receiue thy (aa) ſiſters, [both] thy elder and thy younger: and I wyl geue them vnto thee for daughters, but not by thy couenant.

(aa) He ſpeaketh here not only of Sodom and Samaria, but alſo of the gentiles whom God wyl receyue of his owne free mercye.

62 And I wyl eſtabliſhe my couenant with thee, that thou mayeſt knowe that I am the Lorde.

63 That thou mayeſt thinke vpon it, and be (bb) aſhamed, and neuer open thy mouth any more for ſhame of thee ſelfe, when I am pacified towarde thee for al that thou haſt done, ſayth the Lorde God.

(bb) This declareth the fruites of Gods mercie, to wit, ſorowe and repentance for their former lyfe.

The.xvii.Chapter.

The parable of the two Egles.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, put foorth a parable, & ſpeake a prouerbe vnto the houſe of Iſrael,

3 And ſay, Thus ſaith the lorde God, There came a great(a) Egle, with great winges, yea with a mightie long body, and ful of feathers of diuers colours, vpon the mount of Libanus, & tooke the hygheſt branche of a Cedar tree, a() That is Nabuchodonoſor, who hath great power, riches and many countreys vnder hym, ſhal comme to Hieruſalem, and take away Iechoniah the kyng, as verſe.12.

4 And brake of the top of his twigges, and caryed it into the lande of (b) marchantes, and ſet it in a citie of marchantes.

(b) Meaning to Babylon.

5 He tooke alſo of the(c) ſeede of the land, and planted it in a fruiteful grounde, he brought it vnto great waters, and ſet it in an open trenche.

(c) That is Zedekiah, who was of the kynges blood, & was leaft at Hieruſalem, & made kyng in ſteede of Iechonias. 4.Reg.24.c. Iere.37.a.

6 Then did it growe, and was a(d) ſpreading vine, but (e) lowe of ſtature, whoſe branches turned towarde“ it, and the rootes of it were vnder it: thus there came of it a vine, and it brought foorth branches, & ſhot foorth buddes.

(d) This was Zedekias kyngdome.
(e) That it myght not haue power to rebel againſt Babylon, as vearſ.14.
“ The Egle.

7 But there was another (f) Egle, a great one, whiche had great wynges, and many feathers: and beholde, the rootes of this vine turned towardes it, and ſpread out her branches towards it, that ſhe might water it by the trenches of her plantation.

(f) Meaning the kyng of Egypt, of whō Zedekias ſought ſuccour againſt Nabuchodonoſor.

B 8 It was planted vpon a good ſoyle beſyde great waters, ſo that it ſhould haue brought out branches, and borne fruite, & haue benne a goodly vine.

9 Speake thou therfore, thus ſaith the Lorde God: Shal this vine proſper? ſhal (g) he not pulle vp the rootes therof, & deſtroy the fruite thereof, and cauſe them to dry? al the leaues of her bud ſhal wither without great power or many people, to plucke it vp by the rootes thereof.

(g) Nabuchodonoſor vnderſtanded by the firſt Egle.

10 Beholde, it was planted: Shal it proſper therfore? Shal it not be dryed vp and withered? when the (h) eaſt winde ſhal touche it, it ſhal wither in the trenches where it grewe.

(h) That is, the Babylonians.

11 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

12 Speake now to yͤ rebellious houſe, know ye not what theſe thinges [do ſignifie?] Tel them, beholde, the kyng of Babylon is come to Hieruſalem, and hath taken the (i) kyng thereof, and the princes therof, and hath led them with him to Babylon.

(i) That is, Iechonias. 4.Reg.24.c.

13 He tooke of the kynges ſeede, and made a couenant with hym, and tooke an othe of hym, the princes of the lande tooke he with him alſo,

14 That the kyngdome myght be holden in ſubiection, and not lift vp it ſelfe, but keape the couenant, and ſtande to it. C

15 But he rebelled agaynſt hym, and ſent his embaſſadours into Egypt, that he myght haue horſes and muche people: Shoulde he proſper? ſhal he eſcape that dooth ſuche thinges? or ſhal he breake the couenant, and eſcape free?

16 As truely as I liue, ſaith the Lorde God, he ſhal dye at Babylon, in the place where the kyng dwelleth that made him kyng, whoſe othe he hath deſpiſed, and whoſe couenant he hath broken.

17 Neyther ſhal Pharao with his great hoſt and multitude of people, mainteyne hym in the warre, when they haue caſt vp mountes, and buylt a fort to deſtroy many perſons.

18 For ſeeing he hath deſpyſed the othe, & broken the couenant, (wheras he yet gaue his (k) hande therupon) & donne al theſe thinges, he ſhal not eſcape.

(k) Becauſe he toke the name of God in vaine, & brake his oth which he had confirmed by geuing his hand, therfore the prophete declareth that God woulde not ſuffer periurie and infidelitie to eſcape puniſhment.

19 Therfore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, As truely as I lyue, I wyl bring mine othe that he hath deſpyſed, and my couenant that he hath broken, vpon his owne head.

20 * I wyl ſpreade my net vpon hym, and he ſhal be caught in my net: and I wyl brynge hym to Babylon, and enter into iudgement with hym there, for the treſpaſſe whiche he hath committed agaynſt me.

* Ezec. 12.b and.32.a.

D 21 As for thoſe that flee from hym, with al his hoſt, they ſhalbe ſlayne with the ſwoorde, & the reſidue ſhalbe ſcattred towardes al the windes: and ye ſhal knowe that I the Lord haue ſpoken it.

22 Thus ſaith the Lord God, I wil alſo take of the toppe of this hygh Cedar, and wyl ſet it, and cut of the top of the tender plant therof, and wyl plant it vpon an hygh hyl and a great.

23 [Namely] vpon the hygh hyl of Iſrael wyl I plant it, that it may bryng foorth bowes, & geue fruite, and be an excellent Cedar: & vnder it ſhal remayne al byrdes, and euery foule ſhal remayne vnder the ſhadow of the braunches thereof.

24 And al the trees of the fielde ſhal knowe that I the Lorde haue brought downe the hygh tree, & exalted the lowe tree, that I haue dryed vp the greene tree, & made the drye tree to floriſhe, [euen] I the Lorde that ſpake it, haue alſo brought it to paſſe.

The.xviii.Chapter.

4 He ſheweth that euery man ſhal beare his owne ſinne. 21 To him that amendeth, is ſaluation promiſed. 24 Death is prophecied to the righteous whiche turneth backe from the right way.

A 1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing:

2 What meane ye by this common prouerbe, that ye vſe in the lande of Iſrael, ſayeing: The (a) fathers haue eaten ſowre grapes, and the chyldrens teeth are ſet on edge?

(a) The people murmured at the chaſtiſinges of the Lorde, and therefore vſed this prouerbe, meaning that their fathers had ſinned, and they were pouniſhed for their tranſgreſſions, reade Ierem. 31.d.

3 As truely as I liue, ſaith the Lorde God, ye ſhal vſe this byworde no more in Iſrael.

4 Beholde, al ſoules are myne, lyke as the ſoule of the father is myne, ſo is the ſoule of the ſonne myne alſo: the ſoule that ſinneth, ſhal dye it ſelfe.

5 But if a man be iuſt, and doo that whiche is lawful and right:

6 He hath not (b) eaten vpon the hilles, he hath not lift his eyes to the idols of the houſe of Iſrael, neyther hath defyled his neyghbours wyfe, neither hath comme neare a (c) woman remoued:

(b) That is, if he haue not communicated in the ſacrifices of idols.
(c) Meaning ſuche as were ſet apart in tyme of natural & monthlye diſeaſes, namely in time of chydbyrth, leproſie, and ſuche like, as Leuit.20.c.

7 Neither hath oppreſſed any man, but hath reſtored to the detter his pledge: he that hath not ſpoyled any by violence, hath * geuen his bread to the hungry, and hath clothed the naked:

8 And hath not * geuen foorth vpon vſurie, neyther taken any encreaſe, he hath withdrawne his hande from iniquitie, and hath executed true iudgement betweene man and man:

Pſal.15.a.

9 And hath walked in my ſtatutes, & keapt my iudgementes to deale truely: this is a righteous man, he ſhal ſurely lyue, ſayth the Lorde God.

10 If he nowe geat a ſonne that is a robber, a ſheadder of blood, and doo any one of theſe thinges:

11 Though he doo not al theſe thinges, but either hath eaten vpon the hilles, or defyled his neyghbours wyfe:

12 Or hath oppreſſed the poore and needie, or ſpoyled by violence, or hath not reſtored the pledge, or hath lift vp his eyes vnto the idols, or hath committed abomination:

13 Or hath geuen foorth vpon vſurie, or hath taken encreaſe: Shal this man lyue? he ſhal not lyue: Seeing he hath donne al theſe abominations, he ſhal dye the death, his b[illegible] ſhalbe vpon hym.

14 Nowe if this man geat a ſonne alſo, that C ſeeth al his fathers ſinnes, whiche he hath donne, and feareth, neither dooth ſuche lyke:

15 [Namely] he hath not eaten vpon the hilles, he hath not lift vp his eyes to the idols of the houſe of Iſrael, nor defyled his neyghbours wyfe:

16 Neither hath oppreſſed any, nor hath withholden the pledge, neyther hath ſpoyled by violence: [but] hath geuen his bread to the hungry, and hath couered the naked with a garment:

17 Neither hath withdrawen his hande from the afflicted, nor receaued vſurie nor encreaſe, [but] hath executed my iudgementes, & walked in my ſtatutes: this man ſhal not dye in his fathers ſinne, but ſhal lyue without fayle.

18 As for his father, becauſe he hath cruelly oppreſſed & ſpoyled his brother by violence, and hath not donne good among his people, lo he dyeth in his owne ſinne.

19 And yet ſay ye, Wherfore then ſhoulde not this ſonne beare his fathers ſinne? Becauſe the ſonne hath donne iudgement & righteouſneſſe, he hath keapt al my ſtatutes and donne them: therefore ſhal he lyue in deede.

20 The ſame ſoule that ſinneth ſhal dye, * the ſonne ſhal not beare the fathers iniquitie, neither ſhal the father beare the ſonnes iniquitie: the righteouſneſſe of the righteous ſhalbe vpon hym, & the wickedneſſe of the wicked ſhalbe vpon him ſelfe alſo.

2.Par.25.a.

D 21 But if the vngodly wyl turne away from al his ſinnes that he hath donne, and keepe al my ſtatutes, and doo the thing that is iugdement and right, doubtleſſe he ſhal liue, and not dye.

22 As for al his ſinnes that he dyd before, they ſhal not be mentioned vnto hym: but in his righteouſneſſe that he hath donne, he ſhal lyue.

23 * For haue I any pleaſure in the death of a ſinner, ſaith the Lorde God? ſhal he not lyue, if he returne from his wayes?

2.Petr.3.b. Ezec.33.b.

24 Agayne, if the righteous turne from his righteouſneſſe, and doo iniquitie, & ſhal doo accordyng to al the abominations that the wicked man dooth: ſhal he liue? Al the righteouſneſſe that he hath donne, ſhal not be remēbred, but in his tranſgreſſion that he hath committed, in his ſinne that he hath ſinned, in them he ſhal dye.

25 And yet ye ſay, The way of the Lorde is not[d] indifferent. Heare therefore ye houſe of Iſrael, is not my way equal? or are not your wayes rather vnequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away frō his righteouſneſſe, and committeth iniquitie, and dieth in the ſame: in his iniquitie, whiche he hath committed, ſhal he dye.

27 Agayne, when the wicked turneth away from his wickedneſſe that he hath done, and dooth iudgement and right, he ſhal ſaue his ſoule aliue.

28 Becauſe he “ſeeth, and turneth away from al his iniquitie that he hath cōmitted, he ſhal ſurely liue, and not dye. E “Conſidereth or remembreth his iniquities.

29 And yet, ſaith the houſe of Iſrael, the way of the Lorde is not equal. Are my wayes vnequal, O ye houſe of Iſrael? are not your wayes rather vnequal?

30 Therefore I wyl iudge you, euery man accordyng to his wayes, O ye houſe of Iſrael ſaith the Lorde: returne, & bryng your ſelues agayne from al your wickedneſſe, ſo iniquitie ſhal not be your deſtruction.

31 Caſt away from you al your trāſgreſſions wherby ye haue tranſgreſſed, and make you a newe hart, and a newe ſpirite: for why wyl ye dye, O ye houſe of Iſrael?

32 Seeyng I haue no pleaſure in the death of hym that dyeth, ſayth the Lorde God, bryng agayne your ſelues then, and ye ſhal lyue.

The.xix.Chapter.

2 The captiuitie of Iehohas and Iehoiakim is ſignified by the lions whelpes, and by the lion. 10 He ſetteth out the proſ[illegible]itie of the citie of Hieruſalē that is paſt, and the miſerie therof that is preſent.

A 1 Thou alſo take vp a lamentation for the[a] princes of Iſrael,

[a] That is, Iehohas and Iehoiakim Ioſiahs ſonnes, who for their crueltie and pride are compared vnto lions.

2 And ſay, Wherfore lay thy mother, that lioneſſe, among the lions? ſhe nouriſhed her young ones among the lions whelpes.

3 One of her whelpes ſhe brought vp, and it became a lion, it learned to catche the pray, & to deuour folke.

4 The[b] heathen hearde of hym, and caught hym in their ſnare, & brought hym in hookes vnto the lande of Egypt.

[b] Meanyng Pharao Necho kyng of Egypt. 4.Reg.23.d.

5 Nowe whē ſhe ſawe that ſhe had wayted, and her hope was loſt, ſhe tooke another[c] of her whelpes, and made a lion of hym.

[c] whiche was Iehoiakim.

6 Whiche went among the lions, & became a fearce lion, learned to catche the pray, and to deuour folke,

B 7 He deſtroyed their palaces, and made their cities waſte, inſomuche that the whole lande and euery thing therin, were vtterly deſolate through the voyce of his roaryng.

8 Then ſet the[d] heathen togeather on euery ſyde of the countreis againſt him, layde their nettes for him, and toke him in their pit.

9 So they put hym in priſon in chaynes, and brought hym to the kyng of Babylon: they put him in holdes, that his voyce ſhoulde no more be hearde vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael.

10 As for thy[e] mother, ſhe is like a vine in thy blood, planted by ye waters: ſhe brought forth fruite, & branches by the abundant waters.

[e] He ſpeaketh this in the reproche of this wicked king, in whoſe blood, that is, in the race of his predeceſſours, Hieruſalem was, & ſo ſhould haue ben bleſſed, accordyng to Gods promiſes, and floriſhed like a fruitful vine.

11 And ſhe had ſtrong roddes for the ſcepters of them that beare rule, and her ſtature was exalted on high among the branches, and ſhe appeared in her heigth, with the multitude of her branches.

12 But ſhe was pluckt vp in wrath, caſt out vpon the grounde, the eaſt wynde dryed vp her fruite [her branches] were broken of, and withered, as for the roddes of her ſtrēgth, the fire conſumed them.

13 And now ſhe is planted in the wilderneſſe, in a dry and thirſtie grounde.

C 14 And there is a fire gonne out of the[f] rodde of her branches, it hath deuoured her fruite, ſo that ſhe hath no ſtrong rodde for a ſcepter to rule: This is a lamentation, and ſhalbe for a lamentation.

[f] Deſtruction to comme by Zedekiah, who was the occaſion of the rebellion.

The.xx.Chapter.

3 The Lorde denieth that he wyl anſweare them when they pray, for the offence of vnkindneſſe whiche he here obiecteth. 33 He promiſeth that his people ſhal returne from captiuitie. 46 By the Forreſt that ſhoulde be burnt, is ſignified the burning of Hieruſalem.

A 1 IN the (a) ſeuenth yere the tenth day of the fifth moneth, certayne of the elders of Iſrael came for to aſke counſayle at the Lorde, & ſate downe before me.

(a) Of the captiuitie of Ieconiah.

2 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, ſaying:

3 Thou ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto the elders of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lorde God, Are ye comme to enquire of me? As truely as I lyue, I wyl not be (b) ſought of you, ſaith the Lorde God.

(b) If ye aſke counſayle at me, I wyl geue you no anſweare. as Exod. 31.

4 Wylt thou not iudge them ſonne of man, wylt thou not iudge [them?] cauſe them to vnderſtande the abominations of their fathers,

5 And tel them, Thus ſaith the Lorde God, In the day when I choſe Iſrael, and (c) lift vp myne hande vpon the ſeede of the houſe of Iacob, and was knowen vnto them in the lande of Egypt, yea when I lift vp mine hande ouer them, and ſayde, I am the Lorde your God:

(c) This was a manner of ſwearyng, whiche was obſerued in takyng an othe of al antiquitie, and is yet in diuers countreys vſed.

6 Euen in the day that I lift vp mine hande vnto them, to bryng them out of the lande of Egypt, into a lande that I had prouided for them, whiche floweth with milke & hony, & is pleaſant among al other landes:

B 7 Then ſayd I vnto them, Caſt away euery man the abominations of his eyes, & defile not your ſelues with the idols of Egypt: for I am the Lorde your God.

8 But they rebelled againſt me, and woulde not hearke vnto me, they dyd not caſt away euery man the abominations of his eyes, neither dyd they forſake the idols of Egypt: then I ſayd I woulde powre out myne indignation ouer them, and accompliſhe my wrath vpon them, yea euen in the middeſt of the lande of Egypt.

9 And I wrought for my names ſake, that it ſhoulde not be polluted before the heathen among whom they were, to whom I was manifeſtly knowē, in bringing them foorth of the lande of Egypt.

10 Nowe when I had cauſed them to go out of the lande of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderneſſe:

11 I gaue them my ſtatutes, & ſhewed them my iudgementes: * whiche who ſo dooth, ſhal lyue in them.

Rom. 10.a Gal. 3.b.

12 I gaue them alſo my * Sabboth dayes to be a token betwixt me and them, and therby to knowe that I am the Lorde, whiche halowe them.

Leui. 18.a. Exo. 20.b.

13 And yet the houſe of Iſrael rebelled agaynſt me in the wilderneſſe, they woulde not walke in my ſtatutes, they haue caſt away my iudgementes, which who ſo dooth, ſhal lyue in them, and my Sabboth dayes haue they greatly polluted: * then I ſayde, I woulde powre out myne indignation vpon them, and conſume them in the wilderneſſe.

Nu. 14.d.

14 And I wrought for my names ſake, leſt it ſhould be defiled before the heathen, in whoſe ſight I brought them out. C

15 Yet neuertheleſſe I lift vp my hande vnto them in the wilderneſſe, that I woulde not bryng them into the lande, whiche I gaue them, that floweth with mylke & hony, and is a pleaſure of al landes:

16 And that becauſe they caſt away my iudgementes, & walked not in my ſtatutes: but haue defiled my Sabbothes: for their hart was gonne after their idols.

17 Neuertheleſſe, myne eye ſpared them, ſo that I woulde not deſtroy them, nor cōſume them in the wilderneſſe.

18 Moreouer, I ſayde vnto their ſonnes in the wilderneſſe, Walke not in the ſtatutes of your (d) fathers, keepe not their iudgementes, and defile not your ſelues with their idols.

(d) wherby the holy ghoſt confuteth thē that ſay they wyl folowe the religion & example of their father, & not meaſure their doynges by Gods woorde, whether they be approuable therby or no.

19 I am the Lord your God, walke in my ſtatutes, keepe my iudgementes, & doo them.

20 Halowe my Sabbothes, for they are a token betwixt me & you: that ye may knowe, howe that I am the Lord your God.

21 Notwithſtandyng, their ſonnes rebelled agaynſt me alſo, they walked not in my ſtatutes, they keapt not my iudgementes to fulfyl them, whiche he that dooth, ſhal lyue in them, they prophaned my Sabboth dayes: and I ſayde, I woulde powre out myne indignation ouer them, and accompliſhe my wrath vpon them in the wilderneſſe. D

22 Neuertheleſſe, I withdrewe my hand, and wrought for my names ſake, leſt it ſhoulde be defiled in the ſight of the heathen, before whom I had brought them foorth.

23 I lift vp my hande to them alſo in the wilderneſſe, that I woulde ſcatter them among the heathen, and ſtrawe them among the nations:

24 Becauſe they had not keapt my iudgementes, but caſt aſide my ſtatutes, & broken my Sabbothes, and their eyes were after their fathers idols.

(c) Becauſe they woulde not obey my lawes, I gaue them vp to them ſelues, that they ſhoulde obey their owne fantaſies, as vearſe.39. Rom.1.d.

25 Wherfore, I (c) gaue them alſo ſtatutes that were not good, & iudgementes wherin they ſhoulde not lyue.

26 And I defiled them in their owne giftes, in that they (f) cauſed al that openeth the wombe to paſſe, that I might deſtroy them, that they might knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

(f) Cauſyng their firſt borne to paſſe through the fire in ſacrifice to Moloche.

27 Therfore, ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, thou ſonne of man, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord God, Yet in this alſo your fathers haue blaſphemed me, and greeuouſly tranſgreſſed agaynſt me:

E 28 For after I had brought them into the lande, for the whiche I lifted vp my hande to geue it vnto them, when they ſawe euery high hil, and al thicke trees, they offered there their ſacrifices, and there they preſented their offering of (g) anger, there alſo thei made their ſweete ſauours, and powred out their wine offerynges.

(g) Suche offeryng as prouoke God to anger.

29 And I ſayde vnto them, What is that high place wher vnto ye reſort? and the name of it is called (h) Bamah vnto this day.

(h) whiche ſignifieth an hygh place, declaryng that they vaunted them ſelues of their idolatrie, and were not aſhamed therof, though God had commaunded expreſly ŷ they ſhoulde haue no aulter lifted vp on high by ſtayres. Exod.20.d.

30 Wherfore ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, Thus ſaith the lorde God, Are ye not defiled in the wayes of your fathers, and commit ye not whoredome after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your giftes, & make your ſonnes to paſſe through the fire, you are polluted with al your idols vnto this day: ſhal I anſweare you when I am aſked, O houſe of Iſrael? As I lyue, ſaith the Lorde God, I wyl not be ſought of you.

32 And [that which] cōmeth into your mynde, ſhal not be at al, whiche you ſay, We wyl be as the gentiles, as the kinredes of countreys, to ſerue wood and ſtone.

33 As truely as I lyue, ſaith the Lorde God, I mee ſelfe wyl rule you with a mightye hande, with a ſtretched out arme, and with indignation powred out ouer you.

34 And I wyl bring you from the people, and geather you out of the countreys wherin ye are ſcattered, with a mightie hande, with a ſtretched out arme, and with indignation

F powred out.

35 And I wyl bryng you into the (i) wilderneſſe of the people, and there I (k) wyl be iudged with you face to face.

(i) That is, amongſt ſtraunge nations.
(k) I wyl reaſon and pleade my cauſe with you my ſelfe.

36 Lyke as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderneſſe of Egypt: ſo wyl I pleade with you alſo, ſaith the Lorde God.

37 I wyl cauſe you to paſſe vnder the rodde, and I wyl bryng you into the bonde of the couenant.

38 And I wyl " purge out of you the rebelles, and them that tranſgreſſe agaynſt me, and bryng them out of the lande of their habitation: as for the lande of Iſrael they ſhal not comme in it, that you may know howe that I am the Lord.

" Or, cul,

39 As for you, O houſe of Iſrael, thus ſaith the Lorde God, Goe you & ſerue euery man his idols, ſeyng that ye obey not me: and pollute no more my holy name with your gifts and your idols.

40 For vpon my holy hyl, euē vpon the high hyl of Iſrael, ſaith the Lorde God, ſhal al the houſe of Iſrael, & al that is in the lande worſhip me: and in the ſame place wyl I fauour them, & there wyl I require your heaue offerynges, and the firſtlinges of your oblatiōs, with al your holy thinges.

41 I wyl accept your ſweete ſauour, when I G
bryng you from the nations, and geather you togeather out of the landes wherin ye haue benne ſcattered, that I may be halowed in you before the heathen.

42 And ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde, when I ſhal bring you into the lande of Iſrael, into the lande for the whiche I lift vp my hande to geue it vnto your fathers.

43 There ſhal ye cal to remēbrance your owne waies, and al your woorkes wherin ye haue benne defyled, and ye ſhalbe cut of in your (l) owne ſight, for al your wickedneſſe that ye haue donne.

(l) Your owne conſciences ſhal cōdempne you as worthy to be cut of from the earth.

44 And ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde, when I deale with you for my names ſake, and not after your wicked wayes, nor according to your corrupt woorkes, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the Lorde God.

45 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing:

46 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde the way of Themanah, and drop [thy worde] towarde the (m) ſouth, and prophecie towarde the forreſt of the ſouth feelde.

(m) That is, towarde Hieruſalem and Iuda, which was ſouth from Babylon.

47 And ſay to the forreſt of the ſouth, Heare the woorde of the Lord, thus ſaith the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl kindle a fire in thee, that ſhal conſume al the (n) greene trees, with al the dry: the continual flambe ſhal not be quenched, and euery face from the ſouth to the north ſhalbe burnt therin.

(n) That is, both ſtrong & weake in Hieruſalem.

48 And al fleaſhe ſhal ſee that I the Lord haue kindled it, and it ſhal not be quenched.

49 Then ſayde I, Ah Lorde God, they ſay of me, Dooth not he ſpeake (o) parables?

(o) Becauſe the people ſaw that the prophete ſpake darkly, therfore he deſyreth the Lord to geue them a playne declaration therof.

The.xxi.Chapter.

3 He threatneth the ſwoorde, that is to ſay deſtruction, to the citie of Hieruſalem. 25 He ſheweth the falle of king Zedekiah. 28 He is commaunded to prophecie the deſtruction of the chyldren of Ammon. 30 After the ſlaughter of other, at the laſt the Lorde threatneth death vnto Nabuchodonoſor hym ſelfe.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde Hieruſalem, & (a) drop [thy woorde] towarde the holy places, and prophecie agaynſt the lande of Iſrael.

(a) As doctrine is compared to raine, euen ſo here woordes are compared to droppes.

3 Say to the lande of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde I am agaynſt thee, and wyl drawe my ſwoorde out of the ſheath, and cut of from thee both the (b) ryghteous and the wicked.

(b) That is, ſuche as ſeeme to haue an outward ſhew of ryghteouſneſſe by obſeruation of the ceremonies of the lawe.

4 Seeyng then that I wyl cut of from thee both the ryghteous and the wicked: therefore ſhal my ſwoord goe out of his ſheath againſt al fleaſhe from the (c) South to the North,

(c) Meanyng through al the lande.

5 That al fleaſhe may knowe howe that I the Lorde haue drawen my ſwoorde out of the ſheath, and it ſhal not be put in agayne.

6 Mourne therfore, O thou ſonne of man, yea [euen] with the (d) breakyng of thy loynes, mourne bitterly in their preſence.

(d) As though thou were in extreme anguiſhe wherewith thy loynes ſhould breake.

7 And if they ſay vnto thee, Wherfore mourneſt thou? Then tel them, For the (e) tidinges that commeth, al hartes ſhal melt, al handes ſhalbe letten downe, al ſtomackes ſhal faynt, and al knees ſhal (f) goe as water: beholde it commeth, and ſhalbe brought to paſſe, ſayth the Lorde God.

B

(e) Becauſe of the great noiſe of the armie of yͤ Chaldeans.
(f) Shalbe as weake as water.

8 Agayne, the woord of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

9 Thou ſonne of man, prophecie and ſpeake, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Speake, The ſwoorde, the ſwoorde is ſharpened, and wel furbiſhed.

10 Sharpened is it to make a great ſlaughter, & furbiſhed that it may glitter: Shal we then make mirth? It contemneth the (g) rodde of my ſonne [as] (h) al other trees.

(g) Meanyng the ſcepter, ſhewyng that it wyl not ſpare yͤ king, who ſhould be as the ſonne of God, and in his place.
(h) That is, the reaſt of the people.

11 He hath geuen it to be furbiſhed, to holde it in the hande: this ſwoorde is ſharpened, and furbiſhed, to geue it into the hande of the (i) ſlayer.

(i) To wit, vnto the army of the Chaldeans.

12 Crye and houle ſonne of man, for it commeth vpon my people [it commeth] vpon al the princes of Iſrael: the terrours of yͤ ſwoord ſhalbe vpon my people, *ſmyte therfore thou vpon thy thygh.

Iere. 31. c.

13 Becauſe it is a trial: and what if (k) it contemne the rodde? It ſhalbe no more, ſaith the Lorde.

(k) Meanyng the ſwoorde of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhal not ſpare the ſcepter of Iuda.

14 Prophecie thou ſonne of man, and ſmyte thy (l) handes togeather, and let the ſwoorde be doubled thriſe, [euen] the ſwoorde of the great ſlaughter, entryng into their priuie chambers,

C

(l) That is, encourage the ſwoorde.

15 To make them faynt at the hartes, and to multiplie their falles, in al their gates haue I geuen the terrour of yͤ ſwoorde: Ah it is made bryght, and dreſſed for the ſlaughter.

16 Geat thee (m) one way or other, either vpon the ryght hande, or vpon the leaft, whyther ſoeuer thy face turneth.

(m) He ſpeaketh vnto the ſwoorde, geuyng it libertie to range at his pleaſure.

17 I wyl ſmyte my handes togeather alſo, and make my wrathful indignatiō to reaſt: euen I the Lorde haue ſayde it.

18 The woorde of the Lorde came yet vnto me agayne, ſayeing,

19 Thou ſonne of man, appoynt thee two (n) wayes, that the ſwoorde of the kyng of Babylon may comme: Both theſe wayes ſhal goe out of one lande, and chooſe thee a place, at the head of the citie wayes chooſe it.

(n) Where the way diuideth and leadeth to many cities.

20 Appoynt a way, that the ſwoorde may comme towarde Rabbath of yͤ Ammonites, and towarde (o) Iuda in the defenced Hieruſalem.

(o) The tribe of Iuda that kept thēſelues chiefely in Hieruſalem.

D

21 For the kyng of Babylon ſtoode at the (p) parting of the wayes, at the head of the two wayes, conſultyng by diuination, he made his arrowes bryght, conſulted with images, and lookt in the liuer.

(p) To knowe whether he ſhoulde goe agaynſt the Ammonites, or them of Hieruſalem.

22 At his ryght hande was the ſoothſayeing for Hieruſalem, to appoynt captaines, to open [their] mouth to the ſlaughter, and to lyft vp their voyce with the alarum, to ſet battle rammes againſt yͤ gates, to caſt a bulwarke, [and] to buylde a fort.

23 And it ſhalbe vnto them as a falſe diuination in thier ſight, for the (q) othes made vnto them: but (r) he wyl cal to remembrance their iniquitie, to the intent they may be taken.

(q) Becauſe there was a league betweene the Iewes and the Babylonians, they of Hieruſalem ſhal thinke nothing leſſe thē that this thing ſhal comme to paſſe.
(r) That is, Nabuchodonoſor wyl remember the rebellion of Zedekiah, and ſo comme vpō them.

24 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Becauſe ye haue made your iniquitie to be remembred in diſcouering your tranſgreſſions, ſo that in al your workes your ſinnes myght appeare, becauſe ye are comme to remembrance, ye ſhalbe taken by hande.

25 O thou ſhameful wicked (ſ) prince of Iſrael, whoſe day is comme, euen when wickedneſſe ſhal haue an ende, (ſ) Meanyng Zedekiah.

26 Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, I wyl take away the (t) Diademe, and put of the crowne: this ſhalbe no more the ſame, I wyl exalt the humble, and abaſe hym that is hygh.

27 Ouerthrowen, ouerthrowen, ouerthrowē wyl I put[v] it, and it ſhal not be, vntyl he comme to whom the iudgement belongeth, and to whom I haue geuen it.

(v) That is, the ſtate of the kingdome and prieſthood ſhal euer more and more decay, tyl Chriſt comme, vnto whom of right doth belong.

28 And thou, O ſonne of man, prophecie and ſpeake, Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD to the children of Ammon, and to their blaſphemie, ſpeake thou: The ſwoorde, the ſwoorde is drawen foorth alredy to ſlaughter, and furbiſhed to conſume, becauſe of the glitteryng:

29 Whyles they ſee vnto thee[x] vanitie, and deuine a lye vnto thee, to put thee with the neckes of the wicked that be ſlayne, whoſe day is comme, whē their iniquitie ſhal haue an ende.

(x) Though the Iewes & Ammonites would not beleue that thou, to wit, the ſwoorde ſhouldeſt comme vpon them, & ſayde that the prophete whiche threatned, ſpake lyes: yet thou ſhalt as ſurely comme, as though thou were alredy vpon their neckes.

30 Shoulde I cauſe it to returne into his ſheath? In the place where thou waſte created, in the lande of thyne habitation wyl I iudge thee:

31 And I wil powre mine indignation vpon thee, and wyl blowe vpon thee in the fyre of my wrath, and delyuer thee into the handes of deſperate people, whiche are ſkilful to deſtroy.

32 Thou ſhalt feede the fyre, and thy blood ſhalbe ſhed in the lande: thou ſhalt be put out of remembrance, for I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

The.xxij.Chapter.

The woorde of the Lorde agaynſt Hieruſalem for manſlaughter, and denyeing due honour to their fathers and mothers, and other wickedneſſes. 25 Of the wicked doctrine of the falſe prophetes and prieſtes, and of their vnſatiable couetouſneſſe. 27 The tyrannie of rulers. 29 The wickedneſſe of the people.

A 1 MOreouer, the woord of the Lord came vnto me, and ſayde,

2 Thou ſonne of man, wylt thou not[a] iudge, wylt thou not iudge this blooddy citie? wylt thou not ſhewe her al her abominations?

(a) That is, wylt thou wincke at ſuche horrible faultes, and not vtter my iudgementes agaynſt them?

3 And tel them, thus ſaith the Lorde GOD, The citie ſheddeth blood in the middeſt of it, that her[b] tyme may comme, and maketh idols[c] agaynſt her ſelfe, to defyle her ſelfe.

(b) That is, the time of her deſtruction.
(c) To her owne vndoing

4 Thou haſt made thee ſelfe giltie in the blood that thou haſt ſhedde, and defyled thee in the idolles which thou haſt made: thou haſt cauſed thy dayes to drawe nygh, and made the tyme of thy yeeres to comme: therfore wyl I make thee a reproche among the Heathen, and to be a mockyng in al landes.

5 Whether they be nygh, or farre from thee, they ſhal laugh thee to ſcorne, thou that haſt gotten thee ſo foule a name, and art ful of trouble.

6 Beholde the rulers of Iſrael, euery one in thee [was redy] to his power to ſhed blood.

B 7 In thee haue they diſpiſed father and mother, in thee haue they oppreſſed the ſtranger, in thee haue they vexed the widowe and the fatherleſſe.

8 Thou haſt diſpiſed my holy thynges, and defyled my Sabbothes.

9 " Tale tellers are there in thee to ſhed blood, in thee are ſuche as eate vpon the hylles, and in thee they commit abomination.

" or, pickthankes.

Leui. 18.b. 10 In thee they diſcouered their fathers ſhame, in thee they haue humbled her that was ſet apart for pollution.

12 Yea giftes haue benne receiued in thee to ſhead blood, thou haſt taken vſurie and encreaſe, thou haſt oppreſſed thy neighbours by extortion, and forgotten me, ſaith the Lorde God.

13 Behold, I haue[d] ſmitten my handes vpō thy couetouſnes that thou haſt vſed, & vpon the blood which hath benne ſhed in thee.

(d) As ſorowyng & lamenting their wickedneſſe: or in token of his wrath and vengeance.

14 Is thy hart able to endure? or may thy handes be ſtrengthened in the dayes that I C ſhal haue to doo with thee? Euen I the Lord that ſpeake it, wyl bring it alſo to paſſe.

15 I wil ſcatter thee among the Heathen, and ſtraw thee about in the landes, and wil cauſe thy fylthineſſe to[e] ceaſſe out of thee.

(e) I wil take away the occaſion of thy wickedneſſe.

16 Yea and thou ſhalt be thyne[f] owne inheritance in the ſyght of the Heathen, that thou mayeſt knowe that I am the Lorde.

(f) whereas before thou waſte Gods inheritance, nowe thou ſhalt be leaſt to thy ſelfe miſerable and forſaken.

17 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

18 Thou ſonne of man, the houſe of Iſrael is vnto me as droſſe: al they are braſſe, tinne, iron, and leade in the middeſt of the furnace, euen droſſe of ſiluer are they.

19 Therefore, thus ſaith the Lorde God, Foraſmuche as ye al are turned into droſſe, therfore beholde, I wyl bring you togeather vnto Hieruſalem.

20 Lyke as they geather ſyluer, braſſe, iron, tinne, & lead, into the middeſt of the furnace, and the fyre is blowen there vnder to melt them: euen ſo wyl I geather you in myne anger and in my wrath, and let you remayne [there] and cauſe you to (g) melt.

21 I wyl bring you togeather, and blowe the fire of my wrath vpon you, and you ſhalbe molten in the middeſt therof.

D 22 Lyke as the ſiluer is moltẽ in the furnace, ſo ſhal ye alſo be molten therein, that ye may knowe how that I the Lorde haue powred my wrath vpon you.

23 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

24 Thou ſonne of man, tel her, Thou art an vncleane land, whiche is not (h) rayned vpon in the day of wrath.

25 There is a (i) conſpiracie of her prophetes in the middeſt thereof: as a roaryng Lion rauening his pray, they deuoure ſoules, they haue taken the ryche and precious thinges, they haue made her many widowes in the middeſt thereof.

26 Her prieſtes haue broken my lawe, and defyled my holy thinges, they put no difference betweene the holy and vnholy, neyther diſcerne they betweene the cleane and vncleane: they turne their eyes from my Sabbothes, and I am defyled among them.

27 *Thy rulers in thee are lyke woolues rauenyng the pray, to ſhedde blood, and deſtroy ſoules, for their owne couetous lucre.

28 As for her (k) prophetes, they daube with vntempered morter, they ſee vanities, and diuine lyes vnto them, ſaying, The Lorde ſayth ſo: whereas the Lorde hath not ſpoken. E

29 The people in the lande vſeth wicked extortion and robberie, they vexe the poore and needy, and oppreſſe the ſtranger agaynſt ryght.

30 And I ſought among them for a man that woulde (l) make vp the hedge, and ſet hym ſelfe in the gap before me in ẏ landes behalfe, that I ſhoulde not deſtroy it: but I coulde fynde none.

31 Therfore haue I powred out my cruel diſpleaſure vpon them, and conſumed them in the fyre of my wrath: their owne wayes wil I recompence vpon their heades, ſayth the Lorde God.

(g) Meanyng thereby that the godly ſhoulde be tryed, and the wicked deſtroyed.

The.xxiii.Chapter.

4 Of the fornication, that is to ſay, of the idolatrie of Samaria and Hieruſalem, vnder the name of Aholah and Aholibah. 11 In compariſon of Samaria, he ſheweth that the fornication of Hieruſalem is the fylthier. 22 The deſtruction of Hieruſalem is prophecied. 36 The adulterie of both the whoores is founde out. 47 Their deſtruction.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, there were two women the daughters of (a) one mother:

3 And they committed fornication in (b) Egypt, they played the harlots in their youth: there were their breaſtes preſſed, and there they bruyſed the teates of their virginitie.

4 The (c) names of them [were] Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her ſiſter, and they were mine, and they bare ſonnes and daughters: thus [were] their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Hieruſalem Aholibah.

5 Aholah played the harlot (d) when ſhe was " myne, and ſhe was ſet on fire with her louers the Aſſyrians her neyghbours:

6 Whiche were clothed with blewe ſylke, [both] captaynes & princes, they were al pleaſant young menne, and horſemen rydyng vpon horſes.

B

8 Neither leaft ſhe the fornication that ſhe vſed with the Egyptians: for in her youth they (e) lay with her, they bruyſed the breaſtes of her maidenhead, and powred their whooredome vpon her.

9 Wherefore I deliuered her into the handes of her louers [euen] into the handes of the Aſſyrians, vpon whom ſhe doted.

10 These diſcouered her ſhame, toke her ſonnes and daughters, & ſlue her with the ſwoorde, an euyl name had ſhe among women: for (f) they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 Her ſiſter Aholibah ſaw this, and deſtroyed her ſelfe with inordinate loue more then ſhe, & with her fornications, more then her ſiſter with her fornications.

12 She doted vpon the Aſſyrians captaynes and princes her neyghbours, clothed with al manner of gorgious apparel, horſemen rydyng vpon horſes, beyng al pleaſant young menne.

13 Then I ſawe that ſhe was defyled, and they tooke both one way.

14 But ſhe encreaſed ſtyl in whooredome: for when ſhe ſawe (g) menne paynted vpon the wal, the images of the Chaldees paynted with vermilion,

(a) Meanyng Iſrael and Iuda, whiche came both out of one familie.

(b) They became idolatours after the manner of the Egyptians.

(c) Aholah ſignifieth a manſion or dwellyng in her ſelfe, meanyng Samaria, whiche was the royal citie of Iſrael, and Aholibah ſignifieth my manſiõ in her, whereby is meant Hieruſalem, where Gods temple was.

(d) or, Vnder me, that is, vnder my gouernance, and named the people of god, they became idolaters, forſoke God, and put their truſt in the Aſſyrians.

(e) The holy ghoſt vſeth theſe tearmes, whiche ſeeme ſtrange to chaſte eares, to cauſe this wicked vice of idolatrie ſo to be abhorred, that vnneth any ſhoulde abyde to heare the name therof mentioned.

(f) That is, the Aſſyrians, in oft plagyng them.

(g) This declareth that no woordes are able ſufficiently to expreſſe the rage of idolaters, & therefore the holy ghoſt here compareth thẽ to thoſe which in their raging loue and filthy luſtes dote vpon the images and payntinges of them after whom they luſt.

C 15 And girded with girdles vpon their loynes, and with dyed attyre vpon their heades, lookyng al lyke princes, after the maner of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the lande where they were borne.

16 Aſſoone as ſhe ſawe them, ſhe burnt in loue vpon them, and ſent meſſengers vnto them into the lande of the Chaldees.

17 Nowe when the Babylonians came vnto her in the bed of loue, they defyled her with their whooredome: and ſo was ſhe polluted with them, and her luſt was abated from them.

18 And ſhe diſcouered her whooredome, and diſcloſed her ſhame: then my hart forſooke her, lyke as my hart was gonne from her ſiſter alſo.

19 Neuertheleſſe, ſhe encreaſed her whooredome more, and remembred the dayes of her youth wherein ſhe had played the harlot in the lande of Egypt.

20 She burnt in luſt vpon their concubines, whoſe fleaſhe was lyke the fleaſhe of aſſes, and their iſſue lyke the iſſue of horſes.

D 21 Thus thou haſt called to remembrance the filthineſſe of thy youth, whē thy teates were bruiſed by the Egyptians, for the pappes of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, I wyl rayſe vp thy louers agaynſt thee from whom thy hart is departed, and geather them togeather againſt thee on euery ſyde, 23 [Namely] the Babylonians, and al the Chaldees, rulers, wealthy & mighty menne, with al the Aſſyrians, al pleaſant young menne, captaines, and princes, al valiant and renowmed, ryding vpon horſes.

24 Theſe ſhal comme vpon thee with charrettes, wagons, and wheeles, and great multitude of people, with buckler, ſhield, and helmet, they ſhal beſet thee on euery ſyde: “I wyl geue iudgement before them, yea they them ſelues ſhal iudge thee according to their owne iudgement.

25 I wyl lay myne indignation vpon thee, ſo that they ſhal deale cruelly with thee: they ſhal cut of thy noſe and thyne eares, and thy remnant ſhal fal by the ſwoord, they ſhal carie away thy ſonnes and daughters, and the reſidue ſhalbe deuoured by the fyre.

26 They ſhal ſtrip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fayre iewels.

27 Thus wyl I make thy wickedneſſe to ceaſſe from thee, and thy fornication out of the lande of Egypt: ſo that thou ſhalt turne thyne eyes no more after them, and caſt thy minde no more vpon Egypt.

28 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde I wyl deliuer thee into the handes of them whom thou hateſt, yea euen into the handes of them from whom thyne hart is departed. E

29 And they ſhal deale hatefully with thee, & take away al thy (h) labour, and leaue thee naked and bare, and the ſhame of thy fornications (i) ſhalbe diſcouered, both thy wickedneſſe, and thy whooredome.

30 I wil doo theſe thinges vnto thee, becauſe thou haſt gonne a whooryng after the heathen, & becauſe thou art polluted with their idolles.

31 Thou haſt walked in the way of thy ſiſter, therfore wil I geue her cuppe in thyne hand.

32 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Thou ſhalt drynke of thy ſiſters cuppe, deepe and large, thou ſhalt be laughed to ſcorne, and had in deriſion, becauſe it conteyneth muche.

33 Thou ſhalt be fylled with (k) drunkenneſſe and ſorowe, [euen] with the cuppe of deſtruction and deſolation, with the cup of thy ſiſter Samaria.

34 Thou ſhalt drinke it, and ſucke it out, and thou ſhalt breake the ſheardes thereof, and teare thine owne breaſtes: for I haue ſpoken it, ſayth the Lorde God.

35 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Foraſmuche as thou haſt forgotten me, and caſt me aſyde behind thy backe, ſo beare now thyne owne wickedneſſe, and whooredome. F

36 The Lord ſayd moreouer vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, wylt thou not iudge Aholah and Aholibah? ſhewe them their abominations:

37 [Namely] that they haue broken their wedlocke, and blood is in their handes: and with their idolles haue they committed adulterie, and haue alſo cauſed their ſonnes whom thei bare vnto me, to paſſe [by the fyre] to be their (l) meate.

38 Yea and this haue they donne vnto me alſo, they haue defyled my ſanctuarie in yͤ ſame day, and haue prophaned my Sabbothes.

39 For when they had ſlayne their chyldren for their idolles, they came the ſame day into my ſanctuarie to defyle it: and loe thus haue they donne in my houſe.

40 And howe muche more [is it] that they ſent for menne to comme from (m) farre, vnto whom a meſſenger was ſent, and loe they came: for whom thou diddeſt waſh thy ſelfe, and paynted thyne eyes, and deckedſt thee with ornamentes. G

41 Thou ſatteſt vpon a ſtately bed, and a (n) table ſpread before it, wherupon thou haſt ſet myne

“Or, I wil leaue the pounishment vnto them.

(h) Al the treaſures and riches whiche thou haſt gotten by labour.

(i) Al the world ſhal ſee thy ſhameful forſaking of God to ſerue idolles.

(k) Meaning that the afflictions ſhoulde be ſo great, that they ſhoulde cauſe them to looſe their ſences and reaſon.

(l) That is, to be ſacrifices to their idolles. Read, Ezech. xvi.c.

(m) They ſent into other countreys to haue ſuche as ſhoulde teache them the ſeruice of their idolles.

(n) He meaneth the aulter that was prepared for the idolles.

myne inſence, and myne oyle,

42 And a noyſe of a mery company at “it, and with the menne, beſyde the multitude of the people, were brought menne of Saba out of the deſart, whiche gaue them bracelettes vpon their hands, & beautiful crownes vpon their heades.

43 And I ſayde vnto her that was worne in her adulteries, Nowe ſhal her fornications comme to an ende, and ſhe alſo.

44 And they went in to her, as they goe vnto a common harlot: euen ſo went thei [I ſay] to Aholah and Aholibah, thoſe wicked women.

45 And the righteous menne, they ſhal iudge them after the manner of * harlottes, and after the manner of mutherers: for thei are harlottes, and blood is in their handes.

Ezec.16.d.

46 Wherefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, I wil bring a great multitude of people vpõ them, & geue them to be ſcattered & ſpoyled:

47 And the multitude ſhal ſtone them with ſtones, and cut them downe with theyr ſwoordes, they ſhal ſlay their ſonnes and daughters, & burne vp their houſes with fire.

48 Thus wyl I cauſe wickedneſſe to ceaſſe out of the lande, that al (o) women may be taught, not to doo after your wickedneſſe.

(o) Meanyng al other cities and countreis

49 And ſo they ſhal lay your wickedneſſe vpon your owne ſelues, & the ſinnes of your idolles ſhal ye beare: and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

The.xxiiii.Chapter.

3 He proueth the ſtryng of Hieruſalem by a parable of a ſeethyng pot. 16 The parable of Ezechiels wyfe beyng dead, whiche he after expoundeth.

A 1 In the (a) nienth yeere, in the tenth moneth, yͤ tenth day of yͤ (b) moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, ſayeing,

(a) Of Ieconiahs captiuitie, and of the raigne of Zedekiah.
4.Reg.25.a.
(b) Called Tebeth, conteynyng part of December and part of Ianuarie, in which moneth and day Nabuchodonoſor beſieged Hieruſalem.

2 O thou ſonne of man, write yͤ name of this day, yea euen of this preſent day: for the kyng of Babylon ſet hym ſelfe agaynſt Hieruſalem this ſelfe ſame day.

3 Shewe the rebellious houſe a parable, and ſpeake vnto them, thus ſaith the Lord God, Prepare a (c) pot, ſet it on, and powre water into it.

(c) wherby is meant Hieruſalem.

4 Geather the (d) peeces thereof into it, euery good peece, the thygh, and the ſhoulder, and fyl it with the chiefe bones.

(d) That is, the citezins & chiefe menne thereof.

5 Take one of the beſt ſheepe, and a heape of (e) bones vnder it: let it boyle wel, and let the bones therof ſeeth wel therein.

(e) Meanyng of the innocentes whom they had ſlayne, who were the cauſe of the kindling of gods wrath agaynſt them.

6 With that ſayde the Lorde GOD on this manner, Wo vnto the blooddy citie, to the pot whoſe (f) ſcumme is therein, and whoſe ſcumme is not gonne out of it: bryng it out (g) peece by peece, let no (h) lot fal vpon it.

(f) whoſe iniquities & wicked citezins there yet remayne.
(g) Signifieng thei ſhould not be deſtroyed al at once, but by litle and litle.
(h) Spare no ſtate or condition.

7 For her blood is yet in it, vpon a hygh (i) drye ſtone hath ſhe powred it: & not vpon the grounde, that it might be couered with duſt.

(i) The citie ſhewed her crueltie to al the world, and was not aſhamed thereof, neyther yet hyd it.

8 That it myght cauſe wrath to ariſe, & take vengeance: I haue ſet her blood vpon a high drye rocke, that it ſhoulde not be couered.

9 Wherefore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, O* wo be vnto the bloodthirſtie citie, for whom euen I my ſelfe wyl make a great fyre, Nah.iij.a.

Abac.ij.b.

10 And ſet much wood, and (k) kindle the fire, and ſeeth the fleaſhe, and ſpice the pot, ſo that the very bones ſhalbe brent.

(k) Meanyng that the citie ſhoulde be vtterly deſtroyed, and that he woulde geue the enimies an appetite thereunto.

11 Moreouer, I wyl ſet the pot emptie vpon the coales, ſo that the braſſe thereof may be hot and burnt, and the filthineſſe of it may be molten in it, and the ſcumme of it ſhalbe conſumed.

12 She hath weeryed her ſelfe with labour, yet her great ſcumme is not gonne of her, in the fire her ſcumme [muſt be conſumed.]

13 In thy fylthyneſſe is wickedneſſe: becauſe I (l) would haue purged thee, and thou waſt not purged, frõ thy fylthyneſſe thou ſhalt not be purged any more, tyl I haue cauſed myne indignation to reſt in thee.

(l) I laboured by ſendyng my prophetes to cal thee to repentance, but thou wouldeſt not.

14 Euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it: yea it is comme thereto al redy that I wyl doo it, I wyl not goe backe, I wyl not ſpare, I wyl not repent: but accordyng to thy wayes, and imaginations, ſhal they (m) iudge thee, ſayth the Lorde God. C

(m) That is, the Babylonians.

15 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

16 Thou ſonne of man, beholde, I wyl take away from thee the (n) pleaſure of thyne eyes with a plague, yet ſhalt thou neither mourne nor weepe, neither ſhal thy teares run downe.

(n) Meanyng his wyfe, in whom he delited, as verſe.18.

17 Mourne in ſcilence, make no (o) mourning of the dead, bynde the tyre of thy head vpon thee, and put on thy ſhoes vpon thy feete, couer not thy lippes, and (p) eate no mans bread.

(o) Mourne not as menne vſe to mourne for their friendes when they are dead.
(p) For mourners were wont to eate bread ſent vnto them by their neyghbours in tyme of mournyng.

18 So I ſpake vnto the people betimes in the mornyng, and at euen my wyfe dyed: then vpon the next morowe I did as I was commaunded.

19 And the people ſayde vnto me, Wylt thou not tel vs what this ſignifieth towarde vs, that thou doeſt ſo?

20 I anſweared them, The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

21 Telle the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl [q] pollute my ſanctuarie, euen the glorie of your power, the pleaſure of your eyes, and your hartes delite: and your ſonnes, and daughters, whom ye haue leaſt, ſhal falle through the ſwoorde.

(q) By ſending ỹ Chaldeans to deſtroy it, as chap.vij.c.

22 Lyke as I haue donne, ſo ſhal ye doo alſo: ye ſhal not couer your lyppes, ye ſhal eate no mans bread.

23 And your tyre [ſhalbe] vpon your heades, and your ſhoes vpon your feete: ye ſhal neyther mourne nor weepe, but ye ſhal pyne away in your iniquities, and mourne one towardes another.

24 Thus Ezechiel is your ſhewtoken, accordyng to al that he hath donne, ye ſhal doo: when it commeth, then ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

25 Alſo thou ſonne of man, ſhal it not be in the day whē I take from them their power, the ioy of their honour, the pleaſure of their eyes, and the [r] lifting vp of their ſoules, their ſonnes, and their daughters,

(r) Their hartes delite.

26 In that day ſhal comme one that is eſcaped, vnto thee, [[ſ] and bring it] to the hearyng of [thyne] eares.

(ſ) That is, bring thee tydinges of the deſtruction of Hieruſalem.

27 In that day ſhal thy mouth be opened to hym whiche is eſcaped, that thou mayeſt ſpeake, ⁊ be no more dumbe: yea thou ſhalt be their ſhewtoken, that they may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

The.xxv.Chapter,

1 The woorde of the Lorde vpon the ſonnes of Ammon, whiche reioyced at the fal of Hieruſalem. 8 Agaynſt Moab and Seir, agaynſt Idumea, agaynſt the Philiſtines.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde the Ammonites, and prophecie vpon them.

3 And ſay vnto the Ammonites: heare the woord of the Lorde God, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Forſomuche as thou ſaydeſt [a] Haha ouer my ſanctuarie, becauſe it was polluted, and ouer the lande of Iſrael, becauſe it was deſolate, and ouer the houſe of Iuda, becauſe they went into captiuitie:

(a) Becauſe ye reioyced when the enimie deſtroyed my citie and temple.

4 Beholde therfore, I wyl deliuer thee to the people of the [b] Eaſt, that they may haue thee in poſſeſſion: theſe ſhal ſettle their [c] palaces in thee, and make their dwellynges in thee, they ſhal eate thy fruite, and drynke vp thy mylke.

(b) That is, to the Babylonians.
(c) They ſhal chaſe thee away, and take thy gorgeous houſes to dwel in.

5 As for [d] Rabbath, I wil make of it a ſtable for camels, and of the Ammonites a ſheepefolde: and ye ſhal know that I am the Lord.

(d) Called alſo Philadelphia, whiche was the chiefe citie of the Ammonites and ful of conduites as.2.Re.12.d.

6 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, Inſomuche as thou haſt clapped with thyne handes, and ſtamped with thy feete, yea ⁊ reioyced ouer the lande of Iſrael with al thy “deſpite in hart:

B 7 Beholde therefore, I wyl ſtretche out my hande ouer thee, and deliuer thee to be ſpoyled of the Heathen, ⁊ roote thee out from among the people, and cauſe thee to periſhe out of the landes: yea I wyl make thee to be deſtroyed, that thou mayeſt knowe, that I am the Lorde.

8 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Forſomuche as Moab, and Seir, doo ſay, Beholde the houſe of Iuda is lyke as al Gentiles be:

9 Therefore beholde, I wyl open the ſyde of Moab from the cities, from his cities [I ſay] of his frontires, the pleaſures of the countrey, [as namely] Bethieſimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathaim:

10 [e] Unto the chyldren of the Eaſt agaynſt the Ammonites, and wyl geue it into poſſeſſion, ſo that the Ammonites ſhal no more be had in remembrance among the Heathen.

(e) Vnderſtande out of the next verſe I wyl opē.&c.

11 And I wyl execute iudgementes vpon Moab, and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

12 Thus ſayth the Lorde God: For that Edom hath donne in auenging reuengement vpon the houſe of Iuda, ⁊ hath donne great offence, and auenged hym ſelfe vpon them:

13 Therfore, thus ſaith the Lorde God, I wil reache out myne hande vpon Edom, and deſtroy man and beaſt out of it, I wyl make it deſolate from Theman, and Dedanah ſhal falle by the ſwoorde.

C 14 And I wil execute my reuengement vpō Edom by the hand of my people Iſrael, they ſhal doo in Edom accordyng to my wrath and indignation, ſo that they ſhal know my vengeance, ſayth the Lorde God.

15 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, For that the Philiſtines dyd in vengeance, [namely] in auenging reuengement, with a diſpiteful hart to deſtroy it for the olde enmitie:

“Or, tikling hart, as thei often haue whiche delite in ſeeking reuengement.

16 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl ſtretche out my hande ouer the Philiſtines, and deſtroy the [f] Cerethites, and cauſe al the remnant of the ſea coaſt to periſh:

(f) whiche were certayne garriſons of Philiſtines: wherby they oft moleſted ỹ Iewes. Of the Cerethites Dauid alſo had a garde. 2.Reg.8.d.

17 A great vengeance wil I take vpō them, with pouniſhmentes of my wrath, that they may knowe that I am the Lorde, when I ſhal lay my vengeance vpon them.

The.xxvj.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth that Tyrus ſhalbe ouerthrowen, becauſe it reioyced at the deſtruction of Hieruſalem. 15 The woondring and aſtoniſhment of the marchantes for the deſolation of Tyrus.

A 1 AND it came to paſſe in the (a) eleuenth yeere, the firſt day of the moneth, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, becauſe that Tyre hath ſpoken vpon Hieruſalem, Ha ha, the gates of yͤ people is broken, (b) it is turned vnto me, for nowe that ſhe is deſtroyed, I ſhalbe (c) fylled:

3 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, O Tyre, I wyl vpon thee, I wyl rayſe vp many nations againſt thee, like as when the ſea ariſeth with his waues.

4 They ſhal breake the walles of Tyre, and caſt downe her towres, I wil ſcrape her duſt from her, and make her a drye rocke.

5 She ſhalbe for a ſpreadyng of nettes in the ſea, for I haue ſpoken it, ſaith the Lord God, and ſhe ſhalbe for a ſpoyle to the nations.

6 (d) Her daughters that are in the feeld ſhalbe ſlaine with the ſwoord, that they may know howe that I am the Lorde.

7 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde,
I wyl bring vpon Tyrus, Nabuchodonoſor
B kyng of Babylon from the North, a king of kynges, with horſes, charrettes, horſemen, with a multitude, and muche people.

8 Thy daughters that are in the feelde ſhal he ſlay with the ſwoorde: but agaynſt thee he ſhal make bulwarkes, and caſt a mount againſt thee, & lyft vp his ſpeare agaynſt thee.

9 He ſhal ſet engins of warre before hym agaynſt thy walles, and with his weapons breake downe thy towres.

10 The duſt of his horſes ſhal couer thee, they ſhalbe ſo many: thy walles ſhal ſhake at the noyſe of the horſemen, wheeles and chariots, when he ſhal enter into thy gates, as into the entry of a citie broken downe.

11 With the hoofes of his horſes ſhal he treade downe al thy ſtreates, he ſhal ſlay the people with the ſwoord, & the pillers of thy ſtrength ſhal falle downe to the grounde.

12 They ſhal rob thy ryches, and ſpoyle thy marchandiſe, thy walles ſhal they breake downe, and deſtroy thy houſes of pleaſure, thy ſtones, thy timber, and duſt ſhal they caſt into the middes of the water.

13 *Thus wyl I cauſe the ſounde of thy ſonges to ceaſſe, & the noyſe of thy harpes ſhal no more be hearde. Iere.vij.b.

14 I wyl bryng thee into a drye rocke, thou ſhalt be for a ſpreadyng of nettes, thou ſhalt neuer be buylt agayne: for euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it, ſayth the Lorde God. C

15 Thus hath the Lorde God ſpoken concernyng Tyre: Shal not the iles tremble at the noyſe of thy falle, and at the crie of the wounded, when they ſhalbe ſlayne and murthered in the middes of thee:

16 Al princes of the (e) ſea ſhal comme downe from their thrones, they ſhal lay away their robes, and put of their broydred garmentes, yea with trembling ſhal they be clothed, they ſhal ſit vpon the grounde, they ſhalbe aſtoniſhed at euery moment, & be amaſed at thee.

17 They ſhal mourne for thee, and ſay vnto thee, Howe art thou deſtroyed that waſt inhabited of the (f) ſeas, the renowmed citie, whiche was ſtrong in the ſea, ſhe and her inhabitantes, whiche cauſed their feare to be on al that haunted therein:

18 Nowe ſhal the inhabitours of the iles be aſtoniſhed in the day of thy fal: yea the iles that are in the ſea ſhalbe troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, When I make thee a deſolate citie, as other cities be that no man dwel in, and when I bryng vp the deepe vpon thee, that great waters may couer thee:

20 Then wyl I caſt thee downe vnto them that deſcende into the pit, vnto a people of (g) olde tyme, and ſet thee in a lande that is beneath, like the olde ruynes, with them which goe downe to the graue, ſo that no man ſhal dwel more in thee: but I wyl reſerue honour for the (h) lande of the lyuing:

21 I wyl make thee terrors, and thou ſhalt be no more: though thou be ſought for, yet ſhalt thou not be founde for euermore, ſayth the Lorde GOD.

(a) Either of the captiuitie of Ieconiah, or of the raigne of Zedekia.

(b) The traffique of marchandiſe that was vſed in Hieruſalem, ſhalbe turned to my gayne.

(c) My riches and fame ſhal encreaſe: thus the wicked reioyce at theyr fal, by whom thei may haue any profite or aduantage.

(d) Meanyng the ſmalle townes and villages that were in the countrey or territorie of Tyrus.

(e) The gouernours and rulers of other countreys by the ſea, wherby he ſignifieth that her deſtruction ſhoulde be ſo horrible that al the worlde ſhoulde heare thereof, and be afrayde.

(f) Meanyng marchantes which by their traffique dyd enriche her woonderfully, and encreaſe her power.

(g) which are dead long ago.

(h) Meanyng Iudea, when it ſhalbe reſtored.

The.xxvii.Chapter.

1 The prophete is moued to bewayle the deſolation of Tyrus. 12 He ſetteth out the prayſe of Tyrus for the hauntyng of marchantes thereto.

A 1 THe woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 O thou ſonne of man, take vp a lamentable complaynt vpon Tyre,

3 And ſay vnto Tyre that is ſituate at the entry of the ſea, whiche is the mart of the people for many iles, thus ſayth the Lorde God, O

Tyre, thou haſt ſayde, I am of perfect beautie.

4 Thy borders are in the middes of the ſeas, thy buylders haue made perfite thy beautie.

5 They haue made al thy [ſhip] bordes of firre trees of (a) Shenir, from Libanus haue they taken Cedar trees to make thee maſtes:

6 And the Okes of Baſan to make thee ores, they haue made thy benches of iuorie, gotten in Aſſyria, brought out of yͤ iles of (b) Chittim.

B 7 Fine linnen with broydred worke out of Egypt, was ſpread ouer thee to be thy ſayle: blew ſilke and purple out the iles of Eliſhah was thy couerying.

8 The inhabitours of Sidon & Aruad were thy mariners: and thy wiſe menne, O Tyre, that were in thee, were thy ſhipmaiſters.

9 The ancient and wyſe menne of Gebal were in thee, thy (c) ſtoppers of chinkes: al ſhippes of the ſea with their ſhypmen were in thee, to occupie thy marchandiſe.

10 The Perſes, Lydians, and Phutens, were in thy armies, thy menne of warre: theſe hanged vp their ſhieldes & helmets in thee, theſe ſet forth thyne honour.

11 They of Aruad were with thine hoſt round about thy walles, and the (d) Pygmenians were thy watchmen vpon thy towres: theſe hanged vp their quiuers rounde about thy walles, they made thy beautie perfite.

12 They of Tharſis [were] thy marchantes for the multitude of al riches, in ſyluer, iron, tinne, and leade, whiche they brought to thy fayres.

13 Iauan, Tubal, and Meſech were thy marchantes concerning the (e) liues of menne, and they brought veſſels of braſſe for thy marchandiſe.

C 14 They of the houſe of Thogarma brought vnto thee at the tyme of thy marte, horſes, courſes, and mules.

15 They of Dedan were thy marchantes, and many iles the marchandiſe of thy handes, & brought thee (f) hornes, teeth, and (g) Hebenus, for preſentes.

16 They of Aram [were] thy marchantes for the multitude of thy workes, and occupied in thy fayres with emeraudes, purple, broydred worke, fine linnen, coral, and pearle.

17 Iuda, and the lande of Iſrael occupyed with thee, and brought vnto thy markets wheat of (h) Minnith & Pannag, hony, oyle, and triacle.

18 Damaſcus alſo vſed marchandiſe with thee, in the wine of Helbon, and white wool: becauſe thyne occupyeing was ſo great, and thy wares ſo many.

19 Dan, Iauan, and Meuzal haue brought vnto thy markets wrought iron, Caſſia, and Calamus were among thy marchandiſe.

20 They of Dedan were thy marchantes in pretious clothes for charots.

21 Arabia and al the princes of Cedar haue occupied with thee, in weathers, rammes, and goates: in theſe were they thy marchantes. D

22 The marchantes of Seba & Rema, haue occupied alſo with thee, in al chiefe ſpices, in al pretious ſtones and golde, whiche they brought vnto thy markets.

23 Haran, Chenne, and Eden, the marchantes of Seba, Aſſyria, and Chelmad, were dooers with thee:

24 Theſe were thy marchantes in al ſortes [of thinges,] in rayment of blewe ſilke, and of broydred worke, and in coffers for the riche apparel, whiche were truſſed with coardes, and Cedar boorde among thy marchandiſe.

25 The ſhips of Tharſis were the chiefe of thyne occupyeing: thus thou waſt repleniſhed, & in great worſhip, euen in the middes of the ſea.

26 Thy rowers haue brought thee into great waters, the (i) Eaſt wynde hath broken thee in the middes of the ſea.

27 Thy riches, and thy fayres, thy marchandiſe, thy mariners, and ſhipmaiſters, thy calkars, and the occupiers of thy marchandiſe, and al thy menne of warre that are in thee, and al thy multitude that is in the middes of thee, ſhal falle in the middes of the ſea, in the day of thy falle.

28 The (k) ſuburbes ſhal ſhake at the loude crie of thy ſhipmen. E

29 Al that handle the ore, mariners, and al ſhipmaiſters of the ſea, ſhal comme downe from their ſhips, and ſtande vpon the lande.

30 And they ſhal cauſe their voyce to be heard agaynſt thee, and ſhal crye bitterly, and ſhal caſt duſt vpon their heades, and wallowe in the aſhes.

31 They ſhal (l) make them ſelues baulde for thee, and girde them with ſackcloth, and thei ſhal weepe for thee, with ſorowefull hart, and bitter mournyng.

32 And they ſhal take vp a lamentation for thee in their mournyng, & lament ouer thee, [what citie] is lyke Tyrus ſo deſtroyed in the middes of the ſea?

33 When thy wares went forth of the ſeas, thou fylledſt many people: the kynges of the earth haſt thou made riche, thorow the multitude of thy riches and marchandiſe.

34 When thou ſhalt be broken by the ſeas in the deapthes of the waters, thy marchan-

1 The woord of God agaynſt the king of Tyrus for his pryde. 12 Ezechiel the prophete is moued to bewayle the king of Tyrus. 20 The woord of the Lord agaynſt Sidon. 25 The Lorde promiſeth that he wil geather togeather the children of Iſrael.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, tel the prince of Tyre, Thus ſayth the Lord God, Becauſe thou haſt a proude hart, and haſt ſayd, I am (a) a God, I ſit in the ſeate of God, in the middes of the ſea: Where as thou art but a man, and not God, (b) though thou ſet thyne hart as the hart of God.

3 Beholde, thou thinkeſt thee ſelfe wyſer then (c) Daniel, that there is no ſecretes hyd from thee.

4 With thy wiſdome and thyne vnderſtanding thou haſt gotten thee great welthineſſe, and geathered treaſure of ſiluer and golde.

5 With thy great wyſedome and occupying haſt thou encreaſed thy power, and becauſe of thy great riches thy hart is proude.

6 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Forſomuche as thou haſt ſet thyne hart as the hart of God:

B 7 Beholde, I wil bring ſtrangers vpon thee, euen the terrible nations, theſe ſhal draw out their ſwoordes vpon the beautie of thy wyſdome, and ſhal defile thy glorie.

8 They ſhal caſt thee downe to the pit, ſo that thou ſhalt dye the death of thē that be ſlayne in the middes of the ſea.

9 Wilt thou ſaye then before them that ſlay thee, I am a God? Where as thou art but a man, and not God, in the hands of them that ſlay thee.

10 Dye ſhalt thou yͤ death of the (d) vncircumciʒed in the hands of the ſtrangers: for I haue ſpoken it, ſayth the Lorde God.

11 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

12 Thou ſonne of man, take vp a lamētation vpon the king of Tyre, & tel him, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Thou ſealeſt vp the ſumme, (e) ful of wyſdome, and perfite beautie.

13 Thou haſt benne in the pleaſant garden of God, thou art deckt with al maner of precious ſtones, with Ruby, Topas, Diamond, Thurkis, Onyx, Iaſper, Saphir, Emeralde, Carbuncle, & golde: the workemanſhip of thy tymbrels & of thy pipes [that be] in thee, was prepared in the day yͭ thou waſt created.

C 14 Thou art an (f) annointed Cherub, that couereth, & I haue (g) ſet thee [in this dignitie] thou waſt vpon the holy mount of God, thou haſt walked in the middes of the (h) ſtones of fire.

15 From the time of thy creation thou haſte benne perfite in the wayes, til wickedneſſe was founde in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy marchandiſe they haue filled the middes of thee with crueltie, & thou haſt ſinned: I wil caſt thee as prophane out of the (i) mount of God, & I wyl deſtroy thee, O couering Cherub, from the middes of the ſtones of fire.

17 Thy hart was proude in thy beautie, and thorowe thy brightneſſe, thou haſt deſtroyed thy wiſdome: I wyl caſt thee downe to the grounde, I wil lay thee before kinges, that they may beholde thee.

18 Thou haſt defiled thy (k) ſanctificatiō with the great wickedneſſe of thyne vnrighteous occupyeing: I wil bring a fire frō the middeſt of thee to conſume thee, and wil make thee to aſſhes vpon the earth, in the ſight of al them that looke vpon thee.

19 Al they that haue benne acquainted with thee among the heathen, ſhalbe abaſhed at thee: thou haſt benne a terrour, & neuer ſhalt thou be any more.

20 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

D 21 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face agaynſt Sidon, and prophecie vpon it,

22 And ſpeake, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde O Sidon, I wil vpon thee, and I wil be glorified in thee: that it may be knowen howe that I am the Lord, when I ſhal haue executed iudgements in her, and ſhalbe ſanctified in her.

23 For I wil ſende peſtilence and bloodſheding into her ſtreetes, and the ſlayne ſhal fal in yͤ middes of her, by the ſwoorde [comming] vpon her on euery ſyde: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

24 They ſhalbe no more a pricking thorne vnto the houſe of Iſrael, nor a greeuous thorne of al that are rounde about them, and deſpiſed them: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

(a) Like as God is ſafe in heauen, euen ſo I am ſafe that none can come to hurte me.

(b) Though thou diddeſt thinke in thine hart that thou waſt equal with God.

(c) Thus he ſpeaketh by deriſion, for Daniel had declared notable ſignes of his wiſdome in Babylon, whē Ezechiel wrote this.

(d) Lyke the reſt of the heathen and infidels, whiche are Gods enimies.

(e) He derideth the vayne opinion and confidence that the Tyrians had in theyr riches, ſtrēgth and pleaſures.

(f) He meaneth the royal ſtate of Tyrus, whiche for the excellencie & glorie thereof, he compareth to the Cherubims whiche couered the arke: and by this woord anoynted, he ſignifieth the ſame.

(g) I appoynted & admitted thee to the honour of one of the buylders of my temple: whiche was when Hiram ſent to Solomon thinges neceſſarie to the worke. 3. Reg. 5. b.

(h) That is, as the cōmon expoſitours ſay, among my people Iſrael, whiche ſhined as precious ſtones.

(i) Thou ſhalt haue no part among my people.

(k) That is, the honour wherunto I called thee.

25 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, When I geather the houſhold of Iſrael togeather agayne from the nations among whom they be ſcattered, then ſhal I be ſanctifyed in them in the ſight of the gentiles, and they ſhal dwel in the lande that I gaue to my ſeruant Iacob.

26 They ſhal dwel with confidence therein, buylde houſes and plant vineyardes: yea with confidence ſhal they dwel therin, when I haue executed iudgementes vpon al thoſe that deſpyſe them rounde about: and then ſhal they knowe that I am the Lorde their God.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth agaynſt Pharao, & of the deſolation of Egypt, with the ſparkling abroade of the Egyptians. 13 The Lorde promiſeth that he wyl reſtore Egypt agayn after fourtie yeares. 20 Egypt is the rewarde of king Nabuchodonoſor for the labour whiche he tooke agaynſt Tyrus.

A 1 IN the (a) tenth yeare, vpon the twelſt day of the tenth moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

(a) To wit, of yͤ captiuitie of Ieconiah & of the raigne of Zedekia: But note that the diſpoſition of theſe viſions are not ſet foorth accordyng to the order of the times: but according to the neareneſſe and diſtance of the countreys againſt whom they were written. As the viſion of Tyrus ſeene in the eleuenth yeere, is ſet before this, ſeene in the tenth yeere, becauſe it was nearer to Iurie then Egypt.

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face agaynſt Pharao yͤ king of Egypt, prophecie againſt him, and agaynſt the whole lande of Egypt.

3 Speake and tel him, Thus ſayth the Lord God, Beholde, O Pharao thou kyng of Egypt, I wyl vpon thee thou great (b) dragon that lyeth in the mids of his riuers, thou that ſayeſt, The riuer is myne, I haue made it for mee ſelfe.

(b) He compareth Pharao to a dragon, or Crocodile, whiche was wont to haunt the riuer Nilus.

4 I wyl put (c) hookes in thy chawes, & hang the fiſhe in thy riuers vpon thy ſkales: after that I wyl drawe thee out of thy riuers, yea and al the fiſhe of thy riuers ſhal hang vpon thy ſkales.

(c) I wil ſend enimies againſt thee, whiche ſhal plucke thee & thy people that truſt in thee, out of thy ſure places.

5 I wyl leaue thee in the wilderneſſe, [both] thee and al the fiſhe of thy riuers: thou ſhalt fal vpon the open feelde, thou ſhalt not be brought togeather, nor geathered: I haue geuen thee for meate to the beaſtes of the feelde, and to the foules of the ayre,

6 That al they whiche dwel in Egypt may knowe that I am the Lorde, becauſe they haue benne a * ſtaffe of reede to the houſe of Iſrael.

4.Re. 18.c. Eſa.36.a.

B 7 When they tooke holde of thee with their hande, thou brakeſt and rent al their ſhoulder: and when they leaned vpon thee, thou brakeſt and madeſt al their loynes to ſtande (d) vpright.

(d) when they felt their hurt, they woulde ſtay no more vpon thee, but ſtoode vpon their feete, and put their truſt in others.

8 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wil bryng a ſwoord vpon thee, and deſtroy out of thee both man and beaſt.

9 Yea the lande of Egypt ſhalbe deſolate and waſte, and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde, becauſe he ſaide, The riuer is myne, I mee ſelfe haue made it.

10 Beholde, therfore I wyl vpon thee, & vpon thy riuers, I wyl make the lande of Egypt vtterly waſte and deſolate, from the towre of Seueneh, vnto the borders of (e) Ethiopia.

(e) Whiche ſomme cal the lande of the black Mores.

11 No foote of man ſhal paſſe by it, nor foote of beaſt ſhal paſſe by it, neyther ſhal it be inhabited fourtie yeares.

12 I wyl make the land of Egypt to be deſolate among other waſte countreys, and her cities deſtroyed fourtie yeares among other deſtroyed cities: and I wyl ſcatter the Egyptians among the nations, and ſtrawe them thorow the countreys.

13 Agayne, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, *When the fourtie yeares are expired, I wil geather the Egyptians togeather againe out of the nations among whom they were ſcattered.

Iere. 46.d.

14 And I wyl bryng the captiuitie of Egypt agayne, & cauſe them to returne into the land of Pathros, the land of their habitation, and they ſhalbe there a (f) ſmal kingdome. C

15 Yea it ſhalbe yͤ ſmalleſt among other kingdomes, neyther ſhal it exalt it ſelfe any more aboue the natiõs: for I wil ſo miniſhe them, that they ſhal no more rule the nations.

(f) Meaning that they ſhould not haue ful dominion, but be vnder the Perſians, Grecians, and Romanes: and the cauſe is, that the Iſraelites ſhould no more put their truſt in them, but learne to depend on God.

16 And they ſhalbe no more vnto the houſe of Iſrael a truſt, whiche bringeth their iniquitie to remembrance, when they ſhal looke after them: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

17 In the (g) twentie and ſeuenth yeare, the firſt day of the firſt moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, ſaying,

(g) Counting from the captiuitie of Iechoniah.

18 Thou ſonne of man, Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, cauſed his armie to ſerue a great ſeruice agaynſt Tyrus: euery head was made balde, and euery ſhoulder bare, yet had neyther he nor his armie any wages for Tyrus, for the ſeruice whiche he ſerued agaynſt it.

19 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wil geue the lande of Egypt vnto Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon, that he may take away her multitude, and ſpoyle her ſpoyles, and take her pray to pay his hoſt their wages withal.

20 For the “ woorke which he wrought about it, I haue geuen hym the lande of Egypt, becauſe they wrought for me, ſayth the Lorde God.

21 In that daye I wyl cauſe the horne of the houſe of Iſrael to bud foorth, and I wil geue thee the opening of thy mouth in the middes of them: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The.xxx. Chapter.

The deſtruction of Egypt, and of his cities is bewayled.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, prophecie, ⁊ ſpeake, Thus ſaith ẏ Lord God, Howle, wo worth this day:

3 For the day is neare, the day of the Lorde is at hande, the darke daye, the tyme of the nations ſhalbe.

4 And the ſwoorde ſhal comme vpon Egypt, and feare ſhalbe in Ethiopia, when the ſlaine ſhal fal in Egypt: and they ſhal take awaye her multitude, and her fundatiōs ſhalbe broken downe.

5 Yea Ethiopia, Lybia, and Lydia, al their common people, and Chub, ⁊ al that be confederate vnto them, ſhal fal with them thorowe the ſwoorde.

6 Thus ſayth the Lord, The maynteiners of the lande of Egypt ſhal fal, the pryde of her powre ſhal comme downe: euen from the towre of (a) Seueneh ſhal they fal downe in it with the ſwoorde, ſayth the Lorde God.

B 7 Among other deſolate countreys they ſhalbe made deſolate, among other waſte cities they ſhalbe waſted.

8 And they ſhal knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue ſet a fire in Egypt, and when al her helpers ſhalbe deſtroyed.

9 In that day ſhal meſſengers goe foorth frō me in ſhips, to make the careleſſe Morians afrayd, ⁊ feare ſhal comme vpon them, according to the day of Egypt: for lo it commeth.

10 Thus ſayth the Lord God, I wil cauſe the multitude of Egypt to ceaſſe by the hande of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon.

11 He, and his people with him, the terrible nations ſhalbe brought to deſtroy the land: they ſhal drawe out their ſwoordes vpon Egypt, and fil the lande ful of ſlayne menne.

12 I wil make their riuers drie, ⁊ ſel the lande into the handes of wicked people: the lande and al that is therein I wil deſtroy thorowe the hande of ſtrangers: euen I the Lorde haue ſayde it.

13 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wil deſtroy the idolles, and bring the images of (b) Noph to an ende: there ſhal no more be a prince of Egypt, and a fearefulneſſe wyl I ſende into the Egyptians lande.

14 As for Pathros, I wyl make it deſolate, C and kyndle a fyre in (c) Zoan, and I wil execute iudgementes in (d) No.

15 And I wyl powre my wrathful indignation vpon Sin the ſtrength of Egypt, and I wil deſtroy the multitude of No.

16 And I wil kindle a fyre in Egypt, Sin ſhalbe in great heauineſſe, No ſhalbe rooted out, and Noph ſhal haue dayly ſorowe.

17 The young menne of "Auen, and of "Phibeſeth ſhal fal by the ſwoord, and theſe [cities] ſhal goo into captiuitie.

18 At Tehaphnehes the day ſhalbe (e) darke, when I breake there the barres of Egypt, ⁊ when the pompe of her power ſhal ceaſſe in her: a cloude ſhal couer her, and her daughters ſhal goe into captiuitie.

19 Thus wyl I execute my iudgementes in Egypt, and they ſhal knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

20 And in the (f) eleuenth yeere, vpon ẏ ſeuenth day of the firſt moneth, the woord of the lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

D 21 Thou ſonne of man, I haue (g) broken the arme of Pharao kyng of Egypt: and lo, it ſhal not be bounde vp to be healed, to put a roller to bynde it, to make it ſtrong to holde the ſwoorde.

22 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon Pharao kyng of Egypt, and breake his arme that was ſtrong, but is broken: and I wil cauſe the ſwoorde to fal out of his hande.

23 As for the Egyptians, I wyl ſcatter them among the nations, and ſtrawe them in the landes about.

24 Agayne, I wyl ſtrengthen the arme of the king of Babylon, and geue him my ſwoord in his hande: but I wil breake Pharaos armes, and he ſhal grone the groninges of a deadly wounded man before him:

25 Yea I wyl ſtrengthen the kyng of Babylons arme, and the armes of Pharao ſhal fal downe: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde, when I ſhal (h) geue my ſwoorde into the hand of the king of Babylō, that he may ſtretch it out vpon the lande of Egypt.

26 And I wyl ſcatter the Egyptians among the nations, ⁊ ſtrowe thē in the landes about: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The.xxxi. Chapter.

1 A compariſon of the proſperitie of Pharao, with the proſperitie of the Aſſyrians.
10 He propheciеth a lyke deſtruction to them both.

A 1 MOreouer, in the [a] eleuenth yeare, the firſt day of the third moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto Pharao kyng of Egypt, and to al his people: Whom art thou [b] lyke in thy greatneſſe?

3 Behold, Aſſur is a Cedar in Libanon, with faire branches, and with thycke ſhadowing boughes, of a hygh ſtature, and his top was among the thicke boughes.

4 The waters made him great, and the deepe ſet him vp on hygh, with her riuers running rounde about his plantes, and ſent out her [c] litle riuers vnto al the trees of the feelde.

5 Therefore was he hygher then al the trees of the feelde, and his boughes were multiplied, and his branches were long, because of the multitude of the waters, which the deepe ſent out.

6 Al foules of the ayre made their neaſtes in his branches, vnder his boughes dyd al the beaſtes of the feelde bring foorth their young, and vnder his ſhadow dwelt al mightie nations.

B 7 Beautiful was he in his greatneſſe, and in the length of his brãches: for his roote ſtoode beſyde great waters.

8 No Cedar tree might [d] hide him in the garden of God, there was no fyrre trees lyke his branches, the cheſtnut trees were not lyke the boughes of hym: al the trees in the garden of God, might not be compared vnto hym in his beautie.

9 I made him faire with the multitude of his branches: inſomuche that al the trees in the pleaſant garden of God had enuye at hym.

10 Therfore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Forſomuche as he hath lift vp him ſelfe ſo hygh, and hath ſhot vp his top among the thycke boughes, and his hart is lift vp in his heygth.

11 I haue therefore delyuered hym into the handes of the [e] mightieſt among the Heathen: he ſhal handle hym, [for] in his wickedneſſe haue I caſt him away.

12 And ſtrangers haue deſtroyed him, euen the terrible nations, and haue leaft hym: vpon the mountaynes and vpon al valleys haue his boughes fallen, & his boughes are [f] broken by al the riuers of the lande: and al the people of the earth are departed from his ſhadowe, and haue forſaken him.

13 Upon his ruyne ſhal al the foules of the ayre remayne, and al the beaſtes of the feelde ſhalbe vpon his branches.

C 14 So that none of al the trees by the waters ſhalbe exalted in their heygth, nor ſhoot vp theyr toppes among the thycke boughes, neyther ſhal their trees ſtande in their heigth, as many of them as drinke water: for they are al delyuered vnto death in the neather partes of the earth, in the middes of the children of menne, among them that goe downe to the pit.

15 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, In the day when he went downe to the graue, I cauſed a lamentation to be made, I [g] couered the deepe for him, I reſtrained the fluddes therof, and the great waters were ſtayed, I cauſed Libanus to mourne for hym, and al the trees of the feelde faynted.

16 I made the heathen ſhake at the ſound of his fal, when I caſt hym downe to hel with them that deſcend into the pit: al the excellent trees of Eden, & the beſt of Libanus, al that [h] drinke waters, ſhalbe [i] comforted in the neather partes of the earth.

17 They alſo went downe to hel with hym, vnto them that be ſlayne with the ſwoorde, whiche were his arme [and] dwelt vnder his ſhadowe in the middeſt of the nations.

18 To whom [k] art thou thus lyke in glorie & in greatneſſe among the trees of Eden? yet thou ſhalt be caſt downe with the trees of Eden vnto the neather partes of the earth: in yͤ middeſt of the [l] vncircumcized ſhalt thou ſleepe with them that are ſlayne with the ſwoorde: This is Pharao, and al his multitude, ſayth the Lorde God.

[b] Meaning that he was not lyke in ſtrength to the kyng of the Aſſyrians, whõ the Babylonians ouercame.

[c] Many other nations whiche were vnder their dominion.

[d] Signifiyng that there was no greater power in the world then his was.

[e] That is, Nabuchodonoſor, who afterwarde was the monarche and only ruler of the world.

[f] Hereby is ſignifyed the deſtruction of the power of the Aſſyrians, by the Babilonians.

[g] The deepe waters that cauſed hym to mount ſo high, meaning his great aboundance and pompe, ſhal now lament as they which in mourning were couered with ſackcloth.

[h] That are noriſhed with waters.

[i] To cauſe this deſtructiõ of the king of Aſſyria to ſeeme more horrible, he ſetteth forth other kinges and princes whiche are dead, as though they reioyced at the fal of ſuche a tyrant.

The.xxxii.Chapter.

The prophete is commaunded to bewayle Pharao the kyng of Egypt. 12 He prophecieth that deſtruction ſhal comme vnto Egypt through the kyng of Babylon.

A 1 IN the (a) twelfth yere, the firſt daye of the twelfth moneth, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, ſayeing,

(a) Whiche was the firſt yere of the general captiuitie vnder Zedekiah.

2 Thou ſonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon Pharao the king of Egypt, & ſay vnto him, Thou art (b) lyke a lion of the heathen, & as a whale fiſhe in the ſea: thou drawest out thy riuers, thou (c) troubleſt the waters with thy feete, and ſtampeſt in their riuers.

(b) Thus the ſcriptures compare tyrantes to cruel and huge beaſtes, which deuour al that be weaker then they, & ſuche as they may ouercome.
(c) Thou diſquieteſt the worlde with warre.

3 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, *I wil ſpread my nette ouer thee with a great multitude of people, theſe ſhal make thee comme vp into my net.

Chap.12. 13.17.20.

4 For I wil leaue thee vpon the lande, & caſt thee vpon the open feelde, & I wil cauſe al the foules of the ayre to remayne vpon thee, and fil al the beaſtes of the feelde with thee.

5 Thy fleaſhe wyl I lay vpon the hilles, and fil the valleyes with thy (d) highneſſe.

(d) With the heapes of the carkaſes of thyne armie.

6 I wyl (e) water thyne ouerflowing lande with thy blood, euen to the mountaynes, and the riuers ſhalbe ful of thee.

(e) As Nilus ouerfloweth Egypt, ſo wil I make the blood of thyne hoaſt to ouerflowe it.

7 When thou art (f) put out, I wyl couer the heauen, and make his ſtarres dimme: *I wil ſpreade a cloude ouer the ſunne, & the moone ſhal not geue her light.

(f) The woord ſignifieth to be put out, as a candel is put out.
Eſai.13.b. Ioel.2.d. and.3.15. Mac.24.

8 Al the lightes of heauen wil I make darke for thee, & bring (g) darkeneſſe vpon thy lande, ſayth the Lorde God.

9 I wyl ſtirre vp to anger the hartes of many people, when I bring thy deſtruction among the heathen, and vpon the countreys whiche thou knoweſt not.

(g) By this manner of ſpeache, is meant the great ſorowe that ſhalbe for the great ſlaughter of the kyng and his people.

10 Yea, I wyl make many people amaſed at thee, and their kinges ſhalbe aſtoniſhed with feare for thee, when I ſhal make my ſwoord to glitter agaynſt their faces: and they ſhalbe afraide at euery moment, euery man for his owne lyfe, in the day of thy fal.

11 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, The kyng of Babylōs ſwoord ſhal comme vpon thee:

12 With the ſwoordes of the mightie wyl I ſmyte downe thy multitude: they al ſhalbe terrible nations, and they ſhal deſtroy the (h) pompe of Egypt, and al the multitude therof ſhalbe conſumed.

(h) This came to paſſe in leſſe then foure yeres after the prophecie.

13 I wil deſtroy alſo al the beaſtes therof, from the great waters ſides, neyther ſhal the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the houes of beaſtes trouble them.

C 14 Then wyl I make their waters (i) deepe, and cauſe their riuers to runne lyke (k) oyle, ſayth the Lorde God, 15 When I make the land of Egypt deſolate, and whē the countrey, with al that is therin, ſhalbe layde waſte, & when I ſmyte al them whiche dwel in it, then ſhal they knowe that I am the Lorde.

16 This is the mourning when they ſhal lament her, the daughters of the nations ſhal lament her, they ſhal make the lamentation ouer Egypt, and ouer al the people thereof, ſayth the Lorde God.

(i) The inhabitantes of Egypt ſhalbe ſo cleane deſtroyed, that there ſhal remaine none to drawe the waters out of the riuers to water their groundes as before, whereby it ſhalbe the deeper in his channel.
(k) That is, cleare and vntroubled with feete, paſſing through the foordes.

17 In the twelfth yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, ſayeing,

18 Thou ſonne of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, and (l) caſt them downe, euen them and the daughters of the famous nations vnto the neather partes of the earth, with them that goe downe into the pit.

(l) That is, prophecie, that they ſhalbe caſt downe. Thus the Lorde geueth power both to plant and to deſtroy by his woorde, Iere.1.10.

19 Whom doeſt thou paſſe in (m) beautie? goe downe and ſleepe with the vncircumcized.

(m) Haue not other kingdomes more beautiful then thou, periſhed

20 Among thoſe that be ſlayne with yͤ ſwoorde ſhal they lye: to the ſwoorde is (n) ſhe alreadie deliuered, drawe her downe, and al her multitude.

(n) That is, Egypt.

D 21 The (o) mightie woorthies ſhal ſpeake to her out of the hel, and to her helpers: they are gonne downe, and lye vncircumcized with them that be ſlayne with the ſwoorde:

(o) To make the matter more ſenſible, he bringeth in Pharao, as though the dead ſhoulde meete him when he is ſlaine, & maruaile at him, Eſa.14.9.

22 Aſſur is there alſo, with al his company, and their graues rounde about him, whiche were ſlayne, and fel al with the ſwoorde:

23 Whoſe graues are made in the ſyde of the pit, and his multitude are rounde about his graue, [to wit] al the ſlaine and fallen by the ſwoorde, whiche cauſe a feare [to be] in the lande of the liuing.

24 There is (p) Elam alſo, with al his people rounde about his graue: whiche al beyng ſlayne and fallen with the ſwoord, are gonne downe vncircumcized vnder yͤ earth, whiche neuertheleſſe ſometime brought feare into the lande of the (q) lyuing: they beare theyr owne ſhame, with the other that be gonne downe to the graue.

(p) Meaning, the Perſians.
(q) They which being a lyue, were a terrour to al the worlde, nowe being dead, are deſpiſed both of the lyuing and the dead.

25 They haue made his bed in the midſt of the ſlaine, with al his multitude, their graues are round about him: al theſe vncircumcized, ſlayne by the ſwoorde, although they cauſed theyr feare in the lande of the lyuing, yet haue they borne their ſhame with them that goe downe to the pit, they are layde in the midſt of them that are ſlaine.

(r) That is, the Capadocians & Italians, or Spaniardes, Ioſephus writeth.

26 There is(r) Meſech alſo and Tubal, & their people, and their graues rounde about him: theſe al vncircumcized were ſlaine with the ſwoorde, becauſe aforetime they made the lande of the lyuing afrayde.

(s) Whiche dyed not by cruel death, but by the courſe of nature, and are honorably buried with their coate armour, and ſignes of honour.

27 They ſhal not lye with the(s) valiant [whiche are] fallen of ẏ vncircumcized, which are gonne downe to the graue with theyr weapons of warre, and haue layde theyr ſwoordes vnder theyr heades: but theyr iniquitie ſhalbe vpon theyr bones, becauſe the terrour of theyr mightie [was] in the lande of the lyuing.

E 28 Yea, among the vncircumcized ſhalt thou be deſtroyed, and ſleepe with them that periſhed through the ſwoorde.

29 There is Edom, with her kinges and princes alſo, whiche with their ſtrength are layde by them that were ſlayne with the ſwoorde: yea amõg the vncircumcized ſhal they ſleepe, and with them whiche are gonne downe into the pit.

30 Moreouer, there be al the princes of the(t) north, with al the Sidonians, whiche are gonne downe with the ſlayne: with theyr feare and ſtrength they are comme to confuſion, & lye there vncircumcized among thoſe that be ſlayne with the ſwoorde, and beare their owne ſhame with them that be gonne downe to the pit.

(t) That is, the kinges of Babylon.

31 Pharao ſhal ſee them, and be(u) comforted ouer al his multitude: Pharao and al his armie [ſhalbe] ſlayne with the ſwoorde, ſaith the Lorde God.

(u) Lyke as the wicked reioyce, when they ſee others partakers of their miſeries.

32 For I haue geuen my feare(x) in the lande of the lyuing: but Pharao and al his people ſhalbe layde among the vncircumcized, and among them that be ſlaine with the ſwoord, ſayth the Lorde God.

(x) I wyl make the Egyptians afraide of me, as they haue cauſed other to feare them.

The.xxxiii. Chapter.

He ſetteth out the office of the gouernours and miniſters. 14 He ſtrengthneth them that diſpaire, and boldneth them with the promiſe of mercie. 30 The woorde of the Lorde againſt the remnant of the people, againſt the mockers of the woordes of the prophete.

A 1 AGayne, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſpeake to the chyldren of thy people, and tel them, When I ſende a ſwoorde vpon a lande, if the people of the lande take a man of theyr coaſtes, and ſet him to be theyr (a) watcheman:

(a) He ſheweth that the people ought continually to haue gouernours and teachers, whiche may haue a care ouer them, and to warne them euer of the daungers whiche are at hande.

3 If when he ſeeth the ſwoorde comme vpon the lande, he ſhal blowe the trumpet & warne the people:

4 Thẽ he that heareth the noyſe of the trumpet, and wyl not be warned, and the ſwoorde comme and take him away, his blood ſhalbe vpon his owne head.

5 For he heard the ſounde of the trumpet, & would not be warned, therefore his blood be vpon him: but he that receiueth warning, he ſhal ſaue his lyfe.

(b) Signifiing that the wicked ſhal not eſcape puniſhment, though the watchemen be negligent: but if the watchemen blowe the trumpet, and then he wyl not obey, he ſhal deſerue double pouniſhment. Chap.3.c.

6 Agayne, if the watcheman ſee the ſwoorde comme, and blowe not the trumpet, ſo that the people is not warned, if the ſwoorde come then, and take any man from among them: the ſame ſhalbe(b) taken away in his owne ſinne, but his blood wil I require at the watchemans hande.

(c) Whiche teacheth that he that receaueth not his charge, and watchewoorde at the Lordes mouth, is a ſpye, and not a true watcheman.

7 And thou, O ſonne at man, I haue made thee a watcheman vnto the houſe of Iſrael: therfore thou ſhalt heare the woorde at(c) my mouth, & thou ſhalt warne them from me.

8 If I ſay vnto the wicked, Thou wicked, thou ſhalt ſurely dye: & thou ſpeakeſt not to admoniſh the wicked of his way: that wicked man ſhal dye in his owne ſinne, but his blood wyl I require at thy hande.

9 Neuertheleſſe, if thou warne the wicked of his way to turne from it, and he yet wyl not be turned from his waye: then ſhal he dye in his iniquitie, but thou haſt delyuered thy ſoule.

10 Therefore, O thou ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, yea ſay thus, If our offences and ſinnes lye vpon vs, and we be conſumed in them,(d) howe ſhould we then lyue?

(d) Thus the wicked when they heare of Gods iudgementes for their ſinnes, diſpaire of his mercies, and murmure.

11 Tel them, as truely as I liue, ſaith the lorde God,* I haue no pleaſure in the death of the wicked, but muche rather that the wicked turne from his way, and lyue: Turne you, turne you from your wicked waies, for why wil ye dye, O ye of the houſe of Iſrael?

Ezec.18.c.

Ezec.18.c.

12 Therefore, thou ſonne of man, tel the chyldren of thy people, The righteouſneſſe of the righteous, ſhal not ſaue him in the day of his iniquitie: agayne, The wickedneſſe of the wicked, ſhal not ouerthrow him for it, in the day that he returneth from his wickedneſſe: neyther ſhal the righteous lyue for(e) it, in the day that he ſinneth.

(e) Namely, his righteouſneſſe.

13 If I ſay vnto the righteous, He ſhal ſurely lyue, & ſo he truſt to his owne righteouſneſſe, and do ſinne: then ſhal his righteouſneſſe be no more thought vpon, but in his wickedneſſe that he hath donne, in it he ſhal dye.

C 14 Again, if I ſay vnto yͤ wicked, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye: & ſo he turne from his ſinnes, and (f) doo the thing that is lawful and right, 15 Inſomuche that the ſame wicked man geueth the pledge agayne, reſtoreth that he had taken away by robbery, walketh in the commaundementes of lyfe, & dooth none iniquitie: then ſhal he ſurely lyue, and not dye.

16 None of the ſinnes that he hath committed ſhalbe mētioned vnto him: for inſomuche as he dooth nowe the thyng that is lawful and right, he ſhal lyue, Ezec,18.c. 17 And yet the children of thy people ſay, The way of the Lord is not equal: but their owne way is rather vnequal.

18 Whē the righteous turneth from his righteouſneſſe, and dooth the thyng that is wicked, he ſhal dye therin.

19 But if the wicked turne from his wickedneſſe, doing the thing that is lawful & right, he ſhal lyue therefore.

20 Yet ye ſaye, The way of the Lorde is not equal, O ye houſe of Iſrael, I wyl iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

D 21 In the twelfth yere, the fift day of the tenth moneth of our (g) captiuitie, one whiche was eſcaped out of Hieruſalem, came vnto me and ſayd, The citie is ſmitten.

22 Now the (h) hande of the Lorde had benne vpon me the euening afore this man which was eſcaped came vnto me, and had (i) opened my mouth vntil the morning that he came to me: yea, my mouth was opened, ſo that I was no more dumbe.

23 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, and ſayde,

24 Thou ſonne of man, theſe that dwel in the waſted land of Iſrael, talke and ſay, (k) Abraham was but one man, and he had the lande in poſſeſſion: nowe are we many, & the lande is geuen vs to poſſeſſe alſo.

25 And therefore tel them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, In the blood haue ye eaten, your eyes haue ye lift vp to idols, and haue ſhed blood: ſhal ye then haue the land in poſſeſſion?

26 Ye (l) leane vpon your ſwoordes, ye worke abominations, euery one defyleth his neighbours wyfe: & ſhal ye then poſſeſſe the lande?

27 Say thou thus vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, As truely as I lyue, they that are in the deſolate places, ſhal fal by the ſwoorde, and him that is vpon the feelde, wil I geue vnto the beaſtes to be deuoured: and they that be in the ſtrong holdes and dennes, ſhal dye of the peſtilence.

E 28 For I wyl make the lande ſo deſolate and waſte, that the * pompe of her ſtrength ſhal ceaſſe: the mountaynes of Iſrael ſhalbe ſo waſte, that no man ſhal trauaile thereby. Ezec. 7.d.

29 Then ſhal they knowe that I am the Lorde, when I make the lande deſolate and waſte, becauſe of al their abominations that they haue wrought.

30 And thou ſonne of man, the children of thy people that talke of thee by the waters, and in the doores of their houſes, and ſpeake one to another, euery one to his brother, ſayeing, Comme I pray you, let vs heare what word is gonne foorth from the Lorde:

31 They comme vnto thee as the people vſeth to comme, and my people ſyt before thee, and heare thy woordes, but they doo not thereafter: for in their mouthes they make a (m) ieſt of them, and their hart goeth after their couetouſneſſe.

32 And loe, thou art vnto them as a (n) ieſting ſong of one that hath a pleaſant voyce, and can ſing wel: for they heare thy woordes, but doo them not.

23 When this commeth to paſſe (loe, it commeth:) then ſhal they knowe that there hath benne a prophete among them.

(f) Hereby he condempneth al them of hypocriſie, whiche pretend to forſake wickedneſſe, and yet declare not them ſelues ſuche by their fruites: that is in obeying Gods commaundemēts, and by godly lyfe.

(g) When the prophete was led away captiue with Ieconiah.

(h) I was endued with the ſpirite of prophecie as Chap. 8.a.

(i) Whereby is ſignifyed that the miniſters of god can not ſpeake til God geue them courage, and open their mouthes. Chap.24.d.

(k) Thus the wicked thinke them ſelues more woorthy to enioy Gods promiſe then the ſaincte of God, to whom they were made: & would binde God to be ſubiect to them, though they woulde not be bounde to him. Leui.17.c.

(l) As they that are ready ſtil to ſhead blood.

(m) This declareth that we ought to heare Gods woorde with ſuche zeale & affection, that we ſhould not onely delight therein to heare it preached, but alſo in al pointes obey it: els we abuſe the woorde to our owne cōdemnation, and make of the miniſters as though they were ieſtes to ſerue mennes fantaſies.

(n) Or a ſong of paſtime and pleaſure.

The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

2 Agaynſt ſhepheardes that deſpiſe the flocke of Chriſte, and ſeeke their owne gayne, 7 The Lorde ſayth that he wyl viſite his diſpearſed flocke, and geather them togeather. 18 He reproueth the malice of certayne of the flocke. 23 He promiſeth the true ſhephearde Chriſte, and with him peace.

A 1 AND the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, prophecie agaynſt yͤ ſhepheardes of Iſrael, prophecie and ſpeake vnto them, Thus ſaith yͤ Lorde God vnto the ſhepheardes, Wo be vnto the (a) ſhepheardes of Iſrael that feede them ſelues: ſhould not the ſhepheardes feede the flockes?

3 Ye eate vp the (b) fat, ye clothe you with the wool, the beſt fed doo ye ſlay: but the flocke do ye not feede.

4 The (c) weake haue ye not ſtrengthened, the ſicke haue ye not healed, the broken haue ye not bounde togeather, the dryuen awaye haue ye not brought agayne, the loſt haue ye not ſought: but with force and crueltie haue

(a) By the ſhepheardes, he meaneth the kyng, the magiſtrates, prieſtes, and prophetes.

(b) Ye ſeeke to enriche your ſelues by their commodities, and ſo ſpoyle their riches and ſubſtance.

(c) He deſcribeth the office and duetie of a good paſtor, who ought to loue and ſuccour his flock, and not to be cruel towards them.

haue ye ruled them.

5 They are ſcattered without a ſhepheard, yea al the beaſtes of the feeld (d) deuour them, and they goe aſtray.

(d) For lacke of good gouernment and doctrine they periſhe.

6 My ſheepe goe wandring vpon al mountaynes, & vpon euery high hyl, yea my flocke is ſcattered through al the face of the earth, and there is no man that ſeeketh or ſearcheth [after them.]

B 7 Therefore, O ye ſhepheardes, heare the worde of the Lorde.

8 As truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lorde God, forſomuche as my ſheepe are robbed, and deuoured of al the wylde beaſtes of the feelde, hauing no ſhepheard, and ſeeyng that my ſhepheardes ſeke not my ſheepe, but the ſhepheardes feede them ſelues, and feede not my ſheepe:

9 Therefore, heare the worde of the Lorde, O ye ſhepheardes,

10 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon the ſhepheardes, and require my ſheepe from their handes, and make them ceaſſe from feeding of the ſheepe, yea the ſhepheardes ſhal feede them ſelues no more: for I wil (e) deliuer my ſheep out of their mouthes, ſo that they ſhal not deuour them after this.

(e) By deſtroying the couetous hirelinges, & reſtoring true ſhepheardes.

11 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I [euen] I wil looke to my ſheepe my ſelfe, and ſeeke them out.

12 Lyke as a ſhepheard when he hath benne amōg the flocke, ſeeketh after the ſheepe that are ſcattered abroade: euen ſo wil I ſeeke after my ſheepe, and delyuer them out of al places where they haue benne ſcattered, in yͤ (f) cloudie and darke day.

(f) In the day of their affliction and miſerie: and this promiſe is to comforte the churche in al daungers.

13 I wil bring them out from the people, and geather them togeather out of the landes, I wyl bryng them into their owne lande, and feede them vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael, by the riuers and in al the places of the countrey.

C 14 I wyl feede them in right good paſtures, and vpon the high mountaines of Iſrael ſhal their foldes be: there ſhal they lye in a good folde, and in a fat paſture ſhal they feede, euen vpon the mountaines of Iſrael.

15 I wyl feede my ſheepe, and bring them to their reaſt, ſayth the Lorde God.

16 Suche as be loſt, wyl I ſeeke: ſuche as are dryuen away, wyl I bryng agayne: ſuche as be brokē, wil I binde vp: ſuche as be weake, wyl I make ſtrong: ſuche as be fat & ſtrong, thoſe wyl I roote out, and feede them with (g) iudgement.

(g) That is, by putting difference betweene the good and bad, & ſo geue to eyther as they deſerue.

17 And as for you, O my ſheepe, ſaith the Lord God, I wil iudge betweene cattaile and cattaile, betweene the rammes and the goates.

18 Seemeth it a ſmal thing to you to haue eaten vp the good (h) paſture, & to treade downe the reſidue of your paſture with your feete alſo: to drinke the deepe waters, and to trouble the reaſt alſo with your feete:

(h) By good paſture and deepe waters, is ment the pure worde of God, and the adminiſtratiō of iuſtice: whiche they did not diſtribute to the poore til they had corrupt it.

19 Thus my ſheepe muſt be fayne to eate the thing that ye haue troden downe with your feete, and to drinke it that ye with your feete haue defyled.

20 Therfore, thus ſayth the Lorde God vnto thē, Beholde I [euen] I wil iudge betweene the fat cattaile and the leane cattaile,

21 Forſomuche as with ſyde and ſhoulder ye haue ſhoued, and with your hornes haue puſhed al the weake, til ye haue ſcattered them abroade. D

22 I wyl ſaue my ſheepe, ſo that they ſhal no more be ſpoyled, yea I wyl iudge betweene cattaile and cattaile.

23 I wyl ſet vp ouer them a ſhepheard, and he ſhal feede them, euen my ſeruant (i) Dauid, he ſhal feede them, and he ſhalbe theyr ſhepheard.

(i) Meaning Chriſte, of whom Dauid was a figure, as Oſee.3.a.

24 And I the Lorde wyl be their God, & my ſeruant Dauid ſhalbe their prince: euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

25 Moreouer I wil make a couenant of peace with them, & cauſe euil beaſtes to ceaſſe out of the lande: ſo that they may dwel (k) ſafely in the wilderneſſe, and ſleepe in the woods.

Iere.30.b.

(k) This declareth, that vnder Chriſte the flocke ſhould be truely deliuered from ſinnes and hel: and ſo be ſafely preſerued in the churche, where they ſhould neuer periſhe.

26 And I wyl ſet them [as] a bleſſyng, euen rounde about my hyl, and I wyl cauſe rayne to comme downe in due ſeaſon, [and] there ſhalbe raine of bleſſyng.

27 And the tree of the feelde ſhal yeelde her fruite, and the earth ſhal geue her encreaſe: they ſhalbe ſafe in their lande, and ſhal know that I am the Lorde, when I haue broken the bondes of their yoke, and deliuered them out of the handes of thoſe that ſerued them ſelues of them.

E 28 They ſhal no more be ſpoyled of the heathen, nor deuoured with the beaſtes of the lande: but ſafely ſhal they dwel, and no man ſhal fray them.

29 And I wil raiſe vp for them a (l) plant of renowme, and they ſhalbe no more ʻʻ clungd with hunger in the lande, neither beare the reproche of the heathen any more.

(l) That is, the rodde that ſhal come out of the roote of Iſai.

Eſai.11.a.

ʻʻOr, clembd, or hungerſtaruen.

30 Thus ſhal they vnderſtand, that I the Lord their God am with them, & that they, euen the houſe of Iſrael, are my people, ſayth the Lorde God:

31 And ye my ſheepe, the ſheepe of my paſture, are menne: and I am your God, ſayth the Lorde God.

The.xxxv.Chapter.

The deſtruction that ſhal comme on the mount Seir, that is, on the Idumeans, becauſe they troubled the people of the Lorde.

A 1 Moreouer, the Woorde of the Lord came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde the mount * (a) Seir, prophecie agaynſt it.

Eſai.34.a

(a) where the Idumeans dwelt.

3 And ſay vnto it, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, O thou mount Seir, I wyl vpon thee, I wyl reache out my hande ouer thee, yea waſte and deſolate wyl I make thee,

4 Thy cities wyl I lay waſt, and thou ſhalt lye voyde, that thou mayeſt know how that I am the Lorde,

5 Forſomuch as thou beareſt an old enmitie, and haſt put the chyldren of Iſrael to flyght by the force of the ſwoord, in the time of their calamitie, [when their] iniquitie had an ende:

6 Therfore, as truely as I lyue, ſaith the lorde GOD, I wyl prepare thee vnto blood, yea blood ſhal folowe vpon thee, except thou (b) hate blood, euen blood ſhal perſecute thee.

(b) Except thou repent thy former crueltie.

B 7 Thus wyl I make the mount Seir deſolate and waſte, and cut out from it hym that paſſeth out, and hym that returneth:

8 His mountaynes wil I fyl with his ſlayne menne, thy hylles, valleys, and al thy riuers, the ſlayne with the ſwoorde ſhal fal in them.

9 I wyl make thee a perpetual wyldernesse, ſo that thy cities ſhal not (c) returne: that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

(c) To wit, to their former eſtate.

10 And becauſe thou haſt ſayd, (d) Both theſe nations, and both theſe landes muſt be mine, and we wyl haue them in poſſeſſion, * wheras the Lorde was there:

(d) Meanyng Iſrael, and Iuda.

Exod.25.d

11 Therefore, as truely as I lyue ſayth the Lorde God, I wyl euen doo according to thy (e) wrath, and accordyng to thyne enuyeing, which thou haſt vſed in thine hatred againſt them: and I wyl make my ſelfe (f) knowen amongſt them when I haue iudged thee.

(e) As thou haſt donne cruelly, ſo ſhalt thou be cruelly handeled.

(f) Shewyng that when god pouniſheth the enimies, the godly ought to conſyder that he hath a care ouer them, and ſo prayſe his name: and alſo that the wicked rage as though there were no God, tyl they feele his hand to their deſtruction.

12 Yea, and thou ſhalt know, that I the lord, haue hearde al thy blaſphemies, which thou haſt ſpoken agaynſt the mountaynes of Iſrael, ſayeing, They are made waſte, & geuen vs to deuoure.

13 Thus with your mouthes ye haue made your boaſtes againſt me, yea and multiplied your woordes agaynſt me, whiche I haue hearde.

14 Thus ſayth the Lorde God: To the ioy C of al the worlde wyl I make thee waſte.

15 And lyke as thou waſt glad becauſe the heritage of the houſe of Iſrael was deſtroyed, euen ſo wyl I doo vnto thee: thou ſhalt be deſtroyed, O mount Seir, and al Idumea wholly, and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The.xxxvi.Chapter.

2 He promiſeth to deliuer Iſrael from the Gentiles. 22 The benefites donne vnto the Iewes, are to be aſcribed to the mercie of God, not vnto their deſeruinges. 26 God reneweth our hartes, that we may walke in his commaundementes.

A 1 THOU ſonne of man prophecie vnto ye mountaines of Iſrael, & ſpeake, * Heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye mountaynes of Iſrael,

Ezech.6.a

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD: Becauſe your (a) enimie hath ſayde vpō you haha, the (b) high places of the world are nowe become ours in poſſeſſion:

(a) That is, the Idumean

(b) That is, the hilly countreys of Iuda

3 Prophecie therefore, and ſpeake, thus ſayth the Lorde God, For becauſe that they haue made you deſolate, and ſwalowed you vp on euery ſyde, that ye myght be a poſſeſſion vnto the reſidue of the Gentiles, and ye are taken vp in the (c) lippes & tongues of menne, and to the reproche of the people:

(c) ye are made a matter of talke and deriſion to al the worlde.

4 Therefore, heare the woorde of the Lorde God, O ye mountaynes of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lorde God to the mountaynes and hils, to the riuers and valleys, to the waſt and deſolate places, & to the cities that are forſaken, whiche are ſpoyled and had in deriſion on euery ſide, among the reſidue of the Heathen:

5 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD: Surely in the fyre of my gelouſie haue I ſpoken agaynſt the reſidue of the Gentiles, and agaynſt al Edom, whiche haue (d) appointed my lande for their poſſeſſion, whiche alſo reioyced from their whole hart with a diſpiteful ſtomake, to caſt it out for a pray.

(d) They appoynted with them ſelues to haue it, and therfore came with Nabuchodonoſor agaynſt Hieruſalem for this purpoſe.

6 Prophecie therfore vpon the land of Iſrael, and ſpeake vnto the mountaynes and hilles, to the riuers and dales, thus ſayth the Lorde God: Beholde, this haue I ſpoken in my gelouſie & terrible wrath, becauſe ye haue borne the (e) ſhame of the Heathen:

(e) Becauſe ye haue benne a laughyng ſtocke vnto them.

7 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, I haue (f) lyft vp my hande, ſurely the Heathen that are about you ſhal beare their ſhame.

(f) By making a ſolemne oth, chap.20.a

8 But you, O mountaynes of Iſrael, ye ſhal (g) ſhoote out your branches, and bryng forth

(g) God declareth his mercies and goodneſſe towarde his church, who ſtyl preſerueth his, euen whē he deſtroyeth his enimies.

your fruite to my people of Iſrael: for they are at hande to comme.

9 Behold, I comme vnto you, and vnto you wyl I turne my face, that ye may be tylled and ſowen.

10 I wyl multiplie menne vpon you, [euen] al the houſe of Iſrael wholly, the cities ſhalbe inhabited, and the decayed places ſhalbe repayred agayne.

11 And I wyl multiplie vpon you man and beaſt, whiche ſhal encreaſe and bryng fruite: and I wyl cauſe you to dwel after your olde eſtate, and be better(h) vnto you then at the begynning: & ye ſhal know that I am the lorde.

12 Yea I wyl cauſe menne to walke vpon (i) you, [euen] my people Iſrael, and they ſhal poſſeſſe(k) thee, and thou ſhalt be their inheritance, and thou ſhalt no more hencefoorth depriue them of [menne.]

13 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Forſomuche as they ſay vnto you, thou art an (l) eater vp of menne, and a waſter of thy people:

14 Therfore thou ſhalt eate no more menne, neither deſtroy thy people any more, ſaith the Lorde God.

(h) whiche was accompliſhed vnder Chriſte, to whom al theſe temporal deliuerances did direct them.
(i) That is, vpon the mountaynes of Iuda.
(k) you, changing the number.
(l) Thus the enimies imputed as the reproche of the lande, whiche God dyd for the ſinnes of the people, according to his iuſt iudgementes.

C 15 Neither wil I cauſe menne to heare in thee the ſhame of the Heathen any more: neyther ſhalt thou beare the reproch of the people any more, nor cauſe thy folke to falle any more, ſaith the Lorde God.

16 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

17 O thou ſonne of man, when the houſe of Iſrael dwelt vpon their owne grounde, they defyled them ſelues with their owne wayes and imaginations: ſo that in my ſight, their way was like the vncleanneſſe of a remoued woman.

18 Wherfore I powred my wrathful diſpleaſure vpō them, becauſe of the blood that they had ſhed in the land, & becauſe of their idolles wherewith they had defyled it:

19 I ſcattered them alſo among the Heathen, ſo that they were ſtrawed about in the lands: accordyng to their wayes, & after their owne inuentions, ſo dyd I iudge them.

20 And when they entred vnto the Heathen whyther they went, * they polluted my holy name, when they ſaid of them, Theſe are the people of God, and are gonne out of his land.

21 Then ſpared I my holy(m) name, whiche the houſe of Iſrael had diſhonoured among the Gentiles where they came.

22 Therfore, tel the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſaith the Lorde GOD: I (n) doo not this for your ſakes, O houſe of Iſrael, but for my holy names ſake, whiche ye diſhonoured among the Heathen, where ye came.

Eſai.52.a.
Rom.25.d.
(m) And therfore would not ſuffer my name to be had in contempt, as the Heathē woulde haue reproched me, if I had ſuffered my church to periſhe.
(n) This excludeth from menne al dignitie & meane to deſerue any thyng by, ſeeyng that God referreth the whole to hym ſelfe, and that onely for the glory of his holy name,

23 Therefore I wil halowe my great name againe, whiche among the gentiles is polluted, for ye your ſelues haue diſhonoured it among them: & the Gentiles ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde, ſaith the Lorde God, when I ſhalbe ſanctified in you before your eyes.

24 As for you, I wyl take you from among the heathen, and geather you togeather out of al countreys, and bryng you agayne into your owne lande.

25 Then wil I ſprinckle cleane(o) water vpō you, and ye ſhalbe cleane: yea from al your vncleanneſſe, and from al your idolles ſhal I cleanſe you.

26 A *newe hart alſo wyl I geue you, and a newe ſpirite wyl I put into you: as for that ſtony hart I wyl take it out of your fleaſhe, and geue you a fleaſhy hart.

(o) That is, his ſpirite, wherby he reformeth the hart, & regenerateth his.
Eſai.44.a.
Iere.23.g.

27 I wyl geue my ſpirite among you, and cauſe you to walke in my commaundementes, and ye ſhal keepe my iudgementes, and doo them.

28 And ſo ye ſhal dwelle in the lande that I gaue to your fathers: and ye ſhalbe my people, and I wyl be your God. E

29 I wyl deliuer you from al your vncleanneſſe, I wyl cal for the (p) corne, & wyl encreaſe it, and lay no famine vpon you.

30 I wyl multiplie the fruites of the trees, and the encreaſe of the feelde: ſo that ye ſhal receiue no more reproche of hunger among the Heathen.

(p) Under the aboundance of temporal benefites he concludeth ẏ ſpiritual graces.

31 Then ſhal ye remember your owne wicked wayes, and your imaginations whiche were not good: ſo that ye ſhalbe (q) irkſomme in your owne eyes for your ſinnes, and abominations.

32 But I wil not doo this for your ſakes, ſaith the Lorde God, be ye ſure of it: therfore, O ye houſe of Iſrael, be aſhamed and confounded of your owne wayes.

(q) Ye ſhal comme to true repentance, & thinke your ſelues vnworthy to be of the number of Gods creatures, for your ingratitude agaynſt hym.

33 Moreouer, thus ſaith the Lord God, what tyme as I ſhal cleanſe you from al your iniquities, then wyl I make the cities to be inhabited agayne, & the places that be decayed ſhalbe repayred.

34 The deſolate lande ſhalbe tylled agayne, whiche aforetime lay waſte in the ſight of al them that went by.

35 And they ſhal ſay, This waſte lande was lyke the garden of Eden: and theſe waſte and deſolate & ruinous cities [were] ſtrong [and] inhabited.

36 Then the reſidue of the Heathen that lye rounde about you, ſhal knowe that I the Lorde, (r) repayre that was broken downe, & plant

(r) He declareth that it ought not to be referred to the ſolle or fertylitie of the earth, that any countrey is riche & aboundant: but onely to Gods mercies, as his plagues and curſes declare when he maketh it barre plant againe that, that was made waſt: euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it, and wyl doo it in deede.

37 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wyl yet for this be ſought of the houſe of Iſrael, to doo it for them, I wyl multiplie them as a flocke of menne, 38 Lyke as the holy flocke, and the flocke of Hieruſalem are in the hygh ſolempne feaſtes, ſo ſhal alſo the waſted cities be fylled with flockes of menne: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

The.xxxvij.Chapter.

He prophecieth the bringing agayne of the people being in captiuitie. 16 He ſheweth the vnion of the tenne tribes with the two.

A 1 THE hande of the Lorde was vpon me, and caried me out in the ſpirite of the Lorde, and ſet me downe in the middeſt of a playne feelde that was ful of (a) bones.

(a) By this viſion, he prophecieth that the people of Iſrael ſhalbe delyuered, whom he compareth to bones of dead menne: for as drye bones ſeeme without al hope of lyfe agayne, ſo the Iſraelites thought they ſhoulde neuer returne into their countrey, as appeareth by their woordes in the eleuenth verſe Our bones are dryed, and our hope is gonne, &c.

2 And he led me rounde about by them, and beholde, there were very many in the open feelde, and lo [they were] very drye.

3 Then ſaid he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thinkeſt thou theſe bones may liue againe? I anſweared, O Lorde God, thou knoweſt.

4 And he ſaid vnto me, Prophecie thou vpõ theſe bones, and ſpeake vnto them: Ye drye bones, heare the woorde of the Lorde,

5 Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD vnto theſe bones, Beholde, I wyl cauſe breath to enter into you, that ye may lyue.

6 I wyl geue you ſinowes, and make fleaſh growe vpon you, and couer you ouer with ſkinne, and ſo geue you breath, that ye may lyue, and knowe that I am the Lorde.

B 7 So I prophecied as I was commaunded: and as I was prophecyeing, there was a noyſe, & loe a great motion, ſo that the bones came neare togeather, bone to his bone.

8 Nowe when I had looked, Beholde, they had ſinowes, and fleaſhe grewe vpon them, and aboue they were couered with ſkynne: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then ſaid he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, prophecie thou toward the wynde, prophecie and ſpeake to the winde, thus ſaith the Lord God: Comme, O thou ayre from the foure (b) windes, and blowe vpon theſe ſlayne, that they may lyue.

(b) He frameth this talke to the fantaſie, and opinion of menne, that thinke the lyfe of menne whẽ they depart is diſſolued into the ayre, when as in deede the ſpirite returneth to him that gaue it, to the Lord, who is the boſome of Abraham, & receptacle of the faythful: Neither ought any man to conclude herevpõ that the ſoule of man is of the nature of ayre.

10 So I prophecied as he had commaunded me: then came the breath into them, and they receiued lyfe, and ſtoode vp vpon their feete, a marueſlous great armie.

11 Moreouer, he ſayde vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, theſe bones are the whole houſe of Iſrael: Behold, they ſay, Our bones are dried vp, our hope is gonne, & we are cleane cut of.

12 Therfore prophecie thou, and ſpeake vnto them, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl open your graues, O my people, & cauſe you to comme vp out of your ſepulchres, and bring you into the lande of Iſrael agayne.

13 So ſhal ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I open your graues, O my people, and bring you (c) out of your ſepulchres.

(c) That is, whẽ I bring you out of theſe places and townes where ye are captiues.

14 My ſpirite alſo wyl I put in you, and ye ſhal liue, I wyl ſet you againe in your owne land: & ye ſhal knowe that I the Lorde haue ſaide it, & fulfylled it in deede, ſaith the Lorde. C

15 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

16 Thou ſonne of man, take one ſticke, and write vpon it, Unto Iuda, and to the children of Iſrael his companions. Then take another ſticke, and write vpon it, Unto Ioſeph the ſtocke of Ephraim, and to al the houſeholde of Iſrael his companions.

17 And (d) ioyne thee them one to another into one ſticke: & they ſhalbe as one in thy hande.

(d) which ſignifieth the ioyning togeather of the two houſes of Iſrael & Iuda.

18 Nowe if the chyldren of thy people ſpeake vnto thee, ſayeing, Wylt thou not ſhewe vs what thou meaneſt by theſe?

19 Then geue them this anſweare, thus ſaith the Lorde GOD, Behold, I wyl take (e) the ſtocke of Ioſeph, whiche is in the hande of Ephraim, and of the tribes of Iſrael his felowes, and wyl put them with him [euen] with the ſtocke of Iuda, and make them one ſtocke, and they ſhalbe one in my hande.

(e) This is the houſe of Iſrael.

20 And the ſtyckes wherupon thou wryteſt, ſhalt thou haue in thy hande, yͭ they may ſee.

21 And thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Behold, I wyl take the children of Iſrael from among the heathen, vnto whom they be gonne, & wyl geather them togeather on euery ſyde, & bring them againe into their owne lande. D

22 Yea I wyl make one people of them in the land vpon the mountaines of Iſrael, and *one kyng ſhalbe kyng to them al: they ſhal no more be two peoples, neyther be diuided from hencefoorth into two kyngdomes. Ioſu.x,c,

23 They ſhal alſo defyle them ſelues no more with their idolles and abominations, and al their wicked dooynges: I wyl ſaue them out of al their dwelling places wherin they haue ſinned, & wyl ſo cleanſe them, that they ſhalbe my people, and I wyl be their God.

24 *Dauid my ſeruant ſhalbe their kyng, and they al ſhal haue one ſhepheard onely: they ſhal walke in my iudgementes, and my commaundementes ſhal they keepe, and fulfyl them.

25 They ſhal dwelle in the lande that I gaue vnto Iacob my ſeruāt, wheras your fathers alſo haue dwelt, yea [euen] in the ſame lande ſhal they, their chyldren, and their chylders chyldren dwel for euermore: and my ſeruant Dauid ſhalbe their prince for euer.

26 Moreouer, I wyl make a bonde of peace with them, which ſhalbe vnto them an euerlaſting couenant: I wyl ſettle them alſo, and multiplie them, my ſanctuarie wyl I ſet among them for euermore.

27 My tabernacle ſhalbe with them: yea I wil be their GOD, and they ſhalbe my people.

28 Thus the Heathen alſo ſhal knowe that I the Lord doo ſanctifie Iſrael, when my ſanctuarie ſhalbe among them for euermore.

The.xxxviii.Chapter.

1 He propheſieth that Gog and Magog ſhal comme with an appoynted hoſt into the lande of promiſe. 12 Their intent. 17 He rehearſeth that the commyng of Gog was before prophecied of the prophetes. 21 The deſtruction of hym.

A 1 AND the woord of the lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face towarde (a) Gog, the lande of Magog, whiche is the chiefe prince at Meſech and Tubal: prophecie agaynſt hym,

3 And ſay, thus ſaith the Lord God, O Gog, thou chiefe prince of Meſech and Tubal, beholde, I wyl vpon thee:

4 And I wyl turne thee backe, & put hookes in thy chawes, I wyl bryng thee foorth, and al thyne hoſt, both horſe and horſemen, al armed with al ſortes of armour, a great multitude with ſpeares and ſhieldes, al handlyng ſwoordes.

5 They of (b) Paras, of Cuſh, and Phut, with them [euen] al [hauing] ſhieldes and helmets.

6 (c) Gomer & al his hoſtes, the houſe of Togarma out of the North quarters, and al his hoſtes, yea and muche people with thee.

7 Therefore prepare thee, ſet thy ſelfe in aray, with al thy people that are comme vnto thee by heapes, and be thou their defence.

B 8 After many dayes thou ſhalt be viſited, and in the latter yeeres thou ſhalt comme into the lande that hath benne turned [and toſt] with the ſwoorde, and geathered togeather againe out of many people vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael, which haue benne alwaies [ſubiect] to waſte: but it is brought out of the people, and they dwelle al ſafe.

9 Thou ſhalt aſcende and comme vp lyke a ſtorme, as a cloude to couer the lande ſhalt thou be: thou with al thyne hoſtes, & a great multitude of people with thee.

10 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde God: At the ſame time ſhal thinges comme vnto thy mynde, ſo that thou ſhalt thynke (d) euyl thoughtes,

11 And ſay, I wyl vp to the land of (e) vnwalled villages, I wil goe to them that be at reſt, whiche dwelle ſafely, al dwellyng without walles, they haue neyther barres nor gates:

12 To ſpoyle the pray, and to take a bootie, to turne thy hand vpon the deſolate places that are [nowe] inhabited, and vpon that people that is geathered togeather from among the Heathen, whiche haue gotten cattel and goodes, and dwel in the middes of the lande.

13 Then ſhal Saba and Dedan, and the marchantes of Tharſis, with al their Lions, ſay vnto thee, (f) Art thou comme to ſpoyle a pray? haſt thou geathered thy people togeather to take a bootie, to take away ſiluer and golde, to carie away cattel and good, and to haue a great pray?

14 Therefore, O thou ſonne of man, thou ſhalt prophecie and ſay vnto Gog, thus ſaith the Lord God, In that day when my people Iſrael (g) dwelleth ſafe, ſhalt thou not knowe it? C

15 And thou ſhalt comme from thy place out of the North partes, thou and muche people with thee, whiche ryde al vpon horſes, [euen] a great multitude, and a mightie armie.

16 Yea thou ſhalt comme vpon my people of Iſrael, as a cloude to couer the land: this ſhal comme to paſſe in the (h) latter dayes, and I wyl bryng thee vp into my lande, that the Heathen may knowe me, when I ſhalbe (i) ſanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Art not thou he of whom I haue ſpoken in olde time (k) by the handes of my ſeruantes the prophetes of Iſrael, whiche prophecied in thoſe dayes and yeeres, that I ſhoulde bring thee vpon them?

18 At the ſame time when Gog commeth vp into the lande of Iſrael, ſaith the Lorde God, ſhal mine indignation ryſe in my wrath:

19 For in my ielouſie and fire of my wrath haue I ſpoken it, ſurely at that tyme there ſhalbe a great ſhaking in the lande of Iſrael.

21 I wyl cal for a ſwoorde vpon (m) him in al my mountaines, ſaith the Lord God: ſo that euery mans ſwoorde ſhalbe vpon another.

(l) Al meanes whereby man ſhoulde thinke to ſaue hym ſelfe ſhal faile, the afflictions in thoſe dayes ſhalbe ſo great, and the enimies deſtruction ſhalbe ſo terrible.

22 With peſtilence and blood wyl I pleade agaynſt hym: ſtormie rayne, and hayleſtones, fire and brimſtone wil I cauſe to raine vpon hym, and al his hoſtes, yea and vpon al that great people that is with him.

23 Thus wil I be* magnified, ſanctified, and knowen in the eyes of many nations: & they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

Chap.36.c and.27.d

The.xxxix.Chapter.

1 He ſheweth the deſtruction of Gog and Magog. 11 The graue of Gog, and his hoſt. 17 He prophecieth that Gog and his companie ſhalbe deuoured of birdes and beaſtes. 23 Wherfore the houſe of Iſrael is waſted. 25 Their bringing agayne from captiuitie is promiſed.

A 1 Therfore, O thou ſonne of man, prophecie agaynſt Gog, and ſpeake, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, O Gog, thou cheefe prince at Meſech & Tubal, I wyl vpon thee.

2 And I wyl turne thee about, and I wyl (a) prouoke thee forward, & cauſe thee to comme vp from the North partes, and bryng thee vp to the mountaynes of Iſrael.

(a) That is, I wyl encourage thee with clappyng and ſtrokyng, as menne doo horſes, when they wyl encourage them.

3 As for thy bowe, I wyl ſmite it out of thy leaft hande, and cauſe thyne arrowes to falle out of thy ryght hande.

4 Thou with al thine hoſt, and al the people that is with thee, ſhal fal vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael: then wyl I geue thee vnto the (b) flockes of birdes [euen] to al feathered foules & beaſtes of the feelde, to be deuoured.

(b) Hereby he ſignifieth that which is wont to befal in warre: that the bodyes of the ſlayne ſhoulde be vnburyed.

5 Thou ſhalt fal vpon the open feelde: for I haue ſpoken it, ſayth the Lorde God.

6 Into Magog, and among thoſe that ſit ſo careleſſe in the (c) Iles, wyl I ſende a fire, and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

(c) That is, among al nations where the enimies of my people dwelle, ſeeme they neuer ſo farre ſeparate.

7 I wyl make alſo the name of my holynes to be knowen among my people of Iſrael, & I wyl not let thē pollute my holy name any more: but the very Heathen alſo ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde, the holy one of Iſrael.

B

8 Beholde it is (d) comme, and it is donne, ſaith the Lord God: this is the day wherof I haue ſpoken.

(d) That is, this plague is fully determined in my counſel, and can not be changed.

9 They that dwel in the cities of Iſrael, ſhal goe foorth, and (e) ſet fyre vpon the weapons, and burne them, ſhieldes and ſpeares, bowes and arrowes, hande ſtaues and ″ ſwoordes, & thei ſhal burne them with fire ſeuen yeeres.

(e) After this deſtruction, ſhalbe ſuche peace & tranquillitie, that thei ſhal neede no weapons of warre, but burne them al with fyre.

10 So that they ſhal els bring no wood from the fielde, neither hewe downe any out of the wood: for with weapons ſhal they make their fire, they ſhal rob thoſe that robbed thē, and ſpoyle thoſe that ſpoyled them, ſayth the Lorde God.

11 At the ſame tyme wyl I geue vnto Gog a place to be buryed in Iſrael, euen the valley wherethrough menne goe towarde the Eaſt ſea: thoſe that trauayle thereby, ſhal (f) ſtop their noyſes, there ſhal Gog, and al his multitude be buryed, and it ſhalbe called the valley of the ″ multitude of Gog.

(f) For the ſtinke of the carkaſes, that ſhal lye ſlayne there vnburyed.

″ or, Hamon Gog.

12 Seuen monethes long ſhal the houſe of Iſrael be buryeing of them, that they may cleanſe the lande.

13 Yea al the people of the lande ſhal burie them, and they ſhal haue a name when I ſhalbe glorified, ſayth the Lorde God.

14 They ſhal chooſe out menne to goe continually thorowe the lande, to (g) burie, as they paſſe through, thoſe that remayne vpon the grounde, to clenſe it: after the ende of ſeuen monethes, ſhal they make their ſearche.

C

(g) Partly that the holy lande ſhoulde not be polluted, and partly for the compaſſion, which the children of God haue, euē vpon their enimies.

15 And the trauaylers that paſſe thorowe the lande, where they ſee a mans bone, they ſhal ſet vp a token by it, tyl the dead buryers haue buryed it alſo in the valley of the multitude of Gog.

16 And the name of the citie ſhalbe called (h) Hamonah: thus ſhal thei make yͤ land cleane.

(h) So called, for the multitude of the people of Gog that ſhould be ſlayne there.

17 And thou ſonne of man, thus ſaith the lord God, Speake vnto the birdes, and al feathered foules, yea & to al the beaſtes of the feelde, Aſſemble you togeather, and comme, geather you rounde about to my (i) ſacrifice that I ſacrifice for you, [euen] a great ſacrifice vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael, that ye may eate fleaſh, and drinke blood.

(i) As ſolemne ſacrifices were common feaſtes to great multitudes of people aſſembled, ſo was this ſlaughter as a great ſacrifice and feaſte for al birdes and beaſtes to fede vpon.

18 Ye ſhal eate the fleaſhe of the valiant, and drinke the blood of the princes of the lande, of the rammes, of the weathers, of the goates, and of the bullockes, that be al fed at Baſan.

19 Ye ſhal eate the fat your belly ful, & drynke blood til ye be drunken of my ſacrifice, which I haue ſacrificed for you.

20 Ye ſhal fyl you at my table with horſes, and horſemen, with the valiant and menne of warre, ſayth the Lorde God.

21 I wyl ſet my glorie alſo among the Gentiles, that al the Heathen may ſee my iudgement that I haue executed, and my hande

Which I haue layde vpon them.

22 And the houſe of Iſrael ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde their God, from that day, and ſo forwarde.

23 And the Heathen ſhal know, that wheras the houſe of Iſrael was led into captiuitie, it was for their [k] wickedneſſe ſake, becauſe they offended me: for the which cauſe I hyd my face from them, and deliuered them into the handes of their enmies, that they myght al be ſlayne with the ſwoorde.

24 According to their vncleanneſſe, and according to their tranſgreſſions haue I doune vnto them, and hyd my face from them.

25 Therfore, thus ſaith the Lord God: Now wyl I bryng agayne the captiues of Iacob, and haue mercie vpon the whole houſe of Iſrael, & be ielous for my holy names ſake.

26 After that they haue borne their ſhame, and al their tranſgreſſiō, wherby they haue tranſgreſſed agaynſt me when they dwelt ſafely in their lande, and no man to feare them:

27 And when I haue brought them agayne from among the people, when I haue geathered them togeather out of their enimies landes, & am ſanctified in them in the ſyght of many nations:

28 Then ſhal they know that I am the lord their GOD, whiche cauſed them to be led into captiuitie among the Heathen, but haue geathered them againe into their owne land, and not leaft one of them any more there.

29 After that wyl I hyde my face no more from them, but wyl powre out my ſpirite vpon the houſe of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde GOD.

The.xl,Chapter.

1 The reſtoaring of the cities, and of the temple that was to comme, is ſhewed vnto the prophete.

A 1 IN the fyue and twentie yeere of our captiuitie, in the [a] begynnyng of the yeere, the tenth day of the moneth, that is the fouretenth yeere after the citie was ſmitten, yͤ ſelfe ſame day came the hande of the Lorde vpon me, and brought me thyther:

2 Euen into the land of Iſrael brought he me in the viſions of GOD, and ſet me downe vpon a marueylous high mountaine, wherupon there was as it had benne the building of a citie towarde the South.

3 Thyther he caryed me, and beholde there was a [b] man, whoſe ſimilitude was lyke braſſe, which had a twiſted line of flax in his hande, and a cane to meaſure with: and he ſtoode in the doore.

4 And that man ſayd vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, marke wel with thyne [c] eyes, hearken to with thyne eares, and faſten it in thy hart, whatſoeuer I ſhal ſhewe thee: for to the intent that they myght be ſhewed thee, therfore art thou brought hither, and whatſoeuer thou ſeeſt, thou ſhalt certifie the houſe of Iſrael thereof.

5 Beholde, there was a wal on the [d] outſyde of the houſe, rounde about: the cane to meaſure with that he had in his hande, was ſixe cubites lōg by the [e] cubite, & a hand breadth: So he meaſured the breadth of the buylding with one cane, and the height with one cane.

6 Then came he to the gate which loketh toward the Eaſt, and went vp the ſtayres therof, and meaſured the poſt of the gate one cane broad, and the other poſt of the gate one cane broade.

7 And [euery] chamber was one cane long, & one cane broade, and betwene the chambers were fiue cubites: and the poſt of the gate by the porche of the gate within, was one cane. B

8 He meaſured alſo the proche of the gate within one cane.

9 Then meaſured he the porche of the gate eyght cubites: and the " pentiſes therof two cubites, & the porch of the gate [was] inward.

" or, frontes.

10 And the chambers of the gate Eaſtwarde, were three on this ſyde, and three on that ſide: they three were of one meaſure, and the pentiſes had one meaſure on this ſyde, and one meaſure on that ſyde.

11 After this he meaſured the breadth of the entrie of the gate ten cubites, and the heyght of the gate thirteene cubites.

12 The ſpace alſo before the chambers was one cubite [on this ſyde] and the ſpace one cubite on that ſyde: and the chambers ſixe cubites on this ſyde, and ſixe cubites on that ſyde.

13 He meaſured the gate from the roofe of a chamber to his owne roofe yͤ breadth of fiue and twentie cubites: doore agaynſt doore.

14 He made " frontes alſo of threeſcore cubites, [euen] vnto the front of the court round about the gate. C " or, pentiſes.

15 And from the forefront of the entrie of the gate, vnto the forefront of the gate within [were] fyftie cubites.

16 And there were narowe windowes in the chambers, and in the frontes within the gate rounde about, & ſo in the arches: and the windowes [went] rounde about within, & vpon the frontes were paulme trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outwarde court,

[k] The Heathē ſhal know that thei ouercame not my people by their owne ſtrēgth, neither yet by the weakneſſe of myne arme, but that this was for my peoples ſinnes

[a] The Iewes counted the begynnyng of the yeere after two ſortes: for feaſtes, they began to count in Marche: & for their other affayres in September: ſo that this is to be vnderſtand of September.

[b] whiche was an angel in fourme of a man, that came to meaſure out this buyldyng.

[c] By this & the like Hebrew phraſes, he exhorted him to behold, and marke diligently as a thing worthy notyng.

[d] whiche compaſſed the whole hyl of Sion, in the top wherof the temple was buylded.

[e] The cubite which he ſpeaketh of, was larger then the cōmō cubite by a hande breadth: that is, foure inches, and it was called the holy cubite: the common cubite conteyned but fyue hand breadth, and this ſixe. Read chap.43 court, where as were chambers, and a pauement made for the court round about: thirtie chambers were vpon the pauement.

18 And the pauement [was] by the ſyde of the gates, ouer agaynſt the length of the gates: and the pauement [was] beneath.

19 Then he meaſured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate without, vnto the forefront of the court within, a hundreth cubites Eaſtwarde and Northwarde.

20 And the gate in the outwarde court, that looked towarde the North, meaſured he after the length and breadth thereof.

D 21 And the chambers thereof [were] three on this ſyde, & three on that ſyde: and the frontes thereof, and the arches thereof were after the meaſure of the (f) firſt gate: the length thereof was fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

22 And their wyndowes & their arches with their paulme trees [were] after the meaſure of the gate that looketh towarde the Eaſt: and the goyng vp vnto it [had] ſeuen ſteppes, and the arches thereof [were] before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court [ſtoode] ouer agaynſt the gate towarde the North, and towarde the Eaſt, and he meaſured from gate to gate a hundreth cubites.

24 After that he brought me towarde the South, where there ſtoode a gate towarde the South, and he meaſured the frontes therof, and the arches thereof, accordyng to thoſe meaſures.

25 And [there were] windowes in it, and in the arches thereof rounde about lyke theſe windowes: the length [was] fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites.

26 And [there were] ſeuen ſteppes at the goeing vp to it, and the arches thereof before them: and it had paulme trees, one on this ſide, and an other on that ſyde, vpon the front thereof.

27 And [there was] a gate in the inner court towarde the South, and he meaſured from gate to gate towarde the South, a hundred cubites.

E 28 So he brought me into the inner court thorowe the South gate, and he meaſured the South gate according to thoſe meaſures.

29 And the chambers therof, the frontes therof, and the arches thereof, accordyng to theſe meaſures, and wyndowes in it: and in the arches therof round about, fiftie cubites long, and fiue and twentie cubites broade.

30 And the arches rounde about [were] fyue and twentie cubites long, and fyue cubites broade.

31 And the arches thereof [were] towarde the vtter court, & paulme trees vpon the frontes thereof, and the goeyng vp to it [had] eyght ſteppes.

32 He brought me alſo into the inmoſt court towarde the Eaſt, and meaſured the gate accordyng to thoſe meaſures.

33 And the chambers therof, and frontes therof, and the arches therof [were] accordyng to theſe meaſures, and there were wyndowes therin, and in the arches therof round about: it [was] fiftie cubites long, and fiue & twentie cubites broade.

34 And the arches thereof [were] towarde the vtter court, & paulme trees vpon the frontes thereof on this ſyde, and on that ſyde, and the goeyng vp to it had eight ſteppes.

35 And he brought me to the North gate, and F measured it accordyng to thoſe meaſures.

36 The chambers thereof, the frontes therof, and the arches thereof, and [there were] wyndowes therein rounde about: and the length [was] fiftie cubites, and the breadth fyue and twentie cubites.

37 And the frontes thereof [were] towarde the vtter court, and paulme trees [were] vpon the frontes thereof on this ſyde, and on that ſyde, and the goeyng vp to it had eyght ſteppes.

38 And a chamber, and the entrie therof [was] vnder the frontes of the gates: there they waſhed the (g) burnt offerynges.

39 And in the porche of the gate ſtoode two tables on this ſyde, and two tables on that ſyde, vpon the which they ſlue the burnt offeryng, and the ſinne offering, and the treſpaſſe offeryng.

40 And at the ſide without the ſteppes at the entrie of the North gate [ſtoode] two tables, & on the other ſyde, whiche was at the porche of the gate [were] two tables.

41 Foure tables were on this ſyde, and foure on that ſide, by the ſide of the gate [euen] eight tables, whereupon they ſlue [their ſacrifices.]

42 And the foure tables were of hewen ſtone for the burnt offeryng, of a cubite and a halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broade, and one cubite high, wherupon were layd the inſtrumentes wherewith they ſlue the burnt offeryng, and the ſacrifice.

43 And within there were hookes one hand breadth [long] faſtened rounde about, & vpon the tables was the offeryng fleaſhe.

44 And without the inner gate [were] the chambers of the ſingers in the inward court, which was at the ſide of the North gate, and their proſpect was towarde the South: and one was at the ſyde of the Eaſt gate, hauyng the proſpect towarde the North.

(f) That is, the Eaſt gate, as appeareth in the next verſe.

(g) That is, the inwardes or entrayles of the ſacrifice that was offered for a burnt offeryng.

45 And he ſayde vnto me, This chamber, whoſe proſpect is toward the South, [is] for the prieſtes that haue charge to kepe yͤ houſe.

46 And the chāber whoſe proſpect is toward the north [is] for the prieſtes that haue charge to keepe the aulter: theſe are the ſonnes of Sadoc, which of the ſonnes of Leui comme neare to the Lorde, to miniſter vnto hym.

47 So he meaſured the court, whiche had in length a hundred cubites, and a hundred in breadth, [euen] foure ſquare: and the aulter ſtoode before the houſe.

48 And he brought me to the porche of the(h) houſe, and meaſured the porche fyue cubites on this ſyde, and fiue cubites on that ſide: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this ſyde, and three cubites on that ſyde.

(h) That is, of the temple.

49 The(i) length of the porche was twentie cubites, the breadth eleuen cubites, and by ſteppes went menne vp to it: by the frontes alſo were pillers, one on this ſide, and another on that ſyde.

(i) Frō North to South.

The.xli.Chapter,

1 The diſpoſition and deuice of buildyng agayne the temple, and of the other thinges therto belongyng.

A 1 After this he brought me to the temple, & meaſured the frontes ſyxe cubites broade on the one ſide, and ſixe cubites broade on the other ſide, [which was] the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 The breadth of the doore was ten cubites, and the ſydes of the doore [were] fiue cubites on the one ſyde, and fiue cubites on the other ſyde, and he meaſured the length (a) thereof fourtie cubites, & the breadth twentie cubites.

(a) Of the temple from this doore to the moſt holy place.

3 Then went he in, and meaſured the front of the doore two cubites: but the doore it ſelfe was ſixe cubites, and the breadth on the other ſyde of the doore was ſeuen cubites.

4 He meaſured the length therof twentie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites before the temple. And he ſayd vnto me, This is the moſt holy [place.]

5 He meaſured alſo the wal of the houſe ſyxe cubites, and the breadth of a chamber foure cubites rounde about the houſe on euery ſide.

6 And the chambers were chamber vpon chamber, three and thirtie in order: and they entred the wal whiche was of the houſe for the chambers rounde about, that they might be faſtened, and not be faſtened in the wal of the houſe.

B 7 There was an enlarging, and a wynding about, mountyng ſtyl vpwarde to the chambers: for the ſtayre of the houſe was mountyng ſtyl vpwarde rounde about the houſe, therefore the houſe was larger vpwarde: ſo they went vp from the loweſt [chamber] to the hygheſt by the myddeſt.

8 And I ſawe the houſe hygh rounde about: the fundations of the chambers [were] a ful cane of ſyxe cubites(b) vp to the armeholes.

(b) That is, great, and of the largeſt ſiſe

9 The thickeneſſe of the wal which was for the chamber without [was] fiue cubites, and that whiche remayned, was the place of the chambers that were within.

10 And betwene the chambers was the wideneſſe of twentie cubites rounde about the houſe on euery ſyde.

11 And the doores of the chambers were towarde the ʺ place that remayned, one doore towarde the North, and another toward the South: and the breadth of the place that remayned, was fyue cubites rounde about.

12 Nowe the buyldyng that was before the ſeparate place at the ende towarde the Weaſt [was] ſeuentie cubites broade: and the wal of the buylding was fyue cubites thicke round about, and the length nienetie cubites.

13 So he meaſured the houſe, whiche was a hundred cubites long, and the ſeparate place and the buyldyng with the walles were a hundred cubites long alſo.

C 14 The breadth alſo of the forefront of the houſe, and of the ſeparate place towarde the Eaſt, was a hundred cubites.

15 And he meaſured the length of the building ouer agaynſt the ſeparate place, whiche was behynde it, and the chambers on the one ſide, & on the other ſyde a hundreth cubites, with the temple within, & the porches of the court.

16 The doore poſtes, and the narowe wyndowes, and the chambers rounde about, on three ſydes ouer agaynſt the doore ſeeled with wood rounde about, and from the grounde vp to the wyndowes: and the wyndowes them ſelues were ſeeled.

17 And from aboue the doore vnto the houſe within and without, and vpon euery wal round about within and without, [tooke he] meaſure.

18 And it was made with(c) Cherubims and paulme trees, ſo that a paulme tree was betweene a Cherub and a Cherub, and euery Cherub had two faces.

(c) That is, Cherubims and paulme trees were grauen and carued in the walles.

19 So that the face of a man was towarde the paulme tree on the one ſyde, and the face of a lion toward the paulme tree on the other ſide: [thus] was it made through al the houſe rounde about.

20 From the grounde vnto aboue the doore were Cherubims & paulme trees made: and [thus was] the wal of the temple.

D 21 The poſtes of the tēple were foure ſquared, and the faſhion of the ſanctuarie was [d] appearance lyke appearance.

22 The aulter of wood was three cubites hygh, and two cubites long: the corners, the length, and the walles therof were of wood. And he ſayd vnto me, This is the table that ſhalbe before the Lorde.

23 The temple and the holieſt of al had either of them two doores.

24 And the doores had two [e] doores [a peece, euen] two folding doores, two for the one doore, and two doores for the other.

25 And vpon the doores of the temple, there were made Cherubims & paulme trees, lyke as was made vpon the walles: and thicke beames vpon the forefront of the porche without.

26 And [there were] narow windowes and paulme trees on the one ſide and on the other ſide, by the ſides of the porche and vpon the ſides of the houſe, and thicke beames.

The.xlii.Chapter.

1 Of the chambers of the temple for the prieſtes, and the holy thinges.

A 1 Then led he me into the vtter court by the waye towarde the North, and he brought me into yͤ chamber that [was] ouer agaynſt the ſeparate place, whiche [was] before the buylding towarde the North.

2 Before the lēgth of a hundred cubites [was] the North doore: and the breadth [was] fiftie cubites.

3 Ouer agaynſt the twentie cubites, whiche were for the inner court, and ouer againſt the pauement, whiche was for the vtter court, [was] chamber agaynſt chamber, three [orders.]

4 And before the chambers, ther was a walking place of ten cubites wyde inwarde, the way of one cubite: and their doores towarde the North.

5 Thus the vpper chambers were alway narower: for thoſe chambers [ſeemed] to eate vp theſe, [to wit] the lower and the middlemer of the buylding.

6 For they were in three orders, but had no pillers as the pillers of the courtes: therfore were they ſmaller then the nethermoſt & the middlemoſt [to recken] from the grounde.

B 7 And the wal that was without ouer againſt the chambers, towarde the vtter court on the forefront of the chambers, the length therof was fiftie cubites.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the vtter court was fiftie cubites: and loe, before the temple was a hundred cubites.

9 And vnder theſe chambers [was] the entrie from the Eaſt, as one goeth vnto them from the vtter court.

10 In the thickneſſe of the wal of the court toward the Eaſt before the ſeparate place, and before the buylding of the chambers.

11 And the waye before them after the appearance of the chambers whiche were towarde yͤ north, as their length, ſo was their breadth: and al their entries [were] according to their faſhion, and according to their doores.

12 And according to the doores of the chambers that were toward the South, [was] a doore in the head of the way, [euen] the way directly before the wal towarde the Eaſt, as one entreth.

13 Then ſayd he vnto me, The chambers towarde the North, and the chambers toward the South, which are before yͤ ſeparate place, thoſe be holy chambers, wherein the prieſtes that [a] approche vnto the Lorde muſt eate the moſt holy thinges, and there muſt they lay the moſt holy thinges, and the meate offering, & ſinne offering, and treſpaſſe offering: for it is a holy place.

C 14 When the prieſtes comme therin, they ſhal not goe out of the holy place into the vtter court, but there they ſhal lay vp theyr garmentes wherin they miniſter, for they are holy: and ſhal put on [b] other garmentes, and ſo ſhal approche to thoſe whiche are for the people.

15 Now when he had finiſhed the meaſuring of the houſe within, he led me foorth toward the gate whoſe proſpect is towarde the Eaſt, and he meaſured it rounde about.

16 He meaſured the Eaſt ſide with the meaſuring cane fiue hundred canes, [euen] with the meaſuring cane round about.

17 And he meaſured the North ſide fiue hundred canes, [euen] with the meaſuring cane round about.

18 The South ſide alſo meaſured he fiue hundred canes, by the meaſuring cane.

19 He turned about [alſo] to the Weaſt ſyde, and meaſured fiue hūdred canes, by the meaſuring cane.

(d) That is, the doore poſtes or cheekes of the ſanctuarie, were like the doore cheekes of the temple.

(e) That is, two leaues, one on the one ſide, and the other on the other ſide, of ether of the doores.

(a) That is, which exerciſe the prieſtes office, as more fully is declared in the next chapter folowing verſ.19.

(b) That is, their common apparel which they vſed among the people: and as ſome ſay, was ſuche as the common people vſed.

20 So he meaſured it by the foure ſides: it had a wal round about fiue hundred canes long, and fiue hundred broade, to make a ſeparation betweene the (c) ſanctuarie, and the prophane place.

(c) That is, betweene the temple & the citie, which in reſpect of the ſanctuarie and temple was counted prophane.

The .xliii. Chapter.

1 He ſeeth the glorie of God goeyng into the temple, from whence it had before departed. 7 He mencioneth the idolatrie of the children of Iſrael, for the whiche they were conſumed & brought to nought. 10 He is commaunded to cal them againe to repentance.

A 1 SO he brought me to the gate [euen] the gate that turneth towarde the Eaſt:

2 And beholde, then came the glorie of the God of Iſrael from out of the Eaſt, whoſe voyce was lyke a great noyſe of waters, & the earth was lightened with his glorie.

Ezec.9.a. 3 And *according to the appearance of the viſion whiche I ſawe [euen] according to the viſion whiche I ſawe (a) when I came to deſtroy the citie: and the viſions were like the viſions whiche I ſawe by the riuer Chebar, and I fel vpon my face.

(a) when I prophecied the deſtruction of the citie by the Chaldeans.

4 And the (b) glorie of the Lorde came into the houſe, by the way of the gate whoſe proſpect is towarde the Eaſt.

(b) whiche was departed before cha. 10. a. and. 11. c.

5 So a winde tooke me vp, and brought me into the innermer court: and behold, the houſe was ful of the glorie of the Lorde.

6 And I heard one ſpeaking vnto me out of the houſe, and there ſtoode a man by me,

B 7 And he ſayd vnto me, O thou ſonne of mã, this roome is my ſeate, & the place of my foote ſteppes, wheras I wil dwel among the children of Iſrael for euermore: ſo that the houſe of Iſrael ſhal no more defile my holy name, neyther they nor their kinges thorowe theyr whordome, and thorowe the dead bodies of their (c) kinges [in] their hygh places.

(c) He alludeth to Ammõ & Manaſſes, who were buried in their gardens neare the temple, and there had erected vp monumentes to their idols.

8 Albeit they haue ſet their threſholdes by my threſholdes, & their poſtes by my poſtes, and a wal betwixt me and them, yet haue they defiled my holy name with their abominatiõs that they haue committed: wherfore I haue conſumed them in my wrath.

9 But nowe let them put away their whordome, and the dead bodies of their kinges out of my ſight, and I wyl dwel among them for euermore.

10 Therfore, O thou ſonne of man, ſhewe thou the houſe of Iſrael this houſe, that they may be aſhamed of their wickedneſſe, & meaſure them ſelues an example therat.

11 And if they be aſhamed of al their workes, then ſhew them the fourme of the houſe and patterne thereof, the goeyng out, ŷ comming in, al the manner therof, yea al the ordinances thereof, the figures, and al the lawes thereof, and write it in their ſight, that they may kepe the whole faſhion therof, and al the ordinances therof, and doo them.

12 This is the (d) lawe of the houſe: Upon the top of the mount, ſhal al the limits therof be, rounde about the moſt holy place: loe, this is the lawe of the houſe.

(d) Or, deſcription.

13 And theſe are the meaſures of the aulter in cubites: the cubite is a cubite and a hande breadth, the botome [ſhalbe] a cubite, and the breadth a cubite, and the border therof by the edge therof rounde about was one ſpanne, & this [ſhalbe] the height of the aulter.

14 And from the bottome vpon the grounde vnto the lower peece [ſhalbe] two cubites, and the breadth one cubite: and from the litle peece to the great peece [ſhalbe] foure cubites, & the breadth one cubite. C

15 The aulter was foure cubites high, & from the aulter vpwarde ſtoode foure hornes.

16 And the aulter was twelue cubites long, and twelue cubites broad, ſquare in the foure corners thereof.

17 The frame of the aulter [ſhalbe] fourteene cubites long, & fourteene broade in the foure ſquare corners therof, and the border about it ſhalbe halfe a cubite, and the bottome thereof [ſhalbe] a cubite about, and the ſteppes therof [ſhalbe] turned toward the Eaſt.

18 And he ſayd vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thus ſaith the Lord God, Theſe are the ordinances of the aulter, in the daye when it is made, to offer burnt offringes thereupon, and to ſprinckle blood thereupon.

19 And thou ſhalt geue to the prieſtes, to the Leuites that be of the ſeede of Sadoc, and approche vnto me, ſaith ŷ lord God, to miniſter vnto me, a yoũg bullocke for a ſinne offering.

20 And thou ſhalt take of the blood thereof, & put it on the foure hornes of it, & on the foure corners of the frame, and vpon the border rounde about: thus ſhalt thou cleanſe it, and purge it.

21 Thou ſhalt take the bullocke alſo of the ſinne offering, and burne him in the appoynted place without the ſanctuary. D

22 The ſeconde day, take a goate bucke without blemiſh for a ſinne offering, to cleanſe the aulter withal, lyke as it was cleanſed with the bullocke.

23 Nowe when thou haſt made an ende of cleanſing it, then offer a young bullocke without blemiſhe, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemiſhe alſo.

24 Offer them before the Lorde, and let the prieſtes caſt ſalt therupon, and geue them ſo vnto the Lorde for a burnt offering.

25 Seuen dayes ſhalt thou prepare euery day a goate bucke for ſinne, a young bullocke and a ramme of yͤ flocke, both without blemiſhe ſhal they prepare.

26 Seuen dayes ſhal they reconcile and cleanſe the aulter, and (e) fil the place therof.

(e) Or, conſecrate it.

27 When theſe dayes are expired, then vpon the eyght day, and ſo foorth, the prieſtes ſhal make your burnt offringes, & peace offringes vpon the aulter: ſo I wil accept you, ſaith the Lorde God.

The. xliiii. Chapter.

1 He ſheweth what doore of the temple is ſhut. 6 He is commanded to vpbraide the people with their offence. 9 Who are to be admitted to the ſeruice of the temple, and who to be refuſed. 15 He ſheweth what prieſtes he would haue admitted into the holy place, and alſo their office.

A 1 AFter this, he brought me agayne to the outwarde gate of the ſanctuarie on the Eaſt ſyde, & that was ſhut.

2 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto me, This gate ſhalbe ſtil (a) ſhut, & not opened, neyther ſhal any man goe through it: for the Lorde God of Iſrael hath entred by it, and it ſhalbe ſhut.

(a) Meaning from the common people, but not from the prieſtes, nor the prince. Chap. 46. b.

3 It is for the prince, the prince him ſelfe ſhal ſit in it to eate bread before the Lorde: he ſhal enter by the waye of the porche of that gate, and ſhal goe out by the way of the ſame.

4 Then brought he me towarde the North gate before the houſe: and as I looked, behold the glory of the Lorde filled the houſe of the Lorde, and I fel vpon my face.

5 So the Lord ſpake vnto me, O thou ſonne of man, ſet thyne hart, and beholde with thyne eyes, and heare with thine eares al that I ſaye vnto thee concerning al the ordinances of the houſe of the Lord, and al the lawes thereof, and marke wel the entring in of the houſe, with euery goeing foorth of the ſanctuarie.

6 And thou ſhalt ſay to the rebellions [euen] to the houſe of Iſrael, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, O houſe of Iſrael, ye haue yenough of al your abominations.

B 7 Seeing ye haue brought into my ſanctuary (b) ſtrāgers hauing vncircumcized hartes, and vncircumcized fleaſhe, to be in my ſanctuarie to pollute my houſe, when ye offer my bread, fat, and blood, and they haue broken my couenant becauſe of al your abominations:

(b) For they had brought idolaters whiche were of other countreys, to teach them their idolatrie. Chap. 23. g.

8 And ye haue not keapt the (c) ordinances of my holy thinges, and ye haue ſet keepers to keepe my ſanctuarie (d) for you.

(c) Ye haue not offred vnto me according to my lawe.
(d) In your lace.

9 Therefore thus ſaith the Lorde God, Of al the ſtrangers that dwel among the children of Iſrael, no ſtranger vncircumcized in hart, nor vncircumcized in fleaſhe, ſhal enter into my ſanctuarie.

10 But the Leuites that went backe from me when Iſrael went aſtray, whiche ſtrayed from me after their idols, (e) ſhal beare theyr iniquitie:

(e) That is, the Leuites whiche had committed idolatrie, were put from their dignitie, and could not be receued into the prieſtes office, although they had ben of the houſe of Aaron, but muſt ſerue in the interior offices, as to watche and to keepe yͤ dores. 4. Reg. 23. b.

11 And they ſhalbe miniſters in my ſanctuary, & keepe the gates of the houſe, & miniſter in the houſe: they ſhal ſlay the burnt offeringes, and the ſacrifice for the people, and they ſhal ſtand before them to ſerue them.

12 Becauſe they ſerued before their idols, and cauſed the houſe of Iſrael to fal into iniquitie: therefore haue I lift vp my hande agaynſt them, ſayth the Lorde God, & they ſhal beare their iniquitie.

13 And they ſhal not comme neare vnto me to doo the office of a prieſt vnto me, neither ſhal they comme neare vnto any of myne holy thinges in the moſt holy place: but they ſhal beare their owne ſhame and abominations whiche they haue donne.

C 14 And I wil make thē keepers of the watche of the houſe for al the ſeruice therof, and for al that ſhalbe donne therin.

15 But the prieſtes, the Leuites, the ſonnes of Sadoc that (f) keapt the charge of my ſanctuarie when the children of Iſrael ſtrayed frō me, ſhal comme to me to doo me ſeruice, to ſtande before me, and to offer me the fat and the blood, ſaith the Lorde God.

(f) Whiche obſerued the lawe of God, and fel not to idolatrie.

16 They ſhal goe into my ſanctuarie, and aproche vnto my table to doo me ſeruice, and they ſhal keepe my charge.

17 Now when they goe in at the gates of the innermer court, they ſhal put on linnen clothes, ſo that no woollē comme vpon them while they doo ſeruice vnder the gates of the innermer court, and within.

18 They ſhal haue linnen bonnets vpon their heades, and linnen ‘‘breeches vpon theyr loynes: they ſhal not gird them ſelues in the ‘‘ſweate.

‘‘Sloppes.

‘‘In the places of ſweate, or els not ouer ſtraite to make them to ſweate.

19 And when they goe foorth into the vtter court [euen] to the vtter court of the people, they ſhal put of the clothes wherin they haue miniſtred, and laye them in the chamber of the ſanctuarie, and put on other apparel, and they ſhal not ſanctifie the people with theyr clothes.

(g) For that, as ſaint Jerom ſaith, was the maner of the Gentiles, and Infidels.

20 They ſhal not (g) ſhaue theyr heades, nor ſuffer theyr here to grow long, but poule their heades onely.

D

Leui. 10, b

21 * Al the prieſtes that goe into the inmoſt court, ſhal drinke no wine.

22 They ſhal mary no widowe, neyther one that is put from her huſband: but a mayde of the ſeede of the houſe of Iſrael, or a widowe that hath had a prieſt before.

23 They ſhal ſhewe my people the difference betweene the holy and vnholy, & cauſe them to diſcerne betwixt the cleane and vncleane.

24 And in cõtrouerſie they ſhal ſtand to iudge, and geue ſentence after my iudgementes: & my lawes and my ſtatutes ſhal they keepe in al my ſolemne feaſtes, and halowe my Sabbothes.

Leui, 21, b.

25 *They ſhal comme at no dead perſon to defile them ſelues: but with father or mother, ſonne or daughter, brother or ſiſter, that hath had yet no huſband, (h) may they be defiled.

(h) They may be at theyr burial, whiche was termed a defiling.

26 And when he is cleanſed, there ſhalbe reckened vnto him ſeuen dayes.

27 And when he goeth into the ſanctuarie, vnto the inner court, to miniſter in the ſanctuarie, he ſhal bring his ſinne offering, ſayth the Lorde.

E

Num, 18, d

28 *There ſhalbe to them an inheritãce, [euen] I theyr inheritance: but poſſeſſion ſhal ye geue them none in Iſrael, for I am their poſſeſſion.

29 The meate offring, ſinne offring, & treſpaſſe offering ſhal they eate: & euery dedicate thing in Iſrael ſhalbe theirs.

Exod, 13, a. Num, 3, c.

30 And al the firſt of al the firſt borne, and euery oblation, [euen] al of euery ſort of your oblations ſhalbe the prieſtes: ye ſhal alſo geue vnto the prieſtes the firſt of your dough, that he maye cauſe the bleſſing to reſt in thyne houſe.

Exo. 22, c. Leu. 22, b.

31 But the prieſtes ſhal eate nothing that *is dead [by it ſelfe] or torne of foule or of beaſte.

The. xlv. Chapter.

1 Out of al the lande of promiſe are there ſeparated foure portions, of whiche the firſt is geuen to the prieſtes and to the temple, the ſeconde to the Leuites, the thyrd to the citie, the fourth to the prince. 9 An exhortation to the headeſ of Iſrael. 10 Of iuſt waightes and meaſures. 13 Of the firſt fruites.

A

(a) Of al the lande of Iſrael, the Lorde requireth onely this portiõ, for the temple and for the prieſtes, for the citie & for the prince.

1 When ye diuide the land by the lot for inheritance, ye ſhal offer an oblation to the Lord, a holy (a) portion of the lande, twentie and fiue thouſand canes long, and ten thouſande broade: this ſhalbe holy in al the borders therof round about.

2 Of this part there ſhal belong vnto the ſanctuarie fiue hundred cubites [in length] with fiue hundred [in breadth] ſquare, rounde about: and fiftie cubites rounde about for the ſuburbes.

3 And of this meaſure ſhalt thou meaſure, [namely] of the length of twentie and fiue thouſande, and the breadth of ten thouſande: and in it ſhalbe the ſanctuarie, and the moſt holy place.

4 That holy portion of the lande ſhal parteyne vnto the prieſtes whiche doo ſeruice in the ſanctuarie, whiche comme neare to ſerue the Lord: and it ſhalbe vnto them a place for their houſes, & a holy place for the ſanctuarie.

5 And in the twentie & fiue thouſand length, and ten thouſande breadth, ſhal the Leuites that miniſter in the houſe haue their poſſeſſion for twentie chambers.

6 Ye ſhal geue alſo vnto the citie a poſſeſſion of fiue thouſand canes broade, and twentie & fiue thouſand long, ouer againſt the oblation of the holy portion, that ſhalbe for the whole houſe of Iſrael.

7 And [a portion ſhalbe] for the prince on this ſide and on that ſide, of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the poſſeſſion of the citie, [euen] before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the poſſeſſion of the citie, from the Weaſt corner weaſtwarde, & from the Eaſt corner Eaſtwarde: and the length ſhalbe by one of the portions, from the Weaſt border vnto the Eaſt border.

B

8 In this land ſhalbe his poſſeſſion in Iſrael: & my princes ſhal no more oppreſſe my people, and [the reaſt] of the lande ſhal they geue to the houſe of Iſrael according to theyr tribes.

(b) The prophete ſheweth that the heads muſt be firſt refourmed, before any good order can be eſtabliſhed among the people.

9 Thus ſayth the Lord God, (b) Let it ſuffiſe you, O ye princes of Iſrael: leaue of crueltie and oppreſſion, and execute iudgement and iuſtice: take away your exactions from my people, ſayth the Lorde God.

(c) Ephah & Bath were both of one quantitie, for the Ephah conteyned drye thinges, that as the Bath did licour.

10 Ye ſhal haue a true Ballance, a true (c) Ephah, and a true Bath.

11 The Ephah and the Bath ſhalbe alyke: one Bath ſhal conteyne the tenth part of an Homer, and an Ephah the tenth part of an Homer: the equalitie thereof ſhalbe after the Homer.

Leuit.5.b. Exo.30.c. Leui.27.d Num.3.g.

12 *The Sicle maketh twentie Gerrahs: and twentie Sicles, and [d] twentie and fiue, and fifteene Sicles make a Maneh.

(d) That is, threeſcore ſicles make a weight called Maneh: for he ioyneth theſe three partes to a Maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye ſhal offer: the ſixt part of an Ephah out of an Homer of wheate, and the ſixt part of an Ephah out of an Homer of barley.

C

14 Concerning the ordinances of the oyle, [euen] of the Bath of oyle, [ye ſhal offer] the tenth part of a Bath out of the Cor: ten Bathes [ſhalbe] a Homer, becauſe ten Baths [fil] a Homer.

15 And one lambe from two hundred ſheepe out of the fat paſtures of Iſrael, for a meate offring, burnt offring, and peace offring, to reconcile them, ſayth the Lorde God.

16 Al the people of the lande ſhal geue this oblation for the prince in Iſrael.

17 Agayne, it ſhalbe the princes part to offer burnt offringes, meate offringes, and wine offringes, in the holy dayes, newe moones, Sabbothes, & in al the high feaſtes of yͤ houſe of Iſrael: he ſhal prepare the ſinne offring, meate offring, burnt offring, and peace offring, to reconcile the houſe of Iſrael.

18 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, The fyrſt day of the fyrſt [e] moneth, thou ſhalt take a young bullocke without blemiſhe, & cleanſe the ſanctuarie.

(e) whiche was Niſan, conteyning part of March and part of April.

19 So the prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the ſinne offring, and put it vpon the poſtes of the houſe, and vpon the foure corners of the frame of the aulter, and vpon the poſtes of the gate of the inner court.

20 And thus ſhalt thou doo alſo the ſeuēth day of the moneth, for ſuche as haue ſinned of ignorance, or being deceiued, to reconcile the houſe withal.

D

Exod.12.c Leuit.13.a. Deu.16.a.

21 *Vpon the fourteenth day of the firſt moneth, ye ſhal haue the paſſouer, a feaſt of ſeuen dayes, and ye ſhal eate vnleauened bread.

22 Vpon the ſame day ſhal the prince prepare for him ſelfe, and al the people of the lande, a bullocke for a ſinne offring.

23 And in the ſeuen dayes of the feaſt, he ſhal make a burnt offring to the Lorde, [euen] of ſeuen bullockes, and ſeuen rammes without blemiſhe dayly, for ſeuen dayes, & a hee goate dayly for a ſinne offring.

24 And he ſhal prepare a meate offering of an Ephah for a bullocke, and an Ephah for a ramme, and a [f] Hin of oyle for an Ephah.

(f) Reade Exo.29.g.

25 In the ſeuenth [moneth] in the fifteenth day of the moneth, on the feaſt, he ſhal doo according vnto theſe for ſeuen dayes: according to the ſinne offering, according to the burnt offring, and according to the meate offring, and according to the oyle.

The.xlvi. Chapter.

1 The ſacrifice of the Sabbothes, and of the newe Moones, 8 Through whiche doores they muſt goe in, or comme out of the temple.

A 1 Thus ſaith the Lord God, The gate of the inner court towarde the Eaſt, ſhalbe ſhut the ſixe working daies: but in yͤ Sabboth & in the day of yͤ new moone it ſhalbe opened.

2 And the prince ſhal enter by the way of the porche of the gate without, and ſhal ſtande by the poſte of the gate: and the prieſtes ſhal make his burnt offring & his peace offringes, and he ſhal worſhip at the threſholde of the gate, and goe foorth: and the gate ſhal not be ſhut til the euening.

3 On the ſame maner ſhal the people of the land alſo doo their worſhip before the Lord, at the doore of this gate vpō the Sabbothes, and new moones.

4 The burnt offring that the prince ſhal bring vnto the Lorde vpon the Sabboth, ſhalbe ſixe lambes without blemiſh, and a ramme without blemiſhe.

5 And the meate offring ſhalbe an Ephah for a ramme, & the meate offring for the lambes a [a] gift of his hande, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

(a) That is, as muche as he wyl.

6 In the day of the new moneth, [it ſhalbe] a young bullocke without blemiſhe, and ſixe lambes, & a ramme alſo without blemiſhe.

B

7 With the bullocke he ſhal geue an Ephah, and with the ramme an Ephah alſo for a meate offring: but to the lambes [b] according as his hand ſhal take, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

(b) According to his habilitie.

8 And when the prince ſhal enter, he ſhal goe in by the waye of the porche of that gate: he ſhal goe foorth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the lande comme before the Lorde in the high ſolemne feaſt, as many as comme in by the North gate to doo worſhip, ſhal goe out againe at the South gate: & they that come in at yͤ ſouth gate, ſhal go foorth againe at the North gate: there ſhal none returne by yͤ gate where he came in, but

ſhal

ſhal go right foorth ouer on the other ſyde.

10 And the prince, he ſhal goe in the myddeſt of them when they goe in, and ſo comme foorth when they comme foorth.

11 Upon the ſolemne & hygh feaſt dayes, this ſhalbe the meate offring: an Ephah to a bullocke, and an Ephah to a ramme, and to the lambes the gift of his hand, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

12 Nowe when the prince ſhal make a free burnt offring, or peace offringes freely vnto the Lorde: one then ſhal open him the gate that turneth toward the Eaſt, & he ſhal make his burnt offeringes, and his peace offeringes as he did on the Sabboth daye: after he ſhal goe foorth, and when he is gonne foorth, one ſhal ſhut the gate.

13 Thou ſhalt daily make a burnt offering vnto the Lorde of a lambe of one yeere without blemiſhe, thou ſhalt doo it euery morning.

C 14 Thou ſhalt prepare a meate offering for it euery morning, the ſixt part of an Ephah, and the third part of a Hin of oyle to mingle with ẏ fine floure: this meate offering ſhalbe continually by a perpetual ordinance vnto the Lorde.

15 Thus ſhal they prepare the lãbe, the meate offering, and oyle, euery morning, for a continual burnt offering.

16 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde God, If the prince geue a gift vnto any of his ſonnes, the inheritance therof ſhalbe his ſonnes: theyr poſſeſſion ſhalbe by inheritance.

17 But if he geue a gift of his inheritance to one of his ſeruantes, then it ſhalbe his to the (c) yeere of libertie, and then returne to the prince: but the inheritãce therof is his ſonnes, and ſhalbe theyrs.

(c) Whiche was at the yeere of Iubile. Leui. 25. b.

18 The prince alſo (d) ſhal take none of the peoples inheritance, nor put them from their poſſeſſiõ: but to his ſonnes ſhal he geue his owne poſſeſſion, that my people be not ſcattered abroade euery man from his poſſeſſion.

(d) But be content with that portion that God hath aſſigned him. Ezec. 45 b.

19 And he brought me through the entrance at the ſyde of the gate, to the holy chambers of the prieſtes whiche ſtoode towarde the North, and beholde, there was a place vpon the Weſt ſyde of them.

20 Then ſayde he vnto me, This is the place where the prieſtes ſhal ſeethe the treſpaſſe and ſinne offringes, & bake the meate offringes: that they neede not beare them into the outward court, and to (e) ſanctifie the people. D

(e) To cauſe the people to thinke it is lawful for them to eate them, and ſo fal into a vayne opinion of holines and ſanctification.

21 So he brought me into the vtter court, and cauſed me to goe by the foure corners of the court: & beholde, in euery corner of the court, there was a court.

22 In the foure corners of the court there were courtes ioyned, of fourtie cubites long, and thirtie broade: theſe foure corners were of one meaſure.

23 And there went a walle rounde about them, [euen] about thoſe foure: and vnder the walles there were ''kitchins made rounde about.

''Ranges.

24 Then ſayde he vnto me, Theſe are the cookes houſes, where the miniſters of the houſe ſhal boyle the ſacrifice of the people.

The .xlvii. Chapter.

1 The viſion of the waters that came out of the temple. 13 The coaſtes of the lande of promiſe, and the diuiſion thereof by trybes.

A 1 After warde he brought me againe vnto the doore of the houſe, and beholde there guſhed out (a) waters from vnder the threſholde of the houſe Eaſtwarde: for the forefront of the houſe ſtoode toward the Eaſt: and the waters ran downe from vnder the right ſide of the houſe, whiche lyeth to the aulter ſouthwarde.

(a) Whereby are ment the ſpiritual graces that ſhould be geuen to the churche vnder the kingdome of Chriſte, as Iohan. 4. c.

2 Then led he me out to the North gate, and led me about by the way without vnto the vtter gate, by the way that turneth Eaſtward: and behold, there iſſued foorth waters from the right ſyde.

3 Nowe when the man that had the line in his hande went foorth Eaſtward, he meaſured a thouſande cubites, and then he brought me through the waters, the waters were to the ancles.

4 So he meaſured yet a thouſande, & brought me through the waters, the waters were to the knees: yet meaſured he a thouſande, and brought me through, the waters [were] to the loynes.

5 After this he meaſured a thouſand againe, then was it ſuche a (b) riuer that I might not wade through it, the waters was riſen, and the waters dyd flowe as a riuer that might not be waded ouer.

(b) Signifiyng that the graces of God ſhould neuer decreaſe, but euer abounde in his church.

6 And he ſayde vnto me, Haſt thou ſeene this, O thou ſonne of man? and with that he brought me, and cauſed me to returne to the riuer banke againe.

7 Now when I returned, beholde, at the bancke of the riuer were very many trees (c) on the one ſide, and on the other.

(c) Meaning, the multitude of them that ſhould be refreſhed by the ſpiritual waters.

8 Then ſayde he vnto me, Theſe waters flowe out toward the Eaſt countrey, & runne downe into the playne, & comme into the (d) ſea: which when it commeth into the ſea, the (e) waters ſhalbe holſome.

9 Yea, al that liue and moue, whereunto this riuer commeth, ſhal lyue: and there ſhalbe a very great multitude of fiſhe, becauſe theſe waters ſhal comme thither, for they ſhalbe holſome: and euery thing ſhal lyue whyther the riuer commeth.

10 By this riuer ſhal the (f) fiſhers ſtand, from En gaddi vnto (g) En Eglaim, & there ſpread out theyr nets: for their fiſhe ſhalbe according to theyr kindes, as the fiſhe of the (h) mayne ſea, exceeding many.

11 But the (i) mariſhes thereof, and the pits therof, ſhal not be made holſome, they ſhalbe made ſalt pits.

12 By this riuer vpon the bankes therof on this ſyde and on that ſyde, ſhal grow al trees for meate, whoſe leaues ſhal not fade, neither ſhal the fruite therof fal, but ſhal bring foorth newe fruite according to his monethes, for the waters thereof run out of the ſanctuarie: and the fruite therof ſhalbe for meate, and the leaues thereof for “medicine.

13 Thus ſayth the Lord God, Let this be the border whereby ye ſhal inherite the lande, according to the twelue tribes of Iſrael, * Ioſeph ſhal haue two portions.

B 14 And * ye ſhal inherite it one aſwel as an other, concerning yͤ whiche I lift vp my hand to geue it vnto your fathers: and this lande ſhal fal vnto you for inheritance.

(d) Shewing that the abundance of theſe graces ſhould be ſo great, that al the worlde ſhould be ful thereof, whiche is here meant by the Perſian ſea or Gennezareth, & the ſea called Mediterraneum. Zac.14.b

(e) The waters whiche of nature are ſalt & vnholſome, ſhalbe made ſweete and comfortable.

(f) Signifiyng that when God beſtoweth his mercies in ſuche abundance, the miniſters ſhal by their preaching winne many.

(g) whiche were cities at the corners of the ſalt or dead ſea.

(h) They ſhal be here of al ſortes, and in as great abundance, as in the great Ocean where they are bread

(i) That is, the wicked & reprobate.

Gen.48.d.

Gen.12.b. Deu.34.a.

15 This is the border of the (k) lande vpon the North ſide, from the maine ſea toward Hethlon, as menne goe to Zedada.

16 [Namely] Hamah, Berotha, Sabarim, whiche are betweene the borders of Damaſcus, and betwene the borders of Hamah, Hazar Hatichon, that lyeth vpon the coaſtes of Hauran.

17 Thus the borders from the ſea foorth ſhalbe Hazar Enan, the border of Damaſcus, & the North Northwarde, and the borders of Hamah: this is the North part.

18 The Eaſt ſide ſhal ye meaſure from Hauran and Damaſcus, from Galead and the lande of Iſrael by Iordane, & from the border vnto the Eaſt ſea: and this is the Eaſt part.

19 The South ſyde ſhalbe towarde Teman, from Thamar to the waters of ſtrife in Cades, & the riuer to the mayne ſea: and that is the South part towarde Teman.

20 The Weaſt part alſo ſhalbe the great ſea, from the borders til a man comme ouer agaynſt Hamah: this is the Weaſt part.

21 This lande ſhal ye part among you, according to the tribes of Iſrael, C

22 And diuide it by lot to be an heritage for you, & for the ſtrangers that dwelle among you, & begeat children among you: for ye ſhal take them among the children of Iſrael, like as though they were of your owne countrey, and they ſhal haue (l) heritage with you among the children of Iſrael.

23 And in what tribe the ſtranger dwelleth, in the ſame tribe ſhal ye geue him his heritage, ſayth the Lorde God.

(k) By the lande of promiſe, he ſignifieth the ſpiritual lande, whereof this was a figure.

(l) Meaning, that in this ſpiritual kingdome, there ſhould be no difference betweene Iewe nor Gentile, but that al ſhould be partakers of this inheritance in their head Chriſte.

The.xlviii. Chapter.

1 The lots of the ſeuen tribes. 9 The partes of the poſſeſſion of the prieſtes and of the temple, of the Leuites, of the citie, and of the prince, are rehearſed. 23 The lots of the other tribes. 31 The gates of the citie.

A 1 These are the names of the tribes: from the North ſide to the coaſt toward Hethlon, til thou commeſt vnto Hamah and Hazar, Enan, the borders of Damaſcus Northward, the coaſt of Hamah: Dan ſhal haue his portion from the Eaſt quarter vnto the Weaſt.

2 Upon the borders of Dan, from the Eaſt ſyde vnto the Weaſt, ſhal Aſer haue his portion.

3 Upon the borders of Aſer, from the Eaſt part vnto the Weaſt, ſhal Nephthali haue his portion.

4 Upon the borders of Nephthali, from the Eaſt quarter vnto the Weaſt, ſhal Manaſſes haue his portion.

5 Upon the borders of Manaſſes, from the Eaſt ſyde vnto yͤ Weaſt, ſhal Ephraim haue his portion.

6 Upon the borders of Ephraim, from the Eaſt part vnto the Weaſt, ſhal Ruben haue his portion.

7 Upon the borders of Ruben, from the Eaſt quarter vnto the Weaſt, ſhal Iuda haue his portion. B

8 Upon the borders of Iuda, from the Eaſt part vnto yͤ Weaſt part, ſhalbe the (a) offering which they ſhal offer of fiue & twentie thouſand [canes] broade, & of length as one of the partes, frõ the Eaſt ſide vnto the Weaſt ſide: & the ſanctuarie ſhalbe in the middeſt of it.

9 The oblation that ye ſhal offer vnto the Lorde, ſhalbe fiue & twentie thouſande long, and ten thouſande broade.

(a) That is, the portion of the grounde, whiche they ſhal ſeparate and appoynt to the Lorde, whiche ſhalbe diuided into three partes: for yͤ prieſtes, for the prince, and for the citie.

10 And for theſe [euen] for yͤ prieſtes ſhalbe this holy oblatiō: toward the North fiue & twentie thouſand [long] and toward the Weſt ten thouſand broade, towarde the Eaſt ten thouſand broade alſo, and toward the South fiue & twentie thouſand long, and the ſanctuarie of the Lorde ſhalbe in the midſt thereof.

Chap.44.c.

11 This ſanctified portion ſhalbe the prieſtes that are of the children of * Sadoc, whiche haue keapt my charge, whiche went not aſtray in the errour of the children of Iſrael, lyke as the Leuites went aſtray.

12 Therefore this oblation of the lande that is offered, ſhalbe theirs as a thyng moſt holy, hard vpon the borders of the Leuites.

13 And ouer againſt the border of the prieſtes, ſhal the Leuites haue fiue and twentie thouſand long, & ten thouſand broad: al the length ſhalbe fiue and twentie thouſand, and the breadth ten thouſand.

C 14 Of this portion they ſhal ſel nothing, nor make any permutation thereof, nor alienate the firſt fruites of the lande: for it is holy vnto the Lorde.

15 And the fiue thouſande that are leaſt in the breadth ouer againſt the fiue & twentie thouſand, ſhalbe a prophane place for the citie, for houſing, and for ſuburbes: & the citie ſhalbe in the middeſt thereof.

16 And theſe ſhalbe the meaſures thereof: the North part fiue hūdred and foure thouſand, and the ſouth (b) part fiue hundred and foure thouſand, & the Eaſt part fiue hundred and foure thouſand, and the Weſt part fiue hundred and foure thouſand.

(b) Meaning that it ſhoulde be ſquare.

17 The ſuburbes of the citie ſhal haue toward the North two hundred and fiftie, toward the South two hundred and fiftie, toward the Eaſt two hundred and fiftie, toward the Weſt alſo two hundred and fiftie.

18 And the reſidue in length ouer agaynſt the oblation of the holy portion, ſhalbe ten thouſand toward the Eaſt, & ten thouſand toward the Weſt: & it ſhalbe ouer againſt the oblation of the holy portion: and the encreaſe thereof ſhalbe for theyr meate that ſerue the citie.

19 And they that ſerue the citie, they ſhal ſerue it out of al the tribes of Iſrael.

20 Al the oblation ſhalbe fiue & twentie thouſand (c) with fiue & twentie thouſand: ye ſhal offer this oblation foure ſquare, for the ſanctuarie, and for the poſſeſſion of the citie.

(c) Euery way it ſhalbe fiue & twentie thouſande.

D 21 And the reſidue ſhalbe for the prince, on the one ſide and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the poſſeſſion of the citie ouer agaynſt the fiue and twentie thouſande of the oblation toward the Eaſt border: and Weſtward ouer agaynſt the fiue and twentie thouſande towarde the Weſt border, ouer againſt ſhalbe the portion for the prince: this ſhalbe the holy oblation, & the houſe of the ſanctuarie ſhalbe in the middeſt thereof.

22 Moreouer, from the poſſeſſion of the Leuites, and the cities poſſeſſion, that whiche is in the middeſt ſhalbe the princes, betwixt the border of (b) Iuda and the border of Ben Iamin ſhalbe the princes.

(b) So that Iuda was on the North ſyde of the princes and Leuites porcions, and Beniamin on the ſouth ſide.

23 Nowe of the other tribes: from the Eaſt part vnto the Weſt, ſhal Beniamin haue his portion.

24 Upon the borders of Beniamin, from the Eaſt ſyde vnto the Weſt, ſhal Simeon haue his portion.

25 Upon the borders of Simeon, from the Eaſt ſyde vnto the Weſt, ſhal Iſachar haue his portion.

26 Upon the borders of Iſachar, from the Eaſt ſyde vnto the Weſt, ſhal Zabulon haue his portion.

27 Upon the borders of Zabulon, from the Eaſt part vnto the Weſt, ſhal Gad haue his portion.

28 Upon the borders of Gad at the South ſide toward Temanah, the border ſhalbe from Thamar, vnto the waters of ſtrife to Cades, and to the riuer [that runneth] into the mayne ſea. E

29 This is the lande whiche ye ſhal diuide by lot for an inheritance vnto the tribes of Iſrael, and theſe be theyr portions, ſayth the Lorde God.

30 Theſe be the bondes of the citie, vpon the North part fiue hundred and foure thouſand meaſures.

31 The gates of the citie ſhal haue the names of the tribes of Iſrael, three gates of yͤ North ſyde: one gate of Ruben, another of Iuda, the third of Leui.

32 Upon the Eaſt ſide fiue hundred and foure thouſande meaſures, with three gates: the one of Ioſeph, another of Beniamin, the third of Dan.

33 Upon the South ſyde fiue hundred and foure thouſande meaſures, with the three gates: the one of Simeō, another of Iſachar, the thyrd of Zabulon.

34 And vpon the Weſt ſyde, fiue hundred and fiue thouſande meaſures, with theyr three gates alſo: the one of Gad, another of Aſer, the thyrd of Nephthali.

35 Thus ſhal it haue eyghteene thouſande meaſures rounde about: and the name of the citie from that time foorth, ſhalbe, The Lord is there.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The prophete ſheweth the captiuitie of Iehoachim king of Iuda. 4 Of the children that were in captiuitie, the kyng commaundeth to chooſe which of them ſhoulde be taught the learnyng and language of the Chaldeans. 5 They are allowed the kinges feedyng. 8 Daniel abſteyneth from the meate of the kyng of Babylon.

A 1 IN the(a) thyrde yeere of yͤ raigne of Iehoachim kyng of Iuda, came Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon vnto Hieruſalem, & beſieged it.

2 And the Lorde deliuered Iehoachim the kyng of Iuda into his hand, with part of the veſſels of the houſe of God, whiche he caryed away into the land of(b) Sennar to the houſe of his God, and he brought the veſſels into his goddes treaſurie.

3 And the kyng ſpake vnto Aſphenaz the(c) chiefe chamberlayne, that he ſhoulde bryng hym certayne of the chyldren of Iſrael, of the kynges ſeede, and of the princes,

4 Springaldes without any blemiſhe, but wel fauoured, ſtudious in al wiſedome, ſkylful for knowledge, able to vtter knowledge, and ſuche as haue lyuelyneſſe in them, that they(d) may ſtande in the kynges palace: and whom they myght teache the learnyng, and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 Unto theſe the king appoynted a dayly prouiſion euery day, of a portion of the kynges meate, and of the wine whiche he dranke, ſo to noriſhe them three yeeres, that afterwarde they myght ſtande before the kyng.

6 Among theſe nowe were certayne of the children of Iuda: [namely] Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias.

B 7 Unto theſe the chiefe chamberlayne gaue (e)other names, and called Daniel, Baltaſſar: Ananias, Sidrach: Miſael, Miſach: and Azarias, Abednego.

8 But Daniel purpoſed in his hart, that he would not defyle hym ſelfe with the portion of the kynges meate, nor with the wyne whiche he dranke: therefore he required the chiefe chamberlayne that he might not defile hym ſelfe.

9 (And God brought Daniel into fauour & tender loue with the chiefe chamberlayne.)

10 And the chiefe chamberlayne ſayde vnto Daniel, I am afrayde of my lorde the kyng whiche hath appoynted you your meate and your drynke: wherefore ſhoulde he ſee your faces woorſe lykyng then the ſpringaldes of your age, and ſo ye ſhal make me indanger my head vnto the kyng.

11 Then Daniel ſaide vnto Melaſſar, whom the cheefe chamberlayne had ſet ouer Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias:

12 O proue but tenne dayes with thy ſeruantes, and let vs haue pulſe to eate, and water to drynke.

13 Then let our countenances be looked vpon before thee, and the countenances of the chyldren that eate of the portion of the kynges meate: and as thou ſeeſt, deale with thy ſeruantes.

14 So he conſented to them in this matter, C and proued them tenne dayes.

15 And at the ende of tenne dayes, their countenances appeared fayrer &(f) fatter in fleaſhe then al the chyldrens whiche did eate the portion of the kynges meate.

16 Thus Melaſſar tooke away the portion of their meate, and the wyne that they ſhoulde drinke, and gaue them pulſe.

17 As for theſe foure children, God gaue them knowledge and vnderſtandyng in (g)al learning and wiſdome: alſo he gaue Daniel vnderſtandyng of al(h) viſions and dreames.

18 Nowe when the(i) time was expired, that the kyng had appoynted to bryng them in, the chiefe chamberlaine brought them before Nabuchodonoſor.

19 And the kyng communed with them: but among them al were founde none ſuche as Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias: therefore ſtoode they before the kyng.

20 In al matters of wyſedome and vnderſtandyng that the kyng enquired of them, he founde them tenne tymes better then al the wyſe menne and ſoothſayers that were in al his realme.

21 And Daniel abode ſtil vnto the(k) firſt yeere of kyng Cyrus.

The.ij.Chapter.

1 The dreame of Nabuchodonoſor. 2 He calleth vnto him ſoothſayers, and requireth of them both the dreame and the interpretation thereof. 10 They anſweare, they can not ſhewe it. 13 The king commaundeth al the wiſe menne of Babylon to be ſlayne. 16 Daniel requireth time to ſolute the queſtion: 19 the Lorde openeth the myſterie vnto Daniel. 24 Daniel is brought to the king, and ſheweth him his dreame, & the interpretation therof. 44 Of the euerlaſting kingdome of Chriſte.

A 1 IN the (a) ſeconde yeere of the raigne of Nabuchodonoſor, had Nabuchodonoſor a dreame, wherethorowe his ſpirite was troubled, and his ſleepe brake from hym.

2 Then the kyng commaunded to calle the wyſe menne, and ſoothſayers, and ſorcerers, and the (b) Chaldees, for to ſhewe the king his dreame: So they came, and ſtoode before the kyng.

3 And the kyng ſayd vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my ſpirite was troubled to knowe the dreame.

4 Upon this the Chaldees anſweared yͤ king in the (c) Syrians ſpeache, O kyng, God ſaue thy lyfe for euer: Shewe thy ſeruantes the dreame, & we ſhal ſhewe the interpretation.

5 The king anſweared, and ſayd to the Chaldeans, The thyng is gonne fro me: If ye wil not make me vnderſtande the dreame with the interpretation therof, ye ſhalbe drawne in peeces, and your houſes made a iakes.

6 But if ye tel me the dreame, and the interpretation thereof, ye ſhal receiue of me gyftes, rewardes, and great honour, therefore ſhewe me the dreame, and the interpretation therof.

B 7 They anſweared agayne, and ſayde, The kyng muſt ſhewe his ſeruantes the dreame, and ſo ſhal we declare the interpretation therof.

8 Then the kyng anſweared, ſayeing, I perceiue of a trueth that ye would (d) redeeme the tyme, for ſo much as ye ſee the thing is gonne fro me.

9 Therefore if ye wyl not tel me the dreame, this is your onely purpoſe, ye haue prepared lyeing and corrupt woordes to ſpeake before me, tyl the tyme be changed: therfore telle me the dreame, that I may knowe that ye can declare me the interpretation thereof.

10 Upon this the Chaldees gaue anſweare before the kyng, and ſayde, There is no man vpon earth that can tel the thyng whiche the kyng ſpeaketh of, yea there is neyther kyng, prince, nor lorde, that euer aſked ſuch thinges at a wyſe man, ſoothſayer, or Chaldean.

11 For it is a rare matter that the kyng requireth, neyther is there any that can certifie the kyng thereof, except the goddes whoſe dwellyng is not with fleaſhe.

12 For the which cauſe the kyng was wroth with great indignation, and commaunded to deſtroy al the wyſe menne at Babylon.

13 So the decree went foorth, and the wyſe menne were ſlayne: they ſought alſo to ſlay Daniel, with his companions.

14 Then Daniel ſtayed the counſel and decree with Arioch the captayne of the kynges garde, who was gonne foorth to put to death the wyſe menne of Babylon. C

15 He anſweared, and ſayde vnto Arioch the kinges captayne, Why is the ſentēce ſo haſty from the kyng? Then Arioch tolde Daniel the matter.

16 Upon this went Daniel, and deſyred the kyng that he woulde geue hym leaſure, and that he woulde ſhewe the kyng the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his houſe, & ſhewed the thing to Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias, his companions:

18 That they ſhoulde beſeeche the GOD of heauen, for grace in this ſecrete, that Daniel and his felowes, with other ſuche as were wyſe in Babylon, periſhed not.

19 Then was the ſecrete reuealed vnto Daniel in a viſion by night: then Daniel praiſed the God of heauen.

20 Daniel alſo anſweared, and ſayde, *The name of God be prayſed for euer and euer: for wyſedome and ſtrength are his. Pſal. 113. a.

D 21 He changeth the tymes and ſeaſons, he taketh away kynges, he ſetteth vp kynges: he geueth wiſdome to the wiſe, and vnderſtandyng to thoſe that vnderſtande.

22 He reuealeth the deepe and ſecrete thinges, he knoweth the thyng that lieth in darknes, for the lyght dwelleth with hym.

23 I thanke thee and prayſe thee, O thou god of my fathers, that thou haſt geuen me wyſdome and ſtrength, & haſt ſhewed me nowe the thing that we deſired of thee: for thou haſt declared the kynges matter vnto vs.

24 Upon this went Daniel in vnto Arioch, whom the kyng had ordeyned to deſtroy the wyſe menne at Babylon: he went and ſayde thus vnto him, Deſtroy not the wiſe menne of Babylon, but bryng me before the kyng, and I ſhal ſhew the kyng the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought Daniel before the kyng

(a) The father and the ſonne were both called by this name, ſo that it is ment of the ſonne when he raigned alone: for he raigned alſo after a ſorte with his father: Or els in the ſeconde yeere of his general conqueſt of other Barbarous nations.

(b) He vnderſtādeth menne geuē to ſuperſtition & ſtudie of vayne artes and ſciences. It appeareth by the nature of the woorde whiche ſignifieth as deuils, that they wrought their woonders by the power of the deuyl.

(c) That is, yͤ Chaldeans tongue, which the prophete mentioned here, becauſe he mynded to write his viſions, not in the Hebrue tongue, but in the Chaldeās, whiche was familiar and knowen in many nations

(d) ye ſeeke occaſion of delayes, vntyl ſome other affaires might happen, and make me forget the matter kyng in al the haſt, and ſaide thus vnto him, I haue founde a man among the children of Iuda, that were brought captiues, that wyl declare vnto the kyng the interpretation.

26 Then anſweared the king, and ſayd vnto Daniel, whoſe name was Baltaſſar: Art thou able to ſhewe me the dreame whiche I haue ſeene, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel anſweared in the preſence of the kyng, ⁊ ſaid, As for this ſecrete for the whiche the kyng maketh inquiſition, there can neyther the menne of vnderſtanding, nor ſoothſaiers, nor the wyſe menne, nor readers of deſtinies declare it vnto the kyng:

E 28 But there is a (d) God in heauen that reuealeth ſecretes, and ſheweth the kyng Nabuchodonoſor, what is for to comme in the latter dayes. Thy dreame, and that whiche thou haſt ſeene in thyne head vpon thy bed, is this.

29 O kyng, when thou waſt in thy bed, thoughtes came into thy mind what ſhould comme hereafter: ſo he that is the opener of myſteries, telleth thee what is for to comme.

30 As for me, this ſecrete is not ſhewed me for any wyſedome that I haue more then any other lyuing: but onely that I myght ſhewe the kyng the interpretation, and that thou mighteſt know the thoughtes of thine owne hart.

31 Thou king ſaweſt, and behold, there [was] a great image: this great (e) image, whoſe brightneſſe was excellent, ſtoode before thee, and the fourme thereof was terrible.

32 This images (f) head was of fine gold, his breſt and armes of ſyluer, his belly and his thighes of braſſe.

33 His legges were of iron, his feete were part of iron, and part of clay.

34 Thou beheldeſt it til a ſtone was cut without handes, whiche ſmote the image vpon his feete that were of iron and clay, ⁊ brake them to peeces.

F 35 Then was the iron, the clay, the braſſe, the ſiluer, and golde, broken altogeather, and became lyke the chaffe of ſommer flowres, and the wynde caryed them away, that no place was founde for them: ⁊ the ſtone that ſmote the image, became a great mountayne, and fylled the whole earth.

36 This is the dreame: ⁊ now wyl we ſhewe before the kyng what it meaneth.

37 O king, thou art a king of kinges: for the God of heauen hath geuen vnto thee a kingdome, power, ſtrength, and glorie.

38 And in al places whereſoeuer the chyldren of menne dwelle, the beaſtes of the fielde, and the foules of the ayre, hath he geuen into thy hande, and hath made thee ruler in them al: thou art this (g) head of golde.

39 After thee ſhal ariſe (h) another kyngdome, inferior to thee, ⁊ another (i) thirde kyngdome ſhalbe of braſſe, which ſhal beare rule ouer al the earth.

40 The (k) fourth kyngdome ſhalbe ſtrong as iron: for as iron breaketh in peeces, and ſubdueth al thinges, and as iron bruyſeth al theſe thynges, [ſo] ſhal it breake in peeces, ⁊ bruyſe [al].

41 Where as thou ſaweſt the feete and toes, part of potters clay, ⁊ part of iron, the kyngdome ſhalbe (l) diuided, but there ſhalbe in it of the ſtrength of the irō, for ſo much as thou ſaweſt the iron mixt with the clay and earth.

42 And [as] the toes of the feete [were] part of iron, and part of clay: [ſo] ſhal the kyngdome be part ſtrong, and part broken.

43 And whereas thou ſaweſt iron mixt with clay and earth, they ſhal mingle them ſelues with the (m) ſeede of menne, and yet not ioyne one with another, as iron wyl not be mixt with clay.

44 And in the dayes of theſe kynges, ſhal the God of heauen ſet vp a (n) kingdome, whiche ſhal neuer be deſtroyed, and this kyngdome ſhal not be geuen ouer to another people: but it ſhal breake, ⁊ deſtroy al theſe kyngdomes, and it (o) ſhal ſtande for euer.

45 Lyke as thou ſaweſt that (p) without any handes there was cut out of yͤ mount a ſtone, whiche brake the iron, the braſſe, the clay, the ſyluer and golde in peeces: ſo the great God hath ſhewed the kyng what ſhal comme to paſſe after this: This is a true dreame, ⁊ the interpretation of it is ſure.

46 Then the kyng Nabuchodonoſor felle downe vpon his face, and bowed hym ſelfe vnto Daniel, and commaunded to ordeyne (q) rewardes, and ſweete odours for hym.

47 The kyng anſweared Daniel, and ſayd, Of a trueth (r) your God is a God of goddes, and the Lorde of kinges, and a reuealer of ſecretes, ſeing thou couldeſt reueale this ſecrete.

48 So the kyng made Daniel a great man, and gaue hym many ⁊ great giftes: he made hym ruler of al the countreys of Babylon, ⁊ the chiefe of yͤ rulers aboue al the wiſe menne of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel (ſ) made requeſt to the king, and he ſet Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: but Daniel [ſate] (t) in the kynges gate.

(d) Hereby he ſmyteth the kyng with a certayne feare and reuerence of God, that he myght be the more apt to receiue the high miſteries that ſhoulde be reuealed.

(e) By this is vnderſtanded the worlde.

(f) By golde, ſiluer, braſſe, and iron, are ment yͤ Chaldean, Perſian, Macedonian, and Romane kyngdome, whiche ſhould ſucceſſiuely rule the world tyl Chriſte (which is here called yͤ ſtone) comme hym ſelfe ⁊ deſtroy the laſt.

(g) The firſt monarchie of yͤ Chaldeans.

(h) The ſecond of the Perſians.

(i) That is, of the Macedonians.

(k) That is, of the Romanes.

(l) That is, eyther by ciuil warres and diſcordes, or els into two ſortes of people: the one ſhoulde be warlyke, and therfore compared to iron, the other factious and ſeditious, and therfore compared to clay and earth.

(m) They ſhal thinke to make them ſelues ſtrong by mariages ⁊ affinities: yet ſhal thei neuer be ioyned in hartes.

(n) Meanyng the kyngdome of Chriſte.

(o) It ſhalbe eternal, for the ſpirite that is in the church, is lyfe eternal Rom. 8.b.

(p) That is, that the kingdome of Chriſt ſhoulde be ſet vp by God, ⁊ not by menne.

(q) To performe his promiſſe made to hym that ſhoulde interprete his dreame, as verſe. 6.

(r) This confeſſion was but a ſodayne motion, as it was alſo in Pharao. Exo. 9.c. but his hart was not touched, as appeared ſoone afterwarde.

(ſ) This he dyd, not for ambition or priuate profite, but for the benefite of his brethrē, which before were ſoare afflicted, ⁊ now by their officers eaſed, and relieued.

(t) Remayned in the court as one of the kinges chiefe counſellours.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 The kyng ſetteth vp a golden image, whiche he commaundeth to be worſhipped. 8 Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego are accuſed, becauſe they deſpiſed the kinges commaundement. 13 They are brought vnto the king, & commaunded to worſhip the image. 16 They refuſe to doo it, and are put into a burnyng ouen. 25 By beleefe in God they are deliuered from the fyre. 28 Nabuchodonoſor confeſſeth the power of God, after the ſyght of the miracle.

A 1 Nabuchodonoſor the kyng made an image of golde, whiche was threeſcore cubites hygh, & ſyxe cubites thicke: he ſet it vp in the plaine of Dura, in the prouince of Babylon.

2 Then Nabuchodonoſor the king ſent forth to geather togeather the dukes, lordes, and nobles, the iudges and officers, the deputies, & ſherifes, with al the rulers of the prouinces, that they myght comme to the (a) dedication of the image whiche Nabuchodonoſor the (b) kyng had ſet vp.

3 So the dukes, lordes, & nobles, the iudges, and officers, deputies, and ſherifes, with al the rulers of the prouince geathered them togeather vnto the dedicatyng of the image that Nabuchodonoſor the kyng had ſet vp, and they ſtoode before the image whiche Nabuchodonoſor had ſet vp.

4 Then an heralde cryed a loude: To you it is commaunded, O (c) people, nations, and languages,

5 That when ye heare the noyſe of the cornet, trũpet, harpe, ſhawme, pſalteries, dulcimer, & al manner of inſtrumentes of muſicke, ye fal downe & worſhyp that golden image that Nabuchodonoſor the kyng hath ſet vp.

6 Who ſo then falleth not downe, and worſhippeth, ſhal euen the ſame houre be caſt into the middes of a hot firie fornace.

7 Therefore, when al the folke hearde the noyſe of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, ſhawme, pſalteries, & al inſtrumentes of muſicke, then al the people, nations, & languages fel downe and worſhypped the golden image that Nabuchodonoſor the kyng had ſet vp.

B 8 Nowe were there certayne menne of the Chaldees, that went euen then, and (d) cryed out an accuſation of the Iewes.

9 They ſpake, and ſayde vnto the kyng Nabuchodonoſor, O kyng, lyue for euer.

10 Thou, O kyng, haſt made a decree, that euery man that ſhal heare the ſounde of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, ſhawme, pſalteries, dulcimer, & al inſtrumentes of muſicke, ſhal fal downe, and worſhyp the golden image:

11 And who ſo then fel not downe, and worſhypped not, that he ſhoulde be caſt into the myddes of an hot firie fornace.

12 Nowe are there certayne Iewes, whom thou haſt ſet ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: [namely] (e) Sidrach, Miſach, & Abednego: theſe menne, O kyng, regarded not thy commaundement: yea they wyl not ſerue thy goddes, nor worſhyp the golden image that thou haſt ſet vp.

13 Then Nabuchodonoſor in his anger and wrath commaunded, that Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego ſhould be brought vnto him: ſo theſe menne were brought before the king.

14 Then Nabuchodonoſor ſpake vnto them, and ſayd, Is it true, O Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, wyl not you ſerue my goddes, nor worſhip the golden image ẏ I haue ſet vp?

15 Nowe therefore be redy when ye heare the ſound of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, ſhawme, pſalteries, dulcimers, and al inſtrumentes of muſicke, to fal downe, & worſhip the image which I haue made: for if ye worſhip it not, ye ſhalbe caſt immediatly into the middes of a hot firie fornace: for who is that God, that can deliuer you out of my handes?

16 Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego anſweared the kyng, and ſayd, O Nabuchodonoſor, we are not (f) careful to anſweare thee in this matter:

17 Beholde, our God whom we ſerue, is (g) able to deliuer vs from the hot firie fornace: & he wyl deliuer vs out of thy hande, O kyng.

18 And though he wil not, yet ſhalt thou know, O kyng, that we wyl not ſerue thy goddes, nor worſhyp the golden image which thou haſt ſet vp.

19 Then was Nabuchodonoſor ful of indignation, ſo that the countenance of his face changed vpon Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego: therfore he charged and commaunded, that they ſhoulde heate the fornace, one ſeuen tymes more then it was wont to be heat.

20 And he charged the moſt valiant menne of warre that were in his armie, to binde Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, & to caſt them into the hot firie fornace.

21 So theſe menne were bounde in their coates, hoſen, head attire, with their other garmentes, and caſt into the myddes of the hot firie fornace. C

22 Therefore, becauſe the kynges commaundement was ſtrayte, & the fornace was exceeding hot, ẏ menne that put in Sidrach, Miſach,

(a) Shewyng that the idol is not knowen for an idol ſo long as it is with the workeman: but when the ceremonies & cuſtomes are recited & vſed, & the conſent of the people is there, then of a blocke thei thynke they haue made a God.

(b) This was ſufficient with the wicked at al times to approue their religion, if the kinges authoritie were aleaged for the eſtabliſhment therof, not cōſydering in the meane tyme what Gods worde dyd permit.

(c) The two dangerous weapons wherewith Satan aſſayleth the chyldren of God, is the conſent of the multitude, and the crueltie of the pouniſhment.

(d) That is, accuſed the Iewes with an outcrie.

(e) It ſeemeth that they named not Daniel, becauſe he was greatly in the kings fauour, thynking if theſe three had ben deſtroied, they myght haue better occaſion to accuſe Daniel after: and this declareth that this policie of erecting this image, was inuented by the malitious flatterers, whiche ſought nothing but the deſtruction of the Iewes, whom they accuſed of rebellion and ingratitude.

(f) They ſhoulde haue donne iniurie to God, if thei ſhoulde haue doubted in this holy cauſe, & therefore they ſay that they are reſolued to die for gods cauſe.

(g) They groūd on two poyntes: firſt on the power & prouidēce of God ouer thē: ſecondly on their cauſe, whiche was Gods glory, and the teſtifyeing of his true religion with their blood, and ſo make open confeſſion, that they wyl not ſo muche as outwardly conſent to idolatrie.

ſach, and Abednego, the flambe of the fire deſtroyed them.

23 And theſe three menne Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, felle downe in the middes of the hot firie furnace bounde.

24 Then Nabuchodonoſor the kyng was aſto[illegible] and roſe vp in al haſte: he ſpake vnto his counſel, and ſaid, Did not we caſt three menne bounde into the myddes of the fyre? They anſweared and ſayde vnto the kyng, It is true, O kyng.

25 He anſweared and ſayde, Loe, I ſee foure menne looſe, walkyng in the myddes of the fire, and they haue no hurt: and the fourme of the fourth is lyke the (h) ſonne of God.

(h) That is, an angel of God, as verſe.28.

26 Upon this went Nabuchodonoſor vnto the mouth of the hot firie fornace, he ſpake alſo, and ſayde, O Sidrah, Miſach, and Abednego, ye ſeruantes of the hygh GOD, goe foorth, and comme hyther. And ſo Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego came foorth of the middes of the fyre.

27 Then the dukes, lordes, and nobles, and the kinges coũſel, came togeather to ſee theſe menne, vpon whom the fyre had no manner of power in their bodies: in ſo muche that the very heere of their head was not burnt, and their clothes vnchanged, yea there was no ſmel of fyre felt vpon them.

28 Then ſpake Nabuchodonoſor, and ſayde, Bleſſed be the God of Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, whiche hath ſent his angel, and delyuered his ſeruantes that put their truſt in him, and haue altered the kinges commaundement, and ieoparded their bodyes, rather then they would ſerue or worſhip any God, except their owne God onely. E

29 Therfore I make a decree, that euery people, nation, and language, whiche ſpeake any blaſphemie agaynſt the GOD of Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, ſhalbe drawen in peeces, and their houſes ſhalbe made a takes: becauſe there is no God that can deliuer after this ſort.

30 So the king promoted Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, in the prouince of Babylon.

The.iiii.Chapter.

4 Nabuchodonoſor dreameth againe. 8 Daniel interpreteth it. 29 Nabuchodonoſor is put out of his realme, and eateth with beaſtes. 34 He confeſſeth the power of God, and is reſtored vnto his kingdome.

A 1 NAbuchodonoſor king, vnto al people, nations, and languages, that dwelle vpon the (a) whole earth, peace be multiplied amõg you.

(a) Meanyng ſo farre as his dominion extended.

2 I thought it good to ſhewe the ſygnes, and marueylous workes that the hygh God hath wrought vpon me.

3 O howe great are his ſignes, & howe mightie are his woonders? his kyngdome is an (b) euerlaſtyng kyngdome, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

(b) Reade chap.2.f.

4 I Nabuchodonoſor beyng at reaſt in my houſe, and floriſhyng in my palace,

5 Sawe a (c) dreame, which made me afraid, and the thoughtes vpon my bed, with the viſions of my head, troubled me.

(c) This was another dreame, beſide that which he ſawe of the foure empires

6 Therfore made I a decree, that they ſhould bryng al the wyſe menne of Babylon before me, that they might declare vnto me the interpretation of the dreame.

B 7 So came the wyſe menne, the ſoothſayers, the Chaldeans, & wiſardes: to whom I tolde the dreame, but they could not ſhewe me the interpretation thereof.

8 Til at ỷ laſt Daniel came before me (whoſe name was Baltaſſar, according to the name of my God) whiche hath the ſpirite of the holy goddes in hym, and before hym I tolde the dreame, ſayeing,

9 O Baltaſſar, thou prince of wyſe menne, forſomuche as I knowe that thou haſt the ſpirite of the holy goddes, and no ſecrete troubleth thee: telle me therefore the viſions of my dreame that I haue ſeene, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the viſions of my head vpon my bedde: And beholde, I ſawe a tree in the myddes of the earth, and the heyght thereof was great,

11 A great tree & ſtrong, and the heyght therof reached vnto the heauen, & in the ſight thereof to the endes of al the earth.

12 The leaues therof were fayre, and the fruit thereof muche, and in it was meate for al: the beaſtes of the feelde had ſhadowes vnder it, and the foules of the ayre dwelt in the bowes thereof: al fleaſhe fed of it.

13 I ſawe in the viſions of my head vpon my bed, and beholde a (d) watcher, and a holy one came downe from heauen,

(d) whiche was an angel of God.

14 And cryed myghtyly, ſayeing thus, Hewe downe the tree, breake of his branches, ſhake of his leaues, and ſcatter his fruite abroade: that the beaſtes may geat them away from vnder him, & the foules from his branches. C

15 Neuertheleſſe, leaue ỷ ſtumpe of his rootes ſtyl in the earth, and with a band of iron and braſſe [binde it] among the graſſe of the feeld, and let it be wet with the deawe of heauen, and let his portion be with the beaſtes amōg the graſſe of the feelde.

16 Let his hart be (c) changed from mans [nature] and let a beaſtes hart be geuen vnto hym, and let ſeuen tymes be paſſed ouer him.

17 This ſentence [is] accordyng to the (f) decree of the watchers, & the requeſt accordyng to the woorde of the holy ones: becauſe liuing menne ſhoulde knowe that the hygheſt hath power ouer the kyngdome of menne, and geueth it to whom it liketh him, and ſetteth vp ouer it the baſeſt among menne.

18 This is the dreame that I kyng Nabuchodonoſor haue ſeene: therfore thou, O Baltaſſar, declare the interpretation thereof, forſomuch as al the wyſe men of my kyngdome are not able to ſhewe me what it meaneth: but thou canſt doo it, for the ſpirit of the holy Gods is in thee.

19 Thē Daniel, whoſe name was Baltaſſar, helde his peace by the ſpace of one houre, and his thoughtes (g) troubled hym. So the kyng ſpake and ſayde, O Baltaſſar, let neyther the dreame, nor the interpretation therof trouble thee. Baltaſſar anſweared, ſayeing, O my Lorde, this dreame be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thyne aduerſaries.

20 As for the tree that thou ſaweſt, whiche was great & myghtie, whoſe heyght reached vnto the heauen, & the ſight thereof through al the worlde,

D 21 Whoſe leaues were fayre, & the fruite therof muche, and in it was meate for al: vnder the whiche the beaſtes of the fielde had their habitation, & vpon whoſe branches the foules of the ayre dyd ſit:

22 It is thou, O kyng, whiche art great and myghtie, for thy greatneſſe increaſeth, and reacheth vnto the heauen, ſo dooth thy dominion to the endes of the earth.

23 But whereas the kyng ſawe a watcher, & a holy one that came downe from heauen, and ſayde, Hewe downe the tree, and deſtroy it, yet leaue the ſtumpe of the rootes thereof in the earth, and with a bande of iron and braſſe bynde it among the graſſe of the feelde, and let it be wet with the dew of the heauen, and let his portion be with the beaſtes of the feeld, tyl (h) ſeuen tymes paſſe ouer hym:

24 This, O kyng, is the interpretation, yea it is the very decree of hym that is higheſt of al, and it toucheth my lorde the king.

25 Thou ſhalt be caſt out from menne, and thy dwellyng ſhalbe with the beaſtes of the feelde: with graſſe ſhalt thou be fed lyke (i) oxen, thou muſt be wet with the deawe of the heauen, yea ſeuen tymes ſhal paſſe ouer thee, tyl thou (k) knowe that the hygheſt hath power ouer the kingdome of menne, and geueth it to whom he liſt.

26 Moreouer, where as it was ſayde that the ſtumpe of the roote of the tree [illegible] be leaſt ſtyl: it betokeneth, that thy kyngdome ſhal remayne whole vnto thee, after thou haſt learned to knowe that the power commeth from heauen.

27 Wherfore, O kyng, let my counſel be acceptable vnto thee, & (l) breake of thy ſinnes by ryghteouſneſſe, and thyne iniquities by mercie towarde the poore: loe let there be a healyng of thyne errour.

28 Al theſe thynges touche the kyng Nabuchodonoſor.

29 So after (m) twelue monethes, the kyng walked in the palace of the kyngdome of Babylon.

30 And the kyng ſpake, and ſayd, Is not this great Babylon that I haue built for ẏ houſe of the kingdome by the might of my power, and for the honour of my maieſtie?

31 Whyle theſe woordes were yet in the kynges mouth, there felle a voyce from heauen, ſayeing, O kyng Nabuchodonoſor, to thee be it ſpoken, Thy kyngdome is departed from thee, 32 And thou ſhalt be caſt out of mennes companie, thy dwellyng ſhalbe with the beaſtes of the feelde: ſo that thou ſhalt eate graſſe like oxen, and ſeuen times ſhal paſſe ouer thee, vntil thou knoweſt that the hygheſt hath power vpon the kingdome of menne, and geueth it vnto whom it pleaſeth hym.

33 The very ſame houre was this matter fulfilled vpon Nabuchodonoſor, ſo that he was caſt out of mens companie, & dyd eate graſſe like oxen, & his body was wet with the deaw of heauen, tyl his heares were growen as Egles [fethers] & his nailes like birdes clawes. E

34 When this (n) time was paſt, I Nabuchodonoſor lyft vp my eyes vnto heauen, and myne vnderſtanding was reſtored vnto me: then gaue I thankes vnto the hygheſt, I magnified, and prayſed hym that liueth for euermore, whoſe power is an euerlaſting power, & his kingdome is from one generation to another.

35 And al they that dwel vpon the earth, are to be reputed as nothyng, and accordyng to his wyl he woorketh in the armie of heauen, among the inhabitours of the earth: & there is none that may reſiſt his hande, or ſay vnto hym, what doeſt thou? F

(c) That is, let hym be depriued of natural reaſon, and mans vnderſtandyng.

(f) This was the decree of God hym ſelfe as appeareth in the 24. verſe folowyng, but it is called the decree of the watchmen, or angels, becauſe they brought it and reuealed it: which the holy ones deſyre to comme to paſſe, ſo conſentyng to the decree of God, that the proude myght be brought downe, & the humble exalted.

(g) Partly conſyderyng the great iudgementes of God in the horrible puniſhment of this great prince: & partly moued with pitie of his cauſe, whom God had commaunded the Iewes to wiſhe wel to, and pray for, as Iere.29.b.

(h) Wherby he meaneth a long ſpace, as ſeuen yeeres, or ſeuen quarters of yeeres, or ſeuen monethes: for the interpretation is diuers.

(i) Not that his ſhape or fourme was changed into a beaſt: but that he was eyther ſtriken mad, and ſo auoyded mans companie: or was caſt out for his tyrannie, & ſo wandred among the beaſtes, & ate hearbes and graſſe.

(k) Daniel ſheweth the cauſe why god thus puniſhed him.

(l) Ceaſſe frō prouoking god to anger any longer by thy ſinnes: and where thou haſt cruelly oppreſſed many poore, be nowe mercyful vnto them in righteouſneſſe, ſo that the errours of thy former life be redreſſed.

(m) After that Daniel had declared this viſion: & this his pryde declared in the next verſe, ſheweth that it is not in man to cōuert to God, except his ſpirite moue him, ſeyng that theſe terrible threatninges coulde not moue hym to repent.

(n) That is, the ſeuē times or yeeres mentioned in the verſes.16.and 23.and.25.

36 At the ſame tyme was myne vnderſtandyng geuen me agayne, and I was [reſtored] to the honour of my kyngdome, my glorie, and my beautie was reſtored vnto me, and my counſellers and (o) princes ſought vnto me, and I was eſtabliſhed in my kyngdome, and my glorie was augmented toward me.

37 Nowe therefore, I (p) Nabuchodonoſor, prayſe, and extol, and magnifie the kyng of heauen, whoſe workes are al trueth, and his wayes iudgement, and thoſe that walke in pryde he is able to abaſe.

The.v.Chapter.

1 Balthaſar kyng of Babylon, abuſing the veſſels of the temple, ſeeth an hande writing in the wal. 8 The ſoothſayers called of the kyng, can not expounde the wrytyng. 13 Daniel is called, whiche readeth it, and interpreteth it alſo. 30 Balthaſar beyng ſlayne, Darius ſucceedeth in his roome.

A 1 Kyng (a) Balthaſar made a great feaſt to a thouſande of his princes, and dranke wyne (b) before the thouſande.

2 And Balthaſar, when he had taſted the wyne, commaunded to bryng hym the golden and ſiluer veſſels, whiche his (c) father Nabuchodonoſor had brought from the temple in Hieruſalem, that the kyng, and his princes, & his wiues, & his cõcubines, might drinke therin.

3 So were brought the golden veſſels that they had taken out of the temple of the lordes houſe at Hieruſalem: and the kyng, and his princes, his wyues, & his concubines drunke in them.

4 They drunke wine, and prayſed the gods of golde, ſiluer, braſſe, iron, wood, and ſtone.

5 In the very ſame houre there appeared fyngers of a mans hand wrytyng ryght ouer (d) agaynſt the candleſticke, vpon the plaſter of the wal of the kinges palace, & the king ſaw the knockles of the hande that wrote.

6 Then changed the kyng his countenance, and his thoughtes troubled hym, ſo that the ioyntes of his loynes were looſed, and his (e) knees ſmote one agaynſt the other.

7 Wherefore the kyng cryed myghtyly, that they ſhould bring the ſoothſayers, Chaldees, & wyſardes: the kyng ſpake alſo to the wyſe menne of Babylon, and ſayde, Who ſo can reade this wrytyng, and ſhewe me the interpretation thereof, ſhalbe clothed with purple, and haue a cheyne of golde about his necke, and ſhalbe the thirde ruler in the kyngdome. B

8 Upon this came al the kinges wiſe menne, but they coulde neyther reade the wrytyng, nor ſhewe the kyng the interpretation.

9 Then was kyng Balthaſar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in hym, and his princes were aſtonyed.

10 Nowe the (f) queene by reaſon of the talke of the kyng and his princes, came into the banket houſe: and the queene ſpake, and ſaid, O kyng, lyue for euer: let not thy thoughtes trouble thee, and let not thy countenance be changed.

11 There is a man in thy kyngdome, that hath the ſpirite of the holy Goddes within him: and in the daies of thy father, light, and vnderſtandyng, and wyſdome, lyke the wiſdome of the gods, was found in him, whom the kyng Nabuchodonoſor thy father, the kyng [I ſay] thy father, made cheefe of the (g) wyſe menne, ſoothſayers, Chaldeans, and wyſardes.

12 Becauſe that ſuche an abundant ſpirite, knowledge, and vnderſtanding, to expounde dreames, to open ſecretes, and to declare harde doubtes, was found in hym, yea euen in Daniel, whom the kyng named Baltaſſar: let Daniel be called, and he ſhal declare the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought before the king: ſo the kyng ſpake vnto Daniel, and ſaid, Art thou that Daniel, whiche art of the chyldren of the captiuitie of Iuda, whom my father the kyng brought out of Iurie?

14 I haue hearde of thee, that thou haſt the ſpirite of the holy goddes, and that lyght and vnderſtandyng, and excellent wyſedome is founde in thee. C

15 Now haue there benne brought before me wyſe menne, and ſoothſayers, to reade this wryting, and to ſhewe me the interpretation thereof: but they coulde not declare the interpretation of the thing.

16 Then hearde I of thee that thou couldeſt ſhew interpretatiõs, & diſſolue doubtes: now if thou canſt reade his writing, and ſhew me yͤ meaning therof, thou ſhalt be clothed with purple, and haue a cheyne of golde about thy necke, & be the thirde ruler in the kingdome.

17 Then Daniel anſweared, and ſayd before the kyng, As for thy rewardes, keepe them to thy ſelfe, and geue thy giftes to another: yet I wyl reade the wrytyng vnto the kyng, and ſhewe hym the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the moſt high God gaue vnto (h) Nabuchodonoſor thy father a kyngdome, and maieſtie, aud honour, and glorie.

(o) By whom it ſeemeth he was put from his kingdome before.

(p) He doeth not only prayſe God for his deliuerance, but alſo confeſſeth his faulte, that God only may haue the glorie, and man the ſhame, and that he may be exalted & man caſt downe.

(a) Daniel reciteth this hiſtorie of king Balthaſar Euil Merodachs ſonne, to ſhewe gods iudgementes agaynſt the wicked; for the deliuerãce of his church, and howe the prophecie of Ieremi was true that they ſhould be deliuered after ſeuentie yeeres.

(b) That is, not alone, as commonly he was wont, but in a ſolemne banket, wherevnto he receiued al his nobles to accompanie hym.

(c) Meanyng his grandfather.

(d) That it might the better be ſeene.

(e) So he that before contemned God, was moued by this ſight to tremble for feare of Gods iudgementes.

(f) This ſome thinke was his mother, other, his grandmother: of al likelyhod a woman of great age, that coulde remember the actes of Daniel.

(h) Reade chap.4.b. and this declareth, both that this name was odious vnto him, and alſo that he dyd not vſe theſe vile practiſes, becauſe he was not among them when al were called.

(h) Before he red the wrytyng, he declareth to the king his great ingratitude towarde God, who could not be moued to geue him the glorie, conſyderyng his woonderful worke towarde his grandfather: and ſo ſheweth that he ſinneth, not of ignorance, but of malice.

19 And for the maieſtie that he gaue hym, al people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before hym: he ſlue whom he woulde, he ſmote whom it pleaſed hym: agayne, whom he woulde he ſet vp, and whom he lyſt he put downe.

20 But becauſe his hart was loftie, and his mynde ſtrengthened in pride, he was depoſed from his kingly throne, and they tooke his glorie from hym.

D 21 He was driuen out frō the ſonnes of menne, his hart was made lyke the beaſtes, and his dwelling was with the wilde Aſſes, they fed hym with graſſe lyke Oxen, and his body was wet with the deawe of the heauen, til he knewe that the moſt hygh GOD bare rule ouer the kingdome of menne, and that he appoynteth ouer it whom ſo euer he pleaſeth.

* or, Belſaſar

22 And thou his ſonne, *O Balthaſar, haſt not ſubmitted thyne hart, though thou knewest al theſe thynges:

23 But haſt lift vp thee ſelfe againſt the lorde of heauē, ſo that the veſſels of his houſe were brought before thee, that thou & thy princes, with thy wyues & concubines, might drinke wine therout: and thou haſt praiſed the gods of ſiluer and golde, of braſſe and iron, of wood and ſtone, whiche neyther ſee, heare, nor vnderſtand: As for the God in whoſe hand conſiſteth thy breath, and al thy waies, thou haſt not glorified hym.

24 (i) Then was the knockles of the hande ſent from hym, & hath written this writing.

25 And this the writing that he hath written: MENE (k) MENE, THECEL, VPHARSIN.

26 Nowe the interpretation of the thyng is this: MENE, God hath numbred thy kyngdome, and brought it to an ende.

27 THECEL, thou art wayed in the balance, and art founde wantyng.

28 PHERES, thy kyngdome is diuided, and geuen to the Medes, and Perſes.

29 Then commaunded Balthaſar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and a chayne of gold about his necke, and made a proclamation concernyng hym, that he ſhoulde be the thirde ruler in the kyngdome.

30 The very ſame night was Balthaſar the kyng of the Chaldees ſlayne.

31 And (l) Darius of the Medes tooke the kyngdome, beyng threeſcore and two yeeres of age.

(i) After that God had ſo long tyme differred his anger, and patiently wayted for thyne amendment.

(k) This worde is doubled, not onely to exaggerate the certaintie of the matter, but alſo as ſome thinke, the one to ſignifie the ende of the kyng, the other the ende of the kyngdome.

(l) Cyrus his ſonne in lawe gaue hym the title of [illegible], although Cyrus in effect had the [illegible]nion.

The.vi. Chapter.

1 Daniel is made ruler ouer the lordes. 5 The imagination of an acte agaynſt Daniel. 7 The proclamation of the acte whereof Daniel is accuſed vnto the kyng as a tranſgreſſour. 16 He is put into a denne of Lions by the commaundement of the king. 23 He is deliuered by faith in God. 24 Daniels accuſers are put vnto the Lions to be torne aſunder. 26 Darius by the proclamation of a decree, magnified the God of Daniel.

A 1 IT pleaſeth Darius to ſet ouer his kingdome a hūdred and twentie gouernours, whiche ſhoulde be ouer ỳ whole kingdome.

2 Aboue theſe he ſet three princes, of whom Daniel was one, that the gouernours myght geue accomptes vnto them, and the kyng ſhoulde haue no damage.

3 Now this Daniel was preferred aboue the princes and gouernours, for the ſpirite of god was plenteous in hym: ſo that the king was mynded to ſet him ouer the whole realme.

4 Wherefore, the rulers and gouernours (a) ſought an occaſion agaynſt Daniel concernyng the kyngdome, but they coulde fynde none occaſion nor fault: for he was ſo faythful, that there was no blame nor fault founde in hym.

5 Then ſaid theſe menne, We ſhal finde none occaſion againſt this Daniel, except we finde it agaynſt hym concernyng the lawe of his God.

(a) Thus the wicked can not abyde the graces of god in others, but ſeeke by al occaſions to deface them, therefore agaynſt ſuche aſſaultes there is no better remedie then to walke vprightly in the feare of God, and to haue a good cōſcience.

6 Upon this went the princes and lordes togeather vnto the kyng, and ſayde this vnto hym, Kyng Darius, lyue for euer.

7 All the rulers of thy kyngdome, the officers and gouernours, the counſellers and dukes, haue conſulted togeather to make a decree for the kyng, & to eſtabliſhe a ſtatute, That who ſo deſyreth any petition eyther of any God or man within theſe thirtie daies, except of thee, O king, he ſhalbe caſt into the Lions denne. B

8 Nowe, O kyng, confyrme the decree, and ſeale the writyng, that it be not changed accordyng to the lawe of the Medes and Perſians, whiche altereth not.

9 Wherefore, king Darius ſealed the writing and decree.

10 Nowe when Daniel vnderſtoode that he had ſealed the writing, he wēt into his houſe, and the (b) windowes of his chamber toward Hieruſalem ſtoode open, there kneeled he downe vpon his knees three tymes a day, he made his petition, and prayſed his God, as he dyd aforetyme.

11 Then theſe menne aſſembled, and founde Daniel

(b) Becauſe he woulde not by his ſilence ſhewe that he conſented to this wicked decree, he ſet open his wyndowes towarde Hieruſalem whē he prayed, both to ſtirre vp hym ſelfe with the remembraunce of Gods promiſes to his people, when they ſhoulde pray towarde that temple: & alſo ỳ others might ſee, that he woulde neuer conſent in hart nor dede, for theſe fewe dayes, to any thyng cōtrary to gods glory.

Daniel makyng his petition, and prayeng vnto his God.

12 So they came to the kyng, and ſpake before hym concernyng his commaundement, ſayeing, O kyng, haſt thou not ſealed the decree, that within thirtie dayes, who ſo requireth his petition of any God or man, but only of thee ſelfe, O kyng, he ſhalbe caſt into the denne of lions? The kyng anſwered, & ſayd, Yea, it is true, accordyng to the lawe of the Medes and Perſes that altereth not.

13 Then anſweared they, and ſayde vnto the king, This Daniel, whiche is of the children of the captiuitie of Iuda, O kyng, regardeth neither thee, nor thy decree that thou haſt ſealed: but maketh his petition three tymes a day.

C 14 When the kyng hearde theſe woordes, he was ſoare diſpleaſed with hym ſelfe, and ſet his harte on Daniel to deliuer him, and he laboured tyl the ſunne went downe, to delyuer hym.

15 Then theſe men aſſembled vnto the kyng, and ſayde vnto hym, Knowe this, O kyng, that the lawe of the Medes and Perſes [is,] that the commaundement & ſtatute whiche the kyng maketh, may not be (c) altered.

16 Then the kyng commaunded, and they brought Daniel, and they caſt hym into the lions denne. Nowe the kyng ſpake vnto Daniel, and ſaide, Thy God whom thou alway ſerueſt, euen he wyl delyuer thee.

17 And there was brought a ſtone, and layde vpon the mouth of the denne, this the kyng ſealed with his owne ryng, and with the ſignet of his princes, that the purpoſe cõcernyng Daniel, ſhoulde not be changed.

18 So the kyng went into his palace, and remayned faſtyng, neyther was there anye inſtrumentes of muſicke brought in before him, and his ſleepe went from hym.

19 But betimes in the mornyng at the breake of the day, the kyng aroſe, & went in al haſte vnto the denne of the lions.

20 Nowe as he came nigh vnto the denne, he cryed with a piteous voyce vnto Daniel, yea the kyng ſpake, and ſayde vnto Daniel, O Daniel, thou ſeruant of the lyuyng God, is not thy God whom thou ſerueſt alway, able to deliuer thee from the lions?

21 Then Daniel ſayde vnto the kyng, O kyng, lyue for euer:

22 My God hath ſent his angel, which hath ſhut the lions mouthes, ſo that they myght not hurt me, for mine (d) vngiltineſſe is found out before hym: and as for thee, O kyng, I neuer (e) offended thee.

23 Then was the kyng exceedyng glad for hym, and commaunded to take Daniel out of the denne: So Daniel was brought out of the denne, and no manner of hurt was found vpon hym, for he (f) put his truſt in his God.

24 And as for thoſe menne whiche had accuſed Daniel, the kyng commaunded to bring them, & to (g) caſt them into the lions denne, them, theyr chyldren, and theyr wyues: ſo the lions had the maiſterie of them, and brake al theyr bones aſunder, or euer they came at the grounde of the denne.

25 After this, wrote kyng Darius vnto al people, nations, and tongues that dwelt in al landes, Peace be multiplied vnto you:

26 My commaundement is in al my dominion and kyngdome, that menne feare and ſtand in awe of Daniels God: for he is the lyuyng God whiche abydeth euer, his kyngdome ſhal not fayle, and his power is euerlaſtyng.

27 It is he that delyuereth, & ſaueth, he dooth woonders, and marueylous woorkes in heauen, and in earth, he hath preſerued Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel proſpered in the raigne of Darius, & in the raigne of Cyrus of Perſia.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 A viſion of foure beaſtes is ſhewed vnto Daniel. The viſion is interpreted of foure kyngdomes of the worlde. 27 Of the euerlaſtyng kyngdome of Chriſte.

1 IN the fyrſte yeere of Balthaſar kyng of Babylon, ſawe Daniel a dreame, & there were viſions in his head vpon his bed, whiche (a) dreame he wrote, and declared the ſumme of the matter,

2 Daniel ſpake and ſayde, I ſawe in my viſion by nyght, and beholde, the foure (b) windes of heauen ſtroue vpon the great ſea,

3 And foure great beaſtes came vp from the ſea, one diuers from another.

4 The fyrſt was as a (c) lion, and had Egles winges: I beheld til his winges were pluckt from hym, and he lyfted vp from the earth, and ſet vpon his feete lyke a man, and there was geuen him a mans harte.

5 Beholde another beaſt, [whiche was] the ſecond, was like a (d) beare, and ſtoode vpon the one ſide: betwixte his teeth in his mouth he had three ribbes, and it was ſayde vnto hym thus,

(c) Thus the wicked mainteine ye lawes by conſtancy and auchoritie, whiche is oft tymes, eyther lyghtnes or ſtubbernes, when as the innocentes therby periſh: and therefore gouernours ought neyther to feare, nor be aſhamed to breake ſuche.

(d) Myne vprightnes in this thyng wherein I was charged, was approued of God.

(e) For he did diſobey the kynges wicked commaundemẽt, to obey God, & ſo did no iniurie to the king, who ought to commaunde nothing, wherby God ſhoulde be diſhonored.

(f) Becauſe he committed him ſelfe wholy vnto God, whoſe cauſe he did defend: he was aſſured that nothyng but good coulde comme vnto hym, wherein we ſee the power of fayth, as Hebr. xi. e.

(g) A terrible example againſt al, that contrary to theyr conſcience make cruel lawes to deſtroy Gods chyldren: and alſo admoniſheth princes howe to puniſhe ſuche, when theyr wickednes is comme to lyght, though not in euery poynt, or with like circumſtances, yet to execute true iuſtice.

(a) Whereas the people of Iſrael looked for a continual quietnes after theſe ſeuentie yeeres, as Ieremie had declared: he ſheweth that this reaſt ſhoulde not be a deliuerance from al troubles, but a beginning, and therefore moued them to loke for a continual affliction, tyl ye Meſſias be vttered and reuealed, by whom they ſhoulde haue a ſpiritual deliuerance, and al the promiſes fulfylled, whereof they ſhoulde haue a certaine token in the deſtruction of the babylonical kingdome.

(b) Which ſignified that there ſhoulde be horrible troubles and afflictions in the world in al quarters.

(c) The beaſts are kings, kingdomes, or monarchies: By the lion, the kingdome of Babylon is vnderſtanded, which ſpeedily vanquiſhed the nations adioyning: but after his winges were pluckt, and his kingdome taken away, he returned to the condition of a man, and no lion.

(d) The ſecond monarchie of the Perſians and Medes.

thus, Ariſe, eate vp muche fleaſhe.

6 Then I looked, and beholde, there was an other like vnto a[(e)] Leopard, this had wings as a foule, euen[(f)] foure vpon the backe: this beaſt had foure heads, and there was power geuen him.

(e) The third monarchie of the Macedonians.

(f) That is, his foure chiefe captaines, which had the empire after his death deuided among them.

7 After this I ſaw in a viſion by night, & beholde, the fourth beaſt was grimme and horrible, and marueylous ſtrõg: it had great iron teeth, it deuoured and deſtroyed, and ſtamped the reſidue vnder his feete, it was vnlike the other beaſtes that were before it, for it had[(g)] ten hornes.

(g) That is, the Romane empire, which was as a mõſter, & coulde not be compared to any beaſt, becauſe the nature of none was able to expreſſe it.

(g) Whiche ſignifie ten kinges, as verſe.24.

8 As I conſidered the hornes, beholde, there came vp among them another little horne, before whom there were three of the firſt hornes pluckt away: and beholde, this horne had eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth ſpeaking preſumptuous thinges.

B

9 I behelde til the thrones were ſet vp, and the[(h)] auncient of dayes did ſit: whoſe garment was white as ſnowe, and the heares of his head lyke the pure wool: his throne was like the firie flambe, and his[(i)] wheeles as burning fire.

(h) That is, God, whiche was before al times.

(i) So was the maner in olde time of princes thrones, to be made ſo, that they might be moued and remoued the eaſelier.

10 There iſſued foorth a firie ſtreame, & went out from before him: a thouſand thouſandes miniſtred vnto him, and ten thouſand thouſandes ſtoode before him: the iudgemẽt was ſet, and the[(k)] bookes opened.

(k) This is ment of the firſt comming of Chriſte, when as the wyl of God was plainely reuealed by his goſpel.

11 Then toke I heede therunto, becauſe of the voyce of the proude woordes whiche yͤ horne ſpake: I behelde til the beaſt was ſlayne, and his body deſtroyed, and geuen to be brent in the fire.

12 As concerning the other beaſtes, they had theyr dominion taken away, but theyr liues were prolonged for a certayne time and ſeaſon.

13 I ſawe in viſions by night, and beholde there came[(l)] one in the cloudes of heauen, like the ſonne of man: whiche went vnto the ancient of dayes, before whom they brought him.

(l) Whiche is mẽt of Chriſt who had not yet taken vpon him mans nature, neyther was the ſonne of Dauid according to the fleſh, as he was afterwarde, but appeared then a figure, and that in the cloudes.

14 And he gaue him dominion and honour, and a kingdome, that al people, nations, and languages ſhould ſerue him: his dominion is an euerlaſting dominion, whiche ſhal neuer be taken awaye, and his kingdome ſhal neuer be deſtroyed.

15 I Daniel was troubled in my ſpirite in the middeſt of my body, and the viſions of my head made me afrayde.

16 I gate me vnto[(m)] one of them that ſtoode by, and aſked him the trueth concerning al theſe thinges: ſo he tolde me, and made me vnderſtande the interpretation of theſe thinges.

(m) Meaning, of the angels, as verſe.10.

17 Theſe great beaſtes whiche are foure, are foure kinges whiche ſhal ariſe out of yͤ earth:

18 But the[(n)] high ſaintes ſhal receiue a kingdome, and poſſeſſe a kingdome for euer, euen for euer and euer.

(n) That is, Gods elect people, whiche ſhal haue a kingdome and church to continue in for euer.

19 After this, I required to knowe the trueth concerning the fourth beaſt, whiche was ſo vnlike the other beaſtes, & ſo horrible, whoſe teeth were of iron, and his nayles of braſſe, which deuoured and deſtroyed, and ſtamped the reſidue vnder his feete:

20 [I deſired] alſo [to knowe the trueth] as touching the ten hornes that he had vpon his head, & this other which came vp afterward, before whoſe face ther fel downe three, which horne had eyes, and a mouth that ſpake preſumptuous thinges, & looked with a grimmer viſage then his[(o)] felowes.

(o) That is, the three other empires.

21 I behelde, & the ſame horne made battaile agaynſt the ſainctes, yea and preuayled agaynſt them.

D

22 Untyl the ancient of dayes came, that the iudgement was geuen to the high ſainctes, & til the time came that the ſainctes had the kingdome in poſſeſſion.

23 He gaue me this aunſweare: That fourth beaſt, ſhalbe the fourth kingdome vpõ earth, it ſhalbe vnlike to al the kingdomes: it ſhal deuour, treade downe, and deſtroy al other landes.

24 The ten hornes, are ten kinges that ſhal ariſe out of that kingdome: after whom there ſhal ſtande vp another, whiche ſhalbe vnlyke to the firſt, and he ſhal ſubdue three kinges:

25 And he ſhal ſpeake woordes agaynſt the hygheſt of al, he ſhal deſtroy the hygh ſainctes, and thinke that he may change times and lawes: they ſhalbe geuen into his hande vntil a time, and times, & the diuiding of a time.

26 But the iudgement ſhal ſit, and they ſhal take away his dominion, to conſume and deſtroy it vnto the ende.

27 And the kingdome and dominion, and the greatnes of the kingdome vnder the whole heauen, ſhalbe geuen to the[(p)] people of hygh ſainctes, whoſe kingdome is an euerlaſting kingdome, and al powers ſhal ſerue and obey it.

E

(p) That is, to the church.

28 Hitherto the ende of the woordes: I Daniel had many cogitations [whiche] troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but the woordes I keapt ſtil in my hart.

The

The.viii. Chapter.

1 A viſion of a ſtrike betweene a ramme and a hee goate. 20 The vnderſtanding of the viſion is, of the battaile betweene the king of Perſia, and the king of the Grecians.

A 1 IN the thyrd yeere of the raigne of kyng Balthaſar, there appeared a viſion vnto me [euen] vnto me Daniel, [a] after that whiche I had ſeene in the beginning.

2 I ſaw in a viſion (and when I ſaw it, I was in the palace of Suſis, whiche is in the prouince of [b] Elam) and in the viſion me thought I was by the riuer of Vlai.

3 Then I loked vp and ſaw, & beholde, there ſtoode before the riuer a [c] ramme whiche had two hornes: and theſe two hornes were high, but [d] one was hygher then the other, and the hygheſt came vp laſt.

4 I ſaw that this ramme puſhed with his hornes againſt the Weſt, againſt the North, and againſt the South: ſo that no [e] beaſtes might ſtande before him, nor defende them from his power, but he did as him liſted, and became great.

5 And as I conſydered, beholde there came a hee [f] goate from the Weſt, ouer the whole earth, and touched not the grounde: and this goate had a [g] horne appeared betwixt his eyes.

6 And he came vnto the ramme that had the two hornes (whom I had ſeene ſtanding by the riuer) and ranne fiercely vpon him with his might.

7 And I ſawe him drawe nye vnto the rāme, beyng very fierce vpon him, yea he [h] ſmote the ramme, and brake his two hornes, neyther had the ramme ſo muche ſtrength as to ſtande before him: but he caſt him downe to the grounde, trode him vnder his feete, and ther was none able to deliuer the ramme out of his power.

8 Therfore the goate waxed exceeding great, and when he was at the ſtrongeſt, his great [i] horne was broken: Then grewe there other [k] foure notable ones in the ſteade of it, towarde the foure windes of the heauen.

9 And out of one of them came foorth a litle [l] horne, whiche waxed very great towarde the [m] South, towarde the [n] Eaſt, & toward the [o] pleaſant lande.

10 [p] It grewe vp vnto the hoaſt of heauen, whereof it did caſt ſome downe to yͤ ground, and of the ſtarres alſo, and trode them vnder foote.

11 Yea, it grewe vp againſt the [q] prince of the hoſt, from whom the [r] daily [ſacrifice] was taken away, and the places of his ſanctuarie caſt downe.

12 And power was geuen vnto it ouer the dayly [ſacrifice] for the iniquitie, and it ſhal [s] caſt down the trueth to the ground: and thus ſhal it doo, and proſper.

13 Vpon this, I hearde one of the ſaintes ſpeaking, and one of the [t] ſaintes ſpake vnto [u] Palmoni, ſayeing, How long ſhal the viſion of the daily [ſacrifice] and of the iniquitie of deſolation [endure,] to geue both the ſanctuarie and the power to be troden vnder foote?

14 And he anſweared me: Vnto the [x] euenyng and the mornyng, two thouſande and three hundred: thē ſhal the ſanctuary be cleanſed.

15 Now whē I Daniel had ſeene this viſion, and ſought for the vnderſtandyng of it: beholde, there ſtoode before me [y] like the ſimilitude of a man.

16 And I hearde a mans voyce [z] betweene Vlai, whiche cryed, and ſayd, O Gabriel [aa] make this man vnderſtande the viſion.

17 So he came, and ſtoode by me: but I was afrayde at his commyng, and fel downe vpon my face: Then ſayde he vnto me, Vnderſtande O thou ſonne of manne: for at the [bb] tyme of the ende, this viſion [ſhalbe.]

18 Nowe as he was ſpeakyng vnto me, I fel in a ſlumber vpon my face to the ground: but he touched me, & ſet me vp in my place.

19 And he ſayde, Beholde, I wyl ſhewe thee what ſhalbe in the laſt wrath: for in the time appoynted, it ſhalbe fulfylled.

20 The ramme whiche thou ſaweſt hauing two hornes, is the kyng of the Medes and Perſes, C

21 And the Goate is the kyng of Grecia: and the great horne that is betwixt his eyes, that is the fyrſt kyng.

22 But where as it brake, and foure other roſe vp in the ſteede: [it ſignifieth,] that out of this people ſhal ſtande vp foure kingdomes, but not ſo myghty as it.

23 And in the ende of their kingdome, when the wicked are comme to the ful, a kyng of a [cc] fierce countenance, and vnderſtandyng harde ſentences, ſhal ſtande vp.

24 His power ſhalbe myghty, but not in [dd] his ſtrength, and he ſhal deſtroy woonderfully, he ſhal proſper and practiſe, and deſtroye the [ee] myghty, and the holy people.

25 And

[a] After the general viſiō, he commeth to certayne perticuler viſions as touchyng the deſtruction of the Monarchie of the Perſians, and Macedoniās, for the ruine of the Babylonians was at hande, and alſo he had ſufficiently ſpoken thereof.

[c] That is, the kyngdome of the Perſians & Medes nowe ioyned togeather.

[d] Meaning, Cyrus, who after grewe greater in power then Darius his vncle and father in lawe.

[e] No kinges or nations.

[f] Meaning, Alexander, that came with great expedition.

[g] Though he came in the name of al Grecia, yet he bare the title and dignitie of the general captayne, ſo that the ſtrength was attributed to hym: which is meant by this horne.

[h] Alexander ouercame Darius in two batailes, and ſo had the kyngdomes of the Medes and Perſians.

[i] Alexanders great power was broken: for when he had ouercome al the eaſt, he thought to returne toward Grecia, to ſubdue them that there had rebelled, & ſo dyed by the way.

[k] For Caſſander hadde Macedonia, Seleucus, Syria, Antigonus, Aſia the leſſe, and Ptolomeus Egypt.

[p] Antiochus who raged agaynſt the elect of God.

[q] That is, God.

[r] He laboured to aboliſhe gods religion, and to caſt downe his ſeruice.

[s] This horne ſhal aboliſhe for a tyme the true doctrine, and ſo corrupt Gods ſeruice.

[u] That is, a ſecrete one, or a marueylous one, whereby is vnderſtanded chriſte the reuealer of al ſecretes.

[x] Euening and mornyng doo ſignifie a natural day, that is. 2300. dayes.

[y] That is, Chriſte.

[z] That is, betwene the bankes of the riuer Vlai.

[aa] This power to commaunde the angel, declareth it was God.

[cc] That is, Antiochus, who ſhould be impudent, ſhameles, ſubtil, & craftie.

[dd] That is, not lyke Alexanders ſtrength.

[ee] Both the Gentiles that dwel about him, and the Iewes.

25 And through his policie alſo he ſhal cauſe craft to proſper in his handes, he ſhal extol him ſelfe in his hart, and in proſperitie he ſhal deſtroy many, and many one ſhalbe put to death in his wealthineſſe: he ſhal ſtand vp againſt the (f) prince of princes, but he ſhalbe deſtroyed without (g) hande.

26 And the viſion of the (h) euening and the morning, whiche is declared, is true: therfore ſeale thou vp the viſion, for it ſhalbe after many dayes.

27 Upon this was I Daniel feeble, ſo that I lay ſicke [certayne] dayes: but when I roſe vp, I went about the kinges buſines, & was aſtonied at the viſion, neuertheleſſe, no man vnderſtoode it.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Daniel deſireth to haue that perfourmed of God, whiche he hath promiſed concerning the returne of the people from theyr baniſhment in Babylon. 15 A true confeſſion. 20 Daniels prayer is harde. 21 Gabriel the angel expoundeth vnto him the viſion of the threeſcore and ten weekes. 24 The annoynting of Chriſte. 25 The buylding againe of Hieruſalem vnder Nehemia. 26 The death of Chriſte.

A 1 IN the firſt yere of Darius the ſonne of (a) Ahaſuerus, whiche was of the ſeede of the Medes, & was made king ouer the (b) realme of the Chaldees,

2 Euen in the firſt yeere of his raigne, I Daniel vnderſtood by (c) books the number of the yeeres, whereof the Lorde ſpake vnto Ieremie the prophete, that he woulde accompliſhe ſeuentie yeeres in the deſolation of Hieruſalem.

3 And I turned my face vnto the Lord God, and ſought by prayer and ſupplication, with faſting, ſackcloth, and aſhes.

4 I prayed vnto the Lorde my God, & made my confeſſion, ſayeing, O Lorde God, great and feareful, whiche keepeth couenant and mercie with them that loue “ him, and keepe his commaundementes:

5 We haue ſinned, and haue committed iniquitie, & haue donne wickedly, yea we haue rebelled, & haue departed from thy preceptes, and from thy iudgementes.

6 We woulde not obey thy ſeruantes the prophetes, that ſpake in thy name to our kinges and princes, to our forefathers, and to al the people of the lande.

B 7 O Lorde, righteouſneſſe belongeth vnto thee, vnto vs open ſhame, as is come to paſſe this day vnto euery man of Iuda, & to them that dwel at Hieruſalem, yea vnto al Iſrael, whether they be farre or nye throughout al the landes whither thou haſt dryuen them, becauſe of their offences that they haue donne agaynſt thee.

8 Yea O Lorde, vnto vs, to our kinges and princes, to our forefathers that haue offended thee, belongeth open ſhame.

9 Unto the Lorde our God parteyneth compaſſion and forgeueneſſe, though we haue rebelled agaynſt him.

10 And we haue not obeyed the (d) voyce of the Lord our God, to walke in his lawes, which he layde before vs, by the hande of his ſeruantes the prophetes.

11 Yea al Iſrael haue tranſgreſſed and gonne backe from thy lawe, ſo that they haue not hearkened vnto thy voyce: wherefore the (e) curſe and oth that is written in the lawe of Moſes the ſeruant of God, agaynſt whom we haue offended, is poured vpon vs.

12 And he hath confirmed his woordes, which he ſpake againſt vs, and agaynſt our iudges that iudged vs, to bring vpon vs ſuche a great plague as neuer was vnder heauen, lyke as it is now comme to paſſe in Hieruſalem.

13 Yea, al this plague as it is written in the lawe of Moſes, is comme vpon vs: yet made we not our prayers before the Lord our God, that we might turne agayne from our wickednes, and vnderſtand thy trueth.

14 Therefore hath the Lorde watched vpon C the plague, and brought it vpon vs: for the Lord our God is righteous in al his woorks whiche he dooth: for we would not hearken vnto his voyce.

15 And nowe, O Lorde our God, thou that with a mightie hande haſt brought thy people out of the lande of Egypt to geat thee ſelf a name, whiche remaineth this day, we haue ſinned, we haue donne wickedly.

16 O Lorde, according to al thy (f) righteouſneſſe, I beſeche thee let thyne anger and thy wrath be turned away from thy citie of Hieruſalē, thy holy hil: for becauſe of our ſinnes, and for the wickedneſſe of our fathers, Hieruſalem and thy people are a reproche to al them that are about vs.

17 Now therefore, O our God, heare yͤ prayer of thy ſeruant, and his interceſſion: O let thy face (g) ſhine ouer thy ſanctuarie that lyeth waſte, for the (h) Lordes ſake.

18 O my God, encline thyne eare, & hearken, open thyne eyes, beholde howe we be deſolated,

(f) Meaning, againſt God.

(g) God would deſtroy him with a notable plague. 2. Mach. 9. b.

(h) Reade verſe.14.

(a) Otherwyſe called Aſtiages.

(b) For Cyrus led with ambition, went about warres in other countreys, & therfore Darius had the title, though Cyrus were king in effect.

(c) Though he were an excellent prophete, yet he dayly encreaſed in knowledge by reading the ſcriptures.

“ thee.

(d) He ſheweth that they rebel againſt God, whiche ſerue him not according to his commaundement and woorde.

(e) As Deut. 27. c. or the curſe confirmed by an oth.

(f) That is, according to al thy mercyful promiſes, and the perfourmaunce therof.

(g) Shew thy ſelfe fauourable.

(h) That is, for thy Chriſtes ſake, in whom thou wilt accept al our prayers.

ted, Yea, and the citie alſo whiche is called after thy name: for we doo not preſent our prayers before thee in our (i) owne righteouſneſſe, but in thy great mercies.

19 O Lorde heare, O forgeue Lorde, O Lord (k) conſyder and doo it, deferre not for thyne owne ſake, O my God, becauſe thy name is called vpon thy citie, and vpon thy people.

20 As I was yet a ſpeaking at my prayers, knowledgyng myne owne ſinnes, and the ſinnes of my people Iſrael, preſenting ſo myne interceſſion before the Lorde my God, for the holy hil of my God:

21 Yea, while I was yet ſpeaking in my prayer, the man Gabriel (whom I had ſeene afore in the viſion) came fleeing, & touched me, about the time of the euening oblation:

22 And he enfourmed me, & talked with me, and ſaide, O Daniel, I am nowe comme foorth to geue thee knowledge & vnderſtandyng.

23 At the beginnyng of thy ſupplications, the commaundement came foorth, and I am comme to ſhewe thee, for thou art greatly beloued: therefore vnderſtande the matter, and conſyder the viſion.

24 (l) Seuentie weekes are determined ouer thy people, and ouer thy holy citie, to finiſhe the wickedneſſe, and to ſeale vp the ſinnes, and to reconcile the iniquitie, and to bring in euerlaſtyng righteouſneſſe, to ſeale vp the viſion & propheſie, & to annoynt the moſt holy.

25 Knowe therfore, and vnderſtande that (m) from the goeyng foorth of the commaundement, to bryng agayne the [people,] and to builde Hieruſalem vnto Meſſiah the prince, there ſhalbe ſeuen (n) weekes, and three ſcore and two weekes, and the ſtreete ſhalbe built againe, and the wal [euen] in the (o) ſtraitnes of time.

26 After theſe (p) threeſcore and two weekes, ſhal Meſſiah be ſlayne, and (q) not for hym ſelfe: and the people of the (r) prince that ſhal comme, ſhal deſtroy the citie and the ſanctuarie, and the ende therof ſhalbe with a fludde, and vnto the ende of the batayle, it ſhalbe deſtroyed by deſolations.

27 He ſhal (s) confirme the couenant with many for one weeke, and in the middeſt of the weeke, he ſhal cauſe the ſacrifice and the oblation to (t) ceaſſe, and for the (u) ouerſpreading of the abominations, he ſhal make it deſolate, [euen] vntyl the conſummation determined, ſhalbe powred vpon the deſolate.

(i) Declaring that the godly flee only vnto gods mercies and renounce theyr owne workes when they ſeeke for remiſſion of their ſinnes.

(k) Thus he could not content him ſelfe with any vehemencie of wordes, when he was ſo led with a feruent zeale, conſydering gods promiſe made to the citie in reſpect of the churche, & for the aduancement of gods glory.

(l) He alludeth to Ieremies propheſie, wherby he declared there ſhould be ſeuentie yeeres of the Iewes captiuitie, for the execution of gods iudgemét: but nowe gods mercy ſhoulde ſeuen fold exceed his iudgement, in geuing them ſeuentie times ſeuen yeres of a happier ſtate though not altogeather voyde of affliction: which amounteth to foure hundred and ninetie yeeres, euen to the comming of chriſt, and ſo then it ſhould continue for euer.

(m) From the tyme that Cyrus gaue the leaue to departe.

(n) And theſe ſeuen weekes make fourtie & nine yeeres, whereof three are referred to the tyme of the layeing of the fundation of the temple, and.46.to the buylding of it, as Iohn.2.d.

(o) That is, in a troublous time.

(p) Counting from the ſixth yeere of Darius, who gaue the ſeconde commaundement for the building of the temple, are 62.weekes, whiche make 434.yeeres: whiche comprehende the time from the buyldyng of the temple to the baptiſme of Chriſt. In the laſt weeke of the ſeuentie ſhal Chriſte preache, ſhew miracles, and ſuffer.

(q) That is, not for any his owne deſertes or offences, as Eſai.53.b. (r) Meaning, Titus Vaſpaſians ſonne, who ſhoulde comme and deſtroy both the temple and the people, without al hope of recouerie. (s) By preachyng the Goſpel, he confirmed his promiſe: firſte to the Iewes, and after to the Gentiles. (t) That is, by Chriſtes ſacrifice vpon the croſſe, al ceremonies of the lawe were fulfylled, ful remiſſion of ſinnes purchaſed, ſo that there remayned no more oblation or offering for ſinnes, as Heb.x.c. (u) Meaning, that Hieruſalem and the ſanctuarie ſhould vtterly be deſtroyed for theyr rebellion againſt God. Or, ſome read, that the plagues ſhalbe ſo great, that they ſhal al be aſtonied at them.

The.x.Chapter.

1 There appeareth vnto Daniel, a man clothed in lynnen. 11 Which ſheweth hym wherefore he was ſent.

A 1 IN the (a) thyrde yeere of Cyrus kyng of Perſia, there was ſhewed vnto Daniel, otherwyſe called Baltaſſar, a matter, yea, a true matter, but it is yet a longe tyme vnto it: he vnderſtoode the matter, and perceiued what the viſion was.

2 At the ſame tyme, I Daniel mourned for the ſpace of three weekes of dayes.

3 I ate no pleaſant bread, as for fleaſhe and wyne, there came none within my mouth: no, I dyd not once annoynt mee ſelfe, tyl the whole three weekes of dayes were fulfilled.

4 Upon the foure and twentieth day of the firſte moneth, I was by the ſide of that great riuer, [euen] Hiddekel.

5 I lift vp myne eyes, and looked: and behold a man clothed in linnen, whoſe loynes were gyrded vp with fyne golde of Uphaz.

6 His body was like the Thurkis ſtone, his face to looke vpon was lightenyng, his eyes as lampes of fyre, his armes and feete were like in colour to pulliſhed braſſe, and the voice of his woordes, was like the voyce of a multitude. B

7 And I Daniel alone, ſawe this viſion, for the menne that were with me, ſawe not the viſion: but a great fearefulnes fel vpon them, ſo that they fled away, and hyd them ſelues.

8 Therefore I was leaft alone, and ſawe this great viſion, and there remayned no ſtrength in me: for my colour was turned in me, into corruption, and I reteyned no ſtrength.

9 Yet hearde I the voyce of his woordes: and when I hearde the voyce of his woordes, I fel aſtonied vpon my face, & my face toward the earth.

10 And beholde, a hande touched me, whiche ſet me vp vpon my knees, and vpon the paulmes of my handes.

11 And he ſayde vnto me, O Daniel, thou welbeloued manne, take good heede to the woordes that I ſaye vnto thee, and ſtande in thy place: for vnto thee am I nowe ſent. And when he had ſayde theſe woordes vnto me, I ſtoode vp trembling.

12 Then ſaid he vnto me, Feare not Daniel, for ſince the fyrſte day that thou diddeſt ſet thine hart to vnderſtand, and to chaſten thee ſelfe before thy God, thy woordes were heard, and I am comme for thy woordes.

(a) He noteth this thirde yeere, becauſe at this tyme the buylding of the temple beganne to be hindered by Cambiſes, Cyrus ſonne, when the father made warre in Aſia minor, againſt the Scithians, whiche was a diſcoraging to the godly, and a great feare to Daniel.

13 But the (b) prince of the kyngdome of Perſia, withſtoode me one and twentie dayes: but loe, Michael one of the chiefe princes came to healpe me, and I remayned there by the kinges of Perſia.

14 And I am comme to ſhewe thee what ſhal comme vnto thy people in the latter dayes: for it wil be long yet or the viſion be fulfilled.

15 Nowe when he had ſpoken theſe woordes vnto me, I caſt downe my head to yͤ ground, and helde my tongue.

16 And beholde, there touched my lippes one very lyke vnto a manne: then opened I my mouth, and ſpake, and ſayde vnto hym that ſtoode before me, O my Lorde, by the viſion my ioyntes are turned out of [their] place, and I haue reteyned no ſtrength.

17 For howe can the ſeruant of this my Lord, talke with my Lorde [beyng] ſuche a one? And as for me, ſtraight way there remained no ſtrength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came againe and touched me, one lyke the appearance of a manne, and he ſtrengthened me:

19 And ſaid, O man, greatly beloued, feare not, peace be vnto thee, be ſtrong, and of good courage. So when he had ſpoken vnto me, I was ſtrengthened, and ſaide, Speake on my Lorde, for thou haſt ſtrengthened me.

20 Thus ſayde he, Knoweſt thou wherefore I am come vnto thee? Nowe wyl I returne to fyght with the prince of the Perſes: As ſoone as I goe foorth, loe, the (c) prince of Greke lande ſhal comme.

21 Neuertheleſſe, I wyl ſhewe thee that, that is noted in the ſcripture of trueth: and there is none that healpeth me in theſe thynges, but (d) Michael your prince.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 A propheſie of the kynges of Perſia. 3 Of the kyngdome of Grece. 5 Of the kingdome of Egypt, and of the bonde thereof. 15 Of the batayle with the kyngdome of Syria.

1 AND in the firſt yere of Darius of Media (a) I ſtoode to comfort hym, and to ſtrength hym.

2 And now wyl I ſhewe thee the trueth: Beholde, there ſhal ſtande vp yet (b) three kynges in Perſia, but the fourth ſhalbe farre rycher then they al: & by his ſtrength, and by his rycheſſe, he ſhal ſtirre vp (c) al agaynſt the realme of Greke lande.

3 Then ſhal there aryſe yet a (d) mighty king, that ſhal rule with great dominion, and doo what hym lyſt.

4 And when he ſhal ſtand vp, his kingdome ſhalbe (e) broken, and ſhalbe diuided toward the foure wyndes of the heauen, and not towarde his poſteritie, nor accordyng to his dominion whiche he ruled: for his kyngdome ſhalbe pluckt vp, euẽ for others beſides theſe.

5 And the (f) king of the South ſhalbe mighty, and (g) [one] of his princes, and he ſhal preuayle agaynſt hym, and beare rule: his dominion ſhalbe a great dominion.

6 And in the ende of yeeres, they ſhalbe ioyned togeather, and the kynges (h) daughter of the South, ſhal come to the king of the North, for to make an agreement, but he ſhal not reteyne the power of the (i) arme, neyther ſhal he continue, nor his arme: but he ſhalbe delyuered [to death,] and they that brought her, and he that begate her, and he that comforted her in theſe tymes.

7 But out of the bud of her (k) rootes, ſhal one ſtand vp in his ſteede, whiche ſhal (l) comme with an armie, and ſhal enter into the fortreſſe of the kyng of the North, and doo with them [as he lyſt,] and ſhal preuayle,

8 And ſhal alſo carrie captiues into Egypte, their gods, with their moulten images, with their precious veſſels of ſiluer and of golde, & he ſhal continue more yeeres then the king of the North.

9 So the kyng of the South ſhal comme into his kyngdome, and ſhal returne into his owne lande.

10 Wherefore his ſonnes ſhalbe ſtirred (m) vp, and ſhal geather togeather a myghty greate hoſt of people, & (n) one ſhal comme and ouerflowe and paſſe through: then ſhal he turne agayne, and be (o) ſtirred vp at his fortreſſe.

11 Then the king of the South ſhalbe angry, and ſhal comme foorth to fyght with him, [euen] with the king of the North, for he ſhal ſet foorth a great multitude, and the multitude ſhalbe geuen into his hande.

12 Then the multitude ſhalbe proude, & their hartes ſhalbe lifted vp, for he ſhal caſt downe thouſandes, but he ſhal not ſtyl preuayle.

13 For the (p) kyng of the North ſhal returne, and ſhal ſet foorth a greater multitude then afore, and ſhal comme foorth (after certeyne yeeres, with a mighty armie, & great richeſſe.

(b) Meaning, Cambiſes, who raigned in his fathers abſence, dyd not onlye hinder thus long the buyldyng of the temple, but woulde haue further raged, if God had not ſent me to reſiſt him: and therfore haue I ſtayed for the profite of the Churche.

(c) Meaning, that he would not only bridle the rage of Cambiſes, but alſo the other kynges of Perſia, by Alexander the kyng of Macedonia.

(d) For this angel was appoynted for the defence of the Church, vnder chriſte, who is the head thereof,

(a) The angel aſſureth Daniel, that God hath geuen him power to perfourme theſe thinges, ſeeyng he appoynted hym to aſſiſt Darius, when he ouercame the Chaldeans.

(b) Whereof Cyrus was the firſt, the ſecond Cambiſes, the third, Darius Hiſtaſpis, the fourth, Xerxes.

(c) For he raiſed vp al the eaſt countreys, to fight agaynſt the Grecians: and albeit he had in his armie nine hundred thouſand men, yet in foure batailes he was diſcomfited, and fleode away with ſhame.

(d) That is, Alexander the great.

(e) Reade chap.viii.b.

(f) To wit. Ptolomeus kyng of Egypt.

(g) That is, Antiochus the ſonne of Seleucus, & one of Alexanders princes, ſhalbe more mighty, for he ſhal haue both Aſia & Syria.

(h) That is. Berenice, the daughter of Ptolomeus, Philadelphus ſhalbe geuen in marriage to Antiochus Theos, thinkyng by this affinitie, that Syria and Egypt ſhould haue a continual peace togeather.

(i) That force and ſtrength ſhal not continue: for ſoone after, Berenice & her young ſonne, after her huſbandes death, was ſlayne of her ſtepſonne Seleucus Calinicus the ſonne of Laodice, the lawful wyfe of Antiochus, but put away for this womans ſake.

(k) Meaning that Ptolomeus Euergetes after the death of his father Philadelphus, ſhoulde ſucceede in the kyngdome, beyng of the ſame ſtocke that Berenice was.

(m) Meaning, Seleucus, and Antiochus the great, the ſonnes of Calinicus, ſhal make warre againſt Ptolomeus Philopator yͤ ſonne of Philadelphus.

(n) Here he changeth the number, for one of them periſhed by the way, and Antiochus magnus mainteyned the warre alone.

(o) Philopator miſtruſting good ſucceſſe for his wicked paricide, durſt not meete Antiochus in Syria: but when he hymſelfe was in danger alſo for Egypt his owne countrey, he was ſtirred vp to reſiſt, and put Antiochus to the foyle at that tyme.

(p) Meaning, Antiochus the great, kyng of the North, or Syria.

14 And at the ſame tyme there ſhal (q) manye ſtande vp agaynſt the kyng of the South, ſo that the (r) ſeditious chyldren of thy people alſo ſhal exalt them ſelues to eſtabliſhe the viſion, but they ſhal fal.

15 So the king of the North ſhal comme and caſt vp a mount, and take the ſtrong cities: and the (ſ) armes of the South ſhal not reſiſt, neither his choſen people, neither ſhal there be any ſtrength to withſtande.

16 And when he commeth, he ſhal handle him as he liſt, and no manne ſhal ſtande againſt him: he ſhal ſtande in the pleaſant (t) lande, whiche by his hande ſhalbe conſumed.

17 Agayne, he ſhal ſet his face to enter with the power of his whole kyngdome, and his confederates with him, thus ſhal he doo: and he ſhal geue hym the (u) daughter of women to deſtroy her: but ſhe ſhal not ſtande [on his ſide,] neyther before hym.

18 After this, ſhal he turne his face vnto the (x) Iles, and ſhal take many: but a (y) prince ſhal cauſe his ſhame to lyght vpon hym, beſyde that, he ſhal cauſe his owne ſhame to turne vpon hym ſelfe:

19 For he ſhal turne his face toward the fortes of his owne lande, but he ſhalbe (z) ouerthrowen, and fal, and be no more founde.

20 Then ſhal (aa) ſtande vp in his place a rayſer of taxes [in] the glorye of the kyngdome, and after a few daies he ſhalbe deſtroyed, neither in wrath nor in batayle.

21 In his ſteede there ſhal ſtande vp a (bb) vyle perſon, to whom they ſhal not geue the honor of the kyngdome: but he ſhal come in peaceably, and obteyne the kyngdome with flatteries.

22 And the (cc) armes ſhalbe ouerflowed with a fludde before hym, and ſhalbe broken, and alſo the prince of the couenant.

23 And after the (dd) league made with hym, he ſhal worke deceitfully: for he ſhal comme vp and ouercome with a (ee) ſmal people.

24 He ſhal enter into the quiet and plentiful prouince, and he ſhal doo that whiche (ff) his fathers haue not donne, nor his fathers fathers: he ſhal diuide among them the praye, and the ſpoyle, and the ſubſtance, yea, and he ſhal forecaſte his deuices agaynſt the ſtronge holdes [euen] for a tyme.

25 Alſo his power and harte ſhal he ſtirre vp with a great armie agaynſt the kyng of the South, the king of the South ſhalbe moued vnto batayle with a great & a mighty hoſt alſo: neuertheleſſe, he (gg) ſhal not ſtande, for they ſhal forecaſt deuices agaynſt hym.

26 Yea, (hh) they that feede of the portion of his meate, ſhal deſtroye hym, and his armie ſhal (ii) ouerflowe, and many ſhal fal, & be ſlaine.

27 Theſe two kynges hartes ſhalbe to doo (kk) miſchiefe, and they ſhal talke of deceite at one table, but it ſhal not proſper, for yet the ende ſhalbe at the tyme appoynted.

28 Then ſhal he goe home agayne into his land with (ll) great ſubſtance, and ſet his hart againſt the holy couenant, ſo ſhal he doo, and returne to his owne lande.

29 At the tyme appoynted he ſhal comme agayne, and goe towarde the South: but the laſt ſhal not be as the fyrſt.

30 For the ſhips of (mm) Chithim ſhal comme agaynſt hym, therefore he ſhalbe ſory, and returne and fret agaynſt the holy couenant: ſo ſhal he doo, he ſhal [euen] returne and haue intelligence with them (nn) that forſake the holy couenant.

31 And (oo) armes ſhal ſtande on his parte, and they ſhal pollute the ſanctuary of (pp) ſtrength, and ſhal take awaye the dayly [ſacrifice] and they ſhal ſet vp the abominable deſolation.

32 And ſuch as wickedly breake the couenant, ſhal he cauſe to ſinne by flatterie, but the people that knowe theyr God, ſhal preuayle and proſper.

33 Thoſe alſo that haue (qq) vnderſtandyng among the people, ſhal enfourme the multitude, and for a long ſeaſon they ſhal (rr) falle with ſwoord, with fyre, with captiuitie, and with the takyng away of theyr goodes.

34 Nowe when they ſhal fal, they ſhalbe holpen with a (ſſ) litle healpe, but manye ſhal cleaue vnto them faignedly.

35 Yea, ſomme of thoſe that haue vnderſtandyng ſhal fal, that they may be tryed, purified, and made whyte tyl the tyme be out: for there is a tyme appoynted.

36 And a (tt) kyng ſhal doo what hym liſt, he ſhal exalte and magnifie him ſelfe againſt al that is God, yea he ſhal ſpeake marueylous thynges agaynſt the God of Gods, & he ſhal proſper (uu) tyl the wrath be fulfylled: for the determination is made.

37 He ſhal not regarde the God of his (xx) fathers, nor the deſyres of women, yea he ſhal not

(q) Not onlye Antiochus, but alſo Philip kyng of Macedonia.

(r) For vnder Onias, which falſly alleaged that place of Eſa.xix.c. certayne of the Iewes accõpanied hym into Egypt to fulfyl his prophecie. Alſo the angel ſheweth that al theſe troubles whiche are in the Churche, are by ẏ prouidence of God.

(ſ) That is, the Egyptians with their captaine Scopas, were not able to withſtande Antiochus.

(t) He ſheweth that he ſhal not onely afflict the Egyptians, but alſo ẏ Iewes, and ſhal enter into theyr countrey, wherof he admoniſheth thẽ before, that they maye knowe that al theſe thynges come by gods prouidence.

(u) Antiochus married his daughter Cleopatra to Ptolomeus Epiphanes, therby the rather to ouercome him: but ſhe fauoured her huſbande, and obeied not the ſubtil practiſes of her father.

(x) The Iewes manner was to cal al countreys iles, that were diuided from them by the ſea: yet Antiochus inuaded ſomme that were iles in deede, as Euboea, Phocea, Samos, Cyprus, &c. and at length conducted his armie into Grecia.

(y) whereas Antiochus contemned the Romans, and put theyr ambaſſadours to ſhame in al places, Attilius the conſul, & Scipio put hym to flight, and cauſed his ſhame to turn vpon his owne head.

(gg) Philometor ſhalbe ouercome by treaſon.

(hh) Signifiyng his princes, and chiefs about hym.

(ii) Antiochus ſhal vanquiſhe the Egyptians.

(kk) The vncle and nephewe ſhal take truce and banket together, yet in theyr hartes they ſhal imagine miſchiefe one agaynſt another.

(ll) whiche he ſhal take of the Iewes in ſpoylyng Hieruſalem and the temple, & this is tolde them before to moue them to patience, knowing al thinges are donne by Gods prouidence.

(mm) That is, the Romane power ſhal comme agaynſt hym: for Publius Popilius ambaſſadour, appoynted hym to departe in the Romanes name, to whiche thyng he obeied, though with greefe, & to reuenge his rage, he came agaynſt the people of God the ſeconde tyme.

(nn) with the Iewes that ſhal forſake the couenant of the Lorde: firſt he was called agaynſt the Iewes by Iaſon the hye prieſt, and this ſeconde tyme, by Menalaus

(oo) That is, a great faction of the wicked Iewes ſhal holde with Antiochus.

(pp) So called, becauſe the power of God was nothyng diminiſhed, though this tyrant ſet vp in the temple the image of Iupiter Olimpius, and ſo began to corrupt the pure ſeruice of God. 1.Mach.6.a.

(z) when as vnder the pretence of pouertie, he would haue robbed the temple of Iupiter Dodoneus, ẏ countrymen ſlew him. (aa) That is, Seleucus ſhal ſucceede his father Antiochus, who ſhoulde ſhortly be deſtroyed by poyſon. (bb) Namely Antiochus, Epiphanes, who was thought to be the occaſion of Seleucus his brothers death, and was of a vyle, cruel, and flattering nature, and defrauded his brothers ſonne of the kyngdome, and vſurped the kyngdome with one conſent of people. (cc) Antiochus ſhal not only vanquiſhe al the aydes that Seleucus ſhal procure agaynſt hym: but alſo Ptolomeus Philometor, whom he calleth here the prince of the couenant. (dd) For after that batayle, Philometor and his vncle Antiochus made a league. (ee) For Antiochus came vpon Pholometor vnawares, when he ſuſpected nothyng. (ff) Meaning, in Egypt.

(qq) They that remayne conſtant among the people, ſhal teache others by their exaumple, & edifie many in the true religion. (rr) wherby he exhorteth the godly to al conſtancie, although they ſhould periſh a thouſand tymes, and though their miſerie endure neuer ſo long. (ſſ) As God wyl not leaue his Church deſtitute, ſo he wyl not deliuer it al at once: but ſo healpe, as they may ſtyl ſeeme to fyght vnder the croſſe, as he dyd in the tyme of the Machabees, whereof he propheſieth. (tt) Becauſe the angels purpoſe is to ſhewe the whole courſe of the perſecution of the Iewes, vnto the commyng of Chriſt, he nowe ſpeaketh of the monarchie of the Romanes, whiche he noteth by the name of a kyng, who were without al religion, and contemned the true God. (uu) So longe the tyrantes ſhal preuayle, as God hath appoynted to puniſhe his people: but he ſheweth that it is but for a tyme. (xx) The Romanes ſhal obſerue no certayne fourme of religion as other nations, but ſhal change theyr gods at theyr pleaſures, yea, contemne them, and preferre them ſelues aboue theyr goddes.

not care for any God: for he ſhal magnifie hym ſelfe aboue al.

38 But in his place ſhal he honour the God (y) Mauzzim, and the god whom his fathers knewe not, ſhal he honour with (3) golde and ſyluer, with precious ſtones, and pleaſant thynges.

39 Thus ſhal he doo in the holdes of Mauzzim, with a ſtrange god whom he ſhal acknowledge, he ſhal encreaſe his glorye, and ſhal cauſe them to rule ouer many, and ſhal diuide the lande for gayne.

40 And at the ende of tyme ſhal the kyng of the (aa) South puſhe at hym, and the kyng of the North ſhal comme agaynſt hym lyke a whirle wynde, with charrettes, horſemenne, and with many ſhyppes: he ſhal enter into the countreyes, and ſhal ouerflowe and paſſe through.

41 He ſhal enter alſo into the pleaſant lande, & manye countreyes ſhalbe ouerthrowen: but theſe ſhal eſcape out of his hande, [euen] Edom and Moab, and the chiefe of the chyldren of Ammon.

42 He ſhal ſtretche foorth his hand alſo vpon the countreyes, and the lande of Egypt ſhal not eſcape.

43 But he ſhal haue power ouer the treaſures of gold and of ſyluer, and ouer al the precious thynges of Egypt, and of the Lybians and Ethiopians in his paſſing [by them.]

44 Neuertheleſſe, the tidinges out of the Eaſt (bb) and the North ſhal trouble hym, therfore he ſhal (cc) goe foorth with great wrath, to deſtroy and roote out many.

45 And he ſhal plant the tabernacles of his palace betweene the ſeas, in the glorious and holy mountayne: yet he ſhal comme to his ende, and none ſhal healpe hym.

(y) That is, the God of power & richeſſe: they ſhal eſteeme their owne power aboue al theyr goddes, and worſhyp it.

(3) Under pretence of worſhipping the goddes, they ſhal enriche their citie with the moſt precious iewels of al the worlde, becauſe that here by al men ſhal haue them in admiration for theyr power & riches.

(aa) That is, both the Egyptians and the Syrians ſhal at length fight agaynſt the Romanes but they ſhalbe ouercome.

(bb) When he ſhal heare that Craſſus is ſlayne, and Antonius diſcomfited.

(cc) For Auguſtus ouercame the Perthians, and recouered that which Antonius had loſt.

The.xii. Chapter.

2 He prophecieth the reſurrection of the dead. 9 The darkneſſe of the prophecie of Daniel.

A 1 AND at that tyme ſhal (a) Michael ſtande vp, the great prince whiche ſtandeth for the children of thy people: for there ſhalbe a tyme of trouble, ſuche as neuer was, ſince there beganne to be a nation, vnto that ſame tyme: and at that tyme, thy people ſhalbe deliuered euery one that ſhalbe founde written in the booke.

2 And many of them that ſleepe in the duſt of the earth, ſhal (b) awake, ſome to euerlaſting lyfe, and ſomme to ſhame and perpetual contempt.

3 They that be (c) wiſe, ſhal ſhine as ẏ brightneſſe of the firmament: and they that (d) turne many to righteouſnes, as the ſtarres for euer and euer.

4 But thou O Daniel, ſhut vp the woordes, and ſeale the booke tyl the tyme of the ende: many ſhal goe (e) about here and there, and knowledge ſhalbe encreaſed.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and beholde there ſtoode other two, the one on this ſide of the banke of the (f) ryuer, and the other on that ſide of the banke of the ryuer.

6 And [one] ſayde vnto the manne clothed in lynnen, whiche was ouer the waters of the riuer, when ſhal the ende of theſe woonders be?

7 And I hearde the manne clothed in linnen, whiche was ouer the waters of the ryuer, when he helde vp his right (g) hande, and his leaft hande vnto heauen, and ſware by him that liueth for euer, that [it ſhal tarry] for a (h) tyme, tymes, and a halfe: and when he ſhal haue accompliſhed to ſcatter the power of the holy people, al theſe thynges ſhalbe finiſhed.

8 Then I hearde it, but I vnderſtoode it not: Then ſayde I, O my Lord, what ſhalbe the ende of theſe thynges?

9 And he ſayde, Goe thy way Daniel, for the woordes are cloſed vp, and ſealed til the time of the ende.

10 Many ſhalbe purified, made whyte, and tryed: but the wicked ſhal doo wickedly, and none of ẏ wicked ſhal haue vnderſtandyng, but the wyſe ſhal vnderſtande.

11 And from the time that the (i) daily [ſacrifice] ſhalbe taken awaye, and the abominable deſolation ſet vp, there ſhalbe a (k) thouſande, two hundred, and ninetie dayes.

12 Bleſſed is he that waiteth and commeth to the thouſande, three hundred, and (l) fyue and thirtie dayes.

13 But goe thou thy way tyl the ende be, for thou ſhalt (m) reaſt, and ſtand vp in thy lot at the ende of the dayes.

(a) The angel here noteth two thinges, firſt that the Church ſhalbe in great affliction and trouble at Chriſtes commyng, and next that God wyl ſende his angel to declare it, whom here he calleth Michael.

(b) Meaning, al ſhal ryſe at the general reſurrection, which here he mentioneth, that the faithful may euer haue reſpect vnto it, for in earth ſhal thei finde no comfort.

(c) Or ſuche as teache & inſtruct others, or ſuche as haue kept the feare of God, & his religion.

(d) He chiefely meaneth the miniſters of Gods woord, and next, al the faythful whiche inſtruct the ignorant, & bryng them to the true knowledge of God.

(e) Not wandryng as vacaboundes, but to ſearche for knowledge of God.

(f) Whiche was Tygris, in Hebrue, Hiddekel, as Ezech.x.a.

(g) Whiche was a double othe, and did the more confirme the thyng.

(h) Whereby the angel declareth rather that whiche parteyneth to the comfort of the elect, that theſe afflictions ſhoulde once haue a certayne ende, then that the time thereof ſhould be certenly knowen as a thing not expedient for creatures to know. Act.i.a. Mat.24.e.

(i) From the tyme that Chriſt by his ſacrifice ſhal take away the ſacrifice and ceremonies of the lawe, and the deſtruction of the temple and citie, which is ment here by the abominable deſolation.

(k) Signifiyng that the tyme ſhalbe long, & yet the children of God ought not to be diſcouraged, though it be deferred.

(l) In this number he addeth a moneth and a halfe to the former number, ſignifiyng, that it is not in man to appoynt the tyme of Chriſtes comming, but that they are bleſſed that patiently abide his appearing.

(m) Signifiyng, that he ſhould depart this life, & riſe agayne with the elect, whẽ God hath ſufficiently humbled & purged his Churche.

The ende of the prophecie of Daniel.

T. C. L.

Thomas Bertham, Bishop of Coventry & Letchfield

The booke of the prophete Oſea.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The tyme wherein Oſea prophecied. 2 The idolatrie of the people. 10 The calling of the gentiles. 11 Chriſte is the head of al people.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto Oſea the ſonne of Beeri,* in the dayes of Ozea, Ioathan, Ahas, and Hezekias, kynges of Iuda, and in the tyme of Ieroboam the ſonne of Ioas kyng of Iſrael.

4.Reg.15. 16.and.17.

2 When the Lorde ſpake firſt vnto Oſea, he ſayde vnto him, *Goe, take vnto thee a wife of[a] fornications, & chyldren of fornications: for the lande hath committed great fornication [departyng] from the Lorde.

Leui.21.b. Exe.44.d.

[a] That is, one that of long time hath accuſtomed to play the harlot, not that the prophete dyd this in deede, but he ſawe this in a viſion: or els was commaunded by God, to ſet forth vnder this parable or figure, the idolatrie of the Iſraelites.

3 So he went and tooke Gomer the daughter of Deblaim: whiche conceiued and bare hym a ſonne.

4 And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym, Calle his name Iezrahel: for* I wyl ſhortly auenge the blood of* Iezrahel vpon the houſe of Iehu, and wyl bryng the kingdome of the houſe of Iſrael to an ende.

4.Reg.15.c 17.18.b.

5 And in that day wil I alſo breake the bowe of Iſrael, in the valley of Iezrahel.

3.Reg.21.b

6 And ſhe conceiued agayne, & bare a daughter: and [the Lorde] ſayde vnto hym, Calle her name Loruhamah [that is, not obteynyng mercie]* for I wyl no more haue pitie vpon the houſe of Iſrael, but I wyl vtterly take them away.

4.Re.19.b

B 7 *Yet I wyl haue mercy vpon the houſe of Iuda, and wyl ſaue them, euen thorowe the Lorde their God: and wyl not ſaue them by bowe, ſwoorde, battel, horſes, or horſemen.

Gen.49.e. 4.Re.19.g.

8 Now when ſhe had wayned Loruhamah, ſhe conceiued agayne, and bare a ſonne.

9 Then ſayde he, Calle his name Loammi [that is, not my people]: for ye are not my people, therefore I wyl not be your [God.]

10 Yet the number of the chyldren of Iſrael, ſhalbe as the ſande of the ſea, whiche can neyther be meaſured nor tolde: and in the place where it was ſayde vnto them,* Ye are not my people: it ſhal be ſayd vnto them,* Ye are the chyldren of the lyuyng God.

Rom.9.e Iohn.1.a

11 Then ſhal the chyldren of Iuda, and the children of Iſrael be geathered togeather, and appoynt them ſelues one head, and they ſhal comme vp out of the lande: for great ſhalbe the day of Iezrahel.

Ezec.37.c.

The.ii, Chapter.

1 The people is called to repentance. 5 He ſheweth their idolatrie, and threatneth them, except they repent.

A 1 TEl your brethren that they are my people, and your ſiſterne, that they haue obteyned mercy.

2 As for your mother ye ſhal chide with her, and reproue her, for ſhe is not my wyfe, neither am I her huſbande: let her therfore put away her whooredome frõ her face, and her adulterie from her breaſtes:

Iere.8.a

3 Leſt I ſtrip her naked, and ſet her* euen as ſhe came into the worlde, and make her as a wilderneſſe, and as a drye lande, and ſlay her for thirſte.

Ezec.16,a.

4 And I wyl haue no pitie vpon her chyldrẽ: *for they be the chyldren of fornication.

Iohn.8.d

5 Their mother hath played the harlot, and ſhe that bare them* is comme to confuſion: for ſhe ſayde, I wyl goe after my louers that geue me my bread and my water, my wool and flaxe, my oyle and my drinke.

4.Re.16.a.

6 Therfore behold, I wyl ſtop thy way with thornes, and make a hedge, that ſhe ſhal not finde her pathes.

B 7 And though ſhe runne after her louers, yet ſhal ſhe not ouertake them: ſhe ſhal ſeeke thẽ, but not find them.* Then ſhal ſhe ſay, I wil goe, and returne to my firſt huſbande: for at that tyme it was better with me then nowe.

Leuit.15.c

8 And ſhe dyd not knowe that I gaue her corne, and wine, and oyle, and multiplied her ſyluer and golde, whiche they beſtowed on Baal.

Ezec.16.c.

9 Therefore I wyl returne, and take away my corne in the tyme thereof, and my wine in the ſeaſon therof, and fet agayne my wool and my flaxe [whiche I gaue her] to couer her ſhame.

10 *And now wil I diſcouer her ſhame [euen] in the ſight of her louers, and no man ſhal deliuer her out of my handes.

Iere.13.a

11 Moreouer I wyl take away al her myrth,

Deut.16.c *her holy dayes, her newe moones, her Sabbothes, and al her ſolemne feaſtes.

12 I wil deſtroy her vineyardes and figtrees, whereof ſhe ſayde, Theſe are my rewardes that my louers haue geuen me, I wyl make them as a wood, and wylde beaſtes ſhal eate them vp.

Iudic.ij.b. and,x.b. 13 I wyl viſite vpon her the dayes of Baal, wherein ſhe burned incenſe to hym, and decked her ſelfe with earerynges and iewels, ſhe folowed her louers, and forgate me, ſayth the Lorde.

C 14 Wherefore beholde, I wyl allure her, and bryng her into the wilderneſſe, and ſpeake frendly vnto her.

15 Frõ thence wyl I geue her her vineyardes agayne, yea and the *valley of Achor for an entrie of hope: and ſhe ſhal ſyng there *as in the dayes of her youth, and *as in the day when ſhe came vp out of the land of Egypt. Ioſu.vij.d Iudic.v.a Ezec.xv,a 16 And at that day (ſaith the Lord) thou ſhalt calle me, O my huſbande, and ſhalt calle me no more Baal.

17 For I wyl take awaye thoſe names of Baal from her mouth, yea ſhe ſhal neuer remember their names any more.

18 Then wyl I make a couenant for them, with the beaſtes of the fielde, with the foules of the ayre, & with euery thyng that creepeth vpon the earth: *As for bowe, ſwoorde, and batayle, I wyl deſtroy out of the lande, and wyl make them to ſleepe ſafely. Leuit.26.a Eſai.ij.a

19 And I wyl marrie thee vnto myne owne ſelfe for euer, yea euen to my ſelfe wil I marrie thee in ryghteouſneſſe, in iudgement, in louyng kindneſſe, and mercie. Ezec.16.b.

20 In faythfulneſſe alſo wyl I marrie thee vnto my ſelfe, and thou ſhalt knowe the Lorde.

21 At the ſame tyme wyl I ſhewe my ſelfe gratious vnto the heauens, ſayth the Lorde, and the heauens ſhal helpe the earth: D.

22 And the earth ſhal helpe the corne, wine, and oyle: and they ſhal helpe Iezrahel.

23 And I wyl ſowe her for my ſelfe in the earth, and wil haue mercy vpon her that had not obteyned mercy: And to them whiche were not my people, I wyl ſay, Thou art my people: and they ſhal ſay, Thou art my GOD. i.Pet.ij.b Rom.ix.e.

The.iij.Chapter,

1 The Iewes ſhalbe caſt of for their idolatrie. 5 Afterwarde they ſhal returne to the Lorde.

A 1 Then ſayd the Lord to me, *Goe yet and loue a woman beloued of her huſbande, & yet an adultreſſe, accordyng to the loue of the Lord toward the children of Iſrael: and yet they haue reſpect to ſtrange goddes, *and loue the wine pottes. Ezec.42.d Eſai.28.a Amos.vi.a

2 So I gate her for fifteene ſiluerlynges, and for an homer and an halfe of barley,

3 And ſayde vnto her, Thou ſhalt byde with me a long ſeaſon, thou ſhalt not play the harlot, thou ſhalt be to none other man, and I wyl be ſo vnto thee.

4 *For the chyldren of Iſrael ſhal ſit a great whyle without kyng, without prince, without ſacrifice, without image, without Ephod, and without Theraphim. 2.Par.xv.a

5 But afterwarde the chyldren of Iſrael ſhalbe conuerted, and ſeeke the Lorde their God, and *Dauid their kyng, & in the latter dayes they ſhal woorſhyp the Lord, and his louing kyndneſſe. Ezec.34.d

The.iiii.Chapter.

A complaynt agaynſt the people, and the prieſtes of Iſrael.

A 1 Heare the woorde of the Lord, O ye chyldren of Iſrael, for the Lorde hath a cõtrouerſie with the inhabitantes of the lande: for there is no trueth, there is no mercy, ther is no knowledge of God in the lande.

2 But ſwearing, lyeing, manſlaughter, theft, and adulterie, hath gotten the ouer hand, and one bloodgiltineſſe foloweth another.

3 Therfore ſhal the lande mourne, and al they that dwel therin ſhalbe rooted out, yͤ beaſtes of the feelde, the foules of the ayre, and the fiſhes in the ſea, ſhalbe conſumed.

4 Yet let no man rebuke or reproue another, *for thy people [are] as they that are ‶ at controuerſie with the prieſt. Mala.i.b ‶ or, contend.

5 Therefore ſhalt thou falle in the day tyme, and the prophete with thee in the nyght, and I wyl bryng thy mother to deſtruction.

6 My people periſhe for lacke of knowledge: becauſe thou haſt refuſed knowledge, therefore wyl I refuſe thee alſo, ſo that thou ſhalt no more be my prieſt: and forſomuch as thou haſt forgotten the lawe of thy GOD, I wyl alſo forget thy chyldren. Baruc.3.d. Eſai.v.b

7 The more they increaſed in multitude, the B more they ſinned agaynſt me, [therefore] wyl I change their honour into ſhame.

Leuit.vi.d Ezec.13.d. 8 *Thei eate vp the [a] ſinnes of my people, and encourage them in their wickedneſſe.

9 Thus the prieſt is become lyke the people: wherefore, I wyl pounyſhe them for their wicked wayes, and rewarde them according to their owne imaginations.

Ezec,14.a. Leui.26,b. Mich,vi,c Agge.i,a 10 * They ſhal eate, & not haue yenough, they haue vſed whooredome, but ſhal not proſper, they haue forſaken the Lorde, and not regarded hym.

11 Whooredome, wine, and newe wine, take the hart away.

4,Reg.i,a. 12 *My people aſke counſel at their ſtockes, and their ſtaffe teacheth them: for the ſpirite of fornicatiō hath cauſed [them] to goe aſtray, & they haue committed fornication agaynſt their God.

4,Re.17,b 13 They make ſacrifices vpon the toppes of the mountaynes, & burne their incenſe vpon the hylles, yea vnder the okes, poplars, and elmes, for there are good ſhadowes: therefore your daughters are become harlots, and your ſpouſes haue broken their wedlocke.

14 C I wil not pouniſh your daughters for being defiled, & your ſpouſes that became whoores: *ſeeyng the fathers them ſelues haue medled Num,25.d with harlots, & ſacrificed with whoores: but the people that wil not vnderſtande, muſt be pouniſhed.

15 Though thou Iſrael play the harlot, yet let not Iuda ſinne, comme not ye vnto Gilgal, * neyther goe ye to Bethauen, neyther 3.Reg.12.d Deut.10.d ſweare ye, The Lorde lyueth.

16 For Iſrael is rebellious lyke an vnruly heyffer: nowe the Lorde wyl feede them as a lambe in a large place.

17 Ephraim [is become] partaker of idolles, let hym alone.

18 Their drunkenneſſe ſtynketh, they haue committed whooredome: their rulers loue [to ſay] with ſhame, Bryng ye.

19 The winde hath bounde them vp in her wynges, and they ſhalbe aſhamed of their ſacrifices.

The.v.Chapter.

1 Agaynſt the prieſt and rulers of Iſrael. 13 The helpe of man is in vayne.

A 1 O ye prieſtes heare this, take heede, O thou houſhold of Iſrael, geue eare, O thou houſe of the kyng, for iudgement [is] agaynſt you, becauſe you are become as a ſnare on Mizphah, and a ſpreade net vpon the mount of Thabor.

2 They kyl ſacrifices by heapes, & turne farre from the Lorde, and I haue benne a rebuker of them al.

Ezech.8.d Iere.23.d 3 *I knowe Ephraim wel yenough, and Iſrael is not hid fro me: for nowe, O Ephraim, thou art become an harlot, and Iſrael is defiled.

4 They wyl not geue their myndes to turne vnto their God: for the ſpirite of fornication [is] in the middeſt of them, and they haue not knowen the Lorde.

Oſea.vij,b 5 *And the pride of Iſrael dooth teſtifie to his face: therfore both Iſrael and Ephraim ſhal falle for their wickedneſſe, and Iuda with them alſo.

Iere,iij.b Deut.4,c. Ezech.13.a 6 * They ſhal comme with their ſheepe and bullockes *to ſeeke the Lorde, but they ſhal not fynde hym: for he is gonne from them.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 Affliction cauſeth a man to turne to God. 9 The wickedneſſe of the prieſtes.

A 1 Comme, let vs turne agayne to the Lorde: * for he hath ſmytten vs, and he ſhal heale vs, he hath wounded vs, and he ſhal binde vs vp agayne. Iob.v.b.

2 After two dayes ſhal he quicken vs, in the thirde day he ſhal rayſe vs vp, ſo that we ſhal lyue in his ſyght.

3 Then ſhal we haue vnderſtanding, and endeuour our ſelues to know the Lorde: he ſhal goe foorth as the ſpring of the day, & comme vnto vs * as the rayne, and as the latter rayne vnto the earth. Prou,16,a 4 O Ephraim, what ſhal I doo vnto thee? O Iuda, howe ſhal I intreate thee? for your goodneſſe is lyke a morning cloude, and lyke a deawe that goeth early away.

5 Therfore haue I cut downe the prophetes, and let them be ſlayne for my woordes ſake, ſo that thy pouniſhmēt ſhal comme to light.

6 For I deſyred mercy, and not ſacrifice: and the knowledge of God more then burnt offerynges. Mat.ix.b. and.xij.a. Iere.vij.c.

The.vii.Chapter.

1 Of the vices and wantonneſſe of the people. 12 Of their pouniſhment.

A 1 When I vndertoke to make Iſrael whole, then the vngratiouſnes of Ephraim, & the wickedneſſe of Samaria came to lyght, for they goe about with lyes, therfore the theefe robbeth within, and the ſpoyler deſtroyeth without.

2 They conſyder not in their hartes that I remember al their wyckedneſſe: Nowe their owne inuentions haue beſet them, whiche I ſee wel yenough.

Rom.j.d. 3 * They make the king glad with their wickedneſſe, and the princes with their lyes.

4 Al theſe burne in adulterie, as it were an ouen that the baker heateth when he hath leaft kneadyng, tyl the dowe be leauened.

5 [This is] the day of our kyng, the princes haue made hym ſicke with bottels of wyne, he hath ſtretched out his hande to ſcorners.

6 For whyles they lye in wayte, they haue made redy their hart lyke an ouen, their baker ſleepeth al nyght, in the mornyng it burneth as a flambe of fyre.

B 7 They are altogeather as hotte as an ouen, & haue deuoured their owne iudges, al their kynges are fallen, yet is there none of them that calleth vpon me.

8 Ephraim hath mixt him ſelfe among [heathen] people, Ephraim is become lyke a cake that no man turneth.

9 Strangers haue deuoured his ſtrength, and he regardeth it not: he wareth ful of gray heares, yet wyl he not knowe it.

10 And the pride of Iſrael teſtifieth to his face, yet wil they not turne to the Lord their God, nor ſeeke hym for al this. Oſea,v.a

11 Ephraim is lyke a doue that is beguyled, and hath no hart: * nowe calle they vpon the Egyptians, nowe goe they to the Aſſyrians. 4.Re.16,b 12 But whyle they be goeyng here and there, I ſhal ſpreade my net ouer them, and drawe them downe as the foules of the ayre: and accordyng as they haue benne warned, ſo wyl I pouniſhe them.

13 * Wo be vnto them, for they haue forſaken me, they muſt be deſtroyed, for they haue ſet me at nought: I am he that hath redeemed them, yet haue they ſpoken lyes agaynſt me. Eſai.j.a. ij.Pet,ij,a.

14 * They cal not vpon me with their hartes, but lye howlyng vpon their beddes: they wil aſſemble them ſelues for corne and wyne, but rebel agaynſt me. C Mat.xv.a Eſai.xx.c Ezec.33.f.

15 I haue bounde [vp] and ſtrengthened their arme: yet doo they image miſchiefe agaynſt me.

16 They turne them ſelues, but not to the moſt hygheſt, and are become as a broken bowe, their princes ſhalbe ſlayne with the ſwoorde for the malice of their tongues: this ſhalbe their deriſion in the lande of Egypt.

The.viii.Chapter.

The deſtruction of Iuda and Iſrael, becauſe of their idolatrie.

A 1 SET the trumpet to thy mouth, [ſwiftly] as an Egle [ſhal the enimie comme] agaynſt the houſe of the Lorde: for they haue broken my * couenant, and tranſgreſſed my lawe. Deut;3,d 2 Iſrael ſhoulde haue ſayde vnto me, Thou art my God, we knowe thee.

3 But he hath refuſed the thyng that is good, therefore ſhal the enimie purſue hym.

3,Reg.12.c 4 They haue ordeined kings, but not through me, they haue made princes, and I knewe it not, of their ſiluer and golde haue they made them idolles, therefore ſhal they be deſtroyed. Ezec.vi,d.

3,Reg.12.d 5 Thy calfe, O Samaria, hath caſt thee of, for my wrathful indignation is gonne foorth agaynſt them: howe long wyl they be without innocencie?

6 For [the calfe] came from Iſrael, the workman made it, therefore can it be no God: but euen in peeces ſhal the calfe of Samaria be broken.

B 7 They haue ſowen wynde, therefore ſhal they reape a whirle wynde: it hath no ſtalke, the bud ſhal bryng foorth no meale: and if haply it doo, ſtrangers ſhal deuoure it vp.

8 Iſrael is deuoured, nowe ſhal they be among the gentiles as a veſſel of no reputation.

9 For they haue gonne vp to Aſſyria [and are as] a wild aſſe ſolitarie by hym ſelfe: Ephraim hath hired louers.

10 And though they haue hyred them amōg the Heathen, yet nowe wyl I geather them, and they ſhal beginne to be weery with the burthen of the kyng and the prince. 3,Reg.17.c Ezec.16.b

11 Ephraim hath made many aulters to doo wickedneſſe, his aulters [I ſay] he had to his ſinne.

12 I haue written to them the great thynges of my lawe, [but] they are counted as a ſtrāge thyng.

13 They ſacrifice fleaſhe for the ſacrifice of myne offeringes, and eate it, [but] the Lorde hath no pleaſure in it: nowe wyl he remember their iniquitie, and viſite their ſinnes, thei ſhal returne into Egypt. C

14 For Iſrael hath forgotten him that made hym, and hath builded fayre palaces, & Iuda hath encreaſed ſtrong cities: but I wyl ſende a fyre into their cities, & it ſhal conſume their palaces.

The.ix.Chapter,

Of the hunger and captiuitie of Iſrael.

A 1 DO not thou triumph, O Iſrael, make no boaſtyng ouer ioyous things as doo the Heathen: for thou haſt cōmitted adultrie agaynſt thy GOD, whoriſhe rewardes haſt thou loued more then al the corne floores.

2 The corne floore, and the wyne preſſe ſhal not feede them: and the newe wyne ſhal faile them.

Ezech.4.c 3 They ſhal not dwelle in the Lordes lande, but Ephraim ſhal turne againe into Egypt, and eate vncleane thynges among the Aſſyrians.

4 They powre out no wyne for a drynke offering vnto the Lord, neither ſhal their ſlaine offeringes be pleaſant vnto hym, they ſhalbe vnto them as the bread of mourners, al they that eate ſhalbe defyled: for their bread (a) for their ſoules ſhal not comme into the houſe of the Lorde.

5 What wyl ye doo then in the ſolemne day, and in the feaſt day of the Lorde?

6 For behold, they are gonne away for deſtruction, [but] Egypt ſhal geather them, and Memphis ſhal burie them: the nettles ſhal poſſeſſe the pleaſant [places] of their ſyluer, thornes ſhalbe in their tabernacles.

7 The dayes of viſitation are comme, the dayes of recompence are comme: and then ſhal Iſrael know that they were deceiued by a fooliſh, mad, and franticke prophete: for the multitude of thyne iniquitie [God] ſhal multiplie enimies agaynſt thee. B

8 The watchman of Ephraim [was] with my (b) God [but] the prophete [is] the ſnare of a fouler in al his wayes, and an abomination in the houſe of his God.

9 They haue gonne to the bottome, they are corrupt as in the dayes * of Gibea: [therfore] he wyl remember their iniquitie, and viſite their ſinnes. Iudic,19.a

10 I founde Iſrael lyke grapes in their wyldernesse, and ſawe their fathers as the fyrſt rype in the fygge tree at her firſte ſeaſon: but they went to Baal Peor, and ſeparated them ſelues to that ſhame, and became as abominable as their louers.

11 Ephraim theyr glorie ſhal flee away lyke a birde: for birth, for wombe, and conception.

12 And though they bryng vp chyldren, yet I

(a) The ſacrifice whiche they offered for their ſinnes.

(b) At the begynnyng the teachers inſtructed the people out of Gods worde onely: but afterwarde trayned them in idolatrie.

Gen,48.a, wyl deſtroy them before they be menne: yea wo ſhal comme to them when I depart from them.

13 Ephraim (as me thynke) is planted in a pleaſant place, lyke as is Tyrus: but nowe muſt ſhe bryng her owne chyldren foorth to the manſlayer.

C 14 O Lord, geue them: what ſhalt thou geue them? Geue them an vnfruitful wombe, and drye breaſtes.

Ioſu,iiij,d 15 Al their wickedneſſe is donne at * Gilgal, there doo I abhorre them: for the vngratiouſneſſe of their owne inuentions I wyl dryue them out of my houſe, I wyl loue them no more, for al their princes are vnfaythful.

16 Ephraim is hewen downe, theyr roote is dryed vp, ſo that they ſhal bryng no more fruite: yea and though they bring foorth any, yet wyl I ſlay euen the beſt beloued of theyr body.

17 My God ſhal caſt them away, for they haue not benne obedient vnto hym, therefore ſhal they wander among the Heathen.

The.x.Chapter,

1 Agaynſt Iſrael and his idolles. 14 His deſtruction for the ſame.

A 1 ISrael [is] an (a) emptie vine, [yet] hath it brought foorth fruite to it ſelfe, accordyng to the multitude of the fruite thereof he hath encreaſed alwayes: according to the goodnes of theyr lande they haue made them fayre images.

(a) As the vine ſpoyled of her grapes beareth newe the yeere folowyng, ſo the Iſraelites enioying reſt after afflictions, renewed their former wickedneſſe and idolatrie.

2 Their hart is diuided, [therefore] ſhal they nowe be deſtroyed, [the Lorde] ſhal breake downe theyr images, he ſhal deſtroy their aulters.

3 For nowe ſhal they ſay, We haue no kyng, becauſe we haue not feared the Lorde: and what ſhoulde then a kyng doo to vs?

4 They haue ſpoken woordes, ſwearing falſly in makyng a (b) couenant: thus (c) iudgement groweth as wormewood in the furrowes of the feelde.

(b) Promiſing to be faythful to God.
(c) They pretend ſinceritie, but theyr fruites ſhewed the contrarie, muche like as when wormewood groweth wher wheate was looked for.

5 They that dwelle in Samaria ſhal feare, becauſe of the calfe of Bethauen, for the people thereof ſhal mourne ouer it, yea and the prieſtes alſo reioyced on it for the glorie thereof, becauſe it is departed from it.

6 It ſhalbe brought to the Aſſyrian for a preſent to the king Iareb: Ephraim ſhal receiue ſhame, and Iſrael ſhalbe confounded for his owne imaginations.

B 7 Samaria with his kyng ſhal vaniſhe away, as the fome vpon the water.

8 The hygh places of Auen where Iſrael dooth ſinne ſhalbe deſtroied, thiſtles & thornes ſhal grow vpon their aulters: *then ſhal they ſay to the mountaynes, Couer vs, and to the hylles, Falle vpon vs.

Luk.23.c.
Apoc,vi,c

9 O Iſrael, thou haſt ſinned from the dayes (d) of Gabaa: there they ſtoode, the batayle in Gabaa agaynſt the chyldren of iniquitie dyd not touche them.

11 And Ephraim [is as] an heyffer vſed to delite (f) in treadyng out the corne: but I wyl paſſe by her fayre (g) necke, I wyl make Ephraim to (h) ryde: Iuda ſhal (i) plowe, [and] Iacob ſhal breake his cloddes.

(f) Deliting in pleaſure & profite, without payne.
(g) I wyl lay the yoke of affliction on his necke.
(h) To be caryed away into captiuitie
(i) The remnant of the people ſhal remayne, and tyl the grounde.

12 Sowe to your ſelues in ryghteouſneſſe, and reape the fruites of wel dooyng, plow vp your freſhe lande: for it is tyme to ſeeke the Lorde, tyl he comme and rayne righteouſnes vpon you.

13 For you haue plowed vngodlineſſe, ye haue reaped iniquitie, you haue eaten the fruite of lyes, becauſe thou putteſt thy confydence in thyne owne wayes, and leaneſt to the multitude of thy ſtrong menne.

14 There ſhal growe a ſedition among thy people, al thy ſtrong cities ſhalbe layde waſt, euen as Salma deſtroyed Beth Arbel in the day of batayle, where the mother with the chyldren were daſhed in peeces. C

15 Euen ſo ſhal Bethel doo vnto you, becauſe of your malitious wickedneſſe: in a morning ſhal the kyng of Iſrael be deſtroyed.

¶ The ende of the prophecie of Oſea.

The booke of the prophete Ioel.

The firſt Chapter.

1 A prophecie agaynſt the Iewes. 2 He exhorteth the people to prayer and faſtyng, for the miſerie that was at hande.

A 1 The woord of the Lord that came to Ioel the ſone of Pethuel.

2 Heare ye this, you elders, and hearken with your eares, al you that dwelle in this lande: Was there euer ſuch a thing in your dayes, or in the dayes of your fathers?

3 Of this thyng tel your children, and let your children [ſhewe it] to their children, and their children to [theyr] poſteritie afterwarde.

4 That whiche the caterpiller hath leaft, the graſhopper hath eaten, and what the graſhopper leaft, hath the (a) canker woorme eaten, and what the canker worme leaft, the locuſt hath deuoured.

5 Awake ye drunkardes, and weepe, howle al ye wine bibbers, for lacke of new wine: for it is cleane taken away from your mouth.

6 For a nation is comme vp vpon my lande, mighty and without number: his teeth are as the teeth of a lion, and he hath the iawes of a great lion.

B 7 He hath deſtroyed my vine, and barked my figge tree, he hath pylled it, and caſt it from him, and hath leaft boughes thereof whyte.

8 Lament as a virgin girded with ſackcloth, for the huſbande of her youth.

9 The meate offeryng and drinke offering, is cut of from the houſe of the Lord, the prieſtes [I meane] the Lordes miniſters mourne.

10 The fielde is waſted, the lande mourneth: for corne is deſtroyed, the newe wine is dryed vp, the oyle is vtterly taken away.

11 Be ye aſhamed, O ye huſbandmen, howle O ye wine dreſſers, for the wheate and for the barly: for the harueſt of the fielde is periſhed.

12 The wine is dryed vp, and the figge tree is decayed, the pomgranate tree, & the paulme, and the apple tree, [euen] al the trees of the fielde are withered vp: for ioy is withered away from the ſonnes of menne.

13 Girde your ſelues, and lament, O ye prieſtes, howle ye out, ye miniſters of the aulter, comme and lye al night in ſackecloth, ye ſeruantes of my God: for the meate and drinke offeringes are taken away from the houſe of your God.

14 Proclayme a faſte, cal a congregation, geather the elders togeather, [with] al the inhabitantes of the lande, vnto the houſe of the Lorde your God, and crye vnto the Lorde. C

15 Alas for this day, for the day of the Lord is at hande, euen as a deſtruction from the almighty, ſhal it comme.

16 Is not the meate cut of before our eyes, [yea,] mirth & ioy from the houſe of our God?

17 The ſeede is rotten vnder their cloddes, the garners are deſtroyed, the barnes are ouerthrowen: for the corne is withered.

18 O howe cattayle mourne? the heardes of beaſtes are in woful caſe for lacke of paſture, and the flockes of ſheepe are deſtroyed?

19 Unto thee, O Lorde, wyl I crye, for feare hath deſtroyed the fruiteful places of the deſert, and the flambe hath burnt vp al the trees of the fielde.

20 The beaſtes alſo of the field crye out vnto thee: for the ryuers of waters are dryed vp, and fire hath deuoured vp the fruiteful places of the deſert.

(a) That is, a worme that hath winges, ſhaueth of the vtmoſt rine of hearbes, & the tender barke of trees, feeding on them. Nahum. 3.c.

The.ii. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth of the commyng and crueltie of theyr enimies. 13 An exhortation to moue them to conuert. 18 The loue of God towarde his people.

A 1 Blowe vp a trumpet in Sion, and ſhowte in my holy hyl, let al the inhabitantes of the earth tremble: for the day of the lorde is comme, for it is nygh at hande.

2 A darke and glomie day, a cloudy & blacke day: as the morning is ſpread ouer the mountaines, [ſo is this] populus and ſtrong people, like it there was none from the begynnyng, nor ſhalbe hereafter for euermore.

3 Before him is a deuouring fire, and behinde him a burning flambe: the land is as a pleaſant garden before hym, and behinde hym a waſte deſert, yea, and nothing ſhal eſcape him.

4 The ſhew of him is as the ſhewe of horſes, and lyke horſemenne, ſo ſhal they runne.

5 Lyke the noyſe of charrettes vpon the tops of the mountaynes they ſhal ſkippe, lyke the noyſe of a flamyng fyre deuouryng the ſtubble, [and] as a ſtrong people, prepared to batayle.

6 Before his face ſhal the people tremble, the countenance of al folkes ſhal ware [blacke] as a pot.

B 7 They ſhal runne lyke ſtrong menne, and clymbe the walles lyke menne of warre: and euery one ſhal marche on in his way, & they ſhal not linger in theyr pathes.

8 No man ſhal thruſt another, but euery one ſhal walke in his path: and if they ſhal falle on the ſwoorde, they ſhal not be wounded.

9 They ſhal runne to and fro in the citie, they ſhal runne vp and down vpon the wal, they ſhal clymbe into the houſes, they ſhal enter in at the wyndowes lyke a theefe.

10 The earth ſhal quake before hym, the heauens ſhal tremble, the ſunne and the moone ſhalbe darke, and the ſtarres ſhal withdrawe theyr ſhynyng.

11 And the Lorde ſhal geue his voyce before his hoſt, for his campe is exceedyng great, for he is mighty that executeth his commaundement: for the day of the Lorde is great and very terrible, and who canne abyde it?

12 But now ſayth the Lord, Turne you vnto me with al your harts, with faſtyng, with weeping, and with mournyng, 13 And rent your hartes, and not your garmentes, and turne you vnto the Lord your God, for he is gratious, and mercyful, ſlowe to anger, and of great goodneſſe, and he wil repent hym of the euyl.

C 14 Who knoweth whether the Lorde wyl returne, and take compaſſion, and wyl leaue behynde hym a bleſſyng, [euen] meate offeryng, and drynke offeryng, vnto the Lorde your God?

15 Blowe vp a trumpet in Sion, proclayme a faſt, cal an aſſemblie, ſanctifie the congregation.

16 Geather the people, geather the elders, aſſemble the chyldren and ſuckyng babes: let the brydegrome come foorth of his chamber, and the bryde out of her cloſet.

17 Let the Prieſtes, the Lordes Miniſters, weepe betwixt the porche and the aulter, and let them ſay, Spare thy people, O Lord, and geue not ouer thyne heritage to reproche, that the heathen ſhoulde rule ouer them: Wherefore ſhoulde they ſaye amongſt the heathen, Where is theyr God?

18 And [then] the Lord wyl be ielous ouer his lande, and wyl ſpare his people.

19 Yea, the Lorde wyl anſweare, and ſaye to his people, Behold, I wyl ſende you corne, & wine, and oyle, and wil ſatiſfie you therwith, and wyl not geue you ouer any more to be a reproche among the heathen.

20 And I wyl remoue farre of from you, the Northren [armie,] and I wyl dryue him into a lande barren and deſolate, with his face towards the Eaſt ſea, and his hynder partes towardes the vttermoſt ſea: and his ſtinch ſhal aryſe, and his corruption ſhal aſcend, becauſe he hath exalted hym ſelfe to doo this. D

21 Feare not, O thou lande, be glad, and reioyce: for the Lorde wyl doo great thynges.

22 Be not afrayde, ye beaſtes of the fielde, for the fruiteful places of the deſart are greene: for the tree beares her fruite, the figge tree and the vyne yeelde theyr ſtrength.

23 Be glad then, ye chyldren of Sion, and reioyce in the Lorde your God: for he hath geuen you moderate (a) rayne, and he wyl ſende downe for you the raine, [euen] the firſt raine, and the later raine, in the firſt [moneth.]

24 And the barnes ſhalbe filled with corne, and the preſſes ſhal ouerflow with wine and oyle.

25 And I wyl reſtore to you the yeeres whiche the graſhopper, the canker worme, the locuſt, and the caterpiller haue deuoured, my greate armie whiche I ſent amongſt you.

26 And you ſhal eate in plenty, and be ſatiſfied, and ſhal prayſe the name of the Lorde your GOD, whiche hath dealt woonderouſly with you, & my people ſhal not be aſhamed any more.

27 And you ſhal know that I am in the middle of Iſrael, and [that] I am the Lorde your God, and none but I: and my people ſhal neuer be aſhamed. E

28 And it ſhal comme to paſſe after this, I wyl powre out my ſpirite vpon al fleaſhe, and your ſonnes and your daughters ſhal prophecie, your olde menne ſhal dreame dreames, your young menne ſhal ſee viſions.

29 Alſo in thoſe dayes, vpon the ſeruantes, and vpon the handemaydens wyl I powre out my ſpirite.

30 And I wil ſhew woonders in heauen, and in earth, blood, and fyre, and pillers of ſmoke.

31 The ſunne ſhalbe turned into darkeneſſe, and the moone into blood, before that great and terrible day of the Lorde comme.

32 But whoſoeuer ſhal cal on the name of the Lorde, ſhalbe ſaued: for there ſhalbe deliuerance in mount Sion, and in Hieruſalem, as

(a) At the firſt begynning belonging to ſowning and in the firſt beginning belonging to corning or hardning of corne, that there be no hinderance for lacke of neceſſarie rayne.

as the Lord hath promiſed, and [alſo] in the remnant whom the Lorde ſhal cal.

The.iii.Chapter.

Of the iudgement of God, agaynſt the enimies of his people.

A 1 FOr behold, in thoſe dayes, and in that time, when I ſhal bring againe the captiuitie of Iuda and Hieruſalem,

2 I wyl alſo geather al the Gentiles, & cauſe them to comme into the valley of [a] Iehoſaphat, and I wyl pleade with them there for my people and heritage Iſrael, whiche they haue ſcattred amongſt the nations, and haue parted my lande.

3 And they haue caſt lottes for my people, and changed the boy for an [b] harlot, and ſolde the gyrle for wyne, that they might drinke.

4 And what haue you to doo with me, O Tyre and Sidon, and al the coaſtes of Paleſtine? wyl ye render me recompence? and yf you recõpence me, I ſhal ſwiftly [and] ſpeedyly returne your recompence vpon your owne heades.

5 For ye haue taken my ſyluer and my golde, my pleaſant and pretious thynges, and haue carried them into your temples.

6 You haue ſolde alſo the chyldren of Iuda, and the chyldren of Hieruſalem, to the Gretians, that you myght ſende them farre from theyr owne countrey.

B 7 Behold, I wil rayſe them out of that place whither you haue ſold them, and wil returne your recompence vpon your owne heades.

8 And I wil ſel your ſonnes and your daughters, into the handes of the chyldren of Iuda, and they ſhal ſel them vnto the Sabeans, to a nation that dwelleth farre of: for the Lorde hath ſpoken it.

9 Publiſhe this thyng among the Gentiles, proclaime warre, wake vp the mighty men, let al the men of warre drawe neare & comme vp.

10 Breake your plough ſhares into ſwordes, and your ſithes into ſpeares, let the weake ſaye, I am ſtrong.

11 Aſſemble your ſelues, and comme al you heathen, and geather your ſelues togeather round about, there ſhal the Lord caſt downe thy myghty menne.

12 Let the heathen aryſe, and comme vp to the valley of Iehoſaphat: for there wyl I ſit to iudge al nations rounde about.

13 Put in your ſithes, for the harueſt is rype: comme ye [and] deſcende, for the [c] wynepreſſe is ful, [yea,] the preſſes ouerflowe: for theyr wickedneſſe is multiplied.

D 14 O people, people, [comme] into the valley of final iudgement: for the day of the Lord is at hande, in the valley of final iudgement.

15 The ſunne and the moone ſhalbe darkned, and the ſtarres ſhal withdrawe theyr lyght.

16 The Lorde alſo ſhal rore out of Sion, and out of Hieruſalem ſhal he geue his voyce, the heauens & the earth ſhal ſhake: but the Lorde wil be the hope of his people, and the ſtrength of the chyldren of Iſrael.

17 So ſhal you knowe that I am the Lorde your god, dwelling in Sion, my holy mountaine, then ſhal Hieruſalem be holy, and there ſhal no ſtrangers paſſe through here anye more.

18 And in that day, ſhal the mountaines drop downe ſweete wyne, and the hilles ſhal flow with milke, and al the riuers of Iuda ſhal runne with water, and a fountayne ſhal comme out of the houſe of the Lord, and ſhal water the valley of Sittim.

19 Egypt ſhalbe waſte, and Edom ſhalbe a deſolate wilderneſſe: for the iniuries [donne] to yͤ children of Iuda: becauſe they haue ſhed innocent blood in theyr lande.

20 But Iuda ſhal dwelle for euermore, and Hieruſalem from generation to generation.

21 I wyl alſo cleanſe the blood of them [that] I haue not cleanſed, and the Lorde dwelleth in Sion.

[a] He alludeth to the victorie deſcribed. 2.Para.20.

[b] They beſtowed the ſpoyle of gods people, on whoredome, & drunkenneſſe.

[c] When the meaſure of wickedneſſe is ful, then deſtruction is at hande.

The booke of the prophete Amos.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The condition and ſtate of Amos, and the tyme of his prophecie. 3 The woorde of the Lorde agaynſt Damaſcus, the Philiſtines, Tyrus, Idumea, and Ammon.

A 1 THE woordes of Amos, who was among yͤ " ſheephards at Thecua, whiche he ſawe " vpon Iſrael, in the dayes of Oſia kyng of Iuda, & in the dayes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Ioas kyng of Iſrael, two yeere before the " earthquake.

" Or, heardmenne.

" Or, prophecied.

Zach, 14.a

2 And he ſayde, The Lorde ſhal roare out of Sion, and vtter his voyce from Hieruſalem: and the " dwelling places of the Sheepeheardes ſhal " mourne, and the top of Charmel ſhal wyther.

" Or, paſtures.

" Or, periſh.

" Or, tranſgreſſions.

(a) The manifolde ſinnes of Damaſcus, are meant by three & foure, whiche make ſeuen.

3 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For (a) three " wickednesse of Damaſcus, and for foure I wyl not " ſpare her: becauſe they haue threaſhed Gilead with iron flales.

" Or, bryng her agayne, or turne to it.

4.Re.8,c,

4 But I wyl ſende a fyre into the houſe of Hazael, and it ſhal deuoure the palaces of Benhadad.

5 I wyl breake alſo the barres of Damaſcus, and " roote out the inhabiters from the " playne of Auen, and hym that holdeth the Scepter out of the houſe of " Eden, and the people of Syria ſhal goe into captiuitie vnto Kir, ſayth the Lorde.

" Or, cut of.

" Or, valley.

" Or, pleaſure.

6 Thus ſayth the Lorde, for three wickedneſſes of " Azza, and for foure I wyl not ſpare her: becauſe they carried " away priſoners into captiuitie, to ſhut them vp in Edom.

" Or, Gaza.

" Or, away priſoners, the whole captiuitie.

B 7 Therfore I wyl ſend a fyre vpon the wals of " Azza, whiche ſhal deuoure her palaces.

" Or, Gaza.

8 And I wil cut of the inhabiter from Aſdod, and hym that holdeth Scepter, from Aſcalon, and turne my hande to " Ecron, and the remnant of the Philiſtines ſhal periſhe, ſayth the Lorde God.

" Or, Accaron.

9 Thus ſayth the Lord, For three " wickedneſſes of Tyre, and for foure, I wyl not ſpare her: becauſe they ſhut the whole captiuitie in Edom, and haue not remembred the (b) brotherly couenant.

" Or, tranſgreſſions.

(b) For Eſau (of whō came yͤ Edomites) and Iacob were brethren.

10 Therfore wyl I ſende a fyre vpon the wal of Tyre, and it ſhal conſume the palaces thereof.

11 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For three wickedneſſes of Edom, and for foure, I wil not ſpare him: becauſe he purſued his brother with the ſwoorde, and dyd " caſt of al pitie, and " in his anger ſpoyled hym continually, and his indignation he kept alwayes.

" Heb, corrupt his compaſſions.

" Or, his anger ſpoyled.

12 Therfore I wyl ſend a fyre into Theman, whiche ſhal deuoure the palaces of Bozra.

13 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For three wickedneſſes of the chyldren of Ammon, and for foure, I wyl not ſpare them: becauſe they (c) haue ript vp the women with chylde of Gilead, that they might enlarge theyr borders.

(c) He noteth the great crueltie of the Ammonites, that ſpared not the woman with chylde.

14 Therfore wyl I kyndle a fyre in the walles of Rabbah, that ſhal conſume her palaces C with a greate crye in the day of bataile, and with a tempeſte in the day of the whyrlewynde.

15 And theyr kyng ſhal goe into captiuitie, he, and his Princes togeather, ſayth the Lorde.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth agaynſt Moab, Iuda, and Iſrael.

A 1 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For three wickedneſſes of Moab, and for foure, I wyl not " ſpare hym: becauſe he burnt the bones of the kynge of Edom, into (a) lyme.

" Or, turne to hym.

(a) That is, into aſhes.

2 Therefore I wyl ſende a fyre into Moab, whiche ſhal conſume the palaces of Carioth, & Moab ſhal dye with tumult, with ſhowtyng, and with the ſounde of the trumpet.

4 And I wyl cut of the iudge out of the middes thereof, and wyl ſlaye al the princes therof, with hym, ſayth the Lorde,

4 Thus ſayth the Lorde, for three wickedneſſes of Iuda, and for foure, I wyl not ſpare hym: becauſe they haue caſt away the lawe of the Lorde, and haue not kept his ordinances, and theyr lyes cauſed them to erre, after the whiche, theyr fathers walked.

5 Therfore wyl I ſend a fyre into Iuda, whiche ſhal conſume the palaces of Hieruſalem:

6 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For three wickedneſſes of Iſrael, and for foure, I wil not ſpare hym:

XUM

hym: becauſe they ſolde the ryghteous for ſiluer, and the poore for a payre of ſhooes.

B 7 They " gape for breath ouer the head of the poore in the duſte of the earth, and peruert the way of the " meeke: A man and his father wyl goe in to one " maide, to diſhonour my holy name.

" Or, breathe into the head, or tread vpon the head.
" Or, wretched.
" Or, young woman.
" Or, ſit downe.

8 And they " lye vpon clothes " layd to pledge by euery aulter: and in the houſe of their god, they drinke the wine " of the condemned.

Exod.22.d
" Or, of ſuch as they haue fined or mulcted.

9 * Yet deſtroyed I the Amorite before them, whoſe heyght was lyke the heyght of the Cedar trees, and he was ſtrong as the okes: notwithſtanding, I deſtroyed his fruit from aboue, and his roote from beneath.

Num.21.d
Dev.2.f.

10 Alſo I brought you vp from the lande of Egypt, & lead you fourtie yeeres through the wildernes, to poſſeſſe the land of yͤ Amorites.

11 And I rayſed vp of your ſonnes for Prophetes, and of your young menne for " Nazarites: Is it not euen thus, O ye chyldren of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde?

" Or, abſtayners.

12 But ye gaue the Nazarites wyne to drinke, and commaunded the Prophetes, ſayeing, Prophecie not.

13 Beholde, I am preſſed vnder you, as a cart is preſſed that is ful of ſheaues.

14 Therefore the " flyght ſhal periſhe from the ſwifte, and the ſtrong ſhal not ſtrengthen his force, neither ſhal the mighty ſaue his life. C " Or, ſwift by flight ſhal not eſcape.

15 Nor he that handeleth the bow ſhal ſtand, nor he that is ſwifte of foote ſhal eſcape, neyther ſhal he that rydeth the horſe, ſaue his life.

16 And he that is of myghty courage among the ſtrong menne, ſhal flee away naked in that day, ſayth the Lorde.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 He reproueth the houſe of Iſrael of ingratitude, foreſhewing Gods moſt iuſt pouniſhment for the ſame. 9 Strangers are called to ſee the equitie of Gods iudgementes agaynſt Iſrael.

A 1 HEare this woorde that the lord pronounceth agaynſt you, O childre of Iſrael, [euen] againſt the whole familie, whiche I brought vp from the lande of Egypt, ſayeing, Deut.4.

2 * You only haue I knowen of al the families of the earth, therefore I wyl viſite you for al your iniquities.

3 Canne two walke togeather, except they be agreed?

4 Wil a lion roare in the forreſt when he hath no praye? Or wyl a lions whelpe crye out of his denne, if he haue taken nothyng?

5 Canne a byrde fal in a ſnare vpon the earth, where no Fouler is? Or wyl he take vp the ſnare from the earth, and haue taken nothing at al?

6 Or ſhal a trumpet be blowen in the citie, & the people be not afrayde? Or ſhal there be (a) euyl in a citie, & the Lorde hath not donne it?

(a) That is, calamitie, or aduerſitie.

B 7 " Surely the Lord God wyl doo nothing, but he reuealeth his ſecret vnto his ſeruantes the prophetes.

" Or, for 8 The lion hath roared, who wyl not be afrayde? The Lord God hath ſpoken, who " can but prophecie?

" Or, who wyl not prophecie?

9 Proclaime in the palaces at Aſdod, & in the palaces in the land of Egypt, & ſay, Aſſemble your ſelues vpon yͤ mountaines of Samaria, and behold the great tumultes in the middes therof, and the opreſſed in the middes thereof:

10 For they knowe not to doo right, ſaith the Lorde, they ſtore vp " violence and robberie in theyr palaces.

" Or, iniurie.

11 Therfore thus ſaith the lord God, An aduerſarie [ſhal come] euen rounde about the countrey, and ſhal bring downe thy ſtrength from thee, and thy palaces ſhalbe ſpoyled.

12 Thus ſayth the Lord, As the Sheepheard taketh out of the mouth of the lion, two legs or a peece of an eare: ſo ſhal the chyldren of Iſrael be taken out that dwel in Samaria, in the corner of a bed, and in Damaſcus, [as in] a couche.

13 Heare & teſtifie in the houſe of Iacob, ſayth the Lorde God, the God of hoſtes, 14 That in the day that I ſhal viſite the " tranſgreſſions of Iſrael vpon him, I wyl alſo viſite the aulters of Bethel, and the hornes of the aulter ſhalbe " broken of, and falle to the grounde.

" Or, wickedneſſe.
" Or, cut of.

15 And I wyl ſmyte the wynter houſe with the ſommer houſe, and the houſes of yuorie ſhal periſhe, and the great houſes ſhalbe conſumed, ſayth the Lorde.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 Under the name of fat kyne of Baſan, he inueyeth agaynſt the gouernours of Samaria, and foreſheweth theyr pouniſhment. 4 He laugheth to ſcorne theyr idolatrie. 8 He ſheweth that notwithſtandyng they had benne plagued with hunger, drought, blaſting, caterpillers, peſtilence, and warre, yet were they not turned vnto God.

A 1 HEare this woord, ye kine of Baſã, that are in the mountaine of Samaria, whiche oppreſſe the poore, & deſtroy the nedy, which ſay to their (a) maiſters, Bryng, and let vs drinke.

(a) That is, to the creditors to whom the poore are indebted.

2 The Lorde God hath ſworne by his holyneſſe, that loe, the dayes ſhal come vpon you, that he wyl take you away with (b) thornes, and your poſteritie with fiſhehookes.

(b) He alludeth to fiſhers whiche catche fiſh by hookes and thornes.

3 And ye ſhal goe out at the breaches, euerye [kowe] forewarde: and ye ſhal " caſte your ſelues out of the palace, ſayth the Lorde.

" Or, caſt downe the palace

3.Re.12.g.

4 Comme to Bethel, and " tranſgreſſe: to Gilgal, and multiplie tranſgreſſion: & bryng your ſacrifices in the mornyng, and your tithes after three yeeres.

" Or, commit wickednesse.

Deu,14.d

Leui.7.b.

5 And offer a thankeſgeuing of *leauen, publiſh and proclayme the free offeringes: for this liketh you, O ye chyldren of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God.

(c) That is, lacke of bread and meats.

6 Therefore haue I geuen you (c) cleanneſſe of teeth in al your cities, and ſcarceneſſe of bread in al your places: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

B 7 And alſo I haue withholden the raine from you, when there were yet three monethes to the harueſt, and I cauſed it to rayne vpon one citie, and haue not cauſed it to rayne vpon an other citie: one peece was raigned vpō, & the peece whereupon it raigned not, withered.

8 So two [or] three cities wandered vnto one citie to drynke water, but they were not ſatiſfied: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſaith the Lorde.

9 I haue ſmitten you with blaſting and mildewe, your great gardens and your vineyardes, and your figge trees, and your oliue trees, dyd the " palmer woorme deuoure: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the lord.

" Or, caterpiller.

10 Peſtilence haue I ſent among you, after the manner of Egypt: your young menne haue I ſlaine with the ſwoorde, and haue taken away your horſes, and I haue made the ſtynke of your tentes to comme euen vp into your noſtrelles: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

11 I haue ouerthrowen " you, as God ouerthrewe Sodoma and Gomorra, and ye were as a firebrand pluckt out of the burnyng: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

" Or, among you, meanyng ſomme part of their countrey to haue beene ouerthrowen.

12 Therefore thus wil I doo vnto thee, O Iſrael, [and] becauſe I wyl doo this vnto thee, (b) prepare to meete thy God, O Iſrael.

(b) Turne to him by repentance.

13 For loe, he that fourmeth the mountaynes, and createth the winde, and declareth vnto man what is his thought, whiche maketh the " mornyng darkeneſſe, and walketh vpon the high places of the earth, the Lord God of hoſtes is his name.

" Or, mornyng and darkneſſe.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The prophet lamenteth the captiuitie of Sion. 4 He calleth to repentance. 8 He deſcribeth the power of God. 14 He exhorteth to good woorkes. 16 He deſcribeth the heauie day of the Lorde. 21 And reiecteth theyr feaſt dayes and ſacrifices.

A 1 HEare ye this word which I lift vp vpon you, [euē] a lamentation " of the houſe of Iſrael.

" Or, O ye houſe.

2 The virgin Iſrael is fallen, and ſhal no more ryſe: ſhe is leaft vpon her lande, and there is none to rayſe her vp.

3 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, The citie whiche went out by a thouſande, ſhal leaue an hundred, and that whiche went foorth by an hundred, ſhal leaue tenne, to the houſe of Iſrael.

4 For thus ſayth the Lord vnto the houſe of Iſrael, Seeke ye me, and ye ſhal lyue.

5 But ſeeke not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, & goe not to Beerſeba: for Gilgal ſhal goe into captiuitie, and Bethel ſhal comme to nought.

6 Seeke the Lord, & ye ſhal liue: leſt he breake out lyke fire in the houſe of Ioſeph, and deuoure it, and there be none to quenche it in Bethel.

7 They turne iudgement to woormewood, and forſake ryghteouſneſſe in the earth.

(a) That is, the thickeſt darkneſſe into the mornyng light.

8 He maketh the ſeuen ſtarres and Orion, and he turneth (a) the ſhadowe of death into the mornyng, and he maketh the day darke as night: he calleth the waters of the ſea, and powreth them out vpon the open earth, the Lorde is his name.

9 He ſtrengtheneth the deſtroyer agaynſt the myghty, and the deſtroyer ſhal " comme agaynſt the fortreſſe.

" Or, aſſault.

10 They hate him that rebuketh (b) in the gate, & they abhorre him that ſpeaketh vprightly.

(b) That is, in opē aſſemblies

11 Forasmuche then as your treadyng is vpon the poore, & ye (c) take from him burdens of wheate: ye haue buylte houſes of hewen ſtone, but ye ſhal not dwel in them: ye haue planted pleaſant vineyardes, but ye ſhal not drinke wine of them.

(c) Ye take both his money, and alſo his food wherwith he ſhould liue.

12 For I knowe your " manyfolde tranſgreſſions, and your mighty ſinnes: they afflict the iuſt, they take rewardes, and they oppreſſe the poore in the gate.

" Or, great wickedneſſe.

13 Therefore the wyſe ſhal keepe ſcilence in that tyme: for it is an euil tyme.

14 Seeke good, and not euil, that ye may liue: and ſo the Lorde God of hoſtes ſhalbe with C you, as you haue ſpoken.

15 Hate the euyl, and loue the good, and eſtabliſhe iudgement in the gate: it may be, that the Lord God of hoſtes wilbe merciful vnto the remnant of Ioſeph.

16 Therefore the Lorde God of hoſtes, the Lorde ſayth thus, Mourning ſhalbe in al ſtreetes, and they ſhal ſaye in al the high wayes, Alas, alas: and they ſhal cal the huſbandman to lamentation, and ſuch as canne mourne, " to mournyng.

" Or, ſhal mourne.

17 And in al the vines ſhalbe lamentation: for I wyl paſſe through thee, ſayth the Lorde.

18 Wo vnto you that deſyre the day of the Lorde, what haue ye to doo with it? the day of the Lorde is darkneſſe, and not lyght.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a beare meete hym, and went into the houſe, and leaned his hande vnto the wal, and a ſerpent byte hym.

20 Shal not the day of the Lord be darknes, and not lyght? euen darkeneſſe, and no " lyght in it.

" Or, ſhyne.

D 21 I hate, I abhorre your feaſt dayes, and I wyl not (b) ſmel in your ſolemne aſſemblies.

(b) That is, I wyl not delite in the ſmel of your incenſe

22 Though ye offer me burnt offeryngеs, and meate offerings, I wyl not accept them, neither wil I regarde the peace offeringe of your fat beaſtes.

23 Take thou away from me the multitude of thy ſongues, for I wyl not heare the melodie of thy violes.

24 And " let iudgemente runne downe as water, and ryghteouſneſſe as a myghty ryuer.

" Or, iudgement ſhal run downe.

25 Haue ye offered vnto me ſacrifices, and offerynges in the wyldemeſſe fourtie yeeres, O houſe of Iſrael?

26 But ye haue borne (c) Siccuth your king, and Chiun your images, and the ſtarre of your gods, whiche ye made to your ſelues.

(c) That idol whiche ye eſteemed, as your kyng, and carried about as ye dyd Chiun: in the whiche images ye thought that there was a certayne diuinitie.

27 Therefore wyl I cauſe you to goe into captiuitie beyonde Damaſcus, ſayth the Lorde, whoſe name is the God of hoſtes.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 He prophecieth agaynſt the princes of Iſrael lyuing in pleaſures. 8 The Lorde ſweareth that he wyl bryng to paſſe the thinges that are purpoſed againſt Iſrael.

A 1 WO to them that are at eaſe in Sion, and truſt in the mountayne of Samaria, whiche were famous at the begynnyng of the nations, and the houſe of Iſrael came to them.

2 Goe you vnto Calneh, and ſee, and from thence goe you to Hemath the great, then goe downe to Gath of the Philiſtines: be (a) they better then (b) theſe kyngdomes? Or the border of the lande greater then your border?

(a) If God haue deſtroied theſe excellent cities in three diuers kyngdomes, as in Babylon, Syria, and of the Philiſtines, & hath brought their wyde borders into a greater ſtraitnes then yours yet are: thinke you to be better, or to eſcape?

(b) The kyngdomes of Iuda & Iſrael.

" Or, bryng vpon you.

3 Ye that put farre away the euyl day, and " approche to the ſeate of iniquitie.

4 They lye vpon beds of yuorie, and ſtretche them ſelues vpon their couches, and eate the lambes out of the flocke, and the calues out of the ſtal.

5 They ſing to the ſounde of the viole, they inuent to them ſelues inſtrumentes of muſicke, lyke Dauid.

6 They drinke wine in bowles, and annoynt them ſelues with chiefe oyntmentes: but no man is ſory for the affliction of Ioſeph.

B 7 Therfore nowe ſhal they goe captiue with the firſt that goe captiue, and " the ſorowe of them that ſtretched them ſelues, is at hande.

" Or, the ioy of them that ſtretched thẽ ſelues, ſhal departe.

8 The Lorde God hath ſworne by him ſelfe, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes, I abhorre the " excellencie of Iacob, and hate his palaces, therefore wyl I deliuer vp the citie, with al that is therein.

" Or, magnificencie, that is, the richeſſe and pompe.

9 And if there remayne tenne menne in one houſe, they ſhal dye.

10 And his vncle ſhal take him vp, and burne him, to carrie out the bones out of the houſe, and ſhal ſaye vnto hym that is by the (c) ſides of the houſe, Is there yet any with thee? And he ſhal ſaye, None. Then ſhal he ſaye, Holde thy tongue: for we maye not remember the name of the Lorde.

(c) That is, to ſome neighbour that dwelleth neare about.

11 For behold, the Lorde commaundeth, and he wyl ſmyte the great houſe with breaches, and the litle houſes with cleftes.

12 Shal horſes runne vpon the (d) rocke? Or wyl one plowe there with oxen? for ye haue turned iudgement into " gal, and the fruite of ryghteouſneſſe, into woormewood.

(d) He compareth them to baren rockes, whereupon it is in vayne to beſtow labour ſhewing that gods benefites can haue no place among them.

" Or, poyſon.

13 Ye reioyce in a thyng of nought, ye ſaye, Haue not we gotten vs hornes by our owne ſtrength?

14 But beholde, I wyl rayſe vp agaynſt you a nation, O houſe of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes, and they ſhal afflict you from the entryng of (e) Hemath, vnto the ryuer of the wyldemeſſe.

(e) That is, from one corner of the countrey vnto another. For Antioche, which is here called Hemath, and the weaſt ſea whiche is here ſignified by the riuer of the wyldernesse, are the vtter borders of the countrey of the ten tribes. ſee .4.Re.14.f

The.vii.Chapter.

1 God ſheweth certayne viſions, whereby he ſignifieth the deſtruction of the people of Iſrael. 10 The falſe accuſation of Amazia the prieſt. 12 His craftie counſel. 14 The teſtimonie of Amos of hym ſelfe. 17 His propheſie agaynſt Amazia, and of the captiuitie of the people.

A 1 Thus hath the Lord God ſhewed vnto me, and beholde, he fourmed graſhoppers in the beginning of the ſhooting vp of the latter growth, and loe it was in ẏ latter growth, after the (a) kynges mowing.

2 And when they had made an end of eating the graſſe of the lande, then I ſayde, O Lorde God ſpare I beſeeche thee: Who ſhal rayſe vp Iacob? for he is ſmal.

3 So the Lord (b) repented for this: it ſhal not be, ſayth the Lorde.

4 Thus alſo hath the Lord God ſhewed vnto me, and beholde, the Lorde God called to iudgement by fyre, and it deuoured the great deepe, and dyd eate vp " a part.

5 Then ſayd I, O Lord God, ceaſſe I beſech thee: Who ſhal raiſe vp Iacob? for he is ſmal.

6 So the Lord repented for this, this alſo ſhal not be, ſayth the Lorde God.

B 7 Thus agayne he ſhewed me, and beholde, the Lorde ſtoode vpon a wal, [made] by line, (c) with a line in his hande.

8 And the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Amos, what ſeeſt thou? And I ſayde, A line. Then ſayde the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl ſet a line in the middes of my people Iſrael, and wyl paſſe by them no more.

9 And the hygh places of Iſaac ſhalbe deſolate, and the " temples of Iſrael ſhalbe deſtroyed, and I wyl ryſe agaynſt the houſe of Ieroboam with the ſwoorde.

10 Then Amazia the prieſte of Bethel, ſent to Ieroboam kyng of Iſrael, ſayeing, Amos hath conſpired agaynſt thee in the middes of the houſe of Iſrael: the lande is not hable to beare al his woordes.

11 For thus Amos ſayth, Ieroboam ſhal dye by the ſwoord, and Iſrael ſhalbe ledde away captiue out of theyr owne lande.

12 Alſo Amazia ſayde to Amos, O thou the ſeear, Goe, flee thou away into the lande of Iuda, and there eate thy bread, and propheſie there.

13 But propheſie no more at Bethel: for it is the kinges chappel, & it is the kinges courte.

14 Then anſweared Amos, and ſayd to Amazia, I was no prophete, neither was I a prophetes ſonne: but I was an heardman, and a geatherer of wylde figges. C

15 And the Lorde tooke me as I folowed the flocke, and the Lorde ſaid vnto me, Goe, propheſie vnto my people Iſrael.

16 Nowe therefore, heare thou the woorde of the Lord: Thou ſaieſt, Propheſie not againſt Iſrael, and ſpeake nothing againſt the houſe of Iſaac.

17 Therefore thus ſaith the Lorde, Thy wife ſhalbe an harlot in the citie, and thy ſonnes and thy daughters ſhal fal by the ſwoorde, and thy land ſhalbe diuided by line, and thou ſhalt dye in a polluted lande, and Iſrael ſhal ſurely goe into captiuitie, foorth of his lande.

(a) After the publique commaundement for mowyng was geuen, or as ſome read, after ẏ kinges ſheepe were ſhorne.

(b) That is, ſtayed this plague at my prayer.

" Or, the poſſeſſion, meaning the whole fielde.

(c) Signifiing that this ſhoulde be the laſt meaſuring of the people, and that he woulde defer his iudgement no longer.

" Or, ſanctuaries, or holy places.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 By a viſion of a baſket of ſommer fruite, the ende of the kyngdome of Iſrael is ſhewed, 4 He ſpeaketh agaynſt the oppreſſours of the poore. 9 And deſcrybeth the bytterneſſe of the plague of Iſrael. 11 And propheſieth of the famine of the woorde of God.

A 1 Thus hath the Lorde God ſhewed vnto me: and beholde, a baſket of ſommer fruite.

2 And he ſayde, Amos, what ſeeſt thou? And I ſayde, A baſket of (a) ſommer fruite. Then ſayde the Lorde vnto me, The end is comme vpon my people of Iſrael, I wyl paſſe by them no more.

3 And the ſongues of the temple ſhalbe howlinges in that day, ſaith the Lorde God: Many dead bodyes ſhalbe in euery place, they ſhal caſt them foorth with ſcilence.

4 Heare this, O ye that ſwallowe vp the poore, that ye may make ẏ needy of the lande to fayle,

5 Sayeing, When wil the newe moneth be gonne, that we may ſel corne? and the Sabboth, that we maye ſet foorth wheate, and make the (b) Epha ſmal, and the ſicle great, & falſifie the weightes by deceite?

6 That we may buye the poore for ſiluer, and the needy for ſhooes, yea, and ſel the refuſe of the wheate?

7 The Lorde hath ſworne by the excellencie of Iacob, ſurely I wyl neuer forgeat any of theyr woorkes.

8 Shal not the lande tremble for this, and euery one mourne that dwelleth therein? And it ſhal ryſe vp wholy as a fludde, and it ſhalbe caſt out and (c) drowned, as by the fludde

(a) which ſignified the ripeneſſe of theyr ſinnes, and the readineſſe of Gods iudgementes.

(b) That is, the meaſure ſmal, and the price great.

(c) That is, the inhabitantes of the lande ſhalbe drowned, as Nilus drowneth many, when it ouerfloweth.

fludde of Egypt.

9 And in that day, ſaith the Lord God, I wyl euẽ cauſe the [d] ſunne to goe downe at noone, and I wyl darken the earth in the cleare day.

10 And I wyl turne your feaſtes into mournyng, and al your ſongues into lamentation: and I wyl bryng ſackecloth vpon al loynes, and baldneſſe vpon euery head, and I wyl make it as the mournyng of an onely ſonne, and the ende thereof as a bitter day.

11 Beholde, the dayes comme, ſayth the Lord God, that I wyl ſende a famine in the lande, not a famine of bread, nor thirſt for water, but of hearyng the woorde of the Lorde.

12 And they ſhal wander from ſea to ſea, and from the North euen vnto the Eaſt, ſhal they runne to and fro to ſeeke the woorde of the Lorde, and ſhal not fynde it.

13 In that day ſhal the fayre virgins, and the young menne periſhe for thirſt.

14 C They that ſweare by the [e] ſinne of Samaria, and that ſay, Thy God, O Dan liueth, and the [f] manner of Beerſeba lyueth, euen they ſhal fal, and neuer ryſe vp agayne.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Threatninges agaynſt the temple, 5 The ſubuertion of the people. 7 That they be not able to eſcape Gods iudgementes. 10 He reproued the vnkindneſſe of Iſrael. 11 The reſtoaryng of the Churche is promiſed.

A 1 I Sawe the Lord ſtanding vpon the [a] aulter, and he ſayde, Smite the lintel of the doore, that the poſtes maye ſhake, & ″ cut them in peeces, euẽ the [b] heades of them al, and I wyl ſlay the laſt of thẽ with the ſwoorde: he that fleeth of them, ſhal not flee away, & he that eſcapeth of them, ſhal not be deliuered,

2 Though they dygge into [c] hel, thence ſhal my hande take them, though they clyme vp to heauen, thence wyl I bryng them downe.

3 And though they hyde them ſelues in the top of Charmel, I wyl ſearch, and take them out thence: and though they be hyd from my ſyght in the bottome of the ſea, thence wyl I commaunde [d] the ſerpent, and he ſhal byte them.

4 And though they goe into captiuitie before their enimies, thence wyl I commaunde the ſwoorde, and it ſhal ſlay them: and I wyl ſet myne eyes vpon them for euyl, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hoſtes ſhal touche the land, and it ſhal melt away: and al that dwel therein ſhal mourne, and it ſhal ryſe whole lyke a fludde, and ſhalbe drowned as by the fludde of Egypt.

6 He buildeth his ″ ſpheres in the heauen, and hath layde the fundation of his globe of elementes on the earth: he calleth the waters of the ſea, and poureth them out vpon the open earth, the Lorde is his name.

B 7 Are ye not as the Ethiopians [e] vnto me, O chyldren of Iſrael, ſaith the Lorde? Haue not I brought vp Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt? and the Philiſtines from Cappadocia? and the Syrians from Cyrene?

8 Beholde, the eyes of the Lord God are vpon the ſinful kyngdome, and I wyl deſtroy it cleane out of the earth: neuertheleſſe, I wyl not vtterly deſtroy the houſe of Iacob, ſayth the Lorde.

9 For lo, I wyl commaunde, and I wyl ſyfte the houſe of Iſrael among al nations, like as corne is ſifted in a ſiue: yet ſhal not the [f] leaſt ſtone fal vpon the earth.

10 But al the ſinners of my people ſhal dye by the ſwoord, whiche ſay, The euyl ſhal not comme, nor haſten for vs.

11 In that day wyl I rayſe vp the tabernacle of Dauid that is fallen downe, and cloſe vp the breaches thereof, and I wyl rayſe vp his ruines, and I wyl builde it, as in the dayes of olde:

12 That they may poſſeſſe the remnant of Edom, and of al the Heathen, ″ becauſe my name is called vpon them, ſayth the Lorde that doeth this.

13 Beholde, the dayes comme, ſaith the Lord, that the plowman ſhal [g] touche the mower, and the treader of grapes hym that ſoweth ſeede, and the mountaines ſhal [h] drop ſweete wyne, and al the hylles ſhal melt.

14 And I wyl bring agayne the captiuitie of my people of Iſrael, and they ſhal buylde the waſt cities, and inhabite them: and they ſhal plant vineyardes, and drinke the wine thereof: they ſhal alſo make gardens, and eate the fruites of them.

15 And I wyl plante them vpon their lande, and they ſhal no more be pulled vp agayne out of their land which I haue geuen them, ſayth the Lorde thy God.

The booke of the prophete Abdias.

Agaynſt Edom, and the truſt that they had in rycheſſe.

A 1 THE viſion of Abdi, thus ſaith the Lorde God agaynſt Edom, We haue hearde a rumor frõ the Lorde, and an ambaſſadour is ſent among the Heathen: aryſe, and let vs ryſe vp agaynſt her to batayle.

2 Beholde, I haue made thee ſmalle among the Heathen, thou art vtterly deſpiſed.

3 The pryde of thyne hart hath deceiued thee, thou that dwelleſt in the cleftes of the rockes, whoſe habitation [is] hygh, that ſayth in his hart, Who ſhal bring me downe to yͤ groũd?

4 Yea though thou exalt thy ſelfe as the egle, and make thy neſt among the ſtarres, thence wyl I bryng thee downe, ſayth the Lorde.

5 Came theeues to thee, or robbers by nyght? howe waſt thou brought to ſcilence? Would they not haue ſtollen tyl they had yenough? If the grape geatherers came to thee, woulde they not leaue [ſomme] grapes?

6 Howe are the thynges of Eſau ſought vp, [and] his treaſures ſearched?

B 7 All the menne of thy confederacie haue dryuen thee to the borders, the menne that were at peace with thee haue deceiued thee, & preuayled agaynſt thee, [they that eate] thy bread haue layd a wound vnder thee, there is none vnderſtandyng in hym.

8 Shal not I in that day, ſaith the lord, euen deſtroy the wyſe menne out of Edom, and vnderſtandyng from the mount of Eſau?

9 And thy ſtrong menne, O Theman, ſhalbe afrayde: becauſe euery one of the mount of Eſau ſhalbe cut of by ſlaughter.

10 For thy crueltie againſt thy brother Jacob, ſhame ſhal couer thee, and thou ſhalt be cut of for euer.

11 When thou ſtoodeſt on the other ſide, in the day that the ſtrangers caryed away his ſubſtance, & ſtrangers entred into his gates, and caſt lottes vpon Hieruſalem, euen thou waſt as one of them.

12 But thou ſhouldeſt not haue beholden the day of thy brother, in the day that he was made a ſtranger, neither ſhouldeſt thou haue reioyced ouer the chyldren of Juda in the day of their deſtruction, thou ſhouldeſt not haue ſpoken proudly in the day of affliction:

13 Thou ſhouldeſt not haue entred into the gate of my people in the day of their deſtruction, neither ſhouldeſt thou haue once looked on their affliction in the day of their deſtruction, nor haue laide handes on their ſubſtance in the day of their deſtruction:

14 Neyther ſhouldeſt thou haue ſtand in the croſſe wayes to cut of them that ſhoulde eſcape, neither ſhouldeſt thou haue ſhut vp the remnant thereof in the day of affliction. C

15 For the day of the Lorde is neare vpon al the Heathen: as thou haſt donne, it ſhalbe donne to thee, thy rewarde ſhal returne vpon thyne head.

16 For as ye haue(a) drunke vpon myne holy mountayne, ſo ſhal al the Heathen drunke cõtinually: yea, they ſhal drynke and ſwalowe vp, and they ſhalbe as though they(b) had not benne.

17 But vpon mount Sion ſhalbe deliuerãce, and it ſhalbe holy, & the houſe of Jacob ſhal poſſeſſe their poſſeſſions.

18 And the houſe of Jacob ſhalbe a fyre, and the houſe of Joſeph a flambe, and the houſe of Eſau as ſtubble, and they ſhal kyndle in them, and deuoure them, and there ſhalbe no remnant of the houſe of Eſau: for the Lorde hath ſpoken it.

19 And they ſhal poſſeſſe the ſouth ſyde of the mount of Eſau, and the playne of the Philiſtines, and they ſhal poſſeſſe the fieldes of Ephraim, and the fieldes of Samaria, & Beniamin [ſhal haue] Gilead.

20 And the captiuitie of his hoſt of the childrẽ of Iſrael, whiche were among the Chanaanites [ſhal poſſeſſe] vnto Zarephath, and the captiuitie of Hieruſalem which is in Sepharad, ſhal poſſeſſe the cities of the South.

21 And they that ſhal(c) ſaue, ſhal comme vp to mount Sion to iudge the mount of Eſau, and the kyngdome ſhalbe the Lordes.

(a) That is, reioyced and triumphed.

(b) That is, at the length they ſhal vtterly periſhe.

(c) Meanyng that God wyl rayſe vp in his Churche ſuch as ſhal rule & gouerne, for the defence of the ſame, and deſtruction of his enimies, vnder Meſſias.

The booke of the prophete Ionas.

The firſt Chapter.

3 Ionas fled when he was ſent to preache. 4 A tempeſt aryſeth, and he is caſt into the ſea for his diſobedience.

A 1 THE Woorde of the Lorde came vnto [a] Ionas the ſonne of Amitai, ſayeing,

2 Aryſe, & goe to [b] Niniue that great citie, and crye agaynſt it: for their wickedneſſe is comme vp before me.

3 And Ionas roſe vp to flee into Tharſis frõ the preſence of the Lorde, and went downe to [c] Ioppa, and founde a ſhyp goeyng to [d] Tharſis: ſo he payed his fare, & went downe into it, that he myght goe with them vnto Tharſis from the [e] preſence of the Lorde.

4 But the Lorde ſent out a great wynd into the ſea, and there was a myghtie tempeſt in the ſea, ſo that the ſhip was in danger of ſplittyng in ſunder.

5 Then the mariners were afrayde, and cried euery man vnto his God, and caſt the wares that were in the ſhyp into the ſea, to lyghten it of them: but Ionas was gonne downe into the ſydes of the ſhyp, and he lay downe ſleepyng.

6 And the ſhip maiſter came to him, and ſaid, What meaneſt thou ſleeper? Vp, & cal vpon thy God, if ſo be that God wyl ſhyne vnto vs, that we peryſhe not.

7 And they ſayde euery one to his felowe, Comme, let vs caſt [f] lottes: that we may know for whoſe cauſe this euil is on vs. And they caſt lottes: and the lot fel on Ionas.

8 Then ſayde they vnto hym, Tel vs for whoſe cauſe is this euyl comme vpon vs? What is thyne occupation? Whence cameſt thou? What countrey man art thou, and of what nation?

9 And he anſweared them: I am an Hebrue, and I feare the Lord God of heauen, whiche hath made the ſea, and the drye lande.

10 Then were the menne exceedingly afraid, and ſayde vnto hym, Why haſt thou donne this? (for the menne knewe that he fled from the preſence of the Lorde, becauſe he had told them.)

11 And they ſayde vnto hym, What ſhal we doo vnto thee, that the ſea may be calme vnto vs? For the ſea wrought, & was troublous.

12 And he ſaid vnto them, Take me, and caſt me into the ſea, and the ſea ſhalbe calme vnto you: for I knowe that for my ſake this great tempeſt is vpon you.

13 Neuertheleſſe, the menne aſſayed with rowyng to bryng the ſhyp to land, but they could not, becauſe the ſea wrought, and was troublous agaynſt them.

14 C Wherfore, they cryed vnto the Lorde, and ſayde, We beſeeche thee, O Lorde, we beſeech thee, let not vs periſhe for this mans lyfe, and lay not to our charge innocẽt blood: for thou, O Lorde, haſt donne as it pleaſed thee.

15 So they tooke vp Ionas, and caſt hym into the ſea, and the ſea left raging.

16 And the menne feared the Lord exceedingly, and offered a ſacrifice vnto the Lorde, and made [g] vowes.

17 And the Lorde prepared a great fyſhe to ſwalowe vp Ionas: and Ionas was in the belly of the fyſhe three dayes & three nyghtes.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 Ionas is in the fyſhes belly. 3 His prayer. 11 He is deliuered.

A 1 AND Ionas prayed vnto the Lorde his God out of the [a] fiſſhes belly,

2 And ſayd, In affliction I cryed vnto the Lorde, & he hearde me: out of the belly of hel cryed I, and thou heardeſt my voyce.

3 Thou haddeſt caſt me downe into yͤ deepe, into the myddeſt of the ſea, and the fluddes compaſſed me about: al thy byllowes and waues paſſed ouer me.

4 And I ſayde, I am caſt away out of thy ſyght, yet wyl I looke agayne toward thyne holy temple.

5 The waters compaſſed me euen vnto the ſoule, the deapth cloſed me on euery ſyde, and the weedes were wrapt about my head.

6 I wẽt downe to the bottome of the mountaynes, the earth with her barres was about me for euer: yet haſt thou brought vp my lyfe from corruption, O Lorde my God.

The.iii.Chapter.

2 Ionas is ſent agayne to Niniue. 5 The repentance of the kyng of Niniue.

A 1 AND the woord of the lorde came vnto Ionas the ſeconde tyme, ſayeing,

2 Aryſe, & goe to Niniue that great citie, & preache agaynſt it the preachyng which I ſpeake vnto thee.

3 So Ionas aroſe, and went to Niniue, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde. (Niniue was a great citie & [a] excellent, of three dayes iourney.)

4 And Ionas began to enter into the citie a dayes iourney, and he cryed, and ſayde, Yet fourtie dayes, and Niniue ſhalbe deſtroyed.

5 And the menne of Niniue beleued God, and proclaymed a faſt, and put on ſackcloth, from the greateſt of them, to the leaſt of them.

6 And woord came vnto the king of Niniue: Whiche aroſe from his throne, and put of his robe, and couered hym ſelfe with ſackecloth, and ſate downe in aſſhes.

7 And he cauſed a cryer to crye, & ſay through the citie, by the counſel of the kyng and his nobles, Let neyther man nor beaſt, bullocke nor ſheepe, taſte ought at al, neyther feede, nor drynke water. B

8 And let both man and beaſt put on ſackecloth, and crye myghtyly vnto GOD: yea let euery man turne from his euyl way, and from the wickedneſſe that is in his handes.

9 Who can telle whether GOD wyl turne, and be moued with [b] repentance, and turne from his fierce wrath, that we periſhe not?

10 And GOD ſawe their woorkes, that they turned from their euil waies, and he repented of the [c] euyl that he ſaide he woulde doo vnto them, and dyd it not.

[a] In the Hebrue it is a great citie to God: but ſo the Hebrues cal great and excellēt things. So the hyl of God, the Cedar of God, for a great hyl & high Cedar.

[b] God is ſayd to repent when he dooth thoſe thinges that menne doo repenting.

[c] Of yͤ euyl, that is, of the plague whiche is euyl to our ſelfe, although not in his owne nature.

The.iiii.Chapter,

The great goodneſſe of God towarde his creatures.

A 1 AND this diſpleaſed Ionas greatly, and he was [a] angry [within him ſelfe.]

2 And he prayed vnto the Lorde, and ſayde, I pray thee, O Lorde, was not this my ſayeing when I was yet in my countrey? therefore I haſted to flee into Tharſis: For I knewe that thou art a gratious God, and mercyful, long ſuffering, and of great kyndneſſe, and repenteſt thee of euyl.

3 And nowe, O Lorde, take I beſeeche thee my lyfe from me: for it is better for me to dye, then to lyue.

4 Then ſayde the Lorde, Doeſt thou wel to be angry?

5 And Ionas went out of the citie, and ſate hym downe on the Eaſt ſyde thereof, & there made hym a boothe, and ſate vnder it in the ſhadowe, tyl he myght ſee what ſhoulde be donne in the citie.

6 And the Lorde God prepared a gourd, and made it ſpring vp ouer Ionas, that it myght be a ſhadowe ouer his head, to deliuer hym from his griefe: So Ionas was exceedyng glad of the gourde.

7 But GOD prepared a worme, when the mornyng roſe the next day, whiche ſmote the gourde, that it withered. B

8 And when the ſunne roſe, God prepared a feruent Eaſt winde, and the ſunne beat vpon the head of Ionas that he faynted: & wyſhed vnto his ſoule, that he myght dye, and ſayde, It is better for me to dye, then to lyue.

9 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Ionas: Doeſt thou wel to be ſo angry within thy ſelfe for the gourde? And he ſayde, I doo wel to be angry euen vnto death.

10 Then ſayd the Lord, Thou haſt had compaſſion on the gourde, about the which thou beſtowedſt no labour, neyther madeſt it growe: whiche came vp in a night, and periſhed in a nyght:

11 And ſhal not I ſpare Niniue that great citie, in the which are more then ſixeſcore thouſand perſons that know not their right hand and their left, and alſo muche cattayle?

[a] Becauſe hereby he ſhould be takē as a falſe prophete, and ſo the name of God which he preached, ſhoulde be blaſphemed.

¶ The ende of the prophete Ionas.

The booke of the prophete Micheas.

The firſt Chapter.

Of the deſtruction of Samaria becauſe of their idolatrie.

A 1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto Micheas the Moraſthite, in the dayes of * Iotham, Ahas, and * Hezekiah, kings of Iuda, whiche he ſawe concerning Samaria and Hieruſalem.

4.Reg.15.a
2.Par.27.a
4.Reg.16.a
4.Re.18.a.

2 Heare al ye people, marke this wel, O earth, and al that therein is, yea let the Lorde God hym ſelfe be witneſſe agaynſt you, [euen] the Lorde from his holy temple.

3 For beholde, the Lorde ſhal comme out of his holy place, and comme downe, and tread vpon the hygh thynges of the earth.

4 The mountaynes ſhal melt vnder hym, and the valleyes ſhal cleaue a ſunder, lyke as waxe [melteth] before the fire, and as the waters runne downewarde.

5 And al this ſhalbe for the wickedneſſe of Iacob, and the ſinnes of the houſe of Iſrael: but what is the wickedneſſe of Iacob? is not [(a)] Samaria? Which are the high places of Iuda? is not Hieruſalem?

(a) Samaria and Hieruſalē were ȳ chiefe cities of the two kyngdomes: Idolatrie vſed in them, ſheweth ȳ general corruption through al.

6 Therefore, I wil make Samaria an heape of the fielde [meete] for the planting of a vineyarde: her ſtones wyl I tumble downe into the valley, and diſcouer her fundations.

B 7 Al her images ſhalbe broken downe, and al her garmentes ſhalbe brent in the fyre: yea, al her idolles wyl I deſtroy: for they are geathered out of the hyre of an (b) harlot, and into an harlots hyre ſhal they be turned agayne.

(b) Euil gotten, euyl ſpent.

8 Wherfore, I wil mourne and make lamentatiō, bare & naked wil I goe: I wil mourne lyke the Dragons, and take ſorowe as the Oſtriches.

9 For their wound is paſt remedy, it is comme into Iuda, and hath touched the gate of my people at Hieruſalem alredy.

10 Declare it not at Gath, neyther weepe ye: for the houſe of Aphra roule thy ſelfe in the duſt.

11 Thou that dwelleſt at Saphir geat thee hence naked with ſhame: ſhe that dwelleth at (c) Zaanan, ſhal not comme foorth in the mournyng of Bethezel: [the enimie] ſhal receiue of you for his (d) ſtandyng.

(c) Names of cities that ſhould be firſt annoyed by the enimies.
(d) The long continuance of an armie in one place is hurtful.

12 For the inhabitantes of Maroth wayled for good, but the plague ſhal comme from the Lord, euen vnto the gates of Hieruſalem.

13 O thou (e) inhabitant of Lachis, bynde the charret to the ſwyfteſt (f) beaſt, ſhe is the begynnyng of the ſinne of the daughter of Sion: for the tranſgreſſiōs of Iſrael were found in thee.

(e) Make haſte to flee away.
(f) It appeareth that this citie was one of the firſt whiche receiued the worſhyppyng of the golden calues, ſet vp by Ieroboam

14 Therefore ſhalt thou bring preſentes to (g) Moreſheth Gath: ȳ houſes of Achzib [ſhalbe] as a lye to the kynges of Iſrael.

(g) A citie ſo named.

15 And as for thee, O thou that dwelleſt at Mareſa, I ſhal bring a poſſeſſioner vpō thee, he ſhal comme to Adullam, the glorie of Iſrael.

16 Make thee baulde, (h) & ſhaue thee becauſe of thy tender children: make thee cleane bauld as an Egle, for they ſhalbe caryed away captiue from thee.

(h) Shauyng and pluckyng of heare, was vſed in tyme of mournyng.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 Threatninges agaynſt the ſinful people. 6 They would teache the prophetes to preache.

A 1 WO vnto thē that imagine iniquitie, & worke wickedneſſe vpon their beds: whē the morning is light they practiſe it, becauſe their hand hath power.

2 And they couet fieldes, and take them by violence, and houſes, and take them away: ſo they oppreſſe a man and his houſe, [euen] man and his heritage.

3 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, agaynſt this houſholde haue I deuiſed a plague, whereout ye ſhal not plucke your neckes: ye ſhal no more goe ſo proudly, for it wyl be a perilous tyme.

4 In that day ſhal this parable be vſed, and a mournyng ſhalbe made ouer you on this manner: We be vtterly deſolate, the portion of my people is tranſlated: howe wyl he part vnto vs the lande that he hath taken from vs?

5 Therefore, there ſhalbe no man to diuide thee thy portion in the congregation of the Lorde.

6 Ye ſhal not (a) prophecie [ſay they] to them that prophecie: (b) they ſhal not prophecie to them,

(a) The people tooke vpō them to forbid the prophetes to preach, and rebuke ſinne.
(b) God threatneth he wyl ſende no mo prophetes to preache vnto them, whiche is the greateſt plague that can comme to a nation.

them, neither ſhal they take ſhame.

B 7 O thou that art named the houſe of Jacob, is the ſpirite of the Lorde ſhortened? are theſe his woorkes? are not my woords good vnto hym that walketh vpryghtly?

8 But he that was yeſterday my people, is ryſen vp on the other ſyde [as] agaynſt an enimie: they ſpoyle the beautiful garment from thẽ that paſſe by peaceably, as though they returned from the warre.

9 The women of my people haue ye ſhut out from their pleaſant houſes, and taken away myne excellent gyftes from their chyldren.

10 Up, get you hence, for here ſhal ye haue no reſt: becauſe [the lande] is defyled, it ſhal deſtroy [you] with vtter deſtruction.

11 If a man (c) walke in the ſpirit, and would lye falſely [ſayeing] I wyl prophecie to thee of (d) wyne and ſtrong drinke: that were a prophete for this people.

12 I wyl ſurely geather thee wholly, O Jacob, (e) I wyl ſurely geather the remnant of Iſrael, I wyl put them togeather as the (f) ſheepe of Boſra, as the flocke in the myddeſt of their folde, they ſhal make great noyſe by reaſon of the [multitude] of menne.

13 The (g) breaker ſhal comme vp before them, they ſhal breake out, and paſſe by the gate, & goe out by it: and their king (h) ſhal goe before them, and the Lorde ſhalbe vpon their (i) heades.

(c) Takyng vpon them the office of a prophete, and pretendyng that he is directed by the ſpirite of God.

(d) Flatteryng them, by promiſing plentie, and not reprouing their ſinnes.

(e) To make an vniuerſal deſtruction.

(f) where was great plenty of ſheepe, by reaſon of the good paſtures.

(g) To breake downe their walles and gates, to cary them away captiues by heapes.

(h) As a priſoner, or captiue.

(i) To ſtirre his wrathful indignation agaynſt the Iſraelites, for their obſtinate wickedneſſe.

The.iii. Chapter.

Agaynſt the tyrannie of falſe prophetes.

A 1 AND I ſayd, heare I pray you, O heades of Jacob, and ye princes of the houſe of Iſrael, ſhoulde not ye knowe iudgement?

2 [But] they hate the good, & loue the euil, they plucke of their ſkinnes from them, and their fleaſhe from their bones.

3 And they eate alſo the fleaſhe of my people, and flay of their ſkinne from them: and they breake their bones, and chop them in peeces as for the pot, and as fleaſhe within the cauldron.

4 Then ſhal they crye vnto the Lord, but he wyl not heare them: he wyl euen hyde his face frõ them at that tyme, becauſe they haue donne wickedly in their workes.

5 Thus ſayth the Lorde concernyng the prophetes that deceiue my people, (a) and byte them with their teeth, and crie peace: but if a man put not into their mouthes, they prepare warre agaynſt hym.

6 Therefore (b) nyght [ſhalbe] vnto you for a viſion, and darkeneſſe [ſhalbe] vnto you for a diuination: and the ſunne ſhal goe downe ouer the prophetes, and the day ſhalbe darke ouer them.

7 Then ſhal the ſears be aſhamed, and the ſoothſayers confounded: yea, (c) they ſhal al couer their lyppes, for they haue none anſweare of God.

B 8 Yet not withſtandyng, I am ful of power by the ſpirite of the Lord, and of iudgement, and of ſtrength, to declare vnto Jacob his tranſgreſſion, and to Iſrael his ſinne.

9 Heare this I pray you, ye heades, of the houſe of Jacob, and princes of the houſe of Iſrael: they abhorre iudgement, & peruert al equitie.

10 (d) They buylde vp Sion with blood, and Hieruſalem with iniquitie.

11 (The heades therof iudge for rewardes, and the prieſtes thereof teache for hyre, and the prophetes thereof prophecie for money: yet wyl they leane vpon the Lorde, and ſay, Is not the Lord among vs? no euil can comme vpon vs.)

12 Therefore ſhal Sion for your ſake be plowed [as] a fielde, and Hieruſalem ſhalbe an heape, and the mountaine of the houſe, as the hygh places of the foreſt.

(a) Falſe prophetes deuoured ÿ ſubſtance of their folowers, and make gaine of religion.

(b) The knowledge whiche ye nowe pretende, ſhalbe knowen to be groſſe ignorance.

(c) They ſhal couer their faces for ſhame.

(d) They fortifie and garniſhe their citie with goods wrongfully gotten, whiche here are called blood and iniquitie.

The.iiii. Chapter.

The callyng of the Gentiles, and conuertion of the Jewes.

A 1 BUt in the (a) latter dayes it wil comme to paſſe, that the hylle of the Lordes houſe ſhalbe prepared in the toppe of the mountaynes, and ſhalbe ſet vp hygher then any mountaynes or hylles, & people ſhal preaſe vnto it.

2 Yea, the multitude of the Gentiles ſhal haſt them thither, ſayeing, Comme, let vs goe vp the hyl of the Lorde, and to the houſe of the GOD of Jacob, and he ſhal teache vs his wayes, and we wyl walke in his pathes: for the lawe ſhal comme out of Sion, and the woorde of God from Hieruſalem.

3 And he ſhal iudge many people, and rebuke myghtie nations of far countreys: ſo that of their ſwoords they ſhal make ploughſhares, and and ſithes of their ſpeares: one people ſhal not lyft vp a ſwoorde agaynſt another, yea they ſhal no more learne to fyght.

4 But euery man ſhal ſit vnder his vineyard, and vnder his fygtree, ⁊ no man ſhal make them afrayde: for the mouth of the Lorde of hoſtes hath ſpoken it.

5 Therefore al people wyl walke euery man in the name of his God: and we wyl walke in the name of our Lord God, for euer ⁊ euer.

6 At the ſame tyme, ſayth the Lorde, wyl I geather vp the lame and the outcaſt, and ſuch as I haue chaſtened,

B 7 And wyl geue a remnant vnto the lame, and make of the outcaſt a mightie people: ⁊ the Lorde hym ſelfe ſhalbe their kyng vpon the mount Sion, from this tyme foorth for euermore.

8 And vnto thee, O thou towre of the flocke, thou ſtrong holde of the daughter Sion, vnto thee ſhal it comme, euen the lordeſhyp and kyngdome to the daughter Hieruſalem.

9 Why then doeſt thou crye and lament? is there no kyng in thee? are thy counſellers peryſhed, that thou art ſo payned as a woman in her trauayle?

10 And nowe, O thou daughter Sion, ſorow and lament as a woman in her trauayle: for now muſt thou geat thee out of the citie, and dwel vpon the playne feelde: yea vnto Babylon ſhalt thou goe, [but] there ſhalt thou be deliuered, and there the Lorde ſhal redeeme thee from the hande of thyne enimies.

11 Nowe alſo are there many people geathered togeather agaynſt thee, ſayeing, Sion ſhalbe condemned, ⁊ our eye ſhal looke vpon Sion.

12 But they knowe not the thoughtes of the Lorde, they vnderſtande not his counſel: for he ſhal geather them togeather as yͤ ſheaues in the barne.

13 Therefore geat thee vp, O thou daughter Sion, and threſhe out the corne: for I wyl make thy horne iron, and thy hooues braſſe, that thou maieſt breake in peeces many people: their goodes ſhalt thou conſecrate vnto the Lorde, and their ſubſtance vnto the ruler of the whole worlde.

The.v.Chapter.

Of the deſtruction of Hieruſalem.

A 1 NOw ſhalt thou be robbed thee ſelfe, O thou robbers daughter: they ſhal laye ſiege agaynſt vs, ⁊ ſmyte the iudge of Iſrael with a rodde vpon the cheeke.

2 And thou Bethlehem Ephrata art little among the thouſandes of Iuda, out of thee ſhal he comme foorth vnto me whiche ſhalbe the gouernour in Iſrael, whoſe out goeyng hath benne from the beginnyng, and from euerlaſtyng.

3 Therfore wyl he geue them vp for a ſeaſon, vntyl the tyme that ſhe whiche ſhal beare, haue borne: then ſhal the remnant of his brethren be conuerted vnto the childrē of Iſrael.

4 He ſhal ſtande faſt, and geue foode in the ſtrength of the Lorde, and in the maieſtie of the name of the Lorde his God: and when they be conuerted, he ſhal be magnified vnto the fartheſt partes of the worlde.

5 And he ſhal be our peace: whē the Aſſyrians ſhal comme into our lande, when he ſhal treade in our palaces, then ſhal we rayſe agaynſt hym ſeuen ſhepheardes, and eyght principal menne.

6 Theſe ſhal ſubdue the lande of Aſſur with the ſwoorde, and the lande of Nimrod with their naked weapons: Thus ſhal he deliuer vs from the Aſſyrian, when he cōmeth within our lande, and ſetteth his foote within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Iacob ſhalbe among B the multitude of people, as the deawe of the Lorde, ⁊ as the droppes vpon the graſſe, that tarieth for no man, and wayteth on no body.

8 Yea the reſidue of Iacob ſhalbe among the Gentiles, and the multitude of people, as the lion among the beaſtes of the wood, and as the lions whelpe amōg the flockes of ſheepe: whiche when he goeth through, treadeth downe, teareth in peeces, and there is no man that can deliuer.

9 Thyne hand ſhalbe lyft vp vpon thine enimies, and al thyne aduerſaries ſhal periſhe.

10 And it ſhal comme to paſſe in that day, ſaith the Lorde, that I wil take thine horſes from thee, and deſtroy thy charrettes.

11 I wyl breake downe the cities of thy land, and ouerthrowe al thy ſtrong holdes.

12 Al witchcraftes wyl I roote out of thyne hande, there ſhal no mo ſoothſayeinges be within thee.

13 Thyne idolles and thyne images wyl I deſtroy out of thee, ſo that thou ſhalt no more bowe thee ſelfe vnto the woorkes of thyne owne handes.

14 Thy groues wil I plucke vp by the rootes, C and breake downe thy cities.

15 And I wyl execute a vengeance in my wrath and indignation vpon the Heathen, ſuche as they haue not hearde.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 An exhortation to heare the iudgement agaynſt Iſrael beyng vnkinde. 8 What manner of ſacrifices doo pleaſe God.

A 1 Hearken ye now what the Lorde ſayth, Aryſe thou, & contende with yͤ mountaynes, and let the hylles heare thy voyce.

2 Heare, O ye mountaines the Lordes quarel, and ye myghtie fundations of the earth: for the Lorde hath a quarel agaynſt his people, and wyl pleade with Iſrael.

3 O my people what haue I donne vnto thee? or wherin haue I greeued thee? geue mee anſweare.

4 For I brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and deliuered thee out of the houſe of bondage, and I made Moſes, Aaron, and Miriam to leade thee.

5 Remember, O my people, what Balach the kyng of Moab had diuiſed agaynſt thee, and what anſweare that Balaam the ſonne of Beor gaue hym, from Sethin vnto Galgal, that ye may know the ryghteouſneſſe of the Lorde.

6 Wherwith ſhal I comme before the Lord, and bowe mee ſelfe to the high God? Shal I comme before hym with burnt offerynges, and with calues of a yeere olde?

B 7 Hath the Lorde a pleaſure in many thouſands of Rammes, or innumerable ſtreames of oyle? ſhal I geue my firſt borne for myne offences, & the fruite of my body for the ſinne of my ſoule?

8 He hath ſhewed thee, O man, what is good, & what the Lorde requireth of thee: [namely] to doo iuſtly, to loue mercy, and to humble thy ſelfe to walke with thy God.

9 The Lordes voyce crieth vnto the citie, and the man that ſhalbe ſaued, conſydereth thy name: hearken what is your rod, and heare him that warneth you.

10 Are not yet the treaſures of wyckedneſſe in the houſe of the wicked, and the ſcant meaſure whiche is abominable?

11 Shoulde I iuſtifie the falſe balances, and the bagge of deceiptful weyghtes?

12 For the ryche menne thereof are ful of crueltie, and the inhabitantes therof haue ſpoken lyes, and haue deceiptful tongues in their mouthes.

13 Therfore I wyl take in hande to pouniſhe thee, and to make thee deſolate, becauſe of thy ſinnes.

14 Thou ſhalt eate, and not haue yenough: C yea, thou ſhal bryng thy ſelfe downe in the middes of thee, thou ſhal flee, but not eſcape, and thoſe that thou wouldeſt ſaue, wyl I deliuer to the ſwoorde.

15 Thou ſhalt ſowe, but not reape, thou ſhalt preſſe out Oliues, but oyle ſhalt thou not haue to annoynt thy ſelfe withal: thou ſhalt treade out ſweete muſt, but ſhalt drynke no wyne.

16 Ye keepe the ordinances of Amri, and al the cuſtomes of the houſe of Ahab, ye walke in their counſels: therefore wyl I make thee waſte, and cauſe thy inhabiters to be hyſſed at, and ye ſhal beare the reproche of my people.

The.vii.Chapter.

1 A complaynt of the litle number of the ryghteous. 5 Agaynſt the trueth ought we not to holde with our greateſt friendes. 14 The proſperitie of the Churche.

A 1 Wo is me, I am become as one that goeth a gleaning in the harueſt: there are no mo grapes to eate, yet woulde I fayne with al my hart haue of the beſt fruite.

Rom. iij.d 2 *There is not a godly vpon earth, there is not one ryghteous among menne: they al lye in wayte for blood, and euery man hunteth his brother to death.

3 Yet they ſay they doo wel, when they doo euyl: the prince[a] aſketh, & the iudge [iudgeth] for a reward, therfore the great man ſpeaketh out of the corruption of his ſoule, and ſo they wrappe it vp.

[a] Both the prince and iudges for gayne peruert iuſtice: and ſo the myghtie and the ryche eſcape vnpouniſhed, though they commit greeuous crimes.

4 The beſt of them is as bryer, and the moſt ryghteous of them is [ſharper] then a thorne hedge: the day of thy watchmen, [and] of thy viſitation commeth: then ſhalbe their confuſion.

5 *Let no man beleue his friende, nor put his confydence in his brother: keepe the doore of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy boſome. Iere. ix.a

6 *For the ſonne diſhonoreth his father, the daughter riſeth againſt her mother, yͤ daughter in lawe agaynſt her mother in lawe: and a mans foes are euen they of his owne houſholde. Mach. x.c Deut. 13.b and. 33.b. Pſal. 37.b and. 54.b

7 Neuertheleſſe, I wyl looke vp vnto the Lorde, I wyl patiently abyde God my sauiour: my God ſhal heare me. B

Pro,17,a. 8 *O thou enimie of myne, reioyce not at my falle, for I ſhal ryſe agayne: and though I ſit in darkneſſe, yet the Lorde is my light.

9 I wyl beare the wrath of the Lorde, for I haue offended hym, tyl he ſit in iudgemente vpon my cauſe, & ſee that I haue ryght: then wyl he bryng me foorth to the light, and I ſhal ſee his ryghteouſneſſe.

10 She that is myne enimie, ſhal looke vpon it, and be confounded, whiche nowe ſayth,* where is the Lord thy God? myne eyes ſhal beholde her, when ſhe ſhalbe troden downe as the myre in the ſtreetes. 4.Re,19,a.

Amos,9.c 11 * This is the day that thy walles ſhalbe buylte, this day ſhal dryue farre away the (b) decree.

(b) Thou ſhalt no more be ſubiect to the forraine tirannie of the Babylonians.

12 And at that tyme ſhal they comme vnto thee from Aſſur, from the ſtrong cities, and from the ſtrong holdes, euen vnto the ryuer: from the one ſea to the other, & from mountayne to mountayne.

13 Notwithſtandyng, the lande muſt be waſted, becauſe of them that dwel therein, and for the fruites of theyr owne imaginations.

C 14 Therefore feede thy people with thy rodde, the flocke of thyne heritage whiche dwel deſolate in the woode, that they may be fed vpon the (c) mount of Carmel, Baſan, and Gilead, as aforetyme.

(c) That the people may returne out of the captiuitie of Babylon, and enioye the lande of promiſe, as they dyd before.

15 Marueylous thynges wyl I ſhewe thee,* lyke as when thou cameſt out of the lande of Egypt. Exod,13,a.

16 This ſhal the heathen ſee, and be aſhamed for al theyr power: ſo that they ſhal lay theyr hande vpon theyr mouth, and ſtoppe theyr eares. Iob.39.d.

17 * They ſhal licke the duſt lyke a ſerpent, and as the wormes of the earth that tremble in theyr holes: they ſhalbe afrayd of the Lord our God, and they ſhal feare thee. Gene,3,c, 18 Who is ſuch a God as thou, that pardoneſt wickedneſſe, and forgeueſt the offences of the remnant of thyne heritage? He keepeth not his wrath for euer: for his delight is to haue compaſſion.

19 * He ſhal turne agayne, and be mercyful to vs, he ſhal put downe our wickedneſſes, and caſt al our ſynnes into the botome of the ſea. Iere.9.d.

20 Thou wylt perfourme to Iacob thy trueth, and thy mercy to Abraham, lyke as thou haſt ſworne vnto our fathers in olde tyme.

The ende of the prophecie of Micheas.

The booke of the prophete Nahum.

The firſt Chapter.

Of the deſtruction of the Aſſyrians, and of the deliuerance of Iſrael.

A 1 The burden of (a) Niniue: The booke of the viſion of Nahum the Elkoſhite.

(a) The Niniuites were ſpared, becauſe they repented at the preachyng of Ionas: but afterwardes they returned to theyr former wickedneſſe, therfore God threateneth them by this prophete.

2 God is ielous, and the Lorde auengeth, the Lord auengeth & hath wrath in ſtore: the Lorde auengeth vpon them that trouble hym, & he remembreth his enimies.

3 The Lorde is ſlowe to anger, and [alſo] of great power, and in no caſe wyl not acquite [the wicked,] the Lordes dealing is with bluſtryng tempeſt and whyrle wynde, and the cloudes are the duſt of his feete.

4 He rebuketh the ſea, and dryeth it vp, al the riuers alſo he maketh drye: Baſan and Carmel are deſtroyed, the ſpring alſo of Libanon is deſtroyed.

" Or, for hym 5 The mountaynes quake " at his power, and the hilles are reſolued: the earth alſo burneth at his countenance, the worlde and al that dwelleth therein.

6 Who canne ſtande before his wrath? Or who canne ryſe vp before the anger of his countenance, his fierceneſſe is powred out like fire, yea, the rockes cleaue in peeces at his might.

7 The Lord is gratious, a ſtrong hold in the day of trouble, and knoweth them that truſt in hym. B

8 But with an ouerrunnyng fludde he wyl deſtroy her place, and wyl purſue his enimies with darkeneſſe.

9 What imagine ye agaynſte the Lorde? He makes an vtter deſtruction: ye ſhal not be troubled twyſe.

10 For whyles the thornes cleaue togeather, and whyles they banquet out theyr feaſtes, they are deuoured vp as very drye ſtubble.

11 There came out of thee ſuche as thought euyl agaynſt the Lord, ſuch as gaue wicked counſel, counſel.

12 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Though ye be in concorde, and alſo many, yet ſo ſhal ye be cut downe, and paſſe: and [though] I haue afflicted thee, [O Hieruſalem,] yet wil I trouble thee no more.

13 And nowe I wyl breake of his yoke from [vpon] thee, and I wyl breake thy bondes in ſunder.

C 14 The Lord alſo hath geuen a commaundemente touchyng thee, that there ſhalbe no more offſpryng of thy name: from the houſe of thy God, I wyl cut of carued and molten image, I wyl make [it] thy graue, for thou art vile.

15 Beholde vpon the mountaynes the feete of him that bringeth good tidings, that preacheth peace: Keepe thy feſtiual dayes, O Iuda, paye thy vowes: for the wicked [tyrant] ſhal hereafter paſſe no more through thee, he is vtterly cut of.

The.ii.Chapter.

He deſcribeth the victories of the Chaldeans, agaynſt the Aſſyrians.

A 1 THE deſtroyer is comme vp before thy face, keepe thy forte, ſee to the way, ſtrengthen [thy] loynes, increaſe [thy] ſtrength mightily:

2 For the Lorde reſtores agayne the glorious eſtate of Iacob, as [alſo] the glorious eſtate of Iſrael: for ſpoylers hath ſpoyled them, and hath waſted theyr branches.

3 The ſhielde of his valiant ſouldiers, [is] dyed redde, his captaines of warre are clad with ſcarlet: the charret is [compaſſed] with flaming torches in the day of his expedition, and the firre ſtaues are drenched in poyſon.

4 The charrets ſhal rage in the ſtreetes, they ſhal make a terrible noyſe in yͤ broad wayes, to looke to lyke [flamyng] creſſettes, ſhooting as lightening.

5 He ſhal remember his notable ſouldiers, they ſhal ſtumble in goeyng, they ſhal haſten to the wal, the couering fence is prepared.

6 The riuer gates are opened, and the palace diſſolued.

B 7 Huzab is brought forth captiue, made to aſcende [into the charrettes,] her handemaidens alſo leadyng [one another,] as in the voyce of doues, knocking vpon theyr breaſtes.

8 Yea, many a day Niniue was as a ponde ful of water, yet [nowe] they flee, Stande ye, ſtande ye, and no man looketh backe.

9 Take your ſpoyle of ſiluer, take your ſpoyle of gold, for there is no ende of riches: treaſure, paſſing al treaſure.

10 Sacking, reſacking, raſyng, a diſſolued harte, and colliſion of knees, ſorowe in al loynes alſo, ⁊ the faces of them as blacke as a pot.

11 Where is the abiding place of lions, and the feedyng plot of lions whelpes [become] whither the young and olde lion had their reſort: there dwelte the lion, and there was no man to put hym in feare.

12 The lion made his praye abundantly for his whelpes, and ſtrangled for his ſhee lions, and hath filled his dennes with pray, and his abiding places with ſpoyle.

13 Beholde me agaynſt thee, ſayth the Lorde C of hoſtes, and I wil burne in ſmoke her charrettes, and the ſwoorde ſhal deuoure thy lions, I wyl roote out alſo from the earth thy ſpoyling, and the voyce of thy meſſengers ſhalbe hearde no more.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 Of the falle of Niniue. 8 No power can eſcape the hande of God.

A 1 O Bloody citie, ſtuffed thorowout with falſhoode, with extreame dealyng, nor wyl be brought from ſpoylyng.

2 The noyſe of the whip, the noyſe of the ratling of wheeles, the praunſyng of horſes, and the iumping of charrettes:

3 The horſemanne lifting vp both the gliſteryng blade of the ſwoorde, and alſo the ſhynyng ſpeare, many wounded, many corpſes, and no ende of carcaſſes, they ſhal ſtumble at dead bodyes.

4 Becauſe of the manyfolde fornication of the beautiful harlot, ful of charmes, that ſels nations by the meanes of her whoredome, and the people through her charminges:

5 Loe, I agaynſt thee, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, and wyl turne vp thy ſkirtes ouer thy face, and wyl ſhewe the Gentiles thy fylthe, and kingdomes thy ſhame,

6 And wyl caſt vpon thee abominable fylth, and wyl bryng thee downe, and wyl make thee as vyle as doung.

7 And it ſhal come to paſſe, that al that ſhal B behold thee, ſhal flee from thee, and ſhal ſaye, Niniue is deſtroyed, ⁊ who is greeued therewith? from whence ſhal I ſeeke out comforters for thee?

8 Wylt thou count thee ſelfe better then Alexandria the great, that was ſcituate amonges the riuers, compaſſed round about with water, whoſe fortreſſe was the ſea, [and had] her wal from the ſea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypte [were thy] ſtrength, and there was none ende [of ayde,] Phut and Lubim were thy helpers.

10 Notwithſtandyng, ſhe paſſed awaye, ſhe went into captiuitie, her chyldren alſo were daſhed in peeces in the toppe of al the ſtreetes: for her honorable men they caſt lottes, and al her great ſtates they chayned in fetters.

11 And thou [alſo] ſhalt be drunken [with trouble,] thou ſhalt be hidde: ″ thou alſo ſhalt ſeeke after ſtrength agaynſt thyne enimie.

″ Or, moreouer.

12 Al thy ſtrong aydes [are as] fygge trees with the firſte rype fygges: if they be ſtirred, they fal into the mouth of the eater.

13 Beholde, thy menne [are as barren] women in the middeſt of thee, the gates of thy lande ſhalbe ſet wyde open to thyne enimies, fyre hath deuoured thy barres.

C 14 Drawe thee water for the ſiege, ſtrengthen thy fortes, goe into the claye, treade the morter, make ſtrong the brickil.

15 There the fyre ſhal deuoure thee, the ſword ſhal cut thee of, ſhal deuour thee as the locuſt, though [thou] be multiplied as the locuſt, though thou be as many as the Graſhopper.

16 Thou haſt increaſed thy marchantes as the ſtarres of heauen, the locuſt ſpoyleth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy princes are as Graſhoppers, and thy rulers as great locuſtes, they ſwarme in hedges in colde weather, the ſunne aryſeth, and they flee, and the place where they were, is not knowen.

18 Thy Sheepheardes, O king of Aſſur, ſlumber, thy noble menne ſhal dwel [in death,] thy people is ſcattered vpon the mountaines, and there is none to geather them togeather.

19 Thy wound [ſhal] not be healed, thy plague is great, al that heare of thee, clappe their handes: For to whom hath not thy euil dealing pearſed continually?

¶ The booke of the prophete Habacuc.

The firſt Chapter.

1 A complaynt agaynſt the wicked that perſecute the iuſte. 6 He ſheweth that the Chaldeans are rayſed vp of the Lorde for the chaſtiſmente of the Iewes, and deſcribeth theyr armie. 12 He comforteth the faithful, declaring that God wyl alſo deſtroy the Babylonians, becauſe they ſhal abuſe theyr victorie, and becomme proude and inſolent, attributing the prayſe thereof to theyr idolles.

A 1 THE (a) burden whiche Habacuc the prophet dyd ſee.

(a) That is, yͤ great calamitie whiche he prophecied to come on Iuda as a moſt greuous burden, whiche they were not able to beare.

2 O Lord, how long ſhal I cry, and thou wylt not heare? [euē] crye out vnto thee for violēce, and thou wylt not healpe?

3 Why dooeſt thou ſhewe me iniquitie, and cauſe me to behold ſorowe? for ſpoylyng and violence are before me, and there are that raiſe vp ſtrife and contention.

4 Therfore the law is ″ diſſolued, and iudgement dooth neuer goe foorth: for the wicked dooth compaſſe about the righteous, therfore wrong iudgement proceedeth.

″ Or, weakened.

5 * Beholde among the heathen, and regard, & woonder, and marueyle: for I wyl woorke a woorke in your dayes, ye wil not beleeue it, though it be tolde you.

Actes.13.f.

6 For loe, I rayſe vp the Chaldeans, that bytter and furious nation, which ſhal ″ goe vpon the breadth of the land, to poſſeſſe the dwelling places that are not theyrs.

″ Or, paſſe through.

7 They are terrible & feareful: (b) theyr iudgemente & theyr dignitie ſhal proceede of them ſelues.

(b) That is, they them ſelues ſhalbe your iudges in this cauſe, and none ſhal haue auctoritie ouer them to control them.

8 Theyr horſes alſo are ſwifter then the Leopardes, and are more fierce then the wolues in the * euening, and theyr horſemenne ſhal comme from farre: they ſhal flee as the Egle haſtyng to meate.

Zoph.3.a.

9 They comme al to ſpoyle: before theyr faces ſhalbe an (c) Eaſt wynde, and they ſhal geather the captiuitie as the ſande.

(c) For the Iewes moſte feared this wind, becauſe it deſtroyed theyr fruites.

10 And they ſhal mocke the kynges, and the princes ſhalbe a ſcorne vnto them: they ſhal deride euery ſtrong hold, for they ſhal geather (d) duſt, and take it.

(d) They ſhal caſt vp mountes againſt it.

11 Then ſhal they ″ take a courage, and tranſgreſſe, & doo wickedly, [imputing] this theyr power vnto theyr god.

″ Or, change theyr ſpirite.

12 Art not thou of olde, O Lorde my God, my holy one? we ſhal not dye, O Lord thou haſt ordeyned them for iudgement, and, O God, thou haſt eſtabliſhed them for correction.

13 Thou art of pure eyes, and canſt not ſee euil, thou canſt not beholde wickedneſſe:* Wherefore [then] dooeſt thou looke vpon the tranſgreſſours, and holdeſt thy tongue when the wicked deuoureth the manne that is more righteous then he?

14 And maketh menne as the (e) fiſhe of the ſea, and as the creeping thynges that haue no ruler ouer them.

15 They take vp al with the angle, they catch it in theyr nette, and geather it in theyr yarne: whereof they reioyce, and are glad.

16 Therefore they ſacrifice vnto theyr (f) net, and burne incenſe vnto theyr yarne: becauſe by them theyr portion is fat, and theyr meate " plenteous.

17 Shal they therfore " ſtretche out theyr net, & not ſpare continually to ſlay the (g) nations?

The.ii.Chapter.

A viſion agaynſt pride, couetouſneſſe, drunkenneſſe, and idolatrie.

1 I wyl ſtande vpon my * watche, and ſet me vpon the towre, and wyl looke and ſee what he wyl ſaye vnto me, and what I ſhal anſweare to " hym that rebuketh me.

2 And the Lorde anſweared me, and ſayde, Wryte the viſion, and make it playne vpon tables, that he may runne, that (a) readeth it.

3 For the viſion is yet for an appoynted time, but at the laſt it ſhal ſpeake, & not lye: though it tarrie, wayte: for it ſhal ſurely comme, and ſhal not ſtaye.

4 Beholde, (b) he that " lifteth vp hym ſelfe, his minde is not vpright in him: but the iuſt ſhal liue by his fayth.

5 Yea, in deede (c) the proud man [is as] he that tranſgreſſeth by wyne, therefore ſhal he " not endure, becauſe he hath enlarged his deſyre as the hel, and is as death, and can not be ſatiſfied, but geathereth vnto him al nations, and heapeth vnto him al people.

6 Shal not al theſe take vp a parable againſt hym? and a " tauntyng prouerbe agaynſte hym, and ſaye, Wo, he that increaſeth that whiche is not his? (d) howe long? and he that ladeth hym ſelfe with thicke claye?

7 Shal (e) they not riſe vp ſuddainly that ſhal bite thee? and awake that ſhal ſtirre thee, and thou ſhalt be " theyr pray?

8 Becauſe thou haſt ſpoyled many nations, al the remnant of the people ſhal ſpoyle thee, becauſe of mennes blood, and for the wrong [donne] in the lande, in the citie, and vnto al that dwel therein.

9 " Wo, he that coueteth an euyl couetouſneſſe to his houſe, that he may ſet his neaſt on high, to eſcape from the power of " euyl.

10 Thou " haſt conſulted ſhame to thine owne houſe, by deſtroyeing many people, and haſt ſinned agaynſt thine owne ſoule, 11 For the ſtone ſhal crye out of the walle, and the beame out of the timber ſhal anſweare it.

12 (f) Wo vnto hym that buyldeth a towne with blood, & " erecteth a citie by iniquitie.

13 Behold, is it not of the Lord of hoſtes that the people ſhal labour in " the very (g) fyre? the people ſhal euen weery them ſelues for very vanitie.

14 For the earth ſhalbe (h) filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lorde, as the waters couer the ſea.

15 Wo vnto him that geueth his neyghbour drinke, thou ioyneſt thy " heate, and makeſt [hym] drunken alſo, that thou mayſt ſee their priuities.

16 Thou art filled with ſhame for glory, drinke thou alſo, " and be made naked: the cuppe of the Lordes right hande ſhalbe turned vnto thee, & ſhameful ſpuing ſhalbe for thy glory.

17 For the crueltie of (i) Libanus ſhal couer thee: ſo ſhal the ſpoyle of the beaſtes " which he made afrayde, becauſe of mennes blood, and for the wrong donne in the lande, in the citie, and vnto al that dwel therin.

18 What profiteth the image? for the maker thereof hath made it an image, and a teacher of lyes, though he that made it, truſt therin when he maketh dumbe idols.

19 Wo vnto hym that ſayth to the woode, Awake: and to the dumbe ſtone, Ryſe vp, " it ſhal teache [thee:] beholde it is layde ouer with gold and ſiluer, & there is no breath in it.

20 But the Lorde is in his holy temple: let al the earth keepe ſcilence before hym.

¶ The booke of the prophete Aggeus.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The tyme of the prophecie of Aggeus. 8 An exhortation to buylde the temple agayne.

1 IN the ſeconde yeere of kynge Darius, in the ſixth moneth, ẏ fyrſte day of the moneth, came the worde of the Lord by the miniſterie of ẏ prophet Aggeus,[a] vnto Zorobabel[b] the ſonne of Salathiel, a prince of Iuda, and to Ioſua, the ſonne of Ioſedech the hygh prieſt, ſayeing,

2 Thus ſpeaketh the Lord of hoſtes, ſayeing, This people ſayth,[c] The tyme is not yet comme for the Lordes houſe to be buylded.

3 Then came the worde of the Lorde by the miniſterie of the prophete Aggeus, ſayeing,

4 Is it tyme for you your ſelues to dwelle in ſeeled houſes, and this houſe lye waſte?

5 Nowe thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes, Conſyder your owne wayes in your hartes.

6 Ye[d] haue ſowen muche, but ye bring litle in: ye eate, but ye haue not yenough: ye drinke, but ye are not filled: ye cloth you, but ye be not warme: and he that earneth wages, putteth the wages into a broken bagge.

7 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Conſyder your owne wayes in your hartes.

8 [e] Get you vp to the mountayne, & fetche woode, and buylde this houſe, and I wyl[f] take pleaſure in it, and[g] I wyl be glorified, ſayth the Lorde.

9 Ye looked for much, and loe it came to litle, and when ye brought it home, I dyd blowe vpon it: and why, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes? Becauſe of my houſe that is waſte, and you runne euery man into his owne houſe.

10 Therefore, vpon you the heauen is ſtayed from deawe, and the earth is ſtayed from yeelding her increaſe.

11 And I haue called for a[h] drought vpon the land, and vpon the mountaynes, and vpon the corne, and vpon the wine, and vpon the oyle, and vpon al that the grounde bryngeth foorth, vpon menne, and vpon catayle, and vpon al the labour of the handes.

12 When Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, and Ioſua the ſonne of Ioſedech the hygh prieſte, with al the[i] remnant of the people, hearde the voyce of the Lorde theyr GOD, and the[k] woordes of the prophet Haggeus, as the Lorde theyr God had ſent hym, then the people dyd feare before the Lorde.

13 Then Haggeus the[l] Lordes meſſenger ſayde in the Lordes meſſage vnto the people, ſayeing, I[m] am with you, ſayth the Lord.

14 And the Lorde ſtirred vp the[n] ſpirite of Zorobabel, the ſonne of Salathiel, a prince of Iuda, and the ſpirite of Ioſua the ſonne of Ioſedech, the hygh prieſt, and the ſpirite of al the people: and they came and dyd the worke in the houſe of the Lord of hoſtes theyr God.

The .ii. Capter.

1 He ſheweth that the glory of the ſeconde temple ſhal exceed the firſt.

1 IN the[a] twentie & fourth day of the ſixth moneth, in the ſecond yere of king Darius,

2 In the[b] ſeuenth moneth, in the twentie and one day of the moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde by the miniſterie of the prophete Haggeus, ſayeing,

3 Saye now to Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, prince of Iuda, & to Ioſua the ſonne of Ioſedech the high prieſt, and to the reaſt of the people, ſayeing,

4 [c] Who is among you leaſt, whiche ſawe this houſe in her fyrſte glory, and howe doo you ſee it now? Is it not in your eyes in compariſon of it, as nothing?

5 Yet now be of good cheare, O Zorobabel, ſayth the Lorde, and be of good comforte, O Ioſua thou high prieſte, ſonne of Ioſedech, & be ſtrong al ye people of the lande, ſayth the Lorde, and worke: for I am[d] with you, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes,

6 According to the[e] woord that I couenanted with you, when ye came out of Egypt: and my[f] ſpirite ſhal remayne with you, feare ye not,

7 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes,[g] Yet a litle while, and I wyl[h] ſhake the heauens, and the earth, and the ſea, and the drye lande.

8 And I wyl moue al nations, and the deſire of al nations ſhal comme, and I wyl fil this houſe

---

[a] Though ẏ people tranſgreſſe: yet the prophet is ſent to the prince, and prieſte, whoſe negligence often tymes, is the cauſe of the peoples ſinne.

[b] Zorobabel was the ſonne of Phadaia, as 1.Par.3. & ver.18. his fathers name is leaſt out, and his grandfathers name ſupplyed, becauſe it was not ſo obſcure as was the other.

[c] And yet there were now ſeuentiene yeeres paſt, ſince Cyrus had graunted them libertie to buylde.

[d] God is the geuer of encreaſe, neither may any thing proſper without his bleſſing.

[e] It is a paineful thing to climbe vp the hilles, to drawe downe trees, and to buylde: ſuch is theyr labour, that buyld the Churche.

[f] In Chriſt only is God merciful vnto vs, and in his Church only is ſaluation: both the whiche are here ſignified by this temple.

[g] The ende why Chriſte buyldeth his church is: that we may haue hym fauourable to vs, and he be glorified

[h] Suche is the almyghty power of god, that he nedeth but to cal for his plagues, & they be at commaundement.

[i] For the greater parte carried in Babilon, & would not take the libertie which Cyrus had geuen them.

[k] Here is no difference made betweene the woorde of the prophet, & the word of God, to ſhewe that the prophete muſt ſo ſpeke, and the people ſo heare them, as the wordes of God.

[l] This ſhould be remembred of al miniſters that they be gods meſſengers, & therfore muſt be faythful, diligent, & conſtant.

[m] The penitent are not forſaken, God comforteth them, and aſſureth them of his owne preſence.

[n] God is ſayde to ſtirre vp our ſpirites, when he moueth our hartes by the power of his ſpirite, boldly to take in hand, and perfectly to finiſh that which he commaundeth

---

[a] They had but three weekes, and three daies, to heare the prophete, and to prepare theyr toles for theyr worke, ſo diligent were they after the preachyng of the prophete.

[b] They had nowe not wrought a ful moneth, yet they waxed weery: & therfore had neede to be ſet on a freaſhe by the prophete, who was therefore nowe ſent vnto them again.

[c] As were Seraiah, Zephaniah, and others. 2.Re. cap.25.ver.18 which ſaw the olde temple, and now were returned with Zorobabel. Eſ.ca.6.ver.3

[d] A ſtrong argument why the people ſhoulde be of good courage, when they are ſure that god is with them.

[e] God made many promiſes to his people, after their departure out of Egypt: but inaſmuche as he goeth about to ſpeake of Chriſt in this place, it maye wel be thought that he meaneth here the promiſe made. De.18.ve.15. and repeated. Act.7.ver.27.

[f] Before he confirmed his promiſe made of chriſt, nowe he promiſeth his ſpirite: therefore there is no cauſe of feare.

[g] There paſſed.519.yeres after this prophecie, before Chriſte came: yet are they ſayd to be but a litle whyle in compariſon of the time ſince the creation, the tyme that ſhalbe before the iudgement: or in reſpect of eternite, or in the ſyght of God, with whom, a thouſand yeeres is but as one day.

[h] I wyl cauſe great feare to be: or the heauens ſhalbe ſtirred at the byrth of Chriſt, his baptiſme, aſcention, at his commyng to iudgement: but chiefely it ſetteth out the maieſtie of Chriſte, to whom heauen, earth, and ſea, ſhal obey.

houſe with glorie, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

9 (i) The ſiluer is mine, and the gold is myne, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

(i) It is not the want of ryches that cauſeth this houſe to be built in this ſort, ſeeyng that I haue al treaſures at my commaundement.

10 The glorie of the (k) ſeconde houſe, ſhalbe greater then the glorie of the firſt, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes: and in this place wyl I geue peace, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

(k) This is ſpoken, not of this houſe, but of ẏ ſpirituall Hieruſalem. He.12.ver.22.

11 In the twentie & fourth day of the (l) nienth moneth, in the ſecond yeere of kyng Darius, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto the prophete Haggeus, ſayeing,

(l) In the ſixth moneth, and in the ſeuenth, had Aggeus propheced: in the eyght moneth Zacharie: and nowe in the nienth is Aggeus ſent agayne: ſuche care hath god ouer his, and ſuche neede haue the people of inſtruction.

12 Thus ſaith the Lorde God of hoſtes, Aſke nowe ye prieſtes [concerning] the lawe, ſayeing, 13 If one beare holy fleaſhe in the ſkirt of his coate, and with his ſkirt doo touch the bread, potage, wyne, oyle, or any other meate: ſhal it be holy? And the prieſtes anſweared, & ſayde, No.

14 And Haggeus ſayde, If a polluted perſon touche any of theſe, ſhal he not be polluted? C And the prieſtes anſweared, and ſayde, He ſhalbe polluted.

15 Then Haggeus anſweared, and ſayde, So is this people, and ſo is this nation (m) before me, ſayth the Lorde, and ſo is al the woorke of their handes: and that whiche they offer there, is vncleane.

(m) Seeme they neuer ſo perfect in their owne eyes, yet to God, who knoweth thẽ, they appeare as they are.

16 And nowe conſyder, I pray you, in your myndes, from this day, and vpwarde, before there was layed one ſtone vpon another in the houſe of the Lorde,

17 Before theſe thynges [were donne] when one came to a heape of twentie [meaſures] there were but ten: ſo, who came to the wyne preſſe for to drawe out fiftie [veſſels of wyne] out of the preſſe, there were but twentie.

18 I ſmote you with blaſting, and with mildewe, and with hayle, and in al the woorke of your handes, and you turned not vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

19 Conſyder nowe in your mindes, from this day, and afore, from the foure and twentieth day of the nienth [moneth,] vnto the day that the fundation of the lordes temple was layd, conſyder it in your myndes:

20 Is the ſeede yet in the barne? as yet the vines, and the figge tree, & the pomegranate, and the oliue tree, hath not brought foorth: from this day wyl I bleſſe [you.]

21 D And (n) agaiue, the woord of the Lord came vnto Haggei, in the foure & twentieth [day] of the moneth, ſayeing,

(n) He is ſent twyſe in one day to propheſie vnto the people.

22 Speake to Zorobabel the prince of Iuda, and ſay, I wyl ſhake the heauens, & the earth:

23 And I wyl ouerthrowe the " throne of kyngdomes, and I wyl deſtroy the ſtrength of the kyngdomes of the Heathen, and I wil ouerthrow the charrettes, and the ſitters theron, and the horſe & the ryders ſhal fal downe euery one by the ſwoorde of his brother.

" or ſeate.

24 In that day, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, wil I take thee Zorobabel my ſeruant, ſonne of Salathiel, ſayth the Lord, and wyl make thee as a ſignet: for I haue choſen thee, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

❧ The booke of the prophete Zacharias.

The firſt Chapter.

1 He moueth the people to returne to the Lorde, and eſchewe the wickedneſſe of their fathers.
36 He prefigureth Chriſte and his Apoſtles.

A 1 IN the eight moneth of the ſecõd yeere of kyng Darius, came the woord of the Lord vnto * Zacharias ẏ ſonne of Barachias ẏ ſonne of Addo the prophet, saieing,

Mat.23.d.

2 The Lorde hath benne ſore diſpleaſed with your forefathers.

3 And ſay thou vnto them, thus ſaith the lord of hoſtes, * Turne you vnto me, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, and I wyl turne vnto you, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

Iere.31.c. Malac.3.b.

4 Be ye not like your forefathers, vnto whom prophetes cryed, ſayeing, Thus ſaith the lord of hoſtes, * Turne you from your euil waies, and from your wicked imaginations: * But they woulde not heare, nor regarde me, ſayth the Lorde.

Iere.44.a. Pſal.78.a. Oſea.14.a. Tob.13.b. Iere.44.a.

5 What is nowe become of your forefathers? and doo the prophetes lyue for euer?

6 But did not my woordes & ſtatutes, which I commaunded by my ſeruantes the prophetes, take holde of your forefathers? & they returned, and ſayde, Lyke as the Lorde of hoſtes determined to doo vnto vs accordyng to our owne wayes and imaginations, euen ſo hath he dealt with vs.

B 7 Upon the twentie and fourth day of the eleuenth moneth, (which is yͤ moneth Sebah) in the ſecond yeere of Darius, came yͤ woorde of the Lorde vnto Zacharias, the ſonne of Barachias, the ſonne of Addo the prophete, ſayeing,

8 I ſawe by nyght, and behold, there ſate one vpon *a red horſe, and ſtoode ſtyl among the myrre trees that were in a botome: & behinde hym were there redde, ſpeckled, and whyte horſes.

Zach.vi.a
Apoc.vi.a

9 Then ſayde I, O my Lord, what are theſe? And the angel that talked with me, ſayd vnto me, I wyl ſhewe thee what theſe be.

10 And the man that ſtood among the myrre trees anſweared, and ſayde, These are they whom the Lorde hath ſent to goe thorowe the worlde.

11 And they anſweared the angel of the Lord that ſtoode among the myrre trees, and ſayd, We haue gonne thorowe the world, and beholde al the world ſitteth ſtyl, and is careleſſe.

12 Then the Lordes angel gaue anſweare, and ſayd, O Lorde of hoſtes, how long wilt thou be vnmercyful to Hieruſalem, & to the cities of Iuda, *with whom thou haſt benne diſpleaſed nowe theſe three ſcore and tenne yeeres?

Iere.25.b and. 29.b. i.Eſd.i.a

13 So the Lorde gaue a louyng and a comfortable anſweare vnto the angel that talked with me.

C 14 And the angel that communed with me, ſayde vnto me, Crye thou, and ſpeake, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, I am exceeding ielous ouer Hieruſalem and Sion, 15 And ſore diſpleaſed at the careleſſe Heathen: for where as I was but a litle angry, they helped forwarde the affliction.

16 Therefore, thus ſayth the Lorde: *I wyl returne vnto Hieruſalem in tender mercy, ſo that my houſe ſhalbe buylded in it, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, yea, and the (a) lyne ſhalbe ſtretched vpon Hieruſalem.

Zach.8.a

(a) Suche as Maſons and Carpenters vſe in building

17 Crye alſo, and ſpeake, thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, My cities ſhalbe in good proſperitie agayne, the Lorde ſhal yet comfort Sion, and chooſe Hieruſalem.

18 Then lyft I vp myne eyes and ſawe, and beholde, foure hornes.

19 And I ſayde vnto the angel that talked with me, What be theſe? He anſweared me, *Theſe are the hornes whiche haue ſcattered Iuda, Iſrael, and Hieruſalem.

Dani.vii.d

20 And the Lorde ſhewed me foure carpenters.

21 Then ſayde I, What wyl theſe doo? He anſweared, and ſayde, Theſe are the hornes whiche haue ſcattered Iuda, ſo that no man durſt lift vp his head: but theſe are comme to fray them away, and to caſt out the hornes of the Gentiles, whiche lyft vp their horns ouer the lande of Iuda to ſcatter it abroade. 2 Then ſayde I, Whyther goeſt thou? And he ſayde vnto me, To meaſure Hieruſalem, that I may ſee howe long, and howe broade it is.

3 And behold, the angel that talked with me, went his way foorth: Then went there out another angel to meete hym,

4 And ſayd vnto him, Runne, ſpeake to this young man, and ſay, Hieruſalem ſhalbe inhabited without any wal, for the very multitude of people and cattaile that ſhalbe therin.

Deut.iij.d 5 For I mee ſelfe, ſaith the Lorde, wyl be vnto her a wal of fyre rounde about, and wil be the glorie in the middeſt of her.

6 O geat you foorth, O flee from the lande of the North, ſayth the Lorde: For I haue ſcattred you into the foure windes of the heauen, ſayth the Lorde.

7 Saue thee ſelfe, O Sion, thou that dwelleſt with the daughter of Babylon: B

8 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, After this glory hath he ſent me out to the Heathen which ſpoyled you: for who ſo toucheth you, ſhal touche the apple of his owne eye.

10 Be glad and reioyce, O daughter Sion: for lo, *I am comme to dwel in the myddeſt of thee, ſayth the Lorde.

Exod.25.a

11 At the ſame tyme, there ſhal many Heathē cleaue to the Lorde, and ſhalbe my people: Thus wyl I dwelle in the myddeſt of thee, & thou ſhalt knowe that the Lorde of hoſtes hath ſent me vnto thee.

12 The Lord ſhal haue Iuda in poſſeſſion for his part in the holy land, and ſhal chooſe Hieruſalem yet agayne.

A 1 AND he ſhewed me Joſua the hygh prieſt ſtandyng before the angel of yͤ lorde, * and Satan ſtoode at his ryght hande to reſiſt hym. Pſal,109.a

2 And the Lorde ſaid vnto Satan, The Lorde reproue thee thou Satan, yea the Lorde that hath choſen Hieruſalem reproue thee: Js not this a brande taken out of the fyre?

3 Nowe Joſua was clothed in vncleane rayment, and ſtoode before the angel.

4 And he anſweared, and ſayde vnto thoſe that ſtoode before hym, Take away the foule clothes from hym. And vnto hym he ſayde, Beholde, J haue taken away thy ſinne from thee, and J wyl clothe thee with change of rayment.

5 And J ſayde, Let them ſet a fayre myter vpon his head: So they ſet a fayre miter vpō his head, and put on clothes vpon hym, and the angel of the Lorde ſtoode there.

6 Then the angel of the Lorde teſtified vnto " Joſua, and ſpake, " or, Jeſua.

7 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Jf thou wylt walke in my wayes, and keepe my watch, thou ſhalt iudge my houſe, and keepe my courtes, & J wyl geue thee place among theſe that ſtande here. B

8 Heare, O Joſua, thou hygh prieſt, thou and thy felowes that ſit before thee, for they are monſtruous perſons: beholde, J wyl bryng foorth the * branche my ſeruant. Eſai.iiij.a Iere,33.a

9 For loe, the ſtone that J haue layde before Joſua, vpon one ſtone ſhalbe ſeuen eyes: behold, J wyl cut out the grauing therof, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, and J wyl take away the ſinne of the lande in one day.

10 In that day ſhal euery man cal his neighbour vnder the vine, and vnder the fig tree, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

The.iiii.Chapter,

The viſion of the golden candleſticke, and the expoſition thereof.

A 1 AND the angel that talked with me, came agayne, and waked me, as a man that is rayſed out of his ſleepe,

2 And ſayde vnto me, What ſeeſt thou? And J ſayde, J haue looked, and beholde, a candleſticke al of golde, with a boule vpon it, and his ſeuen lampes therein, and vpon euery lampe ſeuen pypes, Apoc,ii.a, 3 And * two olyue trees thereby: one vpon the ryght ſyde of the boule, and the other vpon the leaft ſyde.

4 So J anſweared, and ſpake to the angel that talked with me, ſayeing, O my Lorde, what are theſe?

5 The angel that talked with me anſweared, and ſayd vnto me, Knoweſt thou not what theſe be? And J ſayde, No my Lorde.

6 He anſweared, and ſayde vnto me, This is the woorde of the Lorde vnto Zorobabel, ſayeing, * Neither through an hoſt of menne, nor through ſtrength: but through my ſpirit, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes. Eſai.xi,a

B 7 What art thou great mountayne before Zorobabel? thou muſt be made euen, and he ſhal bryng foorth the head ſtone therof, with ſhowtinges, cryeing, Grace, grace vnto it.

8 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſayeing,

9 * The handes of Zorobabel haue layde the fundation of this houſe, his handes ſhal alſo finiſhe it: and thou ſhalt know that the lord of hoſtes hath ſent me vnto you. Phil,i.a

10 For who hath deſpiſed the day of ſmalle thynges? they ſhal reioyce, & ſhal ſee the ſtone (a) of tynne in the hande of Zorobabel: theſe ſeuen are the eyes of the Lorde, whiche goe through the whole worlde.

(a) A plummet of tynne, as now menne vſe plummets of leade.

11 Then anſweared J, and ſayde vnto hym, What are theſe two olyue trees vpon the ryght and leaft ſyde of the candelſticke?

12 J ſpake moreouer, and ſayde vnto hym, What be theſe two olyue branches, whiche through the two golden pypes emptie them ſelues into the golde?

C 13 He anſweared me, & ſayde, Knoweſt thou not what theſe be? And J ſaid, No my Lord.

14 Then ſayde he, * Theſe are the two olyue branches, that ſtande with the ruler of the whole earth. Apoc.xi.a

The.v.Chapter.

A 1 SO I turned me, lyftyng vp mine eyes, and looked, & beholde, a fleeing booke.

2 And he ſayde vnto me, what ſeeſt thou? I anſweared, I ſee a fleeyng booke, of twentie cubites long, and tenne cubites broade.

3 Then ſayde he vnto me, This is the curſe that goeth foorth ouer the whole earth: for al theeues ſhalbe iudged after this booke, and al periured perſons ſhalbe iudged accordyng to the ſame.

4 And I wyl bryng it foorth, ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes, ſo that it ſhal enter into the houſe of the theefe, and into the houſe of hym that falſely ſweareth by my name: and ſhal remayne in his houſe, and conſume it, with the timber and ſtones thereof.

5 Then the angel that talked with me, went foorth, and ſayde vnto me, Lyft vp thyne eyes, and ſee what is this that goeth foorth.

6 And I ſaid, What is it? He anſweared, This is a ʺ meaſure goeyng out. He ſayde moreouer, Euen thus are they that dwel vpon the whole earth to looke vpon. ʺ or, Ephah.

7 And beholde, there was lyft vp a talent of leade: and lo, a woman ſate in the middeſt of the ʺ meaſure. B ʺ or, Ephah.

8 And he ſayde, This is vngodlyneſſe: So he caſt her into the middeſt of the ʺ meaſure, & threwe the lumpe of leade into the mouth of the ʺ meaſure. ʺ or, Ephah. ʺ or, Ephah.

9 Then lyft I vp mine eyes, and looked, and beholde, there came out two women, and the wynde was in their wynges: for they had winges like the winges of a ſtorke, and they lyft vp the ʺ meaſure betwixt the earth and the heauen. ʺ or, Ephah.

10 Then ſpake I to ẏ angel that talked with me, Whyther wyl theſe beare the meaſure?

11 And he ſayde vnto me, Into the lande of* Sinnaar, to builde it an houſe, and it ſhal be eſtabliſhed, & ſet there vpon her owne place. Gen.15,b

The.vi.Chapter.

1 By the foure charrettes, he deſcribeth the proſperitie of foure kyngdomes.

A 1 MOreouer, I turned me, liftyng vp myne eyes, and looked, and beholde, there came foure charrettes out from betwixt two hylles, which hils were of braſſe.

2 In the firſt charret were *red horſes, in the ſecond charret were blacke horſes, Zach.i.b Apoc,vi,a 3 In the thirde charret were white horſes, in the fourth charret were horſes of diuers colours, and ſtrong.

4 Then ſpake I, and ſayde vnto the angel that talked with me, O lord, what are theſe?

5 The angel anſweared, and ſayde vnto me, *Theſe are the foure ſpirites of the heauen, whiche be comme foorth to ſtande before the ruler of al the earth. Iere.iiij,b

6 That with the blacke horſe went foorth into the lande of the North, and the whyte folowed them, and the ſpeckled horſes went foorth towarde the South:

B 7 And the ſtrong horſes went out, and required to go, & take their iourney ouer the whole earth: And he ſayde, Geat you hence, and goe through the worlde: So they went throughout the worlde.

8 Then cryed he vpon me, & ſpake vnto me, ſayeing, Beholde, theſe that goe towarde the north, ſhal ſtil my wrath in ẏ north countrey.

9 And the worde of the Lord came vnto me, ſayeing,

10 Take of the priſoners that are comme from Babylon, namely, Heldai, Tobiah, & Idaia: and comme thou the ſame day, and goe vnto the houſe of Ioſiah the ſonne of Zophonia.

11 Then take gold and ſiluer, & make crownes thereof, and ſet them vpon the head of Ioſua the ſonne of Ioſedech the hygh prieſt,

12 And ſpeake vnto him, thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, Beholde the man whoſe name is* the branche, and he ſhal growe vp out of his place, and he ſhal buylde vp the temple of the Lorde. Zach.iij,b Pſal.127,a

13 Yea, euen he ſhal builde vp the temple of the Lorde, and *he ſhal beare the prayſe: he ſhal ſit vpon the Lordes throne, and haue the domination: *A prieſt ſhal he be alſo vpon his throne, and a peaceable counſel ſhalbe betwixt them both. Apoc.4.b Pſal.110.b Heb.5.6.7

14 And the crowne ſhalbe to Helem, and to Tobiah, and to Idaia, and to Hen the ſonne of Zophoni, for a memorial in the temple of the Lorde. C

15 And ſuche as be farre of, ſhal comme, and builde in the temple of the Lord, that ye may knowe howe that the Lorde of hoſtes hath ſent me vnto you: And this ſhal comme to paſſe, if ye wyl hearken diligently vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God.

The.vii.Chapter.

5 The true faſtyng. 11 The rebellion of the people, is the cauſe of their affliction.

A 1 AND in the fourth yeere of king Darius, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Zacharia in yͤ fourth [day] of the nienth moneth, whiche is called Caſleu,

2 What tyme as Saraſar and Rogommelech, and the menne that were with them, ſent vnto the houſe of God for to pray before the Lorde:

3 And that they ſhould ſpeake vnto yͤ prieſtes whiche were in the houſe of the Lorde of hoſtes, and to the prophetes, ſayeing, Should I weepe in the *fifth moneth, and abſteyne as I haue donne nowe certayne yeeres? 3,Reg.25.b

4 Then came the woorde of the Lorde of hoſtes vnto me, ſayeing,

5 Speake vnto al the people of the lande, and to the prieſtes, and ſay, When ye faſted and mourned in the fyfth * and ſeuenth moneth, nowe this threeſcore and tenne yeeres, dyd ye faſt vnto me? Iere.41.a 3.Reg.25.b

6 When ye dyd eate alſo and drynke, dyd ye not eate and drynke for your owne ſelues?

B 7 Are not theſe the woordes which the Lord ſpake by his prophetes aforetime, when Hieruſalem was yet inhabited, and wealthy, ſhe and the cities rounde about her, when there dwelt menne both towarde the South, and in the playne countreys?

8 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Zachari, ſayeing,

9 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, * Execute true iudgement, ſhewe mercy and louyng kyndneſſe, euery man to his brother. Zach.13.b. Exod.22.c.

10 Doo the widowe, the fatherleſſe, the ſtrangers and poore no wrong, and let no man imagine euyl againſt his brother in his hart.

11 *Neuertheleſſe, they would not take heede, but turned their backes, and ſtopped their eares that they ſhoulde not heare: Iere.8.g

12 Yea they made their hartes as an Adamāt ſtone, leſt they ſhoulde heare the lawe, and woordes *whiche the Lorde of hoſtes ſent in his holy ſpirite by the prophetes aforetyme: Wherefore, the Lorde of hoſtes was very wroth at them. 2.Pet.i.b

13 And thus is it comme to paſſe, * that lyke as he cryed, and they woulde not heare: euen ſo they cried, and I would not heare, ſaith the Lorde God of hoſtes: Iere.xi.b

14 But ſcattered them among al the nations whom they knew not: Thus the land was made ſo deſolate after thē, that there trauayled no man in it, neyther to nor fro: for that pleaſant lande was vtterly layde waſte. C

The.viii.Chapter.

2 Of the returne of the people vnto Hieruſalem, and of the mercy of God towarde them. 16 Of good woorkes. 20 The callyng of the Gentiles.

A 1 SO the woorde of the Lord of hoſtes came vnto me, ſayeing,

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, I was in great ielouſie for Sion, yea I haue benne very ielous for her with great wrath.

3 Thus ſayth the Lorde, I wyl returne vnto Sion, & wyl dwelle in the middeſt of Hieruſalem: * ſo that Hieruſalem ſhalbe called, A faythfull and true citie, the hyl of the Lorde of hoſtes, an holy hyl. Eſai.i,b

4 Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, There ſhal yet olde menne & olde women dwel agayne in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem: yea, and ſuch as goe with ſtaues in their handes for very age.

5 The ſtreetes of the citie alſo ſhalbe ful of young boyes, and damſels playeing in the ſtreetes thereof.

6 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, If the reſidue of this people thinke it to be vnpoſſible in [their] eyes in theſe dayes: *ſhoulde it therfore be vnpoſſible in my ſight, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes? Mat,19,b

7 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Beholde, I wyl deliuer my people from the countreys of the Eaſt and Weaſt,

8 And wil bring them againe, that they may dwelle in the myddeſt of Hieruſalem: * they ſhalbe my people, and I wyl be their God in trueth and ryghteouſneſſe. Icre.iij.e Apoc,21,e

9 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Let your handes be ſtrong ye that nowe heare theſe woords by the mouth of the prophets which are in theſe dayes, that the fundation of the houſe of the Lorde of hoſtes is layde, that the temple may be buylded.

10 For*before theſe dayes neyther menne, or cattayle coulde wynne any(a) thyng, neyther might any man comme in and out in reſt for trouble: but I let euery man goe agaynſt his neyghbour. Agge.i.a

(a) They laboured & toyled thē ſelues and their cattayle without encreaſe, becauſe they cared not for gods glorie in reedifyeing of the temple, but went about theyr priuate gayne.

11 Neuertheleſſe, I wyl nowe intreate the reſidue of this people no more as aforetyme, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

12 For the ſeede ſhal proſper, the vyne ſhal geue her fruite, the grounde ſhal geue her encreaſe, and the heauens ſhal geue their deaw, and I ſhal cauſe the remnant of this people to haue al theſe in poſſeſſion.

13 And it ſhal comme to paſſe, that lyke as ye were a curſe among the Heathen, O ye houſe of Iuda, and ye houſe of Iſrael, euen ſo wyl I deliuer you, that ye ſhal be a bleſſing: feare not, but let your handes be ſtrong:

C 14 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Lyke as I thought to pouniſh you, what tyme as your fathers prouoked me vnto wrath, ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes, and ſpared not:

15 Euen ſo am I determined nowe in theſe dayes for to doo wel vnto the houſe of Iuda and Hieruſalem: [therefore] feare ye not.

Ephe.4.c Zach.7.b 16 Now the things that ye ſhal doo, are theſe: *Speake euery man the trueth vnto his neyghbour, execute iudgement truely and peaceably within your portes:

17 And let none of you imagine euyl in his hart agaynſt his neighbour, and loue no falſe othes: for al theſe are the thinges that I hate, ſayth the Lorde.

18 And the woord of the Lord of hoſtes came vnto me, ſayeing,

19 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, The faſt of the fourth [moneth] the faſt of the fifth, the faſt of the ſeuenth, and the faſt of the tenth, ſhalbe ioy and gladnes, and proſperous high feaſtes vnto the houſe of Iuda: only loue the trueth and peace.

20 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, There ſhal yet comme people, and the inhabiters of many cities:

21 And they that dwel in one citie ſhal goe to another, ſayeing, *Up, let vs goe and pray before the Lord, let vs ſeeke the Lord of hoſtes: I wyl goe with you. D Eſai,ij,a Pſal,122,a 22 Yea muche people and myghtie nations ſhal comme to ſeeke the Lorde of hoſtes at Hieruſalem, and to pray before the Lorde.

23 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, In that tyme ſhal tenne menne (out of al manner of language of the Gentiles) take one Iewe by the hemme of his garment, and ſay, We wil goe with you: for we haue hearde that God is among you.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 The conuertion of the Gentiles. 9 The comming of Chriſte ſitting on an Aſſe.

A 1 THE burden of the woord of the Lorde in the lande of Hadrach: and Damaſcus ſhalbe his reſt, when the eyes of man, euen of al the tribes of Iſrael ſhalbe towardes the Lorde.

2 The borders of Hemath ſhalbe hard therby, Tyrus alſo & Sidon, for they are very wyſe.

Ioel.iiij.a. 3 *Tyrus ſhal make her ſelf ſtrong, heape vp ſyluer as the ſande, and golde as the clay of the ſtreetes.

Exod.14.e 4 Beholde, the Lorde ſhal ſpoyle her, *he ſhal ſmite downe her power in the ſea, & ſhe ſhalbe conſumed with fyre.

Iere.47.a Amos.i.b 5 This ſhal Aſcalon ſee, and be afraid: *Gaza ſhalbe very ſory, ſo ſhal Accaron alſo, becauſe her hope is comme to cōfuſion: For the king of Gaza ſhal periſhe, and at Aſcalon ſhal no man dwel.

6 Strangers ſhal dwel at Aſdod, and as for the pride of the Philiſtines I ſhal roote it out.

B 7 Act.xv.b *Their blood wil I take away from their mouth, & their abominations from betwene their teeth: Thus they that ſhalbe left, ſhalbe for our God, he ſhalbe as a prince in Iuda, and Accaron lyke as a Iebuſite.

8 And I wyl pitche a campe (a) about myne houſe agaynſt the armie, agaynſt hym that paſſeth by, and agaynſt him that returneth, & no oppreſſour ſhal comme vpon them any more: For nowe I haue ſeene with myne eyes.

(a) God is ſtrōg yenough to defende his Churche agaynſt al his aduerſaries.

Eſai.62.c 9 Reioyce thou greatly, O daughter Sion, be glad, O daughter Hieruſalem: For loe, the king commeth vnto thee, euen the righteous and ſauiour, lowly and ſimple is he, he rideth vpon an Aſſe and vpon the foale of an Aſſe.

10 I wyl roote out the charrets frō Ephraim, and the horſe from Hieruſalem, the battayle bowes ſhalbe deſtroyed, he ſhal geue the doctrine of peace vnto the Heathen: *and his dominion ſhalbe from the one ſea to the other, and from the ryuer to the ende of the worlde. Pſal,59,b 11 Thou alſo [ſhalt be ſaued] through the blood of thy couenant: I haue looſed thy priſoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turne you now to the ſtrong hold ye that be in priſon, and long ſoare to be delyuered: euen this day I bryng thee woorde that I wyl rewarde thee double agayne.

13 For Iuda haue I bent as a bowe for me, Ephraim [his hande] haue I fylled, and thy ſonnes, O Sion, wyl I rayſe vp agaynſt the Greekes, & make thee as a Giantes ſwoord.

14 The Lord God ſhalbe ſeene aboue them, & his dartes ſhal goe foorth as the lyghtning: the Lorde GOD ſhal blowe the trumpet, and ſhal comme foorth as a ſtorme out of the South. C

15 The Lord of hoſtes ſhal defend them, they ſhal conſume and deuoure, and ſubdue them with * ſlyng ſtones, they ſhal drynke ⁊ rage as it were through wyne, they ſhalbe fylled lyke the baſons, and as the hornes of the aulter.

Zace.2.a.
1.Re,17.f.

16 The Lorde theyr God ſhal deliuer them in that day as the flocke of his people: For as precious ſtones of a Diademe they ſhalbe ſet vp ouer his lande.

17 O howe proſperous and goodly a thyng ſhal that be? For the corne ſhal make the young menne cheareful, and the newe wine the maydens.

The.x.Chapter.

1 The people is mooued to require the doctrine of trueth of the Lorde. 3 The Lorde promiſeth to viſite and comfort the houſe of Iſrael.

A 1 Praye the Lorde then betymes to geue the latter rayne, * ſo ſhal the Lorde make bright cloudes, and geue you rayne yenough, and to euery one graſſe in the fielde.

Deut.28,b

2 For vayne is the anſweare of idolles, the Soothſayers ſee lyes, and the dreamers telle but vayne thyngs, yͤ comfort that they geue, is nothyng woorth: therefore they went away lyke a flocke of Sheepe, and were troubled, becauſe they had no Sheephearde.

Ezec.13,a.

3 My wrathful diſpleaſure was mooued agaynſte the Sheepheardes, and I wyl viſite the goates: for the Lorde of hoſtes wyl viſite his flocke the houſe of Juda, and wyl make them as a goodly fayre horſe in the batayle.

Gen.49.b
Eſai,22,d.

4 Out of Juda ſhal comme the corner, the nayle, the batayle bowe, and the appoynter of tribute alſo.

5 They ſhalbe as giantes, whiche in the batai1e treade downe theyr enimies in the myre of the ſtreetes: They ſhal fyght, for the Lord ſhalbe with them, and the Horſemenne ſhalbe confounded.

6 I wyl comfort the houſe of Juda, and preſerue the houſe of Joſeph, I wyl bryng them agayne, for I pitie them, and they ſhalbe like as they were whē I had not caſt them of: for I the Lord am theyr God, ⁊ wil heare them.

B

7 Ephraim ſhalbe as a Giant, and theyr hart ſhalbe cheareful as through wyne: yea, their children ſhal ſee it, and be glad, and theyr hart ſhal reioyce in the Lorde.

8 I wyl hiſſe for them, and geather them togeather, for I wyl redeeme them: they ſhal encreaſe, as they encreaſed afore.

9 I wyl ſowe them among the people, that they may thynke vpon me in farre coūtreys, they ſhal lyue with theyr chyldren, and turne agayne.

9 I wyl bryng them agayne alſo from the lande of Egypt, and geather them out of Aſſyria: I wyl carrie them into the land of Gilead, and to Libanus, and place (a) ſhal not be founde for them.

(a) The multitude ſhalbe ſo great.

11 He ſhal goe vpon the ſea of trouble, and ſmyte the ſea waues, ſo that al the deepe fluddes ſhalbe dryed vp: the proude boaſtyng of Aſſur ſhalbe caſt downe, and the Scepter of * Egypt ſhalbe taken away.

Eſai.10,a.
Ezec,29,a.

12 I wyl comfort them in the Lord, that they may walke in his name, ſayth the Lorde.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 The deſtruction of the temple. 4 The care of the faythful is committed to Chriſte by the father. 7 A greeuous viſion agaynſt Hieruſalem and Juda.

A 1 Open thy doores, O Libanus, that the fire may conſume thy Cedar trees.

2 Howle ye fyrre trees, for the Cedar is fallen, yea, al the proude are waſted away: Howle O ye Oke trees of Baſan, for the mighty ſtrong wood is cut downe.

3 Menne may heare yͤ Sheepheards mourne, for their glory is deſtroyed: menne may heare the lions whelpes roare, for the pryde of Jordane is waſted away.

4 Thus ſayth the Lorde my God, Feede the ſheepe of the ſlaughter,

5 Whiche haue benne ſlayne of thoſe that poſſeſſed them, yet they [tooke] it for no ſinne, but they that ſold them, ſayd, The Lord be thanked, for I am riche: yea, theyr owne Sheepheardes ſpare them not.

6 Therefore wyl I no more ſpare thoſe that dwelle in the lande, ſayth the Lorde: But loe, I wyl delyuer the people, euerye manne into his neyghbours hande, and into the hande of his kyng, that they maye ſmyte the lande, and out of theyr handes I wyl not deliuer them.

B

7 I my ſelfe fed the ſlaughter ſheepe, a poore flocke verily, and tooke vnto me two ſtaues: the one called beauty, the other called bandes: and ſo fedde the Sheepe.

8 Three Sheepheardes I put out of office in one moneth, for I myght not away with them: neyther had they any delight in me.

Apo.22.c. 9 Then ſaid I, I wyl feede you no more:* the thing that dyeth, let it dye: and that that wil periſhe, let it periſhe: and let the remnant eate euery one the fleaſhe of his neyghbour.

10 I tooke alſo my ſtaffe, [euen] beautie, and brake it, that I myght diſanul the couenant whiche I made with al people.

Oſea.2.c. 11 And ſo it was broken in that day: Then the poore ſimple ſheepe that had a reſpect vnto me, knewe thereby that it was the woord of the Lorde, 12 And I ſayde vnto them, If ye thynke it good, bryng hyther my wages: if no, then leaue:* So they weighed downe thirtie ſiluer pence, the value that I was priſed at. Mat.27.c.

13 And the Lorde ſaide vnto me, Caſt it vnto the Potter, a goodly price for me to be valued at of them. And I tooke the thirtie ſyluer pence, & caſt them to the Potter in the houſe of the Lorde.

14 Then brake I my other ſtaffe alſo [namely] bandes, that I myght looſe the brotherhood betwixt Iuda and Iſrael. C

15 And the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Take thee alſo the ſtaffe of a fooliſhe Sheepehearde:

16 For loe, I wyl rayſe vp a Sheepehearde in the lande, which ſhal not ſeeke after the thinges that be loſt, nor ſeeke the tender lambes, he ſhal not heale the wounded, he ſhal not nouriſhe the thynges that are whole: but he ſhal eate the fleaſhe of ſuche as be fat, & teare theyr clawes in peeces.

17 O Idol Shepheard that leaueth the flocke, the ſwoorde ſhal comme vpon his arme, and vpon his ryght eye: his arme ſhalbe cleane dryed vp, & his right eye ſhalbe ſoare blinded.

The.xii.Chapter.

1 Of the deſtruction and buyldyng agayne of Hieruſalem.

A 1 The heauy burthen which the Lord hath deuiſed for Iſrael. Thus ſayth the Lorde* whiche ſpread the heauens abroade, layd the fundation of the earth,* and gaue man the breath of lyfe, Eſa.10.a.

2 Beholde, I wyl make Hieruſalem a cuppe of ſurfet vnto al the people that are rounde about her:* yea, Iuda him ſelfe alſo ſhalbe in the ſiege agaynſt Hieruſalem. Zace.14.c.

3 At the ſame tyme wyl I make Hieruſalem an heauy ſtone for al people, ſo that al ſuch as lyfte it vp, ſhalbe torne and rent, and al the people of the earth ſhalbe geathered togeather agaynſt it.

Abdi.1.c. 4 *In that day ſaith the Lord, I wyl make al horſes aſtonyed, and thoſe that ryde vpon them to be out of theyr wyttes: I wyl open myne eyes vpon the houſe of Iuda, & ſmyte al the horſes of the people with blyndeneſſe.

5 And the princes of Iuda ſhal ſaye in theyr hartes, The inhabiters of Hieruſalem ſhal geue me conſolation in the Lorde of hoſtes theyr God.

6 In that tyme wyl I make the princes of Iuda like an hot burning Ouen with wood, and lyke a fyrebrande among the ſtrawe, ſo that they ſhal conſume al the people rounde about them, both vpon the ryght hande and the leaft: Hieruſalem alſo ſhalbe inhabited againe, [namely] in the ſame place where Hieruſalem ſtandeth.

B 7 The Lord ſhal preſerue the tentes of Iuda as aforetyme, ſo that the glory of the houſe of Dauid, and the glory of the citizins of Hieruſalem, ſhal not be exalted agaynſt Iuda.

8 In that day ſhal the Lorde defende the citizens of Hieruſalem, ſo that the weakeſt then among them ſhalbe as* Dauid, & the houſe of Dauid ſhalbe as Gods houſe, and as the angel of the Lorde before them. 1.Reg.17.f

9 At the ſame tyme wyl I goe about to deſtroy al ſuche people as comme agaynſt Hieruſalem.

10 Moreouer, vpon the houſe of Dauid, and vpon the citizens of Hieruſalem,* wyl I powre out the ſpirite of grace and compaſſion, ſo that they ſhal looke vpon me whom they haue pearſed, and they ſhal lament for hym as menne mourne for theyr only begotten ſonne: yea, and be ſory for him, as menne are ſory for theyr fyrſt chylde. Eze.36.c.

11 Then ſhal there be a great mournyng at Hieruſalem, lyke as the lamentation at Adadremmon, in the fielde of Mageddon. Luke.23.c. 2.Par.35.c.

12 And the lande ſhal bewayle, euery kynred by them ſelues alone: the kynred of the houſe of Dauid by them ſelues, and theyr wyues by them ſelues: the kynred of the houſe of *Nathan them ſelues, and theyr wyues by them ſelues: 2.Reg.21.

13 The kynred of the houſe of Leui them ſelues alone, and theyr wiues by them ſelues: the kinred of the houſe of Semei them ſelues alone, and theyr wyues by them ſelues.

14 In lyke manner, al the other generations euery one by them ſelues alone, and theyr wyues by them ſelues. C

1 Of the wel of grace and trueth. 2 Of the cleane riddance of idolatrie, and of falſe prophetes.

A 1 In that tyme ſhal yͤ houſe of Dauid, and the citizens of Hieruſalem haue an open *wel to waſh of ſinne and vncleanneſſe. Ezec.47.a Zach.14.b John.19.d

2 And then, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes,* I wyl deſtroye the names of the idolles out of the lande: ſo that they ſhal no more be put in remēbrance. * As for the falſe prophetes alſo, and the vncleane ſpirites, I wyl take them out of the lande. Eſai.2.c. Ezec.30.c. Gen.14.e.

3 So that if any of them prophecie any more, *his owne father and mother that begate him, ſhal ſaye vnto hym, Thou ſhalt dye, for thou ſpeakeſt lyes vnder the name of the Lord: yea, his owne father and mother that begate hym, ſhal wound hym, when he prophecieth. Deut.13.b

4 And then ſhal thoſe prophetes be confounded euerye one of his viſion when he prophecieth: neyther ſhal they weare heare cloth any more, to deceiue menne withal.

5 But he ſhalbe fayne to ſaye, I am no prophete, I am an huſbandmanne: for ſo am I taught by manne from my youth vp. Amos.7.c Gene.3.d.

6 And yf it be ſayde vnto hym, Howe came theſe woundes then in thine handes? He ſhal anſweare, Thus was I wounded in the houſe of myne owne friendes.

B 7 Aryſe, O thou ſwoorde vpon my Sheepehearde, and vpon the man that is my felow, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, *Smite the Sheephearde, and the ſheepe ſhalbe ſcattred abroad: and ſo wyl I turne myne hande to the little ones. Mat.26.c.

8 And it ſhal comme to paſſe, ſayth the Lord, that in al the lande two partes ſhalbe rooted out, * but the thyrde part ſhal remayne therein. Amos.9.b

9 * And yͤ ſame third part wil I bring through the fyre, and wyl cleanſe them as the ſyluer is cleanſed, yea, and trye them lyke as golde is tryed: then ſhal they calle vpon my name, and I wyl heare them, I wyl ſaye it is my people, and they ſhal ſaye, Lorde my God. The,xiiii.Chapter.

1 The waſtyng of the Churche, vnder the figure of Hieruſalem. 9 Of the kyngdome of the Lorde.

A 1 Behold, the day of the lord commeth, and thy ſpoyle ſhalbe diuided in the middeſt of thee.

2 For I wyl geather togeather al the heathen to fyght agaynſte Hieruſalem, ſo that the citie ſhalbe wonne, the houſes ſpoyled, & the women defiled: the halfe of the citie ſhal goe into captiuitie, & the reſidue of the people ſhal not be caried out of the citie.

3 After that, ſhal the Lorde goe foorth to fight agaynſt thoſe heathen, as menne vſe to fight in the day of batayle.

4 Then ſhal his feete ſtand vpon the mount Oliuet, that lyeth vpon the Eaſt ſyde of Hieruſalem, and the mount Oliuet ſhal cleaue in two, Eaſtwarde and Weaſtwarde, ſo that there ſhalbe a great valley: and the halfe mount ſhal remooue toward the North, and the other towarde the South.

5 And ye ſhal flee vnto the valley of my hils, for the valley of the hilles ſhal reach vnto Aſal: yea, flee ſhal ye * lyke as ye fledde for the earthquake in the dales of Oſiah king of Iuda: and the Lorde my God ſhal comme, and al the ſaintes with hym. Amos.1.a.

6 In that day ſhal there be no cleare light, but darke.

Mat.24.c. 7 *This ſhalbe that ſpecial day which is knowen vnto the Lorde, neyther day nor nyght: but about the euening time it ſhalbe light.

8 * In that tyme ſhal there waters of lyfe run out from Hieruſalem: the halfe part of them towarde the Eaſt ſea, and the other halfe towarde the vttermoſte ſea, and ſhal continue both ſommer and wynter. Zach.13.a. Apoc.22.a

9 * And the Lorde him ſelfe ſhalbe kyng ouer al the earth: at that tyme ſhal there be one Lorde onely, and his name ſhalbe but one. Abdi.1.d.

10 Al the land ſhalbe turned as a playne from Gibea to Remmon, towardes the South of Hieruſalem: She ſhalbe ſet vp, and inhabited in her place, from Beniamins porte, vnto the place of the fyrſte porte, and vnto the corner porte, and from the towre of * Hananeel, vnto the kynges wyne preſſes. 2.Eſd.3.a. Iere.41.f.

11 There ſhal menne dwelle, and there ſhalbe no more deſtruction, but Hieruſalem ſhalbe ſafely inhabited.

12 This ſhalbe the plague wherwith the lord wil ſmite al people that haue fought againſt Hieruſalem, Theyr fleaſhe ſhal conſume away, though they ſtande vpon theyr feete, theyr eyes ſhalbe corrupte in theyr holes, and theyr tongue ſhal conſume in theyr mouth.

13 In that day ſhal the Lorde make a greate ſedition among them: ſo that one man ſhal take another by the hande, and laye his handes vpon the handes of his neyghbour.

XUM

14 *Iuda ſhal fyght agaynſt Hieruſalem, and the armies of al the heathen ſhalbe geathered togeather round about, with golde and ſiluer, and a very great multitude of apparel.

15 And this plague ſhal goe ouer Horſes, Mules, Cammels, Aſſes, and al the beaſtes that ſhalbe in the hoſt, like as yonder plague was.

16 Euery one that remayneth then of al the people whiche came agaynſte Hieruſalem, ſhal goe vp early to woorſhip the king, [eue͂] the Lord of hoſtes, * and to keepe the feaſt of tabernacles.

Leui.23.f.
Nu,29.b.

17 And looke what generation vpon the earth goeth not to Hieruſalem for to woorſhyp the king the Lord of hoſtes, vpon the ſame ſhal comme no rayne.

18 If the kynrede of Egypt goe not vp, and comme not, it ſhal not [rayne] vpon them: This ſhalbe the plague wherwith the Lord wil ſmite al the heathen, that comme not vp to keepe the feaſt of tabernacles,

19 Yea, this ſhalbe the plague of Egypt, and yͤ plague of al people that goe not vp to kepe the feaſt of tabernacles.

20 At that tyme ſhal the rydyng geare of the Horſes be holy vnto the Lord: the kettles in the Lordes houſe, ſhalbe lyke the baſons before the aulter.

21 Yea, al the kettles in Hieruſalem and Iuda ſhalbe holy vnto the Lorde of hoſtes: and al they that ſlaye offeringes, ſhal comme and take of them, and ſeeth therin: & at that tyme there ſhalbe no mo Chanaanites in the houſe of the Lorde of hoſtes.

¶ The booke of the prophete Malachias.

The firſt Chapter.

A complaynt agaynſt Iſrael, and chiefely the prieſtes.

A 1 The (a) burden of the woord of the Lorde to Iſrael by the miniſterie of Malachi.

(a) That is, the greeuous & threatning prophecie.

2 I haue loued you, ſayth the Lorde, yet ye ſaye, Wherein haſt thou loued vs? (b) Was not Eſau Iacobs brother, ſaith the Lorde, yet loued I Iacob?

(b) In our electiō is gods great loue to vswarde declared.

3 And I hated Eſau, and made his mountaynes waſte, and his heritage a wyldernes for Dragons.

4 Though Edom ſaye, we are impoueriſhed, but we wyl returne, and buylde the deſolate places: yet, ſaith the lord of hoſtes, They ſhal buylde, but I wyl deſtroy, and they ſhal calle them, The border of wickedneſſe, & the people with whom the Lorde is angry for euer.

5 And your eyes ſhal ſee: and you ſhal ſay, The Lord wyl be magnified vpon the borders of Iſrael.

6 A ſonne honoureth his father, and a ſeruant his maiſter: If then I be a father, where is myne honour? If I be a maiſter, where is my feare, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes to you, O ye prieſtes that deſpiſe my name? and ye ſaye, Wherein haue we deſpiſed thy name?

7 Ye offer vpon mine aulter (c) vncleane bread, and ſaye, Wherin haue we polluted thee? In that ye ſaye, The table of the Lorde is not to be regarded.

(c) Unpure ſacrifices: for by bread in ſcripture, are ſignified al thinges that nouriſhe.

8 When ye bryng the blynde for ſacrifice, [you ſaye,] It is not euyl: and when ye bring the lame and ſicke, [you ſaye,] It is not euyl: offer it nowe (d) to thy prince, wyl he be content with thee, or accept thy perſon, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes?

(d) Thou offereſt that to me, which thou art aſhamed to geue to a mortal man: ſo greatly doeſt thou contemne my law

9 And nowe, I praye you, praye before God, that he maye haue mercye vpon vs: (This [euyl] hath benne donne by our meanes) wil he regarde your perſons, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes?

10 Who is there euen among you that would ſhut the doores, and kyndle not fyre on myne aulter in vaine? (e) I haue no pleaſure in you, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, neyther wyl I accept an offeryng at your hande.

(e) Againſt al thoſe that folowe religion for lukers ſake.

11 From the riſing of the ſunne, vnto the goeing downe of the ſame, my name is great among the Gentiles, and in euery place (f) incenſe ſhalbe offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the very heathen, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes.

(f) Al nations ſhal calle vpō my name: for incenſe dooth ſignifie the worſhyp of God.

12 But ye haue (g) polluted it, in that ye ſaye, The table of the Lord is polluted, and the fruite thereof, [euen] his meate is not to be regarded.

(g) The gentiles ſhal honor me: but you defile my name. Thus are you farre worſe then they, whom you iudge moſt vyle.

13 And ye ſayde, Beholde, [it is] a weerynesse, ʺ and you haue ſnuffed at it, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, and ye haue offered the ſtollen, and the the lame and the ſicke, ye haue offered an offeryng: ſhoulde I accept this of your handes, ſayth the Lorde?

14 Curſed be the deceiteful, whiche hath in his flocke a male, and voweth, and ſacrificeth a corrupt thyng to the Lorde: becauſe I am a great kyng, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, and my name is feareful among the heathen.

The.ii.Chapter.

Threateninges agaynſt the prieſtes, beyng ſeducers of the people.

A 1 AND nowe, O ye prieſtes, this commaundement is for you.

2 If ye wyl not heare it, nor regarde it, to geue the glory to my name, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, I wil ſende a curſe vpon you, and wyl curſe your bleſſinges, yea, I haue curſed them alreadye, becauſe ye doo not conſyder it in your harte.

3 Beholde, I wyl (a) corrupt your ſeede, & caſt (b) doung on your faces, [euen] the doung of your ſolempne feaſtes, and you ſhalbe lyke vnto it.

(a) God is the aucthour of ſcarſitie, leſt they ſhoulde impute it to any other cauſe (b) I wyl bryng you to confuſion and ſhame.

4 And you ſhal knowe that I haue ſent this commaundement vnto you, that my couenant, which I haue made with Leui, might ſtande, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

5 My couenant was with him of life & peace, and I gaue them hym [for] the feare wherewith he feared me, & was afrayde before my name.

6 The law of trueth was in his mouth, and there was no iniquitie found in his lippes, he (c) walked with me (d) in peace, and (e) in equitie, and he turned many from their iniquitie.

7 (f) For the prieſtes lippes ſhal keepe knowledge, & they ſhal ſeeke the law at his mouth: becauſe he is the meſſenger of the Lorde of hoſtes.

(c) To walke with God, is to walke according to his wyl. (d) Towards God, and towards men. (e) Al peace is not commended, but that which is in equitie: the conſent of the wicked is to be auoyded, becauſe it is not in trueth. (f) The prieſt therefore muſt be learned in the law, otherwiſe the people ſeeke an anſweare at his mouth in vayne.

8 But ye haue gonne out of the way, ye haue cauſed many to falle by the lawe: ye haue corrupted the couenant of Leui, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes.

9 Therefore haue I alſo made you deſpiſed, and vile before al the people, becauſe you kept not my wayes, but haue benne partial in the lawe.

10 Haue we not al one father? hath not God made vs al? Why then is euery one deceiued of his brother, to violate the couenant of our fathers?

11 Iuda hath offended, and abomination is committed in Iſrael and in Hieruſalem: for Iuda hath defiled the holyneſſe of the Lorde which he loued, and hath maried the daughter of a ſtrange God.

12 The Lord wyl deſtroy the man that dooth this, both the rayſer vp, and the anſwearer out of the tabernacle of Iacob, and him that offereth an offering vnto the Lorde of hoſtes.

13 (g) And this agayne haue ye donne, in couering the aulter of the Lord with teares, with weepyng and mourning, and therefore there is no more reſpect to the offering, neyther acceptable receiuing of it at your handes.

(g) Not contented with one wickedneſſe, you wilfully fal into an other.

14 Yet ye ſaye, Wherein? Becauſe the Lord hath benne witneſſe betweene thee and thy wyfe of thy youth, againſt whom thou haſt tranſgreſſed, yet is ſhe thyne owne companion, and the wyfe of thy couenant.

15 And did not he make one? yet had he abundance of ſpirite: And wherfore one? Becauſe he ſought a godly ſeede: therefore keepe your ſelues in your ſpirite, and let none tranſgreſſe againſt the wife of his youth.

16 If thou hateſt her, put her away, ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael: yet he conuerteth the iniurie vnder his garment, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, and be ye keapt in your ſpirite, and tranſgreſſe not.

17 Ye haue weeried the Lord with your wordes, and you haue ſayde, Wherin haue we weeried hym? Whileſt you ſaye, Euerye one that dooth euyl, is good in the ſight of the Lorde, and he is pleaſed in them: or where is the God of iudgement?

The.iii.Chapter.

Of the meſſenger of the Lorde Iohn Baptiſt, and of Chriſtes office.

A 1 BEholde, I wyl ſende my meſſenger, and he ſhal prepare the waye before me, and the lorde (a) whom ye ſeeke, ſhal ſpeedyly come to his temple, & the meſſenger of the couenante whom ye deſyre, beholde he commeth, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes.

(a) Though not as you ſhoulde: for you ſeeke an earthly Meſſias, and a worldly kingdome.

2 But who maye abyde the day of his comming? and who ſhal ſtand when he appeareth? For he is lyke a purging fyre, and lyke Fullers ſope.

3 And he ſhal ſit downe to trye and fyne the ſiluer, and he ſhal purge the children of Leui, and purifie them as gold and ſiluer: and they ſhal bring vnto the Lord offeringes in righteouſneſſe.

4 Then ſhal the (b) offeringes of Juda and Hieruſalem be acceptable vnto the Lorde, as in olde tyme, and as in the yeeres afore.

(b) When Chriſt ſhal haue cleanſed his, & reconciled them to his father agayne: then ſhal their ſeruice be accepted.

5 And J wyl comme neare to you in iudgement, & J wyl be a (c) ſwift witneſſe agaynſt the (d) ſoothſayers, and againſt the adulterers, and againſt falſe ſwearers, and againſt thoſe that wrongfully keepe backe the hyrelynges wages, and vexe the wyddowe and the fatherleſſe, and oppreſſe the ſtranger, and feare not me, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

(c) Offenders thynke them ſelues ſafe, if they may deny their fault: but when the iudge him ſelfe is a witneſſe agaynſt them, thei ſhal not eſcape.

(d) Soothſaying not inferior to adultry, ſwearing, and ſuche like vices, with whõ it is here numbred.

6 For J am the Lord, J change not: and you ſonnes of Jacob are not conſumed.

7 From the daies of your fathers ye are gonne away from myne ordinances, and haue not kept [them:] turne you to me, & J wyl turne to you, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes. And ye ſaid, Wherein ſhal we returne?

B

8 Wyl a man (e) ſpoyle his gods? yet ye haue ſpoyled me: and ye ſaye, Wherein haue we ſpoyled thee? In tythes and offerynges?

(e) Such regarde hath God to his miniſters, and poore members, that he thynketh him ſelfe robbed, when they are defrauded.

9 Ye are curſed with a curſe, and me haue ye ſpoyled, euen this whole nation.

10 Bryng euery tithe into the ſtore houſe, that there maye be meate in myne houſe, and prooue me withal, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes: yf J wyl not open the wyndowes of heauen vnto you, & powre you out a bleſſyng without meaſure.

11 And J wyl reproue the deuourer for your ſakes, and he ſhal not deſtroy the fruite of the grounde, neyther ſhal your vine be barren in the fielde, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

12 And al nations ſhal cal you bleſſed: becauſe you ſhalbe a pleaſant lande, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes.

13 Your woordes haue benne ſtout agaynſte me, ſayth the Lorde: and you ſayde, Wherein haue we ſpoken agaynſt thee?

14 Ye haue ſaid, [it is but] vaine to ſerue God, and what profite [is it,] that we haue kept his commaundement, & that we haue walked humbly before the face of the Lorde of hoſtes? C

15 And nowe we cal the proude happie: yea, the workers of wickedneſſe are ſet vp, & alſo they that tempt God, yea, they are deliuered.

16 Then they that feared God, ſaid euery one to his neyghbour, and the Lorde conſydered and hearde, and there was wrytten a booke of remembrance before hym, for them that feared the Lorde, and for them that thynke vpon his name.

17 And they ſhalbe to me, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, in that day wherein J ſhal doo [iudgement,] a flocke: and J wyl ſpare them, as a man ſpareth his owne ſonne which ſerueth hym.

18 Then ſhal ye returne, and diſcerne betweene the iuſt and the wicked, betweene hym that ſerueth God, and hym that ſerueth him not.

The .iiii. Chapter.

The day of the Lorde, before the whiche Elias ſhould comme.

A 1 FOr marke, the day commeth burnyng lyke an Ouen: and al the proud, and al that woorke wickedneſſe, ſhalbe ſtubble, and the day that is for to comme, ſhal burne them, ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, and ſhal leaue them neyther roote, nor branche.

2 But to you that feare my name, ſhal that ſunne of righteouſneſſe aryſe, and health ſhal be vnder his wynges: and ye ſhal goe foorth, and ſkippe lyke fatte calues.

3 And ye ſhal treade downe the vngodly, for they ſhalbe duſt vnder the ſoles of your feete, in yͤ day that J ſhal doo this, ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes.

4 Remember the lawe of Moſes my ſeruant, whiche J commaunded him in Horeb for al Jſrael, with the ordinances & iudgementes.

5 Beholde, J wyl ſende you Elias the prophete, before the commyng of the great and fearefull day of the Lorde.

6 He ſhal turne the harte of the fathers to their chyldren, and the harte of the children to their fathers, leſt J comme and ſmyte the earth with curſing.

The firſt Chapter.

1 Ioſias appoynteth prieſtes, and keepeth the Paſſeouer. 7 Offeringes for the prieſtes, and the people. 11 The order of the Leuites. 23 The vpryght lyfe of Ioſias. 25 His death, and the occaſion thereof, and the lamentation for him. 34 Ioachas appoynted kyng. 53 The deſtruction of Hieruſalem.

2.Par,25,a
4.Re,23,c,

A 1 AND * Ioſias helde the feaſt of Eaſter in Hieruſalem vnto his Lorde, and offered the Paſſeouer yͤ fourtienth day of the fyrſt moneth.

2 He ſet the prieſtes alſo in order accordyng to their dayly courſes, being arayed in long garmentes, in the temple of the Lorde.

3 And he ſpake vnto the Leuites, the holy miniſters of Iſrael, that they ſhoulde halowe them ſelues vnto the Lorde, to ſet the holy arke of the Lord in the houſe that kyng Solomon the ſonne of Dauid had buylded.

4 And ſaide, Ye ſhal no more beare the arke vpon your ſhoulders: and nowe ſerue the Lorde your God, and take the charge of his people Iſrael, and prepare you after your villages and tribes,

5 Accordyng as king Dauid the king of Iſrael hath left in writing, and " accordyng as Solomon his ſonne hath honourably prepared: And ſtandyng eche of you in that degree of aucthoritie, whiche in the diſtribution was appointed vnto your fathers the Leuites, in the preſence of your brethren the chyldren of Iſrael:

" Or, accordyng to Salomon his ſonnes great liberalitie.

6 Offer the Paſſeouer in order, and make readye the ſacrifices for your brethren, and keepe the Paſſeouer, accordyng to the commaundement of the Lord, whiche was geuen vnto Moſes.

7 And vnto the people that was found there, Ioſias gaue thirtie thouſande lambes and kiddes, and three thouſande calues. Theſe thinges were geuen of the kinges owne poſſeſſions, according as he promiſed, to the people, to the prieſtes, and to the Leuites.

B 8 And Helkias, and Zacharias, and Syel the gouernours of the temple, gaue to the prieſtes for the Paſſeouer, two thouſande & ſixe hundred ſheepe, and three hundred calues.

9 Moreouer Iechonias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Sabias, and Ochiel, and Ioram, captaynes ouer thouſandes, gaue to the Leuites for the Paſſeouer, fiue thouſand ſheepe, and ſeuen hundred calues.

10 And when theſe thinges were brought to paſſe, the prieſtes and Leuites ſtoode goodly in their order, and had the vnleauened bread throughout the tribes.

11 And after the degrees of preheminence appoynted to their fathers, to offer to the Lord in the ſyght of the people, accordyng as it is written in the booke of Moſes: and thus dyd they in the mornyng.

12 And they roſted the Eaſter lambe with fire, as according was: As for the offeringes, they dight them in kettels and pottes with good ſauours,

13 And ſet them before al them of the people, and afterward they prepared for them ſelues and the prieſtes their brethren, the ſonnes of Aaron. C

14 For the prieſtes offered the fat, " vntil the time was expired, and the Leuites prepared for them ſelues, and for the prieſtes theyr brethren, the chyldren of Aaron.

" Or, vntyl the euenyng tyme.

15 The holy ſingers alſo the children of Aſaph, ſtoode in their orders, accordyng as Dauid deuiſed, to wit, Aſaph, " Zacharias, and Iduthun, which was appoynted by the king.

" Or, Azaras and Eddinus.

16 Moreouer, the [porters and] doore keepers ſtoode by the doores [and that diligently,] ſo that none went out of his " ſtandyng and ſeruices, for theyr brethren the Leuites prepared for them.

" Or, his watche, or turne, and courſe.

17 Thus were al thynges perfourmed, that belonged to the offering of the Lorde in that day, that they myght holde the Paſſeouer,

18 And offer ſacrifices vpon the aulter of the Lorde, accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Ioſias.

19 So the children of Iſrael which were then preſent, helde a [honourable] Paſſeouer, and the feaſt of ſweete bread, ſeuen dayes long:

20 Yea ſuche a Paſſeouer was not kept in Iſrael, from the tyme of the prophete Samuel.

21 And al the kynges of Iſrael helde not ſuch an Eaſter, as this whiche kyng Joſias held, and the prieſtes, the Leuites, the Jewes, and al Iſrael, of al them that " were at Hieruſalem.

" Or, founde dwelling at Hieruſalem.

22 In the eightienth yeere of the raigne of Joſias, was this Paſſeouer kept.

23 And with an hart ful of godlineſſe, did king Joſias rightly order al his woorks before the Lorde.

24 And the thinges that came to paſſe in his time, they were written of olde before thoſe dayes, concernyng thoſe that ſinned, & were vngodly agaynſt the Lorde aboue al people and kingdomes, and how they greeued him in ſeruing ſenſible thinges, ſo that yͤ woordes of the Lorde roſe vp agaynſt Iſrael.

25 Nowe after al theſe actes of Joſias, it came to paſſe, that Pharao the kyng of Egypt came to Charchamis vpon Euphrates, to mooue warre: and Joſias went out agaynſt hym.

26 But the kyng of Egypt ſent to him, ſayeng, What haue I to doo with thee, O kyng of Judea?

E

27 I am not ſent of the Lorde God agaynſt thee, for my warre is vpon Euphrates, and nowe the Lorde is with me, yea the Lorde maketh diligent " ſpeede with me: depart from me, and be not agaynſt the Lorde.

" Or, haſte.

28 Howbeit, Joſias woulde not turne backe his chariot from hym, but vndertooke to fight with hym, and hearkened not to the woordes of the prophete Jeremie, ſpoken by the mouth of the Lorde:

29 But pitched a batayle agaynſt him in the feelde of " Mageddo: And the princes preaſſed to kyng Joſias.

" Or, Megiddo.

30 Then ſayde the kyng vnto his ſeruantes, Carie me away out of the batayle, for I am very weake. And immediatly his ſeruantes tooke hym away out of the frunt of the batayle.

31 Then gate he vp vpon the ſeconde charet, came to Hieruſalem, dyed, and was buried in his fathers ſepulchre.

32 And in al Jurie they mourned for Joſias, yea Jeremie the prophete lamented for Joſias, & the rulers alſo with their wiues made lamentation for hym vnto this day, and it became a cuſtome to be donne continually in al the kinred of Iſrael.

33 Theſe thinges are written in the booke of the ſtories of the kinges of Juda: and al the actes of Joſias, and his glory, and vnderſtandyng in the lawe of the Lorde, and the thynges whiche he hadde donne before, and that was nowe [recited,] are written in the booke of the kynges of Iſrael, and Juda.

34 * And the people tooke Jechonias the ſonne of Joſias, and made hym kyng in ſteede of Joſias his father, when he was twentie and three yeeres olde.

3.Re.23.f. 2.Par.26.a

F

35 And he raigned in Juda and in Hieruſalem three monethes, and then the kyng of Egypt put hym downe from raigning in Hieruſalem:

36 And rayſed vp a taxe of the people, namely an hundred talentes of ſiluer, and one talent of golde.

37 The kyng of Egypt alſo made Joachim his brother kyng of Juda and Hieruſalem.

38 (a) And [thus] he " bounde Joachim, and his gouernours: but Zaracen his brother he apprehended, and ledde away with hym into Egypt.

(a) This place is corrupt, and thus ſeemeth to be: As for Joachim and his rulers he bounde, and hauing taken his brother Zaracen, led them away into Egypt.

" Or, eſtabliſhed.

39 Fiue and twentie yeeres old was Joachim, when he was made king, in the land of Juda and Hieruſalem, and he dyd euil before the Lorde.

40 * Wherefore agaynſt him Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon came vp, & bounde hym with bandes of iron, and caried him vnto Babylon.

4.Re.24.a

41 Nabuchodonoſor alſo tooke of the holye veſſels of the Lorde, caryed them away, and ſet them in his owne temple at Babylon.

42 But al his actes, and his prophanation, and reproche, are written in the Chronicles of the kynges.

43 And Joachim his ſonne raigned in his ſteede: he was made king beyng eyghtiene yeeres olde, 44 And raigned but three monethes & tenne dayes in Hieruſalem, and dyd euil before the Lorde.

45 So after a yeere, Nabuchodonoſor ſent, and cauſed him to be brought vnto Babylon, with the holy veſſels of the Lorde.

G

46 And made Zedechias king of Juda and Hieruſalem, when he was twentie and one yeeres olde, and he raigned a leuen yeeres.

47 And he dyd euil alſo in the ſight of yͤ Lord, and cared not for the woordes that were ſpoken vnto hym * by the prophete Jeremie, from the mouth of the Lorde, Iere 26.a.

48 And where he had made an oth vnto king Nabuchodonoſor, he forſwore him ſelfe by the name of the Lorde, and hardened his necke and harte, and tranſgreſſed the lawes of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

49 The gouernours alſo of the people and prieſtes, did many things againſt the lawes, and paſſed al the pollutions of al nations, and defiled the temple of the Lorde, whiche was ſanctified in Hieruſalem.

50 Wherefore the God of their fathers ſent his meſſenger to cal them backe, becauſe he ſpared them, and his tabernacle alſo.

51 But they had his meſſengers in deriſion: and looke when the Lord ſpake vnto them, they made a ſport of his prophetes.

52 This drewe on ſo long, til the Lorde was wroth with his people for their great vngodlineſſe, ſo that he cauſed the kynges of the Chaldees to comme vp agaynſt them:

53 Whiche ſlue theyr young menne with the ſwoorde, yea euen in " the compaſſe of theyr holy temple, & ſpared no body, neither young man nor mayden, olde man nor chylde among them:

" Or, rounde about:

54 But they were al deliuered into theyr handes, and al the holy veſſels of the Lorde both great and ſmal, with the veſſels of the arke of god: and they tooke and caried away the kinges treaſure into Babylon.

55 As for the houſe of the Lorde, they went vp into it, & brent it, brake downe the walles of Hieruſalem, ſet fire vpon her towres,

56 Deſtroyed al her " noble buyldynges, and brought them to nought, and the people that were not ſlayne with the ſwoorde, he caried vnto Babylon:

" Or, pretious thinges.

57 Whiche became ſeruantes to him and his children, til the Perſians raigned, to fulfil the woorde of the Lorde, [ſpoken] by the mouth of Jeremias:

58 Til the lande hadde fully " taken her eaſe from them, whiche tooke that eaſe al the tyme ſhe lacked her inhabitantes; to the ende and terme of ſeuentie yeeres.

" Or, kept her ſabbothes.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 Cyrus gaue leaue to the Jewes to returne. 10 Preſent the holy veſſels. 13 The names of them that returned. 16 Their aduerſaries dyd let their buyldyng, and the kynges letters for the ſame.

A 1 NOwe when kyng Cyrus raigned ouer the Perſians in his firſt yeere, when the Lorde woulde perfourme the woorde that he had promiſed by ẏ mouth of [the prophete] Jeremie:

2 The Lorde rayſed vp the ſpirite of Cyrus the kyng of Perſians, ſo that he cauſed this writing to be proclaimed throughout his whole Realme,

3 Sayeing, Thus ſayth Cyrus kyng of the Perſians, The Lorde of Iſrael, that hygh Lorde, hath made me kyng of the whole worlde:

4 And commaunded me to buylde hym an houſe at Hieruſalem in Jurie.

5 If there be any nowe of you that are of his people, let the Lorde, euen his Lord, be with hym, and let hym goe vp to Hieruſalem that is in Judea, and buyld the houſe of the Lord of Iſrael, that is, the Lorde that dwelleth in Hieruſalem.

6 And al they that dwel rounde about that place ſhal helpe him, al that dwel in his place I ſay, whether it be with golde, with ſiluer,

B 7 With gyftes, with horſes, and neceſſarie catayle, and al other thynges that are brought with a free wyl to the " houſe of the Lorde at Hieruſalem.

" Or, temple.

8 Then the principal menne out of the tribes and villages of Juda and Beniamin ſtoode vp: ſo dyd the prieſtes alſo and the Leuites, and al they whoſe minde the Lorde had moued to goe vp, and to buylde the houſe of the Lorde at Hieruſalem.

9 And they that dwelt about them, helped them in al thinges, with ſiluer and golde, horſes and catayle, and with " many free gyftes of many menne, whoſe mindes were ſtirred vp thereto,

" Or, ſundry vowes, of ſundry men.

10 Kyng Cyrus alſo brought foorth the veſſels and ornamentes that were halowed vnto the Lorde, whiche Nabuchodonoſor had caried away from Hieruſalem, and conſecrated them to his idol [and image.]

11 And hauyng brought them foorth, he deliuered them to Mithridates his treaſourer.

12 And by him they were deliuered to Abaſſar the deputie in Jurie.

13 And this was the number of them: a thouſande golden cuppes, and a thouſande of ſiluer, baſens of ſiluer twentie and nine, for the ſacrifices, vials of golde thirtie, and of ſiluer two thouſand foure hundred and tenne, and a thouſande other veſſels.

C 14 So al the veſſels of golde and ſiluer which they caried away, were fiue thouſande, foure hundred, threeſcore, and nine.

15 These were brought by Salmanaſar, with them of the captiuitie, from Babylon to Hieruſalem.

16 But in the tyme of Artaxerxes kyng of the Perſians, Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabelius, and Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and Semellius the ſecretarie, with other that were ioyned to them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote vnto hym agaynſt them that dwelt in Judea and Hieruſalem, theſe letters folowyng:

To the kyng Artaxerxes our Lorde.

17 Thy ſeruantes, Rathumus the ſtory wryter, and Semellius the ſecretarie, and the reaſt of their counſel, and the iudges that are in Coeloſyria and Phenice:

18 Be it nowe knowen to our lorde the king, that the Jewes whiche are comme vp from you vnto vs into the rebellious and wicked citie, beginne to buylde the market places, and to make vp the walles about it, and to ſet vp the temple a newe.

19 Nowe yf this citie, and the walles thereof be ſet vp agayne, they ſhal not only refuſe to geue tributes [and taxes] but alſo rebel vtterly agaynſt kynges.

D 20 And forſomuche as they take this in hand now about the temple, we thought it reaſon to thinke no ſcorne of it:

21 But to ſhewe it vnto the lorde the kyng, to the intent that yf it pleaſe the kyng, he may cauſe it to be ſought in the bookes of olde,

22 And thou ſhalt finde in recordes hereof written, and ſhalt vnderſtande that this citie hath allway benne rebellious and diſobedient, that it hath troubled kynges and cities,

23 And that the Jewes were rebellious, and rayſed allwayes warres therein: for the whiche cauſe this citie is waſted.

24 Wherefore nowe we certifie our Lorde the kyng, that yf this citie be buylded [and occupied] agayne, and the walles thereof ſet vp a newe, thou canſt haue no paſſage into Coeloſyria and Phenice.

25 Then wrote the kyng to Rathumus the " ſtory wryter, to Beelteethmus, to Semellius the ſcribe, and to the other officers and dwellers in Samaria, and Syria, and Phenice, after this manner.

" Or, regiſter.

26 I haue read the epiſtle whiche ye ſent vnto me: therefore I commaunded to make diligent ſearche, and haue founde that this citie hath euer reſiſted kynges,

27 That the ſame people are diſobedient, and haue cauſed muche warre, and that myghty kynges haue raigned in Hieruſalem, whiche alſo haue rayſen vp taxes of Coeloſyria and Phenice. E

28 Wherefore I haue commaunded to forbyd thoſe menne, that they ſhal not buylde vp the citie, and heede to be taken, that there be no more donne in it:

29 And that they proceede no further in thoſe wicked woorkes, forſomuche as it myght be occaſion of trouble vnto princes.

30 Nowe when Rathumus, and Semellius the ſcribe had read the wryting of kyng Artaxerxes, they gate them togeather, and came in al the haſte to Hieruſalem, with an hoſt of horſemenne, and with much people on foote, 31 And forbad them to buylde: And ſo they left of from buyldyng of the temple, vnto the ſeconde yeere of king Darius, king of the Perſians.

The .iii. Chapter.

1 The feaſt of Darius. 16 The three wyſe ſentences.

A 1 Kyng Darius made a great feaſte vnto his " ſeruantes, vnto al his court, and to al the officers of Medea and Perſia,

" Or, ſubiectes.

2 Yea to al ẏ gouernours, and captaynes, and liefetenantes, that were vnder hym, from India vnto Ethiopia, an hundred & twentie and ſeuen " countreys.

" Or, prouinces.

3 So when they had eaten and drunken, beyng ſatiſfied, and were gonne home agayne, Darius the king went into his chamber, layde him downe to ſleepe, and after that awaked.

4 Then the three young menne that " kept the kynges perſon, and watched his bodye, [communed among them ſelues, and] ſpake one to another,

" Or, were of the garde.

5 Let euery one of vs ſpeake a ſentence, and looke who ſhal ouercomme, and whoſe ſentence may ſeeme wyſer then the others, vnto hym ſhal kyng Darius geue great gyftes, and great thinges, in token of victorie:

6 As to weare purple, to drinke in golde, and to ſleepe in golde, and a chariot with bridles of golde, and an " head tyre of fine linnen, and a chaine about his necke:

" Or, a ſilken bonet.

7 Yea, he ſhal ſit next to Darius, becauſe of his wyſedome, & ſhalbe called Darius coſin.

8 So euery one wrote his " meaning, ſealed it, and layde it vnder king Darius pelowe,

" Or, ſentence.

B 9 And ſayde, When the kyng aryſeth, they woulde geue hym the writinges, and looke whoſe woorde the kyng, and the three princes of Perſia ſhal iudge to be the moſt wyſely ſpoken, the ſame ſhal haue the victory as it was appoynted.

10 One wrote: Wine is a ſtrong thyng.

11 The ſeconde wrote: The king is ſtrong.

12 The third wrote: Women haue very much ſtrength, but aboue al things, the trueth beareth away the victorie.

13 Nowe when the kyng was ryſen vp, they tooke their wrytinges, and deliuered them vnto him, and ſo he read them.

14 Then ſent he foorth to calle al his chiefe lordes of Perſia, & of Media, and the rulers, & the captaynes, and liefetenantes, and conſuls:

15 And when he hadde ſet hym downe in the counſel, the wrytings were read before them.

16 And he commaunded to calle for the young menne, that they might declare their " meaninges them ſelues by mouth. So they were ſent for, and came in.

" Or, ſentences.

17 And then he ſayde vnto them, Shewe vs, and make vs to vnderſtande, what the thinges are that ye haue written. Then beganne the firſt, whiche had ſpoken of the ſtrength of wine,

18 And ſayde thus, O ye menne, howe ſtrong is wine, that deceiueth al menne whiche drinke it?

19 It maketh the kynges minde and the fathers to be both one, the bondmans and the free, the poore mans and the riche.

D

20 It turneth alſo euery thought into ioy and gladneſſe, ſo that a man remembreth neither heauineſſe nor debt.

21 And it maketh euery hart [thinke it ſelfe] riche, ſo that a man remembreth neither king nor gouernour, and it maketh to ſpeake al thinges by talentes.

22 Moreouer, when menne haue drunke, they forgeat al frendſhip and brotherly faythfulneſſe, and a litle after they draw out ſwoordes.

23 And afterwardes when they are from the wine, they remember nothyng what was donne.

24 O ye menne, is not wine the ſtrongeſt, that thus enforceth [menne] to doo? And when he had ſpoken this, he helde his peace.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 Of the ſtrength of a kyng. 13 Of the ſtrength of women. 34 Of the ſtrength of trueth, whiche ſentence is approued. 47 And his petition graunted.

A 1 Then the ſeconde that had ſpoken of the ſtrength of the kyng, beganne to ſay,

2 O ye men, are not men the ſtrongeſt of al, that conquere both by lande and ſea, & al the thinges that are in them?

3 Nowe is the kyng ſtronger, as lorde of al theſe thinges, and that hath the dominion ouer them: and looke what he cõmaundeth them, it is al donne.

4 If he byd them the one agaynſt the other to make warre, they doo it: yf he ſende them out againſt the enimies, they goe and breake downe mountaynes, walles, and towres.

5 They ſlay and are ſlayne, and ouerpaſſe not the kynges commaundement: yf they geat the victorie, they bryng al to the kyng, ſo wel the ſpoyle as other thynges.

6 Likewyſe, the other that medle not with warres & fighting, but til the grounde: when they haue ſowen and reaped, they bryng to the kyng, and compel one another to pay his tribute vnto the kyng.

7 And yf the kyng, though he but one man, commaunde to kil, they kil, if he commaund to " forgeue, they forgeue:

" Or, to ſpare, they ſpare.

B 8 If he commaunde to ſmite, they ſmite, if he byd " driue away, they driue away, if he commaunde to buylde, they buylde:

" Or, make waſte, they make waſte.

9 If he commaunde to breake downe, they breake downe, yf he commaunde to plant, they plant.

10 " So the common people and the rulers are obedient vnto hym, and the kyng in the meane ſeaſon ſitteth hym downe, eateth and drinketh, and taketh his reaſt.

" Or, So al his people and al his armies obay vnto one.

11 And theſe kepe him rounde about, and not one of them dare geat hym out of the way, to doo his owne buſineſſe, " but muſt be obedient vnto the kyng at a woorde.

" Or, neither diſobayed they hym in any thyng.

12 Judge ye nowe, O ye menne, how ſhould not the kyng goe farre aboue, when in ſuche ſort he is obayed? And [when he had ſpoken thus] he helde his tongue.

13 The thirde (whoſe name was Zorobabel) whiche had ſpoken of women, and of trueth, beganne to ſay [after this manner.]

C

24 O ye menne, it is not the great kyng, it is not the multitude of menne, neither is it wine that excelleth. Who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordſhip ouer them? is it not women?

15 Women haue borne the kyng, and al the people, whiche beare rule by ſea and by land.

16 And euen of them were they borne, & they brought thoſe vp that planted the vines, whereof the wine commeth.

17 They make garmentes for men, they geat honour vnto menne, and without women, can not menne continue,

18 Yea, if they haue geathered togeather gold and ſiluer, or any other precious thing, doo they not loue a woman for her comely ſhape and beautie?

19 And letting al thoſe thinges goe, doo they not gape, and euen with open mouth, fixe theyr eyes faſt on her? and haue not al menne more deſyre vnto her, then vnto ſiluer and golde, or any manner of pretious thing?

D

Gen.2.b. Mat.19.a. 1.Cor.6.d Epheſ.5.g.

20 * A man leaueth his owne father that brought hym vp, leaueth his owne natural countrey, and cleaueth vnto his wyfe.

‶ Or, paſſeth

21 Yea, he ‶ ieopardeth his lyfe with his wyfe, and remembreth neither father nor mother, nor countrey.

22 By this alſo ye muſt needes knowe, that women haue dominion ouer you: doo ye not labour and trauaile, and geue and bring al to the woman?

23 A man taketh his ſwoorde, and goeth his way to ſteale, [to kil,] to murther, to ſaile vpon the ſea, and vpon riuers,

‶ Or, ſpoyled

24 And ſeeth a Lion, and goeth in the darkeneſſe: and when he hath ſtollen, ‶ deceiued, and robbed, he bringeth it vnto his loue.

25 Wherefore, a man loueth his wyfe better then father and mother.

‶ Or, for womens.

26 Yea many there be that runne out of theyr wittes, and become bondmen for theyr ‶ wiues ſakes.

27 Many one alſo haue periſhed, haue erred, and ſinned alſo for women.

E

28 And nowe doo ye not beleue me? is not the kyng great in his power? doo not al regions feare to touche him?

29 Yet dyd I ſee him, and Apame the daughter of the great kyng Bartacus the kinges concubine, ſate beſide the king vpon the right hande,

30 And tooke of his crowne from his head, & ſet it vpon her owne head, & ſtroke the kyng with her leaft hande.

31 And there while ſtedily the king looked vpon her with open mouth: yf ſhe laughed vpon hym, he laughed alſo: but yf ſhe tooke any diſpleaſure with hym, ÿ kyng was faine to flatter her [and to geue her good woordes] tyl he had gotten her fauour agayne.

32 O ye menne, are not women then ſtronger, that doo theſe thinges?

33 Then the kyng and the princes looked one vpon another: So he beganne to ſpeake of the trueth:

Eccle.1.a.

34 O ye men, are not women ſtronger? Great is the earth, hie is the heauen, ſwift is the courſe of the ſunne, * he compaſſeth the heauen rounde about, and fetcheth his courſe agayne to his owne place in one day.

35 Is he not excellent that maketh theſe thinges? Therefore great is the trueth, and ſtronger then al thinges.

36 Al the earth calleth vpon trueth, the heauen prayſeth it, al woorkes ſhake and tremble at it, and with it is no vnrighteous thing.

37 Wine is wicked, the kyng is wicked, women are wicked, al the chyldren of men are wicked, yea and ſuche are al their wicked woorkes, and there is no trueth in them, in their vnrighteouſneſſe alſo ſhal they [be deſtroyed and] periſhe:

Eſai.40.a. Pſal.117.a.

38 As for the trueth * it endureth and is alway ſtrong, it liueth and conquereth for euermore worlde without ende.

F

39 With her there is no exception or difference of perſons, but ſhe dooth that iuſt is, and refraineth from al vniuſt and wicked thinges, and al men doo wel lyke of her woorkes.

40 In the iudgement of it, there is no vnrighteous thyng, and ſhe is the ſtrength, kyngdome, power, and maieſtie of al ages. Bleſſed be the God of trueth.

41 And with that he held his peace: and al the people cryed, and then ſayde, Great is trueth, and aboue al.

42 Then ſayd the king vnto him, Aſke what thou wylt, more then is appoynted in the writing, and we ſhal geue it thee, for thou art founde wyſer [then thy companions] thou ſhalt ſit next me, and ſhalt be called my kinſman.

43 Then ſayde he vnto the kyng, Remember thy [promiſe and] vowe whiche thou haſt vowed, [and promiſed] in the day when thou cameſt to the kyngdome, to buylde vp Hieruſalem:

44 And to ſende agayne al the veſſels [and iewels] that were taken away out of Hieruſalem, whiche Cyrus ſet apart, when he vowed to deſtroy Babylon, and to ſende them agayne thyther.

45 And thy minde was alſo to buylde vp the temple, whiche the Edomites burnt when Iudea was deſtroyed by the Chaldees.

46 And nowe this only [O kyng] is the thing that I require and deſire of thee, this is the princely liberalitie that I aſke of thee, I deſire therefore, that thou perfourme the vowe whiche thou with thyne owne mouth haſt made vnto the kyng of heauen.

G

2.Eſd.2.b. 3.Eſd.6.d.

47 Then Darius the kyng ſtoode vp, and kiſſed hym, * wrote him letters vnto al the deputies and liefetenantes, to al the lordes and nobles, that they ſhoulde conuay hym foorth, and al them that went vp with hym, to buylde Hieruſalem.

48 He wrote letters alſo vnto al the Liefetenantes that were in Coeloſyria and Phenices, ces, and vnto them in Libanus, that they ſhould bring Cedar trees from Libanus vnto Hieruſalem, and buylde the citie with hym.

49 Moreouer, he wrote for al the Jewes that were gonne out of his " realme into Jurie, concernyng theyr freedome, that no officer, no ruler, nor Liefetenant, nor Stewarde, ſhoulde enter into theyr doores:

" Or, kyngdome.

50 And that al theyr lande whiche they kepte, ſhoulde be free, and not tributarie: and that the Edomites ſhoulde geue ouer the [cities and] villages of the Jewes whiche they had taken in:

51 Yea and that there ſhoulde be yeerely geuen twentie talentes to the buyldyng of the temple, vntyl the tyme that it were finiſhed:

52 And to maynteyne the burnte offeryngs vpon the aulter euery day, (as they hadde a commaundement to offer ſeuentiene) other ten talentes euery yeere.

53 And that al they whiche comme from Babylon to buylde the citie, ſhoulde haue free libertie, they and theyr chyldren, and al the prieſtes that went away.

54 He wrote alſo concernyng the charges, and the prieſtes garment wherin they miniſter, 55 And lykewyſe for the charges of the Leuites to be geuen them, vntyl the day that the houſe were finiſhed, and Hieruſalem buylded vp.

56 And he commaunded that al thei that watched the citie, ſhoulde haue theyr pentions and wages.

57 He ſent away alſo al the veſſels that Cyrus hadde ſeparated from Babylon: and al that Cyrus had geuen in commaundement, the ſame charged he alſo that it ſhould be donne, and ſent vnto Hieruſalem.

58 Nowe when this young man was gonne forth, he lifted vp his face to heauen toward Hieruſalem, and prayſed the kyng of heauen, 59 And ſayde, * Of thee commeth victorie, of thee commeth wyſedome, & thine is the glory, and I am thy ſeruant.

Eccle,1,a.

60 Bleſſed art thou whiche haſt geuen me wiſedome, for to thee I acknowledge it, O Lorde [thou God] of our fathers.

61 And ſo he tooke the letters, and went out, and came vnto Babylon, and tolde it al his brethren.

62 And they prayſed the God of theyr fathers, that he had geuen them freedome and libertie, 63 To goe vp, and to buylde Hieruſalem and the temple, " wherin the name of the Lord is called vpon: and they reioyced with inſtrumentes of muſicke and gladneſſe ſeuen dayes long.

" Or, where his name is renowmed.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The number of them that returne from the captiuitie, 42 theyr vowes and ſacrifices.
54 The temple is begun to be built. 66 Theyr enimies would craftily ioyne with them.

A 1 After this, were the principal menne of the houſes of theyr fathers, choſen in ye tribes and kinredes, that they ſhould goe with theyr wyues, and ſonnes, and daughters, with theyr ſeruantes and maydens, with al theyr cattel and ſubſtance.

2 And Darius [the kyng] ſent with them a thouſande horſemenne, to conuey them ſafely vnto Hieruſalem, and with muſical inſtrumentes, with tabers, and fluites.

3 And al theyr brethren played, and he made them goe vp togeather with them.

4 And theſe are the names of the menne whiche went vp out of the villages, accordyng to the tribes, and after the order of theyr dignitie.

5 The prieſtes, the ſonnes of Phinehes, the ſonne of Aaron, Jeſus the ſonne of Joſedec, the ſonne of Sariab, and Joachim the ſonne of Zorobabel, the ſonne of Salathiel, of the kynred of Dauid, out of the kynred of Phares, of the tribe of Juda, 41 So of Iſrael from them of twelue yeeres olde, and chyldren, they were al in number fourty and two thouſand, three hundred and three ſcore, beſides menne ſeruantes and women ſeruantes.

G

42 Theyr ſeruantes and handmaydens were ſeuen thouſand, three hundred, fourtie and ſeuen. The ſyngyng men and ſyngyng women, two hundred fourtie and fyue,

43 Foure hundred thirtie and fyue cammels, ſeuen thouſande thirtie and ſyxe horſes, two hundred fourtie and fyue mules, fyue thouſand fyue hundred twentie and fyue beaſtes vſed to the yoke.

44 And of theyr rulers alſo after theyr families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Hieruſalem, there were that vowed to ſet vp the houſe agayne in his owne place, accordyng to theyr habilitie:

45 And to geue into the holy treaſure of the woorkes, a thouſande poundes of golde, fiue thouſand of ſyluer, and an hundred pretious garmentes.

46 And ſo dwelt the prieſtes and the Leuites and the people in Hieruſalem, and in the countrey, [there about,] the ſyngers alſo and the porters, and al Iſrael in theyr villages.

1.Eſd.3.a

47 * But when the ſeuenth moneth came, and when the chyldren of Iſrael were euery man in his owne, they came altogeather with one conſent into the open place of the gate whiche is towardes the eaſt.

48 And there Ieſus the ſonne of Ioſedec and his brethren the prieſtes, and Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel and his brethren, ryſyng vp, made ready the aulter of the God of Iſrael, 49 To offer burnt ſacrifices vpon it, ſo as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moſes the manne of God.

50 And thither were geathered agaynſt them, diuers of other nations of the land: but they dreſſed yͤ aulter in his owne place, although al the nations in the lande were enimies to them, and vexed them: and they offered ſacrifices to the Lorde both mornyng and euenyng.

51 And alſo they helde the feaſte of tabernacles as it is " commaunded in the lawe, and ſacrifices dayly as it was apparteynyng.

" Or, ordeyned.

52 And after that alſo the continual oblations, and the offerynges of the Sabbothes, and of the newe monethes, and of al holye feaſtes.

53 And al they whiche had made any vowe to God, beganne to offer ſacrifice to God, from the fyrſte day of the ſeuenth moneth, although the temple of the Lorde was not yet buylt vp.

54 And they gaue vnto the maſons and carpenters, money, meate, and drynke, with chearefulneſſe.

55 Unto them of Sidon alſo and Tyre, they gaue carres, that they ſhoulde bryng Cedar trees from Libanus, whiche ſhoulde be brought by flote to the hauen Ioppe, accordyng as it was commaunded them by Cyrus kyng of the Perſians.

56 And in the ſeconde yeere and ſeconde moneth, came into the temple of God at Hieruſalem, * Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, and Ieſus the ſonne of Ioſedec and theyr brethren, and the prieſtes and Leuites, and al they that were comme vnto Hieruſalem out of the captiuitie [of Babylon.]

Eccl.29.b.

57 And they layde the fundation of the houſe of God in the " newe moone of the ſeconde moneth, in the ſeconde yeere that they were comme to Iurie and Hieruſalem.

" Or, in the fyrſt day.

58 And they appoynted the Leuites that were aboue twentie yeeres olde ouer the woorkes of the Lorde: So Ieſus and his ſonne and brethren, aſſiſted, and Cadmiel alſo his brother, and the ſonnes of Madiabon, with the ſonnes of Ioda the ſonne Eliadon, and his ſonnes and brethren, euen al the Leuites with one accorde, folowed on earneſtly to aduance the woorkes in the houſe of God: ſo the woorkemenne buylt vp the temple of the Lorde.

59 And the prieſtes ſtoode, and had theyr garmentes with muſical inſtrumentes, and trumpettes, and the Leuites the ſonnes of Aſaph had Cymbales,

60 Geuyng thankes and prayſes vnto the Lorde, accordyng as Dauid the kyng of Iſrael had ordeyned,

1.Par.16.a

61 And they ſong with loude voyces ſongues to the prayſe of the Lorde, becauſe his mercy and glory is for euer in Iſrael.

62 And al the people blewe out with trumpettes, and cryed with loude voyce, prayſyng the Lorde togeather, for the rearing vp of the houſe of the Lorde.

63 There

1.Eſd.3.a 63 * There came alſo from among the prieſtes and Leuites, and of the chiefeſt accordyng to the tribes and kynredes, to wit, the elders whiche had ſeene the former houſe,

64 To the buyldyng of this, with great crye, and great mournyng, many alſo with trumpettes and [great] ioy cryed with loude voyce:

65 Inſomuch that the trumpettes myght not wel be hearde for the weepyng and mournyng of the people: yet there was a great multitude that blewe trumpettes marueylouſly, ſo that it was hearde farre of.

1.Eſd.4.a 66 * Wherefore, when the enimies of the tribes of Iuda and Beniamin hearde it, they came to knowe what that noyſe of trumpettes ſhoulde meane.

67 And they perceiued that they which were comme agayne out of captiuitie, buylte the temple vp a newe vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael.

68 So thei went to Zorobabel and Ieſus, and to the rulers of the villages, and ſayde vnto them, Shal we buylde with you alſo?

69 For we lykewyſe, as you, doo obey your Lorde, and doo ſacrifice vnto hym from the dayes of Aſbazareth the kyng of Aſſyria, whiche brought vs hyther.

70 Then Zorobabel and Ieſus, and the rulers of the villages of Iſrael, ſayde vnto them, It dooth not agree that ye ſhoulde buylde the temple of our God with vs.

71 We our ſelues alone wyl buylde vnto the Lorde of Iſrael, as is meete, and lyke * as Cyrus the kyng of the Perſians hath commaunded vs. 1.Eſd.1.a.

72 But the heathen in the lande, made them ſluggiſhe that were in Iurie, and ſundred them, and letted theyr buyldynges.

73 And by theyr embuſhmentes, ſeditions, and conſpiracies, ſtopped, that the buyldyng coulde not be finiſhed al the tyme that kyng Cyrus liued: ſo that they put of the buyldyng for the ſpace of two yeeres, vntyl the raigne of kyng Darius.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 Of Aggeus and Zacharias. 2 The buyldyng of the temple. 3 Siſinnes woulde let them. 7 His letters to Darius. 23 The kynges anſweare to the contrary.

A 1 NOT withſtandynge, in the ſeconde yeere of the raigne of Darius, * Aggeus, and Zacharias the ſonne of Addo the prophetes, propheſied vnto the Iewes, and to them in Iurie and Hieruſalem, euen in the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael. 1.Eſd.5.a.

Agge.1.c. 2 * Then Zorobabel the ſonne of Salathiel, and Ieſus the ſonne of Ioſedec, ſtoode vp, and beganne to buyld the houſe of the Lord at Hieruſalem, when the prophetes of the Lorde were with them, and healped them.

3 At the ſame tyme came Siſinnes the gouernour of Syria and Phenice, with Sathrabuſanes and his companions, and ſayde vnto them,

4 Who hath bydden [and commaunded] you to buylde this houſe, to make this roofe and al other thynges agayne? And who are the " workemenne that buylde them?

" Or, buylders that dyd theſe thynges.

5 Neuertheleſſe, the elders of the Iewes had [ſuche] grace of the Lorde, after he had viſited the captiuitie,

6 That they were not letted from buyldyng, vntyl the tyme that kyng Darius was certified thereof, and an anſweare receiued [from hym.]

B 7 The copie of the letters whiche he wrote, and ſent vnto Darius. Siſinnes gouernour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuſanes, with theyr companions, whiche are head rulers in Syria and Phenice, ſende theyr ſalutation vnto Darius the kyng.

8 We certifie our Lorde the kyng, that we came into the lande of Iurie, and went to Hieruſalem, where we founde the ancientes of the Iewes, that were of the captiuitie, in the citie of Hieruſalem,

9 Buyldyng an houſe vnto the Lord, great and newe, of hewen and coſtly ſtones, and the tymber already layde vpon the walles:

10 Yea, they make great haſte with the worke, and it goeth foorth proſperouſly in theyr handes, and with great diligence and worſhyp is it made.

11 Then aſked we the elders, ſayeing, By whoſe commaundement buylde you vp this houſe, and lay the fundations of theſe workes?

12 Whiche we demaunded of them, to the intent that we myght geue knowledge vnto thee, & wryte vnto thee of thoſe that gouerned it: & we required of them their names in wrytyng that were theyr chiefe leaders to it.

13 So they gaue vs this anſweare, We are the ſeruantes of the Lord whiche made heauen and earth:

14 And as for this houſe, * it was buylded C manye yeeres agone, by a kyng of Iſrael great and ſtrong, and was finiſhed. 3.Reg.6.a.

15 But when our fathers prouoked God vnto wrath, and ſynned agaynſt the Lorde of Iſrael, whiche is in heauen, * he gaue them ouer into the power of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, of the Chaldees:

4.Reg.24. Iere.39.

16 Whiche brake downe the houſe, and burnt it, and carryed away the people pryſoners vnto Babylon.

1.Eſd.5.a. 17 * Neuertheleſſe, in the fyrſt yeere that kyng Cyrus raigned ouer the countreys of Babylon, Cyrus ye kyng wrote, [and commaunded] to buylde vp this houſe [agayne:]

18 And the holy veſſelles of golde and of ſyluer that Nabuchodonoſor hadde carryed away out of the houſe at Hieruſalem, and had dedicated them in his owne temple: thoſe brought Cyrus foorth agayne out of the temple at Babylon, and delyuered them to Zorobabel, and to Sanabaſſarus the ruler:

19 Commaundyng hym that he ſhoulde carry away thoſe ſame veſſels, and put them in the temple at Hieruſalem, and that the temple of the Lorde ſhoulde be buylte in his [owne] place.

D 20 Then the ſame Sanabaſſarus, being come hyther, layde the fundations of the houſe of the Lorde at Hieruſalem, and from that to this, being ſtyl a buyldyng, it is not yet fully ended.

21 Nowe therefore, O kyng, if thou thynkeſt it good, let it be ſought in the libraries [and rolles] of kyng Cyrus:

22 And if it be founde then that the buyldyng of the houſe of the Lord at Hieruſalem hath ben donne with the [counſel and] conſent of kyng Cyrus, and if our lorde the kyng be ſo mynded, let hym geue anſweare vnto vs thereof.

1.Eſd.6.a. 2.Eſd.4.c. 23 Then commaunded kyng Darius to ſeeke in the kynges libraries at Babylon: and ſo at Ecbatane a towre in the region of Medea, there was found a place where theſe thinges was layde vp for " memorie.

" Or, remembraunce.

24 In the fyrſte yeere of the raigne of Cyrus, [the ſame] kyng Cyrus commaunded that the houſe of the Lorde at Hieruſalem ſhould be buylded agayne, where they doo ſacrifice with the continual fyre.

25 Whoſe heyght ſhalbe ſyxtie cubites, and the breadth ſyxtie cubites, with three rowes of hewen ſtones, and one row of wood, newe, and of that countrey, & the expenſes thereof, to be geuen out of the houſe of king Cyrus:

26 And the holy veſſelles of the houſe of the Lord, both of gold, and of ſyluer, that Nabuchodonoſor tooke out of the houſe at Hieruſalem, and brought to Babylon, ſhoulde be reſtored to the houſe at Hieruſalem, and be ſet in the place where it was [before.]

27 And alſo he commaunded, that Siſinnes E the gouernour of Syria, and Phenice, and Sathrabuſanes, with theyr companions, and others, conſtituted rulers in Syria and Phenice, ſhoulde take heede not to meddle with that place, but to ſuffer Zorobabel the ſeruant of the Lorde, and gouernour of Iudea, and the elders of the Iewes, to buylde that houſe of the Lorde in that place.

28 I haue commaunded alſo to haue it buylt vp whole agayne, and that they be diligent to healpe thoſe that be of the captiuitie of the Iewes, tyl the houſe of the Lorde be finiſhed:

29 And out of the tribute of Coeloſyria and Phenice, a portion diligently to be geuen thoſe men, vnto the offerynges of the Lorde, and the ſame to be deliuered vnto Zorobabel the officer, that he therewithal maye ordeyne oxen, rammes, lambes,

30 And alſo corne, ſalte, wyne, and oyle, and that continually euery yeere, after the expences * whiche the prieſtes that be at Hieruſalem ſhal teſtifie to be made dayly [this ſhalbe geuen vnto them] without delay, 1.Eſd.6.b.

31 That they maye offer ſacrifices dayly to the hygheſt God, for the kyng, and for his chyldren, and to pray for theyr lyues.

32 And he commaunded alſo that whoſoeuer F ſhould breake any poynt of the foreſayd and fordecreed thynges, or make it voyde, of his owne goodes ſhoulde a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and al his goodes ſeaſoned vnto the kyng.

33 The Lorde therefore, whoſe name is there called vpon, roote out, and deſtroye euerye kyng & nation that ſtretcheth out his hande to hinder, or [hurt and] endomage that houſe of the Lorde in Hieruſalem.

34 I Darius the kyng haue ordeyned, that accordyng to theſe thynges it be donne, with diligence.

¶ The

The.vii.Chapter.

1 Siſinnes and his companions folowe the kynges commaundement, and helpe the Iewes to builde the temple. 5 The tyme that it was built. 10 They kepe the Paſſouer.

A 1 Then Siſinnes the gouernour in Coeloſyria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with theyr companions, obeied the thinges that kyng Darius had ordeyned,

2 And were diligent aſſyſters in the holye workes, workyng with the auncientes and gouernours of the ſanctuary:

3 And ſo the holy workes went foorth, and proſpered, when Aggeus and Zacharias the prophetes propheſied.

4 And they perfourmed al thynges through the commaundement of the Lorde God of Iſrael, and with conſent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes kynges of Perſia.

5 And thus was the holy houſe finiſhed in the three & twentieth day of the moneth Adar, in the ſyxth yeere of Darius kyng of the Perſians.

6 And the chyldren of Iſrael, the prieſtes, and the Leuites, and other that were of the captiuitie, that had any charge, dyd accordyng to the thynges wrytten in the booke of Moſes.

B 7 And to the dedication of the temple of the Lorde, they offered an hundred " oxen, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lambes,

" Or, bulles.

8 And twelue Goates, for the ſynnes of al [the people of] Iſrael, after the number of the chiefe of the tribes of Iſrael.

9 The prieſtes alſo, and the Leuites, ſtoode arayed in theyr long robes after theyr kinreds, in al the workes of the Lorde God of Iſrael, accordyng to the booke of Moſes, and the porters at euery doore.

10 And the chyldren of Iſrael, with thoſe that were come out of captiuitie, helde the Paſſeouer the fourtienth day of the fyrſte moneth, after that the prieſtes and the Leuites were ſanctified.

11 They that were of the captiuitie, were not al ſanctified togeather: but the Leuites were al ſanctified togeather.

12 And ſo they offred the Paſſeouer for al them of the captiuitie, and for theyr brethren the prieſtes, and for them ſelues.

13 And the chyldren of Iſrael that came out of captiuitie dyd eate, al they that had ſeparated them ſelues from the abominations of the people of the lande, and ſought the Lorde,

4 And they kepte the feaſte of the vnleauened C bread ſeuen dayes long, makyng mery before the Lorde,

15 That the Lorde had turned the counſayle of the kyng of Aſſyria towardes them, to ſtrengthen theyr handes vnto the workes of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 Eſdras commeth from Babylon to Hieruſalem. 10 The copie of the commiſſion geuen by kyng Artaxerxes. 29 Eſdras geueth thankes to the Lorde. 32 The number of the heades of the people that came with hym. 76 His prayer and confeſſion.

A 1 AND after theſe, * when Artaxerxes the kyng of ẏ Perſians raigned, there went vnto hym Eſdras the ſonne of Saraias, the ſonne of Ezerias, the ſōne of Helchiach, the ſonne of Salum,

1.Eſd.7.d.

2 The ſonne of Sadoch, the ſonne of Achitob, the ſonne of Amarias, the ſonne of Ezias, the ſonne of Meruerath, the ſonne of Saraias, the ſonne of Sauias, the ſonne of Boccas, the ſonne of Abiſun, the ſonne of Phinees, the ſonne of Eleazar, the ſonne of Aaron the fyrſte prieſt:

3 This Eſdras went vp from Babylon, beyng a Scribe of good vnderſtandyng in the lawe of Moſes, that was geuen by the Lord God of Iſrael.

4 And the kyng fauoured hym, and did him great [worſhyp and] honour, " after al his deſyres.

" Or, in al his ſuites.

5 There went vp with hym alſo certayne of the chyldren of Iſrael, of the prieſtes, of the Leuites, of the ſyngers, porters, and miniſters of the temple, vnto Hieruſalem.

6 In the ſeuenth yeere of the raigne of kyng Artaxerxes, in the fyfth moneth, which was the ſeuenth yere (for they went from Babylon in the fyrſt day of the fyrſt moneth,

7 And came to Hieruſalem, accordyng as B God gaue them ſpeede in theyr iourney,)

8 For Eſdras had gotten great knowledge to omit nothyng of that was in the lawe and the commaundementes of the Lorde, and to teache al Iſrael al the " ordinances and iudgementes.

" Or, ryghteouſneſſe.

9 The copie of the commiſſion whiche Artaxerxes the kyng wrote, and that was geuen to Eſdras the Prieſte, and reader of the lawe of the Lorde, this is it that foloweth.

10 Kyng Artaxerxes ſendeth his greetyng vnto Eſdras the prieſt and reader of the lawe of the Lorde.

11 I hauing wayed thynges with pitie, haue [ordeyned and] charged, yf there be any of the Jewes, of the prieſtes and Leuites in my " realme, whiche deſyreth and is content to goe with thee vnto Iſrael, that he may doo it.

" or, kingdome.

12 Therefore, ſo many as long thereafter, let them depart togeather, and goe with thee, lyke as I am content and my ſeuen friendes my counſaylers,

13 To ſee what they doo at Hieruſalem and in Jurie, conueniently, accordyng as thou haſt in the lawe of the Lorde:

C 14 And to bryng the gyftes vnto [God] the Lorde of Iſrael, that I and my freendes haue " promiſed to Hieruſalem, and al the ſiluer and golde that in the countrey of Babylon may be founde [parteynyng] to the Lorde in Hieruſalem,

" or, vowed

15 With the thyng that is geuen of the people to the Lorde their Gods temple at Hieruſalem: that the ſame ſyluer and golde may be geathered, for oxen, rammes, ſheepe, & goates, and other that belong to theſe thynges,

16 That they may offer ſacrifices vnto the Lorde, vpon the aulter of the Lorde theyr God whiche is at Hieruſalem.

17 And whatſoeuer thou and thy brethren wyl doo with the ſyluer and golde, that doo accordyng to the wyll of thy God:

18 And the holy veſſels of the Lorde, whiche are geuen thee for the ſeruice of the temple of thy God whiche is in Hieruſalem, thou ſhalt ſet [them] before thy God in Hieruſalem.

19 And whatſoeuer thyng els thou ſhalt remember for the vſe of the temple of thy God, thou ſhalt geue it out of the kynges treaſure.

20 And I kyng Artaxerxes haue alſo commaunded the keepers of the treaſures in Syria and Phenice, that whatſoeuer Eſdras the prieſt and the reader of the law of the hygheſt God ſhal ſende for, they ſhoulde geue it hym with ſpeede:

D 21 Euen to the ſumme of an hundred talentes of ſyluer: of corne alſo an hundred " meaſures, and tyll an hundred " veſſels of wine, and other thynges abundantly.

" or, cores.
" or, peeces.

22 Let al thynges be donne after the lawe of God diligently, vnto the hygheſt God, that wrath comme not vpon the kyngdome of the kyng, and of his ſonnes.

23 I commaunde you alſo, that ye require no taxe nor tribute of the Prieſtes, Leuites, holy ſingers, porters, and miniſters of the temple, nor of any that haue doynges in this temple, and that no man haue aucthoritie to put any impoſt vpon them.

24 As for thee, O Eſdras, ſet thou iudges and arbitrers to iudge in the whole lande of Syria and Phenice after the wyſedome of God, al ſkilful in the law of God, and teache ſuche as are ignorant.

25 And let al them which ſhal offend againſt the lawe of God and the kyng, be diligently pouniſhed, whether it be by death or other payne, by pouniſhment in money, or els by baniſhment.

26 Then ſayde Eſdras the ſcribe, *Bleſſed be the only Lorde God of my fathers, that hath geuen ſo good a mynde and wyl into the hart of the kyng, to magnifie his houſe that is at Hieruſalem,

i. Eſdr. 7. a.

27 And hath " made me to be accepted in the ſyght of the kyng, of his counſayle, of his freendes, and of his nobles.

" or, honoured me.

28 And ſo I was " ſtedfaſt in my mynde, accordyng as the Lord my God helped me, and I geathered vp menne of Iſrael to goe vp with me.

E " or, of a good courage.

29 *And theſe are the guides after their families, and orders of dignities, that went vp with me from Babylon, in the raigne of kyng Artaxerxes.

1. Eſdr. 8. b ☞

30 Of the ſonnes of Phinees, Gerſom: of the ſonnes of Jthamar, Gamaliel: of the ſonnes of Dauid, Hattus the ſonne of Cechemah:

31 Of the ſonnes of Phares, Zacharias, and with him there returned agayne an hundred and fyftie menne.

32 Of the ſonnes of Pahath, Moab Elioani, the ſonne of Zacharias, and with hym two hundred menne.

33 Of the ſonnes of Zathoe, Shechenias the ſonne of Jezolus, and with hym three hundred menne: and of the ſonnes of Adin, Obed the ſonne of Jonathan, and with hym two hundred and fyftie menne.

34 Of the ſonnes of Elam, Jeſias, ſonne of Gotholias, and with hym ſeuentie menne.

‘40 Of the ſonnes of Adonicam the laſt: and theſe are the names of them, Eliphalet, Ieouel, and Maias, and with them ſeuentie menne.

‘41 Of the ſonnes of Bagouthi, ſonne of Iſcacourus, and with hym ſeuentie menne.

‘42 Al theſe called I togeather by the water Thia, where we pitched our tentes three dayes, and there I muſtered them.

i.Eſdr.13.b ‘43 *As for the ſonnes of the prieſtes and Leuites, I founde none there.]

44 Then ſent I vnto Eleazar, and beholde there came Maaſman, and Maloban,

45 And Alnathan, and Samaian, and Ioribon, and Nathan, Ennatan, Zacharian, and Moſollamon the cheefe and beſt learned.

F 46 And I bade them that they ſhoulde goe vnto Daddeus the captayne, whiche was in the place of the treaſurie:

47 And commaunded them that they ſhould ſpeake vnto Daddeus, and to his brethren, and to thoſe that were the treaſurers, to ſende vs ſuch menne as might execute the prieſtes office in the houſe of our Lorde.

48 And with the mightie hand of our Lord [God] they brought vnto vs menne of good " experience, from among the ſonnes of Moli, the ſonne of Leui, the ſonne of Iſrael, Seredia and his ſonnes and his brethren, whiche were eyghteene.

" or, learning

49 And Aſebia and Amon, and Oſaian his brethren, of the ſonnes of Canaineus, their ſonnes were twentie menne.

50 And of them that ſerued in the temple whom Dauid had ordayned, and the principal menne to the woorke of the Leuites that were miniſters in the temple, two hundred and twentie, whoſe names are al ſigned vp in writing.

51 And then commaunded I a faſtyng vnto the young menne before the Lorde, that I myght deſyre of hym a proſperous iourney [and a good way] both for vs and them that were with vs, for our chyldren, and for the cattel.

52 For I feared to deſyre of the kyng menne of horſe and of foote, to conuey vs ſafely agaynſt our enimies.

53 For we had ſayde vnto the kyng, that the power of the Lorde our GOD ſhoulde be with them that ſeeke hym, to direct them in al thynges.

54 And therefore we beſought our Lorde agayne as touchyng theſe thynges, and found hym fauourable vnto vs.

55 Then I ſeparated from among the cheefe of the tribes and from the prieſtes .xii. menne [to wit] Eſebrias, and Aſſanias, and tenne menne of their brethren with them.

56 And I wayed them the golde and the ſyluer, and the holy veſſels of the houſe of our Lorde, whiche the kyng and his counſel, and his princes, and whole Iſrael had geuen.

57 And when I had wayed it, I deliuered it vnto them, ſixe hundred and fiftie talentes of ſyluer, and an hundred talentes in ſyluer veſſels, and an hundred talentes of golde, 58 And twentie golden baſens, and twelue G veſſels of braſſe, euen fine braſſe, lyke ſhinyng golde.

59 And I ſayde vnto them, Ye are holy vnto the Lorde, and the veſſels are holy, and the golde and the ſyluer is promiſed " vnto the Lorde [God] of our fathers.

60 Be " diligent nowe, and keepe it, vntyl the tyme that ye deliuer it to the cheefe of the Prieſtes and Leuites, and to the principal menne of the families of Iſrael in Hieruſalem, in the chaumbers of the houſe of our God.

61 *So the Prieſtes and the Leuites whiche receiued of me the golde, the ſyluer, and the veſſels, brought it vnto Hieruſalem vnto the temple. 1.Eſdr,8,a.

62 And from the riuer Thia we brake vp the twelfth day of the firſt moneth, accordyng to the myghtie hande of our Lorde whiche was with vs, and from the begynnyng of our iourney the Lorde delyuered vs from euery enimie, ſo that we came vnto Hieruſalem.

63 And when the thirde day was paſt there, the wayed golde and ſyluer was delyuered in the houſe of the Lorde, on the fourth day, vnto Marimoth the prieſt and ſonne of Iori.

64 And with hym was Eleazar the ſonne of Phinees, and with them were Ioſabdus the ſonne of Ieſu, and Moeth the ſonne of Sabbanus, Leuites: al was deliuered them by number and wayght.

65 And al the wayght of them was written vp the ſame houre.

66 After that, they that were comme out of captiuitie, offered ſacrifice vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael, euen twelue oxen for al Iſrael, foureſcore and ſixteene rammes.

67 Threeſcore & twelue ſheepe, twelue goates for ſaluation, al in ſacrifice to the Lorde.

68 And the kinges commiſſion deliuered they vnto the kinges ſtewardes, and to the gouernours of Coeloſyria and Phenice, who honoured the people and the temple of God.

69 Nowe when theſe thinges were donne, the rulers came vnto me, and ſayde,

1.Eſd.9.a.

70 The nation of Iſrael, the princes, the prieſtes, and Leuites, haue not put away from them, the ſtrange people of the lande, nor the vncleanneſſe of the Gentiles, to wit, of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Phereſites, Iebuſites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites.

71 For both they and theyr ſonnes haue mingled them ſelues with the daughters of them, and the holy ſeede is mixt with the ſtrange people of the lande: and ſince the beginnyng of the affaires, the rulers and head men haue benne partakers of this wickedneſſe.

1.Eſd.9.a.

72 And as ſoone as I had heard theſe thinges, immediatly I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, & pulled out the heare of my head and my bearde, and ſate me downe ſorowful and heauy.

73 So al they that were moued thorowe the worde of the Lord God of Iſrael, came vnto me whiles I wept for the iniquitie: but I ſate ſtil ful of heauineſſe, vntil the euenyng ſacrifice.

A

74 Then ſtoode I vp from faſting, hauyng rent clothes and the holy garment, and kneeled downe vpon my knees, and held out my handes vnto the Lorde,

75 And ſayde, O Lord, I am confounded and aſhamed before thy face.

76 For our ſinnes are becomme many, euen aboue our heades, & our ignorances are lifted vp euen vnto heauen:

77 For ſince the tyme of our fathers, we are in great ſinne vnto this day.

78 And for the ſinnes of vs and our fathers, we with our brethren, and with our kinges, and with our prieſtes, haue benne geuen vp vnto the kynges of the earth, into the ſword, and into captiuitie, and became a ſpoile with confuſion [and ſhame] vnto this day.

79 And nowe, O Lorde God, howe great is the mercie that we haue gotten of thee? in that thou haſt lefte vs a roote, and a name in the place of thy ſanctuarie, 80 And that thou haſt diſcouered to vs a light in the houſe of the Lorde our God, and haſt geuen vs meate in the time of our ſeruitude.

81 And when we were in captiuitie, we were not forſaken of the Lord our GOD, but he made the kinges of Perſia gratious and fauourable vnto vs, ſo that they gaue vs victuals [and meate.]

82 Yea, and honoured the temple of our Lord, and repayred the waſted places of Sion, and gaue vs aſſurance in Iurie and Hieruſalem.

83 And nowe, O Lorde, what ſhal we ſay, hauyng al theſe thinges [in poſſeſſion?] For we haue broken thy commaundementes, whiche thou gaueſt vnto vs, by the handes of thy ſeruantes the prophetes, ſayeing,

84 Becauſe the lande whiche ye goe to poſſeſſe as an heritage, is a lande defiled with the vncleanneſſe [and filthyneſſe] of the ſtrangers of the lande, & with their abomination they haue polluted it alto geather:

85 Therefore nowe ſhal ye not ioyne theyr daughters vnto your ſonnes, neither marry your daughters to their ſonnes.

86 Moreouer, ye ſhal neuer ſeeke to make peace with them, that ye may ¨ increaſe and eate the beſt in the lande, and that ye may leaue the inheritance of the lande vnto your chyldren for euermore.

¨ Or, waxe ſtrong, and eate the good thinges of the lande.

87 As for the thinges that are comme to paſſe, they comme al for our wicked workes and great ſinnes: for thou, O Lorde, haſt made our ſinnes lyght,

88 And geuen vs ſuche a roote: but we haue turned backe agayne, ſo that we haue broken thy lawe, and mingled our ſelues with the vncleanneſſe of the outlandiſhe heathen.

89 Mighteſt not thou be angry with vs, to deſtroy vs? ſo that thou ſhouldeſt leaue vs neither roote, ſeede, nor name?

90 O Lorde God of Iſrael, thou art true: for our roote endureth yet vnto this preſent day.

91 And beholde, now are we before thee in our ſinnes, neither can we ſtande before thee for them.

92 *And when Eſdras with this prayer hadde knowledged the ſinne, weeping and lying flat vpon the ground before the temple, there geathered vnto hym from Hieruſalem, a great multitude of menne and women, of young men and maydens: for there was a very great [weeping and] mournyng among the multitude.

1.Eſd.x.a.

93 Then Iechonias the ſonne of Ieheli, one of the chyldren of Iſrael, cryed out, and ſayde, O Eſdras, we haue ſinned agaynſt the Lorde God, [becauſe] we haue married ſtrange women of the nation of the lande.

94 And nowe al Iſrael hangeth in doubt: we wyl ſweare an oth therefore vnto the Lorde, that we ſhal put away al our wyues which we haue taken of the ¨ heathen, with theyr chyldren:

95 Like as it may ſeeme good to thee, and to al thoſe that obey the lawe of the Lorde,

96 Stande vp, and put it in execution: for to thee dooth this matter apparteyne, and we are with thee, to adde thee ſtrength.

97 So Eſdras aroſe, and tooke an othe of the chiefe of the prieſtes and Leuites of al Iſrael, to doo after theſe thinges: and they ſware.

The.ix.Chapter.

7 After Eſdras had read the lawe for the ſtrange wyues. 18 They promiſed to put them away.

A 1 Then Eſdras ryſing from the court of the temple, went to the chamber of Ioannan, the ſonne of Eliaſib,

2 And remained there, & dyd eate no meate, nor drunke " drinke, weeping for the great wickedneſſe of the people.

" Or, waters

3 And there was made a proclamation in al Iurie, and at Hieruſalem, for al them that were of the captiuitie, that they ſhoulde geather togeather at Hieruſalem,

4 And that whoſoeuer met not there within two or three dayes, accordyng as the elders that bare rule appointed, their catayle ſhould be ſeaſed to the vſe of the temple, and he be excluded from them that were of the captiuitie.

5 And in three dayes were al they of the tribe of Iuda and Beniamin, geathered togeather at Hieruſalem, the twentith day of the ninth moneth.

6 And the whole multitude ſate tremblyng in the " court of ỷ temple, for it was winter.

" Or, the large roome.

7 So Eſdras aroſe vp, and ſayd vnto them, Ye haue donne vnryghteouſly, in that ye haue taken " outlandiſhe wiues to marriage, and ſo to encreaſe the ſinnes of Iſrael.

" Or, ſtrãge.

B 8 And nowe knowledge the ſame, and geue prayſe vnto the Lorde God of our fathers:

9 And perfourme his wyl, departing from the heathen of the lande, and from the " outlandiſhe wiues.

" Or, ſtrãge.

10 Then cryed the whole multitude, and ſayd with a loude voyce, Lyke as thou haſt ſpoken, ſo wyl we doo.

11 But forſomuche as the people are many, and winter ſeaſon, ſo that we may not ſtand without the houſe: and becauſe this worke is not a thing that can be finiſhed in a day or two, ſeeing we be many that haue ſinned in theſe thinges:

12 Ordeyne therefore, that the rulers of the multitude, & they of our families, that haue ſtrange wiues, tarrie.

13 And let the prieſtes and iudges comme out of euery place in their tyme appoynted, tyl they ſwage the wrath of the Lorde in this buſineſſe.

C

14 Then Ionathas the ſonne of Azaiel, and Ezechias the ſonne of Thecan, receiued the charge of this matter, and Moſollam, and Leuis, and Sabatheus, helped them therto.

15 And they that were of the captiuitie, dyd accordyng to al theſe thinges.

16 And Eſdras the prieſt choſe vnto hym the principal menne from among the fathers, and them al by name: and in the fyrſt day of the tenth moneth they ſate togeather, to examine this matter.

17 And ſo the matter was a determining, concerning the menne that had married ſtrange wiues, vntyl the newe Moone of the fyrſt moneth:

21 And of the ſonnes of Emmer, Ananias, and Zabdeus, and Canes, and Samaius, and Hiereel, and Azarias.

22 And of the ſonnes of Phaiſu, Ellionas, Maſſias, Eſmaelus, and Nathanael, and Ocidelus, and Talſas.

23 And of the Leuites, Iozabadus, and Semis, and Colius, who was called Calitas, and Patheus, and Doudas, and Ionas.

24 Of the holy ſingers, Eliazurus, Bacchurus.

25 Of the porters, Sallumus, and Tolbants.

26 Of them of Iſrael, of the ſonnes of Phorus, Hiermas, and Eddias, and Melchias, and Maelus, and Eleaſar, and Abias, and Banaias.

27 Of the ſonnes of Ela, Matthanias, Zacharias, and Hierielas, and Hieremoth, and Aedias.

Iedias.

28 And of the ſonnes of Zamoth, Eliadas, Eliſimus, Othonias, Iarimoth, and Sabatus, and Sardeus.

E 29 Of the ſonnes of Bebai, Ioannes, and Ananias, and Ioſabad, and Ematheas.

30 Of the ſonnes of Mani, Olamus, Mamuchus, Iedaias, Iaſubus, Iaſael, and Ieremoth.

31 And of the ſonnes of Addi, Naathus, Moſias, Laccunus, and Naidus, and Matthanias, and Seſchel, and Balnuus, and Manaſſeas.

32 And of the ſonnes of Annas, Elionas, and Aſeas, and Melchias, and Sabbeus, and Simon a Choſamite.

33 And of the ſonnes of Aſom, Altaneus, and Matthias, and Banaias, Eliphalet, & Manaſſes, and Semi.

34 And of the ſonnes of Maani, Ieremias, Momdis, Omairus, Iuel, Mamai, & Paclias, and Amos, Carabaſion, and Euaſibus, and Mamnimata, Naius, Eliaſis, Vamus, Elialt, Samis, Selemias, Nathanias: and of the ſonnes of Ozoras, Seſis, Eſril, Ezaſſus, Samatas, Sambis, Ioſiphus.

35 And of the ſonnes of Ethna, Mazitias, Zabadias, Ethes, Iuel, Banaias.

36 All theſe had taken " outlandiſhe women to marriage, and they put them away with theyr chyldren.]

" Or, ſtrãge.

☞ 37 And the prieſtes and Leuites, and [al] they that were of Iſrael, dwelt at Hieruſalem, and throughout al the land, in the " new moone of the ſeuenth moneth: and the chyldren of Iſrael were in their " dwellinges.

" Or, firſt day.

" Or, owne houſes.

F 38 And the whole multitude came togeather with one accorde into the wyde place before the eaſt gate of the temple.

39 And they ſpake vnto Eſdras the hygh prieſt and reader, that he woulde bryng the lawe of Moſes, whiche had benne geuen of the Lorde God of Iſrael.

40 So Eſdras the hygh prieſt brought the lawe vnto the whole multitude, to man, and woman, and to al prieſtes, that they might heare the lawe,* in the " newe moone of the ſeuenth moneth.

2.Eſd,3.a.

" Or, beginnyng.

41 And he read in the firſt wyde place, that is before the port of the temple, from the mornyng early, vnto midday, before menne and women: and they applied their minde al vnto the lawe.

42 And Eſdras the prieſt & reader of the lawe, ſtoode vp vpon a pulpit of wood, whiche was made therefore:

43 And vpon his ryght hande, there ſtoode by hym Mathathias, Samus, Ananias, Azarias, Vrias, Ezechias, and Balaſan:

44 Vpon his leaft hand ſtoode Faldeus, Sael, Melchias, Lothaſuphus, and Nabarias.

45 Then tooke Eſdras the booke of the lawe, before the whole multitude (for he was the principal, and hadde in moſt honour of them al.)

46 And when he expounded the lawe, they ſtoode al ſtraight vpon their feete. So Eſdras " prayſed the Lorde the moſt hygh God, the almighty God of hoſtes.

" Or, bleſſed.

47 And al the people anſweared, Amen.

48 And Ieſus, Anus, Sarabias, Adinus, Iacobus, Battaias, Autamas, Maianias, Calitas, Azarias, Iohaſabdus, Ananias, and Biatas, the Leuites, lyft vp their handes, and fel downe on the grounde, and worſhipped the Lorde,

G 49 And taught the lawe of the Lorde, & were earneſtly occupied togeather in the readyng thereof.

50 Then ſpake Atharates, vnto Eſdras the hygh prieſt and reader, and to the Leuites that taught the multitude, ſayeing, 51 This day is holy vnto the Lorde: and al, when they hearde the lawe, wept.

52 [So Eſdras ſayd,]* Depart your way therfore, and eate the fat meates, and drinke the ſweete drinkes, and ſende gyftes vnto them that haue nothyng.

2.Eſd.8.c.

53 For this day is holy vnto the Lorde, and be not ye ſory: for the Lorde wyl bryng you to honour.

54 So the Leuites " publiſhed al theſe thinges to the people, ſayeing, This day is holy to the Lorde, be not ſory:

" Or, commaunded.

55 Then went they their way euery one to eate and drinke, and were merry, and ſent preſentes to them that had nothyng, & made very good cheare:

56 For they were as yet " filled with the woordes that had benne taught them, and for the whiche they had ben aſſembled.

be they that haue put of the moꝛtal clothing, and put on the immoꝛtal, and haue ‶ teſtified and knowledged the name of God: Now are they crowned, and receaue the ‶ reward.

46 Then ſaid I vnto the angel, What young perſon is it that crowneth them, & geueth them the palmes in their handes?

47 So he anſweared, and ſayde vnto me, It is the ſonne of GOD, whom they haue ‶ knowledged in the worlde: Then beganne I greatly to commende them, that ſtoode ſo ſtiffely foꝛ the name of the Loꝛde.

‶ Or, confeſſed.

48 Then the angel ſayde vnto me, Goe thy way, and tel my people what maner of thinges, and howe great woonders of the Loꝛde thy God thou haſt ſeene.

The.iii.Chapter.

4 The woonderous woꝛkes whiche God dyd foꝛ the people, are recited. 31 Eſdras marueyleth that God ſuffereth the Babylonians to haue rule ouer his people, whiche yet are ſinners alſo.

A 1 IN the thirtith yeere after the falle of the citie, I was at Babylon, and lay troubled vpon my bedde, and my thoughtes came vp ouer my hart:

2 For I ſawe the deſolation of Sion, and the plenteous wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon.

3 And my ſpirite was ſoꝛe moued, ſo that I beganne to ſpeake feareful woꝛdes to the moſt hygheſt, and ſayde,

4 O Loꝛde, Loꝛde, thou ſpakeſt at the begynning, when thou planteďſt the earth (and that thee ſelfe alone) and gaueſt commaundement vnto the people,

5 And a body vnto Adam without ſoule, whiche was a ‶ creature of thy handes, and haſt bꝛeathed in him the bꝛeath of lyfe, and ſo he liued befoꝛe thee:

‶ Or, woꝛkemanſhippe.

6 And thou leddeſt him into Paradiſe, which thy ryght hande had planted, oꝛ euer yͤ earth bꝛought fruites.

7 And vnto him thou gaueſt commaundement to loue thy way, whiche he tranſgreſſed, and immediatly thou appointedſt death in him, and in his generations: Of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kinredes, out of number.

B 8 *And euery people walked after their owne wyl, & dyd woonderful thinges befoꝛe thee: and as foꝛ thy commaundementes they deſpiſed them.

Gen.6.b.

9 *But ‶ in pꝛoceſſe of time, thou bꝛoughteſt the water fludde vpon thoſe that dwelt in the woꝛlde, and deſtroyedſt them:

Gen.7.b.

‶ Or, at time appoynted.

10 So that by the fludde, that was wꝛought in eche of them, that was by death in Adam.

11 Neuertheleſſe, one of them thou lefteſt, namely, Noe with his houſeholde, of whom came al ryghteous menne.

12 And it ‶ happened, that when they that dwelt vpon the earth, beganne to multiplie, & had gotten them many chyldꝛen, and were a great people, they beganne to be moꝛe vngodly then the firſt.

‶ Or, came to paſſe.

13 Nowe when they liued ſo wickedly befoꝛe thee, thou dydſt chooſe thee a man from among them, whoſe name was Abꝛaham. C

14 Him thou louedſt, and vnto him only thou ſhewedſt thy wyl,

15 And madeſt an euerlaſting couenant with him, pꝛomiſing him, that thou wouldeſt neuer foꝛſake his ſeede.

16 *And vnto him thou gaueſt Iſahac: *vnto Iſahac alſo thou gaueſt Iacob and Eſau. As foꝛ Iacob thou dydſt chooſe him to thee, and put backe Eſau: *And ſo Iacob became a great multitude.

Gen.21.a.

17 And it came to paſſe, that when thou leddeſt his ſeede out of Egypt, *thou bꝛoughteſt them vp to the mount Sina,

Deut.4.b.

18 Bowing downe the heauens, ‶ ſetting faſt the earth, moouyng the grounde, makyng the deapthes to ſhake, and ‶ troublyng the woꝛlde:

‶ Or, abaſing

‶ Or, aſtoniſhing.

19 And thy gloꝛie went through foure ‶ poꝛtes, of fyꝛe, and earthquakes, and windes, & colde: that thou myghteſt geue the lawe vnto the ſeede of Iacob, and ‶ diligence vnto the generation of Iſrael.

‶ Or, gates.

‶ Or, and that whiche the generation of Iſrael ſhoulde keepe with diligence

20 And yet tookeſt thou not away from them that wicked hart, that thy lawe might bꝛing foozth fruite in them.

21 For the firſt Adam bearing a wicked hart, tranſgreſſed and was ouercomme: and ſo be al they that are boꝛne of hym.

22 *Thus remained weakeneſſe ſtille, and the lawe in the hartes of the people, with the wickedneſſe of the roote: ſo that the good departed away, and the euil abode ſtil.

1.Re.15.c.

23 So the times paſſed away, and the yeeres were bꝛought to an ende: *Then dyddeſt thou rayſe thee vp a ſeruant called Dauid,

3.Re.5.a.

24 Whom thou commaundedſt to buylde a citie vnto thy name, and to offer vp incenſe and ſacrifice vnto thee therein.

25 When this was donne now many yeeres, then the inhabiters of the citie forſooke them,

26 And in al thinges, dyd euen as Adam and al his generations hadde donne: for they alſo had a wicked hart.

E 27 And ſo thou gaueſt the citie ouer into the handes of thyne enimies.

28 But doo they of Babylon then any thing better, that they ſhoulde therefore haue the dominion in Sion?

29 For when I came thyther, and ſaw there ſo great wickedneſſe, that it coulde not be numbred: then my ſoule ſawe many euyl dooers in this thirtieth yeere, ſo that my hart fayled me:

30 For I ſawe howe thou ſufferedſt them in ſuche vngodlineſſe, and ſparedſt the wicked dooers: but thyne owne people haſt thou rooted out, and preſerued thyne enimies, and this haſt thou not ſhewed " me.

" Or, it.
" Or, cōmeth to paſſe.

31 I can not perceiue how this " happeneth. Doo they of Babylon then better then they of Sion?

32 Or is there any other people that knoweth thee, ſauing the people of Iſrael? or what generation hath ſo beleeued thy " couenantes, as Iacob?

" Or, teſtimonies.

33 And yet their rewarde appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruite: For I haue gone here and there through the heathen, and I ſee that they be " riche and wealthy, and thinke not vpon thy commaundementes.

" Or, flowe in wealth.

34 Waygh thou therefore our wickedneſſe nowe in the ballance, & theirs alſo that dwel in the worlde: and ſo ſhal thy name be no where founde but in Iſrael.

35 Or when was it that they whiche dwelle vpon earth, haue not ſinned in thy ſyght? or what people hath ſo kept thy commaundementes?

36 Thou ſhalt finde, that Iſrael by name hath kept thy preceptes: but not the [other people and] heathen.

The.iiii.Chapter.

¶ The angel reprooueth Eſdras, becauſe he ſeemed to enter into the profounde iudgementes of God.

A 1 AND the angel that was ſent vnto me, whoſe name was Uriel, gaue me an anſweare,

2 And ſayde, Thy hart hath taken to muche vpon it in this world, and thou thinkeſt to comprehende the way of the higheſt.

3 Then ſayde I, Yea my Lorde. And he anſweared me, and ſayde, I am ſent to ſhewe thee three wayes, and to ſet foorth three ſimilitudes before thee:

4 Whereof yf thou canſt declare me one, I wyl ſhewe thee alſo the way that thou deſyreſt to ſee: and I ſhal ſhew thee from whence the wicked hart commeth.

5 And I ſayde, Tel on my Lorde. Then ſaid he vnto me, Goe thy way, waygh me the waght of the fire, or meaſure me the blaſt of the winde, or calle me agayne the day that is paſt.

6 Then anſweared I, and ſayde, What man borne, is hable to doo that, that thou ſhouldeſt aſke ſuche thinges of me?

B 7 And he ſayde vnto me, If I ſhoulde aſke thee howe deepe dwellinges are in the middeſt of the ſea, or howe great water ſpringes are in the beginnyng of the deepe, or howe great water ſpringes are vpon the ſtretching out of the heauens, or whiche are the " outgoinges of Paradiſe:

" Or, borders.

8 Peraduenture thou wouldeſt ſay vnto me, I neuer went downe yet into the deepe, nor hel, neither did I euer climbe vp into heauen.

9 Neuertheleſſe, nowe haue I aſked thee but only of fire, and winde, and of the day, wherthrough thou haſt trauailed, and from the whiche thou canſt not be ſeparated: and yet canſt thou geue me no anſweare of them.

10 He ſaide moreouer vnto me, Thyne owne thynges, and ſuche as are growen vp with thee, canſt thou not knowe:

11 Howe ſhoulde thy veſſel then be hable to comprehende the way of the hygheſt: & now outwardly in the corrupt worlde to vnderſtande the corruption that is euident in my ſyght?

12 Then ſayde I vnto him, It were better that we were not at al, then that we ſhoulde liue in wickedneſſe, and to ſuffer, and not to knowe wherefore.

13 He anſweared me, and ſayde, I came to a forreſt in a plaine, and * the trees tooke ſuche a deuice, Iudi.9.b.

2.Par.25.c.

C 14 And ſayd, Comme, let vs goe, and fight againſt ẏ ſea, that it may depart away before vs, and that we may make yet more woods.

15 The fluddes of the ſea alſo in lyke manner tooke counſayle, and ſayde, Comme, let vs goe vp, and fyght agaynſt the trees of the wood, that there we may make vs another countrey.

16 The thought [and deuiſe] of the wood was but vayne [and nothyng woorth:] for the fire came and conſumed it.

17 The thought of the fluddes of the ſea came lykewyſe to nought alſo: for the ſand ſtoode vp, and ſtopped them.

18 If thou were iudge nowe betwixte theſe two, whom wouldeſt thou iuſtifie, or whō wouldeſt thou condemne?

19 I anſweared, and ſayde, Verily it is a fooliſhe thought that they both haue deuiſed: For the grounde is geuen vnto the woode, and the ſea alſo hath his place to beare his fluddes.

D 20 Then anſweared he me, and ſayde, Thou haſt geuen a ryght iudgemeut: but why iudgeſt thou not thee ſelfe alſo?

21 For lyke as the grounde is geuen vnto the woode, and the ſea to his fluddes: euen ſo * they that dwel vpon earth, may vnderſtand nothyng but that whiche is vpon earth: and he that dwelleth aboue the heauens, may onely vnderſtande the thynges that are aboue the heauens.

Eſai.45.c.
Iohn.3.c.
1.Cor.2.b.

22 Then anſweared I, and ſayde, I beſeeche thee, O Lorde, let me haue vnderſtandyng.

23 For it was not my mynde * to be curious of thy hygh thinges, but of ſuche as we dayly meddle withal, namely, as wherefore Iſrael is geuen vp as a reproche to the heathen, and for what cauſe the people whom thou haſt loued, is geuen ouer vnto vngodly nations, and why the lawe of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the wrytten " couenantes comme to none effect?

* Or, to enquyre.

" Or, ordinances.

24 And we paſſe awaye out of the worlde as the Graſhoppers, and our life is a very feare, and we are not woorthy to obteyne mercye.

25 What wyl he doo then vnto his name whiche is called vpon ouer vs? Of theſe thynges haue I aſked queſtion.

26 Then anſweared he me, and ſayde, The more thou ſearcheſt, the more thou ſhalt marueyle: for the worlde haſteth faſt to paſſe away,

27 And can not comprehend the thinges that are promiſed to the ryghteous in tyme to comme: for * this worlde is ful of vnryghteouſneſſe, and weakeneſſe.

1.Iohn.5.c

28 But as concernyng the thynges whereof thou aſkeſt me, I wyl telle thee: The euyl is ſowen, but the deſtruction thereof is not yet comme.

29 If the euyl nowe that is ſowen be not turned vpſyde downe, and yf the place where the euyl is ſowen paſſe not awaye: then can not the thyng comme, that is ſowen with good.

E 30 For the corne of euyl ſeede hath beene ſowen in the hart of Adam from the beginning: & how much vngodlyneſſe hath he brought vp vnto this tyme? and howe muche ſhal he yet bring foorth, vntyl he comme into the barne?

31 Ponder now by thee ſelfe howe great fruit of wickedneſſe the corne of euyl ſeede bryngeth foorth?

32 And when the ſtalkes ſhalbe cut downe, whiche are without number, howe great a barne ſhal it fyl?

33 Then I anſweared, and ſayde, Howe and when ſhal theſe thynges comme to paſſe? Wherefore are our yeeres fewe and euyl?

34 And he anſweared me, ſayeing, * Haſte not thou to muche aboue the moſte hygheſt: for thy haſtineſſe to be aboue hym, is but vaine, though thou doo al that thou canſt, for it.

Apoc.6.b

35 Dyd not the ſoules alſo of the ryghteous aſke queſtion of theſe thinges in theyr chambers, ſayeing, * Howe long ſhal I hope on this faſhion? When commeth the fruite of my barne, and our rewarde?

36 And vpon this, Ieremiel tharchangel gaue them anſweare, and ſayde, Euen when the number of the ſeedes is fylled in you: for he hath weyghed the worlde in the ballance,

F 37 In meaſure and number hath he meaſured the tymes, and moueth it not, nor ſhaketh it, vntyl the ſayde meaſure be fulfylled.

38 Then anſweared I, and ſayde, O Lorde, Lorde, nowe are we al ful of ſynne:

39 And for our ſake peraduenture it is, that the barne of the ryghteous are not fulfylled, becauſe of the ſynnes of them that dwel vpon the earth.

40 So he anſweared me, and ſayde, Goe thy waye to a woman with chylde, and aſke of her when ſhe hath fulfylled her nyne monethes, if her wombe may keepe the byrthe any longer within her?

41 Then ſaide I, No Lorde, that can ſhe not. And he ſayde vnto me, In the graue, the ſecrete places of ſoules are lyke the wombe of a woman.

42 For lyke as a woman that trauayleth, maketh haſte to eſcape the neceſſitie of the trauayle: euen ſo doo theſe places haſte to delyuer thoſe thynges that are committed vnto them.

43 Looke what thou deſyreſt to ſee, it ſhalbe ſhewed thee from the begynnyng.

44 Then anſweared I, and ſayd, If I haue founde fauour in thy ſyght, and if it be poſſible, and if I be meete therefore,

45 Shewe me then whether there be more to comme, then is paſt, or more paſt then is for to comme.

46 What is paſt, I knowe: but what is for to comme, I knowe not.

47 And he ſayde vnto me, Stande vp vpon the ryght ſyde, and I ſhal expounde the ſimilitude vnto thee.

48 So I ſtood, and behold, an hotte burning Ouen paſſed by before me: and it happened that when the flame was gonne by, I looked, and behold the ſmoke had the vpper hande.

49 After this, there paſſed by before me a watry cloude, and ſent downe muche rayne with a ſtorme: and when the ſtormie rayne was paſt, ‖ the droppes remayned ſtyl.

‖ Or, the litle droppes came after.

50 Then ſayde he vnto me, Conſyder with thee ſelfe: lyke as the rayne is more then the droppes, aud as the fyre exceedeth the ſmoke: euen ſo the meaſure of the thynges that are paſt, hath the vpper hande, and the droppes and ſmoke worke muche in quantitie.

51 Then I prayed, and ſayde, Maye I lyue, thynkeſt thou, vntil that tyme? or what ſhal happen in thoſe dayes?

52 He anſweared me, and ſayde, As for the tokens whereof thou aſkeſt me, I may telle thee of them in parte: but as touchyng thy lyfe, I am not ſent to ſhewe thee: for I doo not knowe it.

The.v.Chapter.

1 In the latter tymes trueth ſhalbe hidde. 6 Unryghteouſneſſe and al wickedneſſe ſhal raigne in the worlde 23 Iſrael is refected, and God deliuereth them. 35 God dooth al thyng in ſeaſon.

A 1 NEuertheleſſe, as concernyng the tokens [marke this:] Behold, the dayes ſhal comme, that they whiche dwel vpon earth ſhalbe taken in a greate number, and the way of the trueth ſhalbe hyd, & the lande ſhalbe barren from fayth:

Mat.24.a. 2 But iniquitie ſhalbe increaſed aboue that whiche nowe thou ſeeſt, or that thou haſt hearde long ago.

3 And the lande that thou ſeeſt nowe to haue rule, ſhalt thou ſhortly ſee waſte.

4 But if God graunt thee to liue, thou ſhalt ſee after the thyrde trumpet, that the ſunne ſhal ſodaynely ſhyne agayne in the nyght, and the moone three tymes in the day:

5 And blood ſhal droppe out of wood, and the ſtone ſhal geue his voyce, and the people ſhalbe vnquieted:

6 And euen he ſhal rule, whom they hope not that dwelle vpon earth, and the foules ſhal flitte:

B 7 And the Sodomitiſhe ſea ſhal caſt out the fiſhe, and make a noyſe in the nyght, which many haue not knowen, but they ſhal al heare the voyce thereof.

8 There ſhalbe a confuſion alſo in many places, and the fyre ſhalbe ofte ſent out agayne: and the wylde beaſtes ſhal change theyr places, and menſtruous women ſhal beare monſters,

9 And ſalte waters ſhalbe founde in the ſweete, and al friendes ſhal fight one againſt another: then ſhal al wit & vnderſtandyng be hydde, and put aſyde into theyr ſecret places:

10 And ſhalbe ſought of many, and yet not be founde: then ſhal vnryghteouſneſſe and ‖ voluptuouſneſſe haue the vpper hand vpon earth.

‖ Or, incontinencie.

11 One lande alſo ſhal aſke another, and ſaye, Is righteouſneſſe ‖ that maketh a man righteous, gonne through thee? And it ſhal ſaye, Noe.

‖ Or, that iuſtifieth. Or, that dooth rightwiſely.

12 At the ſame tyme ſhal menne hope, but nothyng obteyne: they ſhal labour, but theyr wayes ſhal not proſper.

13 To ſhewe thee ſuche tokens I haue leaue: and if thou wylt pray agayne, and weepe as nowe, and faſt ſeuen dayes, thou ſhalt heare yet greater thynges.

C 14 Then I awaked, and a fearefulneſſe went through al my bodye, and my mynde was feeble, ſo that I almoſt ſowned withal:

15 So the angel that was come to talke with me, helde me, comforted me, and ſet me vp vpon my feete.

16 And in the ſeconde nyght it came to paſſe, that Salathiel, the captayne of the people, came vnto me, ſayeing, Where haſt thou benne? & why is thy countenance ſo heauy?

17 Knoweſt thou not that Iſrael is committed vnto thee in the lande of theyr captiuitie?

18 Up then, and eate, and forſake vs not, as the Shephearde that leaueth his flocke in the handes of ‖ wicked wolues.

‖ Or, cruel.

19 Then ſayde I vnto hym, Goe thy wayes from me, and comme not nygh me. And he hearde it, and as I ſaide, ſo went he his way from me.

20 And ſo I faſted ſeuen daies, mourning and weepyng, lyke as Uriel the angel cōmaunded me.

21 And after ſeuen dayes ſo it was, that the thoughtes of my harte were very greeuous vnto me agayne:

22 And my ſoule receiued the ſpirite of vnderſtandyng, and I beganne to talke with the moſt hygheſt agayne,

23 And ſayde, O Lorde, Lorde, of euery wood of the earth, and of al the trees thereof, thou haſt choſen thee one onely vineyarde:

24 And of al landes of the whole worlde, thou haſt choſen one pytte, and of al floures of the ground, thou haſt choſen thee one lilye:

25 And of al the deapthes of the ſea, thou haſt fylled thee one riuer: and of al buylded cities, thou haſt halowed Sion vnto thee ſelfe:

26 And of al the foules that are created, thou haſt named thee one doue: and of al the cattel that are made, thou haſt prouided thee one ſheepe:

E 27 And among al the multitudes of peoples, thou haſt gotten thee one people: and vnto this people whom thou louedſt, thou gaueſt a lawe that is proued of al.

28 And nowe O Lord, why haſt thou geuen this one people ouer vnto many? and vpon the one roote thou haſt "prepared others, and why haſt thou ſcattered thy one onely people among many?

" Or, ſet.

29 Whiche treade them downe, yea whiche haue euer withſtande thy promiſes, and neuer beleued thy couenantes.

30 If thou dyddeſt ſo muche hate thy people, yet ſhouldeſt thou puniſhe thē with thyne owne handes.

31 Nowe when I had ſpoken theſe woordes, the angel that came to me the nyght afore, was ſent vnto me,

32 And ſayde vnto me, Heare me, and I wyl inſtructe thee: Hearken to the thyng that I ſaye, and I ſhal telle thee more.

33 And I ſayde, Speake on my Lorde. Then ſayde he vnto me, Thou art ſore troubled in mynd for Iſraels ſake: Loueſt thou that people better then he that made them?

34 And I ſayde, No Lorde, but of very griefe [and compaſſion] haue I ſpokē: for my reines payne me euery houre, because I woulde "haue experience of the waye of the moſte higheſt, and ſeeke out part of his iudgement.

" Or, cōprehende.

F 35 And he ſayde vnto me, That thou "mayeſt not. And I ſayd, Wherefore Lorde? Wherunto was I borne then? or why was not my mothers wombe then my graue, that I might not haue ſeene ẏ miſerie [and trouble] of Iacob, and the wearyng out of the ſtocke of Iſrael?

" Or, canſt not.

36 And he ſayde vnto me, Number me the thynges that are not yet comme, geather me togeather ẏ drops that are ſcattered abroade, make me the floures greene agayne that are wythered,

37 Open me the places that are cloſed, & bryng me foorth the wyndes that in them are ſhut vp, ſhew me the image of a voyce: and then I wyl declare to thee the thyng that thou laboureſt to knowe.

38 And I ſayde, O Lorde, Lorde, who maye knowe theſe thynges, but he that hath not his dwellyng with men?

39 As for me, I am vnwyſe: how may I then ſpeake of theſe thynges, whereof thou aſkeſt me?

40 Then ſayde he vnto me, Lyke as thou canſt doo none of theſe thynges that I haue ſpoken of: euen ſo canſt thou not fynde out my iudgement, or in the ende, the loue that I haue promiſed vnto my people.

41 And I ſayd, Behold, O Lorde, yet art thou nigh vnto them that be reſerued tyl the ende: and what ſhal they doo that haue benne before me, or we that be nowe, or they that ſhal comme after vs?

42 And he ſayde vnto me, I wyl lyken my iudgement vnto a ryng: Like as there is no ſlackneſſe of the laſt, euē ſo there is no ſwiftneſſe of the fyrſte. G

43 So I anſweared and ſayde, Couldeſt thou not make thoſe that haue benne made, and be nowe, and that are for to comme, at once, that thou myghteſt ſhewe thy iudgemente the ſooner?

44 Then anſweared he me, and ſayde, The creature maye not haſt "aboue the maker, neyther may the worlde holde them at once, that ſhalbe created therein.

" Or, before

45 And he ſayde, As thou haſt ſayde vnto thy ſeruant, that thou whiche quickeneſt al thynges, haſt geuen lyfe at once to the creature [or woorke] that thou haſt created, and the creature bare it: Euen ſo myght it nowe alſo beare them that be nowe preſent at once.

46 And he ſayde vnto me, Aſke the wombe of a woman, and ſaye vnto her, If thou bryngeſt foorth chyldren, why dooeſt thou it not togeather, but one after another? Pray her therefore to bryng foorth tenne chyldren at once.

47 And I ſayd, She can not: but muſt doo it by diſtance of tyme.

48 Then ſayde he vnto me, Euen ſo haue I diuided by diſtance of tyme, the chyldebedde of the earth, for thoſe that be ſowen vpon her.

49 For lyke as a young chylde may not bring foorth the thynges that belong to the aged: euen ſo haue I ordeyned " the world which I created.

" Or, the tyme.

50 And I aſked, and ſayde, Seeyng thou haſt nowe geuen me the way, I wyl proceede to ſpeake before thee: for our mother, of whom thou haſt tolde me that ſhe is young, draweth ſhe nowe nygh vnto age?

51 He anſweared me, and ſayde, Aſke a woman that beareth chyldren, and ſhe ſhal telle thee.

52 Saye vnto her, Wherefore are not they whom thou haſt brought foorth, lyke thoſe that were before thee, but leſſe of ſtature?

53 And ſhe ſhal anſweare thee, They that be borne in the youth of ſtrength, are of one faſhion: and they that are borne in the time of age (when the wombe fayleth) are otherwyſe.

54 Conſyder nowe thee ſelfe howe that ye are leſſe of ſtature, then thoſe that were before you:

55 And ſo are they that comme after you leſſe then ye, as the creatures whiche nowe begin to be olde, and haue paſſed ouer the ſtrength of youth.

56 Then ſayde I, Lorde I beſeeche thee, yf I haue founde fauour in thy ſyght, ſhewe thy ſeruant by whom thou viſiteſt thy " creature?

" Or, workmanſhyp.

The, vi. Chapter.

1 God hath foreſeene al thynges in his ſecrete counſayle, and is aucthour thereof, and hath created them for his chyldren. 25 The felicitie of the age to comme.

A 1 AND he ſayd vnto me, In the beginnyng, when the " ground was made, before ẏ doores of the world ſtoode, or euer the windes blewe,

" Or, compaſſe of the earth.

2 Before it thundred and lightened, or euer the fundations of Paradiſe were layde,

3 Before the fayre floures were ſeene, or euer the moueable powers were ſtabliſhed, before the innumerable " multitude of angelles were geathered togeather,

" Or, armies.

4 Or euer the hyghneſſes of the ayre were lifted vp, afore the meaſures of the fyrmament were named, or euer the chimneys in Sion were hotte,

5 And or the preſent yeeres were ſought out, and or euer the inuentions of them that now ſynne, were " put aſyde, before they were ſealed that haue geathered fayth for a treaſure:

" Or, turned away.

6 Then dyd I conſyder, and ponder al theſe thinges, and they al were made through me alone, and through none other: by me alſo they ſhalbe ended, and by none other.

B 7 Then anſweared I, and ſaide, What ſhalbe " the partyng a ſunder of the tymes? or when ſhalbe the ende of the fyrſt, and the begynnyng of it that foloweth?

" Or, diuiſion.

8 And he ſayde vnto me, From Abraham vnto Iſahac, when Jacob and Eſau were borne of hym, Jacobs hande helde fyrſte the heele of Eſau:

9 For Eſau is the end of this worlde, and Jacob is the begynnyng of it that foloweth.

10 The hande of man betwixt the heele and the hande: Other queſtion, Eſdras aſke thou not.

11 I anſweared then, and ſayde, O Lorde, Lorde, yf I haue founde fauour in thy ſight, 12 I beſeeche thee " ſhewe thy ſeruant the end of thy tokens, whereof thou ſhewedſt me part the laſt nyght.

" Or, make an end to ſhew thy ſeruant, thy tokens.

13 So he anſweared, and ſaid vnto me, Stand vp vpon thy feete, and heare " a perfecte voyce and ſounde.

" Or, myghtie.

14 There ſhal comme " a great motion: but the place where thou ſtandeſt ſhal not be moued. C

" Or, an earthquake.

15 And therefore when " thou heareſt the woordes, be not afrayde: for of the ende ſhal the woorde be, and of the fundation of the earth ſhal it be vnderſtande:

" Or, when he ſpeaketh.

16 And why? the woorde thereof trembleth, and quaketh: for it knoweth that it muſt be changed at the ende.

17 And it happened, that when I had hearde it, I ſtood vp vpon my feete, and hearkened: and beholde, there was a voyce that ſpake, and the ſounde of it was lyke the ſounde of many waters,

18 And it ſayde, Behold, the dayes comme that I wyl begynne to drawe nygh, and to viſite them that dwel vpon earth:

19 And wil begin to make inquiſition of them, what they be that haue hurte vniuſtly with theyr vnryghteouſneſſe, and when the lowe eſtate of Sion ſhalbe fulfylled.

20 And when the worlde that ſhal vaniſhe D awaye ſhalbe ouerſealed, then wyl I doo theſe tokens: The bookes ſhalbe opened before the " fyrmament, and they ſhal ſee altogeather:

" Or, heauen

21 And the chyldren of a yeere olde ſhal ſpeake with theyr voyces, the women with chylde ſhal bryng foorth vntymely children of three or foure monethes olde, and they ſhal lyue, and be rayſed vp.

22 And ſodenly ſhal the ſowen places appeare as the vnſowen, the full ſtore houſes ſhal ſodenly be founde emptie:

23 And the trumpet ſhal geue a ſound, whiche when euery man heareth, they ſhalbe haſtely afrayde.

Mich.7.a.
Mat.10.c.

24 *At that tyme ſhal friendes fyght one agaynſt another lyke enimies, and the earth ſhal ſtand in feare with them: The ſprynges of the welles ſhal ſtand ſtyl, & in three houres they ſhal not runne.

25 Whoſoeuer remaineth from al theſe things that I haue tolde thee, " ſhal eſcape, and ſee my ſaluation, and the ende of your worlde.

" Or, he ſhalbe ſaued.

26 And the menne that are receiued ſhal ſee it, they that haue not taſted death from theyr byrth: and the harte of the " indwellers ſhalbe changed and turned into another meanyng.

" Or, inhabiters.

E

27 For euyl ſhalbe put out, and deceite ſhalbe quenched.

28 As for fayth, it ſhal floriſhe, corruption ſhalbe ouercomme, and the trueth whiche hath ben ſo long without fruit, ſhalbe " declared.

" Or, ſhewed forth.

29 And when he talked with me, beholde I looked a little and a litle vpon hym, before whom I ſtoode,

30 And theſe woordes ſayde he vnto me, I am comme to ſhewe thee the tyme of the nyght for to comme.

31 If thou wylt praye yet more, and faſt ſeuen dayes againe, I ſhal telle thee more thinges, and greater then before, which I haue heard by the day.

32 For thy voyce is hearde before the hygheſt: for why? the myghtie hath ſeene thy ryghteous dealyng, he hath ſeene alſo thy chaſtitie whiche thou haſt hadde euer ſince thy youth:

33 And therefore hath he ſent me to ſhew thee al theſe thynges, and to ſaye vnto thee, Be of good comfort, and feare not:

F

34 And haſte not with thee tymes that are paſt, to thynke vayne thynges, that thou mayeſt not haſten from the latter tymes.

35 And it came to paſſe after this, that I wept agayne, and faſted ſeuen dayes in lyke manner, that I myght fulfylle the three weekes whiche he tolde me.

36 And in the eygth nyght was my hart vexed within me againe, and I began to ſpeake before the hygheſt.

37 For my ſpirite was greatly ſet on fyre, and my ſoule was in diſtreſſe,

38 And I ſayde, O Lorde, thou ſpakeſt vnto thy creature from the begynnyng, euen the fyrſt day, and ſaydeſt, *Let heauen and earth be made: and thy woorde was a perfecte woorke.

Gen.1.a.

39 And then was there the ſpirite, and the darkeneſſes were yet on euerye ſyde, and ſcilence: there was no mans voyce as yet from thee.

40 Then commaundeſt thou a " fayre lyght to comme foorth out of thy treaſures, that thy woorke myght appeare and be ſeene.

" Or, bryght

41 Upon the ſeconde day thou madeſt the ſpirite of the fyrmament, and commaundedſt it to part a ſunder, and to make a diuiſion betwixte the waters, that the one parte myght remayne aboue, and the other beneath.

G

42 Upon the thyrde day thou broughteſt to paſſe that the waters were geathered in the ſeuenth parte of the earth: Syxe partes haſt thou dryed vp, and kepte them, " to the intent that menne myght ſowe and occupie huſbandry therein.

" Or, to the intent that of them there myght be ſomme to miniſter before the ſowen of God, & tylled.

43 As ſoone as thy woorde went foorth, the woorke was made.

44 For immediatly there was great and innumerable fruit, and many diuers pleaſures for the taſte, and floures of vnchangeable colour, and odours of woonderful ſmelle: and this was doune the thyrde day.

45 Upon the fourth day thou commaundedſt that the ſunne ſhoulde geue his ſhyne, & the moone her lyght, the ſtarres dydſt thou ſet in order:

Gene.1.d.

46 *And gaueſt them a charge to doo ſeruice, euen vnto a man that was for to be made.

Deut.4.c.

47 Upon the fyfth day thou ſaydeſt vnto the ſeuenth parte, where the *waters were geathered, that it ſhoulde bryng foorth [diuers] beaſtes, foules, and fyſhes: and ſo it came to paſſe.

Gen.1.c.

48 For the dumbe water and without ſoule, brought foorth lyuyng thynges at the commaundemēt of God, that al " people might prayſe thy woonderous woorkes.

" Or, the nations.

49 Then dydſt thou ordeyne two ſoules: the one thou calledſt " Enoch, and the other Leuiathan,

" Or, Behemoth.

50 And dydſt ſeparate the one from the other: for the ſeuenth part (namely, where the water was geathered togeather) myght not holde them both.

XUM

* Or, Behemoth.

51 Vnto * Enoch thou gaueſt one part, which was dryed vp the thyrde day, that he ſhould dwel in the ſame part wherin are a thouſand hylles.

52 But vnto Leuiathan thou gaueſt the ſeuenth part, namely the moyſt, and haſt kept him to deuoure what thou wylt, and when.

53 Vpon the ſixth day thou gaueſt commaundemente vnto the earth, that before thee it ſhoulde bryng foorth beaſtes, cattel, and al that creepe:

54 And beſydes this, Adam alſo, whom thou madeſt lorde of al thy creatures: of him come we al, and the people alſo whom thou haſt choſen [eſpecially vnto thee ſelfe.]

55 Al this haue I ſayde nowe, and ſpoken before thee, [that I myght ſhewe howe] that the worlde is made for our ſakes.

56 As for the other people whiche alſo comme of Adam, thou haſt ſayde that they are nothyng, but be lyke vnto ſpittle, and haſt likened the abundance of them vnto a droppe that falleth from a veſſel.

57 And nowe, O Lorde, beholde, the heathen which haue euer benne reputed as nothing, haue begunne to be lordes ouer vs, and to deuoure vs:

58 But we thy people (whom thou haſt called thy fyrſte borne, thy onlye begotten, and thy feruent louer) are geuen into theyr handes and power.

59 If the worlde nowe be made for our ſakes, why haue we not the inheritance of the worlde in poſſeſſion? Howe long ſhal this endure?

The.vii.Chapter.

5 Without tribulation none can comme to felicitie. 12 God aduertiſeth al in tyme. 28 The commyng and death of Chriſt. 32 The reſurrection and laſt iudgement. 43 After the which al corruption ſhal ceaſſe. 48 Al fel in Adam. 49 The true lyfe. 59 The mercies and goodnes of God.

A 1 And when I had made an ende of ſpeakyng theſe woordes, there was ſente vnto me an angel, which had ben ſent vnto me alſo the nyghtes afore,

2 And he ſayde vnto me, Vp Eſdras, and heare the woordes that I am comme to tel thee,

3 And I ſayde, Speake on [Lorde] my God. Then ſayde he vnto me, The ſea is ſet in a wide place, that it might be deepe and great.

4 But put caſe the entraunce is narowe and ſmal, lyke a ryuer:

5 Who then coulde goe into the ſea, to looke vpon it, & to rule it? If he went not through the narowe, howe might he comme into the broade?

* Or, agayne.

6 Item * another. A citie is buylded and ſet vpon a broade fielde, and is fulle of al good thynges:

B 7 The entrance thereof is narowe, and is ſet in a dangerous place to falle, lyke as if there were a fyre at the ryght hande, and a deepe water at the leaft,

8 And as it were onely one ſtrayte path betwixt them both, euen betweene the fyre and the water, ſo ſmal, that there coulde but one man goe there at once:

9 If this citie nowe were geuen to a man for an inheritance, and he neuer went through the perilous way before, howe woulde he receiue his inheritance?

10 And I ſayde, It is ſo Lorde. Then ſayde he, Euen ſo alſo is Iſraels portion.

11 And why? for theyr ſakes haue I made the worlde: and when Adam tranſgreſſed my ſtatutes, then was the thyng ſo appoynted as nowe is donne.

12 Then were the entraunces of the worlde made narowe, fulle of ſorowe and trauayle: they are but fewe and euyl, ful of peryls, and labour.

13 For the entraunces of the fore worlde were wyde and ſure, & brought immortal fruite.

C 14 If then they whiche are lyuyng, enter not diligently through theſe ſtrayte and brytle thynges, they can not receiue the thynges ſo layde vp in ſecrete.

15 Why diſquieteſt thou thee ſelfe then, ſeeing thou art but a corruptible man? And why art thou moued, where as thou art but mortal?

16 And why haſt thou not receiued into thyne harte the thynges that are to comme, rather then them that are preſent?

17 Then ſayde I, O Lorde, Lorde, thou haſt ordeyned in thy lawe, that the ryghteous ſhoulde inherite theſe thynges, but that the vngodly ſhoulde periſhe:

18 Neuertheleſſe, the righteous ſhal ſuffer ſtrait thynges, and hope for wyde: for they that haue lyued vngodlye, and ſuffered ſtrayte thynges, ſhal not ſee the wyde.

19 And he ſayde vnto me, There is no iudge aboue God, & none that hath vnderſtandyng aboue the hygheſt.

20 For there be many that periſhe in this lyfe, because they deſpiſe the lawe of God that is ″ ſet before them:

″ Or, appoynted them.

21 For God hath geuen ſtrayte commaundement to ſuche as came, ſo oft as they came, what they ſhoulde doo to haue lyfe, and what they ſhoulde keepe to auoyde pouniſhment.

22 Neuertheleſſe, they were not obedient vnto hym, but ſpake agaynſt hym, and imagined vayne thynges:

23 And deceiued thẽ ſelues by wicked deedes, and denied the power of the moſt hygh, and regarded not his wayes,

24 But his lawe haue they deſpiſed, and denied his promiſes, in his ſtatutes and ordinances haue they not ben faythful and ſtedfaſt, and haue not perfourmed his workes.

25 And therefore Eſdras, for the emptie, are the emptie thynges, and for the ful, are the ful thynges.

26 Beholde, the tyme ſhal comme that theſe tokens whiche I haue tolde thee, ſhal come to paſſe, and the bryde ſhal appeare, and ſhe commyng foorth, ſhalbe ſeene, that nowe is vnder the earth:

E

27 And whoſoeuer is delyuered from the foreſayde euyls, ſhal ſee my woonders.

28 For my ſõne Jeſus ſhalbe openly declared, with thoſe that be with hym: and they that remaine, ſhalbe mery within foure hundred yeeres.

29 After theſe ſame yeeres, ſhal my ſõne Chriſt dye, and al menne that haue lyfe:

30 And the worlde ſhalbe turned into the olde ſcilence ſeuen dayes, lyke as in the foreiudgmentes, ſo that no man ſhal remayne.

31 And after ſeuen dayes, the worlde that yet awaketh not, ſhalbe rayſed vp, and that ſhal dye that is corrupt.

32 And the earth ſhal reſtore thoſe that haue ſleapt in her, and ſo ſhal the duſte thoſe that dwel therein in ſcilence, and the ſecrete places ſhal delyuer thoſe the ſoules that were committed vnto them.

33 And the moſte hygheſt ſhalbe openly declared vpon the ſeate of iudgement, and al miſerie ſhal vaniſhe away, and long ſuffering ″ ſhalbe geathered togeather.

″ Or, haue an ende.

F

34 But the iudgement ſhal continue, the trueth ſhal remayne, and fayth ſhal waxe ſtrong,

35 The worke ſhal folowe, and the rewarde ſhalbe ſhewed, the ″ ryghteouſneſſe ſhal watche, and the vnrighteouſneſſe ſhal beare no rule.

″ Or, the good deedes ſhalbe of force

Gene.18.c
Exod.32.c.

36 Then ſayde I, * Abraham prayed fyrſt for the Sodomites, and Moſes for the fathers that ſynned in the wylderneſſe,

37 And they that came after hym, for Iſrael, in the tyme of Achas and Samuel,

38 And * Dauid for the deſtruction, and Solomon for them that came into the ſanctuarie,

39 * And Helias for thoſe that receiued rayne, and for the dead, that he myght lyue,

40 * And Ezechias for the people in the tyme of Sennacherib, and diuers other in lyke manner, whiche haue prayed for many.

41 Euen ſo nowe, ſeeyng the ″ corrupt is growen vp, and wickedneſſe increaſed, and the ryghteous haue prayed for the vngodlye: wherefore ſhal it not be ſo nowe alſo?

″ Or, vice.

42 He anſweared me, and ſayde, This preſent lyfe is not the ende, oft tymes honour is retayned in it: therefore haue they prayed for the weake.

43 But the day of doome ſhalbe the ende of this tyme, and the beginning of the immortalitie for to comme, wherein al corruption ſhalbe vaniſhed:

44 Intemperancie ſhalbe looſed, infidelitie be cut of, ryghteouſneſſe growe, and the veritie ſpryng vp.

45 Then ſhal no man be able to ſaue him that is deſtroyed, nor to oppreſſe hym that hath gotten the victorie.

G

46 I anſweared then, and ſayde, This is my firſt and laſt ſayeing, that it had benne better not to haue geuen the earth vnto Adam: or els when it was geuen hym, to haue kepte hym that he ſhoulde not haue ſynned.

47 For what profite is it for men now in this preſent tyme to lyue in heauineſſe, and after death to ″ looke for pouniſhment?

″ Or, feare.

48 O thou Adam, what haſt thou donne? For though it was thou that ſynned, thou arte not fallen alone, but we al that comme of thee.

46 For what profite is it vnto vs, if there be promiſed vs an immortal ″ tyme, where as we doo the workes that bryng death:

″ Or, lyfe.

50 And that there is promiſed vs an euerlaſtyng hope, where as our ſelues are euyl and vayne:

51 And that there is layd vp for vs dwellings of health and ſafety, where as we haue liued wickedly:

52 And that the glorye of the hygheſt is kepte to defende them whiche haue led a patient lyfe, where as we haue walked in the moſt wicked wayes of al?

53 And that there ſhould be ſhewed a paradiſe, whoſe fruite endureth for euer, wherin is ″ freedome and medicine, where as we ſhal not goe in?

″ Or, ſafetie and health.

54 For we haue walked in vnpleaſant places.

55 And that the faces of them which haue abſteyned, ſhal ſhyne aboue the ſtarres: Whereas our faces ſhalbe blacker then darkeneſſe?

56 For whyle we lyued and dyd vnrighteouſly, we conſydered not that we ſhoulde ſuffer therefore after death?

57 Then anſweared he me, and ſayde, This is the manner of the batayle which man that is borne vpon the earth ſhal fyght.

58 That if he be ouercomme, he ſhal ſuffer as thou haſt ſayde: But if he geat the victorie, he ſhal receiue the thyng that I ſay.

59 For this is the lyfe whereof Moſes ſpake vnto the people whyle he lyued, ſayeing, *Chooſe thee lyfe, that thou mayeſt lyue.

Deut.30.d

60 Neuertheleſſe, they beleued hym not, neyther the prophetes after hym, no nor me whiche haue ſayde vnto them,

61 That heauineſſe ſhould not ſo be vnto their deſtruction, lyke as ioy is for to comme ouer thoſe " that haue ſuffered them ſelues to be enfourmed in ſaluation.

" Or, to whō ſaluation is perſwaded.

62 I anſweared then, and ſayde, I knowe Lorde, that the hygheſt is called mercyful, in that he hath mercy vpon them which are not yet comme vnto that worlde,

63 And vpon thoſe alſo that walke in his lawe.

64 And that *he is patient: for he long ſuffereth thoſe that haue ſinned, as his creatures.

Rom.2.a.

65 And that he is liberal to geue where as it requireth.

66 And that he is of great mercy: for he paſſeth in mercy muche, both thoſe that are preſent, and that are paſte, and alſo them whiche are for to comme.

67 For if he multiplied not his mercies, the worlde coulde not continue his beyng with thoſe that haue inheritances therein.

68 He " geueth alſo: for if he gaue not of his goodneſſe, that they whiche haue donne euil myght be eaſed from theyr wickedneſſe, the ten thouſandth part of menne ſhould not remayne lyuyng.

" Or, forgeueth.

69 And if he, beyng iudge, forgaue not thoſe that be healed with his woorde, and tooke not away the multitude of contentions,

70 There ſhould be very fewe leaſt, peraduenture in an innumerable multitude.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 The number of the godly is ſmal. 6 The workes of God are excellent. 20 Eſdras prayer for hym and his people. 39 The promiſe of ſaluation to the iuſt. 55 The deſtruction of the vniuſt.

A 1 AND he anſweared me, ſayeing, The moſt hygheſt made this worlde for many, but the world to comme for fewe.

2 I wyl telle thee a ſimilitude, Eſdras. As whē thou aſkeſt the earth, it ſhal ſaye vnto thee that it geueth muche " moulde whereof earthen veſſelles are made, but little of it that golde commeth of: Euen ſo is it with the woorke of this worlde.

" Or, earthy matter.

3 *There be manye created, but fewe ſhalbe ſaued.

Mar.20.b. and,21.b,

4 Then anſweared I, and ſayde, Then ſwalowe vp the wit (O my ſoule) and deuoure the vnderſtandyng.

5 For thou art agreed to hearken and to geue eare, and wyllyng to propheſie: for thou haſt no longer ſpace but this lyfe geuen thee.

6 O Lorde, if thou ſuffer not thy ſeruante to intreate thee, that thou mayeſt geue ſeede vnto our hart, & buylde our vnderſtandyng, that there may comme fruite of it, whereby eche man may liue that is corrupt, then who ſhal ſtep foorth in the place of man?

7 For thou art alone, and we al one woorkemanſhyp of thy handes, lyke as thou haſt ſayde. B

8 For when the bodye is faſhioned nowe in the mothers wombe, and thou geueſt the members, thy creature is preſerued in fyre and water, and nyne monethes dooth thy woorke ſuffer thy creature whiche is faſhioned in her.

9 But the thynges that keepeth, and that is kepte, ſhal both be preſerued: and when the tyme commeth, the wombe preſerued, delyuereth vp the thynges that grewe in it.

10 For thou haſt commaunded the partes of the bodye, euen the breaſtes, to geue mylke vnto the fruite of the breaſtes:

11 That the thyng which is created and faſhioned, maye be nouriſhed for a tyme, tyl thou diſpoſeſt and ordereſt it with thy mercy.

12 And then thou bringeſt it vp with thy righteouſneſſe, nurtureſt it in thy lawe, and refourmeſt it with thy vnderſtandyng, 13 " Mortifieſt it as thy creature, and makeſt it lyuyng as thy woorke.

" Or, keepeſt.

14 Seeyng then that thou deſtroyeſt hym whiche with ſo great labours is created and faſhioned thorowe thy commaundemente, thou couldeſt lyghtly ordeyne alſo that the thing whiche is made myght be preſerued.

15 Nowe therefore Lorde I wyl ſpeake (for concerning al menne in general thou ſhalt rather prouide) but touching thy people, for whoſe ſake I am ſory,

16 And thyne inheritance, for whoſe cauſe I mourne, and Iſrael, for whom I am woful, and Iacob, for whoſe ſake I am greeued:

17 Therefore begin I to pray before thee for my ſelfe and for them: for I ſee the faules of vs that dwel in the lande.

18 But I haue heard the " ſwiftneſſe of the iudge whiche is to comme.

" Or, ſodayne comming.

19 Therefore heare my voyce, and vnderſtande my woordes, and I ſhal ſpeake before thee. This is the beginning of ẏ woordes of Eſdras, before he was taken vp.

D 20 O Lord, thou that dwelleſt in euerlaſtingneſſe, whiche beholdeſt from aboue thinges in the heauen and in the ayre:

21 Whoſe throne is ineſtimable, whoſe glory [and maieſtie] may not be comprehended, before whom the hoſtes of angels ſtande with trembling,

22 Whoſe keeping is turned in winde and fyre, whoſe woorde is true, whoſe ſayinges are ſtedfaſt, whoſe commaundement is ſtrong, whoſe ordinance is fearefull,

23 Whoſe looke dryeth vp the deapthes, whoſe wrath maketh the mountaynes to melt away, " and whoſe trueth beareth witneſſe:

" Or, as the effect it ſelfe beareth witneſſe.

24 O heare the prayer of thy ſeruant, & marke with thine eares the petition of thy creature.

25 For whyle I liue, I wyl ſpeake, and ſo long as I haue vnderſtandyng, I wyl anſweare.

26 O looke not vpon the ſinnes of thy people, rather then on them whiche ſerue thee in trueth.

E 27 Haue no reſpect vnto the wicked ſtudies of the heathen: but to the deſyre of thoſe that keepe thy teſtimonies with afflictions.

28 Thinke not vpon thoſe that haue walked faignedly before thee: but remember them whiche accordyng to thy wyll haue knowen thy feare.

29 Let it not be thy wyl to deſtroy them whiche haue had beaſtly manners: but to looke vpon them that haue clearely taught thy lawe.

30 Take thou no indignation at them which " are worſe then beaſtes: but loue them that alway put their truſt in thy ryghteouſneſſe and glory.

" Or, vypere.

31 For we and our fathers haue al the ſame ſickneſſe [and diſeaſe:] but becauſe of vs ſinners thou ſhalt be called merciful.

32 For yf thou haſt mercie vpon vs, thou ſhalt be called merciful to vs that haue no workes of righteouſneſſe.

33 For the ryghteous whiche haue layde vp many good woorkes togeather, ſhal out of their deedes receiue rewarde.

34 But what is man that thou ſhouldeſt take diſpleaſure at him? Or what is this corruptible and mortal generation, that thou ſhouldeſt be ſo rough towarde him? F

35 * For of a trueth, there is no man among them that be borne, but he hath dealt wickedly, & among the " faithful there is none whiche hath not done amiſſe.

2.Par.6.f. 1.Ioh.1.b.

" Or, ſuche as confeſſe thee.

36 For in this, O Lorde, thy ryghteouſneſſe and thy goodneſſe ſhalbe prayſed [and declared] yf thou be merciful vnto them whiche " are not riche in good woorkes.

" Or, haue not the ſubſtance of.

37 Then anſweared he me, and ſaid, Somme thinges haſt thou ſpoken aryght: and accordyng vnto thy woordes it ſhalbe.

38 For I wil not veryly conſyder the woorkes " of them which haue ſinned before death, before iudgement, before deſtruction:

" Or, of the wicked.

39 But * I wyl reioyce ouer the woorke and thought of the righteous, I wyl remember alſo the pilgrimage, the ſaluation, and the rewarde that they ſhal haue.

Gen.4.a.

40 Like as I haue ſpoken nowe, ſo ſhal it comme to paſſe.

41 For as the huſbandman ſoweth muche ſeede vpon the grounde, and planteth many trees, and yet alway the thing that is ſowen or planted, is not al kept ſafe, neither doth it al take roote: Euen ſo is it of them that are ſowen in the worlde, they ſhal not al be ſaued. G

42 I anſweared then and ſayde, If I haue founde grace, then let me ſpeake.

43 Like as the huſbandmans ſeede periſheth, yf it comme not vp, and receiue not thy rayne in due ſeaſon, or yf there comme to muche rayne vpon it, and corrupt it:

44 Euen ſo periſheth man alſo, whiche is created with thy handes, and is lyke vnto thyne owne image, and to thee ſelfe, for whoſe ſake thou haſt made al thynges, and lykened hym vnto the huſbandmans ſeede.

45 Be not wroth with vs [O Lord] but ſpare thy people, & haue mercie vpon thyne owne inheritance: for thou wylt be merciful vnto thy creature.

46 Then anſweared he me, and ſayde, Thinges preſent, are for the preſent, and thinges to comme, for ſuche as be to comme.

47 For thou lackeſt yet muche, ſeeing thou canſt loue my creature aboue me: but I haue oft times drawen nygh vnto thee, and vnto it, but neuer to the vnryghteous.

48 In this alſo thou art marueylous before the hygheſt.

49 In that thou haſt humbled thee ſelfe as it becommeth thee, and haſt not iudged thee ſelfe woorthy to be muche glorified among the ryghteous.

50 For many and great miſeries remaine for them that in the latter time ſhal dwel in the worlde, becauſe they " haue walked in great pride.

" Or, that walke.

51 But vnderſtande thou for thee ſelfe, and ſeeke out the glory for ſuche as be like thee.

52 For vnto you is paradiſe opened, the tree of life is planted, the time to comme is prepared, plenteouſneſſe is made redy, the citie is buylded [for you] and reaſt is prepared, yea perfect goodneſſe and wyſedome.

53 The roote of euil is " marked from you, the weakeneſſe and moth is hyd from you, and into hel fleeth corruption in forgetfulneſſe.

" Or, ſealed vp.

54 Sorowes are vaniſhed away, and in the ende is ſhewed the treaſure of immortalitie.

55 And therefore aſke thou no more queſtions concerning the multitude of them that periſhe.

56 For when they had taken libertie, they deſpiſed the higheſt, thought ſcorne of his law, and forſooke his wayes.

57 Moreouer, they haue troden downe his ryghteous,

58 And * ſayde in their hart, that there is no God, " yea and that wittingly, for they die.

Pſal. 14. a.
" Or, for as they knewe that they ſhoulde dye.

59 For lyke as the thing that I haue ſpoken of, is made ready for you, euen ſo is thirſte and payne prepared for them: For it was not " his wyl that man ſhoulde " comme to nought.

" Or, goodnes
" Or, periſhe

60 But they which be created, haue defiled the name of him that made them, and are vnthankful vnto him which prepared life for them.

61 And therefore is my iudgement nowe at hande.

62 Theſe thinges haue I not ſhewed vnto al menne, but vnto fewe, namely vnto thee, and to ſuche as be like thee. Then anſweared I, and ſayd, 63 Beholde O Lorde, nowe haſt thou ſhewed me the multitude of the woonders whiche thou wylt beginne to doo in the laſt times: but at what time [and when] thou haſt not ſhewed me.

The. ix. Chapter.

5 Al thinges in this worlde haue a beginning and an ende. 10 Tormentes for the wicked after this life. 15 The number of the wicked, is more then of the good. 29 The Iewes ingratitude. 36 Therefore they periſhe. 38 The viſion of a woman lamenting.

A 1 HE anſweared me then, and ſayde, Meaſure thou the time diligently in it ſelfe: and when thou ſeeſt that one part of the tokens comme to paſſe, whiche I haue told thee before,

2 Then ſhalt thou vnderſtande, that it is the very ſame tyme wherein the hygheſt wyl beginne to viſite the world which he made.

3 Therfore when there ſhalbe ſeene an earthquake, & vprore of the people in the worlde,

4 Then ſhalt thou wel vnderſtande, that the moſt higheſt ſpake of thoſe things from the dayes that were before thee, euen from the beginnyng.

5 For lyke as al that is made in the worlde, hath a beginning and ende, and the ende is manifeſt:

6 Euen ſo the times alſo of the hygheſt haue plaine beginninges in woonders & ſignes, and ende in " workinge and in tokens.

" Or, effect and myracles.

7 And euery one that ſhalbe ſaued, and ſhalbe hable to eſcape by his workes, & by faith wherein ye haue beleued,

B 8 Shalbe preſerued from the ſayde perilles, and ſhal ſee my " ſauiour in my lande, and within my borders: for I haue halowed " me from the worlde.

" Or, ſaluation.
" Or, my ſelfe.

9 Then ſhal they pitie them ſelues, whiche nowe haue abuſed my wayes: & they that haue caſt them out diſpitefully, ſhal dwelle in paynes.

10 For ſuche as in their lyfe haue receiued benefites, and haue not knowen me:

11 And they that haue abhorred my lawe whyle they had yet " freedome, and when they had yet open leyſure of amendement and conuerſion, vnderſtoode not, but deſpiſed it:

" Or, libertie

12 The ſame muſt knowe it after death in payne.

13 And therefore be thou no more " careful howe the vngodly ſhalbe puniſhed: but inquire howe the ryghteous ſhalbe ſaued, and whoſe the worlde is, and for whom the worlde is, and when [it is.]

" Or, curious to knowe.

C 14 Then anſweared I, and ſayde,

15 *I haue ſayde before, and nowe I ſpeake, and wyl ſpeake it alſo hereafter: that there be many moe of them whiche periſhe, then of them whiche ſhalbe ſaued: (4,Eſd,8,b)

16 Like as the fludde is greater then a droppe.

17 And he anſweared me, ſayeing, Like as the feelde is, ſo is alſo the ſeede: as the floures be, ſo are the colours alſo: ſuch as the woorkman is, ſuche is alſo the worke: and as the huſbandman is him ſelfe, ſo is his huſbandry alſo: for it was the time of the worlde.

18 And when I prepared for them that are nowe, or euer the worlde was made, wherein they ſhoulde dwelle: then was there no man that ſpake agaynſt me.

19 For then euery one [obeyed] but nowe the manners of them whiche are created in this worlde that is made, are corrupted by a perpetual ſeede, and by a lawe whereout they can not ridde them ſelues.

D 20 So I conſydered the worlde, and beholde there was peril, becauſe of the "thoughtes that were comme into it.

"Or, deuiſes.

21 And I ſawe, and ſpared them greatly, and haue kept me a "wineberie of grapes, and a plant of a great people.

"Or, grape of the cluſter.

22 Let the multitude periſhe then whiche are growen vp in vaine, and let my grape [and wineberie] be kept, and my plaint: for with great labour haue I made it vp.

23 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou wylt ceaſſe yet ſeuen dayes moe, but thou ſhalt not faſt in them:

24 Goe thy way then into a feelde of floures, where no houſe is buylded, and eate only of the floures of the feelde, taſte no fleaſh, drinke no wine, but eate floures only.

25 And pray vnto the hygheſt continually, ſo wyl I comme and talke with thee.

26 So I went my way, and came into the feelde whiche is called Ardath, like as he commaunded me, and there I ſate among the floures, and dyd eate of the hearbes of the feelde, and the meate of the ſame ſatiſfied me.

E 27 After ſeuen dayes, I ſate vpon the graſſe, and my hart was vexed within me like as before.

28 And I opened my mouth, and beganne to talke with the moſt higheſt, and ſayde,

29 O Lorde, thou that ſheweſt thee ſelfe vnto vs,* thou haſt declared and opened thee ſelfe vnto our fathers in the wyldernеſſe, in a place where no man dwelleth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt. (Exo.19.b, and.24.a. Deut.4,b)

30 And thou ſpakeſt, ſayeing, Heare me, O Iſrael, and marke my woordes thou ſeede of Iacob.

31 For beholde, I ſowe my lawe in you, and it ſhal bring fruite in you, and ye ſhalbe honoured in it for euer.

32 But our fathers, whiche receiued the lawe, kept it not, and obſerued not thy ordinances and ſtatutes, and the fruite of thy lawe dyd not appeare, neither coulde: for why? it was thyne.

33 *For they that receiued it, periſhed, becauſe they kept not the thing that was ſowen in them. (Deur,32.f.)

F 34 And loe, it is a cuſtome when the grounde receiueth ſeede, or the ſea a ſhippe, or a veſſel meate and drinke: that when it periſheth or is broken wherin a thing is ſowen, or wherin any thing is put,

35 The thinges alſo periſhe and are broken whiche are ſowen or put therein and receiued, and the thinges that are receiued, remayne not then with vs: but in vs it hath not happened ſo.

36 For we that haue receiued the law, periſhe in ſinne, and our hart whiche alſo receiued lawe.

37 Notwithſtandyng * the lawe periſheth not, but remayneth in his force. (Eſai.45.a. 2,Tim.2,a.)

38 And when I ſpake theſe thinges in my hart [after this manner] I looked about me with myne eyes, and vpon the right ſyde* I ſawe a woman whiche mourned ſoare, made great lamentation, and wept with loude voyce, and was greeued in hart, and rent her clothes, and ſhe had aſhes vpon her head. (4.Eſd.x.d)

39 Then let I my thoughtes go that I was in, and turned me vnto her,

40 And ſayde, Wherefore weepeſt thou? why art thou ſo ſory in minde?

G 41 And ſhe ſaide vnto me, Sir, let me alone, that I may bewayle mee ſelfe, and take yet more ſorowe: for I am ſore vexed in my minde, and brought very lowe.

42 And I ſayde vnto her, What ayleth thee? [Or who hath done any thing to thee?] tel me.

43 She ſaide vnto me, I thy ſeruant haue ben vnfruiteful and barren, and haue had no childe, though I haue had an huſbande thirtie yeeres.

44 And theſe thirtie yeeres I doo nothyng els day and nyght, and al houres, but make my prayer to the higheſt.

45 After thirtie yeeres, GOD hearde me thy handmayden, looked vpon my miſerie, conſydered my trouble, and gaue me a ſonne: and I was gladde of hym, ſo was my huſbande alſo, and al my neyghbours, and we gaue great honour vnto the almyghty.

46 And I nouriſhed him with great trauaile.

47 So when he grewe vp, and came to the tyme that he ſhould " haue a wife, I made a feaſt.

" Or, take.

The.x.Chapter.

Eſdras and the woman that appeareth vnto him, commune togeather.

A 1 AND it ſo came to paſſe, that when my ſone went into his chamber, he fel downe, and dyed:

2 Then ouerthrewe we al the lightes, and al my neyghbours roſe vp to comfort me, then tooke I my reaſt vnto the ſeconde day at nyght.

3 And when they had al leaft of to comfort me, that I ſhoulde be quiet: then I roſe vp by nyght and fledde, and am comme hyther into this feelde, as thou ſeeſt:

4 And am purpoſed not to returne into the citie, but to remayne here, and neither to eate nor drinke, but continually to mourne, and to faſt, vntyl I dye.

5 Then let I my meditation and thoughtes fal that I was in, and ſpake to her in diſpleaſure, ſayeing,

6 Thou fooliſhe woman aboue al other, ſeeſt thou not our heauineſſe & mournyng, and what happeneth vnto vs?

7 Howe Sion our mother is al woful and ſory, and how ſhe is cleane brought downe, and mourneth extremely?

B 8 Seeyng we be al nowe in heauineſſe, and make our mone, for we al be ſorowful: art thou ſo heauie for one ſonne?

9 Demaunde the earth, and ſhe ſhal tel thee, that it is ſhe whiche ought [by reaſon] to mourne for the falle of ſo many that growe vpon her.

10 For from the beginning al menne are borne of her, and other ſhal comme: and beholde, they walke almoſt al into deſtruction, and the multitude of them ſhalbe rooted out.

11 Who ſhoulde then [by reaſon] make more mournyng, then ſhe that hath loſt ſo great a multitude, and not thou whiche art ſory, but for one?

12 But yf thou wouldeſt ſay vnto me, My mournyng is not lyke the mourning of the earth, for I haue loſt the fruite of my " body, whiche I brought foorth with heauineſſe, and bare with ſorowes:

" Or, wombe

13 But the earth is accordyng to the manner of the earth, and the preſent multitude goeth agayne into her, " as it is comme to paſſe:

" Or, as it is accuſtomed.

14 Then ſay I vnto thee, Lyke as thou haſt borne with trauayle and ſorowe, euen ſo the earth alſo from the beginnyng, geueth her fruite vnto man, euen to him that laboured her.

C 15 And therefore withholde thy ſorowe and heauineſſe by thee ſelfe,* & looke what happeneth vnto thee, beare it " ſtrongly.

Heb.12.a.

" Or, conſtantly.

16 For yf thou iudgeſt the marke and end of God to be righteous and good, and receiueſt his counſel in tyme, thou ſhalt be commended therein.

17 Goe thy way then into the citie to thy huſbande.

18 And ſhe ſayde vnto me, That wyl I not doo: I wyl not goe into the citie, but here wyl I dye.

19 So I communed more with her, and ſaid,

20 Doo not ſo, but be counſelled, and folowe me: for how many faules hath Sion? Be of good comfort becauſe of the ſorowe of Hieruſalem.

D 21 For thou ſeeſt that our ſanctuarie is layde waſte, our aulter broken, our temple deſtroyed,

22 Our playing of inſtrumentes is layde downe, and ſonges are put to ſcilence, our myrth is vaniſhed away, the lyght of our candelſticke is quenched, the arke of our couenant is taken from vs, al our holy thinges are defiled, and the name that is called vpon ouer vs, is almoſt diſhonoured: our chyldren are put to ſhame, our prieſtes are brent, our Leuites are caried away into captiuitie, our virgins are defiled, & our wiues rauiſhed, our ryghteous menne ſpoyled, and our chyldren deſtroyed, our young menne are brought in bondage, and our ſtrong worthies are become weake:

23 And Sion our ſeale, whiche is the greateſt of al, is looſed vp from her worſhip: for ſhe is deliuered into the handes of them that hate vs.

24 And therefore ſhake of thy great heauineſſe, and put away the multitude of ſorowes, that the myghty may be merciful vnto thee, and that the hygheſt may geue thee reaſt and eaſe from thy labour and trauayle.

25 And when I was talkyng with her, her face and beauty ſhined ſodaynely, and her countenance gliſtered, ſo that I was afraid of her, and muſed what it myght be.

26 And immediatly ſhe caſt out a great voice, very fearefull, ſo that the earth ſhooke at the noyſe of the woman.

E ¶ 27 And I looked, and beholde the woman appeared vnto me no more: but there was a citie buylded, and a place was ſhewed from the grounde and fundation: Then was I afrayde, and cryed with a loude voyce, and ſayde,

4.Eſd.4.2. 28 Where is Uriel the angel, * whiche came to me at the firſt? For he hath cauſed me to comme in many conſyderations and hygh thoughtes, and myne ende is turned to corruption, and my prayer to rebuke.

29 And as I was ſpeaking theſe woordes, he came vnto me, and looked vpon me:

30 And loe, I lay as one that had benne dead, and myne vnderſtandyng was altred: and he tooke me by the ryght hande and comforted me, and ſet me vpon my feete, and ſayde vnto me,

31 What ayleth thee? and why is thyne vnderſtandyng vexed, and the vnderſtandyng of thy hart? and wherefore art thou ſory?

32 And I ſayde, Becauſe thou haſt forſaken me, and I haue donne accordyng vnto thy woordes, I went into the feelde, and there haue I ſeene thinges, and ſee that I am not hable to expreſſe.

33 He ſayde vnto me, Stande vp and be manly, and I ſhal geue thee exhortation.

34 Then ſayd I, Speake on to me my Lord, forſake me not, leſt I dye through my raſheneſſe:

F 35 For I haue ſeene that I knewe not, and heare that I doo not knowe.

36 Or is my vnderſtandyng deceiued, or dooth my ſoule dreame?

37 Nowe therefore I beſeeche thee, that thou wylt ſhewe thy ſeruant of this woonder.

38 He anſweared me then, and ſayd, Heare me, and I ſhal enfourme thee, and tel thee wherfore thou art afrayde: for the hygheſt hath opened many ſecrete thinges vnto thee.

39 He hath ſeene that thy * way is right, for that thou takeſt ſorowe continually for thy people, and makeſt great lamentation for Sion.

40 And therefore vnderſtande the viſion whiche thou ſaweſt a litle whyle ago, after this manner.

41 Thou ſaweſt a woman mournyng, and thou beganneſt to comfort her.

42 Neuertheleſſe, nowe ſeeſt thou the lykenes of the woman no more, but there appeared vnto thee a citie buylded:

43 And where ſhe tolde thee of the falle of her ſonne, ſo is this the ſolution of it.

44 This woman whom thou ſaweſt, is Sion: and where as ſhe tolde thee, euen ſhe whom thou ſeeſt nowe as a citie buylded. G

45 And as touching that ſhe ſayde vnto thee, that ſhe hath benne thirtie yeeres vnfruiteful and barren, thoſe are the thirtie yeeres wherein there was no offering made in her.

46 But after thirtie yeeres Solomon buylded the citie, and offered offeringes: and then bare the barren a ſonne.

47 And where as ſhe tolde thee that ſhe nouriſhed hym with labour, that was the dwelling in Hieruſalem.

48 But where as ſhe tolde thee that her ſonne dyed, as his chaunce was, when ſhe came into her chamber, that is the fal that is comme to Hieruſalem.

49 And beholde, when thou ſaweſt her lyke one that mourned for her ſonne, and beganneſt to comfort her of theſe thinges whiche haue chaunced, theſe are to be opened vnto thee.

50 For nowe the moſt hygheſt ſeeth that thou art ſory in thy minde, and ſuffereſt from thy whole hart for her, and ſo hath he ſhewed thee her cleareneſſe, and the fayreneſſe of her beautie.

51 And therefore I bade thee remayne in the feelde, where no houſe was buylded.

52 For I knewe that the hygheſt would ſhew this vnto thee:

53 Therefore, I commaunded thee to goe into the feelde, where no fundation nor buildyng is.

54 For in the place where the hygheſt beginneth to ſhewe his citie, there can no mans buyldyng be hable to ſtande.

55 And therefore feare not, and let not thyne hart be afrayde: but goe thy way in, and ſee the beautie and greatneſſe of the buyldyng, as muche as thyne eyes be hable to ſee:

56 And then ſhalt thou heare as much as thine eares may comprehende.

57 For thou art bleſſed aboue many other, and art called with the hygheſt, as the fewe.

58 But to morowe at nyght thou ſhalt remayne here:

59 And ſo ſhal the hygheſt ſhewe thee viſions of the hygh thynges, whiche he wyl doo vnto them that dwelle vpon earth in the laſte dayes. So I ſlept the ſame nyght and another, lyke as he commaunded me.

*Or, purpoſe.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 The viſion of an Egle comming foorth of the ſea, and of her feathers. 37 Of a Lion comming out of the foreſt.

A 1 Then ſawe I a dreame, and beholde, there came vp from the ſea an Egle, whiche had twelue feathered winges, and three heades:

2 And I ſawe, and beholde ſhe ſpread her winges ouer al the earth, and al the windes of the ayre blewe on her, and geathered them togeather.

3 And I behelde, and out of her feathers there grewe other contrary feathers, and they became litle feathers and ſmal.

4 But her heades remayned ſtil, the head in the middeſt was greater then the other, yet reaſted it with the reſidue.

5 Moreouer, I ſawe that the Egle flewe with her winges, and raigned vpon earth, & ouer al them that dwelt vpon the earth.

6 And I ſawe that al thinges vnder heauen were ſubiect vnto her, and no man ſpake agaynſt her, no not one creature vpon earth.

7 I ſawe alſo that the Egle ſtoode vp vpon her clawes, and ″ gaue a ſounde with her feathers, and a voyce ſayeing after this maner.

″ Or, ſpake to her feathers, ſayeing.

B 8 Watche not altogeather, ſleepe euery man in his owne place, and watche by courſe.

9 But let the heades be preſerued for the laſt.

10 Neuertheleſſe, I ſawe that the voyce went not out of her heades, but from the middeſt of her body.

11 And I numbred her contrary feathers, and beholde, there were eyght of them.

12 And I looked, and beholde vpon the ryght ſyde there aroſe one feather, and raigned ouer al the earth.

13 And ſo it was, that when it raigned, the ende of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more: So the next folowyng ſtoode vp, and raigned, and had a great time.

14 And it happened, that when it raigned, the ende of it came alſo lyke as the firſt, ſo that it appeared no more.

C 15 Then came there a voyce vnto it, and ſayde,

16 Heare thou that haſt kept the earth ſo long, this I ſay vnto thee before thou beginneſt to appeare no more:

17 There ſhal none after thee atteyne vnto thy tyme, neither vnto the halfe thereof.

18 Then aroſe the thirde, and raigned as the other afore: and appeared no more alſo.

19 So went it with al the reſidue one after another, ſo that euery one raigned, and then appeared no more.

20 Then I looked, and beholde in proceſſe of tyme, the feathers that folowed ſtoode vp on the ryght ſyde, that they myght rule alſo, and ſomme of them ruled: but within a whyle they appeared no more.

21 For ſomme of them were ſet vp, but ruled not.

22 After this I looked, and beholde the twelue feathers appeared no more, nor the two winges: D

23 And there was no more vpon the Egles body, but two heades that reaſted, and ſixe winges.

24 Then ſawe I alſo that two winges diuided them ſelues from the ſixe, and remayned vnder the head that was vpon the right ſide: for the foure continued in their place.

25 So I looked, and beholde the feathers that were vnder the wing, thought to ſet vp them ſelues, and to haue the rule.

26 Then was there one ſet vp, but ſhortly it appeared no more.

27 And the ſeconde was ſooner awaye then the firſt.

28 And I behelde, and loe the two that remayned, thought alſo in them ſelues to raigne.

29 And when they ſo thought, beholde there awaked one of the heades that were at reaſt, namely it that was in the middeſt: for that was greater then the two other heades. E

30 And then I ſaw that the two heades were ioyned with hym:

31 And the head was turned with them that were with hym, and dyd eate vp the two vnder winges that woulde haue raigned.

32 But this head put the whole earth in feare, and bare rule in it ouer al thoſe that dwelt vpon the earth with muche labour: and he had the gouernance of the worlde ouer al the winges that had beene.

33 After this I looked, and beholde the head that was in the middeſt, ſodaynely appeared no more, lyke as the winges.

34 But there remained the two heades which ruled vpon earth, and ouer thoſe that dwelt therein.

35 And I behelde, and loe the head vpon the ryght ſide, deuoured it that was vpon the leaſt ſyde.

36 Then I hearde a voyce whiche ſayde vnto me, Looke before thee, ⁊ conſyder the thyng that thou ſeeſt.

37 Then I ſawe, and beholde, as it were a Lion that roareth runnyng haſtyly out of the wood: and I ſawe that he ſent out a mans voyce vnto the Egle, and ſayde,

38 Heare thou, I wyl talke with thee, and the hygheſt ſhal ſay vnto thee,

[*] Or, art not thou he that remayneſt of the foure beaſtes.

39 [*] Is it not thou that haſt the victorie of the foure beaſtes whom I made to raigne [vpon earth, and] in my worlde, that the end of their tymes myght comme through them:

40 And the fourth came, and ouerranne al the beaſtes that were paſt, and had power ouer the worlde, with great fearefulneſſe, and ouer the whole compaſſe of the earth, with moſt wicked oppreſſion, and ſo long tyme dwelt he vpon the earth with deceipt.

41 For the earth haſt thou not iudged with trueth.

42 For thou haſt troubled the meeke, thou haſt hurt the peaceable [and quiet.] thou haſt loued lyers, and deſtroyed the dwellinges of them that brought foorth fruite, and haſt caſt downe the walles of ſuche as dyd thee no harme.

43 Therefore is thy wrongful dealing [and blaſphemie] comme vp vnto the higheſt, and thy pride vnto the myghty.

44 The hygheſt alſo hath looked vpon the proude times, and behold they are ended, and their abominations are fulfilled.

45 And therefore appeare no more thou Egle, and thy horrible winges, and thy wicked feathers, and thy vngratious heades, and thy ſinneful clawes, and al thy vayne body:

46 That the earth may be refreaſhed, [and comme agayne to her ſelfe] when ſhe is deliuered from thy violence, and that ſhe may hope for the iudgement and mercie of hym that made her.

The.xii.Chapter.

The declaration of the former viſions.

A 1 AND it happened when ẏ Lion ſpake theſe woordes vnto the Egle, I ſawe:

2 And beholde, the head that afore had the vpper hande, appeared no more: neyther dyd the foure winges appeare any more that came to hym, and were ſet vp to raigne, and their kyngdome was ſmal, and ful of vprore.

3 And I ſawe, and beholde, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the Egle was burnt, ſo that the earth was in great feare: Then awaked I out of the trouble ⁊ traunce of my minde, and from great feare, and ſayd vnto my ſpirite,

4 Loe, this haſt thou geuen me, in that thou ſearcheſt out the wayes of the hygheſt.

5 Loe, yet am I weery in my minde, and very weake in my ſpirite: and litle ſtrength is there in me, for the great feare that I receiued this nyght.

6 Therefore wyl I nowe beſeeche the hygheſt, that he wyl comfort me vnto the ende.

7 And I ſaide, Lord, Lord, yf I haue founde grace before thy ſyght, and yf I am iuſtified with thee before many other, and if my prayer in deede be comme vp before thy face:

B 8 Comfort me then, and ſhewe me, thy ſeruant, the interpretation and plaine difference of this horrible ſyght, that thou mayeſt perfectly comfort my ſoule:

9 For thou haſt iudged me woorthy to ſhew me the laſt of times.

10 And he ſayde vnto me, This is the interpretation of this ſyght.

11 The Egle whom thou ſaweſt comme vp from the ſea, is the kyngdome [*] whiche was ſeene in the viſion of thy brother Daniel: Dan.7.c.

12 But it was not expounded vnto hym, therfore nowe I declare it vnto thee.

13 Beholde, the dayes wyl comme, that there ſhal ryſe vp a kyngdome vpon earth, and it ſhalbe feared aboue al the kyngdomes that were before it.

14 In [*] the ſame kyngdome ſhal twelue kynges raigne, one after another. C

[*] Or, it.

15 Whereof the ſeconde ſhal beginne to raigne, and ſhal haue more tyme then the other twelue.

16 And this doo the twelue winges ſignifie, whiche thou ſaweſt.

17 As for the voyce that thou heardeſt ſpeake, and that thou ſaweſt not to goe out from the heades, but from the middes of the body therof, it betokeneth,

18 That after the time of that kingdome, there ſhal aryſe great ſtriuinges, and it ſhal ſtande in peril of falling: neuertheleſſe it ſhal not then fal, but ſhalbe reſtored agayne into his beginning.

19 And the eyght feathers vnder the winges, whiche thou ſaweſt hang vnto her winges, betoken,

20 That in him there ſhal ariſe eyght kinges, whoſe time ſhalbe but ſmal, and their yeeres ſwift, and two of them ſhal periſhe.

21 But when the middeſt tyme commeth, there ſhalbe foure kept for a time, whyles " his time beginneth to comme that it may be ended: but two ſhalbe kept vnto the ende.

" Or, eche his tyme beginneth.

22 And whereas thou ſaweſt three heades reſting, this is the interpretation:

23 In his laſt dayes ſhal the moſt hygh rayſe vp three kyngdomes, and cal many thinges agayne in to them, and they ſhal haue the dominion of the earth,

24 And of thoſe that dwel therein, with much " labour aboue al thoſe that were before them: Therefore are they called the heades of the Egle.

" Or, greefe.

25 For it is they that ſhal " bryng foorth his wickedneſſe againe, and that ſhal perfourme and finiſhe his laſt.

" Or, accompliſhe his wickedneſſe.

26 And whereas thou ſaweſt, that the great head appeared no more, it ſignifieth, that one of them ſhal dye vpon his bedde, and yet with payne.

E 27 For the two that remayne, ſhalbe ſlaine with the ſwoorde.

28 For the ſwoorde of the one ſhal deuoure the other: but at the laſt ſhal he falle through the ſwoorde him ſelfe.

29 And whereas thou ſaweſt two feathers vnder the winges, paſſing towarde the head that is on the ryght ſide,

30 It ſignifieth, that it is they whom the higheſt hath kept vnto theyr ende: this is the ſmal kyngdome, and fulle of trouble, as thou ſaweſt.

31 And the Lion, whom thou ſaweſt ryſing vp out of the wood, and roaring, and ſpeakyng vnto the Egle, and rebuking her for her vnryghteouſneſſe, with al the woordes whiche thou haſt hearde,

32 Is the winde, whiche the hygheſt hath kept for them, and for their wickedneſſe vnto the ende: he ſhal reprooue them, and caſt before them their owne ſpoylinges:

33 For he ſhal ſet them aliue in iudgement, and ſhal rebuke them, and correct them.

34 For the reſidue of my people ſhal he deliuer by trouble, thoſe that be preſerued vpon my borders, and he ſhal make them ioyful, vntil the comming of yͤ day of iudgement, whereof I haue ſpoken vnto thee from the beginnyng.

35 This is the dreame that thou ſaweſt, and theſe are the interpretations.

36 Thou only haſt benne meete to know this ſecrete of the hygheſt.

37 Therefore write al theſe thinges that thou haſt ſeene in a booke, and hyde them, F

38 And teache them to the wyſe of the people, whoſe hartes thou knoweſt may comprehende and keepe theſe ſecretes.

39 But wayte thou here thee ſelfe yet ſeuen dayes mo, that it may be ſhewed thee whatſoeuer it pleaſeth the hygheſt to declare vnto thee. And with that he went his way.

40 And when al the people perceiued that the ſeuen dayes were paſt, and I not comme agayne into the citie, they geathered them altogeather from the leaſt vnto the moſt, and came vnto me, and ſayde,

41 What haue we offended thee? and what euyl haue we donne agaynſt thee, that thou forſakeſt vs, and ſitteſt here in this place?

42 For of al the people thou only art left vs, as a grape of the vine, and as a candel in a darke place, and as an hauen or ſhippe preſerued from the tempeſt.

43 Haue we not els aduerſitie yenough?

44 If thou ſhalt forſake vs, were it not better for vs that we hadde benne burnt with Sion?

45 For we are not better then they that dyed there. And they wept with loude voyce. Then anſweared I them, and ſayde,

46 Be of good comfort, O Iſrael, and be not heauy thou houſe of Iacob:

47 For the higheſt hath you in remembrance, and the myghty hath not forgotten you in temptation.

48 As for me I haue not forſaken you, neither am I departed from you: but am cōme into this place to pray, becauſe of the miſerie of Iſrael, that I myght ſeeke mercie for the lowe eſtate of your ſanctuarie. G

49 And nowe goe your way home euery man, and after theſe dayes wyl I comme vnto you.

50 So the people went their way into the citie, lyke as I commaunded them.

51 But I remayned ſtille in the feelde ſeuen dayes, as the " angel bad me, and dyd eate only of the floures of the feelde, and had my meate of the hearbes in thoſe dayes.

" Or, he.

The.xiii.Chapter.

2 The viſion of a wynde commyng foorth of the ſea. 3 whiche became a man.
5 His propertie and power againſt his enimies. 21 The declaration of this viſion.

A 1 AND after the ſeuen dayes, I dreamed a dreame by nyght:

2 And beholde, there aroſe a wynde from the ſea, that it moued al the waues therof.

3 And I looked, and beholde there was a ſtrong man with the thouſandes of heauen: & when he turned his countenance to looke, al the thynges trembled that were ſeene vnder hym.

4 And whē the voyce went out of his mouth, al they burnt that hearde his voyce, lyke as the earth fayleth when it feeleth the fyre.

5 After theſe I ſawe, and beholde there was geathered togeather a multitude of men out of number, from the foure windes of the heauen, to fight agaynſt the man that came out of the ſea.

6 And I looked, and beholde he graued hym ſelfe a great mountayne, and flewe vp vpon it.

B 7 But I would haue ſeene the region or place whereout the hyl was grauen, and I coulde not.

8 And I ſawe after theſe, that al they whiche came to fight againſt him, were ſoare afraid: and yet durſt they fyght.

9 Neuertheleſſe, when he ſawe the fierceneſſe and violence of the people that came, he neyther lyfte vp his hande, " nor helde ſworde nor any weapon:

10 But onlye, as I ſawe, he ſent out of his mouth as it had benne a blaſt of fyre, and out of his lyppes the wynde of the flambe, and out of his tongue he caſte out ſparkes and ſtormes.

11 And they were al mixt togeather: the blaſt of fyre, the wynde of the flambes, and the greate ſtorme: and felle with " a ruſh vpon the people whiche was prepared to fyght, and burnt them vp euerye one, ſo that of the innumerable multitude, there was nothyng ſeene, but onlye duſt and ſmel of ſmoke: When I ſawe this, I was afrayde.

12 Afterwarde ſawe I the ſame man comme downe from the mountayne, and callyng vnto hym another peaceable " people.

13 And there came muche people vnto hym, ſomme were glad, ſomme were ſory, ſomme of them were bound, & other ſomme brought of them that were offered: then was I ſicke through greate feare, and I awaked, and ſayde,

14 Thou haſt ſhewed thy ſeruant theſe woonders from the begynnyng, and haſt counted me woorthy, that thou myghteſt receiue my prayer: C

15 Shewe me nowe yet the interpretation of this dreame.

16 For thus I conſyder in myne vnderſtanding: wo vnto them that ſhalbe leaſt in thoſe dayes, and muche more wo vnto them that are not leaſt behynde:

17 For they that were not leaſt, were in heauineſſe.

18 Nowe vnderſtande I the thynges that are layde vp in the later dayes, whiche ſhal happen vnto them, and to thoſe that are leaſt behynde.

19 Therefore are they comme into great perils, and manye neceſſities, lyke as theſe dreames declare.

20 Yet is it eaſier that he whiche is in danger falle [into theſe] and nowe to ſee that whiche ſhal chaunce hereafter, then to paſſe out of this worlde as a cloude. Then anſweared he me, and ſayde, D

21 The interpretation of the ſyght ſhal I ſhew thee, and I wyl open vnto thee the thyng that thou haſt required.

22 Whereas thou haſt ſpoken of them that are leaſt behynde, this is the interpretation.

23 He that beareth the peryl in that tyme, hath kept hym ſelfe: They that be fallen into danger, are ſuche as haue woorkes and fayth vnto the moſt myghtie.

24 Knowe this therefore, that they whiche be leaſt behynde, are more bleſſed then they that be dead.

25 " This is the meaning of the viſion: Whereas thou ſaweſt a man commyng vp from the " deepe of the ſea,

26 The ſame is he whom God the hygheſt hath kept a great ſeaſon, which by his owne ſelfe ſhal deliuer his creature, and he ſhal order them that are leaſt behynde.

27 And whereas thou ſaweſt that out of his mouth there came as a blaſt of wynde, fyre, and ſtorme: E

" Or, for he held no ſworde nor any inſtrument of warre.

" Or, violence.

" Or, multitude.

" Or, theſe are the meaninges.

" Or, middeſt.

" Or, fierceneſſe.

28 And howe that he lyfte vp neyther ſworde nor weapon, but that the " ruſſhyng in of hym deſtroyed the whole multitude that came to fyght agaynſt hym: it ſignifieth,

29 That the dayes comme, when the moſte hygheſt wyl begynne to deliuer them that are vpon earth,

" Or, he ſhal aſtoniſh the hartes of them.

30 And " in a traunce of mynd ſhal he comme vpon them that dwel in the earth.

Mat.24.a.

31 And one ſhal vndertake to fyght agaynſte another, one citie agaynſt another, one place agaynſt another, * one people agaynſt another, one realme agaynſt another.

" Or, reuealed.

32 When this commeth to paſſe, then ſhal the tokens comme that I ſhewed thee before, and then ſhal my ſonne be " declared whom thou ſaweſt clymbe vp as a man.

33 And when al the people heare his voyce, euerye man ſhal in their owne lande leaue the batayle that they haue one agaynſt another:

F 34 And an innumerable multitude ſhalbe geathered togeather, as they that be wyllyng to comme, and to ouercome him by fightyng.

35 But he ſhal ſtande vpon the toppe of the mount Sion.

36 And Sion ſhal comme, and ſhalbe ſhewed to al menne, beyng prepared and buylded, lyke as thou ſaweſt the hille grauen foorth without any handes.

37 And this my ſonne ſhal rebuke thoſe nations whiche are fallen into the tempeſt, for their wickedneſſe and euyl imaginations,

38 And into tormentes lyke to flambe, wherewith they ſhalbe puniſhed: and without anye labour ſhal he deſtroy them, euen by the lawe, whiche is compared vnto the fyre.

39 And whereas thou ſaweſt that he geathered another peaceable people vnto hym:

4.Re.17.a.

" Or, beyond the riuer.

40 These are the tenne tribes whiche were carried awaye priſoners out of their owne land * in the time of Oſeas the kyng, whom Salmanaſar the king of Aſſyria tooke priſoners: and carried them " ouer the water, and ſo came they into another lande.

41 But they tooke this counſayle among thēſelues, that they woulde leaue the multitude of the heathen, and to goe foorth into a farther countrey, where neuer mankynd dwelt:

42 That they myght there keepe their ſtatutes, whiche they neuer kept in their owne lande.

43 And ſo they entred in at the narrowe paſſages of the ryuer of Euphrates.

Exo.13.e.
Ioſue.3.d.

44 For the moſte hygheſt then ſhewed tokens for them, * and helde ſtyl the fludde tyl they were paſſed ouer.

45 For through the countrey there was a great way, namely, of a yeere and a halfe iourney: and the ſame region is called Arſareth.

46 Then dwelte they there vntyl the latter tyme: and when they comme foorth againe,

47 The hygheſt ſhal holde ſtyl the ſprynges of ẏ ſtreame againe, that thei may goe through: therefore ſaweſt thou the multitude with peace.

G

48 But they that be leaſt behynde of thy people, are thoſe that are founde within my borders.

49 Nowe when he deſtroyeth the multitude of the nations that are geathered togeather, he ſhal defende his people that remayne:

50 And then ſhal he ſhewe them great woonders.

" Or, middeſt.

51 Then ſayde I, O Lorde, Lorde, ſhewe me this, wherefore haue I ſeene the man commyng vp from the " deepe of the ſea.

" Or, that day.

52 And he ſayde vnto me, Lyke as thou canſt neyther ſeeke out nor knowe theſe thynges that are in the deepe of the ſea: euen ſo canne no man vpon earth ſee my ſonne, or thoſe that be with hym, but in the tyme of the " day.

53 This is the interpretation of the dreame whiche thou ſaweſt, and whereby thou only art here lightened:

54 For thou haſt forſaken thyne owne lawe, and applied thy diligence vnto myne, and ſought it.

3.Reg.3.a.
Pro.7.a.

55 * Thy life haſt thou ordered in wyſedome, and * haſt called vnderſtandyng thy mother:

56 And therefore haue I ſhewed thee the treaſures of the hygheſt. After other three dayes I wyl ſhewe thee more, and talke with thee more at large, yea heauy and woonderous thynges wyl I declare vnto thee.

57 Then went I foorth into the fielde, geuing prayſe and thankes greatlye vnto God, becauſe of his woonders whiche he dyd in tyme,

58 And becauſe he gouerneth the ſame, & ſuche thynges as falle in their ſeaſons, and there I ſate three dayes.

The,xiiii.Chapter.

3 Howe God appeared to Moſes in the buſhe. 10 Al thynges decline to age. 16 The later age woorſe then the former. 29 The ingratitude of Iſrael. 35 The reſurrection and iudgement.

A 1 VPon the thyrde day I ſate vnder an Oke tree, then came there a voyce vnto me out of the buſhe, and ſayde, Eſdras, Eſdras.

2 And I ſayd, Here am I Lord: and ſtood vp vpon my feete.

Exod,3.2. 3 Then ſayde he vnto me,* In the buſhe did I appeare vnto Moſes, & talked with hym when my people ſerued in Egypt,

4 And I ſent hym, and ledde my people out of Egypt, and brought hym vp to the mounte Sina, where I helde hym by me a long ſeaſon:

5 And tolde him many woonderous workes, and ſhewed hym the ſecretes of the tymes, and the ende, and commaunded hym, ſayeing,

6 These woordes ſhalt thou declare, and theſe ſhalt thou hyde.

B 7 And nowe I ſaye vnto thee,

8 That thou laye vp in thyne hart the ſignes that I haue ſhewed, and the dreames that thou haſt ſeene, & the interpretations whiche thou haſt hearde.

9 For thou ſhalt be taken away from among al, and hencefoorth thou ſhalt remayne with my counſayle, and with ſuch as be lyke thee, vntyl the tymes be ended.

10 For the worlde hath loſt his youth, and the tymes begynne to waxe olde.

11 For the world is diuided into twelue partes, and ten partes of it are gone alredy, and halfe of a tenth part:

12 And there remayneth there, that which is after the halfe of [a] the tenth part.

[a] Or, that.

13 Therefore, ſet thyne houſe in order, and refourme thy people, comfort ſuche of them as be in trouble, and nowe renounce corruption,

C 14 Let goe from thee mortal thoughtes, caſte away the burthens of men, put of the weake nature:

15 And ſet aſyde the thoughtes that are moſte heauye vnto thee, and haſte thee to flee from theſe tymes:

16 For as for ſuch euil [and wickedneſſe] as thou haſt nowe ſeene happen, they ſhal doo yet muche woorſe.

Mat.24.a. 1.Iohn,2.c 17 * For the weaker that the world is, by reaſon of age, the more ſhal euyls increaſe vpon them that dwel therein.

18 For the trueth is fledde farre away, and leaſyng is harde at hande: For nowe haſteth the viſion to comme, that thou haſt ſeene.

19 Then anſweared I before thee, and ſayde,

20 Beholde Lorde, I wyl goe as thou haſt commaunded me, and refourme the people which are preſent: but they that ſhalbe borne afterward, who wyl admoniſh them? Thus the worlde is ſet in darkeneſſe, and they that dwel therein, are without lyght. D

21 For thy law is burnt, therfore no man knoweth the thynges that are donne of thee, or the woorkes that ſhalbe donne.

22 But if I haue found grace before thee, ſend the holye Ghoſt in to me, and I ſhal wryte al that hath benne donne in the worlde ſince the begynnyng, whiche was wrytten in thy lawe, that menne maye fynde the path, and that they whiche wyl lyue in the later dayes, may liue.

23 And he anſweared me, ſayeing, Goe thy way, geather the people togeather, and ſaye vnto them, that they ſeeke thee not for fourty dayes.

24 But looke thou geather thee manye boxe trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, Ecanus, and Aſiel, theſe fyue, whiche are ready to wryte ſwiftly:

25 And comme hyther, and I ſhal lyght a candel of vnderſtandyng in thyne harte, whiche ſhal not be put out tyl the thinges be perfourmed, whiche thou ſhalt beginne to wryte.

26 And then ſhalt thou declare ſomme thinges openly vnto the perfect, and ſomme thynges ſhalt thou ſhewe ſecretly vnto the wyſe: To morowe this houre ſhalt thou begynne to wryte.

27 Then went I foorth, as he commaunded me, and geathered al the people togeather, and ſayde, E

28 Heare theſe woordes, O Iſrael:

29 Our fathers at the begynnyng were ſtrangers in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered,

30 And receiued the lawe of lyfe,* whiche they kept not, whiche ye alſo haue tranſgreſſed after them. Deut.3.d.

31 Then was the land, euen the lande of Sion parted among you by lot [to poſſeſſe:] But your fathers, and ye your ſelues alſo haue donne vnryghteouſneſſe, and haue not kepte the wayes whiche the higheſt commaunded you:

32 And for ſo much as he is a ryghteous iudge, he tooke from you in tyme, the thyng that he had geuen you.

33 And nowe are ye here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore, if ſo be that ye wyl ſubdue your owne vnderſtandyng, and refourme your hart, ye ſhalbe kept alyue, and after death ſhal ye obteyne mercie.

35 For after death ſhal the iudgement comme, when we ſhal liue agayne: and then ſhal the names of the ryghteous be manifeſt, and the workes of the vngodly ſhalbe declared.

36 Let no man therefore comme nowe vnto me, nor ſeeke after me theſe fourtie dayes.

37 So I tooke the fyue men, as he commaunded me, and we went into the fielde, and remayned there.

Exec.3.a.
Apo.10.b.

38 The next day, a voyce called me, ſayeing, Eſdras, *open thy mouth, and drynke that I geue thee to drynke.

39 Then opened I my mouth, and behold, he reached me a ful cuppe, whiche was ful as it were with water, but the colour of it was lyke fyre.

40 And I tooke it, and dranke: And when I had drunken it, my harte had vnderſtandyng, and wyſedome grewe in my breaſt: For my ſpirite was ſtrengthened in remembrance,

41 And my mouth was opened, and ſhut no more.

42 The higheſt gaue vnderſtandyng vnto the fyue men, that they wrote the hygh thynges of the nyght whiche they vnderſtoode not.

43 But in the nyght they dyd eate bread: as for me, I ſpake in the day, and helde not my tongue by nyght.

44 In fourtie dayes they wrote two hundred and foure bookes.

45 And it came to paſſe, when the fourtie daies were fulfilled, that the higheſt ſpake, ſayeing, The fyrſte that thou haſte written, publiſhe openly, that the worthy and vnworthy may reade it:

46 But keepe the ſeuentie laſt, that thou mayeſt delyuer them only to ſuche as be wyſe among thy people.

47 For in them is the ſpryng of vnderſtandyng, the fountayne of wiſedome, and the ſtreame of knowledge.

48 And I dyd ſo.

The .xvi. Chapter.

1 The prophecie of Eſdras is certayne. 5 The euils that ſhal comme on the worlde.
9 The Lorde wil auenge the innocent blood. 12 Egypt ſhal lament. 16 Sedition,
20 and puniſhement vpon the kynges of the earth. 24 Curſed are they that ſynne,
29 Troubles and warres vpon the whole earth. 53 God is the reuenger of his elect.

A 1 BEhold, ſpeake thou in the eares of my people the wordes of propheſie which I wyl put in thy mouth, ſayth the Lorde,

2 And cauſe them to be written in a letter: *for it is the trueth.

*Or, they are faythful and true.

3 Feare not the imaginations agaynſte thee, Let not the vnfaythfulneſſe of them trouble thee, that ſpeake agaynſt thee:

4 For al the vnfaythful, ſhal dye in their vnfaythfulneſſe.

5 Beholde (ſayth the Lorde) I wyl bryng plagues vpon the world, the ſword, hunger, death, and deſtruction:

6 For wickedneſſe hath the vpper hande in al the earth, and theyr ſhameful workes are fulfylled:

B 7 Therefore ſayth the Lorde,

8 I wyl holde my tongue no more of theyr wickedneſſe whiche they doo ſo vngodlye, neyther wyl I ſuffer them in the thynges that they deale withal ſo wickedly: Behold, *the innocent and righteous blood cryeth vnto me, and the ſoules of the iuſt complayne continually: and.19.a.

Apo.6.b.

9 And therefore, ſayth the Lorde, I wyl ſurely auenge, and receiue vnto me al the innocent blood from among them.

10 *Beholde, my people is lead as a flocke of Sheepe to be ſlayne, I wyl not ſuffer them nowe to dwel in the lande of Egypt:

Pſal.44.c.
Rom.8.c.
1.Cor.4.b

11 But wyl bryng them out with a myghty hande and a ſtretched out arme, and ſmyte it with plagues as afore, and wyl deſtroy al the lande of it.

12 Egypt ſhal mourne, and the fundations of it ſhalbe ſmytten with the plague and pouniſhment that God ſhal bryng vpon it.

13 They that tille the grounde ſhal mourne, for theyr ſeedes ſhalbe deſtroyed through the blaſtyng and hayle, and by an horrible ſtarre.

14 Wo worth the worlde, and them that dwel therein:

15 For the ſword and theyr deſtruction draweth nygh, and one people ſhal ſtande vp to fyght agaynſt another, and ſwordes in theyr handes.

16 *For menne ſhalbe vnſtedfaſt, and ſome ſhal doo violence vnto other, they ſhal not regarde

*Or, for there ſhalbe ſedition among menne.

regarde theyr kyng, and the princes ſhal measure the way of theyr dooings by theyr power.

17 A man ſhal deſyre to goe into a citie, and ſhal not be able.

18 For because of theyr pryde the cities ſhalbe troubled, the houſes ſhal tremble, and men ſhalbe afrayde.

19 A man ſhal haue no pitie vpon his neyghbour, but ſhal deſtroy theyr houſes with the ſwoorde, and ſpoyle theyr goodes becauſe of the " hunger of bread, & becauſe of the great trouble.

" Or, lacke.

D 20 Beholde, ſayth God, I calle togeather al the kynges of the earth to reuerence me, whiche are from the " vpryſyng, from the South, from the Eaſt, and Libanus, to turne vpon them, and reſtoare the thynges that they haue donne to them:

" Or, weaſt.

21 Lyke as they doo yet this day vnto my choſen, ſo wyl I doo alſo, and recompence them in theyr boſome: Thus ſaith the Lord God.

22 My ryght hande ſhal not ſpare the ſynners, and my ſwoorde ſhal not ceaſſe ouer them that ſhead the innocent blood vpon earth.

23 The fyre is gonne out from his wrath, and hath conſumed the fundations of the earth, and the ſynners lyke the ſtrawe that is kyndeled.

24 Wo woorth them that ſynne, and keepe not my commaundementes, ſaith the Lord.

25 I wyl not ſpare them: Goe your waye ye children from the power, defile not my ſanctuarie:

26 For the Lorde knoweth al them that ſinne agaynſt hym, and therefore delivereth he them vnto death and deſtruction.

E 27 For nowe are the plagues comme vpon the worlde, and ye ſhal remayne in them: for God ſhal not deliuer you, becauſe ye haue ſinned agaynſt hym.

28 Behold, an horrible viſion commeth from the Eaſt,

29 Where generations of dragons of Arabia ſhal comme out with many charrettes, and the multitude of them ſhalbe carried as the wynd vpon earth, that al they which heare them, may feare and tremble,

30 Euen the Carmanies raging in wrath, ſhal goe foorth as the wilde bores of the foreſt, and with great power ſhal they come and ſtande fyghting with them, and ſhal waſte a portion of the land of the Aſſyrians.

31 And then ſhal the dragons haue the vpper hande, and remembring theyr nature, ſhal turne about, conſpiring togeather in greate power to perſecute them.

32 Then theſe ſhalbe troubled, and keepe ſcilence in theyr power, and ſhal flee.

33 And from the land of the Aſſyrians ſhal the enimie beſiege them, and conſume ſomme of them, and in theyr hoſt ſhalbe feare and dread, and ſtryfe among theyr kynges.

F 34 Beholde cloudes from the Eaſt, and from the North vnto the South, and they are very horrible to looke vpon, fulle of wrath and ſtorme:

35 They ſhal ſmyte one vpon another, and they ſhal ſmyte downe a great multitude of ſtarres vpon the earth, euen theyr owne ſtarre: and the blood ſhalbe from the ſword vnto the belly,

36 And the doung of man vnto the Cammels litter,

37 And there ſhalbe great fearefulneſſe and tremblyng vpon earth: and they that ſee the wrath ſhalbe afrayde, and a tremblyng ſhal comme vpon them:

38 And then ſhal there comme great raynes from the South, and from the North, and part from the Weaſt:

39 And ſtrong wyndes ſhal aryſe from the Eaſt, and ſhal open it, and the cloud whiche he rayſed vp in wrath, and the ſtarre ſtirred to cauſe feare towarde the Eaſt and Weaſt wynde, ſhalbe deſtroyed:

40 The great cloudes ſhalbe lyft vp, and the myghty cloudes ful of wrath, and the ſtarre, that they may make al the earth afraid, and them that dwel therein, and that they may poure out ouer euery hygh place, an horrible ſtarre,

41 Fyre, and hayle, and fleeing ſwordes, and many waters: that al fieldes may be ful, & al ryuers with the abundance of great waters.

G 42 And they ſhal breake downe the cities, and walles, mountaynes, and hilles, trees of the woode, and the graſſe of the medowes, and al theyr corne.

43 And they ſhal goe ſtedfaſt vnto Babylon, and make her afrayde.

44 They ſhal comme to her, and beſiege her, the " ſtarre and al wrath ſhal they powre out vpon her, then ſhal the duſt and ſmoke goe vp vnto the heauen, and al they that be about her, ſhal bewayle her.

" Or, conſtellation and tempeſt.

45 And they that remaine vnder her, ſhal doo ſeruice vnto them that haue put her in feare.

46 And thou Aſia that comforteſt thee ſelfe alſo vpon the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her perſon:

47 Wo be vnto thee thou wretche, becauſe thou haſt made thee ſelfe lyke vnto her, and haſt deckte thy daughters in whoredome, that they might * triumphe and pleaſe thy louers whiche haue alway deſyred to commit whoredome with thee.

* Or, pleaſe and glory in.

48 Thou haſt folowed the abominable citie in al her workes and inuentions: therefore ſayth God,

49 I wyl ſende plagues vpon thee, widowhood, pouertie, hunger, warres, and peſtilence, to waſte thy houſes with deſtruction and death,

50 And the glorye of thy power ſhalbe dryed vp as a floure, when the heate ryſeth that is ſent * ouer thee:

* Or, vpon.

51 Thou ſhalt be ſicke as a poore wife that is plagued and beaten of women: ſo that the myghtie & louers ſhal not be able to receiue thee.

52 Woulde I ſo hate thee, ſayth the Lorde,

53 If thou haddeſt not alway ſlayne my choſen, exaltyng the ſtroke of thy handes, and ſaid ouer theyr death when thou waſt drunken,

54 Set foorth the beautie of thy countenance?

55 The reward of thy whoredome ſhalbe recompenced thee in thy boſome, therefore ſhalt thou receiue rewarde.

56 Lyke as thou haſt donne vnto my choſen, ſayth the Lorde: euen ſo ſhal God doo vnto thee, and ſhal deliuer thee into the plague.

57 Thy children ſhal dye of hunger, and thou ſhalt fal through the ſword: Thy cities ſhalbe broken downe, and al thyne ſhal periſhe with the ſworde in the fielde.

58 They that be in the mountaynes ſhal dye of hunger, and eate theyr owne fleaſhe, and drinke theyr owne blood, for very hunger of bread, and thyrſte of water.

59 Thou, as vnhappie ſhalt comme through the ſea, and receiue plagues agayne.

60 In the paſſage they ſhal caſte downe the ſlaine citie, and ſhal roote out one part of thy lande, and conſume the portion of thy glory, and ſhal returne to her that was deſtroyed.

61 They ſhal treade thee downe lyke ſtubble, and they ſhalbe thy fyre,

62 And ſhal conſume thee, thy cities, and thy land, and thy mountaines, al thy woodes, & thy fruiteful trees, ſhal they burne vp with the fyre.

63 Thy chyldren ſhal they carrie away captiue: & looke what thou haſt, they ſhal ſpoyle it, and marre the beautie of thy face,

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 Agaynſt Babylon, Aſia, Egypt, and Syria. 18. 38. Of the euyls that ſhal comme vpon the world, with admonition howe to gouerne them ſelues in afflictions. 54 To acknowledge theyr ſynnes, and to commit them ſelues to the Lorde, 55 whoſe myghty prouidence and iuſtice is to be reuerenced.

2 Gyrd your ſelues with clothes of ſacke and heare, and mourne your chyldren, be ſory: for your deſtruction is at hande.

3 A ſworde is ſent vpon you, and who wyl turne it backe?

4 A fyre is ſent among you, and who wyl quenche it?

5 Plagues are ſent vnto you, and what is he that wyl dryue them away?

6 May any man dryue away an hungrye Lion in yͤ wood? Or may any man quench the fyre in ſtubble when it hath begunne to burne?

B 7 May one turne agayne the arrowe that is ſhot of a ſtrong Archer?

8 The myghty Lorde ſendeth the plagues, and what is he that wyl driue them away?

9 The fyre is kyndeled and gonne foorth in his wrath, & what is he that may quench it?

10 He ſhal caſte lyghtenynges, and who ſhal not feare? He ſhal thunder, and who ſhal not be afrayde?

11 The Lord ſhal threaten, and who ſhal not vtterly be beaten to powder at his preſence?

12 The earth quaketh, and the fundations thereof, the ſea ariſeth vp with waues from the deepe, and the waues of it are vnquiet, and the fiſhes thereof alſo, before the Lorde, and before the glory of his power:

13 For ſtrong is his right hande that bendeth the bowe, his arrowes that he ſhooteth are ſharpe, and ſhal not miſſe when they beginne to be ſhot into the endes of the world.

14 Beholde, the plagues are ſent, and ſhal not turne agayne tyl they comme vpon earth. C

15 The fyre is kyndeled, & ſhal not be put out tyl it conſume the fundations of the earth.

16 Lyke as an arrowe whiche is ſhotte of a myghty Archer, returneth not backwarde: euen ſo the plagues that ſhalbe ſent vpon the earth, ſhal not turne agayne.

17 Wo is me, wo is me, who wyl deliuer me in thoſe dayes?

18 The begynnyng of ſorowes & great mournyng, the begynnyng of dearth, and greate death, the begynnyng of warres, and the powers ſhal ſtande in feare, the begynnyng of euyls, and they ſhal tremble euery one.

19 What ſhal I doo in theſe thinges, when the plagues comme?

D 20 Beholde, hunger, and plague, trouble, and anguiſhe, are ſent as ſcourges for amendement:

21 But for al theſe thynges they ſhal not turne from theyr wickedneſſe, nor be alway myndeful of the ſcourges.

22 Beholde, vittayles ſhalbe ſo good cheape vpon earth, that they ſhal thynke them ſelues to be in good caſe: and euen then ſhal miſchiefe grow vpon earth, warres, dearth, and great ″ diſquietnes.

″ Or, confuſion.

23 For manye of them that dwelle vpon earth, ſhal periſhe of hunger, and the other that eſcape the hunger, ſhal the ſworde deſtroy:

24 And the dead ſhalbe caſt out as doung, and there ſhalbe no man to comfort them: For the earth ſhalbe waſted, and the cities ſhalbe caſt downe.

25 There ſhalbe no man leaft to til the earth, and to ſowe it.

26 The trees ſhal geue fruite, and who ſhal plucke them of, and geather them?

E 27 The grapes ſhalbe rype, and who ſhal treade them? For al places ſhalbe deſolate of menne:

28 So that one man ſhal deſire to ſee another, or to heare his voyce.

29 For of one whole citie there ſhalbe ten leaft, and two of the fielde which ſhal hyde them ſelues in the thicke ″ buſhes, & in the cliftes of ſtones,

″ Or, woodes.

30 Like as when there remaine three or foure Oliues in the place where Oliues growe, or among other trees,

31 Or as when a vineyard is geathered, there are leaft ſome grapes of them that diligently ſought through the vineyarde:

32 Euen ſo in thoſe dayes, there ſhalbe three of foure leaft by them that ſearch theyr houſes with the ſworde.

F 33 And the earth ſhalbe leaft waſte, and the fieldes therof ſhal waxe olde, and her wayes and al her pathes ſhal growe ful of thornes, becauſe no man ſhal trauaile there through.

34 The virgins ſhal mourne, hauyng no bridegromes, the women ſhal make lamentation hauing no huſbandes, theyr daughters ſhal mourne, hauing no helpers,

35 In the warres ſhal theyr bridgromes be deſtroyed, and theyr huſbandes ſhal periſhe of hunger.

36 But ye ſeruantes of the Lorde, heare theſe thynges, and marke them.

37 Behold the woorde of the Lord, O receiue it: beleue not the goddes of whom the Lord ſpake, 38 Beholde the plagues drawe nigh, and are not ſlacke in tarrying.

39 Lyke as a trauaylyng woman whiche in the nynth moneth bryngeth foorth a ſonne, when the houre of the byrth is comme, an houre two or three afore that, the paynes comme vpon her body, and when the child commeth to the byrth, they tarrie not the twincklyng of an eye:

40 Euen ſo ſhal not the plagues be ſlacke to comme vpon the earth, and the worlde ſhal mourne, and ſorowes ſhal comme vpon it on euery ſyde.

41 O my people heare my woord, make you ready to the batayle, and in al euil be euen as pilgrimes vpon earth.

42 * He that ſelleth, let hym be as he that fleeth his way: and he that byeth, as one that wyl leeſe:

1.Cor.7.d.

G 43 Who ſo occupieth marchandiſe, as he that winneth not: and he that buyldeth, as he that ſhal not dwel therein:

44 He that ſoweth, as one that ſhal not reape, he that cutteth the vineyard, as he that ſhal not geather the grapes:

45 They that marrie, as they that ſhal geat no chyldren: and they that marrie not, as the widdowes.

46 And therefore * they that labour, labour in vayne.

Pſalm.71.a. Pro.10.c. Eccl.11.b.

47 For ſtrangers ſhal reape theyr fruites, and ſpoyle theyr goodes, ouerthrowe theyr houſes, and take theyr chyldren captiue: for in captiuitie and hunger ſhal they geat chyldren.

48 And they that occupie theyr marchandiſe with robberie, the more they decke theyr cities, theyr houſes, theyr poſſeſſions, and theyr owne perſons, 49 The more wyl I puniſhe them for theyr ſynnes, ſayth the Lorde.

50 Like as an whoore enuieth an honeſt and vertuous woman:

51 So ſhal ryghteouſneſſe hate iniquitie, when ſhe decketh her ſelfe, and ſhal accuſe her to her face when he commeth that ſhal brydle the aucthour of al ſynne vpon earth.

52 And therfore be not ye lyke therunto, nor to the woorkes thereof:

53 For or euer it be long, iniquitie ſhalbe taken away out of the earth, and ryghteouſneſſe ſhal raigne among you.

54 Let not the ſynner ſaye, that he hath not ſinned: for coales of fyre ſhal burne vpon his head whiche ſayth, Before the Lorde God and his glory, I haue not ſynned.

55 Beholde, the Lorde knoweth al the woorkes of men, theyr imaginations, theyr thoughtes, and theyr hartes.

Gene.1.a. 56 * For he ſpake but the woord, Let the earth be made: and it was made, Let the heauen made: and it was created.

Pſal.146.a. 57 In his woorde were the ſtarres made,* and he knoweth the number of them.

58 He ſearcheth the grounde of the deepe, and the treaſures thereof, he hath meaſured the ſea, and what it conteyneth.

59 He hath ſhutte the ſea in the middeſt of the waters, and with his woorde hath he hanged the earth vpon the waters.

60 He ſpreadeth out the heauen lyke a vaute, vpon the waters hath he founded it.

61 In the deſart and drye wyldérneſſe hath he made ſprynges of water, and pooles vpon the top of the mountaynes, that the fluddes might poure downe from the ſtony rockes, to water the earth.

62 He made man, and put his hart in the middes of the bodye, and gaue hym breath, lyfe, and vnderſtandyng.

63 Yea and the ſpirite of the almyghtie God whiche made al thynges, and hath ſearched the grounde of al the ſecretes of the earth,

64 He knoweth your imaginations and inuentions, & what ye thynke when ye ſinne, and woulde hyde your ſinnes.

65 Therefore hath the Lorde ſearched, and ſought out al your woorkes, and he ſhal bewray you al:

66 And when your ſinnes are brought foorth, ye ſhalbe aſhamed before menne, and your owne ſinne ſhalbe your accuſers in that day.

67 What wyl ye doo? Or howe wyl ye hyde your ſinnes before God and his angelles?

68 Beholde, God hym ſelfe is the iudge, feare hym: leaue of from your ſynnes, and forget your vnryghteouſneſſes, and meddle no more with them: ſo ſhal GOD leade you foorth, and deliuer you from al trouble.

69 For beholde, the heate of a great multitude is kyndeled ouer you, and they ſhal take away certayne of you, & ſhal ſlaye for meate to the idolles:

70 And they that conſent vnto them, ſhalbe hadde in deriſion, laughed to ſcorne, and troden vnder foote.

71 For there ſhalbe in euerye place, and in the nexte cities a great inſurrection vpon thoſe that feare the Lorde.

72 They ſhalbe lyke madde menne, they ſhal ſpare no man, they ſhal ſpoyle and waſte ſuche as yet feare the Lorde:

73 For their goods ſhal they take from them, and ſhut them out of theyr houſes.

74 Then ſhal it be knowen who are my choſen, and they ſhalbe tryed as the golde in the fyre.

75 Heare, O ye my beloued, ſayth the Lorde: beholde, the dayes of trouble are at hand, but I wyl deliuer you from the ſame.

76 Be not ye afraide, diſpayre not: for God is your captayne.

77 Who ſo keepeth my commaundementes and preceptes, ſayth the Lorde God, let not your ſinnes waygh you downe, and let not your vnryghteouſnes be lyft vp.

78 Wo be vnto them that are bounde with theyr ſynnes, and couered with theyr wickedneſſe, lyke as a fielde is hedged in with buſhes, and the path thereof couered with thornes, that no mã may trauayle through: it is ſhut vp, and is caſt into the fyre, for euer to be conſumed therewith.

The ende of the fourth booke of Eſdras.

The booke of Tobias.

The firſt Chapter.

1 Tobias parentage. 3 His godlineſſe. 6 His equitie. 8 His charitie and proſperitie.
23 He fleeth, and his goodes are confiſcate, 25 and after reſtoared.

A 1 TObias was of the tribe and citie of Nepthali, whiche lyeth in the hygh countreys of Galilee aboue Naaſſon, beſide the way that leadeth to yͤ weaſt, hauyng the citie of Sephet vpon the leaſt ſide.

2 Though he was taken priſoner in yͤ dayes of Salmanaſar kyng of the Aſſyrians, neuertheleſſe beyng in captiuitie, he forſooke not the way of trueth:

3 In ſo muche, that whatſoeuer he myght geat, he parted it dayly with his felowe priſoners and brethren that were of his kinred.

4 And though he were younger then al in the tribe of Nepthali, yet dyd not he behaue hym ſelfe childyſhly in his workes.

5 And when al the other went to the golden calues, whiche Ieroboam the kyng of Iſrael had made, he alone fled al their companies,

6 And gate him to Hieruſalem vnto the temple of the Lorde, and there worſhipped the Lorde God of Iſrael, faithfully offering of al his firſt fruites and tithes:

7 So that in the thirde yeere, he miniſtred al the tithes vnto the ſtrangers and conuertes.

B 8 Theſe and ſuche lyke thynges, dyd he obſerue, accordyng to the lawe of God, when he was yet but young.

9 But whē he was a man, he tooke out of his owne tribe a wyfe, called Anna: and of her he begate a ſonne, whom he called after his owne name,

10 And taught hym from his youth vp to feare God, and to refraine from al ſinne.

11 Nowe when he with his wyfe, his ſonne, and with al his [*] kinred, was comme in captiuitie vnto the citie of Niniue, 12 What time as they al did eate of the meates of the heathen, he kept his ſoule, and was neuer defiled in their meates.

13 And for ſo muche as he was mindeful of the Lorde in al his harte, GOD gaue him fauour in the ſyght of Salmanaſar the kyng, C

14 Whiche gaue hym power to goe where he woulde, and ſo had he libertie to doo whatſoeuer he woulde.

15 So went Tobias vnto al them that were in captiuitie [and comforted them,] and gaue them wholſome exhortations.

16 And when he came to Rages, a citie of the Medes, hauyng tenne talentes of ſiluer (of the thinges wherewith the kyng had honoured hym)

17 And ſawe among a great companie of people of his kinred, one Gabelus, whiche was of his owne tribe, beyng in neceſſitie, he gaue him the ſaid wayght of ſiluer, vnder an hand writing.

18 After a long ſeaſon, when Salmanaſar the kyng was dead, and Sennacherib his ſonne raigned in his ſteede, whiche hated the chyldren of Iſrael:

19 Tobias went dayly throughout al his kinrede, and comforted them, and gaue of his goodes to euery one of them, as muche as he myght.

20 He fedde the hungry, clothed the naked, and buried the dead and ſlayne, and that diligently.

D 21 And when Sennacherib the kyng came agayne, and fledde out of Iurie (what tyme as God pouniſhed hym for his blaſphemie) and in his wrath ſlue many of the chyldren of Iſrael: Tobias buried their bodyes.

22 But when it was tolde the kyng, he commaunded to ſlay hym, and tooke away al his goodes.

23 Neuertheleſſe, Tobias with his ſonne and with his wyfe, fledde away naked, and was hydde: for there were many that loued him.

24 But after fourtie and fiue dayes, the kyng was ſlayne of his owne ſonnes:

25 Then came Tobias agayne to his houſe, and al his goodes were reſtored vnto hym.

[*] Or, tribe.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 Tobias calleth the faithful to his table. 3 He leaueth the feaſt to burie the dead. 10 Howe he became blinde. 13 His wyfe laboureth for his liuing. 16 She reprocheth him bitterly.

A 1 After thoſe thinges, vpon a ſolempne day of the Lorde, Tobias made a good feaſt in his houſe,

2 And ſayde vnto his ſonne, Goe thy way, and bryng hyther ſomme of our tribe, ſuche as feare God, that they may make meery with vs.

3 And when he was gonne, he came agayne, and tolde his father, that one of the chyldren of Iſrael lay ſlayne vpon the ſtreete.

4 And immediatly he leapt from his table, leaft the feaſt, came faſting to the dead coarſe, tooke hym, and bare hym priuilie into his houſe, that when the ſunne was downe, he myght ſafely burie him.

5 And when he had hydde the coarſe, he dyd eate his meate with mournyng and feare,

6 Remembryng the woordes that the Lorde ſayde by the * prophete Amos: Your hygh feaſtes ſhalbe turned to ſorowe & heauineſſe.

Amos.8,c

7 But when the ſunne was downe, he went his way, and buried him.

8 Then al his 〃 neyghbours reprooued him, ſayeing, It is not long ſence it was commaunded to ſlay thee, becauſe of this matter, and haſt ſcarce eſcaped the danger of death: and burieſt thou the dead agayne?

〃 Or, his next of kinne.

B 9 Neuertheleſſe, Tobias fearing God more then the kyng, tooke the bodyes of the ſlayne, and hyd them in his houſe, and buried them at midnightes.

10 It happened vpon a day, that he had buried the dead, and was weery, came home, and layed him downe by the wal, and ſleapt.

11 And whyle he was a ſleepe, there fel downe vpon his eies warme doung out of the ſwaloes neſt, ſo that he was blinde.

12 This temptation dyd God ſuffer to happen vnto hym, that they whiche came after, myght haue an example of his patience, lyke as of holy Iob.

13 For in ſo muche as he euer feared God from his youth vp, and kept his commaundementes, he grudged not agaynſt God, that the plague of blindneſſe chaunced vnto him:

14 But remained ſtedfaſt in the feare of God, and thanked God al the dayes of his lyfe.

15 For like as bleſſed Iob was had in deriſion of kinges: euen ſo was he laughed to ſcorne of his elders and kinſfolkes, whiche ſayde vnto him, C

16 Where is thy hope, for the whiche thou haſt done almes, and buried the dead?

17 But Tobias rebuked them, & ſpake, Say not ſo:

18 For we are the chyldren of holy menne, and looke for the lyfe whiche GOD ſhal geue vnto them that neuer turne their beleefe from hym.

19 And Anna his wyfe went dayly to the weauyng woorke:

20 And looke what liuing ſhe could geat with the labour of her handes, ſhe brought it. And it happened that ſhe tooke a kyd, & brought it home:

21 And when her huſbande hearde it crye, he ſayde, Looke that it be not ſtollen: reſtoare it agayne to the owners, for it is not lawful for vs to eate, or to touche any thing of theft.

22 Then was his wyfe angry, and ſaid, Now is thy hope becomme vayne openly, and thy almes deedes are manifeſt. D

23 With theſe and ſuche like woordes, dyd ſhe caſt him in the teeth.

The.iii.Chapter.

3 The prayer of Tobias. 7 Sara Raguels daughter, and the thinges that came vnto her. 12 Her prayer hearde. 19 The angel Raphael ſent.

A 1 Then Tobias 〃 tooke it heauyly, and with teares beganne to make his prayer, 〃 Or, ſighed.

2 Sayeing, O Lord, thou art righteous, and al thy iudgementes are true: yea al thy wayes are mercie, faithfulneſſe, and iudgement.

3 And nowe, O Lord, be mindeful of me, and take no vengeance of my ſinnes, neither remember my miſdeedes, neither yͤ miſdeedes of my forefathers.

4 For we haue not benne obedient vnto thy commaundementes: therefore are we ſpoyled, brought into captiuitie, into death, into deriſion and ſhame vnto al nations, among whom thou haſt ſcattered vs.

5 And nowe, O Lorde, thy iudgementes are great: for we haue not donne accordyng to thy commaundementes, neither haue we walked innocently before thee.

6 And nowe, O Lorde, deale with me accordyng to thy wyl, and commaunde my ſpirite to be receiued in peace: for more expedient were it for me to dye, then to liue.

7 At the ſame tyme it happened, that Sara the daughter of Raguel at Rages, a citie of the Medes, was alſo reproched by one of her fathers handmaydes,

8 That ſhe had had ſeuen huſbandes, whiche
B as ſoone as they were gone in vnto her, were ſlayne of the deuil, called Aſmodeus.

9 Therefore, when ſhe reproued the mayden for her fault, ſhe anſweared her, ſayeing, God let vs neuer ſee ſonne nor daughter of thee more vpon earth, thou killer of thy huſbandes.

10 Wylt thou ſlay me alſo, as thou haſt ſlayne ſeuen menne? At this voyce went Sara into an hygh chamber of her houſe, and three dayes and three nyghtes ſhe neither eate nor dranke, 11 But continued in prayer, and beſought God with teares, that he woulde deliuer her from this rebuke.

12 Upon the thirde day it came to paſſe, that when ſhe had made an ende of prayer, ſhe prayſed the Lorde,

13 Sayeing, Bleſſed be thy name, O God, of our fathers, whiche when thou art wroth, ſheweſt mercie, and in tyme of trouble, thou forgeueſt the ſinnes of them that calle vpon thee.

14 Unto thee, O Lorde, turne I my face, vnto
C thee lift I vp myne eyes.

15 I beſeeche thee, O Lorde, looſe me out of the bondes of this rebuke, or els take me vtterly away from of the earth.

16 Thou knoweſt Lorde, that I neuer had deſyre vnto man, and that I haue kept my ſoule cleane, from al vncleanly luſt:

17 I haue not kept companie with thoſe that paſſe their time in ſport, neither haue I made mee ſelfe partaker with them that walke in lyght behauiour.

18 An huſbande haue I conſented to take, not for my pleaſure, but in thy feare.

19 Nowe peraduenture, eyther I haue benne vnwoorthy of them, or els were they vnmeete for me: for thou happyly haſt kept me to another huſbande.

20 For why? thy counſel is not in the power of man.

21 But euery one that ſerueth thee, is ſure of D
this, that yf his lyfe be in trying, it ſhalbe crowned: and yf he be in trouble, that God [no doubt] ſhal deliuer him: and yf his lyfe be in chaſtenyng, that he ſhal haue leaue to comme vnto thy mercie.

22 For thou haſt no pleaſure in our ″ dampnation: And why? after a ſtorme, thou makeſt the weather faire and ſtil, after weeping and heauineſſe, thou geueſt great ioy.

″ Or, deſtructions.

23 Thy name, O God of Iſrael, be prayſed for euer.

24 At the ſame time, were both their prayers heard, in the ſight of the maieſtie of the higheſt God.

25 And Raphael the holy angel of the Lorde, was ſent to helpe them both, whoſe prayers ″ came at one time togeather before God.

″ Or, were recited at one time togeather.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 Preceptes and exhortations of Tobias to his ſonne.

A 1 SO when Tobias thought his prater to be heard, that he myght dye, he called vnto hym his ſonne Tobias,

2 And ſayde vnto hym, My ſonne, heare yͤ words of my mouth, and lay them in thyne hart as a fundation.

3 When God taketh away my ſoule, burie thou my body: and holde thy mother in honour, al the dayes of her lyfe.

4 For thou oughteſt to remember what, and howe great perils ſhe ſuffered for thee in her wombe.

5 And when ſhe alſo hath fulfilled the tyme of her lyfe, burie her ″ beſide me.

″ Or, about.

6 Haue God in thy thought, al the dayes of thy lyfe, and beware leſt at any tyme thou conſent vnto ſinne, and leſt thou let ſlippe the commaundementes of the Lorde our God.

7 Geue almes of thy goodes, and turne neuer thy face from the poore: & ſo ſhal it comme to paſſe, that the face of the Lorde ſhal not be turned away from thee.

8 Be merciful after thy power.

9 If thou haue muche, geue plenteouſly: yf B thou haſt litle, doo thy diligence gladly to geue of that litle:

10 For ſo geathereſt thou thee ſelfe a good rewarde in the day of neceſſitie.

11 For mercie deliuereth from al ſinne, & from death, and ſuffereth not the ſoule to comme into darkneſſe.

12 A great comfort is mercie before the hygh God, vnto al them that ſhewe it.

13 My ſonne, keepe thee wel from al whoredome: and beſide thy wyfe, ſuffer not thee ſelfe to knowe of ſinne.

14 Let neuer pride haue rule in thy minde, nor in thy woorde: for in pride beganne al deſtruction.

15 Whoſoeuer woorketh any thing for thee, C immediatly geue him his hire, and looke that thy hyred ſeruantes wages remaine not at al with thee.

16 Looke that thou neuer doo vnto another man, the thyng that thou wouldeſt not another man ſhoulde doo vnto thee.

17 Eate thy bread with the hungry and poore, and couer the naked with thy clothes.

18 Set thy bread and wine vpon the burial of the righteous, and doo not thou eate & drinke thereof with the ſinners.

D 19 Aſke euer counſel at the wyſe.

20 Be alway prayſing of GOD, and beſeeche hym, that he wyl " order thy wayes, and that whatſoeuer thou deuiſeſt, or takeſt in hande, it may remayne in him.

" Or, direct.

21 I certifie thee alſo my ſonne, that when thou waſt yet but a babe, I deliuered tenne talentes of ſiluer vnto Gabelus at Rages, a citie of the Medes, and his hand writing haue I by me.

22 And therefore, ſeeke ſomme meanes howe thou mayeſt comme by him, and receiue of hym the ſayde wayght of ſiluer, and geue hym his hande writing agayne.

23 My ſonne, be not afrayde: trueth it is, we leade here a poore lyfe, but great good ſhal we haue, yf we feare God, and depart from al ſinne, and doo wel.

The .v. Chapter.

2 Tobias is ſent to Rages. 5 He meeteth with the angel Raphael, whiche dyd conduct him.

A 1 Then anſweared Tobias his father, and ſayde, Father, al that thou haſt commaunded me wyl I doo, and that diligently.

2 But how I ſhal require this money, I can not tel, neither dooth he knowe me, nor I him: What token ſhal I geue him? And as for the way thyther, I neuer knewe it.

3 Then his father anſweared him, and ſayd, I haue his hande writing by me: whiche when thou ſheweſt him, immediatly he ſhal pay thee.

4 But goe thy way nowe, and geate thee ſomme faithful man to goe with thee for an hyre, that thou mayeſt receiue the money whyle I am yet liuing.

5 Then went Tobias out, & vpon the ſtreete he founde a faire young man ſtandyng, gyrded vp, and as it were one ready to take his iourney.

6 And he knewe not that it was an angel of God, but ſaluted him, & ſayde, From whence art thou, thou good young man?

7 He anſweared, Of the children of Iſrael. And Tobias ſaide vnto him, Knoweſt thou the way that leadeth vnto the countrey of the Medes?

B 8 He anſweared, I knowe it wel, and al thoſe " ſtreetes haue I gonne oft times, and haue lodged with our brother Gabelus, that dwelleth in Rages, a citie of the Medes, whiche lyeth vpon the mount Ecbatanis.

" Or, wayes.

9 Tobias ſaide vnto him, I pray thee tarrie for me, tille I haue tolde my father theſe thinges.

10 Then went Tobias in, and tolde his father al: At the whiche his father marueyled, and prayed that he woulde comme in vnto him.

11 Now when he came in, he ſaluted him, and ſaide, Ioy be with thee for euermore.

12 And olde Tobias ſaid, What ioy can I haue that ſit here in darkeneſſe, & ſee not the light of heauen?

13 The young man ſaide vnto him, Be of good cheare, God ſhal helpe thee ſhortly.

14 And Tobias ſayde vnto hym, Canſt thou bryng my ſonne to Gabelus, vnto the citie of Rages in Medea: and when thou commeſt agayne, I ſhal pay thee thy hyre? C

15 And the angel ſayde vnto hym, I ſhal leade thy ſonne, and bring him to thee agayne.

16 Then Tobias anſweared him, Telle me I pray thee, of what houſe, or of what tribe art thou?

17 The angel Raphael ſayde vnto him, Seekeſt thou after the kinred of an hyrelyng, or an hyred man him ſelfe, for thy ſonne to goe with hym?

18 But that I make thee not careful, I am Azarias the ſonne of great Hananias.

19 And Tobias anſweared, Thou art comme of a great kinred: but I pray thee be not diſpleaſed that I deſyre to knowe thy kinred.

20 The angel ſayde vnto hym, Thy ſonne ſhal I leade foorth ſafely, and bryng hym whole ſounde to thee agayne.

21 Then anſweared Tobias, and ſaide, Wel, goe on your way, and God be in your iourney, and his angel beare you company. D

22 So when they had prepared al thinges that they woulde take with them in their iourney, Tobias bade his father and his mother farewel: and they went on their way both togeather.

23 Nowe when they were gonne, his mother beganne to weepe, and ſaid, The ſtaffe of our age haſt thou taken away, & ſent hym from vs.

24 Would God that money had neuer bene, for the whiche thou haſt ſent him a way.

25 For our pouertie was ſufficient for vs, why we ſhoulde haue counted it richeſſe, that we ſawe our ſonne here.

26 Then ſayde Tobias vnto her, Weepe not, our ſonne ſhal goe ſafely, and comme to vs agayne ſounde, and thyne eyes ſhal ſee him.

27 For I truſt that the good angel of God ſhal beare him company, and order wel al the thinges that he dooth, ſo that he ſhal comme to vs agayne with ioy.

28 At theſe wordes his mother leaft of from weeping, and helde her peace.

The.vi.Chapter.

2 Tobias deliuered from the fiſhe. 8 Raphael ſheweth him certayne medicines.
19 He conducteth him towarde Sara.

A 1 SO Tobias went on his way, and a dogge folowed hym: and the fyrſt nyght they abode by the water of Tigris.

2 Then went he out to waſhe his feete, and beholde, there came foorth an horrible fiſhe to deuoure him.

3 Of whom Tobias was afrayde, and cryed with a loude voyce, ſayeing, Lorde, he commeth vpon me.

4 And the angel ſayd vnto hym, Take him by the gille, and drawe him to thee. And he dyd ſo, and drewe him vpon the lande: and the fiſhe beganne to leape at his feete.

5 Then ſayde the angel vnto hym, Take out the bowels of this fiſhe: and as for the hart, the gal, and the lyuer, keepe them by thee: for theſe thinges are neceſſarie and good for medicines.

6 Tobias dyd ſo, and roaſted the fleaſhe, and they tooke it with them in their iourney: the reſidue they ſalted, as muche as was ſufficient for them, tille they came to Rages a citie of the Medes.

7 Then Tobias aſked the angel, and ſayde vnto hym, I pray thee brother Azaria, telle me whereto are theſe thinges good of the fiſhe that thou haſt bidden me keepe.

B 8 The angel anſweared hym, and ſayde, If thou layeſt a peece of the hart vpon the coales, the ſmoke thereof driueth away al manner of euil ſpirites, whether it be from man or from woman, ſo that from henceforth, the ſame ſhal comme no more vnto them.

9 The gal is good to annoynt or to ſtrike the eyes withal, where as there is any blemiſhe in them, ſo that they ſhalbe whole.

10 And Tobias ſaide vnto him, Where wylt thou that we remaine? The angel anſweared, 11 And ſayde, Here is a nye kinſman of thyne, and of thy tribe, one Raguel by name, which hath a daughter called Sara, and hath neyther ſonne nor daughter but her.

12 Al his good belongeth vnto thee, and thou muſt marry her.

13 And therefore deſyre her of her father, and he ſhal geue her thee to wyfe.

14 Then anſweared Tobias, and ſayde, As I C vnderſtande, ſhe hath beene married vnto ſeuen huſbandes, and they al are dead: and I haue hearde ſay, that the deuil ſlue them.

15 I am afrayde therefore, leſt ſuche thinges happen vnto me alſo: whiche yf it came to paſſe, ſeeing I am the only ſonne of my father and my mother, I ſhoulde bryng them in their age with ſorowe to their graues.

16 Then ſayde the angel Raphael vnto hym, Heare me, and I wyl telle thee what they be, of whom the deuil hath power.

17 Namely, they that receiue mariage after ſuche a faſhion, that they ſhut God out from them and from their hart, & geue them ſelues to their owne luſt, euen as it were an horſe and Mule, whiche haue no vnderſtandyng: vpon ſuche hath the deuil power.

18 But when thou takeſt her, and art comme in to the chamber, withholde thee ſelfe from her three dayes, and geue thy diligence vnto nothyng, but vnto prayer with her.

19 And in the firſt nyght, roſte the lyuer of the fiſhe, and the deuil ſhalbe driuen away.

20 The ſeconde nyght ſhalt thou be receiued into the companie of the holy patriarches.

21 The thirde nyght ſhalt thou obteyne the D bleſſing of GOD, ſo that ″ whole children ſhalbe borne of you.

″ Or, ſounde.

22 After the thirde night, take the mayden in the feare of God, and more for the deſyre of chyldren, then for any fleaſhely luſt, that in the ſeede of Abraham, thou mayeſt obteyne the bleſſing in chyldren.

The .vii. Chapter.

Tobias maryeth Sara, Raguels daughter.

A 1 Then went they in to Raguel, which receiued them ioyfully.

2 And when Raguel looked vpon Tobias, he sayd vnto Anna his wife, How lyke is this young man vnto my ſiſters ſonne?

3 And when he had ſpoken this, he ſayde, Whence be ye, ye young menne and our brethren? They ſayde, Of the tribe of Nepthali, out of the captiuitie of Niniue.

4 Then ſayde Raguel vnto them, Knowe ye my brother Tobias? They ſaide, Yea, we knowe him wel.

5 And when he had ſpoken muche good of him, the angel ſayde vnto Raguel, Tobias of whom thou aſkeſt, is this young mans father.

6 Then Raguel bowed him ſelfe downe, and wept, and tooke him about the necke, and kiſſed him,

7 And ſayde, Gods bleſſing haue thou my ſonne, for thou art the ſonne of a good vertuous man.

B 8 And Anna his wyfe, and Sara his daughter wept alſo.

9 Nowe when they had talked togeather, Raguel bade kille a weather, and to make a feaſt: And when he had exhorted them to ſit downe to dinner,

10 Tobias ſayde, I wyl neither eate nor drinke here this day, except thou firſt graunt me my petition, and promiſe me to geue me thy daughter Sara.

11 When Raguel hearde this, he was aſtonied, for he knewe what had happened vnto the other ſeuen menne that went in vnto her: & he beganne to feare that it ſhoulde chaunce vnto him alſo in like manner. And whyle he ſtoode ſo in doubt, and gaue the young man no anſweare, 12 The angel ſaide vnto him, Feare not to geue him thy daughter, for vnto this man that feareth God, belongeth thy daughter to wyfe: therefore myght none other haue her.

13 Then ſayde Raguel, I doubt not but God hath accepted my prayers and teares in his ſyght:

14 And I beleeue he cauſed you to comme vnto me for the ſame intent, that this daughter of myne, myght be maryed in her owne kinred, * accordyng to the lawe of Moſes: And nowe doubt thou not but I wyl geue her vnto thee. C

Num.36.c

15 So he tooke the ryght hande of his daughter, and gaue her into the ryght hande of Tobias, and ſayde, The God of Abraham, the God of Iſahac, and the God of Iacob be with you, ioyne you togeather, and fulfil his bleſſing in you.

16 And they tooke a letter, and made a writing of the maryage.

17 And then made they meery, and prayſed God.

18 And Raguel called Anna his wyfe vnto him, and bade her prepare another chamber.

19 And thyther he brought Sara his daughter, and ſhe wept.

20 Then ſaide he vnto her, Be of good cheare my daughter: the Lorde of heauen geue thee ioy, for the heauineſſe that thou haſt ſuffered. D

The .viii. Chapter.

2 Tobias driueth away the euyl ſpirite. 4 He prayeth to God with his wyſe. 11 Raguel prepareth a graue for his ſonne in lawe. 16 Raguel bleſſeth the Lorde.

A 1 Nowe after that they had ſupped, they brought the young man in to her.

2 Then thought Tobias vpon the woordes of the angel, and tooke out of his bagge a peece of the liuer of the fiſhe, and layed it vpon the hotte coales.

3 So the angel Raphael tooke holde of the deuil, and ſent hym away, and bounde hym in the wyldérneſſe of the hygher Egypt.

4 Then ſpake Tobias vnto the virgin, and ſayde, Vp Sara, let vs make our prayer vnto God to day, to morowe, and " ouermorowe: For theſe three nyghtes wyl we " reconcile our ſelues with God, and when the thirde holy nyght is paſt, we ſhal ioyne togeather in the duetie of mariage.

" Or, the thirde day.
" Or, ioyne our ſelues to God.

5 For we are the chyldren of holy menne, and we may not comme togeather as the heathen that knowe not God.

6 Then ſtoode they vp both togeather, and beſought GOD earneſtly " that he woulde preſerue them.

" Or, that health myght be geuen them

7 And Tobias ſayd, O Lorde God of our fathers, prayſed be thou of heauen and earth, of the ſea, welles, and fluddes, and of al thy creatures that be therein.

8 Thou madeſt Adam of the * moulde of the earth, and gaueſt him Eua for an helper. B

Gen.2.

9 And nowe Lorde, thou knowest that it is not becauſe of voluptuouſneſſe that I take this ſiſter of myne to wyfe, but only for the loue of chyldren, in whom thy name may be bleſſed for euer.

10 And Sara ſayde, haue mercie vpon vs, O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs, and let vs both comme whole and ſounde togeather to a good age.

11 And about the cocke crowing, it came to paſſe, that Raguel called his ſeruantes:

12 And they went with him to make a graue.

13 For he ſayde, It is chaunced nowe vnto hym peraduenture, as it dyd vnto the other ſeuen menne that went in vnto her.

C 14 Now when they had made the graue, Raguel came agayne to his wyfe, & ſayde vnto her, Send one of thy maydens to looke yf he be dead, that I may bury him afore it be light day.

15 So ſhe ſent a mayden to ſee: whiche when ſhe came into ẏ chamber, found them whole and ſounde, ſleeping togeather.

16 And ſo ſhe came agayne, and brought good tydinges: Then Raguel and Anna his wife prayſed the Lorde, 17 And ſayde, Prayſed be thou, O Lorde God of Iſrael, that it is not happened vnto vs, as we thought.

18 For thou haſt dealt mercifully with vs, and put away from vs, the enimie that perſecute vs,

19 And haſt ſhewed mercie vnto yonder two, the only borne chyldren of their parentes: O Lord, cauſe them to magnifie thee more perfectly, and to offer the ſacrifice of thy prayſe, & of their health: that al people may knowe, that thou only art God in al the earth.

20 And immediatly Raguel commaunded his ſeruantes to fille the graue that they had made, with earth, afore it was lyght,

21 And bade his wyfe prepare a feaſte, and to make ready al thinges that were neceſſarie D for meate, to ſuche as went by the way.

22 He cauſed two fat kine alſo, and foure weathers, to be ſlaine, and meates to be prepared for al his neyghbours and freendes.

23 And Raguel charged Tobias to remayne with him two weekes.

24 As for al the good that he had, he gaue Tobias the halfe of it, and made this writing, that the halfe whiche remayned, ſhould falle vnto Tobias after their death.

The .ix. Chapter.

The angel goeth to Gabelus, at the deſyre of Tobias, whiche deliuereth the letter, and receiueth the money.

A 1 THen Tobias called vnto him the angel, whom he thought to haue benne a man, and ſaid vnto him, Brother Azarias, I pray thee hearken vnto my woordes,

2 If I ſhoulde geue mee ſelfe to be thy ſeruant, I ſhal not deſerue thy prouidence.

3 Neuertheleſſe, I beſeeche thee that thou wilt take the beaſtes and the ſeruantes, and goe vnto Gabelus in Rages the citie of the Medes, and deliuer him his hande writing, and receiue the money of him, and pray hym to comme to my mariage.

4 For thou knoweſt thee ſelfe, that my father dooth number the dayes: and yf I tarrie one day to long, he wyl be ſory in his minde.

5 Now ſeeſt thou how earneſtly Raguel hath required me, ſo that I can not ſay hym nay.

6 Then tooke Raphael foure of Raguels ſeruantes, and two Cammels, and went vnto Rages the citie of the Medes: And when he had founde Gabelus, he gaue him his hande writing, and receiued al the money.

7 He tolde him alſo of Tobias, the ſonne of Tobi, how al thinges had happened: & cauſed him to comme with him to the mariage.

8 Nowe when he came into the houſe of Raguel, he founde Tobias ſitting at the table: B and he leaped vp, & they kiſſed one another, and Gabelus wept, and prayſed God,

9 And ſayd, The bleſſing of the God of Iſrael haue thou, for thou art the ſonne of a ryght vertuous and iuſt man, and of one that feareth God, and geueth great almes:

10 And bleſſing haue thy wyfe, & your elders,

11 That ye may ſee your children, & your chyldrens children, vnto the thirde & fourth generation: and your ſeede be bleſſed of the God of Iſrael, which raigneth world without end.

12 And when they al had ſayde, Amen, they went to the feaſte: but with the feare of the Lorde helde they the feaſt of the mariage.

The .x. Chapter.

1 Tobias and his wyfe thinke long for their ſonne. 10 Raguel ſendeth away Tobias & Sara.

A 1 NOwe whyle young Tobias made long taryng, by reaſon of ẏ mariage, his father was ful of care and heauineſſe, ſaying, Canſt thou thinke what ſhould be the cauſe that my ſonne taryeth ſo long? or why he ſhould be kept ſo long there?

2 Thinkeſt thou Gabelus is dead, and no man wyl geue him the money?

3 Thus beganne he to be very ſorowful, he and Anna his wyfe with him: and beganne to weepe both togeather, becauſe their ſonne was not comme agayne vnto them at the day appoynted.

4 As for his mother, ſhe wept with diſcomfortable teares, and ſaid, Wo is me my ſonne. Oh what ayled vs to ſende thee away into a ſtrange countrey, thou lyght of our eyes, thou ſtaffe of our age, thou comfort of our life, thou hope of our generation:

5 Seeing al the thinges that we haue are only in thee, we ſhould not haue ſent thee away from vs.

6 Then Tobias [comforted her, and] ſayde, Holde thy peace, and be not diſcomforted, our ſonne is whole and ſounde: the man that we ſent him withal, is faythful yenough.

7 Neuertheleſſe, ſhe myght in no wyſe be comforted: but daily went out, looked about, and went about al the ſtreetes, whereby ſhe thought he ſhoulde comme agayne: that yf it were poſſible, ſhe might ſee hym comming a farre of.

B 8 But Raguel ſayde vnto his ſonne in lawe, O tarry here, and I ſhal ſende a meſſenger vnto thy father Tobias, to telle him that thou art in good health.

9 Tobias ſayde vnto hym, I am ſure that my father and my mother count euery day, and that their hartes are ſory.

10 So when Raguel hadde prayed Tobias with many woordes, and he woulde in no wyſe heare hym, he deliuered Sara vnto hym, and the halfe part of al his good, in ſeruantes and handmaydens, in ſheepe, in cammelles, & in kine, and muche money: and ſo ſent him away from him with health & ioy,

11 And ſayde, The holy angel of the Lorde be with you in your iourney, and bryng you foorth ſafe and ſounde, that ye may finde al thinges in good caſe with your elders, and that myne eyes may ſee your chyldren afore I dye.

12 So the elders embraced their daughter, kiſſed her, and let her goe:

13 Exhorting her to honour her father and mother in lawe, to loue her huſband, to rule wel C her houſholde, to keepe her houſe in good order, and to ſhewe her ſelfe faultleſſe.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 The returne of Tobias to his father. 11 Howe he was receiued. 15 His father hath his ſyght reſtoared, and prayſeth the Lorde.

A 1 AS they nowe were going homewarde agayne, vpon the eleuenth day they came to Charran, whiche lyeth in the halfe way towarde Niniue.

2 And the angel ſaid, Brother Tobias, thou knoweſt howe thou haſt leaft thy father:

3 Therefore, yf it pleaſe thee, we two wyl goe before, and let the houſholde with thy wyfe and the cattel comme faire & ſoftly after vs.

4 And when Tobias was content that they ſhoulde goe before, Raphael ſayde vnto him, Take of the gal of the fiſhe with thee, for it ſhalbe neceſſary. So Tobias tooke of the gal, and they went their way.

5 But Anna the mother of Tobias ſate dayly by the way ſide vpon the toppe of an hil, from whence ſhe myght ſee farre about her.

6 And whyle ſhe was wayting there for his comming, ſhe looked a farre of, and anone ſhe perceiued her ſonne comming, and ranne and tolde her huſbande, ſayeing, Behold, thy ſonne commeth.

7 And Raphael ſayd vnto Tobias, As ſoone as thou commeſt into the houſe, immediatly woorſhip the Lord thy God, & geue thankes vnto hym; then goe to thy father, and kyſſe hym,

B 8 And ſtraight wayes ſtrike his eyes ouer with ẏͤ gal of the fiſhe that thou haſt brought with thee: For be ſure that his eyes ſhal ſtrayght way be opened, and thy father ſhal ſee the lyght of heauen, and ſhal reioyce at the ſyght of thee.

9 Then the dogge that had benne with them in their iourney, ranne before, and came as a meſſenger, & wagged his taile for gladneſſe.

10 So the blinde father aroſe, and beganne to runne, and ſtumbled with his feete: and gaue a ſeruant his hande, and ranne to meete his ſonne,

11 Receiued him, and kiſſed him, he and his wyfe, & they both beganne to weepe for ioy.

12 Nowe when they hadde woorſhipped and thanked God, they ſate downe.

13 Then tooke Tobias of the fiſhes gal, and annoynted his fathers eyes:

C 14 And taryed halfe an houre, & then beganne the blemiſhe to goe out of his eyes, lyke as it had benne the white ſkinne of an egge:

15 Whiche Tobias tooke, and drewe from his eyes, and immediatly he receiued his ſyght.

16 Then they prayſed God, he and his wyfe, and al they that knewe him.

17 And Tobias ſayde, O Lorde God of Iſrael, I geue thee prayſe and thankes, for thou haſt chaſtened me, and made me whole: And loe, nowe doo I ſee my ſonne Tobias.

18 After ſeuen dayes came Sara his ſonnes wife alſo whole and ſound, with al the houſholde and cattayle, with cammels, & much money of his wyues, and with the money that he had receiued of Gabelus.

19 And he told his father and his mother al the benefites whiche God had donne for him by the man that led hym.

20 Achior alſo, and Nabath Tobias ſyſters ſonnes came, and were gladde, and reioyced with hym, by reaſon of al the good thynges that God had ſhewed vnto hym: And ſo for the ſpace of ſeuen dayes they made mery, and were ryght ioyful euery one.

The.xii. Chapter.

2 Tobias declareth to his father the pleaſures that Raguel had donne hym. 5 the whiche he woulde recompence. 11 Raphael declareth that he is an angel ſent of God.

A 1 THEN Tobias called his ſonne vnto hym, and ſaid, What may we geue this holy mā, that went with thee?

2 Tobias anſweared his father, and ſayde, Father, what rewarde ſhal we geue hym? Or what thyng can deſerue his benefites?

3 He hath benne my guyde, and brought me ſafe againe: He receiued the money from Gabelus, he cauſed me to geat my wife, he droue the euyl ſpirite from her, he hath benne an occaſion of gladneſſe to her father and mother, he deliuered me that I was not deuoured of the fiſhe, he hath made thee to ſee the lyght of heauen: yea, we al haue receiued great good of hym.

4 Howe ſhoulde we woorthyly deſerue theſe thynges vnto hym? But I pray thee my father that thou wylt deſyre hym, if happyly he wyl vouchſafe to take with hym, the halfe of al that we haue brought.

5 So the father & the ſonne called hym, tooke hym aſyde, and began to praye hym that he would be content to take in good worth, the halfe part of al that they had brought.

6 Then ſayde he ſecretely vnto them, Prayſe ye the God of heauen, and geue thankes vnto hym before al menne lyuing: for he hath ſhewed his mercy vnto you.

B 7 It is good to hyde the kynges ſecret: but to ſhewe and to prayſe the woorkes of God, it is an honorable thyng.

8 Prayer is good with faſtyng, and mercy is better then to hoorde vp treaſures of golde.

9 For mercy deliuereth from death, cleanſeth ſinne, and cauſeth to fynde mercy, and lyfe euerlaſtyng.

10 But they that doo ſinne, and vnryghteouſneſſe, are the enimies of theyr owne ſoule.

11 Wherfore I tel you the trueth, and wyl hide no ſecret ſayeing from you.

12 When thou prayedſt with teares, and buryedſt the dead, and leafteſt thy dinner, and hiddeſt the dead in thyne houſe vpon the day tyme, that thou mighteſt burye them in the nyght, I offered thy prayer before the Lorde.

13 And becauſe thou waſt accepte and beloued of GOD, it was neceſſary that temptation ſhoulde trye thee.

14 And nowe hath the Lorde ſent me to heale C thee, and to deliuer Sara thy ſonnes wyfe from the euyl ſpirite.

15 For I am Raphael an angel, one of the ſeuen that ſtande before the Lorde.

16 When they hearde this, they were ſoare afrayde, and trembled, and felle downe vpon theyr faces vnto the grounde.

17 Then ſayde the angel, Peace be with you, feare not.

18 For where as I haue benne with you, it is the wyl of God: geue prayſe and thankes vnto hym.

19 You thought that I dyd eate and drynke with you, but I vſe meate that is inuiſible, and drynke that can not be ſeene of menne.

Gen. 18. a. Iudi. 13 c.

20 Nowe therefore is the tyme that I muſt turne agayne vnto hym that ſent me: but be ye thankful vnto God, & tel out al his woonderous woorkes.

21 And when he had ſpoken thoſe woordes, he was taken away out of theyr ſyght, ſo that they coulde ſee hym no more.

22 Then fel they downe flat vpon theyr faces, by the ſpace of three houres, and praiſed God: & when they roſe vp, they tolde al his woonderous woorkes.

The.xiii. Chapter.

A thankeſgeuing of Tobias, who exhorteth al to prayſe the Lorde.

A 1 THen olde Tobias opened his mouth and prayſed the Lorde, and ſayde, Great art thou O Lorde for euermore, and thy kyngdome worlde without ende.

2 For thou ſcourgeſt and healeſt, thou leadeſt vnto hel, and bryngeſt out agayne: and there is none that may eſcape thyne hande.

3 O geue thankes vnto the Lord, ye children of Iſrael, and prayſe hym in the ſyght of the heathen;

4 For among the heathen whiche know him not, he hath ſcattered you, to the intent that ye ſhoulde ſhewe foorth his marueylous woorkes, and cauſe them for to knowe that there is none other God almyghty but he.

5 He hath chaſtened vs for our miſdeedes, and for his owne mercy ſake ſhal he ſaue vs.

6 Conſyder then howe he hath dealt with you, and prayſe hym with feare and dread: and magnifie the euerlaſtyng kyng in your woorkes.

B 7 I wyl prayſe hym euen in the lande of my captiuitie: for he hath ſhewed his maieſtie vnto a ſinful people.

8 Turne you therefore, O ye ſinners, and doo ryghteouſneſſe before God, & be ye ſure that he wyl ſhewe his mercy vpon you.

9 As for me and my ſoule, we wyl reioyce in God.

10 O prayſe the Lorde al ye his choſen: holde the dayes of gladneſſe, and be thankful vnto hym.

11 O Hieruſalem thou citie of God, the Lorde hath pouniſhed thee for the woorkes of thine owne handes.

12 O prayſe the Lorde in thy good thynges, and geue thankes to the euerlaſtyng God, that he may buylde vp his tabernacle againe in thee, that he may cal agayne vnto thee al ſuche as be in captiuitie, and that thou mayeſt haue ioy for euermore.

13 With a fayre lyght ſhalt thou ſhyne, and al the endes of the worlde ſhal honour thee.

C 14 The people ſhal comme vnto thee from farre, they ſhal bryng gyftes, and woorſhyp the Lorde in thee, & thy land ſhal they haue for a ſanctuary: for they ſhal cal vpon the great name in thee.

15 Curſed ſhal they be that deſpiſe thee, and al that blaſpheme thee ſhalbe condempned: but bleſſed ſhal they be that buylde thee vp.

16 As for thee thou ſhalt reioyce in thy chyldren: for they al ſhalbe bleſſed, and geathered togeather vnto the Lorde.

17 Bleſſed are al they that loue thee, and that be glad of thy peace.

18 Prayſe thou the Lorde, O my ſoule: for the Lorde our God hath deliuered his citie Hieruſalem from al her troubles.

19 I wyl count mee ſelfe happy, if my ſeede remayne to ſee the cleerenes of Hieruſalem.

D 20 The gates of Hieruſalem ſhalbe buylded with Saphir and Smaragde, and al the compaſſe of her walles with precious ſtones.

21 Al her ſtreates ſhalbe paued with white and fayre ſtone, and in al ſtreates ſhal Halleluia be ſong.

22 Prayſed be the Lorde whiche hath exalted her, that his kyngdome may be vpon her for euermore, Amen.

The.xiiii. Chapter.

5 Leſſons of Tobias to his ſonne. 6 He prophecieth the deſtruction of Niniue. 7 And the reſtoaring of Hieruſalem and the temple. 13 The death of Tobias and his wyfe. 16 Tobias the younger, his age and death.

A 1 AND ſo Tobias made an ende of ſpeakyng: And after that Tobias had gotten his ſyght agayne, he liued fourty & two yeeres, and ſawe his childers children.

2 Nowe when he was an hundred and two yeeres olde [he dyed, and] was buryed honorably in Niniue.

3 For when he was ſyxe and fyftie yeeres of age, he loſt the ſyght of his eyes: and when he was threeſcore yeeres olde, he gate his ſyght agayne.

4 The reſidue of his lyfe led he in ioy, and increaſed wel in the feare of God, and departed in peace.

5 But in the houre of his death, he called vnto hym his ſonne Tobias, and ſeuen young " ſpryngaldes his ſonnes chyldren, and ſaid vnto them,

" Or, young ympes.

6 The deſtruction of Niniue is at hande, (for the woorde of the Lorde can not fayle) and our brethren that are ſcattered out of the land of Iſrael ſhal comme thyther agayne.

B 7 And the whole lande of it that hath benne waſte, ſhalbe fylled, and the houſe of GOD that was brent in it, ſhalbe buylded agayne: & al ſuche as feare God, ſhal returne thyther,

8 The heathen then alſo ſhal forſake theyr idols, and come to Hieruſalem, & dwel there:

9 And al the kynges of the earth ſhalbe glad in her, & woorſhip the Lorde God of Iſrael.

10 And therefore my chyldren, heare your father, ſerue the Lorde in the trueth, ſeeke after his wyl, to doo the thyng that pleaſeth hym:

11 Commaunde your chyldren that they doo ryght, geue almes, be myndeful of God, and euer to be thankful vnto hym in trueth, and with al theyr power.

12 Heare me nowe therefore my chyldren, and abyde not here: but in what day ſo euer ye haue buried your mother by me in one ſepulchre, geat you from hence.

13 For I ſee that the wickedneſſe of it ſhal bryng it to [deſtruction and] ende.

C 14 After the death of his mother, Tobias departed away from Niniue, with his wyfe, and chyldren, and with his chylders children, and came againe to his father and mother in lawe,

15 And founde them whole and in a good age, and tooke the care of them: and he cloſed their eyes, & was heyre vnto al Raguels goodes, and ſaw the fyft generation, and his chylders chyldren.

16 And nynetie and nyne yeeres beyng ended in the feare of God, they buryed hym with ioy.

17 And al his kynred and poſteritie continued in a good lyfe and holy conuerſation: So that they were loued and accepted both of God and menne, and of al the people of the lande.

The ende of the booke of Tobias.

The booke of Iudith.

The firſt Chapter.

2 The buyldyng of Ecbatanis. 5 Nabuchodonoſor made warre agaynſt Arphacad, and ouercame hym. 12 He threateneth them that woulde not helpe hym.

A 1 ARphacad the kyng of yͤ Medes ſubdued manye people vnto his dominiō, & buylded a noble ſtrong citie, whiche he called Ecbatanis.

2 The walles of it made he of free ſtone foure ſquare, ſeuentie cubites hye, and thyrtie cubites brode: He made towres therupon, an hundred cubites hygh.

3 But along the foure corners, euerye ſyde was twentie foote brode: he made the portes in the heyght, lyke as the towres.

4 [This kyng] truſted in his myghty hoſt, and in his glorious charrettes.

5 So in the twelfth yeere of his raigne, it happened that Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of the Aſſyrians whiche raigned in the great citie of Niniue, fought agaynſt Arphacad:

6 And ouercame him in the great fielde called Ragau beſyde Euphrates, and Tigris, and Jadaſon, in the fielde of Erioth the king of the Elikes.

7 Then was the kyngdome of Nabuchodonoſor exalted, and his harte was lyft vp: and he ſent vnto al them that dwelt in Cilicia, in Damaſcus, and Libanus: B

8 And vnto the heathen that dwelt in Carmel, and Cedar, and to ſuche as dwelt in Galilee, in the great fielde of Eſdrelon:

9 To al them that dwelt in Samaria, and beyonde the water of Jordane, vnto Hieruſalem, and the whole lande of Jeſſe, vnto the borders of Ethiopia:

10 Unto al theſe, dyd Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of the Aſſyrians, ſende meſſengers.

11 But they al with one conſent woulde not agree vnto hym, and ſent the meſſengers agayne emptie, and put them away without honour.

12 Then Nabuchodonoſor the king tooke indignation at al thoſe landes, and ſware by his throne and by his kyngdome, that he would be auenged of al thoſe countreyes.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 Nabuchodonoſor cōmaunded preſumptuouſly that al people ſhould be brought in ſubiection. 7 and to deſtroy thoſe that diſobeyed hym. 8 The preparation of Holophernes armie. 12 The conqueſt of his enimies.

A 1 IN the thirtienth yeere of kyng Nabuchodonoſor, vpon the twentie & two day of the fyrſt moneth, it was deuiſed in the courte of Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of yͤ Aſſyrians, that he woulde reuenge hym ſelfe.

2 So he called vnto hym al the elders, al his captaynes, and menne of warre, and ſhewed them his ſecrete counſel,

3 And tolde them that his purpoſe was to bryng the whole earth vnder his dominion.

4 Now when they were al content with this ſayeing, Nabuchodonoſor the kyng called Holophernes yͤ chiefe captaine of his warres,

5 And ſayde vnto hym, Goe thy way foorth agaynſt al the kyngdomes of the Weaſt, and ſpecially againſt thoſe that haue deſpiſed my commaundement.

6 Thou ſhalt ſpare no realme, al ſtrong cities ſhalt thou bryng in ſubiection vnto me.

B 7 Then Holophernes called togeather al the captaynes and rulers of al the power in Aſſyria, and muſtred the ſouldiers vnto the hoſt, like as the king commaunded him [namely] an hundred and twentie thouſande fightyng menne vpon foote, and twelue thouſande archers vpon horſebacke.

8 Al his ordinance ſent he before, with an innumerable multitude of Cammels, ſo that the hoſt was wel prouided for, with Oxen and ſmal cattel, & that without number.

9 He appoynted to prepare corne out of al Syria in his paſſage.

10 Muche golde and ſyluer alſo tooke he out of the kynges houſe.

11 So he tooke his iourney & al his hoſt, with charrettes, horſmenne, and archers: of whom there were ſo manye, that they couered the grounde of the lande lyke the graſhoppers.

12 And when he was gonne paſt the borders of the Aſſyrians, he caine towarde the great mountaynes of Ange, whiche lye vpon the leaft ſyde of Cilicia : and ſo he went vp into al theyr caſtels, & wonne euery ſtrong holde.

13 As for the wealthy citie of Melothus, he brake it downe, and ſpoyled al the chyldren of Tharſis, and the Iſmaelites, whiche laye toward the wylderneſſe, and vpon the ſouth ſyde of the lande of Chellon.

14 He went ouer Euphrates alſo, and came into Meſopotamia, and brake downe al the hygh cities that were there, from the brooke of Mambre, tyl a man comme to the ſea: C

15 And he tooke the borders in from Cilicia, vnto the coſtes of Iaphet, towarde the ſouth.

16 He carried away al the Madianites, & ſpoyled al theyr goodes, and whoſoeuer withſtoode hym, he ſlewe them with the ſworde.

17 After this, he went downe into the field of Damaſcus, in the tyme of harueſt, & burnt vp al the corne, and al the trees and vines he cauſed to be cut downe:

18 And the feare of him felle vpon al them that dwelt on the earth.

The,iii.Chapter.

1 The people ſubiect to Holophernes. 12 He deſtroyed theyr goddes, that Nabuchodonoſor myght only be woorſhypped.

A 1 SO the kinges and princes of al the cities and landes, ſent their Embaſſadours, namely, they of Syria & Meſopotamia, Syria Sobal, and Lybia, and Cilicia, whiche came to Holophernes, and ſayde.

2 Let thy wrath ceaſſe towarde vs: It is better for vs to ſerue the great king Nabuchodonoſor with our lyues, and to be ſubiect vnto thee, then that we ſhould dye, and with our ſlaughter ſuffer the euyls of our bondage.

3 Al our cities and poſſeſſions, al mountaines and hilles, al fieldes, great and ſmalle cattel, ſheepe, goates, horſes, and cammelles, al our goodes and houſholdes be in thy power.

4 Vnder thy ſubiection be al that we haue.

5 We our ſelues and alſo our chyldren wyl be thy ſeruantes.

6 Comme vnto vs peaceablie, lorde, and vſe our ſeruice at thy pleaſure.

B 7 Then came Holophernes downe from the mountaynes, with horſemenne, and great power, and conquered al ſtrong fenced cities, and al that dwelt in the lande.

8 And out of al cities he tooke ſtrong menne, and ſuche as were meete for the warre [to helpe hym.]

9 And there came ſuche a feare vpon thoſe countreys, that the indwellers of al the cities, the princes and rulers, and the people togeather, went foorth to meete hym as he came:

10 And receiued him [honorably] with garlandes and torches, with daunces, tabrettes, and pypes.

11 Neuertheleſſe, though they dyd this, yet might they not ſwage his rigorous ſtomacke.

12 But he deſtroyed theyr cities, and hewed downe theyr woodes.

13 For Nabuchodonoſor the kyng had commaunded hym that he ſhoulde roote out al the goddes of the " lande, to the intent that he onely myght be called [and taken] for god of the nations, whiche Holophernes with his power myght bryng vnder hym.

" Or, earth.

14 So went he through Syria Sobal, and through al Appamea, and al Meſopotamia, and came to the Idumeans in the lande of Gabaa, C

15 And tooke theyr cities, and remayned there thyrtie dayes, in which ſpace he cauſed al the whole multitude of his hoſt to be geathered togeather.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 The Iſraelites were afrayde, and defended theyr countrey. 5 Eliacim the prieſt wryteth to Bethulia, that they ſhoulde fortifie them ſelues. 8 They cryed to the Lorde, and humbled them ſelues before hym.

1 When the chyldren of Iſrael that dwelt in Iurie heard this, they were ſoare afrayde of hym.

2 There came ſuch tremblyng alſo and feare vpon them, leſt he ſhoulde doo vnto the citie of Hieruſalem and the temple of the Lorde, as he had donne to other cities and theyr temples.

3 So they ſent into al Samaria round about vnto Iericho, [tooke in] and occupyed al the toppes of the mountaynes:

4 And made faſt the townes with walles, & prepared corne for them agaynſt the batayle.

5 Eliacim alſo the prieſt wrote vnto al them that dwelt toward Eſorelon, whiche lyeth ouer agaynſt the great fielde by Dotham, and vnto al thoſe by whom menne might haue paſſage vnto them,

6 That they ſhoulde take in the wayes of the mountaynes, whereby there myght be anye way and paſſage to Hieruſalem, and that they ſhould hold diligent watche where any ſtrayte was betwixt the mountaynes.

B 7 And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd as Eliacim the prieſt of the Lord had cõmaunded them.

8 And al the people cryed vnto the Lorde earneſtly, and humbled theyr ſoules with faſtyng and prayers, they and theyr wyues:

9 The prieſtes put on heary clothes, and layed the young babes before the temple of the Lorde, and couered the aulter of the Lorde with an heary cloth:

10 And with one accorde they cryed vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael, that theyr chyldren ſhoulde not be geuen into a praye, and theyr wyues into a ſpoyle, that theyr cities ſhould not be layde waſte, and that theyr " ſanctuary ſhould not be vnhalowed, and ſo they to be a ſhame and rebuke vnto the heathen.

" Or, holy thynges.

11 Then Eliacim the high prieſt of the Lorde went round about al Iſrael, and ſpake vnto them,

12 Sayeing, Be ye ſure that the Lorde wyl heare your petitions, if ye continue ſtedfaſt in faſtynges and prayers in the ſyght of the Lorde.

13 Remember Moſes the ſeruant of the Lorde, whiche ouerthrewe the Amalechites that truſted in theyr myght and power, in theyr hoſt, in theyr ſhieldes, in theyr charrettes and horſemenne, not with weapons, but with holy prayers.

14 Euen ſo ſhal al the enimies of Iſrael be, if C ye continue in this worke that ye haue begunne.

15 So vpon this exhortation they continued in prayer before the Lorde:

16 In ſo muche, that they whiche offered burnt ſacrifices vnto the Lord, offered the offerings vnto the Lorde, beyng arayed in heary clothes, and had aſhes vpon theyr heades.

17 And thei al beſought God from theyr whole hart, that he woulde viſite his people of Iſrael.

The.v.Chapter.

1 Achior the Ammonite dooth declare to Holophernes of the manner of the Iſraelites.

A 1 And woord came to Holophernes the prince of the warre of the Aſſyrians, that the chyldren of Iſrael prepared them ſelues to make reſiſtance, and how they had ſtopped yͤ waies betwixte the mountaynes.

2 Then was he exceedyng wroth, and called al the princes of Moab, and the captaynes of Ammon,

3 And ſayde vnto them, Tel me what people is this that keepeth in the mountaynes? Or what manner and howe great cities theyrs are? What is theyr power? Or what manner of hoſt haue they? who is theyr captaine?

4 And why doo they deſpiſe vs more then al thoſe that dwel in the Eaſt, and comme not foorth to meete vs, that they myght receiue vs with peace?

5 Then Achior the captayne of the Ammonites, anſweared, and ſayde, Syr, if it pleaſe thee to heare, I wyl tel the trueth before thee, concernyng this people that dwelle in the mountaynes, and there ſhal no vntrueth goe out of my mouth.

6 This people is of the generatiõ of the Chaldees:

7 They dwelte fyrſte in Meſopotamia, for B they woulde not folowe the goddes of theyr fathers that were in the lande of the Chaldees,

8 And ſo forſooke they yͤ cuſtome of theyr forefathers, whiche had many gods, & worſhypped one God that made heauen and earth :* Gen,12.a. whiche alſo commaunded them that they ſhoulde goe from thence, & dwel at Charan.

9 Nowe when there came a dearth into the whole land, they went downe to Egypt, and there they dwelt * foure hundred yeres, in the whiche they multiplyed greatly, that theyr hoſt myght not be numbred. Gen.15.c. Actes.7.a. Exo.12.f. Gala.3,c.

10 And when the kyng of Egypt oppreſſed them, and yoked them in buyldyng of his cities, with makyng of clay and brycke, they cryed vnto God theyr Lorde, whiche pouniſhed the whole lande of Egypt with diuers plagues.

11 And when the Egyptians had caſte them out, and the plague ceaſſed from them, and they folowyng after them to take them, and to bryng them agayne into theyr bondage:

12 Whyle they were fleeing away, the God of heauen opened the ſea, ſo that yͤ waters ſtood faſt vpon both the ſides as a walle, and theſe went through the botome of the ſea dry ſhod.

13 In the whiche place, when an innumerable people of the Egyptians folowed vpō them, they were ſo ouerwhelmed with the waters, that there remayned not one to tel them that came after howe it happened.

¶ 14 So when this people was paſſed through the red ſea, they came into the wylderneſſe of mount Sina, where neuer man might dwel afore, and where the ſonne of man had neuer reaſted.

15 There were the bitter waters made ſweete for them, that they might drynke, and fourtie yeeres had they meate from heauen.

16 Whereſoeuer they went, without bowe and arrowe, without buckler or ſworde, theyr God fought for them, and cauſed them to haue the victorie.

17 Yea, no man was able to hurte this people, except it were when they departed vnfaythfully from the woorſhyppyng of the Lorde theyr God.

18 But as ofte as they woorſhypped any other beſyde theyr God, he gaue them ouer to be ſpoyled, to be ſlayne, & to be put to confuſion.

19 Neuertheleſſe, as ofte as they were ſorye for theyr departyng from the woorſhyp of theyr God: the ſame God of heauen gaue them power & ſtrength to withſtand [theyr enimies.]

20 Moreouer, they ſlue the kyng of the Chananites, Iebuſites, Pherezites, Hethites, Heuites, and Amorites, and al the mighty in Heſebon, and tooke theyr landes and cities in poſſeſſion: Ioſu.12.c.

21 And ſo long as they ſynned not in the ſight of theyr God, it went wel with them: For theyr God hateth vnryghteouſneſſe.

22 * For in tymes paſt when they went out of the way whiche God had geuen them, that they ſhoulde walke in it, they were deſtroyed in diuers batayles of many nations, and many of them were carried away priſoners vnto a ſtrange countrey. Iud.2.b. 4.Re.25.a

23 * But nowe lately they haue turned them ſelues agayne vnto the Lord theyr God, and are comme togeather agayne out of the countreys where they were ſcattered abroade: and thus they conquered theſe mountaynes, and dwelle therein: and as for Hieruſalem, where theyr ſanctuary is, they haue it agayne in poſſeſſion. 1.Eſd,1.a.

24 And therefore my Lorde, make diligent inquiſition, if this people haue donne wickedneſſe in the ſyght of theyr God, then let vs goe vp agaynſte them: for doubtleſſe theyr God ſhal deliuer them into thy handes, and ſubdue them vnto thy power.

25 But if this people haue not diſpleaſed theyr God, we ſhal not be able to withſtand them: for theyr God ſhal defende them, and ſo ſhal we be a ſhame to al the worlde.

26 Nowe when Achior had ſpoken out theſe woordes, al the great menne of Holophernes were wroth, and thought to ſlaye hym, and ſayde one to another,

27 What is he this, whiche dare ſaye that the children of Iſrael are hable to withſtand Nabuchodonozor the kyng, & his hoſtes? where as they are an vnweaponed people, without ſtrength or vnderſtandyng of the feates of warre? F

28 That Achior therefore maye knowe that he hath deceiued vs, we wyl goe vp into the mountaynes: and when the myghty menne of them are taken, he with them ſhalbe ſticke with the ſworde:

29 That al the people maye knowe that Nabuchodonozor is the God of the earth, & that there is none other beſyde hym.

¶ The

The.vi.Chapter.

1 Holophernes blaſphemeth God, whom Achior confeſſed. 14 Achior is deliuered into the handes of them of Bethulia. 18 The Bethulians crye vnto the Lorde.

A 1 SO when they had leaſt of ſpeakyng, Holophernes tooke ſoare indignation, and ſayde vnto Achior,

2 For ſo muche as thou haſt prophecied vnto vs, ſayeing, That the people of Iſrael ſhalbe defended of theyr God: I wil ſhewe thee that there is no God but Nabuchodonoſor,

3 Yea, when we ſlaye them al as one man, thou alſo ſhalt periſh with them through the ſworde of the Aſſyrians, and al Iſrael ſhalbe deſtroyed with thee:

4 And then ſhalt thou feele that Nabuchodonoſor is the lorde of the whole earth: then ſhal the ſworde of my knyghthood goe through thy ſydes, and thou ſhalt falle downe ſtickte among the wounded of Iſrael, and " ſhalt not comme to thee ſelfe agayne, but be vtterly deſtroyed with them.

5 Furthermore, if thou thynkeſt thy prophecie to be true, why dooeſt thou then change thy colour? why art thou afrayde? Thynkeſt thou that my woordes are not able to be perfourmed?

6 But that thou mayeſt knowe that thou ſhalt feele theſe thynges with them, beholde from this houre foorth wyl I ſend thee vnto yonder people, that when the pouniſhmente of my ſworde (whiche they haue woorthyly deſerued) falleth vpon them, thou mayeſt be pouniſhed with them.

B 7 So Holophernes commaunded his ſeruantes to take Achior, and to carrie hym vnto Bethulia, and to deliuer him into the handes of the chyldren of Iſrael.

8 Then Holophernes ſeruantes tooke hym, and went through the playne field: but when they drewe nygh vnto the mountaynes, the Slyng caſters came out agaynſt them.

9 Neuertheleſſe, they gate them away by the ſyde of the mountayne, and bounde Achior hande and foote to a tree, and ſo leaſt hym bounde with withes, and turned againe vnto theyr lorde.

10 After that, yͤ chyldren of Iſrael went downe from Bethulia, came vnto him, looſed him, brought hym into Bethulia, ſet hym in the myddeſt of the people, and aſked hym what the matter was, that the Aſſyrians had leaſt hym bounde?

11 Oſias the ſonne of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Charmi, whiche is alſo called Gothoniel, were the principal rulers at the ſame tyme.

12 Nowe when Achior ſtoode in the myddeſt of the Senatours, and before them al, he told them what anſweare he gaue Holophernes to the thing that he aſked hym, and how Holophernes people woulde haue ſlaine him for ſo ſayeing:

13 And howe Holophernes hym ſelfe was wroth, and commaunded hym for the ſame cauſe to be deliuered vnto the Iſraelites: that when he ouercame the chyldren of Iſrael, he myght commaunde Achior alſo to be put to death with diuers tormentes, becauſe he ſayde, The God of heauen is theyr defender.

C 14 And when Achior had playnly tolde out al theſe thinges, al the people felle downe vpon theyr faces, prayſyng the Lorde, and powred out theyr prayers togeather vnto the Lorde, with a general complaynt and weepyng,

15 And ſayde, O Lorde God of heauen and of earth, beholde theyr pryde, and looke vpon our lowlyneſſe, and conſyder how it ſtandeth with thy ſaintes, and make it to be knowen that thou forſakeſt not thoſe whiche holde them faſt by thee: & how that thou bryngeſt them lowe that preſume of them ſelues, and make theyr boaſt in theyr owne ſtrength.

16 So when the weepyng and prayer of the people (which they had made the whole day long) was ended, they comforted Achior,

17 Sayeing, The God of our fathers, whoſe power and ſtrength thou haſt prayſed, ſhal ſo rewarde thee, that thou ſhalt rather ſee theyr deſtruction.

18 When the Lord our God then ſhal geue his ſeruantes this libertie, God be alſo with thee among vs: ſo that as it ſhal pleaſe thee, ſo thou, with al thine, mayeſt dwel with vs.

19 Nowe when Oſias had ended the counſel, he tooke hym into his houſe, & made a great ſupper,

D 20 Called the elders to it: and ſo they refreaſhed them ſelues after the faſtyng.

21 And afterwarde was al the people called togeather, whiche made theyr prayers al the nyght long " in the congregation, and beſought the God of Iſrael for helpe.

The.vii.Chapter.

1 Holophernes dooth beſiege Bethulia. 8 The counſayle of the Idumeans, and other agaynſt the Iſraelites. 23 The Bethulians murmure agaynſt the gouernours for lacke of water.

A 1 THE next day Holophernes cõmaunded his hoſt to goe vp agaynſt Bethulia.

2 There were an hundred and twentie thouſande fyghtyng men on foote, and two and twentie thouſande horſemenne, beſyde the preparyng of them that were wonne, & came to them on euery ſyde out of the countreys and cities which he had taken.

3 All theſe prepared them ſelues vnto the batayle agaynſt the Iſraelites, and came on by the hyl ſyde, vnto the toppe that looketh ouer agaynſte Dothain, from the place whiche is called Belma, vnto Chelmon that lyeth towarde Eſdrelon.

4 Nowe when the chyldren of Iſrael ſawe ſo great a multitude of the Aſſyrians, they felle downe flat vpon the grounde, ſtrawed aſhes vpon theyr heades, and prayed with one accorde, that the God of Iſrael woulde ſhewe his mercy vpon his people.

5 And ſo they tooke theyr weapons, and ſate betwixt the mountaines in the narow place, and kept the way day and nyght.

6 But whyle Holophernes was goeyng rounde about, he founde the water ſpryng, whiche from the South ſyde was conueyed into the citie be a conduite, and he commaunded theyr conduite to be cut in ſunder.

B 7 There were welles alſo not farre from the walles, whiche they vſed ſecretely, more for pleaſure " then for neceſſitie.

" Or, then to drinke them.

8 Then went the Ammonites and the Moabites vnto Holophernes, and ſayde, The children of Iſrael truſt neyther in ſpeare nor arrowe, but haue taken in, and kepe the mountaynes, and ſteepe hilles defende them.

9 That thou mayeſt ouercomme them therefore without the ſtrykyng of any batayle, ſet menne to keepe the welles, that they drawe no water out of them, ſo ſhalt thou deſtroye them without ſword, or at the leaſt they ſhalbe ſo feeble, that they muſt be fayne to geue ouer the citie, whiche they thynke not able to be wonne, for ſo much as it lyeth in ẏ mountaynes.

10 Theſe woordes pleaſed Holophernes wel, and al his men of warre, and he ſet an hundred at euery wel rounde about.

11 And when this watche had endured twentie dayes, the ceſternes, and al that had water, fayled them that dwelt in the citie of Bethulia, ſo that in the whole citie they hadde not drynke yenough for one day, for the people had water geuen them dayly in a meaſure.

12 Then came the menne and women, young perſons and chyldren, al vnto Oſias, and ſaid al with one voyce,

13 God be iudge betwixt vs and thee, for thou haſt dealt euyl with vs: thou wouldeſt not ſpeake peaceably with the kyng of the Aſſyrians, therefore hath God ſolde vs into theyr handes.

14 And there is no man to helpe vs, whereas C we are brought downe before theyr eyes, in thyrſte, and great deſtruction.

15 Therefore, geather now togeather al the people that be in the citie, that we maye al yeelde our ſelues wyllyngly vnto the people of Holophernes.

16 For better it is that we be captiue, and praiſe the Lorde with our lyues, then to be ſlayne and periſhe, and to be laughed to ſcorne, and ſhamed of euerye man, when we ſee our wiues and chyldren dye before our eyes.

17 We take heauen & earth this day to recorde, and the God of our fathers, whiche pouniſheth vs accordyng to [the deſeruing of] our ſynnes, [and geue you warning,] that ye geue vp the citie now into the power of Holophernes hoſt, that our end may be ſhort with the ſword, whiche els ſhal endure long for want of water, and for thyrſt.

18 When they had ſpoken out theſe woordes, there was a great weepyng and howling in the whole congregation [& that of euery man,] & they cried a " whole houre long vnto God with one voyce,

" Or, many houres.

19 Sayeing, We haue ſinned with our fathers, we haue donne amiſſe, we haue dealt wickedly.

20 Thou that art gratious, haue mercy vpon D vs, or pouniſhe our vnrighteouſneſſe with thine owne ſcourge, & geue not thoſe ouer that knowledge thee, vnto a people which know thee not:

21 That thei may not ſay among the heathen, Where is theyr God?

22 And when they were ſo weery with this crying and weepyng, that they helde theyr peace,

23 Oſias ſtoode vp with watrie eyes, and ſaid, O take good hartes vnto you, deare brethrẽ,

[and be of good cheere,] and let vs wayte yet theſe fiue dayes for mercie of the Lorde:

24 Peraduenture he ſhal put away his indignation, and geue glory vnto his name.

25 But yf he helpe vs not when the fiue dayes are paſt, we ſhal doo as ye haue ſayde.

The .viii. Chapter.

1 The parentage, lyfe, and conuerſation of Iudith. 11 She rebuketh the faintneſſe of the gouernours. 12 She ſheweth that they ſhoulde not tempt God, but wayte vpon him for ſuccour. 33 Her enterpriſe agaynſt the enimies.

A 1 AND it happened, when theſe woordes came to the eares of Iudith a widowe, whiche was the daughter of Merari, the ſonne of Idor, the ſonne of Ioſeph, the ſonne of Oſia, the ſonne of Elai, the ſonne of Iamnor, the ſonne of Gedeon, the ſonne of Raphaim, the ſonne of Achitob, the ſonne of Melchia, the ſonne of Enan, the ſonne of Nathania, the ſonne of Salathiel, the ſonne of Simeon, the ſonne of Ruben:

2 And her huſbande was called Manaſſes, which dyed in the dayes of the barly harueſt.

3 For whyle he was bindyng the ſheaues togeather in the feelde, the heate came vpon his head, and he dyed at Bethulia his citie, and there was he buried beſide his fathers.

4 Nowe was Iudith his deſolate wydowe, three yeeres and ſixe monethes.

5 And in the hygher partes of her houſe, ſhe made her ſelfe a priuie chamber, where ſhe dwelt, beyng cloſed in with her maydens.

6 She ware a ſmocke of heare, and faſted al the dayes of her lyfe, except the Sabbothes, and newe Moones, and the ſolempne dayes that the people of Iſrael kept.

7 She was a very fayre and beautiful perſon, her huſbande alſo had leaft her great richeſſe, a plenteous houſholde, great vnmoueable poſſeſſions, and many catel.

8 This Iudith was a woman of a very good B report with euery one, for ſhe feared the Lord greatly: and there was no body that ſpake an euyl woorde of her.

9 When this Iudith hearde howe Oſias had promiſed the people, that after the fifth day he woulde geue vp the citie vnto the Aſſyrians, ſhe ſent for the elders, Chabri & Charmi.

10 And when they came to her, ſhe ſayd, What thing is this, wherein Oſias hath conſented, that yf God helpe not within fiue dayes, he wyl geue ouer the citie to the Aſſyrians?

11 What are ye, that ye tempt the Lorde?

12 This deuice obteyneth no mecie of GOD: but prouoketh hym vnto wrath and diſpleaſure.

13 Wyl ye ſet the mercie of the Lorde a tyme, and appoynt him a day after your wyl?

14 Neuertheleſſe, for ſo muche as the Lorde is C patient, let vs rather repent in this, powring out teares, and beſeeching hym of grace.

15 For God threatneth not as a man, neyther wyl he be prouoked vnto wrath, as the chyldren of menne.

16 And therefore let vs hartyly falle downe before him, and ſerue him with a meeke ſpirite,

17 And with weeping eyes ſay vnto the Lord, that he deale with vs accordyng to his owne wyl ſpeedyly in mercie: that lyke as our hart is nowe vexed and brought lowe through the pride of them, it " may ſo be comforted " Or, we may ſo glory.
through his grace:

18 In ſo muche as we folowe not the ſinnes of our fathers, whiche forſooke their God, and woorſhipped other goddes:

19 For the whiche ſinne they periſhed with the ſwoorde, were ſpoiled, and brought to ſhame of al their enimies: As for vs, we know none other God but only hym.

20 For whoſe comfort let vs tary with meekeneſſe, and he ſhal require and make inquiſition for our blood, from the vexations of our enimies: he ſhal bryng downe al the heathen that ryſe vp agaynſt vs, and put them to diſhonour, euen the Lorde our God.

21 Therefore deare brethren, ſeeyng ye are the D [honorable and] elders in the people of God, and their lyfe hangeth al vpon you, lyft vp theyr hartes with your exhortation, that they may calle to remembrance howe our fathers alſo in tymes paſt were tempted, that they myght be prooued, yf they woorſhipped their God a ryght.

22 They ought to remember, how* our father Gen.22.a.
Abraham beyng tempted, and tried through many tribulations, " was founde a louer " Or, was made.
and freende of God.

23 So was Iſahac, ſo was Iacob, ſo was Moſes: and al they that pleaſed God, paſſed ſtedfaſt in fayth through manyfolde troubles.

24 Agayne, they that receiued not theyr temptations with the feare of God, but put them ſelues foorth with vnpatiencie and murmuring agaynſt God,

25 Periſhed of the deſtroyer, and were ſlayne of ſerpentes.

26 And therefore ſhoulde not we vndertake to be auenged for the thinges that are donne vnto vs:

E 27 But to conſider that al theſe pouniſhments are farre leſſe then our ſinnes and miſdeedes, and beleeuing that this correction commeth vnto vs as to the ſeruantes of god, for amendement, and not for our deſtruction.

28 Then ſayde Oſias and the elders vnto Judith, Al that thou ſpeakeſt is true, and no man can reproue thy woordes.

29 Pray thou for vs now therefore [vnto god,] for thou art an holy woman, and feareſt god.

30 And Judith ſayde vnto them, Seeing ye knowe that my woordes are of God,

31 Then proue my counſel and deuice yf it be of God: and beſeeche God that he wyl bring my counſel to good ende.

32 [Thus haue I deuiſed,] ye ſhal ſtande this night before the porte, and I wyl goe foorth with Abra my maiden: and pray ye therefore vnto God, that he wyl gratiouſly remember his people of Iſrael within fiue dayes, as ye haue ſayde.

33 As for the thing that I goe in hande withal, aſke ye no queſtions of it: and tyl I bryng you woorde agayne of it, doo ye nothyng els but pray vnto the Lorde our God for me.

34 Then Oſias, the prince of the people of Juda, ſayde vnto her, Goe thy way in peace, the Lorde be with thee, that we may be auenged of our enimies. And ſo they went from her agayne.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Judith humbleth her ſelfe before the Lorde, and maketh her prayers for the deliuerance of her people, 7 agaynſt the pride of the Aſſyrians, 11 God is the helpe of the humble.

A 1 NOwe when they were " gone their way, Judith went into her cloſet, put on a heary ſmocke, ſtrawed aſhes vpon her head, fel downe before the Lorde, and cryed vnto hym, ſaying,

" Or, gone by.

Gen.34.b. 2 O Lorde GOD of my father * Simeon, whiche gaueſt hym a ſwoorde for " a defence agaynſt the enimies that vſed violence in their vncleanneſſe, and that rauiſhed the virgin, [and] put her to ſhame & confuſion:

" Or, to reuengement of the ſtrangers.

3 Thou that gaueſt their wyues into a pray, and their daughters into captiuitie, and al their pray for a ſpoyle vnto thy ſeruantes, which bare a zeale vnto thee: helpe me wydowe, O Lorde my God, I beſeeche thee.

4 For thou haſt made the firſt thinges: and after that, looke what thou haſt taken in hande and deuiſed, it came euer to paſſe.

5 For al thy wayes are prepared, & thy iudgementes are put in thy euerlaſting foreknowledge.

6 O looke nowe vpon the " armies of the Aſſyrians, lyke as it was thy pleaſure ſometime to looke vpon the hoſte of the Egyptians, when they being weaponed, perſecute thy ſeruantes, and put their truſt in their charettes, horſemenne, and in the multitude of their menne of warre.

" Or, tentes.

7 But thou lookedſt vpon their hoſt, caſting a thicke darkneſſe before them.

B 8 And when they came into the deepe, the waters ouerwhelmed them.

9 Euen ſo Lorde, let it goe with theſe that truſt in the power & multitude of their men of warre, in their charets, arrowes, & ſpeares:

10 And know not that thou only art our God, whiche deſtroyeſt warres from the beginnyng, " and that thou art the Lorde.

" Or, and that it apperteineth to thee to be called lorde.

11 O lyft vp thyne arme [nowe,] lyke as euer from the beginnyng, and in thy power bring their power to nought: cauſe their myght to falle in thy wrath, whiche make their boaſt, that they wyl vnhalowe and defile thy ſanctuarie, and to waſte the tabernacle of thy name, and to caſt downe the horne of thyne aulter with their ſwoorde.

12 Bryng to paſſe, O Lorde, that the pride of " the enimie may be cutte downe with his owne ſwoorde:

" Or, of this man.

13 That he may be taken with the ſnare of his eyes in me, and that thou mayeſt ſmyte hym with the lippes of my loue.

14 O geue me a ſtedfaſt mynde, that I may deſpiſe him and his ſtrength, & that I may deſtroy him. C

15 This ſhal bring thy name an euerlaſtyng remembrance, yf the hande of a woman ouerthrowe him.

16 For thy power, O Lord, ſtandeth not in the multitude [of menne,] neither haſt thou any pleaſure in the ſtrength of horſes, neither was there from the beginnyng any proude perſons that pleaſed thee: but in the prayer of the humble and meeke, hath thy pleaſure benne euermore.

17 O thou God of the heauens, thou maker of the waters, and Lorde of al creatures, heare me poore woman calling vpon thee, & putting my truſt in thy mercie.

18 Remember thy couenant, O Lord, and miniſter woordes in my mouth, and ſtabliſhe this deuice in my hart, that thy houſe may continue ſtil in holyneſſe:

19 And that al the heathen may knowe that thou art GOD, and that there is none other but thou.

The.x.Chapter.

1 Iudith decketh her ſelfe, and goeth foorth of the citie. 11 She is taken of the watche of the Aſſyrians, and brought to Holophernes.

A 1 AND when ſhe had leaft of crying vnto the Lord, ſhe roſe vp from the place where ſhe had lyen flatte before the Lorde,

2 And called her mayden Abra, went downe into her houſe, layed the heary cloth from her, put of the garmentes of her wydowehood,

3 Waſhed her body, annoynted her ſelfe with pretious thinges of ſweete ſauour, brayded and platted her heare, ſet a coyffe vpon her head, and put on ſuche apparel, as belongeth vnto gladneſſe, ſlippers vpon her feete, bracelettes, ſpanges, earynges, finger ringes, and decked her ſelfe with al her beſt aray.

4 The Lorde gaue her alſo a ſpecial beautie and faireneſſe: for al this decking of her ſelfe was not donne for any voluptuouſneſſe, but of a ryght diſcretion and vertue, therefore did the Lorde encreaſe her beautie, ſo that ſhe was exceedyng amiable and wel fauoured in al mens eyes.

5 She gaue her mayden Abra alſo a bottel of wine, a pot with oyle, pottage, cake bread, and cheeſe: and went her way.

6 Nowe when they came to the porte of the citie, they founde Oſias and the elders of the citie wayting there:

7 Whiche when they ſawe her, they were aſtonied, & marueyled greatly at her beautie.

B 8 Neuertheleſſe, they aſked no queſtion at her, but let her goe, ſayeing, The God of our fathers geue thee grace, and with his power perfourme al the deuice of thy hart, that Hieruſalem may reioyce ouer thee, and that thy name may be in the number of the holy and ryghteous.

9 And al they that were there, ſayde with one voyce, So be it, ſo be it.

10 Iudith made her prayer vnto the Lord, and went out at the porte, ſhe & her mayde Abra.

11 And as ſhe was goeing downe the mountayne, it happened that about the ſpring of the day, the ſpyes of the Aſſyrians met with her, and tooke her, ſayeing, Whence commeſt thou? or whyther goeſt thou?

12 She anſweared, I am a daughter of the Hebrues, and am fledde from them: for I know that they ſhalbe geuen vnto you to be ſpoyled, becauſe they thought ſcorne to yeelde them ſelues vnto you, that they myght finde mercie in your ſyght.

13 Therefore haue I deuiſed by mee ſelfe after this manner: I wyl goe before the prince Holophernes, and telle him al their ſecretes, and wyl ſhewe him howe he may comme by them, and winne them: ſo that not one man of his hoſt ſhal periſhe.

C 14 And when theſe men had heard her words, & conſydered her fayre face, they were aſtonied (for they wondred at her excellent beautie.)

15 And ſayde vnto her, Thou haſt ſaued thy lyfe, by findyng out this deuice, that thou wouldeſt comme downe to our lorde.

16 And be thou ſure, that when thou commeſt vnto hym, he ſhal entreate thee wel, and thou ſhalt pleaſe him at the hart. So they brought her in to Holophernes pauilion, and tolde hym of her.

17 Now when ſhe came in before him, immediatly he was ouercome and taken with her beautie.

18 Then ſayde his ſeruantes, Who woulde deſpiſe the people of the Iewes that haue ſo faire women? ſhould we not by reaſon fight agaynſt them for theſe?

19 So when Iudith ſawe Holophernes ſitting in a canapie that was wrought of purple ſilke, golde, ſmaradge, & pretious ſtones, 20 She looked faſt vpon him, bowed her ſelfe, and felle downe vpon the earth: And Holophernes ſeruantes tooke her vp agayne, at their lordes commaundement.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 Holophernes comforteth Iudith. 3 and aſketh the cauſe of her comming. 5 She deceiueth hym by her faire woordes.

A 1 THen ſayde Holophernes vnto her, Be of good cheare, and feare not in thyne hart: for I neuer hurt man that woulde ſerue Nabuchodonoſor the kyng.

2 As for thy people, yf they had not deſpiſed me, I shoulde not haue lyft vp my ſpeare agaynſt them.

3 But telle me nowe what is the cauſe that thou art departed from them, and wherefore art thou comme vnto vs?

4 And Iudith ſayde vnto hym, Syr, vnderſtande the woordes of thy handmayden: for yf thou wylt doo after the woordes of thy handmayden, the Lorde ſhal bryng thy matter to a proſperous effect.

5 As Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of the earth lyueth, and as his power liueth whiche is in thee, to the puniſhment of al menne that goe wrong, al menne ſhal not only be ſubdued vnto hym through thee, but al the beaſtes alſo of the feelde.

6 For al people ſpeake of thy prudent actiuitie, and it hath euer benne reported, how thou only art good and myghty in al his kyngdome, and thy * diſcretion is commended in al landes.

* Or, diſcipline.

7 The thing is manifeſt alſo that Achior ſpake, and it is wel knowen what thou commaundeſt to doo vnto him.

B 8 For this is plaine, and of a ſuretie, that our God is ſo wroth with vs, by the reaſon of our ſinnes, that he hath ſhewed by his prophetes vnto the people, howe that for theyr ſinnes he wyl deliuer them ouer [vnto the enimie.]

9 And for ſo muche as the chyldren of Iſrael know, that they haue ſo diſpleaſed their god, they are ſore afrayde of thee.

10 They ſuffer great hunger alſo, and for want of water they are dead nowe in a manner.

11 Moreouer, they are appointed to ſlay al their catayle, that they may drinke the blood of them:

12 And are purpoſed to ſpend the holy thinges of their God, which he hath forbidden them to touche, [as] of corne, wine, and oyle, and they wyl conſume thoſe thinges which they ought not to touche with their handes: Seeing nowe that they doo theſe thinges, it is a plaine caſe that they muſt needes be deſtroyed.

13 Whiche when I thy handmayden perceiued, I fledde from them: and the Lord hath ſent me to ſhewe thee theſe thinges.

14 For I thy handmayden woorſhip God, C euen here nowe beſide thee, and thy handemaiden ſhal goe foorth, and I wil make my prayer vnto God:

15 And he ſhal telle me when he wyl rewarde them their ſinne, then ſhal I comme and ſhewe thee, and bryng thee through the middeſt of Hieruſalem, ſo that thou ſhalt haue al the people of Iſrael, as ſheepe without a ſhepehearde, and there ſhal not ſo muche as one dogge barke agaynſt thee.

16 For theſe thinges are ſhewed me by the prouidence of God.

17 And for ſo muche as GOD is diſpleaſed with them, he hath ſent me to telle thee the ſame.

18 Theſe woordes pleaſed Holophernes, and al his ſeruantes: whiche marueyled at the wyſedome of her, and ſayde one to another:

19 There is not ſuche a woman vpon earth, in fauour, in beautie, and diſcretion of woordes.

20 And Holophernes ſaide vnto her, God hath donne wel, that he hath ſent thee hyther before thy people, that thou mayeſt geue them into our handes.

21 And for ſo muche as thy promiſe is good, yf D thy God perfourme it vnto me, he ſhalbe my God alſo, and thou ſhalt be excellent and great in the court of Nabuchodonoſor, and thy name ſhalbe ſpoken of in al the lande.

The.xii.Chapter.

1 Iudith woulde not pollute her ſelfe with the meate of the Gentiles. 5 She maketh her requeſt that ſhe myght goe out by nyght to pray. 11 Holophernes cauſeth her to comme to the banquet.

A 1 THEN commaunded he her to goe in where his treaſure lay, and charged that ſhe ſhoulde haue her dwellyng there, and appoynted what ſhoulde be geuen her from his table.

2 Iudith anſweared him, and ſayde, As for the meate that thou haſt commaunded to geue me, I may not eate of it as nowe, leſte I diſpleaſe my God: but wyl eate of ſuche as I haue brought with me.

3 Then ſayde Holophernes vnto her, If theſe thynges that thou haſt brought with thee fayle, what ſhal we doo vnto thee?

4 And Iudith ſayde, As thy ſoule liueth, my Lorde, thy handmayden ſhal not ſpende al this, tille God hath brought to paſſe in my hande, the thinges that I haue deuiſed. So his ſeruantes brought her into the tent, wheras he had appoynted.

5 And as ſhe was goeing in, ſhe deſyred that ſhe myght haue leaue to goe foorth by night and before day to her prayer, and to make interceſſion vnto the Lorde.

6 Then cõmaunded Holophernes his chamberlaynes, that ſhe ſhoulde goe out and in at her pleaſure, to pray vnto GOD thoſe three dayes.

7 And ſo in the nyght ſeaſon, ſhe went foorth into the valley of Bethulia, and waſhed her ſelfe in the wel water.

B 8 And comming vp, ſhe beſought the Lorde God of Iſrael, that he woulde proſper her way for the deliuerance of his people.

9 And ſo ſhe went in, and remayned cleane in her tent, tylle ſhe tooke her meate in the euenyng.

10 Vpon the fourth day it came to paſſe, that Holophernes made a ſupper vnto his ſeruantes, and ſayde vnto Vagao his chamberlayne, Goe thy way, and counſel this Hebrueſſe, that ſhe may be wyllyng to conſent to keepe company with me:

11 For it were a ſhame vnto al the Aſſyrians, that a woman ſhoulde ſo laugh a man to ſcorne, that ſhe were comme from hym vnmedled withal.

12 Then went Vagao vnto Iudith, and ſaid, Let not the good daughter be afrayde to comme in to my lorde, that ſhe may be honoured before hym, that ſhe may eate and drinke wine, and be merry with him.

13 Unto whom Iudith anſweared, Who am I, that I ſhoulde ſay my lorde nay?

14 Whatſoeuer is good and beſte before his eyes, I ſhal doo it: & looke what is his pleaſure, that ſhal I thinke wel donne as long as I liue. C

15 So ſhe ſtoode vp, and deckt her ſelfe with her apparel, and went in, and ſtoode before hym.

16 And Holophernes hart was whole mooued: for he brent in deſyre towarde her.

17 And Holophernes ſayde vnto her, Drinke nowe, and ſit downe, and be merry, for thou haſt founde fauour before me.

18 Then ſayde Iudith, Syr, I wyl drinke, for my minde is merryer to day, then euer it was in al my lyfe.

19 And ſhe tooke, and dyd eate, and dranke before him, the thinges that her mayden had prepared for her.

20 And Holophernes was merry with her, and dranke more wine, then euer he dyd afore in his lyfe. D

The .xiii. Chapter.

7 Iudith prayeth for ſtrength. 10 She ſmyteth of Holophernes head. 12 She returneth to Bethulia, and reioyceth her people.

A 1 Nowe when it was late in the night, his ſeruants made haſte euery man to his lodging: And Vagao ſhut the chamber doores, and went his way:

Eccle.37.d 2 * For they were al ouerladen with wine.

3 So was Iudith alone in the chamber.

4 As for Holophernes, he lay vpon the bedde [al drunken] and of very drunkenneſſe felle a ſleepe.

5 Then commaunded Iudith her mayden to ſtande without before the doore, and to wayte.

6 And Iudith ſtood before the bedde, making her prayer with teares, & mooued her lippes ſecretly,

7 And ſayde, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Iſrael, and haue reſpect vnto the workes of mine handes in this houre, that thou mayeſt ſet vp thy citie of Hieruſalem, like as thou haſt promiſed: And graunt that I may perfourme the thing, which in hope that it may be donne by thee, I haue deuiſed.

8 And when ſhe had ſpoken this, ſhe went to the piller that was at Holophernes beddes head, and looſed his ſwoord that hanged vpon it, and drewe it out:

9 And when ſhe had taken it out of the ſcabberde, ſhe tooke holde of the heary lockes of his head, and ſayd, Strengthen me, O Lord God, in this houre. C

10 And with that ſhe gaue hym two ſtrokes vpon the necke, & * ſmote of his head: Then tooke ſhe the canapie away from the pillers, and rouled the dead body aſide. 1.Re.17.g.

11 Immediatly ſhe gate her foorth, and deliuered the head of Holophernes vnto her mayden, and bade her put it in her wallet.

12 And ſo theſe two went foorth togeather after theyr cuſtome, as though they woulde pray: and ſo paſſed by the hoſte, and came about through the valley, vnto the porte of the citie.

13 And Iudith cryed a farre of vnto the watchmenne vpon the walles, Open the gates [ſayde ſhe,] for God is with vs, whiche hath ſhewed his power in Iſrael.

14 And when they hearde her voyce, they called the elders of the citie [togeather.]

C 15 And they came al to meete her, litle & great, young and olde: for they thought not that ſhe ſhoulde haue comme ſo ſoone.

16 So they lighted candels, and geathered about her euery one: but ſhe went vp into an hygh place, and cauſed ſcilence to be proclaymed.

17 And when euery man now helde his peace, Judith ſayde, O prayſe the Lorde our God, for he hath not deſpiſed nor forſaken them that put their truſt in hym:

18 And in me his handmayden he hath perfourmed his mercie, whiche he promiſed vnto the houſe of Iſrael: yea, in my hande this ſame nyght hath he ſlayne the enimie of his people.

19 And with that ſhe tooke foorth the head of Holophernes out of the wallet, and ſhewed it them, ſayeing, Behold the head of Holophernes the captayne of the armie of the Aſſyrians, and this is his canapie wherein he laye in his drunkenneſſe, where the Lorde our God hath ſlayne hym by the hande of a woman.

D 20 But as the Lord liueth, his angel hath kept me goeing thither, remaynyng there, and comming hyther agayne from thence: And the Lorde hath not ſuffered me his handemayden to be defiled, but without any defiling of ſinne hath he brought me agayne vnto you: and that with great victorie, ſo that I am eſcaped, and ye deliuered.

21 O geue thankes vnto him euery one, for he is gratious, and his mercie endureth for euer.

22 So they prayſed the Lord altogeather [and gaue thankes vnto him,] and to her they ſayd, The Lorde hath bleſſed thee in his power, for through thee, he hath brought our enimies to nought.

23 And Oſias the chiefe ruler of the people of Iſrael, ſayde vnto her, Bleſſed art thou of the Lorde the high God, aboue al women vpon earth.

24 Bleſſed be the Lorde, the maker of heauen and earth, whiche hath guided thee aryght, to wounde and to ſmite of the head of the captayne of our enimies.

25 For this day he hath made thy name ſo honorable, that thy prayſe ſhal neuer comme out of the mouth of menne, whiche ſhal alway remember the power of the Lorde, ſeeing thou haſt not ſpared thyne owne ſelfe, [but put thee in ieopardie] conſydering the anguiſhe and trouble of thy people: and ſo haſt helped their fal before God our Lorde.

26 And al the people ſayde, Amen, Amen.

27 Achior alſo was called, and he came: Then ſayde Judith vnto him, The God of Iſrael, vnto whom thou gaueſt witneſſe, that he woulde be auenged of his enimies, euen he hath this nyght through my hande, ſmitten of the head of al the vnfaithful. E

28 And that thou mayſt ſee that it ſo is, behold this is the head of Holophernes, whiche in his preſumptuous pride, deſpiſed the God of the people of Iſrael, and threatned thee with deſtruction, ſayeing, When the people of Iſrael is taken, I ſhal cauſe thee alſo to be ſtickt with the ſwoorde.

29 When Achior ſawe Holophernes head, he felle downe vpon his face to the grounde for very anguiſhe and feare, ſo that he ſowned withal.

30 But after that he was comme agayne to him ſelfe, he felle downe before her, and prayſed her, ſayeing, 31 Bleſſed art thou of thy God, in al the tabernacles of Jacob: for al the people that heare of thy name, ſhal prayſe the God of Iſrael, becauſe of thee.

The .xiiii. Chapter.

1 Judith cauſeth to hang vp the head of Holophernes. 6 Achior ioyneth him ſelfe to the people of God. 7 The Iſraelites goe out agaynſt the Aſſyrians.

A 1 IUdith ſayde vnto al the people, Brethren heare me: Sticke vp this head vpon our walles, 2.Mach.15

2 And when the ſunne aryſeth, take euery man his weapon, and falle out violently: not as though ye woulde goe beſide them, but to runne vpon them with violence.

3 When the ſpies ſee this, they ſhal of neceſſitie be compelled to flee backwarde, and to rayſe vp their captaine to the batayle.

4 So when their captaines comme into Holophernes pauilion, and finde the dead body wrapped in the blood, fearefulneſſe ſhal falle vpon them:

5 And when ye perceiue that they flee, folowe them without al care, for God ſhal ″ deliuer them vnto you to be deſtroyed.

″ Or, the lord ſhal breake them vnder your feete.

6 Then Achior ſeeing the power of god, whiche he had ſhewed vnto the people of Iſrael, felle of from his heatheniſhe beleefe, and put his truſt in God, and let him ſelfe be circumcized, and ſo was he numbred among the people of Iſrael, he and al his poſteritie vnto this day.

7 Nowe as ſoone as it was day, they ſtickt vp Holophernes head vpon the walles, and euery man tooke his weapon, and ſo they went out with an horrible crye.

B 8 When the ſpies ſawe that, they came vnto Holophernes tent.

9 And they that were within the tent, came before his chamber, and made a great ruſhing by art, that Holophernes myght awake, not by ſtirring hym vp, but by their noyſe.

10 For there durſt not one of the Aſſyrians knocke, goe in, or open.

11 But when the captaynes and princes, and al the cheefe in the kyng of the Aſſyrians hoſt came togeather, they ſayde vnto the chamberlaynes,

12 Goe your way in, and wake hym vp: for the myce are crept out of their holes, and dare prouoke vs vnto batayle.

13 Then went Vagao into his chamber, ſtood before the * bedde, and clapped with his handes: for he thought he had benne ſleeping with Iudith.

* Or, curtayne.

C 14 But when he hearkened perfectly with his eares, and coulde perceiue no ſtirring, he went nygher to the * bedde, and lyft it vp, and when he ſawe the dead body of Holophernes lying there without a head, weltred in his blood vpon the earth, he cryed with a loude voyce, and with weeping rent his clothes,

* Or, curtayne.

15 And went into Iudiths tent, and founde her not.

16 And ſo he leapt out vnto the people, & ſayde, One woman of the Iewes, hath brought al Nabuchodonoſors people to ſhame: For loe, Holophernes lyeth vpon the grounde, and hath no head.

17 When the cheefe of the Aſſyrians hoſt heard that, they rent their clothes, and there felle an intollerable feare and trembling vpon them: ſo that their mindes were ſore afrayde.

18 And there was an exceedyng great crye in * the whole hoſt.

* Or, middeſt of the hoſte.

The.xv.Chapter.

1 The Aſſyrians are afrayde and flee. 6 The Iſraelites purſue them. 9 Ioachim the hye prieſt commeth to Bethulia to ſee Iudith, and to prayſe God for her.

A 1 NOwe when al the hoſte hearde that Holophernes was beheaded, their mind & counſel fel from them: and beyng amaſed with feare only and trembling, they ſaued them ſelues by fleeing away.

2 One ſpake not to another, but hanged downe their heades, leaft al behynde them, and made haſt to eſcape from the Hebrues: for they hearde that they were haſting to comme after with their weapons, and ſo they fledde by the wayes of the feeldes, and through al the foote pathes of the * dales.

* Or, woods.

3 And when the children of Iſrael ſawe that they fledde, they folowed vpon them: and went downe with trumpettes, blowing and making a great crye after them.

4 As for the Aſſyrians they had no order, and kept not them ſelues togeather, but fled their way: Neuertheleſſe, the children of Iſrael fel vpon them with one company and order, & diſcomfited as many as they myght geat.

5 And Oſias ſent meſſengers vnto al the cities and countreys of Iſrael.

6 So al the regions, and euery citie ſent out their beſt menne after them in harneſſe, and ſmote them with the ſwoorde, til they came to the vttermoſt part of their borders.

7 And the other that were in Bethulia came into the tentes of the Aſſyrians, and tooke al that they whiche were fledde had leaft behynde them, and ſo they founde great good.

B 8 And they that came agayne to Bethulia from the batayle, tooke with them ſuche thinges as hadde benne theirs: there was no number of the catayle, and of al coſtly iewels, ſo that from the loweſt vnto the hygheſt, they were al made riche of the ſpoyles of them.

9 And Ioachim the high prieſt, came from Hieruſalem to Bethulia, with al the elders, that they myght ſee Iudith.

10 Nowe when the came out vnto them, they begann al to prayſe her with one voyce, ſayeing, Thou worſhip of the citie of Hieruſalem, thou ioy of Iſrael, thou honour of our people.

11 Becauſe thou haſt donne manly, and thy hart is comforted, and for that thou haſt loued clenlineſſe and chaſtitie, and haſt knowen no man, but thyne owne huſbande: therefore hath the hande of the Lorde comforted thee, and bleſſed ſhalt thou be for euer.

12 And al the people ſaide, So be it, So be it.

13 In thirtie dayes coulde the people of Iſrael ſcarſe geather vp the ſpoiles of the Aſſyrians.

14 But al that belonged vnto Holophernes, and had benne his ſpecially (whether it were of golde, of ſiluer, pretious ſtone, clothyng, and al ornamentes) they gaue it vnto Judith, and it was deliuered vnto her of the people.

15 And al the people reioyced, both women, maydens, and young people, with pipes, and harpes.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 Judith prayſeth God with a ſong. 23 She offereth to the Lorde Holophernes ſtuffe.
26 Her continencie, lyfe, and death. 29 Al Iſrael lamenteth her.

A 1 THEN ſang Judith this ſong vnto the Lord, ſayeing,

2 Beginne vnto the lord vpon the tabrettes, ſing vnto the Lorde vpon the Cymbales, O ſing vnto hym a newe ſong of thankeſgeuing, be ioyful, and calle vpon his name.

3 It is the Lorde that deſtroyeth warres, euen the Lorde is his name.

4 Whiche hath pitched his tentes in the middeſt of his people, that he myght deliuer vs from the hande of al our enimies.

5 Aſſur came out of the mountaynes of the North, in the multitude of his ſtrength: his people ſtopped the water brookes, and theyr horſes couered the valleyes.

6 He purpoſed to haue brent vp my " lande, and to ſlay my young men with the ſwoord.

7 He woulde haue caried away my children and virgins into captiuitie, but the almyghtie Lorde hindred him, & deliuered hym into the handes of a woman, " whiche brought hym to confuſion.

B 8 For their myghtie was not deſtroyed of the young men, it was not the ſonnes of Titan that ſlue hym, neither haue the great giantes ſet them ſelues agaynſt hym: but Judith the daughter of Merari with her fayre beautie hath diſcomfited hym, [and brought hym to nought.]

9 For ſhe laied away her wydowes garment, and put on the apparel of gladneſſe, to the reioycing of the chyldren of Iſrael.

10 She annoynted her face with oyntment, and bounde vp her heare in a coyffe, & tooke a newe ſtole to beguile him.

11 Her ſlippers rauiſhed his eyes, her beautie captiuated his minde, with the ſwoord ſmote ſhe of his necke.

12 The Perſians were aſtonied at her ſtedfaſtneſſe, and the Medes at her boldneſſe.

13 Then howled the armies of the Aſſyrians, when my ſimples appeared, drye of thirſt.

C 14 The ſonnes of the daughters haue pearſed them through, and ſlayne them as fugitiue chyldren: they periſhed in the batayle, " for the very feare of the Lorde my God.

15 Let vs ſing a ſong of thankeſgeuing vnto the Lord, a newe ſong of prayſe wyl we ſing vnto our God.

16 Lorde, Lorde, thou art a great God, myghtie in power, whom no man may ouercome.

17 Al thy creatures muſt ſerue thee: * For thou ſpakeſt but the woord, and they were made, thou ſenteſt thy ſpirite, and they were created, and no man can withſtande thy voyce.

18 The mountaynes ſhal mooue from the fundations with the waters, the ſtony rockes ſhal melt before thee lyke waxe.

19 But they that feare thee, ſhalbe great with thee in al thinges.

20 Wo vnto the people that ryſe vp agaynſt my generation: for the almyghty Lord wyl auenge him ſelfe of them, and in the day of iudgement wyl he viſite them.

D 21 For he ſhal geue fire and woormes in theyr fleaſhe, that they may burne and feele it for euermore.

22 After this it happened, that after the victorie, al the people came to Hieruſalem, to geue prayſe and thankes vnto the Lorde: And when they were purified, they offered al their burnt ſacrifices and their vowes, and theyr promiſed offeringes.

23 And Judith offered al Holophernes weapons [and al the iewels] that the people had geuen her, and the canapie that ſhe tooke from his bedde, and hanged them vp " vnto the Lorde.

24 The people were ioyful as the vſe is: and this ioy with Judith, by reaſon of the victory, endured three monethes.

25 So after theſe daies euery man went home agayne, and Judith was in great reputation at Bethulia, and ryght honourably taken in al the lande of Iſrael.

26 Unto her vertue alſo was chaſtitie ioyned, ſo that after her huſbande Manaſſes dyed, ſhe neuer knewe man al the dayes of her lyfe.

27 Upon the hygh ſolempne dayes, ſhe went out with great woorſhip.

¶ The dreame of Mardocheus.

A 1 Mardocheus yͤ ſonne of Iari, the ſonne of Semei, the ſonne of Cis, of the tribe of Beniamin,

2 A Iewe, whiche had his dwellyng in the citie of Suſis, a man of greate reputation, and excellent among al them that were in yͤ kinges court.

4.Re.24.d
Iere.24.a.

3 Neuertheleſſe, he was one of the priſoners whom Nabuchodonoſor, the kyng of Babylon had carried away from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon, with Iechonias the kyng of Iuda.

4 In the ſecond yeere of the raigne of great Artaxerxes, in the fyrſte day of the moneth Niſan, had this Mardocheus ſuche a dreame.

5 He thought he hearde a great tempeſt, horrible thunderclappes, earthquakes, and great vprore in the lande,

6 And that he ſawe two great dragons ready to fyght one againſt another. B

7 Theyr crye was great: at the which roaring and crye, al the heathen were vp to fyght agaynſt the ryghteous people.

8 And the ſame day was ful of darkeneſſe, and very vncleare, ful of trouble & anguiſhe, yea, a great fearefulneſſe was there in the lande.

9 The righteous were amaſed, for they feared the plague and euyl that was deuiſed ouer them, and were at a poynt with them ſelues to dye: So they cryed vnto God.

10 And whyle they were cryeing, the litle wel grewe into a great ryuer, and into manye waters.

11 And with that it was day, and the ſunne roſe vp agayne: And the lowely were exalted, and deuoured the glorious and proude.

12 Nowe when Mardocheus had ſeene this dreame, he awoke, and muſed ſtedfaſtly in his hart what God would doo, and ſo he deſyred to knowe al the matter, and his mynd was thereupon vntyl nyght.

The.xii.Chapter.

Mardocheus vttereth the treaſon deuiſed agaynſt the kyng, and is therefore rewarded of hym.

A 1 AT the ſame tyme dwelt Mardocheus with Bagatha and Thara, in the kynges court, the kynges Chamberlaynes and porters of the palace.

2 But when he hearde theyr deuice, and had diligently conſydered theyr imaginations, he perceiued that they went about to laye theyr [cruel] handes vpon the kyng Artaxerxes, and ſo he certified the kyng thereof.

3 Then cauſed the kyng to examine the two ″ gelded with tormentes: And when they had graunted it, they were put to death.

″ Or, chamberlaynes.

4 This the king cauſed to be put in yͤ Chronicles, for an euerlaſtyng remembraunce, and Mardocheus wrote vp the ſame matter.

5 So the kyng commaunded that Mardocheus ſhoulde remayne in the courte, and for this faythfulneſſe of his, he gaue hym a rewarde.

6 But Aman the ſonne of Amadathu, the Agagite, which was holden in great honour and reputation in the kynges courte, vndertooke to hurt Mardocheus, and his people, becauſe of the two chamberlaynes, that were put to death.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes agaynſt the Iewes. 9 The prayer of Mardocheus.

A 1 THE greate kyng Artaxerxes, whiche raigneth from India, vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred & twentie and ſeuen landes, ſendeth his friendely ſalutation vnto al the princes and deputies of the countrey, whiche be ſubiect vnto his dominion.

2 When I was made lord ouer many people, and had ſubdued the whole earth vnto my dominion, my mynde was not with crueltie and wrong to exalt mee ſelfe by the reaſon of my power: but purpoſed with equitie alway and gentlenes to gouerne thoſe that be vnder my iuriſdiction, & wholly to ſet them in a peaceable lyfe, and thereby to bryng my kyngdome vnto tranquilitie, that menne myght ſafely goe through on euery ſide, and to renue peace agayne, which al men deſyre.

3 Now when I aſked my counſellours how theſe thynges myght be brought to a good ende, there was one by vs excellent in wyſedome, whoſe good wyl, trueth, and faithfulneſſe, hath ofte benne ſhewed and prooued, (whiche was alſo the principal and nexte to the kyng) Aman by name,

4 Whiche certified vs, howe that in al landes there was ſcattered abroad a rebellious folke, that made ſtatutes & lawes agaynſte al other people, and haue alway deſpiſed the proclaymed commaundementes of kynges, and how that for this cauſe, it were not to be ſuffered, that ſuche rule ſhould continue by you, and not to be put downe.

5 Seeyng nowe we perceiue the ſame, that this people alone, are contrary vnto euery man, vſyng ſtrange and other manner of lawes, and withſtand our ſtatutes and dooinges, and goe about to ſtabliſhe ſhrewde matters, that our kyngdome ſhoulde neuer comme to good eſtate [and ſtedfaſtneſſe:]

6 Therefore haue we commaunded, that al they that are appoynted in writing, & ſhewed vnto you by Aman, whiche is ordeyned and ſet ouer al our landes, and the moſt principal next vnto the kyng, and in manner as a father: ſhal with theyr wyues and chyldren be deſtroyed and rooted out with the ſworde of theyr enimies and aduerſaries, and that there ſhalbe no mercy ſhewed, and no man ſpared: And this ſhalbe donne the fourtienth day of the moneth called Adad, of this yeere.

7 That they whiche of olde, and nowe alſo, haue euer benne rebellious, may in one day with violence be thruſt downe into the hel, to the intent that after this manner, our empire may haue peace and tranquilitie. B

8 But Mardocheus thought vpon al the workes and noble actes of the Lorde, and made his prayer vnto hym,

9 Sayeing, O Lorde, Lorde, thou valiant and almyghtie kyng, for al thynges are in thy power: and if thou wylt healpe and deliuer Iſrael, there is no man that canne withſtande, nor let thee.

10 For thou haſt made heauen and earth, and what woonderous thing ſo euer is vnder the heauen.

11 Thou art Lorde of al thynges, and there is no manne that canne reſiſt thy Maieſtie, O Lorde.

12 Thou knoweſt al thynges, thou woteſt Lorde, that it was neyther of malice nor preſumption, nor for any deſyre of glory, that I would not bowe downe mee ſelfe, nor worſhyp yonder proude preſumptious Aman:

13 For I woulde haue benne content, and that with good wyl, if it myght haue donne Iſrael any good, to haue kiſt euen his footeſteppes.

14 But that I dyd it, becauſe I woulde not ſet the honour of a man, in the ſteede of the glory of God, and becauſe I woulde worſhyp none, but only thee my Lorde: and this haue I donne in no pryde nor preſumption. C

15 And therefore, O Lorde, thou God & King, haue mercy vpon thy people, for they imagine how they may bryng vs to nought, yea, theyr mynde and deſyre is to deſtroy and to ouerthrowe thy people that hath euer benne thyne inheritance of olde.

16 O deſpiſe not thy portion whiche thou haſt delyuered, & brought out of Egypt for thyne owne ſelfe.

17 Heare my prayer, and be mercyful vnto thy people, whom thou haſt choſen for an heritage vnto thee ſelfe: Turne our complaynt and ſorowe into ioy, that we may liue, O Lorde, and prayſe thy name: O Lorde ſuffer not the mouthes of them that prayſe thee, to be deſtroyed.

18 All the people of Iſrael in lyke manner cryed as earneſtly as they coulde vnto the Lorde: for theyr death and deſtruction ſtoode before theyr eyes.

The, xiiii. Chapter.

¶ The prayer of Eſther, for the deliuerance of her and her people.

A 1 Queene Eſther alſo beyng in the " batayle of death, reſorted vnto the Lorde, " Or, peryl.

2 Layde away her glorious apparel, and put on the garmentes that ſerued for ſyghing & mournyng: In the ſteede of precious oyntment, ſhe ſcattered aſhes and doung vpon her head: and as for her body, ſhe humbled it with faſtyng, & brought it very low: All the places where ſhe was wont to haue ioye afore, thoſe filled ſhe with her owne heare that ſhe pluckt of.

3 She prayed alſo vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael, with theſe woordes: O my Lorde, thou only art our kyng, healpe me deſolate woman, whiche haue no healper but thee.

4 For my miſerie and deſtruction is harde at my hande.

5 Fro my youth vp I haue hearde out of the kynred of my father, that thou tookeſt Iſrael from among al people, and ſo haue our fathers of theyr fore elders, that they ſhoulde be thy perpetual inheritance, and looke what thou dyddeſt promiſe them, thou haſt made it good vnto them.

6 Nowe Lorde we haue ſinned before thee, therefore haſt thou geuen vs into the handes of our enimies,

B 7 Becauſe we woorſhipped theyr gods, Lord thou art ryghteous.

8 Neuertheleſſe, it ſatiſfieth them not that we are in bitter and heauy captiuitie, and oppreſſed among them, but thou haſt layde theyr handes, vpon the handes of theyr gods.

9 So that they begynne to take awaye the thyng, that thou with thy mouth haſt ordeined and appoynted, to deſtroye thyne inheritance, to ſhutte and to ſtoppe the mouthes of them that prayſe thee, to quenche the glorye and woorſhyp of thy houſe and thine aulter,

10 And to open the mouthes of the heathen, that they maye prayſe the power and vertue of the gods, & to magnifie the fleaſhely kyng for euer.

11 O Lord geue not thy ſcepter vnto them that be nothyng, leſt they laugh vs to ſcorne in our miſerie and falle: but turne theyr deuice vpon them ſelues, & puniſhe hym that hath begunne the ſame ouer vs, and ſet hym to an example.

12 Thynke vpon vs, O Lorde, and ſhew thee ſelfe vnto vs in the tyme of our diſtreſſe, & of our trouble: ſtrength me, O thou kyng of Gods, thou Lorde of al power, 13 Geue me an eloquent and pleaſant ſpeache in my mouth before the lion: Turne his hart into the hate of our enimies, to deſtroy hym, and al ſuche as conſent vnto hym.

C 14 But deliuer vs with thy hande, and healpe me thy handmayde, whiche haue no defence nor healper, but only the Lorde.

15 Thou knoweſt al thynges, thou wotteſt that I loue not the glory and woorſhyppe of the vnryghteous, and that I hate & abhorre the bedde of the vncircumciſed, and of al heathen:

16 Thou knoweſt my neceſſitie, that I hate the token of my preeminence and woorſhyp, whiche I beare vpon my head, what tyme as I muſt ſhewe mee ſelfe and be ſeene, and that I abhorre it as an vncleane cloth, and that I weare it not when I am quiet, and alone by mee ſelfe.

17 Thou knoweſt alſo, that I thy handmayden, haue not eaten at Amans table, and that I haue had no pleaſure nor delyght in the kynges feaſt, that I haue not drunke the wyne of the drynke offerynges.

18 And that I thy handemayden haue no ioye ſince the day that I was brought hyther, vnto this day, but only in thee, O Lord, O thou God of Abraham, 19 O thou myghtie God aboue al, heare the voyce of them that haue no other hope, and deliuer vs out of the hande of the wicked, and deliuer me out of my feare.

The.xv.Chapter.

1 Mardocheus moueth Eſther to goe in vnto the kyng, and make interceſſion for her people. 9 And ſhe perfourmed his requeſt.

A 1 Mardocheus alſo bade Eſther goe in vnto the king, and praye for her people, and for her countrey.

2 Remember (ſayth he) the dayes of thy lowe eſtate, howe thou waſt nouriſhed vnder my hand: for Aman which is nexte vnto the kyng, hath geuen ſentence of death agaynſt vs:

3 Calle thou therefore vpon the Lorde, and ſpeake for vs vnto the kyng, and deliuer vs from death.

4 And vpon the thyrde day it happened, that Eſther layde away the mournyng garmentes, and put on her glorious apparel,

5 And deckte her ſelfe goodly (after that ſhe had called vpon God, whiche is the beholder and ſauiour of al thynges) [and] tooke two maydens with her:

6 Upon the one ſhe leaned her ſelfe, as one that was tender:

B 7 The other folowed her, and bare the trayne of her veſture.

8 The ſhyne of her beautie made her face roſe coloured, the ſimilitude of her face was chearful and amiable: but her harte was ſorowful for great feare.

9 She went in through al the doores, & ſtood before the kyng: The kyng ſate vpon the throne of his kyngdome, and was clothed in his goodly aray, al ſhynyng with golde, and ſet with precious ſtones, and he was verye terrible.

10 He lyfte vp his face that ſhone in the clearenesſe, and looked grimly vpon her: Then fel the queene downe, was pale and faynte, leaned her ſelfe vpon the head of the maide that went with her.

11 Neuertheleſſe, God turned the kinges minde that he was gentle, that he leaped out of his ſeate for feare, and gate her in his armes, and helde her vp tyl ſhe came to her ſelfe agayne, he gaue her louyng woordes alſo, and ſayde vnto her,

12 Eſther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheare:

13 Thou ſhalt not dye, for our commaundement toucheth the commons, and not thee: Comme nygh.

14 And with that he helde vp his golden rod, and layde it vpon her necke, C

15 And imbraced her friendly, and ſayd, Talke with me.

16 Then ſayd ſhe, *I ſawe thee (O Lorde) as an angel of God, and my hart was troubled for feare of thy maieſtie and cleareneſſe: Gen.33.b.

17 For excellent and woonderful art thou, O Lorde, and thy face is ful of amitie.

18 But as ſhe was thus ſpeakyng vnto hym, ſhe fel downe agayne for faynteneſſe:

19 For the whiche cauſe the kyng was afrayd, and al his ſeruantes comforted her.

The.xvi.Chapter.

The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes, whereby he reuoketh thoſe whiche he fyrſt ſent foorth.

A 1 The great king Artaxerxes, whiche raigneth from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred & twentie and ſeuen landes, ſendeth vnto the princes and rulers of the ſame landes, ſuche as loue hym, his friendely ſalutation.

2 There be many that for the ſundrye friendeſhyppes and benefites whiche are diuerſlye donne vnto them for theyr woorſhyppe, be euer the more proude and hygh mynded:

3 And vndertake not only to hurt our ſubiectes, (for plenteous benefites may they not ſuffer, and beginne to imagine ſomething agaynſt thoſe that doo them good,

4 And take not only al thankfulnes away from menne) but in pryde and preſumption, as they that be vnmindeful and vnthankful for the good deedes, they goe about to eſcape the iudgement of God that ſeeth al thynges, which iudgement hateth and pouniſheth al wickedneſſe.

5 It happeneth oft alſo, that they whiche be ſet in office by the hygher power, & vnto whom the buſyneſſe and cauſes of the ſubiectes are committed to be handeled, ware proud, and defile them ſelues with ſhedding of innocent blood, whiche bryngeth them to intollerable hurt.

6 Whiche alſo with falſe & deceitful woordes, and with lying tales, deceiue and betray the innocent goodnes of princes.

7 Nowe is it profitable and good that we take heede, make ſearche thereafter, and con- B ſyder not only what hath happened vnto vs of old, but the ſhameful, vnhoneſt, and noyſome thynges, that the deputies haue nowe taken in hande before our eyes:

8 And thereby to beware in tyme to comme, that we make the kyngdome quiet & peaceable for al menne, and that we myght ſometyme drawe it to a change.

9 And as for the thyng that nowe is preſent before our eyes, to withſtand it, and to put it downe after the moſt friendely manner.

10 What tyme nowe as Aman the ſonne of Amadathu the Macedonian, a ſtranger verily of the Perſians blood, and farre from our goodneſſe, was comme in among vs as an aliant,

11 And had obteyned the friendeſhippe that we beare towarde al people, ſo that he was called our father, and had in hygh honour of euery manne, as the nexte and principal vnto the kyng:

12 He coulde not forbeare hym ſelfe from his pryde, hath vndertaken not only to robbe vs of the kyngdome, but of our lyfe:

13 With manyfolde deceite alſo hath he deſyred to deſtroye Mardocheus our healper and preſeruer, whiche hath donne vs good in al thynges, and innocent Eſther, the lyke partaker of our kyngdome, with al her people.

C 14 For his mynde was (when he hadde taken them out of the waye, and robbed vs of them) by this meanes to tranſlate the kyngdome of the Perſians, vnto them of Macedonia.

15 But we fynde that the Iewes (which were accuſed of the wicked, that they myght be deſtroyed) are no euyl dooers, but vſe reaſonable and ryght lawes:

16 And that they be the chyldren of the moſte hygh liuyng God, by whom the kyngdome of vs, and of our progenitours, hath benne wel ordered hytherto.

17 Wherefore, as for the letters and commaundementes that were put foorth by Aman the ſonne of Amadathu, ye ſhal doo wel if ye holde them of none effect:

18 For he that ſet them vp, and inuented them, hangeth at Suſis, before the porte, with al his kynrede: and God, which hath al thinges in his power, hath rewarded hym after his deſeruing.

19 And vpon this, ye ſhal publiſhe and ſet vp the copie of this letter in al places, that the Iewes maye freely and without hinderance holde them ſelues after theyr owne ſtatutes:

20 And that they may be healped, and that vpon the thirtienth day of the twelfth moneth Adar, they may be auenged of them, whiche in the tyme of theyr anguiſhe and trouble woulde haue oppreſſed them. D

21 For the GOD that gouerneth al thynges, hath turned to ioy, the daye wherein the choſen people ſhoulde haue periſhed.

22 Moreouer, among the hye ſolempne dayes that ye haue, ye ſhal holde this day alſo with al gladneſſe:

23 That now, and in tyme to comme, this day may be a remembrance of good, for al ſuch as loue the proſperitie of the Perſians: but a remembrance of deſtruction, to thoſe that be ſeditious vnto vs.

24 Al cities and landes that doo not this, ſhal horribly periſhe, and be deſtroyed with the ſworde and fyre, and ſhal not only be no more inhabited of menne, but be abhorred alſo of the wylde beaſtes and foules.

1 Howe we ought to ſearche and enquire after God. 2 Who be thoſe that fynde hym. 5 The holy ghoſt. 8. 11 We ought to flee from backbiting and murmuring. 12 Whereof death commeth. 15 Ryghteouſneſſe, and vnryghteouſneſſe.

A 1 LOUE righteouſneſſe, ye that be Iudges of the earth, conſyder deepely of the Lorde in goodneſſe, and ſeeke hym in ſyngleneſſe of harte:

2 For he wyl be founde of them that tempte hym not, and appeareth vnto ſuche as put no diſtruſt in hym.

3 For wicked thoughtes ſeparate from God, and [his] power when it is " tryed, reproueth the vnwyſe.

" Or, tempted.

4 For why? wyſedome ſhal not enter into a wicked ſoule, nor dwelle in the body that is ſubiect vnto ſinne.

5 For the holy ſpirite of diſcipline fleeth from deceite, and withdraweth hym ſelfe from thoughtes that are without vnderſtanding, and is declared when wickedneſſe commeth.

6 For the ſpirite of wyſedome is louyng, and wyl not abſolue him that blaſphemeth with his lyppes, for God is witneſſe of his reynes, and a true beholder of his hart, and an hearer of his tongue.

B 7 For the ſpirite of the Lorde filleth the round compaſſe of the world, and the ſame that vpholdeth al thynges hath knowledge alſo of the voyce.

8 Therefore he that ſpeaketh vnryghteous thynges can not be hydde, neyther ſhal the iudgement of reproofe let hym eſcape.

9 And why? inquiſition ſhalbe made for the thoughtes of the vngodly, and the ſounde of his woordes ſhal comme vnto God, ſo that his wickedneſſe ſhalbe pouniſhed.

10 For the eare of ielouſie heareth al thynges, and the noyſe of the grudgynges ſhal not be hidde.

11 Therefore, beware of murmuring, whiche is nothyng woorth, & refrayne your tongue from ſlaunder: For there is no woorde ſo ſecrete that it ſhal goe for nought, & the mouth that ſpeaketh lyes, ſlayeth the ſoule.

12 O ſeeke not your owne death in the errour of your lyfe, deſtroy not your ſelues through the woorkes of your owne handes:

13 For GOD hath not made death, neyther hath he pleaſure in the deſtruction of the lyuing:

14 For he created al thynges, that they myght haue theyr beyng, and " the generations of the worlde were healthful, and there is no poyſon of deſtruction in them, nor the kyngdome of hel vpon the earth. C

" Or, beginninges.

15 For ryghteouſneſſe is [euerlaſtyng and] immortal: but vnryghteouſneſſe bryngeth death.

16 Neuertheleſſe, the vngodly calle " it vnto them both with woorkes and woordes, and whyle they thynke to haue it theyr friende, they comme to nought, and they haue made an agreement with it, for they are woorthye to be of her part.

" Or, to wit, death.

The.ii.Chapter.

The imaginations and deſyres of the wicked, and theyr counſayle agaynſt the faythful.

A 1 FOR the vngodly ſay, reaſoning with them ſelues, but not aright, Our life is ſhorte and tedious, and in the death of a man there is no remedie, neyther is there anye man knowen to haue returned from the graue.

2 For we are borne at al aduenture, and we ſhalbe here by more fortune after, as though we hadde neuer benne: for our breath is as a ſmoke in our noſthrilles, and woordes as a ſparke rayſed out of our heartes:

3 Whiche beyng extinguiſhed, our body ſhalbe turned into aſhes, and our ſpirite ſhal vaniſhe as the ſoft ayre.

4 Our lyfe ſhal paſſe away as the trace of a cloude, and comme to nought as the myſte that is driuen awaye with the beames of the ſunne, and put downe with the heate therof: Our name alſo ſhalbe forgotten by litle and litle, and no man ſhal haue our woorkes in remembrance.

5 For our tyme is a very ſhadowe that paſſeth away, and after our ende there is no returnyng: for it is faſt ſealed, ſo that no man commeth agayne.

6 Comme on therefore, let vs enioye the pleaſures that are preſent, and let vs chearefullye vſe the creatures, lyke as in youth:

7 Let vs fille our ſelues with good wine and oyntment, and let there no flowre of the time eſcape vs: B

8 Let vs crowne our ſelues with roſe buddes, afore they be wythered:

9 (a) Let there be no fayre medowe, but our luſt goe thorowe it. Let euerye one of vs be partakers of our voluptuouſneſſe, let vs leaue ſomme token of our pleaſure in euerye place: for that is our portion, and this [only] our lot.

(a) This ſentence of the medowe is not in the greeke.

10 Let vs oppreſſe the poore ryghteous, let vs not ſpare the wyddowe, nor olde man, let vs not regarde the heades that are graye for age.

11 Let the lawe of vnryghteouſneſſe be our ſtrength: for the thyng that is feeble, is nothing worth.

12 Therfore let vs defraude the ryghteous, and why? he is not for our profite, yea, he is cleane contrary to our dooynges, he checketh vs for offendyng againſt the lawe, and ſlaundereth the faultes of our manner of lyuing.

13 He maketh his boaſt to haue the knowledge of God, yea, he calleth hym ſelfe Gods ſonne.

14 He is made vnto vs for reproofe of our thoughtes.

15 It greeueth vs alſo to looke vpon hym, for his lyfe is not lyke other mennes, his wayes are of another faſhion.

16 He counteth vs but " vayne perſons, he withdraweth hym ſelfe from our wayes, as from filthyneſſe, he commendeth greatly the latter ende of the iuſt, and maketh his boaſte that God is his father.

" Or, counterfayte coyne

17 Let vs ſee then if his woordes be true, let vs proue what ſhal happen in the ende of hym.

18 For if the iuſt man be the ſonne of God, he wyl receiue hym, and deliuer hym from the handes of his enimies.

19 Let vs examine him with deſpiteful rebukes and tormentyng, that we maye knowe his meekeneſſe, and proue his patience.

20 Let vs condempne hym with the moſte shameful death: For as hym ſelfe ſayth, he ſhalbe rewarded [of God.] D

21 Suche thynges doo they imagine, and goe aſtray, for theyr owne wickedneſſe hath blinded them.

22 As for the myſteries of God, they vnderſtande them not, they neyther hope for the reward of ryghteouſneſſe, nor regard the worſhyp that holy ſoules ſhal haue.

23 For God created man to be vndeſtroyed, yea after the * image of his owne lykeneſſe made he hym. Gene.4.b

24 Neuertheleſſe, through enuie of the deuyl, came death into the worlde, and they that helde of his ſyde, doo fynde it.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 The conſeruation and aſſurance of the ryghteous. 7 The rewarde of the faythful. 11 Who are miſerable.

A 1 But the ſoules of the ryghteous are in the hande of God, and there ſhal no tormēt touche them.

2 In the ſyght of the vnwyſe they appeared to dye, and theyr ende is taken for miſerie,

3 And theyr departyng from vs to be vtter deſtruction: but they are in reaſt.

4 For though they ſuffer payne before menne, yet is theyr hope ful of immortalitie.

5 They are pouniſhed but in fewe thynges, neuertheleſſe in manye thynges ſhal they be wel rewarded: for God proueth them, & fyndeth them meete for hym ſelfe.

6 As golde in the furnace dooth he trye them, and receiueth them as a burnt offeryng: and when the tyme commeth, they ſhalbe looked vpon.

B 7 They ſhal ſhyne and runne through, as the ſparkles among the ſtubble.

8 They ſhal iudge the nations, and haue dominion ouer the people: and theyr Lorde ſhal raigne for euer.

9 They that put theyr truſt in hym, ſhal vnderſtand the trueth, and ſuche as be faythful ſhal perſeuer with him in loue: for his ſaintes haue grace and mercy, and he hath care for his elected.

10 But the vngodlye ſhalbe pouniſhed accordyng to theyr owne imaginations, for they haue deſpiſed the ryghteous, and forſaken the Lorde.

11 For who ſo deſpiſeth wyſedome and " nurture, he is " vnhappy, and as for the hope of ſuche, it is but vayne, theyr labours vnfruitful, and theyr woorkes vnprofitable.

" Or, diſcipline.
" Or, he is miſerable.

12 Theyr wyues are vndiſcreete, and theyr chyldren moſt vngodly.

13 Theyr offſprynge [or progenie] is curſed: wherefore bleſſed is the barren that is vndefiled, whiche hath not knowen the ſinful bedde, ſhe ſhal haue fruite in the viſitation of ſoules,

14 And the gelded which with his handes hath wrought no vnryghteouſnes, nor imagined wicked thynges agaynſt God: for vnto him ſhalbe geuen the ſpecial gyft of fayth, and the moſte acceptable portion in the temple of God. C

15 For glorious is the fruite of good labour, and the roote of wyſedome ſhal neuer fade away.

16 As for the chyldren of adulterers, they ſhal not comme to a perfect ende, and the ſeede of an vnryghteous bedde ſhalbe rooted out.

17 And though they lyue long, yet ſhal they be nothyng regarded, and theyr laſt age ſhalbe without honour.

18 If they dye quickly, they haue no hope, neither comfort in the day of inquirie.

19 For horrible is the ende of the vnryghteous generation.

The.iiii.Chapter.

Of vertue and the commoditie thereof. 10 The death of the ryghteous, and the condemnation of the vnfaythful.

A 1 O Howe fayre is a chaſte generation with vertue? the memorial thereof is immortal: for it is knowen with GOD and with menne.

2 When it is preſent, men take example at it, and if it goe away, yet they deſyre it: it is crowned, and euer triumpheth, when it hath wonne the rewarde of the vndefiled batayles.

3 But the multitude of the vngodlye aboundyng in chyldren, ſhal profite nothyng, nor geue deepe roote by the ſeede of adulterie, nor laye any faſt fundation.

4 For though they budde foorth in the branches for a time, yet ſhal they be ſhaken with the wynde, for they ſtand not faſt: & through the vehemencie of the winde they ſhalbe rooted out.

5 The vnperfect branches ſhalbe broken, their fruite ſhalbe vnprofitable, and ſowre to eate, yea, meete for nothyng.

6 And why? al the chyldren that are borne of the wicked bed, muſt beare record of the wickedneſſe agaynſte theyr fathers and mothers when they be aſked:

B 7 But though the ryghteous be ouertaken with death, yet ſhal he be in reaſt.

8 For honorable age is not that whiche ſtandeth in length of tyme, nor that that is meaſured by number of yeeres:

9 But a mans wyſedome is the graye heare, and an vndefiled lyfe is the olde age.

10 He pleaſed God, and was beloued of hym, ſo that whereas he lyued among ſinners, he tranſlated hym.

Gen.5.c. 11 * Yea ſpeedyly was he taken awaye, to the intent that wickedneſſe ſhoulde not alter his vnderſtandyng, and that deceite ſhoulde not beguyle his ſoule.

12 For wickedneſſe with bewitching dooth darken the honeſt thynges: and the lyghtnes, of " voluptuous deſyre " turneth aſyde the ſingle minde.

" Or, concupiſcence.
" Or, chaungeth, or altereth.

13 Though he was ſoone dead, yet fulfilled he muche tyme:

C 14 For his ſoule pleaſed God, therefore haſted he to take hym awaye " from among the wicked.

" Or, from out of the middeſt of wickedneſſe.

15 This the people ſee, and vnderſtande it not, they lay not vp ſuch thynges in theyr hartes, how that the louing fauour & mercy [of God] is vpon his ſayntes, and that he hath reſpects vnto his choſen.

16 Thus the ryghteous that is dead, condemneth the vngodly whiche are liuing: and the youth that is ſoone brought to an ende, the long lyfe of the vnryghteous.

17 For they ſee the ende of the wyſe: but they vnderſtande not what God hath deuiſed for hym, and wherefore the Lorde hath taken hym away to be in ſafetie.

18 And why? they ſee hym, and deſpiſe hym, therefore ſhal God alſo laugh them to ſcorne.

19 So that they them ſelues ſhal dye hereafter without honour, yea in ſhame among the dead for euermore: For without anye voyce ſhal he burſt thoſe that be puft vp, and ſhake them from the fundations, ſo that they ſhalbe layde as vtterly waſted: they ſhalbe in ſorowe, and theyr memorial periſhe.

D 20 So they ſhal come afrayd in remembrance of theyr ſinnes, and theyr owne iniquities before theyr face ſhal conuince them.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The conſtantneſſe of the ryghteous before theyr perſecutours. 14 The hope of the vnfaythful is vayne. 15 The bleſſedneſſe of the ſayntes and godly.

A 1 THEN ſhal the ryghteous ſtande in great boldeneſſe before the face of ſuche as haue dealte extreamelye with them, & taken away theyr labours.

2 When they ſee it, they ſhalbe vexed with horrible feare, and ſhal woonder at his health, ſo farre beyonde al that they looked for.

3 And changyng theyr opinion with groning for the redreſſe of mynd, they ſhal ſaye, This is he whom we ſommetyme had in deriſion, and ieſted vpon.

4 We fooles thought his lyfe very madneſſe, and his ende to be without honour:

5 But loe how he is counted among the chyldren of God, and his portion is among the ſaintes.

6 Therefore haue we erred from the waye of of trueth, the lyght of ryghteouſneſſe hath not ſhyned vnto vs, and the ſunne of vnderſtandyng roſe not vp vpon vs.

B 7 We haue weeryed our ſelues in the way of wickedneſſe and deſtruction, yea we haue gonne through tedious deſartes: but as for the way of the Lorde, we haue not knowen it.

B 8 What good hath pride donne vnto vs? or what profite hath the pompe of riches brought vs?

9 All thoſe thinges are paſſed away like a ſhadowe, and as a poſte that haſteth by:

10 As a ſhip that paſſeth ouer the waues of the water, whiche when it is gonne by, the trace thereof can not be founde, neither the path of it in the fluddes:

11 Or as a birde that fleeth through in the ayre, and no man can ſee any token where ſhe is flowen, but only heareth the noyſe of her wynges beatyng the lyght winde, partyng the ayre through the vehemencie of her goeing, and fleeth on ſhaking her winges, whereas afterwarde no token of her way canne be founde:

12 Or lyke as when an arrowe is ſhotte at a marke, it parteth the ayre, which immediatly commeth togeather agayne, ſo that a man can not knowe where it went through:

13 Euen ſo we in lyke manner as ſoone as we were borne, beganne immediatly to drawe to our end, and haue ſhewed no token of vertue, but are conſumed in our owne wickedneſſe.

This verſe is only in the olde interpreter.

14 Suche woordes they that haue ſinned, ſpeake in the hel:

C 15 For the hope of the vngodly, is lyke a " dry thiſtle floure that is blowen away with the winde, lyke a thinne " ſcumme that is ſcattered abrode with the ſtorme, lyke as the ſmoke whiche is diſperſed here & there with the winde, & as the remembrance of a ſtranger that tarieth but a day, & then departeth.

" Or, duſt.

" Or, ſome.

16 But the ryghteous ſhal liue for euermore, their rewarde alſo is with the Lorde, and the care for them is with the hygheſt.

17 Therfore ſhal they receiue a glorious kingdome, and a beautiful crowne of the Lordes hande: for with his ryght hande ſhal he couer them, and with his arme ſhal he defend them.

18 His ielouſie alſo ſhal take on harneſſe, and he ſhal arme the creature to be reuenged of his enimies.

19 He ſhal put on ryghteouſneſſe for a breſteplate, & take vnfaigned iudgement in ſteede of an helmet.

20 The inuincible ſhielde of equitie ſhal he take.

21 His fierſe wrath ſhal he ſharpen for a ſword, D and the whole compaſſe of the worlde ſhal fyght with hym agaynſt the vnwyſe.

22 Then ſhal the thunder boltes goe " ryght out of the lyghtninges, and comme as out of the wel bent bowe of the cloudes to the place appoynted,

" Or, ſtraight

23 And as from an angry caſter of ſtones, there ſhal falle thicke hayles, and the water of the ſea ſhalbe wroth agaynſt them, & the fluddes ſhal runne roughly togeather.

24 Yea a mightie wind ſhal ſtand vp againſt them, and a ſtorme ſhal ſcatter them abrode: Thus vnryghteous dealing ſhal bryng al the lande to a wilderneſſe, and wickedneſſe ſhal ouerthrowe the royal " ſeates of the myghty.

" Or, thrones

The.vi.Chapter.

2 The calling of kynges, princes, and iudges, whiche are alſo exhorted to ſearch wyſedome.

A 1 WIſedome is better then ſtrength, and a man of vnderſtandyng is more woorth then one ſtrong.

This verſe is only in the olde interpreter.

2 Heare therefore (O ye kynges) and vnderſtand, O learne ye that be iudges of the endes of the earth.

3 Geue eare ye that rule the multitudes, and glorie in the number of peoples.

4 For the power is geuen you of the Lorde, and the ſtrength from the higheſt, which ſhal trie your woorkes, and ſearch out your imaginations:

5 Howe that ye beyng officers of his kyngdome, haue not geuen true iudgement, haue not kept the lawe of ryghteouſneſſe, nor walked after the wyl of God.

6 Horribly, and that ryght ſoone, ſhal he appeare vnto you: for an harde iudgement ſhal they haue that beare rule.

7 Mercie is graunted vnto the loweſt: but they that be in aucthoritie ſhalbe ſore pouniſhed.

8 For he whiche is Lorde ouer al, ſhal " except no mans perſon, neither ſhal he ſtande in awe of any mans greatneſſe: for he hath made the ſmal and great, and careth for al a lyke.

" Or, feare, or, ſpare.

9 But the mightie ſhal haue the ſorer trial.

10 Unto you therefore (O ye kinges) doo I ſpeake, that ye may learne wyſedome, and not goe amiſſe.

11 For they that keepe holineſſe " holyly, ſhal

" Or, holy thynges.

be iudged holy: and they that haue learned ſuche thynges,ſhal ſinde defence.

12 Wherefore, " ſet your delight vpon my woordes, & deſyre them, ſo ſhal ye " comme by nurture.

" Or, couet my woordes.
" Or, be inſtructed and learned.

13 Wiſedome is a noble thing, and neuer fadeth away: yea ſhe is eaſily ſeene of them that loue her,and found of ſuche as ſeeke her.

C 14 She preuenteth them that deſyre her, that ſhe may ſhewe her ſelfe vnto them.

15 Who ſo awaketh vnto her betimes, ſhal haue no great trauaile: for he ſhal finde her ſitting ready at his doores.

16 To thinke therefore vpon her, is perfect vnderſtandyng: and who ſo watcheth for her, ſhal quickly be diſpatched of care.

17 For ſhe goeth about ſeekyng ſuche as are meete for her, ſheweth her ſelfe chearefully vnto them in " their goeinges, and meeteth them with " al diligence.

18 For the vnfaigned deſyre of " reformation is her beginning: to care for nurture is loue,

" Or, in their wayes.
" Or, euery thought.
" Or, diſcipline.

19 And loue is the keeping of her lawes, and the keeping of her lawes is the aſſurance of immortalitie:

20 And immortalitie maketh a man familier with God.

D 21 And ſo the deſyre of wiſedome leadeth to the kyngdome [euerlaſting.]

22 If your delyght be then in royal ſeates and ſcepters (O ye kinges of the people) ſet your " luſt vpon wyſedome, that ye may raigne for euermore.

" Or, honour

23 O loue the lyght of wyſedome al ye that be rulers of the people.

24 As for wiſedome, what ſhe is, and howe ſhe came vp, I wyl telle you, and wyl not hyde the myſteries of [God] from you: but wyl ſeeke her out from the beginnyng of her natiuitie, and bryng the knowledge of her into lyght, & wyl not keepe backe the trueth,

This uerſe is only in the olde interpreter.

25 Neither wil I haue to doo with conſuming enuie: for ſuche a man ſhal not be partaker of wyſedome.

26 But the multitude of the wyſe, is the welfare of the worlde: and a wyſe kyng is the " vpholdyng of the people.

" Or, ſtay.

27 O receiue nurture then through my woordes, and it ſhal doo you good.

The .vii. Chapter.

Wyſedome ought to be preferred aboue al thinges.

A 1 I My ſelfe alſo am a mortal man, lyke as al other, and am comme of the earthy generation of hym that was firſt made,

2 And in my mothers wombe was faſhioned to be fleaſhe in the tyme of tenne monethes, beyng brought togeather in blood,through the ſeede of man, and the pleaſure that came with ſleepe.

3 And when I was borne, I receiued like ayre as other men, and fel vpon the earth whiche is of lyke nature, crying and weeping at the firſt as al other doo.

4 I was wrapped in ſwadling clothes, and brought vp with cares.

5 For there is no kyng that hath had any other beginnyng of birth.

6 Al menne then haue one entrance vnto lyfe, and one goeing out in lyke manner.

7 Wherefore I deſyred, and vnderſtandyng was geuen me: I called, and the ſpirite of wiſedome came into me.

B 8 I ſet more by her then by kyngdomes and royal ſeates, and counted riches nothyng in compariſon of her.

9 As for pretious ſtone, I compared it not vnto her: for al golde is but a litle grauel vnto her, and ſiluer ſhalbe counted but clay before her ſyght.

10 I loued her aboue " welfare and beautie, and purpoſed to take her for my lyght: for her lyght can not be quenched.

" Or, health.

11 Al good thinges togeather came to me with her, and innumerable riches through her handes.

12 And I was gladde in al thinges, becauſe wiſedome went before them: and I knewe not that ſhe was the mother of them.

13 And I mee ſelfe learned vnfaignedly, and make other menne partakers of her without enuie,and hyde her riches from no man.

C 14 For ſhe is an infinite treaſure vnto menne: whiche who ſo vſe, become partakers of the loue [and frendſhip] of God, and are accepted vnto hym for the gyftes of " wyſedome.

" Or, knowledge.

15 God hath graunted me to ſpeake what my minde conceiueth, and to thinke as is meete for the thinges that are geuen me: For it is he that leadeth vnto wyſedome,and teacheth to vſe wyſedome a ryght.

16 For in his hand are both we & our woordes, yea al our wiſedome and knowledge of [his] workes.

17 For he hath geuen me the true ſcience of the thinges that are, ſo that I knowe howe the worlde was made, and the powers of the elementes.

18 The beginning,endyng,and myddeſt of the tymes, howe the tymes alter, howe one goeth after another, & howe they are fulfilled,

19 The courſe of the yeere, the ordinances of the ſtarres,

20 The natures of liuing thynges, the furiouſneſſe of beaſtes, the power of the windes, the imaginations of menne, the diuerſities of young plantes, the vertues of rootes:

D 21 And al ſuche thinges as are eyther ſecrete or manifeſt, them haue I learned.

22 For wiſedome, whiche is the woorker of al thinges, hath taught me: for in her is the ſpirite of vnderſtandyng, whiche is holy, one only, manifolde, ſubtile, " quicke moouing, cleare, vndefiled, plaine, ſweete, louyng the thing that is good, ſharpe, whiche can not be letted, dooing good,

" Or, liuely.

23 Kinde to man, ſtedfaſt, ſure, free from care, hauyng al " vertues, " circumſpect in al thynges, and paſſing through al vnderſtandyng, cleane, and ſubtile ſpirites.

" Or, power.
" Or, hauyng regarde of.

24 For wiſedome is nimbler then al nimble thinges, ſhe goeth through, and atteyneth to al thinges, becauſe of her cleanneſſe.

25 For ſhe is the breath of the power of God, and a pure influence flowyng from the glorie of the almyghty [God:] therefore can no defiled thing comme vnto her.

26 For ſhe is the bryghtneſſe of the euerlaſting lyght, the vndefiled mirrour of the maieſtie of God, and the image of his goodneſſe.

27 And beyng [but] one, ſhe can doo al thynges: and remaynyng in her ſelfe, ſhe renueth al, and in al ages of tymes entring into holy ſoules, ſhe maketh Gods freendes, and prophetes: E

28 For God loueth none, yf he dwel not with wiſedome.

29 For ſhe is more beautiful then the ſunne, " and geueth more lyght then the ſtarres, and the day is not to be compared vnto her.

" Or, about al the order of ſtarres.

30 For vpon " the day, commeth nyght: but wickedneſſe can not ouercome wyſedome.

" Or, it.

The.viii.Chapter.

The effectes of wyſedome.

A 1 " Vyſedome reacheth from one ende to another myghtily, and " louingly dooth ſhe order al thinges.

" Or, ſhe.
" Or, profitably.

2 I haue loued her, and " laboured for her, euen from my youth vp: I dyd my diligence to mary mee ſelfe with her, ſuche loue had I vnto her beautie.

" Or, ſought.

3 That ſhe hath the companie of god, it commendeth her nobilitie: yea the Lorde of al thinges hym ſelfe loueth her.

4 For ſhe is the ſcoolemaiſtreſſe of the nurture of God, & the chooſer out of his woorks.

5 If " a man woulde deſyre riches in this lyfe, what is richer then wyſedome that worketh al thinges?

" Or, yf rycheſſe be a poſſeſſion that a man woulde deſyre.

6 For yf prudencie woorke: what is it among al thinges that woorketh better?

7 And yf a man loue ryghteouſneſſe, her labours are but vertues: For why? ſhe teacheth ſoberneſſe and prudence, " ryghteouſneſſe and ſtrength, whiche are ſuche thinges, as menne can haue nothing more profitable in their lyfe.

" Or, iuſtice and manhood.

B 8 If a man deſyre muche " knowledge, ſhe can tel the thinges that are paſt, and diſcerne thynges for to comme: ſhe knoweth the ſubtilties of woordes, and can expounde darke ſentences: ſhe foreſeeth ſignes and woonders or euer they comme to paſſe, and the " endes of al tymes and ages.

" Or, muche experience.
" Or, ſucceſſe of times.

9 Therefore I purpoſed after this manner: I wyl take her into my companie, that ſhe may liue with me, knowyng for certayntie ſhe ſhal geue me good counſayle, and ſpeake comfortably vnto me in my carefulneſſe and greefe.

10 For her ſake ſhal I be wel [and honeſtly] taken among the commons, and with honour among the elders, though I be young.

11 I ſhalbe founde to be of ſharpe iudgement, ſo that I ſhalbe marueylous in the ſight of great menne: * and the faces of princes ſhal woonder at me.

This part of the eleuenth vearſe is only in the olde tranſlation.

12 When I holde my tongue, they ſhal byde my leaſure, and when I ſpeake, they ſhal geue good eare vnto me, & yf I talke much, they ſhal lay their handes vpon their mouth.

13 Moreouer, by the meanes of her, I ſhal obteyne immortalitie, and leaue behynde me an euerlaſting memorial among them that comme after me.

14 I " ſhal ſet the people in order, and the nations ſhalbe ſubdued vnto me.

" Or, I ſhal gouerne the people.

15 Horrible tyrantes ſhalbe afrayde when they doo but heare of me, among the multitude I ſhalbe counted good, and myghtie in batayle.

16 When I comme home, I ſhal finde reaſte with her: for her companie hath no bitternes, and her felowſhip hath no tediouſneſſe, but mirth and ioy.

17 Nowe when I conſydered theſe thinges by mee ſelfe, ⁊ pondered them in my hart, howe that to be ioyned vnto wyſedome is immortalitie,

18 And great pleaſure to haue her freendſhip, and that in the woorkes of her handes are infinite richeſſe, and that who ſo " keepeth company with her ſhalbe wyſe, and that he whiche talketh with her, ſhal comme to honour: I went about ſeeking howe to geat her vnto me.

" Or, exerciſeth talke with her.

19 For I was a ladde of ripe witte, and had a good " vnderſtandyng.

" Or, ſpirite with me.

20 " But when I grewe to more vnderſtandyng, I came to an vndefiled body.

" Or, yea rather beyng good.

D 21 Neuertheleſſe when I perceiued that I could not enioy it, except God gaue it [me] and that was a poynt of wyſedome alſo to knowe whoſe gyft it was, I ſtepped vnto the Lord, and beſought him, and with my whole hart I ſayde after this manner.

The.ix,Chapter.

A prayer of Solomon to obteyne wyſedome.

4 Geue me wyſedome, which is euer ſitting about thy ſeate, and put me not out from among thy chyldren:

5 For I thy ſeruant and ſonne of thy handemayden, am a feeble perſon, and of a ſhorte tyme, " and to young to the vnderſtanding of iudgement and lawes.

" Or, and yet leſſe in.

6 And though a man be neuer ſo perfect among the chyldren of menne, yet yf thy wiſedome be not with him, he ſhalbe nothyng regarded.

7 Thou haſt choſen me to be a kyng vnto thy people, and the iudge of thy ſonnes and daughters.

B 8 Thou haſt commaunded me to buylde a temple vpon thy holy mount, and an aulter in the citie wherein thou dwelleſt, a likeneſſe of thy holy tabernacle, whiche thou haſt prepared from the beginnyng.

9 And thy wyſedome with thee, whiche knoweth thy woorkes, whiche alſo was with thee when thou madeſt the worlde, ⁊ knewe what was acceptable in thy ſyght, and right in thy commaundementes.

10 O ſende her out of thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy maieſtie, that ſhe may be with me, ⁊ labour [with me] that I may knowe what is acceptable in thy ſyght.

11 For ſhe knoweth ⁊ vnderſtandeth al thinges, and ſhe ſhal leade me ſoberly in my woorkes, and preſerue me " in her power.

" Or, by.

12 So ſhal my woorkes be acceptable, and then ſhal I gouerne thy people righteouſly, and be woorthy to ſit in my fathers ſeate.

13 For what man is he that canne knowe the counſayle of God? or who can thinke what the wyl of God is?

14 For the thoughtes of mortal menne are " miſerable, and our forecaſtes are but vncertayne.

" Or, dreadful.

C 15 For why? a corruptible body is heauy vnto the ſoule, and the earthy manſion keepeth downe " that vnderſtandyng that muſeth vpon many thinges.

" Or, the minde that hath many cares.

16 Very hardly can we diſcerne the thynges that are vpon earth, " ⁊ great labour haue we or we canne finde the thinges whiche are before our eyes: and who hath then ſought out the ground of the thinges that are donne in heauen?

" Or, and with muche labour finde we out the thinges that are in our handes.

17 [Oh Lorde] who can haue knowledge of thy " [vnderſtandyng and] meanyng, except thou geue wyſedome, and ſende thy holye ghoſt from aboue?

" Or, counſayle.

18 For ſo the wayes of them whiche liued in the earth were refourmed, and menne haue learned the thinges that are pleaſant vnto thee, and were preſerued through wiſedome.

Gen.4.b.

4 For whom when the* water deſtroyed the whole worlde, wyſedome agayne preſerued it, her ſelfe gouernyng the iuſt man by no coſtly woorke of wood.

Gen.11.a. 5 *Moreouer, when the nations were confounded [or ioyned togeather] in their malitious confederacie, ſhe founde out the ryghteous, and preſerued hym faultleſſe vnto God, and kept hym ſtrong agaynſt the loue of his ſonne.

Gen.19.f. 6 She preſerued the ryghteous *when he fled from the vngodly that periſhed, what tyme as the fyre felle downe vpon the fiue cities.

B 7 Like as yet this day the [vnfruiteful] waſte [and] ſmokyng lande geueth teſtimonie of their wickedneſſe: yea the " vnripe and vntimely fruites that grow vpon the trees, and for a token of a remembrance of the vnfaithful ſoule, there ſtandyng a piller of ſalt.

" Or, the neuer riping.

8 For al ſuche as regarded not wyſedome, gate not only this hurt, that they knewe not the thynges whiche were good: but alſo leaft behynde them vnto menne, a memorial of their fooliſhneſſe, ſo that in the thynges wherein they ſinned, they could not be hidde.

9 But as for ſuche as tooke heede vnto wyſdome, ſhe hath deliuered them from ſorowe.

Gen.28.a. 10 *When the ryghteous fledde becauſe of his brothers wrath, " wyſedome ledde hym the ryght way, ſhewed hym the kyngdome of God, gaue hym knowledge of holy thynges, made hym riche in his labours, and brought to paſſe the thinges that he went about.

" Or, ſhe.

11 In the " deceiptfulneſſe of ſuche as defrauded hym, ſhe ſtoode by hym, and made hym riche.

" Or, coueſouſneſſe.

12 She ſaued hym from the enimies, and defended him from the " deceiuers: In a ſtrong batayle ſhe gaue hym the victorie, that he myght know howe that the feare of GOD is ſtronger then al thinges.

" Or, lyers in wayte.

Gen.37.f. Actes.7.b 13 *When the ryghteous was ſolde, ſhe forſooke hym not, but deliuered hym from ſinne: She went downe with hym into the " dungeon,

" Or, priſon.

Gen.41.f. C 14 And fayled him not in the bandes, *tyl ſhe had brought him the ſcepter of the Realme, and power againſt thoſe that oppreſſed him: As for them that had accuſed hym, ſhe declared them to be lyers, and brought him to perpetual " worſhip.

" Or, glorie.

Exod.1.b. 15 *She deliuered the ryghteous people and faultleſſe ſeede, from the nations that oppreſſed them.

Exod.3.c. 16 *She entred into the ſoule of the ſeruant of the Lorde, and ſtoode by hym in woonders and tokens agaynſt the dreadful kynges.

17 She gaue the " ryghteous the rewarde of their labours, and led them foorth a marueylous way: on the day time ſhe was a ſhadow vnto them, and a lyght of ſtarres in the night ſeaſon.

" Or, the ſaintes.

Exo.14.e. 18 *She brought them through the red ſea, and caried them through the great water.

19 But ſhe drowned their enimies [in the ſea] but brought them out of the botome of the deepe.

Exo.12.e. Exo.15.a. 20 *So the ryghteous tooke the ſpoyles of the vngodly, *& prayſed thy holy name, O lord, and magnified thy victorious hande with one accorde.

Pſal.18.a. Math.2.c. 21 *For wyſedome openeth the mouth of the dumbe, and maketh the tongues of babes to be eloquent.

The .xi. Chapter.

1 The myracles donne for Iſrael. 13 The vengeance of ſinners. 28 The great power and mercie of God.

A 1 She " ordered their woorks in the handes of the holy prophete:

" Or, directed, or proſpered.

Exo.16.a. 2 *[So that] they went through the wyldterneſſe that was not inhabited, and pitched their tentes in the waſte deſert.

3 They ſtoode agaynſt their enimies, and were auenged of their aduerſaries.

Exo.17.c. Num.20.b 4 *When they were thirſtie, they called vpon thee, and water was geuen them out of the [moſt] high rocke, and their thirſt was quenched out of the harde ſtone.

5 For by the thinges wherethrough their enimies were pouniſhed, were the " children of Iſrael helped in their neede.

" Or, they, that is, the Iſraelites.

6 For in ſteede of a fountaine of the perpetual running fludde, al troubled with gorie blood,

7 In reproche of the commaundement publiſhed to murther the infantes, thou gaueſt vnto them abundance of water, and that not looked for neither:

8 Declaring by that thirſt then, howe thou hadſt pouniſhed thyne aduerſaries. B

Deut.8.a. 9 *For when they were tryed, and nurtured with [fatherly] mercie, they knewe how the vngodly were iudged, and pouniſhed in the wrath [of God.]

10 For theſe haſt thou exhorted as a father, and prooued them: but vnto the other thou haſt benne a boyſtuous kyng, " layed harde to their charge, and condempned them.

" Or, examined them ſtraytly.

11 Whether they were abſent or preſent, theyr pouniſhment was a lyke.

12 For their greefe was double, and mourning for the remembrance of thinges paſt:

13 For when they perceiued that their pouniſhmentes dyd them good, they * thought vpon the Lorde.

* Or, they feele.

C 14 For whom, in his caſting out before, as an abiect they had denied with deriſion, him in the ende, when they ſawe what happened, they woondered at: for they were of another thirſt then was the iuſt.

15 But for the fooliſhe deuiſes of their wickedneſſe, wherewith beyng deceiued, they worſhipped ſerpentes that had not the vſe of reaſon, and vile beaſtes, thou ſenteſt a multitude of vnreaſonable beaſtes vpon them for reuengeance:

16 That they myght knowe, that looke wherwithal a man ſinneth, by the ſame alſo ſhal he be pouniſhed.

Leui.26.d. Sapi.16.a. Iere.8.f.

17 * For vnto thy almyghtie hande that made the worlde of nought, it was not vnpoſſible to ſende among them an heape of beares, or wood Lions,

18 Or cruel beaſtes of a ſtrange kinde, ſuche as are vnknowen, or ſpout fire, or caſt out a ſmokyng breath, or ſhoote horrible ſparkes out of their eyes:

19 Whiche myght not only deſtroy them with hurting, but alſo kille them with their horrible ſyght.

20 Yea without theſe [beaſtes] myght they haue benne ſlayne with one winde, beyng perſecuted by the reuengeance, and ſcattered abroade through the breath of thy power: Neuertheleſſe, thou haſt ordered al thinges in meaſure, number, and wayght.

D 21 For thou haſt euer had great ſtrength and myght, and who may withſtande the power of thyne arme?

22 For why? lyke as the ſmal thing that the ballance wayeth, ſo is the world before thee: yea as a droppe of the mornyng deawe that falleth downe vpon the earth.

23 But thou haſt mercie vpon al, for thou haſt power of al thinges, * and makeſt thee as though thou ſaweſt not the ſinnes of menne, becauſe they ſhoulde amende.

Rom.2.a.

24 For thou loueſt al the thinges that are, and hateſt none of them whom thou haſt made: for thou wouldeſt not haue made any thing yf thou hadſt hated it.

25 Yea howe myght any thing endure, yf it were not thy wyl? or how coulde any thing be preſerued, except it were called of thee?

26 But thou ſpareſt al: for they are thyne (O Lorde) thou louer of ſoules.

The .xii. Chapter.

2 The mercie of God towarde ſinners. 14 The woorkes of God are vnreprouable.
19 God geueth leaſure to repent.

A 1 FOR thy vncorruptible ſpirite, O Lorde, is in al thinges?

2 Therefore chaſteneſt thou them meaſurably that goe wrong, & warneſt them by putting them in remembrance in what thinges they haue offended, that leauing their wickednes, they may beleeue on thee, O Lorde.

Deut.9.a. 12.d.18.c.

3 * As for thoſe olde inhabiters of thy holy lande, thou myghteſt not alway with them.

4 For they committed abominable woorks [agaynſt thee] as witchcraft, ſorcerie, and wicked ſacrifices.

5 They ſlue their owne chyldren without mercie, they dyd eate vp the bowels of mens fleaſhe, and deuoured the blood in abominable bankettes, and had their madde fanatical prieſtes:

6 And the fathers were the chiefe murderers of the ſoules deſtitute of helpe, [theſe dooers] thou wouldeſt deſtroy by the handes of our fathers:

B 7 That the lande whiche thou loueſt aboue al other, myght be a meete dwelling for the chyldren of God.

8 Neuertheleſſe, thou ſparedſt them alſo as menne, and ſendedſt the forerunners of thyne hoſt, euen hornettes to deſtroy them out by litle and litle.

9 Not that thou waſt vnable to ſubdue the vngodly vnto the ryghteous in batayle, or with cruel beaſtes, or with one rough woord to deſtroy them togeather:

Exo.13.d. Deut.7.d.

10 * But thy mynde was in pouniſhing them by litle and litle, to geue them place for amendement, knowyng wel that it was an vnrighteous nation, and wicked of nature, and that their thought myght neuer be altered.

11 For it was a curſed ſeede from the beginning: yet haſt thou not pardoned their ſinnes wherein they offended, for that thou feareſt any man.

12 For who wil ſtand againſt thy iudgement? or who wyl blame thee for the nations that periſhe, whom thou haſt made? or who wyl comme before thy face to be reuenged for the vnryghteous menne?

1.Pet.5.a. 13 For there is none other God but thou, * that careſt for al thinges: that thou mayeſt declare howe that thy iudgement is not vnryght.

C 14 There dare neither kyng nor tyrant in thy ſyght, require accomptes of them whom thou haſt " deſtroyed.

" Or, pouniſhed.

15 Forſomuche then as thou art righteous thee ſelfe, thou ordreſt al thinges ryghteouſly, * thynking it vnſeemely for thy power to condempne hym that hath not deſerued to be pouniſhed.

Iob.9.a.

16 For thy power is the beginnyng of ryghteouſneſſe, and becauſe thou art Lorde of al thinges, it maketh thee to be gratious vnto al.

17 For when menne thinke thee not to be of a ful ſtrength, thou declareſt thy power, and reprooueſt the boldneſſe of the wyſe.

18 But thou " maiſtring thy power, doeſt iudge with equitie, & ordreſt vs with great fauour: for thou mayeſt vſe power when thou wylt.

" Or, ruling

19 By ſuche woorkes nowe haſt thou taught thy people, that the iuſt man ſhoulde be louyng, and haſt made thy chyldren to be of a good hope, becauſe thou geueſt roome to repentance for ſinnes.

D 20 For inſomuche as thou haſt pouniſhed, and with ſuche deliberation and obteſtation, the enimies of thy ſeruantes, which were woorthy to dye, where through thou gaueſt them tyme and place of amendement, that they myght turne from their wickedneſſe:

21 With howe great circumſpection then pouniſheſt thou thyne owne chyldren, vnto whoſe fathers thou haſt ſworne, and made couenantes of good promiſes?

22 So where as thou doeſt chaſten vs, thou " pouniſheſt our enimies a thouſand times more: to the intent that when we pouniſhe, we ſhoulde diligently thinke of thy goodneſſe, and when we our ſelues are " pouniſhed, we ſhoulde hope for mercie.

" Or, ſcourgeſt.

" Or, iudged.

23 Wherefore, where as menne haue liued diſſolutely & vnrighteouſly, thou haſt pouniſhed them ſoare with theyr owne abominations.

24 * For they went aſtray very " long in the wayes of errour, & helde the beaſtes (whiche euen their enimies deſpiſed) for gods, deceiued as chyldren of no vnderſtandyng.

Sapi.11.c. Rom.1.c.

" Or, farre.

25 Therefore haſt thou ſent them thy iudgement in ſcorne, as to chyldren voyde of reaſon.

26 As for ſuche as wyl not be refourmed by thoſe ſcornes [and rebukes,] they ſhal feele the woorthy " pouniſhment of God.

27 For looke in what thinges they " diſdayned when they " ſuffered for their ſakes, whom they counted goddes, ſeeyng them ſelues pouniſhed in the " ſame, they perceiued that he was in deede the true GOD, whom before they had denied to knowe, and therefore came extreme dampnation vpon them.

" Or, iudgement.

" Or, murmuring and grudging.

" Or, were chaſtined.

" Or, murmuring.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 Al thinges be vayne, except the knowledge of God. 10 Idolaters and idols are mocked.

A 1 Surely vayne are al menne by nature, whiche were ignorant of God, & coulde not out of the good thynges that are ſeene, knowe hym that of hym ſelfe is [euerlaſting] neither tooke ſo muche regarde of the woorkes that are made, as thereby to knowe who was the crafteſman of them:

2 But ſomme tooke the fire, ſomme the wind or ſwift ayre, ſomme the courſe of the ſtarres, ſomme the running water, [ſome tooke ſunne and moone] or the lightes of heauen, for gods that rule the worlde.

3 But though they had ſuch pleaſure in their beautie, that they thought them to haue ben goddes, yet ſhould they haue knowen howe muche more " fayrer he is that made them: For the " maker of beautie hath ordeyned al theſe thinges.

" Or, excellent.

" Or, the firſt authour.

4 Or yf they marueyled at the power and woorke of them, they ſhoulde haue perceiued thereby, howe muche he whiche made theſe thinges is myghtier then they.

5 For by the greatneſſe of the beautie, and of the creatures, the maker thereof compared with them, may plainely be " knowen.

" Or, ſeene.

6 Notwithſtandyng, they are the leſſe to be blamed that ſeeke God, and woulde finde hym, and yet peraduenture " miſſe.

" Or, erre.

7 For they being occupied in his woorkes, doo ſeeke hym diligently, and are perſwaded by the ſyght, becauſe the thinges are beautiful that are ſeene.

B 8 Howebeit, yet neither are they to be excuſed.

9 For if their vnderſtanding [and knowledge] be ſo great, that they can " diſcerne the world [and the creatures] why doo they not rather finde out the Lorde thereof?

" Or, coniecture.

10 But miſerable are they, and " among the dead is their hope, that calle them goddes,

" Or, in dead thynges.

Whiche are but the woorkes of mens hands, golde, ſiluer, and the thing that is founde out by " cunning, the ſimilitude of beaſtes, or any vayne ſtone that hath benne made by hande of olde.

" Or, arte.

11 Or as when a carpenter cutteth downe a tree meete for the purpoſe, and pareth of al the barke cunningly, and ſo by arte comely maketh a veſſel profitable to the vſe of lyfe:

12 And with that whiche is cut of from his woorke, doth dreſſe his meate to fil his belly:

13 And as for the other part that is leaft, which is profitable for nothyng (for it is a crooked peece of wood, and fulle of knobbes) he carueth it diligently by leaſure, and according to the knowledge of his cunning, he geueth it ſomme proportion, faſhioneth it after the ſimilitude of a man,

C 14 Or maketh it lyke ſomme vyle beaſt, ſtraketh it ouer with red, and paynteth it, and looke what foule ſpot is in it, he caſteth ſome colour vpon it:

15 Then maketh he a " conuenient tabernacle for it, ſetteth it in the wal, and maketh it faſt with iron:

" Or, an houſe worthy of it.

16 Prouiding ſo for it, leſt it happen to fal, " for it is wel knowen, that it can not helpe it ſelfe: For why, it is but an image, and muſt of neceſſitie be helped.

" Or, for he knoweth wel.

17 Then makyng prayer for his goodes, for his mariage, and for chyldren, he is not aſhamed to ſpeake to that whiche hath no ſoule.

18 For health, he maketh his petition vnto hym that is " ſicke: for life, he humblie praieth vnto hym that is dead: he " calleth vpon hym for helpe, that hath no experience at al: and to ſend him a good iourney, he praieth hym that may not goe.

" Or, weake.

" Or, maketh ſupplication vnto hym.

19 And for gayne, for woorke, and for ſucceſſe of his affayres, he aſketh power of him, whiche is without al manner of power.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

1 The deteſtation and abomination of images. 8 A curſe of them, and of him that maketh them. 14 Whereof idolatrie proceeded. 23 What euils comme of idolatrie.

A 1 AGayne, another man purpoſyng to ſayle, and " beginnyng to take his iourney through the ragyng " ſea, calleth for helpe vnto a ſtocke, that is far weaker then the veſſel that beareth hym.

" Or, preparing and makyng ready.

" Or, waues ryeth.

2 For as for it, couetouſneſſe of money hath founde it out, and the craftes man made it with his cunning.

3 But thy prouidence, O father, gouerneth it: For thou haſt made a way euen in the ſea, and a ſure path in the middeſt of the waues,

4 Declaryng thereby, that thou haſt power to helpe " in al thinges, yea though a man went to the ſea without " ſhip.

" Or, euery way.

" Or, art.

5 Neuertheleſſe, thou wouldeſt not that the woorkes of thy wyſedome ſhoulde be in vaine: and therefore doo men commit theyr liues to a ſmal peece of wood, paſſing ouer the ſtormie ſea in a ſhip, and are ſaued.

6 * For in the olde time alſo when the proude giantes periſhed, he in whom " the hope was leaft to increaſe the worlde, went into the ſhippe whiche was gouerned through thy hande, and ſo leaft ſeede behynde him vnto the worlde.

Gen. 7. d.

" Or, the hope of the worldes.

B 7 For " happy is the tree, wherethrough ryghteouſneſſe commeth:

" Or, bleſſed.

8 But curſed is " [the idol] that is made with handes, * yea both it, and he that made it: He, becauſe he made it: and it, becauſe it was called GOD, whereas it is but a " frayle thing.

" Or, the thyng.

Pſal. cxv. a

Baruc. 6. d

" Or, corruptible.

9 * For the vngodly, and his vngodlineſſe, are both lyke abominable vnto God.

Pſal. 7. d.

10 [Euen ſo] the woorke, and he that made it alſo, ſhalbe pouniſhed togeather.

11 Therefore ſhal there a plague comme vpon the idols of the heathen: for out of the creature of God, they are become an abomination, a " temptation vnto the ſoules of men, and a ſnare for the feete of the vnwyſe.

" Or, a ſclander & offence, or ſtumbling blocke.

12 For why, the " ſeeking out of idols, is the beginnyng of whoredome, and the " bryngyng vp of them, is the " deſtruction of life.

" Or, deuiſing.

" Or, inuentions.

" Or, the corruption.

13 For they were not from the beginning, neither ſhal they continue for euer.

14 The vayne glory of menne, hath founde them out vpon earth, therfore ſhal they cōme ſhortly to an ende. C

15 For when a father mourned heauyly for his ſonne " ſodaynely taken away from hym, he made hym an image: and hym whiche then was but a dead man, he nowe beganne to woorſhip as a god, and ordeyned for his " ſeruantes ceremonies and ſacrifices.

" Or, ſoone.

" Or, ſubiectes.

16 Thus by proceſſe of tyme, this " vngratious cuſtome beyng waxen ſtrong, was kept as a lawe, and images were woorſhipped by commaundement of tyrantes.

" Or, wicked

17 As for thoſe that were ſo farre of, that men myght not woorſhyppe them preſent, theyr viſage beyng drawen out from farre of, was made as the " cleare image of an honorable kyng, that they might with " affection flatter as wel the abſent as the preſent.

" Or, gorgeous.
" Or, diligence.

18 Agayne, the ſinguler ambition of the craftes man, gaue the ignorant alſo a great occaſion to increaſe the ſuperſtition.

19 For he wylling to pleaſe one, peraduenture that " bare rule, laboured with al his cunning, to make the image of the beſt faſhion.

" Or, was of aucthoritie.

D 20 And ſo thorow the beautie of the woorke, the " cōmon people beyng thereto allured, tooke hym nowe for a god, whiche a litle before was but honoured as a man.

" Or, multitude.

21 And this was to the deceiuing of mannes lyfe, when menne eyther with calamitie or tyrannie oppreſſed, aſcribed vnto ſtones and ſtockes that name [of God] whiche ought not to be geuen vnto any thyng [els.]

22 Moreouer, this was not yenough for them, that they erred in the knowledge of God: but whereas they liued in the great warre of ignorance, thoſe ſo [many and] great " plagues called they peace.

" Or, euils.

Deut.18.b
Iere.7.b.

23 For eyther * they ſlue theyr owne chyldren, and offered them in ſacrifice, or vſed ſecret ceremonies, or folowed madde drunken diſſoluteneſſe of rites in ſacrifice:

24 So that they kept neyther lyfe nor maryage cleane: but eyther one ſlue another trayterouſly, or greeued hym by adulterie.

25 So that there raigned in al menne without exception, blood, manſlaughter, theft, " diſſimulation, corruption, vnfaythfulneſſe, ſedition, periurie,

" Or, deceit.

26 Diſquieting of good menne, vnthankfulnes, defiling of ſoules, changing of byrth, diſordering of mariages, adulterie, and vncleanneſſe.

27 For why, the honouring of " abominable images, is the beginning, the cauſe, and ende of al euil.

" Or, of idols that ought not once to be named of vs.

28 For [they that woorſhyp idols,] eyther they are madde when they be mery, or propheſie lyes, or lyue " vngodlye, or els lyghtly forſweare them ſelues.

" Or, vniuſtly.

29 For inſomuche as theyr truſt is in the idols whiche haue no " ſoule, though they ſweare falſely, yet they thynke it ſhal not hurte them.

" Or, lyfe.

30 Therefore commeth a great plague vpon them, and that woorthyly, for both cauſes: for they haue an euil opinion of God, that geue heede vnto idols, and they ſweare vniuſtly in deceite, deſpiſing holineſſe.

31 For it is not the power of them, by whom they ſweare: but it is the iuſt vengeance of ſinners that puniſheth alwayes the offence of the vngodly dooers.

" Or, iudgement.

The.xv.Chapter.

The voyce of the faythful prayſyng the mercy of God, by whoſe grace they ſerue not idolles.

A 1 But thou, O our God, art gratious, true, and long ſufferyng, and in mercye ordereſt thou al thynges.

2 Though we ſinne, yet are we thyne, for we knowe thy ſtrength: but we wyl not ſinne, becauſe we knowe we are counted thyne.

3 For to knowe thee, is perfect ryghteouſneſſe: yea, to knowe thy power, is the roote of immortalitie.

4 As " for the thyng that menne haue found out through theyr euil ſcience, it hath not deceiued vs, nor the paynters vnprofitable labour, [to wit,] an image ſpotted " with diuers colours,

" Or, for neither the malicious deuiſe of menne deceiued vs.
" Or, ſtayned

5 Whoſe ſight entiſeth the ignorant to luſt after it, & he deſyreth the " picture of a dead image that hath no breath.

" Or, fourme

6 Both they that make them, they that deſyre them, and they that woorſhip them, loue euyls, and are woorthy to haue ſuch thynges to truſt vpon.

7 For the potter tempereth ſofte earth, laboureth it, and geueth it the faſhion of whatſoeuer veſſel ſerueth for our vſe: and of the ſelfe ſame claye he maketh both the veſſels that ſerue for cleane vſes, and alſo ſuche as ſerue to the contrary: Whereunto euerye veſſel ſerueth, the potter hym ſelfe beyng the iudge. B

8 So by his wicked labour, he maketh a vayne god of the ſame claye: this dooth euen he whiche a litle before was made of earth hym ſelfe, and within a litle whyle after, returneth to the ſame out of whiche he was taken, when the lone of his life ſhalbe demaunded from hym agayne.

9 Notwithſtanding, he careth not the more for this, that he muſt labour, nor that his lyfe is ſhort: but ſtriueth to excel goldeſmythes & ſyluerſmythes, and endeuoureth to doo lyke the copperſmythes, and taketh it for an honour to make " deceiuable thynges.

" Or, falſe & counterfaite.

10 His hart is but aſhes, his hope is more vayne then earth, and his lyfe of " leſſe honour then claye. " Or, more baſe.

11 Forſomuche as he knoweth not his owne maker that gaue hym his ſoule of power to worke, and breathed in hym the breath of lyfe.

12 But they counted our lyfe but a paſtime, and [our] conuerſation to be but a market for gayne, and that menne ſhould euery way be geatting, yea, though it were by euil meanes.

13 Nowe he that of earth maketh frayle veſſels and images, knoweth hym ſelfe to offend aboue al other.

C 14 Al the enimies of thy people that holde them in ſubiection, are moſt vnwiſe, and are more miſerable then very " fooles. " Or, very babes.

15 For they iudge al the idols of the heathen to be goddes, whiche neyther haue eye ſyght to ſee, nor noſes " to ſmel, nor eares to heare, nor fyngers or handes to grope, & as for theyr feete, they are [to] ſlowe to goe. " Or, to drawe the ayre, or breath.

16 For manne made them, and he that borowed his owne ſpirite faſhioned them: but no man can make a god like vnto him ſelfe.

17 For ſeeyng he is but mortal, it is but mortal that he maketh with vnryghteous handes: He hym ſelfe is better then they whom he worſhyppeth, for he liued as they did neuer.

18 Yea, they worſhypped [ſuche] beaſtes alſo as are " moſt hateful: for if they were compared for " madneſſe, they are worſe then others. " Or, theyr moſt enimies. " Or, lacke of vnderſtanding

19 Neyther haue they any beautie why to be deſyred in reſpect of other beaſtes: but are al voyde of the prayſe of God, and his bleſſyng.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 The pouniſhment of idolaters. 20 The benefites donne vnto the faythful.

A 1 Therefore, by ſuche thinges are they worthyly pouniſhed, and thorowe the multitude of beaſtes are they " rooted out. " Or, tormented.

2 In ſteede of the whiche pouniſhmentes thou haſt graciouſly ordered thyne owne people, preparing for the deſyre of theyr appetite a ſtrange taſte, * euen quayles to be theyr meate: Num.11.g

3 To the intent, that by the thynges whiche were ſhewed and ſent vnto them, they that were ſo greedy of meate, myght begynne to lothe euen theyr neceſſary appetite, aud they whiche had ſuffered penurie for a ſhort ſpace, myght be partakers of the newe taſte.

4 For it was requiſite that without any excuſe, pouertie ſhoulde comme vpon thoſe whiche vſed tyrannie, and to ſhewe only vnto the other, howe theyr enimies were " deſtroyed. " Or, tormented.

Num.21.b 5 * For when the cruel " woodneſſe of the beaſtes came vpon them, and they periſhed thorowe the ſtinges of the cruel ſerpentes, [Notwithſtandyng,] thy wrath endured not perpetually. " Or, fierceneſſe.

6 But they were " put in feare for a litle ſeaſon, that they myght be refourmed, hauing a " token to remember the commaundement of thy lawe. " Or, troubled. " Or, the braſen ſerpent.

B 7 For he that looked backe [to it.] was not healed by the thing that he ſawe, but by thee, O ſauiour of al.

8 So in this thou ſhewedſt our enimies, that it is thou whiche delivereſt from al euil.

Exod.10.a 9 For then * when they were bytten with graſhoppers and flyes, they dyed, neyther was there any remedie founde for theyr life, for they were worthy to be pouniſhed by ſuche.

10 But not the very teeth of venemous dragons dyd ouercome thy chyldren: for thy mercy was euer by them, and healed them.

11 For they were pricked, becauſe they ſhould remember thy wordes, but ſpeedyly were they healed agayne, leſt they ſhoulde fal into ſo deepe forgeatfulneſſe, that they myght not be called backe by thy benefite.

12 For it was neyther hearbe nor plaſter, that reſtored them to health: but thy worde, O Lorde, whiche healeth al thynges.

13 It is thou, O Lorde, that haſt the power of lyfe & death, * thou leadeſt " vnto deathes doore, and bryngeſt vp agayne. Deut.32.f. 1.Reg.2.a. " Or, downe to hel gates.

14 A man in deede thorow his wickedneſſe, may ſlaye [another,] but when his ſpirite is gonne foorth, it turneth not agayne, neyther may he calle agayne the ſoule that is taken away.

15 * But it is not poſſible to eſcape thy hande. Exod.9.c.

16 For the vngodly that woulde not knowe thee, were pouniſhed by the ſtrength of thyne arme: with ſtrange raynes, hayles, and ſhowres, were they perſecuted, that they could not auoyde, and through fire were they conſumed.

17 For it was a woonderous thing that fire might doo more then water, whiche quencheth al thinges: but the worlde is the auenger of the ryghteous.

18 For ſometymes was the fyre ſo tame, that the beaſtes whiche were ſent to pouniſhe the vngodly, brent not, and that becauſe they ſhoulde ſee, and knowe that they were perſecuted with the pouniſhment of God.

19 And ſommetyme brent the fyre in the middeſt of the water, that it might deſtroy the fruites of the vniuſt lande.

Exod.16.c 20 * In ſteede whereof, thou haſt fed thine owne people with angels foode, and ſent them bread ready from heauẽ, without theyr labour, " beyng very pleaſant, and of good taſte.

" Or, beyng of force for al pleaſures, and apt to euery taſte.

21 For this thy ſubſtance vnto thy chyldren, declared thy ſweeteneſſe, and ſeruing to his appetite that tooke it, tempered it ſelfe accordyng to his deſyre.

Exod.9.d. 22 * But the ſnowe & yſe abode the violence of the fyre, and melted not, that they might knowe that the fyre burnyng in the hayle, and ſparklyng in the rayne, deſtroyed the fruite of the enimies.

23 The fyre alſo forgate his owne ſtrength againe, that yͤ righteous might be nouriſhed.

24 For the creature that ſerueth thee, whiche art the maker, is fierce in pouniſhing the vnryghteous, but is eaſie [and gentle] to doo good vnto ſuche as put theyr truſt in thee.

25 Therfore dyd it alter at the ſame tyme into al faſhions, and was obedient vnto thy grace, whiche is the nurſe of al thynges, accordyng to the deſyre of them that had neede thereof:

26 That thy chyldren, O Lord, whom thou loueſt, myght knowe * that it is not the " growyng of fruites that feedeth menne, but that it is thy woorde whiche preſerueth them that put theyr truſt in thee.

Deut.8.a. Mat.4.a.

" Or increaſe and reuenues.

27 For looke what " might not be deſtroyed at al with the fyre, as ſoone as it was warmed with a litle ſunne beame, it melted:

" Or, coulde.

28 That al menne might knowe that thankes ought to be geuen vnto thee, before the ſunne ryſe, and that thou oughteſt to be " woorſhypped before the day ſpryng.

" Or, prayed vnto at.

29 For the hope of the vnthankful, ſhal melt alway as the wynter yſe, and flowe alway as vnprofitable water.

The, xvii, Chapter.

¶ The iudgementes of God agaynſt the wicked.

A 1 FOR great are thy iudgementes, [O Lorde,] & can not be expreſſed: therefore menne doo erre that wyl not be refourmed [by thy wyſedome.]

Rom.11.c.

Exo.10.c. 2 * For when the vnrighteous thought to haue thy holy people in ſubiection, they were bounde with the bandes of darkeneſſe and long night, ſhut vp vnder roofes, and laye there to eſcape the eternal prouidence.

3 And whyle they thought to be hyd in the darkneſſe of theyr ſinnes, they were ſcattered abroade in the very middeſt of the darke coueryng of forgeatfulnes, put to horrible feare, and woonderouſly vexed.

" Or, aſtoniſed with ſightes of ſtrange apparitions.

4 For the corner where they laye hyd, might not keepe them from feare, becauſe the ſoundes came rounde about them, & vexed them, yea, many terrible and ", ſtrange viſions appeared vnto them.

" Or, phantaſies, with woful countenances.

5 No power of the fyre myght geue them lyght, neyther myght the cleare flambes of the ſtarres lyghten the horrible nyght:

6 But there appeared vnto them a ſuddaine fyre only, very dreadful: At the which ſight, wherein they ſawe nothyng throughly, they were ſo afrayde, that they thought the thing whiche they ſawe, to be the more feareful.

" Or, the woorſe.

B 7 As for the illuſions of the magical art, they came to nought: and it was a moſt ſhameful reproch of the pryde that they had of theyr owne wyſedome.

8 For they that promiſed to dryue away the feares and troubles from the ſicke ſoule, were ſicke them ſelues with feare, woorthy to be laughed at.

9 For though no terrible thyng did feare them, yet were they afrayde at the beaſtes whiche paſſed by them, and at the hiſſing of the ſerpentes.

10 Inſomuche, that with tremblyng they " ſowned, and " ſayde they ſawe not the ayre, whiche no man yet may eſcape.

" Or, dyed
" Or, and denied euen to ſee the ayre.

11 For malice is a dreadful thing, that is condemned by his owne witneſſe: and beyng preſſed with conſcience, it euer " ſuſpecteth cruel thinges.

" Or, forecaſteth.

12 For feare is nothyng els but a " betraying of the ſuccours whiche reaſon offereth.

" Or, a forſaking and reuoltyng of the helpes which reaſon ſuggeſteth.

13 And looke how muche the leſſe his hope is within, the greater dooth he recount his ignorance of that cauſe that bryngeth the torment.

14 But they [that dyd endure] the nyght that in deede was intollerable, & that came from the dungeons of intollerable hel, ſleeping the ſame ſleepe,

15 Were ſommetymes chaſed with monſterous apparitions, & ſommetymes they ſowned, as theyr owne ſoules had betraied them: for an haſtie feare, and that was not looked for, came vpon them.

16 And thus, whoſoeuer was there fallen, he was in priſon, but without chaynes:

17 For whether a man had occupyed huſbandry, or had benne an heardman, or labourer in the " woodes, if he were taken, he ſuffered " intollerable neceſſitie.

" Or, alone, or in the deſertes.
" Or, that coulde not be eſcaped.

18 For they were al bounde with one chayne of darknes: whether it were a blaſing wind, or a ſweete ſong of the byrdes among the thicke branches of the trees, or the vehemencie of haſtie runnyng water,

19 Or great noyſe of the fallyng downe of ſtones, or the runnyng of playeing beaſtes whiche they ſawe not, or the myghty noyſe of roaryng wyld beaſtes, or " the ſound that anſweared agayne in the holoneſſe of mountaynes: Theſe terrible thynges made them ſowne [for very feare.]

" Or, ecco.

20 For al the " earth ſhined with cleare light, and no man was hyndered in his labour.

" Or, world.

21 Onely vpon them there fel a heauy nyght, an image of darkeneſſe that was to comme vpõ them: Yea, they were vnto them ſelues more heauy then darkeneſſe.

The, xviii, Chapter.

3 The fiery piller that the Iſraelites had in Egypt. 8 The deliuerance of the faythful.
10 The Lorde ſmote the Egyptians. 20 The ſynne of the people in the wyldernеſſe.
21 Aaron ſtoode betweene the liuing and the dead with his cenſure.

A 1 NEuertheleſſe, thy ſayntes hadde a very great lyght, whoſe voyce thei hearing, & not ſeeyng theyr figure, for that they ſuffered not the ſame thynges, they thought them bleſſed.

2 And for that they did not hurt them now, of whom they had benne wronged before, they thanked them, and beſought them pardon of that they had benne enimies.

3 Therfore thou gaueſt them a burnyng piller of fyre, to leade them in the vnknowen way, and the ſunne not to hurt them in theyr honorable iourney.

4 But reaſon it was that they ſhoulde leeſe the lyght, and be put in the priſon of darknes, whiche had kept thy chyldren " ſhut vp, by whom the vncorrupt lyght of the lawe was to be geuen vnto the worlde.

" Or, in bondage.

Exod. 1. c. and, 2, a.

5 *After when they thought to ſlaye the babes of the ſayntes, one chylde beyng caſt out, and preſerued to reproue them, thou tookeſt awaye the whole multitude of theyr chyldren, and deſtroyedſt them altogeather in a myghty water.

Exod. 14. f and, 24. g.

6 Of that nyght were our fathers certified afore, that they knowyng vnto what othes they had geuen credence, myght be of good cheare.

B 7 Thus thy people receiued the health of the righteous, but the vngodly were deſtroyed.

8 For lyke as thou haſt " reuenged our enimies, ſo haſt thou promoted vs whom thou haſt called.

" Or, pouniſhed.

9 For the ryghteous chyldren of the good menne offered ſecretely, and made a godly lawe with one conſent, that yͤ ſaintes ſhould in lyke manner receiue togeather both good and euyl, and that the fathers nowe ſhoulde fyrſt ſyng prayſes.

10 But there was hearde a diſagreeyng voyce of the enimies, and there was a miſerable lamentation for chyldren that were bewayled.

11 The maiſter and the ſeruant were pouniſhed after one manner: and lyke as the king, ſo ſuffered the common people:

12 So they had innumerable that dyed with one kynde of death altogeather: * neyther were the liuing ſufficient to bury " the dead, for in the twincklyng of an eye, the nobleſt offſpryng of them was deſtroyed.

Exod. 12. e
" Or, them.

13 For whereas they woulde diſcredite al thynges, by reaſon of the inchauntmentes, in the deſtruction of the fyrſt borne, they acknowledged that this people was the chyldren of God.

14 For whyle al thynges were ſtil in ſcilence, and when the nyght was in the myddeſt of her courſe, thy almyghty woord, O Lord, leapt downe from heauen out of thy royal throne, C

15 As a " rough man of warre in the middeſt of the lande that was deſtroyed,

" Or, fierce.

16 And brought thyne vnfaigned commaundement as a ſharpe ſwoorde, and ſtandyng vp, fylled al thynges with death, yea, it ſtoode vpon the earth, and reached vnto the heauen.

17 Then the ſightes of the euyl dreames vexed them ſuddainely, and fearefulneſſe came vpon them vnawares.

18 Then laye there one here, another there, halfe dead [halfe quicke,] and ſhewed the cauſe of his death.

19 For the viſions that vexed them, ſhewed them theſe thynges afore, that they myght not be ignorant wherefore they periſhed.

D 20 Yea, the temptation of death touched the ryghteous alſo, and ″ among the multitude in the wyldernesse there was ″ inſurrection: but thy wrath endured not long.

″ Or, of.
″ Or, a ſlaughter.

Num.16.g 21 * For the blameleſſe manne went in al the haſte, & tooke the batayle vpon him, brought foorth the weapon of his miniſtration, euen prayer, and the reconciliation of incenſe, ſet hym ſelfe agaynſt the wrath, and ſo brought the miſerie to an end, declaryng [therby] that he was thy ſeruant.

22 For he ouercame not the ″ multitude with bodyly power, or force of weapons: but with the woorde he ſubdued him that ″ vexed, alleaging the oth and couenant made vnto the fathers.

″ Or, the deſtroyer.
″ Or, that pouniſhed.

23 For when the dead were fallen downe by heapes one vpon another, he ſtoode in the middeſt, ″ pacified the wrath, & ″ parted the way, that it might not comme to the liuing.

″ Or, cut of.
″ Or, brake.

24 * And why? in his long garment was al the beautie, and in the foure rowes of the ſtones, was the glory of the fathers grauen, & thy maieſtie was wrytten in the ″ crowne of his head. Exod.28.a

″ Or, diademe.

25 Unto theſe the deſtroyer gaue place, and was afrayd of them: for it was yenough that they only taſted of the wrath.

The.xix.Chapter.

1 The death of the Egyptians, and the great ioy of the Hebrues. 11 The meate that was geuen at the deſyre of the people. 17 Al the elementes ſerue to the wyl of God.

A 1 As for the vngodlye, the wrath came vpon them without mercye vnto the ende: for he knewe before what ſhoulde happen vnto them:

2 Howe that when they had conſented to let them goe, and had ſent them out with great diligence, they woulde repent, and ″ folowe vpon them.

″ Or, purſue them.

Exod.14.a 3 * For whyles they were yet mournyng, and makyng lamentation by the graues of the dead, they deuiſed another fooliſhneſſe, ſo that they perſecuted them in theyr fleeing, whom they had (a) caſt out afore with prayer.

(a) That is, the chyldrē of Iſrael, whō they before had deſyred and prayed for to goe theyr way.

4 For the ″ neceſſitie whiche they had deſerued, brought them vnto this ende, and made them forgeat the thynges that had alreadye happened, that they myght by tormentes fulfyl theyr pouniſhment whiche remayned:

″ Or, deſtinie

5 And that thy people myght trye a marueylous paſſage: and theſe myght find a ſtrange death.

6 For euery creature in his kynde, was faſhioned agayne of newe, ſeruyng the peculiar offices, as was commaunded them, that thy chyldren myght be kept without hurt:

B 7 For the cloude ouerſhadowed theyr tentes, and the drie earth appeared, where afore was water: ſo that in the red ſea there was a way without impediment, and the great deepe became a greene fielde:

8 Wherethrough al the people went that were defended with thy hande, ſeeyng thy marueylous ſtrange woonders.

9 For as the horſes, ryght ſo they neyed, and leaped lyke lambes, prayſing thee, (O Lord) whiche hadſt deliuered them.

10 And why? they were yet myndeful of the thynges that were donne whyle they dwelte in the ſtrange lande, howe the grounde brought foorth flyes in ſteede of cattel, and howe the ryuer ſcrawled with the multitude of frogges in ſteede of fiſſhes.

11 * But at the laſt, they ſawe a newe generation of byrdes, what tyme as they were ſtirred with luſt, and deſyred delicate meates. Exod.16.c Num.11.g

12 For why? the quayles came vp to them from the ſea, for theyr comfort: but pouniſhmentes came vpon the ſinners, not without the ſignes whiche came before to paſſe, by vehemencie of the thicke lightnynges: For they ſuffered woorthyly, accordyng to theyr wickedneſſe, because they dealt ſo churliſhly, and with an hate of ſtrangers.

13 For ſome woulde not receiue ″ menne that came vnto them, and were vnknowen: and ſomme brought the ſtrangers into bondage that dyd them good.

″ Or, gheſtes vnknowen,

14 Nor onely ſo, but yf they had benne anye where regarded, they coulde not ſuffer it: For they entreated ſtrangers verye diſpitefully. C

15 Others that had receiued them with great ſolempnitie, when they were admitted vnto theyr ″ ſocietie, they afflicted them with greeuous labours.

″ Or, ryghtes

16 * Therefore were they ſtricken with blindneſſe, lyke as when they that were couered with ſuddaine darkneſſe at the doores of the ryghteous, ſought euery one of them the entrance of his doores. Gen.19.c.

17 Thus the elementes being changed, agreed among them ſelues, lyke as when tunes are changed vpon an inſtrument of muſike, and yet keepe ſtyl a melodie: whiche maye eaſyly be perceiued by the ſyght of the things that are comme to paſſe.

18 For the earthy thynges were turned into watrie: and the thyng that before ſwamme in the water, nowe went vpon the ground.

19 The fyre had power in the water, forgeattyng his owne vertue: and the water forgate his owne kynde to quenche [the fyre.]

20 Agayne, the flambes hurted not the fleaſhe of the corruptible liuing thyngs, though they walked therin, neyther melted they that yſie kynde of immortal meate, that was of nature apt to melt.

21 For in al thynges haſt thou promoted thy people (O Lorde) and brought them to honour, thou haſt not deſpiſed them, but alway, and in al places, haſt thou " ſtande by them.

" Or, aſſiſt them.

The ende of the booke of wiſdome.

The booke of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach whiche is called in latine Eccleſiaſticus.

The Prologue of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach vnto his booke.

Many and great menne haue declared wiſedome vnto vs out of the lawe, out of the prophetes, and out of other that folowed them: in the whiche thinges Iſrael ought to be commended by the reaſon of doctrine and wiſdome: Therfore they that haue it, and reade it, ſhoulde not onely them ſelues be wiſe therethrough, but ſerue other alſo with teachyng and wrytyng. After that my Grandfather Ieſus had geuen diligent labour to reade the lawe, the prophetes, and other bookes that were leaſt vs of our fathers, and had wel exerciſed hym ſelfe therein: He purpoſed alſo to wryte ſommethyng of wyſedome and good manners, to the intent that they whiche were wyllyng to learne, and to be wiſe, myght haue the more vnderſtandyng, and be the more apt to leade a good conuerſation. Wherefore I exhort you to receiue it louingly, to reade it with diligence, and to take it in good woorth, though our wordes be not ſo eloquent as the famous Oratours. For the thyng that is wrytten in the Hebrue tongue, ſoundeth not ſo wel when it is tranſlated into another ſpeache: Not only this booke of myne, but alſo the lawe, the prophetes, and other bookes ſounde farre otherwyſe, then they doo when they are ſpoken in theyr owne language.

Nowe in the thirtie and eyght yeere, when I came into Egypt, in the tyme of Ptolomie Euerges, and continued there a long ſeaſon, I founde bookes there leaſt, ful of great and profounde learnyng: Wherefore I thought it good and neceſſarie to beſtowe my diligence and trauayle to interprete this booke: And conſyderyng that I had tyme, I laboured and dyd my beſt to perfourme this booke, and to bring it vnto light, that the ſtrangers alſo which are diſpoſed to learne, myght apply them ſelues vnto good manners, and lyue accordyng to the lawe of the Lorde.

AL wyſedome * [cōmeth] of God the Lorde, and hath benne euer with hym, & is " before al time.

2 Who hath numbred yͤ ſand of the ſea, the droppes of the rayne, and the dayes of " tyme? Who hath meaſured the heyght of heauen, the breadth of the earth, and the deepeneſſe of the ſea?

" Or, the worlde.

3 Who hath ſought out the grounde of Gods wiſdome, which hath ben before al thinges?

4 * Wiſedome hath benne created before al thinges, and the vnderſtandyng of prudence from euerlaſtyng.

Rom.11.c.

5 (Gods woorde in the heyght is the wel of wiſedome, and the euerlaſtyng commaundementes, are the entrance of her.)

6 * Unto whom hath the roote of wiſedome ben declared? or who hath knowen her wit?

Rom.11.d.

7 Unto whom hath the doctrine of wiſdome benne diſcouered and ſhewed? and who hath vnderſtande the manyfolde entrance of her?

8 There is one, euen the higheſt, the maker of al thynges, the almyghty, the kyng of power, of whom menne ought to ſtande greatly in awe, whiche ſitteth vpon his throne, being ing a God of dominion.

9 He hath created her through the holy ghoſt, he hath ſeene her, numbred her, and meaſured her.

10 He hath powred her out vpõ al his workes, and vpon al fleaſhe, accordyng to his gift, he geueth her richely vnto them that loue hym.

11 The feare of the Lored is woorſhyp and triumph, gladneſſe, and a ioyful crowne.

12 The feare of the Lord maketh a mery hart, geueth gladneſſe, ioy, and long lyfe.

13 Who ſo feareth the Lorde, it ſhal goe wel with hym at the laſt, and in the day of his death, he ſhalbe bleſſed.

C 14 The loue of God is honorable wyſedome: looke vnto whom it appeareth, they loue it, for they ſee what woonderous thynges it dooth.

Pſa.111.b. Pro.9.c. 15 * The feare of the Lorde is the begynnyng of wyſdome, & was made with the faythful in the mothers wombe, it ſhal goe with the choſen women, and ſhalbe knowen of the ryghteous and faythful.

16 The feare of the Lorde, is the ryght Gods ſeruice,

17 That preſerueth and iuſtifieth the harte, and geueth myrth and gladneſſe.

18 Who ſo feareth the Lorde, ſhalbe happye, and when he hath neede of comfort, he ſhalbe bleſſed.

19 She hath buylt her euerlaſtyng fundations with menne, and is geuen to be with theyr ſeede.

D 20 To feare God, is the wyſedome that maketh riche, and bryngeth al good with her.

21 She fylleth the whole houſe with her giftes, and the garners with her treaſure.

22 The feare of the Lorde, is the crowne of wyſedome, and geueth plenteous peace, and health: He hath ſeene her, and numbred her: Both theſe are the gyftes of God.

23 Knowledge and vnderſtandyng of wyſedome hath he powred out as rayne, & them that helde her faſt, hath he brought vnto honour.

24 The feare of the Lorde, is the roote of wiſedome, and her branches are long lyfe.

25 In the treaſures of wyſedome is vnderſtandyng and deuotion of knowledge, but wiſedome is abhorred of ſinners.

26 The feare of the Lorde, driueth out ſinne, and when ſhe is preſent, ſhe dryueth awaye anger.

27 For he that is without feare, can not be made ryghteous, and his wylful boldeneſſe is his owne deſtruction. E

28 A patient man wyl ſuffer vnto the tyme, and then ſhal he haue the rewarde of ioy.

29 A good vnderſtanding wyl hide his wordes for a tyme, and many mennes lippes ſhal ſpeake of his wyſedome.

30 In the treaſures of wiſedome is the declaration of doctrine: but the ſinner abhorreth the woorſhyp of God.

31 My ſonne, if thou deſyre wyſedome, keepe the commaundement, and God ſhal geue her vnto thee:

32 For the feare of the Lorde, is wiſedome and nurture: he hath pleaſure in faith and louing meekeneſſe, and he ſhal fyl the treaſures therof. F

33 Be not obſtinate and vnfaithful to the feare of the Lord, and comme not vnto him with a double hart.

34 Be not an hypocrite in the ſyght of menne, and take good heede what thou ſpeakeſt.

35 Exalt not thee ſelfe, leſt thou happen to falle, and bryng thy ſoule to diſhonour, and ſo diſcouer thy ſecretes, and caſt thee downe in the myddeſt of the congregation: becauſe thou wouldeſt not receiue the feare of God, and becauſe thy hart is ful of faignedneſſe and deceite.

The.iii.Chapter.

2 To our father and mother ought we to geue double honour. 10 Of the bleſſyng and curſe of the father and mother. 22 No man ought ouer curiouſly to ſearch out the ſecretes of God.

A 1 The chyldren of wyſedome are a congregation of the ryghteous, and theyr offſpring is obedience & loue.

2 Heare your fathers iudgement (O my deare chyldren) and doo thereafter, that ye maye be ſafe.

Exod.20.a Deut.5.b.

3 * For the Lorde wyl haue the father honored of the chyldren: and looke what a mother commaundeth her chyldren to doo, he wyl haue it kept.

4 Who ſo honoureth his father, his ſinnes ſhalbe forgeuen hym: and he ſhal abſteyne from them, and ſhal haue his dayly deſyres.

Ephe.6.a.

5 * And he that honoureth his mother, is lyke one that geathereth treaſure togeather.

6 Who ſo honoureth his father, ſhal haue ioy of his owne chyldren, and when he maketh his prayer, he ſhalbe hearde.

B 7 He that honoureth his father, ſhal haue a long lyfe: and he that is obedient vnto the Lorde, ſhal comfort his mother.

8 He that feareth the Lorde, honoureth his father and mother, and dooth them ſeruice as it were vnto lordes.

Exo.20.c. Deut.5.b.

9 * Honour thy father and mother, in deede, in worde, and in al patience, that thou mayeſt haue Gods bleſſyng: and his bleſſyng ſhal abyde with thee at the laſt.

Gen.27.d. Deu.33.a.

10 * The bleſſyng of the father ſtabliſheth the houſes of the chyldren: but the mothers curſe rooteth out the fundations.

11 Reioyce not when thy father is reprooued: for it is not honour vnto thee, but a ſhame.

12 For the woorſhip of a mans father, is his owne woorſhyp: and the reproche of the mother, is the diſhoneſtie of the ſonne.

13 My ſonne, make muche of thy father in his age, and greeue him not as long as he liueth.

14 And if his vnderſtandyng fayle, haue patience with hym, and deſpiſe hym not in thy ſtrength.

15 For the good deede that thou ſheweſt vnto thy father, ſhal not be forgotten: and when thou thee ſelfe wanteſt, it ſhalbe rewarded thee: and for thy mothers offence, thou ſhalt be recompenced with good, yea, it ſhalbe founded for thee in ryghteouſneſſe.

16 And in the day of trouble, thou ſhalt be remembred: thy ſinnes alſo ſhal melt away, lyke as the yſe in the fayre warme weather.

17 He that forſaketh his father, ſhal comme to ſhame, and he that defieth his mother, is curſed ſed of God.

18 My ſonne, perfourme thy woorkes with louyng meekeneſſe, ſo ſhalt thou be loued aboue other menne.

Phil.2.a. 19 The greater thou art, the more * humble thee ſelfe in al thynges, and thou ſhalt finde fauour in the ſyght of God.

D 20 Many are excellent and of renowne: but the ſecretes are reuealed vnto the meeke.

21 For great power belongeth only vnto God, and he is honoured of the lowly.

Pſal.131.a. Pro.25.a. Rom.12.a. 22 * Seeke not out the thynges that are aboue thy capacitie, & ſearche not the grounde of ſuche thynges as are to myghty for thee:

23 But looke what God hath commaunded thee, thynke vpon that alway, and be not curious in many of his woorkes: For it is not needeful for thee to ſee with thyne eyes the thynges that are ſecrete.

24 Make not to muche ſearche in ſuperfluous thynges, and be not curious in many of his woorkes: for many thynges are ſhewed vnto thee already, whiche be aboue the capacitie of menne.

25 The medlyng with ſuche, hath beguiled many a man, and tangled theyr wittes in vanitie.

26 Thou canſt not ſee without eyes, therefore profeſſe not the thyng that thou haſt not.

27 An harde hart ſhal feare euyl at the laſt: & E he that loueth danger, ſhal periſhe therein.

28 An hart that goeth two wayes, ſhal not proſper: and he that is frowarde of hart, wyl euer be woorſe and woorſe.

29 An obſtinate hart ſhalbe laden with ſorowes, and the vngodly ſinner wyl heape one ſinne vpon another.

30 The counſaile of the proude hath no health, and his footeſteppes ſhalbe plucked vp: for the plant of ſinne hath taken roote in hym.

31 The hart of him that hath vnderſtanding, ſhal perceiue hygh thynges: and a good eare wyl gladly hearken vnto wyſedome.

32 An hart that is wyſe and hath vnderſtandyng, wyl abſtayne from ſinnes, and increaſe in the woorkes of ryghteouſneſſe.

33 Water quencheth burnyng fyre,* and mercie reconcileth ſinnes. Pſal.41.a.

34 God hath reſpect vnto hym that is thankful: he thinketh vpon hym againſt the time to comme, ſo that when he falleth, he ſhal finde a ſtrong holde.

The .iiii. Chapter.

1 Almes muſt be donne with gentleneſſe. 12 The ſtudie of wyſedome, and her fruite.
20 An exhortion to eſchewe euyl, and to doo good.

A 1 Deut.15.d. My ſonne, *defraude not the poore of his almes, and turne not away thyne eies from hym that hath neede.

2 Deſpiſe not an hungry ſoule, and defye not the poore in his neceſſitie.

3 Greeue not the hart of hym that is helpleſſe, and withdrawe not the gyft from the needeful.

4 Refuſe not the prayer of one that is in trouble, turne not away thy face from the needy.

5 Caſt not thyne eyes aſide from the poore for any euyl wyl, that thou geue hym not occaſion to ſpeake euyl of thee.

6 For yf he complayne of thee in the bitternes of his ſoule, his prayer ſhalbe heard: euen he that made him ſhal heare hym.

7 Be curteous vnto the company of yͤ poore, humble thy ſoule vnto thy elder, and bowe downe thy head to a man of woorſhip.

8 Let it not greeue thee to bowe downe thine eare vnto the poore, (a) but pay thy debt, and geue him a freendly anſweare, and that with meekeneſſe.

(a) As a man muſt of duetie be curteous to the poore, humble to the auncient, bowe downe to the woorſhipful: ſo is it his duetie to comfort, helpe, and deliuer the innocent and ſimple ſoule from the crueltie of the vngodly.

9 Deliuer hym that ſuffereth wrong, from the hande of the oppreſſour: and be not faynt harted when thou ſitteſt in iudgement.

10 Be merciful vnto the fatherleſſe as a father, & be in ſteede of an huſbande vnto their mother: ſo ſhalt thou be as an obedient ſonne of the hygheſt, and he ſhal loue thee more then thy mother dooth.

11 Wyſedome exalteth her chyldren, receiueth them that ſeeke her, and wyl goe before them in the way of ryghteouſneſſe.

12 He that loueth her, loueth lyfe: and they that ſeeke her diligently, ſhal haue great ioy.

13 They that keepe her, ſhal inherite glory: for where ſhe entreth in, there is the bleſſyng of God.

14 They that honour her, ſhalbe the ſeruantes of the holy one: and they that loue her, are beloued of God. C

15 Who ſo geueth eare vnto her, ſhal iudge the heathen: and he that hath " reſpect vnto her, ſhal dwel ſafely. " Or, goeth.

16 He that beleeueth her, ſhal haue her in poſſeſſion, and his generation ſhal endure.

17 For when he " falleth, ſhe dooth goe with hym, and chooſeth hym among the beſt: " Or, walketh.

Feare, dreade, and temptation ſhal ſhe bring vpon hym, and trye hym in her doctrine, til ſhe haue ſo prooued hym in his thoughtes, that he commit his ſoule vnto her.

18 Then ſhal ſhe ſtabliſhe hym, bring the right way vnto hym, make hym a gladde man, ſhewe him her ſecretes, and heape vpon him the treaſures of knowledge, and vnderſtandyng of ryghteouſneſſe.

19 But yf he goe wrong, ſhe ſhal forſake him, and geue hym ouer into the handes of deſtruction and ruine.

Rom.12.b. 20 * My ſonne, make muche of the tyme, eſchewe the thing that is euyl:

D 21 And for thy lyfe, ſhame not to ſay the trueth: (b) For there is a ſhame that bringeth ſinne, and there is a ſhame that bringeth woorſhip and fauour.

(b) To be aſhamed to confeſſe thy god, thy faith, to teſtifie the trueth, and to reproue ſinne, dooth bryng ſinne vnto thee: the contrary ſhame bryngeth woorſhip.

22 Accept no perſon after thyne owne wil, that thou be not confounded to thyne owne decay: Be not aſhamed of thy neyghbour in his aduerſitie.

23 And keepe not backe thy counſayle when it may doo good, neyther hyde thy wyſedome in her beautie.

24 For in the tongue is wyſedome knowen, ſo is vnderſtandyng, knowledge, and learning in the talking of the wyſe, and ſtedfaſtneſſe in the woorkes of ryghteouſneſſe.

25 In no wyſe ſpeake agaynſt the woorde of trueth: but be aſhamed of the lyes of thyne owne ignorance.

26 Shame not to confeſſe thyne errour, and reſiſt not the courſe of the riuer.

27 And ſubmit not thee ſelfe vnto a fooliſhe man, neyther accept the perſon of the myghtie. E

28 And ſtriue thou not agaynſt the ſtreame: But for ryghteouſneſſe take paynes with al thy ſoule, and for the trueth, ſtriue thou vnto death, and God ſhal fyght for thee agaynſt thyne enimies.

29 Be not haſty in thy tongue, neyther ſlacke and negligent in thy woorkes.

30 Be not as a Lion in thyne owne houſe, deſtroying thy houſeholde folkes, and oppreſſing them that are vnder thee.

31 * Let not thyne hande be ſtreatched out to receiue, and ſhut when thou ſhouldeſt geue. Acte.20.g

The.v.Chapter.

1 In richeſſe may we not put any confidence. 7 The vengeance of God ought to be feared, and repentance may not be deferred.

A 1 Luke.12.c. Eccle.xi.c TRUST not vnto thy rycheſſe, * and ſay not, Tuſhe, I haue yenough for my lyfe, for it ſhal not helpe in the time of vengeance, and temptation.

2 Folowe not the luſt of thyne owne hart in thy ſtrength,

3 And ſay not, Tuſhe, howe haue I had ſtrength? or who wyl bryng me vnder becauſe of my woorkes? For doubtleſſe GOD ſhal auenge it.

4 And ſay not, I haue ſinned, and what euil hath happened me? For the almyghtie is a patient rewarder.

Rom.7.a. 5 * Becauſe thy ſinne is forgeuen thee, be not therefore without feare, neyther heape one ſinne vpon another.

Eccle.21.a. 6 * And ſay not, Tuſhe, the mercie of the Lord is great, he ſhal forgeue me my ſinnes be they neuer ſo many: * For lyke as he is merciful, ſo goeth wrath from him alſo, and his indignation commeth downe vpon ſinners. Eccle.16.a

7 Make no tarying to turne vnto the Lord, and put not of from day to day: for ſodaynely ſhal his wrath comme, and in the tyme of vengeance he ſhal deſtroy thee.

8 * Truſt not in wicked richeſſe, for they ſhal not helpe thee in the day of pouniſhment and wrath. B Prou.x.a. Ezec.7.d. Sopho.1.c

9 Be not caryed about with euery winde, and goe not into euery way: for ſo dooth the ſinner that hath a double tongue.

10 Stande faſt in the way of the Lorde, be ſtedfaſt in thy vnderſtandyng, abyde by the woorde, and folowe the woorde of peace and ryghteouſneſſe.

11 Be gentle to heare the woorde of God, that thou mayeſt vnderſtande it: and make a true anſweare with wyſedome.

12 * Be ſwyft to heare, but ſlowe and patient in geuing anſweare. Iacob.1.c.

13 If thou haſt vnderſtandyng, ſhape thy neyghbour an anſweare: yf no, lay thy hand vpon thy mouth, leſt thou be trapped in an vndiſcreete woorde, and ſo confounded.

14 Honour and ſhame is in the talke, but the tongue of the vndiſcreete is his owne deſtruction. C

15 * Be not a priuy accuſer as long as thou lyueſt, and vſe no ſlaunder with thy tongue: Leuit.19.d

For ſhame and ſorowe goeth ouer the thiefe, and an euyl name ouer hym that is double tongued: but he that is a priuie accuſer of other menne, ſhalbe hated, enuied, and confounded.

16 Doo not raſhly, neither in great nor ſmal.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 It is the propertie of a ſinner, to be euil tongued. 6 Of freendſhip. 33 Deſyre to be taught.

A 1 BE not of a freende an enimie, (a) for ſuche a man geatteth an euyl name, ſhame, and rebuke: and whoſoeuer beareth enuie, & a double tongue, offendeth.

(a) For that is agaynſt the rule of charitie, whiche loueth al, and hateth nothing but onely ſinne.

Rom.12.b 2 * Be not proude in the deuice of thine owne vnderſtandyng, leſt thy ſoule rent thee as a (b) bul,

(b) As a bul teareth in peeces a young tree with his hornes, ſo thou truſting in thyne owne wyſedome, and ſtanding in thyne owne conceipt, becauſe of thy witts, thy power, or richeſſe, ſhoulde deſtroy thee ſelfe.

3 And leſt thy leaues wyther, and thy fruite be deſtroyed, and ſo thou be leaft as a dry tree in the wyldernesſe.

4 For a wicked ſoule deſtroyeth hym that hath it, maketh hym to be laughed to ſcorne of his enimies, and bryngeth him to the portion of the vngodly.

Eccl.20.b. 5 * A ſweete woord multiplieth freendes, and pacifieth them that be at variance: and a thankful tongue wyl be plenteous in a good man.

6 Holde frendſhip with many, neuertheleſſe haue but one counſeller of a thouſande.

B 7 If thou getteſt a freende, * prooue him firſt, and be not haſty to geue hym credence.

Deut.13.b. Mich.7.a. Mat.x.c. 8 For ſomme man is a freende but for his owne turne, and wyl not abide in the day of trouble.

9 And there is ſomme freende that turneth to enmitie, and taketh part agaynſt thee: and yf he knowe any hurt by thee, he telleth it out.

Eccl.37.a. 10 * Agayne, ſomme freende is but a companion at the table, and in the day of neede he continueth not.

11 But in thy proſperitie, he wil be as thou thee ſelfe, and deale plainely with thy houſeholde folke.

12 If thou be brought lowe, he wylbe agaynſt thee, and wyl be hydden from thy face.

13 Depart from thine enimies, yea and beware of thy freendes.

C 14 A faythful freende is a ſtrong defence, who ſo findeth ſuche one, findeth a treaſure.

15 A faithful freende hath no peere, the waight of golde and ſiluer, is not to be compared to the goodneſſe of his faith.

16 A faythful freende is a medicine of lyfe and immortalitie, and they that feare the Lorde, ſhal finde him.

17 Who ſo feareth the Lord, ſhal proſper with freendes: and as he is him ſelfe, ſo ſhal his freende be alſo.

18 My ſonne, receiue doctrine from thy youth vp, ſo ſhalt thou finde wyſedome tylle thou be olde.

19 Goe to her as one that ploweth and ſoweth, and wayte patiently for her good fruites: For thou ſhalt haue but litle labour in her woorke, but thou ſhalt eate of her fruites ryght ſoone.

20 O howe exceedyng ſharpe is wyſedome to vnlearned menne: an vnſtedfaſt body wyl not remayne in her.

D 21 Unto ſuche ſhe is as it were a touche ſtone, and he caſteth her from hym in al the haſte.

22 For wyſedome is with hym but in name, there be but fewe that haue knowledge of her.

23 But with them that knowe her, ſhe abydeth euen vnto the appearing of God.

24 Geue eare my ſonne, receiue my doctrine, and refuſe not my counſayle.

25 Put thy foote into her linckes, * and take her yoke vpon thy necke. Mat.xi.d.

26 Bowe downe thy ſhoulder vnder her, beare her patiently, and be not weery of her bands.

27 Comme vnto her with thy whole harte, and keepe her wayes with al thy power.

28 Seeke after her, and ſhe ſhalbe ſhewed thee: and when thou haſt her, forſake her not.

29 For at the laſt, thou ſhalt finde reaſt in her, and that ſhalbe turned to thy great ioy.

30 Then ſhal her fetters be a ſtrong defence for thee, and her yoke a glorious rayment.

31 For there is a golden ornament in her, and her bandes are laces of purple colour.

32 Thou ſhalt put her on as a robe of honour, and ſhalt put her about thee as a crowne of ioy.

33 My ſonne, yf thou wylt take heede, thou ſhalt haue vnderſtandyng, and yf thou wylt apply thy minde, thou ſhalt be wyſe.

34 If thou wylt bowe downe thine eare, thou ſhalt receiue doctrine: and yf thou delyte in hearyng, thou ſhalt be wyſe.

35 Stande with the multitude of ſuche elders as haue vnderſtandyng, and conſent vnto their wyſedome with thyne hart.

36 * That thou mayeſt heare al godly ſermons, and that the woorthy ſentences eſcape thee Eccl.8.a.

not.

37 And yf thou ſeeſt a man of diſcreete vnderſtandyng, geat thee ſoone vnto hym, and let thy foote treade vpon the ſteps of his doores.

38 *Let thy minde be vpon the commaundementes of God, and be earneſtly occupied in his lawes: ſo ſhal he ſtabliſhe thy hart, and geue thee wyſedome at thyne owne deſyre. Pſalm.1.a.

The .vii. Chapter.

2 We muſt forſake euil, and yet not iuſtifie our ſelues. 23 The behauiour of the wyſe toward his wyfe, his freende, his children, his ſeruantes, his father and mother.

A 1 Do no euyl, ſo ſhal there no harme happen vnto thee.

2 Depart away from the thing that is wicked, and no miſfortune ſhal meddle with thee.

3 My ſonne, ſowe no euil thynges in the forowes of vnryghteouſneſſe, ſo ſhalt thou not reape them ſeuen folde.

4 Labour not to the Lord for preheminence, neither vnto the king for the ſeate of honour.

Pſal.142.a. Eccle.7.c. Iob.ix.a. Luk.18.b. 5 *Iuſtifie not thee ſelfe before GOD, for he knoweth the hart: and deſyre not to be reputed wyſe in the preſence of the kyng.

6 Make no labour to be made a iudge, except it ſo were, that thou couldeſt myghtily put downe wickedneſſe: for yf thou ſhouldeſt ſtande in awe of the preſence of the myghty, thou ſhouldeſt fayle in geuing ſentence.

B 7 Offende not in the multitude of the citie, and put not thee ſelfe among the people.

Eccle.12.c 8 *Binde not two ſinnes togeather: for in one ſinne ſhalt thou not be vnpouniſhed.

9 Say not, Tuſhe, God wil looke vppon the multitude of my oblations, and when I offer to the higheſt God, he wil accept it.

10 Be not faint harted when thou makeſt thy prayer, neither ſlacke in geuing of almes.

11 Laugh no man to ſcorne in the heauineſſe of his ſoule, for God (which ſeeth al thinges) is *he that can bring downe, ⁊ ſet vp agayne. 1.Reg.2.b

12 Accept no leaſyng agaynſt thy brother, neither doo the ſame agaynſt thy freende.

13 Uſe not to make any manner of lie: for the cuſtome thereof is not good.

C 14 Make not many wordes when thou art among the elders: *and when thou prayeſt, make not muche babbling. Mat.6.a.

Rom.12.b. 15 *Let no labourous workes be tedious vnto thee, neither the huſbandry which the almighty hath created.

16 Make not thy boaſte in the multiude of thy wickedneſſe: but humble thee ſelfe euen from thyne hart,

17 And remember that the wrath ſhal not be long in tarying, and that the vengeance of the fleaſhe of the vngodly is a very fyre and woorme.

18 Geeue not ouer thy freende for any good, nor thy faythful brother for the beſt golde.

19 Depart not from a diſcreete and good woman that is fallen vnto thee for thy portion in the feare of the Lorde: for the gyft of her honeſty is aboue golde.

20 *Where as thy ſeruant woorketh truely, intreate him not euyl, nor the hyrelyng that is faythful vnto thee. Luk.19.c.

21 Loue a diſcreete ſeruant as thine owne ſoule, defraude hym not of his libertie, neither leaue hym a poore man. D

22 *If thou haue catel, looke wel to them: and yf they be for thy profite, keepe them. Deut.25.b

23 *If thou haue ſonnes, bryng them vp in nurture and learnyng, and holde them in awe from their youth vp. Eccle.30.a

24 If thou haue daughters, keepe theyr body, and ſhewe not thy face cheereful towarde them.

25 Mary thy daughter, and ſo ſhalt thou performe a wayghtie matter: but geue her to a man of vnderſtandyng.

26 If thou haue a wife after thine owne mind, forſake her not: but commit not thee ſelfe to the hateful.

27 *Honour thy father from thy whole hart: and forgeat not the ſorowful trauaile that thy mother had with thee. Eccle.3.a. Tob.4.a.

28 Remember that thou waſt borne through them, and how canſt thou recompence them the thinges that they haue donne for thee.

29 Feare the Lorde with al thy ſoule, and honour his miniſters.

30 Loue thy maker with al thy ſtrength, *and forſake not his ſeruantes. Deut.12.c.

31 Feare the Lorde with al thy ſoule, and honour his prieſtes: *geue them their portion of the firſt fruites, and increaſe of the earth, like as it is commaunded thee: and reconcile thee ſelfe of thy negligence with thy litle flocke, geue them the ſhoulders, and their appoynted offeringes, and firſtlinges. Num.18.b

32 Reache thyne hande vnto the poore, that God may bleſſe thee with plenteouſneſſe.

33 Be liberal vnto al menne liuing: yet let not, but doo good euen to them that are [a] dead.

[a] To bury theyr bodyes with honour, agaynſt the day of the reſurrection, as did Abraham, Joſeph &c. to ſuccour and helpe, and deal faythfully and truely with theyr chyldren committed to thy charge, as dyd Dauid with the chyldren of his freende Jonathan.

34 Let not them that weepe, be without comfort, but mourne with ſuche as mourne.

35 Let it not greeue thee to viſite the ſicke, for that ſhal make thee to be beloued.

36 Whatſoeuer thou takeſt in hande, remember the ende, & thou [b] ſhalt neuer doo amiſſe.

[b] Doo al thinges to the glory of God, and the profite of thy neyghbour, or other wyſe remember the day of death, of the laſt iudgement, of euerlaſtyng ioy or payne.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 We muſt take heede with whom we haue to doo.

1 Striue not with a myghty man, leſt thou chance to fal into his handes.

2 Make no variance with a riche man, leſt he happen to bryng vp an hard quarel againſt thee: For gold and ſiluer hath vndoone many a man, yea euen the hartes of kynges hath it made to falle. Mat.5.d. Eccle,31,a 3 Striue not with a man that is ful of wordes, and lay no ſtickes vpon his fyre.

4 Keepe no company with the vnlearned, leſt he geeue thy kynred an euyl report.

Gal.6.a. 2.Cor.2.b 5 *Deſpiſe not a man that turneth hym ſelfe away from ſinne, and caſt hym not in the teeth withal: but remember that we are fraile euerichone.

Leuit,19.g 6 *Thinke ſcorne of no man in his olde age, for we ware olde alſo.

B 7 Be not gladde of the death of thine enimie: but remember that we muſt dye al the ſort of vs, and fayne woulde we comme into ioy.

Eccle,6,b. 8 *Deſpiſe not the ſermons of ſuche elders as haue vnderſtandyng, but acquaint thee ſelfe with the wyſe ſentences of them: for of them thou ſhalt learne wiſedome, and the doctrine of vnderſtandyng, and howe to ſerue great menne without complaint.

9 Goe not from the doctrine of the elders, for they haue learned it of their fathers: for of them thou ſhalt learne vnderſtandyng, ſo that thou mayeſt make anſweare in the tyme of neede.

10 Kindle not the coales of ſinners when thou rebukeſt them, leſt thou be brent in the fyrie flambes of their ſinnes.

11 Reſiſt not the face of the blaſphemer, that they lay not wayte for thy mouth.

12 * Lende not vnto hym that is myghtier then thee ſelfe: yf thou lendeſt hym, count it but loſt. Eccle.29.a

13 Be not ſuretie aboue thy power: yf thou be, then thinke ſurely to pay it.

14 Goe not to lawe with the iudge: for he wyl C iudge accordyng to his owne honour.

15 * Trauayle not by the way with hym that is braynelesse, leſt he doo thee euyl: for he foloweth his owne wylfulneſſe, and ſo ſhalt thou periſhe through his folly. Gen.4.b.

16 * Striue not with hym that is angry and cruel, and goe not with hym into the wyldernesse: for blood is nothyng in his ſyght, and where there is no helpe, he ſhal murther thee. Prou.12. Eſai.3.a.

17 * Take no counſel at fooles, for they can not keepe a thing cloſe. Eccle.9.c. 37.a.

18 Doo no ſecrete thing before a ſtranger, for thou canſt not tel what wyl comme of it.

19 Open not thyne hart vnto euery man, leſt he be vnthankful to thee, and put thee to reproofe.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Of ielouſie. 12 An olde freende is to be preferred before a newe. 18 Ryghteous menne ſhoulde be bidden to thy table.

A 1 Be not ielous ouer yͤ wyfe of thy boſome, that ſhe ſhew not ſomme ſhrewde poynt, [a] leſt thou teache her an euyl leſſon agaynſt thee ſelfe.

[a] Let her not haue rule ouer thee, for then wyl ſhe be contrary vnto thee, take away thy hart and ſtrength, and bryng thee to confuſion among thyne enmies, as dyd Eue to Adam, Daliſa to Sampſon, and ſtrange women to Solomon.

2 Geue not the power of thy lyfe vnto a woman, leſt ſhe comme in thy ſtrength, and ſo thou be confounded.

3 Looke not vpon a woman that is deſyrous of many men, leſt thou fal into her ſnares.

4 Vſe not the company of a woman that is a player and a dauncer, and heare her not, leſt thou periſhe through her entiſing.

5 Behold not a maiden, that thou be not hurt in her beautie.

6 * Caſt not thy mind vpon harlottes in any manner of thyng, leſt thou deſtroy both thee ſelfe, and thyne heritage. Prou.v.a.

7 Goe not about gaſing in euery lane of the citie, neither wander thou abrode in yͤ ſtreetes thereof.

8 * Turne away thy face from a beautiful woman, and looke not vpon the faireneſſe of other:* Many a man hath benne deceiued through the beautie of women, for through it, the deſyre is kindled as it were a fyre. Mat.5.e. Gen.34.a. 1.Reg.11.a Iud.x.xi.xii.

9 An adulterous woman ſhalbe troden vnder foote as myre, of euery one that goeth by the way.

10 Many a man woondering at the beautie of a ſtrange woman, hath benne caſt out: for her woordes kyndle as a fyre.

11 Sit not with an other mans wyfe by any meanes, lie not with her vpon the bed, make no woordes with her at the wine: leſt thyne hart conſent vnto her, and ſo thou with thy blood falle into deſtruction.

12 Forſake not an olde freende, for the newe ſhal not be like him: A newe freende is newe wine, let hym be olde, and thou ſhalt drinke hym with pleaſure.

13 Deſyre not the honour and richeſſe of a ſinner: for thou knoweſt not what deſtruction is for to comme vpon hym.

C 14 Delite not thou in the thing that the vngodly haue pleaſure in, beyng ſure that the vngodly ſhal not be accepted vntyl their graue.

15 Keepe thee from the man that hath power to ſlay, ſo needeſt thou not to be afrayde of death: And yf thou commeſt vnto hym, make no fault, leſt he happen to take away thy lyfe: Remember that thou goeſt in the middeſt of ſnares, and vpon the bulwarkes of thy citie.

The.x.Chapter.

1 Of kynges and iudges. 7 Pride and couetouſneſſe are to be abhorred,
28 Labour is prayſed.

A 1 A wyſe iudge wyl order his people with diſcretion: and where a man of vnderſtandyng beareth rule, there goeth it wel.

Pro.29.a. 2 *As the iudge of the people is hym ſelfe, euen ſo are his officers: and looke what manner of man the ruler of the citie is, ſuche are they that dwel therein alſo.

3.Reg.11.a Pro.28.d. and.29.a. 3 An vnwyſe kyng deſtroyeth his people: but where they that be in aucthoritie, are menne of vnderſtandyng, there the citie proſpereth.

4 The power of the earth is in the hande of GOD, and al iniquitie of the people is to be abhorred: and when his time is, he ſhal ſet a profitable ruler vpon it.

5 In the hande of GOD is the proſperitie of man, and vpon the perſon of the ſcribe, ſhal he lay his honour.

Leuit.19.a 6 *Be not angry for any wrong of thy neighbour, and meddle thou with no vnrighteous woorkes.

(a) That is, chiefely idolatrie in falſe religion, and wantonneſſe and vanitie in lyfe.

7 Pride is hateful before God and man, (a) and al wickedneſſe of the heathen is to be abhorred.

B 8 Becauſe of vnrighteous dealing, wrong, blaſphemies, and diuers deceites, a Realme ſhalbe tranſlated from one people to another.

9 There is nothyng woorſe then a couetous man: Why art thou proude O thou earth and aſhes? There is not a more wicked thing then to loue money: and why? ſuche one hath his ſoule to ſelle, yet is he but filthy doung whyle he lyueth.

10 Al tyranny is of ſmal endurance, and the diſeaſe that is harde to heale, greeueth the phiſition.

11 And though the phiſition ſhewe his helpe neuer ſo long, yet in concluſion it goeth after this manner, To day a kyng, to morowe dead.

12 For when a man dyeth, he is the heyre of ſerpentes, beaſtes, and woormes.

13 The beginnyng of mans pride, is to falle away from God: and why? his hart is gonne from his maker.

14 For pride is the original of al ſinne: Who ſo taketh holde thereof, ſhalbe filled with curſinges, and at the laſt it ſhal ouerthrow him: Therefore hath the Lorde brought the congregations of the wicked to diſhonour, and deſtroyed them to the ende. C

15 *God hath deſtroyed the ſeates of proude princes, and ſet vp the meeke in their ſteede. Sapi.6.b. Luke.1.c. 14.c.and 18.b.

16 God hath wythered the rootes of the proud heathen, and planted the lowely for them.

17 *God hath ouerthrowen the landes of the heathen, & deſtroyed them vnto the grounde: He hath cauſed them to wyther away, he hath brought thē to nought, & made the memorial of them to ceaſſe from out of yͤ earth. Gen.29.b.

18 God hath deſtroyed the name of the proud, and leaft the name of the humble of minde.

19 Pride was not for man, neither wrothfulneſſe for mens chyldren.

20 The ſeede of menne that feareth God, ſhal-be brought to honour: but the ſeede which tranſgreſſeth the commaundementes of the Lorde, ſhalbe ſhamed.

21 He that is the ruler among brethren, is holden in honour among them: and he that regardeth ſuche as feare the Lorde, is acceptable in his ſyght. D

22 The feare of the Lorde cauſeth that the kyngdome fayleth not: but the kyngdome is loſt by crueltie and pride.

23 The glory of the ryche, of the honorable, and of the poore, is the feare of God.

24 Deſpiſe not thou the iuſt poore man that hath vnderſtandyng, and magnifie not the riche vngodly.

25 Great is the iudge, and myghty in honour, yet is there none greater then he that feareth God.

Pro.22.a. 2.Re.12.d. 26 * Unto the ſeruant that is diſcreete, ſhal the free doo ſeruice: * he that is wyſe, and wel nurtured, wyl not grudge when he is refourmed, & an ignorant body ſhal not come to honour.

27 Be not proude to doo thy worke, and diſpayre not in the time of aduerſitie.

28 * Better is he that laboureth and hath plenteouſneſſe of al thynges, then he that is gorgious, and wanteth bread. Pro.12.b.

29 My ſonne, geat thy ſoule honour by meekeneſſe, and geeue her her due honour. E

30 Who ſhal iuſtifie hym that ſinneth agaynſt hym ſelfe? Who wyl honour hym that diſhonoureth his owne ſoule?

31 The poore is honoured for his faythfulneſſe and trueth: but the riche is had in reputation becauſe of his goodes.

32 He that ordereth hym ſelfe honeſtly in pouertie, howe muche more ſhal he behaue hym ſelfe honeſtly in richeſſe? And who ſo ordreth hym ſelfe vnhoneſtly in richeſſe, howe much more ſhal he behaue him ſelfe vnhoneſtly in pouertie?

The .xi. Chapter.

1 The prayſe of humilitie. 2 After the outwarde appearance ought we not to iudge. 7 Of raſhe iudgement. 14 Al thynges comme of God. 19 Al menne are not to be brought into thyne houſe.

A 1 The wiſdome of him that is brought lowe ſhal lift vp his head, and ſhal make hym to ſit among great menne.

to other menne, and dye hym ſelfe.

20 Stande thou faſt in thy couenant, and exerciſe thee ſelfe therein, and remayne in the woorke vnto thy age.

D 21 Maruel not at the woorkes of ſinners, but put thy truſt in God, and byde in thy labour: for it is but an eaſie thing in the ſight of god, to make a poore man riche, and that ſodenly.

22 The bleſſing of God haſteth to the rewarde of the ryghteous, & maketh his fruites ſoone to floriſhe and proſper.

23 Say not, What helpeth it me? and what good thyng ſhal I haue hereafter?

Eccle.18,c 25 *When thou art in welfare, forgeat not aduerſitie: when it goeth not wel with thee, haue a good hope that it ſhalbe better:

26 For it is but a ſmal thing vnto God in the day of death, to reward euery man according to his wayes.

27 The aduerſitie of an houre maketh one to forgeat al pleaſure: and when a man dyeth, his woorkes are diſcouered.

28 Iudge no man bleſſed before his death: for a man ſhalbe knowen in his chyldren.

29 Bryng not euery man into thyne houſe: for the deceitful layeth waite diuerſly, (a) and are lyke ſtomackes that belche filthyly.

30 Lyke as a partrych in a maunde, ſo is the hart of the proude: and lyke as a ſpie that looketh vpon the falle of his neyghbour.

31 For he turneth good vnto euyl, and ſlaundreth the choſen.

32 Of one ſparke is made a great fyre, and of one deceitfulman is blood increaſed: and an vngodly man laieth wayt for blood.

33 Beware of the deceitful, for he imagineth wicked thinges, to bring thee into a perpetual ſhame.

34 If thou takeſt an aliant vnto thee, he ſhal deſtroy thee in vnquietneſſe, and driue thee from thyne owne wayes.

The.xii.Chapter.

1 Unto whom we ought to doo good. 10 Enimies ought not to be truſted.

A 1 WHEN thou wylt doo good, knowe to whom thou dooeſt it, and ſo ſhalt thou be greatly thanked for thy benefites.

Gal.6.a. 1.Tim.5.a. 2 *Doo good vnto the ryghteous, and thou ſhalt finde great rewarde, though not of hym, yet [no doubt] the Lorde hym ſelfe ſhal rewarde thee.

3 He ſtandeth not in a good caſe, that is alway occupied in euil, and geueth no almes: for the hygheſt hateth the ſinners, and hath mercie vpon them that ſhewe the woorkes of repentance.

4 Geue thou vnto ſuche as feare God, and receiue not a ſinner.

5 As for the vngodly and ſinners, he ſhal recompence vengeance vnto them, and keepe them to the day of wrath.

6 Geue thou vnto the good, and receiue not the ſinner, doo wel vnto hym that is lowly, but geue not to the vngodly: Let not the bread be geuen hym, that he be not myghtier then thee ſelfe therein: for ſo ſhalt thou receiue twyſe as muche euyl, in al that good that thou dooeſt vnto hym.

7 And why? the hygheſt hateth ſinners, and ſhal rewarde vengeance to the vngodly.

B 8 In proſperitie a freend ſhalbe knowen, and in aduerſitie an enimie ſhal not be hyd.

9 For when a man is in wealth, it greeueth his enimies: but in heauineſſe and trouble a mans very freende wyl depart from hym.

10 Truſt neuer thyne enimie: for lyke as an yron ruſteth, ſo dooth his wickedneſſe.

11 And though he make much crooching and kneeling, yet keepe wel thy minde, and beware of hym: and thou ſhalt be to hym as he that wypeth a glaſſe, and thou ſhalt knowe that al his ruſt hath not benne wel wyped away.

12 Set him not by thee, neither let him ſit at thy ryght hande: leſt he turne hym, geat into thy place, take thy roome, and ſeeke thy ſeate, and ſo thou at the laſt remember my woordes, and be pricked at my ſayeinges.

Eccle.7.a. and.21,a. 13 *Binde not two ſinnes togeather: for there ſhal not one be vnpouniſhed.

C 14 Who wyl haue pitie of the charmer that is ſtinged of the ſerpent, or of al ſuch as comme nygh the beaſtes?

15 Euen ſo is it with hym that keepeth company with a wicked man, and lappeth hym ſelfe in his ſinnes.

16 For a ſeaſon wyl he byde with thee: but yf thou ſtumble, he taryeth not.

Iere.41.b. 17 *An enimie is ſweete in his lippes, he can make many woordes, & ſpeake many good thinges: Yea he can weepe with his eyes, but in his hart he imagineth how to throwe thee into the pit: and yf he may finde oportunitie, he wyl not be ſatiſfied with blood.

18 If aduerſitie comme vpon thee, thou ſhalt finde hym there fyrſt, and though he pretende to doo thee helpe, yet ſhal he vndermine thee.

19 He ſhal ſhake his head, and clap his handes ouer thee for very gladneſſe: and whyle he maketh many woordes, he ſhal diſguiſe his countenance.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 The companies of the proude and of the riche, are to be eſchewed. 15 The loue of God.
17 Lyke doo company with theyr lyke.

A 1 Who ſo toucheth pitch, ſhalbe defiled withal: and he that is familier with the proude, ſhal clothe hym ſelfe with pryde.

2 He taketh a burthen vpon hym that accompanieth a more honorable manne then hym ſelfe, therefore keepe no familiaritie with one that is rycher then thee ſelfe: Howe agree the ketle and the pot togeather? for if one be ſmitten agaynſt the other, it ſhalbe broken.

3 The ryche dealeth vnryghteouſly, & threateneth withal: but the poore beyng oppreſſed and wrongfully dealt withal, ſuffereth ſcarſneſſe, and geueth fayre woordes. If the riche haue donne wrong, yet muſt he be entreated: but if the poore haue donne it, he ſhal ſtraight wayes be threatened.

4 If thou be for his profite, he vſeth thee: but if thou haue nothyng, he ſhal forſake thee.

5 As long as thou haſt anye thyng of thyne owne, he ſhalbe a good felow with thee: yea, he ſhal make thee a bare man, and not be ſory for thee.

6 If he haue neede of thee, he ſhal defraude thee, and with a priuy mocke ſhal he put thee in an hope, and geue thee al good woordes, and ſaye, What wanteſt thou?

B 7 Thus ſhal he ſhame thee in his meate, vntyl he haue ſupte thee cleane vp twyſe or thriſe, & at the laſt ſhal he laugh thee to ſcorne: Afterwarde, when he ſeeth that thou haſt nothyng, he ſhal forſake thee, and ſhake his head at thee.

8 Submit thee ſelfe vnto God, and wayte vpon his hande.

9 Beware that thou be not deceiued and brought downe in thy ſimpleneſſe: Be not to humble in thy wyſedome, leſt when thou art brought lowe, thou be deceiued through fooliſheneſſe.

10 If thou be called a myghty manne, abſent thee ſelfe, ſo ſhal he cal thee to hym the more oft.

11 Preaſſe not thou vnto hym, that thou be not ſhut out: but goe not thou farre of, leſt he forgeat thee.

12 Withdrawe not thee ſelfe from his ſpeach, but beleue not his many woordes: for with muche communication ſhal he tempte thee, & with a priuie mocke ſhal he queſtion with thee of thy ſecretes.

13 The vnmercyful minde of his, ſhal marke thy woordes, he ſhal not ſpare to doo thee hurt, and to put thee in priſon.

14 Beware and take good heede to thee ſelfe, for thou walkeſt in peryl of thy ouerthrowyng: Nowe when thou heareſt his woordes, make thee as though thou waſt in a dreame, and wake vp. C

15 Loue God al thy lyfe long, and cal vpon hym in thy neede.

16 Euery beaſt loueth his lyke: euen ſo let euery man loue his neyghbour.

17 Al fleaſhe wyl reſort to theyr lyke, and euery man wyl keepe company with ſuch as he is hym ſelfe.

18 But as the wolfe agreeth with the lambe: ſo dooth the vngodly with the ryghteous.

19 (a) What peace is there betweene Hyena & a dogge? Howe canne the riche and the poore agree togeather?

20 The wylde Aſſe is the Lions praye in the wyldreneſſe: euen ſo are the poore menne the meate of the riche.

21 Lyke as the proude maye not away with lowlyneſſe: euen ſo dooth the rich abhorre the poore.

22 If a riche man fal, his friendes ſet him vp agayne: but when the poore falleth, his acquayntance forſake hym.

23 If a riche man fal into an errour, he hath many healpers, he ſpeaketh proude woordes, & yet menne iuſtifie hym: but if a poore man goe wrong, he is pouniſhed, yea, though he ſpeake wyſely, yet can it haue no place.

24 When the ryche man ſpeaketh, euery body holdeth his tongue, and looke what he ſayth, they prayſe it vnto the cloudes: But if the poore man ſpeake, they ſaye, What felow is this, and if he doo amiſſe, they ſhal deſtroy hym.

25 Ryches are good vnto hym that hath no ſinne in his conſcience: and pouertie is a wicked thyng in the mouth of the vngodly.

26 The harte of manne changeth his countenance, whether it be in good or euyl.

27 A chearefull countenance, is a token of a good hart: for els it is an hard thing to know the thought. D

(a) That is, with a ſinner that returneth continually to his ſinne agayne as a dogge to his vomit: or els after the other tranſlation, Hyena is a ſubtil beaſt, watchyng about Sheepheards foldes reſemblyng a mans voyce, and learning certayne names, dooth calle them foorth, and ſo deſtroy them, whoſe nature is contrary to the dogge, whiche is a keeper of the folde, and friendly vnto man.

The.xiiii.Chapter.

1 The offence of the tongue. 17 Man is but a vayne thyng. 21 Happy is he that continueth in wyſedome.

A 1 Bleſſed is the man that * hath not fallen with the woord of his mouth, and is not pricked with the conſcience of ſinne.

Eccl.19.c. and.25.c. Iames.3.a.

2 Happy is he that hath no heauines in his mind, and is not fallen from his hope in the Lord.

3 It becommeth not a couetous man and a nygarde to be ryche: and what ſhoulde an enuious man doo with money?

4 He that with al his carefulnes heapeth togeather vnryghteouſly, geathereth for other folkes, and an other manne ſhal make good cheare with his goodes.

5 He that is wicked vnto hym ſelfe, howe ſhoulde he be good vnto other menne? howe canne ſuche a one haue anye pleaſure of his goodes.

6 There is nothyng woorſe then when one diſfauoureth hym ſelfe: and this is a rewarde of his wickedneſſe.

B 7 If he doo any good, he dooth it not knowyng thereof, and agaynſt his wyl, and at the laſt he declareth his vngratiouſneſſe.

1 The goodneſſe that foloweth hym whiche feareth God. 8 God reiecteth and caſteth of the ſynner. 11 God is not the authour of euyl.

A 1 He that feareth God, wyl doo good: and who ſo keepeth the lawe, ſhal obteine wyſedome.

2 As an honorable mother ſhal ſhe meete hym, and (a) ſhe as his wyfe married of a virgin, ſhal receiue hym.

Mat.4.a. Iohn.4.a.

3 * With the bread of lyfe and vnderſtanding ſhal he feede him, and geue hym the water of wholeſome wyſedome to drynke.

4 If he be conſtant in her, he ſhal not be moued, and if he holde hym faſt by her, he ſhal not comme to confuſion.

5 She ſhal bring hym to honour among his neyghbours, and in the myddeſt of the congregation ſhal ſhe open his mouth: With the ſpirite of wyſedome and vnderſtanding ſhal ſhe fyl hym, & clothe hym with the garment of glory.

(a) As a pure virgin newly married, doth frendly entreate her huſbande: ſo ſhal iuſtice pure & vndefiled, gently entertayne her louers.

6 She ſhal heape the treaſure of myrrh and ioy vpon hym, and geue hym an euerlaſting name to heritage.

B 7 Fooliſhe menne wyl not take holde vpon her, but ſuche as haue vnderſtandyng, wyl meete her: Fooliſhe menne ſhal not ſee her, for ſhe is farre from pryde and deceyte.

8 Menne that goe about with lyes, wyl not remember her: but menne of trueth ſhalbe founde in her, and ſhal proſper, euen vnto the beholdyng of God.

9 Prayſe is not ſeemely in the mouth of the vngodly, for he is not ſent of the Lorde.

10 But if prayſe comme of wyſedome, and be plenteous in a faithful mouth, then the Lord wyl proſper it.

11 Say not thou, It is the Lordes faulte that I am gonne by: for thou ſhalt not doo the thyng that God hateth.

1 Of vnhappy and wicked chyldren. 19 No man can hyde hym ſelfe from God.
24 An exhortation to the receiuing of inſtruction.

A 1 Delite not thou in the multitude of vngodly chyldren, and haue no pleaſure in them, if they feare not God.

2 Truſt not thou to their lyfe, and regarde not their labours.

3 For one ſonne that feareth GOD, is better then a thouſande vngodly: and better it is for a man to dye without chyldren, then to leaue behynde hym ſuch chyldren as are vngodly.

4 For by one that hath vnderſtanding, may a whole citie be vpholden: but though the vngodlye be manye, yet ſhal it be waſted through them.

Gen.6.a. B 7 *The olde giantes obteyned no grace for theyr ſinnes, whiche were deſtroyed, truſting to theyr owne ſtrength:

Gen.19.c. 8 Neyther ſpared he them among whom Lot was a *ſtranger: but ſmote them, and abhorred them, becauſe of the pryde of theyr wordes.

9 He had no pitie vpon them: but deſtroyed al the people that were ſo ſtout in ſinne.

10 *And forſomuche as he ouerſawe the ſyxe hundred thouſande that geathered the ſelues togeather in the hardeneſſe of theyr harte, in afflicting them, in pitying them, in ſmiting them, and healing them with mercy & chaſtiſement: it were marueile if one being hardnecked, ſhoulde be free: Num.14.c

11 *For mercy and wrath is with hym, he is both myghty to forgeue, and to powre out diſpleaſure. Eccle.5.a.

12 Lyke as his mercy is great, euen ſo is his puniſhment alſo: he iudgeth a man accordyng to his workes.

13 The vngodly ſhal not eſcape in his ſpoyle, and the long patience of hym that ſheweth mercy, ſhal not byde behynde.

14 He wyl make a place for euerye mercyful C deede, and euery man ſhal fynde accordyng to his workes.

15 The Lord hardned Pharao that he ſhould not knowe hym, and that his workes myght be knowen vpon the earth vnder the heauen.

16 His mercy is knowen to al creatures, he hath ſeparated his lyght from the darkeneſſe with an adamant.

17 Saye not thou, I wyl hyde mee ſelfe from God: for who wyl thynke vpon me from aboue? I ſhal not be knowen in ſo great an heape of people: for what is my ſoule among ſo many creatures?

18 Behold, the heauen, yea, the heauen of heauens of God, the deepe, the earth, and al that therein is, ſhalbe moued at his preſence.

19 The mountaines, the hilles, and the fundations of the earth, ſhal ſhake for feare, when God viſiteth them.

D 20 Theſe thynges dooth no harte vnderſtande woorthily: but he vnderſtandeth euery harte.

21 And who vnderſtandeth his wayes? No man ſeeth his ſtormes, and the moſte parte of his woorkes are ſecrete.

22 Who wil declare the woorkes of his ryghteouſneſſe? or who ſhalbe able to abide them? for the couenant is farre from ſomme, & tryeing out of menne is in the ende.

23 He that is humble of harte, thynketh vpon ſuche thynges: but an vnwyſe and erronious manne, caſteth his mynde vnto fooliſhe thynges.

24 My ſonne, hearken thou vnto me, & learne vnderſtandyng, and marke my woordes with thyne harte: I wyl geue thee a ſure doctrine, and playnely ſhal I inſtruct thee.

25 Marke my woordes then in thine hart: for in ryghteouſnes of the ſpirite doo I ſpeake of the wonders that God hath ſhewed among his woorkes from the beginnyng, and in the trueth doo I ſhewe the knowledge of hym.

26 God hath ſet his woorkes in good order, from the begynnyng, and part of them hath he ſundered from the other.

27 He hath garniſhed his woorkes from euerlaſting, and theyr beginnynges accordyng to theyr generations: they are not hungry, nor weried in theyr labours, nor ceaſſe from theyr offices. E

28 None of them hyndered another, neyther was anye of them diſobedient vnto his woordes.

29 After this, God looked vpon the earth, and fylled it with his goodneſſe.

30 With al manner of liuyng beaſtes hath he couered the ground, and they al ſhalbe turned vnto earth agayne.

The,xvii.Chapter.

1 The creation of man, and the goodneſſe that God hath donne vnto hym.
20 Of almes, 26 and repentance.

A 1 GOD* ſhaped man of the earth, and made hym after his owne image, and turned hym vnto earth agayne, and clothed hym with his owne ſtrength.

Gene.1.d.

2 He gaue him the number of dayes, and certayne tyme, yea, & gaue hym power of the thynges that are vpon earth.

3 He made al fleaſhe to ſtande in awe of hym, ſo that he had the dominion of al beaſtes and foules.

Gene.2.d. 4 *He made out of him an healper lyke vnto him ſelfe, and gaue them diſcretion, & tongue, eyes, and eares, and a hart to vnderſtand:

5 He gaue them a ſpirite, and a ſpeache to declare his woorkes, and fylled them with inſtruction and vnderſtandyng.

6 He created for them alſo the knowledge of the ſpirite, filled their hartes with vnderſtandyng, and ſhewed them good and euyl.

B 7 He ſet his eye vpon theyr hartes, declaryng vnto them his great and noble woorkes:

8 That they ſhoulde prayſe his holy name togeather, reioyce of his woonders, and be tellyng of his noble actes.

Exod.20.a 9 *Beſyde this, he gaue them inſtruction and the lawe of lyfe for an heritage, that they myght nowe knowe that they were (a) mortal.

(a) Through theyr owne tranſgreſſion.

10 He made an euerlaſtyng couenant with them, and ſhewed them his ryghteouſneſſe and iudgementes.

11 They ſawe the maieſtie of his glorye with theyr eyes, and theyr eares hearde the maieſtie of his voyce, and he ſayd vnto them, Beware of al vnryghteous thynges.

12 He gaue euerye man alſo a commaundement concernyng his neyghbour.

13 Theyr wayes are euer before hym, and are not hyd from his eyes.

14 Euery manne from his youth is geuen to euyl, and theyr ſtonye hartes can not become (b) fleaſhe. C

(b) That is, ſoft and gentle, for the holy ghoſt to wryte his lawes in.

15 He hath ſet a ruler vpon euery people, but Iſrael is the Lordes portion:

Rom.13.c.
Deut.4.c.

16 Whom he nouriſheth with diſcipline as his fyrſt borne, and geueth hym moſt louing lyght, and dooth not forſake hym.

17 All theyr woorkes are as the ſunne in the ſight of god, and his eyes are alway looking vpon theyr wayes.

18 All theyr vnryghteouſneſſes are manifeſt vnto him, and al theyr wickedneſſes are open in his ſyght.

19 And as he is mercyful, and knoweth his woorke, he dooth not leaue them, nor forſake them, but ſpareth them.

20 *The mercy that a man ſheweth, is (c) as a ſeale with hym, and the grace that is geuen to man, preſerueth him as the apple of an eye, and geueth repentance to theyr ſonnes and daughters.

Eccl.29.b.

(c) As a thing ſealed vp is ſurely founde agayne, ſo is mercy layde vp in ſtore.

21 At the laſt ſhal he awake, and reward euerye man vpon his head, and ſhal turne them togeather into the neathermoſt partes of the earth.

Actes.3.c. 22 * But vnto them that wyl repent, he hath geuen the way of ryghteouſneſſe: as for ſuch as be weake, he comforteth them, ſuffereth them, and ſendeth them the portion of the veritie.

23 O turne then vnto the Lorde, forſake thy ſinnes, make thy prayer before the Lord, doo the leſſe offence.

24 Turne agayne vnto the Lorde, for he wyl bring thee from darkeneſſe vnto wholeſome light, forſake thyne vnryghteouſneſſe, be an vtter enimie to abomination,

25 Learne to knowe the ryghteouſneſſe and iudgementes of God, ſtande in the portion that is ſet foorth for thee, and in the prayer of the moſt hygh God.

26 Goe in the portion of the holy world, with ſuche as be lyuing, and geue thankes vnto God.

27 * Who wyl prayſe the Lorde in the hel? abide not thou in the errour of the vngodly, but geue hym thankes before death. Pſalm.7.a

28 As for the dead, thankefulneſſe periſheth from hym as nothing: geue thou thankes in thy lyfe, yea, whyle thou art lyuing & whole ſhalt thou geue thankes, and praiſe God, and reioyce in his mercy. D

29 O howe great is the louing kyndeneſſe of the Lorde, and his mercyful goodneſſe vnto ſuche as turne vnto hym?

30 For al thinges may not be in man, & why? the ſonne of man is not immortal, and he hath pleaſure in the vanitie of wickedneſſe.

31 What is more cleare then the ſunne: yet ſhal it fayle.

32 Or what is more wicked then the thyng that fleaſhe and blood hath imagined? and that ſame ſhalbe reproued.

33 The Lord ſeeth the power of the hygh heauen, and al are but earth and aſhes.

The.xviii.Chapter.

1 The marueylous woorkes of God. 67 The miſerie and wretchedneſſe of man.
9 Agaynſt God ought we not to complayne. 21 The perfourming of vowes.

A 1 HE that liueth for euermore, made al thynges togeather: God only is ryghteous, and there is none other but he, and remaineth a victorious king for euer. Gene.1.a.

2 He ordereth the worlde with the power of his hande, and al thynges obey his wyl: for he gouerneth al thynges by his power, & diuideth the holy thynges from the prophane.

Pſal.105.a. 3 * Who ſhalbe able to expreſſe the woorkes of hym? Who wyl ſeeke out the grounde of his noble actes?

4 Who ſhal declare the power of his greatneſſe? or who wyl take vpon hym to tel out his mercy?

5 As for the woonderous woorkes of the lord, there may nothyng be taken from them, nothyng maye be put vnto them, neyther may the grounde of them be founde out.

6 But when a man hath donne his beſt, he muſt beginne againe: and when he thinketh to be comme to an ende, he muſt goe agayne to his labour.

7 What is man? wherto is he woorth? what good or euil can he doo?

Pſal.110.a. 8 * If the number of a mans dayes be almoſt an hundred yeeres, it is muche: and no man hath certayne knowledge of his death.

9 Lyke as the droppes of rayne are vnto the ſea, and as a grauel ſtone is in compariſon of the ſande: * ſo are theſe fewe yeeres to the dayes of euerlaſtyng. 2.Pet.3.b.

10 Therfore is the Lorde patient with them, and powreth out his mercy vpon them.

11 He ſawe and perceiued the thoughtes and imaginations of theyr harte, that they were euil, therfore heaped he vp his merciful goodneſſe vpon them, and ſhewed them the way of ryghteouſneſſe.

12 The mercy that a man hath, reacheth to his neyghbour, but the mercy of GOD is vpon al fleaſh: He chaſteneth, he teacheth and nurtureth: Yea, euen as a Sheepearde turneth agayne his flocke, ſo dooth he al them that receiue chaſtenyng, nurture, and doctrine.

13 * Merciful is he vnto them that diligently ſeeke after his iudgementes. Eſai.66.a.

14 My ſonne, when thou dooeſt good, make no grudgyng at it: and whatſoeuer thou geueſt, ſpeake no diſcomfortable woordes.

15 Shal not the deawe coole the heate? euen ſo is a woorde better then a gyft.

16 * Is not a friendely woorde a good honeſt gyfte? but a gratious man geueth them both. Pro.15.a.

17 * A foole ſhal caſte a man in the teeth, & that roughly: and a gyfte of the nigarde putteth out the eyes. Eccl.41.b.

20 Humble thee ſelfe afore thou be ſicke: and whileſt thou mayeſt[(a)] ſynne, ſhewe thy conuerſation.

(a) For he is more perfect that may ſinne and doth reſiſt it, then he that dooth folow after it.

21 Be not let to paye thy vowe in good tyme, and tarrye not to be iuſtified vnto thy death: for the rewarde of God endureth for euer.

22 Before thou prayeſt, prepare thy ſoule, and be not as one that tempteth God.

23 Thynke vpon the wrathful indignation that ſhalbe at the ende, and the houre of vengeance, when he ſhal turne away his face.

Eccl.11.d. 24 When thou haſt yenough, remember the tyme of hunger: and when thou art ryche, thynke vpon the tyme of pouertie and ſcarſeneſſe.

25 From the mornyng vntyl the euenyng, the tyme is changed, and al ſuche thynges are ſoone donne in the ſyght of God.

26 A wyſe man feareth God in al thynges, and in the dayes of tranſgreſſion, he keepeth hym ſelfe from ſynne: but the foole dooth not obſerue the tyme.

27 A diſcreete man hath pleaſure in wiſdome, and he that fyndeth her, maketh muche of her. D

28 They that haue had vnderſtandyng, haue dealt wyſely in woordes, haue vnderſtande the trueth and ryghteouſneſſe, ⁊ haue ſought out wyſe ſentences and iudgementes.

29 The chiefe aucthoritie of ſpeakyng, is of the Lord alone: for a mortal man hath but a dead hart.

30 * Folowe not thy luſtes, but turne thee from thyne owne wyl. Rom.6.b.

3 And he that companieth adulterers, ſhal become an impudent manne: mothes and woormes ſhal haue hym to heritage, yea, he ſhalbe ſet vp to a great example, and his ſoule ſhalbe rooted out of the number.

Ioſu.22.c. 4 * He that is haſtie to geue credence, is light mynded, and dooth agaynſt hym ſelfe.

5 Who ſo reioyceth in wickedneſſe, ſhalbe pouniſhed: but he that reſiſteth pleaſures, crowneth his owne ſoule: he that reſtrayneth his tongue, maye lyue with a troubleſome man: he that hateth to be refourmed, his life ſhalbe ſhortened: and he that abhorreth babling of woordes, quencheth wickedneſſe.

6 He that offendeth agaynſt his owne ſoule, ſhal repent it, and he that reioyceth in wickedneſſe, ſhalbe pouniſhed.

B 7 Rehearſe not a wicked and churliſh woord twyſe, and thou ſhalt not be hyndered.

8 Shewe thy ſecretes neyther to friende nor foe: and if thou haſt offended, tel it not out.

9 For he ſhal hearken vnto thee, and marke thee: ⁊ when he fyndeth oportunitie, he ſhal hate thee, and ſo ſhal he be alway about thee.

10 * If thou haſt hearde a woorde againſt thy neyghbour, let it be dead within thee: and be ſure thou ſhalt haue no harme thereby. Eccl.22.c.

11 A foole trauayleth with a woorde, lyke as a woman that is payned with bearing of a chylde.

12 Lyke as an arrowe ſhotte in a thigh of fleaſhe, ſo is a woorde in a fooles hart.

13 Tel thy friend his fault, leſt he be ignorant, and ſay, I haue not donne it: or if he haue ſpoken, that he do it no more. Leui.19.d.

14 Reproue thy neighbour that he keepe his tongue: and if he haue ſpoken, that he ſaye it no more. C

15 Tel thy neyghbour his fault, for oft tymes an offence is made: and geue not credence to euery woorde.

16 A man falleth ſometyme with his tongue, but not with his wil: for what is he that hath not offended in his tongue? Eccl.14.a.

17 Geue thy neighbour warning before thou threaten him: and geue place vnto the law of the Lorde.

18 The feare of the Lord is the fyrſt degree to be receiued of hym: and wiſedome obteyneth his loue.

19 The knowlege of the commaundementes of the Lorde, is the doctrine of lyfe: & they that obey hym, ſhal receiue the fruite of immortalitie.

D 20 The feare of God is al wyſedome: and he that is a ryghteous man, keepeth the lawe.

21 If a ſeruant ſay vnto his maiſter, I wyl not doo as it pleaſeth thee: though afterwarde he doo it, he ſhal diſpleaſe hym that nouriſheth hym.

22 As for the doctrine of wickedneſſe, it is no wyſedome, and the prudence of ſinners is no good vnderſtandyng: it is but wickedneſſe and abomination, and a blaſphemyng of wyſedome.

23 A ſimple man of ſmal vnderſtanding, that feareth god, is better thē one that hath much wyſedome, and tranſgreſſeth the lawe of the hygheſt.

24 A craftie ſubtil man can be wyſe, but he is vnryghteous, and with gyftes he wraſteth the open and manifeſt lawe: agayne, there is that is wyſe, and iudgeth ryghteouſly.

25 A wicked man can behaue him ſelfe humbly, and can ducke with his head, and yet is he but a deceiuer within: he hydeth his face, * and diſguyſeth it, & becauſe he ſhoulde not be knowen, he preuenteth thee. Mat.6.b.

26 And though he be ſo weake that he canne doo thee no harme, yet when he maye fynde oportunitie, he ſhal doo ſomme euyl.

27 A man may be knowen by his face, & one that hath vnderſtandyng, maye be perceiued by the looke of his countenance. E

28 * A mans garment, laughter, and goeyng, declare what he is. Eccl.31.c.

The.xx.Chapter.

1 Of correction and repentance. 6 Of the gyft of the wyſe man, and of the foole. 23 Of lyeing.

A 1 Somme* man reproueth his neyghbour oft tymes, but not in due ſeaſon: agayne, ſomme man holdeth his tongue, and he is wyſe and diſcreete. Eccle.31.d

2 It is muche better to geue warnyng and to reproue, then to beare euyl wyl: for he that knowledgeth hym ſelfe openly, ſhalbe preſerued from hurt and deſtruction.

3 Lyke as when a gelded man through deſyre and luſt defileth a mayden: euen ſo is it with hym that vſeth violence and vnryghteouſneſſe in the lawe.

4 O howe good a thyng is it, a man that is reproued to ſhewe openly his repentance: for ſo ſhalt thou eſcape wylful ſynne.

5 Somme man keepeth ſclence, and is found wyſe: but he that is not aſhamed what he ſayth, is hateful.

6 Somme man holdeth his tongue, becauſe he hath not vnderſtandyng of the language: and ſomme man keepeth ſcilence, waytyng a conuenient tyme.

B 7 A wyſe man wyl holde his tongue tyl he ſee oportunitie: but a wanton and vndiſcrete body, ſhal regarde no tyme. Eccl.3.a.

8 He that vſeth manye woordes, ſhal hurte his owne ſoule: and he that taketh auctoritie vpon hym vnryghteouſly, ſhalbe hated.

9 Somme man hath oft times proſperitie in wicked thynges: agayne, ſomme man geatteth muche, and hath harme and loſſe.

10 There is ſomme gyfte that is nothyng worth: agayne, there is ſomme gifte whoſe rewarde is double.

11 There is an humilitie for glories ſake, and ſome commeth to worſhip from low eſtate.

12 Somme man byeth muche for a litle price, and muſt pay for it ſeuen folde.

13 * A wyſe man with his woordes maketh hym ſelfe to be beloued: but the mery tales of fooles ſhalbe powred out. Eccl.6.d.

14 The gyfte of the vnwyſe ſhal doo thee no good, nor yet of the enuious, for his importunitie is ſeuen folde: for he looketh to receiue many thynges for one. C

15 * He ſhal geue litle, and ſay he gaue much: he openeth his mouth, and cryeth out, as it were one that cryed out wyde. Eccl.18.c.

16 To day he lendeth, to morowe aſketh he agayne: and ſuch a man is to be hated of God and man.

17 The foole ſayth, I haue no friend, I haue no thanke for al my good deedes: yea, euen they that eate my bread, ſpeake no good of me: O howe oft, and of howe many ſhal he be laughed to ſcorne?

18 He taketh a more perilous fal by ſuch woordes, then if he fel vpon the grounde: euen ſo ſhal the fal of wicked menne comme haſtily.

19 In the mouth of hym that is vntaught, are many vnconuenient & vnmeete woordes.

20 A wyſe ſentence ſhal not be alowed at the mouth of the foole: for he ſpeaketh it not in due ſeaſon. D

21 Somme man ſinneth not, becauſe he hath not wherewithal, and in his reaſt he ſhalbe ſtinged.

22 Somme man there is that deſtroyeth his owne ſoule with ſhame, & for an vnwyſe bodyes dyes ſake deſtroyeth he it, and with accepting of perſons ſhal he vndoo him ſelfe.

23 Somme man promiſeth his friende a gift for very ſhame: and geatteth an enmie of hym for nought.

24 A lye is a wicked ſhame in a man: yet ſhal it be euer in the mouth of the vnwyſe.

25 A theefe is better then a man that is accuſtomed to lie: but they both ſhal haue deſtruction to heritage.

26 The conditions of lyers are vnhoneſt: and theyr ſhame is euer with them.

27 A wyſe man ſhal bryng hym ſelfe to honour with his woordes: and he that hath vnderſtandyng, ſhalbe ſet by among great men. Gen.41.f.

28 *He that tilleth his lande, ſhal increaſe his heape of corne: he that worketh ryghteouſneſſe ſhalbe exalted, and he that pleaſeth great menne, ſhal eſcape muche euil. Pro.12.b.

29 *Rewardes and gyftes blinde the eyes of the wyſe, and make hym dumbe, that he can not tel menne they faultes. Eccle.23.a.

30 *Wyſedome that is hydde, and treaſure that is hoorded vp, what profite is in them both? Eccl.41.c.

3 The wickednes of man is as a ſharpe two edged ſwoorde, whiche maketh ſuch woundes, that they can not be healed.

4 Strife and wrongful dealyng ſhal waſte away a mans goodes, and through pryde, a ryche houſe ſhalbe brought to nought: ſo the ryches of the proude ſhalbe rooted out.

Exod.3.b. 5 * The prayer of the poore goeth out of the mouth, and commeth vnto the eares, and his vengeance [or defence] ſhal comme haſtyly.

6 Who ſo hateth to be refourmed, it is a token of an vngodly perſon: but he that feareth God, wyl remember hym ſelfe.

Eccl.16.a. 9 * The congregation of the vngodly, is lyke ſtubble geathered togeather, theyr ende is a flambe of fyre.

10 The way of yͤ vngodly is ſet with ſtones: but in theyr end is hel, darkneſſe, and paines.

11 He that keepeth the lawe, wyl holde faſt the vnderſtandyng thereof: and the ende of the feare of God, is wyſedome and vnderſtandyng.

12 He that is not wyſe, wyl not be taught in good, but the vnwyſe man aboundeth in wyckedneſſe: and where bitterneſſe is, there is no vnderſtandyng.

23 A foole wyl peepe in at the wyndowe into the houſe: but he that is wel nurtured, wyl ſtande without.

24 A fooliſhe man ſtandeth hearkening at the doore: but he that is wiſe, wil be aſhamed.

25 The lippes of the vnwyſe, wyl be telling fooliſhe thinges: but the woordes of ſuch as haue vnderſtandyng, ſhalbe wayed in the balance.

26 The hart of fooles is in theyr mouth: but the mouth of the wyſe is in theyr hart.

27 When the vngodly curſeth the (b) blaſphemer, he curſeth his owne ſoule.

28 *A priuie accuſer of other menne, ſhal defyle his owne ſoule, and be hated of euery man: but he that keepeth his tongue, and is diſcreete, ſhal comme to honour.

A 1 A Slouthful body is moulded(a) of a ſtone of claye, & euery man wyl ſpeake to his diſprayſe.

(a) That is, lyke as the idle ſtone geathereth moſſe and filth, ſo doth the ſlothful both ſickneſſe of body, and corruption of minde: and as euery man dooth auoyde the filthyneſſe of doung, and ſhaketh it of: ſo dooth he auoyde the company of idle loyterers, leſt he be accompted lyke vnto them.

2 A ſlouthful body is made of the doung of oxen, and euery one that toucheth hym, muſt waſhe his handes agayne.

3 A miſnurtured ſonne, is the diſhonour of the father: a fooliſhe daughter ſhalbe litle regarded.

4 A wyſe daughter is an heritage vnto her huſbande: but ſhe that commeth to diſhoneſtie, bryngeth her father in heauineſſe.

5 A daughter that is paſt ſhame, diſhonoureth both her father and her huſband: the vngodly ſhal regarde her, but they both ſhal deſpiſe her.

6 A tale out of tyme, is as muſicke in mournyng: but wyſedome knoweth the ſeaſons of correction and doctrine.

7 If chyldren liue honeſtly, and haue wherewithal, they ſhal put away the ſhame of theyr parentes:

B 8 But yf chyldren be proud with hawtineſſe and fooliſhneſſe, they blot out the nobilitie of theyr kynred.

9 Who ſo teacheth a foole, is euen as one that glewеth a potſharde togeather, as one that telleth a tale to hym that heareth hym not, and as one that rayſeth a man out of an heauy ſleepe.

10 Who ſo telleth a foole of wyſedome, is euen as a man whiche ſpeaketh to one that is a ſleepe: when he hath tolde his tale, he ſayth, What is the matter?

11 When one dyeth, lamentation is made for hym, becauſe the lyght fayleth hym: euen ſo, let menne mourne ouer a foole, for he wanteth vnderſtandyng. Make but litle weeping becauſe of the dead, for he is comme to reaſt: but the lyfe of the foole is woorſe then the death.

12 Seuen dayes doo menne mourne for hym that is dead: but the lamentation ouer the vnwyſe and vngodly, ſhoulde endure al the dayes of their lyfe.

13 Talke not muche with a foole, and goe not with hym that hath no vnderſtandyng: beware of hym, leſt it turne thee to trauayle, & thou ſhalt not be defiled with his ſinne. Depart from him, & thou ſhalt finde reaſt, & ſhalt not be drawen backe into his fooliſhneſſe.

14 (b) What is heauier then leade? and what ſhoulde a foole be called els but leade? C

(b) Though leade be heauy, yet may it be borne, but the inſolent foole may not be borne, as Pro.xxvii. Heauy is the ſtone, and weyghty is the ſande: but the furie of a foole dooth paſſe them both.

15 * Sande, ſalte, and a lumpe of iron, is eaſier to beare, then an vnwyſe, fooliſhe, and vngodly man.

16 Lyke as the bande of wood, bounde togeather in the fundation of the houſe, can not be looſed: euen ſo is it with the hart that is ſtabliſhed in the thought of counſel. The thought of the wyſe ſhal neuer feare, nor be offended at any tyme.

17 Lyke as a fayre plaſtered wal in a winter houſe, and a hygh buyldyng may not abyde the winde and ſtorme: euen ſo is a fooles hart afrayde in his imagination, he feareth at euery thing, and can not endure.

18 A wauering hart in the imagination of a foole, wyl not euer ſtand in awe: but he that abydeth in the commaundementes of God, wyl alway feare.

19 He that nippeth a mans eye, bryngeth foorth teares: and he that pricketh the hart, brinketh foorth the meanyng and thought.

20 Who ſo caſteth a ſtone at the birdes, frayeth them away: and he that blaſphemeth his freende, breaketh freendſhip.

21 Though thou drewеſt a ſwoorde at thy freende, yet diſpayre not: for thou mayeſt comme agayne to thy freende. D

22 If he ſpeake ſourely, feare not: for ye may be agreed togeather agayne, except it be that thou blaſpheme hym, diſdayne hym, open his ſecretes, and wounde hym trayterouſly: for al ſuche thinges ſhal driue away a freend.

23 Be faithful vnto thy neyghbour in his pouertie, that thou mayſt reioyce with hym alſo in his proſperitie: abyde ſtedfaſt vnto him in the tyme of his trouble, that thou mayeſt be heyre with him in his heritage: for pouertie is not alwayes to be contempned, nor the riche that is fooliſhe to be had in eſtimation.

24 Lyke as the vapour and ſmoke goeth out at the ouen before ẏ fyre: euen ſo euil woordes, rebukes, and threatninges goe before bloodſhedding.

25 Be not aſhamed to defende thy freende, as for me, I wyl not hyde my face from hym, though he ſhoulde doo me harme: Whoſoeuer heareth it, ſhal beware of hym.

26 Who ſhal ſet a watche before my mouth, and a ſure ſeale vpon my lippes, that I falle not with them, and that my tongue deſtroy me not? Pſal.112.

The.xxiii.Chapter.

1 Prayer agaynſt pride, lechery, and gluttony. 13 Of othes, blaſphemie, and vnwyſe communication. 16 Of the three kindes of ſinnes. 23 Many ſinnes proceede of adulterie. 27 Of the feare of God.

A 1 O Lorde, father and gouernour of my lyfe, leaue me not in their imagination and counſel: Oh let me not fal in ſuche reproofe.

2 Who wyl keepe my thought with the ſcourge, and the doctrine of wyſedome in myne hart? that he ſpare not myne ignorance, that I fal not with them:

3 Leſt myne ignorances increaſe, that myne offences be not many in number, and that my ſinnes exceede not: leſt I fal before myne enimies, and ſo my aduerſarie reioyce, whoſe hope is farre from thy mercie.

4 O Lorde, thou father and God of my lyfe, leaue me not in their imagination: O let me not haue a proude looke, but turne away al voluptuouſneſſe fro me.

5 Take from me the luſtes of the body, let not the deſyres of vncleanneſſe take holde vpon me,

6 And geue me not ouer into an vnſhamefaſt and obſtinate minde.

7 Heare me, O ye chyldren, I wyl geue you a doctrine howe ye ſhal order your mouth: Who ſo keepeth it, ſhal not periſhe through his lippes, nor be hurte through wicked woorkes.

B 8 As for yͤ ſinner, he ſhalbe taken in his owne vanitie: he that is proude and curſed, ſhal fal therein.

Exo.20.b. 9 *Let not thy mouth be accuſtomed with ſwearing, for in it there are many falles: let not the naming of god be continually in thy mouth, and meddle not with the names of ſaintes, for thou ſhalt not be excuſed of them.

10 For lyke as a ſeruant whiche is oft pouniſhed, can not be without ſomme ſoare: euen ſo whatſoeuer he be that ſweareth and nameth GOD, ſhal not be cleane purged from ſinne.

11 A man that vſeth muche ſwearing, ſhalbe filled with wickedneſſe, and the plague ſhal neuer goe from his houſe: yf he beguyle his brother, his fault ſhalbe vpon hym, yf he knowledge not his ſinne, he maketh a double offence, and yf he ſweare in vayne, he ſhal not be founde ryghteous: for his houſe ſhalbe ful of plagues.

12 *The woordes of the ſwearer bringeth death, God graunt that it be not found in the houſe of Iacob: but they that feare God, eſchue al ſuche, and lye not weltering in ſinne. Leui.24.c.

13 *Uſe not thy mouth to vnhoneſt and filthy talkyng, for in it is the woorde of ſinne. Ephe.5.a.

14 Remember thy father & thy mother when thou art ſet among great men: leſt God forgeat thee in their ſyght, and leſt thou doting in thy cuſtome, ſuffer rebuke, and wiſhe not to haue benne borne, and ſo curſe the day of thy natiuitie. C

15 * The man that is accuſtomed with the woordes of blaſphemie, wyl neuer be refourmed al the dayes of his lyfe. 2.Re.16.b.

16 To ſinne twyſe is to muche, but the thyrde bryngeth wrath and deſtruction: * An hotte ſtomacke can not be quenched (euen lyke a burning fyre) tyl it haue ſwalowed vp ſome thing: euen ſo an vnchaſte man hath no reaſt in his fleaſhe, tyl he haue kyndled a fyre.

17 Al bread is ſweete to an whoremonger, he wyl not leaue of tyl he dye.

18 A man that breaketh wedlocke, and regardeth not his ſoule, but ſayth, * Tuſhe, who ſeeth me? I am compaſſed about with darkneſſe, the walles couer me, no body ſeeth me, whom neede I to feare? the hygheſt wyl not remember my ſinnes: Eſai.21.a.

19 He vnderſtandeth not that his eyes ſee al thynges, for al ſuche feare of men, driueth away the feare of God from hym: for he feareth only the eyes of men, and conſydereth not that the eyes of the Lord are clearer then the ſunne, beholdyng al the wayes of men, and the grounde of the deepe, and lookyng euen to mens hartes in ſecrete places.

20 The Lorde God knewe al thynges or euer they were made, and after they be brought to paſſe alſo, he looketh vpon them al.

21 *The ſame man ſhalbe openly pouniſhed in the ſtreetes of the citie, and ſhalbe chaſed abrode lyke a young horſe foale: and when he thynketh leaſt vpon it, he ſhalbe taken. D Leui.20.b. Deut.22.b

22 Thus ſhal he be put to ſhame of euery man, becauſe he woulde not vnderſtande the feare of the Lorde: And thus ſhal it goe alſo with euery wyfe that leaueth her huſbande, & geatteth inheritance by a ſtrange mariage.

Exo.20.c. 23 *Fyrſt, ſhe hath benne vnfaithful vnto the lawe of the hygheſt: ſecondly, ſhe hath forſaken her owne huſbande: thyrdly, ſhe hath played the whore in adulterie, and gotten her chyldren by an other man.

24 She ſhalbe brought out of the congregation, and her chyldren ſhalbe looked vpon.

25 Her chyldren ſhal not take roote: and as for fruite, her branches ſhal bryng foorth none.

26 A ſhameful report ſhal ſhe leaue behynde her, and her diſhonour ſhal not be put out.

27 And they that remaine, ſhal knowe that there is nothyng better then the feare of God, and that there is nothyng ſweeter then to take heede vnto the commaundementes of the Lorde.

28 A great worſhip is it to folowe the Lorde: for long lyfe ſhalbe receiued of hym.

The.xxiiii.Chapter.

1 A prayſe of wyſedome proceedyng foorth of the mouth of God. 6 Of her workes, and place where ſhe reſteth.

A 1 Wyſedome ſhal prayſe her ſelfe, and be honoured in God, and reioyce in the middeſt of the people:

2 In the congregations of the hygheſt, ſhal ſhe open her mouth, and triumph in the beholdyng of his power.

3 In the middeſt of her people ſhal ſhe be exalted, and woondred at in the holy fulneſſe.

4 In the multitude of the choſen ſhe ſhalbe commended, and among ſuche as be bleſſed ſhe ſhalbe prayſed, and ſhal ſay,

5 I am comme out of the mouth of the higheſt, firſt borne before al creatures.

6 I cauſed the lyght that fayleth not to aryſe in the heauen, and couered al the earth as a cloude.

7 My dwellyng is aboue in the heygth, and my ſeate is in the piller of the cloude.

B 8 I mee ſelfe alone, haue gonne rounde about the compaſſe of heauen, & pearſed the ground of the deepe.

9 I haue walked in the fluddes of the ſea, and haue ſtande in al landes, my dominion is in euery people and in euery nation, and with my power haue I troden downe the hartes of al, both hye and lowe.

10 In al theſe thynges alſo I ſought reaſt, and a dwellyng in ſome inheritance.

11 So the creator of al thynges gaue me a commaundement, and he that made me, appoynted me a tabernacle, and ſaide vnto me, Let thy dwellyng be in Jacob, and thyne inheritance in Iſrael, and roote thee ſelfe among my choſen.

Pro.8.c. Exo.31.a. 12 *I was created from the beginnyng, and before the worlde, and ſhal not leaue of vnto the worlde to comme: *In the holy habitation haue I ſerued before hym, and ſo was I ſtabliſhed in Sion.

Pſal.132.a. 13 *In the holy citie reaſted I in lyke manner, and in Hieruſalem was my power.

14 I tooke roote in an honorable people, euen in the portion of the Lorde, and in his heritage, & kept me in the fulneſſe of the ſaintes. C

15 I am ſet vp an hygh, lyke a Cedar vpon Libanus, & as a Cipers tree vpon the mount Hermon.

16 I am exalted lyke a Palme tree in Cades, & as a Roſe plant in Jericho, as a fayre Oliue tree in the feelde, & am exalted lyke as a Plantaine tree by the water ſyde.

17 I haue geuen a ſmelle in the ſtreetes, as the Cynamom and Balme that hath ſo good a ſauour, yea a ſweete odour haue I geuen, as it were myrre of the beſt: I haue made my dwellinges to ſmel as it were of Roſin, Galbanum, of Cloues, Inſence, and as Libanus when it is not hewen downe, and myne odour is as the pure Balme.

18 As the (a) Terebint haue I ſtretched out my branches, and my branches are the branches of honour and louing fauour.

19 As the vine haue I brought foorth fruite of a ſweete ſauour, and my floures are the fruite of honour and richeſſe.

20 I am the mother of beautie, of loue, of feare, of knowledge, and of holy hope: I geue eternal thinges to al my children to whom God hath commaunded.

21 In me is al grace of lyfe and trueth, in me is al hope of lyfe and vertue.

22 O comme vnto me al ye that be deſyrous of me, and fil your ſelues with my fruites.

23 For my ſpirite is ſweeter then hony, and ſo is mine inheritance more then yͤ hony combe: the remembrance of me, endureth for euermore.

24 They that eate me, ſhal haue the more hunger: and they that drinke me, ſhal thirſte the more.

25 Who ſo hearkeneth vnto me, ſhal not come to confuſion, and they that worke in me, ſhal not offende: they that take me to be kno-

(a) Terebint, is a harde tree ſpread abrode with long boughes, where out of runneth the gumme, called a pure turpentine, whiche clenſeth the ſtomacke of putrified humours, & purifieth the eares: ſo the wyſedome of God declared in his ſcriptures, ſpreadeth abrode her manifolde branches of knowledge & vnderſtãding, to purge the inwarde eares and corruption of the ſoule.

Wen, ſhal haue euerlaſtyng lyfe.

26 Al theſe thynges are the booke of lyfe, the couenant of the hygheſt, and the knowledge of the trueth: * Moſes commaunded the lawe in the preceptes of ryghteouſneſſe, for an heritage vnto the houſe of Iacob, and committed the promiſe vnto Iſrael.

Exo.20.a. and.24.a.

E 27 Be not weery to behaue your ſelues valiantly with the Lorde, that he may alſo confyrme you: Cleaue vnto hym, for the Lorde almyghty is but one God, and beſides hym, there is none other ſauiour.

Pſal.131.b. Actes.2.d.

28 (* Out of Dauid his ſeruant, he ordeyned to rayſe vp a moſt myghty kyng, ſitting in the ſeate of honour for euermore.)

Deut.4.a. and.29.b.

29 * This filleth with wyſedome, lyke as the fludde of Phiſon, and as the fludde of Tigris when the newe fruites are a growyng.

Ioſue.3.c.

30 * This bryngeth a plenteous vnderſtanding lyke Euphrates, and filleth it vp as Iordane in the tyme of harueſt.

31 This maketh nurture to breake foorth as the lyght, and as the water Gehon in the harueſt.

32 The fyrſt hath not knowen her perfectly: no more ſhal the laſt ſeeke out the grounde of her.

33 For her thought is fuller then the ſea, and her counſel is profounder then yͤ great deepe.

34 I wyſedome haue caſt out fluddes, I am as a great water brooke out of the riuer, I am as the ryuer Dorix, and as a water conduite am I comme out of the gardine of pleaſure. F

35 I ſayde, I wyl water the gardine of my young plantes, & fille the fruite of my byrth: So my water brooke became exceedyng great, and my riuer approched vnto the ſea.

36 For I make doctrine to be vnto al men as light as the fayre mornyng, and I ſhal make it to be euer the clearer.

37 I wyl pearſe through al the lower parties of the earth, I wyl looke vpon al ſuche as be a ſleepe, and lyghten al them that put theyr truſt in the Lorde.

38 I ſhal yet powre out doctrine lyke as prophecie, and leaue it vnto ſuche as ſeeke after wyſedome, and their generations ſhal I neuer fayle vnto the holy euerlaſtyng worlde.

39 * Beholde howe that I haue not laboured for mee ſelfe only: but for al them that ſeeke after the trueth. Eccle.33.b

The.xxv.Chapter.

1 Of three thinges whiche pleaſe God, and of three whiche he hateth. 7 Of nine thinges that be not to be ſuſpect, aud of the tenth. 15 Chiefely of the malice of a woman.

Gen.13.d. Rom.12.b Eccl.40.d

A 1 Three thynges there are that my ſpirit fauoureth, which be alſo alowed before God and men: * The vnitie of brethren, * the loue of neyghbours, * a man and wyfe that agree wel togeather.

2 Three thynges there be whiche my ſoule hateth, and I vtterly abhorre the life of them: A poore man that is proude, a riche man that is a lyar, * and an olde body that doteth, and is vnchaſte.

Gen.18.b.

3 If thou haſt geathered nothyng in thy youth, what wylt thou finde then in thyne age?

4 O howe pleaſant a thyng is it, when gray headed men are diſcreete, and when the elders can geue good counſel?

5 O howe comely a thing is wyſedome vnto aged men? yea, vnderſtandyng and counſel to men of honour is a glorious thing.

6 The crowne of olde men, is to haue muche experience: and the feare of GOD, is theyr worſhip.

7 There be nine thynges which I haue iudged in my hart to be happy, & the tenth wyl I telle foorth vnto menne with my tongue: A man that whyle he liueth hath ioy of his chyldren, and ſeeth the fal of his enimies.

B 8 Wel is hym that dwelleth with an houſewyfe of vnderſtandyng, * and that hath not fallen with his tongue, and that hath not benne fayne to ſerue ſuche as are vnmeete for hym.

Eccle.19.c and.24.a. Iames.3.a.

9 Wel is him that findeth * a faythful freend: and wel is him which talketh of wyſedome to an eare that heareth hym.

* Or, prudent.

10 O howe great is he that findeth wyſedome and knowledge? Yet is he not aboue hym that feareth the Lorde.

11 The feare of GOD hath ſet it ſelfe aboue al thynges.

12 Bleſſed is the man vnto whom it is graunted to haue the feare of GOD: vnto whom ſhal he be likened that keepeth it faſt?

13 The feare of God, is the beginnyng of his loue: and the beginnyng of fayth, is to cleaue faſt vnto it.

C 14 The heauineſſe of the hart is al the pouniſhment, and the wickedneſſe of a woman goeth aboue al.

15 Al pouniſhment and plague is nothyng in compariſon of the plague of the hart: euen ſo, al wickedneſſe is nothyng, to the wickedneſſe of a woman.

16 What ſo euer happeneth vnto a man, is nothyng in compariſon of it that his euyl wyllers doo vnto hym: and al vengeance is nothyng to the vengeance of the enimie.

17 There is not a more wicked head then the head of the ſerpent: and there is no wrath aboue the wrath of a woman.

Pro.21,a. 18 *I wyl rather dwel with a Lion and Dragon, then to kepe houſe with a wicked wife.

19 The wickedneſſe of a woman chaungeth her face, ſhe ſhal moffle her countenance as it were a beare, and as a ſacke ſhal ſhe ſhewe it among the neyghbours.

D 20 Her huſbande is brought to ſhame among his neyghbours becauſe of her: and when he heareth it, it maketh hym to ſygh.

21 Al wickedneſſe is but litle to yͤ wickedneſſe of a woman: the portion of the vngodly ſhal falle vpon her.

22 Lyke as the clyming vp a ſandy way is to the feete of the aged: euen ſo is a wyfe ful of woordes to a ſtil quiet man.

Eccle.42.a. 2.Re.11.a, and,13,a.

23 *Looke not to narowly vpon the beautie of a woman, leſt thou be prouoked in deſyre towarde her.

24 The wrath of a woman is diſhonour and great confuſion: If a woman geat the maiſtrie, then is ſhe contrary to her huſbande.

Gen,3.c. 1.Tim.2.b.

25 A wicked wyfe maketh a ſory hart, an heauie countenance, & a dead wounde:* Weake handes and feeble knees, is a woman that her huſbande is not the better for.

26 Of the woman came the (a) beginnyng of ſinne, and through her, we al are dead.

27 Geue thy water no paſſage, no not a litle, neither geue a wicked woman her wyl.

28 If ſhe walke not after thy hande, ſhe ſhal confounde thee in the ſight of thyne enimies: Cut her of then from thy fleaſhe, that ſhe doo not alway abuſe thee.

(a) 1.Tim.2. Adam was not deceiued. But to the Rom.5.he ſayth. By one man ſinne entred into the worlde. The occaſion was offered by the woman, but the ſinne was finiſhed by the man conſentyng therevnto.

The.xxvi.Chapter.

1 The prayſe of a good woman. 5 Of the feare of three thynges, and of the fourth. 6 Of the ielouſie and drunkenneſſe of a woman. 28 Of two thynges that cauſe ſorowe, of the thyrde whiche mooueth wrath.

A 1 Happy is the man that hath a vertuous wyfe: for yͤ number of his yeeres ſhalbe double.

2 An honeſt woman maketh her huſbande a ioyful man, and ſhe ſhal fille the yeeres of his lyfe in peace.

3 A vertuous woman is a noble gyft, which ſhalbe geuen for a good portion vnto ſuche as feare God.

4 Whether a man be riche or poore, he may haue euer a meery hart, and a cheareful countenance.

5 There be three thynges that my hart feareth, and my face is afraide of the fourth: treaſon in a citie, a ſeditious people, and noyſome tongues: al theſe are heauyer then the death.

6 When one woman is ielous ouer an other, it bryngeth payne and ſorowe vnto the hart: and a woman that telleth out al thynges, is a ſcourge of the tongue.

7 When one hath an euyl wyfe, it is euen as when an vnlyke payre of oxen muſt drawe togeather: *he that geatteth her, geatteth a ſcorpion.

Iud,16.a.

B 8 A drunken woman is a great plague: for ſhe can not couer her owne ſhame.

9 The whoredome of a woman may be knowen in the pride of her eyes and eye liddes.

Eccle.14.d 10 *If thy daughter be not ſhamefaſt, holde her ſtraytly, leſt ſhe abuſe her ſelfe through ouer muche libertie.

11 Beware of al the diſhoneſtie of her eyes, and maruel not yf ſhe doo agaynſt thee.

☞ 12 As a wayfaring man that is thirſtie, when he hath founde a wel, drinketh of euery water: ſo wyl ſhe ſit downe by euery hedge, and make her ſelfe common to euery man that paſſeth by. ☜

13 A louing wyfe reioyceth her huſbande, and feedeth his bones with her wyſedome.

C 14 A woman of fewe woords is a gift of God: to al nurtured mindes, may nothing be compared.

15 An honeſt and manerly woman is a gyft aboue other gyftes: and there is no waygh to be compared vnto a minde that can rule it ſelfe.

16 Lyke as the ſunne when it aryſeth, is an ornament in the hygh heauen of the Lorde: ſo is a vertuous wife the beautie of al her houſe.

17 Lyke as the cleare lyght is vpon the holy candelſticke: ſo is the beautie of the face vpon an honeſt body.

Can.5.d.

18 *Like as the golden pillers are vpon the ſockettes of ſiluer: ſo are the fayre feete vpon a woman that hath a conſtant mynde.

19 Perpetual are the fundations that be layed vpon a whole ſtony rocke: ſo are the commaundementes of God vpon the hart of an holy woman.

20 There be two thinges that greeue my hart: and in the thirde is diſpleaſure comme vpon me: When an experte man of warre ſuffereth ſcarſeneſſe and pouertie, when men of vnder-ſtandyng and wyſedome are not ſet by, and when one departeth from righteouſneſſe vnto ſinne: Who ſo dooth ſuche, the Lorde hath prepared hym vnto the ſwoorde.

21 There be two manner of things which mee thynke to be harde & perilous: A marchant can not lyghtly keepe hym from wrong, neither a tauerner hym ſelfe from ſinne.

The.xxvii.Chapter.

3 Of the poore that woulde be riche. 5 The probation of the man that feareth God.
13 The vnconſtantneſſe of a foole. 16 The ſecretes of a freende, are not to be vttered.
20 The wicked imagineth euil, whiche returneth vpon hym ſelfe.

A 1 BEcauſe of pouertie, haue many one offended: and he that ſeeketh to be richs, turneth his eyes aſyde.

2 Lyke as a nayle in the walle, ſticketh faſte betwixt two ſtones: euen ſo dooth ſinne ſticke betwixt the byer and the ſeller.

3 If he holde hym not diligently in the feare of the Lorde, his houſe ſhal ſoone be ouerthrowen.

4 Lyke as when one ſifteth, the filthyneſſe remayneth in the ſiue: So remaineth there ſome vncleane thing in the thought of man.

Sap.3.a. 1.Pet.3.b. 5 The ouen prooueth the potters veſſel: * ſo dooth temptation of trouble trie ryghteous menne.

Mat.7.b. 6 * The tree of the feelde, is knowen by his fruite: ſo is the thought of mans hart knowen by his woordes.

7 Prayſe no man, except thou haue hearde him: for a man is knowen by his woordes.

B 8 If thou folowest ryghteouſneſſe, thou ſhalt geat her, and put her vpon thee as a faire garment: and thou ſhalt dwel with her, and ſhe ſhal defende thee for euer, and in the day of knowledge, thou ſhalt finde ſtedfaſtneſſe.

9 The byrdes reſorte vnto theyr like: ſo dooth the trueth turne vnto them that be occupied withal.

10 The Lion wayteth the pray: ſo dooth ſinne vpon them that woorke vnryghteouſneſſe.

11 The talkyng of hym that feareth GOD, is nothyng but wyſedome: as for a foole, he changeth as the moone.

12 If thou be among the vndiſcreete, keepe thy woordes to a conuenient tyme: but among ſuche as be wyſe, ſpeake on hardyly.

13 The talkyng of fooles is abomination, and theyr ſport is voluptuouſneſſe & miſnurture.

C 14 * Muche ſwearing, maketh the heare to ſtande vp: and to ſtriue with ſuche, ſtoppeth the eares. Eccle.22.b

15 The ſtryfe of the proude is bloodſheddyng, and theyr blaſpheming is heauy to heare.

Eccle.19.b and.22.d. 16 * Who ſo diſcouereth ſecretes, leeſeth his credence, and findeth no freende after his wyl.

17 Loue thy freende, and bynde thee ſelfe in faythfulneſſe with him: but yf thou bewrayeſt his ſecrets, thou ſhalt not geat him againe.

18 For lyke as the man is that deſtroyeth his enimie: ſo is he alſo that dealeth falſely in the freendſhip of his neyghbour.

19 Like as one that letteth a birde goe out of his hande, can not take her agayne: Euen ſo thou, if thou geue ouer thy freende, thou canſt not geat hym agayne.

20 Yea, thou canſt not comme by hym, for he is to farre of: He is vnto thee as a Roe eſcaped out of the ſnare, for his ſoule is wounded.

21 As for woundes, they may be bound vp agayne, and an euyl woorde may be reconciled: but who ſo bewrayeth the ſecretes of a freende, there is no more hope to be had vnto him. D

Pro.9.b. 22 * He that winketh with the eies, imagineth ſomme euil: and he that knoweth hym, wyl let hym alone.

23 When thou art preſent, he ſhal hyghly commende and prayſe thy woordes: but at the laſt he ſhal turne his tayle, and ſclaunder thy ſayeing.

24 Many thynges haue I hated, but nothing ſo euyl: for the Lorde hym ſelfe alſo abhorreth ſuche a one.

Exo.21.b. 25 * Who ſo caſteth a ſtone an hygh, it ſhal fal vpon his owne head: and he that ſmyteth with guile, woundeth hym ſelfe.

26 Who ſo diggeth a pit ſhal fal therein, and he that layeth a ſtone in his neyghbours way, ſhal ſtumble thereon, & he that layeth a ſnare for another, ſhalbe taken in it hym ſelfe.

Deut.7.d. Pſalm.7.d Pro.26.c. Eccle.10.a 27 * Who ſo geueth a wicked noyſome counſel, it ſhal comme vpon hym ſelfe, and he ſhal not knowe from whence.

28 The proude blaſpheme, and are ſcorneful: but vengeance lurketh for them as a Lion.

29 They that reioyce at the falle of the ryghteous, ſhalbe taken in the ſnare: anguiſhe of hart ſhal conſume them before they dye.

30 Anger and rigorouſneſſe are two abominable thynges, & the vngodly hath them both vpon hym.

The.xxviii.Chapter.

1 We ought not to deſyre vengeance, but to forgeue the offence. 13 Of the vices of the tongue, and of the dangers thereof.

A Deut.32.a. Rom.12.c.

1 HE* that ſeeketh vengeance, ſhal finde vengeance of the Lord, which ſhal ſurely keepe hym his ſinnes.

Mat.5.b.6 b,18.b.

2 *Forgeue thy neyghbour the hurt that he hath donne thee, and ſo ſhal thy ſinnes be forgeuen thee alſo when thou prayeſt.

3 A man that beareth hatred againſt another, howe dare he deſyre forgeueneſſe of God?

4 He that ſheweth no mercie to a man which is lyke hym ſelfe, howe dare he aſke forgeueneſſe of his ſinnes?

5 If he that is but fleaſhe, beareth hatred, and keepeth it, who wyl intreate for his ſinnes?

6 Remember the ende, and let enmitie paſſe, whiche ſeeketh death and deſtruction, and abyde thou in the commaundementes.

7 Remember the commaundementes, ſo ſhalt thou not be rigorous ouer thy neyghbour: Thinke vpon ye couenant of the higheſt, and forgeue thy neyghbours ignorance.

B Eccle.58.a

8 *Beware of ſtrife, and thou ſhalt make thy ſinnes fewer.

9 For an angry man kindleth variance: and the vngodly diſquieteth freendes, and putteth diſcorde among them that be at peace.

Pro,26,c.

10 *The more wood there is, the more vehement is the fyre, and the myghtier that men be, the greater is the wrath: accordyng to his richeſſe his anger increaſeth, and the longer the ſtryfe endureth, the more it burneth.

11 An haſtie brawling kyndleth a fyre, and an haſtie ſtryfe, ſheddeth blood: A tongue alſo that beareth falſe witneſſe, bringeth death.

12 If thou blowe the ſparke, it ſhal burne, yf thou ſpit vpon it, it ſhal goe foorth, and both theſe comme out of the mouth.

Eccle.21.d

13 *The ſclaunderer and double tongued, is curſed: for many one that be freendes, ſetteth he at variance.

" Or, a double tongue: whiche ſayth and vnſayth, or ſpeaketh one thyng and thynketh an other. The thyrde tongue doo ſome take for that which ſpeaketh neyther out of the newe nor the old teſtament, but of theyr owne brayne.

14 The " thirde tongue hath diſquieted many one, and dryuen them from one lande to another: Strong cities of the riche hath it broken downe, and ouerthrowen the houſes of great menne: The ſtrength of the people hath it brought downe, and benne the decay of myghty nations.

C

15 The thirde tongue hath caſt out many an honeſt woman, and robbed them of theyr labours.

16 Who ſo hearkeneth vnto ſuche, ſhal neuer finde reaſt, and neuer dwel ſafely.

17 The ſtroke of the rodde, maketh printes in the ſkinne: but the ſtroke of the tongue ſmyteth the bones in ſunder.

18 There be many that haue periſhed with the ſwoorde: but many moe through the tongue.

19 Wel is him that is kept from an euil tongue, and commeth not in the anger thereof, whiche draweth not the yoke of ſuche, and is not bounde in the bandes of it.

20 For the yoke thereof is of iron, and the band of it of " ſteele.

" Or, braſſe.

D

21 The death thereof, is a very euil death: helle were better for one, then ſuche a tongue.

22 But the fyre of it, may not oppreſſe them that feare God, and the flambe thereof may not burne them.

23 Suche as forſake the Lorde, ſhal fal therin, and it ſhal burne them, and no man ſhal be hable to quenche it: It ſhal fal vpon them as a Lion, and deuoure them as a Leoparde.

24 Thou hedgeſt thy goodes with thornes: why doeſt thou not rather make doores and barres for thy mouth?

25 Thou wayeſt thy golde and ſiluer: why doeſt thou not way thy woordes alſo vpon thy balance, and make a doore, and a barre, and a ſure brydel for thy mouth?

26 Beware that thou ſlide not thy tongue, and ſo fal before thyne enimies that lay wayt for thee, & thy fal be incurable, euen vnto death.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1 Howe we ought to lende our money, and doo almes. 15 Of a faythful man anſwearing for his freende. 22 Of liberalitie and hoſpitalitie.

Deut.15.a. Luke.6.d.

1 WHO ſo wyl ſhew mercie, *let hym lende vnto his neyghbour: and he that is hable, let hym keepe the commaundementes.

2 Lende vnto thy neyghbour in time of his neede, and pay thou thy neyghbour agayne in due ſeaſon.

3 Keepe thy woorde, & deale faythfully with hym: and thou ſhalt alway finde the thyng that is neceſſary for thee.

4 There haue ben many, that when a thing was lent them, reckened it to be founde, and made them trauaile and labour that had helped them.

5 Whyle they receiue any thing, they kiſſe the handes of ſuche as geue them, and for theyr neyghbours good, they humble theyr voyce: but when they ſhoulde paye agayne, they keepe it backe, and geue euyl woordes, and make many excuſes by reaſon of the time.

6 And though he be hable, yet geueth he ſcarſe the halfe agayne, and reckeneth the other to be founde: And yf he withholde not his money, yet hath he an enimie of hym, and that vndeſerued: He payeth hym with curſyng and rebuke, and geueth hym euyl woordes for his good deede.

7 There be many one whiche are not gladde for to lende, not becauſe of euil: but they feare to loſe the thyng that they lende.

B 8 Yet haue thou patience with the ſimple, and withholde not mercie from hym.

9 Helpe the poore for the commaundementes ſake, and let hym not goe emptie from thee, becauſe of his neceſſitie.

13 * A mans almes is as a purſe with hym, and ſhal keepe a mans fauour as the apple of an eye: and afterwarde ſhal it ariſe and pay euery man his rewarde vpon his head.

C 14 It ſhal fight for thee againſt thine enimies, better then the ſhielde of a giant, or ſpeare of the myghty.

15 A good honeſt man is a ſuertie for his neighbour: but a wicked perſon, letteth hym come to ſhame.

16 Forgeat not the freendſhip of thy ſuertie: for he hath geuen his ſoule for thee.

17 The vngodly deſpiſeth the good deede of his ſuertie.

18 (a) The wicked wyl not become ſuertie, and the vnthankful and ignorant, leaueth his ſuertie in danger.

(a) As he is a foole, that is ſuertie for euery man: ſo is he vngodly that in no caſe wyl be ſuertie for one man.

19 Somme man promiſeth for his neighbour: and when he hath loſt his honeſtie, he ſhal forſake hym.

20 Suertiſhippe hath deſtroyed many a riche man, and remooued them as the waues in the ſea: Mighty people hath it driuen away, and cauſed them to wander in ſtrange countreys.

21 An vngodly man tranſgreſſing the commaundement of the Lorde, ſhal falle into an euyl ſuertiſhip: and though he force him ſelfe to geat out, yet ſhal he fal into iudgement. D

22 Helpe thy neyghbour out after thy power, and beware that thou thee ſelfe falle not in ſuche debte.

23 * The cheefe thyng that keepeth in thy lyfe, is water, and bread, clothyng, and lodging, to couer the ſhame.

28 Goe thy way thou ſtranger, and prepare a table for thee ſelfe, and feede me alſo of that thou haſt:

29 Geue place thou ſtranger to an honorable man, my brother commeth into my houſe: and ſo telleth hym the neceſſitie of his houſe.

The.xxx.Chapter.

1 Of the correction of chyldren. 14 Of the commoditie of health. 17 Death is better then a ſorowful lyfe. 18 Of hid wyſedome. 22 Of the ioy and ſorowe of the hart.

Pro.13.f.
and.23.b.

A 1 WHO ſo loueth his chylde, * holdeth him ſtille vnder correction, that he maye haue ioye of hym afterwarde, and that he grope not after his neyghbours doores.

Deut.6.a.

2 He that teacheth his ſonne, ſhal haue ioy in hym, and neede not to be aſhamed of hym among his acquaintance.

3 Who ſo enfourmeth and teacheth his ſonne, greeueth the enimie: and before his freendes he may haue ioy of him.

4 Though his father dye, yet is he as though he were not dead: for he hath leaft one behind hym that is lyke hym.

5 In his lyfe he ſawe hym, and had ioye in hym, and was not ſory in his death, neyther was he aſhamed before the enimies.

6 For he leaft behynde hym an auenger agaynſt his enimies, & a good dooer vnto the friendes.

B 7 For the lyfe of chyldren, he ſhal bynde the woundes togeather, and his hart is greeued at euery crye.

8 An vntamed horſe wylbe harde, & a wanton chylde wyl be wylful.

9 If thou bryng vp thy ſonne delicately, he ſhal make thee afraide: and if thou play with hym, he ſhal bryng thee to heauineſſe.

10 Laugh not with hym, leſt thou weepe with him alſo, and leſt thou gnaſhe with thy teeth at the laſt.

Eccl.7.c. 11 * Geue him no libertie in his youth, and excuſe not his follie.

12 Bow downe his necke while he is young, hit hym vpon the ſydes whyle he is yet but a chylde, leſt he waxe ſtubburne, and geue no more force of thee, and ſo ſhalt thou haue heauineſſe of ſoule.

13 Teache thy chylde, and be diligent therein, leſt it be to thy ſhame.

C 14 Better is the poore beyng whole & ſtrong, then a manne to be riche, and not to haue his health:

15 Health and welfare is aboue al golde, and a whole body aboue al treaſure.

16 There is no ryches aboue a ſounde bodye, and no ioye, aboue the ioye of the harte.

17 Death is better then a bytter lyfe, and eternal reaſt, better then continual ſickeneſſe.

18 (a) The good thinges that are put in a cloſe mouth, are like as when meate is layd vpon the graue.

(a) Lyke as meate that is ſet vpon the graues of dead menne is vnprofitable, for that they eate it not: euen ſo the knowledg in hym that openeth not his mouth to vtter it, is vnprofitable. Eccle.41. wyſdome that is hyd.&c.

19 What good dooth ẏ offeryng vnto an idol? * for he can neyther eate, taſte, nor ſmel: Euen ſo is he that is chaſed of the Lorde, and beareth the rewardes of iniquitie. Bel.d.

20 He ſeeth with his eyes, and groneth lyke a gelded manne, that lyeth with a virgin, and ſygheth.

21 * Geue not ouer thy minde into heauineſſe, and vexe not thee ſelfe in thyne owne counſel. Pro.22.d. 15.b.17.d.

22 * The ioy and chearefulneſſe of the hart, is the lyfe of man, and a mans gladneſſe is the prolongyng of his dayes. Eccle.38.c Pro.14.b.

24 Zeale and anger ſhorten the dayes of the lyfe: Carefulneſſe and ſorowe brynge age before the tyme.

25 Unto a mery hart, euery thing hath a good taſte that he eateth.

The.xxxi.Chapter.

1 We ought to geue diligent heede to honeſtie. 2 Of them that take payne to geather riches. 8 The prayſe of the ryche man without a fault. 12 We ought to flee drunkenneſſe, and folowe ſoberneſſe.

A 1 TRauayle and carefulneſſe for * riches, taketh awaye the ſleepe, and maketh the fleaſhe to conſume. 1.Tim.6.b

2 When one lyeth and taketh care, he waketh euer vp, lyke as a great ſicknes breaketh the ſleepe.

3 The rich haue great labour in geathering his riches togeather, and then with the pleaſure of his riches, he taketh his reaſt, and is refreaſhed.

4 But who ſo laboureth, and proſpereth not, he is poore: and though he leaue of, yet is he a begger.

5 He that loueth riches, ſhal not be iuſtified: and who ſo foloweth corruption, ſhal haue yenough thereof.

Eccl.8.a. 6 * Many one are come in great miſfortune by the reaſon of golde, and haue founde theyr deſtruction before them.

B 7 It is a tree of fallyng, vnto them that offer it vp, and al ſuche as be fooliſhe, fal therein.

8 Bleſſed is the riche whiche is found without blemiſhe, and hath not gonne after gold, nor hoped in money and treaſures.

9 Where is there ſuche a one, & we ſhal commende hym, and cal hym bleſſed? for woonderful thynges dooth he among his people.

10 Who ſo is tryed, and founde perfect in ſuch thynges, ſhalbe commended and prayſed: Who myght offende, and hath not offended? Who coulde doo euyl, and hath not donne it?

11 Therefore ſhal his good be ſtabliſhed, and the whole congregation ſhal declare his almes.

12 If thou ſit at a great mans table, open not thy mouth wyde vpon it, and ſay not, There is muche meate on it.

13 Remember that an euyl eye is a ſhrewe: What thyng created, is worſe then a wicked eye? Therfore weepeth it before euery mans face.

14 Laye not thyne hande vpon euery thyng that thyne eye ſeeth: and ſtryue not with hym in the diſhe.

Mat.7.a. 15 * Ponder by thee ſelfe what thy neighbour woulde fayne haue, and be diſcreete in euerye poynt.

16 Eate the thyng that is ſet before thee mannerly, as it becommeth a man, and eate not to muche, leſt thou be abhorred.

17 Leaue thou of fyrſt of al becauſe of nurture, leſt thou be he whom no man maye ſatiſfie, whiche may turne to thy decay.

18 When thou ſytteſt among manye menne, reache not thyne hande out fyrſt of al, neither cal thou fyrſt for drynke.

Eccl.37.c. 19 O how wel content is a wyſe man with a litle wyne? ſo that in ſleepe thou ſhalt not be ſicke thereof, nor feele any payne.

D 20 A ſweete wholeſome ſleepe ſhal ſuch a one haue, and feele no inward greefe, he riſeth vp betymes in the mornyng, and is wel at eaſe in hym ſelfe: but an vnſatiable eater ſleepeth vnquietly, and hath ache and payne of the body.

21 If thou feeleſt that thou haſt eaten to much, ariſe, goe thy way, caſt it out of thy ſtomacke, and take thy reaſt, and it ſhal eaſe thee, ſo that thou ſhalt bring no ſickeneſſe vnto thy body.

Rom.12.c. 22 My ſonne, heare me, and deſpiſe me not, and at the laſt, thou ſhalt fynd as I haue told thee: * In al thy woorkes be diligent and quicke, ſo ſhal there no ſickneſſe happen vnto thee.

23 Who ſo is liberal in dealyng out his meat, many menne ſhal bleſſe him, and prayſe hym with theyr lyppes: and the ſame is a ſure token of his loue and faythfulneſſe.

24 But he that is vnfaythful in meate, the whole citie ſhal complayne of hym: and that is a ſure experience of his infidelitie and wickedneſſe.

25 Shewe not thy valiantneſſe in wyne, for wyne hath deſtroyed many a man.

26 The fyre prooueth the harde iron: Euen ſo dooth wyne prooue the hartes of the proude, when they be drunken.

27 * Wyne ſoberly drunken, quickeneth the lyfe of man: If thou drynkeſt it meaſurably, thou ſhalt be temperate: What is the lyfe of hym that is ouercomme with wyne? What taketh away the life? Euen death. Pro.22.a.

28 Wyne was made from the begynnyng to make menne glad, and not for drunkenneſſe: Wyne meaſurably drunken, is a reioycing of the ſoule and body: A meaſurable drynking, is health to ſoule and body.

29 But if it be drunkē with exceſſe, it maketh bytterneſſe and ſorowe vnto the mynde.

30 Drunkenneſſe filleth the minde of the fooliſhe with ſhame and ruine, miniſheth the ſtrength, and maketh woundes.

31 * Rebuke not thy neyghbour at the wyne, and deſpiſe hym not in his mirth: Geue hym no deſpiteful woordes, and preaſſe not vpon hym with contrary ſayeinges. Eccl.20.a.

The,xxxii.Chapter.

1 Of the diſcretion and prayſe of the preacher and of the hearer. 15 Of the feare, fayth, and confidence in God.

A 1 Deut.17.d Rom.12.b. If thou be made a ruler,* pride not thee ſelfe therein, but be thou as one of the people: * take diligent care for them, and looke wel thereto.

2 And when thou haſt donne al thy duetie, ſit thee downe, that thou mayeſt be meary with them, and receiue a crowne of honour.

3 Speake thou that art the elder, for it becōmeth thee, but with ſure knowledge: hynder not muſicke.

Eccl.3.d. 4 Speake not where there is no audience: * and poure not foorth wyſedome out of time, at an importunitie.

5 Lyke as the carbuncle ſtone ſhyneth that is ſet in golde: ſo dooth a ſongue garniſhe the wyne feaſt.

6 And as the Smaradge that is ſet in gold: ſo is the ſweeteneſſe of muſicke, by the myrth of wyne.

7 Geue eare and be ſtyl, and for thy good behauiour thou ſhalt be loued. B

8 Thou young man, ſpeake that becommeth thee, & that is profitable, and yet ſcarſe when thou art twyſe aſked.

9 Comprehend much with fewe woordes, in manye thynges, be as one that is ignorant: geue eare, and holde thy tongue withal.

10 If thou be among menne of hygh auctoritie, deſire not to compare thee ſelfe vnto thē: and when an elder ſpeaketh, make not thou many woordes therein.

11 Before the thunder, goeth lightenyng: and before nurture and ſhamefaſtneſſe, goeth loue and fauour.

12 Stand vp betimes, and be not the laſt: but geat thee home ſoone,

13 And there take thy paſtime, and doo what thou wylt: ſo that thou doo no euyl, and deſire no man.

XUM

C 14 But for al thinges geue thankes vnto him that hath made thee, & repleniſhed thee with his goodes.

15 Who ſo feareth the Lorde, wyl receiue his doctrine: and they that geat them to hym betymes, ſhal fynde grace.

16 He that ſeeketh the law, ſhalbe filled withal: as for hym that is but faigned, he wyl be offended thereat.

17 They that feare the Lorde, ſhal fynde the iudgement, and theyr ryghteouſneſſe ſhalbe kyndeled as a lyght.

18 An vngodly man wyl not be refourmed, but can healpe him ſelfe with the example of other in his purpoſe.

19 A man of vnderſtanding deſpiſeth no good counſayle: but a wilde and proude body hath no feare, yea, euen when he hath dealt rathly with another man: but his owne doynges ſhalbe his rebuke.

20 My ſonne, doo nothyng without aduiſement: ſo ſhal it not repent thee after the deede. D

21 Goe not in the way where thou mayſt fal, nor where thou mayeſt ſtumble agaynſt the ſtone: agayne, neyther truſt thou to the way that is playne.

22 And beware of thyne owne chyldren, and take heede of them that be of thyne owne houſholde.

23 In al thy woorkes put thy truſte in God, from thy whole hart: for that is the keepyng of the commaundemeutes.

24 Who ſo beleeueth Gods woorde, taketh heede to the commaundementes: and he that putteth his truſt in the Lorde, ſhal want nothyng.

The.xxxiii.Chapter.

1 The deliuerance of hym that feareth God. 4 The anſweare of the wyſe. 5 The litle diſcretion of a foole. 12 Man is in the hande of God, as the earth is in the hande of the Potter. 25 We ought not to diſpoſe our ſelues to become ſubiect to other.

A

1 THERE ſhal no euyl happen vnto hym that feareth GOD: But when he is in temptation, the lord ſhal deliuer him, and kepe him from euil.

2 A wyſe man hateth not the law, but an hypocrite (a) is as a ſhyp in ragyng water.

(a) As a ſhyp in the ſurging waues without a guide, daſheth agaynſt the rockes, or runneth on the ſandes: ſo the hypocrite that is not ſtayde vpon Gods word, is ouerthrowen with euery blaſt of trouble and temptation.

3 A man of vnderſtandyng geueth credence vnto the lawe of God, and the lawe is faithful vnto hym.

4 Be ſure of the matter, then talke thereof: be firſt wel inſtruct, then mayeſt thou geue anſweare.

5 The harte of the fooliſhe is lyke a Carte wheele, and his thoughtes runne about like the axeltree.

6 (b) Lyke as a wyld horſe that neyeth vnder euery one that ſitteth vpon hym, ſo it is with a ſcorneful friende.

(b) As a horſe carrieth euery manne, and yet neyeth after euery mare: ſo is a ſcorneful friende that wyl flatter and ſerue euery man, and yet laugh him to ſcorne.

7 Why dooth one day excel another, ſeeing al the dayes of the yeere comme of the ſunne?

8 The wyſedome of the Lord hath ſo parted them a ſunder, and ſo hath he ordeyned the tymes and ſolempne feaſtes.

B

9 Somme of them hath he choſen and halowed before other dayes.

Gene.2.a. 10 And al menne are made of the * grounde, and out of the earth of Adam: In the multitude of ſcience hath the Lord ſundered them, and made theyr wayes of diuers faſhions.

11 Some of them hath he bleſſed, made much of them, halowed them, and clayned them to hym ſelfe: but ſomme of them hath he curſed, brought them lowe, and put them out of theyr eſtate.

12 Lyke as the claye is in the Potters hand, & al the orderyng thereof at his pleaſure: ſo are men alſo in the hand of hym that made them, ſo that he may geue them as liketh hym beſt.

13 * Agaynſt euyl is good, and agaynſt death is lyfe: ſo is the vngodly againſt ſuch as feare God.

14 Behold, theſe are the woorkes of the hygheſt, and (c) there are euen two agaynſt two, and one ſet agaynſt another.

(c) Becauſe of the contrary qualities which kepeth the vniuerſal harmonie of al thynges, one counterwayghyng another in number, weight, & meaſure, or els would one geattyng the gouernement, deſtroy al the reaſt: ſo that colde dooth temper the heate, moyſture, the drouth, lightneſſe, heauineſſe, brighteneſſe, darkeneſſe, and contrary wyſe, ſo that al thyngs doo ſtande of concorde and diſcorde.

15 I am awaked vp laſt of al, as one that geathereth after in harueſt: in the gyftes of God, and in his bleſſyng I am increaſed, and haue fylled my wyne preſſe lyke a grape geatherer.

Eccl.24.d.

16 *Behold howe I haue not laboured onlye for mee ſelfe, but for al ſuche as loue nurture and wyſedome.

17 Heare me, O ye great menne of the people, and hearken with your eares, ye rulers of the congregation.

18 Geue not thy ſonne, and wyfe, thy brother, and friende, power ouer thee while thou liueſt: and geue not away thy ſubſtance and good to another, leſt it repent thee, and thou be fayne to aſke of them agayne.

19 As long as thou lyueſt and haſt (d) breath, let no man change thee.

(d) Let no man vſe thee as his ſeruant when thou haſt committed al thy goodes into his hand.

20 For better it is thy chyldren to praye thee, then that thou ſhouldeſt be fayne to looke in theyr handes.

21 In al thy workes be excellent, that thy honour be neuer ſtayned.

22 At the time when thou ſhalt end thy dayes, & finiſh thy life, diſtribute thyne inheritances.

23 The fodder, the whyppe, and the burthen, belongeth vnto the aſſe: meat, correction, and worke, vnto the ſeruant.

24 If thou ſet thy ſeruant to labour, thou ſhalt fynde reaſt: but if thou let hym goe idle, he ſhal ſeeke libertie.

25 The yoke and the whyppe bowe downe the harde necke: but tame thou thy euyl ſeruant, with bondes and correction.

26 Sende him to labour, that he goe not idle: for idleneſſe bryngeth muche euyl.

27 Set hym to worke, for that belongeth vnto hym, and becommeth hym wel. E

28 If he be not obedient, bynde his feete: but doo not to muche vnto hym in anye wyſe, and without diſcretion, doo nothyng.

29 If thou haue a [faythful] ſeruant, let hym be vnto thee as thyne owne ſoule: entreate him as a brother, for in blood haſt thou gotten hym: if thou haue a ſeruant, holde hym as thee ſelfe, for thou haſt neede of hym, as of thee ſelfe:

30 If thou intreateſt hym euyl, and keepeſt him harde, and makeſt him to be proude, and to runne away from thee, thou canſt not telle what way thou ſhalt ſeeke hym.

The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

1 Of dreames, diuinations, and enchantmentes. 6 We ought to confute vayne hope, and lyeing. 13 The prayſe of them that feare God. 22 Of diuers workes of menne. 27 God dooth not alowe the workes of an vnfaythful manne.

A 1 Vnwyſe people begyle them ſelues with vayne and deceitful hope, " and fooles truſt in dreames.

" Or, dreames make fooles to haue winges: For honoure, riches, pleaſures, and ſuche lyke, are but as dreames, wherein fooles doo glory: for when they awake from their long ſleepe, this thyng ſhalbe vanquiſhed cleane away.

2 Who ſo regardeth dreames, is like him that wyl take holde of a ſhadowe, and folowe after the wynde.

3 Euen ſo is it with the appearinges of dreames: before the face, is the lykeneſſe of a face.

4 Who can be cleanſed of the vncleane? Or what trueth can be ſpoken of a lyer?

5 Soothſaying, witchcraft, ſorcerie, and dreaming is but vayne: lyke as when a woman trauayleth with chylde, and hath many fantaſies in her hart.

6 Where as ſuche viſions comme not of God, ſet not thyne hart vpon them:

B 7 For dreames haue deceiued manye a man, and they fayled that put theyr truſt therein.

8 The lawe ſhalbe fulfylled without lyes, and wyſedome is ſufficient to a faythful mouth: What knowledge hath he that is not tryed?

9 A wyſe manne that is wel inſtruct, vnderſtandeth much: and he that hath good experience, can talke of wyſedome.

10 He that hath no experience, knoweth litle, and he that erreth, cauſeth much wickednes: he that is not tryed, what thynges knoweth he? he that hath benne deceiued, is ful of ſubtiltie.

11 When I was yet in errour, I learned much alſo: yea, I was ſo learned, that I coulde not expreſſe it al,

12 And came oft in peryl of death therefore, til I was delyuered from it, through the grace of God.

13 Nowe I ſee that they whiche feare God, haue the ryght ſpirite, for theyr hope ſtandeth in hym that canne healpe them: and the eyes of the Lorde are on them that loue hym.

14 Who ſo feareth the Lorde, ſtandeth in awe of no man, and is not afrayde: for the Lorde is his hope and comfort. C

15 Bleſſed is the ſoule of hym that feareth the Lorde: in whom putteth he his truſt? Who is his ſtrength?

16 For the eyes of the Lord haue reſpect vnto them that loue hym, he is theyr myghty protection and ſtrong grounde: A defence for the heate, a refuge for the hot noone day, a ſuccour for ſtumbling, and an healpe for falling.

17 He ſetteth vp the ſoule, and lighteneth the eyes: he geueth lyfe and bleſſyng.

18 He that geueth an offering of vnrighteous good, his offeryng is refuſed: and the ſcornful dealynges of the vnryghteous, pleaſe not God.

19 The Lorde is theyrs only that patiently abyde hym in the way of the trueth, & of righteouſneſſe.

20 The hygheſt dooth not alowe the gyftes of the wicked: and God hath no delyght in the offerings of yͤ vngodly, neither may ſinne be reconciled in the multitude of oblations. D

21 Who ſo bryngeth an offeryng "out of the goodes of the poore, dooth euen as one that kylleth the ſonne before the fathers eyes.

22 The bread of the needeful, is the lyfe of the poore: he that defraudeth hym thereof, is a man of blood.

23 Who ſo robbeth his neyghbour of his lyuing, dooth as great ſinne as though he ſlue him to death: he that defraudeth the labourer of his hyre, is a blood ſheadder.

24 When one buyldeth, and another breaketh downe: What profite haue they then but labour?

25 (a)When one prayeth, and another curſeth, Whoſe prayer wyl the Lorde heare?

(a) When one ryche manne, hauing gotten his goodes by robbery, extortion, bryberie, or craft, and ſubtiltie, vſurie, or ſimonie or withholding ſeruantes or laboures wages, and of that wyl offer a gyft vnto God that he may heare his prayer: on the other part, the poore whiche is oppreſſed or defrauded, prayeth to God to ſee and iudge his cauſe: whoſe prayer thynke you, wil God moſt chiefely heare?

26 He that waſheth hym ſelfe becauſe of a dead bodye, and then toucheth the dead agayne, What dooth his waſhyng?

27 So is it with a manne that faſteth for his ſynnes, and dooth them agayne: Who wyl heare his prayer? or what dooth his faſtyng healpe hym?

The.xxxv.Chapter.

1 It is wel donne to praye and to doo ſacrifice. 14 The prayer of the fatherleſſe, and of the wyddowe, and of hym that humbleth hym ſelfe.

Ierem.7.c 1 Who ſo keepeth the lawe,* bryngeth offerynges yenough: he that holdeth faſt the commaundement, offereth the ryght health offeryng.

2 He that is thankful and recompenceth, offereth fine floure:* Who ſo is mercyful and geueth almes, that is the ryght thanke offeryng. Heb.13.c.

3 GOD hath pleaſure when one departeth from ſinne: and to forſake vnryghteouſneſſe, reconcyleth vs with hym.

Exod.23.a. 4 Thou ſhalt not appeare emptye before the Lorde:

5 For al ſuche is donne becauſe of the commaundement of God.

Gene.4.a. 6 *The offering of the righteous maketh the aulter fatte, and a ſweete ſmel is it before the hygheſt.

B 7 The offeryng of the ryghteous is acceptable vnto God, and ſhal neuer be forgotten.

8 Geue God his honour with a cheareful harte: and keepe not backe the fyrſtlinges of thyne handes.

2.Cor.9.b 9 *In al thy gyftes ſhewe a cheareful countenance, and halowe thy tythes vnto GOD with gladneſſe.

10 Geue vnto God accordyng as he hath enriched and proſpered thee: *and looke what thine hand is hable, geue with a chearful eye. Tobi.4.b.

11 For the Lorde recompenceth, and geueth thee ſeuen tymes as muche agayne.

12 Geue no vnryghteous gyftes, for ſuch wyl he not receiue: Beware of wrong offerynges, for the Lord is a ryghteous iudge, and regardeth no mans perſon.

13 He accepteth not the perſon of the poore: but he heareth the prayer of the oppreſſed.

14 *He deſpiſeth not the deſyre of the fatherleſſe, nor the wyddow when ſhe powreth out her prayer before hym. Iudit.4.b. C

15 Dooth not God ſee the teares that runne downe the cheekes of the widdowe? Or heareth he not the complaint ouer ſuch as make her to weepe? For from her cheekes doo the teares goe vp into heauen, & the Lord which heareth them, dooth accept them.

16 Who ſo ſerueth God after his pleaſure, ſhalbe accepted: and his prayer reacheth vnto the cloudes.

17 *The prayer of hym that humbleth hym ſelfe, goeth through the cloudes: tyl ſhe come nygh, ſhe wyl not be comforted, nor goe her waye tyl the hygheſt God haue reſpect vnto her, geue true ſentence, and perfourme the iudgement. Tre.3.d.

18 And the Lorde wyl not be ſlacke in commyng, nor tarrie long, tyl he haue ſmytten in ſunder the backes of the vnmercyful, & auenged him ſelfe of the heathen, til he haue taken awaye the multitude of the cruel, and broken the Scepter of the vnryghteous, tyl he geue euery manne after his woorkes, and rewarde them after theyr dooynges, tyl he haue deliuered his people, maynteyned theyr cauſe, and reioyced them in his mercy.

19 O how fayre a thyng is mercy in the tyme of anguiſh and trouble? it is lyke a cloude of rayne that commeth in the tyme of drouth.

The,xxxvi.Chapter.

1 A prayer to God in the perſon of al faythful menne. 22 The prayſe of a good woman.

A 1 Haue mercy vpon vs, O Lorde, thou God of al thinges, haue reſpect vnto vs: ſhewe vs the lyght of thy mercyes,

2 And ſend thy feare amõg the heathen and ſtrangers whiche ſeeke not after thee, that they maye knowe that there is no God but thou, & that they may ſhewe thy woonderous woorkes.

3 Lyfte vp thyne hande ouer the outlandiſhe heathen, that they may learne to knowe thy myght and power.

4 Lyke as thou art halowed in vs before them: ſo bryng to paſſe that thou mayeſt be magnified alſo in them before vs.

5 That they maye knowe thee, lyke as we knowe thee: for there is none other God but only thou, O Lorde.

6 Renue the tokens, and change the woonderous woorkes: ſhewe thyne hande, and thy ryght arme gloriouſly.

B 7 Rayſe vp thyne indignation, and powre out thy wrath: take away the aduerſarie, and ſmyte the enimie.

8 Make the tyme ſhorte, remember thy couenant, that thy woonderous woorkes may be prayſed.

9 Let the wrath of the fyre conſume them that lyue ſo careleſſe: and let them periſh that doo thy people hurt.

10 Smyte in ſunder the head of the Princes that be our enimies, and ſaye, There is none other but we.

11 Geather al the tribes of Iacob togeather agayne, that they maye knowe howe that there is none other God but onely thou, that they maye ſhew thy woonderous woorkes: and be thou thy peoples heritage, lyke as from the begynnyng.

12 O Lorde haue mercy vpon the people that hath thy name, & vpon Iſrael * whom thou haſt lykened to a fyrſt borne ſonne.

Exod.4.c.

13 O be mercyful vnto Hieruſalem the citie of thy ſanctuarie, * the citie of thy reaſt.

1.Par.6.g.

C 14 Fylle Sion with thyne vnſpeakeable vertues, and thy people with thy glory.

15 Geue witneſſe vnto thy creature whom thou madeſt from the begynnyng, and rayſe vp the propheſies that haue benne ſhewed in thy name.

16 Rewarde them that wayte for thee, that thy prophetes may be founde faythful.

17 O Lorde heare the prayer of thy ſeruantes, accordyng to the bleſſyng of Aaron ouer thy people, & guyde thou vs in the way of ryghteouſneſſe: * that al they whiche dwelle vpon the earth, may knowe that thou art the Lord the eternal God, whiche is from euerlaſting.

Num.6.d.

18 The belly deuoureth al meates: yet is one meate better then another.

19 Lyke as the tongue taſteth veneiſon: * ſo dooth an hart of vnderſtandyng marke falſe woordes.

1.Cor.1.b.

D 20 A frowarde harte geueth heauineſſe: but a man of experience lyfteth hym vp agayne.

21 The woman receiueth euery manne: yet is one daughter better then another.

22 A fayre wyfe reioyceth her huſbande: and a man loueth nothyng better.

23 If there be in her tongue, gentlenes, meekneſſe, and wholſome talke: then is not her huſbande lyke other menne.

24 He that hath gotten a vertuous woman, hath a godly poſſeſſion: ſhe is vnto hym a healpe, and pyller whereupon he reaſteth.

25 Where no hedge is, there the goodes are ſpoyled: and where no huſwyfe is, there the freendleſſe mourneth.

26 Lyke as there is no credence geuen to a robber that goeth from one citie to another: ſo is not the man beleeued that hath no neſt, and muſt turne in where he maye abyde in the nyght.

The.xxxvii.Chapter.

1 Howe a man ſhoulde knowe friendes and counſailers. 12 and ſearche the company of an holy man.

A 1 Euery friende ſayth, I wyl be friendely vnto hym alſo: but there is ſomme friende, whiche is only a friende in name.

2 Remayneth not there heauineſſe vnto death, when a companion and friende is turned to an enimie?

3 O moſt wicked preſumption: from whence art thou ſprong vp to couer the earth with falſhood and deceite?

4 * There is ſomme companion, whiche in proſperitie reioyceth with his friende: but in the tyme of trouble, he taketh parte agaynſt hym.

Eccl.6.b.

5 ‶ There is ſomme companion that mourneth with his friende for the bellies ſake: but when trouble commeth, he taketh holde of the ſhielde.

‶ Or, There is ſome companion that healpeth his friende for the bellies ſake, and taketh vp the buckler againſt the enimie.

6 Forgeat not thy friende in thy mynde, and thynke vpon hym in thy riches.

7 Seeke no counſaile at thy kinſmenne, and hyde thy counſayle from ſuche as beare thee no good wyl.

8 * Euery counſayler prayſeth his counſaile: neuertheleſſe, there is ſomme that counſaileth but for his owne profite.

Eccl.8.f.

9 Beware of the counſailer, and be aduiſed afore whereto thou wylt vſe hym (for he wil counſayle for him ſelfe) leſt he caſt the lot vpon thee,

10 And ſaye vnto thee, Thy way and purpoſe is good: and afterwarde he ſtande agaynſte thee, and looke what ſhal become of thee.

11 Aſke no counſaile at him that ſuſpecteth thee for an enimie, and hyde thy counſayle from ſuche as hate thee: aſke no counſayle for religion, of hym that is without religion,nor for iuſtice, of hym that hath no iuſtice: aſke no counſayle at a woman, touching her of whõ ſhe is ielous,nor at a fearful and faynt harted body in matters of warre: or at a Marchant how deare he wyl cheape thy wares toward his: or at a byer, of ſellyng: or at an enuious man,of thankeſgeuing:or at the vnmerciful, of louyng kyndneſſe:or at an vnhoneſt man, of honeſtie: or at the ſlouthful, of woorkyng: or at an hyrelyng whiche hath no houſe, of profite or wealth:or at an idle body, of muche labour: take no ſuche folkes to counſayle.

12 But be diligent to ſeeke counſayle at a vertuous man that feareth God, ſuche a one as thou knoweſt to be a keeper of the cõmaundementes, whiche hath a mynde after thyne owne mynde, and is ſory for thee when thou ſtumbleſt.

13 And holde thy counſayle faſt in thyne hart: for there is no man more faythful to keepe it then thou thee ſelfe.

C 14 For a mans mind is ſometyme diſpoſed to tel out more then ſeuen watchmenne that ſit aboue in an hygh place looking about them.

15 And aboue al this,pray the hygheſt that he wyl leade thy way in faythfulneſſe ⁊ trueth.

16 Before al thy woorkes aſke counſaile firſt: and or euer thou dooſt any thyng, be wel aduiſed.

17 There be foure thinges that declare a changed harte, whereout there ſpringeth euyl and good,death and life,and a maiſterful tongue that bableth muche.

18 Somme man is apt and wel inſtructed in many thyngs,and yet very vnprofitable vnto hym ſelfe.

19 Somme man there is that can geue wyſe and prudent counſayle, and yet is he hated, ⁊ continueth a begger,

20 For that grace is not geuen him of God to be accepted. D

21 Another is robbed of al wiſedome:yet is he wyſe vnto hym ſelfe, and the fruite of vnderſtandyng is commendable in his mouth.

22 A wyſe man maketh his people wyſe, and the fruites of his wyſedome fayle not.

23 A wyſe man ſhalbe plenteouſly bleſſed of GOD: and al they that ſee hym, ſhal ſpeake good of hym.

24 The lyfe of man ſtandeth in the number of the dayes:but the dayes of Iſrael are innumerable.

25 A wyſe man ſhal obteyne faythfulnes and credence among his people, ⁊ his name ſhalbe perpetual.

26 My ſonne, prooue thy ſoule in thee ſelfe, ⁊ if thou ſee anye euyl thyng, geue it not vnto her:

27 * For al thynges are not profitable for al menne, neyther hath euery ſoule pleaſure in euery thyng. 1.Cor.6.c.

28 Be not greedy in euery eatyng, and be not to haſty vpon al meates.

29 * For exceſſe of meates bryngeth ſickneſſe, and gluttony commeth at the laſt to an vnmeaſurable heate. Eccl.30.b.

30 Through ſurfet haue many one periſhed: but he that dieteth hym ſelfe temperately, prolongeth his lyfe.

The,xxxviii.Chapter.

1 A Phiſition is commendable. 16 To bury the dead. 24 The wyſedome of hym that is learned.

1 HOnour the Phiſition, honour hym with that honour that is due vnto hym,because of neceſſitie: for god hath created him.

2 For of the higheſt commeth medicine, ⁊ he ſhal receiue gyftes of the kyng.

3 The wyſedome of the Phiſition bryngeth hym to great woorſhyp, and in the ſyght of the great menne of this worlde, he ſhalbe honorably taken.

4 The Lorde hath created medicine of the earth: and he that is wyſe wyl not abhorre it.

Exod.16.b 5 * Was not the bytter water made ſweete with a tree,that men myght learne to know the vertue thereof.

6 The Lorde hath geuen menne wyſedome and vnderſtanding,that he might be honoured in his woonderous woorkes.

7 With ſuche dooth he heale menne, and taketh away theyr paynes: B

8 Of ſuch dooth the Pothecarie make a confection,yet canne no manne perfourme al his workes:for of the Lord commeth proſperous wealth ouer al the earth.

9 My ſonne,deſpiſe not this in thy ſickneſſe: but* praye vnto the Lorde,and he ſhal make thee whole. 2.Par.16.d

10 Leaue of from ſinne,and order thy handes aryght, cleanſe thyne harte from al wickedneſſe.

11 Geue a ſweete ſauoured offeryng, and the fine floure for a token of remembrance:make the offeryng fat, as one that geueth the fyrſte fruites,

12 And geue roome to the Phiſition, for the Lorde hath created hym, let hym not goe from thee, for thou haſt neede of hym.

13 The houre may comme, that the ſicke may be healped through them,

C 14 When they praye vnto the Lorde that he maye recouer, and geat health to lyue longer.

15 He that ſinneth before his maker, ſhal falle into the handes of the Phiſition.

Eccl.22.c. 16 My ſonne, * bryng foorth thy teares ouer the dead, and begynne to mourne, as if thou haddeſt ſuffered great harme thee ſelfe: And then couer his body after a conuenient manner, and deſpiſe not his buryal.

2.Teſ.4. 17 Enforce thee ſelfe to weepe, and prouoke thee ſelfe to mourne and make lamentation expediently, and be earneſt in mourning, and vſe lamentation as he is woorthye, and that a day or two, leſt thou be euyl ſpoken of: and then comfort thee ſelfe, becauſe of yͤ heauines.

Pro.12.d. 18 * For of heauineſſe commeth death, the heauineſſe of the hart, breaketh ſtrength.

19 Heauineſſe and pouertie, greeueth the hart in temptation and offence.

20 Take no heauineſſe to hart, driue it away, and remember the laſt thynges.

21 Forgeat it not, for there is no turnyng againe, thou ſhalt doo him no good, but hurte thee ſelfe.

22 Remember his iudgement, thyne alſo ſhalbe lykewyſe: vnto me yeſterday, vnto thee to day.

2.Reg.12.c 23 * Let the remembrance of the dead ceaſſe in his reaſt, & comfort thee agayne ouer hym, ſeeyng his ſpirite is departed from hym.

24 The wyſedome of the ſcribe, is at conuenient tyme of reaſt: and he that ceaſſeth from exerciſes and labour, ſhalbe wyſe.

25 Howe can he geat wyſedome that holdeth the Plough, and he that hath pleaſure in the goade, and in dryuing the oxen, and is occupyed in theyr labours, and his talke is but of the breedyng of bullockes.

26 He ſetteth his harte to make forowes, and is diligent to geue the kyne fodder.

27 So is euery carpenter alſo, and woorkemaiſter, that laboureth ſtyl nyght and day: he carueth, graueth, cutteth out, and his deſyre is in ſundry cunning thinges, his hart imagineth howe he may cunnyngly caſt an image, his diligence alſo and watchyng perfourmeth the woorke. E

28 The iron Smyth in lyke manner bydeth by his ſtithie, & dooth his diligence to labour the iron: the vapour of the fyre burneth his fleaſhe, and he muſt fyght with the heate of the furnace: the noyſe of the hammer euer ſoundeth in his eares, and his eyes looke ſtyl vpon the thyng that he maketh: he hath ſet his mynde thereupon, that he wyl make out his woorke, and therefore he watcheth howe he may ſet it out, and bryng it to an ende.

29 So dooth the Potter ſet by his woorke, he turneth the wheele about with his feete, he is diligent and careful in al dooynges, and maketh his woorke in number.

30 He faſhioneth the clay with his arme, and with his feete he tempereth it: his harte imagineth howe he maye make it pleaſant, and his diligence is to cleanſe the ouen.

31 All theſe hope in theyr handes, and euery one thynketh to be cunnyng in his woorke.

32 Without theſe may not the cities be mainteyned, inhabited, nor occupied: F

33 Yet comme they not high in the congregation, neyther ſyt they vpon the iudgemente ſeates: they vnderſtande not the couenant of the law, they can not declare equitie & iudgement, they can not fynde out the darke ſentences.

34 But through them ſhal the creature of the worlde be maynteyned, theyr deſyre concerneth only the worke and labour of cunning.

The.xxxix.Chapter.

1 A wyſe man. 16 The woorkes of God. 24 Unto the good, thynges doo profite: but vnto the euyl, euen good thynges are euyl.

A 1 HE that applieth his minde to vnderſtand the lawe of GOD, dooth diligently ſeeke out the wyſedome of them of the olde time, and exerciſeth hym ſelfe in the prophetes.

2 He keepeth the ſayeinges of famous men, and preaſſeth to the vnderſtandyng of darke ſentences of wyſedome.

3 He ſeeketh out the myſterie of ſecrete ſayeinges, and exerciſeth hym ſelfe therein continually.

4 He dooth ſeruice among great menne, and appeareth before the prince: he goeth into a ſtrange countrey, and trauayleth through it: looke what good or euil is among menne, he prooueth, and ſeeketh it out.

5 He purpoſeth in his hart to reſort early vnto the Lorde that made hym, and to pray before the hygheſt God: he openeth his mouth in prayer, and prayeth for his ſinnes.

6 When the great Lorde wyl, he ſhalbe filled with the ſpirite of vnderſtandyng, that he may then powre out wyſe ſentences, & geue thankes vnto the Lorde in his prayer.

7 He ſhal order his deuice, & leade his knowledge a right, and geue hym vnderſtanding of ſecrete thynges.

B 8 He ſhal ſhewe foorth the ſcience of his learnyng, and reioyce in the couenant of the lawe of the Lorde:

9 The whole congregation ſhal commende his wyſedome, and it ſhal neuer be put out: the remembrance of hym ſhal neuer be forgotten, and his name ſhal continue from one generation to an other.

Eccl.44.B 10 * His wyſedome ſhalbe ſpoken of among the people, and the whole congregation ſhal openly declare his prayſe.

11 While he liueth, he hath a greater name then a thouſande beſide: and after death, the ſame name remayneth vnto hym.

12 Yet wyl I ſpeake of mo men of vnderſtandyng, for I am ful as the moone.

13 Hearken vnto me ye holy vertuous chyldren, bryng foorth fruite as the roſe that is planted by the brookes of the feelde,

C 14 And geue ye a ſweete ſmel as incenſe, floriſh as the roſe gardine, ſing a ſong of prayſe, O geue thankes vnto god ouer al his workes.

15 Geue magnificence vnto his name, and ſet hym foorth in his prayſe with your lippes, and with muſicke and harmonie: yea euen with the ſong of your lippes, with harpes & playing, and in geuing thankes vnto hym, ſay after this manner:

Gen.1.d. 16 * All the workes of the Lorde are exceeding good, & al his commaundementes are meete and conuenient in due ſeaſon.

17 A man neede not to ſay, What is that? What is that? for at a tyme conuenient they ſhal al be ſought: At his commaundement the water was as a wal, and at the woorde of his mouth, the water ſtoode ſtil.

Gen.7.b. 18 * In his commaundement is euery thyng acceptable and reconciled, and his health can not be miniſhed.

19 The workes of al fleaſhe are before hym, and there is nothyng hyd from his eyes.

20 He ſeeth from euerlaſtyng to euerlaſtyng, and there is nothyng to woonderful or hygh vnto hym.

21 A man neede not to ſay then, What is this, or that? for he hath made al thynges to doo good vnto man.

22 His bleſſing ſhal runne ouer as the ſtreame, & moyſture the earth lyke a fludde of water.

23 Lyke as he maketh the drouth: ſo ſhal his wrath fal vpon the heathen.

24 His wayes are plaine and ryght vnto the iuſt: but the vngodly ſtumble at them. Oſe.14.b. Rom.8.d.

25 (a) For the good, are good thynges created from the beginnyng, and euil thynges for the vngodly.

(a) The creatures of God, are good by creation. But as good men vſe them to the glory of God, the profite of others, & theyr owne neceſſitie: ſo the vngodly doo not acknowledge them as the good gyftes of god, but abuſe them either in riot & exceſſe, or els in miſerable keeping of them, take them for theyr God.

26 All thynges neceſſary for the lyfe of man, are created from the beginnyng: water, fire, iron, and ſalt, meale, wheate, and hony, milke, and wine, oyle and clothyng:

27 All theſe thynges are created for the beſt to the faythful: but to the vngodly, ſhal al theſe thynges be turned to hurt and harme.

28 There be ſpirites that are created for vengeance, and in their rigorouſneſſe haue they faſtened their tormentes: * In the tyme of the ende, they ſhal poure out their ſtrength, and pacifie the wrath of him that made them. Mat.25.d.

29 * Fyre, hayle, hunger, and death: al theſe thynges are created for vengeance. Eccl.40.b.

30 The teeth of wylde noyſome beaſtes, the ſcorpions, ſerpentes, and the ſwoorde, are created alſo for vengeance, to the deſtruction of the vngodly.

31 They ſhalbe gladde to doo his commaundementes, and when neede is, they ſhalbe ready vpon earth: and when theyr houre is comme, they ſhal not ouerpaſſe the commaundement of the Lorde.

32 Therefore haue I taken a good courage vnto me from the beginnyng, and haue thought to put theſe thinges in wrytyng, and to leaue them behynde me:

33 * All the workes of the Lorde are good, and he geueth euery one in due ſeaſon, and when neede is. Gen.6.b.

34 So that no man neede not to ſay, This is worſe then that: for in due ſeaſon they are al pleaſant and good.

35 And therefore prayſe the Lorde with whole hart and mouth, and geue thankes vnto his name.

The.xl.Chapter.

1 Many miſeries lyght in a mans lyfe. 11 All thynges paſſe away, but a firme and ſtable fayth remayneth. 14 Of the bleſſyng of the ryghteous, and prerogatiue of the feare of God.

A 1 A Great trauayle is created for al menne, and an heauy yoke vpon al the ſonnes of Adam, from the day that they goe out of their mothers wombe, tyl they be buryed in [the earth] the mother of al thynges.

2 [Namely] theyr thoughtes and imaginations, feare of the hart, counſel, meditations, longyng and deſyre, the day of death:

3 From the hygheſt that ſitteth vpon the glorious ſeate, vnto the loweſt and moſt ſimple vpon the earth:

4 From hym that is gloriouſly arayed, and weareth a crowne, vnto hym that is but homely and ſimplie clothed.

5 There is nothyng but wrath, zeale, fearefulneſſe, vnquietneſſe, and feare of death, rigorouſneſſe, anger, and ſtryfe: And in the nyght when one ſhoulde reaſt and ſleepe vpon his bed, the ſleepe changeth his vnderſtandyng and knowledge.

6 A litle or nothyng is his reaſt in the ſleepe, aſwel as in the day of labour: He feareth and is diſquieted in the viſion of his hart, as one that runneth out of a batayle.

7 And in the tyme of health he awaketh, and marueyleth that the feare was nothyng.

B

8 Suche thynges happen vnto al fleaſh, both man and beaſt: but ſeuen folde to the vngodly.

Eccle.39.e

9 *Moreouer, death, bloodſhedding, ſtrife, and ſworde, oppreſſion, hunger, deſtruction, and puniſhment:

Gen.7.d.

10 Theſe thynges are al created agaynſt the vngodly, * & for theyr ſakes came the fludde alſo.

Gen.3.d.

11 *Al that is of the earth, ſhal turne to earth agayne, and al waters ebbe agayne into the ſea.

12 Al bribes and vnryghteouſneſſe ſhalbe put away: but faythfulneſſe and trueth ſhal endure for euer.

13 The ſubſtance and goodes of the vngodly ſhalbe dryed vp, and ſinke away as a water fludde, (a) and they ſhal make a ſounde lyke a great thunder in the rayne.

(a) That is, with great tumult and trouble ſhal they be diſperſed, and ſcattered abrode lyke as the roaring thunder.

14 Lyke as the ryghteous reioyceth when he openeth his hande: ſo ſhal the tranſgreſſours be faynt when theyr goodes vaniſhe & conſume away.

C

Eccl.41.b.

15 *The chyldren of the vngodly ſhal not obteyne many branches:

16 And the vncleane rootes vpon the hygh rockes, ſhalbe rooted out before the graſſe by the water ſide, and vpon the riuer bankes.

17 Freendlineſſe and liberalitie in the increaſe and bleſſing of GOD, is lyke a paradiſe and gardine of pleaſure: ſuche mercie alſo & kindneſſe endureth for euer.

1.Tim.6.b
Phil.4.b.

18 *To labour and to be content with that a man hath, is a ſweete pleaſant lyfe: and that is, to finde a treaſure of al treaſures.

19 To begeat chyldren, and to repayre the citie, maketh a perpetual name: but an honeſt woman, is more woorth then they both.

20 Wine and minſtrelſie reioyceth the hart: but the loue of wyſedome is aboue them both.

D

21 Piping and harping make a ſweete noyſe: but a freendly tongue goeth beyonde them both.

22 Thyne eye deſyreth fauour and beautie: but a greene ſeede tyme, rather then they both.

23 A freend and companion, comme togeather at oportunitie: but aboue them both, is a wyfe that agreeth with her huſbande.

24 Brethren and helpes are profitable in tyme of trouble: but almes ſhal deliuer more then they both.

25 Golde and ſiluer faſten the feete: but a good counſel is more pleaſant then they both.

26 Temporal ſubſtance and ſtrength, lyft vp the minde: but the feare of the Lorde, more then they both: The feare of the Lorde wanteth nothyng, and needeth no helpe.

E

27 The feare of the Lorde is a pleaſant gardine of bleſſing, and nothyng ſo beautiful as it is.

28 My ſonne, leade not a beggers lyfe: for better it were to dye then to begge.

29 The life of him that looketh vpon an other mans table, is not to be counted for a lyfe, for he vexeth his ſoule in other mens meate: but a wyſe and wel nurtured man wyl beware thereof.

30 Begging is ſweete in the mouth of the vnſhamefaſt: but in his belly there burneth a fyre.

The.xli.Chapter.

1 Of the remembrance of death. 3 Death is not to be feared. 8 A curſe vpon them that forſake the lawe of God. 12 Good name and fame. 14 An exhortation to geue heede vnto wyſedome. 17 Of what thynges a man ought to be aſhamed.

1 O Death (a) howe bitter is the remembrance of thee, to a man that ſeeketh reaſt and comfort in his ſubſtance and richeſſe, vnto ẏ man that hath nothyng to vexe him, and that hath proſperitie in al thynges, yea vnto hym that yet is hable to receiue meate?

(a) Temporal death is bitter to foure ſortes of men: one, to infidels that loke for no life after this: ſeconde to them that ſet theyr pleaſure in theyr richeſſe, from whence they nowe muſt needes depart: thyrd, to them that neuer taſteth of the croſſe: fourth, to thē that be ſtrong and luſtie in body, for that they ſtrongly ſtruggle with death: but ſweete vnto the contrary.

2 O death, howe acceptable and good is thy iudgement vnto the needeful, and vnto him whoſe ſtrength fayleth, and that is nowe in his laſt age, and that in al thynges is fulle of care and fearefulneſſe, vnto hym alſo that is in diſpayre, and hath no hope nor patience?

3 Be not thou afrayde of death, remember them that haue beene before thee, and that comme after thee: this is the iudgement of the Lorde ouer al fleaſhe.

Gen.8.d.

4 *And why wouldeſt thou be agaynſt this pleaſure of the hygheſt? Whether it be tenne, an hundred, or a thouſande yeeres, ˮ death aſketh not howe long one hath liued.

ˮ Or, there is no defence for life againſt the graue.

5 The chyldren of the vngodly are abominable chyldren, and ſo are they that keepe companie with the vngodly.

Eccl.11.c. 6 *The inheritance of the vngodly chyldren ſhal comme to nought, and theyr poſteritie ſhal haue perpetual ſhame and confuſion.

7 The chyldren complaine of an vngodly father: and why? for his ſake they are rebuked and deſpiſed.

B 8 Wo be vnto you, O ye vngodly, whiche haue forſaken the lawe of the hygheſt God: for though ye doo encreaſe, yet ſhal you periſhe.

9 If ye doo liue, ye ſhalbe accurſed: yf ye dye, the curſe ſhalbe your portion.

Eccl.11.b. 10 *Al that is of the earth, ſhal turne to earth agayne: ſo goe the vngodly alſo out of the curſe into deſtruction.

11 Though menne mourne for their body: yet the name of the vngodly ſhalbe put out, for it is nothyng woorth.

Eccl.22.a. 12 *Labour to geat thee a good name: for that ſhal continue ſurer by thee, then a thouſande great treaſures of golde.

13 A good lyfe hath a number of dayes: but a good name endureth euer.

Eccl.20.b. 14 *My chyldren, keepe wyſedome in peace: for wyſedome that is hid, and a treaſure that is not ſeene, what profite is in them both?

15 A man that hydeth his fooliſhneſſe, is better then a man that hydeth his wyſedome.

16 Therefore be ye turned at my woordes: for it is not good in al thynges, and alway to be aſhamed: (a) True fayth muſt proue and meaſure it.

17 Be aſhamed of whoredome before father and mother: be aſhamed to leaſing before the prince and menne of aucthoritie:

18 Of ſinne, before the iudge and ruler: of offence before the congregation and people: of vnryghteouſneſſe, before a companion and freende:

19 Of theft, before thy neyghbours: As for the trueth of God and his couenant, be not aſhamed thereof: (b) be aſhamed to lye with thine elbowes vpon the bread, or to be reproued for geuing or takyng:

20 And of ſilence vnto them that ſalute thee: be aſhamed to looke vpon harlottes:

21 Be aſhamed to turne away thy face from thy kinſman, be aſhamed ˮ to take, and not to geue:

22 Be aſhamed alſo to looke vpon an other mans wife, & to make many trifling woordes with her mayden, or to ſtande by her bed ſide.

23 Be aſhamed to vpbrayde thy freend: when thou geueſt any thyng, caſt him not in the teeth withal,

24 Or to report yͤ matter that thou haſt heard, or to diſcloſe the ſecrete woordes: ſo ſhalt thou wel be ſhamefaſt, and ſhalt finde fauour with al menne.

(a) True fayth dooth al thyngs in ſeaſon and oportunitie, when and howe euery one ought to be ordered. For ſtrong meate and harde bread noriſheth ſome, & ſtrengtheth other; ſomme one hearbe healeth ſomme mans diſeaſe, and increaſeth ſome agayne.

(b) Beyng bidden to an other mans table, preſume not to the hygheſt place, be not ſo homely that thou lye with thine elbowes vpon the table ouer thy bread, for that is vnmannerly. Luke.14.

ˮ Or, to take away a gyft from any man

The.xlii.Chapter.

1 The lawe of God muſt be taught. 9 A daughter. 14 A woman. 18 God knoweth al thynges, yea euen the ſecretes of the hart.

A 1 OF theſe thynges be not aſhamed, & accept no perſon to offende, [Namely of theſe thynges be not aſhamed:]

2 Of the lawe of God, of the couenant, of iudgement to bring the vngodly from his vngodlineſſe vnto righteouſneſſe, and to make him a good man,

3 To deale faythfully with thy neyghbour and companion, to diſtribute the heritage vnto the freendes:

4 To be diligent to keepe true meaſure and waight: to be content whether thou geatteſt muche or litle,

5 To deale truely with temporal goodes, in bying and ſelling, to bryng vp chyldren with diligence, to correct an euil ſeruant:

6 To keepe that thyne is from an euyl wyfe, to ſet a locke where many handes are:

7 What thou deliuereſt and geueſt out to be kept, to telle it, and to wey it: to write vp al thy outgeuing and receiuing:

8 To enforme the vnlearned and vnwyſe, of the aged that are iudged of yͤ young: If thou be diligent in theſe thynges, truely thou ſhalt be learned and wyſe, and accepted of al men.

9 The daughter maketh the father to watch ſecretly, and the carefulneſſe that he hath for her, taketh away his ſleepe, yea in her youth, leſt ſhe ſhoulde ouergrowe hym, and when ſhe hath an huſband, leſt ſhe ſhould be hated:

10 Leſt ſhe ſhould be defiled, or rauiſhed in her virginitie, or gotten with child in her fathers houſe: or when ſhe commeth to the man, leſt ſhe behaue her ſelfe not right, or continue vnfruiteful.

11 If thy daughter be wanton, keepe her ſtraitly, leſt ſhe cauſe thyne enimies to laugh thee to ſcorne, and the whole citie to geue thee an euyl report: and ſo thou be faine to heare thy ſhame of euery man, and be confounded before al the people.

Eccle.25. 12 * Beholde not euery bodyes beautie, & haue not muche dwellyng among women.

13 For lyke as the worme and moth commeth out of clothyng: * ſo dooth wickedneſſe come of women. Gen.3.d.

C 14 It is better to be with an euil man, then with a freendly wyfe that putteth one to ſhame and rebuke.

15 I wyl remember the woordes of the Lorde, and declare the thyng that I haue ſeene: In the woordes of the Lorde are his woorkes.

16 The ſunne ouerlooketh al thinges with his ſhine, " & al his woorkes are ful of the cleareneſſe thereof.

" Or, and al the woorke therof is ful of the glory of the Lorde.

17 Hath not the Lorde brought to paſſe, that his ſaintes ſhould tel out al his woonderous woorkes, whiche the almyghty Lorde hath ſtabliſhed? Al thynges endure in his glory.

18 He ſeeketh out the grounde of the deepe, and the hart of men, & he knoweth al their imaginations & wyſedome: for the Lorde knoweth al ſcience, and he looketh into the token of the tyme.

19 He declareth the thynges that are paſt, and for to comme, and diſcloſeth thynges that are ſecrete.

20 * No thought may eſcape hym, neyther may any woorde be hyd from hym. Iob.42.c. Eſai.29.c.

21 He hath garniſhed yͤ hygh excellent woorks of his wyſedome, and he is from euerlaſting to euerlaſtyng: Unto hym may nothyng be added, neither can he be miniſhed, he hath no neede alſo of any mans counſel. D

22 O howe amiable are al his woorkes, and as a ſparke to looke vpon?

23 They liue al, and endure for euer: and when ſo euer neede is, they are al obedient vnto hym.

24 They are al double, one agaynſt another: he hath made nothyng that hath fault or blemiſhe.

25 He hath ſtabliſhed the goodes of euery one: (a) and who may be ſatiſfied with his glory when he ſeeth it?

(a) As who ſhoulde ſay, no man: for wher Dauid ſayth. Pſal.17. I ſhalbe ſatiſfied when the glory appeareth, he ſpeaketh of that glory whiche he deſyreth to obteyne, whiche he yet wanting is not ſatiſfied: but when he hath obteyned it, he hath the thyng he doth deſyre, and yet is not weery of it, but delyteth in that ioy whiche neuer ſhalbe ended as 1.Pet.1.

The.xliii.Chapter.

The ſumme of the creation of the woorkes of God.

A 1 The glory of the heyght is * the fayre and cleare firmament, the beautie of the heauen is his glorious cleareneſſe. Pſal.8.a.

2 The ſunne when it appeareth, declareth the day in the goyng out of it, a maruelous woorke of the hygheſt:

3 At noone it burneth the earth, and who may abyde for the heate thereof?

4 Who ſo keepeth an ouen when it is hotte, three times more dooth the ſunne burne vpon the mountaynes: when it breatheth out the fyre beames and ſhineth, with the brightneſſe of it, it blindeth the eyes.

5 Great is the Lorde that made it, and in his commaundement he cauſeth it to runne haſtyly.

Gen.1.b. 6 * The moone alſo in al thinges accordyng to her ſeaſon is a declaration of the tyme, and a ſigne for the worlde.

Exo.12.a. 7 * The token of the ſolempne feaſt is taken of the moone, a lyght that miniſheth and increaſeth agayne.

8 The moneth is called after the moone, it groweth woonderouſly in her changing.

9 The armie of heauen alſo is in the heyght: in the firmament of heauen, it geueth a cleare and a glorious ſhine: This is the cleareneſſe of the ſtarres, the beautiful apparel of heauen, the apparel that the Lorde lyghteneth in the heyght.

10 In his holy woorke they continue in theyr order, & not one of them fayleth in his watch.

11 * Looke vpon the raynebowe, and prayſe hym that made it: very beautiful is it in his ſhyne. Gen.9.d.

12 He compaſſeth the heauen about with a glorious circle, the handes of the higheſt haue bended it.

13 Through his commaundement he maketh the ſnowe to fal, and the thunder of his iudgment to ſmyte haſtyly.

14 Through his commaundement the treaſures are opened, and the cloudes flee as the foules. C

15 In his power hath he ſtrengthened the cloudes, and broken the hayleſtones.

16 The mountaynes " leape at the ſyght of him, the wynde bloweth accordyng to his wyl. " Or, moue.

17 The ſound of his thunder beateth the earth, and ſo dooth the ſtorme of the North: The whyrle wynde alſo lyghteth downe as a feathered foule, caſteth out & ſpreadeth the ſnowe abroad, and as the Graſhoppers that deſtroy al, ſo falleth it downe.

18 The eye marueyleth at the beautie of the whyteneſſe thereof, and the harte is afrayde at the raine of it.

19 He powreth out the froſt vpon earth lyke ſalt, and when it is froſen, it is as ſharpe as the pricke of a thiſtle.

20 When the colde north winde bloweth, hard chriſtal commeth of the water: He lighteth downe vpon al the geatheringes togeather of water, and putteth on the water as a breſtplate.

D 21 He deuoureth the mountaynes, & burneth the wyldernеſſes: and looke what is greene, he putteth it out lyke fyre.

22 The medicine of al theſe is, when a cloude commeth haſtyly, and when a deawe commeth vpon the heate, it ſhalbe refreaſhed agayne.

23 In his woorde he ſtilleth the winde, in his counſel he appeaſeth the deepe, & hath planted Iſlandes in it.

24 They that ſayle ouer the ſea, telle of the perilles and harmes thereof, & when we heare it with our eares, we maruel thereat.

25 For there be ſtrange woonderous woorkes, diuers manners of nyce beaſtes, and whale fiſhes.

26 Thorowe hym are al thynges ſet in good order and perfourmed, and in his woorde al thynges endure.

27 I ſpeake muche, but I can not ſufficiently atteyne vnto it: for he hym ſelfe only is the perfection of al woordes. E

28 We ſhoulde prayſe the Lorde after al our power, for he is great in al his woorkes.

29 The Lorde is to be feared, yea very great is he,* and maruelous is his power. Pſal.116.a.

30 Prayſe the Lorde, and magnifie hym as much as ye may, yet dooth he farre exceede al prayſe: *O magnifie him with al your power, and labour earneſtly, yet are ye in no wyſe hable ſufficiently to prayſe hym. Pſal.cvi.a.

31 Who hath ſeene hym, that he myght telle vs? * Who can magnifie hym ſo greatly as he is? Deut.5.e. Iohn.1.b.

32 For there are hyd yet greater thynges then theſe be: as for vs, we haue ſeene but fewe of his woorkes.

33 For the Lorde hath made al thynges, and geuen wyſedome to ſuche as feare God.

The.xliiii.Chapter.

1 The prayſe of certayne holy menne, 16 Enoch, 17 Noe, 18 Abraham, 22 Iſahac, and Iacob.

A 1 LET vs commende the noble famous men, and the generation of our foreelders and fathers.

2 Many more glorious actes haue the Lord done in them, and ſhewed his great power euer ſince the beginnyng.

3 The noble famous menne raigned in theyr kyngdomes, and bare excellent rule in theyr wiſedome and vnderſtanding, they folowed the counſel ſhewed in the prophecies.

Exo.18.c. 4 *They led the folke through the counſel and wyſedome of the ſcribes of the people, wyſe ſentences are found in their inſtruction:

5 They ſought the ſweeteneſſe and melody of muſicke, and brought foorth the pleaſant ſongues in ſcripture:

6 They were riche alſo, and coulde comfort and pacifie thoſe that dwelt with them.

7 Al theſe were very noble & honorable men in their generations, and were wel reported of in their tymes.

B 8 Theſe haue leaft a name behynde them, ſo that theyr prayſe ſhal alway be ſpoken of.

9 Afterwarde, there were ſomme whoſe remembrance is gonne,* they came to nought and periſhed, as though they had neuer ben, and became as though they had neuer ben borne, yea and their chyldren alſo with them. Gen.7.b.

10 Neuertheleſſe theſe are louyng men, whoſe ryghteouſneſſe ſhal neuer be forgotten, but continue by their poſteritie.

11 Their chyldren are an holy good heritage: their ſeede endured faſt in the couenant.

12 For their ſakes ſhal their chyldren and ſeede continue for euer, and their prayſe ſhal neuer be put downe.

13 Their bodyes are buried in peace, but theyr name lyueth for euermore.

14 The people can ſpeake of theyr wyſedome, & the congregation can talke of theyr prayſe. C

15 *Enoch walked ryght and acceptably before the Lord, therefore was he tranſlated for an example of amendement to the generations. Eccle.41.e Gen.5.c.

16 * Noe was a ſtedfaſt and ryghteous man, and in the tyme of wrath, he became a reconciling: therefore was he leaft a remnant vnto the earth when the fludde came. Gen.6.a. and.7.8.

17 An euerlaſtyng couenant was made with hym, that al fleaſhe ſhoulde* periſhe no more with the water. Gen.9.c.

18 Abraham was a * great father of many people, in glory was there none lyke vnto hym. Gen.17.a.

19 He kept the lawe of the hygheſt, and came into a couenant with hym.

20 He ſet the couenant in his fleaſhe, and when he * was prooued, he was founde faythful. Gen.22.a.

21 Therefore ſwore God vnto hym with an oth, that he would bleſſe al people in his ſeede, that he woulde multiplie and increaſe hym as the duſt of the earth, and to exalt his ſeede as the ſtarres: yea and that his ſeede ſhoulde haue the poſſeſſion, an inheritance of the land, from ſea to ſea, and from the riuer vnto the borders of the worlde.

Gen.26.a. 22 * With Iſahac dyd he ſtabliſhe the ſame couenant for Abraham his fathers ſake: yea that gratious bleſſing and health of al men, and couenant dyd he ſtabliſhe with Iſahac, and made it reaſt vpon the head of Iacob.

23 [(a)] He knewe hym, in that he proſpered hym ſo wel & richely, and gaue hym an heritage, and ſundered his portion by it ſelfe, and parted among the twelue tribes.

24 Merciful menne brought he out of hym, which found fauour in the ſyght of al fleaſh.

The.xlv,Chapter.

1 The prayſe of Moſes. 6 Aaron, and Phinehes.

A 1 Moſes * beloued of God and menne, whoſe remembrance is in hygh prayſe:

Exo.11.a. Actes.7.c.

2 Him that the Lord made lyke in the glory of the ſaintes, & magnified him, ſo that the enimies ſtoode in awe of him.

3 Through his woordes he dyd great woonders: he made hym glorious in the ſyght of kynges, gaue hym commaundement before his people, and ſhewed hym glorious power.

Num.12.a 4 * He ſtabliſhed him with faithfulneſſe and meekeneſſe, and choſe hym out of al menne.

5 For he hearde his voyce, and he led hym in the darke cloude, * and there he gaue hym the commaundementes, yea the lawe of lyfe and wyſedome: that he myght teache Iacob the couenant, and Iſrael his lawes. Exo.19.d.

6 He choſe Aaron his brother alſo out of the tribe of Leui, exalted hym, and made hym ſuche lyke.

7 An euerlaſting couenant made he with him, & gaue hym the prieſthood in the people: He made hym glorious in beautiful aray, and clothed hym with the garment of honour.

B 8 He put perfect ioy vpon hym, and gyrded hym with ſtrength, he deckt hym with ſyde clothes & a tunicle, with an ouerbody coate alſo, and a gyrdle.

Exo.18.f. 9 Rounde about made he hym belles of gold, and that many: * that when he went in, the ſounde myght be hearde, that they myght make a noyſe in the ſanctuarie, and geue the people warnyng.

10 The holy garment was wrought and bordered with golde, yelowe ſilke, and purple: and in the breſtlappe there was a goodlye woorke, wherein was faſtened lyght and perfectneſſe.

Exo.4.c. 11 * Upon the ſame alſo, there was a woorke faſtened and ſet with coſtly precious ſtones al bounde with golde, and this he brought in his miniſtration: The ſtones were faſtened for a remembrance, after the number of the twelue tribes of Iſrael.

12 Upon his miter, there was a plate of pure golde, a grauen image of holyneſſe, a famous and noble woorke, garniſhed, and pleaſant to looke vpon.

13 Before hym, were there ſeene no ſuche fayre ornamentes, and theſe it behoued him alway to vſe: There myght none other put them on, but only his chyldren, and his chylders chyldren perpetually.

14 Dayly perfourmed he his burnt offeringes two tymes.

C

15 * Moſes filled [(a)] his handes, and annoynted hym with holy oyle: This was nowe confirmed hym with an euerlaſtyng couenant, and to his ſeede as the daies of heauen: namely, that his chyldren ſhoulde alway miniſter before hym, and perfourme the office of the prieſthood, and wyſhe the people good in his name. Leuit.8.a.

16 Before al menne liuyng chooſe he him, that he ſhoulde offer incenſe before the Lorde, and make odours for a ſweete ſauour & remembrance, that he ſhoulde reconcile the people of the Lorde with hym agayne.

17 * He gaue him aucthoritie alſo in his commaundementes, and in the couenant, that he ſhoulde teache Iacob the ſtatutes and teſtimonies, and to enfourme Iſrael in the lawe. Deu.17.c, and.19.a. Mal.2.a.

18 * Therefore there ſtoode vp certaine againſt hym, and had enuie at hym in the wylderneſſe: namely they that were of Dathan and Abirons ſide, and the furious congregation of Core. Nu,16.a.

19 This the Lorde ſawe, and it diſpleaſed him, and in his wrathful indignation were they conſumed: A great woonder dyd he vpon them, and conſumed them with the fyre.

20 * Beſides this, he made Aaron yet more honorable & glorious, he gaue hym an heritage, and parted the firſt fruites vnto him: * Unto him ſpecially he appointed the bread of ſuſtenance. Exo.25.f. Leui.24.b. Deu 12.b. and.18.

21 For the prieſtes dyd eate of the offeringes of the Lorde: this gaue he vnto hym, and his ſeede.

22 Els

(a) He dyd alowe him, and made hym woorthy and meete for ſuch bleſſinges of riches and increaſe: or els he made be knowen by this bleſſing Laban his vncle ſo often changing his wages, yet dyd God proſper hym, that it dyd wel appeare, he bare a fauour to him as to Ioſeph and Daniel, &c.

(a) That was eyther he put into his hande the booke of the lawe written to reade vnto the people, or els ſome ſacrifice that he might offer vnto God for their offences.

Eze.14.b. 22 *Els had he no heritage nor portion in the lande, and with the people: for the Lorde him ſelfe is his portion, and inheritance.

Num.15.c 23 The third noble and excellent man, is *Phinehes the ſonne of Eleazer, which pleaſed the God of Iſrael, becauſe he had the zeale and feare of the Lorde: For when the people were turned backe, he put hym ſelfe foorth ryght ſoone, and that with a good wil, to pacifie the wrath of the Lorde towarde Iſrael.

24 Therefore was there a couenant of peace made with hym, that he ſhoulde be the principal among the righteous in the people, that he and his poſteritie ſhoulde haue the office of the prieſthood for euer.

25 Lyke as there was made a couenant with Dauid of yͤ tribe of Iuda, that from among his ſonnes only there ſhoulde be a kyng: and that Aaron alſo and his ſeede ſhoulde be an heritage, to geue vs wyſedome in our hart, to iudge his people in ryghteouſneſſe, that his goodes ſhoulde not comme into forgetfulneſſe, and that their honour myght endure for euer.

1 The prayſe of Ioſua. 9 Caleb, 13 Samuel.

A 1 MAnly and ſtrong in batel *was Ieſus the ſonne of Naue, and was the ſucceſſour of Moſes in propheſies, and was geuen to be captayne of the people, whiche accordyng vnto his name, was a great ſauiour vnto the elect of GOD, to puniſhe the enimies that roſe vp agaynſt Iſrael, that Iſrael myght obteyne theyr inheritance.

Ioſu.12.e. Nu.27.d. Deu.34.b Ioſue.1.a.

2 O howe great, noble, and excellent was he, when he lift vp his hande, and drewe out his ſwoorde agaynſt the cities?

3 Who ſtoode ſo manly before hym? for the Lorde hym ſelfe brought in the enimies?

Ioſua.10.c 4 *Stood not the ſunne ſtil at his commaundement, and one day was as long as two?

5 He called vpon the hygheſt and moſt myghty, when the enimies preaſſed vpon hym on euery ſide, and the myghty Lorde heard him with the hayle ſtones.

6 They ſmote the Heatheniſhe people myghtyly, and in falling downe they ſlue al the aduerſaries: ſo that the heathen knewe his hoſt, and al his defence, that the Lorde hym ſelfe fought agaynſt them: for he folowed vpon the myghty men of them.

Nu.24.a. 7 *In the tyme of Moſes alſo, he and Caleb the ſonne of Iephune dyd a great woorke, whiche ſtoode againſt the enimies, withheld the people from ſinne, and ſtilled the wicked murmuring.

B 8 Nu.26.g. *And of ſixe hundred thouſande people of foote, they two were preſerued to bring them into the heritage, namely, a land that floweth with mylke and hony.

Ioſua.13.c. 9 *The Lorde gaue ſtrength alſo vnto Caleb, whiche remayned with hym vnto his age: ſo that he went vp into the hygh places of the lande, and his ſeede conquered the ſame for an heritage:

10 That al the chyldren of Iſrael myght ſee, howe good a thyng it is to be obedient vnto the Lorde.

11 And the iudges or rulers, euery one after his name, whoſe hart went not a whooring, nor departed from the Lorde, and that forſooke not the Lorde vnfaythfully, whoſe remembrance hath a good report:

12 Yea their bones floriſhe out of their place, and their names ſhal neuer be changed: but honour remayneth ſtil with the chyldren of thoſe holy men:

13 Samuel the prophete, beloued of the Lorde his God, *ordayned a kyng, and annoynted the princes ouer the people. 1.Reg.x.a.

14 In the lawe of the Lorde ruled he, and iudged the congregation, and the Lorde had reſpect vnto Iacob. C

15 The prophete was founde diligent in his faythfulneſſe: yea and he is knowen faithful in his woorkes, becauſe he ſawe the God of lyght.

16 *He called vpon the Lorde almyghty, when the enimies preaſſed vpon him on euery ſyde, what tyme as he offered the ſucking lambe. 1.Reg.7.a.

17 And the Lord thundered from heauen, and made his voyce to be hearde with a great noyſe:

18 He diſcomfited the princes of Tyre, and al the rulers of the Philiſtines.

19 *Before his laſt ende, he made proteſtation in the ſyght of the Lorde, and his annoynted, that he tooke neyther ſubſtance nor good of any man, no not ſo muche as a ſhoe: and no man myght accuſe hym. 1.Reg.12.a

20 After this he tolde that his end was at hande, and ſhewed the kyng alſo his ende, & death: and from the earth lift he vp his voyce in the prophecie, that the vngodly people ſhoulde periſhe.

The.xlvii.Chapter.

1 The prayſe of Nathan, 2 Dauid, 12 and Solomon.

A 1 Afterwarde in the tyme of kyng Dauid, there roſe vp a prophete called Nathan.

2 For lyke as the fat is taken away from the offeryng: ſo was Dauid choſen out of the chyldren of Iſrael.

3 He played with the Lions as with kiddes, and with beares, lyke as with lambes of ſheepe.

1.Reg.17.f 4 * Slewe he not a giant when he was yet but young, and tooke away the rebuke from his people, what tyme as he tooke the ſtone in his hande, and ſmote downe proude Goliath with the ſling?

5 For he called vpon the higheſt Lord, which gaue hym ſtrength in his ryght hande, ſo that he ouerthrewe the myghty giant in the batayle, that he myght ſet vp the horne of his people agayne.

6 So he glorified hym in ten thouſande, and made him to haue a good report in the praiſe of the Lorde, that he ſhould weare a crowne of glory.

2.Reg.5.b. 7 * For he deſtroyed yͤ enimies on euery ſyde, rooted out the Philiſtines his aduerſaries, & brake their horne in ſunder, lyke as it is broken yet this day.

B 8 In al his workes he prayſed the hygheſt and holieſt, & aſcribed the honour vnto him: with his whole hart, dyd he prayſe the Lord, and loued God that made hym.

2.Par.16.a. 9 * He ſet ſingers alſo before the aulter, and in theyr tyme he made ſweete ſonges, that they myght geue prayſes euery day to God with ſonges.

10 He ordeyned to keepe the holy dayes worſhipfully, and that the ſolempne feaſtes thorowe the whole yeere ſhoulde be honorably holden, with prayſing the name of the Lord, and with ſinging betimes in the mornyng in the ſanctuarie.

2.Reg.12.d 11 * The Lord tooke away his ſinnes, and exalted his horne for euer: he gaue hym the couenant of the kyngdome, and the throne of worſhip in Iſrael.

3.Reg.3.c. 12 * After hym there roſe vp the wyſe ſonne [called Solomon] who by hym dwelt in a large poſſeſſion, and for his ſake he droue the enimies away farre of.

13 This Solomon raigned with peace in his tyme, and he obteyned glory: For God gaue hym reaſt from his enimies on euery ſyde, that he myght buylde hym an houſe in his name, and prepare the ſanctuarie for euer.

14 Howe wyſe waſt thou in thy youth, and filled with wyſedome and vnderſtandyng, as it were with a water fludde? C

15 Thou coueredſt and filledſt the whole land with ſimilitudes, & wyſe prudent ſentences.

16 Thy name went abrode in the Iles, becauſe of thy peace thou waſt beloued.

17 Al landes maruailed at thy ſonges, prouerbes, ſimilitudes, & at thy interpretations.

18 And in the name of the Lorde God, whiche is called the god of Iſrael,* thou geatheredſt golde as tinne, and thou hadſt as muche ſiluer as leade. 3.Reg.10.b

19 Thou waſt mooued in inordinate loue toward women, & waſt ouercome in affection. 4.Reg.11.a

20 Thou ſtaynedſt thy honour and worſhip, yea thy poſteritie defiledſt thou alſo, in bryngyng the wrath of the Lorde vpon thy chyldren, and haſt felt ſorowe for thy folly.

21 * So that thy kyngdome was diuided, and Ephraim became an vnfaithful and a rebellious kyngdome. D 3.Reg.12.e

22 Neuertheleſſe, God forſooke not his mercie, neyther was he vtterly deſtroyed becauſe of his workes, that he ſhoulde leaue hym no poſteritie: as for the ſeede that came vpon hym, whiche he loued, he brought it not vtterly to nought, but gaue yet a remnant vnto Iacob, & a roote vnto Dauid out of him. 2.Reg.7.e.

23 Thus reaſted Solomon with his fathers, and out of his ſeede he leaft behynde hym a very fooliſhneſſe of the people, and ſuche one as had no vnderſtandyng:* euen Roboam, whiche turned away the people through his counſel, and Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, whiche cauſed Iſrael to ſinne, and ſhewed Ephraim the way of vngodlyneſſe: 3.Reg.12.b 3.Reg.12.d

24 Inſomuche that their ſinnes & miſdeedes hadde the vpper hande ſo ſoare, that at the laſt, they were driuen out of the lande for the ſame:

25 Yea, he ſought out and brought vp al wickedneſſe, tyl the vengeance came vppon them.

The.xlviii.Chapter.

The prayſe of Elias, Elizeus, Ezechias, and Eſaias.

A 1 Then ſtoode vp *Elias the prophet, as a fyre, and his woorde brent lyke a creſſet. 3.Re.17.a.

2 He brought an hunger vpon them, & in his zeale he made them fewe in number: for they myght not away with the commaundementes of the Lorde.

3 Through the woorde of the Lorde he ſhut the heauen,* and three tymes brought he the fyre downe. 3.Reg.18.c

4 O Elias, howe honorable art thou in thy woonderous deedes? Who maye make his hoſt to be lyke thee?

3.Re.17.c. 5 *One that was dead, thou raiſedſt vp from death, and in the woorde of the hygheſt, thou broughteſt hym out of the graue agayne.

6 Thou haſt caſt downe kinges, and deſtroyed them, and the honorable from theyr ſeate.

B 7 Upon the mount Sina thou heardeſt the iudgement, and vpon Horeb the iudgement of the vengeance.

8 Whiche dyddeſt annoynt kynges to recompence,* and ordeynedſt prophetes after thee. 3.Re.19.c.

4.Reg.2.c. 9 *Thou waſt taken vp in the ſtorme of fyre, in a charret of fyery horſes.

10 Thou waſt ordeyned in the reproouynges in tyme to pacifie the wrath of the Lorde before it* raged, to turne the harts of the fathers vnto the chyldren, and to ſet vp the tribes of Iacob agayne. Luke.1.a.

11 Bleſſed were they that ſawe thee, and were garniſhed in loue, for we lyue in life, but after death, we ſhal haue no ſuche name.

4.Reg.2.c 12 *Elias was couered in the ſtorme, but Elizeus was fylled with his ſpirite: while he liued, he was afrayde of no prince, and no man myght ouercome hym.

4.Re.13.d. 13 There coulde no woorde deceiue hym,* and after his death, his body propheſied.

C 14 He dyd woonders in his lyfe, and in death were his woorkes marueylous.

15 For al this, the people amended not, neither departed they from theyr ſinnes,* tyl they were carried away priſoners out of the land, and were ſcattered abroade in al countreyes, ſo that of them there remayned but a very litle people, and a prince vnto the houſe of Dauid. 4.Reg.18.

16 Howebeit, ſomme of them dyd ryght, and ſomme heaped vp vngodlyneſſe.

17 *Ezechias made his citie ſtrong, conueighed water into it, dygged through the ſtonye rocke with iron, and made vp a wal by the water ſyde. 2.Par.32.a

18 *In his tyme came Sennacherib vp, and ſent Rabſakes, lyft vp his hande againſt Sion, and defied them with great pryde. 4.Re.18.a.

19 Then trembled theyr hartes and handes, ſo that they ſorowed lyke a woman trauailing with chylde.

20 So they called vpon the Lorde whiche is mercyful, & lyft vp theyr handes before hym, immediately the Lorde hearde them out of heauen. D

21 He thought no more vpon theyr ſinnes, nor gaue them ouer to theyr enimies: but deliuered them by the hande of Eſaias.

22 *He ſmote the hoſt of the Aſſyrians, and his angel deſtroyed them. 4.Re.19.g

23 For Ezechias hadde donne the thyng that pleaſed the Lord, and remayned ſtedfaſtly in the way of Dauid his father, as Eſaias the great and faythful prophete in the ſyght of God had commaunded hym.

24 In his tyme the ſunne went backewarde, and he lengthened the kinges lyfe. 4.Re.20.b

25 With a ryght ſpirite propheſied he what ſhoulde comme to paſſe at the laſt: and to ſuche as were ſorowful in Sion, he gaue conſolation, wherewith they myght comfort them ſelues for euermore.

26 He ſhewed thynges that were for to come, and ſecrete, or euer they comme to paſſe.

The.xlix.Chapter.

Of Ioſias, Ezechias, Dauid, Ieremie, Ezechiel, Zorobabel, Ieſus, Nehemias, Enoch, and Ioſeph.

A 1 The remembrance of *Ioſias, is lyke as when the Apothecarie maketh many pretious ſweete ſmellyng thynges togeather: his remembrance ſhalbe ſweete as hony in al mouthes, and as the playeing of muſicke at a banquet of wyne. 4.Re.22.a

2 He was appoynted to turne the people agayne, and to take away al abominations of the vngodly.

3 He directed his harte vnto the Lorde, and in the tyme of the vngodly, he ſet vp the wor-ſhyp of God agayne.

4 Al kynges, except[(a)] Dauid, Ezechias, and Ioſias, committed wickedneſſe: for euen the kings of Iuda alſo forſooke the law of God.

(a) Theſe alſo were ſinners, but eyther they were not idolaters, which here is chiefely counted ſinne: or els they dyd repent, ſo that theyr ſynnes were couered, for that they were enimies to idolatrie.

5 For they gaue theyr horne vnto other, their honour ⁊ woorſhyp alſo to a ſtrange people.

6 Therefore was the elect citie of the ſanctuarie brent with fyre,* and the ſtreetes thereof laide deſolate and waſte in the hande of Ieremie.

4.Re.25.d

7 For they entreated hym euyl,[(b)] whiche neuertheleſſe was a prophet, ordeyned from his mothers wombe, that he myght roote out, breake of, and deſtroy: and that he myght buylde vp, and plant agayne.

(b) That is, accordyng to the propheſie of Ieremie: for the hande in ſcripture is taken for any mans office, and function.

8 Ezechiel ſawe the glory of the Lorde in a viſion, whiche was ſhewed hym vpon the charret of the Cherubims.

9 For he thought vpon the enimies in the rayne, to doo good vnto ſuche as had ordered theyr wayes aryght.

10 And the bones of the twelue prophetes floriſhed from out of theyr place: for they gaue comfort and conſolation vnto Iacob, and deliuered them faythfully.

11 * Howe ſhal we prayſe Zorobabel, whiche was a ryng on the ryght hande?

Agge.2.a.

12 * So was Ieſus alſo the ſonne of Ioſedec: theſe menne in theyr times builded the houſe, and ſet vp the ſanctuary of the Lord againe, which was prepared for an euerlaſtyng worſhyp.

Agge.1.a.

13 And among the elect was Nehemias, whoſe renowme was great, whiche ſet vp for vs the walles that were broken downe, made the portes and barres agayne, ⁊ buylded our houſes a newe.

14 * But vpon the earth there is no man created lyke Enoch: for he was taken vp from earth.

Gene.5.c.

15 Neyther was there a like manne vnto Ioſeph, whiche was lorde of his brethren, and the vpholder of his people:[(c)] his bones were couered and kept.

(c) For that he propheſied of the deliuerance of Iſrael frō Egypt into Chanaan, and alſo of the reſurrection to be made by Chriſte.
Heb.11.

16 Seth and Sem were in great honour among the people, and ſo was Adam aboue al the beaſtes, when he was created.

The.l.Chapter.

1 Of Simon the ſonne of Onias. 22 An exhortation to the prayſe of the Lorde.

A 1 SImon * the ſonne of Onias the hygh prieſt, whiche in his lyfe ſet vp the houſe agayne, and in his dayes made faſt the temple.

2.Mac.3.a.

2 The height of the temple alſo was founded of him, the double buyldyng, and the hygh walles of the temple.

3 In his dayes, the welles of water flowed out, and were exceedyng ful as the ſea.

4 He tooke care for his people, and deliuered them from deſtruction: He kept his citie, and made it ſtrong, that it ſhould not be beſieged.

5 Howe honorable was his conuerſation among the people, and when he came out of the houſe couered with the vayle?

6 He gaue lyght as the mornyng ſtarre in the myddeſt of the cloudes, and as the moone when it is ful:

B 7 He ſhyned as the ſunne in the temple of God, he is as bryght as the raynebowe in the fayre cloudes,

8 And floriſheth as the floures and roſes in the ſpryng of the yeere, and as lylies by the ryuers of water, lyke as the branches vpon the mount of Libanus in yͤ time of ſummer:

9 As a fyre and incenſe that is kyndeled, like as an whole ornament of pure golde, ſet with al manner of precious ſtones,

10 And as an oliue tree that is fruitful, and as a Cypres tree whiche groweth vp an hygh.

11 When he put on the garment of honour, and was clothed with al beautie, when he went to the holy aulter, he made the garment of holyneſſe honorable.

12 When he tooke the portions out of the prieſtes hand, he him ſelfe ſtood by the hearth of the aulter, and his brethren round about in order: as the branches of Cedar tree vpon the mount Libanus, ſo ſtoode they rounde about hym:

13 And as the branches of the Oliue tree, ſo ſtoode al the ſonnes of Aaron in theyr glory, and the oblations of the Lorde in theyr handes, before al the congregation of Iſrael.

14 And that he myght ſufficiently perfourme his ſeruice vpon the aulter, and garniſhe the offeryng of the hygheſt God, C

15 He ſtretched out his hande, and tooke of the drynke offeryng, and powred in of the wine: ſo he powred vpon the bottome of the aulter, a good ſmel vnto the hygheſt prince.

16 Then began the ſonnes of Aaron to ſyng, and to blowe with trumpettes, and to make a great noyſe, for a remembrance and prayſe vnto the Lorde.

17 Then al the people togeather were haſted, and fel downe to the earth vpon theyr faces, to woorſhyppe the Lorde theyr God, and to geue thankes to the almyghty God.

18 They ſong goodly with theyr voyces, ſo that there was a pleaſant noyſe in the greate houſe of the Lorde.

19 And the people in theyr prayer, beſought the Lorde the hygheſt, that he woulde be mercyful, tyl the honour of the Lord were perfourmed, and they had ended theyr miniſtration and ſeruice.

D 20 Then went he downe, and ſtretched out his handes ouer the whole multitude of the people of Iſrael, that they ſhould geue prayſe and thankes out of theyr lyppes vnto the Lorde, and to reioyce in his name.

21 He beganne yet once alſo to praye, that he myght openly ſhewe the thankeſgeuyng before the hygheſt,

22 [Namely thus,] O geue praiſe and thankes al ye vnto the Lorde our God, whiche hath euer donne noble and great thynges, whiche hath encreaſed our dayes from our mothers wombe, and dealt with vs accordyng to his mercy,

23 That he wyl geue vs the ioyfulneſſe of hart, and peace for our tyme in Iſrael:

24 Whiche faythfully keepeth his mercy for vs euermore, and alway delivereth vs in due ſeaſon.

25 There be two manner of people that I abhorre from my harte, as for the thyrde whom I hate, it is no people:

26 They that ſit vpon the mountaine of Samaria, the Philiſtines, and the fooliſh people that dwelt in Sichimis.

27 I Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach, Eleazarus, of Ieruſalem, haue tokened vp theſe informations and documentes of wyſedome, and vnderſtandyng in this booke, and powred out the wyſedome of my hart. E

28 Bleſſed is he that exerciſeth him ſelfe therein: and who ſo taketh ſuche to harte, ſhalbe wyſe for euer.

29 If he doo theſe thinges, he ſhalbe ſtrong in al: for the light of the lord leadeth him which geueth wyſedome to the godly: The Lorde be prayſed for euermore, ſo be it, ſo be it.

The, li, Chapter.

The prayer of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach.

A 1 I wyl thanke thee O Lord and kyng, and prayſe thee O God my Sauiour: I wyl yeeld praiſe vnto thy name.

2 For thou art my defender and helper, and haſte preſerued my body from deſtruction, from the ſnares of trayterous tongues, and from the lippes that are occupyed with lyes.

3 Thou haſt benne my healper from ſuch as ſtoode vp agaynſt me, and haſt deliuered me after the multitude of thy mercy, and for thy holye names ſake, from the roryng of them that prepared them ſelues to deuoure me, out of the handes of ſuch as ſought after my life, from yͤ multitude of them that troubled me,

4 And from them that went about to ſet fire vpon me on euery ſide, ſo that I am not brent in the myddeſt of the fyre:

5 From the deepe of hel, from an vncleane tongue, from lyeing woordes, from falſe accuſation to the kyng, and from an vnryghteous tongue.

6 My ſoule ſhal prayſe the Lord vnto death: for my lyfe drewe nigh vnto hel downward.

B 7 They compaſſed me rounde about on euery ſyde, and there was no manne to healpe me: I looked about me if there were anye man that woulde ſuccour me, but there was none.

8 Then thought I vpon thy mercy, O Lord, and vpon thy actes that thou haſt donne euer of olde: [namely,] that thou delivereſt ſuch as put theyr truſt in thee, and riddeſt them out of the handes of the heathen.

9 Thus lyft I vp my prayer from the earth, and prayed for deliuerance from death.

10 I called vpon the Lorde, the father of my Lorde, that he woulde not leaue me without healpe in the daye of my trouble, and in the tyme of the proude.

11 I wyl prayſe thy name continually, yeelding honour and thankes vnto it: and ſo my prayer was hearde.

12 Thou ſauedſt me from deſtruction, and delyueredſt me from the vnryghteous time: therfore wyl I acknowledge and prayſe thee, and magnifie the name of the Lorde.

13 When I was yet but young, or euer I went aſtray, I deſyred (a) wyſedome openly in my prayer.

14 I came therfore before the temple, & ſought her vnto the laſt: then floriſhed ſhe vnto me, as a grape that is ſoone rype.

15 My harte reioyced in her, then went my foote the ryght way: yea, from my youth vp, ſought I after her.

(a) wiſedome is obteyned by one of theſe three meanes, firſt by prayer as Solomon dyd, and Iacob, ſecondly, by diligent readyng of gods booke, wherein wiſdome is conteyned. Pſalm.19. Sa.6. Thirdly, by godly conuerſation, and continuing in the feare of God. Pro.2. Iohn.7. If any manne wyl doo my wyl, he ſhal know my doctrine.

16 I bowed downe myne eare and receiued her: I founde me muche wyſedome, and proſpered greatly in her.

17 Therfore wil I aſcribe the glory vnto hym that geueth me wyſedome.

18 For I am aduiſed to doo thereafter, I wyl be gelous to cleaue vnto the thyng that is good, ſo ſhal I not be confounded.

19 My ſoule hath wreſtled with her, & I haue benne diligent to be occupyed in her: I lift vp myne handes on hygh, then was my ſoule lightened through wyſedome, that I knowledged my fooliſhneſſe.

20 I ordered my ſoule after her, ſhe and I were one harte from the begynnyng, and I founde her in cleanneſſe, and therefore ſhal I not be forſaken.

D 21 My hart longed after her, & I gate a good treaſure.

22 Through her, the Lorde hath geuen me a newe tongue, wherewith I wyl praiſe him.

23 *O comme vnto me ye vnlearned, & dwel in the houſe of wyſedome:

Eſai.55.a.

24 Withdrawe not your ſelues from her, but talke and commune of theſe thynges: for your ſoules are very thyrſty.

25 I opened my mouth, and ſpake, O comme and buye wyſedome without money.

26 Bowe downe your necke vnder her yoke, and your ſoule ſhal receiue wyſedome: ſhe is harde at hand, and is content to be founde.

27 Behold with your eyes, *how that I haue had but litle labour, & yet haue found muche reaſt.

Eccl,6,c.

E 28 O receiue wiſdome, and ye ſhal haue plenteouſneſſe of ſyluer and golde in poſſeſſion.

29 Let your mynde reioyce in his mercy, and be not aſhamed of his prayſe.

30 Worke his worke betymes, and he ſhal geue you your rewarde in due ſeaſon.

The ende of the booke of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach, whiche is called in Latine Eccleſiaſticus.

The booke of the prophet Baruch.

The firſt Chapter.

1 Baruch wrote a booke duryng the captiuitie of Babylon, whiche he read before Ieconias and al the people. 10 The Iewes ſent the booke with money vnto Hieruſalem, to theyr other brethren, to the intent that they ſhoulde praye for them:

A 1 And theſe are the wordes of the booke whiche were [(a)] wrytten by Baruch the ſone of Nerias, the ſone of Maaſias, the ſonne of Sedechias, yͤ ſonne of Helchias, at Babylon,

(a) Baruch was ſecretarie to Ieremie the prophet, of whom in Ieremie is often made mention.

2 In the fyfth yeere, and in the ſeuenth daye of the moneth, what tyme as the Chaldees tooke Hieruſalem, and brent it vp with fyre.

3 And Baruch did reade the wordes of this booke, that Iechonias the ſonne of Ioachin kyng of Iuda myght heare, and in the preſence of al the people that were come to heare the booke,

4 And before al the nobles, the kings ſonnes, and before the elders, and before the whole people, from the loweſt vnto the hygheſt: before al them that dwelt at Babylon, by the water of " Sody,

" Or, Sud.

5 Whiche when they heard it, wept, faſted, and prayed before the Lorde.

6 They made alſo a collection of mony, accordyng to euery mans power:

B 7 And ſent it to Hieruſalem vnto Ioachin the ſonne of Helchia, the ſonne of Salom Prieſte, with the other Prieſtes, and to al the people whiche were with hym at Hieruſalem,

8 (What tyme as they had gotten the " veſſels of the temple of the Lorde that were taken away out of the temple, that they might bryng them agayne into the lande of Iuda, the tenth day of the moneth (b) Siuan [namely,] ſiluer veſſels, which Sedechias the ſonne of Ioſias the kyng of Iuda had made,

" Or, ornamentes.

(b) Siuan conteyneth part of May, and parte of Iune, it is the thirde moneth after the reckonyng of the Iewes.

9 After that Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, hadde taken Iechonias with al his Princes, Lordes, and al the people, and led them captiue from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon:

10 And they ſayde, Beholde, we haue ſent you money *to buye you burnt offerynges and incenſe withal, prepare a meate offeryng, and offer for ſynne vpon the aulter of the Lorde our God:

Deu.14.c.

1.Tim.2.b 11 *And (c) praye for the proſperitie of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, & for the welfare of Balthaſar his ſonne, that theyr dayes may be vpon earth, as the dayes of heauen:

(c) By this example we are taught to pray for kinges and princes. as.1.Tim.1.

12 That God alſo may geue vs ſtrength, and lighten our eyes, that we may liue vnder the defence of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, and vnder the protection of Balthaſar his ſonne, that we maye long doo them ſeruice, and fynde fauour in theyr ſyght.

13 Praye for vs alſo vnto the Lord our God: for we haue ſynned agaynſte the Lorde our God, and vnto this day is not his wrath turned yet away from vs.

C 14 And ſee that ye reade this booke which we haue ſent vnto you, to be rehearſed in the temple of the Lorde, vpon the hygh dayes, & at tyme conuenient.

Baru.2.d. 15 Thus ſhal ye ſaye, The Lorde our God is ryghteous, but we are woorthy of confuſion and ſhame, lyke as it is comme to paſſe this day vnto al Iuda, & to euery one that dwelleth at Hieruſalem, 16 To our kinges, princes, prieſtes, prophetes, and to our fathers.

17 We haue ſinned before the Lorde our God, we haue not put our truſt in hym, nor geuen hym credence,

18 We haue not obeyed hym, we haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde our God, to walke in the commaundementes that he gaue vs openly.

19 Since the daye that he brought our forefathers out of the land of Egypt, vnto this preſent day, we haue benne euer a miſbeleuyng, and an vnfaythful people vnto the Lord our God, deſtroying our ſelues vtterly, & ſhrinckyng backe, that we ſhoulde not heare his voyce.

20 *Wherefore, there are comme vpon vs great plagues and diuers curſes, lyke as the Lorde deuiſed by Moſes his ſeruant, *which brought our fathers out of the lande of Egypt, to geue vs a lande that floweth with mylke and hony, lyke as it is to ſee this day. Leuit.26. Exod.12.

21 Neuertheleſſe, we haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lord our God, accordyng to al the woordes of the prophetes, whom he ſent vnto vs, [and to our rulers:]

22 But euery man folowed his owne minde & wicked imagination, to offer vnto ſtrange goddes, and to doo euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde our God.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 The Iewes confeſſe that they iuſtly ſuffer for theyr ſynnes. 2 The true confeſſion of the Chriſten. 11 The Iewes deſyre to haue the wrath of God turned from them. 21 The Lorde wyl that we obey vnto princes, although they be euyl. 32 He promiſeth that he wyl cal agayne the people from captiuitie, and geue them a newe and an euerlaſtyng Teſtament.

A 1 FOr the *which cauſe, the Lorde our God hath perfourmed his deuice, wherof he certified vs, and our heades that ruled in Hieruſalem, yea, & our kings, our princes, with al Iſrael and Iuda: Dani.9.b.

2 And ſuche plagues hath the Lord brought vpon vs, as neuer came to paſſe vnder the heauen, lyke as it is fulfylled in Hieruſalem, Deu.28.f. accordyng as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moſes,

3 That a man ſhoulde eate the fleaſhe of his owne ſonne, & the fleaſhe of his owne daughter.

4 Moreouer, he hath delyuered them into the handes of al the kinges that are round about vs, to be confounded and deſolate, and ſcattered them abroade in al landes and nations.

5 Thus are we brought beneath, and not aboue, becauſe we haue ſinned agaynſte the Lorde our God, and haue not benne obedient vnto his voyce.

6 *Therefore the Lorde our God is ryghteous, and we with our fathers [as reaſon is] are brought to open ſhame, as it is to ſee this day. Baruc.1.d.

B 7 And as for theſe plagues that are comme vpon vs already, the Lord had deuiſed them for vs:

8 Yet woulde we not praye vnto the Lorde our God, that we myght euery manne turne from his vngodly wayes.

9 So the Lord hath cauſed ſuche plagues to comme vpon vs: for he is righteous in al his woorkes whiche he hath commaunded vs:

10 Whiche we alſo haue not donne, nor hearkened vnto his voyce, for to walke in the commaundementes of the Lorde, that he hath geuen vnto vs.

11 *And nowe, O Lorde GOD of Iſrael, Dan.9.c. thou that *haſt brought thy people out of Exod.7.d. the lande of Egypt with a myghtye hande, with tokens and woonders, with thy great power and outſtretched arme, and haſt gotten thee ſelfe a name, as it is comme to paſſe this day:

12 O Lord our God, we haue ſinned, we haue donne wickedly, we haue behaued our ſelues vngodly, in al thy righteouſneſſes.

13 Turne thy wrath from vs, [we beſech thee,] for we are but a fewe leaſt among the heathen, where thou haſt ſcattered vs.

C 2,Par.6,c. 14 *Heare our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, bryng vs out of captiuitie for thyne owne ſake, geat vs fauour in the ſyght of them whiche haue led vs away:

15 That al landes may knowe that thou art the Lorde our God, and that Iſrael and his generation, calleth vpon thy name.

Deu.26.c. 16 *O Lorde, looke downe from thy holy houſe vpon vs, encline thyne eare, & heare vs.

Pſal,113.c. 17 Open thyne eyes, and beholde, for the dead that be gonne downe to theyr graues, and whoſe ſoules are out of theyr bodyes, aſcribs vnto the Lord, neyther prayſe nor ryghteouſneſſe:

18 But the ſoule that is vexed for the multitude [of her ſinnes,] whiche goeth on heauyly and weakely, whoſe eyes beginne to fayle, yea, ſuche a ſoule aſcribeth prayſe and ryghteouſneſſe vnto the Lorde.

19 For we powre out our prayers before thee, and require mercy in thy ſyght, O Lorde our God, not for any godlyneſſe of our fathers:

D 20 But becauſe thou haſt ſent out thy wrath and indignation vpon vs, according as thou dyddeſt threaten vs by thy ſeruantes the prophetes, ſayeing, Ier.27.a. 21 *Thus ſayth the Lorde, Bowe downe your ſhoulders & neckes, and ſerue the kyng of Babylon: ſo ſhal ye remaine ſtil in the land that I gaue vnto your fathers.

22 But if ye wyl not heare the voyce of the Lorde your God, to ſerue the kyng of Babylon,

23 I wyl deſtroye you in the cities of Iuda, within Hieruſalem and without: I wyl alſo take from you the voyce of myrth, and the voyce of ioye, the voyce of the brydegrome, and the voyce of the bryde, and there ſhal no man dwel more in the lande.

24 But they woulde not hearken vnto thy voyce, to doo the kyng of Babylon ſeruice: and therfore haſt thou perfourmed the woordes that thou ſpakeſt by thy ſeruantes the prophetes: [namely,] that the bones of our kynges, and the bones of our fathers, ſhoulde be tranſlated out of theyr places:

25 And loe, now are they laide out in the heate of the ſunne, and in the colde of the nyght, and dead in great miſerie, with hunger, with ſworde, [with peſtilence,] and are cleane caſt foorth.

26 As for the temple wherein thy name was called vpon, thou haſt layde it waſte, as it is to ſee this day, & that for the wickedneſſe of the houſe of Iſrael, and the houſe of Iuda.

27 O Lorde our God, thou haſt intreated vs after al thy goodneſſe, and accordyng to al that great louing mercy of thyne. E

28 Lyke as thou ſpakeſt by thy ſeruant Moſes, in the day when thou dydſt commaunde hym to wryte thy lawe before the children of Iſrael, ſayeing,

29 *If ye wyl not hearken vnto my voyce, then ſhal this great multitude be turned into a very ſmal people among the nations, for I wyl ſcatter them abroade. Deu.4.d.

30 Notwithſtandyng, I am ſure that this folke wyl not heare me, for it is an harde necked people: but in the lande of theyr captiuitie, they ſhal remember them ſelues,

31 And learne to knowe that I am the Lorde theyr God, when I geue them an hart to vnderſtande, and eares to heare:

32 Then ſhal they prayſe me in the lande of theyr captiuitie, and thynke vpon my name: F

33 Then ſhal they turne them from theyr harde backes, and from theyr vngodlyneſſe: then ſhal they remember the thynges that happened vnto theyr fathers, whiche ſynned agaynſt me.

34 So wyl I bryng them agayne into the lande whiche I promiſed with an oth vnto theyr fathers, Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, & they ſhalbe lordes of it, yea, I wyl encreaſe them, and not miniſhe them.

35 *And I wil make another couenant with them, ſuch one as ſhal endure for euer: [namely,] that I wyl be theyr God, and they ſhalbe my people: and I wyl no more driue my people the chyldren of Iſrael, out of the land that I haue geuen them. Heb.8,c.

The,iii.Chapter.

1 The people continueth in theyr prayer begunne for theyr deliuerance. 9 He prayſeth wyſedome vnto the people, ſhewyng that ſo great aduerſities came vnto them for the deſpiſyng thereof. 36 Onely God was the fynder of wyſedome. 37 Of the incarnation of Chriſte.

A 1 AND nowe, O Lorde almighty, thou god of Iſrael: our ſoule that is in trouble, and our ſpirite that is vexed, cryeth vnto thee:

2 Heare vs, O Lord, and haue pitie vpon vs, for thou art a mercyful God, be gratious vnto vs, for we haue ſinned before thee.

3 Thou endureſt for euer: ſhould we then vtterly periſhe?

Epheſ.2.a. Dan.3.c. Iere.2.c. 3.c.and,5.c

4 O Lorde almyghty, thou God of Iſrael, heare nowe the prayer * of the dead Iſraelites, and of theyr chyldren, whiche haue ſynned before thee, and not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde theyr G O D, for the whiche cauſe, theſe plagues hange nowe vpon vs.

5 O Lord remember not the wickedneſſe of our forefathers, but thynke vpon thy power and name nowe at this tyme:

6 For thou art the Lorde our God, and thee O Lorde wyl we prayſe.

Nu.14.a. Pſal,77.a.

7 * For thou haſt put thy feare in our hartes, to the intent that we ſhoulde calle vpon thy name, and prayſe thee in our captiuitie, and that we myght turne from the wickedneſſe of our forefathers that ſynned before thee.

Pſal.79.a.

8 Beholde, we are yet this day in our captiuitie, where as thou haſt ſcattered vs to be an abomination, curſe, and ſubiect to exactions:* lyke as it hath happened vnto our fathers alſo, becauſe of al theyr wickednes, & departing from thee.

9 O Iſrael, heare the commaundementes of life, ponder them wel with thine eares, that thou mayeſt learne wiſedome.

10 But howe happeneth it Iſrael, that thou art in thyne enimies lande? thou art waxen olde in a ſtrange countrey, and defiled with the dead.

11 Why art thou become lyke them that goe downe to theyr graues?

Iere,2.b.

12 Euen becauſe thou haſt forſaken the wel of wyſedome.

13 For if thou haddeſt walked in the waye of God truely, thou ſhouldeſt haue remayned ſtyl ſafe in thyne owne lande.

15 Who euer founde out her place? Or who came euer into her treaſures?

16 Where are the princes of the heathen become, and ſuche as ruled the beaſtes vpon the earth,

17 They that hadde theyr paſtime with the foules of the ayre, they that hoorded vp ſiluer and golde, wherin menne truſt ſo much, and made no ende of theyr geatheryng?

18 What is become of them that coyned ſiluer, and were ſo careful, and coulde not bryng theyr woorkes to paſſe.

19 They be rooted out, and gonne downe to hel, and other menne are comme vp in theyr ſteedes.

20 Young menne haue ſeene lyght, & dwelt vpon earth: but the way of reformation haue they not knowen, 22 It hath not benne hearde of in the lande of Chanaan, neither hath it benne ſeene at Theman.

23 The Agarenes ſought after wyſedome, but that whiche is earthly, lyke as the Marchantes of the lande doo: They of Theman are cunnyng alſo, they labour for wyſedome and vnderſtanding, but the way of true wiſdome they know not, neither doo they thinke vpon the pathes thereof.

26 What is become of thoſe famous giantes, that were ſo great of bodyes, and ſo woorthy menne of warre?

27 Thoſe hath not the Lorde choſen, neyther haue they founde the way of reformation:

28 Therefore were they deſtroyed, and for ſo muche as they had no wyſedome, they periſhed becauſe of theyr fooliſhneſſe.

29 Who hath gonne vp into heauen, to take wyſedome there, and brought her downe from the cloudes?

30 Who hath gonne ouer the ſea to fynde her, and hath choſen her aboue gold, & ſo brought her hyther?

31 No man knoweth the waies of wiſdome, neyther is there anye that canne ſeeke out her pathes.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 The rewarde of them that keepe the lawe, and the puniſhment of them that deſpiſe it.
12 A comfortyng of the people beyng in captiuitie. 19 A complaynt of Hieruſalem, and vnder the figure thereof, of the Churche. 25 A conſolation and comfortyng of the ſame.

A 1 This is the booke of the cōmaundementes of God, and the lawe that endureth for euer: al they that kepe it, ſhal comme to lyfe, but ſuche as forſake it, ſhal come to death.

2 Turne thee, O Iacob, and take holde of it, walke by this way, through his bryghtnes and ſhyne.

3 Geue not thine honour to another, and thy woorſhyp to a ſtrange people.

Pſal.93.b. 4 O Iſrael, * howe happy are we, ſeeing that God hath ſhewed vs ſuche thynges as are pleaſant vnto hym?

5 Be of good cheare, thou people of God, O thou ancient Iſrael.

4.Re.17.d and.25. 6 * Nowe are ye ſolde among the heathen, howebeit, not for your vtter deſtruction: but becauſe ye prouoked God the Lord to wrath and diſpleaſure, therefore were ye delyuered vnto your enimies.

B 7 For ye diſpleaſed the euerlaſtyng God that made you, offeryng vnto deuyls, and not to God.

8 Ye haue forgotten hym that brought you vp, & ye haue greeued Hieruſalem that nurſed you.

9 When ſhe ſawe that the wrath of God was comming vpon you, ſhe ſaide, Hearken O ye that dwel about Sion, for God hath brought me into great heauineſſe.

10 And why? I ſee the captiuitie of my people, of my ſonnes and daughters, whiche the euerlaſtyng God wyl bryng vpon them.

11 With ioy did I noriſh them, but now muſt I leaue them with weepyng and ſorowe.

12 Let no man reioyce ouer me wyddowe, and forſaken, whiche for the ſynnes of my children am deſolate of euery man: for why? they departed from the lawe of God.

13 They would not know his ryghteouſnes, nor walke in the way of his commaundementes: and as for the pathes of trueth and godlyneſſe, they had no luſt to goe in them.

C 14 O ye dwellers about Sion, comme and let vs cal to remembrance the captiuitie that the euerlaſtyng GOD hath brought vpon my ſonnes and my daughters.

15 * He hath brought a people vpon them frō farre, an vncurteous people, and of a ſtrange language: whiche neyther regarde the olde, nor pitie the young. Deu.28.c, Iere.5.b, 16 Theſe haue carried away the deare beloued of my wyddowes, leauyng me alone, both deſolate and chyldeleſſe.

17 But alas, what canne I healpe you?

18 Now he that brought theſe plagues vpon you, deliuer you alſo from the handes of your enimies.

19 Goe your way, O my chyldren, goe your way, for I am deſolate and forſaken.

20 * I haue put of the clothyng of peace, and put vpon me the ſackcloth of prayer, and for my tyme, I wyl cal vpon the moſt hygheſt. Deut.4.b and.30.a. Pſal.130.a.

21 Be of good cheare, O my children, crye vnto the Lord, and he ſhal delyuer you from the power of the princes, your enimies.

22 For veryly I haue euer a good hope of your proſperous health, yea, a very gladneſſe is come vpon me from the holy one, becauſe of the mercy that ye ſhal haue of our euerlaſtyng Sauiour.

23 With mournyng and weepyng dyd I let you goe fro me: but with ioye and perpetual gladneſſe ſhal the Lorde bryng you agayne vnto me.

24 Lyke as the neyghbours of Sion ſawe your captiuitie from God: euen ſo ſhal they alſo ſee ſhortly your health in God, whiche ſhal comme on you with great honour and euerlaſtyng woorſhyp.

25 O my children, * ſuffer patiently the wrath that ſhal comme vpon you: for the enimie hath perſecuted thee, but ſhortly thou ſhalt ſee his deſtruction, & ſhalt treade vpon his necke. 2.Re.16.b.

26 My dearlynges haue gonne rough harde wayes, for they are led away as a flocke that is ſcattered abroade with the enimies.

27 But be of good comfort, O my chyldren, and crye vnto the Lorde: for he that led you away, hath you yet in remembrance.

28 And lyke as ye haue benne mynded to ſwarue from your God: * ſo ſhal ye now endeuour your ſelues ten tymes more to turne agayne, and to ſeeke hym. Eſai.60.b.

29 For he that hath brought theſe plagues vpon you, ſhal bring you euerlaſting ioy againe, with your health.

30 Take a good hart vnto thee, O Hieruſalem: foꝛ he whiche gaue thee that name, exhoꝛteth thee ſo to doo.

31 * The wicked dooers that nowe put thee to trouble, ſhal periſhe: and ſuche as haue reioyced at thy falle, ſhalbe pouniſhed. Iere.50.a. b.c.

32 The cities whom thy chyldꝛen ſerue, and that haue caried away thy ſonnes, ſhalbe coꝛrected.

33 Foꝛ lyke as they be nowe glad of thy decay, and reioyce at thy falle: ſo ſhal they mourne in theyꝛ owne deſtruction.

34 The ioy of their multitude ſhalbe taken away, and theyꝛ cheare ſhalbe turned to ſoꝛow.

35 Foꝛ a fyꝛe ſhal fal vpon them from the euerlaſtyng God long to endure, and it ſhalbe inhabited of deuils foꝛ a great ſeaſon.

36 O Hieruſalem, looke about thee toward the eaſt, and beholde the ioy that commeth vnto thee from God.

37 Foꝛ loe, thy ſonnes whom thou haſt foꝛſaken, and that were ſcattered abꝛode, comme geathered togeather from the eaſt and weaſt, reioycing in the woꝛde of the holy one, vnto the honour of God.

The.v.Chapter.

1 Hieruſalem is mooued vnto gladneſſe foꝛ the returne of her people, and vnder the figure thereof, the Churche.

A 1 PUT of thy mournyng clothes, O Hieruſalem, and thy ſoꝛow, and decke thee with the woorſhip & honour that commeth vnto thee from GOD, with euerlaſtyng gloꝛy.

2 God ſhal put the garment of ryghteouſnes vpon thee, and ſet a crowne of euerlaſtyng woorſhip vpon thyne head:

3 Foꝛ vpon thee wyl God declare his bꝛightneſſe, that is vnder the heauen.

4 Yea an euerlaſtyng name ſhalbe geuen thee of God, with peace of ryghteouſneſſe, and the honour of Gods feare.

5 Aryſe O Hieruſalem, ſtande vp on hygh, looke about thee towarde the eaſt, and beholde thy chyldꝛen geathered from the eaſt vnto the weaſt, whiche reioyce in the holy woorde, hauing God in remembꝛance.

6 They departed from thee on foote, and were led away of their enimies: but nowe ſhal the Loꝛde bꝛyng them caried with honour, as chyldꝛen of the kyngdome. B

7 Foꝛ GOD is purpoſed to bꝛyng downe al ſtout mountaynes, yea and al hygh rockes, to fille the valleys, and ſo to make them euen with the grounde, that Iſrael may be diligent to liue, vnto the honour of God.

8 The woods and al pleaſant trees, ſhal ouerſhadowe Iſrael at the commaundement of God.

9 Foꝛ hyther ſhal God bꝛing Iſrael with ioyful mirth, and in the lyght of his maieſtie, with the mercie & ryghteouſneſſe that commeth of hym ſelfe.

The.vi.Chapter.

In this chapter are the makers and mainteyners of images myghtyly confuted.

A copie of the epiſtle that Ieremie ſent vnto the Iewes, whiche were led away pꝛiſoners by the kyng of Babylon: wherein he certifieth them of the thyng that was commaunded hym of God.

A 1 BEcauſe of the ſinnes that ye haue donne agaynſt God, ye ſhalbe* led away captiue vnto Babylon, euen of Nabuchodonoſoꝛ the king of Babylon. Ier.25.a.

2 So when ye be comme into Babylon, ye ſhal remayne there many yeeres, and foꝛ a long ſeaſon, [namely] (a) ſeuen generations: and after that wyl I bꝛyng you away peaceably from thence.

(a) That is, ſeuentie yeres

3 Nowe ſhal ye ſee in Babylon, gods of gold, of ſiluer, of wood, and of ſtone, boꝛne vpon mens ſhoulders, to caſt out a fearefulneſſe befoꝛe the heathen.

4 But looke that ye doo not as the other: be not ye afrayde, and let not the feare of them ouercome you.

5 Therfoꝛe when ye ſee the multitude of people woorſhipping them behynde and befoꝛe, ſay ye in your hartes: O Loꝛde, * it is thou that oughteſt only to be woorſhipped. Deut.6.c.

6 Myne angel alſo ſhalbe with you, and I mee ſelfe wyl care foꝛ your ſoules.

7 As foꝛ the " timber of thoſe goddes, the carpenter hath publiſhed them: yea gylted be they, and layde ouer with ſiluer, yet are they but vayne thinges, and can not ſpeake. " Oꝛ, tongue.

8 Lyke as a wenche that loueth paramours B is trimly deckt: euen ſo are theſe made and hanged with golde.

9 Crownes of golde veryly haue their goddes vpon their heades: ſo the pꝛieſtes them ſelues take golde and ſiluer from them, and put it to their owne vſes:

10 Yea they geue of the ſame vnto harlottes, and trimme theyr whoores withal: agayne, they take it from the whoores, & decke their goddes therewith:

Iere.10.a. 11 * Yet can not theſe gods deliuer them ſelues from ruſt and mothes.

12 When they haue couered them with clothing of purple, they wype their faces for the duſt of the temple, whereof there is muche among them.

13 One hath a ſcepter in his hande as though he were iudge of the countrey, yet can he not ſlay ſuche as offende hym.

C 14 An other hath a ſwoorde or an axe in his hand: for al that, he is neyther hable to defend hym ſelfe from bataile, nor from murtherers.

15 By this ye may vnderſtande, that they be no goddes: therefore ſee that ye neither worſhip them, nor feare them.

16 For lyke as a veſſel that a man vſeth, is nothyng woorth when it is broken, euen ſo is it with their goddes: When they be ſet vp in the temple, theyr eyes be fulle of duſt through the feete of thoſe that comme in.

17 And lyke as the doores are ſhut in rounde about, vpon him that hath offended the king, or as it were a dead body kept beſyde the graue: Euen ſo, the prieſtes keepe the doores with barres and lockes, leſt their goddes be ſpoyled with robbers.

18 They ſet vp candels before them, yea veryly and that many, whereof they can not ſee one: but euen as blockes, ſo ſtande they in the temple.

19 It is ſayde, that the ſerpentes and woormes whiche comme of the earth, gnawe out their hartes, eating them, and their clothes alſo, and yet they feele it not.

20 Their faces are blacke, through the ſmoke that is in the temple.

D 21 The owles, ſwalowes, and byrdes flee vpon them, yea and the cattes runne ouer theyr heades.

22 By this ye may be ſure that they are not goddes, therefore feare them not.

23 The golde that they haue, is to make them beautiful: for al that, except ſome body dight of theyr ruſt, they wyl geue no ſhine, and when they were caſt into a fourme, they felt it not.

24 They are bought for money, and haue no breath of lyfe within them.

Sap.44.c. 25 * They muſt be borne vpon mens ſhoulders, as thoſe that haue no feete, wherby they declare vnto menne, that they be nothyng woorth:* confounded be they then that worſhip them. Psal.114.a.

26 For yf they falle to the ground, they can not ryſe vp agayne of them ſelues: Yea though one helpe them vp, and ſet them ryght, yet are they not hable to ſtande alone, but muſt haue proppes ſet vnder them lyke dead men.

27 As for the thyng that is offered vnto them, their prieſtes ſelle it, and abuſe it, yea the prieſtes wyues take thereof: but vnto the ſicke and poore, they geue nothing of it. E

28 The women with chylde, and the menſtruous lay handes of their offeringes: By this ye may be ſure that they are no goddes, therefore be not ye afrayde of them.

29 From whence commeth it then that they be called goddes? the women ſit before the goddes of ſiluer, golde, and wood,

30 And the prieſtes ſit in their temples, hauyng open clothes, whoſe heades and beardes are ſhauen, and haue nothyng vpon their heads,

31 Roaryng and crying vpon theyr goddes, as menne doo at the feaſte when one is dead.

32 The prieſtes alſo take away the garmentes of the images, and decke their wyues & chyldren withal.

33 Whether it be good or euil that any man doo vnto them, they are not hable to recompence it: they can neyther ſet vp a kyng, nor put hym downe.

34 In lyke manner, they may neither geue richeſſe, nor reward euil:* though a man make a vowe vnto them, and keepe it not, they wil not require it. Eccle.5.a.

35 They can ſaue no man from death, neither deliuer the weake from the myghty. F

36 They can not reſtoare a blinde man to his ſyght, nor helpe any man at his neede.

37 They can ſhewe no mercie to the wydowe, nor doo good to the fatherleſſe.

38 Their goddes of wood, ſtone, golde, and ſiluer, are but euen as other ſtones that be hewen of the mountayne: they that woorſhippe them, ſhalbe confounded.

39 Howe ſhoulde they then be taken for gods? yea, howe dare men calle them goddes?

40 And though the Chaldees woorſhipped them not, hearing that they were but dombe, and coulde not ſpeake:

41 Yet they them ſelues offer vnto Bel, and woulde faine haue hym to ſpeake: as who ſay, they coulde feele, that may not mooue.

42 But when theſe men come to vnderſtandyng, they ſhal forſake them, for their gods haue no feelyng.

43 A great ſort of women girde with coardes, ſit in the ſtreetes, and burne " Oliue beries: " Or, [illegible]
Now yf one of them be conueyed away, & lie with

with ſuche as come by, ſhe caſteth her neighbours in the teeth, becauſe ſhe was not woorthyly reputed, nor her coarde broken.

44 What ſo euer is donne for them, it is but in vayne and loſt: How may it then be thought or ſayde, that they are goddes?

45 Carpenters and goldeſmithes make them: neither be they any other thyng, but euen what the woorkemen wyl make of them.

46 Yea the goldſmiths them ſelues that make them, are of no long continuance: howe ſhoulde then the thynges that are made of them, be goddes?

47 Vayne therefore are the thynges, yea very ſhame is it that they leaue behynde them for their poſteritie.

48 For as ſoone as there commeth any warre or plague vpon them, then the prieſtes imagine where they may hyde them ſelues with them.

49 Howe can menne thynke then that they be goddes, whiche neither may defende them ſelues from warre, nor deliuer them from miſfortune?

50 For ſeeyng they be but of wood, of ſtone, of ſiluer, and of golde, al people and kynges ſhal knowe hereafter, that they be but vayne thynges: yea it ſhalbe openly declared that they be no goddes, but euen the very woorkes of mens handes, and that God hath nothing to doo with them.

51 It is manifeſt then that they are no goddes, but the woorkes of mennes handes, and no woorke of God in them.

52 They can ſet no kyng in the lande, nor geue raine vnto menne.

53 They can geue no ſentence of a matter, neyther defende the lande from wrong: for they are not hable to doo ſo muche, as a crowe that fleeth betwixt heauen and earth.

54 When there happeneth a fyre into the houſe of thoſe goddes of wood, and ſiluer, and of golde, the prieſtes wyl eſcape and ſaue them ſelues, but the goddes burne as the balkes therein.

55 They can not withſtande any kyng or battayle: how may it then be thought or graunted that they be goddes?

56 Moreouer, theſe goddes of wood, of ſtone, of golde and ſiluer, may neither defende them ſelues from theeues nor robbers:

57 Yea the very wicked are ſtronger then they: theſe ſtrippe them out of their apparel that they be clothed withal, theſe take their golde and ſiluer from them, & ſo geat them away, yet can they not helpe them ſelues.

58 Therefore it is muche better for a man to be a kyng, and ſo to ſhewe his power, or els a profitable veſſel in a houſe, wherein he that oweth it, myght haue pleaſure, yea or to be a doore in a houſe, to keepe ſuche thynges ſafe, as be therein: then to be ſuche a vayne god.

59 The ſunne, the moone, and al the ſtarres, ſeeing they geue their ſhine and lyght, are obedient, and doo men good.

60 When the lightnyng gliſtreth, al is cleare.

61 The winde bloweth in euery countrey: and when god commaundeth the cloudes to goe rounde about the whole worlde, they doo as they are bidden.

62 When the fyre is ſent downe from aboue and commaunded, it burneth vp hilles and woodes: but as for thoſe goddes, they are not lyke one of theſe thynges, neither in beauty, neither in ſtrength.

63 Wherefore, men ſhoulde not thynke nor ſay that they be goddes, ſeeing they can neither geue ſentence in iudgement, nor doo menne good.

64 Forſomuche nowe as ye are ſure that they be no goddes, then feare them not:

65 For they can neither ſpeake euyl nor good of kynges.

66 They can ſhewe no tokens in heauens for the heathen, neyther ſhine as the ſunne, nor geue lyght as the moone:

67 Yea ȳ vnreaſonable beaſtes are better then they: for they can geat them vnder the roofe, and doo them ſelues good.

68 So can ye be certified by no manner of meanes that they be goddes, therefore feare them not.

69 For lyke as a ſcarrowe in a gardine of hearbes keepeth nothyng: euen ſo are their goddes of wood, of ſiluer, and golde.

70 And lyke as a whyte thorne in an orcharde, that euery byrde ſitteth vpon, yea lyke as a dead body that is caſt in the darke: euen ſo is it with thoſe goddes of wood, ſiluer, & golde.

71 By the purple and ſcarlet, which they haue vpon them, and ſoone fadeth away, ye may vnderſtande that they be no goddes: yea they them ſelues ſhal be conſumed at the laſt, whiche ſhalbe a great confuſion of the lande.

72 Bleſſed is the godly man that hath no images, and woorſhippeth none: for he ſhalbe farre from reproofe.

The ende of the prophete Baruch, whiche is not in the Canon of the Hebrue.

The ſong of the three chyldren, which were put into the hot burnyng ouen. The common tranſlation readeth this ſong in the thirde Chapter of Daniel.

25 The prayer of Azarias. 46 The crueltie of the kyng. 48 The flambe deuoureth the Chaldeans. 49 The angel of the Lorde was in the fornace. 51 The three chyldren prayſe the Lorde, and prouoke al creatures to the ſame.

24 AND they walked in the middeſt of yͤ flambe, prayſing God, & magnifiyng the Lorde.

25 Then Azarias ſtoode vp, and prayed on this maner: euen in the myddeſt of the fyre opened he his mouth, and ſayde,

26 Bleſſed be thou, O Lorde God of our fathers, ryght woorthy to be prayſed and honoured, is that name of thyne for euermore:

E 27 For thou art ryghteous in al the thynges that thou haſt donne to vs, yea faythful are al thy woorkes, thy wayes are ryght, and al thy iudgementes true.

28 In al the thynges that thou haſt brought vpon vs, and vpon the holy citie of our fathers, euen Hieruſalem, thou haſt executed true iudgement: yea accordyng to ryght and equitie haſt thou brought al theſe thynges vpon vs, becauſe of our ſinnes.

29 For why? we haue offended, & donne wickedly, departing from thee.

Dani.9.c. 30 *In al thinges haue we treſpaſſed, and not obeyed thy commaundementes, nor kepte them, neither donne as thou haſt bidden vs, that we may proſper.

Baruc.3.b. 31 *Wherefore al that thou haſt brought vpon vs, and euery thyng that thou haſt donne to vs, thou haſt donne them in true iudgement:

32 As in deliuering vs into the handes of our enimies, among vngodly and wicked abominations, and to an vnryghteous kyng, yea the moſt frowarde vpon earth.

33 And nowe we may not open our mouthes, we are become a ſhame and reproofe vnto thy ſeruantes, and to them that woorſhippe thee.

F 34 Yet for thy names ſake [we beſeche thee] geue vs not vp for euer, breake not thy couenant,

35 And take not away thy mercie from vs for thy beloued Abrahams ſake, for thy ſeruant Iſahacks ſake, and for thy holy Iſraels ſake:

36 To whom thou haſt ſpoken, and promiſed, *that thou wouldeſt multiplie their ſeede as the ſtarres of heauen, and as the ſande that lyeth vpon the ſea ſhoare. Gen.15.c. Deut.10.d

37 For we, O Lorde, are become leſſe then any people, and be kept vnder this day in al the worlde, becauſe of our ſinnes.

38 So that now, we haue neither prince, duke, prophete, burnt offering, ſacrifice, oblation, incenſe, nor ſanctuarie before thee.

39 Neuertheleſſe in a contrite hart, and an humble ſpirite, let vs be receiued, that we may obteyne thy mercie.

40 Lyke as in the burnt offering of rammes, and bullockes, and lyke as in thouſandes of fat lambes: ſo let our offering be in thy ſyght this day, that it may pleaſe thee: *for there is no confuſion vnto them that put theyr truſt in thee. 1.Pet.2.a. Rom.10.c. Eſai.28.d. Rom.9.g.

41 And now we folowe thee with al our hart, we feare thee, and ſeeke thy face.

42 Put vs not to ſhame: but deale with vs after thy louyng kyndneſſe, and accordyng to the multitude of thy mercies. G

43 Deliuer vs by thy myracles, O Lorde, and geat thy name an honour: that al they which doo thy ſeruantes euyl, may be confounded:

44 Let them be aſhamed through thy almighty power, & let their ſtrength be broken:

45 That they may know, howe that thou onely art the Lorde God, and honour woorthy throughout al the worlde.

46 And the kinges ſeruantes that put them in, ceaſſed not to make the ouen hotte with [a] wylde fyre, drye ſtrawe, pitche, towe, and fagottes:

47 So that the flambe went out of the ouen, vpon a fourtie and nine cubites:

48 Yea it tooke away, & brent vp thoſe Chaldees that it gate holde vpon beſide the ouen.

49 But the angel of the Lorde came downe into the ouen to Azaria and his felowes, and ſmote the flambe of the fyre out of the ouen,

50 And made the middes of the ouen as it had benne a colde winde blowyng: ſo the fyre neither touched them, greeued them, nor dyd them hurt.

51 Then theſe three, as out of one mouth, prayſed,

(a) whiche is called Naphtha, which is a certayne kind of fat and chalkie clay.

ſed, honoured, and bleſſed God in the fornace, ſayeing,

Pſal.72.c. 53 * Bleſſed be the holy name of thy glory: for it is woorthy to be prayſed and magnified in al worldes.

54 Bleſſed be thou in the holy temple of thy glory: for aboue al thynges thou art to be prayſed, yea and more then woorthy to be magnified for euer.

55 Bleſſed be thou in the throne of thy kyngdome: for aboue al, thou art woorthy to be wel ſpoken of, and to be more then magnified for euer.

56 Bleſſed be thou that lookeſt through the deepe, and ſitteſt vpon the Cherubims: for thou art woorthy to be prayſed, and aboue al to be magnified for euer.

57 Bleſſed be thou in the firmament of heauen: for thou art prayſe and honour woorthy for euer.

58 O al ye woorkes of the Lord, ſpeake good of the Lorde: prayſe hym, and ſet hym vp for euer.

82 O al ye beaſtes and catayle, ſpeake good of the Lord: prayſe him, and ſet him vp for euer.

83 O ye children of menne, ſpeake good of the Lord: prayſe him, and ſet him vp for euer.

84 O let Iſrael ſpeake good of the lord: praiſe hym, and ſet hym vp for euer.

85 O ye prieſtes of the Lorde, ſpeake good of the Lord: praiſe him, and ſet him vp for euer.

86 * O ye ſeruantes of the Lorde, ſpeake good of the Lorde: prayſe hym, and ſet him vp for euer. Pſal.113.a.

87 O ye ſpirites and ſoules of the ryghteous, ſpeake good of the Lorde: prayſe him, and ſet hym vp for euer.

88 O ye holy and humble men of hart, ſpeake ye good of the Lorde: prayſe him, and ſet him vp for euer.

89 O Anania, Azaria, and Miſael, ſpeake ye good of the Lord, prayſe ye hym, and ſet him vp for euer: * Whiche hath deliuered vs from the hel, kept vs from the hand of death, ridde vs from the middeſt of the burnyng flambe, and ſaued vs euen in the middeſt of the fyre. Iere.20.c.

90 * O geue thankes therefore vnto the Lord, for he is kinde harted, and his mercie endureth for euer. Pſal.117.a.

91 O al deuoute menne, ſpeake ye good of the Lorde, the God of al goddes: O prayſe hym, and geue hym thankes, for his mercie endureth worlde without ende.

The ſtory of Suſanna, whiche is the thirteenth Chapter of Daniel after the Latine.

8 The two gouerners are taken with the loue of Suſanna. 19 They take her alone in the gardine. 20 They ſolicite her to wickedneſſe. 23 She chooſeth rather to obey God, though it be to the danger of her lyfe. 34 She is accuſed. 45 Daniel dooth deliuer her. 62 The gouernours are put to death.

A 1 There dwelt a man in Babylon, called Ioacim,

2 That tooke a wife whoſe name was Suſanna, yͤ daughter of Helcia, a very fayre woman, and ſuche one as feared God.

3 Her father and her mother alſo were good people, and taught their daughter accordyng to the lawe of Moſes.

4 Now Ioacim [her huſbande] was a great riche man, and had a faire Orcharde ioyning vnto his houſe: & to him reſorted the Iewes commonly, becauſe he was a man of reputation among them.

5 The ſame yeere were there made two iudges, ſuche as the Lord ſpeaketh of. The wickedneſſe of Babylon commeth from the elders [that is,] from the iudges whiche ſeeme to rule the people.

6 Theſe came oft to Ioacims houſe: and al ſuche as had any thing to doo in the lawe, came thyther vnto them.

7 Nowe when the people departed away at noone, Suſanna went into her huſoandes Orcharde to walke.

B 8 The two elders ſeeing this, that ſhe went in dayly and walked, they burned for luſt to her.

9 Yea, they were almoſt out of their wittes, and caſt downe their eyes, that they ſhoulde not ſee heauen, nor remember that God is a ryghteous iudge.

10 For they were both wounded with the loue of her, neither durſt one ſhewe another his griefe:

11 And for ſhame they durſt not tel her their inordinate luſt, that they would faine haue had to doo with her:

12 Yet they layed wayte for her earneſtly from day to day, that they might [at the leaſt] haue a ſyght of her.

13 And the one ſayde to the other, Up, let vs goe home, for it is dinner time. So they went their way one from another.

C 14 When they returned agayne, they came togeather, enquiring out the matter betwixt them ſelues, yea the one tolde the other of his wicked luſt: Then appoynted they a tyme when they myght take Suſanna alone.

15 It happened alſo, that they ſpied out a conuenient time, when ſhe went forth to walke, as her manner was, and no body with her, but two maydens, and thought * to waſhe her ſelfe in yͤ gardine: for it was an hot ſeaſon. Exod.2.c.

16 And there was not one perſon there, except the two elders that had hid them ſelues to beholde her.

17 So ſhe ſaid to her maydens, Goe fetch mee oyle and ſope, and ſhut the Orcharde doore, that I may waſhe me.

18 And they did as ſhe bad them, & ſhut the Orcharde doore, and went out them ſelues at a backe doore, to featch the thyng that ſhe had commaunded: " but Suſanna knewe not that the elders lay there hyd within.

" Or, but they ſawe not the elders, becauſe they were hyd.

19 Nowe when the maydens were gonne foorth, the two elders gate them vp, & ranne vpon her, ſayeing,

20 Nowe the Orcharde doores are ſhut, that no man can ſee vs, we haue a luſt vnto thee, therefore conſent vnto vs, and lye with vs:

D 21 If thou wylt not, we ſhal bryng a teſtimonial agaynſt thee, that there was a young felowe with thee, & that thou haſt ſent away thy maidens from thee for the ſame cauſe.

22 Suſanna ſighed, and ſayde, Alas, I am in trouble on euery ſide: though I folowe your minde, it wyl be my death: and yf I conſent not vnto you, I can not eſcape your handes.

23 Wel, it is better for me to fal into your hand, without the deede doing, then to ſinne in the ſyght of the Lorde.

24 And with that ſhe cryed out with a loude voyce: the elders alſo cryed out agaynſt her.

25 Then ranne there one to the Orchard doore, and ſmote it open.

26 Now when the ſeruantes of the houſe heard the crye in the Orchard, they ruſhed in at the backe doore, to ſee what the matter was.

27 So when the elders told them, the ſeruants were greatly aſhamed: for why? there was neuer ſuche a report made of Suſanna.

28 On the morowe after, came the people to Ioacim her huſbande, & the two elders came alſo, alſo ful of miſcheeuous imaginatiōs againſt Suſanna, to bryng her vnto death,

XUM

29 And ſpake thus before yͤ people: Send for Suſanna yͤ daughter of Helchias, Ioacims wyfe. And immediatly they ſent for her.

30 So ſhe came, with her father, and mother, her chyldren, and al her kinred.

31 Now Suſanna was a tender perſon, and marueylous fayre of face.

32 Therfore the wycked menne commaunded to take her clothes from her face (for ſhe was couered) that at the leaſt they might ſo be ſatiſfied in her beautie.

33 Then her freendes, yea, and al they that knewe her, beganne to weepe.

E 34 Theſe two Elders ſtoode vp in the midſt of the people, *and layde theyr handes vpon the head of Suſanna,

Leui.24.c

35 Which weapt, and looked vp toward heauen: for her hart had a ſure truſt in the Lorde.

26 And the Elders ſayd, As we were walking in the Orchard alone, this woman came in with her two maydens, whom ſhe ſent away from her, & ſparred the Orchard doores:

37 With that a young felowe whiche there was hid, came vnto her, and lay with her.

38 As for vs, we ſtoode in a corner of the Orcharde: and when we ſaw this wickedneſſe, we ranne to them, and we ſaw them as they were togeather.

39 But we could not holde hym, for he was ſtronger then we. Thus he opened the doore, and gate hym away.

40 Now when we had taken this woman, we aſked her what young felowe this was, but ſhe would not tel vs. This is the matter, and we be witneſſes of the ſame.

F 41 The common ſort beleued them, as thoſe that were the Elders and Iudges of the people, and ſo they condemned her to death.

42 Suſanna cryed out with a loude voyce, and ſayd, O euerlaſting God, *thou ſearcher of ſecretes, thou that knoweſt al thinges before they comme to paſſe:

Hebr.4.c.

43 Thou wotteſt that they haue borne falſe witneſſe againſt me, and behold, I muſt dye, wheras I neuer did any ſuch things as theſe men haue maliciouſly inuented agaynſt me.

44 And the Lorde heard her voyce.

45 For when ſhe was led foorth to death, the Lorde rayſed vp the ſpirite of a young childe, whoſe name was Daniel,

46 Whiche cryed with a loude voyce, *I am cleane from this blood.

2.Reg.3.f.

47 Then al the people turned towarde hym, and ſayde, What meane theſe woordes that thou haſt ſpoken?

48 Daniel ſtoode in the middeſt of them, and ſayde, Are ye ſuche fooles, O ye chyldren of Iſrael, that ye can not diſcerne nor know the trueth? ye haue here condemned a daughter of Iſrael vnto death, & know not the trueth wherefore.

49 Goe ſit in iudgement agayne: for they haue ſpoken falſe witneſſe agaynſt her.

50 Wherefore, the people turned agayne in al the haſte: and the Elders [that is the principal heades] ſayde vnto hym: Comme ſit downe here among vs, and ſhewe vs this matter, ſeeing God hath geuen thee as great honour as an Elder. G

51 And Daniel ſayde vnto them, *Put theſe two aſide one from an other, and then ſhal I examine them.

2.Reg.3.d.

52 When they were put aſunder one from an other, he called one of them, and ſayd vnto hym, O thou olde cankarde carle, that haſte vſed thy wyckedneſſe ſo long, thyne vngratious deedes whiche thou haſte donne afore, are now comme to lyght.

53 For thou haſt geuen falſe iudgements, thou haſt oppreſſed the innocent, & letten the giltie goe free: wheras yet the Lord ſayeth, *The innocent and ryghteous ſee thou ſlay not.

Exod.23.a.

54 Wel then, if thou haſt ſeene her, tel me vnder what tree ſaweſt thou them companiyng togeather? He anſweared: vnder a "Mulbery tree.

"Or, a Lentiſke tree.

55 And Daniel ſayde, Very wel, now thou lieſt euen vpon thyne head: loe, the meſſenger of the lord hath receiued the ſentence of hym, to cut thee in two.

56 Then put he hym aſyde, and called for the other, and ſayde vnto hym, O thou ſeede of Chanaan, but not of Iuda, faireneſſe hath deceiued thee, & luſt hath ſubuerted thyne hart.

57 Thus dealt ye afore with the daughters of Iſrael, and they for feare conſented vnto you: but the daughter of Iuda woulde not abyde your wyckedneſſe.

58 Now tel me then, Under what tree dyddeſt thou take them companiyng togeather? He anſweared, Under a "Pomegranate tree.

"Or, a prune tree, or a mirtle tree.

59 Then ſayde Daniel vnto hym, Very wel, now thou lyeſt alſo euen vpon thyne head: the meſſenger of the Lord ſtandeth wayting with the ſworde to cut thee in two, and ſlaye you both.

60 With that, al the whole multitude gaue a great ſhout, and prayſed God *which alway deliuereth them that put their truſt in hym.

Pſal.17.a.

61 And they came vpon the two elders, whom Daniel had conuict with their owne mouth, that they had geuen falſe witneſſe.

62 And dealt with them euen lykewyſe as they woulde haue donne with their neyghbours, yea they dyd * accordyng to the law of Moſes, and put them to death: Thus the innocent blood was ſaued the ſame day.

Deu.19.d.

63 Then Helcias and his wyfe prayſed God for their daughter Suſanna, with Joacim her huſbande, and al the kinred, that there was no diſhoneſtie founde in her.

64 From that day foorth was Daniel had in great reputation in the ſyght of the people.

65 And kyng Aſtyages was layde with his fathers, and Cyrus of Perſia raigned in his ſteede.

The ende of the ſtory of Suſanna.

The ſtory of Bel and the Dragon, whiche is the fourtienth Chapter of Daniel after the Latine.

A 1 Daniel dyd eate at the kynges table, & was hadde in reuerence aboue al his freendes.

2 There was at Babylon an image called Bel, & there were ſpent (a) vpon hym euery day (b) twelue cakes, fourtie ſheepe, and ſixe great (c) pottes of wine.

(a) Of Bel & the meate geuen to hym, whiche the prieſtes deuoured.
(b) Or twelue great meaſures of fine floure, called Artaba, whereof euery one conteyned ſomewhat more then nine gallons, which maketh in al an hundred and eyght galons at the leaſt.
(c) Called Metreta, and euery one of theſe conteyned about ten galons, which in al maketh lx. galons.

3 Hym dyd the king woorſhip hym ſelfe, and went dayly to honour hym, but Daniel woorſhipped his owne God: And the kyng ſayd vnto hym, Why dooeſt not thou woorſhip Bel?

4 He anſwered, and ſayde,* Becauſe I may not woorſhippe thinges that be made with handes, but the liuing GOD whiche made heauen and earth, and hath power vpon al fleaſhe.

5 The king ſaide vnto him, Thinkeſt thou not that Bel is a liuing God? or ſeeſt thou not howe muche he eateth and drynketh euery day?

6 Daniel ſmiled, and ſaide, O kyng, deceiue not thee ſelfe: for this is but made of clay within, and of braſſe without,* neither eateth he euer any thyng.

Eccle.30.c

7 Then the king was wroth, and called for his prieſtes, and ſaid vnto them, If ye tel me not who is this that eateth vp theſe expences, ye ſhal dye:

B 8 But yf ye can certifie me that Bel eateth them, then Daniel ſhal dye: for he hath ſpoken blaſphemie agaynſt Bel. And Daniel ſayde vnto the kyng, Let it ſo be, accordyng as thou haſt ſayde.

9 The prieſtes of Bel were threeſcore & tenne, beſides their wyues & children: And the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel.

10 So Bels prieſtes ſaide, Loe, we wyl goe out: and ſet thou the meate there, O kyng, & poure in the wine, then ſhut the doore faſte, and ſeale it with thyne owne ſignet:

11 And to morowe when thou commeſt in, yf thou fyndeſt not that Bel hath eaten vp al, we wyl ſuffer death: or els Daniel, that hath lyed vpon vs.

12 The prieſtes thought them ſelues ſure ynough: for vnder the * aulter they had made a priuie entrance, and there went they in euer, and dyd eate vp what there was.

* Or, table.

13 So when they were gonne foorth, the king ſet meates before Bel: Nowe Daniel hadde commaunded his ſeruantes to bryng aſſhes, and theſe he * ſifted throughout al the temple, that the kyng myght ſee: then went they out, and ſparred the doore, ſealing it with the kynges ſignet, and ſo departed.

* Or, ſtrawed.

C 14 In the nyght came the prieſtes, with their wyues and chyldren, as they were woont to doo, and dyd eate and drinke vp al.

15 In the mornyng betimes at the breake of the day, the kyng aroſe, & Daniel with him.

16 And the kyng ſayde, Daniel, are the ſeales whole yet? He anſwered, Yea, O king, they be whole.

17 Now as ſoone as he had opened the doore, the king looked vnto the * aulter, and cryed with a loude voyce, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceite.

* Or, table.

18 Then laughed Daniel, and helde the king that he ſhoulde not goe in, and ſayde, Behold the pauement, marke wel whoſe footeſteps are theſe?

19 The kyng ſayde, I ſee the footeſteppes of menne, women, and chyldren.

20 Therefore the kyng was angry, and tooke the prieſtes, with their wiues and chyldren: & they ſhewed hym the priuie doores where they came in, and dyd eate vp ſuche thinges as were vpon the aulter:

D 21 For the whiche cauſe the kyng ſlue them, * and deliuered Bel into Daniels power, whiche deſtroyed hym and his temple.

Eſai.46.a.

22 And in that ſame place there was a great Dragon, whiche they of Babylon woorſhipped.

23 And yͤ king ſaid vnto Daniel, Sayeſt thou that this is but a God of braſſe alſo? Loe, he lyueth, he eateth and drynketh, ſo that thou canſt not ſay that he is no lyuing God: therefore woorſhyp hym.

24 Daniel ſaide vnto the kyng, I wil woorſhyp the Lord my God,*he is the true liuing God: as for this, he is not the God of lyfe.

25 But geue me leaue, O king, and I ſhal deſtroy this Dragon without ſworde or ſtaffe. The kyng ſayde, I geue thee leaue.

26 Then Daniel tooke pitche, fat, and hearye wool, and did ſeeth them togeather, & made lumpes thereof: this he put in the Dragons mouth, and ſo the Dragon burſte in ſunder. And Daniel ſayde, Loe, there is he whom ye woorſhipped.

27 When they of Babylon heard that, they tooke great indignation, and geathered them togeather agaynſt yͤ king, ſayeing, The king is becomme a Iewe, and he hath deſtroyed Bel, he hath ſlayne the Dragon, and put the prieſtes to death.

28 So they came to the kyng, and ſayde, Let vs haue Daniel, or els we wyl deſtroy thee and thyne houſe.

29 Nowe when the kyng ſawe that they ruſhed in ſo ſoare vpon hym, and that neceſſitie conſtrayned hym, * he delyuered Daniel vnto them: Dani.6.c.

30 Whiche caſte hym into the Lions denne, where he was ſixe dayes.

31 In the denne there were ſeuen Lions, and they had geuen them euery day two bodyes, and two ſheepe: whiche then were not geuen them, to the intent that they myght deuoure Daniel.

32 There was in Iurie a Prophet called Habacuc, whiche had made potage, and broken bread in a boule, & was goyng into the feelde, for to bryng it to the reapers.

F 33 But the angel of the Lord ſayd vnto Habacuc, Goe cary yͤ meat that thou haſt, into Babilon vnto Daniel, which is in yͤ lions denne.

34 And Habacuc ſaid, Lord, I neuer ſaw Babylon, and as for the denne, I know it not.

35 *Then the angel of the Lord tooke hym by the top, and bare him by the hear of the head, and through a myghtie wynde ſet hym in Babylon vpon the denne. Eze.8.a.

36 And Habacuc cried, ſaying, O Daniel*thou ſeruant of God, haue, take the " breakfaſte that God hath ſent thee. 3.Reg.17.a " Or, dinner.

37 And Daniel ſaid, O god, haſt thou thought vpon me? wel, thou neuer fayleſt them that loue thee.

38 So Daniel aroſe, and dyd eate. And the angel of the lord ſet Habacuc in his owne place agayne immediatly.

39 Uppon the ſeuenth day, the kyng went to beweape Daniel: and when he came to the dennne, he looked in, and beholde, Daniel ſate [in the middeſt of the Lions.]

40 Then cried yͤ king with a loud voice, ſayeing, Great art thou, O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other beſides thee. G

41 *And he drew hym out of the lions denne, and caſte thoſe that were the cauſe of his deſtruction into the denne, and they were deuoured in a moment before his face. Iere.37.b.

42 After this, wrote yͤ king vnto al people, kindreds & tongues, that dwelt in al countries,

43 Sayeing, Peace be multiplied with you: My commaundement is in al the dominion of my realme, that menne feare and ſtand in awe of Daniels God, for he is yͤ lyuing God, whiche endureth euer.

44 His kingdome abideth vncorrupt, and his power is euerlaſtyng:

45 It is he that can deliuer and ſaue, he doeth wonders and marueilous workes in heauen and in earth: for he hath ſaued Daniel from the power of the Lions.

¶ The prayer of Manaſſes king of Iuda, when he was holden captiue in Babylon.

O Lorde almightie, God of our fathers, Abraham, Iſaac, and Iacob, and of the ryghteous ſeede of them: whiche haſt made heauen and earth, with al the ornament thereof, whiche haſt " ordeyned the ſea by the woorde of thy commaundement, whiche haſte ſhut vp the deepe, and haſt ſealed it for thy fearful and laudable name, whiche al menne feare, and tremble before the face of thy power, and not for the anger of thy threatning, the whiche is importable to ſinners, but the mercie of thy promiſe is great, and vnſearchable: for thou art the Lorde God moſt hygh aboue al the earth, long ſuffering, and exceedyng merciful, and repentant vpon the malice of menne: Thou Lorde after thy goodneſſe haſt promyſed repentance of the remiſſion of ſinnes, and thou that art the God of the ryghteous, haſt not put repentance to the ryghteous Abraham, Iſaac, and Iacob, vnto them that haue not ſinned agaynſt thee: but becauſe I haue ſinned aboue the number of the ſandes of the ſea, and that myne iniquities are multiplied, I am " humbled with many bandes of iron, and there is in me no breathing, I haue prouoked thine anger, and haue donne euil before thee, in committing abominations, and multiplying offences: And nowe I bowe the knees of my hart, requyring goodnes of thee, O Lord. I haue ſinned Lord, I haue ſinned, and know myne iniquitie, I deſyre thee by prayer, O Lord forgeue me, forgeue me, and deſtroy me not with myne iniquities, neither do thou alwayes remember myne euils to puniſhe them: but ſaue me (whiche am vnworthy) after thy great mercie, and I wil prayſe thee euerlaſtingly al the dayes of my lyfe: for al the power of heauen prayſeth thee, and vnto thee belongeth glory, worlde without ende. Amen.

" Or, bounde the ſea.

" Or, croked,

¶ A neceſſary Table for the knowledge of the ſtate of Iuda, from the begynnyng of the Monarchie of the Grekes, (where the Table that we haue ſet foorth vpon Eſdras endeth) vntil the death and paſſion of Ieſus Chriſte.

¶ The.70.weekes foreſhewed, Daniel.9.

The angel of the Lorde ſent to Daniel, ſaid that it was.70.weekes of yeeres, that is to ſay.70. times ſeuen, which commeth to.490.from the geuing foorth of the commaundement, that Hieruſalem ſhould be buylded agayne & reſtoared, vntil Chriſte the prince. This commaundement was geuen foorth, by the mouth of Darius longhand, monarche of the Perſians, the yeere of his raigne, as it is written in Nehemias.2. Therefore the ſaid.70. weekes ought to beginne there, though al agree not therein: for ſome beginne it in the.2. yeere of the ſaid Darius: other the firſt yeere of Cyrus. So that from the begynnyng of the ſaide weekes, til the time that Alexander vſurped yͤ monarchie, we recken.4.yeeres and.18. weekes. whiche maketh.130.yeeres. To ſhewe the verifiyng of the ſaid weekes, according to the aforeſaid prophecie of Daniel the.9. we wyl proportion them with the yeeres in whiche the kinges of Syria (ſet here in order on the right ſide) haue ended their kyngdome, eche of them in order.

¶ The Monarchie of the Grekes.

Alexander the great, ſonne to Philip kyng of Macedonia, conquered the monarchie of the Perſians from Darius, the.192.yeere of Cyrus the firſt monarchie, and tranſported it to the Grekes: he raigned.6. whole yeeres, and the ſeuenth dyed, leauing diuers ſucceſſours, to whom he diuided the ſaide monarchie before his death. That is, the kingdomes of Syria, Aſia, Egypt, and Macedonia. VVe wyl here treate of his ſucceſſours, the kinges of Syria only, becauſe the Scripture maketh mention therof, and maketh the ſupputation of the yeeres, by the time that the ſaide kinges raigned, beginnyng at the firſt: as appeareth in the firſt booke of Machabees. And we wyl orderly ſet their names, and the time that ech of them hath raigned, to conferre them with the number of the weekes, placed on the leaft ſide of this table, to the ende that the ſayde weekes may be verified, and that the prophecie of Daniel may be plainely vnderſtoode, touching the commyng and death of our Sauiour Chriſte.

¶ The ſtate of the Iewes.

¶ After the people of the Lord were deliuered from the captiuitie of Babylon by Cyrus, and returned vnto their land vnder the conduct of Zorobabel, there was no more name of king in Iuda, but of prince and gouernour: which were for the moſt part of the line of Iuda, and are theſe that folowe.

		The yeeres of the gouernement of eche gouernour.
1	Zorobabel raigned.38. yeeres.	38
2	Reſa Meſyllam.66. yeeres.	66
3	Ioanna Ben-reſa.53. yeeres.	53
4	Iudas Hyrcanus.14.yeeres.	14
	Al whiche tyme amounteth to.191.yeeres that the monarchie of the Perſians dured.
5	Ioſeph was gouernour the firſt yeere of Alexander the great, and raigned.7.yeeres, in his tyme the ſayde Alexander had the temple and ſacrifice in great honour.	7
6	Abner Semei ruled with Ioſeph, and raigned 11. yeeres. In his tyme Ptolome the firſt king of Egypt after Alexander, tooke Hieruſalem by deceit, ſpoyled the temple, & caryed a great number of the people into Egypt.	11
7	Mathathias Heli, gouerned twelue yeeres.	12
8	Aſer Maath, gouerned nine yeeres.	9
9	Nagid Arpharat raigned tenne yeeres. In his tyme Eleazer the hygh prieſt, ſent the.70. interpreters to Ptolome Philadelphe, the ſecond kyng of Egypt, and ſonne to the aforeſayde Ptolome, to tranſlate the holy ſcripture out of Hebrue into Greke: and the ſayde Ptolome deliuered al the Iewes that his father had holden captiue.	10
10	Agar Eli ſucceeded hym, and raigned eyght yeeres.	8

The firſt booke of the Machabees.

The fyrſt Chapter.

1 After the death of Alexander the kyng of Macedonia. 11 Antiochus taketh the kingdome. 12 Many of the chyldren of Iſrael make couenant with the Gentiles. 21 Antiochus ſubdueth Egypt and Hieruſalem vnto his dominion, 43 Hieruſalem beyng burnt, they make lawes of their owne, and forbid to keepe Gods lawes. 50 Antiochus ſetteth vp an idol ouer the aulter of God.

A 1 After that Alexander kyng of Macedonia ſon of Philip, went foorth of yͤ land of ˝ Cethim, & (a) ſlewe Darius kyng of the Perſians, and Medes, & raigned for hym as he had donne before in Grecia:

˝ Or, Chetſim.

(a) The fyrſt battayle with the Carthaginences, was fought at this tyme.

2 It happened that he tooke great warres in hande, wanne very many ſtrong cities, and ſlue many kynges of the earth,

3 Goeing through to the endes of the worlde, and geatting many ſpoyles of the people, inſomuche that the whole world ſtood in awe of hym, * and therefore was he proude in his hart.

Indith.1.b

4 (b) Nowe when he had geathered a mightie ſtrong hoſt,

(b) The begynnyng of the kyngdome of Egypt.

5 And ſubdued the landes and people with theyr princes, ſo that they became tributaries vnto hym,

6 Then he fel ſicke, and when he perceiued that he muſt needes dye,

B 7 He called for his noble eſtates, whiche had ben brought vp with him of children, *and parted his kyngdome among them, whyle he was yet alyue.

Daniel.7.a

8 So Alexander raigned twelue yeeres, and then dyed.

9 (c) After his death fel the kyngdome vnto his princes, and they obteyned it euery one in his roome,

(c) The begynnyng of the kyngdome of Syria.

10 And cauſed them ſelues to be crowned as kynges: and ſo dyd their chyldren after them many yeeres, and muche wickedneſſe increaſed in the worlde.

11 Out of theſe came the vngratious roote, ˝ noble Antiochus, the ſonne of Antiochus the kyng, *whiche had benne a pledge at Rome: and he raigned in the hundred thirtie and ſeuen yeere of the empire of the Greekes.

˝ Or, Epiphanes.

1.Mac.8.a

12 (d) In thoſe dayes went there out of Iſrael wycked menne, whiche moued muche people with theyr counſel, ſayeing, *Let vs goe and make a couenant with the Heathen that are rounde about vs: *for ſince we departed from them, we haue had muche ſorowe.

(d) The beginning of the kyngdome of the Parthians.

Deut.7.a.

Iere.44.c.

C 13 So this deuiſe pleaſed them wel,

14 (e) And certaine of the people tooke vpon them for to goe vnto the kyng, whiche gaue them licence to doo after the ordinance of the Heathen.

(e) Ioſephus. Lib. 12. cap. 6.

15 * (f) Then ſet they vp an open ſchoole at Hieruſalem of the lawes of the Heathen:

(f) The wycked fal headlong into miſcheefe.

15 (g) And made them ſelues vncircumcized, but forſooke the holy teſtament, and ioyned them ſelues to the Heathen, *and were cleane ſolde to doo miſchiefe.

(g) Epiphanius libro de ponderibus et menſuris, ſayeth, that it was by drawing the ſkin ouer that part, that was circumciſed.

17 So when Antiochus began to be myghtie in his kyngdome, he went about to obteyne the lande of Egypt alſo, that he myght haue the dominion of two realmes.

18 Vppon this entred he into Egypt with a ſtrong hoſt, with charets, Elephantes, horſemen, and a great number of ſhyppes,

1.Mac.5.a.

19 (h) And began to warre agaynſt Ptolome the kyng of Egypt: But Ptolome was afrayde of hym, and fled, and many of his people were wounded to death.

(h) The ſecond battayle with the Carthaginences.

D 20 Thus Antiochus wanne many ſtrong cities, and tooke away great good out of the lande of Egypt.

21 And after that Antiochus had ſmitten Egypt, he turned agayne in the hundred fourtie and three yeere, and went toward Iſrael,

1.Mac.5.e.

22 And came vp to Hieruſalem, with a mightie people,

23 And entred proudly into the ſanctuarie, and tooke awaye the golden aulter, the candleſticke, and al the ornamentes therof, the table of the ſhewbread, the pouryng veſſels, the chargers, the golden ſpoones, the vayle, the crownes, and golden apparel of the temple, brake downe al in peeces.

24 He tooke alſo the ſiluer and gold, the precious iewels, and the ſecrete treaſures that he founde.

25 And when he had taken away altogeather, cauſed a great murther of men, & ſpoken very proudly, he departed into his owne lande.

26 Therefore there was a great lamentation, throughout al Iſrael.

" Or made feeble.

E 27 The princes and the Elders of the people mourned, the young menne and the maydens were " defiled, and the fayre beautie of women was changed:

28 The bridegrome and the bride tooke them to mournyng,

29 The land and thoſe that dwelt therein was moued: for al yͤ houſe of Iacob was brought to confuſion.

(i) The battaile of Macedonia.

30 (i) *After two yeeres the king ſent his cheefe treaſurer vnto the cities of Iuda, whiche came to Hieruſalem with a great multitude of people,

31 Speaking peaceable woordes vnto them, but al was deceite: for when they had geuen hym credence,

32 He fel ſodenly vppon the citie, and ſmote it ſoare, and deſtroyed muche people of Iſrael:

1.Mac.7.b

33 *And when he had ſpoyled the citie, he ſet fyre on it, caſtyng downe houſes and walles on euery ſide.

34 The women and theyr children tooke they captiue, and led away their catel.

F 35 Then builded they the citie of Dauid with a great and thicke wal, and with myghtie towres, and made it a ſtrong holde for them.

36 Beſide al this, they ſet wycked people, and vngodly menne to keepe it,

37 Stored it with weapons, & vitailes, geathered the goodes of Hieruſalem, and layd them vp there: Thus became it a theeuiſhe caſtel.

38 Thus they became a heauye burthen, layeing wayte for the people that went into the ſanctuary, and for the cruel deſtruction of Iſrael.

39 Thus they ſhead innocent blood on euery ſide of the ſanctuary, and defiled it:

40 Inſomuche that the citezins were fayne to depart, and the citie became an habitation of ſtrangers, beyng deſolate of her owne ſeede: for her owne natiues were fayne to leaue her.

Tobi.11.a.

41 *Her ſanctuary was cleane waſted, her holy dayes were turned into mournyng, her ſabbothes were had in deriſion, and her honour brought to nought.

(k) Ioſephus li.12.Cap.6.&.7.

42 (k) Looke how great her glory was before, ſo great was her confuſion, and her ioy turned into ſorowe.

2.Mac.6.

43 *Antiochus alſo the kyng, ſent out a commiſſion vnto al his kyngdome, that al the people ſhould be one.

44 Then they leaft euery man his lawe, and al the Heathen agreed to the commaundement of kyng Antiochus:

45 Yea, manye of the Iſraelites conſented thereunto, offeryng vnto idols, and defilyng the Sabboth.

46 So the kyng Antiochus ſent his meſſengers with his commiſſion vnto Hieruſalem, and to al the cities of Iuda, that they ſhould folowe the lawes of the Heathen:

47 And forbade either burnt offeryng, meate offeryng, or peace offeryng, to be made in the temple of God, and that there ſhould no ſabboth nor hygh feaſt day be keapt:

48 But commaunded that the ſanctuary, and the holy people of Iſrael, ſhould be defiled: G

49 He commaunded alſo, that there ſhould be ſet vp other aulters, temples, and idoles, to offer vp Swines fleaſhe, and other vncleane beaſtes,

50 That menne ſhoulde leaue their children vncircumciſed, to defyle their ſoules with al manner of vncleanneſſe and abominations:

51 That they myght ſo forgeat the lawe, and change al the holy ordinances of God,

52 And that whoſoeuer would not doo accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Antiochus, ſhould ſuffer death.

53 In like manner cōmaunded he throughout al his realme, and ſet rulers ouer the people, for to compel them to doo theſe thynges:

54 Commaundyng al the cities of Iuda, to doo ſacrifice vnto idols.

55 Then went the people vnto the Heathen by heapes, forſooke the lawe of the Lorde, and committed muche euil in the lande.

56 And he droue the Iſraelites into ſecrete places, euen where ſo euer they could flee for ſuccour.

57 The fifteenth day of the moneth " Caſleu, in the hundred threeſcore and fifth yeere, ſet kyng Antiochus an *abominable idol of deſolation vpon the aulter of God, and they buylded aulters throughout al the cities of Iuda, on euery ſide, 58 Before the doores of the houſes, and in the ſtreetes, where they burnt incenſe, and dyd ſacrifice.

(l) It is a manifeſt note of the enimies of God, to burne the bookes of the lawe. Hiſt. eccleſiaſt.li.8.Cap.2.

59 *And as for the bookes of the lawe of God, they burnt them in the fyre, (l) *and rent them in peeces.

60 Whatſoeuer he was that had a booke of the Teſtament of the Lorde founde by him, yea, whoſoeuer endeuored him ſelfe to keepe the lawe of the Lorde, the kynges commaundement was, that they ſhould put him to death.

61 And through his aucthoritie, they executed theſe thinges euery moneth, vpon the people of Iſrael, that were founde in the cities.

2.Mac.6.b

62 *The twentie and fifth day of the moneth, what time as they did ſacrifice vpon the aulter, whiche ſtoode in the ſteede of the aulter of the Lorde:

63 According to the commaundement of king Antiochus, they put certain women to death, which had cauſed their children to be circumciſed:

64 Not onlye that, but they hanged vp the chyldren by the neckes throughout al theyr houſes, and ſlue the circumciſers of them.

65 Yet were there many of the people of Iſrael, whiche determined in them ſelues that they woulde not eate vncleane thynges: but choſe rather to ſuffer death, then to be defiled with vncleane meates:

66 So becauſe they would not breake the bleſſed lawe of God, they were cruelly ſlaine.

67 And this great tyrannie encreaſed verye ſoare vpon the people of Iſrael.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 The mourning of Mathathias and his ſonnes, for the deſtruction of the holy citie. 19 They refuſe to doo ſacrifice vnto idols. 24 The zeale of Mathathias for the law of God. 33 They are ſlayne, and wyl not fyght agayne, becauſe of the Sabboth day. 49 Mathathias dyeing, commaundeth his ſonne to ſticke by the woorde of God, after the example of the fathers.

A

1 In thoſe dayes there dyd ſtande vp one Mathathias, the ſonne of Iohn, the ſonne of Simeon yͤ prieſt, out of the kinred of Ioarib, from Hieruſalem, and dwelt vpon the mount of Modin,

2 And had fyue ſonnes: Iohn, called Gaddis,

3 Simon, called Thaſi,

4 Iudas, otherwyſe called Machabeus,

5 Eleazer, otherwyſe called Abaron, and Ionathan, whoſe ſirname was Apphus.

6 Theſe ſaw the euil that was donne among the people of Iuda, and Hieruſalem.

B

7 And Mathathias ſayde, Wo is me, alas that euer I was borne, to ſee this miſerie of my people, and the piteous deſtruction of the holy citie, and thus to ſit ſo ſtyl, it beyng deliuered into the handes of the enimies.

i.Mac.2.

8 *Her ſanctuarie is comme into the power of ſtrangers, her temple is as it were a man that hath loſt his good name:

9 Her pretious ornamentes are caryed away captiue, her olde men are ſlaine in the ſtreetes, and her young menne are fallen thorowe the ſwoorde of the enimies.

10 What people is it that hath not ſomme poſſeſſion in her kyngdome: or who hath not gotten ſomme of her ſpoyles?

11 Al her glory is taken away, ſhe was a free woman, and nowe ſhe is become an handmayde.

12 Beholde, our ſanctuarie, our beautie, and honour, is waſted away, and defiled by the Gentiles.

13 What helpeth it vs then to lyue?

C

14 And Mathathias rent his clothes, he and his ſonnes, and put ſackcloth vppon them, and mourned very ſoare.

15 Then came the menne thyther, whiche were ſent of king Antiochus, to compel ſuche as were fled into the city of Modin, for to doo ſacrifice, and to burne incenſe vnto idols, and to forſake the lawe of God.

16 So many of the people of Iſrael conſented, and enclined vnto them: but Mathathias and his ſonnes remayned ſtedfaſt.

17 Then ſpake the Commiſſioners of kyng Antiochus, and ſayde vnto Mathathias, Thou art a noble man, of hygh reputation, and great in this citie, hauing many fayre chyldren, and brethren:

18 Comme thou therefore fyrſt, and fulfyl the kynges commaundement, lyke as al the heathen haue donne, yea and the menne of Iuda, and ſuche as remayne at Hieruſalem: ſo ſhalt thou and thy chyldren be in the kynges fauour, and enriched with golde, ſyluer, and great rewardes.

19 Mathathias anſweared, and ſpake with a loude voyce, Though al nations obeye the kyng Antiochus, and fal away euery man, from keapyng the lawe of theyr fathers, though they conſent to his commaundementes:

20 (a) Yet wil I, and my ſonnes, and my brethren, not fal from the lawes of our fathers.

Ioſue.24.

21 God forbid we ſhould: that were not good for vs *that we ſhoulde forſake the lawe and ordinances of God, and to agree vnto the commaundement of kyng Antiochus.

Actes.5.b.

22 Therfore we wil doo no ſuche ſacrifice, neither breake the ſtatutes of our lawe, *to goe another way.

Pro.4.c.

23 And when he had ſpoken theſe woordes, there came one of the Iewes, whiche openly in the ſight of al, dyd ſacrifice vnto the idoles vpon the aulter in the citie of Modin, accordyng to the kynges commaundement,

24 When Mathathias ſawe this, it greeued (b) hym at the hart, ſo that his reynes ſhooke withal,

(a) The father promiſeth for his chyldren that they ſhal ſerue God, ſo doth Ioſue for his houſholde.

(b) It is a greefe to the godly to ſee the people offende.

withal,and his wrath kindled for very zeale of the lawe: With that he ſtart vp,and killed the Iewe beſyde the aulter: Exod.22. 3.Reg.19.

25 Yea, and ſlue the kynges Commiſſioner that compelled hym to doo ſacrifice, and deſtroyed the aulter at the ſame tyme:

26 Suche a zeale had he vnto the lawe of God, *like as Phinehes did vnto Zambri yͤ ſonne to Salomi. Num.25.b

27 And Mathathias cryed with a loud voyce thorow the citie, ſayeing: Who ſo is feruent in the lawe, and wil keepe the couenant, let hym folow me.

28 *So he and his ſonnes fled into the mountaynes, and leaft al that euer they had in the Citie. 2.Mac.5.c.

29 Many other godlye menne alſo whiche lyued iuſtlye and vprightly, departed into the wylderneſſe, with theyr children, theyr wyues, and their catel, and remayned there: for the tyranny increaſed ſoore vpon them. E

30 Now when the kinges ſeruantes,and the hoſt whiche was at Hieruſalem in the citie of Dauid, heard that certayne menne had broken the kynges commaundement,and were gonne their way to the wylderneſſe into ſecrete places:

31 Then many purſued after them, and after they had ouertaken them,they camped them ſelues,and ſet the batel in aray agaynſt them in the Sabboth day, 32 And ſayde vnto them: Wyl ye yet rebel? Geat you hence, and doo the commaundement of kyng Antiochus, and ye ſhal lyue.

33 They anſwered, *We wil not goe [for thee,] neyther wyl we doo the kynges commaundement, to defile the Sabboth day. Ioſu.5.c.

34 Then began they to fight agaynſt them:

35 But the other gaue them none other anſweare, neyther caſt they one ſtone at them, nor made faſt their priuie places:

36 But ſayde, We wyl dye al in our innocency,heauen and earth ſhal teſtify with vs,that ye put vs to death wrongfullly. F

37 Thus they fought againſt them vpon the Sabboth, and ſlue both menne and catayle, theyr wyues and theyr children, to the number of a thouſande people.

38 When Mathathias and his friendes heard this,they mourned for them ryght ſoore,

39 And ſayde one to another, If ſo be that we al doo as our brethren haue donne, and fight not for our lyues and for our lawes agaynſt the heathen,then ſhal they the ſooner roote vs out of the earth:

40 So they concluded among them ſelues at the ſame tyme,ſayeing,

41 Whatſoeuer he be that commeth to make battaile with vs vpon the Sabboth day, we wil fight agaynſt him, and not dye al as our brethren that were murthered in the wilderneſſe.

42 Vpon this came the aſſemblie of the Aſſideans vnto them, whiche were of the ſtrongeſt menne in Iſrael, and al ſuche as were feruent in the lawe:

43 And all they that were fled for perſecution, came to helpe them, and to ſtand by them:

44 Inſomuche that they geathered an hoſt of menne,and ſlue the wycked dooers in their gelouſie, and the vngodlye menne in theyr wrath: but the reſt fled vnto the heathen,and eſcaped.

45 Then Mathathias and his freendes went about,and deſtroyed the aulters,

46 And circumciſed the children that had not yet receiued circumciſion, as many as they founde within the coaſtes of Iſrael:

47 And folowed myghtily vpon the proude menne:and this act proſpered in their hands, G

48 Inſomuche that they keapt the lawe agaynſt the power of the Gentiles and the kynges, and gaue not ouer their dominion vnto wycked dooers.

49 After this, when the tyme drewe on faſt that Mathathias ſhoulde dye, he ſayde vnto his ſonne: Now is pryde and perſecution increaſed, nowe is the tyme of deſtruction and wrathful diſpleaſure:

50 Wherefore, O my ſonnes, be ye feruent in the lawe,and ieopard your liues, for the teſtament of the fathers.

51 Cal to remembrance what actes our fathers did in their time,ſo ſhal ye receiue great honour,and an euerlaſtyng name.

63 To day is he ſet vp, and to morowe is he gone: for he is turned into earth, and his memorial is comme to nought.

64 Wherfore, O my ſonnes, take good hartes vnto you, and quyte your ſelues lyke menne in the lawe: for if ye doo the thinges that are commaunded you in the lawe of the Lorde your GOD, ye ſhal obteyne great honour therein.

65 And beholde, I knowe that your brother Simon is a man of wyſdome: ſee that ye geue eare vnto him allway, he ſhalbe a father vnto you.

66 As for Judas Machabeus, he hath euer benne myghtie, and ſtrong from his youth vp: let hym be your Captayne, and order the battayle of the people.

67 Thus ſhal ye bryng vnto you al thoſe that fauour the lawe, and ſee that ye auenge the wrong of your people,

68 And recompence the heathen agayne, and applie your ſelues wholly to the commaundement of the lawe.

69 So he gaue them his bleſſyng, and was layde by his fathers:

70 And dyed in the hundred fourtie and ſyxe yere at Modin, where his ſonnes buried him in his fathers ſepulchre, and al Iſrael made great lamentation for hym.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 Judas is made ruler ouer the Jewes. 11 He killeth Apollonius, and Seron the prince of Syria. 44 The confidence of Judas towarde God. 55 Judas determineth to fight againſt Lyſias, whom Antiochus had made captain ouer his hoſt. 60 The praier of the abſteiners.

A 1 Then ſtoode vppe Judas Machabeus in his fathers ſteade,

Ioſe.cap.8 9.10.11.12. antiqui. 2 *And al his brethren helped him, and ſo did al they that helde with his father, and fought with chearefulneſſe for Iſrael.

3 So Judas gate his people great honour: He put on a breaſt plate as a giant, and arayed hym ſelfe with his harneſſe, and defended the hoſt with his ſwoord.

4 In his actes he was lyke a Lion, and as a Lions whelpe roaring at his pray.

Pſal.101.b. i.Mac.8.a. 5 *He was an enimie to the wycked, & hunted them out, *and brent vp thoſe that vexed his people:

6 So that his enimies fled for feare of hym, and al the woorkers of vngodlyneſſe were put to trouble: ſuche lucke and proſperitie was in his hande.

B 7 This greeued dyuers kynges: but Jacob was greatly reioyced thorow his actes, and he gate hym ſelfe a great name for euer.

8 He went thorow the cities of Juda, deſtroying the vngodly out of them, turnyng away the wrath from Iſrael,

9 And receiuing ſuche as were oppreſſed: and the fame of hym went vnto the vttermoſte part of the earth.

10 Then Apollonius [a prince of Syria] geathered a myghtie great hoſt of the Heathen, and out of Samaria, to fight againſt Iſrael:

11 Whiche when Judas perceiued, he went foorth to meete hym, fought with hym, ſlue hym, and a great multitude with hym: the remnant fled, and he tooke their ſubſtance.

12 Judas alſo tooke Apollonius owne ſwoord, and fought with it al his lyfe long.

13 Now when Seron, a prince of the army of Syria, heard ſay that Judas had geathered vnto him the congregation and church of the faythful,

14 He ſayde, I wyl geat me a name, and a prayſe thorowout the realme: for I wyl goe fyght with Judas, and them that are with hym, as many as haue deſpyſed the kynges commaundement. C

15 So he made readye, and there went with hym a great myghtie hoſt of the vngodly, to ſtande by hym, and to be auenged of the children of Iſrael.

16 And when they came nyghe vnto Bethocon, Judas went foorth agaynſt them, with a ſmal companie.

17 And when his people ſawe ſuche a great hoſte before them, they ſayde vnto Judas, Howe are we able beyng ſo fewe, to fyght agaynſt ſo great a multitude, & ſo ſtrong, ſeeing we be ſo weery, & haue faſted al this day?

18 But Judas ſayde, It is a ſmal matter for many to be ouercomme with fewe: yea there is no difference to the God of heauen, to delyuer by a great multitude, or by a ſmal companie: j.Reg.14.a

in the multitude of the hoſt, but the ſtrength commeth from heauen.

20 Beholde, they comme agaynſt vs with a cruel and proude multitude, to deſtroy vs, our wyues, and our chyldren, and to robbe vs:

21 But we wyl fyght for our lyues, and for our lawes.

22 And the Lord hym ſelfe ſhal deſtroy them before our face: therefore be not ye afrayde of them.

23 As ſoone as he had ſpoken theſe woordes, he leapt ſuddainely vpon them: Thus was Seron ſmytten, and his hoſt put to flyght,

24 And Iudas folowed vpon them beyonde Bethoron vnto the plaine fielde, where there

D were ſlaine eight hundred men of them: ⁊ the reſidue fledde into the land of the Philiſtines.

25 Then al the heathen on euery ſyde, were afrayde of Iudas and his brethren:

26 So that the rumour of him, came vnto the kynges eares, for al the gentiles coulde tel of the warres of Iudas.

27 So when king Antiochus heard theſe tidynges, he was angry in his mynde: wherfore he ſent foorth, and geathered an hoſt of his whole realme, very ſtrong armies:

28 And opened his treaſurie, and gaue his

E hoaſt a yeeres wages in hande, commaunding them to be ready at al times.

29 Neuertheleſſe, when he ſaw that there was not money yenough in his treaſuries, ⁊ that thorow the diſcorde and perſecution whiche he made in the land to put downe the lawes that had benne of olde tymes, his cuſtomes and tributes of the lande were miniſhed:

30 He feared that he was not able for to beare the coſtes ⁊ charges any longer, nor to haue ſuche gyftes to geue ſo liberally as he dyd afore, more then the kynges that were before hym.

31 Wherfore he was heauy in his minde, and thought* to goe into Perſides for to take tri-i.Mac.6.a. butes of the lande, and ſo to geather muche money.

32 So he leaft Lyſias, a noble man of the kinges blood, to ouerſee the kinges buſineſſe, from the water Euphrates, vnto the borders of Egypt:

33 And to keepe wel his ſonne Antiochus, til he came agayne.

34 Moreouer, he gaue hym halfe of his hoſt, and Elephantes, and committed vnto hym euery thing, and gaue him the charge of al thinges that he would haue donne, concernyng thoſe whiche dwelt in Iuda and Hieruſalem:

35 That he ſhould ſend out an armie againſt them, to deſtroye, and to roote out the power of Iſrael, and the remnant of Hieruſalem, to put out their memorial from that place,

36 To ſet ſtrangers for to inhabite al theyr quarters, ⁊ to part their lande among them.

37 *Thus the king tooke the other part of the hoſt, and departed from Antioche, a citie of his realme, ouer the water Euphrates, in the hundred and fourtie and ſeuen yeere, and went thorowe the hygh countreys.

Ioſe,cap.x lib.antiq.

38 *And Lyſias choſe vnto hym Ptolomi the ſonne of Dorymínius, Nicanor, and Gorgias, mightie menne, and the kyngs friendes.

i.Mac;3,d;

39 Theſe he ſent with fourtie thouſand footemen, and ſeuen thouſand horſmen, for to goe into the land of Iuda, and to deſtroy it, as the kyng commaunded.

40 So they went foorth with al their power, and came to Emmaus, into the plaine fielde.

41 When the marchantes of the countrey heard the rumour of them, they and their ſeruantes tooke very muche ſiluer and golde, for to buy the children of Iſrael to be their bondmen: There came vnto them alſo yet moe menne of warre on euery ſyde, out of Syria, and from the Paleſtines.

42 Now when Iudas and his brethren ſaw that trouble increaſed, and that the hoſt drew nyghe vnto theyr borders, conſydering the kyngs wordes whiche he commaunded vnto the people [namely] that they ſhoulde vtterly waſte and deſtroy them:

43 They ſayd one to another, Let vs redreſſe the decaye of our people, let vs fight for our folke, and for our ſanctuarie.

44 Then the congregation were ſoone ready G geathered to fight, to pray, and to make ſupplication vnto God for mercie and grace.

45* As for Hieruſalem, it lay voyde, and was i.Mac.i.d. as it had benne a wylderneſſe: There went no man in nor out at it, and the ſanctuarie was troden downe, the aliantes keapt the Caſtle, there was the habitation of the heathen, the myrth of Iacob was taken away, the pype and the harpe was gonne from among them.

46 The Iſraelites geathered them togeather, and came to Maſpha before Hieruſalem: for in Maſpha was the place* where they praied i.Reg.7.k. aforetime in Iſrael.

47 So they faſted that day, ⁊ put ſackclothes vpon them, caſt aſhes vpon their heades, rent their clothes,

48 And layde foorth the bookes of the lawe, whereout the heathen ſought to paynt the lykeneſſe of theyr images:

49 And brought the prieſtes ornamentes, the fyrſtlinges,

firſtlinges, and the tithes: they ſet there alſo the* Nazarites, whiche had accompliſhed their vowes before God: Num.6,b

50 And cryed with a loude voyce towarde heauen, ſayeing, What ſhal we doo with theſe? & whyther ſhal we cary them away?

51 For thy ſanctuarie is troden downe, and defiled, the prieſtes are comme to heauineſſe and diſhonour,

52 And beholde, the heathen are come togeather for to deſtroy vs: Thou knoweſt what thinges they imagine agaynſt vs.

53 Howe may we ſtande before them, except thou (O God) be our helpe?

54 Then they blew out the trumpet alſo with a loude voyce.

Exod,28. 55 Then Iudas ordeyned* captaines ouer the people, ouer thouſandes, ouer hundredes, ouer fiftie, and ouer tenne.

56 But as for ſuche as buylded them houſes, maried wyues, planted them vineyardes, and thoſe that were fearful, he commaunded them euery man to goe home agayne, according to * the lawe. Deu.20.a.

57 So the hoſte remooued, and pitched vpon the ſouth ſide of Emmaus. Iud.7.a.

58 And Iudas ſaide, Arme your ſelues, be ſtrong, O my chyldren, make you ready agaynſt to morowe in the mornyng, that ye may fyght with theſe people, whiche are agreed togeather, to deſtroy vs and our ſanctuarie.

59 Better is it for vs to dye in batayle, then to ſee our people and our ſanctuarie in ſuche a miſerable caſe.

60 * Neuertheleſſe, as thy wyl is, O God in heauen, ſo be it. Math.6.b. Luke.11.a.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 Iudas goeth agaynſt Gorgias, whiche lyeth in wayte. 14 He putteth Gorgias and his hoſt to flight. 28 Lyſias inuadeth Iurie, 29 but Iudas driueth hym out. 43 Iudas purifieth the temple, and dedicateth the aulter.

A 1 Then tooke Gorgias fiue thouſande * men of foote, and a thouſande of the beſt horſemenne, and remooued out of yͤ campe by night. Ioſe.11.12. Cap.10.

2 To come nye where the Iewes hoſt lay, and ſo to ſlay them ſodenly: (Now the men that kept the caſtle, were the conueyers of them.)

3 Nowe when Iudas heard this, he remooued, and al the ſtrong men that were with hym, to ſmite the cheefe and principal of the kinges hoſt at Emmaus:

4 For the armie was not yet come togeather.

5 In the meane ſeaſon, came Gorgias by night into Iudas tentes, and when he found no man there, he ſought them in the mountaynes, and thought they had benne fled away becauſe of hym.

6 But when it was day, Iudas ſhewed him ſelfe in the feelde with three thouſand menne only, which had neyther harneſſe, nor ſwords to their mindes.

7 But on the other ſyde, they ſawe that the heathen were myghty, & wel harneſſed, and their horſemenne about them, & al theſe wel expert in feates of warre.

B 8 Then ſayde Iudas to the menne that were with hym, Feare not ye the multitude of them, be not afraide of their violent running.

Exo.14.f. 9 Remember howe our fathers were deliuered * in the redde ſea, when Pharao folowed vpon them with a great hoſt.

10 Euen ſo let vs alſo crye nowe towarde heauen, and the Lord ſhal haue mercie vpon vs, and remember the couenant of our fathers, yea and deſtroy this hoſt before our face this day:

11 And al the heathen ſhal know, that it is god him ſelfe, which deliuereth and ſaueth Iſrael.

12 Then the heathen lyft vp their eyes, and when they ſawe that they were comming agaynſt them,

13 They went out of their tentes into the batayle, and they that were with Iudas, blewe vp the trumpettes.

14 * So they buckled togeather, and the heathen were diſcomfited, & fled ouer the plaine feelde: 2.Mac,7.d C

15 But the hinmoſt of them were ſlayne with the ſwoord: For they folowed them vnto " Aſſaremoth, and into the feeldes of Idumea, towarde Azot & Iamnia: ſo that there were ſlayne of them vpon a three thouſande men. " Or, Gazeron.

16 So Iudas turned agayne with his hoſt,

17 And ſayd vnto the people, Be not greedy of the ſpoyles, we haue yet a batayle to fyght:

18 For Gorgias and his hoſt, are here by vs in the mountaynes, but ſtande ye faſt agaynſt our enimies, and ouercome them, then may ye ſafely take the ſpoyles.

19 As Iudas was ſpeaking theſe woordes, beholde, there appeared one part of them vpon the mount.

20 But when Gorgias ſawe, that they of his partie were fled, and the tentes brent vp (for by the ſmoke they myght vnderſtande what was donne) they perceiuing this, were very ſoare afrayde:

D 21 And when they ſawe alſo that Iudas and his hoſt were in the feelde ready to ſtryke batayle, 22 They fledde euery one into the lande of the heathen.

23 So Iudas turned agayne to ſpoyle the tentes, where they gate muche golde and ſiluer, precious ſtones, purple, and great riches.

24 Thus they went home, and ſong a pſalme of thankeſgeuing, and prayſed God in heauen, * For he is gracious, and his mercie endureth for euer.

Pſal.107.a.
Pſal.18.a.

25 And ſo Iſrael had a great victorie in that day.

26 Nowe al the heathen that eſcaped, came and tolde Lyſias euery thyng that had happened:

E 27 Wherefore Lyſias was ſoare afrayde, and greeued in his minde, becauſe Iſrael had not gotten ſuche miſfortune as he woulde they ſhoulde, neyther as the kyng commaunded.

28 The next yeere folowyng, geathered Lyſias threeſcore thouſande choſen men of foote, and fiue thouſande horſemenne, to fyght agaynſt Hieruſalem.

29 So they came ſnto Iurie, & pitched theyr tentes at Bethoron: where Iudas came agaynſt them with ten thouſande menne.

30 And when he ſawe ſo great and myghty an hoſt, he made his prayer, and ſayde, Bleſſed be thou, O ſauiour of Iſrael, *which dyddeſt deſtroy the violent power of the giant, in the hande of thy ſeruant Dauid, *and gaueſt the hoſt of the heathen, into the hande of Ionathan the ſonne of Saul, & of his harneſſe bearer:

1.Reg.17.a
1.Re.14.b.

31 Put this hoſt nowe into the hande of thy people of Iſrael, and let them be confounded in their multitude and horſemenne.

32 Make them afrayde, and diſcomfite the boldeneſſe of their ſtrength, that they may be mooued through theyr deſtruction.

33 Caſt them downe through the ſwoorde of thy louers, then ſhal al they that knowe thy name, prayſe thee with thankeſgeuing.

F 34 So they ſtroke the batayle, and there were ſlayne of Lyſias hoſt, fiue thouſande menne.

35 Then Lyſias ſeeyng the diſcomfiting of his menne, and the manlineſſe of the Iewes, howe they were ready eyther to liue or to dye lyke menne: he went vnto Antioch, & choſe out menne of warre, that when they were geathered togeather, they myght comme agayne into Iurie.

36 Then ſayde Iudas and his brethren, Beholde, our enimies are diſcomfited, let vs nowe goe vp to cleanſe, and to repayre the ſanctuarie.

37 * Upon this, al the hoſt geathered them togeather, and went vp into mount Sion.

2.Ma.10.a.

38 Nowe when they ſawe the ſanctuarie layed waſt, the aulter defiled, the doores brent vp, the ſhrubbes growyng in the courtes, lyke as in a wood, or vpon mountaynes, yea and that the prieſtes chambers were broken downe:

39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, caſt aſſhes vpon their heades,

40 Fel downe flat to the grounde vpon theyr faces, made a great noyſe with the trumpets, and cryed towarde heauen.

41 Then Iudas appoynted certayne menne, to fyght agaynſt thoſe whiche were in the caſtle, tyl they had cleanſed the ſanctuarie. G

42 So he choſe prieſtes that were vndefiled, ſuche as had pleaſure in the lawe of God:

43 And they cleanſed the ſanctuarie, and bare out the defiled ſtones into an vncleane place.

44 And forſomuche as the aulter of burnt offeringes was vnhalowed, he tooke aduiſement what he myght doo withal:

45 So he thought it was beſt to deſtroy it, leſt it ſhould happen to doo them any ſhame, for the heathen had defiled it: and therefore they brake it downe.

46 As for the ſtones, they layed them vp vpon the mountayne by the houſe in a conuenient place, til there came a prophete to ſhew what ſhoulde be donne with them.

47 * So they tooke whole ſtones, accordyng to the lawe, and buylded a newe aulter, ſuche one as was before,

48 And made vp the ſanctuarie within and without, and halowed the houſe & the courts:

50 The incenſe layed they vpon the aulter, and lyghted the lampes whiche were vpon the candelſticke, that they myght burne in the temple:

51 They ſet the ſhewe bread vpon the table, and hanged vp the vayle, and finiſhed al the workes which they had begunne to make,

54 After the tyme and ſeaſon that the heathen had defiled it, the ſame day was it ſet vp agayne, with ſongues, pipes, harpes, and cymbales,

55 And al the people fel vpon their faces, worſhipping and thanking the God of heauen, whiche had geuen them the victory.

2.Par.7.b. 56 * So they kept the dedication of the aulter eyght dayes, offering burnt ſacrifices and thanke offeringes with gladneſſe:

57 They deckt the forefrunt of the temple alſo with crownes and ſhieldes of golde, and halowed the portes and celles, & hanged doores vpon them.

58 Thus there was very great gladneſſe among the people, becauſe the blaſphemie of the heathen was put away.

59 So Judas and his brethren, with yͤ whole congregation of Iſrael, ordeyned * that the tyme of the dedication of the aulter, ſhould be kept in his ſeaſon from yeere to yeere, by the ſpace of eyght dayes, from the twentie and fifth day of the moneth * Caſleu with mirth and gladneſſe. John.10.c Nouemb.

60 And at the ſame time buylded they vp the mount Sion, with hygh walles and ſtrong towres rounde about, leſt the gentiles ſhould come and treade it downe, as they dyd afore.

61 Therfore Judas ſet menne of warre in it to keepe it, and made it ſtrong for to defende * Bethſura, that the people myght haue a refuge agaynſt the Edomites. 1.Mac.6.b

The.v.Chapter.

3 Judas vanquiſheth the heathen that goe about to deſtroy Iſrael, and is holpen of his brethren Simon and Jonathas. 50 He ouerthroweth the citie of Ephron, becauſe they denied him paſſage thorowe it.

A 1 IT happened alſo, that when the heathen rounde about hearde howe that the aulter* and the ſanctuarie were ſet vp in their olde eſtate, it diſpleaſed them very ſoare, Ioſ.cap.12 lib,13.

2 Wherefore, they thought to deſtroy the generation of Jacob that was among them: in ſo muche that they beganne to ſlay and to perſecute certayne of the people.

Eze.25.b. and.35.a. 2,Mac.c, 3 * Then Judas fought agaynſt the children of Eſau in Idumea, at Arabathane: for they dwelt rounde about the Iſraelites. Where he ſlue and ſpoyled a great multitude of them.

4 He thought alſo vpon the malice and vnfaythfulneſſe of the chyldren of Bean, howe they were a ſnare and ſtoppe vnto the people, and howe they layed wayte for them in the hygh way:

5 Wherfore he ſhut them vp into towres, and came vnto them, beſieged them, and deſtroyed them vtterly, and brent vp theyr towres, with al that were in them.

6 Afterwarde went he agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon, whereof he founde a myghty power, and a great multitude of people, with Timothi their captayne.

7 So he ſtroke many batayles with them, whiche were deſtroyed before hym.

B 8 And when he had ſlayne them, he wanne Gazer the citie, with the townes belongyng thereto, and ſo turned agayne into Iurie.

9 The heathen alſo in Galaad, geathered them togeather agaynſt the Iſraelites that were in their quarters, to ſlay them: but they fled to the caſtle of Dathemam,

10 And ſent letters vnto Judas and his brethren, ſayeing, The heathen that are about vs are geathered agaynſt vs on euery ſide, to deſtroy vs,

11 And nowe they make them ready for to come and lay ſiege to the caſtel whereunto we are fled, & Timothi is captayne of theyr hoſt:

12 Come therefore, and deliuer vs out of their handes, for there is a great multitude of vs ſlayne already.

13 Yea and our brethren that were at Tubin, are ſlayne and deſtroyed welnie a thouſande menne & theyr wyues, theyr chyldren, & their goodes haue the enimies led away captiue.

14 Whyle theſe letters were yet a readyng, beholde there came other meſſengers from Galilee with rent clothes, whiche tolde euen the ſame tydynges, C

15 And ſayde, that they of Ptolomais, of Tyrus, and of Sidon were geathered agaynſt them, and that al Galilee was filled with enimies to deſtroy Iſrael.

16 * When Judas and the people hearde this, they came togeather a great congregation, to deuiſe what they myght doo for theyr brethren that were in trouble, and beſieged of theyr enimies. 2,Mac.8.c

17 And Judas ſayde vnto Simon his brother, Chooſe thee out certaine menne, and goe deliuer thy brethren in Galilee: As for me and my brother Jonathas, we wyl goe into Galaaditim.

18 So he leaft Joſephus the ſonne of Zachari, and Azarias, to be captaynes of the people, to keepe the remnant of the hoſt in Jewry,

19 And commaunded them, ſayeing, Take the ouerſyght of this people, and ſee that ye make no warre agaynſt the heathen, vntyl the tyme that we come agayne.

20 D And vnto Simon he gaue three thouſand men for to goe into Galilee: but Judas hym ſelfe had eyght thouſande in Galaaditim.

21 Then went Simon into Galilee, & ſtroke diuers batayles with the heathen, whom he diſcomfited,

22 And folowed vpon them into the port of Ptolomais: and there were ſlayne of the heathen almoſt three thouſande menne.

23 So he tooke the ſpoyles of them, and caried away the Iſraelites that were in Galilee and Arbatis, with their wyues, theyr chyldren, and al that they had, and brought them into Jewry with great gladneſſe.

24 Judas Machabeus alſo and his brother Jonathas went ouer Jordane, and trauailed three dayes iourney in the wyldernеſſe:

25 Where the Nabathees met them, and receiued them louingly, and tolde them euery thyng that had happened vnto their brethren in Galaaditim:

26 And howe that many of them were beſieged in Baraſa, Boſor, Alimis, Caſbon, Mageth, and Carnaim (al theſe are ſtrong walled and myghty great cities,)

E 27 And that they were kept in other cities of Galaaditim alſo, and to morowe they are appoynted to bryng their hoſt vnto theſe cities, to take them, and to deſtroy them in one day.

28 So Judas and his hoſte turned in al the haſt in the wyldernеſſe towarde Boſor, and wanne the citie, ſlue al the males with the ſwoorde, tooke al their goodes, and ſet fyre vpon the citie:

29 And in the nyght they tooke theyr iourney from thence, and came to the caſtel,

30 And betymes in the mornyng when they looked vp, beholde there was an innumerable people bearyng ladders and other inſtrumentes of warre, to take the caſtle, and to ouercome them.

31 When Judas ſawe that the bataile began, and that the noyſe thereof, went vp and rang into the heauen, and that there was ſo great a crye in the citie,

32 He ſayde vnto his hoſt, Fyght this day for your brethren:

33 And ſo came behinde theyr enimies in three companies, and blewe vp the trumpettes, and cryed in theyr prayer to God:

34 But ſo ſoone as Timotheus hoſte perceiued that Machabeus was there, they fledde from hym: and he ſlue them downe ryght ſoare, ſo that there were kylled of them the ſame day almoſt eyght thouſande menne.

35 Then departed Judas vnto Maſpha, layed ſiege vnto it, and wanne it, ſlue al the males in it, ſpoyled it, and ſet fyre vpon it.

36 From thence went he, and tooke Caſbon, Mageth, Boſor, and the other cities in Galaaditim.

37 *After this, geathered Timothi another hoſt, whiche pitched their tentes before Raphon, beyonde the water. 2.Mac.x.d

38 Judas alſo ſent to ſpye the hoſt, and they brought him woorde agayne, ſayeing, Al the heathen that be rounde about vs, are geathered vnto hym, and the hoſt is very great: F

39 Yea, they haue hyred the Arabians to helpe them, and haue pitched their tentes beyonde the water, and are redy to come and fight agaynſt thee. So Judas went on to meete them.

40 And Timothi ſayde vnto the captaynes of his hoſt, When Judas and his hoſt come nygh the riuer, if he goe ouer firſt, we ſhal not be hable to withſtande him: for why? he wil be to ſtrong for vs.

41 But yf he dare not come ouer, ſo that he pitch his tent beyonde the water: then wyl we goe ouer, for we ſhalbe ſtrong yenough agaynſt hym.

42 Now as ſoone as Judas came to the riuer, he appoynted certaine ſcribes of the people by the riuer, & commaunded them, ſayeing, See that he leaue none behind vpon this ſide of yͤ riuer, but let euery man come to the batayle.

43 So he went firſt ouer vnto them, & al his people after him, and al the heathen were diſcomfited before hym, and let their weapons falle, and ranne into the temple that was at Carnaim,

44 Whiche citie Judas wanne, and brent the temple, with al that were in it: So was Carnaim ſubdued, and myght not withſtande Judas.

45 Then Judas geathered al yͤ Iſraelites that were in Galaaditim, from the leaſt vnto the moſt, with their wyues and their chyldren, a very great hoſt, for to come into the lande of Iſrael. G

46 *So they came vnto Ephron, which was a myghty great and ſtrong citie, and lay in theyr way: for they coulde not goe by it, neyther on the ryght hande, nor on the leaft, but muſt goe through it. 2,Mac.7.c

47 Neuertheleſſe, they that were in the citie, woulde not let them goe through, but walled vp the portes with ſtones: And Judas ſent vnto them with peaceable woordes, ſayeing,

G 48 Let vs paſſe through your lande, that we may goe into our owne countrey, there ſhal no body doo you harme, we wil but only goe through on foote. But they woulde not let them in.

49 Wherefore Judas commaunded a proclamation to be made throughout the hoſt, that euery man ſhoulde aſſault the citie in his order.

50 And ſo they dyd their beſt, lyke valiant menne: and Judas beſieged the citie al that day, and al that nyght, and ſo wanne it,

51 Where they ſlue as many as were males, and deſtroyed the citie, and ſpoyled it, & went through al the citie ouer them that were ſlayne.

52 Then went they ouer Jordane, into the playne feelde before Bethſam.

53 And Judas helped thoſe forwarde that came behynde, and gaue the people good exhortation al the way through, til they were come into the lande of Juda.

54 Thus they went vp vnto the mount Sion, where they offered burnt offeringes with myrrh * and thankeſgeuing, becauſe there were none of them ſlayne, but came home agayne peaceably. 2.Par,20,a

55 Nowe what tyme as Judas and Jonathas were in the lande of Galaad, and Simon their brother in Galilee before Ptolomais:

56 Then Joſephus the ſonne of Zachari, and Azarias, the captaynes, hearing of the actes that were donne, & of the batayles that were ſtriken, ſayde,

57 Let vs geat vs a name alſo, and goe fyght againſt the heathen that are round about vs.

58 So they gaue theyr hoſt a commaundement, and went towarde Jamnia:

59 Then came Gorgias and his men out of the citie, to fyght agaynſt them:

60 Joſephus alſo and Azarias were chaſed vnto the borders of Jewry, and there were ſlayne that day of the people of Iſrael two thouſand men: ſo that there was a great miſerie among the people of Iſrael,

61 * And al becauſe they were not obedient vnto Judas and his brethren, but thought they ſhoulde quite themſelues manfully. 1.Mac,v,b 62 Neuertheleſſe, they came not of the ſeede of theſe men, by whom Iſrael was helped.

63 But the men that were with Judas, were greatly commended in the ſyght of al Iſrael, and al the heathen, whereſoeuer theyr name was heard vpon.

64 And the people came vnto them, bidding them welcome.

65 After this, went Judas foorth with his brethren, and fought agaynſt the chyldren of Eſau, in the lande that lyeth towarde the ſouth, where he wan the citie of Hebron, and the townes that lye beſide it: and as for the walles and towres rounde about it, he brent them vp.

66 Then remooued he to goe into the land of the Philiſtines, & went through Samaria.

67 At yͤ ſame tyme were there [many] prieſtes ſlayne in the batayle, whiche wylfully and without aduiſement, went out for to fyght, to geat them honour.

68 And when Judas came to Azot, in the philiſtines lande, he brake downe theyr aulters, brent the images of theyr idolles, ſpoyled the cities, and came agayne into the lande of Juda. Deut,6.a,

The.vi.Chapter.

1 Antiochus wyllyng to take the citie of Elymas for a pray, is dryuen away of the citezins. 8 He falleth into ſickneſſe, and dyeth. 17 His ſonne Antiochus is made kyng. 34 The beſieging of the towre of Sion. Eupator commeth into Jewry with a great armie. 43 The boldneſſe of Eleazar.

A 1 NOwe when kyng Antiochus trauayled through the hygh countreys, he hearde that Elymas in Perſia was a noble and plenteous citie in ſiluer and golde,

2 And that there was in it a very riche temple, where as were clothes, coate armours, and ſhieldes of golde, whiche Alexander the ſonne of Philip kyng of Macedonia, that raigned firſt in Grecia, had leaſt behynd him.

3 Wherefore he went about to take the citie, and to ſpoyle it, but he was not hable: for the citezins were warned of it, and fought with hym:

4 And ſo he fled, and departed with great heauineſſe, and came agayne into Babylon.

5 Moreouer, there came one whiche brought hym tydynges in Perſia, * that his hoſtes whiche were in the lande of Juda were dryuen away, 1.Mac,3.e.

6 And howe that Lyſias went foorth fyrſt with a great power, and was dryuen away of the Jewes, howe that they had wonne the victory, and gotten great goodes out of the hoſtes that periſhed,

7 Howe they had broken downe the abomination * whiche he ſet vp vpon the aulter at Hieruſalem, and fenced the ſanctuarie with high walles, like as it was afore, yea & Bethſura his citie alſo. 1.Mac.1.f.

B 8 So it chanced, that when the kyng hearde theſe woordes, he was afrayde, and greeued very ſoare: wherefore he layde hym downe vpon his bed, and fel ſicke for very ſorowe, and al becauſe it had not happened as he had deuiſed.

9 And there continued he long: for his greefe was euer more and more, ſo that he ſawe he muſt needes dye.

10 Therefore he ſent for al his freendes, and ſayde vnto them, The ſleepe is gonne fro myne eyes, for the very ſorowe and vexation of hart that I haue.

11 For when I conſyder in my mynde the great aduerſitie that I am come vnto, and the fluddes of heauineſſe whiche I am come in, where as a fore tyme I was ſo meery, and ſo greatly ſet by, by reaſon of my power:

12 Agayne, conſydering the euil that I haue donne at Hieruſalem, from whence I tooke al the richeſſe of golde and ſiluer that were in it, and ſent to deſtroy the inhabitours of Jurie without any reaſon why:

13 I knowe that theſe troubles are come vpon me for the ſame cauſe: and behold, I muſt dye with great ſorowe in a ſtrange lande.

C 14 Then called he for one Philip, a freende of his, whom he made ruler of al his realme,

15 And gaue hym the crowne, his robe, and his ring, that he ſhoulde take his ſonne Antiochus vnto hym, and bryng hym vp, tyl he myght raigne hym ſelfe.

2.Mac.9.a 16 * So the kyng Antiochus died there, in the hundred fourtie and nine yeere.

Ioſep.cap. 14.lib.12. 17 When Lyſias knewe that the kyng was dead, he ordeyned Antiochus his ſonne, whō he had brought vp, to raigne in his fathers ſteede, and called hym Eupator.

18 Nowe they that were in the caſtle [at Hieruſalem] kept in the Jewes round about the ſanctuarie, and ſought euer ſtil to doo them harme, for the ſtrengthening of the heathen.

19 Wherfore Judas thought to deſtroy them, and called al the people togeather, that they myght lay ſiege vnto them.

20 So they came togeather in the hundred and fiftie yeere, and beſieged them, laying foorth theyr ordinance and inſtrumentes of warre.

21 Then certaine of them that were beſieged, went foorth: vnto whom ſomme vngodly menne of Iſrael ioyned them ſelues alſo,

22 And went vnto the kyng, ſayeing, How long wyl it be or thou pouniſhe, and auenge our brethren? D

23 We haue euer benne minded to doo thy father ſeruice, to walke in his ſtatutes, and to obey his commaundementes,

24 Therefore our people fel from vs: & whereſoeuer they founde any of vs, they ſlue them, and ſpoyled our inheritance.

25 And they haue not only medled with vs, but with al our countreys.

26 And behold, this day are they beſieging the caſtel at Hieruſalem to take it, * and haue made vp the ſtrong holde in Bethſura: 1.Mac.4.g

27 And if thou dooeſt not preuent them right ſoone, they wil doo more then theſe, and thou ſhalt not be hable to ouercome them.

28 * When the kyng heard this, he was very angry, & called al his freendes, the captaines of his armie, and [al his footemen and] horſemenne: 2.Ma.13.d. E

29 He hyred menne of warre alſo, of other realmes, parteinyng to the kynges that were confederate with hym, and of the Iles of the ſea, whiche came vnto hym.

30 And the number of his hoſt was an hundred thouſande footemen, and twentie thouſande horſemen, and thirtie and two Elephantes wel exerciſed to batayle.

31 * Theſe came through Idumea vnto Bethſura, and beſieged it a long ſeaſon, and made diuers inſtrumentes of warre agaynſt it: but the Jewes came out, and brent them with fyre, and fought lyke men. 1.Mac.4.g

32 Then departed Judas from the caſtle [at Hieruſalem] and remooued the hoſt towarde Bethzacaran, ouer agaynſt the kynges armie.

33 So the kyng aroſe before the day, and brought the power of his hoſt into the way to Bethzacaran: where the hoſtes made them ready to the batayle, blowyng the trumpets.

34 And to prouoke the Elephants for to fight, they ſhewed them the ſappe of redde grapes, and mulberies,

35 And diuided the Elephantes among the hoſt: ſo that by euery Elephant, there ſtoode a thouſande menne wel harneſſed, and helmettes of ſteele vpon theyr heades: yea, vnto euery one of the Elephantes alſo, were ordeyned fiue hundred horſemen of the beſt, 36 Whiche wayted on the Elephant, goyng whereſoeuer he went, and departed not from hym.

37 Euery Elephant was couered with a ſtrong towre of wood, faſtened thereon with inſtrumentes, whereupon were thirtie and two valiant men with weapons to fyght, and within was a man of Inde, to rule the beaſte.

38 As for the remnant of the horſemen, he ſet them vpon both the ſides in two parts with trumpettes, to prouoke the hoſt, and to ſtirre vp ſuche as were ſlowe in the armie.

39 And when the ſunne ſhone vpon theyr ſhieldes of golde and ſteele, the mountaynes gliſtered agayne at them, and were as bright as the creſſets of fyre.

40 The kynges hoſt alſo was diuided, one part vpon the hygh mountaynes, the other lowe beneath: ſo they went on, taking good heede, and keepyng theyr order.

41 And al they that dwelt in the lande, were afrayde at the noyſe of theyr hoſte, when the multitude went foorth, and when the weapons ſmote togeather: for the hoſt was both great and myghty.

42 Iudas alſo and his hoſt entred into the batayle, & ſlue ſixe hundred men of the kynges armie.

* Or, Abaron.

43 Nowe when Eleazar the ſonne of *Saura dyd ſee one of the Elephantes deckt with the kynges badge, and was a more goodly beaſt then the other, he thought the kyng ſhoulde be vpon hym:

44 And ieoparded hym ſelfe to deliuer his people, and to geat hym a perpetual name.

45 Wherefore, he ranne with a courage vnto the Elephant in the middeſt of the hoſt, ſmityng them downe on both the ſides, and ſlue many about hym.

46 So went he to the Elephantes feete, and gate hym vnder hym, (e) and ſlue hym: then felle the Elephant downe vpon hym, and there he dyed.

(e) This example is not to be folowed, becauſe it is contrary to the commaundement.

47 Iudas alſo and his men, ſeeing the power of the kyng, and the myghty violence of his hoſt, departed from them.

48 And the kynges armie went vp agaynſt them towarde Hieruſalem, and pitched their tentes in Iurie beſide mount Sion.

49 Moreouer, the kyng tooke truice with them that were in *Bethſura: but when they came out of the citie (becauſe they had no vitailes, but were ſhut vp within, and the land lay vntilled,)

1.Mac.4.g

50 The kyng tooke Bethſura, and ſet men to keepe it, and turned his hoſt to the place of the ſanctuarie,

51 And layed ſiege to it a great whyle, where he made al manner ordinance, handbowes, fiery dartes, rachettes to caſt ſtones, ſcorpions to ſhoote arrowes, and ſlinges.

52 The Iewes alſo made ordinance againſt theyrs, and fought a long ſeaſon.

53 But in the citie there were no vitayles, for it was the ſeuenth yeere of the warres: and thoſe heathen that remayned in Iurie, had eaten vp al their ſtoare.

54 And in the ſanctuarie were fewe menne leaft: for the hunger came ſo vpon them, that they were ſcattered abrode euery man to his owne place.

55 So when Lyſias hearde that Philip (whom Antiochus the kyng whyle he was yet liuing, had ordeyned to bryng vp Antiochus his ſonne, that he myght be kyng,)

* 2.Mac.6.b

56 Was come agayne out of Perſia and Medea with the kinges hoſt, and thought to obteyne the kingdome, with the gouernance of al thinges:

57 He gate hym to the kyng in al the haſt, and to the captaynes of the hoſt, and ſaide, We decreaſe dayly, and our vitailes are but ſmal: Agayne, the place that we lay ſiege vnto, is very ſtrong, and it were our part to ſee for the realme:

58 Let vs agree with theſe menne, and take truice with them, and with al their people,

59 And graunt them to liue after theyr lawe, as they dyd afore: for they be greeued, and doo al theſe thynges againſt vs, becauſe we haue *deſpiſed theyr lawe.

* Or, broken

60 So the kyng and the princes were content, and ſent vnto them to make peace: and they receiued it.

61 Nowe when the king and the princes had made an othe vnto them, they came out of the caſtle,

62 And the kyng went vp to mount Sion: but when he ſawe that the place was welle fenced, he brake the othe that he had made, and commaunded to deſtroy the wal rounde about.

63 Then departed he in al the haſt, and returned vnto Antioch, where he founde Philip hauyng dominion of the citie: So he fought agaynſt hym, and tooke the citie agayne into his handes.

The.vii.Chapter.

1 Demetrius raigned after he had killed Antiochus and Lyſias. 5 He troubleth the chyldren of Iſrael through the counſel of certayne wicked perſons. 37 The prayer of the prieſtes agaynſt Nicanor. 41 Judas kylleth Nicanor, after he hath made his prayer.

A 1 IN the hundred fiftie and one yeere, came Demetrius the ſonne of Seleucus from the citie of Rome with a ſmal company of men, vnto a citie of the ſea coaſt, and there he bare rule.

2 And when he came to Antioch the citie of his progenitours, his hoſt tooke Antiochus and Lyſias, to bryng them vnto hym.

3 But when it was tolde hym, he ſayde, Let me not ſee theyr faces.

4 So the hoſt put them to death. Now when Demetrius was ſet vpon the throne of his kyngdome,

5 There came vnto hym wicked and vngodly men of Iſrael, whoſe captayne was Alcimus, that woulde haue benne made hygh prieſt:

6 Theſe men accuſed the people of Iſrael vnto the kyng, ſayeing, Judas and his brethren haue ſlaine thy freendes, and driuen vs out of our owne lande:

7 Wherefore, ſend now ſome man, to whom thou geueſt credence, that he may goe, and ſee al the deſtruction whiche he hath done vnto vs, and to the kynges lande, and let hym be pouniſhed, with al his freendes and fauourers.

B 8 Then the kyng choſe Bacchides, a freende of his, whiche was a man of great power in the realme beyonde the water, and faythful vnto the kyng, & ſent hym [to ſee the deſtruction that Judas had donne.]

9 And as for that wicked Alcimus, he made hym hygh prieſt, and commaunded hym to be auenged of the chyldren of Iſrael.

10 So they departed [from the kyng] & came with a great hoſt into the land of Juda, ſendyng meſſengers to Judas and his brethren, and ſpeakyng vnto them with peaceable woordes, but vnder deceite.

1.Mac.1,b 11 * Therefore Judas and his people beleued not their ſayeing, for they ſaw that they were comme with a great hoſt.

12 After this, came the ſcribes togeather vnto Alcimus and Bacchides, to entreate of reaſonable couenantes:

13 And the Aſſidians were the fyrſt among the chyldren of Iſrael that required peace of them,

C 14 Sayeing, Alcimus the prieſt is comme of the ſeede of Aaron, howe can he deceiue vs though he comme with an armie?

15 So he gaue them louyng woordes, and ſwore vnto them, and ſayd, We wyl doo you no harme, neither your freendes.

16 And they beleued hym: but the very ſame day tooke he threeſcore menne of them, and ſlue them, accordyng to the woordes that are written,

17 * They haue caſt the fleaſhe of thy ſaintes, and ſhedde their blood rounde about Hieruſalem, and there was no man that would burie them. Pſal.79,a.

18 So there came a great feare and dreade among al the people, ſayeing, There is neither trueth nor ryghteouſneſſe in them: for they haue broken the appoyntment and othe that they made.

19 And Bacchides remooued his hoſte from Hieruſalem, and pitched his tent at Bethzecha, where he ſent foorth, and tooke many of them that had forſaken hym: He ſlue many of the people alſo, and caſt them into a great pitte.

20 Then committed he the lande vnto Alcimus, and leaft menne of warre with hym to helpe hym: and Bacchides hym ſelfe went vnto the kyng.

21 And thus Alcimus defended his hygh prieſthood. D

22 And al ſuche as vexed Iſrael, reſorted vnto hym: inſomuche that they obteyned the land of Juda, and dyd muche euyl vnto the Iſraelites.

23 Nowe when Judas ſawe al the miſcheefe that Alcimus and his company had donne, (yea more then the heathen them ſelues) vnto the Iſraelites:

24 He went foorth rounde about al the borders of Jurie, and pouniſhed thoſe vnfaythful runnagates, ſo that they came no more out into the countrey.

25 So when Alcimus ſawe that Judas and his people had gotten the vpper hande, and that he was not hable to abide them: he went agayne to the kyng, and ſayde al the woorſt of them that he coulde.

26 Then the kyng ſent Nicanor, one of his cheefe princes, whiche bare euyl wyl vnto Iſrael, & commaunded hym, that he ſhoulde vtterly deſtroy the people.

27 * So Nicanor came to Hieruſalem with a great hoſt, and ſent vnto Judas and his brethren with freendly woordes: but vnder deceite, ſayeing, 2.Ma.15.a.

28 There ſhalbe no warre betwixt me and you, I wyl comme with a fewe menne to ſee howe ye doo with freendſhyp.

29 Upon this he came vnto Judas, and they ſaluted one another peaceably: but the enimies were appoynted to take Judas by violence.

30 Neuertheleſſe, it was tolde Judas, that he came vnto hym but vnder diſceyte: Wherefore he gat him away from him, and would ſee his face no more.

31 When Nicanor perceiued that his counſel was bewrayed, he went out to fight againſt Judas, beſyde " Capharſalama: " Or, Cerphaſalama.

32 Where there were ſlayne of Nicanors hoſt fiue thouſand menne: and the reſidue fled vnto the caſtle of Dauid.

F 33 After this came Nicanor vp vnto mount Sion, and the prieſtes, with the Elders of the people, went foorth to ſalute hym peaceably, and to ſhewe hym the burnt ſacrifices that were offered for the kyng.

34 But he laughed them and the people to ſcorne, mocked them, defyled theyr offerings, and ſpake diſdaynfully:

2Mac 14.c 35 Yea, and ſwore in his wrath, ſayeing, *If Judas and his hoſt be not deliuered now into my handes, aſſoone as euer I comme agayne and farewel, I ſhal burne vppe this houſe. With that went he out in a great anger.

36 Then the prieſtes came in, and ſtoode before the aulter of the Temple, weeping, and ſayeing:

37 *Forſomuche as thou O Lord haſt choſen this houſe, that thy name myght be called vpon therin, and that it ſhould be an *houſe of prayer, and petition for thy people: Eſai.56.b.

38 Be auenged of this man, and his hoſt, and let them be ſlayne with the ſworde: remember the blaſphemies of them, and ſuffer not them to continue any longer.

39 When Nicanor was gonne from Hieruſalem, he pitched his tent at Bethoron, and there an hoſt met hym out of Syria.

40 And Judas came to Adarſa with three thouſand menne, and made his prayer vnto God, ſayeing:

41 O Lorde, *becauſe the meſſengers of king Sennacherib blaſphemed thee, the angel went foorth and ſlue an hundred, foureſcore, and fiue thouſand of them: Eſai.37.f.

42 Euen ſo deſtroy thou this hoſt before vs to day, that other people may know howe that he hath blaſphemed thy ſanctuarie, and pouniſhe hym accordyng to his maliciouſneſſe.

43 And ſo the hoſtes ſtrooke the feelde the thirtienth day of the moneth " Adar: and Nicanors hoſte was diſcomfited, *and he hym ſelfe was fyrſt ſlayne in the bataile. " Februari. 2.Ma.15.d.

44 When Nicanors menne of warre, ſawe that he was killed, they caſt away their weapons, and fled:

45 But the Jewes folowed vppon them a whole dayes iourney, from Adazer, vnto Gazara, blowyng with the trumpets, and makyng tokens after them.

46 So the Jewes came foorth of al yͤ townes rounde about, and blew out their hornes vpon them, and turned againſt them: Thus were they al ſlayne, and not one of them leaft.

47 Then they tooke their ſubſtance for a pray, and ſmote of Nicanors head, and his ryght hande *whiche he helde vp ſo proudlye, and brought it with them, and hanged it vp afore Hieruſalem. 2.Ma.14.c

48 Wherfore the people were exceedingly reioyced, & paſſed ouer that day in great gladneſſe.

49 And Judas ordeyned that the ſame daye, [namely] the thirtienth day of the moneth Adar, ſhould be keapt in myrth euery yeere.

50 Thus the lande of Juda was in reſt a litle whyle.

The .viii. Chapter.

2 Judas conſydering the power and godly policie of the Romanes, maketh peace with them. 22 The reſcript of the Romanes, ſent vnto the Jewes.

1 IUdas heard alſo the fame of yͤ Romanes, that they were myghtie, and valiant menne, and agreeable to al thynges that are required of them, and make peace with al men which comme vnto them,

2 And howe they were doughtie menne of ſtrength: beſides that, it was tolde hym of their batels and noble actes whiche they dyd in Galatia, howe they had conquered them, and brought them vnder tribute, " Or French menne.

3 And what great thinges they had donne in Spayne: how that with their wiſdome and ſober behauour, they had wonne the mines of ſiluer and golde that are there,

4 And obteyned al the lande, with other places farre from them: how they had diſcomfited and ſlayne downe the kynges that came vpon them, from the vttermoſte parte of the earth, and howe other people gaue them tribute euery yeere:

5 How they had ſlayne & ouercomme Philip,

and

" Or, the Macedonians.

and Perſes kyng of " Cethim, and other mo in batayle, whiche had brought theyr ordinance agaynſt them:

6 Howe they diſcomfited great Antiochus kyng of Aſia, that would needes fight with them, hauyng an hundred and twentie Elephantes, with horſemem, charets, and a very great hoſte:

B 7 How they tooke him ſelfe alyue, and ordained hym, with ſuche as ſhoulde raigne after hym, to pay them a great tribute, yea, and to fynde them good ſureties and pledge beſides al this:

8 How they had taken from him India, Media, and Lydia, his beſt landes, and geuen them to kyng Eumenus:

9 Agayne, howe they perceyuyng that the Greekes were comming to vexe them,

10 Sent agaynſt them a captayne of an hoſt, whiche gaue them batel, ſlue many of them, led away theyr wyues and children captiue, ſpoyled them, tooke poſſeſſion of theyr lande, and deſtroyed their ſtrong holdes, and ſubdued them to be theyr bondmen, vnto this day.

11 Moreouer, how that as for other kingdomes and Iles, whiche ſomtime withſtoode them, they deſtroyed them, and brought them vnder theyr dominion:

12 But keept amitie with their owne freends, and thoſe that were confederate with them, and conquered kyngdomes both farre and nygh: and that whoſoeuer heard of theyr renowme, was afrayde of them.

C 13 For whom they would helpe to their kingdomes, thoſe raigned: and whom it liked not them to raigne, they put them downe: And how they were come to great preheminence,

14 Hauyng no kyng among them, neyther anye man clothed in purple to be magnified therethrough:

" Or, a counſel, or ſenate houſe.

15 But had ordayned them ſelues a " parliament, wherein there ſate three hundred and twentie Senatours dayly vpon the counſel, to diſpatche euer the buſineſſe of the people, and to keepe good order:

" Or, one man.

16 And howe that euerye yeere they choſe a " Mayre to haue the gouernance of al theyr lande, to whom euerye man was obedient, and there was neyther euyl wyl, nor diſcention among them.

" Or, Acchus.

17 Then Iudas choſe Eupolemus, the ſonne of " Iohn, the ſonne of Iacob, and Iaſon, the ſonne of Eleazer, and ſent them to Rome, for to make freendſhip, and a bonde of loue with them, 18 That they might take from them the bondage of the Greekes: for the Iewes ſaw that the Greekes woulde ſubdue the kyngdome of Iſrael.

" Or, Senate houſe.

19 So they went vnto Rome, a verye great iourney, and came vnto the " Parliament, and ſayde, D

20 Iudas Machabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Iewes, hath ſent vs vnto you, to make a bonde of freendſhip and peace with you, and ye to note vs as your louers and freendes.

21 And that matter pleaſed the Romaines ryght wel:

22 Wherfore it was written vp: of the whiche the Romanes made a wryting in tables of braſſe, and ſent it to Hieruſalem, that they might haue by them a memorial of the ſame peace and bonde of freendſhyppe, after this manner:

23 God ſaue the Romanes and the people of the Iewes both by ſea and by lande, & keepe the ſworde and enimie from them for euermore:

24 If there come firſt any warre vppon the Romanes, or any of their freendes throughout al theyr dominion,

25 The people of the Iewes ſhal helpe them, as the tyme requyreth, and that with al their hartes.

26 Alſo they ſhal neither geue nor ſende vnto their enimies vitailes, weapons, money, nor ſhippes: but fulfil their couenantes at the Romanes pleaſure, takyng nothyng of them therefore. E

27 Agayne, if the people of the Iewes happen fyrſt to haue warre, the Romanes ſhal ſtand by them with a good wyl, accordyng as the tyme wyl ſuffer:

28 Neyther ſhal they geue vnto the Iewes enimies vitailes, weapons, money, or ſhippes: Thus are the Romanes content to do, & ſhal fulfil their charge without any diſceite.

29 Accordyng to theſe articles, the Romanes made the bonde with the Iewes.

30 Now after theſe articles [ſayde they] if any of the parties wyl put to them, or take anye thyng from them, they ſhal do it with yͤ conſent of both: and whatſoeuer they adde vnto them, or take from them, it ſhal ſtand faſt.

31 And as touching the euil that Demetrius hath donne vnto the Iewes, we haue written vnto hym, ſayeing, Wherfore layeſt thou thy heauie yoke vpon the Iewes our freends and louers? F

32 If they make anye complaynt of thee agayne vnto vs, we ſhal defende them, and fight with thee by ſea and by lande, accordyng to iuſtice.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 After the death of Nicanor, Demetrius ſendeth his armie agaynſt Iudas. 18 Iudas is ſlayne. 34 Ionathas is put in the ſteede of his brother. 47 The ſtryfe betwene Ionathas and Bacchides. 55 Alcimus is taken with the paulſie, and dyeth. Bacchides returneth agayne vnto the kyng. 68 He commeth vpon Ionathas by the counſel of certayne wicked perſons, and is ouercomme. 70 The truice of Ionathas with Bacchides.

A 1 IN the meane ſeaſō, when Demetrius hearde that *Nicanor and his hoſte was ſlayne in the feelde, he proceeded further, to ſende Bacchides and Alcimus againe into Iurie, and the cheef ſtrength of his hoſt with them.

2 So they went foorth by the way that leadeth vnto Galgala, and pitched their tentes before Maſaloth (whiche is in Arbellis) and wan the citie, and ſlue muche people.

3 In the firſt moneth of the hundred fifty and two yeere, they brought their hoſt, and layde their ſiege agaynſt Hieruſalem:

4 But raiſing their campe, they came to Berea, with twentie thouſande footemen, and two thouſande horſemen.

“ Or, Eleaſa.

5 Now Iudas had pitched his tent at “ Laiſa, with three thouſand choſen menne,

6 And when they ſawe the multitude of the other armie, that it was ſo great, they were ſoare afrayde, and manye conueyed them ſelues out of the hoſte, inſomuche that there abode no more of them, but eyght hundred menne.

B 7 When Iudas ſaw that his hoſt failed him, and that he muſte needes fyght, it brake his hart, that he had no tyme to geather them togeather: wherfore the man was in extreme trouble.

8 Neuertheleſſe, he ſayde vnto them that remayned with hym: Vp, let vs goe agaynſt our enimies, peraduenture we ſhalbe able to fyght with them.

9 But they woulde haue ſtopped hym, ſaying, We ſhal not be able: therefore nowe let vs ſaue our lyues, and turne agayne to our brethren: for ſhould we fight agaynſt them, beyng ſo fewe?

(a) He which was wont to pray and ouercomme, is ouercomme when he truſteth in his ſtrength, and omitteth prayer.

10 And Iudas ſayde, (a) God forbyd that we ſhould flee from them: wherfore if our time be comme, let vs dye manfully, for our brethren, and let vs not ſtayne our honour.

11 Then the hoſt remooued out of the tentes, and ſtoode agaynſt them, and the horſemen were diuided in two partes: the ſling caſters and Archers went before the hoſte, and al the myghtie menne were formoſte in the feelde.

12 Bacchides him ſelfe was in yͤ ryght wing of the batel, and the hoſt drewe nygh in two partes, and blew the trumpettes.

13 They of Iudas ſide blewe the trumpettes alſo, and the earth ſhooke at the noyſe of the hoſtes: and they ſtrake a feelde from the morowe tyl nyght. C

14 And when Iudas ſawe that Bacchides hoſt was ſtrongeſt of the ryght ſide, he tooke with hym al the hardie menne,

15 And brake the ryght wyng of their order, and folowed vpon them vnto mount Azot.

16 Nowe when they whiche were the left wyng, ſawe that the right ſide was diſcomfited, they purſued Iudas & them that were with hym harde at the heeles.

17 Then was there a ſoare batayle: for many were ſlaine and wounded on both the parts.

18 Iudas alſo hym ſelfe was kylled, and the remnant fled.

19 So Ionathas and Simon tooke Iudas their brother, and buried hym in his fathers ſepulchre in the citie of Modin.

20 And al the people of Iſrael made great lamentation for him, & mourned long, ſayeing, D

21 Alas that this worthy ſhoulde be ſlayne, whiche deliuered the people of Iſrael.

22 As for other thinges parteyning to the batailes of Iudas, the noble actes that he dyd, and of his worthyneſſe, they are not written, for they were very many.

23 *Now after the death of Iudas, wycked menne came vp in al the coſtes of Iſrael, and there aroſe al ſuch, as did worke vngodlines.

Ioſephus cap.3.lib.13.anti.

24 In thoſe dayes, was there a great dearth in the lande, and al the countrey gaue ouer them ſelues and theyrs vnto Bacchides.

25 So Bacchides choſe wycked menne, and made them Lordes in the lande.

26 Theſe ſought out and made ſearche for Iudas freendes, and brought them vnto Bacchides, whiche auenged him ſelfe vpon them with great deſpite.

27 And there came ſo great trouble in Iſrael, as was not ſince the tyme that no prophete was ſeene there.

28 Then came al Iudas freendes togeather, and ſayde vnto Ionathas:

29 Forſomuche, as thy brother Iudas is dead, there is none lyke hym to goe foorth againſt our enimies, agaynſt Bacchides, and ſuche as are aduerſaries of our owne people.

30 Wherfore this day we chooſe thee for him, to be our Prince and Captayne, to order our batayle.

31 And Jonathas tooke the gouernance vpon hym at the ſame time, and ruled in ſteade of his brother Judas.

32 When Bacchides gate knowledge therof, he ſought for to ſlaye hym.

33 But Jonathas and Simon his brother, perceiuing that, fled into the wyldernesſe of Thecua with al their companie, and pitched their tentes by the water poole of Aſphar.

E 34 Whiche when Bacchides vnderſtoode, he came ouer Jordane with al his hoſt, vppon the Sabboth day.

35 Now had Jonathas ſent his brother [John] a captayne of the people, to pray his freendes the Nabuthites, that they would lend them their ordinance, for they had muche,

Or, Ambri. 36 So the children of " Jambri came out of Madaba, and tooke John, & al that he had, and went their way withal, when they had taken it.

37 Then came woorde vnto Jonathas and Simon his brother, that yͤ children of Jambri made a great mariage, and brought the bryde from Madaba, with great pompe: for ſhe was daughter to one of the nobleſt Princes of Chanaan.

38 Wherefore they remembred the blood of John their brother, aud went vp, & hid them ſelues vnder the ſhadow of the mountayne.

39 So they lyft vp their eyes, and looked, and beholde, there was muche a doo, and great preparation: for the bridegrome came foorth, and his freendes and his brethren met them with tympanies, inſtrumentes of muſicke, and many weapons.

40 Then Jonathas and they that were with hym, roſe out of their lurking places againſt them, and ſlue many of them: and the remnant fled into the mountaines, & they tooke al their ſubſtance.

F 41 Thus the marriage was turned to mournyng, and the noyſe of theyr melodye, into lamentation.

42 And ſo when they had auenged yͤ (a) blood of their brother, they turned againe vnto Jordane.

(a) Blood doeth require blood.

43 Bacchides hearyng this, came vnto the very border of Jordane with a great power, vpon the Sabboth day.

44 And Jonathas ſayde to his company, Let vs get vp, & fight againſt pur enimies: for it ſtandeth not with vs to day, as in time paſt.

45 Beholde, our enimies are in our way, the water of Jordane vppon the one ſyde of vs, with bankes, fens, & woods, on the other ſide, ſo that there is no place for vs to depart vnto.

46* Wherefore crye nowe vnto heauen, that ye may be deliuered from the power of your enimies: So they ſtroke the batayle.

2.Par.10.a
1.Mac.4.b

47 And Jonathas ſtretched out his hande to ſmyte Bacchides, but he fled backwarde.

48 Then Jonathas and they that were with hym, leapt into Jordane, and ſwimmed ouer Jordane vnto the further banke: but the other woulde not paſſe ouer Jordane after hym.

49 And there were ſlayne of Bacchides ſyde that day a thouſand menne. G

50 Therefore Bacchides with his hoſt turned againe to Hieruſalem, & buylt vp the caſtles and ſtrong holdes that were in Jurie, Jericho, Emaus, Bethoron, Bethel, Thamnata, " Phara, and " Thopo, with hygh walles, with portes, and with lockes:

Or, Pharathoni.
Or, Tepho.

51 And ſet menne to keepe them, that they might vſe theyr malice vpon Iſrael.

52 He walled vp the citie Bethſura, Gazara, and the caſtle, and prouided them with men and vittayles.

53 He tooke alſo the cheefeſt mennes ſonnes in the countrey for pledges, and put them in the caſtle at Hieruſalem to be keapt.

54 Afterward, in the hundred fyftie and three yeere, in the ſeconde moneth, Alcimus commaunded that they ſhoulde deſtroy yͤ walles of the inwarde court of the ſanctuarie, and he pulled downe, and began to deſtroy the monumentes of the prophetes,

55 But at the ſame tyme Alcimus was plagued, and ſmitten with a paulſie, and his enterpriſes were hindered, and his mouth was ſtopped [by God] ſo that he coulde no more ſpeake, nor commaund any of his houſe concernyng his buſineſſe.

56 Thus dyed Alcimus in great miſerie at the ſame tyme.

57 And when Bacchides ſawe that Alcimus was dead, he turned againe to the king: and ſo the land was in reſt two yeeres.

58 Then al the vngodly menne helde a counſel, ſayeing, Behold, Jonathas and his companye are at eaſe, and dwel without care, wherefore let vs bryng Bacchides hyther, and he ſhal take them al in one nyght.

59 So they went, and gaue Bacchides this counſel.

60 Whiche aroſe, to come with a great hoſt, & ſent letters priuily to his adherentes which were in Jurie, to take Jonathas and thoſe that were with hym: but they might not, for the other had gotten knowledge of theyr deuice.

uice.

61 And Jonathas tooke fiftie menne of the countrey, whiche were the ringleaders of them, and ſlue them.

62 Then Jonathas and Simon with theyr company departed vnto the citie * Bethbaſin, whiche lieth in the wilderneſſe, and repaired the decay thereof, and made it ſtrong.

* Or, Bethbeſſen.

63 When Bacchides knewe this, he geathered al his hoſt, and ſent woorde to them that were in Jurie.

64 Then came he and layde ſeege to Bethbaſin, and fought agaynſt it a long ſeaſon, and made inſtrumentes of warre.

65 Now Jonathas leaft his brother Simon in the citie, and went foorth hym ſelfe into the countrey, and came with a certaine number,

66 And ſlue * Odomeras, and his brethren, and the chyldren of Phaſeron in their tentes, ſo that he began to be ſtrong, and to increaſe in power.

* Or, Odaren.

67 As for Simon and his companye, they went out of the citie, and brent vp the inſtrumentes of warre,

68 And fought agaynſt Bacchides, and diſcomfited him: & Bacchides was ſore vexed, becauſe his counſel & trauaile was in vayne.

69 Wherefore, he was wroth at the wycked menne [a] that gaue hym counſel to comme into their land, and ſlue many of them: Then purpoſed he with his companie to goe a way into his owne countrey.

(a) wicked counſel falleth on the counſellours.

70 Wherof when Jonathas had knowledge, he ſent ambaſſadours vnto him, for to make peace with hym, and that he ſhoulde deliuer his priſoners agayne.

71 To the whiche Bacchides conſented gladly, and dyd accordyng to his deſyre: yea, and made an oth that he ſhoulde neuer doo hym harme, al the dayes of his lyfe.

72 So he reſtored vnto him al yͤ priſoners that he had taken out of the lande of Juda, & then turned & went his way into his owne lande, neither proceeded he anye further to comme vnto the borders of Juda.

73 Thus Iſrael had no more warre, and Jonathas dwelt at Machmas, and beganne there to gouerne the people, and deſtroyed the vngodly menne out of Iſrael.

The.x.Chapter.

4 Demetrius deſyreth to haue peace with Jonathas. 48 Alexander mooueth warre agaynſt Demetrius. 50 Demetrius is ſlayne. 51 The freendſhyp of Ptolomeus and Alexander.

A 1 IN the hundred and threſcore yeere, came Alexander the ſonne of Noble * Antiochus, and tooke Ptolomais, whoſe citizins receiued hym, and there he raigned.

* Or, Epiphanes.

2 When Demetrius heard thereof, he geathered an exceedyng great hoſt, and went foorth agaynſt hym to fyght.

3 Wherefore Demetrius ſent letters vnto Jonathas with louing woordes, and prayſed hym greatly.

4 For he ſayd: We wil firſt make peace with hym, before he bynde him ſelfe with Alexander agaynſt vs:

5 Els he ſhal remember the euil that we haue donne againſt him, his brother, & his people.

6 And ſo he gaue Jonathas leaue to gether an hoſt, to make weapons, & to be confederate with hym, and commaunded the pledges that were in yͤ caſtle to be deliuered vnto him.

B 7 Then came Jonathas to Hieruſalem, and read the letters in the audience of al the people, and of them that were in the caſtle.

8 And therefore were they ſoare afrayde, becauſe they hearde that the kyng had geuen hym licence to geather an hoſt.

9 Thus were yͤ pledges deliuered vnto Jonathas, whiche reſtored them to their parentes.

10 Jonathas alſo dwelt at Hieruſalem, and began to buylde vp, and to repayre the citie:

11 Commaunding the woorkemen to wal it and the mount Sion round about with free ſtone, to be a ſtrong holde: and ſo they dyd.

12 As for the Heathen that were in the caſtles, whiche Bacchides had made vp, they fled:

13 So that euery man leaft the place, & went into his owne countrey.

14 Only at Bethſura remained certaine of the Jewes, whiche had forſaken the lawe and commaundementes of God, for Bethſura was their refuge. C

15 Nowe when kyng Alexander heard of the promyſes that Demetrius had made vnto Jonathas, and when it was tolde hym of the batayles and noble actes, whiche he, and his brethren had donne, and of the great trauayles that they had taken,

16 He ſayd, Where ſhal we finde ſuch a man? wel, we wil make hym our freende, and be confederate with hym.

17 Upon this, he wrote a letter vnto hym, with theſe woordes:

18 Kyng Alexander ſaluteth his brother Jonathas.

19 We haue heard of thee, that thou art a valiant man, and meete to be our freende:

20 Wherefore, this day we ordeyne thee to be the hygh prieſt of thy people, and to be called the kinges freende (Upon this, he ſent him a purple clothing, and a crowne of golde) that thou mayeſt conſyder what is for our profite, and keepe freendſhyp towarde vs.

D 21 So in the ſeuenth moneth of the hundred and threeſcore yeere, vpon the ſolempne feaſt day of the tabernacles, Ionathas put the holy rayment vppon hym: then geathered he an hoſt, and prepared many weapons.

22 Whiche when Demetrius heard, he was marueylous ſoary,

23 And ſayd, Alas what haue we donne, that Alexander hath preuented vs, in geatting the freendſhyp of the Iewes, for his owne defence:

24 Yet wil I write louingly vnto them alſo, yea, and promiſe them dignities & rewardes, that they may be of my ſyde.

25 Whereuppon he wrote vnto them theſe woordes: Kyng Demetrius ſendeth greetyng vnto the people of the Iewes:

26 Whereas ye haue keapt your couenant towarde vs, and continued in our freendſhyp, not enclining to our enimies, we were glad when we heard thereof.

27 Wherefore remaine ſtil, and be faithful to vs, and we ſhal wel recompence you for the thinges that ye haue donne on our partie:

E 28 We ſhal releaſe you of many charges, and geue you rewardes.

29 And now I diſcharge you & al the Iewes from tributes, I forgeue you the cuſtomes of ſalt, and releaſe you of the crowne taxes, of the thirde part of ſeede,

30 And halfe the fruite of trees, whiche is myne owne duetie, I doo releaſe them from this day foorth, ſo that they ſhal not be taken of the lande of Iuda, nor of the three Cities, whiche are added thereunto out of Samaria & Galilee, from this day foorth for euermore.

31 Hieruſalem alſo, with al things belonging thereto, ſhalbe holy and free, yea, the tithes, and tributes ſhal parteyne vnto it.

32 As for the power of the caſtle whiche is at Hieruſalem, I remit, & geue it vnto the high prieſt, that he may ſet in it ſuche menne as he ſhal chooſe to keepe it.

33 I freely deliuer al the Iewes that are priſoners throughout al my realme, ſo that euery one of them ſhalbe free from payeing any tribute, yea, euen of their cattel.

34 Al the ſolempne feaſtes, Sabbothes, new moones, the dayes appointed, the thre dayes before and after the feaſt, ſhalbe free for al the Iewes in my realme.

36 So that in them, no man ſhal haue power to doo any thing, or to vexe any of them in any manner of cauſe.

36 There ſhal thirtie thouſand alſo of yͤ Iewes be written vp in the kynges hoſt, and haue their wages payed as al other men of warre of the kinges ſhould haue: and of them ſhalbe ordeined certain to keepe the kings ſtrong holdes.

37 Yea, and ſome of them ſhalbe ſet ouer the kyngs ſecrete affayres: and their gouernours, & princes ſhalbe of them ſelues, and lyue after theyr owne lawes, as the kyng hath commaunded in the lande of Iuda.

38 And the three cities that are fallen vnto Iurie F from the countrey of Samaria, ſhalbe taken as Iurie, and be vnder one, neyther be ſubiect to anye ſtrange lord, but to the hyghe prieſt.

39 As for Ptolomais and the land parteyning thereto, I geue it vnto the ſanctuarie at Hieruſalem, for the neceſſary expences of the holy thinges.

40 Moreouer, I wil geue euery yeere fifteene thouſand ſicles of ſiluer, of the kynges reuenues, out of yͤ places apparteining vnto me.

41 And al the ouerplus whiche they haue not payed for thinges due, as they did in the former yeeres, from hencefoorth they ſhal geue it, towarde the woorkes of the temple.

42 And beſides this, the fyue thouſande ſicles of ſiluer whiche they receiued yeerely, of the account appointed, for the enterteynement of the ſanctuarie, theſe yeeres paſſed, euen theſe thynges ſhalbe releaſſed, becauſe they apparteyne to the prieſtes that miniſter.

43 Item, whoſoeuer they be, that flee vnto the temple at Hieruſalem, or within the liberties thereof, where as they are fallen into the kynges danger for any manner of buſineſſe, they ſhalbe pardoned, and al the goodes that they haue in my realme ſhalbe free.

44 For the building alſo, and repayring of the woorke of the ſanctuarie, expences ſhalbe geuen out of the kynges reuenues:

45 Yea, & for the making of the walles round about Hieruſalem, for yͤ breaking downe of the olde, and for the ſetting vp at the ſtrong holdes in Iurie, ſhal the coſtes and charges be geuen out of the kynges reuenues.

46 *But when Ionathas and yͤ people hearde theſe woordes, they gaue no credence vnto them, neither receiued them: for they remembred the great wyckedneſſe that he had done vnto Iſrael, and howe ſoare he had vexed them. 1. Mac. 7. d

47 Wherefore, they agreed vnto Alexander, for

foꝛ he was a pꝛince that had dealt freendlye with them, and ſo they ſtood by him alway.

Ioſe,ca.6. lib.13. 48 Then geathered kyng Alexander a great hoſt, and bꝛought his armie agaynſt Demetrius:

G 49 So the two kynges ſtroke battayle togeather, but Demetrius hoſte fled, and Alexander folowed after, and fel vpon them.

50 A mightie ſoare feelde was it, continuing tyl the ſunne went downe: and Demetrius was ſlayne the ſame day.

51 And Alexander ſent Ambaſſadours vnto Ptolomi, the kyng of Egypt, with theſe woꝛdes, ſayeing,

52 Foꝛſomuche, as I am comme agayne to my realme, and am ſet in the thꝛone of my pꝛogenitours, and haue gotten the dominion, ouercommed Demetrius,

53 Conquered the lande, and ſtriken a feelde with hym, ſo that we haue diſcomfited both hym, and his hoſt, and ſit in the thꝛone of his kyngdome:

54 Let vs now make frendſhyp togeather, geue me thy daughter to wyfe, ſo ſhal I be thy ſonne in lawe, & both geue thee rewards, and her accoꝛdyng to thy dignitie.

55 Ptolomi the king gaue anſweare, ſayeing, Happy be the day wherein thou art comme agayne to the lande of thy pꝛogenitours, and ſet in the thꝛone of theyꝛ kyngdome.

56 And now wyl I fulfyl thy wꝛyting: but meete me at Ptolomais, that we may ſee one another, and that I may marry my daughter vnto thee, accoꝛdyng to thy deſyꝛe.

57 So Ptolomi went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolomais, in the hundꝛed thꝛeeſcoꝛe and two yeere, 58 Where kyng Alexander mette him: and he gaue Alexander his daughter Cleopatra, and married them at Ptolomais with great woꝛſhyp, lyke as the manner of kynges is to be.

59 Then wꝛote kyng Alexander vnto Jonathas, that he ſhould comme and meete him.

60 So he went honoꝛably vnto Ptolomais, and there he mette the two kinges, and gaue them and theyꝛ freendes great pꝛeſentes of gold, & ſiluer, and found fauour in their ſight.

61 And there came togeather agaynſt Jonathas, certayne wicked menne and vngratious perſons of Iſrael, making complaintes of him: but the kyng regarded them not.

62 As foꝛ Jonathas, the kyng commaunded to take of his garmentes, and to cloth him in purple: and ſo they dyd. Then the kyng appointed hym to ſit by hym,

63 And ſayd vnto his pꝛinces, Goe with him into the middeſt of the citie, and make a pꝛoclamation, that no man complayne againſt hym, of any matter, and that no man trouble hym foꝛ any manner of cauſe.

64 So it happened, that when his accuſers ſawe the woꝛſhip whiche was pꝛoclaymed of hym, and that he was clothed in purple, they fled euery one.

65 And the kyng made muche of hym, wꝛote hym among his cheefe freendes, made hym a Duke, and partaker of his dominion.

66 *Thus Jonathas went agayne to Hieruſalem, with peace and gladneſſe. Ioſe,cap.6 lib,13,anti:

67 In the hundꝛed thꝛeeſcoꝛe and fifth yeere, came Demetrius, the ſonne of Demetrius, from Creta, into his fathers lande:

68 Wherof when Alexander heard tel, he ſhas ryght ſoary, and returned vnto Antioch.

69 And Demetrius choſe *Apollonius, whiche had the gouernance of Celoſiria, to be his captayne: So he geathered a great hoſt, and came vnto Jamnia, and ſent woꝛde vnto Jonathas the hygh pꝛieſt, ſayeing, i.Mac.3.a.

70 Dareſt thou withſtande vs thee ſelfe alone? As foꝛ me, I am but laughed to ſcoꝛne, and ſhamed, becauſe thou diddeſt vaunt thy ſtrength agaynſt vs in the mountaines.

71 Nowe therefoꝛe, if thou truſteſt in thyne owne ſtrength, comme downe to vs into the playne feelde, and there let vs trye the matter togeather, foꝛ thou ſhalt knowe, that I haue the ſtrength of many cities,

72 And ſhalt know who I am, and the other that ſtande by me, whiche ſaye, That your foote is not able to ſtande befoꝛe our face, foꝛ thy fathers haue benne twyſe chaſed in their owne lande.

73 And now how wylt thou be able to abide ſo great an hoſt of hoꝛſemen and footemen in the feelde, where as is neither rocke, ſtone, noꝛ place to flee vnto?

74 When Jonathas heard the woꝛds of Apollonius, he was moued in his mind, wherfoꝛe he choſe ten thouſand menne, and went out of Hieruſalem: and Simon his bꝛother mette hym, foꝛ to helpe hym.

75 And they pitched theyꝛ tentes at Joppa: but the citie keapt hym foꝛth, foꝛ Apollonius garriſon was in Joppa.

76 Then Jonathas layde ſeege to it, and they that were in the citie, foꝛ very feare let hym in: and ſo Jonathas wanne Joppa.

77 Apollonius hearyng of this, tooke thꝛee thouſand hoꝛſmen, with a great hoſt on foot, and went to Azotus as though he woulde goe further, and came immediatly into the playne feelde, becauſe he had ſo many horſemen, and put his truſt in them.

78 So Ionathas folowed vpon hym to Azotus, and the army ſkirmiſhed with his rearewarde, and there they ſtroke the batayle.

79 Nowe had Apollonius leaft a thouſande horſemen behinde them priuily in the tentes.

80 And when Ionathas knewe that ſuche wayte was layde behynde them, they went rounde about the enimies hoſt, & ſhot dartes at the people, from the mornyng to the euenyng.

81 As for Ionathas people, they keapt theyr order, as he had commaunded them, and the enimies horſes were weery.

82 Then brought Simon foorth his hoſt, and ſet them agaynſt the footemen (for the horſmen were weery already:) So he diſcomfited them, and they fled.

83 And they that were ſcattered in the feelde, gate them to Azotus, and came into the temple of Dagon theyr Idol, that they myght there ſaue theyr lyues.

84 But Ionathas ſet fyre vpon Azotus, and al the cities rounde about it, and tooke theyr goodes, and *brent vp the temple of Dagon, with al them that were fled into it. i.Mac,11.a

85 Thus were ſlayne and brent wel nyghe eyght thouſande menne.

86 So Ionathas remooued the hoſte from thence, and brought them to Aſcalon, where the menne of the citie came foorth, and mette hym with great woorſhyp.

87 After this, went Ionathas and his hoſte agayne to Hieruſalem, with great ſubſtance of good.

88 And when kyng Alexander hearde theſe thynges, he thought to doo Ionathas more woorſhyp:

89 And ſent him a coller of golde, as the vſe is to be geuen vnto ſuche as are of the kynges next blood: He gaue hym alſo the citie of Accaron, with the landes belongyng thereto, in poſſeſſion.

The.xi.Chapter,

1 The diſcention betwixt Ptolomeus, and Alexander his ſonne in lawe. 17 The death of Alexander. 19 Demetrius raigneth after the death of Ptolomeus. 22 Sion is beſieged of Ionathas. 42 Demetrius ſeeing that no man reſiſteth him, ſendeth his army againe. 54 Triphon moueth Antiochus agaynſt Demetrius. 60 Demetrius is deliuered by the ſuccour of Ionathas. 63 After his deliuerance he breaketh his couenant that he had made.

A 1 AND the kyng of Egypt geathered an hoſt lyke the ſande that lyeth vpon the ſea ſhoare, & many ſhips, *and went about thorow diſceite to obteyne yͤ kyngdome of Alexander, and to ioyne it vnto his owne realme. Ioſep.ca.7 lib.13.

2 Upon this, he tooke his iourney into Syria, vſyng gentle woordes, ſo that he was letten into the cities, and menne came foorth to meete hym: for kyng Alexander had commaunded them ſo to doo, becauſe he was his father in lawe.

3 Now when Ptolomi entred into any citie, he leaft menne of warre to keepe it: and this he dyd thorowout al the cities.

2.Ma.10.c. 4 And when he came to Azotus, *they ſhewed hym the temple of Dagon, and Azotus that was brent vp, with the other things whiche were deſtroyed, the dead bodies caſt abroade, and the graues that they had made by the waye ſide for ſuche as were ſlayne in the feelde,

5 And tolde yͤ king that Ionathas had donne al theſe thynges, to the intent they myght geat hym euil wyl: But the kyng ſayde not one woorde thereto.

6 And Ionathas mette the kyng with great honour at Ioppa, where they ſaluted one an other, and tooke theyr reſt.

7 So when Ionathas had gonne with the kyng, vnto the water that was called Eleutherus, he turned agayne to Hieruſalem.

8 Nowe Ptolomi had gotten the dominion of the cities, vnto Seleucia vpon yͤ ſea coaſte, imaginyng wycked counſels agaynſt Alexander, B

9 And ſent Ambaſſadours vnto Demetrius, ſayeing: Come, let vs make a bonde betwixt vs, ſo ſhal I geue thee my daughter that Alexander hath, and thou ſhalt raigne in thy fathers kyngdome.

10 I repent that I gaue Alexander my daughter, for he goeth about to ſlaye me.

11 And thus he ſlaundered Alexander, becauſe he would haue had his realme.

12 Thus he tooke his daughter from hym, gaue her vnto Demetrius, and forſooke Alexander: ſo that his malyce was openlye knowen.

13 And Ptolomi came to Antioch, where he ſet two crownes vppon his owne head, the crowne of Egypt, and of Aſia.

14 In the meane ſeaſon was kyng Alexander in Cilicia: for they that dwelt in thoſe C places had rebelled agaynſt hym.

C 15 But when Alexander hearde of this, he came to warre agaynſt hym: So kyng Ptolomi brought foorth his hoſt, and met hym with a myghty power, & chaſed hym away.

16 Then fled Alexander into Arabia, there to be defended: and kyng Ptolomeus honour increaſed.

17 And Zabdiel the Arabian, ſmote of Alexanders head, and ſent it vnto Ptolomi.

18 But the thirde day after dyed kyng Ptolomi hym ſelfe, and they whom he had ſet in the ſtrong holdes, were ſlayne one of another.

19 And Demetrius raigned in the hundred threeſcore and ſeuenth yeere.

20 At the ſame time geathered Ionathas them that were in Iurie, to lay ſiege vnto the caſtle which was at Hieruſalem, and ſo they made many inſtrumentes of warre agaynſt it.

21 Then went there certayne vngodly perſons, whiche hated theyr owne people, vnto kyng Demetrius, and tolde hym that Ionathas beſieged the caſtle.

D 22 So when he hearde it, he was angry, and immediatly came vnto Ptolomais, & wrote vnto Ionathas, that he ſhoulde not lay ſiege to the caſtle, but come and ſpeake with him at Ptolomais in al haſt.

23 Neuertheleſſe, when Ionathas heard this, he commaunded to beſiege it: He choſe alſo certayne of the elders and prieſtes of Iſrael, and put hym ſelfe in peril,

24 And tooke with him golde, ſiluer, clothing, and diuers preſentes, and went to Ptolomais vnto the kyng, and founde hym gratious.

25 And though certayne vngodly men of his owne people made complaintes vpon hym,

1.Ma.10.d 26 Yet the kyng entreated hym,* lyke as his predeceſſours had done before, and promoted hym in the ſyght of al his freendes,

27 Confyrmed hym in the hygh prieſthood, with al the woorſhip that he had afore, and made hym his cheefe freende.

1.Ma.10.c 28 Ionathas alſo deſyred the kyng, that he woulde make Iurie free, * with the three head cities of Samaria, and the landes parteynyng thereto: vpon this dyd Ionathas promiſe hym three hundred talentes.

E 29 Whereunto the kyng conſented, and gaue Ionathas wryting of the ſame, conteynyng theſe woordes:

30 King Demetrius ſendeth greeting vnto his brother Ionathas, and to the people of the Iewes.

31 We ſende you here a copie of the letter whiche we dyd write vnto our coſen Laſthenus concernyng you, that ye ſhoulde knowe it.

32 Kyng Demetrius ſendeth greeting vnto Laſthenus his father.

33 For the faythfulneſſe that our freendes the people of the Iewes keepe vnto vs, and for the louyng kyndneſſe whiche they beare toward vs, we are determined to doo them good.

34 Wherefore we aſſigne vnto the coſtes of Iudea, the three gouernmentes, Afferema, Lydda, and Ramatha, which are added vnto Iurie from Samaria, and al the landes parteynyng thereunto, to be freely ſeparated for ſuche as doo ſacrifice in Hieruſalem, both concernyng the paymentes whiche the kyng tooke yeerely aforetime, and the fruite alſo of the earth and trees:

35 As for other tythes and tributes that belonged vnto vs, we diſcarge them thereof from this tyme foorth.

36 In lyke manner we graunt vnto them al the cuſtomes of ſalt, and crowne taxes, whiche were brought vnto vs: & this freedome ſhal they haue fyrme and ſtedfaſt, from this tyme foorth for euermore.

37 Therefore, ſee that ye make a copie of theſe F our letters, and deliuer it vnto Ionathas, that it may be ſet vpon the holy mount in a conuenient place.

38 After this, when Demetrius the kyng ſawe that his lande was in reaſt, and that no reſiſtance was made agaynſt him, he ſent away al his hoſt, euery man to his owne place, except certayne bandes of ſtrangers, whom he brought from the Iles of the heathen: wherfore al his fathers hoſt hated hym.

39 * Nowe was there one Tryphon that had 1.Mac.12.c benne of Alexanders part afore, which when he ſawe that al the hoſt murmured agaynſt Demetrius, he went to Samalcue the Arabian, that brought vp Antiochus the ſonne of Alexander,

40 And lay ſoare vpon hym to deliuer hym this young Antiochus, that he might raigne in his fathers ſteede: He tolde hym alſo what great euyl Demetrius had donne, and howe his menne of warre loued hym not: and ſo remayned there a long ſeaſon.

41 And Ionathas ſent vnto kyng Demetrius, to driue them out whiche were in the caſtel at Hieruſalem, and thoſe that were in the fortreſſes, for they dyd Iſrael great harme.

42 So Demetrius ſent woorde vnto Ionathas, ſayeing, I wyl not only doo theſe thynges for thee and thy people: but at tyme conuenient, I wyl doo both thee and thy people great woorſhip.

43 But nowe thou ſhalt doo me a pleaſure, yf thou wylt ſende me men to helpe me: for al myne armie is gonne fro me.

44 So Jonathas ſent hym three thouſande ſtrong men vnto Antioch, & they came vnto the kyng, wherefore the kyng was very glad at theyr comming.

45 But they that were of the citie, euen an hundred and twentie thouſande men, geathered them togeather in the middeſt of the citie, and woulde haue ſlayne the kyng:

46 Whiche fledde into his court, and the citezins kept the ſtreetes of the citie, and beganne to fyght.

47 Then the king called for the Jewes helpe, whiche came vnto hym altogeather, & went abrode through the citie,

48 And ſlue the ſame day an hundred thouſand men, ſet fyre vpon the citie, and gate many ſpoyles in that day, and deliuered the kyng.

49 So when the citezins ſawe that the Jewes had gotten theyr wyl of the citie, and they them ſelues diſapointed of theyr purpoſe, they made their ſupplication vnto the kyng, ſayeing,

50 Graunt vs peace, and let the Jewes ceaſſe from troublyng vs, and the citie:

51 And vpon this, they caſt away their weapons. Thus they made peace, and the Jewes gate great worſhip in the ſyght of the king, and in the ſight of al that were in his realme, and were ſpoken of throughout the kyngdome: and ſo they came agayne to Hieruſalem with great goodes.

52 So the king Demetrius ſate in the throne of his kyngdome, and had peace in his land.

53 Neuertheleſſe, he diſcembled in al that euer he ſpake, and withdrewe hym ſelfe from Jonathas, neyther rewarded hym accordyng to the benefites which he had donne for him, but troubled hym very ſoare.

54 After this came Tryphon agayne with young Antiochus, whiche raigned, and was crowned kyng.

55 Then there geathered vnto hym al the menne of warre whom Demetrius had put away, theſe fought agaynſt Demetrius: whiche fledde, and turned his backe.

56 So Tryphon tooke the Elephantes, and wan Antioche.

57 And young Antiochus wrote vnto Jonathas, ſayeing, J confirme thee in thy prieſthood, and make thee ruler of foure countreys, that thou mayeſt be a freende of the kynges.

58 Upon this he ſent hym golden veſſels to be ſerued in, and gaue hym leaue to drynke in golde, to be clothed in purple, and to weare a coller of golde.

59 He made his brother Simon alſo captaine, from the coaſtes of Tyrus, vnto the borders of Egypt.

60 Then Jonathas tooke his iourney, and went through the cities beyond the water of Jordane, and al the men of warre of Syria, geathered them vnto hym for to helpe hym: So he came vnto Aſcalon, and they of the citie receiued hym honorably.

61 And from thence went he to Gaza, but they woulde not let hym in: wherefore he layed ſiege vnto it, burnyng vp and ſpoylyng the places that were about the citie.

62 And the citezins of Gaza ſubmitted them ſelues vnto Jonathas, whiche made peace with them: but tooke of their ſonnes to pledge, ſent them to Hieruſalem, and went through the countrey vnto Damaſcus.

63 Nowe when Jonathas heard that Demetrius princes were come into Cades, whiche is in Galilee, with a great hoſt, purpoſing to dryue hym out of the countrey:

64 He came agaynſt them, and leaft Simon his brother in the lande.

65 And Simon came to Bethſura, and layed ſiege to it a long ſeaſon, & diſcomfited them.

66 So they deſyred to haue peace with hym: whiche he graunted them, and afterwarde put them out from thence, tooke the citie, and ſet men to keepe it.

67 And Jonathas with his hoſt came to the water of Geneſar, and betimes in the mornyng gate them to the plaine feelde of Azor:

68 And beholde, the hoaſtes of the heathen met them in the feelde, and layed watch for them in the mountaynes:

69 So that when Jonathas came agaynſt them, the other whiche were layed to watch, roſe out of theyr places and fought,

70 And they that were of Jonathas ſide fledde euery man, and there was not one of them leaft, except Mathathias the ſonne of Abſalomus, and Judas the ſonne of Calphi, the captayne of the hoſt.

71 Then Jonathas rent his clothes, laid earth vpon his head, (a) made his prayer,

(a) Beholde the effect of prayer.

72 And turned agayne to them in the feelde, where they fought togeather, & he put them to flight.

73 Now when his owne men that were fled, ſawe this, they turned agayne vnto him, and helped hym to folowe vpon al theyr enimies vnto theyr tentes at Cades, and there they camped.

74 So there were ſlayne of the heathen the ſame day three thouſande menne, and Jonathas turned agayne to Hieruſalem.

The

The.xii.Chapter.

1 Jonathas ſendeth Ambaſſadours to Rome, 2 and to the people of Sparta to renue their couenant of frendſhip. 20 Jonathas putteth to flight the princes of Demetrius. 40 Tryphon taketh Jonathas by deceite.

A 1 IOnathas ſeeing that the time was meete for him, choſe certayne men, and ſent them vnto Rome, for to ſtabliſhe & to renue * the freendſhippe with them:

1.Mac.7.a.

2 He ſent letters alſo vnto Sparta, and to other places in lyke manner.

3 So they went vnto Rome, and entred into the " counſel, and ſayde, Jonathas the hygh prieſt, & the people of the Jewes, ſent vs vnto you, for to renue the olde freendſhip and bond of loue.

" Or, ſenate.

4 Upon this, the Romanes gaue them free paſportes, that men ſhould leade them home into the lande of Juda peaceably.

5 And this is the copie of the letters that Jonathas wrote vnto the Spartians.

6 Jonathas the hygh prieſt, with the elders, prieſtes, and the other people of the Jewes, ſende greeting vnto the Spartians their brethren.

7 There were letters ſent long ago vnto Onias the hygh prieſt, from " Arius, whiche then raigned among you, that ye are our brethren, as the copie here vnder written dooth ſpecifie.

" Or, Darius.

B 8 And Onias entreated the Ambaſſadour that was ſent honorably, and receiued the letters, wherin there was mention made of the bonde of loue and freendſhip.

9 But as for vs, we neede no ſuch wrytings, for why? we haue the holy bookes of ſcripture in our handes to our comfort.

10 Neuertheleſſe, we had rather ſende vnto you, for the renuing of the brotherhood and freendſhip, leſt we ſhoulde be ſtrange vnto you: for it is long ſince the tyme that ye ſent woorde vnto vs.

11 Wherefore, in the ſacrifices that we offer, and other ceremonies vpon the high ſolempe dayes, and other, we allway remember you without ceaſſing, lyke as reaſon is, and as it becommeth vs to thynke vpon our brethren.

12 Yea, and are ryght glad of your proſperous honour.

13 And though we haue had great troubles and warres, ſo that the kings about vs, haue fought agaynſt vs:

C 14 Yet would we not be greeuous vnto you, nor to other of our louers and freends in theſe warres.

15 For we haue had helpe from heauen that hath ſuccoured vs, ſo that we are deliuered, and our enimies ſubdued.

16 Wherefore, we choſe Numenius the ſonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the ſonne of Jaſon, and ſent them vnto the Romanes, for to renue the olde " bonde of frendſhip and loue with them.

" Or, league.

17 We commaunded them alſo to come vnto you, to ſalute you, and to deliuer you our letters concernyng the renouation of our brotherhood.

18 And nowe ye ſhal doo ryght wel, to geue vs an anſweare thereunto.

19 And this is the copie of the wrytyng which Arius the kyng of Sparta ſent vnto Onias.

20 Arius the kyng of the Spartians, ſendeth greeting vnto Onias the hygh prieſt.

21 It is founde in wryting, that the Spartians and Jewes are brethren, and comme out of the generation of Abraham:

D 22 And nowe forſomuche as this is comme to our knowledge, ye ſhal doo wel to wryte vnto vs of your proſperitie.

23 As for vs, we haue written our minde vnto you, our catayle and goodes are yours, and yours ours: theſe thynges haue we commaunded to be ſhewed vnto you.

24 When Jonathas hearde that Demetrius princes were comme foorth to fight agaynſt hym with a greater hoſt then afore,

25 He went from Hieruſalem, and met them in the lande of Hemath: for he gaue them not ſpace to comme into his owne countrey.

26 And he ſent ſpies vnto theyr tentes, whiche came agayne, and tolde hym that they were appoynted to comme vpon him in the night ſeaſon.

27 Wherefore, when the ſunne was gonne downe, Jonathas commaunded his men to watche al the nyght, and to be ready with weapons for to fyght, and ſet watchemen rounde about the hoſt.

E 28 But when the aduerſaries heard that Jonathas was ready with his menne to the batayle, they feared, and were afrayde in theyr hartes, & kyndled fyres in theyr tentes, brake vp, and gate them away.

29 Neuertheleſſe, Jonathas and his company knewe it not tyl the mornyng, for they ſawe the fyres burnyng.

30 Then Jonathas folowed vpon them, but he myght not ouertake them, for they were gonne ouer the water Eleutherus.

31 So Jonathas departed vnto the Arabians, whiche were called Zabadei, ſlue them, and tooke theyr goodes.

32 He proceeded further alſo, and came vnto Damaſcus, and went through al the countrey.

F 33 But Simon his brother tooke his iourney, and came to Aſcalon, and to the next ſtrong holdes, departing vnto Joppa, and wanne it, 34 (For he hearde that they would deliuer the holde to them that tooke Demetrius parte) Wherefore he ſet menne of warre in the citie to keepe it.

35 After this came Jonathas home agayne, and called the elders of the people togeather, and deuiſed with them, for to buylde vp the ſtrong holdes in Jurie, 36 And to make the walles of Hieruſalem hygher, to ſet vp an hygh walle betwixt the caſtle and the citie, for to ſeparate it from the citie, that it myght be alone, and that menne ſhoulde neither bye nor ſel in it.

37 Upon this, they came togeather for to build vp the citie, and forſomuche as the wal vpon the brooke of the eaſt ſide, called Caphetetah was fallen downe, repayred it.

38 And Simon ſet vp Adiada in Sephela, and made it ſtrong, ſetting portes and lockes vpon it.

1. Mac. 2. c. 39 Now when * Tryphon purpoſed to raigne in Aſia, to be crowned, and to ſlay the kyng Antiochus:

40 He was afrayde that Jonathas would not ſuffer hym, but fyght agaynſt hym: Wherefore he went about to take Jonathas, and to kyl hym: So he departed, and came vnto Bethſan.

G 41 Then went Jonathas foorth agaynſt him to the batayle, with fourtie thouſande choſen men, and came vnto Bethſan alſo:

42 But when Tryphon ſawe that Jonathas came with ſo great an hoſt to deſtroy him, he was afrayde:

43 And therefore he receiued hym honorably, commended hym vnto al his freendes, and gaue hym rewardes, and commaunded his menne of warre to be as obedient vnto him, as to hym ſelfe:

44 And ſayd vnto Jonathas, Why haſt thou cauſed this people to take ſuche trauayle, ſeeing there is no warre betwixt vs?

45 Therefore ſende them home agayne, and chooſe certayne men to wayte vpon thee, and comme thou with me to Ptolomais: for I wyl geue it thee, with ẏ other ſtrong holdes, menne of warre, and their officers: as for me, I muſt depart, this is only the cauſe of my comming.

46 Jonathas beleeued hym, and dyd as he ſayde, putting away his hoſt, whiche went into the lande of Juda.

47 He kept but three thouſand by hym, whereof he ſent two thouſand into Galilee, and one thouſande went with hym ſelfe.

48 Nowe as ſoone as Jonathas entred into Ptolomais, the citezins ſparred the gates of the citie, and tooke hym, and ſlue al them with the ſwoorde that came in with hym.

49 Then ſent Tryphon an hoſt of foootemen and horſemen into Galilee, and into the great plaine feelde, to deſtroy al Jonathas cōpany:

50 But when they knewe that Jonathas was taken, and al they ſlayne that wayted vpon hym, they tooke counſel togeather, and encouraged one another, and came foorth agaynſt them ready to fyght.

51 So when they which folowed vpon them, ſawe that it was a matter of lyfe, they turned backe agayne.

52 As for the other, they went into the lande of Juda peaceably, and bewayled Jonathas, and them that were with hym ryght ſoare: and Iſrael made great lamentation.

53 Then al the heathen that were rounde about them, ſought to deſtroy them:

54 For they ſayde, Nowe haue they no captayne, nor any man to helpe them, therefore let vs ouercome them, and roote out theyr name from among menne.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 After Jonathas was taken, Simon is choſen captayne. 17 of whom Tryphon takyng his chyldren, and money for the redemption of Jonathas, killeth hym and his chyldren. 25 The graue of Jonathas. 31 Tryphon kylleth Antiochus, and poſſeſſeth the realme. 36 Demetrius taketh truſce with Simon. 43 Simon winneth Gaza. 50 He poſſeſſeth the towre of Sion. 53 He maketh his ſonne John captayne.

A 1 NOw when Simon heard that Tryphon geathered a great hoſt to comme into the lande of Juda, and to deſtroy it,

2 And ſawe that the people was in great fearefulneſſe and care: he came vp to Hieruſalem, and geathered the people togeather,

3 And gaue them exhortation, ſayeing, Ye knowe what great batayles I and my brethren, and my fathers houſe, haue fought for the lawe and the ſanctuarie, and what manner ner of troubles we haue ſeene.

1.Mac.6.c. 4 Through occaſion whereof, *al my brethren are ſlayne for Iſraels ſake, and I am leaſt alone.

5 And nowe let not me ſpare myne owne lyfe in any manner of trouble, for I am no better then my brethren:

6 But wil auenge my people, and the ſanctuarie, our chyldren and our wyues: for al the heathen are geathered togeather to deſtroy vs, of very malice.

7 At theſe woordes the hartes of the people were kyndled togeather,

B 8 So that they cryed with a loud voyce, ſayeing, Thou ſhalt be our captayne, in ſteede of Iudas and Ionathas thy brethren:

9 Order thou our batayle, and whatſoeuer thou commaundeſt vs, we ſhal doo it.

10 So he geathered al the menne of warre, makyng haſt to finiſhe al the walles of Hieruſalem, whiche he made ſtrong rounde about.

11 Then ſent he Ionathas the ſonne of Abſalomus, with a freaſhe hoſte vnto Ioppa, whiche droue them out that were in the caſtle, and remained there hym ſelfe.

12 Tryphon alſo remoued from Ptolomais with a great armie, to comme into the lande of Iuda, and Ionathas with him, in warde.

*Or, Addidis. 13 And Simon pitched his tentes at *Adus, before the plaine feelde.

C 14 But when Tryphon knew that Simon ſtoode vp in the ſteede of his brother Ionathas, and that he would warre agaynſt him, he ſent meſſengers vnto hym, ſayeing, 15 Where as we haue kept Ionathas thy brother, it is for money that he is owyng in the kynges accompt, concernyng the buſineſſe that he had in hande.

16 Wherefore ſende nowe a hundred talentes of ſiluer, and his two ſonnes for ſuertie (that when he is letten foorth, he ſhal not forſake vs) and we ſhal ſende hym agayne.

17 Neuertheleſſe, Simon knewe that he diſſembled in his woordes: yet commaunded he the money and chyldren to be deliuered vnto hym, leſt the Iſraelites myght haue hated hym,

18 And ſayde, Becauſe he ſent hym not the money and the chyldren, therefore is Ionathas dead.

19 So Simon ſent hym the chyldren, and an hundred talentes: but he diſſembled, & would not let Ionathas goe.

20 Afterwarde came Tryphon into the land to deſtroy it, and went rounde about by the way that leadeth vnto Ador: But whereſoeuer they went, thyther went Simon and his hoſt alſo.

D 21 Now they that were in the caſtle, ſent meſſengers vnto Tryphon, that he ſhould make haſt to come by the wyldterneſſe, and to ſende them vitailes.

22 And Tryphon made ready al his horſemenne, to come the ſame night: neuertheleſſe, it was a very great ſnowe, ſo that he came not, becauſe of the ſnowe, but he remoued, and went into the countrey of Galaad.

23 And when he drue nygh Baſchama, he ſlue Ionathas and his ſonnes there, 24 And then turned for to goe home into his owne lande.

25 Then ſent Simon for to featche his brothers dead coarſe, and buried it in Modin his fathers citie.

26 So al Iſrael bewayled hym with great lamentation, and mourned for hym very long.

E 27 And Simon made vpon the ſepulchre of his father and his brethren, a buyldyng, high to looke vnto, of free ſtone, behynde & before,

28 And ſet vp ſeuen pillers vpon it one againſt another, for his father, his mother, and foure brethren,

29 And ſet great pillers rounde about them, with armes vpon them, for a perpetual memorie, and carued ſhippes beſide the armes, that they myght be ſeene of men ſaylyng in the ſea.

30 This ſepulchre which he made at Modin, ſtandeth yet vnto this day.

31 *Now as Tryphon went foorth to walke with the young king Antiochus, he ſlue him trayterouſly, Ioſeph. cap.10.lib. 13.

32 And raigned in his ſteede, crowned hym ſelfe kyng of Aſia, and dyd muche euyl in the lande.

33 Simon alſo buylt vp the caſtles in Iurie, makyng them ſtrong with hygh towres, great walles, portes, and lockes, and layde vp vitayles in the ſtrong holdes.

F 34 And Simon choſe certayne men, and ſent them to kyng Demetrius, to deſyre him that he woulde diſcharge the lande from al bondage, for Tryphon had ſpoyled it very ſoare.

35 Whereupon Demetrius the kyng anſweared hym, and wrote vnto hym, after this manner,

36 Demetrius the kyng, ſendeth greeting vnto Simon the hygh prieſt his freende, with the elders and people of the Iewes:

37 The golden crowne, and pretious ſtone that ye ſent vnto vs, haue we receiued, and are ready to make a ſtedfaſt peace with you, yea and to wryte vnto our officers for to releaſe you, concernyng the thynges wherein we made you free.

38 And the appoyntment that we make with you, ſhalbe firme and ſtable: the ſtrong holds whiche ye haue buylded, ſhalbe your owne.

39 As for any ouerſyght or fault committed vnto this day, we forgeue it, and the crowne taxe that ye ought vs alſo: And where as was any other tribute in Hieruſalem, it ſhal now be no tribute:

40 And looke who are meete among you to be in our court, let them be written vp, that there may be peace betwixt vs.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken from Iſrael, in the hundred and ſeuentieth yeere.

42 And the people of the Iewes beganne to write in their letters and actes on this manner: * In the firſt yeere of Simon the hygh prieſt, a gouernour and prince of the Iewes.

1,Mac,13,d

43 In thoſe dayes went Simon vnto Gaza, and beſieged it rounde about, where he ſet vp ordinance of warre, and wanne a towre, whiche he tooke.

G 44 So they that gate into the towre, leapt into the citie, whiche was in a great feare:

45 Inſomuche that the people of the citie rent their clothes, and climed vp vpon the walles, with theyr wyues and chyldren, beſeechyng Simon to be at one with them, ſayeing,

46 O rewarde vs not after our wickedneſſe, but be gratious vnto vs, [and we ſhal doo thee ſeruice.]

47 Then Simon, for very pitie, would fight no more agaynſt them, but put them out of the citie, and cauſed the houſes wherein the images were, to be cleanſed, and ſo entred the citie with pſalmes of prayſe, geuing thankes vnto the Lorde.

48 So when he had caſt al abominations out of the citie, he ſet ſuche menne in it as kept the lawe of God, and made the citie ſtrong, and buylded a dwellyng place for hym ſelfe.

49 Nowe when they in the caſtle at Hieruſalem were kept ſo ſtraightly, that they coulde not comme foorth, nor goe into the countrey, and might neither bye nor ſel, they were very hungry, & many of them famiſhed to death:

50 Inſomuche that they beſought Simon to be at one with them, whiche he graunted them: So he put them out from thence, and cleanſed the caſtle from filthyneſſe.

51 And vpon the twentie and three day of the ſecond moneth, in the hundred threeſcore & eleuenth yeere, they entred into it with thankeſgeuing, and branches of palme trees, with harpes, croudes, cymbales, and lutes, ſinging pſalmes and ſonges of prayſe vnto God, for that the great enimie of Iſrael was ouercomme.

52 And Simon ordeyned that the ſame day ſhoulde be kept euery yeere with gladneſſe, 53 And made ſtrong the hil of the temple that was beſide the caſtle, where he dwelt hym ſelfe with his company.

34 Simon alſo perceiuing that Iohn his ſonne was a myghty man of armes, made hym captayne of al the hoſtes, and cauſed hym to dwel at ʺ Gaza.

ʺ Or, Gazaris.

The.xiiii.Chapter.

1 Demetrius is ouercome of Arſaces. 11 Simon beyng captayne, there is great quietneſſe in Iſrael. 18 The couenant of frendſhip with the Romanes, and with the people of Sparta is renued.

A 1 IN the hundred threeſcore and twelfth yeere, geathered kyng Demetrius his hoſt, and departed vnto Media, to geat hym helpe for to fyght againſt Tryphon.

2 Nowe when Arſaces the kyng of Perſia and Media, hearde that Demetrius was entred within his borders, he ſent one of his princes to take hym aliue, [and to bryng hym vnto him.]

3 So he went and ſlue Demetrius hoſt, tooke hym ſelfe, brought hym to Arſaces, whiche kept hym in warde.

4 And al the lande of Iuda was in reaſt ſo long as Simon liued, for he ſought yͤ wealth of his people, therefore were they glad to haue hym for theyr ruler, and to doo hym woorſhip allway.

5 Simon wanne the citie of Ioppa alſo for an hauen towne, and made it an entrance into the Iles of the ſea:

6 He enlarged the borders of his people, and conquered them more lande:

B 7 He geathered vp many of theyr people that were priſoners, he had the dominion of Gaza, Bethſura, and the caſtle whiche he cleanſed from fylthyneſſe, and there was no man that reſiſted hym.

8 So that euery man tylled his grounde in peace, the lande of Iuda and the trees gaue their fruite and encreaſe.

9 The elders ſate al in iudgement, & toke their deuice for the wealth of the lande, the young men put on woorſhip, & harneſſe vpon them.

10 He prouided vitalles for the cities, and made goodly ſtrong holdes of them, ſo that the fame of his worſhip was ſpoken of vnto the ende of the worlde.

Leui,26.2. 11 *For he made peace throughout the land, and Iſrael was ful of mirth and ioy.

12 Euery man ſate vnder his vine and figge trees, and there was no man to fray them away.

13 There was none in the lande to fyght agaynſt them, for then the kynges were ouercome.

C 14 He helped thoſe that were in aduerſitie among his people, he was diligent to ſee the lawe kept: as for ſuche as were vngodly and wicked, he tooke them away.

15 He ſet vp the ſanctuarie, and encreaſed the holy veſſels of the temple.

16 When the Romanes and Spartians had gotten woord that Jonathas was dead, they were ryght ſory.

17 But when they hearde that Simon his brother was made hygh prieſt in his ſteede, and howe he had wonne the lande agayne, with the cities in it:

18 They wrote vnto hym in tables of braſſe, to renue the frendſhip and bonde of loue, which they had made afore with* Judas *and Jonathas his brethren.

1.Mac,8.c. and,12,2.

19 Whiche writinges were read before the congregation at Hieruſalem. And this is the copie of the letters that the Spartians ſent:

20 The Senatours and citezins of Sparta, ſende greeting vnto Simon the great prieſt, with the elders, prieſtes, and the other people of the Jewes theyr brethren:

D 21 When your Ambaſſadours that were ſent vnto our people, certified vs of your worſhip, honour, and proſperous wealth: we were glad of theyr comming,

22 And haue written the ambaſſage in the publike recordes in this manner: [namely] that Numenius the ſonne of Antiochus, & Antipater the ſonne of Jaſon the Jewes ambaſſadours, are come vnto vs, for to renue the olde frendſhip with vs.

23 Upon this the people conſented, that the menne ſhould be honorably intreated, & that the copie of their ambaſſage ſhoulde be written in the ſpecial bookes of the people, for a perpetual memory vnto the Spartians, yea and that we ſhould ſende a copie of the ſame vnto Simon the great prieſt.

24 After this, dyd Simon ſende Numenius vnto Rome, with a golden ſhielde of a thouſande pounde wayght, to confirme the frendſhip with them.

25 Whiche when the Romanes vnderſtoode, they ſayde, What thankes ſhal we recompence agayne vnto Simon and his children?

26 For he and his brethren, and the houſe of his father, hath ſtabliſhed Iſrael, and ouercommed their enimies, wherfore they graunted hym to be free, and confirmed the libertie thereof: therefore they wrote this in tables of braſſe, and ſet it vpon pillers in mount Sion. E

27 The copie of the writing is this, The eightienth day of the moneth Elul, in the hundred threeſcore and twelfth yeere, in the third yeere of Simon the hygh prieſt,

28 In the great congregation of the prieſtes, rulers of the people, and elders of the countrey at * Saramel, were theſe woordes openly declared:

* Or, Hieruſalem.

29 Forſomuche as there was muche warre in our lande, therfore Simon the ſonne of Mathathias, comme of the children of Jarib, and his brethren, put them ſelues in peril, and reſiſted ẏ enimies of their people, that their ſanctuarie and lawe myght be mainteyned, and dyd theyr people great worſhip.

30 Jonathas in lyke manner, after that he had gouerned his people, and benne their hygh prieſt, dyed, and lyeth buried beſide his elders.

31 After that woulde theyr enimies haue troden theyr holy thynges vnder foote, deſtroyed theyr lande, and vtterly waſted theyr ſanctuarie.

32 Then Simon withſtoode them, & fought for his people, ſpent muche of his owne money, weaponed the valiant menne of his people, gaue them wages,

33 Made ſtrong the cities of Juda, with Bethſura that lyeth vpon the borders of Jurie, where the ordinance of theyr enimies laye ſometime, and ſet Jewes there for to keepe it. F

34 He made faſt Joppa alſo, whiche lyeth vpon the ſea, and * Gaza that bordereth vpon Azotus, where the enimies dwelt afore, and there he ſet Jewes to keepe it: and whatſoeuer was meete for the ſubduing of the aduerſaries, that layed he therein.

* Or, Gazaris.

35 Nowe when the people ſawe the noble actes of Simon, and what woorſhippe he purpoſed to doo for them, his godly behauour and faithfulneſſe whiche he kept vnto them, and howe he ſought by al wayes the wealth of his people: becauſe he dyd al this, therefore they choſe hym to be theyr prince and hygh prieſt.

36 And in his tyme they proſpered wel by him, ſo that the heathen were taken out of theyr lande, and they alſo whiche were in the citie of Dauid at Hieruſalem in the caſtle, where they went out and defiled al thynges that were about the ſanctuarie, and dyd great harme vnto cleanlyneſſe:

37 And Simon put menne of the Iewes in it, for the defence of the lande and citie, and ſet vp the walles of Hieruſalem.

38 And kyng Demetrius confirmed hym in his hygh prieſthood,

39 For theſe cauſes: made him his freend, and dyd hym great woorſhip:

40 For he hearde that the Romanes called the Iewes their freendes, louers, and brethren: howe honorably they receiued Simons Ambaſſadours:

41 Howe the Iewes and prieſtes conſented that he should be theyr prince and hygh prieſt perpetually, til God rayſed vp the true prophete:

42 And that he ſhoulde be theyr captayne, to care for the ſanctuarie, and to ſet officers vpon the woorkes thereof, ouer the lande, ouer the weapons, ouer the houſes of defence, to make prouiſion for the holy thynges,

43 And to be obeyed of euery man, and al the wrytynges of the lande to be made in his name, that he ſhoulde be clothed in purple and golde:

44 And that it ſhoulde be lawful for none of the people nor prieſtes to breake any of theſe thynges, to withſtande his woordes, nor to calle any congregation in the lande without hym: that he ſhould be clothed in purple, and weare a coller of golde.

45 And yf there were any whiche diſobeyed, or brake this ordinance, that he ſhoulde be pouniſhed.

46 So al the people conſented to alowe Simon, and to doo accordyng to theſe woords:

47 Simon alſo hym ſelfe tooke it vpon him, and was content to be the hygh prieſt, the captaine and prince of the Iewes and prieſts, and to gouerne them al.

48 And they commaunded to make this writing in tables of braſſe, and faſten it vnto the wal that compaſſeth the ſanctuarie, in an open place:

49 And to lay vp a copie of the ſame in the treaſurie, that Simon and his poſteritie myght haue it.

The.xv.Chapter.

1 Antiochus maketh a couenant of frendſhip with Simon, 11 and Tryphon is perſecuted. 15 The Romanes write letters vnto kynges and nations in the defence of the Iewes. 27 Antiochus refuſing the helpe that Simon ſent him, breaketh his couenant.

A 1 Moreouer, kyng Antiochus the ſonne of Demetrius, ſent letters from the Iles of the ſea, vnto Simon the hygh prieſt and prince of the Iewes, and to al the people,

2 Concernyng theſe woordes: Antiochus the king ſendeth greeting vnto Simon the high prieſt, and to the people of the Iewes.

3 Forſomuche as certayne wicked men haue gotten the kyngdome of our progenitours, I haue purpoſed to chalenge yͤ realme agayne, and to reſtoare it to the olde eſtate: Wherefore I haue geathered a great hoſt, and made ſhippes of warre:

4 That I may goe through the countrey, and be auenged of them which haue deſtroyed our lande, and waſted many cities in my Realme.

5 And therefore nowe I make thee free alſo from al the tributes, whereof al kynges my progenitours haue diſcharged thee, and from other cuſtomes wherefrom they haue releaſed thee, whatſoeuer they be:

6 Yea, I geue thee leaue to ſmite money of thyne owne within thy lande.

7 As for Hieruſalem, I wyl that it be holy and free, and al the weapons and houſes of defence which thou haſt buylded, and keepeſt in thyne handes, ſhalbe thyne.

B 8 Whereas any thing is or ſhalbe owyng vnto the kyng, I forgeue it thee, from this time foorth for euermore.

9 And when we haue obteyned our kyngdome, we ſhal doo thee, thy people, and the temple, great woorſhippe: ſo that your honour ſhalbe knowen throughout the whole worlde.

10 In the hundred threeſcore and fourtienth yeere, went Antiochus into his fathers lande, and al the menne of warre came togeather vnto hym, ſo that fewe were leaft with Tryphon.

11 So the kyng Antiochus folowed vppon hym: but he fled vnto Dora, whiche lyeth by the ſea ſide:

12 For he ſawe that there was miſcheefe commyng vnto hym, and that his hoſt had forſaken hym.

13 Then came Antiochus vnto Dora, with an hundred and twentie thouſande menne of armes on foote, and eyght thouſand horſemenne: ſo he compaſſed the citie rounde about, and the ſhippes came by the ſea.

14 Thus they vexed the citie by land and by water, inſomuche that they ſuffered no man to goe in, nor out.

15 In the meane ſeaſon came *Numenius, and they that had benne with hym, from the citie of Rome, hauyng letters written vnto the kinges and prouinces, wherein were conteyned theſe woordes:

1.Ma.14.d.

16 Lucius the conſul of Rome, ſendeth greetyng vnto Ptolomi the kyng.

D 17 The Ambaſſadours of the Jewes our freendes, beyng ſent from Simon the hygh prieſt, and from the people of ẏ Jewes, came vnto vs, for to renue the olde freendſhyp and bonde of loue,

18 Brought a ſheelde of gold, weying a thouſande pounde,

19 Wherfore we thought it good to write vnto the kynges and prouinces, to doo them no harme, nor to take part agaynſt them, theyr cities, nor countreyes, neither to mayntayne theyr enimies agaynſt them:

20 And we were content to receiue of them the ſheelde.

21 If there be any wycked perſons therfore fledde from theyr countrey vnto you, deliuer them vnto Simon the hygh prieſt, that he may puniſhe them according to their owne lawe.

22 The ſame woordes wrote the Romanes alſo vnto Demetrius the kyng, to Attalus, Araba, Arſaces, 23 And to al regions: as Samſanes, to them of Spartia, "Delo, "Mydo, Sidon, Caria, Samos, Pamphilia, Lyſia, Alicarnaſſem, and to the Rhodes, to Faſelidis, Coo, Sida, Arado, Cortyna, Gnidum, to Cypres, and Cyren.

" Or, Delus. " Or, Myndus.

24 And of euery letter, they ſent a copy to Simon the hygh prieſt.

25 So Antiochus the king, brought his hoſt vnto Dora the ſecond tyme, to take it, where E he made diuers ordinance of warre, and kept Tryphon in, that he ſhould not goe eyther in or out.

26 Then ſent Simon vnto Antiochus two thouſande choſen menne, to helpe hym, with golde, ſiluer, and other plenteous thinges.

27 Neuertheleſſe, he woulde not receiue them, but brake al the couenant whiche he made with Simon afore, and withdrewe him ſelfe from hym.

28 He ſent Athenobius alſo, a freend of his, vnto Simon, for to reaſon with hym, ſayeing, Ye withholde from me Joppa and Gaza, with the caſtle that is at Hieruſalem, whiche are cities of my Realme, 29 Whoſe borders ye haue deſtroied, and donne great euil in the lande, hauing the dominion in many other places of my kyngdome.

30 Wherfore deliuer now the cities which ye haue taken, with the tributes of the places that ye haue rule vppon, without the borders of Jurie:

31 Or els geue me fiue hundred talentes of ſiluer: yea and for the harme that ye haue donne F in the cities, and for the tributes of the ſame, other fyue hundred talentes: yf no, we ſhal comme and fyght agaynſt you.

32 So Athenobius the kynges freende came to Hieruſalem, and when he ſawe the great woorſhyp and honour of Simon, in golde, ſyluer, and ſo great plentie of ornamentes, he marueyled: and tolde Simon as the kyng commaunded hym.

33 Then anſweared Simon, and ſayde vnto hym, *As for vs, we haue neyther taken other mennes landes, nor withholden them: but only our fathers heritage, whiche our enimies had vnrighteouſly in poſſeſſion a certayne tyme.

Iud.11.d.

34 This heritage of our fathers haue we chalenged in proceſſe of tyme.

35 And where as thou complayneſt concernyng Joppa and Gaza, they did great harme to our people, and in our lande, yet wyl we geue an hundred talentes for them. Neuertheleſſe, Athenobius anſweared hym not one woorde:

36 But turned agayne wrothfully vnto the kyng, and tolde hym al theſe woordes, and the great dignitie of Simon, with al that he had ſeene: and the kyng was very angry.

37 And in the meane tyme fled Tryphon by ſhip, vnto Orthoſias.

38 Then the king made Cendebeus captaine of the ſea coaſt, and gaue him an hoſt of footmenne and horſemenne, G

39 Commaundyng hym to remooue the hoſt towarde Jurie, and to builde vp the citie of Cedron, to make vp the portes, and to warre agaynſt the people of the Jewes: As for the kyng hym ſelfe, he folowed vpon Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came vnto Jamnia, & beganne to vexe ẏ people, to tread downe Jury, to take the people priſoners, to ſlay them, 41 And to builde vppe Cedron, where he ſet horſemenne, and other menne of warre, that they myght comme foorth, and goe through the ſtreates of Jurie, lyke as the kyng hadde commaunded hym.

1.Ma.16.b.

The.xvi.Chapter,

1 Cendebeus the captayne of Antiochus hoſt, is put to flight of the ſonnes of Simon.
11 Ptolomeus the ſonne of Abobus kylleth Simon and his two ſonnes at a banket, 23 John kylleth them that lye in wayte for his lyfe.

A 1 Then came John vp from *Gaza, and tolde Simon his father what Cendebeus had done [among their people.]

1.Mac.13.f.

2 Upon this called Simō two of his eldeſt ſonnes, Judas and John, and ſayde vnto them: I and my brethren, and my fathers houſe, haue euer from our youth vppe vnto this day, foughten agaynſt the enimies of Iſrael: and God gaue vs good fortune to delyuer Iſrael oftentymes.

3 And now forſomuche as I am olde, and ye by Gods goodneſſe are of a ſufficieent age, be ye in ſteade of me & my brother to goe foorth and fyght for our people: and the helpe of God be with you.

4 So he choſe twentie thouſande fyghting menne of the countrey, with horſemen alſo, whiche went foorth againſt Cendebeus, and reaſted at Modin.

5 In the mornyng they aroſe, and went into the playne feelde, and behold a mightie great hoſt came agaynſt them, both of footemenne and horſemen: Nowe was there a water brooke betwixt them,

6 And John remooued the hoſt toward them: and when he ſawe that the people was afrayde to goe ouer the water brooke, he went ouer fyrſt hym ſelfe: and the menne ſeeyng this, folowed hym.

B 7 Then John ſet his horſemen and footmen in order, the one by the other: for theyr enimies horſemen were very many.

8 But when they blew vp the prieſtes trumpettes, Cendebeus fled with his hoſt: whereof many were ſlayne, and the remnant gate them to their ſtrong holdes.

9 Judas alſo Johns brother was wounded at the ſame tyme, and John folowed ſtil vpon the enimies, til he came to Cedron, *which Cendebeus had builded.

1.Mac.15.f

10 The [enimies] fled alſo vnto the townes that were in the feelde of Azotus, and thoſe dyd John burne vp with fyre: Thus there were ſlayne two thouſande menne of them, and John turned agayne peaceably into Jurie.

11 And in the feelde of Jericho was Ptolomi the ſonne of Abobus made captayne: which, becauſe he had abundance of ſiluer and golde,

12 (For he had maried the daughter of Simon the hygh prieſt)

13 Waxed proude in his mynde, and thought to conquer the lande, imagining falſhood agaynſt Simon & his ſonnes, to deſtroy them.

14 Now as Simon was goyng about thorowe the cities that were in the countrey of Jurie, and caryng for them, he came downe to Jericho with Mathathias and Judas his ſonnes, in the hundred threeſcore and ſeuenteenth yeere, in the eleuenth moneth, called Sabat. C

15 Then [Ptolomi] the ſonne of Abobus receiued them, but with diſceyte, into a ſtrong houſe of his, called Dochus, whiche he had buylded, where he made them a banket, and had hyd menne there.

16 So when Simon and his ſonnes were mery, and had dronken wel, Ptolomi ſtoode vp with his menne [whom he had hyd there] and tooke their weapons, entred into yͤ banket houſe, and ſlue Simon with his two ſonnes, and certayne of his ſeruauntes.

17 Suche great vnfaythfulneſſe dyd Ptolomi in Iſrael, and recompenced euyl for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolomi theſe thynges, and ſent vnto kyng [Antiochus] requyring hym that he ſhould ſend him an hoſt to helpe him, and ſo ſhould he delyuer him the land, with the cities, and tributes of the ſame.

19 He ſent other menne alſo vnto Gaza for to take John, and wrote vnto the captaynes to comme to hym, and he ſhould geue them ſiluer, golde, and rewardes.

20 And to Hieruſalem he ſent other, to take it, and the ſanctuarie.

21 Then ranne there one before, and told John in Gaza, that his father & his brethren were ſlaine, and how that Ptolomi had ſent to ſlay hym alſo. D

22 When John heard this, he was ſoare abaſhed, and layde handes of them that were comme to deſtroy hym, and ſlue them: for he knewe that they went about to kil hym.

23 As for other thynges concernyng John, of his warres, of his noble actes wherein he behaued him ſelfe manfully, of the buylding of walles which he made, & other of his deedes,

24 They are written in the Cronicles of his prieſthood, from the tyme foorth that he was made hygh prieſt after his father.

The firſt Chapter.

1 An Epiſtle of the Iewes that dwelt at Hieruſalem, ſent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to geue thankes for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fyre that was hyd in the pit. 24 The prayer of Nehemias.

A 1 THE brethren of the Iewes whiche be at Hieruſalem, and in the land of Iury, wyſhe vnto theſe brethren of the Iewes that are thorowe out Egypt, health and peace.

2 God be gratious vnto you, and thinke vpon his couenant that he made with Abraham, Iſaac, & Iacob, his faythful ſeruauntes:

Deut.30,b 3 *And geue you al ſuche an hart that ye may loue and ſerue him, yea, & pefourme his wil with an whole hart, and a willing mynde:

4 He open your hartes vnto his law, and in his commaundementes, and ſend you peace,

5 Heare your prayers, be at one with you, and neuer forſake you in tyme of trouble,

6 Forſomuche as nowe we here be praying for you.

B 7 What tyme as Demetrius raigned, in the hundred threeſcore and nine yeere, we Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble and violence that came vnto vs: In thoſe yeeres, after that Iaſon departed out of ye holy land and kingdome,

8 They brent vp the portes, and ſhed innocent blood: then made we our prayer vnto the Lorde, and were heard, we offered vp ſacrifices and fine floure, ſetting foorth cakes and bread:

Leui.23.f. 9 *And nowe comme ye vnto the feaſt of tabernacles in the moneth *Caſleu.
Nouemb.

10 Iu the hundred fourſcore and eyghteene yeere, the people that was at Hieruſalem and in Iurie, the counſel, & Iudas him ſelfe, ſent this holſome ſalutation vnto Ariſtobulus kyng Ptolomies maiſter, whiche came of the generation of the annoynted prieſtes, and to the Iewes that were in Egypt:

11 Inſomuche as GOD hath deliuered vs from great perils, we thanke him highly, no leſſe at al then if we hadde vanquiſhed the kyng in battel.

12 For when he with thoſe that had fought agaynſt the holy citie, dyd ſet vpon Perſia:

13 For as he was in Perſis [namely] the captayne with the great hoſt, he periſhed in the temple of Naneas, beyng diſceiued thorowe the deuice of Naneas prieſtes.

14 For when Antiochus, as he that ſhoulde C marry with her, came, and his freendes with him, into the place to receiue by name of dowrie the money whiche the prieſtes of Naneas had ſet foorth:

15 He entred with a ſmal companie into the compaſſe of the temple, and ſo they ſhut the temple.

16 Now when Antiochus entred by opening the priuie entrance of the temple, the prieſtes ſtoned the captayne to death, hewed them in peeces that were with hym, ſmote of theyr heades, and threw them out.

17 In al thyngs God be prayſed, whiche hath deliuered the wycked into our handes [to be pouniſhed.]

18 Whereas we are nowe purpoſed to keepe the purification of ye temple vpon the twenty & fiue day of the moneth Caſleu, we thought neceſſary to certifie you thereof: that ye alſo myght *keepe the tabernacles feaſt day, and Leui.23.f.
the daye of the fyre, whiche was geuen vs, Nu.29.b.
when Nehemias offered, after that he had ſet 3.Eſdr.5.c.
vp the temple and the aulter.

19 For what tyme as our fathers were ledde away vnto Perſis, the prieſtes whiche then ſought the honour of God, tooke the fyre priuilie from the aulter, and hyd it in a valley, where as was a deepe drye pit: and therein they keapt it, so that the place was vnknowen to euery man.

20 Nowe after many yeeres, when it pleaſed
God that Nehemias ſhould be ſent from the kyng of Perſia, *he ſent the childers chyldren Leui.6.a.
of thoſe prieſtes whiche had hyd the fyre, to 10.a.16.c.
ſeeke it: and as they tolde vs, they found no fyre, but thicke water.

21 Then commaunded he them to draw it vp, D and to bryng it hym, and the offerings withal. Now when the ſacrifices were layde on, and ordred, Nehemias commaunded the prieſtes to ſprinckle them and the wood with water.

22 When this was donne, and the time come that the ſunne ſhone, whiche afore was hyd in the cloude, there was a great fyre kindled, in ſo muche, that euery man marueyled.

23 Nowe al the prieſtes prayed whyle the ſacrifice was makyng: Ionathas prayed firſt, and the other gaue anſweare.

24 And Nehemias praier was after this manner: O Lord God, maker of al thinges, thou fearful and ſtrong, thou ryghteous and merciful, thou that art only a gratious kyng,

25 Only liberal, only iuſt, almyghtie and euerlaſtyng, thou that delyuereſt Iſrael from al trouble, thou that haſt choſen the fathers, and halowed them fauourably:

26 Receiue the offering for thy whole people of Iſrael, preſerue thyne owne portion, and halowe it,

27 Geather thoſe togeather that are ſcattered abroade from vs, deliuer them that are vnder the Heathens bondage, looke vppon them whiche are deſpiſed and abhorred: that the Heathen may knowe, and ſee howe that thou only art God, whiche art our God.

D 28 Pouniſhe them that oppreſſe, and proudly put vs to diſhonour.

29 Set thy people agayne in thy holye place, *lyke as Moſes hath ſpoken.

Deu.30,a.

30 And the prieſtes ſong Pſalmes of thankeſgeuing, ſo long as the ſacrifice endured.

31 Nowe when the ſacrifice was brent, Nehemias commaunded the great ſtones to be ſprinckled with the reſidue of the water.

32 *Whiche when it was donne, there was kindled a flame of them alſo: but it was conſumed thorowe the lyght that ſhined from the aulter.

Eccle.48.a

33 So when this matter was knowen, it was tolde the kyng of Perſia, that in the place where the prieſtes which were led away had hyd fyre, there appeared water, and that Nehemias and his company had purified the ſacrifices withal.

34 Then the kyng conſydering and ponderyng the matter diligently, incloſed the place, and conſecrated a temple, to prooue the thyng that was donne:

35 And when he founde it ſo in deede, he gaue the prieſtes many gyftes, and dyuers rewardes, yea, he tooke them with his owne hand, and gaue them.

36 And Nehemias called yͤ ſame place (a) Nephthar, whiche is as muche to ſay as a clenſing: but many menne cal it Nephi.

(a) Ephthar whiche is to ſay, a ſhining, it is alſo called Nephi or Nephthar, whiche is a clenſyng.

The.ii.Chapter.

4 Howe Ieremi hyd the tabernacle, the arke, and the aulter, in the hyl. 23 Of the fyue bookes of Iaſon conteyned in one.

A 1 It is founde alſo in the wrytinges of Ieremi the Prophete, that he commaunded them whiche were caried awai, to take fyre, *as it is ſayde afore.

2.Mac.1.c.
Iere.29.b.
Baru.6.a.

2 He commaunded them alſo that they ſhould not forget the lawe and commaundementes of the Lorde, and that they ſhould not erre in theyr myndes, when they ſee images of ſiluer and gold, with their ornamentes.

3 Theſe and ſuche other thynges commaunded he them, & exhorted them that thei ſhould not let the law of God goe out of their hartes.

4 It is written alſo, how the prophete at the commaundement of God charged them to take the tabernacle and the arke with them: and he went foorth vnto the mountayne where Moſes climed vp, *and ſaw the heritage of God.

Deut.34.a

5 And when Ieremi came there, he founde an open caue, wherein he layde the tabernacle, the arke, and the aulter of incenſe, and ſo ſtopped the doore.

6 There came certaine menne togeather alſo, folowyng hym to marke the place, but they coulde not finde it.

B 7 Whiche when Ieremi perceiued, he reprooued them, ſayeing, As for that place, it ſhalbe vnknowen, vntil the time that God geather his people togeather againe, and receiue them vnto mercie.

8 Then ſhal God ſhew them theſe thynges, and the maieſtie of the Lorde ſhal appeare, *and the cloude alſo, lyke as it was ſhewed vnto Moſes: and lyke as when Solomon deſyred that the place myght be honorablye ſanctified, and it was ſhewed hym.

Eox.13.d.
1.Reg.8.b

9 For he beyng a wyſe man, handled honorablie & wiſely, offering vnto God in the halowyng of the temple when it was finiſhed.

10 *And lyke as when Moſes prayed vnto the Lord, the fyre came downe from heauen, and conſumed the burnt offeryng: Euen ſo prayed Solomon alſo, *and the fyre came downe from heauen, and conſumed the brent offeryng.

Leui.10.d.
2.Para.7.a

11 And Moſes ſayd, Becauſe the ſinne offeryng was not eaten, therefore it is conſumed.

12 In like manner Solomon keapt the dedication [or halowyng] eyght dayes.

13 In the annotations and writings of *Ieremi were theſe thynges put alſo: and how he made a librarie, and howe he geathered out of al countreyes the bookes of the Kynges, and and of the prophetes, and of Dauid, and the Epiſtles of the kynges concernyng the holy gyftes.

C 14 Euen ſo Iudas alſo, looke what he learned by experience of warre, and ſuche thynges as hath happened vnto vs, he geathered them altogeather, and ſo we haue them by vs.

15 If ye nowe deſyre to haue the ſame, ſende ſomme body to fetche them vnto you.

16 Wheras we then are about to celebrate the purificatiõ, we haue written vnto you: therefore ye ſhal do wel, if ye keepe the ſame dayes.

17 We hope alſo, that the God whiche deliuered his people, and gaue them al the heritage, kyngdome, prieſthood, and ſanctuarie,

Deut.3,a. 18 *That he promyſed them in the lawe, ſhal ſhortly haue mercie vpon vs, and geather vs togeather from vnder the heauen into his holye place: for he hath ſaued vs from great peryls, and hath cleanſed the place.

19 As concerning Iudas Machabeus and his brethren, the purification of the great temple, the dedication of the aulter:

20 Yea, and of the warres that concerne noble Antiochus and *Eupator his ſonne:

1.Mac.6,a.

21 And the miracles ſhewed from heauen by the valiant actes of thoſe whiche defended the Iewes religion, ſo that a fewe ranne thorow the whole countrey, and draue away the barbarous armies:

D 22 Repaired againe the temple that was ſpoken of throughout al the world, deliuered the citie, dooyng theyr beſte that the lawe of the Lorde, whiche was put downe, might with al tranquilitie be reſtored agayne vnto the Lorde, that was ſo merciful vnto them.

23 As touching Iaſon alſo of Cyren, we haue vndertaken compendiouſlye, to bryng into one booke the thinges that were comprehended of hym in fyue.

24 For we conſyderyng the multitude of the bookes, and how hard it ſhould be for them that would meddle with Stories and actes, and that becauſe of ſo dyuers matters:

25 Haue vndertaken ſo to comprehend the ſtories, that ſuche as are diſpoſed to reade, might haue pleaſure and paſtime therein: and that they whiche are diligent in ſuche thynges, myght the better thinke vpon them: yea and that whoſoeuer reade them, myght haue profite thereby.

26 Neuertheleſſe, we our ſelues that haue medled with this matter for the ſhortenyng of it, haue taken no ſmal labour, but great diligence, watchinges, and trauayle.

27 Lyke as they that make a feaſte, woulde fayne doo other menne pleaſure: euen ſo we alſo, for many mens ſakes, are very wel content to take the labour,

28 Where as we may ſhortly comprehend the thinges that other men haue truely written. E

29 For he that buildeth an houſe a new, muſt prouide for many thinges to the whole buildyng: but he that paynteth it afterward, ſeeketh but only that is comely, meete and conuenient to garnyſhe it withal:

30 Euen ſo doo we alſo in lyke manner: And why? He that beginneth fyrſt to wryte a ſtory, muſt with his vnderſtanding geather the matter togeather, ſet his woordes in order, and diligently ſeeke out euery part.

31 But he that afterwarde wyl ſhorten it, vſeth few woordes, and toucheth not the matter at the largeſt: Let this be ſufficient for a Prologue.

32 Nowe wil we beginne to ſhewe the matter: for it is but a fooliſhe thyng to make a long prologue, & to be ſhort in the ſtorie it ſelfe.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Of the honour donne vnto the temple by the kynges of the Gentiles. 6 Simon vttereth what treaſure is in the temple. 9 Heliodorus is ſent to take them away. 26 He is ſtricken of God, and healed at the prayer of Onias.

A 1 What tyme as the holy citie was inhabited in al peace and wealth, and when the lawes were yet verye wel keapt: for ſo was it ordeyned thorow the godlineſſe of Onias the hygh prieſt, and other godly menne that were enimies to wyckedneſſe,

1,Mac.1,b 2 It came thereto, *that euen the kynges and princes them ſelues, did the place great worſhip, & garniſhed yͤ temple with great giftes.

3 Inſomuche that Seleucus kyng of Aſia, of his owne rentes bare al the coſtes belonging to the ſeruice of the offerynges.

4 Then Simon, of the tribe of Beniamin, ruler of the temple, vpon a variance riſen betweene hym and the hygh prieſt, for wyckedneſſe that was donne in the citie,

5 For that he coulde not ouercomme Onias, he gate him to Apollonius yͤ ſonne of Thraſia, whiche then was cheefe Lord in Celoſyria, and Phenices,

6 And tolde him, that the treaſurie in Hieruſalem was ful of innumerable money, and howe that the common goodes, whiche belongeth not vnto the offerynges, were exceedyng great alſo: yea, and howe it were poſſible that al theſe myght come vnder the kynges power.

B 7 Nowe when Apollonius had ſhewed the kyng of the money, as it was tolde him: the kyng called for Heliodorus his treaſurer, and ſent hym with a commaundement to bryng hym the ſame money.

8 Immediatly Heliodorus tooke his iourney, but vnder a colour as though he woulde goe thorow Celoſyria and Phenices, to viſite the cities, but his purpoſe was to fulfil the kings pleaſure.

9 So when he came to Hieruſalem, and was louyngly receiued of the hygh prieſt into the citie, he tolde what was determined concerning the money, and ſhewed the cauſe of his comming: he aſked alſo if it were ſo in deede.

10 Then the hygh prieſt tolde hym, that there was ſuche money layd vp for the vpholding of wyddowes and fatherleſſe children,

11 And how that a certaine of it belonged vnto Hyrcanus, the ſonne of Tobias a noble man, and that of al the money (and not as that wicked Simõ had reported) there were foure hundred talents of ſiluer, and two hundred of golde:

12 Yea, and that it were vnpoſſible for thoſe mennes meanyng to be diſceiued that had put aſſured confidence in the holineſſe of the place, and in the maieſtie and vndoubted ſafetie of the temple, whiche is had in worſhyp thorowe the whole worlde, for the mayntenance and honour of the ſame.

13 Whereunto Heliodorus anſwered, that the kyng had commaunded hym in any wyſe, to bryng hym the money.

C 14 So at the day appoynted, Heliodorus entred into yͤ temple to order this matter: wherfore there was no ſmal feare throughout the whole citie.

15 The prieſtes fel downe before the aulter in theyr veſtments, and called vnto heauen vppon hym *whiche had made a lawe concernyng ſtuffe geuen to keepe, that they ſhoulde be ſafelye preſerued for ſuche as committed them vnto keepyng.

Exo.22.b.

16 Then who ſo had looked the hygh prieſt in the face, it woulde haue greeued his hart: for his countenance and the changyng of his colour, declared the inwarde ſorowe of his mynde.

17 The man was al in heauineſſe, and his body in feare: whereby they that looked vppon hym, might perceyue the greefe of his hart.

18 The other people alſo came out of their houſes by heapes vnto the common prayer, becauſe yͤ place was like to come into confuſiõ.

19 The women came together thorowe the ſtreetes with heary clothes about their breſts: the virgins alſo that were keapt in, ranne to Onias, ſomme of them ranne to the gates, ſomme vp vpon the walles, other ſomme looked out at the wyndowes.

20 Yea, they al helde vp their handes toward heauen, and prayed: D

21 A miſerable thyng was it to looke vppon the common people, and the hygh prieſt beyng in ſuche trouble.

22 But they beſought almightie God, that the goodes whiche were committed vnto them, myght be keapt whole for thoſe that had delyuered them vnto theyr keepyng.

23 Neuertheleſſe, the thyng that Heliodorus was determined to doo, that perfourmed he in the ſame place, he hym ſelfe perſonally beyng about the treaſurie with his menne of warre.

24 But the ſpirite of almyghtie God ſhewed him ſelfe openly, ſo that al they whiche preſumed to obey Heliodorus, fel thorow yͤ power of God into a great fearefulneſſe, and dread.

25 *For there appeared vnto them an horſe, with a terrible man ſitting vpon hym, deckt in goodly aray, and the horſe ſmote at Heliodorus with his forefeete: Nowe he that ſate vppon the horſe, had harneſſe of golde vpon hym.

2.Ma.10.c, and.11.b.

26 Moreouer, there appeared two fayre and beautiful young men of notable ſtrength, in goodly aray, whiche ſtoode by him, ſcourged hym of both the ſydes, and gaue hym many ſtrypes without ceaſſyng.

27 *With that, fel Heliodorus ſodenly vnto the grounde, ſo they tooke hym vp, beyng compaſſed about with great darkneſſe, and bare hym out vpon a beere.

2.Mac.5.c.

28 Thus he that came with ſo many runners and menne of warre into the ſayde treaſurie, was borne out wheras no man might helpe hym, beyng deſtitute of harneſſe and weapons: and ſo the power of God was manifeſt and knowen. E

29 He lay ſtil dumbe alſo by the power of God, deſtitute of al hope and lyfe.

30 And they prayſed the Lorde, that he had ſhewed his power vpon his place and Temple, whiche a litle afore was ful of feare and trouble, and that through yͤ reuelation of the almightie Lorde, it was fylled with ioye and gladneſſe.

31 Then certaine of Heliodorus freends, prayed Onias that in al haſt he would cal vppon God, to graunt him his lyfe, whiche was geuyng vp the ghoſt.

32 So the hygh prieſt fearyng leſt the Kyng ſhould ſuſpect that the Iewes had donne Heliodorus ſomme [a] euyl, he offered an offeryng for his health.

(a) In woorkyng ſomme trecherie, or ſorcerie agaynſt hym.

33 Now when the hygh prieſt had obteyned his petition, the ſame young menne in the ſame clothing appeared, and ſtood beſide Heliodorus, ſayeing, Thanke Onias the hygh prieſt: *for, for his ſake, hath the Lord graunted thee thy lyfe.

Act.27.c.

34 Therfore ſeeyng that God hath ſcourged thee, geue him prayſe and thankes, and ſhew euery man his might and power. And when they had ſpoken theſe woordes, they appeared no more.

F 35 So Heliodorus offered vnto God, made great vowes vnto hym whiche had graunted hym his lyfe, thanked Onias, tooke his hoſt, and went agayne to the kyng.

36 Then teſtified he vnto euery man, of the great woorks of God, that he had ſeene with his eyes.

37 And when the kyng aſked Heliodorus who were meete to be ſent yet once againe to Hieruſalem, he ſayde:

38 If thou haſt any enimie or aduerſarie vnto thy realme, ſende hym thither, and thou ſhalt haue hym pouniſhed, if he eſcape with his lyfe: for in that place [no doubt] there is a ſpecial power and woorkyng of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heauen, viſiteth and defendeth that place, & al that come to do it harme, he pouniſheth and plagueth them.

40 This is nowe the matter concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treaſurie [at Hieruſalem.] G

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 Simon reporteth euyl of Onias. 7 Iaſon deſyring the office of the hygh prieſt, corrupted the kyng with rewardes. 19 The wycked intent of Iaſon.

A 1 This Simon nowe (of whom we ſpake afore) beyng a bewrayer of the money, and of his owne naturall countrey, reported the woorſte of Onias, as though he had mooued Heliodorus vnto this, and as though he had benne a brynger vp of euil.

2 Thus was he not aſhamed to cal him an enimie of the realme, that was ſo faythful an ouerſeer and defender of the citie, and of his people, yea, and ſo feruent in the law of God.

3 But when the malice of Simon increaſed ſo farre, that thorow his freendes there were certayne manſlaughters committed:

4 Onias conſydered the peryl that myght comme thorowe this ſtryfe, and howe that Apollonius the cheefe Lorde in Celoſiria and Phenices, was al ſet vpon tyrannie, and Simons malice increaſed the ſame:

5 He gate hym to the kyng, not as an accuſer of the citezins, but as one that by hym ſelfe intended the common wealth of the whole multitude.

6 For he ſawe it was not poſſible to lyue in peace, neyther Simon to leaue of from his fooliſhneſſe, except the kyng did looke therto.

B 7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, whiche is called the noble, tooke the kyngdome, Iaſon the brother of Onias, laboured to be hygh prieſt:

8 For he came vnto the kyng, and promyſed him three hundred & threeſcore talentes of ſiluer, and of the other rentes, foureſcore talents.

9 Beſides this, he promiſed hym yet an hundred and fiftie more, if he myght haue licence to ſet vp a ſcoole and an exerciſe of weapons, and that he myght cal them of Hieruſalem, Antiochians.

10 Which when the kyng had graunted, and he had gotten the ſuperioritie, he beganne immediatly to drawe his kinſmenne to the cuſtome of the Heathen,

11 Put downe the things that the Iewes had ſet vp of loue, by Iohn the father of Eupolonius, whiche was ſent Ambaſſadour vnto Rome, for to make the bonde of freendſhyp and loue, he put downe al the lawes and liberties of the Iewes, and ſet vp the wycked ſtatutes.

12 For when he had made a ſcoole of fence vnder yͤ caſtle, he drew al the cheefeſt young men on his ſide, & trained them to wear [a] hattes.

(a) Thoſe hattes were tokens of wantonneſſe that the Gentiles vſed.

13 And there was ſuche a feruent deſire to come to the manners of the Heathen, and to take vp new ſtrange faſhions brought in thorow the vngratious and vnheard wickedneſſe of Iaſon, whiche ſhoulde not be called a prieſt, but an vngodly perſon:

14 Inſomuche that the prieſtes were nowe no more occupied about the ſeruice of the aulter: but deſpiſed the temple, regarded not the offerynges, yea, gaue their diligence to learne to fyght, to wraſtle, to leape, to daunce, and to caſt the ſtone: C

15 Not ſettyng by the honour of the fathers, but lyked the glory of the Greekes beſt of al;

16 For the whiche they ſtroue peryloully, and were greedy to folow their ſtatutes, yea, their luſt was in al things to be like them, whiche afore were their enimies and deſtroyers,

17 Howbeit,

XUM

17 Howbeit, to doo wickedly againſt the law of God, ſhal not eſcape vnpouniſhed, but of this we ſhal ſpeake hereafter.

These were kept euery fiftieth yere.

18 What time as the *Olimpians ſportes were played at Tyrus, the kyng hym ſelfe beyng preſent,

19 This vngratious Jaſon ſent wicked men, bearyng from them of Hieruſalem (whiche now were called Antiochians) three hundred drachmes of ſiluer for an offeryng to Hercules: theſe had they that caryed them deſyred, vnder ſuche a faſhion, as though they ſhould not haue benne offered , but beſtowed to oother vſes.

20 Neuertheleſſe, he that ſent them, ſent them to the intent that they ſhould be offered vnto Hercules: but becauſe of thoſe that were preſent, they were geuen as to the makyng of ſhippes.

D 21 And Apollonius the ſonne of Meneſtheus, was ſent into Egypt, becauſe of the noble menne of king Ptolomi Philometor. Now when Antiochus perceiued that he was put out from (b) medlyng in the realme, he ſought his owne profite, departed from thence, came to Joppa, and then to Hieruſalem,

(b) From his honour and gaynes.

22 Where he was honorably receiued of Jaſon, and of the citie, and was brought in with torche lyght, and with great prayſe: and ſo he turned his hoſt vnto Phenices.

2.Mac,4.b

23 After three yeeres Jaſon ſent Menelaus, (the foreſayde Simons brother) *to beare the money vnto the kyng, and to bryng him anſwere of other neceſſary matters.

24 But he, when he was commended to the kyng for magnifiyng of his power, turned the prieſthood vnto him ſelfe, laying vp three hundred talentes of ſyluer for Jaſon.

25 So when he had gotten cõmaundements from the kyng, he came, hauyng nothyng that becommeth a prieſt, but bearing the ſtomacke of a cruel tyrant, and the wrath of a wylde bruite beaſt.

1.Mac,3.b,

26 *Then Jaſon, whiche had diſceiued his owne brother, ſeeyng that he hym ſelfe was beguyled alſo, was fayne to flee into the land of the Ammonites,

27 And Menelaus gate the dominion : but as for the money that he had promiſed vnto the kyng, he dyd nothing therin, albeit Soſtratus the ruler of the Caſtle requyred it of hym.

E 28 For Soſtratus was the man that geathered the cuſtomes: wherefore they were both called before the kyng.

29 Thus was Menelaus put out of yͤ prieſthood, and Lyſimachus his brother, came in his ſteade, and Soſtratus leaſt Crates ouerſeer of the (c) Cyprians.

(c) That is, of them that meaſured the coyne.

30 It happened in the meane ſeaſon, that the Tharſians, and Mallotians, made inſurrection, becauſe they were geuen for a preſent vnto Antiochus the kynges Concubine.

31 Then came the kyng in al haſt to ſtil them agayne, and to pacifie the matter, leauyng Andronicus there to be his Deputie, as one meete therefore.

32 Nowe Menelaus ſuppoſyng that he had gotten a right conuenient tyme, ſtole certaine veſſels of golde, out of the Temple, and gaue them to Andronicus for a preſent: and ſome he ſolde at Tyrus, and in the cities thereby.

33 Whiche when Onias knew of a ſuretie, he reprooued him: but he keept him in a ſanctuarie beſide Daphnis, that lyeth by Antioche.

34 Wherefore Menelaus gate hym to Andronicus, and prayed him that he would ſlay Onias. So when he came to Onias, he counſeled hym craftily to comme out of the ſanctuarie, geuing him his hande with an othe, (howbeit he ſuſpect hym) and then he ſlue Onias, without anye regarde of ryghteouſneſſe.

35 For the whiche cauſe not only the Jewes, but other nations alſo, tooke indignation, and were diſpleaſed for yͤ vnrighteous death of ſo godly a man. F

36 And when the kyng was comme agayne from Cilicia, the Jewes and certayne of the Greekes, went vnto hym, complayning for the vnryghteous death of Onias.

37 Yea, Antiochus him ſelfe was ſoary in his mynde for Onias, ſo that it pitied hym: and he wept, remembring his ſoberneſſe, & mannerly behauour.

38 Wherefore he was ſo kindled in his minde, that he commaunded Andronicus to be ſtripped out of his purple clothing, and ſo to be led throughout the citie, yea, and the vngratious man to be ſlayne in the ſame place, where he committed his wickedneſſe vpon Onias: Thus the Lorde rewarded hym his pouniſhment, as he had deſerued.

39 Now when Lyſimachus had donne many wicked deedes in the Temple thorow the counſel of Menelaus, and the voyce came abroade: the multitude geathered them togeather againſt Lyſimachus, for he had caried out now muche golde.

40 So when the people aroſe, and were ful of diſpleaſure, Lyſimachus armed thre thouſande vnthriftes, to defende hym, a certayne tyrant beyng theyr Captayne, whiche was growen both in age and woodneſſe.

41 They therfore, ſeeing the enterpriſe of Lyſimachus, caught vp, ſomme ſtones, ſomme blockes endes, and ſomme handfuls of duſt, that was next at hande, and threw them vpon the rebelles of Lyſimachus bande that had ſet vpon them.

G 42 Thus there were many of them wounded, ſome being ſlaine, and al the other chaſed away: But as for the wicked church robber him ſelfe, they killed hym beſide the treaſurie.

43 Of theſe matters therfore, there was keapt a court agaynſt Menelaus.

44 Nowe when the kyng came to Tyrus, three menne that were ſent from the Senate, pleaded hym gyltie before the kyng.

45 But Menelaus being now conuict, went & promyſed Ptolomi the ſonne of Dorymenes to geue hym muche money, if he would pacifie the kyng towarde hym.

46 So Ptolomi went to the king, into a court wheras he was ſet to coole him, and brought hym out of that mynde:

47 Inſomuche that he diſcharged Menelaus from the accuſations, that notwithſtanding was cauſe of al miſcheefe: and thoſe poore menne, whiche if they had tolde their cauſe, yea before the Scythians, they ſhoulde haue benne iudged innocent, them he condemned to death.

48 Thus were they ſoone pouniſhed, whiche folowed vpon the matter for the citie, for the people, and for the holy veſſels.

49 Wherfore they alſo of Tyrus, moued with hatred of that wycked deede, cauſed them to be very honorably buryed.

50 And ſo through the couetouſneſſe of them that were in power, Menelaus remayned ſtil in aucthoritie, encreaſing in malice, to the hurt of the citizens.

The. v. Chapter.

2 Of the ſignes and tokens ſeene in Hieruſalem. 6 Of the ende and office of Iaſon.
11 The purſute of Antiochus agaynſt the Iewes. 15 The ſpoyling of the temple.

A 1 ABout the ſame tyme Antiochus vndertooke his ſecond viage into Egypt.

2 And then were there ſeene throughout al the citie of [Hieruſalem] fourtie dayes long, horſmen runnyng in the ayre, with robes of golde, and as bandes of ſpeare menne,

3 And as troupes of horſemen ſet in aray, incountring and courſing one againſt another, with ſhakyng of ſheeldes, and multitude of dartes, and drawyng of ſwordes, and ſhooting of arrowes, and the glittering of the golden armour ſeene, and harneſſe of al ſortes.

4 Wherefore euery man prayed that thoſe tokens myght turne to good.

5 Now when there was gonne foorth a falſe rumour, as though Antiochus had benne dead, Iaſon tooke a thouſande menne, and came ſodenly vpon the citie: the citizens ranne vnto the walles, at the laſt was the citie taken, and Menelaus fled into the caſtle.

6 As for Iaſon, he ſpared not his owne citizens in the ſlaughter, neyther conſydered he what great euil it were to deſtroy the proſperitie of his owne kinſemen: but dyd as one that had gotten the victorie of his enimies, and not of his freendes.

B 7 For al this gate he not the ſuperioritie, but at the laſt receiued confuſion for his malice, *and fled agayne lyke a vacabonde into the lande of the Ammonites. 2.Mac.4.f.

8 Finally, for a rewarde of his wickedneſſe, he was accuſed before Aretha the king of the Arabians, inſomuche that he was fayne to flee from citie to citie, beyng deſpyſed of euery man, as a forſaker of the lawes, and an abominable perſon: and at the laſt, as an open enimie of his owne natural countrey, and of the citizens, he was driuen into Egypt.

9 Thus he that afore put many out of theyr owne natiue land, peryſhed from home him ſelfe: he went to Lacedemon, thinking there to haue gotten ſuccour, by reaſon of kinred.

10 And he that afore had caſte many one out vnburied, was throwen out hym ſelfe, no man mournyng for hym, nor puttyng hym in his graue: ſo that he neyther enioyed the burial of a ſtranger, neyther was he partaker of his fathers ſepulchre.

11 Now when this was donne, the kyng ſuſpected that the Iewes woulde haue fallen from hym, wherefore he came in a great diſpleaſure out of Egypt, *and tooke the citie by violence. 1.Ma.1.c.

12 He commaunded his menne of warre alſo, that they ſhould kyl, and not ſpare: but ſlaye downe ſuche as withſtoode them, or clymed vp vpon the houſes.

13 Thus was there a great ſlaughter of young menne, olde menne, women, chyldren, and virgins. C

14 In three dayes, were there ſlayne fourecore thouſande, fourtie thouſande put in priſon: and there were as many ſolde, as were ſlayne.

15 Yet was he not content with this, but durſt goe into the moſt holy temple of al the world, Menelaus that traytour to the lawes, and to his owne natural countrey, beyng his guide.

16 And with his wicked handes tooke the holye veſſels, whiche other kynges and cities had geuen thyther for the garniſhing and honour of the place, them tooke he in his hands vnworthyly, and defiled them.

17 So mad was Antiochus, that he conſydered not how that God was not a litle wroth for the ſinnes of them that dwelt in the citie, for the whiche ſuche confuſion came vppon that place.

Iud.5.b. 18 * And why? if it had not happened them to haue benne lapped in many ſinnes, this Antiochus aſſoone as he had comme, had ſodenly benne pouniſhed & ſhut out of his preſumption, *lyke as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the kyng ſent to robbe the treaſurie. 2.Mac,3,b.

D 19 Neuertheleſſe, God hath not choſen the people for the places ſake: but the place for the peoples ſake.

20 And therefore is the place becomme partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterward ſhal it enioy the wealth of them: And lyke as it was now forſaken in the wrath of almyghtie God, ſo when the great God is reconciled, it ſhalbe ſet vp in hygh woorſhyp agayne.

21 So when Antiochus had taken a thouſand and eyght hundred talents out of the temple, he gate hym to Antioche in al the haſt, thynkyng in his pryde that he myght make men ſaile vpon the drye land, and to goe vpon the ſea, ſuche an hygh mynde had he.

22 He leaft Deputies there to vexe the people: at Hieruſalem leaft he Philip a Phrygian, in manners more cruel then hym ſelfe that ſet hym there:

23 At Garizim he leaft Andronicus and Menelaus, which were more greeuous to the citizens then other. 1.Mac.1,a.

24 * Now as he was thus ſet in malice againſt the Iewes, he ſent Apollonius, a cruel prince, with an army of twenty and two thouſand, commaundyng hym to ſlay thoſe that were of perfect age, and to ſel the women, maydens, and chyldren.

25 When he came nowe to Hieruſalem, he faigned peace, and keapt hym ſtil vntyl the Sabboth day: and then he commaunded his menne to take them to their weapons, for the Iewes keapt holy day: E

26 And ſo he ſlue al them that were gonne foorth to yͤ open play, running [here and there] thorow the citie with his menne weaponed, and murthered a great number.

27 *But Iudas Machabeus, whiche was the tenth, fled into the wyldernеſſe, ledde his lyfe there, with his company, among wylde beaſtes, and vpon the mountayes, dwelling there, and eating hearbes, leſt they ſhould be partakers of the filthyneſſe. 1,Mac,1,c.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 The Iewes are compelled to leaue the lawe of God. 4 The temple is defiled. 12 The readers are admonyſhed that they ſhal not abhorre the aduerſitie wherewith the Lorde afflicteth them. 28 The greeuous payne of Eleazarus.

A 1 Not long after this, ſent the kyng an olde man of ‖ Antioch, for to compel yͤ Iewes to tranſgreſſe the ordinances of the fathers, and of the law of God, ‖ Or, Athes.

2 To defile the temple that was at Hieruſalem, and to cal it the temple of Iupiter Olimpius: and that they ſhoulde be in Garizim, as thoſe whiche dwel at the place of Iupiter the harberous.

3 This wycked ſedition of the vngodly, was heauy vpon al the people:

4 For the temple was ful of voluptuouſneſſe, bibbyng and bouling of the Heathen, of rybaudes and harlots togeather: the women went into the holye place, and bare in that was not lawful:

5 The aulter alſo was ful of vnlawful thinges, which the law forbiddeth to lay vpon it,

6 The Sabbothes were not keapt, the other ſolemne feaſtes of the lande were not regarded: to be playne, there durſt no man be knowen that he was a Iewe.

7 In the day of the kynges byrth, they were compelled perforce to offer, and when yͤ feaſt of Bacchus was keapt, they were conſtrayned to weare garlandes of iuie, and to goe about to the hononr of Bacchus. B

8 Moreouer, through the counſel of Ptolomeus, there went out a commaundement, vnto the next cities of the Heathen, agaynſt the Iewes, that the like cuſtome and ‖ banketting ſhoulde be keapt. ‖ Or, eatyng of the fleaſhe that was ſacrificed.

9 And who ſo would not conforme them ſelues to the manners of the Gentiles, ſhould be put to death: then myght a man haue ſeene the preſent miſerie.

10 For there were two menne accuſed to haue circumciſed their ſonnes: whom when they had led rounde about the citie, the babes hangyng at theyr breaſtes, they caſt them downe headlonges

hangyng at theyr breſtes, they caſt them downe headlonges ouer the walles.

11 Some that were creapt in dennes, and had keapt the Sabboth, were accuſed vnto Philip, and brent in the fyre, becauſe that for the feare of GOD they keapt the commaundement ſo ſtiffely, and woulde not defend them ſelues.

12 Now I beſeeche al thoſe which reade this booke, that they refuſe it not for theſe falles of aduerſitie, and iudge the thynges that are happened for no deſtruction, but for a chaſtenyng of our people.

13 And why? When God ſuffereth not ſinners long to folowe theyr owne minde, but ſhortly pouniſheth them, * it is a token of his great louing kindneſſe.

Pro.3.b.

14 For this grace haue we of God more then other people, That he ſuffereth not vs long to ſinne vnpouniſhed, lyke as other nations,

C

15 That when the day of iudgement commeth, he may pouniſhe them in the fulneſſe of theyr ſinnes.

16 If we ſinne, he correcteth vs, but he neuer withdraweth his mercie from vs: & though he pouniſhe with aduerſitie, yet dooth he neuer forſake his people.

17 But let this that we haue ſpoken nowe with fewe woordes, be for a warnyng and exhortation " of the heathen: Nowe wil we comme to the declaryng of the matter.

" Or, vnto vs.

18 Eleazar one of the principal ſcribes, an aged man, and of a welle fauoured countenance, was conſtrained to gape with open mouth, * and to eate ſwynes fleaſhe.

Leuit.11.a.

19 But he deſyring rather to dye gloriouſly, then to liue with ſhame, offered hym ſelfe wyllingly to the martyrdome.

D

20 Nowe when he ſawe that he muſt needes goe to it, he tooke it patiently: for he was at a poynt with hym ſelfe, that he woulde not conſent to any vnlawful thyng for any pleaſure of lyfe.

21 They that (a) ſtood by, being mooued with pitie (but not a right) for the olde frendſhip of the man, tooke him aſide priuily, and prayed that he would let ſuche fleaſhe be brought hym as were lawful to eate, and then to make a countenance as though he had eaten of the fleaſhe of the ſacrifice, like as the kyng commaunded,

(a) They that had the charge of that wicked banquet.

22 For ſo he myght be deliuered from death: and ſo for the olde frendſhip of the man, they ſhewed hym this kindneſſe.

23 But he began to conſyder diſcreetely, and as became his age, and the excellencie of his auncient yeeres, and the honour of his graye heares, whereunto he was comme, and his moſt honeſt conuerſation from his childehoode, but chiefely the holy lawe made and geuen by God, therefore he anſweared conſequently, and wylled them ſtraightwayes to ſende hym to the graue:

24 For it becommeth not myne age, ſayde he, in any wyſe to diſſemble, whereby many young perſons myght thinke that Eleazar, beyng fourеſcore yeeres olde and tenne, were nowe gonne to a ſtrange religion:

25 And ſo through myne hypocriſie, for a litle tyme of a tranſitory lyfe, they myght be deceiued: by this meanes alſo ſhoulde I defile myne age, and make it abominable.

26 For though I were nowe deliuered from the tormentes of menne, yet ſhoulde I not eſcape the hande of almyghty God, neither aliue nor dead.

27 Wherefore, I wyl dye manfully, and doo as it becommeth myne age:

E

28 Whereby I may peraduenture leaue an example of ſtedfaſtneſſe for ſuch as be young, if I with a ready minde, and manfully dye an honeſt death for the moſt woorthy and holy lawes. When he had ſayde theſe woordes, immediatly he was drawen to the torment.

Amos.i.a.

29 Now they that led him, and were milde a litle afore, began to take diſpleaſure, becauſe of the woordes that he ſayd: for they thought he had ſpoken them of an hygh minde.

30 But when he was in his martyrdome, he mourned, and ſayde, Thou, O Lorde, which haſt the holy knowledge, knoweſt openly, that where as I myght be deliuered from death, I ſuffer theſe ſoare paines of my body: but in my minde I am wel content to ſuffer them, becauſe I feare thee.

31 Thus this man dyed, leauing the memorial of his death for an example, not only vnto young menne, but vnto al the people, to be ſtedfaſt and manly.

The. vii. Chapter.

The pouniſhment of the ſeuen brethren, and of their mother.

A

1 IT happened alſo that there were ſeuen brethren with their mother, taken, and compelled by the kyng * agaynſt the law to eate ſwines fleaſh, [namely] with ſcourges and leatherne whippes.

Leuit.11.a

2 And one of them, which was the chiefe, ſayd, What ſeekeſt thou, and what requireſt thou of vs? As for vs, we are ready rather to ſuffer death, then to offende the lawes of God, and the fathers.

3 Then was the kyng angry, and bade heate cauldrons and braſen pottes: whiche when they were made hot,

4 Immediatly he commaunded the tongue of him that ſpake firſt to be cut out, to pul the ſkinne ouer his head, to pare the edges of his handes and feete: yea and that in the ſyght of his mother and the other of his brethren.

5 Nowe when he was cleane mangled, he commaunded a fyre to be made, & ſo (while there was any breath in him) to be fried in the cauldron: In the which when he had ben long pained, yͤ other brethren, with theyr mother, exhorted him to dye manfully, ſayeing,

6 The Lorde God ſhal regarde the trueth, and comfort vs, lyke as Moſes teſtifieth* and declareth in his ſong [ſayeing,] And he wyl haue compaſſion on his ſeruantes.

Deut,32.c

7 So when the fyrſt was dead after this manner, they brought the ſeconde to haue hym in deriſion, pulled the ſkinne with the heare ouer his head, and aſked hym yf he woulde eate ſwynes fleaſhe, or he were payned in the other members alſo throughout his body.

B 8 But he anſweared in his owne language, and ſayde, I wyl not doo it: And ſo he was tormented lyke as the fyrſt.

9 And when he was euen at the geuing vp of the ghoſt, he ſayde, Thou moſt vngratious perſon putteſt vs nowe to death: but the kyng of the worlde ſhal rayſe vs vp whiche dye for his lawes, in the reſurrection of euerlaſtyng lyfe.

10 After him was the thyrde had in deriſion, and when he was required, he put out his tongue, and that ryght ſoone, holdyng foorth his handes manfully,

11 And ſpake with a ſtedfaſt fayth, Theſe haue I of heauen, but nowe for the lawes of God I deſpiſe them: for my truſt is, that I ſhal receiue them of hym agayne.

12 Inſomuch that the kyng and they which were with hym, marueyled at the young mans boldneſſe, that he nothyng regarded the paynes.

13 Nowe when he was dead alſo, they vexed the fourth with tormentes in lyke manner.

C 14 So when he was nowe at his death, he ſayde, It is better that we, beyng put to death of menne, haue our hope and truſt in God, for he ſhal rayſe vs vp agayne:* as for thee, thou ſhalt haue no reſurrection to lyfe.

Iohn,5,c.

15 And when they had ſpoken to the fifth, they tormented hym.

16 Then looked he vnto the king, and ſayde, Thou haſt power among menne, for thou art a mortal man alſo thee ſelfe, to doo what thou wylt: but thinke not that God hath forſaken our generation.

17 Abide thee, tary ſtil a whyle, and thou ſhalt ſee the great power of God, how he wyl pouniſhe thee and thy ſeede.

18 After him they brought the ſixth, whiche beyng at the poynt of death, ſayde, Be not deceiued, O kyng, for this we ſuffer for our owne ſakes, becauſe we haue offended our God, and therefore marueylous thynges are ſhewed vpon vs.

19 But thinke not thou which takeſt in hand to ſtriue agaynſt God, that thou ſhalt eſcape vnpouniſhed.

20 This excellent mother, woorthy to be wel reported of, & had in remembrance, ſawe her ſeuen ſonnes dye in one day, & ſuffered it patiently, becauſe of the hope that ſhe had in god:

D 21 Yea ſhe exhorted euery one of them in her countrey language, and that boldly and ſtedfaſtly with perfect wyſedome, wakyng vp her wimiſh thought with a manly ſtomake, and ſayde vnto them,

22 I can not tel how ye ſprang in my wombe: for I neither gaue you breath, nor ſoule, nor lyfe, it is not I that ioyned the members of your bodyes togeather,

23 But the maker of the worlde, whiche faſhioned the byrth of man, and beganne al thynges: Euen he alſo of his owne mercie ſhal geue you breath and lyfe agayne, like as ye now regarde not your owne ſelues for his lawes ſake.

24 Nowe thought Antiochus, that ſhe had deſpiſed hym, therefore he let her goe with her reproffes, and beganne to exhort the youngeſt ſonne, whiche yet was leaft, not only with woordes, but ſwore vnto hym with an oth, that he ſhoulde make him a riche & wealthy man, yf he woulde forſake the lawes of his fathers: yea, and that he ſhoulde geue hym whatſoeuer were neceſſary for hym.

25 But when the young man woulde not be mooued for al theſe thinges, he called his mother, & counſelled her to ſaue her ſonnes life.

26 And when he had exhorted her with many woordes, ſhe promiſed him that ſhe woulde ſpeake to her ſonne.

E 27 So ſhe turned her vnto hym, laughing the cruel tyrant to ſcorne, and ſpake in her countrey language: O my ſonne, haue pitie vpon me, that bare thee nine monethes in my wombe, that gaue thee ſucke, nouriſhed thee, and brought thee vp vnto this age,

28 I beſeche thee my ſonne, looke vpon hea-

uen and earth, and al that is therein, and conſyder that God made them and mans generation of nought:

29 So ſhalt thou not feare this hangman, but ſuffer death ſtedfaſtly, like as thy brethren haue donne: that I may receaue thee agayne in the ſame mercie with thy brethren.

30 Whyle ſhe was yet ſpeaking theſe words, the young man ſayde, Whom looke ye for? [wherefore doo ye tary?] I wyl not obey the kinges commaundement,* but the law that God gaue vs by Moſes. Leuit.11.a.

31 As for thou that imagineſt al miſcheefe againſt the " Iewes, thou ſhalt not eſcape the hande of God. " Or, Hebrues.

32 For we ſuffer theſe thynges becauſe of our ſinnes.

33 And though the liuyng Lorde be angry with vs a litle whyle for our chaſtening and reformation, yet ſhal he be at one againe with his ſeruantes.

34 But thou, O godleſſe man, and of al other the moſt wicked, pride not thee ſelfe through vaine hope, in beyng ſo malitious vpon the ſeruantes of God:

35 For thou haſt not yet eſcaped the iudgementes of God, whiche is almyghty, and ſeeth al thynges.

36 My brethren that haue ſuffered a litle paine, are nowe vnder the couenant of euerlaſtyng lyfe: but through the iudgement of god, thou ſhalt be pouniſhed ryghteouſly for thy pride.

37 As for me, like as my brethren haue donne, I offer my " ſoule & my body for the lawes of our fathers, calling vpon God, that he wil ſoone be merciful vnto our people: yea, and with payne and pouniſhment* to make thee graunt that he only is God. " Or, lyfe. 2.Mac.2.c.

38 In me now, and in my brethren, the wrath of almighty God is at an ende, whiche righteouſly is fallen vpon al our people.

39 Then the kyng beyng kyndled in anger, was more cruel vpon hym, then vpon al the other, and tooke indignation that he was ſo lightly regarded.

40 So this young man dyed vndefiled, and put his truſt ſtil in the Lorde.

41 Laſt of al, after the ſonnes, was the mother put to death alſo.

42 Let this nowe be yenough ſpoken concernyng the offeringes and extreme cruelneſſe.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 Iudas geathereth togeather his hoſt. 9 Nicanor is ſent agaynſt Iudas. 16 Iudas exhorteth his ſouldiers to conſtantneſſe. 20 Nicanor is ouercome. 27 The Iewes geueth thankes, after they haue put theyr enimies to flight, diuiding the ſpoyles vnto the fatherleſſe, and vnto the wydowes. 35 Nicanor fleeth vnto Antiochus.

A 1 Then Iudas Machabeus, and they that were with hym, went priuilie into the townes, called theyr kinſefolkes and freendes togeather, tooke vnto them al ſuche as continued yet in the fayth and lawe of the Iewes, and brought foorth ſixe thouſande menne.

2 So they called vpon the Lorde, that he woulde haue an eye vnto his people, whiche was troden downe of euery man, to be gratious vnto the temple, that was defiled of the vngodly,

3 To haue compaſſion vpon the deſtruction of the citie, which was ſhortly lyke to be layd waſte, to heare the voice of the blood that cryed vnto hym:

4 To remember the moſt vnrighteous deaths of young innocent chyldren, the blaſphemies alſo donne vnto his name, and to pouniſhe them.

1.Mac.2.a. 5 * Nowe when Machabeus had geathered this multitude togeather, he was to myghty for the heathen, for the wrath of the Lorde was turned into mercie,

6 He fel vpon the townes and cities vnwares, brent them, tooke the moſt commodious places, and ſlue many of the enimies.

7 But ſpecially he made ſuch chaſes by night, inſomuche that his manlineſſe was ſpoken of euery where. B

8 So when Philip ſaw that the man increaſed by litle and litle, and that the matter proſpered with hym for the moſt part: he wrote vnto Ptolomi, whiche was a captayne in Celoſyria and Phenices, to helpe hym in the kynges buſineſſe.

9 * Then ſent he Nicanor the ſonne of Patroclus, a ſpecial freende of his, in al the haſte, and gaue hym of the common ſorte of the heathen, no leſſe then twentie thouſande harneſſed menne, to roote out the whole generation of the Iewes, hauyng to helpe hym one Gorgias a man of warre, whiche in matters concernyng batayles had great experience. 1.Mac.3.c.

10 Nicanor ordeyned alſo the tribute, whiche the Romanes ſhoulde haue hadde, to be euen vnto the king out of the captiue of yͤ Iewes, [namely] two thouſande talentes.

11 And immediatly he ſent to the cities of the ſea coaſte, requyring them for to bye Iewes to be theyr ſeruantes and bondmen, promiſing to ſelle them foureſcore and tenne for one talent: but he conſydered not the wrath of almighty God that was to come vpon hym.

12 When Iudas knewe of this, he tolde the Iewes that were with hym, of Nicanors comming.

13 Nowe were there ſome of them feareful, not truſting vnto the righteouſneſſe of God, and fledde theyr way, and abode not in that place:

C 14 But the other that remayned, came togeather, and beſought the Lorde to deliuer them from that wicked Nicanor, whiche had ſold them or euer he came nygh them:

15 And though he woulde not doo it for their ſakes, yet for the couenant that he made with theyr fathers, and becauſe they called vpon his holy and glorious name.

1.Mac.5.b. 16 * And ſo Machabeus called his menne togeather, [namely] about ſixe thouſand, exhortyng them not to agree vnto theyr enimies, Deut.20.a *neither to be afrayde for the multitude of theyr aduerſaries comming agaynſt them vnryghteouſly, but to fyght manly,

17 Conſydering the reproofe that they hadde donne to the holy place without cauſe, howe they had deſpiſed and oppreſſed the citie, yea and deſtroyed the lawes of the fathers.

Iere.19.b. 18 * For they, ſaide he, truſt in theyr weapons and boldneſſe: but our confidence is in the almyghty Lorde, whiche in the twinkling of an eye, may both deſtroy them whiche come agaynſt vs, and al the worlde.

19 He exhorted them alſo to calle to remembrance the helpe that God ſhewed vnto their fathers, as when there periſhed an hundred foureſcore and fiue thouſande of Sennacheribs people:

20 And of the batayle that they had in Babylon agaynſt the Galathians: howe al the Macedonians that came to helpe them, beyng foure thouſand, ſtoode in feare: and how they beyng only but " ſixe thouſande, ſlue an hundred and twentie thouſande, through the helpe that was geuen them from heauen, whereby they alſo had receiued many benefites.

" Or, eyght thouſande.

D 21 Through theſe woordes the menne tooke good hartes vnto them, ready to dye for the lawe and the countrey.

22 So he ſet vpon euery company a captaine, one of his owne brethren, Simon, Ioſeph, and Ionathas, geuing eche one fiftiene hundred menne.

" Or, Eleazarus.

23 He cauſed " Eſdras alſo to reade the holy booke vnto them, and to geue them a token of the helpe of God: * then he hym ſelfe, being captaine in the forefront of the batayle, buckled with Nicanor. 1.Mac.4.b

24 And God was their helpe, inſomuche that they ſlue aboue nine thouſande menne, and compelled the more part of Nicanors hoſte to flee, they were ſo wounded and feeble.

25 Thus they tooke the money from thoſe that came to bye them, and folowed vpon them on euery ſide.

26 But when the time came vpon them, they returned, for it was the day before the Sabboth, and therefore they folowed no more vpon them.

27 So they tooke theyr weapons, and ſpoiles, E and keapt the Sabboth, geuing thankes vnto the Lorde which hadde deliuered them that day, and ſhewed them the beginning of his mercie.

28 After the Sabboth, * they diſtributed the ſpoyles to the ſicke, to the fatherleſſe, and to wydowes, and the reſidue had they them ſelues, with theirs. Num.31.d

29 When this was donne, and they al hadde made a general prayer, they beſought the merciful Lorde to be at one with his ſeruantes.

30 Of thoſe alſo that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, which fought againſt them, they ſlue twentie thouſande, wanne hygh and ſtrong holdes, and diuided mo ſpoyles, euer geuing an equal portion vnto the ſicke, to the fatherleſſe, to wydowes, and to aged perſons.

31 And when they had diligently geathered theyr weapons togeather, they layde them al in conuenient places, and the remnant of the ſpoyles brought they to Hieruſalem:

32 They ſlue alſo Philarches, that wicked perſon, whiche was with Timotheus, and had vexed many Iewes.

33 And when they helde the thankeſgeuing at Hieruſalem for the victory, they brent thoſe that had ſet fyre on the portes of the temple, [namely] Caliſthenes, whiche was fled into an houſe, and ſo they gate a woorthy reward for theyr wickedneſſe.

34 As for that moſte vngratious Nicanor, which had brought a thouſand marchantes to bye the Iewes,

35 He was through the helpe of the Lorde, F brought downe, euen of them whom he regarded not: inſomuch that he put of his glorious rayment, fled by ſea, and came alone to Antioche with great ſhame and diſhonour, whiche he gate through the deſtruction of his hoſt.

36 Thus he that promiſed the Romanes to pay them theyr tribute when he tooke Hieruſalem, began nowe to ſay plainely, that God was the defender of the Iewes, and therefore not poſſible to wounde them, becauſe they folowed the lawes whiche God had made.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Antiochus wyllyng to ſpoyle Perſepolis, is driuen to flight. 9 As he perſecuted the Iewes, he is ſtriken of the Lorde. 13 The faigned repentance of Antiochus. 28 He dyeth.

A 1 AT the ſame tyme came * Antiochus agayne with diſhonour out of Perſia.

1.Mac.6.

2 For when he came to Perſepolis, and vndertooke to robbe the temple, and to ſubdue the citie, the people ranne togeather, and defended them ſelues, inſomuch that he and his were faine to flee with ſhame: & ſo after that flight, it happened that Antiochus came agayne with diſhonour.

3 But when he came to Egbatana, he gate knowledge what was happened vnto Nicanor, and Timotheus.

4 Nowe as he was auauncing hym ſelfe in his wrath, he thought he was hable to auẽge the iniurie that was donne to them vpon the Iewes: and therefore commaunded to make ready his charet, haſting on his iourney without ceaſſing, the iudgement of God prouoking him, becauſe he had ſpoken ſo proudely, that he woulde comme to Hieruſalem, and make it a graue of the Iewes.

5 But the Lorde God of Iſrael, that ſeeth al thynges, ſmote hym with an vncurable and an inuiſible plague [which no man could heale] For aſ ſoone as he had ſpoken theſe woordes, there came vpon hym an horrible payne of his bowels, and a ſoare griefe of the inner partes,

6 And that was but ryght: for he had martyred other mennes bowels with diuers and ſtrange tormentes.

B 7 Howbeit he woulde in no wyſe ceaſſe from his malice: yea he was yet the prouder and more malitious agaynſt the Iewes: but while he was commaunding to make haſte in the matter, it happened that he fel downe violently from the charret that ranne ſwiftly, ſo that it bruiſed his body, and dyd hym great payne.

8 And ſo he that thought a litle before he myght commaunde the fluddes of the ſea (ſo proud was he beyond the condition of man) and to waye the high mountaines in a paire of balance, was nowe brought downe to the grounde, & carried vpon a horſelitter, knowledging the manifeſt power of GOD vpon hym:

9 So that the woormes came out of the body of this wicked man in abundance: and whiles he was aliue, his fleaſhe felle of for payne & torment, and al his armie was greeued at his ″ ſmel.

″ Or, rottenneſſe.

10 Thus he that a litle afore thought he might reache to the ſtarres of heauen: hym myght no man nowe abyde nor beare, for the vehemencie of ſtincke.

11 Therefore he beyng brought from his great pride, beganne for to comme to the knowledge of hym ſelfe: for the punniſhment of God warned hym, and his payne encreaſed euer more and more.

12 And when he hym ſelfe myght not abyde his owne ſtincke, he ſayde theſe woordes, It is reaſon to be obedient vnto God, and that a man which is mortal, thinke not through pride, hym ſelfe to be equal vnto God.

13 This wicked perſon prayed alſo vnto the Lorde, who nowe woulde haue no mercie vpon hym:

C 14 And as for the citie that he came vnto ſo haſtyly, to bryng it downe to the grounde, and to make it a graue for dead men, nowe he deſyreth to deliuer it free:

15 And as touchyng the Iewes, whom he had iudged not woorthy to be buried, but would haue caſt them out with their chyldren, for to be deuoured of the foules and wyld beaſtes, [ſayeing, that he woulde haue deſtroyed both olde and young:] nowe he promiſed to make them like the citizens of Athens:

16 And where as he had ſpoyled the holy temple afore, now he maketh promiſe to garniſh it with great gyftes, to encreaſe the holy ornamentes, and of his owne rentes to beare the coaſtes and charges belongyng to the offeringes:

17 Yea, and that he would alſo become a Iewe hym ſelfe, to goe through euery place of the worlde that was inhabited, and to preache the power of God.

18 But when his paynes woulde not ceaſſe, (for the ryghteous iudgement of God was comme vpon hym) out of a very diſpayre he wrote vnto the Iewes a letter of interceſſion, conteynyng theſe woordes:

19 The kyng and prince Antiochus, wyſheth vnto the vertuous citizens of the Iewes muche health, and good proſperitie.

20 If ye and your chyldren fare wel, and yf al thynges goe after your mind, we geue great thankes.

D 21 In my ſickeneſſe alſo doo I remember you louingly: for as I came out of Perſia, and was taken with ſoare diſeaſe, I thought it neceſſary to care for the common wealth:

22 Neither diſpayre I in my ſelfe, but haue a good hope to eſcape this ſickeneſſe.

23 But conſydering that my father led an hoſt ſometyme in the hygher places, and ſhewed who ſhoulde raigne after hym,

24 That yf there happened any controuerſie, or any harde thyng were declared, they in the lande myght knowe their chiefe Lorde, that there ſhoulde be no inſurrection.

25 Againe, when I ponder with my ſelfe, how that al the myghty menne and neyghbours rounde about, are laying wayte, and looke but for oportunitie to doo harme: I haue ordeined, that my ſonne Antiochus ſhal raigne after me, whom I oft commended to many of you, when I was in the hygher kyngdomes, and haue written vnto hym as it foloweth hereafter.

26 Therefore I pray you, and require you to remember the benefites that I haue donne vnto you generally, and in eſpecial, and that euery man wyl be faythful to me and my ſonne.

27 For I hope that he ſhalbe of ſober and louyng behauour, and yf he folowe my deuice, he ſhalbe indifferent vnto you.

28 * Thus that murtherer and blaſphemer of God was ſoare ſmitten: and lyke as he had intreated other menne, ſo he dyed a miſerable death in a ſtrange countrey vpon a mountayne. Deut.8.c.

29 And his body dyd Philip that went with hym carry away, whiche fearing the ſonne of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolomi Philometor.

The.x.Chapter.

1 Iudas Machabeus taketh a citie and the temple. 10 He beginneth to ſhewe the actes of Eupator. 16 The Iewes fight agaynſt the Idumeans. 24 Timotheus inuadeth Iurie, with whom Iudas ioyneth batayle. 29 Fiue men appeare in the ayre to the helpe of the Iewes. 39 Timothi is ſlayne.

A 1 Machabeus nowe and his company * thorowe the helpe of the Lord, wanne the temple and the citie agayne, 1.Mac.4.c

2 Deſtroyed the aulters and chappels that the heathen had buylded through the ſtreetes,

Exo.20.a. 3 Cleanſed the temple, made another aulter of bricke ſtone, and after two yeeres they offered ſacrifices, ſet foorth the incenſe, the lyghtes, and ſhewe bread.

4 When that was donne, they fel downe flat vpon the grounde, and beſought the Lorde that they myght comme no more into ſuche trouble: but yf they ſinned any more agaynſt hym, he hym ſelfe to chaſten them with mercie, and not to comme in the handes of thoſe aliantes and blaſphemous menne.

5 Nowe vpon the ſame day that the ſtrangers polluted the temple, it happened that on the very ſame day it was cleanſed agayne: [namely] * the twentie and fifth day of the moneth called * Caſleu. 1.Mac.4.f Nouemb.

6 They kept eyght dayes in gladneſſe, lyke as in the feaſt of the tabernacles, remembring that not long afore they helde the feaſte of the tabernacles vpon the mountaynes, and in dennes, lyke beaſtes.

7 And to the ſame token they bare greene bowes, branches, and palmes, and ſong Pſalmes before hym that had geuen them good ſucceſſe to cleanſe his place.

8 They agreed alſo togeather, and made a ſtatute, that euery yeere thoſe dayes ſhoulde be ſolemply kept of al the people of the Iewes. B

9 Howe Antiochus then, that was called the noble, dyed, it is ſufficiently tolde.

10 Nowe whyle we ſpeake of Eupator the ſonne of that wicked Antiochus, how it happened with hym, and ſo with fewe woordes to comprehende the aduerſitie that chaunced in the warres.

11 When he had taken in the kyngdome, he made one Lyſias, which had benne captaine of the hoſt in Phenices and " Syria, ruler ouer the matters of the Realme. " Or, Celoſyria.

12 For Ptolomi, that was called Macron, beyng a ruler for the Iewes, and ſpecially to ſit in iudgement for ſuche wrong as was donne vnto them, vndertooke to deale peaceably with them.

13 For the whiche cauſe he was accuſed of his freendes before Eupator: and when he was ſuſpected to be a traitour, becauſe he had leaſt Cypres, that Philometor had committed vnto hym, and becauſe he departed from noble Antiochus that he was comme vnto, he poyſoned hym ſelfe, and dyed.

14 Nowe when Gorgias was gouernour of the ſame places, he tooke ſtrangers, and vndertooke oft times to warre with the Iewes.

C 15 Moreouer, the Idumeans that helde the ſtrong holdes, receiued thoſe that were driuen from Hieruſalem, and tooke in hande to warre alſo.

1.Mac.5.a. 16 * But they that were with Machabeus, beſought and prayed vnto the Lorde that he woulde be theyr helper, and ſo they felle vpon the ſtrong holdes of the Idumeans,

17 And wanne many places by ſtrength: ſuch as came agaynſt them they ſlue, and kylled no leſſe of al togeather, then twentie thouſande.

18 Neuertheleſſe ſomme, no leſſe then nine thouſande, were fledde into two ſtrong towers, hauyng al manner of ordinance to withſtande them.

19 Then Machabeus, leauing Simon, Ioſephus, Zacheus, and thoſe that were with thē, which were very many, went to beſiege them, and to fyght where moſt neede was.

20 Nowe they that were with Simon, being ledde with couetouſneſſe, were intreated for money, through certayne of thoſe that lay in the caſtles, tooke threeſcore and ten thouſand (a) dragmas, and let ſomme of them eſcape.

(a) A dragma is, the eyghth part of an ounce, whiche is about three pence.

21 But when it was tolde Machabeus what hadde happened, he called the captaynes of the people togeather, accuſyng thoſe perſons, that they had ſolde the brethren for money, and let theyr enimies goe.

D 22 So he ſlue thoſe traytours, and immediatly went in hande with the two caſtels.

23 And when they hadde ordered them ſelues manly with their weapons and handes, they ſlue in the two caſtles mo then twentie thouſande.

1.Mac.5.b. 2.Mac.8. 24 * Nowe Timotheus, whom the Iewes had ouercome afore, geathered a multitude of ſtrange people, brought an hoſte alſo of horſemen of the Aſians, to winne Iurie by ſtrength.

2.Ma.11.b. 25 But when he drewe nygh, Machabeus and they that were with him, * felle to theyr praier, ſprinkled aſhes vpon their heades, beyng gyrded with heary cloth about theyr loynes,

Deut.28.a 26 Fel downe before the aulter, and beſought the Lord that he would be merciful to them, but an enimie vnto their enimies, & to take part agaynſt theyr aduerſaries, * accordyng as it is promiſed in the lawe.

27 So after the prayer, they tooke theyr weapons, and went on further from the citie: and when they came nygh the enimies, they prepared them ſelues agaynſt them.

28 And betymes in the mornyng at the breake of the day, both the hoſtes buckled togeather: E * The one part had the Lord for theyr refuge, whiche is the geuer of proſperitie, ſtrength, and victory: the other had a manly ſtomack, whiche is a captayne of warre. Iere.17.d. 2.Par.32.b.

29 The batayle nowe beyng great, * there appeared vnto the enimies from heauen fiue goodly menne vpon horſebackes, with brydels of golde, leadyng the Iewes: 3.Reg.6.a. 1.Mac.3.a. and.11.b.

30 And two of them hauyng Machabeus betwixt them, that kept hym ſafe on euery ſide with theyr weapons, but ſhotte dartes and lyghtninges vppon the enimies, wherethorowe they were confounded with blindneſſe, and ſo ſoare afrayde that they fel downe.

31 There were ſlayne of footemen, twentie thouſande, and fiue hundred, and ſixe hundred horſemen.

32 As for Timotheus him ſelfe, he fled vnto Gazara, a very ſtrong holde, wherein Chereas was captayne.

33 But Machabeus and his company, layed ſiege to it chearefully foure dayes.

34 Nowe they that were within, truſting to the ſtrength of the place, curſed and banned exceedyngly, and made great crakyng, with wicked wordes.

35 Neuertheleſſe, vpon the fifth day in the F mornyng, twentie young men of Machabeus company, being ſet on fire in their minds, becauſe of the blaſphemie, came manfully vnto the wal, & with bolde ſtomackes ſmote downe thoſe that they mette.

36 Others alſo climed vp vpon the towres, vndertaking to ſet fyre vpon the portes, and to burne thoſe blaſphemous perſons quicke, with the fyres that they had made: others brake open the gates, and receiued the reaſt of the armie, and tooke the citie.

37 Two dayes were they deſtroying the caſtle, whiche when they founde Timotheus that was creapt in a corner, they kylled hym, and ſlue Chereas his brother in like manner, with Apollophanes.

38 When this was donne, they ſong Pſalmes, with prayſes and thankeſgeuing vnto the Lorde, whiche had donne ſo great thynges for Iſrael, and geuen them the victory.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 Lyſias goeth about to ouercome the Jewes. 8 Succour is ſent from heauen vnto the Jewes. 16 The letter of Lyſias to the Jewes. 20 The letter of kyng Antiochus vnto Lyſias. 27 A letter of the ſame vnto the Jewes. 34 A letter of the Romanes to the Jewes.

A 1 NOT long after this, Lyſias the kynges ſteward, and a kinſeman of his, whiche hadde the gouernance of his matters, toke ſoare diſpleaſure for the thynges that hadde happened,

2 And when he had geathered foureſcore thouſande menne of foote, with al the hoſte of the horſemen, he came agaynſt the Jewes, thynkyng to winne the citie, to make it an habitation for the heathen:

Iohn.2.b. 3 *And the temple woulde he haue to be an houſe of lucre, lyke as the other goddes houſes of the heathen are, and to ſelle the prieſtes office euery yeere,

4 Not conſydering the power of God, but was wylde in his minde, *truſting in the multitude of footemenne, in thouſandes of horſemen, and in his foureſcore Elephantes. Eſai.36.b.

5 So he came into Jurie, and then to Bethſura, a caſtle of defence, lying in a narow place, fiue furlonges from Hieruſalem, and layed ſoare ſiege vnto it.

6 Nowe when Machabeus, and his company, knewe that the ſtrong holdes were beſieged, *they fel to theyr prayers, with weeping and teares before the Lorde: and al the people in lyke manner beſought hym, that he woulde ſende a good angel to deliuer Iſrael. 2.Ma.10.c

7 Machabeus hym ſelfe was the firſt that made hym ready to the batayle, exhortyng the other that were with hym, to ieoparde them ſelues, and to helpe theyr brethren.

B 8 And when they were goyng foorth of Hieruſalem togeather, with a ready and wyllyng minde, *there appeared before them vpon horſebacke, a man in whyte clothyng, with harneſſe of golde, ſhakyng his ſpeare. 2.Mac.3.d

9 Then they prayſed the Lorde al togeather, whiche had ſhewed them mercie, and were comforted in theyr mindes, inſomuche that they were ready not only to fyght with men, but with the moſt cruel beaſtes, yea to runne through walles of iron.

10 Thus they went on wyllyngly, hauyng an helper from heauen, and the Lorde merciful vnto them.

11 They felle myghtyly vpon their enimies like Lions, ſlue eleuen thouſande footemen, ſixteene hundred horſemen, and put al the other to flight,

12 Many of them beyng wounded, and ſome gate away naked: yea Lyſias hym ſelfe was faine to flee ſhamefully, and ſo to eſcape.

13 Neuertheleſſe, that man was not without vnderſtandyng, but conſydered by hym ſelfe, that his power was miniſhed, and pondered how the Jewes, beyng defended by the helpe of almyghty God, were not hable to be ouercome: wherefore he ſent them worde,

C 14 And promiſed, that he woulde conſent to al thinges which were reaſonable, and to make the kyng theyr freende.

15 To the whiche prayer of Lyſias, Machabeus agreed, ſeekyng in al thynges the common wealth: and whatſoeuer Machabeus wrote vnto Lyſias concernyng the Jewes, the kyng graunted it.

16 For there were letters written vnto the Jewes from Lyſias, conteynyng theſe woordes: Lyſias ſendeth greeting to the people of the Jewes.

17 John and " Abſolon whiche were ſent from you, deliuered me writinges, and required me to fulfil the thynges concernyng their errande. " Or, Abſalom.

18 Therefore looke what might be graunted, I certified the kyng thereof: and whatſoeuer was conuenient, he agreed thereto.

19 If ye nowe wyl be faythful in theſe matters, I ſhal endeuour my ſelfe hereafter alſo to doo you good.

20 As concernyng theſe thynges, by euery article thereof, I haue committed them to your meſſengers, and to thoſe whom I ſent vnto you, to commune with you of the ſame particulerly.

D 21 Fare ye wel. In the hundred fourtie and eyght yeere, the twentie and fourth day of the moneth Dioſcorinthius.

22 Nowe the kynges letter conteyned theſe woordes: Kyng Antiochus ſendeth greeting vnto his brother Lyſias.

23 Forſomuche as our father* is nowe tranſlated vnto the goddes, our wyl is, that they whiche are in our realme, liue without any inſurrection, and euery man to be diligent in his owne matters: 2.Mac.9.b

24 We vnderſtande alſo, that the Jewes woulde not conſent to our father, for to be brought vnto the cuſtome of the gentiles, but ſtifly to keepe theyr owne ſtatutes, for yͤ whiche cauſe they requyre of vs alſo, to let them remayne ſtyl after their owne lawes.

25 Wherefore our mynde is, that this people ſhalbe in reſt: we haue concluded, and determined alſo to reſtore them theyr Temple againe, that they maye lyue accordyng to the vſe and cuſtome of theyr forefathers.

26 Thou ſhalt doo vs a pleaſure therefore, yf thou ſend vnto them, and graunt them peace, that when they are certified of our mynde, they may be of good cheare, and looke to their owne wealth.

27 And this was the letter that the king wrote vnto the Iewes: Kyng Antiochus ſendeth greeting vnto the counſel, and the other people of the Iewes:

D 28 If ye fare wel, we haue our deſyre: as for vs, we are in good health.

29 Menelaus came and tolde vs, howe that your deſyre was to returne home, and peaceably to enioy your owne poſſeſſions.

30 Wherfore, thoſe that wyl comme, we geue them free libertie, vnto the thirtie day of the moneth of *April,

31 That they may vſe the meates of yͤ Iewes, and theyr owne lawes, like as afore: and none of them by anye manner of wayes to haue harme for thynges donne in ignorance.

32 I haue ſent alſo Menelaus, that he maye comfort you.

33 Fare ye wel. In the hundred fourtie and eyght yeere, the fyftienth day of the moneth of April.

34 The Romanes alſo ſent a letter, conteinyng theſe woordes: Quintus Memmius, and Titus Manlius, Ambaſſadours of the Romanes, ſend greeting vnto the people of the Iewes:

35 Loke what Lyſias yͤ kings kinſman hath graunted you, we graunt you the ſame alſo.

E 36 But as concernyng the thinges whiche he referred vnto the kyng, ſende hyther ſomme with ſpeede, and ponder the matter diligentlye among your ſelues, that we may " caſte the beſt to your profite, for we muſte departe now vnto Antioche.

37 And therefore write ſhortly againe, that we may know your mynde.

38 Farewel. In the hundred fourtie and eight yeere, the fiftienth daye of the moneth of April.

The xii. Chapter,

2 Timotheus troubleth the Iewes. 3 The wicked deede of them of Ioppa againſt the Iewes. 6 Iudas is auenged of them. 9 He ſetteth fyre on the gate of Iannia. 20 The purſuite of the Iewes agaynſt Timothi. 24 Timothi is taken, and let goe vnhurt. 32 Iudas purſueth Gorgias. 43 Iudas offering ſacrifice for the dead, ſheweth the hope of the reſurrection.

A 1 WHEN theſe couenantes were made, Liſias went vnto yͤ kyng, & the Iewes tilled their ground.

2 But Timotheus, and Apollonius the ſōne of Gennei, Ierome, & Demophon [the proude] Nicanor the captayne of Cypers, and they that lay in thoſe places, woulde not let them lyue in reſt and peace.

3 They of Ioppa alſo dyd euen ſuche a ſhameful deede: they prayed the Iewes that dwelt among them, to goe with theyr wyues and chyldren into the ſhips whiche they had prepared, and dyd with them as though they had ought them no euil wyl.

4 Forſomuche then as there was gone foorth a general proclamation thorowe the citie, becauſe of peace, they conſented thereto, and ſuſpect nothyng: but when they were gonne foorth into the deepe, they drowned no leſſe then two hundred of them.

5 When Iudas knew of this crueltie ſhewed vnto his people, he commaunded thoſe that were with hym to make them redy,

6 Exhorting them to cal vpon God the ryghteous iudge, went foorth agaynſt thoſe murtherers of his brethren, ſet fyre in the hauen by night, brent vp the ſhippes: and thoſe that eſcaped from the fire, he ſlue [with the ſwoord.]

7 And when he had donne this, he departed, as though he would come agayne, and roote out al them of Ioppa.

8 But when he had gotten woorde that the Iamnites were minded to do in like manner vnto the Iewes which dwelt among them,

9 He came vpon the Iamnites by night, & ſet fyre on the hauen, with the ſhips: ſo that the light of the fyre was ſeene at Hieruſalem vpon a two hundred and fourtie furlonges.

10 Now when they were gone from thence .ix. furlongs in their iorney toward Timotheus, fiue thouſand men of foote, and fiue hundred horſemen of the Arabians, fought with him.

11 So when the batel was earneſt, and proſpered with Iudas, thorow the healpe of God: yͤ reſidue of the (a) Arabians, being ouercome, beſought Iudas to be at one with them, and promyſed to geue hym certayne " paſtures, and to doo hym good in other thynges.

---

* Zanthicus,

" Or, conſult the beſt.

(a) The Nomades of Arabia, ſo called, becauſe they were ſhepheardes.

" Or, catel.

12 Iudas thynkyng that they ſhould in deede be profitable concernyng many thinges, promyſed them peace: whereuppon they ſhooke handes, and ſo they departed to their tentes.

13 Iudas went alſo vnto a citie, whiche was very faſt keapt with brydges, fenſed rounde about with walles, and diuers kinds of people dwellyng therein, called Caſpin.

C 14 They that were within it, put ſuche truſt in the ſtrength of the walles, & in theyr ſtore of vitayls, that they were the ſlacker in their doynges, curſyng and reuilyng Iudas with blaſphemies, and ſpeakyng ſuche woordes as it becommeth not.

15 But Machabeus callyng vpon the great prince of the worlde, (whiche without any batayle rammes or ordinance of warre, dyd *caſt downe the walles of Iericho, in tyme of Ioſuah) fel manfully vpon the walles, Ioſu,6,c.

16 Tooke the citie, and thorowe the helpe of the Lorde, made an exceedyng great ſlaughter: inſomuche that a lake of two furlonges broade, whiche lay thereby, ſeemed to flowe with the blood of the ſlayne.

17 Then departed they from thence ſeuen hundred & fiftie furlongs, and came to " Caraca, vnto ẏ Iewes that are called Tubianei. " Or, Characa.

18 But as for Timotheus they could not geat hym there: for (not one matter diſpatched) he was departed from thence, and had leaft certayne menne in a very ſtrong holde.

19 But Doſitheus and Soſipater, whiche were captaynes with Machabeus, ſlue thoſe that Timotheus had leaft in the houſe of defence, more then ten thouſand menne.

20 And Machabeus prepared hym, with the ſixe thouſand menne that were about hym, ſet them in order by companies, and went foorth againſt Timotheus, which had with hym an hundred and twentie thouſand men of foote, two thouſande and fyue hundred horſemen.

D 21 When Timotheus had knowledge of Iudas commyng, he ſent the women, chyldren, and the other baggage, vnto a Caſtle called Carnion: For it coulde not be wonne, and was hard to comme vnto, the wayes of the ſame places were ſo narow.

22 And when Iudas his fyrſt band came in ſight, the enimies were ſmytten with feare, thorowe the preſence of God whiche ſeeth al thynges: Inſomuche that they, fleeyng one here, another there, were rather diſcomfited of theyr owne people,*and wounded with the ſtrokes of theyr owne ſwordes. Iud,7,f. 1.Re.14.c. 2.Par.20.d

23 Iudas alſo was very earneſt in folowyng vpon them, pouniſhyng thoſe vngodly, and ſlue thirtie thouſand menne of them.

24 Timotheus alſo him ſelfe fel into ẏ hands of Doſitheus and Soſipater, whom he beſought with muche craft to let hym goe with his lyfe, becauſe he had many of the Iewes fathers and brethren in priſon, whiche if they put hym to death, ſhoulde be deſpyſed.

25 So when he had promyſed faythfully to delyuer them agayne, accordyng to the condition made, they let him go without harme, for the health of the brethren.

26 Then Machabeus marched foorth to Carnion and Atargation, and there ſlue twentie and fiue thouſand menne.

27 Now after that he had chaſed away, and ſlayne his enimies, he remoued the hoſt towarde *Ephron, a ſtrong citie, wherin was Lyſias, and a great multitude of dyuers nations: and the ſtrong young men keapt the walles, defending thē mightily: In this citie was muche ordinance & prouiſion of dartes. 1.Mac,5,c.

28 But when Iudas and his company had called vppon almyghtie GOD, whiche with his power breaketh the ſtrength of the enimies, they wanne the citie, and ſlue twentie and fyue thouſande of them that were within. E

29 From thence went they to the citie of the " Scythians, whiche lieth ſixe hundred furlonges from Hieruſalem. " Or, Scythopolis.

30 But when the Iewes whiche were in the citie, teſtified that the citizens dealt louingly with them, yea and intreated them kyndlye in the tyme of their aduerſitie,

31 Iudas and his company gaue them thankes, deſyring them to be freendlye ſtyl vnto them: and ſo they came to Hieruſalem, the hygh feaſt of the weekes beyng at hande.

32 And after the feaſt of Pentecoſt, they went foorth agaynſt Gorgias, the gouernour of Idumea,

33 Who came out with three thouſande men of foote, and foure hundred horſemen. F

34 Which when they mette togeather, it chanced a fewe of the Iewes to be ſlayne.

35 And Doſitheus, one of ẏ Bacenors, a mightie horſeman, tooke holde of Gorgias, and would haue taken hym quicke: but an horſman of Thracia fel vpon hym, and ſmote of his arme, ſo that Gorgias eſcaped, and fled into " Moreſa. " Or, Mareſa. " Or, Odolam

36 When they nowe that were of Gorgias ſyde, had foughten long, and were wearye, Iudas called vpon the Lord, that he would be theyr healper, and captayne of the feelde:

37 And with that he beganne in his owne language, and ſong Pſalmes with a loude voyce: inſomuche that he made the enimies afrayde, and Gorgias menne of warre tooke their flight.

38 So Judas geathered his hoſt, and came into the citie of Odolla: and when the ſeuenth day came vpon them, they cleanſed them ſelues as the cuſtome was, and kept the Sabboth in the ſame place.

39 And vpon the day folowing, as neceſſitie required, Judas and his company came to take vp the bodies of them that were ſlayne, and to burie them in their fathers graues.

40 Nowe vnder the coates of certayne Jewes, whiche were ſlayne, they founde jewels that they had taken [out of the temple and] from the idoles of the *Jamnites, whiche thing is forbidden the Jewes by the lawe: then euery manne ſawe that this was the cauſe wherefore they were ſlayne. Deu.7 d Ioſu.7.a

G 41 And ſo euery manne gaue thankes vnto the Lorde for his righteous judgement, whiche had opened the thing that was hyd.

42 They fel downe alſo vnto theyr prayers, and beſought GOD that the fault whiche was made, myght be put out of remembrance: Beſides that, Judas exhorted the people earneſtly to keepe them ſelues from ſuche ſynne, forſomuche as they ſawe before theyr eyes that theſe men were ſlayne for the ſame offence.

43 So he geathered of euery one a certayne, and ſent two thouſande dragmes of ſyluer vnto Hieruſalem, that there might a ſacrifice be offered for the miſdeede: In the whiche place he did wel and right, for he had ſomme conſyderation and pondring of the lyfe that is after this tyme.

44 For if he hadde not thought that they whiche were ſlayne ſhoulde ryſe agayne, it had benne ſuperfluous and vaine to make any vowe or ſacrifice for them that were dead.

45 But forſomuche as he ſawe that they which dye in the fauour and beleefe of God, are in good reſte and joye, he thought it to be good and honorable for a reconciling, to doo the ſame for thoſe whiche were ſlayne, that the offence myght be forgeuen.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1 The comming of Eupator into Jurie. 4 The death of Menelaus. 10 Machabeus goeyng to fight agaynſt Eupator, mooueth his ſouldiers vnto prayer. 15 He kylleth fourtiene thouſande menne in the tentes of Antiochus. 21 Rhodocus the betrayer of the Jewes is taken. 24 Antiochus retayned freendſhyp with the Jewes.

A 1 Mac.6,d 1 IN the hundred fourtye and nine yeere, gate *Judas knowledge that Antiochus Eupator was comming with a great power into Jurie,

2 And Lyſias ỷ ſteward and ruler of his matters with hym, hauyng an hundred and ten thouſand menne of foote of the Grecians, fiue thouſande horſemenne, twentie and two Elephantes, and three hundred charets ſet with hookes.

3 Menelaus alſo joyned him ſelfe with them, but with great diſceit ſpake faire to the king, not for any good of the countrey, but becauſe he thought to haue benne made ſome great man of aucthoritie.

4 But the kyng of kynges mooued Antiochus mynde agaynſt this vngodly perſonne, and Lyſias enfourmed the kyng that this Menelaus was the cauſe of al miſcheefe: ſo that the kyng commaunded to bryng hym vnto Berea, and as the manner of them is, to put him vnto death in the ſame place.

5 There was alſo in the ſame place a towre of fiftie cubites hygh, heaped with aſhes: and it had an inſtrument that turned round, and on euerye ſide it rouled downe into the aſhes, and there whoſoeuer was condemned of ſacriledge, or of any other greeuous crime, was caſt of al menne vnto the death.

6 Whereinto the kyng commaunded that ſhameful perſonne to be caſte among the aſhes, as one that was cauſe of al vngratiouſneſſe.

7 And reaſon it was that the vnthrift ſhould dye ſuche a death, and not to be buried: B

8 For he had donne muche miſcheefe vnto the aulter of God, whoſe fire and aſhes were holy: therefore was it right that he him ſelfe alſo ſhould be deſtroyed with aſhes.

9 But the king was wood in his mynd, and came to ſhew hym ſelfe more cruel vnto the Jewes, then his father was.

10 Whiche when Judas perceiued, *he commaunded the people to cal vppon the Lorde nyght and day, that he woulde nowe healpe them alſo lyke as he hadde donne alway: for they were afrayde to be put from theyr lawe, from theyr natural countrey, and from the holy temple, 1 Mac.19 e

11 And not to ſuffer the people whiche a litle while afore beganne to recouer, to be ſubdued agayne of the blaſphemous nations.

12 So when they had donne this togeather, and beſought the Lord for mercie, with weeping, and faſtyng three dayes long, flat vpon the grounde, Judas exhorted them to make them ſelues redie.

C 13 But he and the eldeſt togeather deuiſed to goe foorth [firſt with the people] afore the king brought his hoſt into Jurie, and afore he beſieged the citie, and ſo to commit the matter vnto God.

14 Wherefore he committed the charge of al thyngs vnto God the maker of al the world, exhorting his people to fight manfully, yea, euen vnto death, for the lawes, the temple, the citie, theyr owne natiue countrey, and to defende the citizens: and he ſet his hoſt before Modin.

15 He gaue them alſo that were with hym a token of the victorie of God, choosing out the manlieſt young menne, went by night into the kinges pauilion, ſlue of the hoſt fourtiene thouſand menne, *and the greateſt of the Elephantes, with thoſe that ſate vpon hym.

1,Mac,6.f.

16 Thus when they hadde brought a great feare and rumour among the tentes of theyr enimies, and al thynges went proſperouſlye with them,

17 They departed in the breake of the daye, God beyng their helper and defender.

18 Now when the kyng perceiued the manlineſſe of the Jewes, he went about to take the ſtrong places by craft,

2,Mac.11.a 19 And remooued his hoſte * vnto Bethſura, which was a wel keapt houſe of defence of the Jewes: but they were chaſed away, hurt, and diſcomfited.

D

20 And Judas ſent vnto them that were in it, ſuche thinges as were neceſſary.

21 In the Jewes hoſt alſo there was one Rhodochus, whiche tolde the enimies theyr ſecretes: but they ſought hym out, and when they had gotten him, they put him in priſon.

22 After this, dyd the kyng commune with them that were in Bethſura, tooke truce with them, departed, and ſtrooke a batayle with Judas, whiche ouercame hym.

23 But when he vnderſtoode that Philip, whom he had leaft to be ouerſeer of this buſineſſe at Antioche, beganne to rebel agaynſt hym, he was aſtonied in his mynde, ſo that he yeelded hym ſelfe to the Jewes, and made them an oth to do whatſoeuer they thought ryght.

24 Now when he was reconciled with them, he offered, made muche of the temple, gaue great gyftes vnto it,

25 Embraced Machabeus, makyng hym captayne and gouernour from Ptolomais vnto the Garrhenes. E

26 Neuertheleſſe, when he came to Ptolomais, the people of ỳ citie were not content with the bond of freendſhip: for they were afrayde that he would breake the couenant.

27 Then went Lyſias vppe into the iudgement ſeat, and excuſed the fact as wel as he could, and enformed the people, ſhewed them the cauſe why, and pacified them: ſo he came agayne to Antioche. This is nowe the matter concernyng the kynges iourney, and his returne.

The.xiiii.Chapter.

1 By the motion of the Lorde, Demetrius ſendeth Nicanor to kyl the Jewes. 18 Nicanor maketh a compact with the Jewes, 29 whiche he yet breaketh through the motion of the kyng. 37 Nicanor commaundeth Razias to be taken. 41 The boldneſſe of Razias.

A 1 After three yeeres, was Judas infourmed how that Demetrius the ſonne of Seleucus was come vp with a great power and ſhyppes, through the hauen of Tripolis,

2 To take certayne commodious places and countreyes, agaynſt Antiochus and his captayne Lyſias.

3 Nowe Alcimus, whiche had benne hygh prieſt, and wylfully defiled hym ſelfe in the tyme of the myxting, ſeeyng that by no meanes he could be helped, nor haue any more entrance to the aulter,

4 He came to kyng Demetrius in the hundred fiftie and one yeere, preſenting vnto him a crowne of golde, a Paulme, and an Oliue tree, whiche as menne thought belonged to the temple: and that day helde his tongue.

5 But when he had gotten oportunitie for his madneſſe, Demetrius called hym to counſel, and aſked him what thynges or counſels the Jewes leaned vnto?

6 He anſweared, The Jewes that be called Aſſidei (whoſe captayne is Judas Machabeus) mayntayne warres, make inſurrections, and wyl not let the realme be in peace.

7 For I beyng depriued of my fathers honor (I meane the hygh prieſthood) am comme hyther:

8 Partlye becauſe I was faythful vnto the kyng, and partly becauſe I ſought the profite of myne owne citizens: And why? al our people, through the wickedneſſe of them, are not a litle troubled.

9 Wherefore, I beſeeche thee O kyng, conſyder al theſe things diligently, and then make ſomme prouiſion for the land and the people, accordyng to the kyndneſſe that thou haſt offered vnto them.

10 For as long as Iudas lyueth, it is not poſſible that menne can liue in peace.

11 When he had ſpoken theſe wordes, other freendes alſo hauyng euyl wyl at Iudas, ſet the kyng Demetrius on fyre [agaynſt hym.]

1,Mac,7.c. 12 *Which immediatly ſent Nicanor, ruler of the Elephantes, a captayne, into Iurie,

C 13 Commaunding him to ſlay Iudas, and to ſcatter them that were with hym, and to make Alcimus hygh prieſt of the great temple.

14 Then the Heathen, whiche fled out of Iurie from Iudas, came to Nicanor by flockes, thinking the harme and decay of the Iewes to be theyr welfare.

15 Now when the Iewes heard of Nicanors commyng, and the geathering togeather of the Heathen, they ſprinkled them ſelues with earth, *and beſought him which made them his people, and euer defended his owne portion with euident tokens, that he woulde preſerue them ſtil. 2.Mac.10.c

16 So at the commaundement of the captaine, they remooued ſtrayght wayes from thence, and came to a towne called Deſſau.

17 And Simon, Iudas brother, fel in hande with Nicanor: but through yͤ ſodaine * commyng of the enimies he was afrayde. * Or, Science.

18 Neuertheleſſe, Nicanor hearyng the manlineſſe of them that were with Iudas, and the bolde ſtomackes that they had to fyght for their natural countrey, durſt not prooue the matter with bloodſhedding.

* Or, Theodoſius. Mathias. 19 Wherefore, he ſent Poſſidonius, * Theodorus, and Mathathias before, to geue and to take peace.

D 20 So when they had taken long aduiſement thereupon, and the captayne ſhewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one mind to haue peace.

21 And they appoynted a day to ſit vpon theſe matters quietly among them ſelues, and for euery one ſtooles alſo were brought, and ſet foorth.

22 Neuertheleſſe, Iudas commaunded certayne menne of armes to wayte in conuenient places, leſt there ſhould ſodenly aryſe any euyl through the enimies: and ſo they communed reaſonably togeather.

23 Nicanor while he abode at Hieruſalem, ordered hym ſelfe not vnreaſonably, but ſent away yͤ people that were geathered togeather.

24 He loued Iudas euer with his hart, and fauoured hym.

25 He prayed hym alſo to take a wyfe, and to E bryng foorth chyldren. So he maryed, lyued in reſt, and they led a common lyfe.

26 But Alcimus perceiuing the loue that was betwixt them, and how they were agreed togeather, came to Demetrius, and tolde hym that Nicanor had taken ſtrange matters in hande, and ordeyned Iudas, an enimie of the realme, to be the kynges ſucceſſour.

27 Then the kyng was ſoare diſpleaſed, and through the wycked accuſations whiche Alcimus made of Nicanor, he was ſo prouoked, that he wrote vnto Nicanor, ſayeing that he was very angry for the freendſhip and agreement whiche he had made with Machabeus: Neuertheleſſe, he commaunded him, in al the haſt, that he ſhould take Machabeus priſoner, and ſend hym to Antioch.

28 Whiche [letters] when Nicanor had ſeene, he was at his wittes ende, and ſoare greeued, that he ſhould breake the thinges wherein they had agreed, ſpecially ſeeing Machabeus was that man that neuer did him harme.

29 But becauſe he might not withſtande the king, he ſought oportunitie to fulfil his commaundement.

30 Notwithſtanding when Machabeus ſaw that Nicanor began to be churliſh vnto him, and that he entreated him more roughly then he was wont, he perceiued that ſuche vnkyndneſſe came not of good, and therefore he geathered a fewe of his menne, and withdrew hym ſelfe from Nicanor.

31 Whiche when he knew that Machabeus F had manfully preuented hym, he came into the great and moſt holye temple, and commaunded the prieſtes whiche were dooyng their vſual offerings, to deliuer him the man.

32 And when they ſware that they could not tel where the man was whom he ſought, 1.Mac.7.c.

33 He ſtretched out his right hande towarde the temple, and made an oth, ſayeing, If ye wyl not deliuer me Iudas captiue, I ſhal remooue this temple of GOD into the plaine feelde, I ſhal breake downe the aulter, and conſecrate this temple vnto Bacchus.

34 After theſe woordes he departed. Then the prieſtes lyfte vppe theyr handes towarde heauen, and beſought hym that was euer the defender of theyr people, ſayeing,

35 Thou, O Lorde of al, whiche haſt neede of 1.Mac.4.c. nothing, wouldeſt that the temple of thy habitation ſhould be among vs:

36 Therefore now, O moſt holy Lord, keape this houſe euer vndefiled, whiche lately was cleanſed, and ſtop al the mouthes of the vnrighteous.

37 Now was there accuſed vnto Nicanor one Razis, an Alderman of Hieruſalem, a louer of the whole citie, and a man of good reporte, whiche for the kynde hart that he bare vnto the people, was called a father of the Iewes.

G 38 This man oftentymes when the Iewes were minded to keepe them ſelues vndefiled, defended and deliuered them, beyng content ſtedfaſtly to ſpende his body and his lyfe for his people.

39 So Nicanor willyng to declare the hate that he bare to the Iewes, ſent fiue hundred menne of warre to take hym:

40 For he thought if he gate hym, he ſhoulde bryng the Iewes in great decay.

41 Nowe when the people beganne to ruſhe in at his houſe, to breake the doores, and to ſet fyre on it, he beyng now taken, (c) fel vppon his ſwoord,

(c) This fact is not to be approoued, for that it is contrary to gods commaundement, Thou ſhalt not kil. Exo.20. Deute.5.

42 Choosing rather to dye manfully, then to yeelde hym ſelfe to thoſe wycked dooers: and becauſe of his noble ſtocke, he hadde rather haue benne put to extreeme crueltie.

43 Notwithſtandyng, what tyme as he miſſed of his ſtroke for haſte, and the multitude ruſhed in violentlye betwixt the doores, he ranne boldly to the wall, and caſt hym ſelfe downe manfully among the heape of them:

44 Whiche gaue ſoone place to his fal, ſo that he fel vpon his belly.

45 Neuertheleſſe, while there was yet breath within hym, he was kindled in his mynde, and while his blood guſhed out exceedingly, (for he was very ſoare wounded) he ranne through the middeſt of the people, and gate hym to the top of a rocke.

46 So when his blood was nowe gonne, he tooke out his owne bowels with both his hands, and threw them vpon the people, callyng vpon the Lorde of lyfe and ſpirite, to rewarde hym this agayne, and ſo he dyed.

The.xv.Chapter,

2 Nicanor goeth about to comme vpon Iudas on the Sabboth day. 5 The blaſphemie of Nicanor. 14 Machabeus expounding vnto the Iewes the viſion, boldeneth their hartes. 21 The prayer of Machabeus. 30 After the hoſt of Nicanor is once ouercome, Machabeus commaundeth his head and his handes to be cut of, and his tongue to be geuen vnto foules.

A 1 NOWE When Nicanor knew that Iudas and his company were in yͤ countrey of Samaria, he thought with al his power to ſtryke a feelde with hym vpon a Sabboth day. 1.Mac.7.d

2 Neuertheleſſe, the Iewes that were compelled to goe with hym, ſayde, O doo not ſo cruelly and vnkyndly, but halow the Sabboth day, and worſhippe hym that ſeeth al thynges:

3 [For al this] yet ſayde the vngratious perſon, *Is there a mightie one in heauen, that commaunded the Sabboth day to be keapt? 3.Re.20.c.

4 And when they ſayd, Yea, the liuing God, the myghtie Lord in heauen *commaunded the ſeuenth day to be keapt: Exo.20.b.

5 He ſayde, And I am myghtie vpon earth, to commaund them for to arme them ſelues, and to perfourme the kynges buſineſſe. Notwithſtādyng, he might not haue his purpoſe.

6 Nicanor had deuiſed with great pride to ouercome Iudas, & to bryng away the victory:

B 7 But Machabeus had euer a faſt confidence, and a perfect hope in God, that he woulde helpe hym:

8 And exhorted his people not to be afrayde at the comming of the Heathen: but alway to remember the helpe that had benne ſhewed vnto them from heauen, yea and to be ſure nowe alſo that almightie God woulde geue them the victorie.

9 He ſpake vnto them out of the law and prophetes, puttyng them in remembrance of the batels that they had ſtriken afore, and made them to be of good courage.

10 So when their hartes were pluckt vp, he ſhewed them alſo yͤ deceitfulneſſe of the Heathen, and howe they woulde keepe no couenant, nor oth.

11 Thus he weaponed them, not with the armour of ſheeld and ſpeare, but with holſome woordes and exhortations: he ſhewed them a dreame alſo, wherethrough he made them al glad,

12 Whiche was this: He thought that he ſaw Onias, whiche had benne hygh prieſt, a vertuous and louyng man, ſadde, and of honeſt conuerſation, wel ſpoken, and one that had benne exerciſed in godlineſſe from a child, holdyng vp his handes towarde heauen, and praying for his people.

13 After this, there appeared vnto hym another man, whiche was aged, honorable, and glorious. C

14 And Onias ſaid: This is a louer of the brethren, and of the people of Iſrael, this is he that that prayeth muche for the people and for al the holy citie, Ieremie the prophete of God.

XUM

15 He thought alſo that Ieremie helde out his ryght hande, and gaue vnto Iudas a ſworde of golde, ſaying, 16 Take this holy ſworde, a gyft from God, wherewith thou ſhalt ſmite downe the enimies of the people of Iſrael.

17 And ſo they were wel comforted through the woordes of Iudas, whiche were verye ſweet, and able to ſtirre vp their courage: and tooke courage vnto them, ſo that the young menne were determined in their myndes to fight, and to abide ſtifly at it: inſomuche that in the thynges whiche they tooke in hande, theyr boldneſſe ſhewed the ſame, becauſe the holy citie, the ſanctuary, and the temple were in peril,

18 For the whiche they tooke more care, then for theyr wyues, chyldren, brethren, and kinſfolkes.

D 19 Agayne, they that were in the citie, were moſt careful for thoſe whiche were to fyght.

20 Nowe, when they were al in hope that the iudgement of the matter was at hande, and the enimies drew nygh, the hoſt beyng ſet in aray, the Elephantes and horſemenne euery one ſtandyng in his place:

21 Machabeus conſydering the comming of the multitude, the ordinance of diuers weapons, the cruelneſſe of the beaſtes, helde vppe his handes towarde heauen, callyng vpon the Lorde that doeth woonders, *whiche geueth not the victorye after the multitude of weapons and power of the hoſt, but to them that pleaſe hym, accordyng to his owne wil.

2.Par.14.c
Iud.7.b.

22 Therfore in his praier he ſaid theſe woords, O Lorde, *thou that dyddeſt ſende thyne angel in the tyme of Ezekiah kyng of Iuda, and in ẏ hoſt of Sennacherib ſlueſt an hundred foureſcore and fiue thouſand:

4.Re.19.g.

23 Send now alſo thy good angel before vs, O Lorde of heauens, in the fearefulneſſe and dread of thy mightie arme,

E 24 That they whiche comme againſt thy holy people to blaſpheme them, may be afrayd. And ſo he made an ende of his woordes.

25 Then Nicanor, and they that were with hym, drew nygh, with trumpettes and ſhootinges for ioy:

26 But Iudas and his company, with prayer and callyng vpon God, encountred with the enimies.

27 With their handes they ſmote, but with theyr hartes they prayed vnto the Lorde, and ſlue no leſſe then thirtie and fiue thouſand menne: For through the preſent helpe of God, they were gloriouſly comforted.

28 Now when they leaft of, and were turnyng agayne with ioye, they vnderſtoode that Nicanor hym ſelfe was ſlayne with the other, for al his armour.

29 Then they gaue a great ſhout, and a crye, prayſing the almyghtie Lorde in their owne language.

30 And Iudas, whiche was euer redie to ſpend his body and lyfe for his citizens, commaunded to ſmyte of Nicanors head, with his arme and hande, and to be brought to Hieruſalem. F

31 When he came there, he called al the people and the prieſtes to the aulter, with thoſe that were in the caſtle,

32 And ſhewed them Nicanors head, and his wycked hand, whiche he had preſumptuouſly holden vp agaynſt the temple of God.

33 He cauſed the tongue alſo of that vngodly Nicanor, to be cut in litle peeces, and to be caſt to the foules, and that cruel mans hand to be hanged vp before the temple.

34 So euerye man gaue thankes vnto the Lorde, ſaying, Bleſſed be he that hath keapt his place vndefiled.

35 As for Nicanors head he hanged it vp vpon the hygh caſtle, for an euident and plaine token of the helpe of God.

36 And ſo they agreed altogeather to keape that day holy, [namely] the thirtienth day of the moneth “Adar.

“Februari.

37 Whiche in the Syrians language is called the next day before Mardocheus day.

38 Thus was Nicanor ſlayne, and from that tyme foorth the Iewes had the citie in poſſeſſion. And here wyl I now make an ende. G

39 If I haue donne wel, and as the ſtorie requyred, it is the thyng that I deſyred: but if I haue ſpoken ſclenderly and barely, I haue donne that I coulde.

40 For as it is hurtful to drinke wyne alone, and then agayne water, and as wine tempered with water is pleaſant, and deliteth the taſte: so the ſetting out of the matter, delighteth the eare of them that reade the ſtorie: And here ſhalbe the ende.

Ieſus Chriſte.

FOR better vnderſtandyng of the contentes of this Table, ye ſhal note, that the Euangeliſtes S. Matthewe and S. Luke, haue diuerſly reſited the generation of our ſauiour Chriſte, accordyng to the fleaſhe, and yet tende both to one ende: that is, to proue, that (accordyng to that whiche is written of him in the prophecies) he is deſcended of the royal blood of Dauid, and rightly ſucceeded him in the kingdome. So the diuerſitie of the ſaide reſital conſiſteth in this: that S. Matthewe ſetteth foorth the ſaid generation deſcending from father to ſonne, and S. Luke, aſcending from ſonne to father, whiche commes al to one ende. But to ſhewe the agreement of S. Luke with S. Matthewe, we haue here ſet foorth the generation by hym deſcribed, deſcending after the order of S. Matthewe, to the ende that the one may be conferred with the other. Furthermore, S. Matthewe deſcribeth the generation of Ioſeph, though it belong nothing to Ieſus Chriſte, after the fleaſh, ⁊ S. Luke, that of the virgin Marie: for it was very neceſſary to reſite both, foraſmuch as women were commonly reputed of the ligne or kinred of theyr huſbandes: And ſo aſwel on her huſbandes ſide, as on her owne offſpring, it is manifeſt that ſhe was of yͤ royal line of Dauid.

* Iuda of the ligne of Nathan, engendred Simeon, called Ioas, whiche came to the royal ſeate, becauſe the poſteritie of Solomon fayled in Ochoſias: and therefore the kingdome belonged to Nathans poſteritie, accordyng to the ordinance of Dauid, as Philo reciteth, that is, the youngeſt of the children of Berſabe (whiche was Solomon) ſhoulde raigne after him, and that, yf the poſteritie failed, the kingdome ſhould comme to the poſteritie of the next younger, which was Nathan: and therefore Nathan was called Ahiſcar, that is to ſay, Brother of the prince, and they of his poſteritie Ahiſcarim, that is to ſay, Brothers of the prince, and Mathitim, whiche ſignifieth, geuen to ſucceede. The ſaide Philo reciteth, that the poſteritie of the ſaid Nathan, was ſo honoured of the king Ioſaphat, that he called his children the brothers of Ioram his ſonne, and their children the brothers of Ochoſias his nephewe: ⁊ this is the cauſe why the ſcripture ſaith, that Ioas was yͤ ſonne of Ochoſias, though he were not his natural ſonne, but the ſõne of Iuda, deſcending frõ Nathan.

Note that S. Matthewe, going about to deſcribe the generation by fourtienes, dyd firſt leaue out Ioas, Amazias, and Azarias, whiche are ſet in betweene Ochoſias, the laſt of the race of Solomon and Ioathan. Further, he hath leaft out Ichaas, and Ioacim, placed betweene Ioſias and Iechonias. Al whiche we haue here ſet in theyr order, to make the ſame deſcription more perfect and plaine.

* Foraſmuche as it ſeemeth that S. Luke maketh no mention of the generation of Marie, but rather of Ioſeph: for he vſeth theſe woordes, that Ieſus was counted the ſonne of Ioſeph, whiche was of Heli, that is to ſay, the ſonne of Heli: we muſt vnderſtande that in this place, the name of ſonne, is taken for the name of ſonne in lawe, and that S. Luke meaneth that Ioſeph was the ſonne in lawe to Heli, for that he tooke to wyfe the virgin Marie, daughter to the ſayde Heli, which manner of ſpeache is common in the ſcripture: for we finde that Noemi called Ruth her daughter, which was but her ſtep daughter, her ſonnes wyfe.

¶ The newe Testament of our sa-uiour Iesus Christe.

I am not aſhamed of the Goſpel of Chriſte, becauſe it is the power of God vnto ſaluation to al that beleue. Rom.i.

A Preface into the newe Teſtament.

THE newe Teſtament, ſo called, conteyning the writinges of the Euangeliſtes, with the Epiſtles of Chriſtes Apoſtles, and with other ſuche diuine bookes, declare playnely vnto vs the ſumme and effect of al the ſcriptures expreſſed in the old Teſtament. That which was in figure and in obſcu- ii.Pet.i. ritie inuolued by the patriarkes and prophetes in their prophetical volumes, written by the inſpiration of the holy ghoſt: is in this booke more playnely and euidently ſet out, vttered alſo in the Pſal.xlv. Iohn i. ſelfe ſame ſpirite by the children of the prophetes, the holy Apoſtles. In deede the lawe was geuen by Moſes, but grace and veritie came by Ieſus Chriſte, whiche grace this booke of the newe Teſtament dooth moſt euidently commende and ſet out. In this is diſcourſed the whole myſterie of our ſaluation and redemption, purchaſed by our ſauiour Chriſte, here is his holy conception deſcribed, his natiuitie, his circumciſion, his whole lyfe and conuerſation, his godly doctrine, his diuine miracles. In this booke of the newe Teſtament is ſet out his death, his reſurrection, his aſcention, his ſending of the holy ſpirite, his ſeſſion in our fleaſhe on the right hande of his father, Colo.iii. making continual interceſſion to him for vs. In this booke is conteyned the fourme and order of Mat.xxv. his laſt iudgement, after the general reſurrectiõ of our bodies. These be the myſteries of our faith, Iohn.xx. theſe be the groundes of our ſaluation, theſe be thus written that we ſhoulde beleue them, and by our beliefe ſhoulde enioy life euerlaſting. Once and in times paſt God diuerſly and many wayes Hebre.i. ſpake vnto the fathers by the prophetes, but in theſe laſt dayes he hath ſpoken vnto vs (vpõ whom the endes of the worlde be comme) by his owne ſonne, whom he hath made heire of al thinges, whoſe dignitie is ſuche, that he is the brightneſſe of his fathers glory, the very image of his ſub- Hebre.i. ſtance, ruling al thinges by the woorde of his power. Mat.iii.xvii. This heauenly doctour ſo indued with glory and maieſtie, we ought moſt reuerently to beleue, as commended vnto vs from the aucthoritie of the heauenly father, to be heard as his moſt welbeloued ſonne, in whom is his whole delight, by whom he wyl be pleaſed and pacified: Deut.xviii. It wyl els comme to paſſe, ſaith that prophet Moſes, that whoſoeuer ſhal not heare and obey that prophete in the woordes that he ſhal ſpeake in his fathers name, I wil be, ſaith the father, reuenger of hym. This is the laſt prophete to be looked for to ſpeake vnto vs: In him be vniuerſally incloſed the riches and treaſures of the Gollo.ii. wiſedome and knowledge of God his father, by him he hath decreed finally to iudge the whole worlde, the liuing and the dead: by him hath he decreed ii.Tim.iii. to geue to his elect the life euerlaſting, and to the reprobate (who hath contemned his life and doctrine) death euerlaſting. Actes.xvii. Let vs therfore ſeriouſly heare and obey this our heauenly teacher, ſubmit our ſelues to this our iudge and rewarder: Let vs eſteeme his doctrine and conuerſation, as a ful, perfect, and ſufficient patterne of al holineſſe and vertue: Let vs eſteeme the doctrine of this booke, as a moſt inflexible rule to leade vs to al trueth and newneſſe of life. Here may we beholde the eternal legacies of the new Teſtament, bequeathed from God the father in Chriſt his ſonne to al his electes, I ſay, the legacies liuely renewed vnto vs, not of deliuerance from Pharao his ſeruitude, but from the bondage and thraldome of that perpetual aduerſarie of ours the deuil: here may we beholde our inheritance, not of the temporal lande of Chanaan, or of the tranſlation of vs to the place of worldly paradiſe: but here we may ſee the ful reſtitution of vs, both in body and ſoule, to the celeſtial paradiſe, the heauenly citie of Hieruſalem aboue, there to raigne with Galat.iiii. God the father, God the ſonne, and God the holy ghoſt for euer. Whiche legacies of his Teſtament promiſed and bequeathed, were notwithſtanding recorded in the bookes of the olde Teſtament to our ancient fathers, whiche in hope beleued in Chriſte to comme, who was painted before them in figures Hebre.ix. and ſhadowes, and ſignified in their olde ſacramentes ordayned for that time: but nowe more euidently renewed and exhibited vnto vs, not in figure, but in deede, not in promiſe, but in open ſight, in feeling, in handling and touching of this eternal life, moſt manifeſtly confirmed vnto vs in Chriſt his i.Iohn.i. blood in this his new Teſtament continued and reuiued, yet in new ſacramentes, the better to beare in our remembrance this his eternal Teſtament of al ioyful felicities. i.Pet.iiii. Let vs nowe therefore good chriſtian people, reioyce in theſe glad tidinges expreſſed vnto vs by the name of the goſpel of our ſauiour Chriſte, and let it neuer fal out of our remembrance that we were ſometime ouerwhelmed in darkneſſe, and ſet in the ſhadowe of death: let vs conſyder that we were ſometime by our natural birth, the children of God his wrath, and wholy eſtranged from the houſhold of God. Let vs beare in mind that we were ſometime no people of God, nor his beloued, that we were by nature branches of the wilde oliue, and now by mere mercy grafted into the right and natural oliue tree: wherupon let vs the rather repoſe our life in feare and reuerence. Mat.iiii. If we be now the children of light, let vs walke in this our light in al Epheſ.ii. holyneſſe and godlineſſe of life, approuing that which is pleaſing to the Lord. Let vs haue no felowſhip with the vnfruitful woorkes of darkneſſe, and let Rom.xi. vs hencefoorth be no more children, wauering and caried about with euery wind of doctrine, and by the deceipt and craftineſſe of menne, wherby they i.Theſſ.v. lay in wayte to deceiue vs: but let vs folow the trueth in loue and charitie, and in al thinges growe vp into him which is the head, that is Chriſt our ſa- Epheſ.iiii. uiour. If we be now the children of grace, and made liuely members of his body, though ſometime ſtrangers and forreyners farre of, and made neare by the blood of Chriſt, and made citizens with the ſaintes, and of the houſhold of God: let vs direct our hartes thither where our head is, delityng our ſelfe Epheſ.iii. in al heauenly cogitations, walking in al ſpiritual woorkes and fruites of the ſpirite, as Gods deare elect. God grant that Chriſte may ſo dwel in our hartes by faith, that we may be able to comprehende with al ſaintes the vnſpeakeable loue of Chriſt, whiche paſſeth al mans knowledge. Vnto him therfore whiche is able to doo exceeding abundantly aboue al that we can aſke or thinke, be prayſe in the Churche by Chriſte Ieſus, throughout al generations for euer. Amen.

In prolo. vet. Teſta. And here yet once againe, let the reader be admoniſhed charitably to examine this tranſlation of the newe Teſtament folowing, and be not offended with diuerſitie of interpretation, though he finde it not to agree to his wont text, or yet to diſagree frõ the common tranſlation: Remembring what Santes Pagninus teſtifieth of that ancient interpreter ſaint Hierome, that in many places of his commentaries, he dooth reade and expounde otherwiſe then is founde in the common tranſlation: Yea ſaith Santes, Hierome dooth retract very many places, and dooth plainely confeſſe, that him ſelfe was deceiued by the haſte of his tranſlating in the doubtful ſignification of the woordes. And therefore ſaith the ſaide Hierome thus: I thinke it better to rebuke mine owne errour, then (while I am aſhamed to confeſſe my lacke of ſkil) to perſiſt in an errour. For who was euer, ſaith he, ſo wel learned, that hath not ſomewhere benne deceiued. Thus farre ſaint Hierome, whereupon good reader I exhort thee, reade aduiſedly, expende learnedly, and correct charitably, and be not offended (good engliſhe reader) to ſee the holy ſcriptures in thine owne language, as a matter newly ſeene: ſeing that our owne countreyman that venerable prieſt Bede, many yeeres agonne did tranſlate ſaint Iohns goſpel into the vulgare tongue, Ad vtilitatem eccleſiæ, to the profite of the Churche, ſaith Cuthbert and Durhams ſtory, who reporteth Bedes owne ſayeing, Nolo vt diſcipuli mei mendatium legant, I woulde not that my diſciples ſhould reade any lye, or ſpende their labour after my departure without fruite. Which thing alſo the ancient life of Bede dooth teſtifie of him. In hiis diebus etiam euangelium Iohannis in Anglicam tranſtulit linguam, iuxta Apoſtolum: Sapientibus, & inſipientibus debitor ſum, & omnibus omnia factus. Rom.i. i.Cor.ix. In theſe dayes (of his ſickneſſe) he did tranſlate the goſpel of ſaint Iohn into the engliſh tongue, ſayeing with the apoſtle: I am detter to the learned and vnlearned, I am made al to al. The rather he ſo did, ſaith William Malmeſberi: Quia hoc euangelium difficultate ſui, mentes legentium exercet: Becauſe this goſpel by the difficultie that is in it, dooth ſo much exerciſe the wittes of the readers, therfore he did interprete it into the engliſhe tongue: and ſo did condiſcende (ſaith he) to them whiche were not ſkilful in the latine tongue. God grant that al readers may take ſo muche profite therby, as the good tranſlatours ment vnto them, Amen.

15 Eliud begat Eleazar, Eleazar begat Matthan, Matthan begat Iacob.

16 Iacob begat Ioſeph the huſbande of Marie, of whom was borne Ieſus, that is called Chriſte. ☞

17 And ſo al the generations from Abraham to Dauid, are fourteene generations: & from Dauid vntyl the caryeing away into Babylon, are fourteene generations: and from the caryeing away into Babylon vnto Chriſte, are fourteene generations.

18 The birth of Ieſus Chriſte was on this wyſe. ☞ When as his mother Marie was betrouthed to Ioſeph (before they came togeather) ſhe was founde with chylde of the holy ghoſt.

19 Then Ioſeph her huſbande, beyng a ryghteous man, and not wyllyng to make her a publique example, was mynded priuily to put her away.

20 But whyle he thought theſe thynges, beholde, the angel of the Lorde appeared vnto hym in a dreame, ſayeing, Ioſeph thou ſonne of Dauid, feare not to take [vnto thee] Marie thy wife, for that whiche is conceiued in her, is of the holy ghoſt.

23 *Behold, a virgin ſhalbe with childe, and ſhal bryng foorth a ſonne, and they ſhal calle his name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, God with vs.) Eſai.vij.c

24 Then Ioſeph, beyng rayſed from ſleepe,

(c) This phraſe dooth not import that he knew her afterward: as the lyke phraſe vſed. Mat. 5.28.d. and Pſal.cx. or that ſhe had any mo childrē dyd as the angel of the Lorde had bydden hym, and he tooke his wyfe:

25 (c) And knewe her not, til ſhe had brought foorth her firſte borne ſonne, and called his name Jeſus.

The.ii.Chapter.

1 The tyme and place of Chriſtes byrth. 11 The wyſe menne offer theyr preſentes. 14 Chriſte fleeth into Egypt. 16 The young chyldren are ſlayne. 23 Chriſte turneth into Galilee.

A 1 When Jeſus was borne in Bethlehem, a citie of Iurie, in the dayes of Herode the kyng: beholde, there came wyſe menne from the eaſt to Hieruſalem,

2 Sayeing, Where is he that is borne kyng of the Jewes? For we haue ſeene his * ſtarre in the eaſt, & are comme to woorſhip hym. Num.24.c

3 When Herode the kyng had hearde theſe thinges, he was troubled, and al [the citie of] Hieruſalem with hym.

4 And when he had geathered al the cheefe prieſtes and ſcribes of the people togeather, he demaunded of them where Chriſte ſhoulde be borne.

5 And they ſayde vnto hym, At Bethlehem in Jurie: For thus it is written by the prophete, Miche.v.a Iohn.vij.f 6 * And thou Bethlehem [in] the lande of Juda, art not the leaſt among the princes of Juda: For out of thee ſhal there comme a capitayne, that ſhal gouerne my people Iſrael.

B 7 Then Herode, when he had priuily called the wiſe menne, enquired of them diligently, what tyme the ſtarre appeared.

8 And he ſent them to Bethlehem, and ſayd, Goe, & ſearche diligently for the young child, and when ye haue founde hym, bryng me woorde agayne, that J may comme & woorſhyp hym alſo.

9 ☞ When they had hearde the king, they departed, and loe, the ſtarre whiche they ſawe in the Eaſt went before them, tyl it came and ſtoode ouer [the place] wherin the young child was.

10 When they ſawe the ſtarre, they reioyced exceedingly with great ioy,

Pſal.62.d Eſai.60.b 11 And went into the houſe, and they ſaw the young chylde with Marie his mother, * and felle downe, & woorſhypped him: and when they had opened their treaſures, preſented vnto hym gyftes, golde, and frankenſence, and myrre.

12 And after they were warned of God in a dreame, that they ſhoulde not returne to Herode, they departed into their owne countrey another way.

13 When they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joſeph in a dreame, ſayeing, Ariſe, and take the young child, and (a) his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there tyl J bryng thee woorde: for it wil comme to paſſe, that Herode ſhal ſeeke the young chylde, to deſtroy hym.

(a) Joſeph was not the father of Chriſt, els the angel woulde not haue ſaid, Take ẏ childe & his mother, but rather, Take thy chylde.

C 14 When he aroſe, he tooke the young chylde and his mother by nyght, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there vnto the death of Herode, that it might be fulfylled whiche was ſpokē of the Lorde by the prophete, ſayeing, * Out of Egypt haue J called my ſonne. Oſee.xi.a.

16 Then Herode, when he ſawe that he was mocked of the wyſe menne, was exceedyng wroth, and ſent foorth, and ſlewe al the chyldren that were in Bethlehem, and in al the coaſtes thereof, as many as were two yeeres olde and vnder, accordyng to the time, which he had diligently ſearched out, of the wyſe menne. Num.24.c

17 Then was fulfilled that which was ſpoken by Jeremie the prophete, ſayeing,

18 In Rama was there a voyce hearde, * lamentation, weepyng, and great mournyng, Rachel weepyng [for] her chyldren, & woulde not be comforted, because they were not. ☜ Iere.31.c

19 ☞ But when Herode was dead, behold, an angel of the Lorde appeareth in a dreame to Joſeph in Egypt,

20 Sayeing, Aryſe, and take the young child, and his mother, and goe into the lande of Iſrael: * For they are dead, whiche ſought the young chyldes lyfe. Mar.i.b Luk.iij.d Iohn.i.d

D 21 And he aroſe, and tooke the young chylde and his mother, and came into the lande of Iſrael.

22 But when he hearde, that Archelaus dyd reigne in Jurie in the roome of his father Herode, he was afrayde to goe thyther: notwithſtandyng, after he was warned of God in a dreame, he turned aſyde into the parties of Galilee,

23 And when he was comme thyther, he dwelt in a citie, whiche is called Nazareth, that it myght be fulfylled, whiche was ſpoken by the prophetes, He ſhalbe called a Nazarite.

1 Johns preaching, office, life, baptiſme, 7 reprehending of the Phariſees, 13 and baptizing of Chriſte in Jordane.

A 1 In thoſe daies came John the * Baptiſt, preachyng in the wylderneſſe of Jurie, Mar.i.a Luk,iij,a Iohn.iij.d

2 And ſayeing, *Repent (a) ye: for the kingdome of heauen is at hande. Mar.iiij.c. (a) This woorde is, after a fault to be wiſe, with a minde to amende.

3 * For this is he, that was ſpoken of by the prophete Eſaias, ſayeing, *The voyce of one cryeing in the wylderneſſe, Prepare ye the way of the lord, make ye his pathes ſtraight. Eſai,xl.a

4 This John had his rayment of Camels heare,*and a letherne girdle about his loynes: *his meate was locuſtes and *wylde hony. 4,Re.18,b Mar,i,a 1,Re.14,d

5 Then went out to hym Hieruſalem, and al Jurie, and al the region rounde about Jordane,

6 And were baptized of hym in Jordane, confeſſing their ſinnes.

B 7 But when he ſawe many of the Phariſees and Saducees comme to his baptiſme, he ſayde vnto them, * O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the anger to comme? Luk.iij,b

8 Bryng foorth therefore fruites meete for repentance.

9 And be not of ſuche mynde, that ye woulde ſay within your ſelues, We haue Abraham to [our] father: For I ſay vnto you, that God is able, of theſe ſtones to rayſe vp chyldren vnto Abraham.

10 Euen nowe is the axe alſo put vnto the roote of the trees: Therfore, *euery tree which bryngeth not foorth good fruite, is hewen downe, and caſt into the fyre. Mat.vij.c Luk,iij,b

11 I baptize you in water * vnto repentance: but he that commeth after me, is myghtier then I, whoſe ſhoes I am not woorthy to beare, he ſhal baptize you with the holy ghoſt, and with fyre. Mar,i.a Iohn.i,d Luk,iij,c 12 *Whoſe fanne is in his hande, and he wyl throughly purge his floore, and geather his wheate into [his] garner: but wyl burne vp the chaffe with vnquencheable fyre. Luk,iij,c

13 Then commeth Jeſus frō Galilee to Jordane, vnto John, *to be baptized of hym. Mar,i,b

C 14 But John forbad hym, ſayeing, I haue need to be baptized of thee, and commeſt thou to me?

15 Jeſus anſwearyng, ſayde vnto hym, Suffer it to be ſo nowe: for thus it becommeth vs to fulfyl al ryghteouſneſſe. Then he ſuffered hym.

16 And Jeſus, when he was baptized, went vp ſtrayght way out of the water: and lo*the heauens were opened vnto hym, and [John] ſawe the ſpirite of GOD deſcendyng lyke a doue, and lyghtyng vpon hym. Mar,i,b, Luk.iij.d Iohn,i,e

17 And loe there [came] a voyce from the heauens, ſayeing, * This is my dearely beloued ſonne, in whom I am wel pleaſed. Eſai,xlij,a Mat.17.b Mar,i.b Luk,iij. ij.Pet.i,d

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 Chriſte faſteth, is tempted. 17 He beginneth to preache. 18 He calleth Peter, Andrewe, James, and John, and healeth al the ſicke.

A 1 Then was Jeſus*led vp of the ſpirite into wyldernes, to be tempted of the deuyl. Mar,i,b Luk..iiij.b

2 And when he had faſted fourtie dayes, and fourtie nyghtes, he was afterwarde an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he ſaid, If thou be the ſonne of GOD, commaunde that theſe ſtones be made bread.

4 But he anſweared, and ſayde, It is written, *Man ſhal not liue by bread only, but by euery word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Deut.8,a Luk,iiij.a Sapi.xvi,e

The.vi.Chapter.

1 Of almes. 5 prayer, 16 of faſtyng. 19 He forbiddeth the careful ſeekyng of worldly thynges.

A 1 Take heede that ye doo not your almes before menne, to the intẽt that ye would be ſeene of them, or els ye haue no rewarde of your father, whiche is in heauen.

2 Therefore, when thou doeſt thyne almes, doo not blowe a trumpet before thee, as hypocrites doo, in the ſynagogues, and in the ſtreates, that they might be eſteemed of men. Verely I ſay vnto you, they haue theyr rewarde.

3 But when thou doeſt almes, let not thy leaſt hande knowe, what thy ryght hande doeth:

4 That thyne almes may be in ſecrete: And thy father whiche ſeeth in ſecrete, hym ſelfe ſhal rewarde thee openly.☜

3.Re.18.c Eſai.29.d 5 And when thou prayeſt, * thou ſhalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they loue to pray ſtandyng in the ſynagogues, and in the corners of the ſtreates, that they may be ſeene of menne. Verily I ſay vnto you, they haue their rewarde.

4.Reg.4.f 6 But when thou prayeſt, *enter into thy cloſet, and when thou haſt ſhut thy doore, pray to thy father whiche is in ſecrete, and thy father whiche ſeeth in ſecrete, ſhal rewarde thee openly.

B 7 But when ye pray, * babble not muche, as the heathen doo. For they thynke that they ſhalbe hearde, for theyr muche babblynges ſake. Eſai.1.d

Rom.8.d 8 Be not ye therefore lyke vnto them: *For your father knoweth, what thynges ye haue neede of, before ye aſke of hym.

Luk.11.a 9 After this manner therfore pray ye: *O our father whiche art in heauen, halowed be thy name.

10 Let thy kyngdome comme. Thy wyl be donne, as wel in earth, as it is in heauen.

11 Geue vs this day our dayly bread.

12 And forgeue vs our dettes, as we forgeue our detters.

13 And leade vs not into temptation, but delyuer vs from euyl: for thyne is the kyngdome, and the power, and the glorie, for euer, Amen.

C 14 For, * if ye forgeue menne their treſpaſſes, your heauenly father ſhal alſo forgeue you. Mat.18.b Mar.11.d

15 But, if ye forgeue not menne their treſpaſſes: no more ſhal your father forgeue [you] your treſpaſſes.

16 Moreouer, *whẽ ye faſt, be not of an heauy countenance, as the hypocrites are: for they diſfigure their faces, that they might appeare vnto menne to faſt: Verely I ſay vnto you, they haue their rewarde. Eſai.57.a Mat.9.d Iere.17.b

17 But thou, whẽ thou faſteſt, annoint thyne head, and waſhe thy face:

18 That thou appeare not vnto menne to faſt, but vnto thy father whiche is in ſecrete: and thy father whiche ſeeth in ſecrete, ſhal rewarde thee openly.

19 Hoorde not vp for your ſelues treaſures vpon earth, where moth and ruſt dooth corrupt, and where theeues breake through, and ſteale.

20 *But lay vp for you treaſures in heauen, where neyther moth nor ruſt dooth corrupt, and where theeues doo not breake through, nor ſteale. Luke.12.d Eccle.22.b

22 *The candle of the body is the eye: wherefore, if thyne eye be ſingle, al thy body ſhalbe ful of light. Luk.xj.c

23 But if thyne eye be wycked, al thy body ſhalbe ful of darkneſſe. Wherfore, if the light that is in thee be darkneſſe, how great is that darkneſſe?

24 ☞* No man can ſerue two maiſters: for either he ſhal hate the one and loue the other, or els he ſhal leane to the one, and deſpiſe the other. Ye can not ſerue GOD, and (a) mammon. Luk.16.c

(a) In the Syrian tongue it ſignifieth money and lucre.

25 Therefore I ſay vnto you, * Be not careful for your lyfe, what ye ſhal eate or drinke, nor yet for your body what ye ſhal put on: Is not the life more woorth then meate? and the body then rayment? Luke.12.c Pſal.55.d 1.Pet.5.c

26 Beholde the fowles of the ayre: for they ſowe not, neyther doo they reape, nor carrie into barnes, yet your heauenly father feedeth them. Are ye not muche better then they?

27 Which of you by taking of careful thought, can adde one cubite vnto his ſtature? Luk.12.d

28 And why care ye for rayment? Learne of the Lylies of the fielde, how they grow: they weery not [them ſelues] with labour: neyther [doo they] ſpinne. Lylies.

29 And yet I ſay vnto you, that euen Solomon in al his royaltie, was not arayed lyke one of theſe.

30 Wherefore, if GOD ſo clothe the graſſe of the fielde, whiche though it ſtande to day, is to morowe caſte into the Ouen: ſhal he not muche more [doo] the ſame for you, [O] ye of litle fayth?

31 Therefore take no thought, ſayeing, What ſhal we eate? or, What ſhal we drynke? or, Wherwith ſhal we be clothed?

32 (For after al theſe thynges doo the Gentiles ſeeke:) for your heauenlye father knoweth that ye haue neede of al theſe thynges.

33 But ſeeke ye fyrſte the kyngdome of God, and his righteouſneſſe, and al theſe thynges ſhalbe added vnto you.

34 Care not then for the morowe: for the morowe ſhal care for it ſelfe: (b) Sufficient vnto the day, is the euyl therof.

(b) That is, the preſent day hath enough of his own greefe or affliction.

Mark.3.d Luke 8.c 46 Whyle he yet talked to the people, * behold, his mother and his brethren ſtoode without, deſyring to ſpeake with hym.

47 Then one ſayde vnto hym, * Beholde, thy mother and thy brethren ſtande without, deſiring to ſpeake with thee. Marke.3.d Luke.8.c

48 But he anſweared, and ſayde vnto hym that told him, Who is my mother? Or who are my brethren?

49 And when he had ſtretched foorth his hand towarde his diſciples, he ſayde, Beholde my mother and my brethren. Iohn.15.b

The.xiii.Chapter.

3 The parable of the ſeede, 24 Of the tares, 31 of the muſtarde ſeede, 33 of the leuen, 44 of the treaſure hydde in the fielde, 45 of the pearles, 47 and of the nette.

A 1 The ſame day when Jeſus was gonne out of the houſe, * he ſate by the ſea ſyde. Mark.3.a.

2 And great multitudes were geathered togeather vnto him, [ſo] that he wēt into the ſhip and ſate, & the whole multitude ſtoode on the ſhore.

3 And he ſpake many thynges to them in parables, ſayeing, Beholde, the Sower went foorth to ſowe.

4 And when he ſowed, ſomme ſeedes fel by the wayes ſyde: and the foules came, and deuoured them vp.

5 Somme fel vpon ſtony places, where they had not muche earth: and anone they ſprong vp, becauſe they had no deepeneſſe of earth.

6 And when the ſunne was vp, they caught heate: and becauſe they had not roote, they wythered away.

B 7 Agayne, ſomme felle among thornes: and the thornes ſprong vp, and choked them.

8 But ſomme felle into good grounde: and brought foorth fruite, ſomme an hundred folde, ſomme ſixtie folde, ſomme thirtie folde.

9 Who hath eares to heare, let hym heare.

10 And the diſciples came, and ſayde vnto hym, Why ſpeakeſt thou to them by parables?

Mark.4.a. Luke.7.b 11 He anſweared, and ſayd vnto them, * Becauſe it is geuen vnto you to know the ſecretes of the kingdome of heauen, but to them it is not geuen.

Mat.25.c Mark.4.c Luke.8.b and.19.d 12 * For whoſoeuer hath, to hym ſhalbe geuē, and he ſhal haue more abundance: but whoſoeuer hath not, from hym ſhalbe taken away, euen that he hath.

13 Therfore ſpeake I to them in parables: becauſe they ſeeyng, ſee not: and hearyng, they heare not, neyther doo they vnderſtande.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecie of Eſaias, * whiche ſayth, With the eare ye ſhal heare, and ſhal not vnderſtande, and ſeeyng, ye ſhal ſee, and ſhal not perceiue. C Eſai.6.c Mark.4.b Luke.8.b Iohn.12.b Actes.28.f Rom.11.b

15 For this peoples harte is waxed groſſe, and theyr eares are dul of hearing, and theyr eyes haue they cloſed: leſt at any time they ſhould ſee with theyr eyes, & heare with theyr eares, and ſhoulde vnderſtand with theyr hart, and ſhoulde conuert, that I myght heale them.

19 When one heareth the woorde of the kingdome, and vnderſtandeth it not, then commeth that euil, & catcheth away that whiche was ſowen in his harte: this is he which receiued ſeede by the way ſyde.

20 But he that receiued the ſeede into ſtonye places, the ſame is he that heareth the woord, and anone with ioy receiueth it:

21 Yet hath he not roote in him ſelfe, but dureth for a ſeaſon: for when tribulation or perſecution aryſeth becauſe of the woord, by and by he is offended.

22 He alſo that receiued ſeede into the thornes, is he that heareth the woorde, and the care of this worlde, and the deceitefulneſſe of ryches, choke vp the woorde, and ſo is he made vnfruiteful.

23 But he that receiued ſeede into the good grounde, is he that heareth the woorde, and vnderſtandeth it, whiche alſo beareth fruite:

and bryngeth foorth, ſomme an hundred folde, ſomme ſixtie folde, ſomme thirtie folde.

Mark.4.c.

24 Another parable put he foorth vnto them, ſayeing, ☞ *The kyngdome of heauen is likened vnto a man, whiche ſowed good ſeede in his feelde.

25 But whyle menne ſleapt, his enimie came and ſowed tares among the wheate, & went his way.

26 But when the blade was ſprong vp, and had brought foorth fruite, then appeared the tares alſo.

E 27 So, the ſeruantes of the houſholder came, and ſayde vnto hym, Sir, dyddeſt not thou ſowe good ſeede in thy feelde? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He ſayde vnto them, The malitious man hath donne this. The ſeruantes ſayde vnto hym, Wylt thou then that we goe, and geather them vp?

29 But he ſayde, Nay: leſt whyle ye geather vp the tares, ye roote vp alſo the wheate with them.

30 Let both growe togeather vntyl the harueſt: and in tyme of harueſt, I wyl ſay to the reapers, Geather ye togeather fyrſt the tares, and bynde them in bundels to burne them: but carrie yͤ wheate into my barne. ☜

Mat.4.c. Luke.13.d.

31 ☞ Another parable put he foorth vnto them, ſayeing, *The kyngdome of heauen is lyke to a grayne of muſtarde ſeede, which a man tooke and ſowed in his feelde.

32 Which in deede is the leaſt of al ſeedes: But when it is growen, it is the greateſt among hearbes: and is a tree, [ſo] that the byrdes of the ayre comme and make theyr neſtes in the branches thereof.

Luke.13.d.

33 Another parable ſpake he vnto them, [ſayeing,]* The kyngdome of heauen is lyke vnto leauen, whiche a woman tooke, and hydde in three peckes of meale, til al were leauened.

Mark.4.c.

36 ☞ Then Ieſus, when he had ſent the people away, went into the houſe: *And his diſciples came vnto hym, ſayeing, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the feelde.

37 He anſweared and ſayde vnto them, He that ſoweth the good ſeede, is the ſonne of man.

38 The feelde, is the worlde. The good ſeede, theſe are the chyldren of the kyngdome: But the tares, are the chyldren of the wicked.

39 And the enimie that ſowed them, is the deuil. The harueſt, is the ende of the world. The reapers, be the angels.

40 Euen as the tares therefore are geathered and brent in the fyre: ſo ſhal it be in the ende of this worlde.

Apo.14.d

41 * The ſonne of man ſhal ſende foorth his angels, and [they] ſhal geather out of his kyngdome, al thynges that offende, & them whiche doo iniquitie:

44 ☞ Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen, is lyke vnto treaſure hid in the feelde: the which when a man hath founde, hydeth, and for ioy thereof, goeth and ſelleth al that he hath, and byeth that feelde.

45 Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen is lyke vnto a marchant man, ſeekyng goodly pearles:

46 Whiche when he had founde one precious pearle, went and ſolde al that he hadde, and bought it.

47 Agayne, the kyngdome of heauen is lyke vnto a net that was caſt into the ſea, and geathered of al kynde.

48 Whiche, when it was ful, [the fiſhers] drue to lande, and ſate downe, and geathered the good into veſſels: but caſt the bad away.

49 So ſhal it be at the ende of the worlde: the angels ſhal comme foorth, and ſeuer the bad from among the iuſt,

Mat.22.b. and.25.a.

50 And ſhal caſt them into a furneſſe of fyre: * there ſhalbe waylyng, and gnaſhyng of teeth.

51 Ieſus ſaith vnto them, Haue ye vnderſtand al theſe thynges? They ſay vnto hym, Yea Lorde.

52 Then ſayde he vnto them, Therefore euery Scribe whiche is taught in the kyngdome of heauen, is like vnto a man that is an houſholder, which bryngeth foorth out of his treaſure thynges newe and olde. ☜

" Or, entiſed or, induced. 8 And ſhe, beyng before " inſtructed of her mother, ſayd, Geue me here John Baptiſtes head in a platter.

B 9 And the king was ſory: neuertheleſſe, for the othes ſake, and them whiche ſate alſo at the table, he commaunded it to be geuen her:

10 And ſent [a tormenter] and beheaded John in the priſon.

11 And his head was brought in a platter, and geuen to the damſel: and [ſhe] brought it to her mother.

12 And his diſciples came, and tooke vp his body, and buried it: and went and tolde Jeſus.

Mar.6.d. Luke.9.d. Iohn.6.a. 13 When Jeſus heard of it, he * departed thence in a ſhip, vnto a deſart place out of the way: and when the people had hearde thereof, they folowed hym on foote out of the cities.

C 14 And when Jeſus went foorth, he ſaw much people, and was mooued with mercie towarde them, and he healed theyr ſicke.

15 And when it was euenyng, his diſciples came to hym, ſayeing, This is a deſart place, and the houre is nowe paſt: let the people depart, that they may goe into the villages, and bye them vitayles.

16 But Jeſus ſayde vnto them, They haue no neede to goe away: geue ye them to eate.

17 They ſay vnto hym, We haue not here but fiue loaues, and two fiſſhes.

18 He ſayde, Bryng them hyther to me.

19 And when he had commaunded the people to ſit downe on the graſſe, and had taken the fiue loaues, and the two fiſſhes, and lifted vp his eyes towarde heauen, he bleſſed: & when he had broken [them] he gaue the loaues to his diſciples: and his diſciples to the people.

20 And they dyd al eate, and were ſuffiſed: And they tooke vp (of the fragmentes that remayned) twelue baſkettes ful. D

21 And they that had eaten, were about fiue thouſande menne, beſide women & children.

22 * And ſtraightway Jeſus conſtrained his diſciples to geat vp into a ſhip, and to goe before hym vnto the other ſyde, whyle he ſent the people away. Mar.6.f. Iohn.6.b.

23 And when he had ſent the people away, he * went vp into a mountayne alone to pray: Luke.6.c. and when nyght was comme, he was there hym ſelfe alone.

24 But the ſhippe was nowe in the middeſt of the ſea, and was toſte with the waues: for it was a contrary winde.

25 And in the fourth watche of the nyght, Jeſus went vnto them, walkyng on the ſea.

26 And when the diſciples ſawe hym walkyng on the ſea, they were troubled, ſayeing, That it is a ſpirite: and they cryed out for feare.

27 But ſtraightway Jeſus ſpake vnto them, ſayeing, Be of good cheare: it is J, be not afrayde. E

28 Peter anſweared him, and ſayde, Lorde, yf it be thou, bydde me comme vnto thee on the water.

29 And he ſayde, Comme. And when Peter was comme downe out of the ſhip, he walked on the water to goe to Jeſus.

30 But when he ſawe a myghty winde, he was afrayd: and when he beganne to ſincke, he cryed, ſayeing, Lorde ſaue me.

31 And immediatly Jeſus, when he had ſtreatched foorth his hand, caught him, & ſaid vnto hym, O thou of litle faith, wherefore dyddeſt thou doubt?

Mar.6.g. 32 *And when they were come into the ſhip, the winde ceaſſed.

33 Then they that were in the ſhip, came and woorſhipped hym, ſayeing, Of a trueth thou art the ſonne of God.

34 And when they were gonne ouer, they came into the lande of Genezaret.

35 And when the menne of that place hadde knowledge of hym, they ſent out into al that countrey rounde about, and brought vnto hym al that were ſicke,

36 And beſought him that they myght touche the hemme of his garment only: and as many as touched, were made perfectly whole.

The.xv.Chapter.

3 Chriſte excuſeth his diſciples, and rebuketh the Scribes and Phariſees for tranſgreſſing Gods commaundement through their owne traditions, 18 the thyng that goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man, 22 he delyuereth the woman of Cananees daughter, 30 healeth the multitude, 36 and with ſeuen loaues, and a fewe litle fiſſhes, feedeth foure thouſande menne, beſide women and chyldren.

A 1 Then came to Jeſus Scribes and Phariſees, which were comme from Hieruſalem, ſayeing, Mar.7.a.

2 Why doo thy diſciples tranſgreſſe the tradition of the elders? for they waſhe not theyr handes when they eate bread.

3 But he anſweared, and ſayde vnto them, Why doo ye alſo tranſgreſſe the commaundement of God by your tradition?

Exo.20.b. Mar.7.b. 4 For God commaunded, ſayeing, *Honour thy father and thy mother. And he that curſeth father or mother, let hym dye the death.

5 But ye ſay, Whoſoeuer ſhal ſay to his father or his mother, *By the gyft that [is offered] of me, thou ſhalt be helped:
Exo.21.b. Ephe.6.a.

Deut.5.b. 6 And ſo ſhal he not honour his father or his mother. And thus haue ye made the commaundement of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, ful wel dyd Eſaias prophecie of you, ſayeing,

Eſai.29.g. Iere.33.g. Mar.7.b. 8 *This people draweth nygh vnto me with theyr mouth, and honoureth me with theyr lippes: howbeit theyr hart is farre from me.

B 9 But in vayne doo they woorſhip me, teachyng doctrines, preceptes of menne.

10 And when he had called the people to hym, he ſayde vnto them, Heare and vnderſtande.

11 That whiche goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man: but that whiche commeth out of the mouth, defileth the man.

12 Then came his diſciples, and ſayde vnto hym, Knoweſt thou not that the Phariſees were offended after they hearde this ſayeing?

13 But he anſweared and ſayde, Al manner plantyng whiche my heauenly father hath not planted, ſhalbe rooted vp.

C 14 Let them alone: they be blynde leaders of the blynde. If the blynde leade the blynde, both ſhal fal into the ditche.

15 Then anſweared Peter, and ſayde vnto hym, Declare vnto vs this parable.

16 Jeſus ſayde, Are ye alſo yet without vnderſtandyng?

17 Doo not ye yet vnderſtande, that whatſoeuer entreth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is caſt out into the draught?

18 But thoſe thynges whiche proceede out of the mouth, comme foorth from the hart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the hart procede euyl thoughtes, murders, adulteries, whordomes, theftes, falſe witneſſe, blaſphemies.

20 Theſe are the thinges whiche defile a man: But to eate with vnwaſhen handes, defileth not a man.

21 And Jeſus, when he went thence, departed D into the coaſtes of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of the Chanaanites, whiche came out of the ſame coaſtes, cryed vnto hym, ſayeing, Haue mercie on me, O Lorde, thou ſonne of Dauid, my daughter is greeuouſly vexed with a deuil.

23 But he anſweared her not a woorde. And his diſciples came, and beſought hym, ſayeing, Sende her away, for ſhe cryeth after vs.

24 But he anſweared, and ſayde, I am not ſent *but vnto the loſt ſheepe of the houſe of Iſrael. Luk.19.4.

25 Then came ſhe, and woorſhipped hym, ſayeing, Lorde, helpe me.

26 But he anſweared, and ſayde, It is not meete to take the chyldrens bread, and to caſt it to litle dogges.

27 And ſhe ſayde, Yes Lorde, for the litle dogges alſo eate of the crummes whiche fal from their maiſters table.

28 Then Jeſus anſweared, and ſayde vnto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it donne vnto thee euen as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole euen from that ſame houre.

29 And Jeſus, when he was departed from thence, came nygh vnto the ſea of Galilee, and when he was gonne vp into a mountayne, he ſate downe there.

30 Then great multitudes came vnto hym, hauyng with them thoſe that were lame, blynde, dumbe, maymed, and other many, and caſt them downe at Jeſus feete, *and he healed them: Eſai.35,b.

31 Inſomuche that the people woondred, when they ſawe the dumbe ſpeake, the maymed to be whole, the lame to walke, and the blynde to ſee: and they glorified the God of Iſrael.

Mark.8,a. 32 *Then Jeſus called his diſciples vnto him, and ſayde, I haue compaſſion on the people, becauſe they continue with me nowe three dayes, and haue nothyng to eate: and I wyl not let them depart faſtyng, leſt they faynt in the way.

33 And his diſciples ſay vnto hym, Whence [ſhoulde we geat] ſo muche bread in the wyldernesse, as to ſuffiſe ſo great a multitude?

34 And Jeſus ſayth vnto them, Howe many loaues haue ye? And they ſayd, *Seuen, and a fewe litle fiſſhes. Mat.16.b.

35 And he cōmaunded the people to ſit downe on the grounde.

36 And when he hadde taken the ſeuen loaues, and the fiſſhes, and had geuen thankes, he brake [them] and gaue to his diſciples: and the diſciples gaue them to the people.

37 And they dyd al eate, and were ſuffiſed: and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was leaft, ſeuen baſkettes ful.

38 And yet they that dyd eate, were foure thouſande menne, beſide women and chyldren.

39 And when he had ſent away the people, he tooke ſhippe, and came into the parties of Magdala.

The.xxii.Chapter.

2 The marriage of the kynges ſonne, 17 Tribute to be geuen to the Emperour, 25 Chriſt confuteth the opinion of the Saduces, concernyng the reſurrection, 36 and anſweareth the Scribe vnto his queſtion.

A 1 AND Jeſus anſweared, and ſpake vnto them agayne by Parables, and ſayde,

Luke,14.d 2 ☞ The kyngdome of heauen is like vnto *a mā that was a kyng, whiche made a marriage for his ſonne:

3 And ſent foorth his ſeruantes, to cal them that were bidden to the weddyng: and they would not comme.

4 Agayne, he ſent foorth other ſeruantes, ſayeing, Tel them whiche are bidden, Beholde, I haue prepared my dinner, my Oxen and my fatlinges are kylled, and al thinges are redy: comme vnto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went theyr wayes, one to his farme, another to his marchandize:

6 And the remnant tooke his ſeruantes, and entreated them ſpitefully, and ſlue them.

7 But when the king heard [therof,] he was wroth, and when he had ſent foorth his armies, he deſtroyed thoſe murtherers, and brent vp their citie.

8 Then ſayeth he to his ſeruantes, The marriage in deede is prepared, but they whiche were bidden, were not worthy.

9 Goe ye therfore out in the hygh wayes, and as manye as ye ſhal finde, bid to the marriage.

10 And the ſeruantes went out into the hygh wayes, and geathered togeather al, as many as they found, both good, and badde, and the weddyng was furniſhed with geaſtes.

11 When the king came in to ſee the geaſtes, he ſpyed there a man, whiche had not on a *wedding garment, Eſai,41.d

12 And he ſayeth vnto him, Freende, how cameſt thou in hyther, not hauing a wedding garment? And he was euen ſpeacheleſſe.

B 13 Then ſaid the king to the miniſters, When ye haue bound him hand and foote, take him vp, and caſt him into vtter darkneſſe, *there ſhalbe weaping, and gnaſhing of teeth. Math.13.g and,25.c

14 For many are called, but few are choſen.☞

Mar.12.a 15 ☞*Then went the Phariſees, and tooke counſel how they might intangle him in his talke.

16 And they ſent out vnto him their diſciples with the Herodians, ſayeing, *Maiſter, we know that thou art true, and teacheſt the way of God truely, neither careſt thou for any man, for thou dooeſt not reſpect mennes perſons. Luke,20.d

17 Tel vs therefore, how thynkeſt thou? Is it lawful to geue tribute vnto Ceaſar, or not?

18 But Jeſus when he knew their wyckedneſſe, ſayd, Why tempt ye me ye hypocrites? C

19 Shew me the tribute moneye. And they brought vnto hym a peny.

20 And he ſayeth to them, Whoſe is this Image and ſuperſcription?

21 They ſaye vnto hym, Caeſars. Then ſayeth he vnto them, *Geue therefore vnto Caeſar, the [thynges] which are Caeſers: and vnto God, thoſe [thynges] that are Gods.☜ Math,17.d Rom,13.d

22 When they had heard [theſe woordes] they marueyled, and leaft hym, and went theyr waye.

23 *The ſame day came to hym the Saduces, whiche ſay that there is no reſurrection, and aſked hym, Mark.12.b Luk.20.c Actes.23.b

24 Saying, Maiſter, Moſes ſayd, *If a man dye, hauing no chyldren, his brother ſhal " marry his wyfe, and rayſe vp ſeede vnto his brother. Deut,25.b "By the law of affinitie.

25 There were with vs ſeuen brethren, and the firſt, when he had married a wyfe, deceaſed, and hauyng no iſſue, leaft his wyfe vnto his brother.

26 Lykewyſe the ſeconde alſo, and the thirde, vnto the ſeuenth.

27 Laſt of al, the woman dyed alſo.

28 Therefore in the reſurrection, whoſe wyfe ſhal ſhe be of the ſeuen? For they al hadde her.

29 Jeſus anſweared, and ſayde vnto them, Ye doo erre, not knowing the ſcriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the reſurrection they neyther marry, nor are geuen in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heauen.

31 But as touchyng the reſurrection of the dead, haue ye not read that whiche was ſpoken vnto you of God, whiche ſayeth,

32 *I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Iſahac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the lyuing. Exo,3.b Mark,12.c Luke,20.f

33 And when the multitudes heard this, they were aſtonied at his doctrine.

34 ☞But when the Phariſees had hearde that he had put the Saducees to ſilence, they were geathered togeather. D

35 Then one [of them] whiche was a lawyer, aſked [hym] a queſtion, temptyng hym, and ſayeing,

36 Maiſter, whiche is the great commaundement in the lawe?

Deut.6.b. 37 Jeſus ſayde vnto hym, Thou ſhalt *loue the Lorde thy GOD with al thy hart, and with al thy ſoule, and with al thy mynde.

38 This is the fyrſte and great commaundement.

Leuit.19.d 39 And the ſeconde is lyke vnto it. *Thou ſhalt loue thy neighbour as thee ſelfe.

Mark.12.c Rom.13.c Gala.5.d Iacob.2.b Math.5.g 40 In theſe two commaundementes, hang al the lawe and the prophetes.

41 When the Phariſees were geathered togeather, Jeſus aſked them,

42 Sayeing, What thinke ye of Chriſt? whoſe ſonne is he? They ſayd vnto hym [the ſonne] of Dauid.

43 He ſayeth vnto them, *Howe then doeth Dauid in ſpirite cal hym Lorde, ſayeing, Mar.12.d

44 The Lord ſaid vnto my Lord: *Sit thou on my ryght hande, tyl I make thyne enimies thy footſtoole? Pſal.110.a

45 If Dauid then cal hym Lorde, howe is he then his ſonne?

46 And no man was able to anſweare hym a woorde, neyther durſte any man (from that day) aſke hym any mo queſtions.

The.xxiii.Chapter.

3 Chriſt cryeth wo to the Phariſees, Scribes, and hypocrites, 37 and prophecieth the deſtruction of Hieruſalem.

A 1 THEN ſpake Jeſus to the multitudes, and to his diſciples,

Deut.17.b 2 Sayeing, *The Scribes and the Phariſees ſate in Moſes ſeate:

3 All therefore whatſoeuer they byd you obſerue, that obſerue and doo, but doo not ye after their workes: for they ſay, and doo not.

Eſai.10.a Luke.11.f 4 *Yea, they bind togeather heauie burdens, & greeuous to be borne, and lay them on mens ſhoulders, but they them ſelues wyl not mooue them with [one] of their fingers.

5 All their workes they doo, for to be ſeene of menne, they make broade their philacteries, and enlarge the hemmes of their garmentes,

6 And loue the vppermoſte ſeates at feaſtes, & to ſit in the cheefe place in the ſynagogues,

7 And greetinges in the markettes, and to be called of menne, Rabbi, Rabbi.

B Iacob.2.a 8 *But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your maiſter [euen] Chriſt, and al ye are brethren.

9 And cal no man your father vpon the earth: for one is your father, which is in heauen.

10 Neyther be ye called maiſters: for one is your maiſter, [euen] Chriſt.

11 He that is greateſt among you, ſhalbe your ſeruant.

14 Wo vnto you Scribes aud Phariſees hypocrites, for ye deuoure wyddowes houſes, and that vnder a pretence of long prayer, therfore ye ſhal receyue the greater dampnation.

15 Wo vnto you Scribes and Phariſees hypocrites, for ye compaſſe the ſea and the land, to make one (a) proſelyte, and when he is become one, ye make hym two folde more the childe of hel, then ye your ſelues [are.]

(a) One brought from gentilitie to theyr religion.

16 Wo be vnto you ye blynde guydes, for ye ſay, Whoſoeuer ſhal ſweare by the temple, it is nothyng, but whoſoeuer ſhal ſweare by the golde of the temple, he is a (b) debter.

(b) Both to God and to man, for to perfourme it.

17 Ye fooles and blynde, for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that ſanctifieth the golde?

18 And whoſoeuer ſhal ſweare by the aulter, it is nothyng, but whoſoeuer ſweareth by the gift that is vpon it, he is a debter.

19 Ye fooles and blynd, for whether is greater, the gift, or yͤ aulter that ſanctifieth the gift?

23 Wo vnto you Scribes and Phariſees hypocrites, *for ye tithe mynt, and anniſe, and cummin: and haue leaft the wayghtier matters of the law, iudgement, mercie, and faith: Theſe ought ye to haue donne, and not to leaue the other vndonne. Luke.11.f

24 Ye blynde guides, whiche ſtrayne out a gnat, and ſwalow a Camel.

25 Wo vnto you Scribes and Phariſees hypocrites, for ye make cleane the vtter ſyde of the cup, and of the platter: but within they are ful of briberie and exceſſe.

26 Thou blynde Phariſee, cleanſe fyrſt that which is within the cup and platter, that the outſyde of them may be cleane alſo.

Luke.11.f 27 *Wo vnto you Scribes and Phariſees, hypocrites, for ye are like vnto paynted Sepulchres, whiche in deede appeare beautiful outwarde: but are within ful of dead [mennes] bones, and of al filthyneſſe.

28 Euen ſo, ye alſo outwardly appeare righteous vnto menne: but within ye are ful of hypocriſie and iniquitie.

D Luke,11.g 29 *Wo vnto you Scribes and Phariſees, hypocrites, becauſe ye builde the tombes of the Prophetes, and garniſhe the ſepulchres of the ryghteous,

30 And ſay, If we had benne in the dayes of our fathers, we would not haue benne parteners with them in the blood of the prophetes.

1,Theſ.2.c 31 Wherfore *ye be witneſſes vnto your ſelues, that ye are the chyldren of them whiche kylled the prophetes.

32 Fulfil ye alſo the meaſure of your fathers.

33 Ye ſerpentes, ye generation of vipers, how wyl ye eſcape the dampnation of hel?

34 ☞ Wherefore, behold *I ſend vnto you prophetes, and wyſe menne, and Scribes, and ſomme of them ye ſhal kyl and crucifie, and ſomme of them ſhal ye ſcourge in your ſynagogues, and perſecute them from citie to citie: Math.10.b Luke.11.g Iohn.16.a Actes.5.c and.7.a

Math,13.a Luke,22.a 2 ☞*Ye know, that after two dayes is the feaſte of Paſſouer, and the ſonne of man is betrayed to be crucified.

Iohn,11.f 3 *Then aſſembled togeather ẏ cheefe prieſts, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people, vnto the palace of the hygh prieſt, which was called Caiaphas:

4 And helde a counſel that they myght take Ieſus ſubtilly, and kyl hym.

5 But they ſayde, Not on the feaſt [day] leaſt there be an vprore among the people.

Mar.14.a Iohn.12.a 6 When *Ieſus was in Bethanie, in the houſe of Simon the Leper,

Luke.7.f 7 There came vnto hym a woman, *hauing an Alabaſter boxe of precious oyntment, and powred it on his head, as he ſate [at the borde.]

8 But when his diſciples ſawe it, they had indignation, ſayeing, To what purpoſe [is] this waſte?

9 This oyntment might haue beene ſolde for muche, and geuen to the poore.

10 When Ieſus vnderſtoode that, he ſayd vnto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for ſhe hath wrought a good worke vpon me.

Deut.15.b 11 *For ye haue the poore alwayes with you: but me ye haue not alwayes.

12 For in that this woman hath caſt this oyntment on my body, ſhe dyd it to bury me.

13 Veryly I ſaye vnto you, Whereſoeuer this Goſpel ſhalbe preached in the whole world, there ſhal alſo this that this woman hath donne, be tolde for a memorial of her.

14 *Then one of the twelue, called Iudas Iſcariot, went vnto the cheefe prieſtes, B Mar.14.b Luke.22.a Iohn.12.a

15 And ſayde vnto them, What wyl ye geue me, and I wyl delyuer hym vnto you? And they appoynted vnto hym thirtie ſyluer [peeces.]

16 And from that tyme foorth, he ſought oportunitie to betray hym.

17 *The fyrſt [day] of ſweete breade, the diſciples came to Ieſus, ſayeing vnto him, Where wilt thou that we ſhal prepare for thee to eate the Paſſouer? Mar.14.b Luke.23.a

18 And he ſayde, Goe into the citie to ſuche a man, and ſaye vnto him, The maiſter ſayeth, my tyme is at hande, I make the Paſſouer at thy houſe with my diſciples.

19 And the diſciples did as Ieſus had appointed them: and they made redy the Paſſouer.

20 *When the euen was comme, he ſate downe with the twelue: Mar.14.c Luke.12.b

21 And as they did eate, he ſayd, Veryly I ſay vnto you, that *one of you ſhal betray me. Iohn.13.c

22 And they beyng exceedyng ſorowful, began euery one of them to ſay vnto hym, Lorde is it I?

35 Peter ſayde vnto hym, Though I ſhoulde dye with thee, yet wyl I by no manner of meanes deny thee. Likewyſe alſo ſayd al the diſciples.

Mar,14,d 36 *Then commeth Jeſus with them vnto a place called Gethſemane, and ſayth vnto the diſciples, Sit ye there, whyle I goe and pray yonder.

37 And when he had taken with hym Peter, and the two ſonnes of Zebedee, he began to be ſorowful and heauie.

Mar.14.d John,12.b 38 Then ſayde Jeſus vnto them, *My ſoule is exceedyng heauie, euen vnto the death: tary ye here, and watche with me.

F 39 And when he had gonne a litle farther, he fel flat on his face, prayeing, and ſayeing, O my father, if it be poſſible, *let this cup paſſe from me: neuertheleſſe, not as I wyl, but as thou wylt.

Luk,22.d Mar,13,d

40 And he commeth vnto the diſciples, and fyndeth them a ſleepe, and ſayth vnto Peter, What, coulde ye not watche with me one houre?

41 Watche, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: *The ſpirite in deede is willing, but the fleaſhe [is] weake.

Gal,v.c

Mar,xiiij,c 42 *He went away agayne the ſeconde time, and prayed, ſayeing, O my father, if this cup may not paſſe away frō me, except I drynke it, thy wyl be fulfylled.

43 And when he came, he fyndeth them a ſleepe agayne: for their eyes were heauy.

44 And he left them, and went agayne, and prayed the thyrde tyme, ſayeing the ſame woordes.

45 Then commeth he to his diſciples, and ſayth vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, & take your reſt: beholde, the houre is at hande, and the ſonne of man is betrayed into the handes of ſinners.

46 Ryſe, let vs be goeyng: beholde, he is at hande that dooth betray me.

47 *While he yet ſpake, loe Judas one of the twelue came, and with hym a great multitude with ſwoordes & ſtaues, from the chiefe prieſtes and elders of the people. Mar,xiiij,e Luk,22.e

48 But he that betrayed hym, gaue them a token, ſayeing, Whom ſo euer I ſhal kyſſe, that ſame is he, holde him faſt.

49 And forthwith when he came to Jeſus, he ſayde, Hayle maiſter: and kiſſed hym.

50 And Jeſus ſayd vnto him, Friende, wherfore art thou comme? Then came they and layde handes on Jeſus, and tooke hym.

51 And beholde, one of them whiche were with Jeſus, ſtretched out his hande, and drue his ſwoorde, and after that he had ſtriken a ſeruant of the hygh prieſtes, he ſmote of his eare.

52 Then ſaid Jeſus vnto him, Turne backe thy ſwoorde into his place: *for al they that take yͤ ſwoord, ſhal peryſhe with the ſwoord. G Gen.9.a John.18,b

53 Thynkeſt thou that I can not nowe pray to my father, and he ſhal cauſe to ſtand by me more then twelue legions of angels? Apoc.13.c Eze,xi,b

54 But howe then ſhal the ſcriptures be fulfylled, *that thus it muſt be? Luke 24,d

55 In that ſame houre ſayd Jeſus to the multitudes, *Ye be comme out as it were vnto a theefe with ſwoordes and ſtaues for to take me: I ſate dayly with you teachyng in the temple, and ye tooke me not. Mar,xiiij.f Luk,22.f

56 *But al this was donne that the ſcriptures of the prophetes myght be fulfylled. *Then al the diſciples hauyng forſaken hym, fledde. Pſal,xxi. and,lxix. Mar,xiiij.f Luke.22,f

57 But they that had taken Jeſus, led him away to Caiaphas the high prieſt, where the Scribes and the elders were aſſembled. John,18,c 58 But Peter folowed hym a farre of vnto the high prieſtes palace, and went in, and ſate with the ſeruantes to ſee the ende.

59 *The chiefe prieſtes and elders and al the counſel ſought falſe witneſſe agaynſt Jeſus, for to put hym to death, Mar,xiiij,f Act,vi,d

60 But founde none: yea, when many falſe witneſſes came, yet founde they none. At the laſt came two falſe witneſſes, mar. xiiij. f Iohn,2.d 61 And ſayde, This [felowe] ſayd,* I am able to deſtroy the temple of God, and to builde it in three dayes.

Mar,14.f 62 *And the chiefe prieſt aroſe, and ſayd vnto hym, Anſweareſt thou nothyng? What [is that whiche] theſe witneſſe agaynſt thee?

mar,xiiij,f 63 But Ieſus helde his peace. *And the chiefe prieſt anſweared, & ſayd vnto hym, I charge thee by the lyuyng God, that thou telle vs, whether thou be Chriſte the ſonne of God?

64 Ieſus ſayth vnto hym, Thou haſt ſayde: Neuertheleſſe, I ſay vnto you, *hereafter ſhal ye ſee the ſonne of man ſyttyng on the ryght hande of the power [of God] and commyng in the cloudes of the ſkye. Mar,14.g Luke,22,g

Mar,14.g 65 *Then the high prieſt rent his clothes, ſayeing, He hath ſpoken blaſphemie: what neede we of any mo witneſſes? Beholde, nowe ye haue hearde his blaſphemie.

66 What thinke ye? They anſweared & ſayd, He is woorthy to dye.

Eſai,50,c 67 *Then dyd they ſpit in his face, and buffeted hym with fiſtes, and other ſmote hym on the face with the paulme of their handes, 68 Sayeing, Prophecie vnto vs, O Chriſte, who is he that ſmote thee?

69 Peter ſate without in the palace: And a damſel came to hym, ſayeing, Thou alſo waſt with Ieſus of Galilee.

70 But he denyed before them al, ſayeing, I wote not what thou ſayeſt.

71 When he was gonne out into the porche, another [wenche] ſawe hym, and ſayde vnto them that were there, This felowe was alſo with Ieſus of Nazareth.

72 And againe he denied with an othe, I doo not knowe the man.

73 And after a whyle came vnto hym they that ſtoode by, and ſayde to Peter, *Surely thou art euen one of them: for thy ſpeache bewrayeth thee. mar,xiiij,g Luk,22,g Iohn,18,c

74 Then began he to curſe, and to ſweare, [ſayeing] I knowe not the man. And immediatly*the Cocke crewe. Mat,26,c

75 And Peter remembred the woordes of Ieſu, whiche ſayd vnto hym, Before the Cocke crowe, thou ſhalt denye me thryſe. And he went out, and wept bytterly.

16 *As he walked by the ſea of Galilee, he ſawe Simon, and Andrewe his brother, caſtyng nets into yͤ ſea (for they were fiſchers.) Mat.iij.a Mat.iiij.c

17 And Jeſus ſayde vnto them, Folowe me, and I wyl make *you to become fiſchers of menne. Iere.xvj.c

18 And ſtraightway they forſooke their nets, and folowed hym.

19 And when he had gonne a lytle further thence, he ſaw James [the ſonne] of Zebedee, and John his brother, which alſo were in the ſhyp mendyng their nettes.

20 And anone he called them: and they leaft their father Zebedee in the ſhyp with the hired ſeruantes, and folowed hym.

21 And they came into Capernaum, ⁊ ſtraightway on the Sabboth dayes, he entred into the ſynagogue, and taught. D Mat.iiij.b.

22 And they were aſtonyed at his learnyng: *for he taught them as one that had aucthoritie, and not as the Scribes. Mat.vii.d. Luk.iij.e

23 *And there was in their ſynagogue, a man vexed with an vncleane ſpirite, and he cryed aloude, Mat.vij.d. Luk.iiij.e

24 Sayeing, Let vs alone, what haue we [to doo] with thee, thou Jeſus of Nazareth? Art thou comme to deſtroy vs? I know thee what thou art [euen] that holy one of God.

25 And Jeſus rebuked hym, ſayeing, Holde thy peace, and comme out of hym.

26 And when the vncleane ſpirite had torne hym, and cryed with a loude voyce, he came out of hym.

27 And they were al amaſed, inſomuch that they demaunded one of another amõg them ſelues, ſayeing, What thyng is this? What newe doctrine is this? For with aucthoritie commaundeth he the foule ſpirites, and they doo obey hym?

34 And he healed many that were ſicke of diuers diſeaſes, and *caſte out many deuyls: and ſuffered not the deuyls to ſpeake, becauſe they knewe hym.

35 And in the mornyng very early before day, F Jeſus when he was ryſen vp, went out, and departed into a ſolitarie place, & there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, folowed after hym:

37 And when they had founde hym, they ſaid vnto hym, Al menne ſeeke for thee.

38 And he ſayde vnto them, Let vs goe into the next townes, that I may preache there alſo: for therefore am I comme.

39 And he preached in their ſynagogues in al Galilee, and caſt the deuyls out.

40 *And there came a leper to him, beſeching hym, and kneelyng downe to hym, and ſayeing vnto him, If thou wilt, thou canſt make me cleane. Mat.viij.a Luke,v,c 41 And Jeſus hauyng compaſſion on hym, when he had put foorth his hande, touched hym, and ſayth vnto hym, I wyl, be thou cleane.

42 And aſſoone as he had ſpoken, immediatly the leproſie departed from him, and he was made cleane.

43 And after he had geuen him a ſtraite commaundement, he ſent hym away forthwith:

44 And ſayth vnto hym, *See thou ſay nothyng to any man: but geat thee hence, ſhew thee ſelf to the prieſt, and offer for thy clenſing thoſe thynges whiche Moſes commaunded, for a witneſſe vnto them. Mar.vii.d.

45 But he, aſſoone as he was departed, began openly to declare many thynges, and to publiſhe this rumour: inſomuche, that Jeſus coulde no more openly enter into the citie, but was without in deſert places: and they came to hym from euery quarter.

33 And he anſweared them, ſayeing, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And when he had looked round about on them whiche ſate about hym, he ſayde, Beholde my mother and my brethren.

35 For whoſoeuer ſhal doo the wyl of God, the ſame is my brother, and my ſiſter, and mother.

The.iiii.Chapter.

2 The parable of the ſower. 37 Chriſte ſtylleth the tempeſt of the ſea, whiche obeyed hym.

A 1 AND he began agayne to teache by the ſea ſyde: and there geathered vnto hym muche people, ſo that he entred into a ſhyp,* & ſate in the ſea: and al the people was by the ſea ſyde on the ſhore: Mat.xiij.a

2 And he taught them many thynges by parables, and ſayde vnto them in his doctrine,

Luk.viij.a 3 Hearken, Beholde* there went out a ſower to ſowe:

4 And it fortuned as he ſowed, that ſomme fel by the way ſyde: and the foules of the ayre came, and deuoured it vp.

5 Somme fel on ſtony grounde, where it had not muche earth: and immediatly it ſprang vp, becauſe it had no deapth of earth.

6 But aſſoone as the ſunne was vp, it caught heate: and becauſe it had not roote, it wythered away.

7 And ſomme felle among thornes: and the thornes grewe vp, and choked it, and it gaue no fruite. B

8 And ſomme fel vpon good ground, and did yeelde fruite that ſprang vp, and grewe, and brought foorth, ſomme thirtie, and ſomme ſixtie, and ſomme an hundred.

9 And he ſaide vnto them, He that hath eares to heare, let hym heare.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about hym, with the twelue, aſked of him the parable.

Mat.12.b. Luke.8.b 11 And he ſayde vnto them, *Unto you it is geuen to knowe the myſterie of the kyngdome of God: but vnto them that are without, al thynges are donne by parables, 12 That when they ſee, they may ſee and not diſcerne: and when they heare, *they maye heare and not vnderſtande, leſt at any tyme they ſhoulde turne, and theyr ſynnes ſhoulde be forgeuen them.

38 And he was in the ſtearne a ſleepe on a pillowe: and they awake hym, and ſaye vnto hym, Maiſter, careſt thou not that we periſhe?

39 And he aroſe, and rebuked the wynde, and ſayd vnto the ſea, Peace, and be ſtyl: and the wynde ceaſſed, and there folowed a greate calme.

40 And he ſayde vnto them, Why are ye fearefull? Howe is it that ye haue no fayth?

41 And they feared exceedyngly, and ſayde one to another, Who is this? that both the wynde and the ſea obey hym.

The.v.Chapter.

8 Chriſte delyuereth the poſſeſſed from the vncleane ſpirite, 25 the woman from the bloodდy iſſue, 41 and rayſeth the captaynes daughter.

A 1 ☞ Mat.8.d Luke.8.d AND they came ouer*to the other [ſide] of the ſea, into the countrey of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ſhippe, immediately there met hym from among the tombes, a man [poſſeſſed] of an vncleane ſpirite:

3 Whiche had his abyding among the tombes: and no man coulde bynde hym, no not with chaynes:

4 Becauſe that he had benne often bounde with fetters and chaynes, and the chaynes had benne plucked a ſunder by him, and the fetters broken in peeces: Neyther could any man tame hym.

5 And alwayes, nyght and day, he was in the mountaynes, and in the tombes, cryeing, and al to cutting him ſelfe with ſtones.

6 But when he had ſpyed Jeſus a farre of, he ranne, and woorſhypped hym:

7 Mat.8.d Acte.16.c And cryed with a loude voyce, and ſayde, What haue I to doo with thee, Jeſus, thou ſonne of the moſt higheſt GOD? I requyre thee in the name of God, that thou torment me not.

B 8 (For he ſayde vnto hym, Comme out of the man, thou foule ſpirite.)

9 And he aſked hym, What is thy name? And he anſweared, ſayeing, My name is legion: for we are many.

10 And he prayed him inſtantly that he would not ſende them away out of the countrey.

11 But there was there nigh vnto the mountaynes, a great hearde of ſwyne, feedyng.

12 Mat.8.b. Luke.8.d And al the deuyls beſought hym, ſayeing, Sende vs into the ſwyne, that we may enter into them.

13 And anone, Jeſus gaue them leaue. And the vncleane ſpirites went out, & entred into the ſwyne, and the hearde ranne headlong into the ſea, (they were about two thouſand,) and were choked in the ſea.

C 14 And the ſwyneheardes fledde, and told it in the citie, and in the countrey. And they went out for to ſee what was donne:

15 And they come to Jeſus, and ſee hym that was vexed with the feende, and had the legion, ſitting, & clothed, and in his ryght mind: and they were afrayde.

16 And they that ſawe [it,] tolde them howe it came to paſſe to hym that was poſſeſſed with the deuyl, and alſo of the ſwyne.

17 Luke.8.e *And they beganne to praye hym to depart out of theyr coaſtes.

18 Mat.8.d *And when he was comme into the ſhip, he that had benne poſſeſſed with the deuyl, prayed hym that he myght be with him.

19 Howbeit, Jeſus ſuffered hym not, but ſayth vnto hym, Goe home to thy friendes, and ſhewe them howe great thynges the Lorde hath donne for thee, and had compaſſion on thee.

20 And he departed, and beganne to publiſhe in Decapolis, how great thynges Jeſus had donne for hym: and al menne dyd marueyle.

D 21 And when Jeſus was comme ouer againe by ſhyppe vnto the other [ſyde,] much people geathered vnto hym, and he was nygh vnto the ſea.

22 Mat.8.d Luk.8.f *And behold there commeth one of the rulers of the ſynagogue, Jairus by name: and when he ſaw hym, he fel downe at his feete,

23 And beſought hym greatly, ſayeing, My young daughter lyeth at poynt of death, [I pray thee] comme and laye thy hands on her, that ſhe may be ſafe, and ſhe ſhal lyue.

24 And [Jeſus] went with him, and muche people folowed him, and thronged him.

25 Mat.9.c. Luke.8.f And there was a certayne woman whiche had benne diſeaſed of an iſſue of blood twelue yeeres, 26 And had ſuffered many thynges, of many phiſitions, and had ſpent al that ſhe had, and felte none amendement at al, but rather the woorſe.

27 When ſhe had hearde of Jeſus, ſhe came in the preaſſe behynde hym, and touched his garment.

E 28 For ſhe ſayde, If I maye but touche his clothes, I ſhalbe whole.

29 And ſtrayghtway the fountayne of her blood was dryed vp: and ſhe felt in her body that ſhe was healed of the plague.

30 And Jeſus immediatly knowing in him ſelfe that vertue proceeded from hym, turned hym about in the preaſſe, and ſaide, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his diſciples ſayde vnto hym, Thou ſeeſt the people thruſt thee, and aſkeſt thou, Who dyd touche me?

32 And he looked rounde about, for to ſee her that had donne this thyng.

33 But the woman fearyng and tremblyng, knowyng what was donne within her, came and felle downe before hym, and tolde hym al the trueth.

Luk.4.g 34 And he ſayde vnto her, Daughter, *thy faith hath ſaued thee, goe in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

Math.19.c Luke.8.g 35 While he yet ſpake, there comme from the ruler of the ſynagogues [houſe,] certayne whiche ſayde, Thy daughter is dead, why diſeaſeſt thou the maiſter any further?

36 As ſoone as Ieſus hearde the woorde that was ſpoken, he ſayth vnto the ruler of the ſynagogue, Be not afrayde, only beleue.

37 And he ſuffered no man to folow him, ſaue Peter and Iames, and Iohn, the brother of Iames.

Mat.9.c Luke.8.g 38 *And he commeth to the houſe of the ruler of the ſynagogue, and ſeeth the tumult, and them that wept and wayled greatly.

39 And when he was comme in, he ſaith vnto them, Why make ye this a doo, & weepe? the Damſel is not dead, but ſleepeth.

40 And they laught him to ſcorne: but he after that he had put them al out, taketh the father and the mother of the Damſel, and them that were with hym, and entreth in where the Damſel laye.

41 And when he had taken the Damſel by the hande, he ſayth vnto her, Talitha cumi, which is, being interpreted, Damſel, (I ſaye vnto thee) Aryſe.

42 And ſtrayght way the Damſel aroſe, and walked: for ſhe was of the age of twelue yeers: and they were aſtonyed out of meaſure.

43 And he charged them ſtrayghtly that no man ſhoulde knowe of it: and commaunded to geue her meate.

The.vi.Chapter.

4 Of Chriſtes dooynges and eſtimation in his owne countrey, 7 he ſendeth foorth his Apoſtles, 15 diuers opinions of Chriſte, 25 Howe Herode beheaded Iohn Baptiſt, 38 of the miracle of fyue loaues and two fyſhes, 48 Chriſte walked vpon the ſea, 55 and healed them that touched hym.

A 1 Mat.13.g Luk.4.e AND he *departed thence, and came into his owne countrey, and his diſciples folowe hym.

2 And when the ſabboth day was come, he began to teach in the ſynagogue: And many hearing him, were aſtonied, ſaying, From whence hath he theſe thinges? And what wiſdome is this that is geuen vnto hym, and ſuche myghty woorkes that are wrought by his handes?

Mat.13.g 3 *Is not this the Carpenter, Maries ſonne, the brother of Iames and Ioſes, and of Iuda and Simon? And are not his ſyſters here with vs? And they were offended at hym.

Mar.13.g Luke.4.d Iohn.5.f 4 Ieſus ſayde vnto them, *A prophete is not without honour, but in his owne countrey, and among his owne kynne, & in his owne houſe.

5 And he could there doo no mighty woorke: but layde his hands vpon a fewe ſicke folke, and healed [them.]

6 And he marueyled becauſe of theyr vnbeleefe. ☞ *And he went about by the villages that laye on euery ſyde, teachyng. Mark.9.d Mat.10.e

B 7 *And he calleth the twelue, and beganne to ſende them foorth, two and two, and gaue them power agaynſt vncleane ſpirites.

8 And commaunded them that they ſhould take nothing in theyr iourney, ſaue a ſtaffe (a) only: no ſcrippe, no bread, no money in theyr purſe:

9 But ſhoulde be ſhoed with ſandales: and that they ſhoulde not put on two coates.

(a) They may take a ſtaffe for theyr eaſe, and not to defende them ſelues, as in Math.10.

10 And he ſayde vnto them, Whereſoeuer ye enter into an houſe, there abyde tyl ye departe thence.

11 *And whoſoeuer ſhal not receiue you, nor heare you, when ye depart thence, ſhake of the duſt that is vnder your feete, for a witneſſe againſt them: *I ſaye veryly vnto you, it ſhalbe eaſier for the Sodomites and the Gomorrheans in the day of iudgement, then for that citie. Mar.10.b Luke.9.a Mat.11.d Luke.10.a

12 *And they went out, and preached, that menne ſhoulde repent. Mat.10.a

13 And they caſt out many deuylles, and annoynted many that were ſicke with oyle, and healed them.

14 And king Herode hearde [of hym,] (for his name was ſpread abroade:) and he ſaid, that Iohn Baptiſt was ryſen from the dead, and therefore mighty woorkes doo ſhewe foorth them ſelues in hym. Mat.14.a Luke.9.a C

15 Other ſayde, That it is Elias. Somme ſayde, That it is a prophete, or as one of the prophetes.

16 But when Herode had hearde of hym, he ſayde, It is Iohn, whom I beheaded: he is ryſen from death.

17 ☞ For Herode hym ſelfe had ſent foorth * and layde handes vpon Iohn, and bounde hym in priſon for Herodias ſake, his brother Philips wyfe, becauſe he had married her. * his ſeruauntes.

18 For Iohn ſaid vnto Herode, *It is not lawful for thee to haue thy brothers wyfe. Leui.18.d and.20.d

19 Therefore Herodias layde wayte for hym, & woulde haue killed him: but ſhe could not.

20 For Herode feared Iohn, knowyng that he was a iuſt man, and an holy, and gaue hym reuerence: and when he hearde hym, he dyd many thynges, and hearde him gladly.

Gen.40.d 21 And when a conuenient day was come, that Herode on his * byrth day made a ſupper to the lordes, high captaynes, and chiefe eſtates of Galilee:

22 And when the daughter of the ſame Herodias came in, and daunced, and pleaſed Herode, and them that ſate at boorde alſo, the kyng ſayde vnto the Damſel, Aſke of me what ſo euer thou wylt, and I wyl geue it thee.

Mat.14.a 23 And he ſware vnto her, What ſo euer thou ſhalt aſke of me, I wyl geue it thee, euen vnto the one halfe of my kyngdome.

24 And ſhe went foorth, and ſayde vnto her mother, What ſhal I aſke? She ſaid, John Baptiſtes head.

25 And ſhe came in ſtraightway with haſte vnto the king, and aſked, ſayeing, I wil that thou geue me by and by in a charger, the head of John Baptiſt.

26 And the kyng was exceedyng ſory, [howe be it] for his othes ſake, and for theyr ſakes whiche ſate at ſupper alſo, he would not caſt her of.

27 And immediatly, the kyng ſent the hangman, & commaunded his head to be brought in, and he went & beheaded him in the priſon,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and D gaue it to the Damſel, and the Damſel gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his diſciples hearde [of it,] they came and tooke vp his body, and layde it in a tombe. ☜

30 And the Apoſtles geather them ſelues togeather, vnto Jeſus, and tolde hym al thinges, both what they had donne, and what they had taught.

Mat.14.b Luke.9.b Iohn.6.a 31 And he ſayde vnto them, * Come ye alone out of the way into the wilderneſſe, and reaſt a while. For there were many commers and goers, and they had no leyſure ſo muche as to eate.

Mat.14.b 32 * And they departed by ſhyp out of the way into a deſart place.

33 And the people ſpyed them when they departed, and many knewe hym: and ranne a foote thither out of al cities, and came thither before them, and came togeather vnto him.

Mat.9.d and.14.b Eze.34.a 34 And Jeſus, when he came out, ſawe much people, * and hadde compaſſion on them, becauſe * they were lyke ſheepe, not hauyng a ſheepehearde: And he began to teache them many thynges.

Mat.14.b Luk.9.b Iohn.6.a 35 * And when the day was nowe farre ſpent, his diſciples came vnto hym, ſayeing, This is a deſart place, and nowe the tyme is farre paſſed:

36 Let them departe, that they may goe into the countrey round about, and into the villages, and bye them bread: for they haue nothyng to eate.

37 He anſweared, and ſayd vnto them, Geue ye them to eate. And they ſaye vnto hym, [Shal we] goe and bye two hundred penyworth of bread, and geue them to eate?

38 He ſayth vnto them, Howe many loaues haue ye, goe, and looke. And when they had ſearched, they ſaye, Fyue, and two fyſhes. Mar.8.a

39 And he commaunded them to make them al ſyt downe by companies vpon the greene graſſe.

40 And they ſate downe, here a rowe, & there a rowe, [by] hundredes, and [by] fyfties.

41 And when he had taken the fyue loaues, and the two fiſhes, and looked vp to heauen, he bleſſed, and brake the loaues, and gaue them to his diſciples to ſet before them: and the two fiſhes diuided he among them al.

42 And they al dyd eate, and were ſatiſfied.

43 And they tooke vp twelue baſkettes ful of the fragmentes, and of the fiſhes.

44 And they that dyd eate the loaues, were about fyue thouſande menne.

45 And ſtraightway he conſtrained his diſciples to goe into the ſhyp, and to goe ouer the ſea before vnto Bethſaida, whyle he ſhoulde ſende away the people. Mat.14.c

46 * And when he had ſent them awaye, he departed into a mountayne to praye. Mat.14.c Iohn.6.b

47 ☞ And when euen was comme, the ſhip was in the myddeſt of the ſea, and he alone on the lande.

48 And he ſawe them troubled in rowyng, (for the wynde was contrary vnto them:) and about the fourth watche of the night, he commeth vnto them, walking vpon the ſea, and woulde haue paſſed by them.

49 But when they ſawe hym walking vpon the ſea, they ſuppoſed it had benne a ſpirite, and cryed out.

50 (For they al ſawe hym, and were troubled:) And anone he talked with them, and ſayth vnto them, Be of good cheare, it is I, be not afrayde.

51 * And he went vp vnto them into the ſhyp, and the wynde ceaſſed, and they were ſoare amaſed in them ſelues beyonde meaſure, and marueyled. Mat.14.c

52 For they vnderſtood not [what was donne] of ẏ loaues, becauſe theyr hart was hardned.

53 And when they had paſſed ouer, they came into into the lande of Genezareth, and drewe vp into the hauen.

XUM

54 And when they were comme out of the ſhyp, ſtrayght way they knewe hym,

55 And ranne foorth throughout al the region rounde about, and beganne to carrie about in beddes, thoſe that were ſicke, thyther where they hearde that he was.

56 And whyther ſo euer he entred, into villages, or cities, or fieldes, they laid yͤ ſicke folkes in the ſtreetes, & prayed hym that they might touch, and it were but the hemme of his garment: and as many as touched it, were made whole.

The.vii.Chapter.

2 The Phariſees fynde faulte at the diſciples eatyng of meate with vnwaſhen handes.
8 The commaundement of God is tranſgreſſed by mans traditions. 22 Meate defileth not a man: but that whiche commeth from hym. 24 Of the woman of Syropheniſſa.
32 The healyng of the deafe and dumbe.

A 1 Mat.15.a AND the Phariſees come togeather vnto hym, and certayne of the Scribes, which came from Hieruſalem.

2 And when they ſawe ſome of his diſciples eate bread with defiled (that is to ſaye, with vnwaſhen handes) they founde fault.

3 For the Phariſees, and al the Jewes, except they waſhe theyr handes ofte, eate not, obſeruing the tradition of the elders.

4 And [when they comme] from the market, except they waſhe, they eate not. And manye other thynges there be, whiche they haue taken vpon them to obſerue, [as] the waſhyng of cuppes & pottes, braſen veſſels, & of tables.

5 Then aſked him the Phariſees & Scribes, Why walke not thy diſciples accordyng to the tradition of the elders, but eate bread with vnwaſhen handes?

6 He anſweared, and ſayde vnto them, Surely Eſaias hath prophecied wel of you hypocrites, as it is wrytten, Eſa.29.b Mat.15.a *This people honoureth me with theyr lippes, but theyr harte is farre from me.

B 7 Howebeit, in vayne doo they woorſhyppe me, teachyng doctrines, the commaundementes of menne.

8 For, the commaundement of God being layd aparte, ye obſerue the tradition of men, as the waſhyng of pottes and cuppes: and many other ſuche lyke thynges ye doo.

9 And he ſayde vnto them, Ful wel ye caſte aſyde the commaundement of God, that ye may keepe your owne tradition.

Exod.21.b Deut.5.b Ephe.6.a Exo.20.b Leui.20.b Pro.20.c 10 *For Moſes ſayde, Honour thy father and thy mother: and who ſo curſeth father or mother, let hym dye the death.

11 But ye ſay, If a man ſhal ſay to his father or his mother, Corban, (that is, by the gifte) that [is offered] of me, thou ſhalt be helped.

12 And ſo ye ſuffer him no more to doo ought for his father, or his mother, 13 Makyng the woorde of God of none effect through your tradition, whiche ye haue ordeyned: And many ſuch thynges doo ye.

14 And when he had called al the people vnto hym, he ſayde vnto them, Hearken vnto me euery one of you, and vnderſtande, C

15 There is nothing without a man that can Mat.15.b defile hym, when it entreth into hym: but the thynges whiche proceede out of a man, thoſe are they that defile the man.

16 If any man haue eares to heare, let hym heare.

17 And when he came into the houſe, awaye from the people, his diſciples aſked hym of the ſimilitude.

18 And he ſaith vnto them, Are ye alſo ſo without vnderſtandyng? Doo ye not perceiue that what ſo euer thyng from without, entreth into the man, it can not defile hym, 19 Becauſe it entreth not into his hart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purgyng al the meates?

20 And he ſayde, That which commeth out of the man, defileth the man.

21 For from within, euen out of the harte of D menne, proceede euyl thoughtes, adulteries, fornications, murthers,

22 Theftes, couetouſneſſe, wickedneſſe, deceite, wantonnes, a wicked eye, blaſphemie, pride, fooliſhneſſe:

23 Al theſe euyl thynges comme from within, and defile the man.

24 And from thence he roſe, and went into the Mat.15.b borders of Tyre and Sidon: and entred into an houſe, and woulde that no man ſhoulde haue knowen, but he coulde not be hid.

25 For a certayne woman whoſe young daughter had an vncleane ſpirite, when ſhe had hearde of hym, came and fel at his feete.

26 (The woman was a Greke, out of the nation of Syropheniſſa:) and ſhe beſought hym, that he woulde caſt out the deuyl from her daughter.

27 But Jeſus ſaide vnto her, Let the children firſt be fed: for it is not meete to take the childrens bread, and to caſt it vnto yͤ litle dogges.

28 She anſweared, and ſayd vnto hym, Yes Lorde, * for the litle dogges alſo eate vnder the table of the chyldrens crumbes. Mat,15.c, 29 And he ſaid vnto her, For this ſayeing, goe thy way, the deuil is gonne out of thy daughter.

30 And when ſhe was comme home to her houſe, ſhe founde that the deuyl was departed, and her daughter lyeing on the bedde.

Mat,15,c 31 ☞ * And when he was departed agayne from the coaſtes of Tyre & Sidon, he came vnto the ſea of Galilee, through the myddes of the coaſtes of Decapolis.

Mat,9,d 32 * And they bryng vnto hym one that was deafe, and had an impediment in his ſpeach: and they praye hym to put his hande vpon hym.

33 And when he had taken him aſyde from the people, he put his fyngers into his eares, and when he had ſpit, touched his tongue.

34 And when he had looked vp to heauen, ſighed, and ſayd vnto hym, Ephphatha, that is to ſaye, Be thou opened.

35 And ſtraightway, his eares were opened, and the ſtring of his tongue was looſed, and he ſpake playne.

36 And he cōmaunded them that they ſhould tel no man: but the more he commaunded them, ſo muche the more a great deale they publiſhed it. Mar,1,d

37 And were beyonde meaſure aſtonyed, ſayeing, He hath donne al thynges wel: he hath made both the deafe to heare, and the dumbe to ſpeake. ☜

A 1 IN thoſe dayes, * the company beyng very greate, & hauing nothing to eate, when Jeſus had called his diſciples vnto him, he ſaith vnto them, Mat,15,d

2 I haue compaſſion on the people, becauſe they haue nowe benne with me three dayes, and haue nothing to eate:

Eſa,9.a Tobi,13,b 3 And if I ſend them away faſtyng to theyr owne houſes, they ſhal faint by the way: * for diuers of them come from farre.

4 And his diſciples anſweared hym, From whence can a man ſatiſfie theſe menne with bread here in the wylderneſſe?

5 And he aſked them, Howe many loaues haue ye? They ſayde, Seuen.

6 And he commaunded the people to ſyt downe on the grounde: and he tooke the ſeuen loaues, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake, and gaue to his diſciples to ſet before them: and they dyd ſet them before the people.

B 7 And they had a fewe ſmalle fyſhes: and when he had bleſſed, he commaunded to ſet them alſo before them.

8 So they dyd eate, and were ſuffiſed: and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was leaft, ſeuen baſkettes ful.

9 And they that had eaten, were about foure thouſande: And he ſent them away.

10 And anone when he had entred into a ſhip with his diſciples, he came into the parties of Daimanutha.

13 And when he had leaft them, and entred into the ſhyp agayne, he daparted ouer the water.

14 And they had forgotten to take bread [with them,] neither had they in the ſhip with them more then one loafe. C

15 And he charged them, ſayeing, ☞ * Take heede, beware of the leuen of the Phariſees, and of the leuen of Herode. Mat,16,b Luke,12,a 16 And they reaſoned among them ſelues, ſayeing, We haue no bread.

17 And when Jeſus knew [it,] he ſayth vnto them, Why reaſon ye, becauſe ye haue no bread? Perceiue ye not yet, neyther vnderſtande? Haue ye your hart yet hardened?

18 Hauing eyes, ſee ye not? and hauing eares, heare ye not? Doo ye not remember?

19 * When I brake the fyue loaues among fyue thouſande [menne,] howe manye baſkets ful of broken meate tooke ye vp? They ſaye vnto him, Twelue. Mat,14,e 20 When I brake the ſeuen among foure thouſande, howe many baſkettes of the leauinges of the broken meate tooke ye vp? They ſayde, Seuen. Mat,15,d 21 And he ſayd vnto them, Howe happeneth it that ye doo not vnderſtande?

22 ☞ And he commeth to Bethſaida, & they bryng a blynde man vnto hym, and deſired hym to touche hym.

23 And when he had caught the blynd by the hande, he lead hym out of the towne: and when he had ſpit in his eyes, & put his hands vpon hym, he aſked hym if he ſawe ought.

24 And he looked vp, & ſaide, I ſee menne: for I perceiue them walke as [they were] trees.

25 After that he put his handes agayne vpon his eyes, and made hym ſee: and he was reſtored, and ſawe euery man clearely.

46 And they came to Hiericho:* and as he went out of the citie of Hiericho, with his diſciples, and a great number of people, blynde Bartimeus, the ſonne of Timeus, ſate by the hygh wayes ſide begging. Mat.20.d. Luke.18.g

47 And when he hearde that it was Jeſus of G
Nazareth, he beganne to crye and ſay, Jeſus thou ſonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

48 And many rebuked him, that he ſhoulde holde his peace: but he cryed the more a great deale, Thou ſonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

49 And Jeſus ſtoode ſtil, and commaunded hym to be called: and they calle the blinde, ſayeing vnto hym, Be of good comfort, riſe, he calleth thee.

50 And when he had throwen away his cloke, he roſe, and came to Jeſus.

51 And Jeſus anſweared, and ſayde vnto him, What wylt thou that I doo vnto thee? The blinde ſaid vnto hym, Maiſter, that I might ſee.

52 Jeſus ſayde vnto hym, Goe thy way, thy fayth hath ſaued thee. And immediatly he receiued his ſyght, and folowed Jeſus in the way.

The.xiiii.Chapter.

1 The hygh prieſtes conſpire agaynſt Chriſte, 3 A woman powreth precious oyntment on Chriſtes head, 10 Iudas for money betrayeth Chriſte, 12 the Paſſeouer is prepared and eaten, 22 the inſtitution of the Lordes Supper, 25 Chriſtes prayers and agonie in Gethſemani, 46 the takyng and examining of Chriſte before the hygh prieſt, 67 Peter denieth Chriſte, 72 and weepeth.

A 1 AFter two dayes was [the feaſt of] the Paſſeouer, and of vnleauened bread: and the hygh prieſtes and the Scribes ſought howe they myght take hym by crafte, and put hym to death.

Mat.26.a. Luke.22.a 2 *But they ſayde, Not in the feaſt day, leſt any buſineſſe aryſe among the people.

Mat.26.a. Iohn.11.f. 3 * And when he was at Bethanie in the houſe of Simon the leper, euen as he ſate at meate, there came a woman hauyng an alabaſter boxe of very precious oyntmēt [called] Narde piſtike: and when ſhe had broken the boxe, ſhe powred it on his head.

4 And there was ſomme that had indignation within them ſelues, and ſayde, Why was this waſte of the oyntment made?

5 For it myght haue benne ſolde for more then three hundred pence, and haue benne geuen to the poore. And they grudged agaynſt her.

6 And Ieſus ſayde, Let her alone, why trouble ye her? She hath donne a good woorke on me.

7 * For ye haue poore with you alwayes, and when ſo euer ye wyl, ye may doo them good: but me haue ye not alwayes. Deut.15.c

8 She hath donne that ſhe coulde: ſhe came aforehande to annoynt my body to the buryng. B

9 Verely I ſay vnto you, Whereſoeuer this Goſpel ſhalbe preached throughout yͤ whole worlde, this alſo that ſhe hath donne, ſhalbe rehearſed in remembrance of her.

10 And Iudas Iſcariot one of the twelue, went away vnto the hygh prieſtes, to betray him vnto them. Mat.26.b. Luke.22.a. Iohn.13.a.

11 When they hearde [that] they were glad, and promiſed that they woulde geue hym money. And he ſought howe he myght conueniently betray him. Mat.26.b. Luke.22.a.

12 And the firſt day of vnleauened bread, when they dyd kil the Paſſeouer, his diſciples ſaide vnto hym, Where wylt thou that we goe and prepare, that thou mayſt eate the Paſſeouer.

13 And he ſendeth foorth two of his diſciples, and ſaith vnto them, Goe ye into the citie, and there ſhal meete you a man bearyng a pitcher of water: folowe him.

14 And whyther ſoeuer he ſhal goe in, ſay ye to the good man of yͤ houſe, The maiſter ſayth, Where is the gheſt chamber, where I ſhal eate the Paſſeouer with my diſciples?

C 15 And he wyl ſhewe you a large vpper chamber, paued and prepared: (a) there make ready for vs.

(a) That is, the paſſeouer.

16 And his diſciples went foorth, and came into the citie, and founde as he had ſayde vnto them: and they made ready the Paſſeouer.

17 *And when it was nowe euen tyde, he commeth with the twelue.

John.13.c.

18 And as they ſate at boorde, and dyd eate, Jeſus ſayd, Verely I ſay vnto you, *one of you that eateth with me, ſhal betray me.

19 And they beganne to be ſory, and to ſay vnto hym one by one, Is it I? And another [ſayde,] Is it I?

20 He anſweared, and ſayde vnto them, It is D one of the twelue, euen he that dippeth with me in the platter ".

" Shal betraye me.

Mat.26.c. Luke.13.b 1.Cor.11.c

21 * The ſonne of man truely goeth as it is written of hym: but wo to that man by whom the ſonne of man is betrayed: Good were it for that man yf he had neuer benne borne.

22 And as they dyd eate, Jeſus when he had taken bread: and bleſſed, he brake [it] & gaue to them, and ſayde, Take, eate: this is my body.

23 And when he had taken the cuppe, and geuen thankes, he gaue it to them: and they al dranke of it.

24 And he ſayde vnto them, This is my blood of the newe teſtament, whiche is ſhedde for many.

25 Verely I ſay vnto you, I wyl drinke no more of the fruite of the vine, vntil that day that I drinke it newe in the kyngdome of God.

Mat.26.c.

26 *And when they had prayſed [God,] they went out into the mount of Oliues.

Zach.12.c. Mat.26.c. Luke.22.d John.13.d

27 *And Jeſus ſayth vnto them, Al ye ſhalbe offended becauſe of me this nyght: for it is written, I wyl ſmite the ſhepehearde, and the ſheepe ſhalbe ſcattered.

E 28 But after that I am ryſen, I wyl goe into Galilee before you.

29 Peter ſayde vnto hym, Although al menne ſhalbe offended, yet [wyl] not I.

30 And Jeſus ſaith vnto hym, Verely I ſaye vnto thee, that this day, euen in this nyght, before the Cocke crowe twyſe, thou ſhalt denye me three times.

31 But he ſpake more vehemently, If I ſhould dye with thee, I wyl not denye thee in any wyſe. Lykewyſe alſo ſayde they al.

Mat.26.d.

32 *And they came into a place whiche was named Gethſemani, and he ſayth to his diſciples, Sit ye here, whyle I ſhal pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and beganne to be ſoare amazed, and to be in an agony,

Mat.26.d. John.12.d

34 And ſayth vnto them, * My ſoule is exceedyng heauy, euen vnto the death: tarye ye here, and watche.

35 And when he had gonne forwarde a litle, he felle on the grounde: and prayed that yf it were poſſible, the houre myght paſſe from hym.

Mat.26.d. Luke.22.d

36 And he ſayde, * Abba, father, al thinges are poſſible vnto thee: take away this cup from me. Neuertheleſſe, not that I wyl, but that thou [wylt be donne.]

37 And he commeth & findeth them ſleeping, and ſayth vnto Peter, Simon, ſleepeſt thou? Couldeſt not thou watche one houre? F

38 Watche ye and pray, leſt ye enter into temptation: The ſpirite truely is ready, but the fleaſhe is weake.

Mat.26.d.

39 *And agayne he went aſide, and prayed, and ſpake the ſame woordes.

40 And when he returned, he founde them a ſleepe agayne (for their eyes were heauy:) neither wyſt they what to anſweare hym.

41 And he commeth the thirde time, and ſaith vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, and take your eaſe: it is yenough, the houre is comme, beholde the ſonne of man is betrayed into the handes of ſinners.

42 Ryſe vp, let vs goe: Loe, he that betrayeth me is at hande.

Mat.26.e. Luke.22.e

43 *And immediatly whyle he yet ſpake, commeth Judas, beyng one of the twelue, and with hym a great number of people with ſwoordes and ſtaues, from the hygh prieſtes, and Scribes, and elders.

44 And he that betrayed him, had geuen them a general token, ſayeing, Whoſoeuer I ſhal kiſſe, that ſame is he: take him, and leade hym away warely.

45 And as ſoone as he was comme, he goeth ſtraygtht way to hym, and ſayth vnto hym, Maiſter, maiſter: and kiſſed him.

46 And they layde theyr handes on hym, and tooke him.

47 And one of them that ſtoode by, when he had drawen out his ſwoord, ſmote a ſeruant of the hygh prieſt, and " cut of his eare.

" Or, tooke away.

Mat.26.e. Luke.22.f.

48 And Jeſus anſweared, & ſayde vnto them, *Ye be comme out as vnto a theefe with ſwoordes and with ſtaues, for to take me.

49 I was dayly with you in the temple teaching, and ye tooke me not: but [theſe thinges

Mat.26.f.* Actes.6.d 55 And the high prieſtes and al the counſel ſought for witneſſe againſt Jeſus to put him to death, and founde none:

56 For many bare falſe witneſſe againſt him, but their witneſſe agreed not togeather.

57 And there aroſe certayne, and brought falſe witneſſe agaynſt him, ſayeing,

Mat.26.f. Iohn.2.d. 58 We hearde him ſay, I wyl deſtroy this temple that is made with handes, and within three dayes I wyl buylde another made without handes.

Mat.26.f. 59 But yet their witnes agreed not ſo together.

60 And the high prieſt ſtoode vp in the middes, and aſked Jeſus, ſayeing, Anſweareſt thou nothing? Howe [is it that] theſe beare witneſſe againſt thee?

Mat.26.f. 61 *But he helde his peace, and anſweared nothing. Againe, the high prieſt aſked him, and ſaide vnto him, Art thou Chriſte the ſonne of the bleſſed?

Mat.26.f. Luke.21.g Iohn.6.g. 62 And Jeſus ſaide, I am: *And ye ſhal ſee the ſonne of man ſitting on the right hande of the power [of God,] and comming in the cloudes of heauen.

63 Then yͤ high prieſt hauing rent his clothes, ſaith, What neede we any further witneſſes?

64 Ye haue hearde the blaſphemie: What thinke ye? And they al condempned hym to be woorthy of death.

65 And ſomme beganne to ſpit at him, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fiſtes, and to ſay vnto him, Prophecie: And the ſeruantes dyd beate him with roddes.

66 And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there commeth one of the wenches of the hygh prieſt. Mat.26.g. Luke.22.f. Iohn.18.c.

67 And when ſhe ſawe Peter warming hym ſelfe, after ſhe had looked vpon him, ſhe ſaith, And thou alſo waſt with Jeſus of Nazareth.

68 But he denyed, ſayeing, I knowe him not, neither wote I what thou ſayeſt. And he went out into the porche, & the Cocke crewe.

69 And a damſel when ſhe ſawe him, began agayne to ſay to them that ſtoode by, This is [one] of them.

70 And he denied it agayne. And anone after, they that ſtoode by ſayde agayne to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, and thy ſpeache agreeth thereto.

71 But he beganne to curſe & to ſweare, [ſayeing,] I knowe not this man of whom ye ſpeake.

72 *And the ſeconde time the Cocke crewe, and Peter remembred the woorde that Jeſus ſayde vnto him, Before the Cocke crowe twyſe, thou ſhalt deny me three tymes: And he beganne to weepe. Mat.26.g. Luke.22.g

The.v.Chapter.

1 Chriſte teacheth out of a ſhyp, 6 the great draught of fiſhe, 10 certayne diſciples are called, 12 he clenſeth the leper, 16 he prayeth in the wyldernеſſe, 18 he healeth the man of the paulſie, 27 calleth Matthewe the Publicane, 29 he eateth with ſinners, 30 the Phariſees murmure, 34 he excuſeth his diſciples, 35 ſhewing their afflictions after his aſſention, 36 newe and olde agree not.

A 1 It came to paſſe, that when yͤ people preaſſed vpō him, to heare the woorde of God, he was ſtandyng by yͤ lake of Genezareth,

Mar.iij.c. 2 *And he ſawe two ſhippes ſtande by the lakes ſyde: but the fiſhermen were gonne out of them, and were waſhyng their nettes.

3 And when he was entred into one of the ſhips which parteyned to Simon, he prayed him that he would thruſt out a litle from the lande: and he ſate downe and taught the people out of the ſhip.

4 When he had leaft ſpeakyng, he ſayd vnto Simon, Lanche out into the deepe, and let ſlyp your nettes to catche.

5 And Simon anſwearing, ſayde vnto him, Maiſter, we haue laboured al nyght, & haue taken nothyng: neuertheleſſe, at thy commaundement I wyl looſe foorth the net.

6 And when they had this donne, they incloſed a great multitude of fiſhes, but their nette brake:

B 7 And they beckened vnto their parteners, whiche were in the other ſhyppe, that they ſhoulde comme, and helpe them. And they came, and fylled both the ſhyppes that they ſuncke [agayne.]

8 When Simon Peter ſaw [this] he fel downe at Jeſus knees, ſayeing, Goe out from me, for I am a ſinful man, O Lorde.

9 For he was vtterly aſtonyed, and al that were with hym, at the takyng of the fiſhes which they had caught togeather.

10 And ſo was alſo James and John the ſonnes of Zebedee, whiche were parteners with Simon. And Jeſus ſaid vnto Simon, Feare not, from hencefoorth thou ſhalt (a) catche menne.

11 And when they had brought vp their boates to the ſhore, (b) they forſooke al, and folowed hym. ☞

12 And it came to paſſe, that when he was in a certayne citie: Beholde, [there was] a man ful of leproſie: and when he had ſpyed Jeſus, he fel flat on his face, and beſought hym, ſayeing, Lorde, if thou wylt, thou canſt make me cleane.

13 And whē he had ſtretched foorth his hand, he touched hym, ſayeing, I wyl: be thou cleane. And immediatly the leproſie departed from hym.

14 And he charged hym to tel no man: but, Goe, [ſayth he] *and ſhewe thee ſelfe to the prieſt, and offer for thy clenſyng, accordyng as Moſes commaunded, for a witneſſe vnto them. C Leui.14.a.

15 But ſo muche the more went there a fame abroade of hym, and muche people came togeather to heare, and to be healed of him from their infirmities.

16 And he keapt hym ſelfe a part in the wyldernеſſe, and prayed.

17 ☞And it came to paſſe on a certayne day as he was teachyng, that there were Phariſees and doctours of the lawe ſyttyng by, whiche were comme out of al the townes of Galilee and Jurie, and Hieruſalem: and the power of the Lorde was preſent, to heale them.

18 *And beholde, menne brought in a bedde a man whiche was taken with a paulſie: and they ſought meanes to bryng him in, and to lay him before hym. Matth.9.a Mark.ij.a

19 And when they coulde not fynde on what ſyde they might bryng him in, becauſe of the preaſe, they went vpon the top of the houſe, and let him downe through the tylyng with his coutch, euen into the middes before Jeſus.

20 When he ſawe their fayth, he ſayde vnto hym, Man, thy ſinnes are forgeuen thee.

21 And the Scribes and the Phariſees began to " thynke, ſayeing, What felowe is this, whiche ſpeaketh blaſphemies? *Who can forgeue ſinnes, but God onely? D " or, reaſon. Mar.ij.c Eſai.43.d and.44.d.

22 But whē Jeſus perceiued their thoughtes, he anſwering, ſayd vnto them, What thinke ye in your hartes?

23 Whether is eaſier to ſay, Thy ſinnes be forgeuen thee: or to ſay, Ryſe vp, and walke?

24 *But that ye may knowe that the ſonne of man hath power to forgeue ſinnes on earth (he ſayde vnto the ſicke of the paulſie) I ſay vnto thee, Aryſe, and when thou haſt taken vp thy coutche, goe vnto thy houſe. Matth.9.a Mark.ij.c. Actes.2.a. ix.f.

25 And immediatly he roſe vp before them, & when he had taken vp his coutche, whereon he lay, he departed to his owne houſe, glorifieing God.

(c) Thoſe whiche accompt them ſelues, or woulde ſeeme in the eyes of the worlde to be ryghteous.

32 I came not to cal the (c) ryghteous: but ſinners to repentance.

33 And they ſayde vnto hym, *Why doo the diſciples of John faſt often, & make prayers, and lykewyſe the diſciples of the Phariſees: but thyne eate and drynke?

34 He ſayde vnto them, *Can ye make the chyldren of the wedding chamber faſt, while the brydegrome is with them? Mat.9.b Mar.ij.c

35 But the dayes wyl comme: and when the brydegrome ſhalbe taken away from them, then ſhal they faſt in thoſe dayes. F

36 He ſpake alſo vnto them a ſimilitude. No man putteth a peece of a newe garment, into an olde veſture: for then the newe renteth [the olde,] and the peece that was [taken] out of the newe, agreeth not with the olde.

37 And no man powreth new wine into olde veſſels: For if he doo, the newe wyne wyl burſt the veſſels, and runne out it ſelf, and the veſſels ſhal periſhe.

38 But newe wyne muſt be put into newe veſſels, and both are preſerued.

39 No man alſo hauyng drunke olde wyne, wyl ſtrayghtway haue newe: for he ſayth, The olde is better.

27 And ye beare witneſſe alſo, becauſe ye haue benne with me from the beginning.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 Chriſte comforteth the diſciples, putting them in remembrance of affliction and trouble. 7 Of the holy ghoſt, and of his office. 17 Of Chriſtes aſcention. 23 To aſke in the name of Chriſte. 33 Peace in Chriſte, afflictions in the worlde.

A

1 These thinges haue I ſaid vnto you, becauſe ye ſhoulde not be offended.

Mat.10.b. Mar.13.d. Luke.21.c

2 They ſhal put you out of theyr ſynagogue: yea the tyme commeth, that who ſo euer killeth you, wyl thinke that he dooth God ſeruice.

Actes.9.a Iohn.15.d

3 *And ſuche thinges wyl they doo vnto you: becauſe they haue not knowen the father, neither yet me.

4 But theſe thinges haue I tolde you, that when the time ſhal comme, ye may remember then that I tolde you: Theſe thinges ſaid I not vnto you at the beginning, becauſe I was preſent with you.

Iohn.14.d and.15.d. Actes.2.a.

5 ☞But nowe I goe my way to hym that ſent me, and none of you aſketh me, Whyther goeſt thou?

6 But becauſe I haue ſayde ſuche thinges vnto you, ſorowe hath filled your hartes.

7 Neuertheleſſe I tel you the trueth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: For yf I goe not away, that comforter wil not come vnto you: but yf I depart, *I wyl ſend hym vnto you.

″ Or, conuince.

8 And when he is comme, he wyl ″ rebuke the worlde of ſinne, and of righteouſneſſe, and of iudgement.

9 Of ſinne, becauſe they beleeue not on me.

10 Of righteouſneſſe, becauſe (a) I goe to my father, and ye ſee me no more:

(a) That when the worlde ſhal ſee after his aſcenſion the power of his ſpirite, ſhewed vpon the apoſtles by hym, they ſhal be compelled in conſcience to confeſſe that he was iuſt, and that he was not condempned of God for a blaſphemer, (as they had iudged) but approued and receiued. Actes.2.17.

11 Of iudgement, becauſe the prince of this worlde is iudged [alredy.]

12 I haue yet many thinges to ſay vnto you, but ye can not beare them away nowe.

13 Howebeit, when he is comme [whiche is] the ſpirite of trueth, he wyl leade you into al trueth. He ſhal not ſpeake of him ſelfe: but what ſo euer he ſhal heare, that ſhal he ſpeake: and he wyl ſhewe you thinges to comme.

14 He ſhal glorifie me, for he ſhal receiue of myne, and ſhal ſhewe vnto you.

C

Mat.11.d. &.28.d. Luke.10.d Iohn.3.d. Iohn.7.d. 15 *Al thinges that the father hath, are myne: therefore ſaide I [vnto you] that he taketh of myne, and ſhal ſhewe vnto you.

16 *After a whyle, and ye ſhal not ſee me: and agayne after a whyle, and ye ſhal ſee me: for I goe to the father.

17 Then ſayde [ſomme] of his diſciples betweene them ſelues, What is this that he ſayth vnto vs, After a whyle, and ye ſhal not ſee me, and againe, After a whyle, and ye ſhal ſee me: and, That I goe to the father?

18 They ſayde therefore, What is this that he ſayth, After a whyle? We can not tel what he ſaith.

19 Ieſus perceiued that they woulde aſke him, and ſaid vnto them, Doo ye enquire among your ſelues of that I ſaid, After a whyle, and ye ſhal not ſee me: and againe, after a whyle, and ye ſhal ſee me?

20 Verely, verely I ſay vnto you, that ye ſhal weepe and lament, the worlde ſhal reioyce: ye ſhal ſorowe, but your ſorowe ſhalbe turned to ioy. Iohn.20.c

D 21 A woman, when ſhe trauaileth, hath ſorowe, becauſe her houre is comme: but as ſoone as ſhe is deliuered of the childe, ſhe remembreth no more the anguiſhe, for ioy that a man is borne into the worlde.

22 And ye nowe therefore haue ſorowe: but I wyl ſee you (b) agayne, and your hartes ſhal reioyce, and your ioy no man taketh from you. ☜

23 And in that day ſhal ye aſke me no queſtion. Verely, verely I ſay vnto you, What ſo euer ye ſhal aſke the father in my name, he wyl geue it you.

24 Hitherto haue ye asked (c) nothyng in my name: aſke, and ye ſhal receiue, that your ioy may be ful.

25 Theſe thinges haue I ſpoken vnto you by prouerbes: the time commeth when I ſhal no more ſpeake vnto you by prouerbes, but I ſhal ſhewe you plainely of my father.

26 At that day ſhal ye aſke in my name: and I ſay not vnto you that I wyl pray vnto my father for you:

27 For the father him ſelfe loueth you, becauſe ye haue loued me, and haue beleeued that I came out from God.

28 I went out from the father, and came into the worlde: agayne, I leaue the worlde, and *goe to the father. Iohn.20.d

29 His diſciples ſay vnto hym, Loe, nowe talkeſt thou plainely, and ſpeakeſt no prouerbe.

30 Nowe are we ſure* that thou knoweſt al things, and needeſt not that any man ſhould aſke thee [any queſtion:] therefore beleeue we that thou cameſt from God. Iohn.21.e.

31 Ieſus anſweared them, Doo ye nowe beleeue?

32 *Beholde, the houre draweth nygh, and is already comme, that ye ſhalbe ſcattered euery man to his owne, and ſhal leaue me alone: and yet am I not alone, for the father is with me. Zach.13.c. Mat.16.c. Mar.14.c. Iohn.14.b

33 Theſe woordes haue I ſpoken vnto you, that in me ye myght haue peace: for in the worlde ye haue tribulation: but be of good cheare, I haue ouercomme the worlde.

(b) By the power of the holy ſpirite, whiche I will ſende to you, whereby your hartes ſhalbe comforted.

(c) They were not yet induced to the certayne knowledge, that he was the only mediatour: & therefore that whiche they asked before, was nothing, in reſpect of that whiche they ſhoulde aſke & obtaine by fayth, when their knowledge was grounded, and that he was aſcended.

The.xvii.Chapter.

1 Chriſte prayeth to his father, that their glory myght be made manifeſt, 9 he prayeth for his apoſtles. 12 Iudas loſt. 14 The apoſtles hated of the worlde. 20 Chriſte prayeth for al thoſe that receiue the trueth.

A 1 These woords ſpake Ieſus, and lyft vp his eyes to heauen, and ſayd, Father, *the houre is comme, glorifie thy ſonne, that thy ſonne alſo may glorifie thee. Iohn.13.d.

2 As thou haſt geuen hym power ouer al fleaſhe, that he ſhoulde geue eternal lyfe to as many as thou haſt geuen hym.

1.Iohn.1.a 3 This is *the lyfe eternal, that they myght knowe thee the only true GOD, and Ieſus Chriſte whom thou haſt ſent.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: *I haue finiſhed the woorke whiche thou gaueſt me to doo. Iohn.19.f.

5 And nowe glorifie thou me, O father, with thyne owne ſelfe, with the glory whiche I had with thee yer the worlde was.

6 I haue declared thy name vnto the menne (a) whiche thou gaueſt me out of the worlde: thyne they were, and thou gaueſt them me, and they haue kept thy woorde.

7 Nowe they haue knowen that al thinges B

(a) That is, to the apoſtles.

what ſo euer thou haſt geuen me, are of thee:

8 For I haue geuen vnto them the woordes whiche thou gaueſt me, and they haue receiued them, and haue knowen ſurely that I came out from thee, and they haue beleeued that thou dyddeſt ſende me.

(b) That is, the reprobate, that ſeeke the worlde, and not Chriſte.

9 I pray for them, I pray not for the (b) world: but for them whiche thou haſt geuen me, for they are thyne.

10 And al mine, are thyne, and thyne, are mine: and I am glorified in them.

11 And nowe am I not in the worlde, and they are in the worlde, and I comme to thee. Holy father, keepe through thine owne name them, whiche thou haſt geuen me, that they may alſo be (c) one, as we are.

(c) That they may be ioyned togeather in loue, and vnitie of loue, faythe, and ſpirite.

Iohn.18.b

(d) That is, Iudas Iſcariot.

Pſal.109.a

12 Whyle I was with them in the worlde, I kept them in thy name: thoſe that thou gaueſt me, haue I kept, & none of them is loſt, but that (d) loſt childe: *that yͤ ſcripture might be fulfilled.

13 Nowe comme I to thee, and theſe wordes ſpeake I in the world, that they myght haue my ioy fulfilled in them ſelues.

C

Iohn.15.c.

Sapi.2.d.

14 I haue geuen them thy woorde, and* the worlde hath hated them, becauſe they are not of the worlde, euen as I alſo am not of the worlde.

Mat.6.b.

Luke.11.a

15 I pray not that thou ſhouldeſt take them out of the worlde, but * that thou ſhouldeſt keepe them from the euil.

16 They are not of the worlde, as I alſo am not of the worlde.

17 Sanctifie them through thy trueth: thy woorde is the trueth.

18 As thou dyddeſt ſende me into the worlde, euen ſo haue I alſo ſent them into the world.

19 And for theyr ſakes ſanctifie I mee ſelfe, that they alſo myght be ſanctified through the trueth.

20 [Neuertheleſſe,] I pray not for them alone: but for them alſo whiche ſhal beleeue on me through their preaching:

Galat.3.d.

21 That they al may be* one, as thou father art in me, and I in thee, and that they alſo may be one in vs: that the world may beleeue that thou haſt ſent me.

D

22 And the glory whiche thou gaueſt me, I haue geuen them: that they alſo may be one, as we alſo are one.

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the worlde may knowe that thou haſt ſent me, and haſt loued them, as thou haſt loued me.

Iohn.12.d

(e) That is, after they haue fulfilled their courſe in this lyfe, they may enioy eternal lyfe.

24 Father, I wyl that they whiche thou haſt geuen me, *be (e) with me where I am: that they may ſee my glory whiche thou haſt geuen me, for thou louedſt me before the fundation of the worlde.

Mat.11.d.

Luke.10.d

25 * O ryghteous father, the worlde alſo hath not knowen thee: but I haue knowen thee, and theſe haue knowen that thou haſt ſent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy name, and wyl declare it: that the loue wherewith thou haſt loued me, may be in them, and I in them.

The.xviii.Chapter.

3 Chriſte is betrayed by Iudas. 6 The ſouldiers falle backwarde. 10 Peter ſmyteth of Malchus eare. 13 Chriſte brought before Annas and Caiaphas. 15 Peter and Iohn folowed Ieſus to Caiaphas houſe. 22 Chriſte ſtricken by a ſeruant, 23 what he anſweared. 25 Peter denyed hym. 28 He is ledde before Pilate, 36 and telleth hym what his kyngdome is. 40 The Iewes aſke Barabbas to be let looſe.

A

Mat.26.d.

Mar.13.d.

Luke.22.d

1 When Ieſus hadde ſpoken theſe woordes, * he went foorth with his diſciples ouer the brooke Cedron, where was a gardine, into the whiche he entred and his diſciples.

2 Iudas alſo whiche betrayed hym knewe the place: for Ieſus oft times reſorted thyther with his diſciples.

3 Iudas then after he had receiued a band of menne, and officers of the hygh prieſtes and phariſees, commeth thyther with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

4 And Ieſus knowyng al thynges that ſhould comme on him, went foorth, and ſaid vnto them, whom ſeeke ye?

5 They anſweared hym, Ieſus of Nazareth. Ieſus ſayth vnto them, I am [he.] Iudas alſo which betrayed him, ſtoode with them.

6 As ſoone then as he had ſayde vnto them, I am he: they went backwarde, and fel to the grounde.

7 Then aſked he them againe, whom ſeeke ye? They ſayde, Ieſus of Nazareth.

(a) The apoſtles and diſciples that are with me.

8 Ieſus anſweared, I haue tolde you that I am [he:] If ye ſeeke me therfore, let (a) theſe goe their way.

Iohn.17.b

9 That the ſayeing myght be fulfilled which he ſpake, * Of them which thou gaueſt me, haue I not loſt one.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a ſwoorde, drue it, and ſmote the hygh prieſtes ſeruant, & cut of his ryght eare: The ſeruantes name was Malchus.

Mat.26.c. Gen.9.a. 11 Therefore ſayd Jeſus vnto Peter, *Put vp thy ſwoorde into the ſheath: Shal J not drinke of the cuppe whiche my father hath geuen me?

12 Then the company, and the captayne, and officers of the Jewes tooke Jeſus, & bounde him:

13 And led hym away to Annas firſt (for he was father in lawe vnto Caiaphas,) which was the high prieſt that ſame yeere. [And Annas ſent Chriſte bound vnto Caiaphas the high prieſt.]

C 14 *Caiaphas was he whiche gaue counſayle to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man ſhoulde dye for the people. John.11.f.

Mat.26.f. 15 *And Simon Peter folowed Jeſus, and ſo dyd another (b) diſciple: That diſciple was knowen vnto the hygh prieſt, and went in with Jeſus into ẏ pallace of the hygh prieſt.

(b) That is, John.

16 But Peter ſtoode at the doore without. Then went out that other diſciple, whiche was knowen vnto the hygh prieſte, & ſpake vnto the damſel that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then ſayth the damſel that kept the doore vnto Peter, Art not thou alſo one of this mans diſciples? He ſayth, J am not.

18 The ſeruantes and officers ſtoode there, whiche had made a fire of coales, (for it was colde) and they warmed them ſelues: Peter alſo was ſtandyng among them, warming him.

Mar.14.f. Luke.22.g 19 * The hygh prieſt then aſked Jeſus of his diſciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jeſus anſweared hym, J ſpake openly to the worlde, J euer taught in the ſynagogue

D and in the temple, whyther al the Jewes reſort, and in ſecrete haue J ſayde nothing:

21 Why aſkeſt thou me? Aſke them whiche hearde me what J haue ſayd vnto them: beholde they can tel what J ſayde.

Actes.23.d 22 When he had thus ſpoken, one of the officers whiche ſtoode by, ſmote Jeſus [with a rodde] ſayeing, *Anſweareſt thou the hygh prieſt ſo?

23 Jeſus anſweared hym, Jf J haue euyl ſpoken, beare witneſſe of the euyl: but yf J haue wel ſpoken, why ſmyteſt thou me?

24 Nowe Annas had ſent hym bounde vnto Caiaphas the hygh prieſt.

25 Simon Peter was ſtandyng, and warming hym ſelfe: Then ſayde they vnto him, Art not thou alſo one of his diſciples? He denyed it, and ſayde, J am not.

26 One of the ſeruantes of the hygh prieſtes (his coſin, whoſe eare Peter ſmote of) ſayth vnto hym, Dyd not J ſee thee in the gardine with hym?

John.12.d. 27 *Peter therefore denyed agayne, and immediatly the cocke crewe.

Mat.27.a. Mark.15.a Luke.23.a 28 *Then led they Jeſus from Caiaphas into the hal of iudgement: Jt was in the mornyng, and they them ſelues went not into the iudgement hal, leſt they ſhould be defiled: but that they myght eate the Paſſeouer.

E

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and ſayd, What accuſation bryng you agaynſt this man?

30 They anſweared, and ſayde vnto hym, Jf he were not an euyl dooer, we woulde not haue deliuered hym vnto thee.

31 Then ſayde Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne lawe. The Jewes therefore ſayde vnto him, Jt is not lawful (c) for vs to kil any man.

(c) Becauſe the Romanes had taken that aucthoritie from them.

Mat.20.a. 32 That the woordes of Jeſus myght be fulfilled, which he ſpake, ſignifiyng what death he ſhoulde dye.

Mat.27.b Mark.15.a Luke.23.b 33 *Then Pilate entred into the iudgement hal agayne, and called Jeſus, & ſayde vnto hym, Art thou the kyng of the Jewes?

34 Jeſus anſweared him, Sayeſt thou this thing of thee ſelf, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate anſweared, Am J a Jewe? Thyne owne nation and hygh prieſtes haue deliuered thee vnto me: What haſt thou donne?

John.6.b. 36 Jeſus anſweared, My kyngdome is not of this worlde: yf my kyngdome were of this worlde, then woulde my ſeruantes ſurely fight, that J ſhoulde not be deliuered to the Jewes: but nowe *is my kyngdome not from hence.

F

37 Pilate therefore ſayde vnto hym, Art thou a kyng then? Jeſus anſweared, Thou ſayeſt that J am a king: For this cauſe am J borne, and for this cauſe came J into the worlde, that J should beare witneſſe vnto the trueth, and al that are of the trueth, heare my voyce.

Mat.27.c. Mark.15.a Luke.23.c 38 Pilate ſayth vnto hym, What is trueth? And when he had ſayde this, he went out agaiue vnto the Jewes, and ſaith vnto them, *J finde in him no fault at al.

39 Ye haue a cuſtome that J ſhoulde deliuer you one looſe at the Paſſeouer: Wyl ye that J looſe vnto you the kyng of the Jewes?

Actes.3.c. 40 Then cryed they al agayne, ſayeing, *Not him, but Barabbas. This Barabbas was a robber.

The.xix.Chapter.

1 Chriſte is whipped, beaten, and crowned. 4 Pilate woulde haue deliuered him, 6 but the Jewes aſke him to be crucified. 11 Al power of God. 16 Pilate deliuered Chriſte to be crucified. 19 The title ſet vpon the croſſe. 23 Chriſtes garmentes diuided. 27 He commendeth his mother to John. 30 After Chriſte taſted the vineger, he dyeth. 32 The legges of the theeues broken. 34 Chriſtes ſide pearſed with a ſpeare, 38 Joſeph of Arimathea beggeth his body, 40 and he and Nicodemus burieth it.

A 1 Then Pilate tooke Jeſus therefore, & ſcourged him.

Mat.27.c. Mark.15.b 2 *And the ſouldiers when they hadde wounde a crowne of thornes, they did put it on his head, and they dyd caſt about him a purple garment,

3 And ſayde, Hayle kyng of the Jewes. And ſtroke hym with roddes.

4 Pilate went foorth agayne, and ſayd vnto them, Beholde, I bryng hym foorth to you, that ye may knowe that I finde no fault in hym.

5 Then came Jeſus foorth, wearing the crowne of thorne, & the robe of purple: and [Pilate] ſayth vnto them, Beholde the man.

Mat.27.c. Mark.15.a Luke.23.d 6 *When the hygh prieſtes therefore and officers ſawe hym, they cryed, ſayeing, Crucifie hym, crucifie hym. Pilate ſayth vnto them, Take ye hym, and crucifie hym: for I finde no fault in hym.

7 The Jewes anſweared hym, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to dye: becauſe *he made hym ſelfe the ſonne of God. Leui.23.c. Iohn.5.b.

B 8 When Pilate hearde that ſayeing, he was the more afrayde,

9 And went agayne into the iudgement hal, and ſayth vnto Jeſus, Whence art thou? But Jeſus gaue hym none anſweare.

10 Then ſayth Pilate vnto hym, Speakeſt thou not vnto me? Knoweſt thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, & haue power to looſe thee?

11 Jeſus anſweared, Thou couldeſt haue no power at al againſt me, except*it were geuen thee from aboue: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the more ſinne. Sapi.6.a. Iohn.3.d. Rom.13.a.

Mat.27.d. Mark.15.c. Luke.23.c 12 * And from thencefoorth ſought Pilate [meanes] to looſe hym: but the Jewes cryed, ſayeing, If thou let hym goe, thou art not Ceaſars freende: For * who ſo euer maketh hym ſelfe a kyng, ſpeaketh agaynſt Ceaſar. Acts.17.b

13 When Pilate hearde that ſayeing, he brought Jeſus foorth, and he ſate downe in the iudgement ſeate, in a place that is called the pauement, but in the Hebrue tongue, Gabbatha.

C 14 It was the preparing of the Paſſeouer, and about the ſixth houre: and he ſayth vnto the Jewes, Beholde your kyng.

15 They cryed, Away with him, a way with him, crucifie hym. Pilate ſayth vnto them, Shal I crucifie your king? The high prieſts anſweared, We haue no kyng but Caeſar.

16 *Then deliuered he hym therefore vnto them to be crucified: and they tooke Jeſus, and ledde him away. Mat.27.d. Mark.15.c Luke.23.c.

17 And [he] bearing his croſſe, *went forth into a place, whiche is called the place of a ſkul, but in the hebrue Golgotha: Heb.13.c.

18 Where they crucified hym, and two other with him, on either ſide one, and Jeſus in the middes.

19 And *Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the croſſe. The writing was, Ieſus of Nazareth, the kyng of the Iewes. Mat.27.d. Mark.15.c Luke.23.c

20 This title read many of the Jewes: for the place where Jeſus was crucified, was nygh to the citie: And it was written in Hebrue, and Greke, and Latine. D

21 Then ſayd the hygh prieſtes of the Jewes to Pilate, Write not the kyng of the Jewes: but that he ſaide, I am king of the Jewes.

22 Pilate anſweared, What I haue written, that haue I written.

23 Then the ſouldiers when they had crucified Jeſus, tooke his garmẽtes, (& made foure partes, to euery ſouldier a part) and alſo his coate: the coate was without ſeame, wouen from the toppe throughout. Mat.27.d. Mark.15.c Luke.23.c.

24 They ſayde therefore among them ſelues, Let vs not diuide it, but caſt lots for it whoſe it ſhalbe. That the ſcripture myght be fulfilled, ſayeing, * They parted my rayment among them, and for my coate dyd they caſt lottes. And the ſouldiers dyd ſuche thynges in deede. Pſal.22.a.

25 There ſtoode by the croſſe of Jeſus his mother, and his mothers ſiſter, Marie [the wife] of Cleophas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 When Jeſus therefore ſawe his mother, and the diſciple ſtandyng by, whom he (a) loued, he ſayth vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy ſonne. John.13.a. (a) That is, John.

27 Then ſayth he to the diſciple, Behold thy mother. And from that houre the diſciple tooke her vnto his owne [houſe.]

28 After theſe thynges, Jeſus knowyng that al thynges were nowe perfourmed, * that the ſcripture myght be fulfilled, he ſayth, I thyrſte. Pſal.69.c.

29 So there ſtoode a veſſel by ful of vineger: *Therefore when they had filled a ſponge with vineger, and put it vpon hyſope, they offered it to his mouth.

Math.27.f Mark.15.d

30 When Jeſus therefore had receyued the vineger, he ſayde, *It is (b) finiſhed, and when he had bowed his head, he gaue vp yͤ ghoſt.

Iohn.17.a

(b) The myſterie of mans redemption, & ſaluation, is perfected by the only ſacrifice of Chriſt, the promyſe to the fathers fulfilled, the ceremonies of the lawe ended.

31 The Jewes therefore, becauſe it was the preparing [of the Sabboth,] that the bodyes ſhoulde not remaine vpon the croſſe on the Sabboth day, (for that Sabboth day, was an high day) beſought Pilate that their legges myght be broken, & that they myght be taken downe.

32 Then came the ſouldiers, and (c) brake the legges of the firſte, and of the other whiche was crucified with him.

(c) Becauſe they were not yet dead, for that was their cuſtome.

33 But when they came to Jeſus, and ſawe that he was dead alredy, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the ſouldiers with a ſpeare, thruſt hym into the ſyde, and foorthwith came there out blood and water.

F 35 And he that ſaw it bare recorde, and his recorde is true, and he knoweth that he ſayeth true, that ye might beleeue alſo.

36 For theſe things were donne that the ſcripture ſhould be fulfilled, *A bone of him ſhal not be broken.

Exo.12.g Num.9.b.

37 And againe another ſcripture ſayth, *They ſhal looke on him whom they pearſed.

Zach.12.c

38 *After this, Joſeph of Arimathea, (beyng a diſciple of Jeſus, but ſecretely for feare of the Jewes) beſought Pilate that he might take downe the body of Jeſus, and Pilate gaue him licenſe: He came therefore, and tooke the body of Jeſus.

Mat.27.g Mark.15.d Luke.23.g

39 And there came alſo Nicodemus (whiche at the beginning came to Jeſus by nyght) and brought of myrrhe and aloes mingled togeather, about an hundred pounde [waight.]

40 Then tooke they the body of Jeſus, and wound it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the manner of the Jewes is to burie.

41 And in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new ſepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet layd.

42 There layde they Jeſus therefore, becauſe of the preparing [of the Sabboth] of the Jewes, for the ſepulchre was nygh at hande.

The.xx.Chapter.

1 Marie commeth to the ſepulchre, and after tolde the diſciples that he was taken away.
3 Peter and John runne to ſee. 9 The apoſtles were ignorant of the reſurrection. 12 Marie weepeth at the ſepulchre, and ſawe a viſion of Angels. 14 Jeſus ſpake to Marie, 18 ſhe ſheweth the diſciples. 19 Jeſus appeared to the Apoſtles. 23 He gaue them the holy ghoſt, and ſent them to preache. 25 Thomas beleeued not that Chriſt was ryſen. 26 Chriſt appeared agayne. 28 Thomas who confeſſed Chriſt to be God. 31 The ſcriptures written, are ſufficient to ſaluation.

A 1 The firſt day of the (a) Sabbothes, commeth Marie Magdalene earely, when it was yet darke, vnto the ſepulchre, & ſeeth the ſtone taken awaye from the graue.

(a) That is, of the weeke.
Mar.27.a. Luke.24.a Mar.16.a

2 Then ſhe runneth, & commeth to Simon Peter, and to the other diſciple *whom Jeſus loued, & ſayeth vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the graue, and we can not tel where they haue layde him.

Iohn.13.c

3 Peter therefore went foorth, and that other diſciple, and came to the ſepulchre.

4 They ranne both togeather, and the other diſciple did outrunne Peter, and came firſt to the ſepulchre.

5 And when he had ſtouped downe, he ſawe the linnen clothes lying, yet went he not in.

6 *Then commeth Simon Peter folowyng hym, and went into the ſepulchre, and ſeeth the linnen clothes lye,

Luke.24.a

B 7 And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped togeather in a place by it ſelfe.

13 They ſay vnto her, Woman, why weepeſt thou? She ſayeth vnto them, For they haue taken awaye my Lorde, and I wote not where they haue layde hym.

14 When ſhe had thus ſayde, ſhe turned her ſelfe backe, and ſawe Jeſus ſtandyng, and knewe not that it was Jeſus.

15 Jeſus ſaith vnto her, Woman, why weepeſt thou? Whom ſeekeſt thou? She ſuppoſing that he had ben the gardiner, ſaith vnto him,

Sir, yf thou haue borne hym hence, tel me where thou haſt laid him, & I wil fetch him.

16 Ieſus ſayth vnto her, Marie: She turned her ſelfe, and ſayd vnto him, Rabboni, whiche is to ſay, Maiſter.

(a) Hereby Chriſt correcteth her carnal affection, looking to muche to his bodyly preſence, and therefore he pulled her from outward and externe offices, towarde his bodyly preſence, and willed her to be myndful of his aſſention.

(b) He came in myraculouſly, to geue the Apoſtles comfort, as alſo an outwarde taſt and ſure argument of his diuinitie, that by his notable myracle, he might confyrme the Apoſtles, in the faith of his reſurrection.

20 And when he had ſo ſayde, he ſhewed vnto them his handes and his ſyde. Then were the diſciples glad, when they ſaw the Lord.

21 Then ſayde Ieſus to them agayne, Peace be vnto you: As my father hath ſent me, euen ſo ſende I you alſo.

E 22 And when he had ſayd thoſe woordes, he breathed on them, and ſayeth vnto them, Receaue ye the holy ghoſt.

John.11.b

24 ☞ But *Thomas, one of the twelue, whiche is called Didymus, was not with them when Ieſus came.

25 The other diſciples therefore ſayde vnto hym, We haue ſeene the Lorde. But he ſayd vnto them, Except I ſhal ſee in his handes the print of the nayles, & put my finger into the print of the nayles, and thruſt my hande into his ſyde, I wyl in no wyſe beleeue.

26 And after eight dayes, agayne his diſciples were within, & Thomas with them: Then came Ieſus, the doores being ſhut, & ſtoode in the middes, and ſayd, Peace be vnto you. F

27 After that ſayeth he to Thomas, Bryng thy finger hyther, and ſee my handes, and reache hyther thy hand, and thruſt it into my ſyde, and be not faythleſſe, but beleeuing.

28 Thomas anſweared, and ſayd vnto him, My Lorde, and my God.

29 Ieſus ſayth vnto hym, Thomas, becauſe thou haſt ſeene me, thou haſt beleeued, bleſſed are they that haue not ſeene, and yet haue beleeued. ☜

30 And many other ſignes truely dyd Ieſus before the eyes of his diſciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 Theſe are written, that ye might (c) beleeue that Ieſus is Chriſte the ſonne of God, and that in beleeuing, ye might haue lyfe thorow his name.

(c) The ſcripture written is ſufficient to confyrme our fayth vnto ſaluation by Chriſt.

The.xxi.Chapter.

1 Chriſt appeared to his diſciples when they were fiſhing, 6 they take a great multitude of fiſhes. 7 Peter leapeth into the water, 15 Chriſt reſtoreth Peter to his office, and commaundeth him to feede his ſheepe, 19 Chriſt forewarneth Peter of his death and perſecution. 20 Peter ſtayed looking at Iohn. 25 Of Chriſtes manifolde myracles.

☞ 1 A Afterwarde dyd Ieſus ſhewe hym ſelfe agayne to his diſciples at the ſea of Tiberias, and on this wiſe ſhewed he him ſelfe.

John.1.f

2 *There were togeather Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, & *Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the ſonnes of Zebedee, and two other of his diſciples.

3 Simon Peter ſayth vnto them, I goe a fiſhing. They ſay vnto him, We alſo goe with thee. They went their way, and entred into a ſhip immediatly, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was nowe come, Ieſus ſtoode on the ſhoare: neuertheleſſe, the diſciples knewe not that it was Ieſus.

" Or, Sirs.

5 Ieſus ſayth vnto them, " Children, haue ye any meate? They anſweared hym, No.

6 And he ſayeth vnto them, Caſt out the net on the right ſide of the ſhip, and ye ſhal finde. They caſt out therfore, and anone they were not able to drawe it for the multitude of fiſhes.

7 Then ſayde the diſciple whom Ieſus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lorde: When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lorde, he gyrde his coat vnto him, (for he was naked) and did caſt him ſelfe into the ſea. B

8 The other diſciples came in a litle ſhip (for they were not farre from land, but as it were two hundred cubites) drawing the net with fiſhes.

9 Aſſoone then as they were comme to land, they ſawe whot coales, and fiſhe layd theron, and bread.

Luke.24.f

10 Ieſus ſaith vnto them, *Bring of the fiſhe, whiche ye haue nowe caught.

11 Simon Peter went vp, and drewe the net to the lande, ful of great fiſhes, an hundred and fiftie and three, and for al there were ſo many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jeſus ſayeth vnto them, Come and dyne. And none of the diſciples durſte aſke hym, Who art thou? knowing that it was yͤ lorde.

13 Jeſus then commeth and taketh bread, and geueth them, and fiſhe lykewyſe.

14 This is nowe the thirde time that Jeſus appeared to his diſciples, after that he was riſen from death.

15 So when they had dyned, Jeſus ſayeth to Simon Peter, Simon ʺJoanna, loueſt thou me more then theſe? He ſaith vnto him, Yea Lorde, thou knoweſt that I loue thee. He ſayeth vnto him, Feede my lammes. ʺOr, ſonne of Iona.

16 He ſayeth to hym agayne the ſecond time, Simon Joanna, loueſt thou me? He ſayeth vnto hym, Yea Lorde, thou knoweſt that I loue thee. He ſaith vnto him, Feede my ſheep.

20 Peter turning about, ſeeth yͤ diſciple *whom Jeſus loued, folowing, whiche alſo leaned on his breſt at ſupper, and ſayd, Lord, whiche is he that betrayeth thee? Iohn.13.e and 19.c

21 When Peter therefore ſawe hym, he ſayth to Jeſus, Lorde, what ſhal he doo? C

22 Jeſus ſayeth vnto him, If I wyl haue him to tarie tyl I come, what is that to thee? Folowe thou me.

23 Then went this ſayeing abroade among the brethren, that, that diſciple ſhould not die: Yet Jeſus ſayd not to hym, He ſhal not dye: but, If I wyl that he tary tyl I come, what is that to thee?

24 The ſame diſciple is he whiche teſtifieth of theſe thinges, and wrote theſe things, and we know that his teſtimonie is true.

25 *There are alſo many other thinges whiche Jeſus did, the whiche if they ſhoulde be written euery one, I ſuppoſe the world could not conteyne the bookes that ſhould be written. Amen. Iohn.20.g

*Or, Captayne.

2 Takyng it greeuouſlye that they taught the people, and preached in Ieſus the reſurrection from the dead.

3 And they layde handes on them, and put them in holde vntyl the next day: for it was nowe euentide.

4 How be it, many of them whiche heard the woorde, beleeued: and the number of the men was about fiue thouſande.

5 And it came to paſſe on the morrowe, that their rulers, and elders, and Scribes,

6 And Annas the cheefe prieſt, and Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kinrede of the hygh prieſtes, were geathered togeather at Hieruſalem.

B 7 And when they had ſet them before them, they aſked, *By what power, or in what name haue ye donne this?

Exo.2.c Math.21.c. Actes.7.d

8 ☞ Then Peter ful of the holy ghoſt, ſayd vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Iſrael,

9 If we this daye be examined of the good deede donne to the ſicke man, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it knowen vnto you al, and to al the people of Iſrael, that by the name of *Ieſus Chriſt of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raiſed agayn from yͤ dead, euen by him, doth this man ſtand here before you whole.

Mat.1.e, Philip.2.b

11 This is the ſtone whiche was ſet naught by of you builders, whiche is the head of the (a) corner,

12 Neither is there (b) ſaluation in any other: for among menne vnder heauen, there is geuen none other name wherein we muſte be ſaued. ☜

(a) Chriſt is called the cheefe corner, or corner ſtone, becauſe the Iewes, and the Gentiles are ioyned togeather, and builded vpon hym by fayth, and made one Churche.

(b) Neyther Saint nor Angel, nor woorkes, nor ought els can ſaue, but Chriſt alone.

13 Now when they ſawe the boldneſſe of Peter and Iohn, and vnderſtoode that they were vnlearned, and ignorant men, they marueiled, and they knew them that they had benne with Ieſu:

C 14 And beholding alſo the man whiche was healed ſtanding with them, they coulde not ſay agaynſt it.

15 But when they had commaunded them to goe aſyde out of the counſel, they counſayled among them ſelues,

16 *Sayeing, What ſhal we doo to theſe men? for a manifeſt ſigne is donne by them, and is openly knowen to al them that dwel in Hieruſalem, and we can not denie it.

Iohn.11.f

17 But that it be noyſed no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they ſpeake henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, *and commaunded them, that in no wyſe they ſhould ſpeake nor teache in the name of Ieſu.

Actes.5.g

19 But Peter and Iohn anſweared, and ſayd vnto them, Whether it be ryght in the ſight of God, to hearken vnto you more then to God, iudge ye.

20 For we can not but ſpeake that, whiche we haue ſeene and heard. D

21 So when they had more ſharply threatened them, they let them goe, fynding nothing howe to pouniſh them, becauſe of the people, for al menne glorified God, becauſe of *that whiche was donne.

Actes.3.b

22 For the man was about fourtie yeres old, on whom this miracle of healing was ſhewed.

23 Then aſſone as they were let goe, they came to their felowes, and ſhewed al that the high prieſtes and elders had ſayde vnto them.

24 And when they hearde that, they lyft vp their voyces to God with one accorde, and ſayde, Lord, thou art God whiche haſt made heauen and earth, the ſea, and al that in them is,

25 Whiche by the mouth of thy ſeruant Dauid haſt ſayde, *Why dyd the Heathen rage, and the people imagine vayne thinges?

Pſal.2.a

26 The kinges of the earth ſtoode vp, and the rulers came togeather agaynſt the Lord, and agaynſt his Chriſt.

27 For of a trueth agaynſt thy holy childe Ieſus, whom thou haſte annoynted, both Herode and alſo Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Iſrael, geathered them ſelues togeather, 28 For to doo what ſo euer thy hande and thy counſel determined before to be donne.

29 And now Lord, behold their threatnings, and graunt vnto thy ſeruantes, that with al boldneſſe they may ſpeake thy woorde,

30 So that thou ſtretche foorth thine hande, that healyng, and ſignes, and woonders, be donne by the name of thy holye chylde Ieſus.

33 And with great power gaue the Apoſtles witneſſe of the reſurrection of the Lorde Ieſu, and great grace was with them al.

34 Neither was there any among them, that lacked: For as many as were poſſeſſours of landes, or houſes, ſolde them, and brought the pryce of the thinges that were ſolde,

35 And layde it downe at the Apoſtles feete: And diſtribution was made vnto euerye man according as he had neede.

2 And keapt away [part] of the price, his wyfe alſo beyng of counſel, and brought a certayne part, and layde it downe at the Apoſtles feete.

3 But Peter ſayde, Ananias, howe is it that Satan hath filled thine hart, to lye vnto the holy ghoſt, and keepe away [part] of the price of the lande?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine owne? & after it was ſolde was is not in thine owne power? Why haſt thou conceyued this thing in thine hart? thou haſt not lyed vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Ananias hearing theſe woordes, fel downe, and gaue vp the ghoſt: And great feare came on al them that heard theſe thinges.

6 And the young men roſe vp, and put him apart, and caryed hym out, and buried him.

B 7 And it came to paſſe, that as it were about the ſpace of three houres after, his wife came in, not knowing that whiche was donne.

8 And Peter ſayde vnto her, Tel me, ſolde ye not the land for ſo muche? And ſhe ſayd, Yea, for ſo muche.

9 Then Peter ſayde vnto her, Why haue ye agreed togeather, to tempt the ſpirite of the Lorde? beholde, the feete of them whiche haue buryed thy huſbande, are at the doore, and ſhal cary thee out.

10 Then fel ſhe downe ſtraightway at his feete, & yeelded vp the ghoſt: And the young menne came in, and founde her dead, and caryed her out, and buryed her by her huſband,

11 And great feare came vpon al the Church, and vpon as many as heard theſe thinges.

Math.16.d 12 And by the handes of the Apoſtles, *were many ſignes and woonders ſhewed among the people. (And they were altogeather with one accorde in *Solomons porche. 3.Reg.6.a Iohn.10.c Actes.3.b

16 There came alſo a multitude of the cities rounde about, vnto Hieruſalem, bryngyng ſicke folkes, and them whiche were vexed with vncleane ſpirites: and they were healed euery one.

17 *Then the cheefe prieſt roſe vp, and al they that were with hym, (whiche is the ſect of the Saducees,) and were ful of indignation. Actes.4.a D

18 And layde handes on the Apoſtles, and put them in the common pryſon.

19 *But the Angel of the Lorde by nyght opened the pryſon doores, and brought them foorth, and ſayde, Actes.12.a and.16.f

20 Goe, and ſtand and ſpeake in the temple to the people al the woordes of this lyfe.

21 And when they heard that, they entred into the temple early in the mornyng, & taught: But the cheefe Prieſte came and they that were with hym, and called a counſel togeather, and al the Elders of the chyldren of Iſrael: and ſent to the pryſon to fetche them.

22 But when the officers came, and founde them not in the pryſon, they returned, & tolde,

24 Then when the chiefe prieſt, and the captayne of the temple, ⁊ the hygh prieſtes hearde theſe thinges, they doubted of them wherunto this woulde growe.

25 Then came one ⁊ ſhewed them, [ſayeing.] Beholde, the menne that ye put in priſon, are ſtanding in the temple, ⁊ teaching the people.

26 Then went the captayne of the temple with the officers, and brought them without violence: (For they feared the people, leſt they ſhoulde haue benne ſtoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they ſet them before the counſel. And the chiefe prieſt aſked them,

E 28 Sayeing, Dyd not we ſtraitly cõmaund you that ye ſhoulde not teache in this name? And beholde, ye haue filled Hieruſalem with your doctrine, and intende to bryng(b) this mans blood vpon vs.

Act,iiij,d.
Mat.27.e
(b) By this ſpeache, they meane that they woulde charge them as gyltie of Chriſtes blood that was ſhed.

33 When they heard that, they claue a ſunder, and ſought meanes to ſlea them.

34 Then ſtoode there vp one in the counſel, a Phariſee, named * Gamaliel, a doctour of lawe, had in reputation among al the people, and commaunded to put the Apoſtles foorth a litle ſpace,

Actes,22.a

Luk,xiij,a

38 And nowe I ſay vnto you, refrayne your ſelues from theſe menne, and let them alone: for if this cõuſel or this woorke be of menne, it wil comme to nought.

39 But ⁊ if it be of God, ye can not deſtroy it, leſt haply ye be founde to ſtriue againſt God.

40 And to hym they agreed: and when they had called the apoſtles, and beaten them, they *commaunded that they ſhoulde not ſpeake in the name of Jeſu, and let them goe.

4 Therfore they that were ſcattered abroade, went euery where preachyng the woorde of God.

5 ☞ Then came Philip into the citie of Samaria, and preached Chriſte vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto thoſe thinges whiche Philip ſpake, with one accorde, hearyng & ſeeyng the miracles which he did.

B 7 For *vncleane ſpirites, cryeing with loude voyce, came out of many that were poſſeſſed with them: and many taken with paulſies, and many that halted, were healed.

Mat.xvi.d

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 But there was a certayne man called Simon, whiche beforetyme in the ſame citie vſed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, ſayeing that he was a man that coulde doo great thynges:

10 To whom they al gaue heede, from the leaſt to the greateſt, ſayeing, This man is the great power of God.

11 And hym they ſet muche by, becauſe that of long tyme he had bewitched them with ſorceries.

12 But when they beleeued Philips preachyng of the kyngdome of GOD, and of the name of Ieſus Chriſte, they were baptized, both menne and women.

13 Then Simon him ſelfe beleeued alſo: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, & woondred, beholdyng the miracles and ſignes whiche were donne.

C 14 ☞ When the apoſtles whiche were at Hieruſalem hearde ſay that Samaria had receiued the woorde of God, they ſent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Whiche when they were comme downe, prayed for them, that they myght receiue the holy ghoſt.

16 (For as yet he was comme downe vpon none of them, but they were baptized (a) only in the name of Chriſte Ieſu.)

17 Then layde they their handes on them, and they receiued the holy ghoſt.☜

18 And when Simon ſaw that through layīg on of the apoſtles handes, the holy ghoſt was geuen, he offered them money,

19 Sayeing, Geue me alſo this power, that on whom ſo euer I put the handes, he may receiue the holy ghoſt.

20 But Peter ſayde vnto hym, Thy money periſhe with thee, becauſe thou haſt thought *that the gyft of God may be obteyned with money.

Mat,10,b.

21 Thou haſt neyther part nor felowſhyp in this buſineſſe: for thy hart is not right in the ſyght of God. D

22 Repent therefore of this thy wyckedneſſe, and pray god, if perhaps the thought of thine hart may be forgeuen thee.

23 For I perceiue that thou art (b) in the gal of bitterneſſe, and in the bond of (c) iniquitie.

24 Then anſweared Simon, and ſayd, Pray ye to yͤ Lord for me, that none of [these things] whiche ye haue ſpoken, fal on me.

25 And they, when they had teſtified and preached the woord of the Lord, returned toward Hieruſalem, & preached the Goſpel in many villages of the Samaritanes.

26 ☞ And the angel of the Lorde ſpake vnto Philip, ſayeing, Aryſe, and goe towarde the South, vnto the way that goeth downe frō Hieruſalem vnto Gaza: whiche is deſart.

27 And he aroſe, and went on: and beholde a man of Ethiopia, an Eunuch, and of great auctoritie with Candace, Queene of the Ethiopians, and had the rule of al her treaſure, * whiche came to Hieruſalem for to woorſhyp.

34 And the Eunuche anſweared Philip, and ſayde, I pray thee, of whom ſpeaketh the prophete this? of him ſelfe, or of ſome other man?

F 35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the ſame ſcripture, and preached vnto hym Jeſus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certayne water: and the Eunuche ſayd, See, here is water, * what dooth let me to be baptized.

Actes, x, g

37 Philip ſayde [vnto hym] If thou beleeueſt with al thyne hart, thou mayeſt. And he anſweared, & ſayde, I beleeue that Jeſus Chriſte is the ſonne of God.

38 And he commaunded the charet to ſtande ſtyl: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and alſo the Eunuche: and he baptized hym.

39 And aſſoone as they were comme out of the water, the ſpirite of ye Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuche ſaw him no more: And he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip was founde at Azotus: and he walked throughout the countrey, preaching in al the cities, tyl he came to Ceſarea.

The.x.Chapter,

3 The viſion that Peter ſawe. 17 He was ſent to Cornelius. 19 The Heathen receiue the ſpirite, and are baptized.

A 1 There was a certayne man in Ceſarea, called Cornelius, a captaine of the band, called the Italian bande,

2 A deuout man, and one that feared god with al his houſholde, whiche gaue muche almes to the people, and prayed God alway.

3 The ſame ſaw by a viſion euidently, about the nienth houre of the day, an angel of God commyng in to him, and ſayeing vnto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he loked on him, he was afraid, and ſayd, What is it Lorde? And he ſayd vnto hym, Thy (a) prayers and thyne almes are comme vp into remembrance before God.

(a) The prayers and almes of Cornelius pleaſed God, before he was baptized: but without fayth god can not be pleaſed. Cornelius therefore (as Bede truely noteth) had fayth, whereby his prayers and almes pleaſed God. For (ſayth he) he came not to fayth through workes, but to workes through faith.

5 And now ſende menne to Ioppa, and cal for one Simon, whoſe ſirname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whoſe houſe is by the ſea ſyde: He ſhal tel thee what thou oughteſt to doo.

7 And when the angel whiche ſpake vnto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his houſholde ſeruantes, and a deuout ſouldier of them that wayted on hym,

8 And told them al the matter, and ſent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morowe as they went on their iourney, & drewe nygh vnto the citie, Peter went vp* vnto ỹ hyghest part of the houſe to pray, about the ſixth houre. Mat.vi.a 4.Reg.4.f

10 And when he waxed hungry, he woulde haue eaten: But whyle they made redy, he fel into a traunce,

11 And he ſeeth (b) heauen opened, & a certayne veſſel comme downe vnto hym, as it hadde benne a great ſheete, knit at the foure corners, and let downe to the earth:

(b) This viſion dooth teach manyfold myſteries. Firſt, that the reſpect of meates made vnto the Iewes, is taken away, & byndeth not ỹ Chriſtians. For nowe, to the cleane, al meates are cleane. Secondly, the graces and gyftes of God are common alſo to ỹ Heathen, who before this tyme were excluded: whiche thyng is ſignified by the foure cornered ſheete, whiche ſignifieth the foure coaſtes of the worlde. Now, heauen is open to al that is incloſed in ỹ ſheete, whiche is the holy congregation of god. " Or, doo not thou pollute.

12 Wherein were al manner of foure footed beaſtes of the earth, and wylde beaſtes, & ſuch as creepe, and foules of the ayre.

13 And there came a voyce to hym, Ryſe Peter, kyl, and eate.

14 But Peter ſayde, Not ſo Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is common or vncleane.

15 And the voyce ſpake vnto hym againe the ſeconde tyme, What God hath cleanſed, that " cal not thou common.

16 This was donne thryſe: and the veſſel was receiued vp agayne into heauen.

17 Nowe whyle Peter doubted in hym ſelfe what this viſion whiche he had ſeene ſhould meane: beholde, the menne which were ſent from Cornelius, had made enquirance for Simons houſe, and ſtoode before the doore,

18 And called, & aſked whether Simon, whiche was ſirnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 While Peter thought on the viſion, the ſpirite ſayde vnto hym, Beholde, three menne ſeeke thee.

20 Aryſe therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, doubting nothing: for I haue ſent them.

D 21 Then Peter went downe to the menne which were ſent vnto hym from Cornelius, and ſayd, Beholde, I am he whom ye ſeeke: what is the cauſe wherfore ye are comme?

22 And they ſayde, Cornelius the captayne, a iuſt man, and one that feareth GOD, and of good report among al the people of ỹ Iewes, was warned by an holy angel, to ſende for thee into his houſe, & to heare woordes of thee.

23 Then called he them in,* and lodged them: And on the morowe Peter went away with them,* and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanyed hym. Gen.19.a Actes.11.b

(c) Cornelius dyd reuerence Peter more then he ought to haue done, ſuppoſing hym eyther to be a God, eyther to be endued with ſuche power & vertue, for the whiche he ſhoulde be honoured as God.

26 But Peter tooke hym vp, ſayeing, Stand vp,* I mee ſelfe alſo am a man. Deut.8.a

27 And as he talked with hym, he came in, & findeth many that were comme togeather.

28 And he ſayde vnto them, Ye knowe how that it is an vnlawful thyng for a man that is a Iewe, to company or comme vnto one of another nation: but GOD hath ſhewed me, that I ſhoulde not cal any man common or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without delay, aſſoone as I was ſent for: I aſke therfore for what intent ye haue ſent for me? E

30 And Cornelius ſayde, Foure dayes agoe vntyl this houre I was faſtyng, and at the nienth houre I prayed in my houſe, & behold, a man ſtoode before me in bryght clothyng,

31 And ſayde, Cornelius, thy prayer is hearde, and thyne almes deedes are had in remembrance in the ſyght of God.

32 Sende therefore to Ioppa, and cal for Simon, whoſe ſirname is Peter: he is lodged in the houſe of one Simon a tanner, by the ſea ſide, who when he commeth, ſhal ſpeake vnto thee.

33 Then ſent I for thee immediatly, and thou haſt wel donne that thou art comme. Nowe therefore are we al here preſent before God, to heare al thinges that are commaunded vnto thee of God.

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in priſon alſo, and delyuered hym to foure (a) quaternions of ſouldiers to be kept, entendyng after Eaſter to bryng hym foorth to the people.

(a) That is, to xvi. ſouldiers.

5 And Peter was kept in pryſon, but prayer was made without ceaſſyng of the Churche vnto God for hym.

6 And when Herode woulde haue brought hym foorth vnto the people, the ſame nyght Peter was ſleepyng betweene two ſouldiers bounde with two chaynes, and the keepers before the doore kept the priſon.

B 7 And beholde, * the angel of the Lorde was there preſent, and a lyght ſhyned in the pryſon: and he ſmote Peter on the ſyde, and ſtirred hym vp, ſayeing, Aryſe vp quickly. And his chaynes fel of from his handes.

Actes,5.d

8 And the angel ſayd vnto hym, Gyrd thee ſelfe, and binde on thy ſandales. And ſo he did. And he ſayth vnto hym, Caſte thy garment about thee, and folowe me.

9 And [Peter] came out, and folowed hym, and wyſt not that it was trueth which was donne by the angel: but thought he had ſeene a viſion.

10 When they were paſt the fyrſte and the ſeconde watche, they came vnto the iron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, *which opened to them by the owne accorde: & they went out, and paſſed through one ſtreete, and foorthwith the angel departed from hym.

Actes,5.d

11 And when Peter was comme to him ſelfe, he ſayde, Nowe I know of a ſuretie that the Lord hath ſent his angel, and hath delyuered me out of the hande of Herode, and from al the waighting for, of the people of the Jewes. ☜

12 ☞ And as he conſydered the thyng, he came to the houſe of Marie the mother of John, whoſe syrname was Marke, where manye were geathered * togeather in prayer.

Actes,1.b.

13 As Peter knocked at the entrye doore, a damſel came foorth to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when ſhe knewe Peters voyce, ſhe opened not the doore for gladneſſe, but ranne in, and tolde howe Peter ſtoode before the doore. C

15 And they ſayd vnto her, Thou art madde. But ſhe affyrmed that it was euen ſo. Then ſayde they, It is his (b) angel.

(b) For they dyd knowe by Gods worde, that angels were appoynted to defende the faythful, & alſo in thoſe dayes they were accuſtomed to ſee ſuch ſyghtes.

16 But Peter continued knockyng: and when they had opened the doore, and ſaw him, they were aſtonyed.

17 * And when he had beckened vnto them with the hande, that they myght holde their peace, he tolde them by what meanes the Lorde had brought hym out of the pryſon: And he ſayde, Goe ſhewe theſe thynges vnto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Nowe as ſoone as it was day, there was no litle adoe among the ſouldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herode had ſought for hym, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be carried away. And he deſſended from Jurie to Ceſarea, and there abode.

20 And Herode was diſpleaſed with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came al with one accorde to him, & made interceſſion vnto Blaſtus the kinges Chamberlayne, and deſyred peace, becauſe their countrey was nouriſhed by the kynges countrey.

21 And vpon the day appoynted, Herod arayed hym in royal apparel, and ſet hym in his ſeate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a ſhoute, [ſayeing.] It is the voyce of a God, and not of a man.

23 And immediatly the angel of the Lorde ſmote him, becauſe he gaue not God the honour: and he was eaten of (b) woormes, and gaue vp the ghoſt.

24 And the woorde of GOD grewe and (c) multiplyed.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned to Hieruſalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and tooke with them John, whoſe syrname was Marke.

(b) The vyleneſſe of the puniſhments declareth here that God deteſteth pryde and tyrannie. His grandfather alſo was eaten of lyce.

(c) The more that tyrantes goe about to ſuppreſſe gods woorde, the more dooth it increaſe and multiplye.

1 God geueth ſucceſſe to his woorde, 6 Paul and Barnabas preache at Iconium, and are perſecuted. 13 At Lyſtra they woulde doo ſacrifice to Barnabas and Paul. 19 Paul is ſtoned. 22 They confirme the diſciples in fayth and patience. 23 They appoynt miniſters.

A 1 AND it came to paſſe in Iconium, that they went both togeather into the ſynagogue of the Iewes, and ſo ſpake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes, and alſo of the Grekes beleeued.

2 But the vnbeleeuyng Iewes ſtirred vp, and corrupted the myndes of the Gentiles agaynſt the brethren.

3 Long tyme therefore abode they there, ſpeakyng boldly with the helpe of the Lord, whiche gaue teſtimonie vnto the woorde of his grace, and graunted ſignes and woonders to be donne by theyr handes.

9 And a viſion appeared to Paul in yͤ night, There ſtoode a man of Macedonia, & prayed hym, ſayeing, Comme into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after he had ſeene the viſion, immediatly we prepared to goe into Macedonia, geathering by conference, that the Lord had called vs for to preach the goſpel vnto them.

11 Then we being carried from Troada, came with a ſtrayght courſe to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis:

12 And from thence to Philippos, whiche is the chiefe citie in the parties of Macedonia, and a free citie: and we were in that citie abyding certayne dayes.

13 And on the day of the ſabbothes we went out of the citie beſides a riuer, where prayer was wont to be made: and we ſate downe, and ſpake vnto the women whiche reſorted thyther.

C

14 And a certayne woman named Lydia, a ſeller of purple, of the citie of the Thyatirians, whiche woorſhipped God, gaue vs audience: whoſe harte the Lorde opened, that ſhe attended vnto the thinges whiche were ſpoken of Paul.

15 And when ſhe was baptized and her houſholde, ſhe beſought vs, ſayeing, If ye haue iudged me to be faythful to the Lord, come into my houſe, and abyde there. And ſhe con-ſtrayned vs.

16 And it came to paſſe, as we went to prayer, a certayne damſel poſſeſſed with a ſpirite of (a) ſoothſayeing, met vs: which brought her maiſters much vantage with ſoothſayeing.

(a) Whiche coulde tel of thynges paſt, and geſſe of thynges to come, whiche knowledge in many thynges God permitteth to the deuyl, to this ende (as Auſten noteth) that he might ỹ more mightily deceiue thoſe ỹ would beleeue hym.

17 The ſame folowed Paul and vs, and cryed ſayeing, These men are the ſeruantes of the moſt hygh God, whiche ſhewe vnto vs the way of ſaluation.

18 And this dyd ſhe many dayes: But Paul not content, turned about, and ſayde to the ſpirit, I commaund thee* in the name of Jeſu Chriſt, that thou comme out of her. And he came out the ſame houre.

Mat. 16. d

Acte. 19. c

19 And when her maiſters ſaw that the *hope of theyr gaynes was gonne, they caught Paule and Silas, and drewe them into the market place, vnto the rulers,

20 And brought them in to the officers, ſayeing, Theſe menne being Jewes, doo exceedingly trouble our citie:

D 21 And preache ordinances, whiche are not lawful for vs to receiue, neyther to obſerue, ſeeyng we are Romanes.

22 And the people ranne agaynſt them, and the officers rent theyr clothes, & commaunded * to beate them with roddes.

2. Cor. 11. f

23 And when they had layde many ſtripes vpon them, they caſt them into priſon, commaundyng the iaylour of the priſon to keepe them diligently.

24 Whiche when he had receiued ſuch commaundement, thruſt them into the inner priſon, and made theyr feete faſt in the ſtockes.

25 And at midnyght, Paul and Silas prayed, and lauded God: and the priſoners heard them.

26 And ſuddainely there was a great earthquake, ſo that the fundation of the pryſon was ſhaken: and *immediatly al the doores opened, and euery mans bandes were looſed.

Actes. 5. d and. 12. b

27 When the keeper of the pryſon waked out of his ſleepe, and ſawe the priſon doores open, he drewe out his ſworde, and woulde haue killed hym ſelfe, ſuppoſing that the priſoners had benne fledde.

E 28 But Paul cryed with a loud voyce, ſayeing, Doo thee ſelfe no harme, for we are al here.

29 Then he called for a lyght, and ſprang in, and came tremblyng, and fel downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and ſayde, Syrs, *What muſt I doo to be ſaued?

Luke. 3. a

Actes. 2. f

Iohn. 6. b

31 And they ſayde,* Beleeue on the Lord Jeſus Chriſte, and thou ſhalt be ſaued, and thy houſholde.

32 And they ſpake vnto hym the woorde of the Lorde, and to al that were in his houſe.

33 And he tooke them the ſame houre of the nyght, and waſhed theyr woundes, and was baptized hym ſelfe, and al they of his houſholde ſtrayghtway.

34 And when he had brought them into his houſe, he ſet meate before them, *and ioyed that he with al his houſholde beleeued on God.

Luke. 19. g

35 And when it was day, the officers ſent the ſergeantes, ſayeing, Let thoſe menne goe.

36 And the keeper of the pryſon told this ſaying to Paul, The officers haue ſent woorde to looſe you: Nowe therefore, geat you hence, and goe in peace.

37 Then ſaide Paul vnto them, They haue beaten vs openly vncondemned, beyng Romanes, and haue caſte vs into priſon, nowe doo they thruſt vs out priuily? Nay verly: but let them comme them ſelues, and fetche vs out.

F 38 And the ſergeantes told theſe woordes vnto the officers: and they feared when they hearde that they were Romanes.

39 And they came and beſought them, and brought them out, and deſyred them to depart out of the citie.

Mat. 8. d

40 And they went out of the priſon, and entred into [the houſe] of Lydia, and when they had ſeene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

The. xvii. Chapter.

1 Paul commeth to Theſſalonica, where the Jewes ſet the citie in an vprore. 15 Paul eſcapeth to Athens, where he preacheth the vnknowen God.

A 1 AS they made theyr iourney through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Theſſalonica, where was a ſynagogue of the Jewes.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in vnto them, and three ſabboth dayes diſputed with them out of the ſcriptures,

3 Opening and alleagyng, that* Chriſt muſt needes haue ſuffered and ryſen agayne from the dead: and that this is Chriſt Jeſus which I preache vnto you.

Luke. 24. g

4 And * ſomme of them beleeued, and ioyned with Paul and Silas, and of the deuout Grekes a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

Actes. 28. f

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, mooued with enuie, tooke vnto them certayne vagaboundes, and euyl menne, and geathered a company, and ſet al the citie on a rore: and made aſſaulte vnto the houſe of Iaſon, and ſought to bryng them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drue Iaſon and certaine brethren vnto the heades of the citie, cryeing, Theſe that haue troubled the worlde, are comme hither alſo,

B 7 Whom Iaſon hath receiued [priuily:] and theſe al doo contrary to the decrees of Caeſar, (a) ſayeing that there is another kyng, [one] Ieſus.

Iohn.19.c

(a) Like quarel pyking they vſed againſt Chriſt: and theſe be the weapons whereby the worlde continually fyghteth agaynſt the members of Chriſte: treaſon and ſedition.

8 And they troubled the people and the officers of yͤ citie, when they hearde theſe thinges.

9 And when they had taken ſufficient ſuretie of Iaſon, and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly ſent awaye Paul & Silas by nyght vnto Berea: which when they were comme thyther, they entred into the ſynagogue of the Iewes.

11 Theſe were the nobleſt of byrth among them of Theſſalonica, whiche receiued the woorde with al readyneſſe of mynde, and ſearched *the ſcriptures dayly, whether thoſe thynges were ſo.

Iohn.5.g

12 Therefore many of them beleeued: alſo of honeſt women whiche were Grekes, and of menne not a fewe.

13 But when the Iewes of Theſſalonica had knowledge that the woord of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thyther, and mooued the people.

C 14 And then immediatly the brethren ſent away Paul, to goe as it were to the ſea: but *Silas and Timotheus abode there ſtyl.

Acte.18.b

15 And they that guyded Paul, brought him vnto Athens, and receiued a commaundement vnto Silas and Timotheus, for to comme to hym with ſpeede, and went theyr way.

16 Whyle Paul wayted for them at Athens, his ſpirit was mooued in him, when he ſaw the citie geuen to woorſhyppyng of idols.

17 Therefore diſputed he in the ſynagogue with the Iewes, and with the deuoute perſons, and in the market dayly with them that came vnto hym by chaunce.

18 Then certaine philoſophers of the (b) Epicures, and of the (c) Stoickes diſputed with him: and ſomme ſayde, What wyl this babler ſay? Other ſomme, He ſeemeth to be a ſetter foorth of newe gods: becauſe he preached vnto them Ieſus, and the reſurrection.

(b) The Epicures were a ſect of learned men, whiche (being without the knowledge of God) helde opinion, there was no lyfe or ioy after this lyfe, but that al mans felicitie dyd conſiſt in the pleaſures of this worlde.

(c) The Stoickes were an other kynde of learned mē, whiche lykewyſe wanting the knowledg of God, affirmed that mans whole felicitie and happyneſſe did conſiſt in the qualities and vertues of the mynde.

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into the ſtreete of Mars, ſayeing, May we know what this newe doctrine wherof thou ſpeakeſt, is?

20 For thou bringeſt certayne ſtrange thinges to our eares, we woulde knowe therfore what theſe thynges meane.

D 21 (For al the Athenians & ſtrangers which were there, had leyſure to nothyng els, but eyther to tel or to heare ſomme newe thing.)

22 Then Paul ſtoode in the myddes of the ſtreete of Mars, and ſayde, Ye menne of Athens, I perceiue that in al thynges ye are to ſuperſtitious.

23 For as I paſſed by, and behelde the manner howe ye woorſhyp your gods, I founde an aulter wherin was written, Unto an vnknowen god. Whom ye then ignorantly woorſhyp, him ſhewe I vnto you.

24 *God that made the world, and al that are in it, ſeeyng that he is Lorde of heauen and earth, *dwelleth not in temples made with handes:

Gene.1.b.

26 And hath made of one blood, al nations of menne, for to dwelle on al the face of the earth, and hath determined the tymes before appoynted, and alſo the bondes of theyr habitation:

27 That they ſhoulde ſeeke the Lorde, if perhaps they myght haue fealt and found him: though he be not farre from euery one of vs.

28 For in him we liue, and mooue, and haue our beeyng, as certaine of your owne Poets haue ſayde, For we are alſo his ofſpryng.

29 For as much then as we are the (b) ofſpring of God, we ought not to thinke that yͤ Godhead is lyke vnto golde, ſyluer, or ſtone, grauen by art and mans deuice.

(c) The Apoſtle tearmeth vs the generation of God, not that we be of yͤ ſubſtance and nature of God, but becauſe God hath created vs, and by his ſonne Ieſus Chriſte hath redeemed vs, and made vs his children by adoption.

30 And the time of this ignorance God winked at, but nowe byddeth al menne euerye where to repent:

31 Becauſe he hath appoynted a day in the whiche he wyl iudge the worlde in righteouſnes, by that man whom he hath appointed, and hath offered fayth to al men, in that he hath rayſed hym from the dead.

32 And when they hearde of the reſurrection from the dead, ſomme mocked: and other ſayde, We wyl heare thee againe of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit, certayne men claue vnto him, and beleeued: among the whiche was Dionys Areopagita, and a woman named Damaris, and other with them.

The.xviii.Chapter.

3 Paul preacheth at Corinth. 19 Paul goeth agayne into Syria, and commeth to Epheſus and Antioche. 24 Of Apollos, 26 Aquila, and Priſcilla.

A 1 After theſe thynges, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth,

Rom.16.a 2.Tim.4.d 2 And founde a certayne Iewe named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately comme from Italie with his wyfe Priſcilla (becauſe that Claudius had commaunded al Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And becauſe he was of the ſame craft, he abode with them, and wrought, (for by theyr occupation they were tent makers.)

4 And he diſputed in the ſynagogue euery Sabboth, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grekes.

Acts.17.d. 5 And when * Silas and Timotheus were comme from Macedonia, Paul was conſtrained by the ſpirite to teſtifie to the Iewes, that Ieſus was Chriſte.

6 And when they ſaide contrary, and blaſphemed, * he ſhooke his rayment, and ſayde vnto them, Your blood be (a) vpon your owne heades: from hencefoorth wyl I goe blameleſſe vnto the gentiles.

Mat.10.b. Mark.6.b. Actes.13.g

(a) By this hebrue ſpeach he ſignifieth, that he that dyeth and periſheth, ſhal periſhe through his owne fault.

7 And he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans houſe, named Iuſtus, a worſhipper of God, whoſe houſe ioyned harde to the ſynagogue.

B 8 And one Criſpus the chiefe ruler of the ſynagogue * beleeued on the Lord with al his houſeholde: and many of the Corinthians hearing, beleeued, and were baptized.

Iohn.4.g

9 Then ſpake the Lorde to Paul in the night * by a viſion: Be not afraide, but ſpeake, and holde not thy peace.

Acts.17.b.

10 For I am with thee, and no man ſhal inuade thee to hurt thee: For I haue muche people in this citie.

11 And he continued there a yeere and ſixe monethes, teaching the woorde of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputie of Achaia, the Iewes made inſurrection with one accorde agaynſt Paul, and brought hym to the iudgement ſeate, 13 Sayeing, This felowe counſelleth menne to worſhip God contrary to the lawe.

C 14 And when Paul nowe was about to open his mouth, Gallio ſayde vnto the Iewes, Yf it were a matter of wrong, or an euyl deede, O ye Iewes, reaſon woulde that I ſhoulde beare with you:

15 But yf it be a queſtion of woordes and names, or of your lawe, looke ye to it your ſelues: for I wyl be no iudge of ſuche matters.

16 And he draue them from the iudgement ſeate.

17 Then al the Grekes tooke Soſthenes the chiefe ruler of the ſynagogue, and ſmote him before the iudgement ſeate: and Gallio cared for none of thoſe thynges.

18 And Paul after this taried [there] yet a good whyle, and then tooke his leaue of the brethren, & ſayled thence into Syria, (Aquila and Priſcilla accompanying hym) And he ſhore his head in (b) Cenchrea: for he had a vowe.

(b) Cenchrea is a hauen at Corinth, where Paul takyng ſhippe, dyd ſheare his head, accordyng to his vowe: For accordyng to the lawe of Moſes, they that vowed them ſelues to god, were cōmaunded to ſuffer theyr heare to growe, as long as they would continue Nazarites, and afterwarde to ſheare it, and to burne it. This dyd Paul, not forgetting what he had before decreed with the apoſtles, touchyng the aboliſhing of the lawe: but leſt ẏ Iewes which beleued ſhoulde be offended, he fained him ſelfe a Iewe, to win the Iewes.

19 And he came to Epheſus, and leaft them there: but he hym ſelfe entred into the ſynagogue, and reaſoned with the Iewes.

20 When they deſyred hym to tary longer tyme with them, he conſented not:

21 But bade them farewel, ſayeing, I muſt needes at this feaſt that commeth, be in Hieruſalem: but I wyl returne agayne vnto you yf God wyl: And he ſayled from Epheſus.

22 And when he was comme vnto Ceſarea, and aſſended vp, and ſaluted the Churche, he went to Antioche.

23 And when he had taried there a whyle, he departed, and went ouer al the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, ſtrengthyng al the diſciples.

24 And a certaine Iewe named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Epheſus, an eloquent man, and myghty in the ſcriptures.

1.Cor.1.b.

25 The ſame was infourmed in the way of the Lord, and beyng feruent in the ſpirite, he ſpake & taught diligently the thynges of the Lord, knowyng only the baptiſme of Iohn.

26 And the ſame beganne to ſpeake boldly in the ſynagogue: Whom when Aquila and Priſcilla had hearde, they tooke hym vnto them, and (c) expounded vnto hym the way of God perfectly.

(c) Apollo beyng a wittie & a learned man, was not aſhamed to be taught and inſtructed in the doctrine of Chriſte, of a poore craftes man and his wyfe.

27 And when he was diſpoſed to goe into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhortyng the diſciples to receiue hym: Whiche when he was comme, helped them muche whiche had beleeued through grace.

28 For he ouercame the Iewes myghtyly, and that openly, ſhewyng by the ſcriptures that Ieſus was that Chriſte.

The .xix. Chapter.

3 Of baptiſme. 6 Of the holy ghoſt geuen by Paules handes. 9 The Jewes blaſpheme the doctrine of Paul. 13 The pouniſhment of the coniurers. 24 Demetrius rayſeth ſedition. 41 God delivereth his, and appeaſeth the ſedition.

A 1 AND it came to paſſe, that whyle Apollos was at Corinth, Paul paſſed through the vpper coaſtes, and came to Epheſus, and founde certayne diſciples,

2 And ſayde vnto them, Haue ye receiued the (a) holy ghoſt ſence ye beleeued?
And they ſayd vnto him, We haue not heard whether there be any holy ghoſt or no.

3 And he ſayde vnto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they ſayde, Unto (b) Johns baptiſme.

4 Then ſayde Paul, John veryly baptized with the baptiſme of repentance, ſayeing vnto the people, that they ſhoulde beleeue on hym whiche ſhoulde comme after hym, that is, on Chriſte Jeſus.

5 When they hearde this, they were baptized in (c) the name of the Lorde Jeſus.

6 And when Paul had layde his handes vpon them, the holy ghoſt came on them, and they ſpake with tongues, and propheſied.

7 And al the menne were about twelue.

8 And he went into the ſynagogue, and ſpake boldly for the ſpace of three monethes, diſputing and perſwadyng thoſe thynges that [apparteyne] to the kyngdome of God.

9 But when diuers waxed harde harted, and beleeued not, but ſpake euil of the way [of the Lorde] and that before the multitude, he departed from them, & ſeparated the diſciples: and he diſputed dayly in the ſcoole of one called Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the ſpace of two yeeres, ſo that al they whiche dwelt in Aſia, hearde the woorde of the Lorde Jeſus, both Jewes and Grekes.

Mark.16.d Actes,5.c. 11 And God *wrought ſpecial myracles by the handes of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the ſicke, napkins, and partlettes, and the diſeaſes departed from them, and the *euyl ſpirites went out of them. Mat.16.d.

13 Then certayne of the vagabonde Jewes exorciſtes, tooke vpon them to calle ouer them which had euil ſpirites, the name of the Lord Jeſus, ſayeing, We adiure you by *Jeſus whom Paul preacheth. Mat.7.c.

C 14 And there was ſeuen ſonnes of one Sceua a Jewe, and chiefe of the prieſtes, whiche did ſo.

15 And the euil ſpirite anſweared, and ſayde, Jeſus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euyl ſpirite was, came on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed agaynſt them, ſo that they fledde out of that houſe naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to al the Jewes and Grekes alſo whiche dwelt at Epheſus, and feare came on them al, and the name of the Lorde Jeſus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came, and *confeſſed, and ſhewed theyr woorkes. Mark,1.a.

19 Many alſo of them whiche vſed curious craftes, brought theyr bookes, and burned them before al menne: and they counted the price of them, and founde it fiftie thouſande peeces of ſiluer.

20 So myghtyly grewe the woorde of God, and preuayled.

D 21 After theſe thynges were ended, Paul purpoſed in the ſpirite, when he had paſſed ouer Macedonia and Achaia, to goe to Hieruſalem, ſayeing, After I haue benne there, I muſt alſo ſee Rome.

22 So ſent he into Macedonia two of them that miniſtred vnto hym, Timotheus and Eraſtus, but he hym ſelfe remayned in Aſia for a ſeaſon.

23 And the ſame tyme there aroſe no litle a doo about that way.

24 For a certayne man named Demetrius, a ſiluer ſmyth, whiche made ſiluer ſhrines for Diana, miniſtred no ſmal gayne vnto the craftes men:

25 Whom he called togeather, with the worke men of lyke occupation, and ſayde, Syrs, ye knowe that by this craft *we haue aduantage. Acts.16.d.

26 Moreouer, ye ſee and heare that not alone at Epheſus, but almoſt throughout al Aſia this Paul hath perſwaded and turned away much people, ſayeing that *they be no goddes whiche are made with handes. Pſal.115.a.

27 So that not only this our craft commeth into peril to be ſet at nought: but alſo that the temple of the great goddeſſe Diana ſhoulde be deſpiſed, and her magnificence ſhoulde be deſtroyed, whom al Aſia and the worlde woorſhippeth.

28 And when they heard theſe ſayeinges, they were ful of wrath, and cryed out, ſayeing, Great is Diana of the Epheſians.

(a) By the holy ghoſt, here he meaneth the viſible graces of the holy ſpirite.

(b) By this place, Johns baptiſme ſignifieth Johns doctrine: whiche therefore is ſo called, for that he ſealed his doctrine with the ſeale of baptiſme in them that beleeued.

(c) They that were baptized, were not baptized with water, beyng before baptized of John with water: but they were baptized with viſible giftes of the holy ghoſt, whiche ſaint Luke declaryng howe it was, writeth that it was by the layeing on of ſaint Paules handes.

29 And al the citie was on a roare, and they ruſhed into yͤ common hal with one aſſent, and caught Gaius and Ariſtarcus, menne of Macedonia, Paules companions.

30 When Paul woulde haue entred in vnto the people, the diſciples ſuffered hym not.

31 But certayne of the chiefe of Aſia whiche were his freendes, ſent vnto hym, deſyring hym that he would not preaſſe into the common hal.

32 Somme therefore cryed one thyng, and ſomme another: and the aſſemblie was al out of quiet, and the more part knewe not wherefore they were comme togeather.

33 And [certayne] of the people drewe Alexander out of the multitude, the Iewes thruſting hym forwardes. And Alexander * beckened with the hande, and would haue geuen the people an anſweare.

Acts,21,g.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there aroſe a ſhoute almoſt for yͤ ſpace of two houres, of al menne, crying, Great is Diana of the Epheſians.

F

35 And when the towne clarke had pacified the people, he ſayde, Ye menne of Epheſus, what man is it that knoweth not how that the citie of the Epheſians is ꝛ the temple keeper of the great goddeſſe Diana, and of the [image] whiche came downe from Iupiter?

ꝛ Somme reade, a worſhipper.

36 Seeyng then that theſe thynges can not be ſpoken agaynſt, ye ought to be quiet, and to doo nothyng raſhely.

37 For ye haue brought hyther theſe menne, whiche are neyther robbers of Churches, nor yet blaſphemers of your goddeſſe.

38 Wherefore, yf Demetrius and the craftes menne whiche are with hym, haue a matter againſt any man, the lawe is open, and there are deputies, let them accuſe one another.

39 But yf ye enquyre any thyng concernyng other matters, it ſhalbe determined in a lawful aſſembly.

40 For we are in ieopardie to be accuſed of this dayes vprore, foraſmuche as there is no cauſe whereby we may geue a reckenyng of this concourſe of people.

41 And when he had thus ſpoken, he let the aſſemblie depart.

The.xx.Chapter.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and Grecia, 7 he celebrateth the Lordes ſupper, and preacheth. 9 At Troas he rayſeth vp Eutichus from the dead. 17 At Epheſus he calleth the elders of the Churche togeather, and committeth the keeping of Gods flocke to them, 29 warneth them of falſe teachers, 36 maketh his prayer with them, 38 and departeth by ſhippe towardes Hieruſalem.

A

1 AND after the vprore was ceaſſed, Paul called the diſciples, & tooke his leaue of them, and departed for to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gonne ouer thoſe partes, and had geuen them a long exhortation, he came into Grece:

3 And there abode three monethes: and when the Iewes layde wayte for hym, as he was about to ſayle into Syria, he purpoſed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Aſia Sopater of Berea: and of the Theſſalonians Ariſtarcus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, & Timotheus: and out of Aſia Tychicus and * Trophimus.

7 And vpon one of the Sabboth dayes when the diſciples came togeather for to breake bread, Paul reaſoned with them, ready to depart on the morowe, and continued the talke vnto mydnyght.

8 And there were many lyghtes in an vpper chamber where they were geathered togeather.

9 And there ſate in a wyndowe a certayne young man named Eutichus, beyng fallen into a deepe ſleepe, & as Paul was long reaſonyng, he was the more ouercomme with ſleepe, and felle downe from the thirde loft, and was taken vp dead.

13 And we went afore to ſhippe, and ſayled vnto Aſſon, there to receiue Paul: for ſo had he appoynted, myndyng him ſelfe to goe a foote.

14 And when he was comme to vs to Aſſon, we tooke hym in, and came to Mitylene.

C

15 And we ſayled thence, and came the next day ouer againſt Chios, and the next day we arriued at Samos, & taried at Trogyllium:

the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to ſayle ouer by Epheſus, becauſe he woulde not ſpende the tyme in Aſia: for he haſted, yf it were poſſible for hym, to be at Hieruſalem the day of Pentecoſt.

17 And from Miletum he ſent to Epheſus, and called the elders of the Churche.

18 Whiche when they were comme to hym, he ſayde vnto them, Ye knowe from the firſt day that I came into Aſia, after what manner I haue benne with you at al ſeaſons,

19 Seruing the Lorde with al humbleneſſe of minde, and with many teares and temptations, whiche came vnto me by the layinges awayte of the Iewes:

D 21 Witneſſing both to the Iewes and alſo to the Grekes, the *repentance that is towarde God, and the fayth whiche is towarde our Lorde Ieſus Chriſte.

Luk. 24. c.

22 And nowe beholde, I goe bounde (a) in the ſpirite vnto Hieruſalem, not knowyng the thynges that ſhal comme vnto me:

(a) That is to ſay, I goe by the impulſion and commaundement of the holy ghoſt, who draweth me as with a bonde.

23 But that the holy ghoſt witneſſeth in euery citie, ſayeing that bondes and troubles abyde me.

24 But none of theſe thynges mooue me,* neither compt I my life deare vnto mee ſelf, ſo that I myght fulfil my courſe with ioy, and the miniſterie which I haue receiued of the Lorde Ieſu, to teſtifie the Goſpel of the grace of God.

2. Tim. 2. b

25 And nowe beholde, I am ſure that henceforth ye al among whom I haue gonne preaching the kingdome of God, ſhal ſee my face no more.

26 Wherefore, I take you to recorde this day, that I am pure from the blood of al menne.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue ſhewed you al the counſel of God.

E 28 Take heede therefore vnto your ſelues, and to al the flocke, ouer the whiche the holy ghoſt hath made you ouerſeers, to rule the Churche of God, whiche he hath purchaſed (b) with his owne blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing, ſhal greeuous woolfes enter in among you, not ſparing the flocke.

30 Alſo of your owne ſelues ſhal menne ariſe, ſpeaking peruerſe thynges, to (c) draw away diſciples after them.

(b) That which apperteyneth to Chriſtes manhood (whiche is ſhedding of blood) is here ſpoken of his godhead, becauſe of the communion of the properties and vnion of two natures in one perſon.

(c) Through their ambitiō, whiche is mother of al ſects and hereſies.

31 Therefore watche, and remember that by yͤ ſpace of three yeeres I ceaſſed not to warne euery one nyght and day with teares.

32 And nowe brethren I commende you to God, and to the woorde of his grace, whiche is hable to buylde further, and to geue you an inheritance among al them whiche are ſanctified.

33 I haue deſyred no mans ſiluer, or golde, or veſture.

34 Yea, ye your ſelues knowe, that * theſe handes haue miniſtred vnto my neceſſities, and to them that were with me.

35 I haue ſhewed you al thynges, howe that ſo labouring ye ought to helpe the weake, and to remember the woordes of the Lorde Ieſu (howe that he ſayde) It is more bleſſed to geue, then to receiue.

36 And when he had thus ſpoken, he kneeled downe,* and prayed with them al.

Acts. 21. b.

37 And they al wept ſoare, and fel on Paules necke, and kiſſed hym,

The. xxi. Chapter.

1 Paules iourney by ſhippe. 8 Of Philip the Euangeliſt, 10 and Agabus the prophete, whiche warneth Paul not to goe to Hieruſalem. 13 He remayned ſtedfaſt in his purpoſe, and is taken.

A 1 AND when it came to paſſe that we had lanched foorth, and were departed frō them, we came with a ſtrayght courſe vnto Choos, and the day folowyng vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And when we had founde a ſhippe ſayling vnto Phenice, we went aboorde, & ſet forth.

3 Nowe when Cyprus beganne to appeare [vnto vs] we leaft it on the leaft hande, and ſayled into Syria, and came vnto Tyre: for there the ſhippe vnladed the burthen.

4 And when we hadde founde diſciples, we taried there ſeuen dayes: Who ſayde to Paul through the ſpirit,* that he ſhould not goe vp to Hieruſalem.

Acts. 20. c

5 And when the dayes were ended, we departed, and went our way, and they al brought vs on our way, with wyues and chyldren, til we were come out of the citie: And we kneeled downe in the ſhore, and *prayed.

Acts. 20. g

6 And when we had taken our leaue one of another, nother, we tooke ſhippe, and they returned home agayne.

B 7 When we had fulle ended the courſe from Tyre, we went downe to Ptolomaida, and ſaluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paules company departed, & came vnto Caeſarea: and we entred into the houſe of Philip the *Euangeliſt (whiche was one of the ſeuen) and abode with hym.

Actes.6.d and.8.a.

9 And the ſame man hadde foure daughters virgins, which dyd *propheſie.

Ioel.2.g.

10 And as we taryed there a good many of dayes, there came a certayne prophete from Iurie, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he tooke Paules gyrdle, and bound his owne handes and feete, & ſayde, Thus ſayth the holy ghoſt, *So ſhal the Iewes at Hieruſalem bynd the man that oweth this gyrdle, and ſhal deliuer hym into the handes of the gentiles.

Actes.9.e 2.Co.11.e.

12 And when we hearde theſe thynges, both we and other which were of the ſame place, beſought hym, that he woulde not goe vp to Hieruſalem.

13 Then Paul anſweared, What doo ye weeping and vexing myne harte? for I am ready, not to be bounde only, but alſo to dye at Hieruſalem for the name of the Lord Ieſus.

C 14 And when we coulde not turne his minde, we ceaſſed, ſayeing, *The wyl of the Lorde be fulfilled.

Mat.6.b.

15 And after thoſe dayes we tooke vp our burdens, and went vp to Hieruſalem.

Actes.9.c. 16 *There went with vs alſo [certayne] of the diſciples of Ceſarea, and brought with them one Mnaſon of Cyprus, an old diſciple, with whom we ſhoulde lodge.

17 And when we were comme to Hieruſalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And on the morowe Paul went in with vs vnto (a) Iames, and al the elders came togeather.

19 And when he had ſaluted them, he tolde by order al thynges that God had wrought among the gentiles by his miniſterie.

20 And when they hearde [it] they glorified the Lorde, and ſayde vnto hym, Thou ſeeſt brother howe many thouſande Iewes there are whiche beleeue, and they are al earneſt folowers of the lawe.

D 21 And they are enfourmed of thee, that thou teacheſt al the Iewes whiche are among the gentiles to forſake Moſes, ſayeing that they ought not to circumciſe theyr chyldren, neyther to walke [after] the cuſtomes.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude muſt needes comme togeather: for they ſhal heare that thou art comme.

23 Doo therefore this that we ſay to thee: We haue foure menne whiche haue a vowe on them,

Num.6.a.

24 Them take, and purifie thee ſelfe with them, and doo coſt on them, that they may ſhaue their heades: and al ſhal knowe that thoſe thynges whiche they haue hearde concernyng thee, are nothyng, but that thou thee ſelfe alſo walkeſt and keepeſt the lawe.

25 As touchyng the gentiles whiche beleeue, *we haue written and concluded, that they obſerue no ſuche thyng, ſaue only that they keepe them ſelues from thynges offered to idols, and from blood, and from ſtrangled, and from fornication.

Acts.14.d

26 Then Paul tooke the menne, and the next day purifiyng him ſelfe with them, entred into the temple, declaring the accompliſhment of the dayes of the purification, vntil that an offering ſhoulde be offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the ſeuen dayes were almoſt E ended, the Iewes which were of Aſia, when they ſawe hym in the temple, mooued al the people, and layde handes on hym,

28 Crying, Menne of Iſrael, helpe: this is the man that teacheth al menne euery where againſt the people, and the law, and this place: he hath alſo brought Grekes into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had ſeene before with him in the citie *Trophimus an Epheſian, whom they ſuppoſed that Paul hadde brought into the temple.)

Acts.20.b 2.Ti.4.d.

30 And al the citie was mooued, and the people ſwarmed togeather: & they tooke Paul, and drewe him out of the temple: and foorthwith the doores were ſhut.

31 And as they went about to kyl hym, tydynges came vnto the hygh captayne of the ſouldiers, that al Hieruſalem was in an vproare.

32 Whiche [immediatly] tooke (b) ſouldiers, and vnder captaynes, and ranne downe vnto them: and when they ſawe the chiefe captayne and the ſouldiers, they leaft ſmytyng of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captayne came neare, and tooke him, & commaunded him to be bound with two chaynes, and demaunded who he was, and what he had donne.

34 And ſomme cryed one thing, ſomme another, among the people: and when he coulde not knowe yͤ certaintie for the rage, he com-

36 For the multitude of the people folowed after,crying, Away with hym.
37 And when Paul beganne to be caryed into the caſtle,he ſayde vnto the high captaine, May I ſpeake vnto thee? Who ſayde, Canſt thou ſpeake Greke?
38 Art not thou that Egyptian which before these dayes madeſt an vprore,and leddeſt out into the wyldernesse foure thouſande menne that were murtherers?

6 And it came to paſſe, that as I made my iourney, and was comme nygh vnto Damaſcus about noone , ſodenly there ſhone from heauen a great lyght round about me:

7 And I felle vnto the earth, and hearde a voyce ſayeing vnto me,* Saul, Saul,why perſecuteſt thou me? Actes,9.a.

B 8 And I anſweared, Who art thou Lorde? And he ſayde vnto me,I am Jeſus of Nazareth(a) whom thou perſecuteſt.

9 And they that were with me ſawe veryly the lyght, and were afrayde: but they hearde not the voyce of hym that ſpake to me.

10 And I ſayde,What ſhal I doo Lorde? And the Lorde ſayd vnto me, Aryſe,and goe into Damaſcus: and there it ſhalbe tolde thee of al thynges whiche are appoynted for thee to doo.

11 And when I ſawe nothyng for the bryghtneſſe of the lyght,beyng ledde by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damaſcus.

12 And *one Ananias , a deuoute man as parteynyng to the lawe,hauing a good report of al the Jewes whiche there dwelt, Actes,9,c

(a) Jeſus was nowe in heauen, and coulde not be perſecuted of Paul: But the perſecution whiche Paul exerciſed agaynſt the faythful beyng his members, Chriſte counted it as done to hym ſelfe.

24 The chiefe captayne commaunded hym to be brought into the caſtle, and bade that he ſhoulde be ſcourged, and examined: that he myght knowe wherefore they cryed ſo on hym.

25 And as they bounde hym with thonges, Paul ſayde vnto the Centurion that ſtoode by, Is it lawful for you to ſcourge a man that is a (b) Romane, and vncondempned?

(b) He was not borne at Rome, but at Tarſus: the citezins wherof, enioy the priuilege of the citie of Rome, and were counted as Romanes.

26 When the Centurion hearde that, he went and tolde the chiefe captayne, ſayeing, Take heede what thou dooeſt: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captayne came, and ſayde vnto hym, Tel me, art thou a Romane? He ſayd, Yea.

28 And the chiefe captayne anſweared, With a great ſumme obteyned I this freedome. And Paul ſayde, I was free borne.

29 Then ſtraightway departed from him they whiche ſhould haue examined hym: and the chiefe captayne alſo was afrayde after he knewe that he was a Romane, and becauſe he had bounde hym.

30 On the morowe, becauſe he woulde haue knowen the certainetie wherefore he was accuſed of the Iewes, he looſed hym from his bandes, & commaunded the hygh prieſtes and al the counſel to comme togeather, and *brought Paul foorth, & ſet hym before them. Acts,23.b.

(a) Paul dooth not curſe the hygh prieſt, but denounce ſharply the punniſhment of God, which ſhould lyght vpon hym in the way of propheſiyng.

4 And they that ſtoode by, ſayde, *Reuileſt thou Gods hygh prieſt?

John.18.d

5 Then ſayde Paul, I wyſt not brethren (b) that he was the hygh prieſt: For it is written, Thou ſhalt not curſe the ruler of thy people.

(b) It is thought that Paul in mockerie thus excuſed hym ſelfe, as though thus he ſhould ſay, I ſee nothing in this man worthy the office of the hygh prieſt.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were Saducees, and the other Phariſees, he cryed out in the counſel, Menne and brethren, I am a Phariſee, the ſonne of a Phariſee: *of the hope and reſurrection of the dead I am iudged.

10 And when there aroſe a great debate, the chiefe captaine fearing leſt Paul ſhould haue benne pluckt a ſunder of them, commaunded the ſouldiers to goe downe, and to take hym from among them, and to bryng hym into the caſtle.

11 And the nyght folowyng, the Lorde ſtoode by hym, and ſayde, Be of good cheare Paul: for as thou haſt teſtified of me in Hieruſalem, *ſo muſt thou beare witneſſe alſo at Rome.

Acts.16.b.

Acts.27.b

12 And when it was day, certayne of yͤ Iewes geathered them ſelues togeather, and made a (c) vowe, ſayeing that they woulde neyther eate, nor drinke, tyl they had kylled Paul.

(c) The worde properly ſignifieth curſing, as when a man either ſweareth, voweth, or wyſheth hym ſelfe to dye, or to be geuen to the deuil, except he bryng his purpoſe to paſſe.

13 And they were moe then fourtie [menne] whiche had made this conſpiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe prieſtes and elders, and ſayde, We haue bounde our ſelues with a vowe, that we wyl eate nothing vntyl we haue ſlayne Paul.

C

15 Nowe therefore geue ye knowledge to the chiefe captayne, and to the counſel, that he bryng hym foorth vnto you to morowe, as though ye woulde knowe ſomethyng more perfectly of hym: and we, or euer he comme neare, are ready to kyle hym.

16 And when Paules ſiſters ſonne hearde of theyr laying awayte, he went and entred into the caſtle, and tolde Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the vnder captaines vnto hym, and ſayde, Bryng this young man vnto the hygh captayne: for he hath a certayne thyng to ſhewe hym.

18 And he tooke hym, and brought hym to the hygh captayne, and ſayde, Paul the priſoner called me vnto hym, and prayed me to bring this young man vnto thee, whiche hath a certayne matter to ſhewe thee.

19 Then the hygh captayne tooke hym by the hande, and went with hym out of the way, and aſked hym, What is it that thou haſt to telle me?

20 And he ſayde, The Iewes are determined to deſyre thee that thou wouldeſt bryng forth Paul to morowe into the counſel, as though they would enquire ſomewhat of him more perfectly.

D 21 But folowe not thou theyr myndes: for there lye in wayte for hym of them mo then fourtie menne, which haue bounde them ſelues with a vowe, that they wyl neyther eate nor drinke, til they haue kylled hym: and nowe are they ready, and looke for a promiſe from thee.

22 The chiefe captayne then let the young man depart, and charged hym, See thou tel it out to no man, that thou haſt ſhewed theſe thynges to me.

23 And he called vnto hym two vnder captaynes, ſayeing, Make ready two hundred ſouldiers to goe to Ceſarea, and horſemenne threeſcore and tenne, and ſpearemenne two hundred, at the thirde houre of the nyght:

24 And deliuer them beaſtes, that they may ſet Paul on, and bryng hym ſafe vnto Felix the hygh deputie.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner.

26 Claudius Lyſias, vnto the moſt myghty ruler Felix, ſendeth greetinges.

Acts,20.f. 27 *This man was taken of the Iewes, and ſhoulde haue benne kylled of them: Then came I with an armie, and reſcued him, and perceiued that he was a Romane:

31 Then the ſouldiers, as it was commaunded them, tooke Paul, and brought hym by nyght to Antipatridis.

32 On the morowe, they leaft the horſemenne to goe with hym, and returned vnto the caſtle.

33 Whiche when they came to Ceſarea, and deliuered the Epiſtle to the deputie, preſented Paul alſo before hym.

34 And when the deputie had read [the letter] he aſked of what prouince he was . And when he vnderſtood that he was of Cilicia,

A

Acts.25.d. 1 AND after fiue dayes, Ananias *the hygh prieſt deſſended, with the elders, and with a certaine oratour, named Tartullus, whiche appeared before the deputie agaynſt Paul.

2 And when Paul was called foorth, Tartullus beganne to accuſe hym, ſayeing, Seeing that we haue(a) obteined great quietneſſe by the meanes of thee, and that many good thinges are donne vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 That alowe we euer, and in al places, moſt noble Felix, with al thankes.

4 Notwithſtandyng, that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldeſt heare vs of thy curteſie a fewe woordes.

5 For we haue founde this man a peſtilent felowe, and a moouer of debate vnto al the Iewes in the whole worlde, and a maynteyner of the ſect of the Nazarites.

6 Whiche alſo hath gonne about to pollute the temple: *whom we tooke, and woulde haue iudged accordyng to our lawe. Acts,21.c.

7 But the hygh captayne Lyſias, came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke hym away out of our handes, B

8 Commaundyng his accuſers to come vnto thee: of whom thou mayeſt, yf thou wylt enquyre, know yͤ certainetie of al theſe thinges, whereof we accuſe hym.

9 And the Iewes lykewyſe affirmed, ſayeing that theſe thynges were ſo.

10 Then Paul, after that the deputie him ſelfe hadde beckened vnto hym that he ſhoulde ſpeake, anſweared, With a more quiet mind doo I anſweare for mee ſelfe, foraſmuche as I vnderſtande, that thou haſt benne of many yeeres a iudge vnto this nation:

11 Becauſe that thou mayſt know, that there are yet but twelue dayes, ſence I went vp to Hieruſalem for to woorſhip.

(a) Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captayne of the murderers, and put the Egyptians to flyght, whiche rayſed vp tumultes in Iurie. For theſe the oratour prayſed hym: otherwayes he was both cruel & couetous.

12 And they neither founde me in the temple diſputing with any man, eyther rayſing vp the people, neither in the ſynagogues, nor in the citie:

13 Neither can they prooue the thinges wherof they accuſe me.

C

14 But this I confeſſe vnto thee, that after the way whiche they cal (b) hereſie, ſo woorſhip I the God of my fathers, beleeuing al thinges whiche are written in the lawe and the Prophetes,

(b) No marueyle though in our tyme Gods true religion be called hereſie, for ſo it was counted of the wycked, euen in the begynning of Chriſtes kyngdome.

15 And haue hope towardes God, that *the reſurrection of the dead, whiche they them ſelues looke for alſo, ſhalbe both of the iuſt and vniuſt.

16 And herein *ſtudie I, to haue alway a cleare conſcience towarde God, and towarde men.

Acts.25.d

The .xxv. Chapter.

2 The Iewes accuſe Paule before Feſtus, 8 he anſweareth for him ſelfe, 11 and appealeth vnto the Emperour, 14 his matter is brought before Agrippa, 23 and he is brought foorth.

A

1 THEN when Feſtus was come into the prouince, after three dayes he aſſended from Ceſarea vnto Hieruſalem.

2 Then enfourmed hym the hygh prieſte and the cheefe of the Iewes agaynſt Paul, and they beſought him,

3 And deſyred fauour agaynſt hym, that he would ſende for hym to Hieruſalem, layeing wayte in the way to kyl hym.

4 But Feſtus anſweared, that Paul ſhoulde be keapt at Ceſarea, and that he hym ſelfe would ſhortly depart thyther.

5 Let them therefore, ſayd he, whiche among you are able, come downe with vs, and accuſe him, if there be any fault in this man.

6 And when he had taried among them more then ten dayes, he went downe vnto Ceſarea, & the next day ſate downe in the iudgement ſeate, and commaunded Paul to be brought.

7 Who being come, the Iewes whiche were come from Hieruſalem, ſtoode about [him] and layd many and greeuous complaints agaynſt Paul, whiche they could not (a) proue,

B

8 Whyle he anſweared [for him ſelfe] * that neyther agaynſt the lawe of the Iewes, neyther againſt the temple, nor yet againſt Caeſar, haue I offended any thing at al.

(a) Whyles Paul lyued vnder the lawe lyke other Iewes, his conuerſation was perfect and notable, and after his conuerſion vnto Chriſt, he became a more notable example of innocencie: but it is a common caſe, that the ſeruauntes of God are euyl ſpoken of, for their wel dooing.

9 But Feſtus wyllyng to doo the Iewes a pleaſure, anſweared Paul, and ſayde, Wylt thou goe vp to Hieruſalem, and there be iudged of theſe things before me?

10 Then ſayde Paule: I ſtande at Caeſars iudgement ſeate, where I ought to be iudged, to the Iewes haue I donne no wrong, as thou very wel knoweſt.

11 For if I do any wrong, or haue committed any thing worthi of death, I refuſe not to die: but yf there be none [of theſe thinges] wherof they accuſe me, no man may delyuer me to them. I appeale vnto (b) Caeſar.

XUM

12 Then ſpake Feſtus, with the counſel, and anſweared: Haſte thou appealed vnto Caeſar? vnto Caeſar ſhalt thou goe.

13 And after certayne dayes, kyng Agrippa, and Bernice, came vnto Ceſarea, to ſalute Feſtus.

14 And when they had benne there a good ſeaſon, Feſtus rehearſed Paules cauſe vnto the kyng, ſayeing, There is a certaine man leaft in bondes of Felix, 15 About whom, when I came to Hieruſalem, the hygh prieſtes & elders of the Iewes enfourmed me, and deſyred to haue iudgement agaynſt hym.

(b) The iniquitie of the iudge, who contrary to equitie, wylyng to pleaſure the Iewes, deuiſed howe to betray Paul, draue Paul to appeal, which is the vttermoſt remedie for ſuche as by wrong iudgement are oppreſſed: and this appellation by Gods prouidence was a meane that Paule ſhould teſtifie of Chriſt at Rome alſo.

C

16 To whom I anſweared, It is not the maner of the Romanes, for fauour to delyuer any man that he ſhould periſhe, before that he whiche is accuſed, haue the accuſers face to face, and haue licence to anſweare for hym ſelfe, concerning the cryme layd againſt him.

17 Therfore when they were comme hyther, without any delay, on the morrowe I ſate on the iudgement ſeate, and commaunded the man to be brought foorth.

18 Agaynſt whom, when the accuſers ſtoode vp, *they brought none accuſation of ſuche thinges as I ſuppoſed.

Actes.23,f

19 But had certayne queſtions agaynſt him of their owne ſuperſtition, and of one Ieſus whiche was dead, whom Paule affirmed to be alyue.

20 And becauſe I doubted of ſuche manner of queſtions, I aſked him whether he woulde goe to Hieruſalem, and there be iudged of theſe matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be keapt vnto the knowledge of Auguſtus, I commaunded him to be keapt, tyl I might ſend hym to Caeſar.

D

22 Then Agrippa ſayd vnto Feſtus, I would alſo heare the man mee ſelf. To morow ſayd he, thou ſhalt heare hym.

23 And on the morrowe when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pompe, and were entred into the counſel houſe, with the cheefe captaynes and cheefe menne of the citie, at Feſtus commaundement was Paule brought foorth.

24 And Feſtus ſayde, Kyng Agrippa, and al menne whiche are here preſent with vs, ye ſee this man, about whom al the multitude of the Iewes haue entreated me, both at Hieruſalem, and alſo here, crying that he ought not to lyue any longer.

25 Yet founde I nothing woorthie of death that he had committed: Neuertheleſſe, ſeeing that he hath appealed to Auguſtus, I haue determined to ſende hym:

26 Of whom I haue no certayne thyng to wryte vnto my Lorde: wherefore I haue brought hym foorth before you, and ſpecially before thee, O kyng Agrippa, that after examination had, I myght haue ſomewhat to wryte.

17 For mee thinketh it vnreaſonable for to ſend a pryſoner, and not to ſhew the cauſes which are layde agaynſt hym.

The xxvi. Chapter.

1 Kyng Agrippa heareth Paul. 25 Paules modeſt anſweare agaynſt the iniurie of Feſtus.

A

1 Then Agrippa ſayde vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to ſpeake for thee ſelfe. Then Paule ſtretched foorth the hande, and anſweared [for him ſelfe.]

2 I thinke mee ſelfe happie, kyng Agrippa, becauſe I ſhal anſweare this day before thee, of al the thinges whereof I am accuſed of the Iewes:

3 Namely, becauſe thou art expert in al cuſtomes & queſtions which are among (a) the Iewes: wherefore I beſeeche thee to heare me paciently,

4 My lyfe that I haue led of a childe, whiche was at the firſt among mine owne nation at Hieruſalem, knowe al the Iewes,

5 Whiche knewe me from the beginning (yf they would teſtifie) that after the moſt ſtrayteſt ſect of our (b) religion, I lyued a Phariſee.

(a) He knew muche, but he fayled in the ryght applying of his knowledge, as they doo which be wiſe in their owne conceiptes only, and haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge. (b) He taketh the ſect of the Phariſees to be perfecteſt, becauſe their doctrine was better then the other ſectes. The Saducees denyed the reſurrection of the dead. The Eſſeis gloryyng in ſtraightneſſe of lyfe, litle regarded true doctrine.

6 And nowe I ſtande, and am iudged for the hope of the promiſe made of God vnto our fathers:

B

7 Unto which promiſe our twelue tribes inſtantly ſeruing God day and nyght, hope to come: For whiche hopes ſake, kyng Agrippa, I am accuſed of the Iewes.

8 Why ſhoulde it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God rayſeth the dead?

9 I alſo veryly thought in mee ſelfe, that I ought to doo many contrary thinges, cleane agaynſt the name of Ieſus of Nazareth:

10 *Whiche thing I alſo dyd in Hieruſalem, and many of the ſaintes did I ſhut vp in priſons, hauing receiued aucthoritie of the hygh prieſtes, and when they were put to death, I gaue the ſentence.

Actes.8.a
1.Cor.15.b
Galat.2.c

11 And I pouniſhed them oft in euery ſynagogue, and compelled them to blaſpheme, and was yet more mad vpon them, and perſecuted them euen vnto ſtrange cities.

12 About whiche thynges as I went to Damaſcus, with aucthoritie and commiſſion of the hygh prieſtes,

13 Euen at midday, O kyng, I ſawe in the way a lyght from heauen, aboue the brightneſſe of the Sunne, ſhyne rounde about me, and them whiche iourneyed with me.

C 14 And when we were al fallen to the earth, I heard a voice ſpeaking vnto me in the Hebrue tongue, and ſayeing, *Saul, Saul, why perſecuteſt thou me? It is harde for thee to kicke agaynſt the prickes.

Actes.9.a. and.22.c

15 And I ſayde, Who art thou Lorde? And he ſayde, I am Ieſus whom thou perſecuteſt.

16 But ryſe and ſtande vpon thy feete, for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpoſe, to make thee a miniſter and a witneſſe, both of thoſe thinges whiche thou haſt ſeene, and of thoſe thinges in the whiche I wyl appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom nowe I ſend thee,

18 To open their eyes, that they may be turned from darkneſſe to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receyue forgeueneſſe of ſinnes, and inheritance among them whiche are ſanctified by fayth that is in me.

19 Wherefore, O Kyng Agrippa, I was not diſobedient vnto the heauenly viſion:

D 20 But ſhewed firſt vnto them of Damaſcus, and at Hieruſalem, and throughout al the coaſtes of Iurie, & then to the Gentiles, that they ſhoulde repent and turne to God, and do ſuche woorkes as become them that repent.

21 For this cauſe the Iewes caught me in the temple, and went about to kyl me.

22 Seeing therefore that I haue obteyned helpe of God, I continue vnto this day, witneſſing both to ſmal and great, ſaying none other things then thoſe which the Prophetes and Moſes dyd ſay ſhould comme:

23 That Chriſt ſhould ſuffer, & that he ſhould be the firſt that ſhould riſe from the dead, and ſhoulde ſhewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus ſpake for him ſelfe, Feſtus ſayde with a loude voyce, Paul thou art beſyde thee (c) ſelfe, muche learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he ſayde, I am not mad moſte noble Feſtus, but ſpeake foorth the woordes of trueth, and ſoberneſſe.

26 For the kyng knoweth of theſe thinges, before whom alſo I ſpeake freely, neither beleeue I, that any of theſe thynges are hidden from hym, for this thing was not donne in a corner.

27 Kyng Agrippa, beleeueſt thou the Prophetes, I wote wel that thou beleeueſt.

28 Then Agrippa ſayde vnto Paul, Somewhat thou perſwadeſt (d) me to be a chriſtian.

29 And Paul ſayde, I woulde to God, that not only thou, but alſo al that heare me to day, were both ſomewhat, and alſo in a great deale ſuche as I am, except theſe bondes.

30 And when he had thus ſpoken, the Kyng roſe vp, and the Deputie, and Bernice, and they that ſate with them.

E 31 And when they were gonne apart, they talked betweene them ſelues, ſayeing, This man doth nothing woorthie of death, or of bondes.

32 Then ſayde Agrippa vnto Feſtus, This man might haue benne let looſe, if he had not appealed vnto Caeſar.

(c) Feſtus beyng muche troubled with Paules declaration, and hauyng nothyng to ſay agaynſt it, yet would not yeelde vnto it, but clamorouſly condemned it as wicked and ſuperſtitious, for worldlinges are loth to be cumbred with godly matters, and count al ſuche fooliſhe that trouble them ſelues therewith.

(d) He ſawe a little light, but it was ſoone out, lyke vnto thoſe that hearing a Sermon, are for the tyme well mynded, but after returne to their olde trade.

The.xxvii.Chapter.

1 Paul ſhippeth towarde Rome. 3 Iulius the captaine entreateth him curteouſly.
41 And at the laſt they ſuffer ſhipwracke.

A 1 AND when it was concluded that we ſhould ſayle into Italie, they deliuered both Paule and certayne other priſoners vnto one named Iulius, an vnder captain of Auguſtus bande.

2 And we entred into a ſhip of Adramyttium, and looſed from lande, appoynted to ſayle by the coaſtes of Aſia, one *Ariſtarchus one of Macedonia, of the countrey of Theſſalonica, taryng ſtyl with vs.

Col.4.a

3 And the next day we came to Sidon: And Iulius *curteouſly entreated Paul, and gaue hym libertie to goe vnto his freendes, and to refreſhe him ſelfe.

Iere.39.e Acts.24.e

4 And when we had launched from thence, we ſayled hard by Cypers, becauſe the windes were contrarie.

5 And when we had ſayled ouer the ſea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra [a citie] whiche is in Lycia,

6 And there the vnder captaine founde a ſhip of Alexandria, ſayling into Italie, and he put vs therein.

B 7 And when we hadde ſayled ſlowly many dayes, and ſcarce were comme ouer agaynſt Gnidum, because the wynde withſtoode vs, we ſayled harde by ʺ Candie, ouer agaynſt Salmone:

ʺ Or, Creta, which was an hygh hyl of Candie.

8 And with muche woorke ſayled beyond it: and came vnto a place whiche is called the Fayre hauens, nygh whereunto was the citie of Laſea.

9 When muche tyme was ſpent, and when ſayling was nowe ieopardous, becauſe alſo that the faſt was now alredie paſt, Paul put them in remembrance,

10 And ſayde vnto them, Sirs, I perceiue that this vyage wyl be with hurt and much damage, not of the ladyng and ſhip only, but alſo of our lyues.

11 Neuertheleſſe, the vnder captaine beleeued the gouernour & the maiſter of the ſhip, more then thoſe thynges whiche were ſpoken of Paul.

12 And becauſe the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counſel to depart thence, yf by any meanes they might atteyne to Phenice, and there to wynter, whiche is an hauen of Candie, and lieth towarde the Southweſt and Northweſt wynde.

13 And when the South winde blewe ſoftly, they ſuppoſing that they had obteyned theyr purpoſe, looſed vnto Aſſon, and ſayled paſt Candie.

C 14 But not long after, there aroſe againſt their purpoſe a flawe of wynde out of the Northeaſt, whiche is called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ſhip was caught, and could not reſiſt the wynde, we let her goe, and were driuen with the weather.

16 But we were caried into an Ile, which is named Clauda, and had muche worke to come by a boate,

17 Which they tooke vp, and vſed helpe, and made faſt the ſhip, fearyng leſt they ſhoulde fal into the Syrtes: and ſo they let downe ʺ a veſſel, and were caryed.

ʺ Some read the ſayles.

18 The next daye when we were toſſed with an exceeding tempeſt, they lighted the ſhippe:

19 And the thirde day we caſte out with our owne handes the tackling of the ſhippe.

20 And when neither the Sunne nor ſtarres in many dayes appeared, and no ſmal tempeſt laye vpon vs, al hope that we ſhould be ſaued was then taken away.

D 21 But after long abſtinence, Paule ſtoode foorth in the midſt of them, and ſayde, Sirs, ye ſhould haue harkened to me, and not to haue looſed from Candie, and to haue gained vnto vs this harme and loſſe.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheare: for there ſhalbe no loſſe of anye mans lyfe among you, but of the ſhippe.

23 For there ſtoode by me this night the Angel of God, whoſe I am, and whom I ſerue, 24 Saying, Feare not Paul, *thou muſt be brought before Caeſar, and loe, God hath geuen thee (a) al them that ſayle with thee.

Actes.25.

(a) The graces and bleſſinges whiche God geueth to his chyldren, profite many tymes the enimies, whiche are vnwoorthie to receyue the fruite thereof.

25 Wherefore ſirs be of good cheare: for I beleeue God that it ſhalbe euen as it was tolde me.

26 Howbeit, we muſt be caſt into *a certaine Ilande.

27 But when the fourtienth nyght was comme, as we were ſayling in Adria about mydnyght, the ſhipmen deemed that they drewe neare to ſomme countrey:

28 And ſounded, & founde it twentie fadomes: and when they had gonne a litle further, they ſounded againe, & found it fiftiene fadomes.

29 Then fearing leſt we ſhoulde haue fallen on ſome rocke, they caſt foure ankers out of the ſterne, and wiſhed for the day.

E 30 And as the ſhipmen were about to flee out of the ſhip, when they had let downe the boat into the ſea, vnder a colour as though they woulde haue caſte ankers out of the foreſhippe, 31 Paul ſayde vnto the vnder captaine, and to the ſouldiers: Except theſe abyde in the ſhippe, (b) ye can not be ſaued.

(b) Paul woulde vſe ſuche meanes as God had ordeyned, leſt he ſhould ſeeme to haue tempted hym.

32 Then the ſouldiers cut of the rope of the boate, and let it fal away.

33 And when the day beganne to appeare, Paul beſought them al to take meate, ſaying, This is the fourtienth day that ye haue taried and continued faſting, receyuing nothing at al.

34 Wherefore, I pray you to take meate, for this no doubt is for your health, for there ſhal not (c) an hear fal from the head of any of you.

(c) By this Hebrue ſpeach is meant that they ſhould be in al poyntes ſafe and ſounde.

35 And when he had thus ſpoken, he tooke bread, and *gaue thankes to God in preſence of them al: and when he had broken it, he beganne to eate.

1.Tim.4.a

36 Then were they al of good cheare, and they alſo tooke meate.

37 And we were altogeather in the ſhip, two hundred, threeſcore and ſixtiene ſoules.

38 And when they had eaten yenough, they lighted the ſhippe, and caſte out the wheate into the ſea.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the land: but they ſpyed a certayne hauen with a banke, into the whiche they were mynded, if it were poſſible, to thruſt in the ſhippe.

40 And when they had taken vp the anckers, they committed ‖ [them ſelues] vnto the ſea, and looſed the rudder bandes, and hoyſed vp the mayne ſayle to the wynde, and drewe to lande.

‖ Or, the ſhip.

41 And when they fel into a place which had the ſea on both ſydes, they thruſt in the ſhip, and the forepart ſtucke faſt and mooued not, but the hinder part brake with the violence of the waues.

42 And the ſouldiers counſel was to kyl the pryſoners, leſte any of them when he hadde ſwomme out, ſhould runne awaye.

43 But the vnder Captayne wyllyng to ſaue Paul, keapt them from their purpoſe, and commaunded that they which could ſwim, ſhould caſt them ſelues firſt into the ſea, and ſcape to lande:

44 And the other, ſomme on bordes, and ſomme on broken peeces of the ſhippe: And ſo it come to paſſe, that they eſcaped al ſafe to lande.

The.xxviii.Chapter.

5 The viper hurteth not Paules hande, 8 he healeth Publius father, 23 and preacheth Chriſt at Rome.

A 1 AND when they were eſcaped, then they knewe that *the Ile was called Melita.

Act.27.c

2 And the barbarous people ſhewed vs no litle kindneſſe, for they kindled a fyre, and receyued vs euery one, becauſe of the preſent rayne, and becauſe of the colde.

3 And when Paul had geathered a bundle of ſtickes, and layd them on the fyre, there came a Viper out of the heate, and caught hym by the hande.

4 And when the ſtrangers ſaw the beaſt hang on his hand, they ſayde among them ſelues, No doubt this man is (a) a mutherer, whom though he haue eſcaped the ſea, yet vengeance ſuffereth not to liue.

5 And he ſhooke of the Viper into the fyre, and (b) felt no harme.

6 Howbeit, they waited when he ſhould haue ſwolne, or fallen downe dead ſodenly: but after they had looked a great whyle, and ſawe no harme comme to hym, they changed their myndes, and ſayde that he was a (c) God.

7 In the ſame quarters were poſſeſſions of the cheefe man of the Ile, whoſe name was Publius, whiche receyued vs, and lodged vs three dayes curteouſly.

8 And it came to paſſe that the father of Publius lay ſicke of a Feuer, and of a bloody flixe, to whom Paul entred in and prayed, & layde his handes on hym, and healed hym.

B 9 So when this was donne, other alſo which had diſeaſes in the Ile, came, & were healed:

10 Whiche alſo dyd vs great honour, and when we departed, they laded vs with ſuche thinges as were neceſſary.

11 And after three monethes we departed in a ſhip of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whoſe badge was (b) Caſtor and Pollux.

12 And when we came to Syracuſa, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compaſſe, & came to Rhegium, and after one daye the ſouth wynde blewe, and we came the next day to Puteolus:

14 Where we founde brethren, and were deſyred to tary with them ſeuen dayes: and ſo we came towarde Rome. C

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at Appii forum, and at the three tauernes: When Paul ſawe them, he thanked God, and waxed bolde.

16 And when we came to Rome, the vnder captayne deliuered the priſoners to the cheefe captaine of the hoſt: but Paul was ſuffered to dwel by him ſelfe, with a ſouldier that keapt hym.

17 And it came to paſſe, that after three dayes, Paul called the cheefe of the Iewes togeather. And when they were come togeather, he ſayde vnto them, Menne and brethren, though *I haue committed nothing againſt the people or lawes of the fathers, *yet was I deliuered pryſoner from Hieruſalem into the handes of the Romanes.

18 Whiche when they hadde examined me, woulde haue let me goe, becauſe there was no cauſe of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes ſpake contrary, I was conſtrayned to appeale vnto Caeſar, not that I hadde ought to accuſe my nation of.

Actes.23.b

20 For this cauſe then haue I called for you, euen to ſee [you] and to ſpeake with you: becauſe that for the (c) hope of Iſrael I am bounde with this chayne.

21 And

(a) Suche is the peruerſe iudgement of menne, that they condemne them, whom they ſee in any affliction.

(b) By this myracle God performed his promyſe made to his diſciples, that neither Serpentes, nor pyſon, ſhould hurt them, and alſo by the ſame, was confyrmed the Goſpel of his ſonne Ieſus Chriſt, which Paul preached vnto the worlde.

(c) Beholde the extremitie of Infidels, for after any rage and errour, they fal forthwith into the contrarie.

(b) Theſe the Painims fayned to be Iupiters chyldren, Gods of the ſea.

(c) That is, for Ieſus Chriſtes ſake, whom they had long looked for, to be the redeemer of the worlde.

D 21 And they ſayde vnto hym, We neither receyued letters out of Iurie concernyng thee, neither any of the brethren that came ſhewed or ſpake any harme of thee.

22 But we wyl heare of thee what thou thinkeſt: for as concerning this ſect, we knowe that *euery where it is ſpoken agaynſt. Luke,2,c

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and teſtified the kyngdome of God, perſwading them concerning Ieſus, both out of the lawe of Moſes, and out of the Prophetes, euen from mornyng to nyght.

Act,17.a 24 And *ſome were perſwaded in the thinges whiche were ſpoken, and ſome beleeued not.

25 And when they agreed not among them ſelues, they departed, after that Paul had ſpoken one woorde, [that is to ſay,] Wel ſpake the holy ghoſt by Eſaias the Prophete, vnto our fathers, 28 Be it knowen therfore vnto you, that this ſaluation of God is ſent to the Gentiles, and they ſhal heare it.

29 And when he had ſayd theſe woordes, the Iewes departed, and had great reaſoning among them ſelues.

30 And Paul dwelt two yeres ful in his owne hyred houſe, and receiued al that came in vnto hym,

The Epiſtle of the Apoſtle Saint Paul, to the Romanes.

The firſt Chapter.

1 Paul ſheweth to whom and to what purpoſe he is called. 16 What the Goſpel is. 18 The vengeance of God vpon the wicked. 20 The vſe of the creatures. 24 The ingratitude and puniſhment of the wicked.

A 1 PAUL the ſeruant of Jeſus Chriſte,(a) called [to be] an apoſtle, ſeuered into the Goſpel of God,

2 Which he had promiſed afore by his prophetes in the holy ſcriptures

3 Of his ſonne, which was made of the *ſeede of Dauid after the fleaſhe:

Mat.i.a.

4 And hath benne declared to be the ſonne of(b) God, with power after the ſpirite that ſanctifieth, by the reſurrection from the dead, of Jeſus Chriſte our Lorde:

5 By whom we haue receiued grace and apoſtleſhip, that obedience myght be geuen vnto the faith in his name among al heathē.

6 Among whom, ye are alſo the called of Jeſus Chriſte:

B 7 To al that be in Rome, beloued of GOD, ſaintes by callyng: *Grace to you, and peace, from GOD our father, and the Lorde Jeſus Chriſte.

i.Cor.i.a.
Gala.i.a

8 Firſt veryly I thanke my GOD through Jeſus Chriſte for you al, that your fayth is publiſhed throughout al the worlde.

9 For GOD is my witneſſe, whom I ſerue* with my ſpirite in ỹ goſpel of his ſonne, that without ceaſſyng I make mention of you:

Iohn.4.c.
i.Cor.3.c

10 Prayng alwayes *in my prayers, that by ſomme meane at the laſt, one tyme or other, I might take a proſperous iourney by the wyl of God, to comme vnto you.

11 For I long to ſee you, that I might beſtow among you ſomme ſpiritual gyft, that ye myght be ſtabliſhed.

12 That is, that I might haue conſolation togeather with you, eche with others fayth, yours and myne.

13 I woulde that ye ſhoulde knowe brethren, howe that I haue oftentymes purpoſed to comme vnto you (*and haue benne let hytherto,) that I myght haue ſomme fruite alſo among you, as among other of ỹ gentiles.

Act.26.b.

C 14 I am debter both to the Greekes, and to the(c) barbarous, both to the wyſe, and to the vnwyſe.

15 So that as muche as in me is, I am redy to preach the goſpel to you that are at Rome alſo.

16 For I am not aſhamed of the goſpel of Chriſte, becauſe it is the power of God vnto ſaluation to al that beleeue, to the Jewe firſt, and alſo to the Greeke.

17 For by it is the righteouſneſſe of God opened from fayth to faith. As it is written, The iuſte ſhall lyue by fayth.

18 For the wrath of God (d) is reueiled from heauen, againſt al vngodlyneſſe, and vnrighteouſneſſe of menne, whiche (e) withholde the trueth in vnryghteouſneſſe.

19 For that that may be knowen of God, is manyfeſt among them, becauſe GOD hath ſhewed it vnto them.

20 For his inuiſible things, being vnderſtanded by his wookes, through the creation of the worlde, are ſeene, that is, both his eternal powre and godhead: ſo that they are without excuſe.

21 Becauſe that when they knewe GOD, [notwithſtandyng] they gloriſyed hym not as God, neither were thankeful, but wared ful

of

(a) By this he declareth, that he came not into the office of the apoſtleſhip by his owne arrogancie, but by the callyng of God, wherby he differeth from the falſe apoſtles.

(b) Three maner of wayes Paul ſheweth here Chriſte to be declared the ſonne of God. Firſt, by power or workyng of miracles. Secondly, by the holy ghoſt appearyng in viſible ſignes. Thirdly, by his reſurrection from the dead.

(c) Al thoſe that were not Jewes by a cōmon worde were called Heathen. And here they are diuided into Greekes and barbarous. By Greekes, he vnderſtandeth thoſe that were learned, ciuile, and of good bringing vp. By barbarous, he meaneth rude and ſauage people, with whom no man could wel haue to doo.

(d) Which appearance the worlde knoweth nothyng of. For in the ſyght of God al menne are godleſſe, ſinners, and the chyldren of wrath: & whē they knowe any thyng of God, yet they be nought, becauſe they neither thanke hym, nor ſerue him, and therfore plagues are powred vpon them from heauen.

(e) They hold the trueth in vnrighteouſneſſe, ỹ which vnderſtande the trueth, & do not expreſſe the ſame in their deedes and lyfe.

Pſal,106,c of vanities in their imaginations, *and their fooliſhe hart was blynded.

22 When they counted them ſelues wiſe, they became fooles:

Iere.ij.c. 23 *And turned the glorie of the incorruptible God vnto an image, made not only after the ſimilitude of a corruptible man, but alſo, of byrdes, and foure footed *beaſtes, and of creepyng beaſtes. Ezec.14.b

24 Wherfore God gaue them vp to vncleanneſſe, thorow the luſtes of their owne hartes, that their owne bodyes ſhoulde be defyled among them ſelues.

25 Whiche changed his (f) trueth for a lye, and worſhypped & ſerued the creature, more then the creator, whiche is to be prayſed for euer, Amen.

(f) By his trueth, here he vnderſtādeth the glorie of God, and his true religion: and a lye he calleth idols, becauſe the idolaters wēt about to take away from wood & ſtone that whiche they were, thinking thē to be neyther wood nor ſtone, but attributed to thē that that they were not, that is, diuine power & nature.

26 Wherfore God gaue them vp vnto ſhameful luſtes: for euen their women dyd change the natural vſe, into that whiche is agaynſt nature.

27 And lykewyſe alſo, the menne left the natural vſe of the woman, and brent in their luſtes one with another, and menne with menne wrought fylthyneſſe, and receiued in them ſelues the rewarde of their errour (as it was accordyng.)

28 And as they regarded not to knowe God: E *[euen ſo] GOD deliuered them vp vnto a lewde mynde, that they ſhoulde doo thoſe thynges whiche were not comely: Actes,7.f.

29 Beyng ful of al vnrighteouſneſſe, fornication, craftineſſe, couetouſneſſe, malitiouſneſſe, ful of enuie, murther, debate, deceit, euyl conditioned, whiſperers,

30 Backbyters, haters of GOD, deſpiteful, proude, boaſters, bryngers vp of euyl things, diſobedient to father and mother:

31 Without vnderſtandyng, couenant breakers, without natural affection, truice breakers, vnmercyful.

32 The which knowyng the ryghteouſneſſe of God, (how that they which commit ſuch thinges, are woorthy of death,) not only doo the ſame, *but alſo haue pleaſure in them that doo them. Ozee,7.a,

The.ii.Chapter.

1 Gods iudgement vpon the hypocrites. 12 Ignorance excuſeth not. 13 Al menne are ſinners. 15 The Gentiles by their conſcience, 17 the Iewes by their lawe.

A 1 Therfore art thou inexcuſable, O man, whoſoeuer *thou be that (a) iudgeſt: For in that ſame wherein thou iudgeſt another, thou condemneſt thee ſelfe. For thou that iudgeſt, doeſt euē the ſelfe ſame thynges.

Mat,7.a.

(a) S. Paul ſpeaketh here agaynſt thoſe menne onely, who being i thē ſelues fylled with al wickedneſſe, and impietie, yet be of al other moſt buſie & curious in noting and reprehendyng other mennes faultes: not of any godly zeale, but to iuſtifie them ſelues, and to bryng other menne into hatred and contempt.

2 But we are ſure that the iudgemente of God is accordyng to the trueth, againſt them whiche commit ſuche thynges.

3 Thynkeſt thou this, O thou man that iudgeſt them which doo ſuch thinges, and doeſt the ſame [thee ſelfe] that thou ſhalt eſcape the iudgement of God?

4 Eyther deſpyſeſt thou the rycheſſe of his goodneſſe, and pacience, and long ſufferance, not knowyng *that the goodneſſe of GOD leadeth thee to repentance?

Eſai.30.d

5 But thou after thy ſtuberneſſe & hart that can not repent, heapeſt vnto thee ſelfe wrath, agaynſt the day of wrath and declaration of the ryghteous iudgement of God:

Mat,xvi.d 6 *Whiche wil reward euery man accordyng to his (b) deedes:

7 To them which by continuing in wel dooyng ſeeke for glory, and honour, and immortalitie, eternal lyfe.

8 But vnto them that are contentious, and doo not obey the trueth, but obey vnryghteouſneſſe [ſhal comme] indignation and wrath.

9 Tribulation, & anguiſhe, vpon euery ſoule of man that dooth euyl, of the Iewe firſt, and alſo of the Greeke:

10 But glory, and honour, and peace, to euery man that dooth good, to the Iewe firſt, and alſo to the Greeke.

11 For *there is no reſpect of perſons with god. 2.Par,19,c

17 Beholde, thou art called a Iewe, and (d) reſteſt in the law, & makeſt thy boaſt of God,

18 And knoweſt [his] wyl, and aloweſt the thinges that be excellent, infourmed by the lawe:

19 And

(b) Not that our woorkes be of ſuch merite that they deſerue reward: but the ſcriptures vſe this kynde of ſpeakyng, that therby it may prouoke and ſtirre vp men vnto good lyuyng, wherby our fayth may the more appeare. Whiche good woorkes God of his free grace dooth rewarde.

(c) It is his Goſpel, both for the feruent loue and zeale that he beareth to it, and alſo for the great paynes that he hath taken in ſettyng foorth the ſame.

(d) He awaketh the Iewes whiche were a ſleepe through a certayne ſecuritie and confydence in the lawe.

19 And beleeueſt that thou thee ſelf art a guide of the blynde, a lyght of them [whiche are] in darkeneſſe,

20 An infourmer of them whiche lacke diſcretiõ, a teacher of the vnlearned: which haſt the fourme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the lawe.

25 For circumciſion verely auayleth, if thou keepe the law: but if thou be a breaker of the lawe, thy circumciſion is made vncircumciſion.

26 Therefore, if the (c) vncircumciſion keepe the ordinances of the law, ſhal not his vncircumciſion be counted for circumciſion?

(c) By this woorde he meaneth al the people, of what coũtrey or nation ſoeuer they be, whiche haue not receiued the ſigne of circumciſion, according to the lawe of Moſes.

27 And ſhal not vncircumciſion which is by nature, if it keepe the lawe, iudge thee, which being vnder the letter and circumciſion, doeſt tranſgreſſe the lawe?

28 For he is not a Jewe, whiche is [a Jewe] " outwarde. Neyther is that circumciſion whiche is outwarde in the fleaſhe. E

Iohn.8.c Rom.ix.b Colo.2.b.

The .iij. Chapter.

1 The Jewes haue a prerogatiue. 10 The Jewes and Gentiles be both ſinners. 12 Al are iuſtified by grace through fayth, and not through workes.

A 1 What preferment then hath the Jewe? or what profite is there of circumciſion?

2 Much euery way. Firſt, for *becauſe that vnto thẽ were committed the wordes of God. Rom,ix,a,

3 What then though ſomme of them did not beleeue? Shal their vnbeleefe make the (a) fayth of God without effect?

(a) whiche is the perfourmance of gods promiſe. For fayth is taken after two ſortes, both for our beliefe, when we aſſure our ſelues that God wyl performe his promiſe, and alſo for ỹ ſtedfaſtneſſe of Gods promiſe to this people. For although ſome of the Jewes dyd not beleeue, yet Gods trueth neuer fayled.

4 God forbyd: Yea let God be true, and euery man a lyer, as it is written, That thou myghteſt be iuſtified in thy ſayeinges, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 But if our vnryghteouſneſſe ſetteth foorth the ryghteouſneſſe of GOD, what ſhal we ſay? Is God vnryghteous whiche taketh vengeance? (I ſpeake after the manner of menne,)

6 God forbyd: for howe then ſhal God iudge the worlde?

B 7 For if the trueth of God hath more abounded through my lye vnto his glorie, why am I as yet iudged as a ſinner?

8 And not rather (as we be ſlaunderouſly reported, and as ſomme affirme that we ſay) let vs doo euyl, that good may comme thereof? Whoſe damnation is iuſt.

9 What then, are we better [then they?] No, in no wyſe: for we haue before accuſed both Jewes and Gentiles, that they are al vnder ſinne:

10 As it is written, *There is none righteous, no not one: Pſal.14.a and,52,a 11 There is none that vnderſtandeth, there is none that ſeeketh after God.

12 They are al gonne out of the way, they are al become vnprofitable: there is none that dooth good, no not one.

13 *Their throte is an open ſepulchre, with their tongues they haue deceiued, the poyſon of aſpes is vnder their lyppes. Pſal.v.b.

14 *Whoſe mouth is ful of curſyng and bytterneſſe: C Pſal.v.b.

15 *Their feete are ſwyft to ſhed blood. Prou.i.b

16 *Hartes greefe & miſerie are in their wayes. Eſai.lix.b.

17 And ỹ way of peace haue they not knowẽ.

18 *There is no feare of God before their eyes. Pſal.36,a 19 ☞ Nowe we knowe that what thynges ſo euer the lawe ſayth, it ſayth it to them which are vnder the lawe: that euery mouth may be ſtopped, and that al the worlde may be indangered to God.

20 Becauſe that *by the deedes of the (b) lawe, there ſhal no fleaſhe be iuſtified in his ſyght: For by the lawe commeth the knowledge of ſinne. Gala.ij.c

(b) He includeth here the whole lawe, both the ceremonial and moral, whoſe workes can not iuſtifie, becauſe they be imperfect in al menne.

21 But nowe is the ryghteouſneſſe of GOD declared without the lawe, beyng witneſſed by the lawe and the prophetes.

22 The ryghteouſneſſe of God [commeth] by the fayth of Jeſus Chriſte, vnto al and vpon al them that beleeue. There is no difference: D

23 For al haue ſinned, and haue neede of the glory of God,

24 [But are] *iuſtified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Chriſte Jeſu: Eſai.53.d.

Iohn.2.c

25 whom God hath ſet forth*to be a[c] propitiation, through fayth in his blood, to declare his ryghteouſneſſe, by the forgeuyng of the ſinnes that are paſt,

(c) whiche is a pacifyng of Gods diſpleaſure. That whereas we were ſometime bondſlaues to ſinne, God made his onely ſonne Chriſte Ieſus a ſacrifice for our ſinnes, to reconcile vs agayne by fayth into Gods fauour.

26 whiche God dyd ſuffer, to ſhewe at this time his righteouſnes: that he might be iuſt, and the iuſtifier of hym whiche beleeueth on Ieſus.☞

27 where is then thy boaſtyng? It is excluded. By what lawe? Of woorkes? Nay: but by the lawe of fayth.

28 Therfore, we holde that a man is iuſtified by fayth, without the deedes of the lawe. E

Gala.ij.c

29 Is he the God of the Iewes onely? Is he not alſo of the Gentiles? Yes, euen of the Gentiles alſo.

30 For it is one God whiche ſhal iuſtifie the circumciſion by[d] faith, and vncircumciſion through fayth.

(d) Meanyng that the Iewe & the Gentile are both iuſtified by one meanes, which is by fayth.

31 Doo we then deſtroy the lawe through faith? God forbid: but we rather maynteine the lawe.

The.iiij.Chapter.

7 Iuſtification is the free gyft of God, as it appeareth by Dauid and Abraham, 13 and alſo by the office of lawe and fayth.

A 1 What ſhal we ſay then that *Abraham our fathers as parteynyng to the fleaſhe dyd fynde?

Eſai.51.a.

2 For if Abraham were iuſtified by woorkes, then hath he wherein to boaſt, but not before God.

Gen.xv.b.
Galat.iij.a
Iames.ij.d

3 For what ſaith the ſcripture? *Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted vnto hym for ryghteouſneſſe.

4 To hym that woorketh, is the reward not reckened of grace, but of duetie.

5 To him that woorketh[a] not, but beleeueth on hym that iuſtifieth the[b] vngodly, his fayth is counted for ryghteouſneſſe.

(a) That is, which meaneth not to obteyne ſaluation through woorthyneſſe of his woorkes.
(b) God is ſaid to iuſtifie the vngodly, becauſe he pardoneth his ſinnes, and of a wicked man, maketh hym good.

6 Euen as Dauid deſcribeth the bleſſedneſſe of the man vnto whom god imputeth righteouſneſſe without woorkes:

Pſal.32.a.

7 [Sayeing] *Bleſſed are they whoſe vnrighteouſneſſe are forgeuen, & whoſe ſinnes are couered.

B 8 Bleſſed is that man to whom the Lorde wyl not impute ſinne.

9 [Came] this bleſſedneſſe then vpon the circumciſion only, or vpon the vncircumciſion alſo? For we ſay that fayth was reckened to Abraham for ryghteouſneſſe.

Gen.xv.b.

10 How was it then reckened? When he was in the circumciſion, or [when he was] in the vncircumciſion? *Not in the circumciſion, but in vncircumciſion.

Gen.17.b.

11 And he receiued the *ſigne of circumciſion, as the[c] ſeale of the ryghteouſneſſe of fayth, whiche he had yet being vncircumciſed: that he ſhould be yͤ father of al them that beleeue, though they be not circumciſed, that ryghteouſneſſe might be imputed vnto them alſo.

(c) So was Abrahams circumciſion called, becauſe thereby was ſealed yͤ ryghteouſneſſe that through fayth was imputed to hym before his circumciſion.

12 And that he might be father of circumciſion, not vnto them onely whiche came of the circumciſed: but vnto them alſo that walke in the ſteppes of the fayth that was in our father Abraham, before the tyme of circumciſion.

13 For the promiſe that he ſhould be the heyre of the world, [was] not to Abraham, or to his ſeede through the law, but through the righteouſneſſe of fayth.

C Galat.iij.c

14 *For if they whiche are of the lawe be heyres, then is fayth but vayne, and the promiſe made of none effect:

15 Becauſe the lawe cauſeth wrath: For where no lawe is, there is no tranſgreſſion.

Eſai.51.a.

16 Therfore by faith [is the inheritance geuen] that it might [be] by grace, that the promiſe myght be ſure to al the ſeede, not to that only whiche is of the lawe, but to that alſo which is of the fayth of Abraham, *which is the father of vs al.

Gen.17.a

17 (As it is written, *I haue made thee a father of many nations) before God, whom he beleeued, which reſtoreth yͤ dead vnto lyfe, and calleth thoſe thynges whiche be not, as[d] though they were.

(d) In the creation of the world this appeared. For when he commaunded any thyng to be, foorthwith it was.

18 Who contrary to hope,[e] beleeued in hope, that he ſhoulde be the father of many natiōs: accordyng to that whiche was ſpoken, So ſhal thy ſeede be.

(e) That is, whiche beleeued and hoped for thoſe thinges which god dyd promiſe, when as to mans reaſon they were without hope.

19 And he faynted not in the fayth, nor conſydered his owne body nowe dead, when he was almoſt an hundred yeeres olde, neyther yet the[f] deadneſſe of Saraes wombe.

(f) For that ſhe was paſt chyld bearing.

20 He ſtackered not at the promiſe of GOD through vnbeleefe: but was ſtrong in fayth, geuyng glory to God:

D

21 And beyng ful certified, that what he had promiſed, he was able alſo to perfourme.

22 And therefore was it reckened to hym for ryghteouſneſſe.

Rom.xv.a

23 *Neuertheleſſe, it is not written for him only, that it was reckened to hym:

24 But alſo for vs, to whom it ſhalbe reckened, ſo that we beleeue on him that raiſed vp Ieſus our Lorde from the dead.

25 whiche was deliuered for our ſinnes, and was rayſed agayne for our iuſtification.

The.v.Chapter.

1 The fruite of fayth. 7 The loue of God, and obedience of Chriſte. 12 From whence commeth death, and from whence lyfe.

A 1 Therfore beyng iuſtified by fayth, we are * at (a) peace with GOD, thorow our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte:

John.16.a.

(a) By peace whiche is the fruite of fayth, is meant the incredible and moſt conſtant ioy of mynde, or conſcience beyng quiet, & eſtabliſhed in Gods grace.

2 By whom alſo we haue had an entrance by fayth, vnto this grace wherein we ſtande, and reioyce in hope of the glory of God.

Heb.iij.a 3 Not that onely: but alſo we reioyce in tribulations, knowyng that tribulation worketh patience:

4 Pacience proofe, proofe hope:

5 And hope maketh not (b) aſhamed, becauſe the loue of God is ſhed abrode in our hartes by the holy ghoſt, whiche is geuen vnto vs.

(b) Bath for that the hope of the godly is not diſapoynted of ŷ which they hope for, & alſo for that they are not aſhamed of any affliction in this worlde, as the worldly minded be: but conſtantly abide without ſhame, whatſoeuer trouble God doth ſende to them.

6 * For when we were yet weake, accordyng to the tyme, Chriſte dyed for the vngodly.

7 Nowe ſcaſe wyl any man dye for the righteous: yet peraduenture for the good ſomme man durſt dye.

8 ☞ But * God ſetteth out his loue towarde vs, ſeeyng that whyle we were yet ſinners, Chriſte dyed for vs.

John.iij.c.
i.John.4.b

9 Muche more then nowe, we that are iuſtified by his blood, ſhalbe ſaued from wrath through hym.

10 For if when we were enimies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his ſonne: muche more, ſeeyng we are reconciled, we ſhalbe ſaued by his lyfe.

11 Not onely ſo, but we alſo ioy in GOD, through our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte, by whom we haue nowe receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man ſinne entred into the worlde, and * death by ſinne: euen ſo, death entred into al menne, inſomuche as al haue ſinned.

Gen.ij.c.
Rom.vi.d.

13 For vnto the law was ſinne in the world: but ſinne is not imputed when there is no lawe.

14 Neuertheleſſe, death raigned from Adam to Moſes, ouer thẽ alſo that had not ſinned with like tranſgreſſion as did Adam, which is the figure of hym that was to comme. C

15 But not as the ſinne, ſo is the free gyft. For if through the ſinne of one many be dead: muche more the grace of God, and the gyft by grace, * whiche [is] by one man Jeſus Chriſte, hath abounded vnto many. John.i.b.

16 And not as by one that ſinned [euen ſo] the gyft: For the ſinne entred by one [offence] into condemnation: but the gift (c) of many ſinnes into iuſtification.

(c) For by Chriſt we are not onely delyuered from the ſinnes of Adam, but alſo from al ſuche ſinnes as we haue added thereunto.

17 For if by the ſinne of one death raigned by the meanes of one, muche more [they] which receiue abundance of grace and of the gyft of righteouſneſſe, ſhal raigne in lyfe by the meanes of one, Jeſus Chriſte.

18 Lykewyſe then, as by the ſinne of one [ſinne came] on al menne to condemnation: euen ſo, by ŷ righteouſneſſe of one [good came] vpon al menne to the ryghteouſneſſe of lyfe.

19 For as by one mans diſobedience many became ſinners: ſo by the obedience of one, ſhal many be made ryghteous.

20 But * the lawe in the meane tyme entred in, that ſinne ſhoulde encreaſe. But where ſinne was plenteous, grace was more plenteous. Galat.iij.a

21 That as ſinne hath raigned vnto death: euen ſo myght grace raigne thorowe ryghteouſneſſe vnto eternal lyfe, by Jeſus Chriſte our Lorde.

The.vi.Chapter.

5 Newneſſe of lyfe foloweth iuſtification, to the whiche he exhorteth.

A 1 What ſhal we ſay thẽ? Shal we continue in ſinne, that grace may abounde? God forbyd.

2 How ſhal we ŷ are dead (a) to ſinne, lyue any longer therein?

(a) He dyeth to ſinne, in whom the ſtrength of ſinne is broken by the power of Chriſte.

3 ☞ Knowe ye not, that al we whiche haue benne baptized into Jeſus Chriſt, haue benne baptized (b) into his death?

(b) That is, that ſinne thorowe Chriſtes death, may be aboliſhed and dye in vs: and that as we are made cleane outwardly with water in our baptiſme, ſo inwardly our ſinnes may be waſhed away, and clenſed by ŷ blood of Chriſte.

4 We are buried then with him by baptiſme into his death, that lykewyſe as Chriſte was rayſed vp from the dead by the glorie of the father: euen ſo, we alſo ſhoulde walke in newneſſe of lyfe.

5 For if we be graft togeather by the likeneſſe of his death: euen ſo ſhal we be [partakers] of the reſurrection:

6 Knowyng this, that our olde man is crucified with hym alſo, that the body of ſinne myght vtterly be deſtroyed, that hencefoorth we ſhoulde not ſerue ſinne.

7 For he that is dead, is iuſtified from ſinne. B

8 And if we be dead with Chriſte, we beleeue that we ſhal alſo lyue with hym: 2.Tim.2.b

9 Knowyng that Chriſte beyng rayſed from the dead, * dieth no more, death hath no more power ouer hym. Apoc.1.b.

10 For as touchyng that he dyed, he dyed concernyng ſinne once: And as touching that he lyueth, he lyueth vnto God.

11 Lykewyſe recken your ſelues to be dead to ſinne, but alyue vnto GOD, thorowe Jeſus Chriſte our Lorde. ☜

12 Let not ſinne raigne therfore in your mortal body, that ye ſhould therunto obey by the luſtes of it.

13 Neyther geue ye your members ″ as inſtrumentes of vnryghteouſneſſe vnto ſinne: but geue your ſelues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and your members ″ as inſtruments of righteouſneſſe vnto God.

″ or, weapons

″ or, weapons

C 14 For ſinne ſhal not haue power ouer you, becauſe ye are not vnder the (c) law, but vnder grace.

(c) That is, vnder ỹ curſe of the lawe, whoſe office is to accuſe & condemne: but vnder grace, whereby we haue forgeueneſſe of our ſinnes, and are ſanctified by the holy ghoſt into the newneſſe of lyfe.

15 What then? Shal we ſinne, becauſe we are not vnder the lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 ☞ Know ye not how that to whomſoeuer ye commit your ſelues as ſeruantes to obey, his ſeruantes ye are to whom ye obey: whether it be of ſinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto ryghteouſneſſe?

17 But GOD be thanked, that ye were the ſeruantes of ſinne: but ye haue obeyed with hart the fourme of doctrine, into the whiche ye were brought vnto.

18 *Beyng then made free from ſinne, ye are become the ſeruantes of ryghteouſneſſe.

Iohn.8.d
Rom.8.a

19 I ſpeake after the (b) manner of menne, becauſe of the infirmitie of your fleaſhe. For as ye haue geuen your members ſeruantes to vncleanneſſe and iniquitie, vnto iniquitie: euen ſo nowe geue your members ſeruantes to ryghteouſneſſe vnto holyneſſe.

(b) Menne vſe to ſpeake gentylly to their frendes, and not to exact ſo muche as they myght, but ſo farre foorth as reaſon requireth.

20 For when ye were the ſeruantes of ſinne, ye were free from ryghteouſneſſe.

21 What fruite had ye then in thoſe thynges, whereof ye are nowe aſhamed? For the ende of thoſe thynges, is death.

22 But now ye beyng made free from ſinne, and made the ſeruantes of God, haue your fruit vnto holineſſe, & the end euerlaſting lyfe.

23 For* the rewarde of ſinne is death: but the gyft of GOD is eternal lyfe, thorowe Jeſus Chriſte our Lorde. ☜

The.vii.Chapter.

1. 7. 12. The vſe of the lawe, 24 from the whiche Chriſt hath deliuered vs. 23 The fyght betweene the lawe of the fleaſhe, and the lawe of the ſpirite.

A 1 KNowe ye not brethren (for I ſpeake to them that know the (a) law) [howe] that the lawe hath power ouer a man, as long as he lyueth?

(a) Before the commyng of Chriſt al men were maryed and bounde to the law, which byd them none other ſeruice, but diſcloſed their ſinne and wickedneſſe, forcing them to ſeeke helpe for their ſinne els where. Nowe then, the lawe being aboliſhed for her imperfection, and they cleanſed thorowe Gods grace, are ſpouſed vnto Chriſte their new huſband, hym to ſerue in newneſſe of lyfe.

2 For the woman whiche hath an huſbande, is bounde by the lawe to her huſbande, as long as he liueth: but if the huſbande be dead, ſhe is looſed from the lawe of her huſbande.

3 So then if whyle her huſbande lyueth, ſhe couple her ſelfe with another man, ſhe ſhalbe ″ counted a wedlocke breaker: but if her huſbande be dead, ſhe is free from the lawe: ſo that ſhe is no wedlocke breaker though ſhe couple her ſelfe with another man.

″ or, called.

4 Euen ſo, ye alſo my brethren, are dead concernyng the lawe by the (b) body of Chriſte, that ye ſhoulde be coupled to another, who is rayſed from the dead, that we ſhoulde bryng foorth fruite vnto God.

(b) Becauſe the body of Chriſte is made an offeryng and a ſacrifice for our ſinnes, wherby god is pleaſed, and his wrath appeaſed: and for Chriſtes ſake the holy ghoſt is geuen to al beleuers, wherby the power of ſinne is in vs dayly weakened: we are counted dead to the law, for that ỹ lawe hath no dominion ouer vs.

5 For when we were in the fleaſhe, the luſtes of ſinne [whiche were] by the lawe wrought in our members, to bryng foorth fruite vnto death.

6 But nowe are we deliuered from the lawe, and dead vnto it wherunto we were in bondage, that we ſhoulde ſerue in newneſſe of ſpirite, and not in the oldneſſe of the letter.

7 What ſhal we ſay then? Is the lawe ſinne? God forbyd. Neuertheleſſe, * I knewe not ſinne, but by the lawe: For I had not knowe luſt, except the lawe had ſayde, * Thou ſhalt not luſt.

Rom.v.c
Galat.iij.b
Exod.20.c
Deut.v.b.

8 But ſinne takyng occaſion by the commaundement, wrought in me al manner of concupiſcence. For without the lawe ſinne [was] dead.

9 I once lyued without lawe: but when the commaundement came, ſinne reuiued,

10 And I was dead: and the very ſame commaundement, whiche was [ordeyned] vnto lyfe, was founde [to be] vnto me an occaſion of death.

11 For ſinne takyng occaſion by the commaundement, hath deceiued me, and by the ſame ſlue [me.]

12 Wherefore the lawe is holy, and the commaundement holy, and iuſt, and good.

13 Was that then whiche was good, made death vnto me? God forbyd. But ſinne, that ſinne myght appeare, by that whiche was good, to worke death in me: that ſinne by the commaundement myght be out of meaſure ſinful.

Eſa.lii.a

14 For we knowe that the lawe is ſpiritual: but I am carnal, * ſolde vnder (c) ſinne.

(c) Lyke as bondmen are violently thruſt. hurled, & tormoyled, as it pleaſeth their cruel maiſter: So are we through heapes of ſinnes drawen to many euil doynges which we doo neyther lyke nor alowe.

15 For that whiche I doo, I alowe not: For what I woulde, that doo I not: but what I hate, hate, that doo I.

XUM

16 If I doo now that, whiche I woulde not, I conſent vnto the lawe that it is good.

17 Nowe then, it is not I that doo it: but ſinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me (that is to ſay in my *fleaſhe) dwelleth no good thyng. For to wyl, is preſent with me: but I find no meanes to perfourme that whiche is good.

Gen. vi. a

19 For the good that I would, doo I not: but the euyl whiche I woulde not, that doo I.

20 And if I doo that I woulde not, then is it not I any longer that dooth it, but ſinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I fynde then by the lawe, that when I would doo good, euyl is preſent with me. D

22 For I delite in the lawe of God, after the inwarde man:

23 But I ſee another lawe in my members, rebelling againſt the lawe of my minde, and ſubduyng me vnto the lawe of ſinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am: who ſhal deliuer me from the [b] body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Jeſus Chriſte our Lorde. So then, with the minde I mee ſelfe ſerue the lawe of God: but with the fleaſhe, the lawe of ſinne.

(b) It is called the body of ſinne, for that it is an whole lumpe of ſinne, toſſyng & tormentyng the whole man, & plucking hym frō god, wherby plagues & miſeries are heaped on, and man lyueth as he were in the myddeſt of death.

The. viij. Chapter.

1 The aſſurance of the faythful. 6 The fruites of the holy ghoſt. 13 The weakeneſſe of the lawe. 17 Of hope. 18 Of pacience vnder the croſſe. 29 Of the foreknowledge of God.

A 1 There is then no damnation to them whiche are in Chriſt Jeſu, which walke not after the fleaſhe, but after the ſpirite.

2 For the lawe of the [a] ſpirite of lyfe, through Jeſus Chriſte, hath made me free from the law of ſinne and death.

3 For what the lawe coulde not doo, in as muche as it was weake through the fleaſhe, God hauing ſent his owne ſonne, in the ſimilitude of ſinful fleaſhe, euen by ſinne, [b] condemned ſinne in the fleaſhe:

4 That the righteouſneſſe of the law, might be fulfylled in vs, which walke not after the fleaſhe, but after the ſpirite.

5 For they that are carnal, are [c] carnally minded: but they that are ſpiritual, are ſpiritually mynded.

6 To be carnally minded, is death: But to be ſpiritually mynded, is lyfe and peace:

7 Becauſe that the fleaſhly minde is enmitie againſt God: for it is not obedient to the law of God, neyther can be.

8 So then, they that are in the fleaſhe, can not

B pleaſe God.

(a) The lawe of the ſpirite, and the law of ſinne, is here taken improperly for the power & ſtrength of the law and ſinn: and it is called the ſpirite of lyfe, becauſe it quickeneth and geueth lyfe.

(b) God, throwe the ſacrifice of ſinne, whiche Chriſt his only ſonne offered vpon ẏ croſſe in his fleaſh, hath cōdemned & aboliſhed ſinne, which raigned in our mortal fleaſhe.

(c) φρονοῦσι and φρόνημα, greke wordes, do not ſo much ſignifie wyſedome and prudence, as affection, carefulneſſe, and myndyng of any thyng.

9 But ye are not in the fleaſhe, but in the ſpirite, if ſo be that the ſpirite of GOD dwel in you. If any man haue not ẏ ſpirite of Chriſt, the ſame is none of his.

10 And if Chriſte be in you, the body is dead becauſe of [d] ſinne: but the ſpirite is lyfe for ryghteouſneſſe ſake.

11 But if the ſpirite of him that rayſed vp Jeſus from the dead, dwel in you: euen he that rayſed vp Chriſte from the dead, ſhal alſo quicken your mortal bodies, becauſe that his ſpirite dwelleth in you.

12 ☞ Therefore brethren, we are detters, not to the fleaſhe, to lyue after the fleaſhe.

(d) Albeit we haue a body whiche is dead to al goodnes, by reaſon of ſinne, which ſo ſtrongly raygneth in it, yet when we are grafted in Chriſte, his ſpirite of lyfe geueth vs life, & iuſtifieth vs.

13 For if ye lyue after the fleaſhe, ye ſhal dye: but if ye through the ſpirite, doo mortifie the deedes of the body, ye ſhal lyue.

14 For as many as are ledde by the ſpirite of God, they are the ſonnes of God. C

15 For ye haue not receiued the ſpirite of bondage agayne to feare: but *ye haue receiued the ſpirit of adoption, wherby we crie, Abba, father.

17 If we be ſonnes, then are we alſo heyres, the heyres of GOD, and ioyntheyres with Chriſt: So that we ſuffer togeather, that we may be alſo glorifyed togeather.

18 ☞ For I am certaynely [e] perſwaded that the afflictions of this tyme, are not woorthy of the glory whiche ſhalbe ſhewed vpon vs.

19 For the earneſt expectation of the creature abydeth, lookyng when the ſonnes of God ſhal appeare:

20 Becauſe the [f] creature is ſubiect to vanitie, not wyllyng, but for hym whiche hath ſubdued the ſame in hope.

21 For the creature it ſelfe ſhalbe made free from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the ſonnes of God.

22 For we know that euery creature groneth with vs alſo, and trauayleth in payne with vs, euen vnto this tyme. D

(e) λογίζομαι ſignifieth to way or to cōſyder. But becauſe the matter was certayne, and S. Paul nothyng doubted therof, it is thus made: I am perſwaded.

(f) The creatures ſhal not be reſtored before gods childrē be brought to their perfection. In the meane ſeaſon, they deſyre, grone, & waite

23 Not onely [they,] but we alſo whiche haue the firſt fruites of the ſpirite, & we our ſelues mourne in our ſelues, wayting for the adoption, [euen] the deliuerance of our body. ☜

24 For we are ſaued by hope: But hope that is ſeene, is no hope. For how can a man hope for that whiche he ſeeth?

25 But & if we hope for that we ſee not, then doo we with pacience abide for it.

26 Likewiſe, the ſpirit alſo helpeth our infirmities. For we knowe not what to deſyre as we ought: but the ſpirite it ſelf maketh great (g) interceſſion for vs, with groninges, which can not be expreſſed.

(g) The right fourme and affection of prayer, commeth by the holy ghoſt, who maketh interceſſion for vs, not that he praieth and mourneth: but that he ſo ſtyrreth our hartes, that we lyft them vp to heauen earneſtly and feruently, whiche is the true prayer.

27 And he that ſearcheth the hartes, knoweth what is the meaning of the ſpirite: for he maketh interceſſion for the ſaintes accordyng to the pleaſure of God.☜

28 ☞For we knowe that al thinges worke for the beſt, vnto them that loue GOD, to them whiche alſo are called of purpoſe.

E 29 For thoſe whiche he knewe before, he alſo dyd predeſtinate, that they ſhoulde be lyke faſhioned vnto the ſhape of his ſonne, that he myght be the firſt begotten among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whom he did predeſtinate, them alſo he called: and whom he called, them alſo he iuſtified: and whom he iuſtified, them he alſo glorifyed.

31 What ſhal we then ſay to theſe thynges? *If God be on our ſyde, who can be agaynſt vs?

32 Whiche ſpared not his owne ſonne, *but gaue hym for vs al: howe ſhal he not with hym alſo geue vs al thynges?

33 Who ſhal lay any thyng to the charge of Gods choſen? It is God that iuſtifieth:

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Chriſt whiche dyed, yea rather whiche is rayſed agayne, whiche is alſo on the ryght hande of GOD, and maketh interceſſion for vs.

35 Who ſhal ſeparate vs frō the loue of Chriſt? [Shal] tribulation, or anguiſh, or perſecution, eyther hunger, either nakedneſſe, either peryl, eyther ſwoorde? F

36 (As it is written: *For thy ſake are we killed al day long, and are counted as ſheepe for the ſlaughter.) Pſal,44.d, 37 Neuertheleſſe, in al theſe thinges we ouercome, through hym that loued vs.

38 For I am ſure, that neyther death, neyther life, neither angels, nor rule, neyther power, neyther thynges preſent, neyther thynges to comme,

39 Neyther heigth, nor deapth, neither any other creature, ſhalbe able to ſeparate vs from the loue of God, which is in Chriſt Ieſu our Lorde.☜

The.ix.Chapter.

1 Paul declareth his feruent loue towarde his nation, 11 he treateth of election, and reprobation. 24 alſo of the calling of the Gentiles, 30 and of the caſtyng of, of the Iewes.

A 1 I Say the trueth in Chriſt, I lye not, (my conſcience alſo bearing me witneſſe by the holy ghoſt,)

2 That I haue great heauineſſe, and continual ſorowe in my hart.

3 For I haue wyſſhed mee ſelfe to be curſed from (a) Chriſt, for my brethren, my kinſmen as parteyneth to the fleaſhe,

(a) He ſawe the loſſe and deſtruction of his whole nation, falling ſo farre from Gods true religion, he conſydered howe ſore God ſhoulde be diſhonoured, whē his woonderful benefites & bleſſynges beſtowed vpō his people, ſhoulde take none effect, but vtterly be defaced, which ſo myghtyly moued hym, that he wiſhed rather to be cut of frō Chriſte, then thoſe thynges ſhould comme to paſſe.

4 Whiche are the Iſraelites: to whom parteyneth the adoption, and the glorie, and the couenantes, and the lawe that was geuen, and the ſeruice of God, and the promiſſes:

5 Of whom are the fathers, and of whom as concernyng the fleaſhe Chriſte [came] whiche is GOD, in al thinges to be prayſed for euer, Amen.

8 That is to ſay, *They whiche are the chyldren of the fleaſhe, theſe are not the chyldren of God: but they whiche be the chyldren of promiſſe, are counted the ſeede.

3 Paul ſheweth the cauſe of the fal of the Iewes. 5 The difference betweene the iuſtice of the lawe, and fayth. 16 The callyng of, of the Iewes, and callyng of the Gentiles.

1 Brethren, my hartes deſire and prayer to God for Iſrael is, that they might be ſaued.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue a (a) zeale of God: but not accordyng to knowledge.

3 For they beyng ignorant of Gods ryghteouſnes, and goyng about to ſtabliſh theyr (b) owne ryghteouſneſſe, haue not benne obedient vnto the ryghteouſneſſe of God. ☜

4 For Chriſte is the ende of the lawe, (c) for righteouſneſſe to al that beleeue.

5 For * Moſes wryteth of the ryghteouſnes whiche [is] of the law, howe that the man which dooth thoſe things, ſhal liue by them.

6 But the righteouſneſſe whiche is of faith, ſpeaketh on this wiſe: Say not thou in thine hart, who ſhal aſſend into (d) heauen? That is, to fetche Chriſte downe from aboue.

7 Eyther who ſhal deſſende into the deepe? That is, to fetch vp Chriſte againe from the dead.

Deu.30.c 8 But what ſayth he,* The woorde is nigh thee, euen in thy mouth, & in thy harte. This ſame is the woord of faith, which we preach.

9 For yf thou ſhalt knowledge with thy mouth the Lorde Ieſus, and ſhalt beleeue in thyne harte that God rayſed hym from the dead, thou ſhalt be ſaued.

10 For with the harte man beleeueth vnto ryghteouſneſſe: and with the mouth confeſſion is made to ſaluation.

Eſai.28.d 11 For the ſcripture ſayth,* Who ſo euer beleeueth on hym, ſhal not be confounded.

12 There is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Greke: for the ſame Lorde ouer al, is ryche vnto al that cal vpon hym.

Ioel.2.d Actes.2.c 13 For * who ſo euer ſhal cal on the name of the Lorde, ſhalbe ſaued.

14 How then ſhal they cal on hym, on whom they haue not beleeued? Howe ſhal they beleeue on him, of whom they haue not heard? Howe ſhal they heare, without a preacher?

15 And howe ſhal they preache, except they be ſent? As it is wrytten: How beautiful are the feete of them whiche bryng good tidinges of peace, & bryng good tidinges of good thyngs.

Eſai.53.a Iohn.12.a 16 But they haue not al obeyed the Goſpel, for Eſaias ſayth, Lorde, who hath beleeued our ſayeinges?

(a) That is, a certayne affection, but not after knowledge. For no zeale, nor no good intent can be acceptable vnto God, but only that whiche is grounded vpon fayth, and the knowledg of God.

(b) It is called our owne ryghteouſnes, when we refuſe the ryghteouſneſſe whiche commeth by chriſt and imagine another ryghteouſneſſe, whiche commeth by our owne workes and deuiſes.

(c) That is, Chriſt hath fulfylled the whole lawe, and therfore who ſo euer beleeueth in him, is counted iuſt before God, as wel as he had fulfylled ẏ whole law him ſelfe.

(d) For faith teacheth vs, that Chriſte is aſſended vp into heauen, to take vs with him, and hath deſcended into the depth of death, to deſtroy death, & to delyuer vs.

17 So then fayth commeth by hearyng, and hearyng commeth by the woorde of God.

Pſal,19.a

18 But (I aſke:) haue they not hearde? No doubt,* theyr ſound went out into al lands, and theyr woordes into the endes of the worlde.

Deut,32.c

19 But I demaunde whether Iſrael dyd knowe or not? Fyrſt Moſes ſayth, I wil prouoke you to enuie by them that are no people: and by a fooliſh nation I wyl anger you.

20 And Eſaias is bolde, and ſayth, * I haue benne founde of them that ſought me not: I haue benne made manyfeſt vnto them that aſked not after me.

Eſai,65.a

21 But agaynſt Iſrael, he ſayth, * Al day long haue I ſtretched foorth my handes vnto a people that beleeueth not, but ſpeaketh agaynſt me.

A 1 I Say then, hath God caſt away his people? GOD forbyd. For I alſo am an Iſraelite, of the ſeede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not caſt away his people whiche he knewe before. Wote ye not what the ſcripture ſayth of Elias? howe he maketh interceſſion to God agaynſt Iſrael,

3 Sayeing, * Lorde, they haue kylled thy prophetes, and dygged downe thyne (a) aulters: and I am leaſt alone, and they ſeeke my lyfe.

(a) Thoſe aulters he meaneth whereupon Abraham, Iſaac, and Iacob, did offer ſacrifices in tyme paſt, vpon the whiche it was lawful for the Iewes to doo ſacrifice, vntil the buyldyng of the temple.

4 But what ſayth the anſweare of God vnto hym? * I haue reſerued vnto mee ſelfe ſeuen thouſande menne, which haue not bowed the knee to [the image of] Baal.

5 Euen ſo at this tyme there is a remnante accordyng to the election of grace.

6 If it be of grace, then is it not nowe of woorkes: for then grace is no more grace. But if it be of woorkes, then is it nowe no grace, for then woorke is no more woorke.

B 7 What then? Iſrael hath not obteyned that whiche he ſeeketh for, but the election hath obteyned it, the remnant hath benne ʺ blynded;

15 For if the caſtyng away of them be the reconcilyng of the worlde: what ſhal the receiuyng [of them] be, but lyfe from the dead?

16 For if the fyrſte fruites be holy, the whole lumpe alſo [is holy.] And if the roote be holy, the braunches alſo.

17 And if ſomme of the braunches be broken (d) of, and thou beyng a wylde Oliue tree, waſt graft in among them, and made partaker of the roote and fatneſſe of the * Oliue tree:

(d) Theſe broken braunches, were the vnbeleeuyng Iewes, whiche for theyr vnbeleefe, were cut of from the promiſe of God, in whoſe ſteede was the wilde Oliue, that is the gentiles grafted thorow fayth.

18 Boaſt not thee ſelfe agaynſt the braunches. For if thou boaſt thee ſelfe, thou beareſt not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wylt ſay then, The braunches are broken of, that I myght be graft in.

20 Wel: becauſe of vnbeleefe they were broken of, and thou ſtoodeſt ſtedfaſt in fayth. Be not hygh mynded, but feare.

21 For ſeeyng that God ſpared not the natural braunches, [take heede] leſt it come to paſſe, that he ſpare not thee.

22 Beholde therefore, the kyndneſſe and rigorouſneſſe of God: on them whiche fel, rigorouſneſſe: but towardes thee, kyndeneſſe, yf thou continue in kyndneſſe: or els thou alſo ſhalt be hewen of.

2.Cor,3.d

23 And they, * if they byde not ſtyl in vnbeleefe, ſhalbe graffed in: For God is of power to graffe them in agayne.

24 For if thou were cut out of a natural wyld Oliue tree, and were graffed contrary to nature, in a true Oliue tree: howe muche more ſhal theſe whiche be the natural braunches, be graffed in theyr owne Oliue tree?

25 For I woulde not brethren, that ye ſhoulde be ignorant of this myſterie, (leſt ye ſhoulde be wyſe in your owne conceiptes,) that partly " blyndeneſſe is happened in Iſrael, vntil the fulneſſe of the Gentiles be comme in.

" Or, hardneſſe.

Eſai.59.d
Pſal.14.c

27 And this is my couenant vnto them when I ſhal take away theyr ſinnes.

28 As concernyng the Goſpel, they are enimies for your ſakes: but as touchyng the election, they are loued for the fathers [ſakes.]

29 For the free gyftes and callyng of God are without repentance.

30 For as ye in tyme paſt haue not beleued GOD, yet haue ye nowe obteyned mercye through theyr vnbeleefe:

31 Euen ſo nowe haue they not " beleued the mercy [ſhewed] vnto you, that they alſo may obteyne mercy.

" Or, obeyed.

32 For God hath ſhut vp al [nations] in vnbeleefe, that he myght haue mercy on al.

33 O the deepeneſſe of the rycheſſe both of the wyſdome and knowledge of God: howe vnſearchable are his iudgementes, & his wayes paſt fyndyng out?

(a) The Iewes in Moſes law were commaunded to offer vp the dead carkaſes of beaſtes: but Chriſtians ſhoulde exhibite theyr owne lyuely bodyes for a ſacrifice to God, in mortifying theyr carnal luſtes, and framyng them ſelues by fayth, to godlyneſſe and charitie.

2 And be not ye faſhioned lyke vnto this (b) World: but be ye changed in your ſhape, by the renuyng of your mynde, that ye maye prooue what is the good, and acceptable, and perfect wyl of God.

(b) The world hath diuers ſignifications in the ſcriptures but here is taken ſpecially for the nature and diſpoſition of menne in the worlde, whiche lyued after theyr luſtes and pleaſures, and ſerueth not God in holyneſſe of lyfe, and godly conuerſation.

3 For I ſay, through the grace geuen vnto me, to euery man that is among you, that no man eſteeme of hym ſelfe more then he ought to eſteeme: but ſo eſteeme [hym ſelfe] that he behaue him ſelfe diſcreetly, accordyng as God hath dealt to euery man the meaſure of fayth.

(c) Two thynges are required, if we wil eſteme or iudge ſoberly of Gods gyftes in vs: The one, that we doo not arrogate to our ſelues, that whiche we haue not. The next, that we boaſt not of the Gentiles, but reuerently and ſoberly to vſe them to Gods honour and glory.

[e] That is, when I ſhal faythfully deliuer it to thē, as it were ſealed moſt ſurely. By fruite he meaneth almes, which is the fruite of the fayth of thoſe that had receiued the Goſpel.

29 And I am ſure that when I comme vnto you, I ſhal comme with abundance of the bleſſyng of the Goſpel of Chriſte.

30 ☞ I beſeeche you brethren for the Lorde Jeſus Chriſtes ſake, and for the loue of the ſpirit, that ye helpe me in my buſyneſſe with your prayers to God for me:

31 That I maye be delyuered from them whiche beleeue not in Jurie, and that this my ſeruice whiche I haue at Hieruſalem, may be accepted of the ſaintes:

32 That I may comme vnto you with ioy by the wyl of God, and may with you be refreaſhed.

33 *The God of peace be with you al. Amen.

The.xvi. Chapter.

1 A number of ſalutations. 17 Paul wylleth them to be ware of falſe brethren.
20 He prayeth, and geueth thankes for them.

A 1 I Cōmende vnto you Phebe our ſyſter, whiche is a miniſter of the [a] Churche of Cenchrea:

[a] In the primatiue church ancient wydowes, and other vertuous women, were choſen and appoynted to miniſter vnto the needy, and therefore called miniſters: and not becauſe they had any publique auctoritie to teache in the congregation.

2 That ye receiue her in the Lorde, as it becommeth ſayntes, and that ye aſſyſt her in what ſo euer buſyneſſe ſhe hath neede of you: For ſhe hath ſuccoured manye, and mee ſelfe alſo.

3 Greete Priſcilla and *Aquila, my helpers in Chriſte Jeſu:

4 (Which haue for my lyfe laid downe theyr owne neckes: Unto whom, not only I geue thankes, but alſo al the Churches of the Gentiles:)

5 Lykewyſe [greete] the Churche that is in theyr houſe. Salute my welbeloued Epenetus, whiche is the fyrſte fruite of Achaia in Chriſte.

6 Greete Marie, whiche beſtowed much labour on vs.

B 7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my coſins, and priſoners with me alſo, whiche are wel taken among the apoſtles, & were in Chriſte before me.

8 Greete Amplias, my beloued in the Lorde.

9 Salute Urban, our helper in Chriſte, and Stachys my beloued.

10 Salute Appelles, approoued in Chriſte. Salute them whiche are of Ariſtobulus houſholde.

11 Salute Herodion my kynſman. Greete them that be of the houſholde of Narciſſus, whiche are in the Lorde.

12 Salute Tryphena, and Tryphoſa, which labour in the Lorde. Salute the beloued Perſis, whiche laboured muche in the Lorde.

13 Salute Ruphus choſen in the Lorde, and his mother and myne.

14 Greete Aſyncritus, Phlegon, Herman, Patrobas, Mercurius, & the brethren whiche are with them. C

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus and his ſyſter, and Olympas, and al the saintes whiche are with them.

16 *Salute one another with an holy [b] kiſſe. The Churches of Chriſte ſalute you.

2.Co.12.c

[b] This was a ſigne of amitie among the Jewes, whiche S. Paule wylleth to be holy, that is, that it comme from a mynde ful of godly charitie.

17 ☞ Now I beſeeche you brethren, [c] marke them whiche cauſe diuiſion, and geue occaſions of euyl, contrary to the doctrine whiche ye haue learned, and auoyde them.

[c] There are two markes to knowe the falſe apoſtles by. The one is, when they leaue Chriſte, and ſerue their belly. The other, when they regarde not the holy ſcripture, but preache lyes, and theyr own fantaſies.

18 For they that are ſuche, ſerue not the Lorde Jeſus Chriſt, but theyr owne belly, and with ſweete and flatteryng woordes deceiue the hartes of the innocentes.

19 For your obedience is gonne abroade vnto al men. I am glad therefore on your behalfe: but yet I woulde haue you wyſe vnto that whiche is good, and ſimple concernyng euil.

20 The God of peace ſhal treade Satan vnder your feete ſhortly. The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſte be with you. Amen.

21 Timotheus my woorkfelowe, and Lucius, and Jaſon, and Soſipater my kynſmen, ſalute you.

22 I Terti-

22 I Tertius whiche wrote this Epiſtle, ſalute you in the Lorde.

23 Gaius myne hoſt, & of the whole Church, ſaluteth you. Eraſtus the chamberlayne of the citie ſaluteth you, & Quartus his brother.

24 The grace of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte be with you al. Amen.

25 To hym that is of power to ſtabliſhe you, accordyng to my Goſpel, and preachyng of Jeſus Chriſte, by reuealyng of the myſterie which was kept ſecret ſence ŷ world began,

26 But now is opened, and by the ſcriptures of the prophetes, at the commaundement of the euerlaſting God, to the obedience of faith, among al nations publiſhed:

27 To [the ſame] God, wyſe only, be glorye, through Jeſus Chriſte, for euer. Amen.

¶ This Epiſtle was wrytten to the Romanes from Corinthus, [and ſent] by Phebe the miniſter of the Church at Cenchrea.

Richard Cox, Bishop of Ely

The firſt Epiſtle of Saint Paule the Apoſtle to the Corinthians.

The firſt Chapter.

1 He prayſeth the great graces of God ſhewed towarde them, 10 exhortyng them to concorde and humilitie. 19 He beateth downe al pryde, and wyſedome whiche is not grounded vpon God: 26 Shewyng whom God hath choſen to confounde the wyſedome of the worlde.

A 1 PAUL called [to be] an apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſte, through the wil of God, and brother Soſtenes:

2 Unto the Church of God whiche is at Corinthus, to them that are ſanctified in Chriſt Jeſus, (a) ſaintes by callyng, with al that cal on the name of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte in euerye place, both of theyrs and ours:

(a) Made holy by the free mercy and calling of God.

Rom. 1. a / Galat. 1. a — 3 *Grace be vnto you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lorde Jeſus Chriſt.

4 ☞ I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe, for the grace of God whiche is geuen you in Jeſus Chriſte:

5 That in al thynges ye are inriched in hym, in al vtterance, and in al knowledge:

6 As the teſtimonie of Jeſus Chriſte was confyrmed in you.

B 7 So that ye are deſtitute of no gyfte, waytyng for the appearyng of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte.

8 Whiche ſhal alſo " ſtrength you vnto the ende, that ye may be (b) blameleſſe in the day of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte. ☜

" Or, confirme.

(b) For there is no condemnation to them that are graffed in Chriſte Jeſus.

Num. 23. c / 1. Co. 10. c — 9 * God is faythful, by whom ye haue ben called vnto the felowſhyppe of his ſonne Jeſus Chriſte our Lorde.

10 Nowe I beſeeche you brethren by the name of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte, that ye al ſpeake one thyng, and that there be no diſſentions among you: but that ye be perfectly ioyned togeather in the ſame mynde, and in the ſame meanyng.

11 For it hath ben declared vnto me my brethren of you, by them which are of the houſe of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 This I ſay, that euery one of you ſayth, I am of Paule, and I am of * Apollo, and I am of Cephas, and I am of Chriſte. — Acte. 18. d / 1. Cor. 3. a and. 16. c

13 Is Chriſte diuided? Was Paul crucified for you? eyther were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God that I baptized none of you, but Criſpus and Gaius: C

15 Leſt any ſhoulde ſay that I had baptized in myne owne name.

16 I baptized alſo the houſholde of Stephana: Beſydes, I knowe not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Chriſte ſent me not to baptize, but to preache the Goſpel: not with wyſedome of (c) woordes, leſt the croſſe of Chriſte ſhoulde be made of none effect.

(c) When men ſhoulde attribute that vnto eloquence, whiche only belongeth to the power of God.

18 For the preachyng of the croſſe, is to them that periſh, fooliſheneſſe: but vnto vs which are ſaued, * it is the power of God. — Rom. 1. b

19 For it is wrytten, * I wyl deſtroy the wyſdome of the wiſe, and wyl caſt away the vnderſtandyng of the prudent. — Eſai. 29. d

20 Where is the wyſe? * Where is the Scribe? Where is the diſputer of this worlde? Hath not God made the wyſedome of this world fooliſhe? — Eſai. 33. c

21 For after that in the wyſdome of God, the worlde through theyr wyſdome knewe not God, it pleaſed God through fooliſhneſſe of preachyng, to ſaue them that beleeue.

Mat.8.d. Luke.11.d Iohn.6.d

22 For * the Iewes requyre a ſigne, and the Grekes ſeeke after wyſdome.

23 But we preache Chriſt crucified, vnto the Iewes a ſtumblyng blocke, and vnto the Grekes, fooliſhneſſe:

24 But vnto them whiche are called, both Iewes and Grekes, Chriſte, the power of God, and the wyſdome of God.

25 For the fooliſhneſſe of God is wyſer then menne: and the weakeneſſe of God is ſtronger then menne.

26 Brethren, ye ſee your callyng, howe that not many wyſe menne after the fleaſhe, not many myghty, not manye noble [are called:]

27 But God hath choſen the fooliſhe thyngs of the worlde, to confounde the wyſe: and God hath choſen the weake thynges of the worlde, to confounde the thynges which are myghty:

28 And vnnoble thynges of the worlde, and thynges whiche are deſpiſed, hath God choſen, [yea,] and thynges whiche are not, to bryng to nought thynges that are.:

29 That no fleaſhe ſhoulde glory in his preſence.

30 And of hym are ye in Chriſt Ieſus, whiche of God is made vnto vs wyſedome, & ryghteouſneſſe, and ſanctification, and redemption:

31 That accordyng as it is wrytten, He that gloryeth, let hym glory in the Lorde.

The.ii. Chapter.

1 He putteth for example his manner of preachyng, whiche was accordyng to the tenor of the Goſpel: 8 Whiche Goſpel was contemptible, and hid to the carnal, 10 and againe honorable and manyfeſt to the ſpiritual.

A 1 AND I brethren, when I came to you, came not in [n] gloriouſneſſe of woords, or of wyſedome, ſhewyng vnto you the (a) teſtimonie of God.

2 For I eſteemed not to knowe any thyng among you, ſaue Ieſus Chriſte, and hym crucified.

3 And I was among you in weakneſſe, and in feare, and in muche tremblyng.

4 And my woordes and my preaching was not with entiſing woordes of mans wyſedome, but in ſhewyng of the ſpirite, and of power:

5 That your fayth ſhoulde not ſtande in the wyſedome of menne, but in the power of God.

6 And we ſpeake wyſedome among them that are perfect: not the wyſedome of this worlde, neyther of the princes of this worlde, B whiche comme to nought:

7 But we ſpeake the wyſedome of God in a myſterie [euen] the hyd [wyſedome] whiche God ordeyned before the worlde, vnto our glory.

Actes.13.d

8 Whiche * none of the princes of this world knew: For had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the Lorde of glory.

9 But as it is writtẽ, * The eye hath not ſeene, and the eare hath not hearde, neither haue entred into the hart of man, the thynges which GOD hath prepared for them that loue hym.

Eſai.64.a

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his ſpirite: For * the ſpirite ſearcheth al things, yea the deepe thinges of God.

Rom.8.

11 For what man knoweth the thinges of a man, ſaue the (b) ſpirite of man whiche is in hym? Euen ſo the thinges of God, knoweth no man, but the ſpirite of God.

12 And we haue not receiued the ſpirite of the worlde, but the ſpirite whiche is of God, that we might know the thinges that are geuen to vs of God.

13 Whiche thynges alſo we ſpeake, not in the woordes whiche mans wyſedome teacheth, but whiche the holy ghoſt teacheth: comparyng ſpiritual thyngs with ſpiritual things.

14 But the natural man perceiueth not the thynges of the ſpirite of God, for they are fooliſhneſſe vnto hym: Neyther can he knowe [them] becauſe they are ſpiritually diſcerned, 15 But he that is ſpiritual, diſcerneth al thinges, yet he hym ſelfe is iudged of no man.

16 * For who hath knowen the mynde of the Lorde, that he myght inſtruct him? But we haue (c) the mynde of Chriſte.

Rom.8.a Eſai.40.c

[n] Or excellencie.

(a) That is, the Goſpel, whereby God doth manifeſt hym ſelfe to the worlde, or wherof God is the aucthour and witneſſe.

(b) [illegible] mynde, whic[illegible] vnderſtandeth and iu[illegible] geth.

(c) That is, chriſtes ſpirit.

The.iii.Chapter.

3 Paul rebuketh the ſectes and aucthours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his ſaluation to the miniſters, but to God. 10 That they be ware of erronious doctrines. 13 Chriſte is the fundation of the Churche. 16 The dignitie and office both of the miniſters, and alſo of al the faythful.

A 1 AND I coulde not ſpeake vnto you brethren, as vnto ſpiritual, but as vnto carnal [euen] as vnto (a) babes in Chriſte.

2 I haue nouriſhed you with mylke, & not with meate: for ye then were not ſtrong, neyther are ye as yet.

3 For ye are yet carnal: Seeing then there is among you enuiyng, and ſtrife, and ſectes, are ye not carnal, and walke as menne?

4 For whyle one ſayth, I am of Paul, and another, I [am] of Apollo, are ye not carnal?

5 For what is Paul? what is Apollo? But miniſters by whom ye beleeued, euen as the Lorde gaue to euery man.

6 I haue planted, Apollo watered: but God gaue the encreaſe.

B 7 So then, neyther is he that planteth any thyng, neither he that watereth: but GOD that geueth the encreaſe.

8 He that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: and euery man ſhal receiue his rewarde accordyng to his labour.

9 For we togeather are Gods labourers, ye are Gods huſbandry, ye are *Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God whiche is geuen vnto me, as a wyſe maiſter buylder haue I layde the fundation, and another buyldeth thereon. But let euery man (b) take heede howe he buyldeth vpon.

11 For other fundation can no man lay then that is layde, *Whiche is Jeſus Chriſte.

12 If any man buylde on this fundation, gold, ſiluer, pretious ſtones, tymber, hay, [or] ſtubble:

13 Euery mans woorke ſhal be made manifeſt. The day ſhal declare it, becauſe it ſhalbe reuealed by the fyre, and the fyre ſhal trie euery mans woorke what it is.

14 If any mans woorke that he hath buylt C vpon abyde, he ſhal receiue a rewarde.

15 If any mans woorke burne, he ſhal ſuffer loſſe, but he ſhalbe ſafe hym ſelfe: yet as [it were] through fyre.

16 *Know ye not that ye are the temple of god, & that the ſpirite of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man " defile the temple of GOD, hym ſhal God deſtroy: for the temple of God is holy, whiche [temple] ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue hym ſelfe: If any man among you ſeeme [to him ſelfe] to be wyſe in this worlde, let hym become a foole, that he may be wyſe.

19 For the wyſedome of this world, is fooliſhneſſe with God: For it is written, *He compaſſeth the wyſe in (c) their owne craftineſſe.

20 And agayne, The Lorde knoweth the thoughtes of the wyſe, that they be vayne.

21 Therefore let no man glory in (d) menne: for al thynges are yours.

22 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, eyther the world, eyther lyfe, or death, whether thinges preſent, or thynges to come, al are yours:

23 But ye are Chriſtes, and Chriſte [is] Gods.

(a) Beyng grafted in Chriſte by faith, we be to mooue his ſpirite: we pro in fayth, growe vp a ripe age. here let take that teacheth, leſt mylke he poyſon. mylke & ſtrong meate effect are but only differ in man & fourme.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 After that he had deſcribed the office of a true apoſtle, 3 ſeeing they dyd not acknowledge hym ſuche one, 4 he appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 beating downe their glory, whiche hyndered them to prayſe that whiche they diſprayſed in hym. 16 He ſheweth what he requireth on their part, aud what they ought to looke for of hym at his returne.

A 1 LEt a man ſo eſteeme of vs as yͤ miniſters of Chriſte, and diſpoſers of the * ſecretes of God.

2 Furthermore, it is required in the diſpoſers, that a man be founde faythful.

3 With me it is but a very ſmal thyng that I ſhoulde be iudged of you, eyther of mans iudgement: yea I iudge not (a) myne owne ſelfe.

4 For I know nothing by mee ſelfe, yet am I not thereby iuſtified: but he that iudgeth me is the Lorde.

5 Therefore iudge nothyng before the tyme, vntyl the Lorde comme, who wyl lyghten the hydden thynges of darkneſſe, and open the counſels of the hartes: and then ſhal euery man haue prayſe of God.

6 And theſe thynges brethren, I haue figuratiuely applyed vnto mee ſelfe and to Apollos, for your ſakes: that ye myght learne by vs, not to be wyſe aboue that whiche is written, that you ſwel not one agaynſt another for any mans cauſe.

7 For who (b) ſeparateth thee? And what haſt thou that thou haſt not receiued? If thou haue receiued it, why doeſt thou glory

Deu,29,d.

(a) Whether I haue great gyftes or litle, fewe or many.

(b) To wyt, from other menne, and preferreth thee.

as though thou haddeſt not receiued it?

B 8 Nowe ye are fulle, nowe ye are riche, ye haue raigned as kynges without vs, and I woulde to God ye dyd raigne, that we alſo myght raigne with you.

9 For me thinketh that God hath ſet foorth vs whiche are the laſt apoſtles, as it were men appoynted to death. For we are made a gaſing ſtocke vnto the worlde, and to angels, and to menne.

10 We [are] (c) fooles for Chriſtes ſake, but ye [are] wyſe in Chriſte. We [are] weake, but ye [are] ſtrong: ye [are] honourable, but we [are] deſpiſed.

(c) By this bitter taunting, in abiecting him ſelfe, and exalting the Corinthians, he maketh them aſhamed of theyr vayne glory.

15 For though ye haue tenne thouſande inſtructours in Chriſte, yet [haue ye] not many fathers: For in Chriſte Jeſus I haue begotten you through the Goſpel.

16 Wherefore I deſyre you, be ye folowers of me.

17 For this cauſe haue I ſent vnto you Timotheus, whiche is my beloued ſonne, and faythful in the Lorde, who ſhal put you in remembrance of my wayes whiche be in Chriſte, as I teache euery where in al Churches.

18 Somme are ſwollen, as though I woulde comme no more at you:

The.v.Chapter.

1 He reprooueth ſharpely their negligence in pouniſhing hym that had committed inceſt, 3 wyllyng them to excommunicate hym, 7 to imbrace puritie, 9 and flee wickedneſſe.

A 1 There goeth a common ſayeing, that there is fornication among you, and ſuche fornication as is not named among the (a) gentiles: that one ſhould haue his fathers wyfe.

(a) Who would thinke that you woulde ſuffer that miſchiefe vnpouniſhed, whiche the moſt barbarous nations abhorre to ſpeake of.

2 And ye are puffed vp, and haue not rather ſorowed, that he that hath donne this deede, myght be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily as abſent in body, but preſent in ſpirite, haue determined alredy, as though I were preſent, that he that hath ſo donne this deede,

4 In the name of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte, you beyng geathered togeather, and my ſpirite with you, with the power of the Lorde Jeſus Chriſte,

5 *To deliuer ſuche [a one] vnto Satan for the deſtruction of the fleaſhe, that the ſpirite may be ſaued in the day of the Lorde Jeſus.

Mat.18.d.

6 Your gloryng is not (b) good. Knowe ye not that a litle leauen leaueneth the whole lumpe?

(b) Seeyng you ſuffer ſuche monſtruous vices vnpouniſhed.

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a newe lumpe, as ye are vnleauened. For [euen] Chriſte our Paſſeouer is " offered vp for vs.

" Or, is ſlayne.

8 Therefore let vs keepe holy day, not with olde leauen, neither with the leauen of malitiouſneſſe and wickedneſſe: but with the vnleauened [bread] of pureneſſe and trueth. B

9 I wrote vnto you in an epiſtle, that ye ſhoulde not company with fornicatours.

10 [I dyd not meane] not at al with the fornicatours of this worlde, or with the couetous, or extorcioners, or with idolaters: for then muſt ye needes haue gone out of the worlde.

11 But nowe [this] I wrote vnto you, *not to company togeather, yf any that is called a brother be a fornicatour, or couetous, or a woorſhipper of idols, or a rayler, or a drunkarde, or an extortioner: with hym that is ſuch, not to eate.

2.Theſ,3,b

13 Them that are without, God ſhal iudge. And ye ſhal * put away from among you, that wicked perſon.

Deut,17,b

The .vi. Chapter.

1 He rebuketh them for going to lawe togeather before the heathen. 7 Chriſtians ought rather to ſuffer. 12 He reprooueth the abuſing of Chriſtian libertie, 15 and ſheweth that we ought to ſerue God purely, both in body and in ſoule.

A 1 DAre any of you, hauyng buſineſſe " with an other, be iudged vnder the(a) vniuſt, and not rather vnder the ſaintes?

" Or, againſt he calleth vniuſt, ereas are ſanctified Chriſte. at.7.d.

2 Doo ye not knowe that the ſaintes ſhal iudge the worlde? If the world ſhalbe iudged by you, are ye vnwoorthy to iudge the ſmalleſt matters?

3 Knowe ye not howe that we ſhal iudge the angels? Howe muche more, thynges that parteyne to this lyfe?

4 If then ye haue iudgement of thinges parteyning to this lyfe, ſet vp them to iudge whiche are leaſt eſteemed in the Churche.

5 I ſpeake it to your ſhame. Is it ſo that there is not a wyſe man among you? no not one that ſhalbe able to iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to lawe with brother, and that vnder the vnbeleeuers?

" Or, want.

7 Nowe therefore there is vtterly a " fault among you, becauſe ye goe to lawe one with another: Why rather ſuffer ye not wrong? Why rather ſuffer ye not harme?

B 8 Nay, ye your ſelues doo wrong, and doo harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Knowe ye not that the vnryghteous ſhal not inherite the kyngdome of God? Be not deceiued: * neyther fornicatours, nor idolatours, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abuſers of them ſelues with mankynde, Gal.5.d. Ephe.5.a.

10 Nor theeues, nor couetous, nor drunkardes, nor reuilers, nor " pillers, ſhal inherite the kyngdome of God.

" Or, extortioners.

11 And ſomme ſuche like you were: but ye are waſhed, but ye are ſanctified, but ye are iuſtified in the name of the Lorde Ieſus, and by the ſpirite of our God.

12 All thynges are laweful vnto me, but * al thynges are not profitable: al thynges are lawful vnto me, but I wyl not be brought vnder the(b) power of any.

Eccl.37.d. 1.Co.10.c

13 Meates for the belly, & the belly for meates: but God ſhal deſtroy both it & them. Nowe the body [is] not for (c) fornication, but for the Lorde: and the Lorde for the body.

(b) For we are ſubiect to thoſe thynges whiche we can not want.

(c) They abuſed meates, both in that they offended other thereby, and alſo prouoked their owne luſtes to vncleanneſſe.

14 And God both hath rayſed vp the Lorde, and alſo ſhal rayſe vs vp by his power.

17 But he that is coupled vnto the Lorde, is one ſpirite.

18 Flee fornication: Euery ſinne that a man dooth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, ſinneth agaynſt his owne body.

19 What, knowe ye not that your body is the temple of the holy ghoſt [whiche is] in you, whom ye haue of God, and ye are not(d) your owne?

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, & in your ſpirite, whiche are goddes.

(d) To liue after your owne wyl, but after the wyl of hym that hath bought you.

A 1 NOwe as concernyng the thyngs whereof ye wrote vnto me: It is (a) good for a man not to touche a woman.

(a) Or, expedient, becauſe maryage thoſe mans rruption, nd not by Gods inſtitun, bryngeth res and ubles.

2 Neuertheleſſe, to auoide fornicatiō, let euery man haue his owne wyfe, and let euery woman haue her owne huſbande.

3 Let the huſbande geue vnto the wyfe due beneuolence: Lykewyſe alſo the wyfe vnto the huſbande.

4 The wyfe hath not the power of her owne body, but the huſbande: And lykewyſe alſo the huſband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wyfe.

5 * Defraude you not the one the other, except [it be] with both your conſentes for a tyme, that ye may geue your ſelues to faſtyng and prayer: and afterwarde comme togeather agayne, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

Tobi.6.d. Ioel.2.d.

6 This I ſay " of fauour, and(b) not of commaundement.

" Or, by way of ſufferance.

(b) He ſheweth that he commaundeth not preciſely to marry, but that god hath graunted this remedy vnto them whiche can not liue chaſte.

7 For I would that al menne were euen as I mee ſelfe: but euery man hath his proper gyft of God, one after this manner, another after that.

B 8 I ſay therefore to the vnmarryed and wydowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I:

1.Tim.5.c. 9 But *yf they can not abſteyne, let them marry: for it is better to marry then to burne.

Mat.5.c. and,19.a. 10 Unto the marryed commaunde, not I, but the Lorde,* let not the wyfe depart from the huſbande:

11 But and yf ſhe depart, let her remayne vnmarryed, or be reconciled to her huſbande [agayne:] And let not the huſband put away his wyfe.

12 But to the remnant ſpeake I, not the Lorde, If any brother haue a wyfe that beleeueth not, and ſhe conſent to dwel with hym, let hym not put her away.

13 And the woman whiche hath to her huſbande an infidel, & he conſent to dwel with her, let her not put hym away.

C 14 For the vnbeleeuyng huſbande is ſanctified by the wyfe, and the vnbeleeuing wyfe is ſanctified by the huſbande: els were your chyldren vncleane, but now are they (c) holy.

(c) They that are borne of eyther of the parentes faythful, are alſo counted members of Chriſtes Churche, becauſe of the promiſe.

15 But yf the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: A brother or a ſiſter is not made ſubiect in ſuche [thynges:] but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For how knoweſt thou, O woman, whether thou ſhalt ſaue thy huſbande? or howe knoweſt thou, O man, whether thou ſhalt ſaue thy wyfe?

Ephe.4.a. 17 But as god hath diſtributed to euery man, *as the Lord hath called euery one, ſo let him walke, and ſo ordeyne I in al Churches.

18 Is any man called beyng circumcized? let hym not adde [vncircumcizion:] Is any called in vncircumcizion? let hym not be circumcized.

19 Circumcizion is nothyng, and vncircumcizion is nothyng, but the keeping of the commaundementes of God.

D 20 Let euery man abyde in the ſame calling wherein he was called.

1.Tim.6.a. 21 *Art thou called a ſeruant? care not for it: neuertheleſſe, yf thou mayſt be made free, vſe it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lorde [beyng] a ſeruant, is the Lordes freeman: lykewyſe alſo he that is called [beyng] free, is Chriſtes ſeruant.

23 Ye are bought with a price, be not ye the ſeruantes of menne.

24 Brethren, let euery man wherein he is called, therein abyde with (d) God.

(d) Or, ſincerely, as in the preſence of God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I haue no commaundement of the Lorde: yet geue I counſel, as one that hath obteyned mercy of the Lorde to be faythful.

26 I ſuppoſe therefore that it is good for the preſent neceſſitie, that [I ſay] it is good for a man ſo to be.

27 Art thou bounde vnto a wyfe? ſeeke not to be looſed. Art thou looſed from a wyfe? ſeeke not a wyfe. E

28 But and yf thou marry, thou haſt not ſinned: and yf a virgin marry, ſhe hath not ſinned: neuertheleſſe, ſuche ſhal haue trouble in the fleaſhe: But I " beare with you.

" Or, ſpare you.

Pſal.90.a. 2.Pet.3.b. 29 But this ſay I brethren, becauſe *the tyme is ſhort: it remayneth that they alſo whiche haue wyues, be as though they had none:

30 And they that weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that bie, as though they poſſeſſed not:

Eſai.60.b. 31 And they that vſe this worlde, as not abuſing it: *For the faſhion of this world goeth away.

1.Iohn.2. Mat.6.d. Luke.6.c. 32 *I woulde haue you without care. He that is vnmarryed, careth for the thynges that belong to the Lorde, howe he may pleaſe the Lorde:

33 But he that hath marryed, careth for the thynges that are of the world, howe he may pleaſe his wyfe.

F 34 There is difference betweene a virgin and a wyfe: The vnmarryed woman careth for the thynges that are of the Lorde, that ſhe may be holy both in body & in ſpirite: But ſhe that is marryed, careth for the thynges that parteyne to the worlde, howe ſhe may pleaſe her huſbande.

35 This ſpeake I for your profite: not that I may caſt a ſnare vppon you, but for comelineſſe ſake and ſitting faſt vnto the Lorde without ſeparation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgin yf ſhe paſſe the time of marryage, (e) and neede ſo require, let him do what he wyl, he ſinneth not: let them be marryed.

(e) That is, that ſhe ſhould marry to auoyde fornication.

37 Neuertheleſſe, he that ſtandeth ſtedfaſt in his hart, hauyng no neede, but hath power ouer his owne wyl, & hath ſo decreed in his hart that he wil keepe his virgin, dooth wel.

38 So then he that geueth in marryage, dooth wel: but he that geueth not in marryage, dooth better.

Rom.7.a. 36 The wyfe is bounde to the " lawe as long as her huſbande liueth: but yf her huſbande be dead, ſhe is at libertie to be marryed to whom ſhe wyl, only in the Lorde.

" Or, by the lawe of marryage.

40 But ſhe is happier yf ſhe ſo abyde, after my iudgement: And I thynke verely that I haue the ſpirite of God.

The .viii. Chapter.

1 He rebuketh them that vſe theyr libertie to the ſclaunder of other, in going to the idolatrous ſacrifices. 9 And ſheweth howe menne ought to behaue them towarde ſuche as be weake.

A 1 AS touchyng thynges * offred vnto idols, we knowe that we al haue knowledge. Knowledge maketh a man ſwel: but charitie edifieth.

2 If any man thinke that he knoweth any thyng, he knoweth nothyng yet as he ought to knowe.

3 But yf any man loue God, the ſame is 〃 knowen of hym.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of thoſe thynges that are offered in ſacrifice vnto idols, we knowe that * an idol is nothyng in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 And though there be that are called goddes, whether in heauen or in earth, (as there be goddes many, and (a) lordes many:)

6 Yet vnto vs is there but one God, [whiche is] the father, of whom are al thynges, and we in hym, and one Lorde Ieſus Chriſte, by whom are al thynges, and we by hym.

7 But there is not in euery man that knowledge: * For ſomme hauyng conſcience of the idol vntil this houre, eate as a thyng offered vnto idols, & their conſcience beyng weake, is defiled.

8 But meate dooth not commende to God: For neyther yf we eate, haue we the more: neyther yf we eate not, haue we the leſſe.

9 But take heede leſt by any meanes this libertie of yours becomme a ſtumblyng to them that are weake.

10 For yf any man ſee thee which haſt knowledge, ſit at meate in the idols temple: ſhal not the conſcience of hym whiche is weake, be (b) boldened to eate thoſe thynges whiche are offered to idols,

11 And through thy knowledge ſhal the (c) weake brother periſhe, for whom Chriſte dyed?

12 But when ye ſinne ſo againſt the brethren, and wounde their weake conſcience, ye ſinne agaynſt Chriſte.

13 Wherefore, * yf meate offende my brother, I wyl eate no fleaſhe whyle the worlde ſtandeth, leſt I ſhoulde offende my brother.

3 Myne anſweare to them that aſke me, is this,

4 Haue we not power to eate and to drinke?

5 Haue we not power to leade about a (b) ſiſter a woman, aſwel as other apoſtles, and as the brethren of the Lorde and Cephas?

14 For the body is not one member, but many. C

15 If the foote doo ſay, Becauſe I am not the hande, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And yf the eare doo ſay, Becauſe I am not the eye, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

17 If al the body [were] an eye, where were then the hearyng? If al [were] hearyng, where were the ſmellyng?

18 But now hath God ſet the members, euery one of them ſeueral in the body, as it hath pleaſed hym.

19 If they were al one member, where were the body.

20 Nowe are there many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye can not ſay vnto the hande, I haue no neede of thee: nor againe the head to the feete, I haue no neede of you. D

22 Yea rather a great deale thoſe members of the body which ſeeme to be more (c) feeble, are neceſſary:

(c) whoſe vſe ſeemeth to be more vyle.

23 And vppon thoſe [members] of the body which we thynke to be leſſe honorable, we owe (d) more honour: & our vncomly [partes] haue more comelineſſe.

(d) we are more careful to couer them.

24 For our comely [members] neede it not: But God hath tempered the body together, hauing geuen the more honour to that [part] whiche lacked:

25 That there ſhould be no ſtryfe in the body: but that the members ſhould haue the ſame care one for another.

26 And yf one member ſuffer, al the members ſuffer with it. If one member be honoured, al the members reioyce with it.

27 Ye are the body of Chriſt, and members (c) in part.

28 And GOD hath ordeyned ſomme in the Churche, firſt *Apoſtles, ſecondaryly Prophetes, thirdly teachers, then them that doo myracles: after that, the gyftes of healyng, helpers, gouernors, " diuerſities of tongues.

1 Folowe after charitie, and couet ſpiritual [gyftes:] but moſte cheefely that ye may propheſie.

2 For he that ſpeaketh with [an vnknowen] tong, ſpeaketh not vnto menne, but vnto God: For no man (a) heareth [hym:] Howbeit, in the ſpirit he ſpeaketh myſteries.

3 But he that propheſieth, ſpeaketh vnto men to edifiyng, and exhortation, & comfort.

4 He that ſpeaketh with [an vnknowen] tongue, edifieth hym ſelfe: *but he that propheſieth, edifieth the Churche.

27 If any man ſpeake with tongue, let it be by two, or at the moſt by three, and that by courſe, and let one enterprete.

The,ii.Chapter.

1 He ſheweth his loue towardes them, 7 requyring lykewyſe that they woulde be fauourable to the inceſtuous adulterer, ſeeyng he dyd repent. 14 He alſo reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 confuting thereby ſuche quarel pykers, as vnder pretence of ſpeakyng agaynſt his perſon, ſought nothing but the ouerthrowe of his doctrine.

A 1 BUt I determined this in mee ſelfe, that I would not come agayne to you in heauineſſe.

2 For yf I make you ſory, who is he that maketh me gladde, but the ſame whiche is made (a) ſory by me?

(a) Which was geuen to Satan, but nowe doeth repent.

3 And I wrote this ſame vnto you, leſt when I came, I ſhoulde take heauineſſe of them of whom I ought to reioyce, hauing confidence in you al, that my ioye, is [the ioy] of you al.

4 For in great affliction and anguiſh of hart, I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye ſhoulde be made ſoary, but that ye might perceyue the loue which I haue moſt abundantly vnto you.

5 But if any man hath cauſed ſorowe, the ſame hath not made me ſory, but partly, leſt I ſhoulde ouer greeue you al.

1.Cor.5.b

B 7 So that nowe contrary wyſe ye ought rather to forgeue hym, and comfort hym, leſt that ſame [perſon] ſhoulde be ſwalowed vp with ouermuche heauineſſe.

8 Wherefore, I pray you that you would confyrme your loue towardes hym.

9 For to this ende alſo dyd I wryte, that I myght knowe the proofe of you, whether ye be obedient in al thinges.

10 To whom ye forgeue any thing, I [forgeue] alſo: For yf I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your ſakes [forgaue I it] in the (b) ſight of Chriſte,

(b) That is, truely & from myne hart, euen as in the preſence of Chriſt.

11 Leſt we ſhould be circumuented of Satan: For we are not ignorant of his deuiſes. ¶

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troada, to [preache] Chriſtes Goſpel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lorde,

13 I had no reſt in my ſpirite, becauſe I found not Titus my brother, but when I had taken my leaue of them, I went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto god, which alwayes cauſeth vs to triumphe (c) in Chriſte, & openeth the ſauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place. C

(c) In workyng myghtily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumphe.

15 For we are vnto God the ſweete ſauour of Chriſte in them that are ſaued, and in them whiche periſhe.

16 *To the one [are we] the ſauour of death, vnto death: and vnto the other, the ſauour of lyfe, vnto lyfe: And who is meete vnto theſe thynges?

9 For yf the miniſtration of condempnation be glorie: muche more doth the miniſtration of righteouſneſſe exceede in glorie. ☜

10 For euen that whiche was glorified, was not glorified in this behalfe, becauſe of the exceedyng glorie.

(b) Dauid ſpeaketh of yͤ man whiche feareth God, and loueth his neyghbour.

10 Moreouer [I beſeeche hym] that miniſtreth ſeede vnto the ſower, to miniſter bread alſo for foode, and to multiply your ſeede, and to encreaſe the fruites of your righteouſneſſe: ☞

11 That in al thinges ye may be made ryche vnto al boūtifulnes, which cauſeth through vs thankes geuyng vnto God.

12 For the adminiſtration of this ſeruice, not onely ſupplieth the wante of the ſaintes: but alſo is abundant by the thankes geuyng of many vnto God,

13 (Whyles by the experiment of this miniſtration, they glorifie God for the obedience of your conſentyng to the Goſpel of Chriſte, and for your liberal diſtribution to them, and to al menne:)

14 And by their prayers for you, whiche " long after you for the abundant grace of god in you. C

15 Thankes be vnto God, for his vnſpeakeable gyft.

The.x.Chapter.

1 He toucheth the falſe apoſtles, and defendeth his auchoritie, exhortyng them to obedience: 11 And ſheweth what his power is, 13 and howe he vſeth it.

A 1 I Paul my ſelfe beſeech you by the meekeneſſe & gentleneſſe of Chriſte, whiche in preſence am lowly among you: but am bolde towardes you beyng abſent.

2 I beſeeche you that I may not [neede] to be bolde when I am preſent, with that ſame boldneſſe, wherewith I " am ſuppoſed to haue benne bolde agaynſt ſomme, whiche repute vs as though we walked accordyng to the fleaſhe.

" or, wherewith I meane to be bolde.

3 For walkyng in the fleaſhe, yet we doo not warre accordyng to the fleaſhe.

4 (*For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through GOD, to the ouerthrowing of ſtrong holdes,)

Epheſ. 6. c

12 For we dare not number or compare our ſelues with certayne whiche prayſe them ſelues: neuertheleſſe, whyle they meaſure thē ſelues with them ſelues, and compare them ſelues with them ſelues, they vnderſtāde not.

13 But we wyl not boaſt aboue meaſure: but according to the (b) meaſure of the rule which God hath diſtributed vnto vs, a meaſure to reache euen vnto you.

(b) That is, the gyftes and vocatiō which god had geuen hym to wynne others by.

C 14 For we ſtretche not out our ſelues beyond meaſure, as though we reached not vnto you: For euen to you alſo haue we comme with the Goſpel of Chriſte:

15 Not boaſtyng our ſelues out of meaſure in other mens labours: but hoping when your fayth is encreaſed, to be magnifyed among you accordyng to our meaſure abundantly,

16 That I may preache the Goſpel in thoſe [regions] whiche [are] beyonde you: and not glorie of thoſe thynges whiche by another mans meaſure are prepared alredy.

17 But let hym that gloryeth, glory in the Lorde.

18 For he that commendeth hym ſelfe, is not alowed, but whom the Lord commendeth.

The.xii.Chapter.

1 He reioyceth in preferment, 5 but chiefly in his humbleneſſe, 11 and layeth the cauſe of his boaſting vpon the Corinthians, 14 he ſheweth what good wil he beareth them, 20 and promiſeth to comme vnto them.

A 1 IT is not expedient doubtleſſe for me to glorie, I wyl comme to viſions & reuelations of the Lorde.

2 For I knewe a man in (a) Chriſt aboue fourteene yeeres agoe, (whether in the body I can not tel: or whether out of the body, I can not tel, God knoweth) taken vp into the thirde (b) heauen:

8 For this thing beſought I the Lorde thriſe, that it myght depart from me.

9 And he ſayde vnto me, My grace is ſufficient for thee: for my ſtrength is made perfect in weakeneſſe. Moſt gladly therefore I wyl rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Chriſte myght dwel in me.

10 Therefore haue I delectation in infirmities, in rebukes, in neceſſities, in perſecutions, in anguiſhes for Chriſtes ſake: For when I am weake, then am I ſtrong.

The .iiii. Chapter.

2 He ſheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeyned, whiche beyng ſhadowes, muſt ende when Chriſt the trueth commeth. 9 He moueth them by certayne exhortations, 22 and confirmeth his argument with a ſtrong example or allegorie.

A 1 AND I ſay, That the heire as long as he is a chylde, differeth nothyng from a ſeruant, though he be lord of al:

2 But is vnder tutours and gouernours, vntil the tyme appoynted of the father.

(a) That is, the law, whiche before he called a ſcoolemaiſter.

3 Euen ſo we, when we were chyldren, were in bondage vnder the (a) rudimentes of the worlde:

Luk.20.b.
John.3.b.
Rom.8.a

4 But when the fulneſſe of the tyme was comme, God ſent his ſonne made of a woman, and made vnder the lawe,

5 To redeeme them that were vnder the law, that we myght receaue the adoption of chyldren.

Rom.8.c
(b) For our adoption vnto Chriſt, is ſealed by hym.
(c) He inſtructeth both Jewes and Gentiles, to cal God theyr father in euery language, ſo that none are excepted.

6 Becauſe ye are ſonnes, *GOD hath ſent foorth the (b) ſpirite of his ſonne into your hartes, cryeing (c) Abba, father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a ſeruant, but a ſonne: yf thou be a ſonne, thou art alſo an heyre of God, through Chriſte.

(d) When ye receiued the Goſpel, ye were idolaters, therfore it is ſhame for you to refuſe libertie, and become ſeruantes, yea, and ſeeyng the Jewes deſyre to be out of theyr felowſhip.

8 Notwithſtandyng, when ye (d) knewe not God, ye dyd ſeruice vnto them whiche by nature are no Gods.

9 But now after that ye haue knowen God, yea rather are knowen of God, howe turne ye agayne vnto the weake and beggerly rudimentes, wherunto againe ye deſire afreſhe to be in bondage?

10 Ye obſerue dayes, and monethes, & times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, leſt I haue beſtowed on you labour in vayne.

12 Brethren, I beſeche you be as I [am] for I [am] as ye are: Ye haue not iniuried me at al.

13 Ye knowe howe through infirmitie of the fleaſhe, I preached the Goſpel vnto you at the firſt:

C

(e) That is, the troubles and vexations whiche God ſent to try me while I was among you.

14 (e) And my temptation whiche was in my fleaſhe ye deſpiſed not, neyther abhorred: but receiued me as an angel of GOD, euen as Chriſte Jeſus.

15 What is then your felicitie? for I beare you recorde, that yf it had benne poſſible, ye woulde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue geuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enimie, becauſe I tel you the trueth.

(f) For they are but ambitious.
(g) They woulde turne you from me, ÿ you myght folowe them.
(h) And imprinted ſo in your hartes, that ye loue none other.

17 They are gelous ouer you (f) amiſſe: Yea, they intende to exclude (g) you, that ye ſhould be feruent to themwarde.

18 It is good alwayes to be zelous in a good thing, and not only when I am preſent with you.

19 My litle children, of whom I trauayle in birth agayne, vntil Chriſte be (h) faſhioned in you.

20 But I deſyre to be preſent with you now, and to change my voyce: for I ſtande in doubt of you.

D 21 Tel me, ye that deſire to be vnder the law, doo ye not heare the lawe?

22 ☞ For it is written that Abraham had two ſonnes: *the one by a bondmayde, the other by a free woman. Gen.16.a. Gen.21.a Heb.11.a

23 But he whiche was of the bondwoman, was borne after the fleaſhe: but he whiche was of the free woman, [was borne] by promiſe.

24 Whiche thynges are ſpoken by (i) an allegorie. For theſe are two teſtamentes: the one from the mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, whiche is Agar:

(i) By an allegorie, that is, another thing is meant.

25 For " Agar is the mount Sina in Arabia, and bordereth vpon the citie whiche [is] nowe [called] Hieruſalem, and is in bondage with her children.

" Or reade, for Sina is a mount in Arabia.

Apoc.21.a 29 But *Hieruſalem which is aboue, is free, whiche is the mother of vs al.

27 For it is written, *Reioyce thou barren, that beareſt no chyldren, breake foorth and crye, thou that trauayleſt not: For the deſolate hath many mo chyldren then ſhe which hath an huſbande. Eſai.54.a

28 But brethren, we are after Iſahac the children of promiſe.

29 But as then he that was borne after the fleaſhe, perſecuted hym that was borne after the ſpirite: euen ſo is it nowe.

30 Neuertheleſſe, what ſayth the ſcripture? *Put away the bondwoman and her ſonne: for the ſonne of the bondewoman ſhal in no wiſe be heyre with the ſonne of the free woman. Gen.21.b

31 So then brethren, we are not chyldren of the bondwoman, but of the free. ☜

29 Let no filthie communication proceede out of your mouth, but that whiche is good to edifie withal, as oft as neede is, that it may miniſter grace vnto the hearers.

30 And [g] greeue not the holy ſpirite of God, by whom ye are ſealed vnto the day of redemption.

(g) So to behaue your ſelues, that the holy ghoſt may willingly dwelle in you, and geue hym no occaſion to depart for ſorowe, by your abuſyng of Gods graces.

31 Let al bitterneſſe, and fierceneſſe, & wrath, and cryeing, and euil ſpeaking, be put away from you, with al naughtineſſe.

32 Be ye curteous one to another, mercyful, forgeuyng one another, euen as GOD for Chriſtes ſake hath forgeuen you.

The.v.Chapter.

9 (For the fruite of the ſpirite [is] in al goodneſſe, and righteouſneſſe, and trueth,

10 Approouing what is acceptable vnto the Lorde.)

11 And haue no felowſhip with the vnfruiteful woorkes of darkneſſe, but rather euen rebuke them.

12 For it is ſhame euen to name thoſe things whiche are donne of them in ſecrete.

13 But al thynges when they are " rebuked, are made manifeſt of the light: For al that whiche dooth make manifeſt, is light.

" Some rede, rebuked of yͤ light, are made manifeſt.

17 Wherefore be ye not vnwyſe, but vnderſtandyng what the wyl of the Lorde is.

18 And be not drunke with wine, wherein is exceſſe: but be filled with the ſpirite,

Pſal,33.a. Coloſ,3.c 19 Speaking vnto your ſelues in * pſalmes, and hymnes, and ſpiritual ſongues, ſingyng and making melodie to the Lorde in your hartes:

20 Geuing thankes alwayes for al thynges vnto God and the father, in the name of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte:

21 Submitting your ſelues one to another in the feare of God. ☜ D

22 Wyues, ſubmit your ſelues vnto your owne huſbandes, as vnto the Lorde:

23 For the huſbande is the head of the wyfe, euen as Chriſte is * the head of the Churche, and he is the ſauiour of the body. Gen.2.d i.Cor.11.a Ephe.1.d.

24 But as the Church is ſubiect vnto Chriſt, likewiſe the wiues to their owne huſbandes in al thinges.

25 Ye huſbandes loue your wyues, euen as Chriſt alſo loued the Churche, and gaue him ſelfe for it,

26 To ſanctifie it, when he had cleanſed [it] in the (b) fountayne of water in the woorde:

27 That he myght preſent it vnto hym ſelfe a glorious Church, not hauing ſpot or wrincle, or any ſuche thyng: but that it ſhould be holy, and without blame.

(b) Baptiſme is a token that God hath conſecrated the Churche to him ſelfe, and made it holy by his woorde: that is, his promiſe of free iuſtification in Chriſte.

29 So ought menne to loue theyr wyues as theyr owne bodyes: he that loueth his wyfe, loueth hym ſelfe.

29 For no man euer yet hated his owne fleaſhe: but nouriſheth and cheriſheth it, euen as the Lorde the Churche:

30 For we are members of his body, of his fleaſhe, and of his bones.

31 * For this cauſe ſhal a man leaue father and mother, & ſhalbe ioyned vnto his wyfe, and two ſhalbe made one fleaſhe. Gene.2.d. Mat.19.a Mark.10.a 1.Cor.6.d Epheſ.5.g

32 This is a great ſecrete: but I ſpeake of Chriſte and of the Churche.

33 Therefore euery one of you [doo ye ſo:] Let euery one of you loue his wyfe euen as hym ſelfe, and [let] the wyfe reuerence her huſbande.

The firſt Chapter.

1 Saint Paul diſcouereth his hart towardes them, 3 by his thankes geuyng, 4 prayers, 8 and wiſhes for theyr fayth and ſaluation. 7. 12. 20. He ſheweth the fruite of his croſſe, 25. 27. and exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 and pacience.

A 1 PAul and Timotheus the ſeruantes of Jeſus Chriſt, to al the ſaintes in Chriſt Jeſus, whiche are at Philippos, with the Biſhoppes and Deacons:

4 (Alwayes in al my prayer for al you, making prayer with gladneſſe:)

5 For your felowſhip in the Goſpel, from the firſt [a] day vntil nowe:

(a) That ye receiued the Goſpel.

6 Beyng perſwaded of this ſame thing, that he whiche hath begunne a good woorke in you, wil perfourme it vntyl the day of Jeſus Chriſte:

B 7 As it becommeth me to iudge this of you al, becauſe I haue you in my hart, and in my bondes, in the defence and confirmation of the Goſpel, you al being partakers of my [b] grace.

(b) Of this peculier benefite to ſuffer for Chriſtes ſake.

(b) That is, from the very hart roote of Jeſus Chriſt

8 For God is my record howe greatly I long after you al in the [c] bowelles of Jeſus Chriſte.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abounde yet more and more in knowledge, and in al vnderſtanding:

10 That ye may diſcerne thinges that differ: that ye may be pure and without offence tyl the day of Chriſte,

11 Being filled with the fruites of ryghteouſneſſe, whiche [are] by Jeſus Chriſt, vnto the glory and prayſe of God.

12 But I woulde ye ſhould vnderſtande, brethren, that the thinges whiche [came] vnto me, hath comme rather vnto the furtherance of the Goſpel.

13 [So] that my [d] bondes in Chriſte are manifeſt throughout al the iudgement hal, and in al other places.

(d) which I ſuſteyne for Chriſtes cauſe.

14 And

C 14 And many of the brethren in the Lorde, beyng incouraged through my bondes, dare more plentifully ſpeake the woorde without feare.

15 Somme preache Chriſte of enuie & ſtrife, and ſomme of good wyl:

16 The one preache Chriſte of ſtrife, not cincerely, ſuppoſing to adde more affliction to my bondes:

17 But the others of loue, knowyng that I am ſet to the defence of the Goſpel.

18 What then? ſo that Chriſte be preached any maner of way, whether it be by pretence, or by trueth, I ioy therein, and wyl ioy.

Cor.1.b 19 For I knowe that this ſhal turne to my* ſaluation through your prayer, & miniſtring of the ſpirite of Jeſus Chriſte, 20 Accordyng to my earneſt expectation and my hope, that in nothyng I ſhalbe aſhamed: but that with al boldneſſe, as alwayes, [ſo] nowe alſo Chriſte ſhalbe magnified in my body, whether it be by lyfe, or by death.

D 21 For Chriſte [is] to me lyfe, and death is to me aduauntage.

22 But whether to liue in the fleaſhe, this [be] the fruite of my labour, and what I ſhal chooſe, I wote not.

23 *For I am in a ſtraite betwixt two, hauing a deſyre to departe, and to be with Chriſte, whiche is muche farre better. 2.Cor.5.a.

24 Neuertheleſſe, to abide in the · fleaſhe [is] more needeful for you. · Or, body.

25 And this am I ſure of, that I ſhal abide, and continue with you al, for your furtherance and ioy of fayth:

26 That your reioycing may be the more abundant in Jeſus Chriſte for mee, by my comming to you agayne.

27 Only let your conuerſation* be as it becommeth the Goſpel of Chriſte: that whether I E comme and ſee you, or els be abſent, I may yet heare of your matters, that ye continue in one ſpirite, in one ſoule, holdyng togeather in defence of the fayth of the Goſpel. Ephe.4.a.

28 And in nothyng fearing your aduerſaries, whiche is to them a token of perdition: but to you of ſaluation, and (e) that of God.

29 For vnto you it is geuen for " Chriſte, not only this to beleeue on hym: but alſo this, to ſuffer for his ſake,

30 Hauing the ſame fyght whiche ye ſawe in me, and nowe heare in me.

(e) God ſheweth by this meanes of bearing the croſſe, who are his, and who are not.

" Or, Chriſtes cauſe.

The.ii.Chapter.

3 He exhorteth them aboue al thinges to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefely mainteyned, 16 promiſing that he and Timotheus wyl ſpeedily comme vnto them, 27 and excuſeth the long taryng of Epaphroditus.

A 1 If [there be] therefore any (a) conſolation in Chriſte, yf any comfort of loue, yf any felowſhip of the ſpirite, yf any compaſſion & mercie:

2 Fulfil ye my ioy, that ye be lyke mynded, hauyng the ſame loue, beyng of one accorde, of one minde.

3 Let nothyng [be donne] through ſtrife or vaine glory, but in meekeneſſe euery man eſteeme one the other better then hym ſelfe.

1Cor.10.f 4 *Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man alſo on the thinges of others.

5 Let the ſame minde be in you, which was in Chriſte Jeſus:

6 Who beyng in the fourme of God, thought it not (b) robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made hym ſelfe of no reputation, takyng on hym the fourme of a ſeruant, and made in the lykeneſſe of menne, and founde in figure as a man:

B 8 He humbled hym ſelfe, made obedient vnto death, euen the death of the croſſe.

9 Wherefore God alſo hath hyghly exalted hym, and geuen hym a name whiche is aboue euery name:

12 Wherefore, my dearely beloued, as ye haue alwayes obeyed, not as in my preſence only, but nowe much more in my abſence, worke (d) out your owne ſaluation with feare and tremblyng.

13 For it is GOD whiche woorketh in you, both to wyl and to doo, of good wyl.

14 Doo al thinges without murmuring and diſputing:

15 That ye may be blameleſſe and pure, the ſonnes of GOD, without rebuke in the middes of a crooked and peruerſe nation, among whom ſhine ye as lyghtes in the worlde,

16 Holdyng faſt the woorde of lyfe, to my* reioycing in the day of Chriſte, that I haue not runne in vayne, neyther laboured in vayne. 2.Cor.1.c. 1.Theſ.2.c

(a) If you ſo loue me that you deſyre my comfort,

(b) For he that was god, ſhoulde therin haue donne no iniurie to the godhead.

(c) worſhip, and be ſubiect to him.

(d) Our health hãgeth not on our workes. & yet are they ſaid to worke out their health, who doo run in the race of iuſtice. For although we be ſaued freely in chriſt by fayth, yet muſt we walk by the way of iuſtice vnto our health.

17 Yea, and though I be offered vp vpon the ſacrifice and ſeruice of your fayth, I reioyce, and reioyce with you al.

18 For the ſame cauſe alſo doo ye reioyce, and reioyce with me.

19 But I truſt in the Lorde Ieſus, to *ſende Timotheus ſhortly vnto you, * that I alſo may be of good comfort, when I knowe your ſtate.

Actes.16.a
1.The.3.b.

20 For I haue no man lyke minded, who wil naturally care for your ſtate.

D 21 For al ſeeke their owne, not the thynges whiche are Ieſus Chriſtes.

22 Ye knowe the proofe of him, that as a ſonne with the father, he hath ſerued with me in the Goſpel.

23 Hym therefore I hope to ſende, as ſoone as I knowe my ſtate.

24 But I truſt in the Lorde, that I alſo mee ſelfe ſhal comme ſhortly.

25 But I ſuppoſed it neceſſary, to ſende to you Epaphroditus my brother and companion in labour, and felowe ſouldier, but your apoſtle, and the miniſter of my neede.

26 For he longed after you al, and was ful of heauineſſe, becauſe that ye had hearde that he had benne ſicke.

27 And no doubt he was ſicke nygh vnto death, but God had mercie on hym: and not on hym only, but on me alſo: leſt I ſhoulde haue ſorowe vpon ſorowe.

28 I ſent hym therefore the more diligently, that when ye ſee him againe, ye may reioice, and that I may be the leſſe ſorowful. E

29 Receiue hym therefore in the Lord with al gladneſſe, and *make muche of ſuche:

A 1 Moreouer my brethren, reioyce ye in the Lorde. It greeueth me not to write the ſame thinges often to you, for to you it is a ſure thyng.

2 Beware of (a) dogges, beware of euyl workers, beware of (b) conciſion.

3 For we are the circumciſion, whiche worſhip God in the ſpirite, and reioyce in Chriſte Ieſus, and haue no confidence in the fleaſh:

4 Though I myght alſo haue confidence in the fleaſhe. If any other man thynketh that he hath whereof he myght truſt in the fleaſhe, I more:

Mat.14.c.

B 8 Yea, I thynke al thynges but loſſe for the excellencie of the knowledge of Chriſte Ieſus my Lorde: for whoſe ſake I haue loſt al thynges, and doo iudge them but • dunge, that I may winne Chriſte,

9 And be founde in hym, not hauyng myne owne ryghteouſneſſe whiche is of the lawe: but that whiche is through the fayth of Chriſte, the ryghteouſneſſe whiche commeth of God through fayth:

10 That I may knowe hym, and the power of his reſurrection, and the felowſhip of his paſſions, beyng made conformable vnto his death,

11 • If by any meanes I myght atteyne vnto the reſurrection of the dead.

• Aſſaying.

12 (c) Not as though I had already atteyned, eyther were already perfect: but I folowe, yf that I may comprehende, wherein alſo I am comprehended of Chriſte Ieſus.

13 Brethren, I count not mee ſelfe as yet that I haue atteyned: but this one thyng [I ſay,] I forgeat thoſe thinges whiche are behynde, and endeuour mee ſelfe vnto thoſe thynges whiche are before,

C 14 And I preaſe towarde the marke, for the price of the hygh calling of GOD in Chriſte Ieſus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as be perfect, be thus mynded: And yf ye be otherwyſe mynded, god ſhal reueale the ſame alſo vnto you.

16 Neuertheleſſe, vnto that whiche we haue atteyned vnto, let vs proceede by one rule, that we may be of one accorde.

17 *Brethren, be folowers togeather of me, and looke on them whiche walke ſo as ye haue vs for an enſample.

1.Cor.4.c

18 For many walke, of whom I haue tolde you often, and nowe tel you weeping, [that they are] the enimies of the croſſe of Chriſte:

5 Let your patient minde be knowen vnto al men. The Lorde is at hande.

6 Be careful for nothyng: but in al thynges let your petition be manifeſt vnto God, in prayer and ſupplication with geuing of thankes.

7 And the peace of God whiche paſſeth al vnderſtandyng, ſhal (b) keepe your hartes and your myndes through Chriſte Jeſus.

8 B Furthermore brethren, what ſo euer thinges are true, what ſo euer thynges [are] honeſt, what ſo euer thinges [are] iuſt, what ſo euer thynges [are] pure, what ſo euer thynges parteyne to loue, what ſo euer thynges [are] of honeſt report: yf there be any vertue, and yf there be ⸗ any prayſe, thynke on theſe thynges:

9 Which ye haue both learned, and receiued, and hearde, and ſeene in me, thoſe thynges doo: and the God of peace ſhalbe with you.

10 But I reioyce in the Lorde greatly, that nowe at the laſt you are reuiued agayne to care for me in that wherein ye were alſo careful, but ye lacked oportunitie.

11 I ſpeake not becauſe of (c) neceſſitie: for I haue learned, in what ſo euer eſtate I am, * therewith to be content.

12 I knowe howe to be lowe, and I knowe howe to exceede: euery where and in al thinges I am inſtructed both to be ful, and to be hungry, both to haue plentie, and to ſuffer neede.

13 I canne doo al thynges through Chriſte, whiche ſtrengthneth me.

14 C Notwithſtandyng, ye haue wel donne, that ye dyd communicate to my affliction.

15 Ye Philippians knowe alſo, that in the (d) begynnyng of the Goſpel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Churche communicated to me, as concernyng geuing and receiuyng, but ye only.

16 For euen in Theſſalonica ye ſent once, and agayne vnto my neceſſitie.

17 Not that I deſyre a gift: but I deſyre fruite aboundyng to your accompt.

18 But I haue receiued al, and haue plentie: I was euen filled after that I had receiued of Epaphroditus the thynges [whiche were ſent] from you, an odour of a ſweete ſmel, a * ſacrifice acceptable, pleaſant to God.

19 My God ſhal ſupply al your neede through his riches in glory, in Chriſte Jeſus.

20 Unto God and our father [be] glory for euermore. Amen.

21 D Salute al the ſaintes in Chriſte Jeſus: The brethren whiche are with me, greete you.

22 Al the ſaintes ſalute you, moſt of al they that are of Caeſars houſeholde.

23 The grace of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte [be] with you al, Amen.

The Epiſtle of Saint Paul the Apoſtle, to the Coloſſians.

The firſt Chapter,

3 He geueth thankes vnto God for their fayth. 7 Confirming the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 prayeth for the increaſe of their fayth. 13 He ſheweth vnto them the true Chriſte, and diſcouereth the counterfaite Chriſte of the falſe apoſtles. 25 He approoueth his aucthoritie and charge, 28 and of his faythful executing of the ſame.

A 1 Paul an apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſte by yͤ wyl of God, and Timotheus the brother,

2 To the ſaintes & faythful brethren in Chriſte, whiche are at Coloſſa, *grace be vnto you, and peace from GOD our father, and the Lorde Jeſus Chriſte.

Galat.1.a. Ephe.1.a.

3 *We geue thankes to God and the father of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte, *alwayes for you, praying:

4 Sence we heard of your faith(a) in Chriſte Jeſus, and of the loue whiche ye haue to al ſaintes:

Ephe.1.d. (a) For without Chriſte there is no fayth to be ſaued by, but only a vayne opinion.

5 For the hopes ſake whiche is layde vp for you in heauen, of whiche [hope] ye heard before in the woorde of trueth of the Goſpel,

6 Whiche is comme vnto you euen as [it is] in al the worlde, and is fruiteful, as it is alſo in you, from the day ye hearde [of it] & knew the grace of God in trueth.

Coloſ.4.c B 7 As ye alſo learned of *Epaphras our deare felowe ſeruant, whiche is for you a faithful miniſter of Chriſte:

8 Who alſo declared vnto vs your loue (b) in the ſpirite.

28 Whom we preache, warnyng euery man, and teaching euery man in al wyſedome, that we may preſent euery man perfect in Chriſte Jeſus:

29 Whereunto I alſo labour ſtriuing, accordyng to his woorkyng whiche woorketh in me myghtily.

The .ii. Chapter.

1 Hauyng protected his good wyl towarde them, 4 he admoniſheth them not to turne backe from Chriſte, 8 to the ſeruice of angels or any other inuention, or els ceremonies of the lawe, 17 whiche haue finiſhed their office, and are ended in Chriſte.

A 1 FOR I woulde that ye knewe what great fyght I haue for you, and for them that [are] at Laodicea, and for as many as haue not ſeene my face in the fleaſhe:

2 That their hartes myght be comforted, beyng knyt togeather in loue, and in al riches of certaintie of vnderſtandyng, to knowe the myſterie of God, and of the father, and of Chriſte:

The .iii. Chapter.

1 He ſheweth where we ſhoulde ſeeke Chriſte, 5 he exhorteth to mortification, 10 to put of the olde man, and to put on Chriſte, 12 to the whiche he addeth exhortation, both generral and particuler, to charitie and humilitie.

A 1 IF ye then be ryſẽ with Chriſt, ſeeke thoſe thynges which are aboue, where Chriſt ſitteth on the ryght hande of God:

Ephe.1.d.
Hebre.1.a

2 Set your affection on (a) thynges aboue, not on thynges on the earth.

(a) which eyther ſerue but for a tyme, or els are inuented by man.

3 For ye are dead, and your lyfe is hidde with Chriſte in God.

4 When ſo euer Chriſte whiche is our lyfe ſhal appeare, then ſhal ye alſo appeare with hym in glory. ☜

5 Mortifie therefore your members whiche are vpon the earth: fornication, vncleannes, inordinate affection, euyl concupiſcence, and couetouſneſſe, whiche is woorſhipping of images:

6 For whiche thynges ſake, the wrath of God commeth on the chyldren of diſobedience,

Ephe.2.a. 7 * In the whiche ye alſo walked ſometyme, when ye lyued in them. B

8 But nowe put ye of alſo al wrath, fierceneſſe, malicriouſneſſe, blaſphemie, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lye not one to another, ſeeing that ye haue put of the olde man with his woorkes:

Rom.6.a. Ephe.4.c. 10 * And haue put on the newe man, whiche is renewed into knowledge, after the image of hym that made hym, Galat.6.d 11 * Where is neyther Greke nor Iewe, circumciſion nor vncircumciſion, Barbarian, Sythian, bonde, free: but Chriſte is al, and in al.

12 ☞ Put on therefore (as the elect of God, (b) holy and beloued) bowels of mercie, kyndneſſe, humbleneſſe of mind, meekeneſſe, long ſuffering,

(b) He ſheweth what fruites are in them that are dead to the worlde, and are ryſen agayne with Chriſte.

13 Forbearyng one another, and forgeuing one another, yf any man haue a quarel agaynſt any: euen as Chriſte forgaue you, ſo alſo [doo] ye.

Mat.22.d. 14 And aboue al theſe thinges [put on] *charitie, whiche is the bonde of perfectneſſe.

15 And let the peace of God haue the victorie in your hartes, to the whiche alſo we are called in one body: and ſee that ye be thankful. C

16 Let the woorde of Chriſte dwel in you richely in al wyſedome, teachyng and admoniſhing your owne ſelues,* in pſalmes, and hymnes, and ſpiritual ſonges, ſingyng with grace in your hartes to the Lorde. Pſal.33.a. Ephe.5.d.

18 * Wyues, ſubmit your ſelues vnto your owne huſbandes, as it is comely in the lord. Ephe.5.c. 1.Pet.3.a.

19 Huſbandes, loue your wyues, and be not bitter agaynſt them.

20 * Chyldren, obey your parentes in al thinges, for that is wel pleaſyng vnto the Lord. Ephe.6.a.

21 Fathers, (c) prouoke not your chyldren [to anger,] leſt they be diſcouraged.

(c) By to muche rigour.

22 * Seruantes, obey in al thynges your bodyly maiſters: not with eye ſeruice, as menne pleaſers, but in singleneſſe of harte, fearing God. Ephe.6.a. Titus.2.c. 1.Pet.2.d.

23 And what ſo euer ye doo, doo it hartily, as to the Lorde, and not vnto menne:

24 Knowyng, that of the Lorde ye ſhal receiue the rewarde of inheritance: for ye ſerue the Lorde Chriſte.

18 The ſalutation by the hande of me Paul. Remember my bondes. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to the Coloſſians, by Tychicus and Oneſimus.

The first Epiſtle of Saint Paul the Apoſtle, vnto the Theſſalonians.

The firſt Chapter.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are ſo ſtedfaſt in fayth and good workes, 6 and receiue the Goſpel with ſuche earneſtneſſe, 7 that they are an example to al others.

A 1 Paul and Siluanus and Timotheus, vnto the Churche of the Theſſalonians, [whiche is] in (a) God the father, and in the Lord Ieſus Chriſte, * Grace [be] vnto you, and peace from God our father, and the Lorde Ieſus Chriſte.

1.The.4.b 1.Tim.1.a.

4 ☞ Knowyng, brethren beloued, your election of God.

1.Cor.2.a. 5 For our Goſpel came not vnto you in * worde only, but alſo in power, and in the holy ghoſt, and in muche certainetie, as * ye know after what manner we were among you for your ſake. 1.Theſ.2.a

6 And ye became folowers of vs, and of the Lorde, hauing receiued the worde in much affliction, with (b) ioy of the holy ghoſt:

(b) To beleeue, and to be fully perſwaded to haue the gifts of the holy ghoſt, and ioyfully to ſuffer for Chriſtes ſake, are moſt certain ſignes of our election.

7 So that ye were an enſample to al that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you, ſounded out the worde of the Lorde, not only in Macedonia & Achaia: but alſo in euery place your fayth to Godwarde is ſpread abrode, ſo that we neede not to ſpeake any thyng.

B 9 For they them ſelues ſhewe of you, what manner of entryng in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from images, to ſerue the (c) liuing and true God.

(c) For images are dead thynges, and only faigned fantaſies.

10 And to tary for his ſonne * from heauen, whom he rayſed from the dead: ☞ [euen] Ieſus which deliuereth vs from * the wrath to comme. Actes.1.b. Iohn.3.b.

The .ii. Chapter.

1 To the intent they ſhoulde not faint vnder the croſſe, 2 he commendeth his diligence in preachyng, 13 and theirs in obeying, 18 He excuſeth his abſence, that he coulde not comme, and open his hart to them.

A 1 FOR ye your ſelues, * brethren, knowe our entrance in vnto you, that it was not in (a) vayne: 1.Theſ.1.b

2 But euen after that we had ſuffered before, and were * ſhamefully entreated as ye knowe at Philippos, we were bolde in our GOD, to ſpeake vnto you the Goſpel of God, in * muche ſtriuing. Acts.17.c. Acts.17.b

(a) Not in outwarde ſhewe and in pompe, but in trauel, and in the feare of God.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceipt, neither of vncleanneſſe, neither in guile:

4 But as we were alowed of God to be put in credite with the goſpel, euen ſo we ſpeake, not as pleaſing menne, but God, which tryeth our hartes. Galat.1.b. Philip.1.a

5 For neither at any tyme vſed we flattering wordes, as ye knowe, neither cloke of couetouſneſſe, God [is] recorde,

6 Neyther ſought we prayſe of menne, neyther of you, nor yet of others:

7 When we myght haue benne in " auctoritie, as the apoſtles of Chriſte, but were tender among you, euen as a (b) nourſe cheriſheth

(b) He humbled hym ſelfe to ſupport al thynges without al reſpect of lucre: euen as the tender mother which nourſeth her chyldren, and thynketh no office to vyle for her chyldrens ſake.

her chyldren,

B 8 So, beyng tenderly affected towarde you, our good wyl was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Goſpel of GOD only: but alſo our owne ſoules, becauſe ye were deare vnto vs.

9 ☞ For ye remember brethren, our labour and trauayle: * for we labouryng night and day, becauſe we woulde not be chargeable vnto any of you, preached vnto you the goſpel of God.

Acts.20.g 2.The.3.b. 1.Cor.9.c

10 Ye [are] witneſſes, and God [alſo,] howe holyly, and iuſtly, and vnblameably, we behaued our ſelues among (c) you that beleeue:

(c) For it is not poſſible to auoyde the reproche of the wicked, whiche euer hate good doinges.

11 As ye knowe how that as a father his children, ſo we haue exhorted, comforted, and beſought euery one of you,

12 That ye woulde walke woorthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kyngdome and glory.

13 For this cauſe thanke we God alſo without ceaſſing, becauſe when ye had receiued the woord of God whiche ye heard of vs, ye receiued it not as the woord of menne, (but as it is in deede) the woorde of God, whiche effectuouſly woorketh alſo in you that beleeue.☜

C 14 For ye, brethren, became folowers of the Churches of GOD, whiche in Iurie are in Chriſte Jeſus: for ye alſo haue ſuffered lyke thynges of your countreymen, as they haue of the Jewes:

15 Who both kylled the Lorde Jeſus, ⁊ theyr owne prophets, and haue perſecuted vs: and God they pleaſe not, and are contrary (d) to al menne:

(d) And would hinder al men from their ſaluatiō.

16 And hynder vs to ſpeake to the Gentiles, that they might be ſaued, to fulfil their ſinnes alway. For the wrath [of God] is comme on them to the vttermoſt.

Luk, 21.e,

17 Foraſmuche, brethren, as we are kept from you for a ſhort ſeaſon, in perſon, not in harte, we enforced the more to ſee you perſonally with great deſyre.

18 And therefore we woulde haue comme vnto you, (euen I Paul) once and agayne: * but Satan hyndered vs.

Dani,10,e

19 For what is our hope, or ioy, or crowne of reioycing? * Are (e) not ye it in the preſence of our Lord Jeſus Chriſte, at his comming?

2.Cor.1.c,

(e) Therfore I coulde not forgeat you, except I would forgeat mee ſelfe.

20 Yea, ye are our glory and ioy.

The .iii. Chapter,

2 He ſheweth howe greatly he was affectioned towarde them, both in that he ſent Timotheus to them, 10 and alſo prayed for them.

A 1 Wherefore, ſence we coulde no longer forbeare, we thought it good to remaine at * Athens alone:

Acts.17.d

2 And ſent Timotheus, our brother ⁊ miniſter of God, and felowe labourer in the Goſpel of Chriſte, to ſtabliſhe you, and to comfort you concernyng your fayth:

3 * That no man ſhoulde be mooued in theſe afflictions: For ye your ſelues knowe that we are appoynted thereunto.

Iohn.15.c. Acts.14.d.

4 For veryly when we were with you, we tolde you before that we ſhould ſuffer tribulation: euen as it came to paſſe, and [as] ye knowe.

5 For this cauſe when I (a) coulde no longer forbeare, I ſent [him] to knowe your fayth, leſt by ſome meanes the tempter had tempted you, and our labour had benne vayne.

(a) His great affection towarde the ſmal flocke.

6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tydynges of your fayth ⁊ charitie, and howe that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, deſyring greatly to ſee vs, as we alſo [to ſee] you:

D 7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted ouer you, in al our aduerſitie and neceſſitie, becauſe of your fayth:

8 For nowe we (b) liue, yf ye ſtande faſt in the Lorde.

(b) If ye remayne conſtant in fayth and true doctrine, I ſhal thynke that al myne afflictions be ſo many pleaſures, and ſhalbe reſtored from death to lyfe.

Titus, 2.c
1, Pet, 5.a

12 *Let no man deſpyſe thy youth: *but be thou a paterne of the beleeuers, in woorde, in conuerſation, in charitie, in ſpirite, in fayth, in chaſtitie.

13 Tyl I comme geue attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

C

(b) And reuelation of the holy goſt.
Act, 6, b

14 Deſpyſe not the gyft that is in thee, whiche was geuen thee (b) through prophecie, with the *layeing on of handes, by the auchoritie of the eldership.

15 Haue a care of theſe thinges, and geue thee ſelfe vnto them, that it may be ſeene howe thou profiteſt in al thinges.

(c) Thou ſhalt faythfully doo thy dutie, whiche is an aſſurance of thy ſaluation.

16 Take heede vnto thee ſelfe, and vnto doctrine, and continue therein: For in dooyng this, thou ſhalt both (c) ſaue thee ſelfe, & them that heare thee.

The .v. Chapter.

1 He teacheth hym howe he ſhal behaue hym ſelfe in rebukyng al degrees, 3 an order concernyng wyddowes, 17 The eſtabliſhing of miniſters, 23 the gouernance of his bodye, 24 and the iudgement of ſinnes.

A

Luke, 19.d

1 REbuke not an elder, *but exhort him as a father, the younger men as brethren:

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger, as ſiſters, in al chaſtitie.

3 Honor widdowes, whiche are widdowes in deede.

Eccleſ. 3.b

4 *But yf any widdow haue children or nephues, let them learne firſt to rule their owne houſes godly, and to recompence alſo theyr elder kynſfolkes: for that is good and acceptable before God.

Luke, 2.f
(a) Whiche hath no maner of worldly meanes to helpe her ſelfe with.

5 And ſhe that is a widdowe (a) in deede, and leaft alone, hopeth in God, and continueth in ſupplications and prayers nyght and day.

6 But ſhe that liueth in pleaſure, is dead beyng alyue.

B

7 And theſe thynges commaunde, that they may be blameleſſe.

8 But if any prouide not for his owne, and ſpecially for them of his houſeholde, he hath denyed the fayth, and is worſe then an Infidel.

9 Let not a widdowe be choſen vnder threeſcore yeeres olde, hauyng benne the wyfe of one man,

Acts, 10.c
1, Pet. 4.b
" Or, holpen them.

10 And wel reported of in good woorkes, yf ſhe haue brought vp chyldren, *yf ſhe haue lodged ſtrangers, yf ſhe haue waſhed the ſaintes feete, yf ſhe haue " miniſtred vnto them that were in aduerſitie, yf ſhe haue ben continually geuen to euery good woorke.

11 But the younger widdowes refuſe, for when they haue begunne to waxe wanton agaynſt Chriſt, they wyl marry:

12 Hauyng dampnation, becauſe they haue caſt away their firſt fayth.

13 They learne to wander about from houſe to houſe idle, yea not idle only, but alſo tatlers, and buſybodies, ſpeakyng thinges whiche are not comely.

C

1, Cor. 7.b

14 I wyl therefore that the younger women doo *marry, to beare chyldren, to guyde the houſe, to geue none occaſion to the aduerſarie to ſpeake ſlaunderouſly.

15 For certaine of them are alredy turned backe after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that beleeueth haue widdowes, let them ſuſtayne them, and let not the churche be charged, that it may ſuſteyne them that are widdowes in deede.

17 The elders that rule wel, let them be counted woorthy of double honour, moſt ſpecially they whiche labour in the woord and teachyng.

5 He reioyceth to heare of the fayth and loue of Philemon. 9 whom he deſyreth to forgeue his ſeruant Oneſimus, and louingly to receiue hym agayne.

A 1 Paul a priſoner of Jeſus Chriſt, & brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon my dearely beloued and our felowe labourer,

2 And to our dearely beloued Apphia, and to Archippus our felowe ſouldier, and to the Churche in thy houſe:

3 * Grace to you, and peace from God our father, and the Lorde Jeſus Chriſte.

1.Cor.1.a. 2.Cor.1.a. Galat.1.a.

4 I thanke my God, makyng mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 Hearyng of thy loue and fayth which thou haſt towarde the Lorde Jeſus, and toward al ſaintes:

6 That the (a) felowſhip of thy fayth may be effectual in the knowledge of euery good [woorke] whiche is in you towarde Chriſte Jeſus.

(a) Thy beneuolence towarde the ſaintes, which proceedeth of a liuely and effectual faith.

Jeſus.

B 7 For we haue great ioy and conſolation in thy loue, becauſe the bowels (b) of the ſaintes are refreaſhed by thee, brother.

(b) Meanyng his inwarde partes and affections were through his charitie comforted.

8 Wherefore, though I myght be muche bolde in Chriſte, to iniopne thee that whiche is conuenient:

9 Yet for loues ſake I rather beſeeche thee, beyng ſuche a one as Paul the aged, and now alſo a priſoner of Jeſus Chriſte.

Colo.4.b

10 I beſeeche thee for my ſonne *Oneſimus, whom I haue begotten in my bondes:

11 Whiche in tyme paſſed was to thee vnprofitable, but nowe profitable to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue ſent agayne: thou therefore receiue hym, that is, myne owne bowels,

13 Whom I woulde haue reteyned with me, that in thy ſteede he myght haue miniſtred vnto me in the bondes of the Goſpel:

C 14 But without thy minde would I doo nothyng, that thy benefite ſhoulde not be as it were of neceſſitie, but wyllyngly.

15 For happyly he therefore departed for a ſeaſon, that thou ſhouldeſt receiue hym for euer:

16 Not now as a ſeruant, but aboue a ſeruant, a brother beloued, ſpecially to me: but howe muche more vnto thee, both in the fleaſh and in the Lorde?

17 If thou count me therefore a felowe, receiue hym as mee ſelfe.

18 If he haue iniured thee, or oweth [thee ought] that lay to my charge.

19 I Paul haue written it with myne owne hande, I wyl recompence it: albeit, I doo not ſay to thee howe thou oweſt vnto me euen thyne owne ſelfe beſides.

20 Yea brother, let me enioy [this] " pleaſure of thee in the Lorde: comfort my (c) bowels in the Lorde.

" Or, fruite.

(c) Graunt me this benefite, whiche ſhalbe moſte acceptable vnto me of al other.

21 Truſting in thyne obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowyng that thou wylt alſo doo more then I ſay.

22 Moreouer, prepare me alſo a lodging: for I D trust that through your prayers I ſhalbe geuen vnto you.

The Epiſtle of Saint Paul the Apoſtle to the Hebrewes.

The firſt Chapter.

1 He ſheweth the excellencie of Chriſte, 4 aboue the angels, 7 and of their office.

A 1 GOD which in tyme paſt, at ſundry tymes & in diuers manners ſpake vnto the fathers in the prophetes,

2 Hath in theſe (a) laſt dayes ſpokē vnto vs in the ſonne, whom he hath appoynted heire of al thynges, *by whom alſo he made the worldes.

(a) So that nowe we haue no credite in any newe reuelations after hym.

Colo.1.c.

Sapi.8.d.

3 *Who beyng the bryghtneſſe of the glory, & the very image of his ſubſtāce, vpholding al thinges with the woord of his power, hauing by him ſelfe purged our ſinnes, " hath ſit on the right hand of the maieſtie on high:

" Or, ſate.

4 Beyng ſo muche more excellent then the angels, as he hath by inheritance obteyned a more excellent name then they.

Pſal.2.a.

5 For vnto whiche of the angels ſayde he at any tyme, *Thou art my ſonne, this (b) day haue I begotten thee?

(b) Becauſe he was at the tyme appoynted declared to the worlde.

6 And agayne, I wyl be to him a father, and he ſhalbe to me a ſonne? And agayne when he bryngeth in the firſt begotten ſonne into the worlde, he ſayth, And let al the angels of God woorſhip hym.

Pſal.97.a.

B 7 And vnto the angels he ſayth, He maketh his angels (c) ſpirites, and his miniſters a flame of fyre:

Pſal.104.a

(c) He compareth the angels to the windes, whiche are here beneath as gods meſſengers.

8 But vnto the ſonne [he ſayth,] Thy ſeate, O God, [ſhalbe] for euer and euer: the ſcepter of thy kyngdome [is] a ſcepter of ryghteouſneſſe.

9 Thou haſt loued ryghteouſneſſe, and hated iniquitie: therefore God, euen thy God, hath annoynted thee with the oyle of gladneſſe aboue thy felowes.

Pſal.102.b

10 *And, thou Lorde in the beginnyng haſt layde the fundation of the earth: and the heauens are the woorkes of thy handes:

11 They ſhal periſhe, but thou endureſt: and they al ſhal ware olde as dooth a garment:

12 And as a veſture ſhalt thou folde them vp, and they ſhalbe chaunged: but thou art the ſame, and thy yeeres ſhal not fayle.

Pſal.110.a. Mar.22.d. 1.Co.15.b

13 But vnto whiche of the angels ſaide he at any time, Sit on my right hand, til I make thyne enimies thy footeſtoole?

14 Are they not al miniſtring ſpirites, ſent foorth into miniſterie for their ſakes whiche ſhalbe heyres of ſaluation?

The .ij. Chapter.

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the newe lawe whiche Chriſte hath geuen vs, 9 and not to be offended at the infirmitie and lowe degree of Chriſte, 10 becauſe it was neceſſary that for our ſakes he ſhoulde take ſuche an humble ſtate vpon him, that he myght be lyke vnto his brethren.

A 1 Wherfore we ought to geue the more earneſt heede to the thinges whiche we haue hearde: leſte at any (a) tyme we ſhoulde let them ſlippe.

(a) We muſt diligently keepe in memorie, the doctrine whiche we haue learned, leſt lyke veſſels ful of chaps, we leake and run out on euery part.

2 For yf the (b) woorde ſpoken by angels, was ſtedfaſt: and euery tranſgreſſion & diſobedience receiued a iuſt recompence of rewarde:

(b) As the goſpel is, whiche only offereth ſaluation.

3 Howe ſhal we eſcape yf we neglect ſo great ſaluation? whiche at the fyrſt beganne to be preached of the Lorde, and was confirmed vnto vs warde by them that hearde it,

Mar.16.d.

4 *God bearing witneſſe [thereto] both with ſignes and woonders alſo, and with diuers powers, and gyftes of the holy ghoſt accordyng to his owne wyl.

5 For vnto the angels hath he not put in ſubiection the worlde to comme, whereof we ſpeake.

Pſal.7.a.

6 But one in a certayne place witneſſed, ſayeing, What is man, that thou art mindeful of hym? Or the ſonne of man that thou viſiteſt hym?

B 7 Thou madeſt hym for a litle whyle lower then the angels, thou haſt crowned hym with (c) glory and honour, and *haſt ſet hym aboue the woorkes of thy handes.

(c) In makyng hym felowe heyre with Chriſte.

Pſal.8.b. 1.Co.15.d

8 Thou haſt put al thinges in ſubiection vnder his feete. In that he put al thynges vnder him, he leaft nothyng that is not put vnder hym. But nowe we ſee not yet al thinges put vnder hym.

9 But hym that for a whyle was made leſſe then the angels, we ſee [that it was] Jeſus, who through the ſuffering of death, was crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God, ſhould taſte of death for al.

10 For it became hym, for whom are al thynges, and by whom are al thynges, after he had brought many ſonnes vnto glory, that he ſhoulde make the captayne of their ſaluation perfect through afflictions.

11 For both he that ſanctifieth, and they which are ſanctified [are] al of one: For whiche cauſe, he is not aſhamed to calle them brethren,

Pſal.22.e. Iohn.20.d

12 Sayeing, I wil declare thy name vnto my *brethren, in the middes of the Churche wyl I prayſe thee.

13 And agayne, I wyl put my truſt in hym. And agayne, Beholde here am I, and the chyldren whiche God hath geuen me.

C 14 Foraſmuche then as the chyldren are partakers of fleaſhe and blood, he alſo hym ſelfe lykewyſe tooke part with them, that thorowe death he myght expel hym that had lordeſhip ouer death, that is the deuil:

15 And that he myght deliuer them whiche through feare of death, were al their lyfe tyme in danger of bondage.

16 For he in no place taketh on hym the (d) angels: but the ſeede of Abraham taketh he on hym.

(d) Not the nature of angels, but of menne.

17 Wherefore in al thinges it became hym to be made lyke vnto his brethren, that he myght be merciful, & a faythful hygh prieſt in thynges concernyng GOD, for to purge the peoples ſinnes.

18 For in that he hym ſelfe ſuffered, and was tempted, he is hable to ſuccour them that are tempted.

The .iii. Chapter.

1 He requireth them to be obedient vnto the woorde of Chriſte, 3 who is more woorthy then Moſes. 12 The pouniſhment of ſuch as wyl harden their hartes, and not beleeue, that they myght haue eternal reſt.

A 1 Therefore holy brethren, partakers of the celeſtial callyng, (a) conſyder the apoſtle and hygh prieſte of our profeſſion Chriſte Jeſus,

(a) Take heede to his woordes, and heare hym

2 Being faythful to hym that appoynted hym, as alſo Moſes [was faythful] in al his houſe.

3 For this [man] is counted woorthy of more glory then Moſes, inaſmuche as he whiche hath buylded the houſe, hath more honour then the houſe.

4 For euery houſe is buylded of ſome man: but he that buylded al thynges, is God.

5 And Moſes veryly was faythful in al his houſe, as a ſeruant, for a witneſſe of thoſe thinges whiche were to be ſpoken after:

6 But Chriſte as a ſonne hath rule ouer his owne houſe: (b) whoſe houſe are we, yf we hold faſt the confidence and the reioycing of that hope vnto the ende.

(b) For in obeying the ſonne, we are made the houſe of God.
Rom.5.a.

7 Wherefore, as the holy ghoſt ſayth, To day yf ye wyl heare his voyce,

B 8 Harden not your hartes, as in the prouocation in the day of the temptation in the wylderneſſe:

9 Where your fathers tempted me, prooued me, and ſawe my woorkes fourtie yeeres.

10 Wherefore I was greeued with this generation, and ſayde, They doo alway erre in harte, they veryly haue not knowen my wayes.

11 So that I ſware in my wrath, (c) If they ſhal enter into my reſt.

(c) Here note the Hebrue phraſe, meanyng that they ſhal not enter.

12 Take heede brethren, leſt at any tyme there be in any of you an euyl hart of vnbeleefe, to depart from the liuing God:

13 But exhort ye one another dayly, whyle it is called to day: leſt any of you be hardened through the deceiptfulneſſe of ſinne.

C 14 For we are made partakers of Chriſte, yf we keepe ſure vnto the end (d) the beginning of the ſubſtance.

(d) which is, by fayth to imbrace and holde faſt the true doctrine of Ieſus Chriſte.

15 " So long as it is ſayde, To day yf ye wyl heare his voyce, harden not your hartes, as in the prouocation.

" Or, whyle.

16 For ſomme when they had heard, dyd prouoke: " howe be it, not al that came out of Egypt by Moſes.

" The Lord.

17 But with whom was he diſpleaſed fourtie yeeres? Not with them that had ſinned, whoſe carkaſes fel in the deſart?

18 And to whom ſware he that they ſhoulde not enter into his reſt, but vnto them that were not obedient?

19 And we ſee that they coulde not enter in, becauſe of vnbeleefe.

The .iiii. Chapter.

2 The woorde without fayth is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabboth or reſt of the Chriſtians.
6 Pouniſhment of vnbeleeuers. 12 The nature of the woorde of God.

A 1 LET vs feare therefore, leſt at any tyme by forſakyng the promiſe of entring into his reſt, any of you ſhoulde ſeeme to be defrauded.

2 For vnto vs was the Goſpel preached, aſwel as vnto them: but the woorde whiche they hearde, dyd not profite them, not beyng coupled with fayth to them that hearde.

3 For we whiche haue beleeued, doo enter into his reſte, as he ſayde, Euen as I haue ſworne in my wrath, yf (a) they ſhal enter into my reſt: although the woorks were made perfect from the fundation of the worlde.

(a) Although that God by his reſt after the creation of his workes, ſignified the ſpiritual reſt of the faythful: yet he ſware to geue reſt in Chanaan, whiche was but a figure of the heauenly reſt, and dured but for a tyme.

4 For he ſpake in a certayne place of the ſeuenth day on this wyſe, *And God dyd reſte the ſeuenth day from al his woorkes.

Gen.2,a.

5 And in this place agayne, If they ſhal enter into my reſte.

6 Seeing therefore it foloweth that ſomme muſt enter there into, and they to whom the Goſpel was firſt preached entred not therein for vnbeleefe.

B 7 Agayne, he appoynteth a certayne day, by to day, ſayeing in Dauid after ſo long a time (as it is ſayde,) To day yf ye wyl heare his voyce, harden not your hartes.

8 For yf (b) Ieſus had geuen them reſte, then woulde he not afterwarde haue ſpoken of another day.

(b) By Ieſus is meant Ioſua.

9 There remayneth therefore yet a reſt to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his reſt, hath ceaſſed alſo from his owne woorkes, as GOD [dyd] from his.

11 Let vs ſtudie therefore to enter into that reſt, leſt any man fal " after the ſame example of diſobedience.

" Or, into.

12 For the woord of God is quicke and mighty in operation, and ſharper then any two edged ſwoorde, and entereth through euen vnto the diuiding a ſunder of the (c) ſoule & the (d) ſpirite, and of the ioyntes and the marowe, and is a diſcerner of the thoughtes and of the intentes of the hart.

(c) where the affections are.
(d) whiche contayneth wyl & reaſon.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifeſt in the ſyght of hym: but al thinges [are] naked and open vnto the eyes of hym of whom we ſpeake.

C 14 Seeyng then that we haue a great hygh prieſt, whiche is entred into heauens, Ieſus the ſonne of God, let vs holde faſt [this] confeſſion.

15 For we haue not an hygh prieſt which can not be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but *was in al poyntes tempted lyke as we are, and [yet] without ſinne.

Phil.2.a.

16 *Let vs therefore comme boldly vnto the * throne of grace, that we may obteyne mercie, and finde grace to helpe in tyme of neede.

Exo.25.b.

The.v.Chapter.

5 He compareth Jeſus Chriſte with the Leuitical prieſtes, ſhewyng wherein they eyther agree, or diſſent. 11 Afterwarde he reproueth the negligence of the Jewes.

A 1 FOR euery hygh prieſte taken from among men, is ordeyned for menne, in thynges [parteynyng] to God, to offer (a) gyftes, and ſacrifices for ſinne:

Leui.9.b.

(a) He ſheweth that man can haue none acceſſe to god, without an hygh prieſt, becauſe that of him ſelfe, he is prophane and ſinful.

2 Whiche can ſufficiently haue compaſſion on the ignorant, and on them that erre out of the way, foraſmuch as he him ſelfe alſo is cōpaſſed with infirmitie.

3 And for the ſame [infirmitie] he is bound to offer for ſinnes, aſwel for hym ſelfe, as for the people.

4 And no man taketh the honour vnto him ſelfe, but he that is called of GOD, as was Aaron.

5 Euen ſo, Chriſte alſo glorified not him ſelfe to be made the hygh prieſt: but he that ſayd vnto hym, * Thou art my ſonne, to day I haue begotten thee [gaue it hym.]

(c) Beyng in perplexitie, & fearyng the horrors of death.

8 Though he were the ſonne, yet learned he obedience, by theſe things which he ſuffered.

9 And beyng perfect, was made the authour of eternal ſaluation vnto al them that obey hym:

10 And is called of GOD an hygh prieſt after the order of Melchiſedech.

11 Of whom we haue many thyngs to ſay, & hard to be vttred, ſeeing ye are dul of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time, ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye neede agayne that we teache you the firſt principles of the begynnyng of the woorde of God, and are becomme ſuche as haue neede of * mylke, and not of ſtrong meate.

1.Cor.3.a.

13 For euery one that vſeth mylke, is vnexpert of the woorde of ryghteouſneſſe, for he is a babe.

14 But ſtrong meate belongeth to them that are perfect, euen thoſe whiche by reaſon of vſe, haue their wittes exerciſed to diſcerne both good and euyl.

The.vi.Chapter.

1 He proceedeth in reprouing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 but to be ſtedfaſt and patient, 18 foraſmuche as God is ſure in his promiſe.

A 1 THerefore leauing the doctrine of the begynning (a) of Chriſte, let vs goe forth vnto perfection, not layeng agayne the fundation of repentance from dead woorkes, and of fayth toward God,

2 To whom alſo Abraham gaue tythe of al thinges: firſte being called by interpretation kyng of righteouſneſſe: and after that alſo, kyng of Salem, whiche is kyng of peace,

3 Without (a) father, without mother, without kin, hauing neither beginning of dayes, neither end of lyfe, but likened vnto the ſonne of God, continueth a prieſt for euer.

(a) So called, becauſe that Moſes maketh no mention of his parentes or kinſfolkes, but as he had benne ſodenly ſent of God into the worlde, to be a figure of Chriſt, or euerlaſting prieſt, and ſhortly taken out of the worlde agayne: So Chriſt as touching his humanitie, had no father, and concerning his diuinitie, no mother.

4 Now conſyder how great this [man] was, vnto whom alſo the patriarche Abraham gaue tythe of the ſpoyles.

5 And verely they whiche are of the children of Leui, which receyue the office of the prieſthood, haue a commaundement to take tythe of the people according to the lawe, that is, of their brethren, though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But he whoſe kynrede is not counted among them, receyued tythe of Abraham, and bleſſed hym that had the promyſes.

B 7 And without al controuerſie, the leſſe is bleſſed of the better.

8 And here menne that dye, receiue tythes: but there he [receyueth them] of whom it is witneſſed that he lyueth.

9 And (to ſaye the trueth) Leui alſo whiche receyueth tythes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loynes of his father, when Melchiſedech met Abraham. Rom.2.c

11 *If therefore perfection was by the prieſthood of the Leuites (For vnder that prieſthood the people receyued the law) what neded it furthermore that another prieſt ſhould ryſe after the order of Melchiſedech, and not to be called after the order of Aaron? Galath.3.c

12 For if the prieſthood be tranſlated, of neceſſitie alſo there is made a tranſlation of the lawe.

13 For he of whom theſe thynges are ſpoken, parteyneth vnto another tribe, of whiche no man gaue attendance at the aulter.

C 14 For it is euident that our Lord ſprong *out of Juda, of whiche tribe ſpake Moſes nothing concernyng prieſthood: Math.1.a

15 And [it is] yet a farre more euident thyng, yf after the ſimilitude of Melchiſedech there aryſe another prieſt,

16 Whiche is not made after the lawe of the carnal commaundement, but after the power of the endleſſe lyfe:

17 For he thus teſtifieth, *Thou art a prieſte for euer, after the order of Melchiſedech. Pſal.110.b Hebr.4.c

18 For there is truely a diſanulling of the commaundement goeyng before, for the weakeneſſe and vnprofitableneſſe thereof.

19 For the *lawe made nothing perfect, but [was] the bryngyng in of a better hope, by the whiche we drawe nygh vnto God. Rom.8.a Galat.3.c

20 And in as muche as that was not without an othe, (For thoſe prieſtes were made without an othe:

D 21 But this prieſt with an othe, by hym that ſayd vnto hym, The Lord *ſware, and wyl not repent him, thou art a prieſt for euer after the order of Melchiſedech.) Pſal.110.a

22 By ſo muche was Jeſus made a ſuretie of a better teſtament.

23 And among them many were made prieſtes, becauſe they were forbidden by death to endure:

24 But this man, becauſe he endureth euer, hath an (b) vnchangeable prieſthood.

(b) Therefore al others are blaſphemous that eyther make them ſelues his ſucceſſours, or pretende any other ſacrifice.

25 Wherefore he is able alſo euer to ſaue them to the vttermoſt, that come vnto GOD by hym, ſeeyng he euer liueth, *to make interceſſion for them. 1.Tim.2.a 1.Ioh.2.b

26 For ſuche an hygh prieſt became vs, [which is] holy, harmeleſſe, vndefiled, ſeparate from ſinners, and made hygher then heauens:

27 Whiche needeth not dayly, as thoſe hygh prieſtes, *to offer vp ſacrifice, firſt for his own ſinnes, and then for the peoples: for that dyd he once, when he offered vp him ſelfe. Leuit.9.b

6 He proueth the aboliſhing aſwel of the Leuitical prieſthoode, as of the olde couenant, by the ſpiritual and euerlaſting prieſthood of Chriſt, 8 and by the newe couenant.

9 Not lyke that, that I made with their fathers, in the day when I tooke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: becauſe they continued not in my couenant, and I regarded them not, ſayeth the Lorde.

10 For this is the couenant that I wyl make with the houſe of Iſrael after thoſe dayes, ſayth the Lord: geuyng my lawes into their mynde, and in their hart I wyl wryte them, and I wyl be to them a God, and they ſhalbe to me a people.

The Leuitical prieſt offered yerely, and therefore dyd only repreſent the true holyneſſe: but Chriſt by one only ſacrifice hath made holy for euer them that beleue.

14 Howe muche more the blood of Chriſte, which through the eternal ſpirite offred him ſelfe without ſpot to God, ſhal purge your conſcience from dead workes, to ſerue the liuing God?

1.Tim,2.a

C 16 For whereas is a teſtament, there muſt alſo of neceſſitie be the death of him that made the teſtament.

17 For a teſtament is confyrmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no value, as long as he that made the teſtament is alyue.

18 For which cauſe alſo, neither the firſt [teſtament] was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moſes had ſpoken euery precept to al the people accordyng to the law, takyng the blood of Calues, and of Goates, with water and purple wool, & hyſope, he ſprinckled both the booke it ſelfe, and al the people, 22 And almoſt al thinges are by the lawe purged with blood, and without ſheddyng of blood is no remiſſion.

23 It is neede then that the paterns of heauenly thinges, be purified with ſuche thinges: but the heauenly things them ſelues [be purified] with better ſacrifices then are thoſe.

Hebr.1.a

3 Conſyder therfore him that endured ſuch ſpeakyng agaynſt hym of ſinners, leſt you ſhould be weeried, faynting in your mindes.

4 Ye haue not yet reſiſted vnto [the ſhedding of] blood, ſtryuing againſt ſinne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the exhortation whiche ſpeaketh vnto you as vnto children, My ſonne, deſpyſe not thou the chaſtening of the Lorde, neither faynt when thou art rebuked of hym.

6 For whom the Lord loueth he chaſteneth, and ſcurgeth euery ſonne that he receyueth.

B 7 If ye endure chaſtening, God tendreth you as his ſonnes: for what ſonne is he whom the father chaſteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chaſtiſement, wherof al are partakers, then are ye baſtardes, and not ſonnes.

9 Furthermore, we haue had fathers of our fleaſh, which corrected vs, & we gaue [them] reuerence: ſhal we not then much rather be in ſubiection vnto the father of ſpirits, and liue?

10 For they verily for a fewe dayes chaſtened vs after their owne pleaſure: but he, for our profite, that we might be partakers of his holyneſſe.

11 No chaſtiſing for the preſent ſeemeth to be ioyous, but greeuous: neuertheleſſe, afterwarde it bryngeth the quiet fruite of ryghteouſneſſe, vnto them whiche are exercyſed thereby.

The firſt Chapter.

2 True witneſſe of the euerlaſtyng woorde of God. 7 The blood of Chriſte is the purgation of ſinne. 10 No man is without ſinne.

A 1 That whiche was frõ the begynnyng, whiche we haue hearde, whiche we haue ſeene with our eies, whiche we haue looked vpon, & our handes haue handled, of the woorde of lyfe:

2 (And the lyfe appeared, and we haue ſeene, and beare witneſſe, and ſhew vnto you, *that eternal life whiche was with the father, and appeared vnto vs.)

Mat.17.a.

3 That whiche we haue ſeene and heard, declare we vnto you, that ye alſo may haue(a) felowſhyp with vs, and that our felowſhyp may be with the father, and his ſonne Ieſus Chriſte.

(a) The effect of the goſpel is, that we al being ioyned togeather in Chriſte by fayth, ſhoulde be the ſonnes of God.

4 And theſe thynges wryte we vnto you, that your ioy may be ful.

5 And this is the tydynges whiche we haue hearde of hym, and declare vnto you, that God is lyght, and in hym is no darkneſſe at al.

6 If we ſay that we haue felowſhyp with him, and walke in darkneſſe, we lye, and doo not the trueth.

7 But yf we walke in the lyght, euen as he is in the light, then haue we felowſhip(b) one with another, and the blood of Ieſus Chriſte his ſonne cleanſeth vs from al ſinne. B

(b) That is, Chriſte with vs, & we with our ſelues.

The .ii. Chapter.

1 Chriſte is our aduocate. 10 Of true loue, and howe it is tryed. 18 To beware of antechriſte.

A 1 My litle chyldren, theſe things write I vnto you, that ye ſinne not. And yf any man ſinne, we haue an aduocate with the father, Ieſus Chriſte the ryghteous.

2 And he is the attonement for our ſinnes: not for our [ſinnes] only, but alſo for the [ſinnes] of al the worlde.

3 ☞ And hereby we are ſure that we(c) know hym, yf we kepe his commaundementes.

(c) That is, by fayth, and ſo obey hym: for knowledge can not be without obedience.

4 *He that ſayth, I knowe hym, and kepeth not his commaundementes, is a lier, and the "veritie is not in hym.

Iohn.13.d.
" Or, trueth.

5 But who ſo kepeth his woorde, in him is the loue of god perfect in deede: Hereby know we that we are in hym.

6 He that ſayth he abydeth in hym, ought hym ſelfe to walke, euen as he walked.

B 7 Brethren, I wryte no newe commaundement vnto you, but an olde commaundement whiche ye haue heard from the beginning. The olde commaundement, is the woorde whiche ye haue hearde from the beginning.

8 Agayne, a newe commaundement I write vnto you, that is true in hym, and [the ſame is true] alſo in you, for the darkneſſe is paſt, and the true lyght nowe ſhyneth. ☜

9 He that ſayth howe that he is in the lyght, and yet hateth his brother, is in darkneſſe euen vntyl this tyme.

10 He that loueth his brother, abydeth in the lyght, and there is none occaſion of euyl in hym.

11 He that *hateth his brother, is in darkneſſe, and walketh in darkneſſe: and can not tel whither he goeth, becauſe that darknes hath blynded his eyes.

12 Babes I wryte vnto you, becauſe your ſinnes are forgeuen you for his names ſake.

13 I wryte vnto you fathers, becauſe ye haue knowen hym that is from the begynnyng. I write vnto you young menne, becauſe you haue ouercome the wycked.

14 I wryte to you litle chyldren, becauſe ye haue knowen the father. I haue wrytten to you fathers, becauſe ye haue knowen him that [is] from the begynnyng. I haue wrytten vnto you young menne, becauſe ye are ſtrong, and the woorde of God abydeth C in you, and ye haue ouercome the wicked.

Iohn.17.b 15 See that ye loue not * the worlde, neyther the thynges that are in the worlde. If any man loue the worlde, the loue of the father is not in hym.

16 For al that is in the worlde, as the luſt of the fleaſhe, and the luſt of the eyes, and the pryde of lyfe, is not of the father, but of the worlde.

17 And the worlde paſſeth away, and the luſt thereof: but he that fulfilleth the wyl of god, abydeth for euer.

18 Litle children, it is the laſt tyme: and as ye haue hearde howe that antechriſte ſhal comme, euen nowe are there many antechriſtes: whereby we knowe that it is the laſt tyme.

Act.20.f. 19 * They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: For yf they had benne of vs, they woulde no doubt haue continued with vs: But ″ that it myght appeare that they are not al of vs.

(b) The grace of the holy ghoſt. 20 Neuertheleſſe, ye haue an (b) oyntment of hym that is holy, and ye knowe al thynges.

21 I haue not written vnto you as though ye D knewe not the trueth: but becauſe ye know it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

22 Who is a lyar, but he that denyeth that Jeſus is Chriſte? the ſame is antechriſte, that denyeth the father and the ſonne.

23 Whoſoeuer denyeth the ſonne, the ſame hath not the father: [But he that knowledgeth the ſonne, hath the father alſo.]

24 Let therefore abyde in you, that ſame whiche ye hearde from the begynnyng: yf that whiche ye haue hearde from the beginnyng ſhal remayne in you, ye alſo ſhal continue in the ſonne, and in the father.

25 And this is the promiſe that he hath promiſed vs, [euen] eternal life.

26 Theſe thynges haue I written vnto you concerning them that deceiue you:

27 And the annoyntyng whiche ye haue receiued of him dwelleth in you: and ye neede not that any man teach you, but as the ſame (c) annoyntyng teacheth you of al thynges, and it is true, & not lyeing: and as it taught you, ye ſhal abyde in it. Eſai.54.d

(c) Chriſte communicateth him ſelfe vnto you, and teacheth you by the holy ghoſt and his miniſters.

28 And nowe (d) babes, abyde in hym: that when he ſhal appeare, we may be bolde and not be aſhamed ″ of hym at his commyng.

(d) By this name, he meaneth ỳ whole Churche of Chriſte in general.

″ Or, before.

29 If ye knowe that he is ryghteous, knowe alſo that euery one whiche dooth ryghteouſneſſe, is borne of hym.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 The ſinguler loue of God towarde vs, 7 and howe we agayne ought to loue one another.

A 1 Beholde what charitie the father hath ſhewed vs, [euen] that we ſhoulde be called the * ſonnes of god: for this cauſe the worlde knoweth vs not, becauſe it hath not knowen him. Luk.20.f Iohn.1.b

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are we the ſonnes of God, and yet it dooth not appeare what we ſhalbe: But we know that when he ſhal appeare, we ſhalbe lyke hym: for we ſhal ſee hym as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth hym ſelfe, euen as he alſo is pure.

4 Whoſoeuer committeth ſinne, tranſgreſſeth alſo the lawe: for ſinne is the tranſgreſſion of the lawe.

5 And ye knowe that he appeared to take away our ſinnes, and in him is no ſinne.

6 As many as byde in hym, ſinne not: whoſoeuer ſinneth, hath not ſeene hym, neyther knowen hym.

B 7 Babes, let no man deceiue you: he that dooth righteouſneſſe, is ryghteous, euen as he is ryghteous.

8 He that committeth ſinne, is of the deuyl: * for the deuil ſinneth ſence the beginning: For this purpoſe appeared the ſonne of God, to looſe the woorkes of the deuil. Gen.3.a. Iohn.8.f

9 Whoſoeuer is borne of God, ſinneth not: for his ſeede remayneth in hym, and he can not ſinne, becauſe he is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowen, and the chyldren of the deuil: whoſoeuer dooth not ryghteouſneſſe, is not of God, neither he that loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the tydynges that ye hearde from the beginning, that ye ſhoulde loue one another.

12 Not as * Caine [whiche] was of that wicked, & ſlue his brother: And wherefore ſlue he hym? becauſe his owne woorkes were euil, and his brothers ryghteous. Gen.4.b

13 ☞ Marueyle not my brethren, if the world hate you.

C 14 We knowe that we are tranſlated from death vnto lyfe, becauſe we (a) loue the brethren: he that loueth not his brother, abydeth in death.

(a) This loue is the ſpecial fruite of our faythe, and a certaine ſigne of our regeneration.

15 Whoſoeuer hateth his brother, is a manſlear: and ye knowe that no manſlear hath eternal lyfe abydyng in hym.

16 Hereby perceiue we loue, becauſe he layde downe his lyfe for vs: and we ought to lay downe our lyues for the brethren.

Deut. 15.d

17 But who ſo hath this worldes good, and *ſeeth his brother haue neede, and ſhutteth vp his compaſſion from hym: howe dwelleth the loue of God in hym?

18 My babes, let vs not loue in woorde, neither in tongue, but in deede and in veritie:

19 Hereby we know that we are of the trueth, and ſhal aſſure our hartes before hym.

20 For yf our hart condemne vs, God is greater then our hart, and knoweth al thynges.

1.Cor.15.g

5 Who is it that ouercommeth the world, but he whiche beleueeth that Jeſus is the ſonne of God?

6 This Jeſus Chriſte is he that came by water and (a) blood: not by water only, but by water and blood: And it is the ſpirite that beareth witneſſe, because the ſpirite is (b) trueth.

(a) The water and blood that came out of his ſyde, declare that we haue our ſinnes waſhed by hym, and he hath made ful ſatifaction for the ſame.

(c) Whiche teſtifieth to our hartes, that we be the childre of god.

8 And there are three whiche beare recorde in earth, the ſpirite, and water, and blood, and theſe three agree in one.

B 9 If we receiue the witneſſe of menne, the witneſſe of God is greater: For this is the witneſſe of God, whiche he teſtified of his ſonne.

10 He that beleeueth on the ſonne of God, hath the witneſſe in hym ſelfe: ☞ He that beleeueth not God, hath made him a lyer, becauſe he beleeued not the recorde that God gaue of his ſonne.

The thirde Epiſtle of ſaint Iohn.

2 He is glad of Gaius that he walketh in the trueth, 8 exhorteth to be louing vnto the poore Chriſten in theyr perſecution, 9 ſheweth the vnkynde dealing of Diotrephes, 12 and the good report of Demetrius.

A 1 The elder vnto the beloued Gaius, whom I loue in the trueth.

2 Beloued, I wyſhe in al thynges that thou proſperedſt and faredſt wel, euen as thy ſoule proſpereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and teſtified of the trueth that is in thee, howe thou walkeſt in the trueth.

4 I haue no greater ioy, then [for] to heare howe that my ſonnes walke [a] in veritie.

5 Beloued, thou dooeſt faythfully whatſoeuer thou dooeſt to the brethren & to ſtrangers:

6 Whiche haue borne witneſſe of thy charitie before the Churche: whom if thou bring forwards on theyr iourney after a godly ſort, thou ſhalt doo wel.

B 7 Becauſe that for his names ſake they went foorth, takyng nothyng of the Gentiles.

8 We therfore ought to receiue ſuche, that we myght be helpers to the trueth.

9 I wrote vnto the Churche: but Diotrephes whiche loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.

10 Wherefore yf I comme, I wyl declare his deedes whiche he dooth, ieſtyng on vs with malitious woordes: and not content therewith, neyther he hym ſelfe receiueth the brethren, and forbiddeth them that woulde, and thruſteth them out of the Churche.

11 Beloued, folowe not that whiche is euyl, but that whiche is good: he that dooth wel, is of God: but he that dooth euyl, hath not ſeene God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of al menne, and of the trueth it ſelfe: Yea, & we our ſelues alſo beare recorde, and ye knowe that our recorde is true.

13 I had many thynges to wryte: but I wil not with inke and penne write vnto thee.

14 I truſt I ſhal ſhortly ſee thee, and we ſhal ſpeake mouth to mouth. Peace be vnto thee. The louers ſalute thee. Greete our freendes by name.

(a) That is, a godly conuerſation, as they whiche haue both the knowledge and feare of God.

The Epiſtle of ſaint Iude.

¶ Saint Jude admoniſheth al Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, whiche goe about to drawe away the hartes of the ſimple people from the trueth of God, and wylleth them to haue no ſocietie with ſuche, whom he ſetteth foorth in theyr lyuely colours, ſhewing by diuers examples of the ſcriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faythful, and exhorteth them to perſeuer in the doctrine of the apoſtles of Jeſus Chriſte.

A 1 Iude the ſeruant of Jeſus Chriſt, the brother of James, to them whiche are called and ſanctified in God the father, and preſerued in Jeſus Chriſte:

2 Mercie vnto you and peace and charitie be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue al diligence to write vnto you of the common ſaluation, it was nedeful for me to write vnto you, exhorting you that ye ſhoulde earneſtly (a) contende for the fayth whiche was once geuen vnto the ſaintes.

(a) Agaynſt aſſaultes of Satan and heretikes.

4 For there are certaine vngodly menne craftily creapt in, whiche were before of olde ordeyned to this condemnation, turnyng the grace of our God vnto wantonneſſe: and denyeing God, whiche is the only Lord, and our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte.

5 My mynde is therefore to put you in remembrance [hereof,] forasmuche as ye once knowe this, howe that the Lorde after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, deſtroyed them which afterward beleeued not.

6 The angels alſo whiche keapt not theyr firſt eſtate, but leaſt theyr owne habitation, he hath reſerued in euerlaſtyng chaynes vnder darkeneſſe, vnto the iudgement of the great day.

B 7 *Euen as Sodome and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in like manner defyled them ſelues with fornication, and folowed ſtrange fleaſhe, are ſet foorth for an enſample, and ſuffer the payne of eternal fyre.

Gen, 19, f

8 Likewiſe theſe being deceiued by dreames, defyle the fleaſhe, deſpiſe rulers, & ſpeake euyl of them that are in aucthoritie.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when he ſtroue agaynſt the deuil, and diſputed about the body of Moſes, durſt not geue rayling ſentence, but ſayde, The Lorde rebuke thee.

10 But theſe ſpeake euyl of thoſe thynges whiche they knowe not: and what thynges they knowe naturally, as beaſtes whiche are without reaſon, in thoſe thynges they corrupt them ſelues.

11 Wo be vnto them, for they haue gonne in the way of Cain, and are vtterly geuen to the errour of Balaam for lucres ſake, *and haue periſhed in the gaynſayeing of Core.

The Reuelation of ſaint Iohn the Diuine.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The cauſe of this reuelation. 3 Of them that reade it. 4 John wryteth to the ſeuen Churches. 5 The maieſtie and office of the ſonne of God. 20 The viſion of the candelſtickes and ſtarres.

A 1 THE (a) reuelation of Jeſus Chriſte, whiche (b) GOD gaue vnto him, for to ſhewe vnto his ſeruantes thynges whiche muſt ſhortly come to paſſe: and when he had ſent, he ſhewed by his angel vnto his ſeruant John,

(a) Of things whiche were hyd before.
(b) Chriſte receiued this reuelation out of his fathers boſome as his owne doctrine, but it was hid in reſpect of vs, ſo that Chriſte as Lorde & God reuealed it to John his ſeruant, by the miniſterie of his angel, to the edification of his church.

2 Whiche bare recorde of the woorde of God, and of the teſtimonie of Jeſus Chriſte, and of al thynges that he ſawe.

3 Happy is he that readeth, & they that heare the woordes of this prophecie, & keepe thoſe thynges whiche are written therein: For the tyme is at hande.

4 John to the ſeuen Churches in Aſia, Grace [be] vnto you, and peace from hym whiche is, and whiche was, and whiche is to come: and from the ſeuen ſpirites which are before his throne:

5 And from Jeſus Chriſte, [which is] a faithful witneſſe and firſt begotten of the dead, and Lorde ouer the kynges of the earth: vnto hym that *loued vs, and waſhed vs from our ſinnes in his owne blood,

7 *Beholde, he commeth with the cloudes, and al eyes ſhal ſee him, and they alſo which pearſed hym: and al kynredes of the earth ſhal wayle before hym: euen ſo, Amen.

B 8 J am Alpha and Omega, the begynnyng and the endyng, ſayth the Lorde almyghty, whiche is, and whiche was, and whiche is to comme.

9 J John your brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kyngdome and patience of Jeſus Chriſte, was in the Jle that is called Pathmos, for the woorde of God, and for the witneſſing of Jeſus Chriſte.

10 J was in the ſpirite on the " Lordes day, and hearde behynde me a great voyce, as it had benne of a trumpe,

" Or, ſunday

11 Sayeing, J am Alpha and Omega, the fyrſt and the laſt: that thou ſeeſt write in a booke, and ſende it vnto the ſeuen Churches whiche are in Aſia, vnto Epheſus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamos, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 And J turned backe to ſee the voyce that ſpake to me. And when J was turned, J ſawe ſeuen golden candelſtickes,

13 And in the middeſt of the ſeuen candelſticks, [one] lyke vnto the ſonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feete, & girde about the pappes with a golden gyrdle.

14 His head and his heares were whyte, as white wooll, & as ſnowe: and his eyes were as a flame of fyre. C

15 And his feete like vnto fine braſſe, as though they burnt in a furnace: and his voyce as the ſounde of many waters.

16 And he had in his ryght hand ſeuen ſtarres: and out of his mouth went a ſharpe two edged ſwoorde: *and his face ſhone euen as the ſunne in his ſtrength.

Mat.17.a.

17 And when J ſawe hym, J fel at his feete euen as dead: and he layde his ryght hande vpon me, ſaying vnto me, Feare not, *J am the fyrſt and the laſt, Eſai.44.b.

18 And am aliue: and was dead, and behold *J am aliue for euermore, Amen, and haue the keyes of hel and of death.

Rom.6.b.

19 Write therefore the thynges whiche thou haſt ſeene, and the thynges whiche are, and the thynges which ſhalbe fulfilled hereafter.

20 The myſterie of the ſeuen ſtarres whiche thou ſaweſt in my right hand, and the ſeuen golden candelſtickes. The ſeuen ſtarres, are the angels of the ſeuen Churches: and the ſeuen candelſtickes which thou ſaweſt, [are] the ſeuen Churches. D

The .ii. Chapter.

1 He exhorteth foure Churches, 5 to repentance, 10 to perſeuerance, patience, and amendement, 14. 20. 23. aſwel by threatnynges, 7. 10. 17. 26. as promiſes of reward.

A 1 VNTO the angel of the Churche at Epheſus, wryte, Theſe thyngs ſaith he that holdeth the ſeuen ſtarres in his ryght hand, and that walketh in the middes of the ſeuen golden candelſtickes:

2 I know thy woorkes, and thy labour, and patience, and howe thou canſt not forbeare them whiche are euyl: and haſt examined them whiche ſay they are apoſtles, and are not, and haſt founde them lyers:

3 And haſt ſuffered, and haſt patience, and for my names ſake haſt laboured, and haſt not faynted.

4 Neuertheleſſe, I haue [ſomewhat] agaynſt thee, becauſe thou haſt leaft thy fyrſt loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and doo the fyrſt woorkes: or els, I wyl comme vnto thee ſhortly, and wyl remooue thy candelſticke out of his place, except thou repent.

Acts, 6. b.

6 But this thou haſt, becauſe thou hateſt the deedes of the* Nicolaitanes, whiche [deedes] I alſo hate.

Gen. 2. b.

7 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches, To hym that ouercommeth, wyl I geue to eate of the tree of life, *which is in the middes of the paradiſe of God.

B 8 And vnto the angel of the Churche of Smyrna, wryte, Theſe thinges ſayth he that is firſt and the laſt, whiche was dead, and is (a) aliue:

9 I knowe thy woorkes, and tribulation, and pouertie (but thou art (b) riche:) and I knowe the blaſphemie of them whiche calle them ſelues Iewes, and are not, but [are] the ſynagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of thoſe thynges whiche thou ſhalt ſuffer: beholde, the deuil ſhal caſt ſome of you into priſon to tempt you, and ye ſhal haue tribulation tenne dayes: be thou faythful vnto the death, and I wyl geue thee a crowne of lyfe.

11 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches, He that ouercommeth, ſhal not be hurt of the ſeconde death.

(a) The eternal diuinitie of Ieſus Chriſte is here moſte plainely declared, with his manhood and victory ouer death, to aſſure his, that they ſhal not be ouercomme by death.

(b) In ſpiritual treaſures

12 And to the angel of the Churche in Pergamos, wryte, Theſe thynges ſayth he which hath the ſharpe (c) ſwoorde with two edges:

13 I knowe thy woorkes, and where thou dwelleſt, [euen] where Satans ſeate is, and [that] thou holdeſt faſt my name, and haſt not denyed my fayth, euen in thoſe dayes when Antipas my faythful martyr was ſlayne among you, where Satan dwelleth.

(c) The woorde of god, is the ſwoorde with two edges.

C 14 But I haue a fewe thynges agaynſt thee, becauſe thou haſt there them that mainteine the doctrine of Balaam, *which taught " Balac to put a ſtumblyng blocke before the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſhoulde eate of meate ſacrificed vnto idols, and commit fornication.

Num. 31. c

" Somme reade, taught in Balac.

15 Euen ſo haſt thou them that mainteyne the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, whiche thyng I hate.

16 Repent, or els I wyl comme vnto thee ſhortly, and wyl fyght agaynſt them with the ſwoorde of my mouth.

17 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches. To hym that ouercommeth wyl I geue to eate Manna that is hyd, and wyl geue hym a whyte ſtone, and in the ſtone a newe name written, whiche no man knoweth ſauing he that receiueth it.

18 And vnto the angel of the Church of Thyatira, wryte, Theſe thynges ſayth the ſonne of God, who hath eyes lyke vnto a flame of fyre, and his feete [are] lyke fine braſſe:

19 I knowe thy woorkes, and thy charitie, ſeruice, and fayth, and thy patience, and thy deedes, whiche are moe at the laſt then at the fyrſt.

20 Notwithſtanding, I haue a fewe thinges agaynſt thee: becauſe thou ſuffereſt that woman Ieſabel, which called her ſelfe a prophetiſſe, to teache, and to deceiue my ſeruantes, to make them commit fornication, and to eate meates ſacrificed vnto idols.

3. Re. 16. g.
4. Re. 10. d

D 21 And I gaue her ſpace to repent of her fornication: and ſhe repented not.

22 Beholde, I wyl caſt her into a bedde, and them that commit fornication with her, into great aduerſitie, except they repent of their deedes.

23 And I wyl kylle her chyldren with death, and al the Churches ſhal knowe that* I am he whiche ſearcheth the reynes and hartes:

Ier. 27. b.

and I wyl geue vnto euery one of you accordyng to his woorkes.

24 Unto you I ſay, and vnto other of them of Thyatira, as many as haue not this learnyng, and whiche haue not knowen the deepeneſſe of Satan, as they ſay, I wyl put vpon you none other burthen:

25 But that whiche ye haue already, holde faſt tyl I comme.

26 And who ſo euer ouercommeth, and keepeth my woorkes vnto the ende, to him wyl I geue power ouer nations:

27 *And he ſhal rule them with a rod of iron: and as the veſſels of a potter ſhal they be broken to ſheuers: Pſal.2.b.

28 Euen as I receiued of my father, ſo wyl I geue him the mornyng ſtarre.

29 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth to the Churches.

The.iii.Chapter,

1 He exhorteth the Churches or miniſters to the true profeſſion of faythe, and to watchyng, 12 with promiſes to them that perſeuer.

A 1 AND wryte vnto the angel of the Church that is at Sardis, theſe thynges ſayth he that hath the ſeuen ſpirites of God, & the ſeuen ſtarres, I knowe thy workes [euen] that thou haſt a name that thou liueſt, and thou art dead.

2 Be awake, and ſtrength the thinges which remayne, that are ready to dye: For I haue not founde thy woorkes perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore howe thou haſt receiued and hearde, and holde faſt, and repent. *If thou ſhalt not watche, I wyl comme on thee as a theefe, and thou ſhalt not know what houre I wyl comme vpon thee. 1.Theſ.5.a 2.Pet.3.c.

4 Thou haſt a fewe names in Sardis, whiche haue not defiled theyr garmentes, and they ſhal walke with me in whyte: for they are woorthy.

5 He that ouercommeth, ſhalbe thus clothed in white aray, & I wil not blot out his name out of the booke of lyfe: and I wyl confeſſe his name before my father, and before his angels.

6 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches.

7 And wryte vnto the angel of the Churche of Philadelphia, Theſe thynges ſayth he that is holy and true, whiche hath the key of Dauid, *Which openeth, and no man ſhutteth, [and] ſhutteth, and no man openeth. Eſai.22.f. Iob.12.c.

B 8 I knowe thy woorkes: beholde, I haue ſet before thee an open doore, & no man can ſhut it: for thou haſt a litle ſtrength, and haſt kept my ſayeinges, and haſt not denyed my name.

9 Beholde, I wyl make them of the ſynagogue of Satan, whiche calle them ſelues Iewes, and are not, but doo lye: beholde, I wyl make them that they ſhal comme and woorſhip before thy feete, and ſhal knowe that I haue loued thee.

10 Becauſe thou haſt kept the woordes of my patience, therefore I wyl keepe thee from the houre of temptation, which wyl comme vpon al the worlde, to trye them that dwel vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I comme ſhortly: holde that faſt whiche thou haſt, that no man take away thy crowne.

12 Hym that ouercommeth, wyl I make a piller in the temple of my God, and he ſhal goe no more out: and I wyl wryte vppon hym the name of my God, and the name of the citie of my God, [whiche is] newe Hieruſalem, whiche commeth downe out of heauen from my God: and [I wyl wryte vppon hym] my newe name.

13 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the angel of the Churche which is in Laodicea, wryte, Theſe thynges ſayth Amen, the faythful and true witneſſe, the begynnyng of the creatures of God. C

15 I knowe thy woorkes, that thou art neyther colde, nor hot: I woulde thou were colde or hot.

16 So then becauſe thou art luke warme, and neyther colde nor hot, I wyl ſpewe thee out of my mouth:

17 Becauſe thou ſayeſt, I am riche and encreaſed with goodes, and haue neede of nothyng: and knoweſt not howe that thou art wretched, and miſerable, and poore, & blynd, and naked.

18 I counſel thee to bie of me golde tried in the fyre, that thou mayeſt be riche, & white rayment, that thou mayſt be clothed, that thy filthy nakedneſſe doo not appeare, & annoint thine eies with eye ſalue, that thou maiſt ſee. 2.Cor.5.a.

Pro.2.b. Hebr,12,b 19 *As many as I loue, I rebuke and chaſten: be feruent therefore and repent.

20 Beholde, I ſtand at the doore, and knocke:
B yf any man heare my voyce, and open the doore, I wyl comme in to hym, and wyl ſuppe with hym, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, wyl I graunt to ſit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and haue ſitten with my father in his throne.

22 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 The viſion of the maieſtie of God. 2 He ſeeth the throne, and one ſitting vpon it, 8 and foure and twentie ſeates about it, with foure and twentie elders ſitting vpon them, and foure beaſtes prayſing God day and nyght.

A 1 After this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen: and the fyrſt voyce whiche I hearde, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, whiche ſayde, Comme vp hyther, and I wyl ſhewe thee thynges whiche muſt be fulfilled hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was in the ſpirite: and behold, a throne was ſet in heauen, and [one] ſate on the throne.

3 And he that ſate, was to looke vpon lyke a Jaſper ſtone, and a Sardine ſtone: and there was a raynebowe about the throne, in ſight lyke vnto an Emeralde.

4 And about the throne were foure ⁊ twentie ſeates, and vpon the ſeates I ſawe foure and twentie elders ſitting, clothed in whyte rayment, and they hadde on theyr heades crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne doo proceede lyghtnynges, and thundrynges, and voyces: and there were ſeuen lampes of fyre burnyng before the throne, whiche are the ſeuen ſpirites of God.

6 And before the throne there was a ſea of glaſſe, lyke vnto Cryſtal: and in the middeſt of the throne, and rounde about the throne, were foure beaſtes ful of eyes before and behynde.

7 And the fyrſt beaſt was lyke a Lion, and the ſeconde beaſt lyke a Calfe, and the thirde beaſt had a face as a man, and the fourth beaſt was lyke a fleeing Egle.

8 And the foure beaſtes had eche of them ſixe B wynges about hym, and they were fulle of eyes within, and they had no reſt day neither nyght, ſayeing, Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God almyghty, whiche was, and is, and is to comme.

9 And when thoſe beaſtes gaue glory, and honour, and thankes to hym that ſate on the throne, whiche liueth for euer and euer, Eſai,6.b.

10 The foure and twentie elders fel downe before hym that ſate on the throne, and worſhipped hym that liueth for euer ⁊ euer, and caſt their crownes before the throne, ſayeing,

11 Thou art woorthy, O Lorde, to receiue glory, and honour, and power: for thou haſt created al thynges, and for thy pleaſures ſake they are, and were created.

The.v.Chapter.

1 He ſeeth the lamme opening the booke, 8, 14 and therefore the foure beaſtes, the foure and twentie elders, and the angels, prayſe the lamme, and doo hym woorſhip, 9 for their redemption and other benefites.

A 1 AND I ſawe in the ryght hand of hym that ſate on the throne, a booke writen within, and on the backe ſide, ſealed with ſeuen ſeales.

2 And I ſaw a ſtrong angel preachyng with a loude voyce, Who is woorthy to open the booke, and to looſe the ſeales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen nor in earth, neyther vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neyther to looke thereon.

4 And I weapt much, becauſe no man was found woorthy to open ⁊ to reade the booke, neyther to looke thereon.

5 And one of the elders ſaith vnto me, Weepe not: behold, that Lion that is of the tribe of Juda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteyned to open the booke, and to looſe the ſeuen ſeales thereof.

6 And I behelde, and loe in the middes of the throne and of the foure beaſtes, and in the middes of the elders, ſtoode a lamme as though he had benne kylled, hauyng ſeuen hornes and ſeuen eyes, whiche are the ſeuen ſpirites of GOD, ſent into al the earth.

7 And he came, and tooke the booke out of the ryght hande of hym that ſate vppon the throne.

B 8 And when he had taken the booke, the foure beaſtes and foure and twentie elders felle downe before the lamme, hauyng euery one of them harpes, and golden vialles fulle of odours, whiche are the prayers of ſaintes:

9 And they ſong a newe ſong, ſayeing, Thou art woorthy to take the booke, and to open the ſeales thereof: for thou waſt killed, and haſt redeemed vs to God by thy blood, out of al kinrede, and tongue, and people, and nation:

10 And haſt made vs vnto our God kynges and prieſtes, & we ſhal raigne on the earth.

11 And I behelde, and I hearde the voyce of many angels about the throne, & [about] the beaſtes and the elders, and hearde thouſande thouſandes,

12 Sayeing with a loude voyce, Woorthy is the lamme that was killed to receiue power, and riches, and wyſedome, and ſtrength, and honour, and glory, and bleſſing.

13 And al the creatures whiche are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the ſea, and al that are in them, heard I ſayeing, Bleſſing, honour, glory, and power be vnto hym that ſitteth vppon the throne, and vnto the lamme for euermore.

14 And the foure beaſtes ſayd, Amen. And the foure and twentie elders felle vpon their faces, and woorſhipped hym that liueth for euermore.

The.vi.Chapter.

The lamme openeth the ſixe ſeales, and many thynges folowe the openyng thereof, ſo that this conteyneth a general prophesie to the ende of the worlde.

A 1 AND I ſawe when the lamme opened one of the ſeales, and I hearde one of the foure beaſtes ſay, as it were the noyſe of thunder, Come, and ſee.

2 And I ſawe, and beholde, [there was] a whyte horſe: and he that ſate on hym had a bowe, & a crowne was geuen vnto hym, and he went foorth conquering, and for to ouercomme.

3 And when he had opened the ſeconde ſeale, I hearde the ſeconde beaſt ſay, Comme, and ſee.

4 And there went out another horſe that was redde: and power was geuen to hym that ſate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they ſhould kyl one another: Eſai.27.a. *and there was geuen vnto hym a great ſwoorde.

5 And when he had opened the thirde ſeale, I hearde the thirde beaſt ſay, Comme, and ſee. And I beheld, and loe a blacke horſe: and he that ſate on hym, had a payre of balances in his hande.

6 And I hearde a voyce in the middes of the foure beaſtes ſay, A meaſure of wheate for a penie, and three meaſures of barly for a peny, and oyle and wine ſee thou hurt not.

7 And when he had opened the fourth ſeale, I hearde the voyce of the fourth beaſt ſay, Comme, and ſee.

B 8 And I looked, and beholde a pale horſe, and his name that ſate on hym was death, and hel foloweth with hym: and power was geuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth to kyl with ſwoord, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beaſtes of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth ſeale, I ſaw vnder the aulter *the ſoules of them that Iohn.21.d were kylled for the woorde of God, and for the teſtimonie whiche they had.

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, ſayeing, Howe long [taryeſt] thou Lorde holy and true, to iudge and to auenge our blood on them that dwel on the earth?

11 And long whyte garmentes were geuen vnto euery one of them: and it was ſaid vnto them, that they ſhoulde reſt yet for a litle ſeaſon, vntyl their felowe ſeruantes, & theyr brethren that ſhoulde be kylled as they were, ſhoulde be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the ſixth ſeale, and loe there was a great earthquake, and the ſunne was as blacke as ſackcloth made of heare, and the moone waxed al euen as blood.

13 And the ſtarres of heauen fel vnto the earth, euen as a figge tree caſteth her vntimely figges when ſhe is ſhaken of a myghty winde.

C 14 And heauen vaniſhed away as a ſcrowle when it is roulled togeather, and al mountaynes and yles were mooued out of theyr places.

15 And the kynges of the earth, and the great menne, and the riche menne, and the chiefe captaynes, and the myghty menne, and euery bondman, and euery free man, hydde them ſelues in the dennes, and in the rockes of the hylles:

The Reuelation of ſaint Iohn the Diuine.

The firſt Chapter.

1 The cauſe of this reuelation. 3 Of them that reade it. 4 John wryteth to the ſeuen Churches. 5 The maieſtie and office of the ſonne of God. 20 The viſion of the candelſtickes and ſtarres.

A 1 THE (a) reuelation of Jeſus Chriſte, whiche (b) GOD gaue vnto him, for to ſhewe vnto his ſeruantes thynges whiche muſt ſhortly come to paſſe: and when he had ſent, he ſhewed by his angel vnto his ſeruant John,

2 Whiche bare recorde of the woorde of God, and of the teſtimonie of Jeſus Chriſte, and of al thynges that he ſawe.

3 Happy is he that readeth, & they that heare the woordes of this propheſie, & keepe thoſe thynges whiche are written therein: For the tyme is at hande.

4 John to the ſeuen Churches in Aſia, Grace [be] vnto you, and peace from hym whiche is, and whiche was, and whiche is to come: and from the ſeuen ſpirites which are before his throne:

5 And from Jeſus Chriſte, [which is] a faithful witneſſe and firſt begotten of the dead, and Lorde ouer the kynges of the earth: vnto hym that *loued vs, and waſhed vs from our ſinnes in his owne blood, Hebr.11.d Pet.2.d. Ioh.1.b.

6 And made vs kynges and prieſtes vnto God and his father: to him be glory and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 *Beholde, he commeth with the cloudes, and al eyes ſhal ſee him, and they alſo which pearſed hym: and al kynredes of the earth ſhal wayle before hym: euen ſo, Amen. Mat.24.c. Dan.7.d.

B 8 I am Alpha and Omega, the begynnyng and the endyng, ſayth the Lorde almyghty, whiche is, and whiche was, and whiche is to comme.

9 I John your brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kyngdome and patience of Jeſus Chriſte, was in the Ile that is called Pathmos, for the woorde of God, and for the witneſſing of Jeſus Chriſte.

10 I was in the ſpirite on the " Lordes day, and hearde behynde me a great voyce, as it had benne of a trumpe, " Or, ſunday

11 Sayeing, I am Alpha and Omega, the fyrſt and the laſt: that thou ſeeſt write in a booke, and ſende it vnto the ſeuen Churches whiche are in Aſia, vnto Epheſus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamos, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 And I turned backe to ſee the voyce that ſpake to me. And when I was turned, I ſawe ſeuen golden candelſtickes,

13 And in the middeſt of the ſeuen candelſticks, [one] lyke vnto the ſonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feete, & girde about the pappes with a golden gyrdle.

14 His head and his heares were whyte, as white wooll, & as ſnowe: and his eyes were as a flame of fyre. C

15 And his feete like vnto fine braſſe, as though they burnt in a furnace: and his voyce as the ſounde of many waters.

16 And he had in his ryght hand ſeuen ſtarres: and out of his mouth went a ſharpe two edged ſwoorde: *and his face ſhone euen as the ſunne in his ſtrength. Mat.17.a.

17 And when I ſawe hym, I fel at his feete euen as dead: and he layde his ryght hande vpon me, ſaying vnto me, Feare not, *I am the fyrſt and the laſt, Eſai.44.b.

18 And am aliue: and was dead, and behold *I am aliue for euermore, Amen, and haue the keyes of hel and of death. Rom.6.b.

19 Write therefore the thynges whiche thou haſt ſeene, and the thynges whiche are, and the thynges which ſhalbe fulfilled hereafter.

20 The myſterie of the ſeuen ſtarres whiche thou ſaweſt in my right hand, and the ſeuen golden candelſtickes. The ſeuen ſtarres, are the angels of the ſeuen Churches: and the ſeuen candelſtickes which thou ſaweſt, [are] the ſeuen Churches. D

The .ii. Chapter.

1 He exhorteth foure Churches, 5 to repentance, 10 to perſeuerance, patience, and amendement, 14. 20. 23. aſwel by threatnynges, 7. 10. 17. 26. as promiſes of reward.

A 1 VNTO the angel of the Churche at Epheſus, write, Theſe thyngs ſaith he that holdeth the ſeuen ſtarres in his ryght hand, and that walketh in the middes of the ſeuen golden candelſtickes:

2 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and patience, and howe thou canſt not forbeare them whiche are euyl: and haſt examined them whiche ſay they are apoſtles, and are not, and haſt founde them lyers:

3 And haſt ſuffered, and haſt patience, and for my names ſake haſt laboured, and haſt not faynted.

4 Neuertheleſſe, I haue [ſome what] agaynſt thee, becauſe thou haſt leaft thy fyrſt loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and doo the fyrſt workes: or els, I wyl comme vnto thee ſhortly, and wyl remooue thy candelſticke out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou haſt, becauſe thou hateſt the deedes of the* Nicolaitanes, whiche [deedes] I alſo hate.

Acts, 6. b.

7 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches, To hym that ouercommeth, wyl I geue to eate of the tree of life, *which is in the middes of the paradiſe of God.

Gen. 2. b.

B 8 And vnto the angel of the Churche of Smyrna, write, Theſe thinges ſayth he that is firſt and the laſt, whiche was dead, and is (a) aliue:

9 I knowe thy workes, and tribulation, and pouertie (but thou art (b) riche:) and I knowe the blaſphemie of them whiche calle them ſelues Iewes, and are not, but [are] the ſynagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of thoſe thynges whiche thou ſhalt ſuffer: beholde, the deuil ſhal caſt ſome of you into priſon to tempt you, and ye ſhal haue tribulation tenne dayes: be thou faythful vnto the death, and I wyl geue thee a crowne of lyfe.

11 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches, He that ouercommeth, ſhal not be hurt of the ſeconde death.

(a) The eternal diuinitie of Jeſus Chriſte is here moſte plainely declared, with his manhood and victory ouer death, to aſſure his, that they ſhal not be ouercomme by death.

(b) In ſpiritual treaſures

12 And to the angel of the Churche in Pergamos, wryte, Theſe thynges ſayth he which hath the ſharpe (c) ſwoorde with two edges:

13 I knowe thy workes, and where thou dwelleſt, [euen] where Satans ſeate is, and [that] thou holdeſt faſt my name, and haſt not denyed my fayth, euen in thoſe dayes when Antipas my faythful martyr was ſlayne among you, where Satan dwelleth.

(c) The woord of god, is the ſwoorde with two edges.

C 14 But I haue a fewe thynges agaynſt thee, becauſe thou haſt there them that mainteine the doctrine of Balaam,* which taught " Balac to put a ſtumblyng blocke before the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſhoulde eate of meate ſacrificed vnto idols, and commit fornication.

Num, 31. c

" Somme reade, taught in Balac.

15 Euen ſo haſt thou them that mainteyne the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, whiche thyng I hate.

16 Repent, or els I wyl comme vnto thee ſhortly, and wyl fyght agaynſt them with the ſwoorde of my mouth.

17 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches. To hym that ouercommeth wyl I geue to eate Manna that is hyd, and wyl geue hym a whyte ſtone, and in the ſtone a newe name written, whiche no man knoweth ſauing he that receiueth it.

18 And vnto the angel of the Church of Thyatira, wryte, Theſe thynges ſayth the ſonne of God, who hath eyes lyke vnto a flame of fyre, and his feete [are] lyke fine braſſe:

19 I knowe thy workes, and thy charitie, ſeruice, and fayth, and thy patience, and thy deedes, whiche are moe at the laſt then at the fyrſt.

20 Notwithſtanding, I haue a fewe thinges agaynſt thee: becauſe thou ſuffereſt that woman Jeſabel, which called her ſelfe a prophetiſſe, to teache, and to deceiue my ſeruauntes, to make them commit fornication, and to eate meates ſacrificed vnto idols.

3. Re. 16. g.
4. Re. 10. d

21 And I gaue her ſpace to repent of her fornication: and ſhe repented not.

D

22 Beholde, I wyl caſt her into a bedde, and them that commit fornication with her, into great aduerſitie, except they repent of their deedes.

23 And I wyl kylle her chyldren with death, and al the Churches ſhal knowe that* I am he which ſearcheth the reynes and hartes: and

Ier. 27. b.

and I wyl geue vnto euery one of you accordyng to his woorkes.

24 Vnto you I ſay, and vnto other of them of Thyatira, as many as haue not this learnyng, and whiche haue not knowen the deepeneſſe of Satan, as they ſay, I wyl put vpon you none other burthen:

25 But that whiche ye haue already, holde faſt tyl I comme.

26 And who ſo euer ouercommeth, and keepeth my woorkes vnto the ende, to him wyl I geue power ouer nations:

27 *And he ſhal rule them with a rod of iron: and as the veſſels of a potter ſhal they be broken to ſheuers: Pſal.2.b.

28 Euen as I receiued of my father, ſo wyl I geue him the mornyng ſtarre.

29 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth to the Churches.

The.iii.Chapter.

1 He exhorteth the Churches or miniſters to the true profeſſion of fayth, and to watchyng, 12 with promiſes to them that perſeuer.

A 1 AND wryte vnto the angel of the Church that is at Sardis, theſe thynges ſayth he that hath the ſeuen ſpirites of God, & the ſeuen ſtarres, I knowe thy workes [euen] that thou haſt a name that thou liueſt, and thou art dead.

2 Be awake, and ſtrength the thinges which remayne, that are ready to dye: For I haue not founde thy woorkes perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore howe thou haſt receiued and hearde, and holde faſt, and repent. *If thou ſhalt not watche, I wyl comme on thee as a theefe, and thou ſhalt not know what houre I wyl comme vpon thee. Theſ.5.a Pet.3.c.

4 Thou haſt a fewe names in Sardis, whiche haue not defiled theyr garmentes, and they ſhal walke with me in whyte: for they are woorthy.

5 He that ouercommeth, ſhalbe thus clothed in white aray, & I wil not blot out his name out of the booke of lyfe: and I wyl confeſſe his name before my father, and before his angels.

6 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches.

7 And wryte vnto the angel of the Churche of Philadelphia, Theſe thynges ſayth he that is holy and true, whiche hath the key of Dauid, *which openeth, and no man ſhutteth, [and] ſhutteth, and no man openeth. Eſai.22.f. Iob.12.c.

B 8 I knowe thy woorkes: beholde, I haue ſet before thee an open doore, & no man can ſhut it: for thou haſt a litle ſtrength, and haſt kept my ſayeinges, and haſt not denyed my name.

9 Beholde, I wyl make them of the ſynagogue of Satan, whiche calle them ſelues Iewes, and are not, but doo lye: beholde, I wyl make them that they ſhal comme and woorſhip before thy feete, and ſhal knowe that I haue loued thee.

10 Becauſe thou haſt kept the woordes of my patience, therefore I wyl keepe thee from the houre of temptation, which wyl comme vpon al the worlde, to trye them that dwel vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I comme ſhortly: holde that faſt whiche thou haſt, that no man take away thy crowne.

12 Hym that ouercommeth, wyl I make a piller in the temple of my God, and he ſhal goe no more out: and I wyl wryte vppon hym the name of my God, and the name of the citie of my God, [whiche is] newe Hieruſalem, whiche commeth downe out of heauen from my God: and [I wyl wryte vppon hym] my newe name.

13 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the angel of the Churche which is in Laodicea, wryte, Theſe thynges ſayth Amen, the faythful and true witneſſe, the beginnyng of the creatures of God. C

15 I knowe thy woorkes, that thou art neyther colde, nor hot: I woulde thou were colde or hot.

16 So then becauſe thou art luke warme, and neyther colde nor hot, I wyl ſpewe thee out of my mouth:

17 Becauſe thou ſayeſt, I am riche and encreaſed with goodes, and haue neede of nothyng: and knoweſt not howe that thou art wretched, and miſerable, and poore, & blynd, and naked.

18 I counſel thee to bie of me golde tried in the fyre, that thou mayeſt be riche, & white rayment, that thou mayſt be clothed, that thy filthy nakedneſſe doo not appeare, & annoint thine eies with eye ſalue, that thou maiſt ſee. 2.Cor.5.a.

Pro.2.b. Hebr.12.b 19 *As many as I loue, I rebuke and chaſten: be feruent therefore and repent.

20 Beholde, I ſtand at the doore, and knocke: B yf any man heare my voyce, and open the doore, I wyl comme in to hym, and wyl ſuppe with hym, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, wyl I graunt to ſit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and haue ſitten with my father in his throne.

22 Let hym that hath an eare, heare what the ſpirite ſayth vnto the Churches.

The.iiii.Chapter.

1 The viſion of the maieſtie of God. 2 He ſeeth the throne, and one ſitting vpon it, 8 and foure and twentie ſeates about it, with foure and twentie elders ſitting vpon them, and foure beaſtes prayſing God day and nyght.

A 1 After this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen: and the fyrſt voyce whiche I hearde, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, whiche ſayde, Comme vp hyther, and I wyl ſhewe thee thynges whiche muſt be fulfilled hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was in the ſpirite: and behold, a throne was ſet in heauen, and [one] ſate on the throne.

3 And he that ſate, was to looke vpon lyke a Iaſper ſtone, and a Sardine ſtone: and there was a raynebowe about the throne, in ſight lyke vnto an Emeralde.

4 And about the throne were foure & twentie ſeates, and vpon the ſeates I ſawe foure and twentie elders ſitting, clothed in whyte rayment, and they hadde on theyr heades crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne doo proceede lyghtnynges, and thundrynges, and voyces: and there were ſeuen lampes of fyre burnyng before the throne, whiche are the ſeuen ſpirites of God.

6 And before the throne there was a ſea of glaſſe, lyke vnto Cryſtal: and in the middeſt of the throne, and rounde about the throne, were foure beaſtes ful of eyes before and behynde.

7 And the fyrſt beaſt was lyke a Lion, and the ſeconde beaſt lyke a Calfe, and the thirde beaſt had a face as a man, and the fourth beaſt was lyke a fleeing Egle.

8 And the foure beaſtes had eche of them ſixe B wynges about hym, and they were fulle of eyes within, and they had no reſt day neither nyght, ſayeing, Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God almyghty, whiche was, and is, and is to comme.

9 And when thoſe beaſtes gaue glory, and honour, and thankes to hym that ſate on the throne, whiche liueth for euer and euer, Eſai.6.b.

10 The foure and twentie elders fel downe before hym that ſate on the throne, and worſhipped hym that liueth for euer & euer, and caſt their crownes before the throne, ſayeing,

11 Thou art worthy, O Lorde, to receiue glory, and honour, and power: for thou haſt created al thynges, and for thy pleaſures ſake they are, and were created.

The.v.Chapter.

1 He ſeeth the lamme opening the booke, 8.14 and therefore the foure beaſtes, the foure and twentie elders, and the angels, prayſe the lamme, and doo hym worſhip, 9 for their redemption and other benefites.

A 1 AND I ſawe in the ryght hand of hym that ſate on the throne, a booke written within, and on the backe ſide, ſealed with ſeuen ſeales.

2 And I ſaw a ſtrong angel preachyng with a loude voyce, Who is worthy to open the booke, and to looſe the ſeales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen nor in earth, neyther vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neyther to looke thereon.

4 And I weapt much, becauſe no man was found worthy to open & to reade the booke, neyther to looke thereon.

5 And one of the elders ſaith vnto me, Weepe not: behold, that Lion that is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteyned to open the booke, and to looſe the ſeuen ſeales thereof.

6 And I behelde, and loe in the middes of the throne and of the foure beaſtes, and in the middes of the elders, ſtoode a lamme as though he had benne kylled, hauyng ſeuen hornes and ſeuen eyes, whiche are the ſeuen ſpirites of GOD, ſent into al the earth.

7 And he came, and tooke the booke out of the ryght hande of hym that ſate vppon the throne.

B 8 And when he had taken the booke, the foure beaſtes and foure and twentie elders felle downe before the lamme, hauyng euery one of them harpes, and golden vialles fulle of odours, whiche are the prayers of ſaintes:

9 And they ſong a newe ſong, ſayeing, Thou art worthy to take the booke, and to open the ſeales thereof: for thou waſt killed, and haſt redeemed vs to God by thy blood, out of al kinrede, and tongue, and people, and nation:

10 And haſt made vs vnto our God kynges and prieſtes, & we ſhal raigne on the earth.

11 And I behelde, and I hearde the voyce of many angels about the throne, & [about] the beaſtes and the elders, and hearde thouſande thouſandes,

12 Sayeing with a loude voyce, Worthy is the lamme that was killed to receiue power, and riches, and wyſedome, and ſtrength, and honour, and glory, and bleſſing.

13 And al the creatures whiche are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the ſea, and al that are in them, heard I ſayeing, Bleſſing, honour, glory, and power be vnto hym that ſitteth vppon the throne, and vnto the lamme for euermore.

14 And the foure beaſtes ſayd, Amen. And the foure and twentie elders felle vpon their faces, and worſhipped hym that liueth for euermore.

The.vi.Chapter.

The lamme openeth the ſixe ſeales, and many thynges folowe the openyng thereof, ſo that this conteyneth a general prophesie to the ende of the worlde.

A 1 AND I ſawe when the lamme opened one of the ſeales, and I hearde one of the foure beaſtes ſay, as it were the noyſe of thunder, Come, and ſee.

2 And I ſawe, and beholde, [there was] a whyte horſe: and he that ſate on hym had a bowe, & a crowne was geuen vnto hym, and he went foorth conquering, and for to ouercomme.

3 And when he had opened the ſeconde ſeale, I hearde the ſeconde beaſt ſay, Comme, and ſee.

4 And there went out another horſe that was redde: and power was geuen to hym that ſate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they ſhould kyl one another: *and there was geuen vnto hym a great ſwoorde. Esai.27.a.

5 And when he had opened the thirde ſeale, I hearde the thirde beaſt ſay, Comme, and ſee. And I beheld, and loe a blacke horſe: and he that ſate on hym, had a payre of balances in his hande.

6 And I hearde a voyce in the middes of the foure beaſtes ſay, A meaſure of wheate for a penie, and three meaſures of barly for a peny, and oyle and wine ſee thou hurt not.

7 And when he had opened the fourth ſeale, I hearde the voyce of the fourth beaſt ſay, Comme, and ſee.

B 8 And I looked, and beholde a pale horſe, and his name that ſate on hym was death, and hel foloweth with hym: and power was geuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth to kyl with ſwoord, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beaſtes of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth ſeale, I ſaw vnder the aulter* the ſoules of them that were kylled for the woorde of God, and for the teſtimonie whiche they had. Iohn.21.d

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, ſayeing, Howe long [taryeſt] thou Lorde holy and true, to iudge and to auenge our blood on them that dwel on the earth?

11 And long whyte garmentes were geuen vnto euery one of them: and it was ſaid vnto them, that they ſhoulde reſt yet for a litle ſeaſon, vntyl their felowe ſeruantes, & their brethren that ſhoulde be kylled as they were, ſhoulde be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the ſixth ſeale, and loe there was a great earthquake, and the ſunne was as blacke as ſackcloth made of heare, and the moone waxed al euen as blood.

13 And the ſtarres of heauen fel vnto the earth, euen as a figge tree caſteth her vntimely figges when ſhe is ſhaken of a myghty winde.

14 And heauen vaniſhed away as a ſcrowle when it is roulled togeather, and al mountaynes and yles were mooued out of their places. C

15 And the kynges of the earth, and the great menne, and the riche menne, and the chiefe captaynes, and the myghty menne, and euery bondman, and euery free man, hydde them ſelues in the dennes, and in the rockes of the hylles:

Oſe.10.b. Luk,23.d.

16 *And ſaide to the hilles and rockes, Falle on vs, and hyde vs from the face of hym that ſitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the lamme:

17 For the great day of his wrath is comme, and who is hable to endure?

The.vii.Chapter.

4.9. He ſeeth the ſeruantes of God ſealed in their foreheades, out of al nations and people, 15 whiche though they ſuffer trouble, yet the lamme feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaynes of liuing water, 17 and God ſhal wype away al teares from their eyes.

A 1 AND after that, I ſawe foure angels ſtanding on the foure corners of the earth, holdyng the foure windes of the earth, that the winde ſhoulde not blowe on the earth, neyther on the ſea, neither on any tree.

2 And I ſawe another angel aſſendyng from the ryſing of the ſunne, hauyng the ſeale of the liuing God: and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure angels to whom power was geuen to hurt the earth and the ſea,

3 Sayeing, Hurt ye not the earth, neither the ſea, neither the trees, tyl we ſhal haue ſealed the ſeruantes of our God in their foreheades.

4 And I hearde the number of them whiche were ſealed: and there were ſealed an hundred and fourtie and foure thouſand of al the tribes of the chyldren of Iſrael:

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were ſealed twelue thouſande. Of the tribe of Ruben were ſealed twelue thouſande. Of the tribe of Gad were ſealed twelue thouſande.

6 Of the tribe of Aſer were ſealed twelue thouſande. Of the tribe of Nephthali were ſealed twelue thouſande. Of the tribe of Manaſſes were ſealed twelue thouſande.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were ſealed twelue thouſande. Of the tribe of Leui were ſealed twelue thouſande. Of the tribe of Iſachar were ſealed twelue thouſande.

B 8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were ſealed twelue thouſande. Of the tribe of Ioſeph were ſealed twelue thouſande. Of the tribe of Beniamin were ſealed twelue thouſande.

9 After this I behelde, and loe a great multitude whiche no man coulde number, of al nations, and kinredes, and people, & tongues, ſtoode before the throne, & before the lamme, clothed with white garmentes, and palmes in their handes:

10 And cryed with a loud voyce, ſayeing, Saluation [be aſcribed] to hym that ſitteth vpon the throne of our God, and vnto the lamme.

11 And al the angels ſtoode in the compaſſe of the throne, and of the elders, and of the foure beaſtes, and fel before the throne on theyr faces, and worſhipped God,

12 Sayeing, Amen: Bleſſing, and glory, and wyſedome, and thankes, and honour, and power, and might, be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the elders anſweared, ſayeing vnto me, What are theſe whiche are arayed in whyte garmentes? and whence came they?

14 And I ſayd vnto him, Lorde thou woteſt. C And he ſayde to me, Theſe are they whiche came out of great tribulation, and haue waſhed their long robes, & made (a) them white by the blood of the lamme.

(a) That is, theyr long robes.

15 Therefore are they in the preſence of the throne of God, and ſerue him day and night in his temple: & he that ſitteth in the throne wyl dwel among them.

16 They ſhal hunger no more, neither thirſte, neyther ſhal the ſunne light on them, neither any heate.

17 For the lamme whiche is in the middes of the throne ſhal feede them, and ſhal leade them vnto liuing fountaines of waters: and God ſhal wype away al teares from theyr eyes.

The.viii.Chapter.

1 The ſeuen ſeale is opened, there is ſilence in heauen. 6 The foure angels blowe their trumpettes, and great plagues folowe vpon the earth.

A 1 AND when he had opened the ſeuenth ſeale, there was ſilence in heauen about the ſpace of halfe an houre.

2 And I ſawe the ſeuen angels whiche ſtoode before God, and to them were geuen ſeuen trumpettes.

3 And another angel came and ſtoode before the aulter, hauyng a golden ſenſer, and many odours were geuen vnto him, that he ſhould offer with the prayers of al ſaintes vpon the golden aulter whiche was before the throne.

4 And the ſmoke of the odours which came of the prayers of ſaintes, aſcended vp before God, out of the angels hande.

5 And the angel tooke the ſenſer, and filled it with fyre of the aulter, and caſte it into the earth: and voyces were made, and thunderinges, and lyghtninges, and earthquake.

6 And the ſeuen angels which had the ſeuen trumpets, prepared them ſelues to blowe.

B 7 The firſt angel blewe, and there was made hayle and fyre mingled with blood, and they were caſt into the earth, and the thyrde part of trees was burnt, and al greene graſſe was burnt.

8 And the ſecond angel blew, and as it were a great mountayne burning with fyre was caſt into the ſea, and the thirde part of the ſea turned to blood.

9 And the thirde part of the creatures whiche were in the ſea and had lyfe, dyed, and the thirde part of the ſhippes was deſtroyed.

10 And the thirde angel blewe, and there fel a great ſtarre from heauen, burning as it were a lampe, and it fel into the thirde part of the riuers, and into fountaynes of waters:

11 And the name of the ſtarre is called Wormewoode, and the thirde part was turned to Wormewoode, and many menne dyed of the waters, becauſe they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel blewe, and the third part of the Sunne was ſmitten, & the thirde part of the Moone, and the thirde part of ſtarres, that the thirde part of them ſhoulde be darkened: and the day was [ſmitten] that the third part of it ſhould not ſhine, and lykewyſe the nyght.

13 And I behelde, and heard an angel fleeyng through the middes of heauen, ſayeing with a loud voyce, Wo, wo, wo to the inhabiters of the earth, becauſe of the voyces to come of the trumpe of the three angels whiche were yet to blowe.

The.ix.Chapter.

1 The fifth and ſixth angels blowe their trumpettes, the ſtarre falleth from heauen. 3 The locuſtes comme out of the ſmoke. 12 The firſt wo is paſt. 14 The foure angels that were bounde are looſed. 18 And the thirde part of menne is kylled.

A 1 AND the fifth angel blewe, and I ſawe a ſtarre fal from heauen vnto the earth: and to him was geuen the keye of the bottomleſſe pit.

2 And he opened the bottomleſſe pit, and the ſmoke of the pit aroſe, as the ſmoke of a great fornace, and the Sunne and the ayre were darkened, by the reaſon of the ſmoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the ſmoke locuſtes vpon the earth, and vnto them was geuen power, as the Scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commaunded them that they ſhould not hurt the graſſe of the earth, neither any greene thyng, neither any tree: but only thoſe menne whiche haue not the ſeale of God in their foreheades.

5 And to them it was geuen that they ſhould not kyl them, but that they ſhoulde be vexed fiue monethes, and their payne was as the payne that commeth of a Scorpion when he ſhal haue ſtricken a man.

Eſaias.2.d

Luk.23.d

6 *And in thoſe dayes ſhal men ſeeke death, and ſhal not finde it, and ſhal deſyre to dye, and death ſhal flee from them.

B 7 And the ſimilitude of the locuſtes was like vnto horſes prepared vnto battayle, and on their heades [were] as it were crownes lyke vnto golde, and their faces were as it hadde benne the faces of menne.

8 And they had heare as the heare of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of Lions.

9 And they had habergions as it were habergions of iron, & the ſounde of their wynges was as the ſounde of charettes when many horſes runne to battayle.

10 And they had tayles lyke vnto Scorpions, & there were ſtinges in their tayles: and their power was to hurt menne fiue monethes.

11 And they had a kyng ouer them, which is the angel of the bottomleſſe pit, whoſe name in the Hebrue tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greeke tongue hath his name Apollyon [that is to ſay, a deſtroyer.]

12 One wo is paſte, and beholde two woes comme yet after this.

13 And the ſixth angel blewe, and I hearde a voyce from the foure hornes of the golden aulter, whiche is before God,

14 Sayeing to the ſixth angel whiche had the trumpe, Looſe the foure angels whiche are bounde in the great riuer Euphrates. C

15 And the foure angels were looſed, whiche were prepared for an houre, and a day, and a moneth, and a yeere, for to ſlea the thirde part of menne.

16 And yͤ number of yͤ horſemen of the armies were twentie thouſande tymes ten thouſand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I ſawe the horſes in the viſion, and them that ſate on them hauyng fierie habergions of a iacint colour, and brymſtone, and the heades of the horſes were as the heades of Lions, and out of their mouthes commeth foorth fyre, and ſmoke, and brymſtone.

18 And of theſe three was the thirde part of menne kylled [that is to ſay] of the fire, and of the ſmoke, and of the brymſtone, which proceeded out of the mouthes of them.

19 For their powers be in their mouthes, and in their tayles: for their tayles were like vnto ſerpentes, hauyng heades, and with them they doo hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men whiche were not kylled by theſe plagues, repented not of the deedes of theyr handes, that they ſhould not worſhippe diuels, and idols of golde, and ſyluer, and braſſe, and ſtone, and of wood, whiche neyther can ſee, neyther heare, neyther goe:

21 Alſo they repented not of their murthers, & D of their ſorceries, neither of their fornication, neither of their theftes.

The.x.Chapter.

1 The angel hath the booke open, 6 He ſweareth there ſhalbe no more tyme, he geueth the booke vnto John, whiche eateth it vp.

A 1 AND I ſawe another myghtie angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloude, & the raynebow vpon his head, and his face as it were the Sunne, & his feete as it were pillers of fyre.

2 And he had in his hande a litle booke open, and he put his right foote vpon the ſea, and his left foote on the earth:

3 And cryed with a loude voyce, as when a Lion roareth: And when he had cryed, ſeuen thunders vttered their voyces.

4 And when the ſeuen thunders had vttered theyr voyces, I was about to wryte: and I heard a voyce from heauen, ſaying vnto me, Seale vp thoſe thynges whiche the ſeuen thunders vttered, and wryte them not.

5 And the angel whiche I ſawe ſtande vpon the ſea and vpon the earth, lyft vp his hand to heauen.

6 And ſware by him that liueth for euermore, whiche created heauen and the thynges that therin are, and the earth, and the thynges that therein are, and the ſea, and the thynges whiche therein are, that there ſhoulde be no longer tyme.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the ſe- B and take the litle booke [whiche is] open in the hand of the angel whiche ſtandeth vpon the ſea and vpon the earth.

9 And I went vnto the angel, and ſayde vnto hym, Geue me the litle booke. And he ſayd vnto me, Take it, and eate it vp, and it ſhal make thy belly bitter, but it ſhalbe in thy mouth as ſweete as hony.

11 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou muſte prophecie agayne among the people, and nations, and tongues, and to many kynges.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 The temple is meaſured. 3 Two witneſſes rayſed vp by the Lorde, are murthered by the beaſt, 11 but after receyued to glorie. 15 Chriſte is exalted, 16 and GOD is prayſed by the xxiiii. elders.

A 1 AND then was geuen me a reede lyke vnto a rodde, and the angel ſtoode by, ſayeing, Ryſe and meat the temple of GOD, and the aulter, and them that worſhippe therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple caſt out, and meat it not: for it is geuen vnto the Gentiles, & the holy citie ſhal they treade vnder foote fourtie and two monethes.

3 And I wyl geue [power] vnto my two witneſſes, neſſes, and they ſhal prophecie a thouſande, two hundred, and threeſcore dayes, clothed in ſackcloth.

4 Theſe are two Oliue trees, and two candleſtickes, ſtanding before the GOD of the earth.

5 And yf any man wyl hurt them, fyre proceedeth out of their mouthes, and conſumeth their enimies: and yf any man wyl hurt them, this wyſe muſt he be kylled.

6 Theſe haue power to ſhut heauen, that it rayne not in the dayes of their prophecying: and haue power ouer waters, to turne them to blood, and to ſmite the earth with al maner plagues, as often as they wyl.

B 7 And when they haue finiſhed their teſtimonie, the beaſt that commeth out of the bottomleſſe pit, ſhal make warre agaynſt them, and ſhal ouercome them, & kyl them.

8 And their bodyes ſhal lye in the ſtreates of the great citie, whiche ſpiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where alſo our Lorde was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kinredes, and tongues, and they of the nations, ſhal ſee their bodyes three dayes and an halfe, & ſhal not ſuffer their bodyes to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwel vpon the earth ſhal reioyce ouer them, and be glad, and ſhal ſende gyftes one to another: for theſe two prophetes vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three dayes and an halfe, the ſpirit of life [comming] from god, entred into them: And they ſtoode vp vppon theyr feete, and great feare fel vppon them whiche ſawe them.

12 And they heard a great voyce from heauen, ſayeing vnto them, Comme vp hyther. And they aſſended vp to heauen in a cloude, and their enimies ſawe them.

13 And the ſame houre was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie fel, and in the earthquake were ſlayne names of menne ſeuen thouſande: and the remnant were afrayde, and gaue glory to the God of heauen.

14 The ſeconde wo is paſt, and beholde the thirde wo commeth anone. C

15 And the ſeuenth angel blewe, and there were made great voyces in heauen, ſayeing, The kyngdomes of this worlde are our Lordes, and his Chriſtes, and he ſhal raigne for euermore.

16 And the .xxiiii. elders which ſit before God on their ſeates, fel vpon their faces, and worſhipped God,

17 Sayeing, We geue thee thankes, O Lord God almightie, whiche art, and waſt, and art to comme: for thou haſte receyued thy great might, and haſt raigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the tyme of the dead that they ſhould be iudged, & that thou ſhouldeſt geue rewarde vnto thy ſeruantes the prophetes and ſaintes, and to them that feare thy name, ſmal and great, and ſhouldeſt deſtroy them whiche deſtroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heauen, and there were ſeene in his temple the arke of his teſtament: and there folowed lightninges, and voyces, and thunderinges, and earthquake, and muche hayle.

The.xii.Chapter.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the Sunne. 7 Michael fyghteth with the Dragon whiche perſecuteth the woman, 11 The victorie is gotten, to the comfort of the faythful.

A 1 AND there appeared a great " wonder in heauē, A woman clothed with the Sunne, and the Moone vnder her feete, and vpon her heade a crowne of twelue ſtarres:

" Or, ſigne

2 And ſhe beyng with childe, cryeth trauaylyng in byrth, and payned redy to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen, for beholde a great red Dragon, hauing ſeuen heads, and ten hornes, & ſeuen crownes vppon his heades.

4 And his tayle drawweth the thirde part of the ſtarres of heauen, and he caſt them to the earth: And the Dragon ſtoode before the woman whiche was redy to be delyuered, for to deuoure her chylde aſſoone as it were borne.

5 And ſhe brought foorth a man childe, whiche ſhal rule al nations with a rod of iron: and her ſonne was taken vp vnto God, and [to] his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wylderneſſe, where ſhe hath a place prepared of GOD, that they ſhoulde feede her there a thouſand, two hundred, and threeſcore dayes.

B 7 And there was a battaile in heauen, Michael and his angels fought with the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his angels,

8 And preuayled not, neither was their place founde any more in heauen.

9 And the great Dragon, that old ſerpent, called the diuel and Satanas, was caſte out, whiche deceyueth al the worlde: and he was caſt out into the earth, and his angels were caſt out with hym.

10 And I heard a loude voyce ſayeing in heauen: Now is come ſaluation, and ſtrength, and the kyngdome of our God, and the power of his Chriſte: For the accuſer of our brethren is caſt downe, whiche accuſed them before our God day and nyght,

11 And they ouercame hym by the blood of the lamme, and by the worde of his teſtimonie, and they loued not their lyues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce heauens, and ye that dwel in them. Wo to the inhabiters of the earth and of the ſea: for the diuel is comme downe vnto you, whiche hath great wrath, becauſe he knoweth that he hath but a ſhort tyme.

13 And when the Dragon ſawe that he was caſt vnto the earth, he perſecuted yͤ woman whiche brought foorth the man childe.

14 And to the woman were geuen two winges of a great Eagle, that ſhe might flee into the wylderneſſe into her place, where ſhe is nouriſhed for a tyme, and tymes, and halfe a tyme, from the face of the ſerpent. C

15 And the ſerpent caſt out of his mouth water after the woman, as it had benne a flud: that he might cauſe her to be caried away of the fludde:

16 And the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and ſwalowed vp the ryuer whiche the Dragon caſt out of his mouth.

17 And the Dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the remnant of her ſeede, whiche keepe the commaundementes of God, and haue the teſtimonie of Ieſus Chriſte.

18 And [a] I ſtoode on the ſea ſande.

[a] Some read, and he ſtoode.

The.xiii.Chapter.

1. 8. The beaſt deceyueth the reprobate, 2.4.12. and is confyrmed by another.
17. The priuiledge of the beaſtes marke.

A 1 AND I ſawe a beaſt riſe out of the ſea, hauyng ſeuen heades, & ten hornes, and vpon his hornes ten crownes, and vppon his heades the name of blaſphemie.

2 And the beaſt whiche I ſawe was lyke a Leoparde, and his feete were as [the feete] of a Beare, and his mouth as the mouth of a Lion: and the Dragon gaue hym his power, and his ſeate, and great aucthoritie.

3 And I ſawe one of his heades as it were wounded to death, and his deadly wounde was healed: And al the worlde wondred after the beaſt.

4 And they woorſhipped the Dragon whiche gaue power vnto the beaſt, and they woorſhipped the beaſt, ſayeing: Who is lyke vnto the beaſt? Who is able to warre with hym?

5 And there was geuen vnto hym a mouth, ſpeakyng great thynges and blaſphemies, and power was geuen vnto hym, to doo fourtie and two monethes.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blaſphemie agaynſt God, to blaſpheme his name, & his tabernacle, and them that dwel in heauen.

7 And it was geuen vnto hym to make warre with the ſaintes, and to ouercomme them: And power was geuen hym ouer al kinredes and tongues, and nations, B

8 And al that dwel vpon the earth ſhal worſhippe hym, whoſe names are not written in the booke of lyfe of the lamme, whiche was killed from yͤ beginning of the worlde.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 He that leadeth into captiuitie, ſhal goe into captiuitie: *He that killeth with a ſworde, muſt be kylled with a ſworde. Here is the patience and the fayth of the ſaintes. Gen.9.b Math.26.c

11 And I beheld another beaſt comming vp out of the earth, & he had two hornes lyke a lamme, and he ſpake as did the Dragon.

12 And he doth al that the firſte beaſt coulde doo in his preſence, and he cauſeth the earth and them whiche dwel therein to woorſhip the firſte beaſt, whoſe deadly wounde was healed.

13 And he doeth great woonders, ſo that he maketh fyre come downe from heauen on the earth in the ſight of menne.

14 And deceyueth them that dwel on yͤ earth, by the meanes of thoſe ſignes which he had power to doo in the ſyght of the beaſt, ſayeing to them that dwel on the earth, that C they ſhoulde make an image to the beaſt whiche hath the wounde of a ſwoorde, and dyd liue.

15 And he had power to geue a ſpirite vnto the image of the beaſt, that the image of the beaſt ſhould both ſpeake, and ſhoulde cauſe that as many as would not woorſhippe the image of the beaſt, ſhould be kylled.

16 And he cauſeth al, both ſmal and great, riche and poore, free and bond, that he ſhould geue them a marke in their right hand, or in their foreheades.

17 And that no man myght bye or ſel, ſaue he that hadde the marke, or the name of the beaſt, other the number of his name.

18 Here is wyſdome. Let hym that hath wit, count the number of the beaſt: For it is the number of a man, and his number is ſixe hundred threeſcore and ſixe.

The, xiiii. Chapter.

1 The notable companie of the lamme. 6 One announceth the Goſpel. 8 Another, the fal of Babylon. 9 And the thirde warneth to flee from the beaſt. 13 Of their bleſſedneſſe whiche dye in the Lorde. 18 Of the Lordes harueſt.

A 1 AND I looked, and loe a lamme ſtood on ye mount Sion, and with hym an hundred fourty and foure thouſande, hauing his fathers name written in their foreheades.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen as the ſounde of many waters: and as the voyce of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes:

3 And they ſyng as it were a newe ſong before the throne, and before the foure beaſtes, and the elders, and no man could learne that ſong, but the hundred and fourtie and foure thouſande, whiche were redeemed from the earth.

4 Theſe are they whiche were not defiled with women, for they are virgins: Theſe are they whiche folowe the lamme whyther ſo euer he goeth: Theſe were redeemed from menne, beyng the firſte fruites vnto GOD, and to the lamme.

5 And in their mouth was founde no guyle: for they are without ſpot before the throne of God.

6 And I ſawe another angel flee in the midſt of heauen, hauing the euerlaſting Goſpel, to preache vnto them that dwel on the earth, and to al nations, and kynredes, & tongues, and people,

Act.14.d B 7 Sayeing with a loude voyce, *Feare God, and geue glorie to him, for the houre of his iudgement is comme: and woorſhip hym that made heauen and earth, and the ſea, and fountaynes of waters.

8 And there folowed another angel, ſayeing, *Babylon is fallen is fallen that great citie, for ſhe made al nations drynke of the wyne of the wrath of her fornication. Eſai.21.c Iere.51.a

9 And the third angel folowed them, ſayeing with a loud voyce, If any man worſhip the beaſt and his image, and receyue his marke in his forehead, or on his hande,

10 The ſame ſhal drynke of the wyne of the wrath of God: [yea] of the pure wyne whiche is poured in the cup of his wrath, and he ſhalbe pouniſhed in fire and brymſtone before the holy angels, and before the lamme.

11 And the ſmoke of their torment aſſendeth vp euermore: And they haue no reſt day nor night which worſhip the beaſt & his image, and whoſoeuer receyueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the ſaintes: Here are they that keepe the commaundementes of God, and the fayth of Ieſus.

13 And I heard a voyce from heauen, ſayeing vnto me, Wryte, Bleſſed are the dead, which hereafter dye in the Lorde. Euen ſo ſayth the ſpirite, that they may reſt from their labour, and their woorkes folowe them.

14 And I looked, and beholde a white cloude, and vpon the cloude one ſitting like vnto the ſonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hande a ſharpe ſickle. C

15 And another angel came out of the temple cryeing with a loude voyce to hym that ſate on the cloude: Thruſte in thy ſickle and reape, for the tyme is comme to reape, for the harueſt of the earth is ^^ rype. Ioel.3.c

* Or, dryed.

16 And he that ſate on the cloude thruſt in his ſickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple whiche is in heauen, hauyng alſo a ſharpe ſickle.

18 And another angel came out from the aulter, whiche hadde power ouer fyre, and cryed with a loude crye to hym that hadde the ſharpe ſickle, ſayeing: Thruſte in thy ſharpe ſickle, and geather the cluſters of the vineyarde of the earth, for her grapes are rype.

19 And the angel thruſte in his ſharpe ſickle on the earth, and cut downe the vineyarde of the earth, and caſt it into the great wynefat of the wrath of God.

20 And the wynefat was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the fat euen vnto the horſe brydels, by the ſpace of a thouſand and ſixe hundred furlonges.

The.xv.Chapter.

1 Seuen angels haue the ſeuen laſt plagues. 3 The ſong of them that ouercomme the beaſt. 7 The ſeuen vials ful of Gods wrath.

A 1 AND I ſawe another ſigne in heauē great and marueylous, ſeuen angels hauyng yͤ ſeuen laſt plagues, for in them is fulfilled yͤ wrath of God.

2 And I ſawe as it were a glaſſie ſea, mingled with fyre, and them that had gotten the victorie of the beaſt, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, ſtande on the glaſſie ſea, hauyng the harpes of God.

3 And they ſyng the ſong of Moſes the ſeruant of God, and the ſong of the lamme, ſayeing, Great and marueilous are thy workes, *Lorde God almightie: iuſte and true are thy wayes, thou kyng of ſaintes.

6 And the ſeuen angels came out of the temple, hauing the ſeuen plagues, clothed in pure and bryght linnen, and hauyng their breſtes gyrded with golden gyrdels.

7 And one of the foure beaſtes gaue vnto the ſeuen angels ſeuen golden vials, ful of the wrath of God whiche lyueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was ful of the ſmoke of the glorie of GOD, and of his power: and no man was able to enter into the temple, tyl the ſeuen plagues of the ſeuen angels were fulfilled.

The.xvi.Chapter.

1 The angels poure out their vials ful of wrath, 6 and what plagues folowe thereof. 15 Admonition to take heede and watche.

A 1 AND I hearde a great voyce out of the temple, ſayeing to the ſeuen angels: Goe your wayes, powre out the vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the firſt [angel] went, and powred out his vial vppon the earth, ⁊ there fel a noyſome and a ſore botch vpon the menne whiche had the marke of the beaſt, and vpon them whiche worſhipped his image.

3 And the ſeconde angel ſhed out his vial vppon the ſea, and it turned as it were into the blood of a dead man: and euery liuing thyng dyed in the ſea.

4 And the thirde angel ſhed out his vial vppon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they turned to blood.

5 And I hearde the angel of the waters ſay, Lorde, whiche art, and waſt, thou art righteous and that holy one, becauſe thou haſte geuen ſuche iudgementes:

6 For they haue ſhed out the blood of ſaintes and prophetes, and therefore haſte thou geuen them blood to drynke: for they are woorthie.

7 And I heard another out of the aulter ſay, Euen ſo Lorde GOD almightie, true and righteous are thy iudgementes. B

8 And the fourth angel powred out his vial on the Sunne, and power was geuen vnto hym to vexe men with feruent heate of fyre.

9 And menne boyled in great heat, and blaſphemed the name of God, whiche hath power ouer theſe plagues, and they repented not, to geue hym glory.

10 And the fifth angel powred out his vial vpon the ſeat of the beaſt, and his kingdome waxed darke, and they gnewe their tongues for ſorowe,

11 And blaſphemed the God of heauen, for their ſorrowes, and for their ſores, and repentednot of their deedes.

12 And the ſixth angel powred out his vial vpon the great riuer Euphrates, and the water therof dried vp, that the way of the kings of the Eaſt ſhoulde be prepared.

13 And I ſawe three vncleane ſpirites lyke frogges, comme out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beaſt, and out of the mouth of the falſe prophete.

C 14 For they are the ſpirites of deuyls workyng miracles, to goe out vnto the kynges of the earth, and of the whole worlde, to geather them to the batayle of that great day of God almightie.

Mat.24.d. 2.Pet.3.c. 1.Theſ.5.a 15 *Beholde, I comme as a theefe. Happy is he that watcheth & keepeth his garmentes, leſt he walke naked, and menne ſee his fylthyneſſe.

16 And he geathered them togeather into a place, called in the Hebrewe tongue Armagedon.

17 And the ſeuenth angel powred out his vial into the ayre: and there came a great voyce out of the temple of heauen, from the throne, ſayeing, It is donne.

18 And there folowed voyces, thundrynges, and lightnings: and there was a great earthquake, ſuche as was not ſence menne were vpon the earth, ſo myghtie an earthquake and ſo great.

19 And the great citie was diuided into three partes, and the citie of the nations felle: And great Babylon came in remembrance before god, to geue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fierceneſſe of his wrath.

20 Euery Iſle alſo fled away, and the mountaynes were not founde.

21 And there fel a great hayle, as it had benne D talentes, out of heauen vpon the menne, and the menne blaſphemed God, becauſe of the plague of the hayle: for the plague thereof was exceedyng great.

The.xvij.Chapter.

3 The diſcription of the great whore, 8 her ſinnes and pouniſhment.
14 The victorie of the Lambe.

A 1 AND there came one of the ſeuen angels, which had the ſeuen vials, & talked with me, ſaying vnto me, Come, I wyl ſhewe vnto thee the iudgement of the great whoore that ſytteth vpon many waters:

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kynges of the earth, and the inhabiters of the earth are drunken with the wyne of her fornication.

3 So he caryed me away in the ſpirite into the wyldernesſe: And I ſawe a woman ſitte vpon a ſcarlet coloured beaſt, ful of names of blaſphemie, hauyng ſeuen heades, and tenne hornes.

4 And the woman was arayed in purple and ſcarlet colour, and decked with gold, precious ſtone, and pearles, hauyng a cup of golde in her hande, ful of abominations and fylthyneſſe of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, a myſterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredome and abominations of the earth.

6 And I ſaw the woman drunken with the blood of the ſaintes, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jeſus: And when I ſaw her, I woondred with great marueyle.

B 7 And the angel ſayde vnto me, Wherefore marueyleſt thou? I wyl ſhewe thee the myſterie of the woman, and of the beaſt that beareth her, whiche hath ſeuen heades, and tenne hornes.

8 And the beaſt that thou ſaweſt, was, and is not, and ſhal aſſende out of the bottomleſſe pit, and goeth into perdition, and they that dwelle on the earth ſhal woonder (whoſe names are not written in the booke of lyfe from the begynnyng of the worlde) when they beholde the beaſt that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is a meaning that hath wiſdome. The ſeuen heades, are ſeuen mountaynes on whiche the woman ſytteth: They are alſo ſeuen kynges.

10 Fyue are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet comme: And when he commeth, he muſt continue a ſhort ſpace.

11 And the beaſt that was, and is not, is euen the eyght, and is one of the ſeuen, and goeth into deſtruction.

12 And the tenne hornes which thou ſaweſt, are tenne kynges, whiche haue receiued no kyngdome as yet: but receiue power as kinges at one houre with the beaſt.

13 These haue one minde, and ſhal geue their power and ſtrength vnto the beaſt.

C 14 These ſhal fight with the lambe, and the lambe ſhal ouercome them: *For he is the Lorde of Lordes, and King of Kinges, and they that are on his ſyde, are called, & choſen, 1.Tim.6.f.

and faythfull.

15 And he ſaith vnto me, The waters whiche thou ſaweſt, where the whoore ſytteth, are people, and folke, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the tenne hornes whiche thou ſaweſt vpon the beaſt, are they that ſhal hate the whoore, and ſhal make her deſolate and naked, and ſhal eate her fleaſhe, and burne her with fyre.

17 For God hath put in their hartes to fulfyl his wyl, and to doo with one conſent, for to geue their kyngdome vnto the beaſt, vntyl the woordes of God ſhalbe fulfylled.

18 And the woman whiche thou ſaweſt, is that great citie whiche raigneth ouer the kynges of the earth.

The.xviij. Chapter.

3.9. The louers of the worlde are ſorie for the falle of the whoore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion. 20 But they that be of God haue cauſe to reioyce for her deſtruction.

A 1 AND after that, I ſawe another angel comme from heauē, hauyng great power, and the earth was lightened with his glorie.

2 And he cried mightylye with a ſtrong voyce, ſayeing, * Great Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of deuyls, and the holde of al foule ſpirites, and a cage of al vncleane and hatefull birdes: Eſai, 21,f. Iere,1.a

3 For al nations haue dronken of the wyne of the wrath of her fornication, ⁊ the kinges of the earth haue committed fornicatiō with her, and the marchantes of the earth are waxed ryche of the abundance of her pleaſures.

4 And I hearde another voyce from heauen ſay, Comme away from her my people, that ye be not partakers of her ſinnes, and that ye receaue not of her plagues.

5 For her ſinnes are gonne vp to heauen, and God hath remembred her wickedneſſe.

6 Reward her euen as ſhe rewarded you, and geue her double according to her woorkes, and powre in double to her in the ſame cup whiche ſhe fylled vnto you.

B 7 And as muche as ſhe glorified her ſelfe and lyued wantonly, ſo muche powre ye in for her of pouniſhment and ſorowe: for ſhe ſayd in her hart, * I ſitte beyng a queene, and am no wydowe, and ſhal ſee no ſorowe. Eſai. 46.d.

8 Therefore ſhal her plagues comme in one day, death, and ſorowe, and hunger, and ſhe ſhalbe vtterly brent with fyre: for ſtrong is the Lorde whiche iudgeth her.

9 And they ſhal bewayle her, and the kynges of the earth ſhal lament for her, whiche haue committed fornication with her, and haue lyued wantonly with her, when they ſhal ſee the ſmoke of her burning:

10 Standing a farre of for feare of her pouniſhment, ſayeing, *Alas, alas, that great citie Babylon, that myghtie citie, for at one houre is thy iudgement comme. Iere.51,a.

11 And the marchantes of the earth doo wepe and wayle ouer her, for no man byeth there ware any more.

12 The ware of golde and ſyluer, ⁊ pretious ſtones, and of pearle, and raynes, and purple, and ſylke, and ſkarlet, and al thinne wood, and al manner veſſels of yuorie, and al manner veſſels of moſt pretious wood, and of braſſe, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinamome, ⁊ odours, and oyntments, and frankenſence, and wyne, and oyle, and fyne floure, and wheate, and beaſtes, and ſheepe, and horſes, and charrets, and bodyes, and ſoules of menne,

14 And the apples that thy ſoule luſted after, are departed from thee, and al things which were dayntie and had in price, are departed from thee, and thou ſhalt find them no more at al. C

15 The marchantes of theſe thynges whiche were waxed riche, ſhal ſtande a farre of from her for feare of the pouniſhment of her, weepyng and waylyng,

16 And ſayeing, * Alas, alas, that great citie, that was clothed in raynes, and purple, and ſkarlet, and decked with golde and pretious ſtones, and pearles: Iere.51.b.

17 For at one houre ſo great riches is comme to nought. And euery ſhip gouernour, and al they that occupy ſhips, and ſhipmen, and as many as woorke in the ſea, ſtoode a farre of,

18 And cryed when they ſawe the ſmoke of her burnyng, ſayeing, What citie is lyke vnto this great citie?

19 And they caſt duſt on their heades, and cried, weepyng and waylyng, and ſayeing, * Alas, alas, that great citie, wherein were made ryche al that had ſhippes in the ſea, by reaſon of her coſtlyneſſe, for at one houre is ſhe made deſolate. Iere.51.b.

20. Reioyce ouer her thou heauen, and ye holy apoſtles and prophetes, for God hath geuen your iudgement on her.

21 And a myghty angel tooke vp a ſtone lyke a great milſtone, and caſt it into the ſea, ſayeing, with ſuche violence ſhal that great citie Babylon be caſt, and ſhalbe founde no more at al.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and muſitions, and of pipers and trumpetters, ſhalbe heard no more at al in thee: and no craftes man, of what ſo euer craft he be ſhalbe founde any more in thee: and the ſounde of a mil, ſhalbe hearde no more at al in thee:

23 And the light of a candel ſhal ſhine no more at al in thee, and the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride, ſhalbe hearde no more at al in thee: for thy marchantes were the great men of the earth, and with thyne inchauntment, were deceiued al nations.

24 And in her was founde the blood of the prophetes, and of the ſaintes, and of al that were ſlayne vpon the earth.

The.xix.Chapter.

1 Prayſes are geuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his ſeruantes. 10 The angel wyl not be woorſhipped. 17 The fowles and byrdes are called to the ſlaughter,

A 1 AND after theſe thynges, I hearde a great voyce of muche people in heauen, ſayeing, (a) Alleluia: ſaluation, and glory, ⁊ honour, and power, [be aſcribed] to the Lorde our God:

That is,
ſe ye god, uſe that de.

2 For true ⁊ ryghteous are his iudgementes, for he hath iudged the great whore whiche dyd corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath throughly auenged the blood of his ſeruantes of her hande.

3 And agayne they ſayde, Alleluia: and her ſmoke roſe vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twentie elders and the foure beaſtes fel downe, and woorſhipped God that ſate on the throne, ſayeing, Amen, Alleluia.

5 And a voyce came out of the throne, ſayeing, Prayſe our Lorde GOD al ye that are his ſeruantes, and ye that feare hym both ſmal and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voyce of much people, euen as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of ſtrong thundrings, ſayeing, Alleluia: for the Lorde our God omnipotent raigneth.

7 Let vs be glad, and reioyce, and geue honour to hym: for the maryage of the lamme is comme, and his wyfe hath made her ſelfe ready.

B 8 And to her was graunted that ſhe ſhoulde be arayed with pure and goodly raynes: for the raynes is the ryghteouſneſſe of ſaintes.

at.22.a.
uk.14.a.

9 And he ſayde vnto me, Wryte, Happy are they whiche are called vnto the ſupper of the lammes mariage. And he ſayde vnto me, Theſe are the true ſayeinges of God.

10 And I felle at his feete, to woorſhip hym: And he ſayde vnto me, See thou doo it not: for I am thy felowe ſeruant, and of thy brethren that haue the teſtimony of Jeſus. Worſhip God: for the teſtimonie of Jeſus, is the ſpirite of propheſie.

11 And I ſawe heauen open, ⁊ beholde a white horſe: and he that ſate vpon hym, was called faythful and true, and in ryghteouſneſſe [he] dooth iudge and make batayle.

12 His eyes [were] as a flame of fyre, and on his head were many crownes, and he had a name written that no man knewe but he him ſelfe.

Eſai.53.b.

13 And he was clothed with a veſture dipt in blood: and his name is called the woorde of God.

14 And the armies whiche were in heauen folowed him vpon white horſes, clothed with white and pure raynes.

C

15 And out of his mouth goeth a ſharpe ſworde, that with it he ſhoulde ſmite the heathen: And he ſhal rule them with a rodde of iron: and he treadeth the winefat of the fierceneſſe and wrath of almyghty God.

16 And he hath on his veſture, and on his thigh a name written, Kyng of kynges, and Lord of Lordes.

17 And I ſawe an angel ſtande in the ſunne, and he cryed with a loude voyce, ſayeing to al the foules that flee by the middes of heauen, Comme and geather your ſelues togeather vnto the ſupper of the great God:

18 That ye may eate the fleaſh of kynges, and the fleaſhe of hygh captaynes, and the fleaſhe of myghty menne, and the fleaſhe of horſes, and of them that ſit on them, and the fleaſhe of al free menne ⁊ bonde menne, and of ſmal and great.

19 And I ſawe the beaſt, and the kyngs of the earth, and their armies geathered togeather, to make batayle agaynſt hym that ſate on the horſe, and agaynſt his armie.

20 And the beaſt was taken, and with hym that falſe prophete that wrought myracles before hym, with whiche he deceyued them that receyued the beaſtes marke, and them that woorſhipped his image. Theſe both were caſt quicke into a pond of fire, burning with brymſtone:

21 And the remnant were ſlayne with the ſwoorde of hym that ſate vpon the horſe, whiche ſwoord proceeded out of his mouth: & al the fowles were filled with their fleaſhe.

The.xx.Chapter.

2 Satan beyng bounde for a certayne tyme, 7 and after let looſe, vexeth the Churche greeuouſly. 10. 14. And after the worlde is iudged, he and his are caſt into the lake of fyre.

A 1 AND I ſawe an angel comme downe from heauē, hauing the key of the bottomeleſſe pyt, and a great chayne in his hande.

2 And he tooke the dragon, that olde ſerpent whiche is the deuil and Satanas, and he bounde hym a thouſande yeeres:

3 And caſt hym into the bottomeleſſe pit, and he ſhut hym vp, and ſet a ſeale on hym, that he ſhoulde deceiue the nations no more, tylle the thouſande yeeres ſhoulde be fulfilled: and after that he muſt be looſed [for] a litle ſeaſon.

4 And I ſawe thrones, and they ſate vpon them, & iudgement was geuen vnto them: and I ſawe the ſoules of them that were beheaded for the witneſſe of Ieſus, and for the woorde of God, and whiche had not woorſhipped the beaſt, neither his image, neyther had taken his marke vpon their foreheades, or in their handes, and they liued and raigned with Chriſte, a thouſande yeeres.

5 But the other of the dead men dyd not liue agayne, vntyl the thouſande yeeres were finiſhed. This is the fyrſt reſurrection.

6 Bleſſed and holy is he that hath part in the firſt reſurrection: for on ſuch the ſecond death hath no power, but they ſhalbe the prieſtes of God and of Chriſte, and ſhal raigne with hym a thouſande yeeres.

Eſai.38. 7 * And when the thouſand yeeres are expired, Satan ſhalbe looſed out of his priſon:

8 And ſhal goe out to deceiue the nations whiche are in the foure quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to geather them to geather to batayle: whoſe number is as the ſand of the ſea. B

9 And they went vp in the plaine of the earth, & compaſſed the tentes of the ſaintes about, and the beloued citie: and fyre came downe from God out of heauen, & deuoured them:

10 And the deuil that deceiued them was caſt into a lake of fyre and brymſtone, where the beaſte and the falſe prophete ſhalbe tormented day and nyght for euermore.

11 And I ſawe a great whyte throne, and hym that ſate on it, from whoſe face fledde away both the earth and the heauen, & theyr place was no more founde.

12 And I ſawe the dead both ſmal and great ſtand before God: and the bookes were opened: and another booke was opened, which is [the booke] of lyfe: and the dead were iudged of thoſe thynges whiche were written in the bookes, accordyng to their deedes.

13 And the ſea gaue vp her dead whiche were in her: and death and hel deliuered vp the dead whiche were in them: and they were iudged euery man accordyng to his deedes.

14 And death and hel were caſt into the lake of fyre: this is the ſeconde death. C

15 And who ſo euer was not founde written in the booke of lyfe, was caſt into the lake of fyre.

The.xxi.Chapter.

3. 14. The bleſſed eſtate of the godly, 8. 27. and the miſerable condition of the wicked. 11 The deſcription of the heauenly Hieruſalem, and of the wyfe of the lamme.

A 1 Eſai.45.c. 2.Pet.3.a. AND I ſawe a newe heauen and a newe earth: for the fyrſt heauen and the fyrſt earth were vaniſhed away, & there is no more ſea.

2 ☞ And I Iohn ſawe the holy citie newe Hieruſalem, comme downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride garniſhed for her huſbande.

3 * And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, ſayeing, Beholde the tabernacle of God [is] with menne, and he wyl dwel with them, and they ſhalbe his people, and GOD hym ſelfe Eſai.25.d.

ſelfe ſhalbe with them, and be their God.

Eſai.43.d. Cor.5.d 4 *And God ſhal wype away al teares from theyr eyes: and there ſhalbe no more death, neither ſorowe, neither crying, neither ſhal there be any more payne: for the former thinges are gonne.

5 And he that ſate vpon the throne, ſayd, Beholde, I make al thynges newe. And he ſaid vnto me, Wryte: for theſe woordes are true and faithful.

6 And he ſayde vnto me, It is donne: I am Alpha and Omega, the beginnyng and the ende. I wyl geue to hym that is a thirſte of the wel of the water of lyfe freely.

7 He that ouercommeth, ſhal inherite al thinges, and I wylbe his God, and he ſhalbe my ſonne.

B 8 But the fearful and vnbeleeuing, and the abominable, and murtherers, and whoremongers, and ſorcerers, and idolaters, and al lyers, ſhal haue theyr part in the lake which burneth with fyre and brimſtone: whiche is the ſeconde death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the ſeuen angels, whiche had the ſeuen vialles fulle of the ſeuen laſt plagues, and talked with me, ſayeing, Comme hyther, I wyl ſhewe thee the bryde, the lammes wyfe.

10 And he caryed me away in the ſpirite to a great and hygh mountayne, and he ſhewed me the great citie holy Hieruſalem, deſſendyng out of heauen from God, 11 Hauyng the glory of God: and her ſhining [was] lyke vnto a ſtone moſt pretious, euen lyke a Jaſper, cleare as Cryſtal.

12 And had a wal great and hygh, and hadde twelue gates, & at the gates twelue angels, and names written, whiche are the names of the twelue tribes of Iſrael.

13 On the eaſt ſide three gates, & on the north ſide three gates, & towardes the ſouth three gates, and from the weaſt three gates.

C 14 And the wal of the citie had twelue fundations, and in them the twelue names of the lammes twelue apoſtles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede to meaſure the citie withal, & the gates thereof, and the wal thereof.

16 And the citie lyeth foure ſquare, & the length was as large as the breadth: and he meaſured the citie with the reede twelue thouſande furlonges, and the length, and the breadth, and the heyght of it are equal.

17 And he meaſured the wal thereof, an hundred and fourtie and foure cubites, by the meaſure of man, that is of the angel.

18 And the buyldyng of the wal of it was of Jaſper, and the citie was pure golde lyke vnto cleare glaſſe.

19 And the fundations of the wal of the citie were garniſhed with al manner of pretious ſtones. The fyrſt fundation was Jaſper, the ſeconde Sapphire, the thirde a Chalcedonie, the fourth an Emerald:

20 The fifth Sardonix, the ſixth Sardius, the ſeuenth Chryſolite, the eight Beryl, the ninth a Topas, the tenth a Chryſopraſus, the eleuenth, a Jacinct, the twelfth, an Amethiſt. D

21 The twelue gates were twelue pearles, euery gate was of one pearle, and the ſtreate of the citie was pure gold, as it were ſhining glaſſe. Eſai.40.d.

22 And I ſawe no temple therein: For the lord God almyghty and the lamme, are the temple of it.

23 *And the citie hath no neede of the ſunne, neyther of the moone to lyghten it: for the glory of God dyd lyghten it, and the lamme is the lyght of it. Eſai.60.d.

24 And the nations of them which are ſaued, ſhal walke in the lyght of it: and the kinges of the earth doo bryng theyr glory & honour vnto it.

25 And the gates of it ſhal not be ſhut at al by day: for there ſhalbe no nyght. Eſai.60.c.

26 And they ſhal bryng the glory and honour of the gentiles vnto it.

27 And there ſhal in no wyſe enter into it any vncleane thyng, neither what ſo euer woorketh abomination, or [maketh] lyes: but they onlye whiche are written in the lammes booke of lyfe.

The.xxii.Chapter.

1 The riuer of the water of lyfe. 2 The fruitefulneſſe and lyght of the citie of God. 6 The Lorde geueth euer his ſeruantes warnyng of thynges to comme. 9 The angel wyl not be woorſhipped. 18 To the woorde of God may nothyng be added, nor diminiſhed therefrom.

A 1 AND he ſhewed me a pure riuer of water of lyfe, cleare as Cryſtal, proceedyng out of the throne of GOD, and of the lamme.

2 In the middes of the ſtreete of it, and of eyther ſide of the riuer [was] there wood of life, whiche bare twelue manner of fruites, and gaue fruite euery moneth: and the leaues of the wood ſerued to heale the people withal.

3 And there ſhalbe no more curſe, but the throne of God and the lamme ſhalbe in it, and his ſeruantes ſhal ſerue hym.

4 And they ſhal ſee his face, and his name [ſhalbe] in their foreheades.

Eſai.40.d. 5 *And there ſhalbe no nyght there, and they neede no candel, neyther lyght of the ſunne: for the Lorde God geueth them lyght, and they ſhal raigne for euermore.

6 And he ſayde vnto me, Theſe ſayeinges are faythful and true. And the Lorde GOD of the holy prophetes ſent his angel to ſhewe vnto his ſeruantes the thynges which muſt ſhortly be fulfilled.

Apoc.1.a. 7 Beholde, I comme ſhortly: *Happy is he that keepeth the ſayeings of the propheſie of this booke.

B 8 I John ſawe theſe thynges, and hearde them. And when I had hearde and ſeene,* Apoc.11.b I fel downe to worſhip before the feete of the angel, whiche ſhewed me theſe thynges.

9 Then ſayth he vnto me, See thou doo it not: for I am thy felowe ſeruant, and [the felowe ſeruant] of thy brethren the prophetes, and of them whiche keepe the ſayeinges of this booke: but worſhip God.

10 And he ſayth vnto me, Seale not the ſayeinges of the propheſie of this booke: for the tyme is at hande.

11 He that dooth euyl, let hym doo euyl ſtille: and he whiche is filthy, let hym be filthy ſtil: and he that is ryghteous, let hym be ryghteous ſtyl: and he that is holy, let hym be holy ſtil.

12 And beholde, I comme ſhortly, and my rewarde is with me, to geue euery man accordyng as his deedes ſhalbe.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the begynnyng and the ende, the fyrſt and the laſt.

14 Bleſſed are they that doo his commaundementes, that their power may be in the tree of lyfe, and may enter in through the gates into the citie. C

15 *For without [ſhalbe] dogges, and inchanters, and whoremongers, and murtherers, and idolaters, and who ſo euer loueth or maketh leaſinges. Eſai.44.b Reue.1.b.

16 I Jeſus ſent myne angel to teſtifie vnto you theſe thynges in the Churches. I am the roote and the generation of Dauid, and the bryght mornyng ſtarre.

17 And the ſpirite and the bryde ſay, Comme. Eſai.55.a. And let hym that heareth, ſay alſo, Comme. Iohn.7.f. And let hym that is a thirſte comme. And who ſo euer wyl, let hym take of the water of lyfe freely.

18 I teſtifie vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the propheſie of this booke, If Deut.4.a. any man ſhal adde vnto theſe ſayeinges, Pro.30.a. God ſhal adde vnto hym the plagues that are written in this booke.

19 And yf any man ſhal take away from the wordes of the booke of this propheſie, God ſhal take away his part out of the booke of lyfe, and out of the holy citie, and from the thynges whiche are written in this booke.

20 He whiche teſtifieth theſe thynges ſayth ſurely, I comme quickely. Amen. Euen ſo, comme Lorde Jeſus.

21 The grace of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſte be with you al. Amen.
